SYLVIA ROBB RESIGNS JOB

H. D. Agent Is Given Promotion; Yoakum County Woman Is Coming To Lynn

After approximately two and a half years of active outstanding club work conducted over the county through an average of eighteen active clubs each year, Miss Sylvia Robb, county home demonstration agent, has accepted the same position in Hunt county, where she will take up her duties next Thursday, May 21.

She presented her resignation to the commissioners court in session here Monday, and the same was accepted. Upon the recommendation of the district home demonstration agent, Miss Lida Cooper, who was present, the court employed Miss Lillith Boyd, county home demonstration agent of Yoakum county, as Miss Robb's successor, and she will begin her work here next Thursday.

Miss Robb has done a notable work in this county; and not only has she been active in club work, but she has given freely of her time and effort to church and civic work as well.

Under her leadership club work has not only been built up at home but local club women and club girls have on many occasions won recognition for their good work in district and regional competition, as in the fairs and meat shows in Lubbock and the dairy and turkey shows in Plainview. Miss Cooper is quoted as saying that girls club work is exceptionally strong here.

Miss Ora Anderson, one of the teachers in the Midway school and sponsor of the girls club in that community, will succeed Miss Boyd as home demonstration agent of Yoakum county, we understand.

While club workers and many other friends will regret Miss Robb's going, they will be glad to know that her promotion includes a better salary, a modern and well-equipped office in the Federal Building, with a full time paid secretary.

Hunt county has 54 women's clubs with 1100 active members and several girls' clubs.

In going to Greenville, Miss Robb is succeeding Miss Bonnie Appie, who has been elected to a faculty position in the University of New Zealand.

Two Car Dealers Change Buildings

Messrs. Bill Burleson and J. K. Applewhite constituting the partnership known as the Tahoka Motor Company have purchased the building heretofore occupied by H. M. Snowden as an automobile workshop and Plymouth car show room, and have moved into it.

Mr. Snowden has rented and moved into the Sam Sanford building vacated by the Tahoka Motor Company.

The interior of the building purchased by Messrs. Burleson and Applewhite is undergoing internal repairs. The east end will be used as a show room for Ford cars, which the Tahoka Motor Company handles and when the repairs are finished and the painting and internal decorating completed, it will be a most attractive show room. The west end, as heretofore, will be used as a workshop, and the same mechanics that have been connected with the Tahoka Motor Company at the former location will be employed in this shop.

For four years Mr. Snowden has occupied the building which he has just vacated. For four years prior to that time he occupied the Sanford building into which he has just moved again. The same mechanics who have been operating his workshop will continue to do so in the new location. No material changes are being made in the Sanford building.

Sen. Nelson Will Greet Roosevelt

State Senator G. H. Nelson received a communication Monday from Fred Florence of Dallas, chairman of the general arrangements committee, advising that he had been named as a member of the Reception Committee to Welcome President Roosevelt and Vice President John Garner when they visit the Texas Centennial on June 6. Senator Nelson plans to be there.

Sixty-Four Enter Lawn Contests

"Why, if 64 lawns are improved in this town, the whole town is going to look better," exclaimed one of our citizens when told how many had signed up for the Lawn Beautification contest sponsored by the Tahoka Luncheon Club.

Another said: "I do not expect to win a prize, but I try to keep my lawn in good shape and thought it would be worth 50 cents to me to encourage others to do so."

Those promoting this lawn contest are stressing the fact that all have an equal opportunity to win in the improvement class, as there need be little or no outlay of cash—work and care are the big things. However, it is suggested that the general attractiveness of an otherwise beautiful lawn is often marred by unsightly objects, as fences, barns, or other buildings. In such a case, a few cents spent for seeds would be a good investment. The use of vines and tall growing plants such as castor beans, sunflower, marigold, zinnia, dahlia, or hollyhock may hide undesirable views and give a lawn just the background it needs by September 1st.

The judging is to be done from pictures, and these are being made this week.

Study the following score card carefully, as it will be used as a basis for judging:

- I. Drainage and smoothness (a slight slope from house, free from holes and mounds)—15 points.
 - II. Screen Plantings. (Cover unsightly fences and or buildings with tall annuals, and or vines.)—15.
 - III. Maintenance. (Neatness and order, 10; sanitation, 10; health and vigor of plantings, 10; and condition of lawn, shrubs and screen plantings, 10.)—40 points.
 - IV. General Attractiveness—30.
- Total: 100 points.

Spreading Oil On Highway No. 9

Topping on highway No. 9 was begun at O'Donnell last Friday. Oil has been spread over about two and a half miles of the main highway and about half the loop through the town of O'Donnell. F. C. Stanley, resident engineer, stated Thursday morning, no asphalt is being placed yet.

