SYNOPSIS Theodore Gatlin adopts a baby, "Penelope," in an effort to solve his matrimonial troubles. But his wife has never wanted her, and their affairs end in the divorce court. At a baseball game a ball strikes ten-year-old Penelope on the nose. Mrs. Gatlin spitefully sends the child to Europe. Gatlin wills Penelope all his money, and is about to begin a search for her when a motor accident ends his life. Some ten years later, in San Francisco, Stephen Burt, rising young psychiatrist, is presented by Dan McNamara, chief of police, with a new patient—Nance Belden, a girl with a dual personality, for which her "saddle nose" is in part responsible. McNamara does not think she is a criminal and obtains Burt's testimony in court. Lanny, the doctor's office nurse, is also won over. Nance's criminal record outweighs Doctor Burt's explanation of her case and she is sent to San Quentin penitentiary. Nance escapes, although shot, and goes to Lanny's apartment, from which, by McNamara's orders, she is removed to the chief's home. From one of the men in the boat on which the girl escaped McNamara learns that Nance's real name is Penelope Gatlin. He is also convinced that she is heiress to $750,000. Fearful of McNamara, in his official capacity, Nance flees. Lanny finds her in her apartment, sound asleep. Several days later her partially restored memory leads her to tell Lanny of her wealthy father, Theodore Gatlin, and of her girlhood in France.

CHAPTER VII—Continued "We've been like two pups, chasing our tails," Angelotti complained when they met at their car. "The chief's up to his old tricks, babying a convict with the gun, and that's the bird Doctor Burt is calling to treat." "The girl's been there, just the same, Amadeo, my boy. There was a lip-stick on the bureau and that's something old lady McNamara don't use. And I found a roll of adhesive, the heel of a roll of bandage and a soiled sheet with some bloodstains on it in the dirty clothes basket in the bathroom." Angelotti was convinced. "Where did she go?" "She might have doubled back to that old nurse's house again, but I doubt that, because she knows that's risky."

"Well, let's give Miss Lanning's house a prowl, anyhow." Flynn was one of those heavy fellows who will try anything twice, so they went immediately to Lanny's house. The lights in front were out when they arrived, so Flynn pussy-footed around to the rear of the cottage to see if any lights were lighted there. Finding none, he listened for possible voices. Hearing none, he cautiously lifted the lid off Lanny's garbage can and bent his flashlight on it. He was rewarded for his courage by finding a stained bandage with clipped adhesive tape clinging to it. This tell-tale evidence he carried around to Angelotti; they entered their car, drove a block and inspected the clue in the light of the dash lamp. Then they silently shook hands.

"What's That?" Angelotti Cried, Instantly Alert.

"Nothing is ever lost if you know where it is," Flynn rejoiced. "I'm going to get my missus a winter coat with my half of the reward. We'll bone the district attorney for a search warrant tomorrow, and tomorrow night when the old lady gets home, we'll make the pinch." "Shall we pinch her as an accessory?" "Amadeo, my boy, unless you're looking hard for something, it's a mistake to see too much or know too much. This Lanning woman is a friend of the chief's. As far as the public ever needs to know we picked the girl up on the street."

Angelotti nodded his acquiescence; they got the search warrant on the strength of that soiled bandage, and at nine o'clock that night arrived in their car. Flynn went to the back door and posted himself there; and Angelotti rang the front doorbell. A light was switched on in the hall presently, and Lanny, dressed for the street, opened the door six inches. Angelotti had his foot in it in a flash.

the bombs if he didn't swipe 'em out of the police arsenal!" Flynn commenced to sob as he considered the barren fruits of his enormous sacrifice.

"Amadeo, swear to me, by our common faith, that come what will, blow high, blow low, come sickness or sorrow, happiness or health, you'll never lay off this job until we've landed that—that buzzy." "Right! I swear," Angelotti's voice trembled with the sincerity of his purpose.

"Detective Sergeant Angelotti of the central station, Miss Lanning. I have here a search warrant, giving me legal right to search your house and secure the person of Nance Belden, an escaped convict from San Quentin penitentiary. Read it as we please!" "You take your big fat foot out of my door and stay outside until I've read this purported search warrant or I'll shoot your foot off," Lanny informed him coldly. Angelotti withdrew his foot promptly, Lanny closed the door, and he could see her faintly through the curtained glass, reading.

"The respective wives of the worthy pair telephoned down to the chief of the detectives next morning and informed him that their husbands were confined to bed with influenza. It might not be amiss, also, to state that Lanny came home in a taxi about twelve-thirty, and finding the front door free of Angelotti, and the neighborhood ozone quite restored to normalcy, retired to her bed and passed almost at once into dreamless and untroubled sleep.

It was not a police car in which Nance had escaped, but the private vehicle of Detective Sergeant Flynn, and its loss troubled him until the car was found, abandoned, out in the Mission, about twenty-four hours later. A glance at the speedometer comforted Flynn. The car had been driven six miles. In company with Angelotti (both now happily recovered from their terrible experience) he drove in the same car from Lanny's house, via the most direct route, to the point where a patrolman had picked up the car; thence via the route followed by the patrolman when he came off duty and drove the car to the central station and reported it. The mileage was six and two-tenths miles!

ters claiming their attention, they were forced to abandon the search that day. Dan McNamara was much too intelligent to make inquiries of the assistant district attorney who had issued the search warrant, but when informed that Flynn and Angelotti were down with flu he called up Lanny at Stephen's office, and received a meticulous report. "You say the girl fled in the car my dicks arrived in?" he queried. "That's terrible. A description of the car must have been broadcast to all outlying police and the surrounding country stations immediately by Flynn and Angelotti, and Nance will be picked up somewhere down state."

For a week, the chief waited for news of Nance Belden, but no news came through beyond some gossip around the central station that the car had been driven by three miles and then abandoned—for which evidence that the Almighty was still on his side the worthy fellow was grateful.

"So Nance was still in the city! McNamara's mind worked so automatically he did not even have to tell himself that, undoubtedly, she had taken sanctuary within a short distance of the spot where she had abandoned Flynn's car, nor did he have to remind himself that Flynn and Angelotti would come to the same conclusion. He had no difficulty in ascertaining the spot where the car had been recovered. "Folsom street and Sixteenth, eh?" he reflected. "Residential-flat buildings and cheap apartment houses, cheap rooming houses and working-men's hotels. No, she wouldn't go to one of those. Not what she is—she has class—and she has two hundred dollars in her possession. She's holed up with a friend. What friend? Why, Ella Cates, of course."

