LYNN COUNTY WET COUNTRY

Continued Rains Delaying Crops: Some Must Replant: Two Inches Fell Here

Heavy rains have again visited large portions of Lynn county during the past three days, and roads in places are impassable.

The seven-mile lake on highway 9 south of Tahoka is up over the highway at one point to such a depth as to render traffic impossible, it is said. Many of the lateral roads in the county are impassable in places.

The rainfall at Grassland, Draw, and other communities in the southern and eastern portions of the county Wednesday afternoon was very heavy. A. R. Hensley at Draw estimates that the rainfall there was not less than four inches. The lake just north of Draw is again over the highway. Crops were damaged considerably and much replanting will probably be necessary.

The rain seems to have been much lighter north and west of Tahoka. New Home reports only a quarter of an inch. It was light in other communities in the northwest quarter of the county.

At Tahoka the precipitation during the past three days amounts to almost exactly two inches. No heavy downpours have fallen here however. Light showers set in Tuesday morning and continued intermittently through the day. It rained nearly all night Tuesday night, and set in again early Wednesday afternoon and continued at intervals through the remainder of the day and into the night. Other light showers have fallen today.

Crops that are up and did not have to be replanted are growing rapidly, and the prospect is fine. Where crops are yet to be replanted, they will be very late but have a chance of making excellent yields. The prospects for the county as a whole are very fine.

Mrs. W. E. Patty Dies At Beaumont

Mrs. W. E. Patty, wife of the superintendent of the New Home school, died in a hospital in Beaumont Tuesday morning, according to a telegram received by County Superintendent H. P. Caviness.

The body was brought back to Lubbock, where the family lives, on Wednesday, and funeral services were conducted from the First Baptist Church in Lubbock this afternoon.

Mrs. Patty is survived by her husband, two daughters, a son, her mother, three sisters, and one brother.

Mr. Patty has been superintendent of the New Home school the past year. For many years he was superintendent of the Plainview schools, and has served in the same position at Ralls and Floydada. He has many friends at New Home in this county and at many places throughout the south plains, who deeply sympathize with him and his family in this great bereavement.

Member Of Byrd Expedition Will Tell Of Experiences In Antarctica

"Joe Boy" Hill, youngest member of Admiral Richard E. Byrd's expedition to the icy regions of the South Pole, and the only West Texan ever to visit the Antarctic, will bring his thrilling account of the trip "down under" to Tahoka people Thursday night, June 20 at 8:30 o'clock in the Methodist Church auditorium.

Young Hill, who is proving a popular speaker wherever he goes, is being brought here by the Tahoka Boy Scouts, of which J. D. Donaldson Jr. is scoutmaster. He is making a stop here and, at Lamesa, just prior to beginning a lecture tour of the colleges of Texas.

The speaker will bring with him pictures depicting life at Little America, which will be shown on an improvised screen. He will also display equipment used by the men in the land of constant winter. Another feature of the program will be the appearance of "Neeka", a Malamute sled dog, given Joe Hill by Admiral Byrd. "Neeka" went with the party which explored Marie Byrd Land.

Joe is the son of President and Mrs. J. A. Hill of the West Texas State Teachers College, Canyon, and is known by a number of ex-students of the college living in Lynn county.

He was personal aide to Byrd on the recent expedition, served as a tractor driver on the ice, and had a part in practically all the dangerous episodes of the trip.

Imagine men working under climatic conditions as extreme as 70 degrees below zero, a sunrise and a sunset that simultaneously lasted only 15 seconds—and then five months of midnight—and living fourteen of the twenty-two months the expedition was away in houses chiseled from ice.

Imagine being gone two months on a tractor expedition across the barren ice, lost, caught in a blizzard (Cont'd. on last page)

Nordyke Family Has Operations

County Commissioner Levi Nordyke and family of the Midway community have had their share of misfortunes recently.

Levi himself has been in a serious condition for several months on account of some kind of stomach trouble. He spent some time in a Lubbock sanitarium and then made a trip to Iowa seeking relief. He is probably some better but still is not well.

Recently his little daughter, Clara Faye, 7, suffered a slight stroke of paralysis.

On Tuesday of this week, Mrs. Nordyke, Clara Faye, and a little niece of Mr. and Mrs. Nordyke, Mary Jean Luttrell, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Luttrell, all had to have their tonsils removed, the operations being performed in the Lubbock Sanitarium. They were able to return home Wednesday morning, and they came back hoping that most of their health troubles are over.

Lynn County Lady Is Expert Mechanic

Lynn county boasts of a woman mechanic who enjoys working on automobiles as a pastime. She is Mrs. M. D. Hinkle, wife of a farmer living on route 2.

Recently Mrs. Hinkle completed the overhauling of her Ford car. "It is the fourth time I have overhauled it," she said. "If I ever get enough money, I think I will open up a woman's garage. I enjoy working on engines and automobiles, just for the pastime."

Mrs. Hinkle has completely overhauled a Whippet and also an Essex. She says she is of a mechanical turn of mind and can listen to a car motor running and tell just what is the matter with it.

Tahoka Wins Over Post, Score Is 10-3

By a score of 10 to 3, the Tahoka baseball team defeated Post on the diamond of the latter city Sunday afternoon.

No announcement has been made as to what team Tahoka will play next Sunday.

District Attorney G. H. Nelson went over to Plains Monday to attend district court, which convened there that morning. The grand jury was empaneled and completed work the same day, and Mr. Nelson returned to his home here Tuesday.

Billy Hill returned home Sunday after a visit of more than a month with relatives in Hamilton and Breckenridge.

CORN AND HOG SCHOOL HELD

Ten Counties Represented In Meeting Held At Tahoka Last Saturday

Ten counties were represented in the Corn-Hog meeting held at the courthouse here last Saturday. County agents, Corn-Hog secretaries, and some of the committee-men were present.

The purpose of the meeting was that agents, secretaries, and their helpers might receive instruction concerning the program this year and the powers and duties of these officials. The instructions were given by Lester Young of the Extension Department of the Texas A. & M. College.

Counties represented were: Shackelford, Scurry, Garza, Borden, Dawson, Lubbock, Lynn, Terry, Gaines, and Yoakum.

Measuring of the corn acreage in the various counties will begin about July 1. Mr. V. F. Jones, county agent of Lynn county, states.

$102,173 Rental Checks Received

A total of 2317 first payment 1935 cotton rental checks amounting to $102,173.03 have been received at the county agent's office, according to V. F. Jones, County Agent.

About 1,000 checks are yet to be received. Coming in the spring and early summer when farmers have little income from the products of the farm, these checks have been of much help to the farmers and have doubtless been one of the chief factors in making business fairly good with the merchants of Lynn county.

Charges Are Filed On Chiropractors

Dr. K. Stacy of Tahoka, chiropractor, Dr. O. C. Boone of Lubbock, chiropractor, and Raymond Short of Brownfield were charged Tuesday in the justice court at Lubbock with having attempted to produce an abortion on a 17-year-old Tahoka girl.

Dr. Stacy and Dr. Boone each made bond in the sum of $1000 and were released. Short was still in jail in Lubbock Wednesday. The charges will be investigated by a Lubbock county grand jury, the alleged offense being committed in Lubbock. Stacy is charged with having taken the girl to Lubbock Sunday for the operation.

The young girl is now under treatment of a physician here.

Mrs. J. D. Noble Is Accident Victim

Mrs. J. D. Noble of Dixie was the victim of a peculiar but very painful accident early Tuesday morning.

When she arose from her bed and started to walk across the room, her foot struck a needle which was sticking through the rug. It entered the ball of the foot and was broken off. Mr. Noble brought her to Tahoka to have the needle removed by a physician, but it was impossible to locate the needle except with an x-ray instrument. Mr. Noble then hurried with her to the Lubbock Sanitarium, where the broken-off portion of the needle was located and removed. About an inch of the needle was buried in her foot. The wound was very painful but she was able to return to her home, and it is hoped that no serious consequences will develop.

REESTABLISHED BOY SCOUT TROOP GROWING RAPIDLY

The Boy Scout troop No. 21, which was reestablished here recently with J. D. Donaldson as scoutmaster, is taking on vigorous growth and promises soon to be one of the best troops on the south plains.

They had their regular meeting in the basement of the Methodist Church last Friday night, meeting first in patrols, there being four patrols. Eleven members were present with registration cards and two were given second-class badges. Following the meeting, three boys passed the Tenderfoot test.

Officers Visit Two Highway Meetings

Local Polo Player To Go To New York

Mrs. Aubrey Floyd of Wichita Falls is here visiting Aubrey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Floyd, who reside a few miles south of town.

Aubrey is up in Dayton, Ohio, playing polo. Charley Ransom, who is said to be an oil millionaire, is taking a polo team to Long Island, N. Y., to play, and Aubrey is one of the team. Aubrey seems to have gone to the top in this fine sport.