On Wednesday of this week, the first course of caliche was completed, connecting up with the hard-surface at the southern limits of Tahoka. The contractors expect to finish the laying of the second course within three or four weeks. Work is proceeding on No. 84 west of Tahoka very satisfactorily.

FOUNDER OF SLATON SLATONITE IS DEAD

L. P. Loomis, Torrington, Wyoming, founder of the Slaton Slatonite in June, 1911, died at his home April 15, according to news received by friends in Slaton, says the Sunday Lubbock Avalanche.

Mr. Loomis came to Slaton in June 25 years ago. He continued to publish the Slatonite a number of years and will be remembered by the newspaper fraternity of this section as one of the most interesting editorial writers among the weekly press of this state.

BOARD ELECTS CITY TEACHERS

Several Vacancies Are To Be Filled; Most Of Faculty Re-elected For Year 1936-'37

Most of the members of the faculty of the Tahoka public schools were elected for the ensuing year at a meeting of the board of trustees one night last week.

Superintendent W. G. Barrett was re-elected several weeks ago.

Principal J. T. Carter of the high school had already accepted the position of superintendent of the New Home school, leaving a vacancy in the principalship here.

Bill Stubbs, teacher of vocational agriculture, resigned several weeks ago on account of ill health, and that place has not yet been filled.

A few of the teachers were not re-elected for the reason that it was understood they did not expect to be here next year, had not made application for their position again, did not intend to teach next year, or for other reasons not stated.

Teachers elected at the meeting last week are as follows:

High school: Prentice Walker, coach; Mrs. Lenore Tunnell and Mr. Crawford Babb.

Seventh grade: Mrs. S. H. Assiter. Grammar school: Kary Mathis, principal; John Kirkwood, Miss Lowell Douthit, Miss Linnie Tippit, Mrs. Deck Dunagan, Mrs. W. D. Smith Jr., Mrs. W. O. Henderson, Mrs. L. F. Craft, and Miss Mable Maggard. Miss Maggard has been supply teacher this year at South Ward. She will teach in the primary department at Central Ward.

Mr. A. R. Bostick was re-elected as teacher at South Ward.

Parlee Sales was re-elected as teacher of the colored school.

L. H. Moore Out For Commissioner

L. H. (Lit) Moore, who lives on the line between the New Home and Lakeview school districts, announces this week as a candidate for county commissioner of precinct No. 4, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries this summer.

Mr. Moore has resided at or near his present location for the past ten years and has been a resident of the county for more than twenty years. For a few years he lived near Draw and later between T-Bar and O'Donnell.

Mr. Moore started to make the race four years ago, but seeing that he could not devote his time to the office without neglecting his farming operations, he soon withdrew from the race. He is differently situated now, however, and says that if he should be elected he could devote his entire time, if necessary, to the office.

Mr. Moore is well qualified from every standpoint to make a good commissioner. He knows the country and he knows the people and their needs. He has been successful in his own business affairs. His friends believe that he could likewise be of valuable service to the people of his precinct and of the county in looking after their county affairs.

He is one of Lynn county's most valued citizens, and has always taken an active interest in public, civic, and religious affairs.

He will appreciate the support and vote of the people of his precinct.

Baptist Zone Meet Sunday Afternoon

The monthly zone meeting of the Sunday School and B. T. U. workers will be held at the Baptist Church here next Sunday afternoon.

It is desired that every Baptist Church in the county shall be represented at this meeting.

The program will be given by the S. S. and B. T. U. workers of the Wilson Church.

COUNTY BUYS NEW MACHINE

Elevating Grader Is Being Used To Improve Lateral Roadways Over Lynn County

The new elevating grader purchased by the commissioners court about a month ago is proving to be a great success, according to County Judge W. E. Smith.

Already high dumps have been built across more than twenty lakes lying across important public roads in the county and the roads thereby greatly improved.

Thus far the grader has been operating in commissioners precincts 2 and 3 embracing the south half of the county, and practically all the deepest lakes lying across the roads in this half of the county have been given attention.

Commissioner George Small is now beginning work with the grader in his precinct, which embraces the northeast quarter of the county. As soon as he is through, the grader will be turned over to Jim Izard, commissioner of precinct No. 4, and he will proceed to repair the bad places in his territory. Following that it will be used at random where most needed.

Judge Smith is delighted with the character and amount of work that is being done with this machine, and he feels that it is the best investment the county could have made.

KIMBREL SELLS LAUNDRY

S. D. Kimbrel has sold his Help Yourself Laundry to R. L. Burke of Levelland, the latter taking charge the first of the week.

Mr. Kimbrel and family plan to move to Seminole to make their home.

Scattered Rains Are Some Aid

Various parts of Lynn county were visited by showers the first of the week.