While he was considering where he could dispose of them, the president of the Security Trust company in San Jose rang up. "Miss Penelope Gatlin has just been in the bank, Chief," he told McNamara. "She has purchased a letter of credit for ten thousand dollars and has withdrawn in cash the remainder of the funds on deposit to the credit of her checking account, amounting to eleven hundred dollars."

"Is she in the bank now?" "Yes." "Have one of your clerks follow her. Give him some expense money—I'll be responsible for his repayment. And when you get his report please telephone me."

At three-thirty the banker telephoned again. "She purchased a ticket to San Francisco on one of the buses leaving here at three-fifteen. She spent two hours shopping."

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for September 8 LYDIA AND PRISCILLA

LESSON TEXT—Acts 16:11-15: 18:1-3, 24-28. GOLDEN TEXT—Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her works praise her in the gates.—Proverbs 31:31. PRIMARY TOPIC—A Meeting Out of Doors. JUNIOR TOPIC—A Meeting by the River Side. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Serving God in Our Daily Work. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Women in Industrial Life.

The central teaching of this lesson does not so much concern Christian women in industrial life as it does the gospel of Christ finding them while in the pursuit of their chosen callings.

1. The Conversion of Lydia (Acts 16:11-15). So far as recorded, she was the first convert in Europe and in a real sense hers is a typical conversion. Observe the steps therein.

1. Attendance at the place of prayer (v. 13). There being no synagogue here, the accustomed place of prayer was at the river side. The accustomed place today is the church. However, the worship of God is not restricted to set places.

2. Listening to the preaching of the Word of God (v. 14). Paul took advantage of the opportunity afforded him by the assemblage of this group of devoted women to preach Christ to them. He was always alert and prized highly the opportunity to tell the people about Christ.

3. Her heart was opened by the Lord (v. 14). The individual may place himself near to the means of grace and the preacher may preach the Word of God, but there is no hope of salvation till the heart is opened by the Lord (John 6:44, 45). While the salvation of everyone is dependent upon this sovereign act of God, yet we can be sure that he is willing at all times to do this for those who place themselves in the way of saving grace.

Excellent for Kneading Bread The marble top from an old-fashioned bureau will find a handy place in your kitchen. You will find it excellent for kneading bread, also for beating candy. It is fine, too, for rolling out pastries. It is usually cold to the touch, and for that reason is well adapted for these purposes.

Telephone English Recently, when I was trying to get a telephone call through, writes an Englishman, my listening for the familiar buzzing was suddenly interrupted by an operator's: "What number are you, darling?" "Darling!" Could it be—a telephone operator?

"Beg pardon," I gasped timidly. "What number are you, darling?" came the question once more, I struggled back a desire to banter small talk. There was something hard and commanding in that voice that I could not reconcile with such inviting words.

Travely I ventured again. "I—er—what did you say?" A definite snort of exasperation traveled over the wires, followed by a slightly acidulated: "What number are you, darling?" "Darling!" There must be some mistake. Oh, "dialling." Of course! Of course! —From the Manchester Guardian.

Try CARDUI For Functional Monthly Pains Women from the 'teen age to the change of life have found Cardui genuinely helpful for the relief of functional monthly pains due to lack of just the right strength from the food they eat. Mrs. Crit Hayes, of Essex, Mo., writes: "I used Cardui when a girl for cramps and found it very beneficial. I have recently taken Cardui during the change of life. It was very nervous, had head and back pains and was in a generally run-down condition. Cardui has helped me greatly."

Tortured with Itching of Pimples Relieved After Using Cuticura "My face was a mass of pimples due to some external irritation, and I was in agony for three months. The pimples were hard, red and large and were scattered all over my face. I was tortured with the itching and it kept me awake. "I used many remedies, but to no avail. A friend asked me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment, so I did. Soon an improvement could be seen, and after using for two and a half months my complexion was clear." (Signed) Joseph Paradis, 1078 S. Work Do your work—not just your work and no more, but a little more which lavishing's sake; that little more which is worth all the rest. And if you suffer as you must, and if you doubt as you must, do your work. Put your heart into it and the sky will clear. Then out of your very doubt and suffering will be born the supreme joy of life.—Dean Briggs. True Wisdom True wisdom is to know what is just worth while.—Humphreys.

Communism and the soviet form of government may suit Russia to a T. If Russians are pleased with it, we have no objection. But Russian communists have no right to foment radicalism and rebellion in our own country. We are satisfied with our form of government though we realize that it does not and can not guarantee perfect justice among men. No government can. But that is our business; not the business of Russians. It was on the condition that the Bolsheviks who control Russia would not undertake to interfere with our internal affairs that our own Government at Washington gave official recognition to the Russian Government. Now it seems that Bolsheviks who control Russia have been violating their agreement with us; they have been undertaking to spread their doctrines and to incite our citizens to armed force against our form of government in favor of a soviet form. Secretary of State Cordell Hull very properly sent the Russian Government a stern protest. The Russians have refused to apologize or to promise good behavior in the future. A few more offenses on the part of the Russians and Washington will probably break diplomatic relations with them. Some nations as well as some individuals do not now how to attend to their own business.

If worms, hailstorms, sandstorms, freezes, or some other force of nature doesn't work havoc with the cotton crop of Lynn county the present prospects are that we are going to have more prosperity here this fall than we have had in several years. Cotton men estimate that the crop will surpass forty thousand bales. County Agent V. F. Jones and Assistant C. A. Lawrence figure that the amount of cotton that may be sold in the county tax free this year will almost reach 40,000. It is true that many farmers will make much more than the "allowable" but some will not make their full quota. Furthermore, it seems that a price of about ten cents is practically assured. If everything works out in accordance with the above estimates, it can easily be seen that our cotton crop should bring about two million dollars to the county this season. Besides, the county has produced all the feed it will need. With full confidence we believe that we can now safely announce again that prosperity is just around the corner.