Faubion Leaves Wilson Schools

Superintendent A. L. Faubion of the Wilson schools has accepted the superintendency of one of the new consolidated high school districts in Lubbock county and will soon leave Wilson.

Mr. Faubion has been superintendent of the Wilson school for nine years, having begun his work there in the fall of 1926. He was recently reelected for the tenth term. He has done remarkably satisfactory and efficient work and the school patrons and people of the Wilson district generally greatly regret his removal.

He will take charge of the new consolidated high school district lying north of Lubbock. The high school building will be constructed on a tract of land lying about three miles south of Monroe. Besides the high school there will be five elementary schools in the district, and the faculty of the district will consist of eighteen teachers, we understand.

Mr. Faubion was elected to this position without having made application and without having conferred with the members of the school board, we are told. He was also elected to the superintendency of the new consolidated district lying east of Lubbock, it is said, but could accept only one of the positions. He gets a substantial raise in salary over the salary he received at Wilson.

Show Methods Of Tanning Hides

Mr. M. K. Thornton Jr., Extension Service Leather Specialist from College Station will hold a hide tanning and Leather Working Demonstration at the farm of T. I. Tippit, three and one-half miles east of Tahoka on June 19th and 20th, according to V. F. Jones, County Agent.

Mr. Thornton will be here two full days to give instructions, and actually go through the various steps in tanning the hides, and the proper utilization of the leather. Any one who is interested in leather work is invited and urged to attend this demonstration. The demonstration work will start about 9:30 A. M. on Wednesday, June 19th.

Williams Appointed City Pound Keeper

Better not let your cows or other live stock run at large within the city limits of Tahoka, according to a warning given by Mayor Jim Dye. The city council on Monday night re-established the office of pound-keeper and appointed Dr. G. W. Williams to the position. Keep your cows in the pen or well-staked, unless you want them to get into the city pound.

ATTEND POULTRY SCHOOL

Verner Smith and D. A. Parkhurst attended a one day school of instruction on poultry disease control in Lubbock last Friday. It was sponsored by the Dr. Salisbury Laboratories, Charles City, Iowa.

Mr. Smith is proprietor of the Tahoka Hatchery here and Mr. Parkhurst has long been a successful chicken raiser. They report that they obtained much useful information from the lectures and demonstrations given.

Life insurance was known in England as early as 1696.

ASKING FUNDS FOR HIGHWAYS

State Meeting Is Held In Mineral Wells; Cooperation Promised By New Mexico

Judge W. E. Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Smith and little daughter, attended a statewide highway meeting at Mineral Wells last Saturday. Judge Smith reports that two of the state highway commissioners, Harry Hines and John Wood, were present and addressed the body. Representatives from eighty-eight counties were present and telegrams and letters were sent from practically all the other counties.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss with county judges, county commissioners, and others interested in highway construction, the situation with respect to the completion of a connected system of highways in Texas. Both the highway commissioners stated that they had very little information as to how much federal funds would be forthcoming for the building of highways in Texas. It was their desire that steps be taken to lay before the authorities in Washington facts and figures respecting the status of highway building in this state and to ask that the major part of the PWA funds allocated to this state be used in the construction of highways. The body seemed unanimous in the view that this should be done. The members of the highway commission and representatives of the county judges and commissioners association of Texas plan to make a trip to Washington in the near future to interview the proper authorities respecting the manner in which the PWA allotment to Texas shall be spent. Judge E. L. Pitts of Lubbock, we understand, will be a member of the party.

Judge Smith felt that the business men and other citizens of Lynn county should take action in the matter of endorsing the movement and assisting in the effort to bring pressure to bear upon the authorities at Washington to direct that most of the PWA funds allotted to this state be spent on the highways.

NEW MEXICO PROMISES AID

New Mexico is ready to meet Texas with a dandy good paved highway at the state line as soon as Texas shows that she is ready to pave No. 84 in this state. This was the challenge sent us by the state highway commission of New Mexico last Friday, according to County Judge W. E. (Happy) Smith, who attended a highway meeting in Roswell on that day.

"We will build a real road from the state line near Brocho to Roswell and on west through the state as soon as Texas gets ready to pave No. 84 east of that point," Judge Smith quoted a state highway commissioner of New Mexico as saying.

Besides Judge Smith, other Texans attending the meeting were County Judge R. A. Sims of Brownfield, Judge Cetton of Yoakum county together with the county clerk, the sheriff, and the entire commissioners court of that county.

There is already a fairly good highway from the Texas line at Broncho on west through Roswell, and this highway and No. 84 in Texas with its connections affords the most direct and the best route from the New Mexico city to Fort Worth and Dallas in our own state. Interest in the paving of 84 is reviving, and it is hoped that the wires and the roads will be kept hot until this project is undertaken and completed.

MRS. GAIGNAT HAS OPERATION

D. W. Gagnat expresses the hope that Mrs. Gagnat will be able to return home from the hospital next Sunday.

She underwent an operation for appendicitis on last Thursday. She had been suffering from the disease at intervals for many years, and the appendix had ruptured a long time ago, it is said, but the operation seems to have been entirely successful and she is improving as rapidly as could be expected.

CURRENT EVENTS PASS IN REVIEW

PRESIDENT STIRS NATION BY PROPOSAL FOR A CHANGE IN ITS BASIC LAW.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has created a major issue for the campaign of 1936 and stirred up widespread debate and controversy over a question that the nation had thought was settled in its early days.

Bainbridge Colby

the chief social and economic questions so that the New Deal may be saved from the doom pronounced upon it by the Supreme court.

In the course of a two hour talk with the Washington correspondents the President sent up a trial balloon on the plan he had conceived for remodeling the government to fit his program, declaring that he favored curtailing the sovereignty of the states and giving the central government full control over agriculture, industry, commerce and all other occupations and enterprises.

The bill greatly increases the scope of the 1906 food and drug act, in the definitions of adulterated or misbranded articles, and provides penalties of a year in jail or a $1,000 fine for violations.

ACTING with surprising suddenness, the senate passed the Copeland-Tugwell food, drug and cosmetic bill, which had been modified to meet the objections of Senators Clark, Bailey and Vandenberg.

ONE immediate result of the Supreme court's NRA decision was the dismissal of 411 cases involving NRA, invalidated by the ruling. This action was taken by Attorney General Cummings with the approval of the President.

Mr. Colby has written to a number of Democratic leaders of national repute proposing they meet in a southern city, preferably Richmond, to consider some form of political action that is for our country and above party.

Neither of these gentlemen hopes to prevent the renomination of Mr. Roosevelt, but they believe he might be defeated at the polls by a coalition movement.

Of Democratic senators a number, like Smith of South Carolina, Connolly of Texas, Clark of Missouri and King of Utah, frankly expressed their opposition to the President's views.

There is plenty of power, absolute power, to deal with all national problems. We don't need a constitutional amendment nearly so much as we need some one to draw bills in accordance with the Constitution.

IT WAS said in Washington that the President and his advisers had decided on their course in reforming the New Deal, but would not announce it for a time.

Statesmen are trying to devise some way of centralizing the government without amending the Constitution. One suggestion, approved by a good many, is that congress deprive the Supreme court of appellate jurisdiction in cases involving wages and hours of labor, production, and various other fields in which the New Deal operates.

Mr. Roosevelt himself says that the Supreme court decision by implication cast serious doubt upon the validity of much New Deal legislation besides NRA; notably the agricultural adjustment act, the securities act and the securities and exchange act.

OFFICIALS of the United Mine Workers of America gave notice that approximately 450,000 miners in the soft coal fields would go on strike unless new wage contracts were signed before June 16.

THERE was great rejoicing in Racine, Wis., when the strike at the J. I. Case company plants was called off after lasting 80 days.

GERMANY has no desire to deprive Great Britain of control of the high seas, but Reichsfuehrer Hitler does propose the limitation of naval power so that Germany will be able to cope with other continental powers.

ALTHOUGH the proposal calls for limitation of air fleets, Nazi officials say that they think the result will be an agreement among the powers not to build further than they have already done and that it will not mean the scrapping of planes already built.

Humpty-Dumpty NRA Many Damocles Swords Biggest and Fastest Gangster Ingenuity

Refusing to admit the resemblance between NRA and Humpty-Dumpty, that "all the king's horses and all the king's men" could not put together again, Washington will gather up the pieces of NRA and try to reconstruct "something as good."

Arthur Brisbane

The Weyerhaeuser kidnapers, however "hard-boiled" they may be, must feel nervous when they hand out one of the $200,000 ransom bills, knowing that the number and series of every bill are in the possession of government detectives.

It will not make spending the money more agreeable to learn that thirty "G-men" from the attorney general's office will devote their entire time to hunting for those bills and tracing the spenders of them—$200,000 worth of Damocles swords.