On Sunday night, the rainfall in Tahoka amounted to .18 of an inch. In some localities it was heavier, more than half an inch being reported five or six miles south of town.

On Monday afternoon, .06 of an inch was registered here. A heavier shower fell west and northwest of town.

In many portions of the county much feed and cotton have been planted and some of it is coming up.

A major portion of the county, however, has had insufficient rainfall to bring up the crops, and farmers and business men are becoming anxious for a general, soaking rain.

Purse Containing $26.00 Is Returned

B. M. James, who resides about eight miles north of Tahoka, lost a purse on the sidewalk near Boulion's store Saturday afternoon, containing $26.00 in currency. He came to the News office in a somewhat agitated state of mind and left a want ad, for the purse, offering a reward.

Early Monday morning, however, Lonnie Williams of the Draw community came to the News office making enquiry as to where the owner of the purse might be found, stating that had had found a purse containing $26.00 in money and a driver's license bearing the name of B. M. James. He left the purse at the News office, refusing to accept a reward, and the purse was delivered to Mr. James the same morning. Gilmer Aycock volunteering to take it to him.

Probably most men would have done just as Mr. Williams did, but we fear that there are far too many who would not have done so. At any rate, if Diogenes were here with his lantern seeking for an honest man, he would know exactly where to go to find one.

Will Demonstrate Dairy Products

Utilization of dairy products will be demonstrated by Miss Sylvia Robb, county home demonstration agent, Saturday afternoon at 1 p. m. in the Home Economic rooms at the Tahoka High School building. Eight dairy product dishes will be prepared.

All H. D. club women, and any other interested parties, are invited to attend the demonstration.

Bovell Talks At Luncheon Club

The main feature of the program at the Luncheon Club Tuesday was a talk by W. T. Bovell, who was to give something of the low-down on the bakery business.

W. T. insisted that he had been given the wrong subject, for while he operates a bakery here he declared that his most cherished occupation is that of a fisherman. He proceeded, however, to give a very minute and interesting description of a big bakery in action, that of Mrs. Baird in Fort Worth.

This, together with a few brief committee reports and announcements, constituted the program of the day.

In the absence of the president, Rev. Geo. A. Dale, Vice President Bill Sewell again presided.

Scouts Registering For Summer Camp

A large number of advance registrations have been made for summer Scout camps. Practically every Area town has indicated that they will have a number of scouts in camp. Among the towns that have already made reservations are: Lamesa, O'Donnell, Tahoka, Post, Slaton, Brownfield, Littlefield, Sudan, Circle Back, Rails, Crosbyton, and Spur. Most of these towns will have at least eight boys and several of them as many as fifteen or twenty in camp.

A delegate will be selected from the Lynn county home demonstration club women Saturday afternoon to the meeting of Associated Women of the World in Washington, D. C., the first week in June. The delegate will be selected at the county council meeting to be held in the county court room at 2:30 o'clock.

Club women are raising funds to send the delegate.

Mussolini Goes Through Practical Sclastic Snake Killed One Which End of the Gun?

Mussolini's men entered Addis Ababa, driving out the Ethiopian looters, bringing safety to various foreigners, including our own minister.

Arthur Brisbane

Those impressed by the high qualities of Ethiopia's Arab slave-trading ruler will note that in the great crisis his presence of mind remained. The Associated Press says he took with him on the British boat "the imperial family jewels, many cases of gold bullion and gold coins."

In Florida, a well-meaning preacher, who thought it his duty to let rattlesnakes bite him to show the power of God, actually did let the snakes bite him without first removing their fangs.

The poor fanatic succeeded only in proving the power of rattlesnake poison. The laws of the universe could hardly be suspended to justify the whim of one well-meaning fanatic.

It makes a difference, even to the No. 1 Public Enemy, "I'll never be taken alive" hand, which way the gun is pointed. Mr. Karpis is taken, much alive, with no struggle, beyond holding a straw hat over his face to baffle photographers.

Much efficiency in cash rewards: Dillinger defied all the "G-men"; a reward was offered, and a red-haired lady delivered him to the "G-men" bullet and got $5,000.

Whether the $7,000 reward offered for Karpis tempted some friend of that courageous one remains to be seen.

The criminal is in business for money, and when he can sell a friend for $5,000, that seems preferable to risking his own life. The reward system should be extended; $5,000 reward for evidence resulting in arrest and conviction of any murderer.

The Carnegie Institute announces a "new law of matter" having to do with the "cohesion of infinitesimal particles of matter within the atom."

If it were not for that law, according to scientists, "the universe would consist of nothing but light hydrogen gas." That should interest politicians, who, after the big conventions, will live, until November, in a universe consisting of something lighter than "light hydrogen gas."

England's new king, Edward the Eighth, is said to be engaged to marry the Princess Alexandra Louise of Denmark, twenty-one years old, the English king's third cousin.