That Italo-Ethiopian situation is filled with dynamite. Italy is going out with the expressed purpose of making Ethiopia a subject province. That is the spirit that actuates the bandit who goes out to rob a bank. Some of the nations of Europe are protesting against this national banditry on the part of Italy. Great Britain especially is aroused. While Great Britain herself is not guilty of this sort of conduct in years past, yet we are in hearty sympathy with her efforts to prevent this bold international crime. When Italy opens war on Ethiopia Great Britain is almost sure sooner or later to be drawn into the conflict; and when she enters, there is no telling what will happen. All Europe and even Japan and China may become involved. It's a terrible responsibility that Mussolini assumes when he raises his hand to strike the black brother at the upper reaches of the Nile.

Since an abundant water supply for Tahoka now seems assured, and since there is little prospect of a county park being established at Tahoka Lake in the near future, we should by all means take steps to beautify our own city park and place it in condition for service. It will not cost much to run water pipes and place hydrants at convenient intervals throughout the park, plant out grass and shrubs, make a few flower beds, provide playground equipment, establish pools for the kiddies, and otherwise improve this fine property. The trees planted on this plot of ground about a decade ago have grown to nice proportions, but nothing but field grasses and weeds are to be found growing beneath them, and the park is not serving its purpose. Something should be done about it, folks, this very year.

Lee Simmons has tendered his resignation as general manager of the Texas Prison System to take effect November 1, a position which he has held since 1930. Simmons is generally reputed to have been the best manager our prison system has ever had. He did not seek the position in the first place. This was a case of the office seeking the man and it seems to have found the right man. It is to be hoped that a worthy successor will be spotted and induced to take the job.

However, editorial response to the plan has been highly favorable—papers which oppose the President in most of his policies are for him when he attempts to keep us out of the pending European super-war. The provision whereby Americans traveling on ships belonging to belligerents must do so at their own risk is perhaps the most important single part of the bill—remember the Lusitania.—Industrial News Review.

THE NEUTRALITY BILL

One of the most dramatic acts of the late Congress occurred, entirely unexpectedly as far as the public was concerned, just before the session passed into history.

This act was the passage of the so-called "neutrality plan," proposed by the Senate, and forced through the House by Administration leaders under a gag rule which forbade any amendments and limited debate to the absolute minimum.

Reason for this unprecedented occurrence does not require a microscope to discover. Everyone knows that Europe is closer to a major war than at any time since 1914. The American State Department doubtless has a much better idea of how close war is than any other domestic agency—it is a possibility that inside Secretary Hull's handsome, impassive, white-thatched head there is knowledge that, if disclosed, would make headlines throughout the country. And, with the memory of the "incidents" that brought America into the World War still fresh, the Administration, which has consistently pursued an extremely cautious foreign policy, seems determined to keep us out of future conflicts if that is at all possible. High spots of the neutrality plan include:

Prohibition of the export of arms and ammunition to any foreign belligerent until February 29, 1936 (by that time another Congress will be in session, and will be able to cope with changed conditions.)

Prohibition of the use of American vessels in arms traffic until February 29, 1936.

Establishment of a strict licensing system for American munitions manufacturers and exporters.

Authorization for the President to require a bond or any ships suspected of transporting arms and munitions.

Authorization for the President to restrict or entirely close territorial American waters to the submarines of belligerents.

Authorization for the President to forbid American citizens to travel abroad during war except at their own risk, unless such traveling is made necessary in order to escape a zone conflict.

It is an interesting fact that the neutrality bill passed both houses by close to unanimous votes—yet a number of Congressmen, including some who voted for it, are dubious. Senator Johnson, old-time advocate of U. S. isolation, said it would not prevent our getting into war. And a few voices, including that of Senator Bradworth, potential Republican Presidential candidate, spoke up against the principle it represents, on the grounds that small, persecuted nations will be harmed by the policy, while big, aggressive nations will not. For example, Italy could get by without purchasing arms abroad—while closing of foreign buying to Ethiopia, which has no industrial resources that might be turned to munitions production, would make it impossible for her to defend herself in the event of war.

However, editorial response to the plan has been highly favorable—papers which oppose the President in most of his policies are for him when he attempts to keep us out of the pending European super-war. The provision whereby Americans traveling on ships belonging to belligerents must do so at their own risk is perhaps the most important single part of the bill—remember the Lusitania.—Industrial News Review.

GONE ARE THE FRIENDS

Albert B. Fall, ill and broke, faces eviction from that famous ranch of his in New Mexico. Something like 14 years ago Fall was secretary of the interior, and had the disposal of incomprehensibly valuable oil rights. When financial distress overtook him, his kindly old friend, E. L. Doheny, came to bat with a loan of $100,000. Mr. Doheny was an oil man. Today Mr. Fall is a private citizen, without any influence whatever in the matter of federal oil rights. Once more he is in sore financial straits. Mr. Doheny, still his good friend, acquired the Fall ranch through foreclosure proceedings and sold it to an outside party. The letter ordering the Falls off the place, according to Mr. Fall, was signed by Mrs. Doheny. The picture seems to have changed profoundly since the early '20s. One thing remains unchanged. Mr. Doheny is still an oil man.—Haskell Free Press.

Nervous, Weak Woman Soon All Right

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanders, of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. After my first bottle of Cardui, I was better. I kept taking Cardui and soon I was all right. The shaking quit and I did not cramp. I felt worlds better. I gave Cardui to my daughter who was in about the same condition and she was soon all right."

CARDUI

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

"ORCHIDS TO YOU" HAS ALL ELEMENTS FOR SUCCESS

A brilliant cast, sparkling dialogue, and a remarkable story go to make up Fox Film's latest production, "Orchids To You", a powerful and unusual romantic drama with a theme completely out of the beaten track, which opens at English Theatre Sunday for a run of three days.

"Orchids To You" is absorbing in its universal appeal—nothing high-brow, nothing psychological—just an honest, human document that grips every spectator in the audience; yet it is lightened with plenty of natural comedy.

The first film to glorify the American florist, "Orchids To You" deals with the financial and romantic troubles of a pretty florist, who, after building up a highly successful business of her own, finds herself in difficulties when her professional ethics prevent her from revealing the identity of a customer. The working out of the plot leads to a romance of a distinctive kind, as charming as it is unique, and certain to add vastly to the following of the principal players.

John Boles, Filmdom's most popular singing star, plays the part of a clever society lawyer. Boles' remarkable talents tend to make "Orchids To You" one of the season's outstanding films.