The giant French ship Normandie is here and pleasing to Americans who like superlatives. She is the biggest liner ever launched, the longest, broadest, heaviest, costliest. And, crossing in 4 days 11 hours 42 minutes, she is the fastest.

England will soon send her Queen Mary after the Normandie's record and, doubtless, Mussolini will soon enter the race.

Uncle Sam? Well, he is busy with other things, very busy, just now.

In the line of viciousness, modern gangsters show ingenuity. Police give details of the death of Danny Walsh, head of a bootleg-rum syndicate who was kidnaped, ransomed for $40,000, later murdered. Enemies took him to sea in a boat, made him sit with his feet in a tub of wet cement, and watch while it hardened.

Sometimes gangsters show signs of intelligence. Volney Davis, arrested in Chicago in connection with the Bremer kidnaping, was "flown" to St. Paul, and, arriving there, confessed complicity in the kidnaping, saying to the judges: "I knew I could not get away from the 'G-men.'"

Land ownership is the best foundation of prosperity and security, under just government.

Those seeking to establish refugees from Germany in Palestine decide, wisely, to begin with land ownership. A fund expected to exceed $5,000,000 is being raised for this purpose.

The ground under your feet cannot run away, cannot be stolen.

King George, seventy years old, celebrated his birthday reviewing troops, wearing the uniform of colonel-in-chief of the Irish Guards. He rode to Buckingham palace on horseback, all four of his sons riding with him, while thousands cheered. Recently the queen celebrated her sixty-eighth birthday.

A Brooklyn girl, ten years old, paid $1 for a sweepstakes ticket, won $30,000. It will cost other little girls and big men and women many dollars for every dollar accidentally won.

Uncle Sam is presumed to get his share of the winnings in income tax. He and his country would be richer if he could find a way to prevent the gambling invasion.

The United States has important work to do outside of NRA and its revision, work with which the Supreme court would not interfere, and that is the control of floods, protection of population against them. Two hundred and fifty are reported killed in southwestern Nebraska, following flood and tornado.

Washington Digest National Topics Interpreted by William Bruckart

National Press Building Washington, D. C.

Washington.—What of the future? Where are we going now that one of the keystones of the New Deal—the National Recovery Administration—has been largely outlawed?

The national capital never has witnessed such confusion, even in the midst of the World War, as has prevailed here since the Supreme court of the United States had its final say as to the constitutionality of the NRA and Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage moratorium law.

New Dealers generally were confident to the last. They appeared to expect some unseen force to guide the Supreme court in upholding the fantastic program which they had devised and which the President made a part of his New Deal plans for economic recovery.

You have heard much discussion in the past two weeks as to how the breath of life may again be breathed into the Blue Eagle. As far as I have been able to gather from authoritative quarters in Washington, there is nothing left to do but perform the funeral ceremonies for the ill-fated bird and the so-called national plan which it represented.

On top of this body blow, the NRA principle is looked upon in many quarters, and by men who know and understand the problems of government, as being thoroughly discredited in the public mind.

Enough indications already have become visible to warrant a statement that the summer months will see chiseling, price cutting and other nefarious and improper business practices going on and that these will be disastrous to countless business interests.

More Hope for Future The congress will strive in a half-hearted fashion to offset the loss of strength and prestige suffered by the New Deal at the hands of the Supreme court. But the effort plainly will be only half-hearted. So it is made to appear that the country must submit for several months at least to a bad condition.

Just an Idle Dream The agricultural community the decision invalidating the Frazier-Lemke mortgage moratorium law probably has greater interest. It should not be so.

Supporters of the Frazier-Lemke idea cannot lean, as do supporters of the NRA principle, upon an accusation that the law was badly administered. It was administered, according to the farm credit administration, in the spirit and letter of its intent.

representative Lemke, both of North Dakota, was designed to give purely temporary aid to distressed owners of mortgage farm lands. The things which apparently neither of the co-authors foresaw was the effect the temporary arrangement would have as to the future.

Thus, it seems to me the Frazier-Lemke law contained elements of danger that were overlooked in the stress of depressed conditions.

Perhaps the worst blow dealt President Roosevelt personally was the Supreme court decision which held that the removal of a Federal Trade Commission member except for the reasons prescribed in the law itself.

It is the principle involved here that is important. The Federal Trade Commission was set up as a quasi-judicial body, one endowed with powers to regulate against improper business practices and to determine the propriety of general business dealings where those dealings affected country-wide business or the interests of the public.

It takes no stretch of the imagination to see how Presidential interference with the commission personnel would result in changes of commission policy. One business practice might be held proper by a commission whose majority was conservative while that same practice would be considered illegal by a commission dominated by a liberal or radical membership.

Several months ago, I recall, I reported to you in these columns something in the nature of a prediction that the AAA Comes of the prediction that the Supreme court would become better known to the general public before the current Administration had ended than it had been known since it rendered the famous Dred Scott decision in civil war days.

Now, I feel warranted in reporting that the highest court again will be in the public eye. The next momentous decision likely to come from the bench of the nine austere justices will be a ruling affecting the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and therefore of vital import to the American farmer.

There is no possibility of a ruling on any AAA questions before next October. No test cases have yet reached the Supreme court for argument but there are half a dozen wending their slow way through minor courts.

Notwithstanding the fact that a Supreme court decision on the AAA is considerably distant, it is to be noted that after the NRA was outlawed, there was considerable scurrying around among AAA officials. Fresh consideration was given to many points of law over which there is doubt.

SYNOPSIS

Theodore Gatlin adopts a baby, which he names "Penelope," in a final effort to solve his matrimonial troubles. But his wife has never wanted her, and their affairs end in the divorce court. Two-year-old Penelope is given into the keeping of Mrs. Gatlin. At a baseball game a ball strikes Penelope on the nose. Mrs. Gatlin spirits the child to Europe. Gatlin retires from business, wills Penelope all his money, and is about to begin a search for his daughter when a motor accident ends his life. Some ten years later, in San Francisco, Stephen Burt is a rising young psychiatrist. He is presented by Dan McNamara, chief of police, with a new patient—Nance Belden, a girl with a dual personality, for which her "maddie nose" was in part responsible. McNamara does not think she is a responsible criminal and obtains Burt's expert testimony in court. Lanny, the doctor's faithful office nurse, is won over to her cause despite Nance's hard-boiled exterior.

CHAPTER III

Stephen elbowed his way into the courtroom. Nance Belden saw him, and from behind the bars of the prisoner's dock waved to him and called cheerily: "Hello, Steve."

"Silence—you!" the bailiff warned her. Nance made a face at him; then, observing Stephen lay finger to lip in a warning gesture, she tossed her head, tilted her chin and bent upon the judge a cold and defiant stare.

The bailiff opened the door of the prisoners' dock and beckoned to her. "Nance Belden," the judge queried, "have you anything to say as to why sentence should not be pronounced upon you?"

"I've got a mouthpiece," the girl retorted. "Ask him!"

From a chair beside the counsel's table a young man arose. "May it please the court, the public defender has withdrawn from this case and I am now counsel for the defendant. My name is David Tyrrell. I am reliably informed, your honor, that, following a fair and impartial trial, this defendant has been convicted of the crime of which she stands accused and is now before the court for sentence."

"Mr. Tyrrell, your client is now under a suspended sentence from the Superior court, for the crime of grand theft. She was then sentenced to two years in San Quentin penitentiary, but paroled for two years. Less than two months have passed since she was paroled, and today she stands before the court for sentence under a charge of petit larceny. The defendant evidently is incorrigible, and I intend to remand her to the Superior court for commitment under the old charge of grand theft."

"I thank your honor. I have been retained in this apparently hopeless case for the purpose of adducing a sound reason why this defendant should be neither sentenced under the present charge nor remanded to the Superior court for commitment under sentence for the former crime. To that end, your honor, I ask leave to present an expert witness to testify to the mental irresponsibility of my client."

"One moment, please, Mr. Tyrrell. Your action would be merely wasting your time and that of the court. I shall remand the prisoner immediately to the Superior court, with a request to the judge thereof that her case be taken up immediately. I sentence this prisoner to ninety days in the county jail, but the sentence will be suspended during her good behavior for one year from date. A bailiff will conduct you, your expert witness and the defendant at once to Department Number Six of the Superior court, and I will immediately telephone to the judge and request that he listen to your expert witness."

As they entered the Superior court the judge glanced at a document which evidently had reached him from the police magistrate's court. "Mr. Tyrrell, I understand you desire to present some expert testimony in an effort to prove the mental irresponsibility of this defendant, Nance Belden. I may state that I have already been in telephonic communication with Doctor Blithen, and have had a complete report from him on this case. You may proceed, however, to present your side of it. Who is your witness?"

"Dr. Stephen Burt, your honor," and Tyrrell indicated Stephen. "I know all about Doctor Burt," the judge said pleasantly. "I had him in my court a year ago as an expert witness in the matter of the Carter will case," he nodded to Stephen. "This court is very much interested in getting at the facts in this case and it is obliged to you for your voluntary attendance. What is your professional opinion of this girl's mentality?"