The uncle of the young lady says he and her father know nothing of it. Nevertheless, it is difficult to believe that King Edward will remain a bachelor, whether he marries this charming young princess or some other, possibly a good healthy young Scotch girl, if one available could be found.

Dr. Walter Emerson Briggs, who teaches dentistry in Tufts college, says "women can take any kind of pain without a whimper."

Women endure pain more courageously than men. Childbirth has taught them to suffer and endure in isolation. Man shows his heroism preferably in crowds, in squadrons, platoons; often he would not do that if it did not take more courage to stay behind alone than to go ahead with the others.

Women's is the courageous sex, man is the other kind and might as well admit it.

The only certain immortality is represented by our children left behind to work on this earth. It must be of great interest to provide a child to fill a throne and rule the world's greatest empire—whether or not it lasts.

Two misguided Mexicans decided to ring bells of the ancient mission church at Juarez, Mexico, to celebrate the nomination of a National Revolutionary candidate for governor of Chihuahua. The pious ladies of Juarez thought those old bells should not be rung for any revolutionary candidate, and it became necessary for troops to rescue the bellringers from the infuriated Euripides man-hunting Bacchae.

News Review of Current Events the World Over

Mussolini Says Conquered Ethiopia Will Be Italian Colony—House Battles Over New Relief Bill—Some Campaign Developments.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

ETHIOPIA is conquered, Emperor Haile Selassie has fled to Palestine aboard a British cruiser, and the Italian army is in possession of Addis Ababa. The war in East Africa is ended.

Benito Mussolini

It promised a real fight on the bill. When Hopkins was before the committee in secret session, he was ordered to give detailed information concerning his expenditure of the four billions heeded him by congress last year. Hopkins reluctantly admitted that nearly two billions of the original huge fund was still unexpended.

Added to the extra one and a half billions requested by President Roosevelt, Hopkins would have three and a half billions to spend in an election year, it was pointed out.

CALIFORNIA'S Presidential Republican preference primary, eagerly awaited by the whole country, resulted in the defeat of the Landon state of delegates that was put forward by William R. Hearst and Governor Merriam, with Landon's tacit consent.

The winning delegates, backed by Herbert Hoover and nominally pledged to Earl Warren though uncommitted, carried the state by a majority of about 90,000. Mr. Warren announced at once that he released them from their pledge, to vote as they see fit in the convention.

This looked like a blow to Governor Landon, and to a certain extent it was; but his managers claim at least 18 of the delegates will go over to the Kansas on an early ballot. Moreover, many friends of Landon deprecated the fact that Hearst was supporting him, believing it would do him more harm than good; and they were glad to see him freed in part from what they consider an incubus.

Democrats voted almost solidly for Mr. Roosevelt. Upton ("Epic") Sinclair's ticket received something over 100,000 votes, and that of John S. McGroarty, Townsend plan supporter, about half as many.

In South Dakota a slate of uncommitted delegates favoring Landon won over a ticket pledged to Senator Borah, though the margin was slender.

HENRY P. FLETCHER, Republican national chairman, has taken a leaf from the plans of the Democrats and announces that the men nominated at the Cleveland convention to head the Republican ticket will be notified of the fact at a grand outdoor ceremony in the Municipal stadium, near the convention hall, immediately after the adjournment. This plan, of course, is conditional upon the wishes of the nominees. The Democrats had previously announced plans to notify President Roosevelt and Vice President Garner of their re-nomination with a ceremony at Franklin field, Philadelphia.

SENATOR ARTHUR H. VANDENBERG of Michigan has asked Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald of that state to present his name to the Republican convention in Cleveland for the Presidential nomination, but the senator insists this does not make him an active candidate.

"The Michigan state convention generously instructed the Michigan delegation in Cleveland to present my name," the senator said. "But the delegation is unpledged—at my request. I am free to vote as I please. I have not sought a delegation here or elsewhere and I shall not do so. I have not sought the nomination and shall not do so. My situation is not changed in the slightest."

Friends of Senator Borah in Utah tried unsuccessfully for a Borah pledged delegation from that state. The Republican state convention in Ogden voted to send an uncommitted group to Cleveland, following the recommendation of the resolutions committee.

Col. Henry Breckenridge, who offered himself to the Democrats as a Presidential nominee aspirant merely so that disaffected members of the party might have some place to go, received about one-seventh of the votes in the Maryland preference primary. The rest, of course, went to Mr. Roosevelt. Breckenridge made no campaign.

THE national resources committee, which is headed by Secretary of the Interior Ickes, has submitted for the approval of President Roosevelt a plan for the creation of a Pacific Northwest Power agency that would utilize the Tennessee Valley authority and would produce almost as much electrical energy as the entire nation could utilize.