Jean Muir has the part of a beautiful lady florist, whose trade secrets would break a thousand hearts; while Charles Butterworth, the favorite "deadpan" comedian of laughs in "Orchids To You", as a wealthy idler.

The film has been greeted with great praise wherever it has played and English Theatre audiences are promised a performance that will grip every spectator.

WOMAN SAYS THERE IS A USE FOR EVEN RUSTY NAILS

Wellington—"There is a use for everything, even rusty nails," said Mrs. John Jones, bedroom demonstrator of North Wellington Home Demonstration Club in Collingsworth county.

She dyed some scraps of ratine in the water where one half-gallon of rusty nails had been boiled.

The light brown ratine was used to make slip covers for the cushions of wicker chairs. In order to give a tailored appearance to the cushions a heavy cord was stitched around the boxing. The harmonizing light cushions make the bedroom look light and cool for summer time," Mrs. Jones commented.

CHAIN-LETTER PROFITS

The lamented chain-letter craze wasn't entirely a dead loss. Postal authorities at Denver, where the thing started, supply the figures.

A check up the other day revealed that the extra mail produced by the chain letter scheme netted Denver post office workers extra pay to the extent of about $20,000. Uncle Sam also profited, postal receipts at Denver for the two months of the fad running about $50,000 above normal.

In fact, it looks as if everybody—instead of nobody—profited from the delirium. That is, everybody except the suckers who mailed the dimes and dollars.

But a sucker is a sucker, and that is all you can make out of him.—Texas Tax Journal.

Ruthelma Stevens, Harvey Stephens and Arthur Lake have featured roles in "Orchids To You," which was produced by Robert T. Cane and directed by William A. Seiter.

MORE ROAD IMPROVEMENT FOR HOWARD COUNTY

Plans for 75 miles of concrete paving and 96 miles of surfacing of other types of highways in Texas are now near completion and contracts are to be awarded soon.

Howard county will secure improvement of 26 miles of State Highway No. 9.

The following projects are listed to receive a caliche base and a double asphalt surface.

State Highway 9 from Big Spring 17 miles northwest to the Martin County line. State Highway No. 9 from a point 4 1/2 miles south of Big Spring to the Glasscock county line; a distance of 9 miles.

This is in addition to the eleven miles of asphalt surfacing to be placed on State Highway No. 1 eastward from Big Spring—Big Spring News.

For Bad Feeling Due to Constipation

Get rid of constipation by taking Black-Draught as soon as you notice that bowel activity has slowed up or you begin to feel sluggish. Thousands prefer Black-Draught for the refreshing relief it has brought them. Mrs. Ray Mullins, of Lefe, Ark., writes: "My husband and I both take Theford's Black-Draught and find it splendid for constipation, biliousness, and the disagreeable, aching, tired feeling that comes from this condition." With reference to Syrup of Black-Draught, which this mother gives her children, she says: "They like the taste and it gave such good results."

BLACK-DRAUGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fenton are the parents of a fine little daughter born early Tuesday morning. Both mother and babe are doing well. Mrs. Fenton was the former Miss Jettie Faulkner.

Miss Mareda Hickerson, who teaches in the Louisiana State Normal College at Natchitoches, came up Monday to spend a week visiting her father, John Hickerson. She expects to leave Monday.

Several Such Dresses Solve Sports Problem

PATTERN 2345

Having everything "under control" is the best way to put in a poised charming appearance on every occasion. That calls for a wardrobe extensive enough to fill the increased demands for which we nominate this dandy "Handy Sport" pattern. The clean-cut neckline is achieved with unique sleeve sections running right across a trimly tailored neck band. Darts over the bust lend a flattering note of softness and the pockets are a welcome change from the usual square. Shantung, sports silk, linen, pique would all be good whether you make it as is, or with contrasting yoke, sleeves, belt and pocket. Pattern 2345 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 3 1/4 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

SEND FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this pattern. Write plainly name, address, and style number. BE SURE TO STATE SIZE. Address all orders to the Sewing Circle Pattern Department, 243 West Seventeenth Street, New York City.

REVENGE

"I don't care," said the little girl who had not been invited to the party. "I'll be even with them." "What will you do?" asked her mother. "When I grow up I'll give a great big party and I won't invite anyone."

Thoughtful

John came to his mother the other day, crying and complaining that his sister had been teasing him. "Mamma," he said, between sobs, "I wish you would punish Elizabeth." "Now, John," his mother replied, "you would not want to see your little sister punished, would you?" "No, ma'am! But you can take her upstairs where I can't see you."

You Glutton!

"What was your plum crop like?" "Well, a heavy storm blew down 50 per cent of it, and we'd hardly gathered that when another wind blew down the rest." "Bad luck! Could you do anything with them?" "Well, my wife ate one and I ate the other."—Answers Magazine.

New! Fur Coat and Woolen Ensemble

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

THIS THRILLING events which are casting their shadows before via an entirely new type of ensemble which works dress and lining of smart woolen in conjunction with coats of handsome fur into the 7th degree of swank.

Furs of most intriguing type are employed so as to dramatize the picture. Favored pelts include snowflake, nutria, sheared panther, gray or beige kidskin and various spectacular spotted furs.

The coats may be hip length, fingertip length or three-quarter or seven-eighth. Just so it is always somewhat shorter than the accompanying woolen skirt, so that some fraction of the skirt shows below, thus co-ordinating the ensemble even when the coat is buttoned tight and only a scarf, the collar lining or the gilet top shows above the fur.

SMART BLACK

Among best-dressed women sentiment is increasing for smart, refined, "classy" black for daytime wear. Just now, for midseason days, quality-kind sheers that are exquisitely fashioned are first choice.

Gray Felt. A smart new felt hat by Paton for sports wear is of soft gray felt, and shaped like a man's fedora.

AUTUMN BERETS IN UNFAMILIAR FORMS

It being customary to rush headlong into a new season, it will be the fall hats that make their first appearance, and among them are the familiar berets in unfamiliar forms and drapes. In current displays many French milliners are represented as designers of beret. Among the variations of this silhouette, Mlle. Marthe introduces a model with a close back and kettle edge lifted front section, of brown felt, supplemented by a shallow crown part of sectioned belting.