"I have not had a fair opportunity to study her, your honor," Stephen replied, "hence I am not in a position to give the court more than a snap decision."

"How long have you studied her?" "About thirty minutes, your honor."

"H'm-m-m! Doctor Blithen examined her on three different occasions, his examinations embodying a total of about six hours' time."

"With all due deference to my distinguished colleague," Stephen replied with his singularly charming smile, "six hours is not usually considered more than sufficient time to form an approximate opinion, which subsequent investigations may set at variance. If this girl were to become a patient of mine today, I should devote many weeks to an effort to demonstrate that my original opinion regarding her was in error."

"Is she crazy, Doctor Burt?" "Not in the sense that we customarily employ the term, your honor. I should say, rather, that her psychology is abnormal, that she is neither moral nor immoral, but unmoral. For instance, when I asked her why she stole silk stockings, she told me quite frankly that she did it because there were runs in all her old stockings. That reply was very illuminating. As I talked further with her I noted her valiant moods and quickly came to the conclusion that she is suffering from dissociation by reason of shock. In other words, this girl, who doubtless in happier days possessed a single personality and that a normal one, has now acquired a secondary personality. In plain English, two entirely different people inhabit the one body.

"The first personality, which I shall call A, is the result of acquired instincts, habit, education, and repressions imposed on society by convention and the code of procedure which we call morals. This has been submerged wholly or in part by a second personality, which I shall call B, and when B personality rules her she has amnesia for what I have termed her acquired or normal instincts. Out of her unconscious mind then emerge, as definite impulses to action, the old antipathies to such action, which we medical men term conflicts.

"Let me illustrate. We will assume that at this moment she is possessed of her personality A, and in this state she realizes she has runs in all her stockings—that she must have new stockings, which she sees some stockings which she can readily steal. Normal people often have impulses to steal, your honor, and Nance Belden has an impulse to steal the stockings she needs."

"But here a factor intervenes. She has been taught, from the day she manifested thought, that it is wrong to steal, and this moral lesson has impressed itself upon her conscious mind. With repetition, the thought, becoming have been a very potent reason for the commission of such an unintelligent act as theft. So immediately I commenced to question her as to her family, her past.

"She could tell me nothing. She is not at all sure that her name is Nance Belden, and I am satisfied that her inability to throw any light on her genesis was not born of a desire to withhold that information. I believe she has amnesia for a certain period of her life, and we know that such a condition is usually the result of a severe mental shock. In such cases the patient usually has an intense desire to forget absolutely the unhappy, unpleasant or terrifying episode or person that produced the shock, and so intense is the power of will in certain highly sensitive people, women particularly, that not infrequently they succeed! Thus amnesia is produced. It is, in a sense, autohypnosis, and your honor undoubtedly is aware that people who have been hypnotized remember nothing of what occurs during the hypnotic state."

"I believe I follow you," the judge murmured. "I have shown you why the normal Nance Belden would not steal. But now comes that mental shock I spoke of, with consequent amnesia for all of her life that has preceded it; or it may be a part of that life. With the amnesia comes what we term dissociation or mental disintegration. The unconscious overwhelms the conscious; the acquired instincts of morality—social usage—drop out of the conscious into the unconscious, and the thoughts and impulses that have lain dormant and defeated in the unconscious are now in the saddle. Unfortunates who have acquired dual personalities or a dissociated personality go from one personality into the other and back again, with or without amnesia for the preceding state."

"At a time when Nance Belden's second personality (B) ruled her, and she decided to steal those stockings, she was acting under the impulsion of an idea that could not be combated. To steal a habit, dropped out of her conscious mind to become conserved in her unconscious mind. Conserved there, it became a definite part of her personality—her soul, if you will. Thereafter it was not necessary to remind herself that it was wrong to steal. She knew it was, without having to think about it at all, and this unconscious knowledge was her protection in the fleeting moment of temptation, aroused by her definite need and the knowledge that, lacking money to buy the stockings, and faced with the absolute necessity for acquiring stockings, the sole alternative was to steal them. She got no further than that vague, conscious thought. Immediately the knowledge that it was immoral to steal—that nothing could possibly excuse theft—rose out of her unconscious mind and became a dominating conscious thought. Now, right there appeared the mental phenomenon known among psychiatrists as a complex or conflict. In all conflicts the stronger wins—and in this particular mental conflict, the will not to steal won instantly. It was an older habit of thought. It was an acquired instinct, whereas the impulse to steal was not a habit of thought, because she had never indulged in theft! We say we do a thing on instinct, but really we act after due, if inculcably brief cogitation, based on reason, which is the result of habituation to doing certain things.

"This Girl, Who Doubtless in Happier Days Possessed a Single Personality and That a Normal One, Has Now Acquired a Secondary Personality."

"This defendant, your honor, is a healthy girl as far as I can judge from outward appearances. But she is what you often hear referred to as high-strung. And she is so unusually intelligent that I readily realized there must had become an acquired instinct, or at least a very strong instinct. There may have been a certain amount of repression against the act at first, but gradually that repressive instinct, i. e., her moral instincts, once part of her conscious mind but now relegated to her unconscious mind, grew weaker, until finally the stronger instinct won, and the result is, we have Nance Belden up before your honor for commitment to San Quentin penitentiary on a suspended sentence for grand theft."

"Have you any theory as to what this mental shock might be, Doctor Burt?"

"I have a very definite theory as to what prepared the ground, so to speak, for the mental shock, but I have not the slightest idea of the nature of the shock."

"This is most interesting, Doctor Burt. Pray explain."

"Look carefully at this defendant, your honor. You see a young woman about five feet, five inches high—normal height for a woman of her age, which I imagine to be about twenty-one or twenty-two. How much do you weigh, Miss Belden?"

"A hundred and twenty-eight Steve."

Political Craft in England Back in Eighteenth century England, political corruption was carried on in an open manner. Gentlemen wishing to buy government positions and office-holders having them for sale advertised in the newspapers. Often, too, prices were mentioned, some running as high as $15,000.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, and Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for June 16 CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

LESSON TEXT—Deuteronomy 8:11-18; II Corinthians 9:6-8. GOLDEN TEXT—It is required in stewards that a man be found faithful.—I Corinthians 4:2. PRIMARY TOPIC—Sharing God's Gifts. JUNIOR TOPIC—Joyous Use of God's Gifts. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Does Stewardship Mean? YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Practicing Stewardship Today.

I. Warning Against Forgetting God (Deut. 8:11-18).

1. Through plenty (vv. 12, 13). It is always true that in time of prosperity the people forget God.

2. Through pride (vv. 13, 14). The natural tendency of the human heart when visited with abundance is to be lifted up with pride.

3. Through self-confidence (vv. 15-18). The inevitable result of pride is self-confidence. The children of Israel arrogated to themselves the power to get wealth. It is ever so that material prosperity turns the natural heart away from God as the source of blessing.

II. The Sin of Robbing God (Mal. 3:7-12).

One of the sins of Israel which brought upon them the chastising hand of the Lord was that of withholding the tithe. The prophet assures the people that their bringing into the storehouse their tithes and offerings would be responded to by God in sending them abundance.

III. Talents Are to Be Used for God (Matt. 25:14-30).

1. The distribution of the talents (vv. 14, 15). This distribution was a sovereign act, giving to each one of his own servants his own money.

2. The employment of the talents (vv. 16-18). Two put to use the talents given them, resulting in doubling their value. One hid his talent.

3. The accounting for the talents (vv. 19-30). The Lord later demanded an accounting from each one of the servants. The ones who had been faithful were not only praised but promoted, while the one who hid his talent was not only reproached but also suffered the loss of the talent given him.

IV. Giving Should Be Systematic (I Cor. 16:2).

This instruction concerning giving is based upon the glorious doctrine of the resurrection of Christ. The one who has come under the power of the resurrection of Christ will be both systematic and liberal in his benevolence. The standard for Christian giving is not the tithe, but "as God hath prospered him."

V. Principles of True Benevolence (II Cor. 8:1-15).

1. Examples of true Christian giving.

a. The source of true giving (v. 1) is said to be the grace of God, which means that the disposition to give freely of one's possessions must be created by the Holy Spirit.

b. They gave from the depths of their poverty (v. 2), and their unstinted gifts thus became richer in meaning.

c. Their willingness surpassed their ability (v. 3). God reckons gifts by the degree of willingness, not by the amount given.

d. They were insistent on being allowed the privilege of giving (v. 4). Christians ought to be taught that giving of their means is a high privilege.

e. They first gave themselves to the Lord (v. 5). The only method of raising money which has God's sanction is a consecrated hand in its own pocket.