Two of the New Deal's power ventures, the Bonneville and Grand Coulee dams, would be embraced by the P.N.P.A. The ultimate cost of Bonneville will be 75 million dollars and that of Grand Coulee 204 millions. The additional dam and power plant projects proposed by the committee would entail expenditures of approximately 526 millions, making a total of 805 millions.

It is more than suspected that the real reason was the fact that the du Pont family, all-powerful in Delaware Republican politics, had decided that the senatorial seat should go to Gov. C. Douglas Buck, who is related to the du Ponts by marriage. Senator Hastings has always been ready and eloquent in defense of the du Ponts against attacks by the New Dealers.

MINERS and operators in the Pennsylvania anthracite fields have agreed upon the continuance of existing wage levels for two years, though final details of the contract are still being worked out.

Other points decided upon, it was said, are a complete checkoff of union dues, a form of equalization of working time in idle collieries and a seven-hour day during the second year of the contract. The miners now work an eight-hour, six-day week and had been seeking a six-hour, five-day week.

IN his press conference the President announced that administration leaders had reached substantial agreement on the principles and objectives of a housing program.

He declared himself in favor of the Wagner bill, which is designed to encourage better housing through slum clearance. He indicated the bill could be modified to include provision for low cost housing to bring better homes within the reach of low income classes.

SOME one with a peculiar idea of humor played a mean joke on the authorities in Washington. The red flag of Communist Russia with the hammer and sickle was discovered at dawn flying from the flag staff atop the marble building of the Supreme court of the United States. It was so skillfully fastened up there, that policemen and firemen worked an hour and a half before the revolutionary emblem could be removed.

SECRETARY OF STATE HULL has successfully negotiated another reciprocal trade agreement. It is with France and was signed at the State department by Mr. Hull and Andre de Laboulaye, the French ambassador. The agreement will become effective on June 15, and the details of the pact were not immediately made public.

It is believed the terms include duty concessions by the United States on French wines, cigars, retic papers, and luxuries such as lacres and cosmetics, and by France on American exports of agricultural and industrial products. The agreement is also understood to contain increases in French quotas on American exports of fruits, and possibly other products.

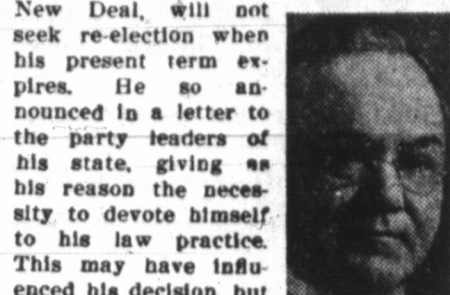

An announcement by the State department said: "The agreement with France is the first comprehensive arrangement for regulating commercial relations with that country in many years. It will provide improved opportunities for the expansion of trade in products of special interest to each country, and will enable the commercial interests concerned to develop these opportunities without fear of the sudden and unforeseen changes to which they are exposed in the absence of such an agreement."

"In addition to duty concessions and quota increases by France and duty concessions by the United States on carefully selected lists of products, the agreement provides in general for substantial most-favored-nation treatment by each country of the commerce of the other."

FINAL elections in France put complete control of the chamber of deputies in the hands of the revolutionary "Popular Front," a coalition of Communists, Socialists, Radical Socialists and minor left wing groups. The new chamber does not meet until June, and the confusion is so great that there are fears of chaos and financial panic in the interim. Many believe the Popular Front will be unable to form a stable government to succeed that of Premier Sarraut. The lead must be taken by the Socialists, for they now form the largest group in the chamber with 143 seats.

SINCE international naval disarmament efforts have failed, those who advocate adequate national defense rejoice in the passage by the house of the bill appropriating approximately $311,000,000 to build our navy up to treaty strength. Representative Marcantonio of New York and a few others put up loud opposition, but a record vote was not necessary. The objectors dwelt especially on a clause authorizing the laying of keels for two 35,000 ton battleships after January 1, 1937, should any foreign signatory to the London naval treaty start a battleship replacement program. Two days later they might have read dispatches from London saying rumors had reached there that Japan was considering laying down a 55,000 ton battleship armed with 21-inch guns.

DANIEL O. HASTINGS, senator from Delaware, chairman of the Republican senatorial campaign committee and outspoken opponent of the New Deal, will not seek re-election when his present term expires. He so announced in a letter to the party leaders of his state, giving as his reason the necessity to devote himself to his law practice.