Air-Conditioned Frock Is Newest Note in Fashions

The newest fashion contribution of this stream-lined age is the air-conditioned frock. You've seen it in summer sports things—the porous mesh fabrics tested for air resistance. Now the same term is applied to a group of fall frocks presented in an advance showing, and designed for comfort.

Bishop Sleeves. Fullness introduced with shirring and smocking is being used on new dresses. Full bishop sleeves shirred in at the top and the cuff are most flattering.

Let Our Motto Be GOOD HEALTH

BY DR. LLOYD ARNOLD, Professor of Bacteriology and Preventive Medicine, University of Illinois, College of Medicine.

THE RISK OF BEING BORN

The age group of infancy is usually considered as being from birth until the first birthday. According to the census of 1930, one and one-half per cent of the population of the state of Illinois is in this age group.

Almost half of the babies that died in Illinois during 1930 died within the first few days of life. The deaths up to one year of life totalled 7,153; the deaths within the first few days numbered 3,342.

The next greatest causes of death were pneumonia and diarrhea. One thousand sixty-one babies died of pneumonia; 765 died of diarrhea. Most of the pneumonias in this group are not of the infectious type of this disease. The pneumonia represents rather inflammation of the lungs due to lowered resistance and general debilitation of the infant.

Whooping cough causes more deaths in infancy than does any other infectious disease. One hundred and four deaths were attributed to this cause in infancy in 1930.

There has, however, been a great decrease in the death of infants during the last 40 to 50 years. This has been due chiefly to a better knowledge of the physiology of the infant.

The greatest advancements have been made in the science of digestion. We know what to feed the infant to keep it healthy, promote growth and prevent disease. We know the proper measures of foods to feed infants of various ages, and how concentrated and how dilute it should be.

But when a child passes the first birthday, he enters into the healthiest period of life. If he can avoid the severe infectious diseases, he has not much to fear except accidents; but accidents are a cause of too many deaths in youth.

According to an editorial in the Journal of the American Medical Association recently, the infant who survives the first year can have a life expectancy of 105 years. But not if he gets in the way of an automobile before that.

GREAT BRITAIN'S NEW SCHEME FOR BIG NAVAL FORCE

With statements and denials flying back and forth in London about the new navy Britain will build when the present sea power limitation treaties lapse, one clear fact emerged:

King George intends to have a navy second to none. Surrendering before immovable Japanese objections to continuing limitations under a system of ratios, the British are now negotiating with the principal powers for an exchange of building programs beyond which the powers concerned would agree not to build.

Thus, the United States would agree to lay down only five battleships in a stated time, Britain would agree to build only five and Japan five.

But even if such naval programs are declared in advance, they will not be binding on the powers. Lord Londonderry, the cabinet's spokesman in the house of lords, now reveals.

Any power changing its mind would promise to give a year's notice, he stated. Chief initial difficulty about this system is that no government wants to declare what it is going to do until it learns what the other nations will build.

So Britain has taken the bull by the horns and submitted its tentative building program in the next few years to the United States, Japan, France and Italy. Germany already is tied to 35 per cent of the British navy.

But the British cabinet refuses to whisper a single detail of this program to parliament, which will have to vote the money, let alone the public, which will have to foot the bill.

So a sensation was caused when what purports to be the British seven-year naval plan was published and the cost of the vast armada put at approximately $750,000,000.

STEWARDSHIP PROGRAMS GIVEN BY TAHOKA W. M. S.

Royal Service programs on Stewardship were given in each circle of the Baptist W. M. S. Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. K. Applewhite was leader in a joint meeting of the Blanche Rose Walker and Sallee circles in the home of Mrs. George A. Dale, while Mrs. Jim Burleson was leader of the Lucille Reagan circle in the home of Mrs. George S. Akin. Mrs. Akin served orange crush and doughnuts to seven members. Mrs. Dale served ice cream and cake to the following members: Mother Weathers, Mother Stroud, Mmes. H. P. Caveness, J. L. Nevill, F. M. Billman, H. C. St. Clair, J. K. Applewhite, Thomas Applewhite, J. B. Walker, E. I. Hill, R. C. Well, J. L. Reese, A. J. Edwards, W. M. Harris, E. J. Cooper, and to Mrs. L. E. Weathers and her sister, Mrs. J. M. Malone, Matron at the Girls' Dormitory at Wayland College, who were visitors.

Mrs. Malone favored us with a talk about Wayland College and thanked the W. M. S. for cooperation. During the business session, presided over by Mrs. H. P. Caveness, committees were appointed and plans discussed for entertaining the association, which meets with the Tahoka Baptist Church September 11-12.

Mrs. E. I. Hill as chairman of the menu committee urged that every family in the church bring a generous basket dinner each day, as the Tahoka Church is to serve all meals for the visitors. Messengers and visitors are expected from about 25 churches in the association.

SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH HERE NEXT SUNDAY

After our equatorial summer, punctured with vacation seasons, and divers ways of escaping Sunday School hour and Church, we are now entering upon our Fall season, cool and pleasant, arresting and gripping us for a closer contact with Sunday School and Church, until next season. Neither the weather nor any business pick-up must interfere with our arriving at the post of our Sunday duties—always on time all this Fall and Winter. Thanks for all who star in this matter. Religious enthusiasm is always contagious but never harmful. On this first Sunday of September, may it be said, "They were all present, and seats all taken. Be in all of our services next Sunday. Always glad to have you. Morning theme: "Christian Education and its Implications". Subject at night: "The Church and Young People." How can the home, the school and the Church meet the present youth trend? Come to Church Sunday. You are cordially invited.—W. K. Johnston, Minister.

DAUGHTERS GIVE J. A. REA BIRTHDAY PARTY AUG. 29

The daughters of J. A. Rea, who resides in south Tahoka, gave him a surprise birthday dinner on Thursday, August 29, the occasion being his seventy-second birthday anniversary. The daughters are Mrs. Oleta Kinslow of Chillicothe, Mrs. Mertie Thuett of Close City, Mrs. Daisy Drake and Miss Alice Rea of Lubbock. They prepared and brought with them a most palatable feast.

Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Rea were Mrs. Oleta Kinslow and her husband Sam, their daughter Miss Dorothy and their son Sam Rea Kinslow; Mrs. Mertie Thuett of Close City, Mrs. Daisy Drake and Miss Alice Rea of Lubbock, and a friend, Miss Annie Brock of Chillicothe.