2. Emulation in giving urged (II Cor. 8:6-15). Paul used the generosity of the Macedonian church as a means of stimulating liberality with the Corinthians.

a. Not as a command (v. 8). Giving which has God's sanction must be not only spontaneous, but liberal.

b. As a proof of the sincerity of love (v. 8). Love is benevolent action toward the one loved.

c. As the completion of their harmony of Christian character (v. 7). The Corinthian church abounded in spiritual gifts, but needed the grace of liberality for the harmonizing of their lives.

d. Christ an example of self-sacrifice (v. 9). Christ was rich, but for their sakes he became poor.

e. Gifts to be acceptable with God must be from a willing mind (vv. 10-12).

f. Every Christian should give something (vv. 13-15).

3. Encouragement to give (II Cor. 9:6, 7). a. The volume of reaping is based upon the sowing (v. 6). b. There should be a heart-purpose (v. 7). c. Giving should not be of necessity (v. 7). d. God loves a cheerful giver (v. 7).

All Are of God

Activities commonly called non-religious—science, art, literature, industry—all come from the same God. Their autonomy must be respected in the sense that there must be no attempt at ecclesiastical control over them.

New Window Glass Bars Heat Rays From Room

Window glass has been developed which takes the heat out of sunlight but permits the light to pass. The heat-absorbing glass contains iron, and objects viewed through it have a greenish-blue color because some of the red rays of sunlight have been removed. Small amounts of iron in glass absorb ultra-violet and infra-red, the heat rays of sunlight. The visible part of sunlight contains only one-third of the heat in the sun's rays and the new glass cuts out the invisible rays but permits most of the visible rays to pass. While the heated glass might be expected to raise the temperature of a room as a whole, the effect on a person in the direct sunlight is much less than for ordinary glass. The glass is particularly suited to offices and factories.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

ANOTHER RIGHTEOUS VERDICT

A jury in the Federal Court in Lubbock Tuesday afternoon returned a verdict of guilty in a case charging Len Irvin, ex-sheriff of Lamb county, and eighteen other persons with conspiracy to violate a federal law which makes it an offense to sell liquor without having paid the Government tax. The alleged operations of the sheriff and his co-conspirators extended over a period of seven or eight years, the court though justly charged the jury that acts committed more than three years ago were barred by limitation.

Those who have followed the evidence in the case closely as well as those who had been familiar with conditions in Lamb county during the past few years must feel that it was a righteous verdict. The evidence of guilt seems to have been overwhelming.

All law-abiding, right-thinking people must feel a keen sense of satisfaction at the result of this trial. Any sheriff or other peace officer who for a price will afford protection to violators of any law is not only a contemptible bribe-taker but is in fact a traitor to those who imposed their confidences in him by electing him to office.

There is one feature of this business, however, that must bring a sense of shame to high-minded citizens. Most of the alleged crookedness of Sheriff Len Irvin occurred during national prohibition.

If the testimony adduced by the Government on this trial be true, then he flagrantly and shamelessly violated the Volstead law for years, and no effort seems to have been made then by Federal officers to bring him to justice. If Federal enforcement officers had been as intent to enforce the prohibition law as they now seem to be to enforce the liquor-tax laws, Irvin would have been sent to a Federal penitentiary several years ago. It is no credit to Uncle Sam that Irvin and his co-conspirators were permitted to operate unmolested in violation of national prohibition.

Since the Supreme Court rendered its decision declaring the NRA unconstitutional, some ignoramuses, feather-weights, and would-be wise-crackers have been making and printing slight remarks about that body, the greatest tribunal on the face of the earth, and some have even been belittling and offering digs at the Constitution of the United States, that wonderful guardian of our liberties and the guide by which we have safely steered the old Ship of State thus far. William E. Gladstone, that great liberal statesman of England and four times Premier of the British Empire, pronounced the Constitution of the United States the greatest instrument ever struck off at a single time by the mind and genius of man.

Yet, some of our citizens, who probably have not read it for years and know about as much about it as a wild boar knows about the Ten Commandments, have been speaking of it lightly, saying that it is out of date, a back number, needs to be junked or rewritten, etc. We should like for some of these wise guys to point out to us the sections of this great instrument that should be junked. We read it over again the other night, and we undertake to say that the original document with the first ten amendments containing the "bill of rights" which were adopted almost immediately after the original instrument was adopted, set forth the best and most wonderful scheme of government ever yet devised by the mind of man. There have been some important and helpful amendments adopted since, and it is possible that the instrument should now be amended further, but only an ignoramus will pronounce it a worthless or out-of-date instrument.

Lynn county people certainly need a park somewhere within the county—a place where they can go for recreation, rest, and amusement—a place where they can engage in boating, swimming, and athletic sports—a place where they can have picnics and other public gatherings —a place where there is plenty of shade and water. They now have an opportunity to procure such a place at an insignificant cost. A bond election will be held July 6 to determine whether or not bonds in the sum of $6,160 shall be issued with which to buy a park site. Less than one cent for every acre of land in the county would be the price. The improvement of the park grounds would give employment to quite a number of unemployed people. The Federal government would doubtless spend many thousands of dollars on the project. Trees would be planted, a water supply secured, buildings erected, swimming pools provided, recreation and amusement equipment installed, and other improvements made. Don't you think it would be nice to have a place of this kind in our county?

County Judge W. E. Smith and others are sponsoring a movement for the organization of a luncheon club, to meet weekly. Tahoka has had nothing of this kind since the Kiwans Club dissolved three or four years ago. Now, since there has been a partial recovery from the depression and the future seems brighter, it would seem to be the opportune time to organize. Any citizen of Tahoka, as we understand it, would be eligible for membership.
Such a club could possibly perform the functions of any of the ordinary service clubs, such as Kiwanis, Rotary, and Lions; and could also serve as a substitute for a chamber of commerce. Certainly Tahoka needs some kind of an organization to look out after the interests of the town, and a luncheon club would seem to fill the bill.

The people of Tahoka, Brownfield, Post and scores of other towns east and west of us should get busy now and stay busy making it known to the powers-that-be that we want highway No. 84 paved. It affords the most direct and the best route from Roswell and the heart of New Mexico to the cities and population centers of north Texas. If paved it would soon become one of the outstanding highways east and west through West Texas.

ever, that should the limit of taxation herein named be insufficient the deficit may be met by appropriation from the General Funds of the State and the Legislature may also provide for the formation of school districts by General Laws; and all such school districts may embrace parts of two or more counties, and the Legislature shall be authorized to pass laws for the assessment and collection of taxes in all said districts and for the that a majority of the qualified property taxing voters of the district voting at an election to be held for that purpose, shall vote such tax not to exceed in any one year One ($1.00) Dollar on the One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars valuation of the property subject to taxation in such district, but the limitation upon the amount of school district tax herein authorized

Texas, be amended so that hereafter it shall read as follows:
"Section 5. The principal of all bonds and other funds, and the principal arising from the sale of the lands herebefore set apart to said school fund, shall be the permanent school fund, and all the interest derivable therefrom and the taxes herein authorized and levied shall be the available school fund, to which the Legislature may add,
not exceeding one per cent annually, of the total value of the permanent school fund, such value to be ascertained by the Board of Education until otherwise provided by law, and the available school fund shall be applied annually to the support of the public free schools.

And no law shall ever be enacted appropriating any part of the permanent or available school fund to any other purpose whatever; nor shall the same, or any part thereof ever be appropriated to or used for the support of any sectarian school, provided that the State Board of Education may furnish State Adopted text books free to every child of scholastic age, attending any school within the State; and the available school fund herein provided shall be distributed to the several counties as may be provided by law and applied in such manner as may be provided by law."

Section 3. The foregoing Constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the electors of this State qualified to vote on Constitutional Amendment at the election to be held on the Fourth Saturday in August, 1935, at which election there shall be printed on each ballot the following:

"For the amendment to the Con-

Boy Falls On Knife; Is Seriously Injured

Having fallen on a knife that punctured a lung and severed a large blood vessel, Guy Thompson, 13, of O'Donnell was admitted Saturday afternoon for treatment at West Texas Hospital, Lubbock. Late Saturday night his condition showed improvement, but still was serious.

The boy was suffering of a collapsed lung caused by a massive hemorrhage in the pleural cavity. Blood had not been drawn off, a precaution against further hemorrhage, but respiration and heart action were better.

The boy was at play when he fell, the blade entering the left chest just above the heart.

METHODISTS HAD ONE GOOD SERVICE SUNDAY MORNING

There was only one preaching service at the Methodist Church Sunday. The night service was dismissed to visit the Presbyterians who were conducting a week's revival. Bro. Smith brought a wonderful message at the eleven o'clock hour. His theme was "Finding Happiness Just Where You Are." It can justly be said it was a wonderful message, one of the very best we have heard in a long time. It was a helpful sermon each one of us may live by and in so doing will be lifted to a higher plain of living. The choir rendered the very best music we have had in a long time.