This may have influenced his decision, but it is more than suspected that the real reason was the fact that the du Pont family, all-powerful in Delaware Republican politics, had decided that the senatorial seat should go to Gov. C. Douglas Buck, who is related to the du Ponts by marriage. Senator Hastings has always been ready and eloquent in defense of the du Ponts against attacks by the New Dealers.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, © Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for May 17 JESUS INSPIRES HONESTY

LESSON TEXT—Luke 19:1-10: 45-48. GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt not steal.—Exodus 20:15. PRIMARY TOPIC—A Visit From Jesus. JUNIOR TOPIC—Why Jesus Visited Zacchaeus. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What It Means to Be Honest. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Taking Religion Into My Business.

"Jesus entered and was passing through Jericho" (v. 1), one of the most noted cities of Bible history. It had been the stronghold of the Cannanites, standing squarely across the Jordan, taken by the marching pitch-bearers of Joshua (Josh. 6), the city where Rahab experienced salvation through her faith (Heb. 11:31). It was fitting that Jesus should pass through the Jericho of his own day, for a new victory was to be experienced through faith—the conversion of Zacchaeus.

1. Zacchaeus Seeking Jesus (v. 2-4). This man, a tax-collector for the Roman power, had heard that Jesus was kind to publicans; for had he not had mercy on Matthew? Curiosity seized him; he must see what manner of man Jesus was. Who can know how many have been led to find Christ through the exercise of curiosity. The citizens of a city are drawn to a church or a tabernacle through the growing interest of a revival campaign. Curiosity widens, becoming the initial motive in many who later have faith in Christ to the saving of their souls.

2. His persistence (v. 4) stood him in good stead. If too short to see, he was not too timid to climb. He had been obliged to climb all his life. Always obstacles placed before him he had brushed aside, or had climbed over them, if a desired goal lay beyond. Now, the goal was a sight of Jesus, and he climbed. Though the rich man of town, he would not let pride keep him from the undignified act of getting up among the branches of yonder tree, for Jesus was to pass by.

3. Jesus Finding Zacchaeus (v. 5, 6). While Zacchaeus was trying to see Jesus, Jesus was looking for him, as always he is looking for the seeking soul. With no word that would embarrass or humiliate him, Jesus bade him come down from the tree, and declared his intention to go with him to his home. How wonderful is grace, that regardless of one's past life Jesus will receive the seeker as a friend and enter into fellowship with him. Zacchaeus did not hesitate, but made haste to come down, and with joy opened his door to the new-found friend.

4. Zacchaeus' Conversion (v. 7-10). His conversion was sudden and thorough. He was converted before he reached the ground.

1. What the crowd said (v. 7) was characteristic; they murmured and said that Jesus had gone to be guest of a man who is a sinner. They could not think of his sin in the past tense, but said it instead of was. Jesus forgives and forgets. He "came to seek and save that which was lost," and he "remembers our sins against us no more forever."

2. The proof of conversion (v. 8) was immediate and satisfying. His new life was begun with resolution and restitution. He dedicated half his goods to the poor. If he before had been a grafter, he was now a generous giver. He was ready to untangle the skein of tax irregularities. While God forgets the past, he nevertheless expects the forgiven sinner to make restitution where possible.

3. Honesty in God's House (vv. 45-48). If honesty must be exacted from publicans and sinners, much more should it be required of those who have to do with the worship of God. It is easy to condemn those who made capital out of the requirements of temple worship in Jesus' day; it is not so easy to condemn those who use the Church of Christ as a stepping stone to personal profit and political preferment. "Judgment must begin at the house of God" (1 Pet. 4:17).

A Firm Faith A firm faith is the best divinity, a good life the best philosophy; a clear conscience the best law; honesty, the best policy; and temperance the best physic—living for both worlds is the wisest and best life.

God's Promises I believe the promises of God enough to venture an eternity on them.—Watts.

DANGEROUS TO TAMPER WITH THE POLL TAX LAW

Frequently we hear somebody suggesting that the poll-tax qualification for voting be repealed. Occasionally a candidate for the legislature will put such a demand in his platform. The contention is that no man should be required to pay a price for the privilege of voting, and that the poll tax requirement works a hardship on many good citizens who find it hard at the required time to dig up the price of a poll tax.

There are two or three strong arguments in favor of the poll tax requirement, but there is one that overshadows all others.

Those who advocate the abolishment of this requirement are usually unfamiliar with the political history of this state and with the political corruption it was designed to prevent.

The laws of this state required the payment of a poll tax long before such payment was made a qualification for voting. It was made a qualification for voting more than thirty years ago in answer to the crying public demand that something be done to prevent the wholesale purchase of the negro vote.

Those of us who resided in any county having a considerable negro population prior to the enactment of the Terrell election law and who were then old enough to take note of political affairs well remember how the negroes were herded together and voted by wholesale for this or that candidate or for or against some measure submitted to a vote of the people. In some counties, the negroes outnumbered the whites and in many counties there were enough negro votes to hold the balance of power.