REV. DALE WAS BACK IN PULPIT HERE LAST SUNDAY

Rev. George A. Dale was back in his pulpit last Sunday at both the morning and evening services, and good congregations heard two most excellent messages.

In the B. T. U. assembly immediately preceding the preaching service, County Superintendent H. P. Caveness gave a most interesting account of the trip that he and his family recently made to Akron, Ohio, and to Niagara Falls.

The pastor announced that on the first anniversary of his pastorate here, Sunday, September 15, he will deliver a special message appropriate to the occasion.

METHODIST PASTOR WILL BE BACK IN PULPIT SUNDAY

We are very anxious to have two large congregations at the Methodist Church next Sunday. There were no services last Sunday and all of us should be glad to be in the services next Sunday. The pastor will be in the pulpit both morning and evening. He has prepared two special sermons for these services. Special music has been arranged for each service also. May we all put forth an effort to attend these services.

Brother Smith has been away quite a bit this summer but will be here most of the time from now on. There are only ten more Sundays before Conference and the end of the church year. District "check-up" meetings are being held on the first of each month. At the meeting held in Meadow Tuesday, our church made a good showing. May we all strive to make even a better report on October 1. Cool weather has come and school has started. Let us begin to attend church services with more regularity and finish our work for the conference year.

We are looking forward to the dedication of our church on Oct. 6. Bishop H. A. Boaz of Ft. Worth will be present. The choir is doing some special work preparatory to this service. If you will help us with the music, come to the church each Friday evening at eight o'clock.—Reporter.

CHURCH OF CHRIST NOTES

Services last Lord's day were fine. The attendance at the morning hour was not so large due to the fact that several members attended the revival at O'Donnell. The meeting at Grassland also drew a few. Plans for our revival which begins Friday night before the fifth Sunday in this month were discussed and it was decided to make it the best possible. We feel fortunate to get a man of Mr. Nelson's ability to labor with us.

Our first mission meeting will begin at Edith school house Friday night of this week. Every member that can is urged to cooperate in this effort to save the lost. Next Lord's day I will preach here at the morning hour and at Edith in the evening. Visit the friendly Church.—R. P. Drennon.

MINOR BATON HOLDS FIRST MEETING OF CLUB YEAR

The Minor Baton held its first regular meeting of the club year on Monday, September 2, at the home of the counselor. The meeting was purely a business session and consequently there was no program. Refreshments of cookies and ginger lemonade were served to the members.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McDaniel and children of Alpine, Arizona, have been here this week visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. McDaniel and other relatives.

Get Rid of Poisons Produced by Constipation

A cleansing laxative—purely vegetable Black-Draught—is the first thought of thousands of men and women who have found that by restoring the downward movement of the bowels many disagreeable symptoms of constipation promptly can be relieved. Mr. J. P. Mahaffey, of Clinton, S. C., writes: "I have found that Black-Draught is very effective in the cleansing of the system. When affected by the dull headache, the growiness and lassitude caused by constipation, I take Black-Draught."

Spanish Romance Will Be Part Of Centennial Theme

Dallas, Sept. 4.—The romance of sixteenth century Spain will be woven into the theme of the Texas Centennial Exposition, which opens here next June, by the division of the grounds into seven sections representing the Seven Cities of Cibola.

These seven legendary treasure cities, whose streets the conquistadores believed were paved with gold and whose walls were studded with jewels, were the "will-o'-the-wisps" which ever flickered ahead of Spanish exploration.

Cabeza de Vaca, shipwrecked on Galveston Island in 1528, first heard of these mystic cities from his Indian captors. He carried the news of the treasure trove to Spanish settlements south of the Rio Grande and several expeditions explored Texas in the hope of finding them.

Francisco de Coronado in 1540 crossed the prairies of West Texas, marking his trail with stakes and buffalo bones so he could find his way back, thus naming the Staked Plains in this section. He went north into Kansas and circled into Western New Mexico. He found no treasure. The cities of the legend were at the rainbow's end. In New Mexico he captured half a dozen squalid Zuni pueblos, the lintels of their doorways being decorated with blue turquoise matrix. They were probably the jeweled cities of Cibola. However, he did open the Southwest for future Spanish settlement.

The uncounted wealth of Texas, which has developed from Coronado's exploration, will be displayed in the seven sections of the Centennial Exposition. Each section will be named for one of the legendary cities. In great exhibition palaces will be shown the heritage of the conquistadores, cotton, corn, oil and cattle and all the tremendous industrial and natural resources of the Southwest.

The past two weeks have been spent by Coach Walker and about thirty football aspirants in conditioning for the hard schedule that faces them. Many boys who will train for the team were unable to take this early training. Some of them no doubt will make the team but certainly these who had this early training will have an advantage. The time has been spent learning the fundamentals such as blocking and tackling.

High School Will Organize Band

The School Board upon realizing the need of a band in the school, selected Mr. Babb to organize and carry on this feature of our school work. Mr. Babb has had four years of experience in the Abilene High School Eagle Band and four years in the McMurry Indian Band which qualifies him for this work. This is a splendid opportunity for training in band work without any cost to the pupil.

Thompson, Center.

Midland To Hold Cowgirl Contest

The News has received the following communication from Miss Sallye Covington, secretary of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, inviting Tahoka to send a contestant to the Cowgirl contest to be held there in October.

Who's the prettiest or most typical cowgirl in Tahoka? Find out who she is and send her to the cowgirl contest at Midland October 19-23. Please send me a picture of her suitable for newspaper use at your earliest convenience.

The best looking Tahoka cowgirl may be the champion cowgirl of the west. We are going to find out who the champion is here on October 19-23.

She will not be called upon to do any hazardous feat of horsemanship, but will participate in the street parades and will be asked to compete in a contest at the rodeo arena to decide on the champion cowgirl. She should, of course, dress like a cowgirl for the judging contest. We are calling her a cowgirl instead of a duchess, sponsor, princess and so on.

No fees, no anything except a good time, the possible honor of being the champion West Texas cowgirl, and certainly the honor of being chosen to represent Tahoka, and the possibility of winning the handsome prizes offered by the Midland Fair Inc. While here she will be the guest of Mesdames Clarence Scharbauer and Poy Proc. for at a social event and a dance will be given in honor of the cowgirls.

Each girl is required to furnish her mount and equipment, but the Midland association will care for the mounts while here.