We feel that our entire church is moving along nicely. There is a warm fellowship among our people. If you are not attending services you are missing a great blessing. "Come worship with us."

The revival meeting will begin June 30 with Bro. Uel D. Crosby doing the preaching. Bro. Crosby, as you know, helped in our meeting last year. We are very glad to have him again. With Bro. Smith's help and the cooperation of the members and friends of the town, there isn't any reason why we can't have the greatest revival meeting Tahoka has ever had. Make your plans to attend the meeting regardless of what church you are a member. A hearty welcome to each one.—Reporter.

Mr. Sanford, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Sanford of Tahoka, is a graduate of the Tahoka High school.

The couple is living on a farm near O'Donnell.

DALE HOLDS SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL AT WASKOM

Rev. and Mrs. George A. Dale returned home Saturday night and the pastor was in his pulpit Sunday.

Brother Dale had been conducting a revival meeting for almost two weeks at Waskom on the Louisiana life between Marshall and Shreveport, which resulted in many professions of faith and additions to the church.

Mrs. Dale in the meantime visited a daughter, Mrs. Jane C. Edwards Jr., in Dallas. Mrs. Edwards and two children, Malcolm and Anne, accompanied the Dales home for a two weeks visit here.

CHURCH OF CHRIST NOTES

Services were exceptionally good last Lord's day with crowds larger than usual and interest fine. The fine singings held Sunday nights while we were away in the meeting have improved our singing. It may be possible we will hold a meeting with home forces in the near future.

We were very much pleased when the congregation made a special contribution to finish our last year's work free from debt. We are hoping to make greater progress this year. This will be possible if every member will do his best.

Services for the week: Ladies' Bible Class, Monday 4 P. M.; Men's Bible Class, Wednesday 8:30 P. M.; Bible Study, Communion and preaching Sunday from 10 A. M. to 12 A. M. Singing, preaching and communion 8:30 P. M.

Come worship as it is written.—R. P. Drennon.

Lamb Sheriff Is Found Guilty

Len Irvin, sheriff of Lamb county, and fifteen co-defendants were convicted by a jury in the Federal Court in Lubbock Tuesday afternoon of conspiracy to evade the payment of liquor taxes on seven counts. The case had been on trial for about a week.

The Court assessed Irvin's punishment at two years imprisonment at El Reno, Oklahoma, and a two-year term suspended for three years after his discharge from prison.

Driscoll Irvin, 24, son of the sheriff, was one of the defendants, and his punishment was fixed at six months imprisonment in the Lubbock jail, and a one year and one day sentence to El Reno suspended for three years.

George Carpenter, Jim Etter, and Star Halle were each sentenced to 90 days in jail, and each received in addition a sentence, of one year and a day to El Reno, suspended for three years.

The other defendants, who had pleaded guilty, were given suspended sentences.

A PASSER-BY

Dedicated by the Author, Mrs. Frank Edwards, to the Phebe K. Warner Club

Clouds are like people, some great and some small.
Also like mountains and a huge wall.

They hurriedly pass us, making their change,
White in their color, then black o'er the range.

Then comes the thunder, arumbling like drums,
The rain drops refreshing to all it may come.

The cloud in his cloak of color so grey Starts over the hillside to frolic and play

At first he lingers, so slowly he goes
Then quickly he changes, like the farmer who mows
As harvest has ripened no time to be lost.

The cloud in the heavens his pathway aloft.

The cloud on his journey likens a steed,
Brave in his venture, mighty in deed.

Easy to follow and 'see from the towers,
Along-side the roads are left welcome showers.

Nothing more alluring than clouds in the sky, It's just a part of life to watch these Passers-by.

Lakeview Boasts Fine Community

Upon invitation, the editor visited the Sunday School at Lakeview last Sunday afternoon and tried to make a little address following the Sunday School hour.

We found a remarkably fine and harmonious citizenship out there. They conduct a union Sunday School in the Methodist Church. A Baptist is superintendent this year and the teaching force is divided, some Methodist, some Baptist, and some possibly members of other denominations. "But we always get along together just fine," they told us. They have an unusually good school, and following adjournment, they linger long in the building to pass the time in pleasant and neighborly conversation.

This is a new community. Ten years ago it was all ranch land. Now it is a land of fertile farms and modest residences, some of them being spacious and attractive. There is no better land anywhere on the plains and usually excellent crops are harvested. Though the recent hail destroyed practically all the crops in that community, they had been and still are replanting with zest and with faith that all would yet be well.

Some of our finest citizens live in that community, such as the Allen, Williams, Netties, Schwartz, Godfrey, Thomas, McManis, Berryhill, and other well known families. It is one of the best and most progressive communities in Lynn county, though one of the newest.

Land Bank Loan Interest Reduced

The interest rate on all Federal Land Bank Loans made through National farm loan associations will be reduced to 3 1/2 per cent for all interest payable in the one-year period commencing July 1, 1935, and to 4 per cent for all interest payable in the two-year period commencing July 1, 1936, according to Mr. Deen Nowlin, secretary-treasurer of the Tahoka National Farm Loan Association.

This announcement was made June 10, 1935, when Mr. Nowlin was notified of the new loan rate by A. C. Williams, president of the Federal Land Bank of Houston and General Agent of the Farm Credit Administration of Houston.

This temporary reduction of interest on Federal Land Bank loans having installments due prior to July 1, 1935, is the result of new legislation, the Farm Credit Act of 1935, which was signed by President Roosevelt June 3. Interest payable on installment dates occurring after July 30, 1935, will be at the original contract rate, which is 4 1/2 per cent on loans now being made through National farm loan associations and varies from 5 to 6 per cent on loans made prior to April 1, 1935.

The Farm Credit Act of 1935 also provides for another important innovation. Under its terms, the Land Bank Commissioner now may make loans to finance the purchase of farms by deserving tenant farmers. Formerly, Commissioner loans could be made only for the purpose of refinancing debts, for repurchasing farms lost through foreclosure and for working capital. The Act extends to January 1, 1940, the time in which the Land Bank Commissioner may make direct loans to farmers on first and second mortgages. The Commissioner loan plus any prior encumbrances on the property may not exceed 75 per cent of the appraised normal value. Commenting on the new provisions Mr. Deen Nowlin said: "The new provision enabling the Land Bank Commissioner to make loans for the purpose of purchasing farms provides a new opportunity for young farmers and deserving tenants to become farm owners and home owners in their own right. We shall be glad to talk things over with worthy tenants who wish to buy farms of their own."

Since May 12, 1933, when the Farm Credit Administration was established, the Federal Land Bank of Houston, acting for itself and as agent for the Land Bank Commissioner has made 42,738 loans aggregating $129,192,350.00. This is almost as large as the amount of business carried on the books of the bank on May 1, 1933, after 17 years operation. The interest rate reduction provided by the Act will affect only Federal land bank loans, all of which are first mortgage loans. The interest rate on Land Bank Commissioner loans, which are made on either first or second mortgages on farm property, will remain unchanged at 5 per cent.

RATE REDUCTION ON FEED SHIPMENTS IS SECURED

The Commodities Purchase Section of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration has informed Congressman George Mahon that an agreement has been reached with railroad officials and approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission which will make possible a continuation of the reduced rates on shipments of livestock feed for the drought area. The agreement which made possible these reduced rates expired May 31, and Mr. Mahon had been working with this Section and with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

mission on this proposition for several weeks.

The new agreement provides a basis of two-thirds of the regular rate to apply on hay, and fifty percent of the hay rates to apply on other feed shipments. The Agreement took effect June 5 and will continue until August 31.

The destination territory to which the reduced rates apply includes 131 counties in 5 mid-western states, 60 of these counties being in West Texas.

WILSON BASEBALL TEAM DEFEATS O'DONNELL NINE

The Wilson baseball team defeated O'Donnell last Sunday afternoon in a hard-fought battle by a score of 3 to 1. It was a one-to-one deadlock up to the last inning. Beginning the ninth inning, Wilson made two runs and broke the tie.

Of the first nine men that faced the Wilson pitcher, seven retired at the home plate. Pair, the pitcher, got fifteen strike-outs. Without a doubt he is the best pitcher on the plains. He allowed O'Donnell only two hits. Cook was the star player of the game. He got a three-base hit and made a play in the field that made a believer of O'Donnell.

Ross Williamson is the manager of the Wilson Ball Club. He has the hardest nine on the south plains.

RELIEF ALLOTMENTS FOR TEXAS RADICALLY REDUCED

Austin, June 4.—Radically reduced allotments for the relief population of Texas are in prospect for the month of June it has been announced by Adam R. Johnson, state relief administrator.

Federal authorities notified Johnson that the state will receive $2,500,000 for general relief, although application was made for more than $4,000,000. Budgets, therefore, were made up on the basis of a state caseload of 210,000. Although the caseload has dropped steadily since January 1, Washington officials have repeatedly expressed dissatisfaction with the number of families on relief in Texas. "Accordingly, our per case grants will be reduced from $17 in May to about $10 in June," Johnson said, "and our total relief disbursement from $5,612,000 in May to $3,391,000 in June."