There were many good negroes who were conscientious in the casting of the ballot, but it was well known then and should be well known now that the vast majority of them were subject to corrupt influences. In such counties, a clean man running for office was thrown at a great disadvantage when he had an unscrupulous opponent. It was in the interest of clean politics and good government that the poll tax amendment was adopted, and the negro's power in politics has been insignificant ever since, for very few of them take the trouble or go to the expense of paying a poll tax.

About the time this poll tax qualification was enacted into law the white man's primary system was also adopted; and it is true, that if the poll tax requirement were repealed, the Democratic party might continue to bar the negro from voting in the Democratic primaries but he could not be barred from voting in the general election.

With the bars thrown down, the negro might be used by some independent candidate, representing some powerful special interest, to defeat the Democratic candidate for governor, or for the legislature in many a district, or other important office.

It's not safe to tamper with the poll tax law.

ON DIVIDING TEXAS

As much as we love Texas, every foot of it, we sometimes think it would be wise to divide the state into several states. In fact, we feel that the time is fast approaching when it will be absolutely necessary to do so if we are to continue to have "government of the people, for the people, and by the people" in this state.

This feeling of ours is not based on any prejudice against any other section of the state other than our own. It is not based on any feeling that West Texas is being given a raw deal by other sections of the state. In fact, we are not sure but that West Texas is getting just about her share of state funds for public schools and road building, population considered. We are coming to the conclusion that Texas should be divided not for the benefit of the people of West Texas alone but for the benefit also of all the other sections of the state.

Texas is so large and is becoming so generally populated out to its farthest borders that the strictly legitimate expenses of making a real campaign for any state office are prodigious. The time has come when no poor man, no man even in moderate circumstances, can hardly expect to make a successful race for an important state office without financial assistance from somebody that has an axe to grind. When a man now offers for governor, it is not a question as to whether or not he will accept financial assistance from special interests, but from which particular special interest he can accept financial favors with least injury to the public good. Owing to the vast expanse of the state and the tremendous expense of making a campaign, it has become almost imperative that a candidate for governor have a pot of gold to start with or that he accept contributions to his campaign from some special interest and thus become shackled in some degree in his services to the people after election.

We could have better government if Texas were divided into three or more states.

ANOTHER FIGHT IMMINENT

The proposal to adopt a general sales tax in lieu of an ad valorem tax on property has a strong appeal by reason of the fact that it is a painless method of providing the taxes with which to pay the State's bills. Though the taxes of the average man—and particularly of the poor man—might amount to much more in a year's time than they do under the ad valorem system, yet such taxes would be paid a few cents or a few dollars at a time as the tax payer might be able to buy, and hence he would not feel that they were a burden to him.

On the other hand, while a general sales tax is "easy to take," it is an unjust tax in that it would permit the big property owners of this state to escape the payment of their just share of the taxes.

By all means, a general sales tax should not be adopted until a proper and just tax on the natural resources of the state is first adopted—a tax on sulphur, natural gas, and other resources. Even then, many of the most common necessities of life should be exempted from any general sales tax adopted.

There is going to be a terrific fight in the next legislature between those who favor a general sales tax and those who favor a tax on natural resources. The corporate interests and the wealth of the state are going to be solidly aligned behind the sales tax proposition. The best friends of the common people are going to favor a tax on natural resources.

It looks as if a battle royal is pending, unless the "intrenched wealth" of this state is to be given free rein in governmental affairs.

Townsendites have announced John R. Miller, mayor of Borger for several terms, as a candidate for Congress against Marvin Jones. We understand that they will also announce a retired minister of Lubbock as a candidate for Congress in this district in opposition to George Mahon. We suspect that Marvin Jones and George Mahon are just as secure in their positions as any man in Congress. Marvin Jones is a veteran member of Congress, having been first elected when a very young man, and he is now chairman of the powerful agriculture committee. George Mahon is now serving his first term but the prospects are that he will serve many more. He has made a good impression among his colleagues and has received unusual recognition in being sent on the special committee headed by Vice President John Garner to the Philippine Island a few months ago when these island possessions set up housekeeping for themselves, in a way. Affable and pleasing in his contacts, George Mahon is of that fine, dependable type who makes friends and holds them. He may not be expected to pull any theatrical stunts in congress just to attract attention at home, but he is both brilliant and solid, and we predict that he will advance rapidly and steadily in influence and power in the House. The Townsendites and the Lubbock minister are doubtless well intentioned, but they are on a cold trail.

4-H Club Style Parade Is Held

Modeling dresses they had planned and made for themselves at costs ranging from 26 cents to $1.65 each, seventy 4-H Club girls from eight communities participated in their annual style parade in the High School auditorium Saturday afternoon.

The program, directed by Miss Sylvia Robb, county home demonstration agent, included a parade of the girls wearing their contest dresses with Mrs. A. B. Griffith of Midway at the piano.