How the contestants will be judged: 25% on personal appearance of cowgirl in costume; 25% on appearance of horse and saddle; 25% on ability of girl to ride and handle; 25% on horse's ability to handle.

Prizes: 1st, $100.00 had made saddle; 2nd, $100.00 complete riding habit; 3rd, fitted hand bag; 4th, pair of hand made boots.

Romos will be available at the Scharbauer for the cowgirls at a rate of $2.00 for single room or $3.00 for double room. If you care to make reservations, state price that you wish to pay for room, I shall be glad to attend to this matter for you.

PENNINGTONS VISIT OLD ARKANSAS CAMP GROUND

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pennington and her father, J. H. Wilson of Lubbock, and Mr. Pennington's nephew, Winfred Rowe of Tahoka, recently returned from a visit to their old home community near Arkadelphia, Arkansas.

Mr. Pennington says that while there they attended an old-time Methodist camp meeting at the Davidson Camp Grounds, which has been in use as a camp-meeting site continuously for 51 years, and that he has an aunt living near there who has not missed one of these annual camp meetings in all this length of time.

One hundred tents were on the grounds, occupied by 176 families, consisting of 780 individuals. Mr. Pennington says. The big tabernacle had a seating capacity of 2,000 and this was filled to capacity at nights and on Sundays.

Rev. Roscoe Walsh of Ratio, Arkansas, was the minister who conducted the services this year.

Mr. Pennington left Arkansas and came to Texas thirty years ago, but he was back at the old camp ground in his tent nine years ago. He says it was a great trip.

Suddarth Back From Boston Trip

W. E. Suddarth returned Thursday afternoon from Boston, where he attended the national convention of the Rural Letter Carriers Association. He reports that 4,000 to 5,000 carriers were in attendance besides many members of their families. Texas made an effort to bring the convention to this state next year but Indianapolis won out. The national-treasurer, however, is a Texas man and he was re-elected. Mr. Suddarth is editor of the Texas Carrier, official organ of the Texas organization, which is printed in the News office.

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICIANS TO APPEAR AT CENTENNIAL

Dallas, Sept. 5.—Massed by thousands, school children of Texas will sing in chorus at the Texas Centennial Exposition here next year. The first program will be Saturday afternoon, June 13, when 10,000 children from the public schools of the state will give a recital in the Athletic Stadium at Centennial Park.

These singers will be selected by contests conducted in every public school of the state. The winners will be sent to Dallas and all will have been especially trained in choral work. The contests and the staging of the chorus are being arranged by L. A. Woods of Austin, State Superintendent of Education.

On Emancipation Day, June 19, Negro school children of the state will also be heard in chorus. It is expected that at least 10,000 will be chosen to appear in Dallas through contests staged in the Negro schools of the state.

High School Choral and Glee Clubs of Texas will come to the Texas Centennial Exposition in October and 5,000 high school singers will appear in the stadium on October 15. These white high school choral club members will be followed a few days later by the same number of singers selected from Negro schools.

On October 1 hands and orchestras of Texas high schools will visit the Exposition. Three thousand musicians will perform in unison at a massed concert. This will be one of the largest gatherings of high school musicians ever staged in America.

LAMB COUNTY WOMAN SETS OUT GRAPE VINE CUTTINGS

Olton—Eight out of 12 grape vine cuttings set out in a permanent location last winter by Mrs. Ray Barte, farm-food-supply demonstrator of the Center Home Demonstration Club of Lamb county, have survived and are growing.

Mrs. Barte says that she took the cuttings from a neighbor's vines, turned them up-side down in a hole deep enough to cover them, covered them moist for several weeks.

The cuttings were then taken up, turned over and set out with their buds upright.

Opening Program At High School Held Thursday

Opening exercises for the Tahoka schools were held in the high school auditorium Thursday morning, with High School pupils and Central Ward pupils present. Quite a goodly number of visitors were also present, although the number was greatly reduced by reason of rain and mud.

Following the singing of "America" led by Kary Mathis with Mrs. J. K. Applewhite at the piano, the invocation was pronounced by Elder R. P. Drennon and the scripture reading was by Rev. Geo. A. Dale. Brief talks and necessary announcements were made by the new superintendent, W. G. Barrett, Principal J. T. Carter, Coach Prentice Walker, and other members of the faculty. All teachers were introduced by Superintendent Barrett. The principal address of the occasion was made by District Attorney G. H. Nelson, who was at one time superintendent of the Tahoka schools himself. Other brief talks were made by Hon. Tom Garrard, Alvin Hicks, President of the school board, and Mrs. G. M. Reid, President of the P. T. A.

Brief opening exercises were also held at South Ward, which is a part of the Tahoka School system, with A. R. Bostick as principal and Miss Mabel Maggard as elementary teacher.

The faculty of the Tahoka school consists of twenty-two teachers, the personnel of which was published last week. There has been one change, however, John Kirkwood of Odessa having been elected to fill the place at Central Ward made vacant by the resignation of Otis Scruggs.

W. G. Barrett, the new superintendent here, is not new in the work by any means. For the past eleven years he has been superintendent of the schools at Comanche, which is a very strong recommendation in itself. He comes highly commended by leading citizens of that city. Since coming to Tahoka he has made a distinctly favorable impression upon our people. He holds a B. A. degree from the University of Texas.

Thursday and Friday are being used in the enrollment and classification of pupils and the completion of all preliminaries. Class work will begin Monday. As yet we have no figures as to the number of pupils enrolling, but it is believed that the end of the first week will show quite an increase over the corresponding week of any preceding year.

ELLIOTT ROOSEVELT GIVES UP HIS YOUNG DEMOS POST

Dallas, Sept. 4.—Elliott Roosevelt, son of the president, said today he had resigned as first vice president of the Young Democrats of Texas, a post his political foes had contended in bitter word battles that only a native Texan should hold.

The junior Roosevelt said he had relinquished the post on Aug. 6.

Two attempts had been made to have him forcibly removed from office, leaders of the movement maintaining he had been illegally elected by the executive committee and that he was not well versed in political and governmental affairs of Texas because of his short residence in the state.

Young Roosevelt said he submitted a recommendation with the unconditional resignation that some "native son" be selected for his position.

The resignation was contained in a letter to Raymond Buck of Fort Worth, chairman of the executive committee.