"Although at first sight this may appear to be dreadfully severe, we expect thousands of cases to quit the relief rolls in June for employment on farms where they can make more than the $10 we are able to give them. Farmers everywhere are calling for labor to help them cultivate their crops and we feel that in the case of employable families there should not be any suffering because of this reduced grant." June funds will be spent by the counties for purposes described in the following budget:

General relief, $2,125,342; hospitalization, $8,963; rural subsistence, $725,063; capital goods, $532,154.

To meet these obligations, the Texas Relief Commission will receive $2,500,000 from the federal government and $400,000 of state funds for general relief. Other grants for the special program of rural rehabilitation, student aid and emergency education are expected to be received from federal sources during the month.

"50% of all motor wear occurs during the starting period"

... say automotive engineers

Measuring cylinder wear with a precision gauge—accurate to a hundred-thousandth of an inch!

*Motorists who know these facts will save money:

Motor oils refined by the usual methods have some oiliness and film strength, but they may form carbon and sludge, which lead to expensive motor repairs.

Other oils may form almost no carbon and sludge, but are so over-refined that they are robbed of oiliness and film strength they need to prevent motor wear.

Germ Processed Oil is refined to eliminate carbon and sludge troubles and then the Germ Process adds extra oiliness and 2 to 4 times more film strength than any straight mineral oil, as tests on the Timken machine have proved.

Only the oil with the "Hidden Quart" will stay up in your motor and cut down this starting wear!

Here are the facts: Oils not Germ Processed drain back into the crankcase when your motor is idle. Bearings, pistons and cylinders are dry when you start. Even in warm weather your motor makes at least a thousand revolutions before the quickest flowing oil can reach all parts. Bare metal grinds against bare metal—destructive wear occurs.

Conoco Germ Processed Oil cuts down this costly starting wear! The patented Germ-Process—adding concentrated oily essence to highly refined oil—makes it penetrate and combine with metal surfaces. That penetrative film, forming the "Hidden Quart", becomes part of the metal itself and never drains away.

Hundreds of dry-crankcase runs have proved the "Hidden Quart" lubricating value. Cars using Germ Processed Oil were driven 15 to 75 miles with the crankcase empty but without motor damage!

Germ Processed Oil protects your motor another way. All cars built since 1931 have greatly increased pressures and must have oil of extra high film strength for safe lubrication. Straight mineral oils have no more film strength than they had 10 years ago—some have less!*

Only Conoco Germ Processed Oil gives full motor protection—when you start, while you drive. You will cut motor wear if you use it!

Smart Wardrobe in One Pattern

Pattern 2197

You can make yourself a mighty smart summer wardrobe right from this one pattern. Simplicity's the thing—shirtmaker frocks are "the top"—and here's a beautifully fitting model that may take many variations. Made in a silk or print it is perfect under coats now and on into summer—make it again as in the other sketch—with square neckline and loose sleeves, in a solid color. Then start all over and use a striped or checked silk or printed lawn. The material influences the frock to a great extent—and this is a perfect one for developing the love for new fabrics.

Pattern 2197 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Sizes 18 takes 3 3/4 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included. SEND FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address, and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE. Address orders to the Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth Street, New York City.

TREMENDOUS TRIFLES

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON

COW THAT STARTED A WAR

SHE was only a skinny, foot-sore old cow, abandoned by a party of emigrants on the Oregon trail. But she was found there by a Miniconjou Sioux Indian. He needed a piece of hide to patch his worn moccasins, so he saw no good reason why he shouldn't kill this forlorn beast to get it. When his act was reported at Fort Laramie, that cow suddenly became very valuable, so her owner declared. The Indians offered to pay him $10. He demanded $25 and the Indians refused to give it.

Then Lieutenant Grattan, young, inexperienced and hot-headed, obtained permission to go into the Miniconjou camp and arrest the Indian who had killed the cow. Taking 33 men with him, Grattan marched out to the Sioux camps. In vain, two friendly chiefs, Bear That Scatters, a Brule, and Man Afraid of His Horses, an Ogala, tried to settle the matter peaceably. Grattan remained obdurate.

Suddenly the soldiers opened fire and within a few minutes Grattan and all his men were dead—victims of their commander's obstinacy.

Soon afterwards, Col. W. S. Harney was sent with an army to "punish" the "hostiles." Harney surrounded the camp of a Brule chief, Little Thunder, and demanded that the slayers of Grattan be given up. Little Thunder could not comply with the demand for the very good reason that his people had had nothing to do with the tragedy.

So Harney attacked and there followed the so-called Battle of Ash Hollow, with its shameful record of 86 friendly Indians slaughtered, among them many women and children, five wounded and about 70 women and children captured. Small wonder that the Sioux learned to hate the white men and to fight them bitterly for the next 20 years. And an old worn-out cow was one of the causes of that war!

BOOMERANG

IN 1840 President Martin Van Buren was the Democratic candidate for re-election. The Whigs, passing by the great Henry Clay, nominated Gen. William Henry Harrison, whose principal claim to distinction was his career as a successful Indian fighter.

One of Clay's friends, hearing of "Old Tippecanoe's" nomination grumpily declared, "Give him a barrel of hard cider, settle a pension of $2,000 a year on him and, my word for it, he will sit for the remainder of his days in his log cabin by the side of a seasonal fire, studying moral philosophy." The editor of a Democratic paper in Baltimore thought it would be a good joke on the Whigs to publish that statement. But it turned out to be a fine joke on the Democrats!

Other Democratic papers reprinted it. Immediately the Whigs got busy. So General Harrison wasn't fit to be president because he was a poor man and a plain man, eh? Well, he was just as good a man as Martin Van Buren, living in luxury in the White House and spending the taxpayers' money foolishly, etc. etc.

In vain the Democrats tried to undo the mischief by protesting that they hadn't started this talk. A Whig, one of Mr. Clay's good friends, had done it. But it was no use. The "Log Cabin-Hard Cider" campaign of the "singing Whigs" was sweeping the country. They were singing the praises of "Tippecanoe and Tyler, Too," and they were shouting "Van, Van Is a Used-Up Man."

So Harrison went to the White House, sent there by a small item printed in a Democratic newspaper. It was a sneering item that turned out to be a boomerang against those who used it.

BARBS

FLATTENED out, they wouldn't measure much over an inch in length. They look unimportant, and harmless enough, these little pieces of wire, sharpened at each end. But, take enough of them, bend them in loops and place them at regular intervals along two strands of wire woven together. Then . . . well, ask some World War veteran if he ever had to listen to the agonized cries of a wounded buddy caught in a tangle of barbed wire!

Who invented barbed wire? Many are the candidates for that honor.

But whoever it was, he could not have foreseen how those little prongs would change the course of history on the Great Plains of the West. Time was when thousands and thousands of longhorn cattle ranged over hundreds of square miles of land and were trailed to roaring "cow towns" by reckless crews of daring horsemen. That was in the day of the "open range."

Then barbed wire crossed the Mississippi. The cattle trails were closed by mile after mile of wire—two strands nailed to posts. Next came the "nester" to plow under the buffalo grass on which the longhorns had fed.

The barbs on the wire were the tremendous trifles which ended the careers of the old West and sent one of the most picturesque figures in American history, the cowboy, galloping down the trail to oblivion.

Summer Bride Is in Lace or Chiffon

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

LACE, most exquisite lace, or chiffon, lovely vaporous chiffon, classic in its simplicity—choose either for your wedding gown Miss Summer Bride-to-be and you win fashion's smile of approval. The endearing charms of each are breathtaking so we warn you it's going to be a difficult matter to decide.

There is no doubt about lace being definitely in the limelight for bridal gowns, in fact for the entire bridal party. For that matter, enthusiasm for lace whether as a medium for bridal array or for all occasion ranging from simplest sports and daytime clothes to high formals, knows no bounds this season.

With the importance of lace as their cue and inspiration, designers are doing wedding ensembles for this year's midsummer brides that simply baffle description. The gown to the left in the illustration, than which imagination can picture no lovelier, is entirely of imported Chantilly lace with wondrous lace-bordered train. It is cut on princess lines with a high ruffled neck and a tunic effect. The voluminous veil is draped over a coronet of orange blossoms.

Not all brides are so favored by fortune as to be married in such gorgeous lace raiment. However that need not at all discourage the bride-to-be who is lace-minded, for instead of being entirely of lace many of the most attractive wedding gowns designed this season have lace worked in for yokes, and sleeves and perhaps insets and numerous other intriguing ways.

As to lace for the bridesmaids, it is a story too long, too dramatic and romantic to be briefly told. Picture a bevy of lovely ladies clad in laces of delicate mesh whose colors take on the hues of the rainbow or a summertime garden, of flowers. Lace hats they wear, and lace gloves and as like as not shoes of lace.