"I was not forced out," said Roosevelt. "Agitation over my office had ceased, but I wanted it to be a matter of record when the Texas delegation went to the national convention at Milwaukee."

A Seville, Spain, robber was argued out of his loot by five victims who pleaded they would be fired from their jobs if their employer learned five men were unable to capture one "stick-up" man.

FIRST LUBBOCK CHILD IS BITTEN BY WIDOW SPIDER

First authentic case of illness brought on by the bite of a black widow spider is being treated in Lubbock.

The victim is "Dickie" Strickland, 8 1-2-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Strickland, 2124 Twenty-eighth street. The child will recover providing further complications do not set in.

Shortly after 7 o'clock Tuesday night, the youngster came running to his parents from another room at his residence, yelling that something was biting him.

By the time a doctor had been called, kernels of lymphatic fluid had risen on the back of the child's neck. Shortly afterward, severe cramps in the region of the stomach and drawing up of muscles in his legs and over his body denoted the poison had entered the second stage of attack. The child suffered pains and delirious spells during the night.

Wednesday morning, treatments of hot baths and medicine had given the child relief, and his muscles were relaxing.

Since the child had been playing around weeds shortly before coming into the house, it is believed that the spider had gotten on his clothing and crawled to the child's neck and bitten him. A black widow spider was found in the room where the child had been.

The spider was killed and compared with a live specimen in the laboratory of West Texas hospital. Markings were identical, attendants said. The dead spider was not unusually large.

Physician attending the child, who is at his home, said there was little possibility that the bite would be fatal.

THE CLERK WAS RATTLED

A lanky youth went into a general store to order some groceries. He was 17 years old and was passing through that stage of adolescence during which a boy seems all hands and feet, and his vocal organs, rapidly developing, are apt to cause his voice to undergo sudden changes from high treble to deep bass. In an authoritative, rumbling bass voice he demanded of the busy clerk: "Give me a can of corn." Then his voice suddenly broke and continuing in a shrill falsetto he added: "And a sack of flour."

"Well, don't be in such a hurry. I can't wait on both of you at once," snapped the clerk.

TEACHER PREPARES NEW SUPPLEMENT TO GEOGRAPHY

Canyon, Sept. 4.—School children of Texas will get their ideas of the geography of their state from a supplement written by Miss Darthula Walker, head of the geography department of the West Texas State Teachers College. Publishers of the book declare that Miss Walker's is the best state supplement they have ever seen.

Although they were under contract to furnish a Texas section of only thirty pages, they found the information so interesting and valuable that they extended it to fifty pages rather than sacrifice the material which was so carefully gathered and arranged by Miss Miss Walker last spring.

Miss Walker took a leave of absence from her teaching to prepare the supplement. She spent six weeks in Austin more recently, assisting in the formulation of the social science curriculum for the public schools of the state.

Moses Austin was a Spanish subject before he ever had his "dream" of colonizing Texas. He swore allegiance to the flag of Spain when he removed from Virginia to Missouri to go into the lead mine business. What later became the Louisiana Purchase was at that time under Spanish control due to a treaty existing between Spain and France. Spain later ceded the territory back to France and the latter nation sold it to the United States.

LET'S BEAUTIFY MAIN STREET

(By Mrs. E. I. Hill, Local Beautification Chairman)

"Home Beautification", "Town Beautification", "Street Beautification", "Farm Beautification", "Highway Beautification", "County-Wide and State-Wide Beautification". How many times each day do we see the above expressions in weekly and daily papers as well as in many monthly magazines? One prominent newspaper is sponsoring a state-wide home beautification contest, and many civic and other organizations are cooperating with local Home and Farm Agents in putting on county-wide beautification programs.

What is Tahoka doing along this line? The Home and Farm Agents are ready to help you with your problems on this subject. Then there is the Highway Beautification Committee also ready and anxious to offer suggestions.

Now that we have some 5 or 6 miles of paving running north and south in and through Tahoka let us stop to consider the kind of impression that our town gives us as we drive to and fro and the kind of impression it gives to the passer-by who may be passing through our town the "once-and-only time."

From end to end of this hard surfaced stretch of driveway we count some 60-65 dwellings and an even 50 business firms. If our main street is to present her best appearance to the hundreds of visitors who will pass through in 1936, Texas Centennial year, there is no time to lose.

Now that good rains have come each yard that needs it can be easily leveled and sodded with grass before cold weather. This could be done for practically nothing but it would make a wonderful difference in the appearance of the entire streets. Let's all get busy, now, level and sod our yards, clean off the vacant lots, and make our "main street" different!

As to street and highway plantings the Highway Engineer recommends that Tahoka people use one hundred or more trees of the following varieties on this stretch of highway: Chinese Elm, Flowering Willow, and Russian Olive, and that the plantings be made in groups instead of in straight rows.

Let's secure these trees and plant our "main street" to the end of the pavement, and give our 1936 visitors a welcome that they will long remember.

POST GIRL DIES IN HOSPITAL AS RESULT OF INJURIES

Sixteen-year-old Idell Shelton of near Post died at 5:50 p. m. Tuesday in a sanitarium here, a few hours after she had been brought from Slaton to be treated for injuries received Friday night while driving from Slaton toward Southland.

X-ray examination Tuesday morning revealed the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shelton, who live 12 miles west of Post, had suffered a fractured vertebra of the neck, which injured the spinal cord and caused paralysis of respiratory muscles.

Miss Shelton was the only one of several occupants of the car injured when the machine sideswiped a truck.

Funeral services had not been arranged definitely late Tuesday night.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Charles Gagnat, who spent the summer in a Y. M. C. A. camp near San Antonio and then made a visit to California, returned to his home here Monday afternoon. After visiting at San Diego and other interesting points in California, he returned to Tahoka via Great Salt Lake and Denver. It was a wonderful outing that he had.

Pete Hegl has purchased the former M. L. Handley home in the northwest portion of town. This is one of the most attractive homes in our little city. Mr. and Mrs. Hegl expect to move into it within a few weeks.

Artificial tremblings made by setting off tons of explosives now offer more opportunities to study the earth's interior than are given by earthquakes.

Mrs. C. M. Traylor and little daughter Virginia Lee are here this week visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. English.

Deputy Sheriff John Johnson and "Squire" Estes of O'Donnell were here Wednesday on official business.