Chiffon for the wedding gown! That's another of fashion's most fascinating stories which should be told to brides who would wed in June or later in midsummertime. The flair for chiffon evening and party frocks started in Paris and the vogue has become so pronounced that the call of midsummer night fashions for chiffon resounds throughout the length and breadth of all fashionland. Which is merely the prologue to what we are about to say in regard to the chic, the charm and the importance of chiffon, especially quality-kind all silk chiffon, for not only the bride's gown but for outfitting her attendants even to the slightest flower girl.

In the exquisitely lovely wedding gown to the right in the picture, the poet finds inspiration for a sonnet, the painter for a picture and the bride the realization of dreams come true. The theme of this winsome bridal dress which so obviously plays up simplicity (a sophisticated simplicity, if you please) is white silk chiffon. Draped, it is, in classic Grecian lines, for the latest gesture in realms of formal fashion is the draping of diaphanous materials after the art of ancient Greek sculpturing. Now comes the touch-exquisite which climaxes the beauty and sweet simplicity of this chiffon rhapsody and will cause all who behold to say of her "the bride was a perfect picture"—she carries white violets for her bouquet.

BRIDESMAID IN LACE

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Delicate white silk lace makes a frock which is perfect for the bridesmaid at a formal summer wedding, or for the bride who is being married informally. The ruffled bertha cape covers a complete evening gown. The little ruffled peasant cap is in line with the trend toward head coverings for formal wear, such as the Indian sari or Hindu thram scarf. The mitts of the silk lace have flaring elbow sleeves.

Fullness Is Fashionable

Fullness from the yoke or the collar line at back, above the waistline, and fullness at center front below the waistline, are much reflected in the late costume collections, for the little dresses in the simpler modes.

SHIRTWAIST FROCK SLICK AND DASHING

There's a new and youthful shirtwaist frock that is arousing loud cheers from the biplayers.

It is a slick, slim affair in dotted foulard, with small-boy collar, short sleeves, a belt and buttons all the way down the front, and it is about the most dashing and practical garment thus far evolved.

It comes in navy, black or brown, with red, yellow or white dots, and is a city version of the dotted linen frock that was the toast of the Palm Beach season.

Its only trimming is the stitched youthful collar and the stitched cuffs on its brief sleeves, and that perhaps is part of its charm. With it you may wear a bandana cap of the same material, very new and springlike, with a Cossack look.

Stockings Are Bursting Into Color in France

Here is news of another brand new mode! Stockings have burst into color in France. This is not nearly as startling as it sounds. The colors are soft, deep shades and will provide fascinating shoe stocking combinations. In addition, many of them are held just under the knee by latex band. They are ribbed, English fashion, like men's socks, in liles and meshes, made sturdy for hard wear, and inexpensive.

After you get used to the idea, can't you picture them with tweed and sports things? In the country, blue, green and maroon stockings will stride across the fields and over the links. In town, smart legs will shop and tea in navy blue.

White Capes

Long capes of soft white wool, tweeds, angoras and the like will be shown along with white coats for the summer season.

Dots Are Seen

Dots of one material are seen on backgrounds of different fabrics.

Celebrate Birthday of Oldest Sunday School

The world's oldest—and largest—Sunday school has just celebrated its one hundredth and fiftieth anniversaries.

This is Stockport Sunday school, which has been carried on continuously since the seventeenth century, and in the same building since 1805. It was founded by the Methodists, but was nonsectarian, and hundreds of thousands of youngsters have been taught in it. At one time its membership was over 6,000; even today it is over 3,000.

But Stockport, though it may claim to possess the oldest Sunday school still functioning today, wasn't quite the first in the field. That honor belongs to Gloucester, where, three or four years before the Stockport venture was launched, the first modern Sunday school was inaugurated by Robert Raikes, a printer, and Rev. Thomas Stock, Reading and writing were taught along with the Bible in the early years of the scheme, and the first teachers were paid.

Before that both Luther and John Knox had made experiments with Sunday schools, but the real beginning of the great movement which we know today was the Gloucester experiment of Raikes and Stock.—London Answers.

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'ho-ho.' My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.

L. H. Moore Has Ideal Farm Home

It was the pleasure of the editor and lady to spend some time in the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Moore seven miles northwest of New Home last Sunday. The dinner was fine and the hospitality of the home was wonderful.

But the setting of this home, the conveniences, the air of prosperity that is evident in spite of drouth and depression, and the accomplishment of the Moore family seem to us so remarkable as to deserve comment.

In 1927 Mr. and Mrs. Moore bought three quarters of a section of raw land, immediately began to improve it, and moved upon it. They planted out an orchard of peaches, plums, and other fruits. They planted several fine varieties of grapes and several kinds of berries. In addition to that, out on these bald prairies, they planted a large number of shade trees. They drilled a well, dug a spacious surface tank which they keep filled to the brim with water, and stocked with cat fish.

Their shade trees have grown up, without irrigation, and now constitute a beautiful grove. Their fruit trees produce bushels of peaches, plums, and other fruits when not destroyed by late freezes or hail, their berries always produce, and they have fish for their table any time they take the trouble to catch them—and it's little trouble, often real pleasure, for the supply is abundant.

Beneath their residence, an attractive and "homey" building, is a cellar, whose shelves groan under their loads of canned fruits and vegetables.

Formerly Mr. Moore raised a good many hogs each year, but when hogs became unprofitable he turned to sheep. He now has 118 head of sheep and about 45 lambs. The expense of raising them is negligible. They keep down the weeds in the pasture and consume the waste material in the fields of feed. Hence, the pasture is always a thing of beauty in the summer and fall, the waste matter in the fields are utilized, and the sheep are little trouble as well as little expense, Mr. Moore says. The returns from the clip each spring amount to a considerable sum of money.

The home itself has many of the modern conveniences. They do not even use wood for fuel. No, they do not use coal, either. They use gas.

We were made to wonder how remarkably beautiful this county would be if all our homes were surrounded with trees and shrubs, with orchards and vineyards, with a fish pond on the premises, sheep and Jersey cows in the pasture, and chickens or turkeys or both roaming over the terrain. We have quite a good many farmers of the L. H. Moore type, but we need more of them.

"My Bedroom"

(By Leah Mae Bell, Edith 4-H Club, Winner 3rd Place in County Bedroom Contest)

I have thoroughly enjoyed improving my bedroom, and I find things are very useful as they are now.

As I went to Tahoka to school my time was very scarce. The only time I could work was on Saturdays and after school hours.

The first thing which I did to my room was to paper it. This was hard because of the condition of the walls.

Next, I painted the woodwork. It was a dark brown color so I painted them ivory.

The door of my closet was on the wrong side. It did not have any shelves. I changed the door to the right side and added three shelves. The floor was the same color as the woodwork had been. I made several attempts to make one to every row of coils, a mattress protector, and two pillow protectors. Also, I added some rollers.

I had an old-fashioned dark oak dresser. Out of this I made a plain dresser with a hanging mirror.

From a bunch of worn-out Sox and stockings I made two braided rugs. My only expense for these was three packages of dye and two spools of thread.

I fixed over and painted a chair for my desk. Before I made it over it was bottomless.

My magazine rack, book shelf, and bench for my dressing table, I made out of scrap lumber.

Linens and scarfs were added. My footstool was made out of baking powder cans and one-half yard of material.

Some other things which I added are wash pan, oilcloth, powder bowl, pictures, soap holder, towel hanger and glass knobs.

I bought the material for my curtains and made them. I also bought some new shades. And now I have an attractive girls bedroom that I enjoy for $9.68.

MEMBER BYRD EXPEDITION WILL LECTURE HERE SOON

(Contin'd. from first page) that lasted eight days, the wind blowing 55 miles an hour, the temperature standing at 64 degrees below zero, and just a tent and clothing for protection. This is one of the many trying experiences of which Hill will tell. He was driver of the tractor that finally succeeded in reaching Admiral Byrd at his advance base 123 miles from Little America when the latter was sick and near death.

Cold! Cold! Cold! So cold that one could hear his own breath freeze and crack; that hands touching metal left skin sticking to the metal objects; that the lungs of Eskimo dogs would freeze during the extremely low temperatures.

Hill will tell of the beautiful aurora australis (southern lights), and also of the pleasures and daily life of the men, as well as narrating the harrowing experiences and hardships. He will tell the purposes of the expedition. He does not regret his experiences, and only hopes that he may some day return to Antarctica.

His narration of the adventurous expedition to the South Polar region is filled with thrills, adventure, humor, pathos.

Several musical numbers will be given in conjunction with the lecture.

Joe Hill, who is himself an Eagle Scout, will give forty percent of the proceeds from the entertainment to the local scout troop. Admission prices are 25 and 40 cents.