The fair-sized audience of parents and friends then saw how club girls may "retain their girlish figures to the age of ninety-nine," in an acrobatic demonstration by Billie Louise Etter of Wells Club.

The Midway Club girls who were 100% in attendance, costumed in unique tufted aprons they had made, rendered a song, "The Smoke Goes Up the Chimney Just the Same." This was followed by a violin trio from the same club.

Draw Club girls gave as a vocal chorus "The Frog Went a-Courtin'."

South Ward Club gave a duet with guitar accompaniment, "The Crawdad Song."

Miss Robb then introduced the Wardrobe demonstrator and the club sponsor from each community, with each wardrobe demonstrator modeling or carrying other garments she had made.

Midway Club gave a piano solo. Joe Lane of Midway gave two violin solos. "There's An Old Spinning Wheel in the Parlor" and "Beautiful Texas," on the violin that his father made of match sticks and "devil's claws"—the same instrument that attracted so much interest in the school sing-song in Lubbock recently.

Miss Robb introduced Miss Exie Creekmore, a college scholarship club girl from Wheeler county, now a student in Texas Tech, who spoke interestingly of her six years in club work, during which time she cleared $1,000.00 and as a result won a college scholarship.

The awards in the Dress Contest were then announced by the judges, Mesdames G. B. Sherrod, Charles Nelms and E. I. Hill, as follows:

First, Mary Stewart, Edith Club; Miss Juanita Parker, club sponsor.

Second, Melba Evans, So. Ward; Mrs. A. R. Bostick, sponsor.

Third, Margaret Shannon, Draw; Mrs. Willis Pennington, sponsor.

Fourth, Tommie Ruth Anderson, Midway, Miss Ora Anderson, sponsor.

Fifth, Mary Jo Anderson, Midway; Miss Ora Anderson, sponsor.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

Church School, 9:45 a. m. There will be no 11 o'clock services at our church because of the Baccalaureate Sermon at the High School at that hour.

Young people's meeting, 7 p. m. Evening services, 8 p. m. Preaching by the pastor. Come and hear him. We had splendid crowds at both services last Sunday for which we are very grateful.

W. M. S., Monday 3 p. m. Interest continues to grow in the study of "Achieving a Christian Home," which is being conducted by the Society every Monday afternoon. Every woman who is a member of the church should avail herself of the opportunity of studying this question which confronts all American homes today. All ladies who are not attending meetings elsewhere at that hour, will find a hearty welcome at our church. Come and study these problems with us.

Workers' Council Wednesday, 8 p. m. All teachers and officers of the Church School are expected to be present. Some very important business must be disposed of at that time.

We are always glad to have strangers and visitors. A warm welcome awaits you.

MIDWAY H. D. CLUB

Midway H. D. Club met May 7 at the home of Mrs. R. L. Littlepage.

Each member answered roll call by giving a recipe for preparing a dish of green vegetables.

Announcement was made of the 4-H Club Girls' Style Show May 9, of the dairy demonstration and council meeting May 16.

Plans were discussed for raising funds to send a club woman to the National meet at Washington, D. C. Refreshments were served the following: Mrs. Roy Jones, a visitor; Mmes. Essie Russell, Pete Curry, C. McCaskill, Lloyd Edwards, R. L. Littlepage, G. A. Edwards, I. M. Draper, and Mrs. N. G. Cunningham, a new member.

CHURCH OF CHRIST NOTES

Last Lord's Day was a banner day with us. The attendance was larger than usual at both services. We had visitors from Brownfield, Post, and Dixie. But, best of all, one precious soul accepted Jesus as her Savior and made the Good Confession; and still better, that one was our daughter. How happy it made us and I!

We feel that the church is on the upgrade, for which we thank God and take courage.

Our Wednesday night Bible study is sure fine; so many prepare their lessons. How sad it is that more of God's people do not seem to care about learning God's will.

So many seem to think they can go to heaven and not pray, study God's word, attend worship, or give of their means; but I believe they are mistaken about it. We are work-

TAHOKA MUSIC CLUB GIVES CHAPEL PROGRAM

By invitation of Principal J. T. Carter, the Tahoka Music Club, was privileged to present the last High School chapel program of the year, a pleasure which the club always appreciates. It is always grateful for an opportunity to cooperate with any educational or cultural organization, and is pleased to return in even so small a way, the help and inspiration derived from the High School students.

The following program was heard attentively and with seeming appreciation:

Vocal solos, "Mighty Lak a Rose" by Nevin, and Schumann's "In the Garden", sung by Mrs. Jimmie Jackson; musical reading, "I Ain't Gonna Cry No More" by Winston Redwine, who responded to calls for an encore with "When I Grow Too Old to Dream"; a violin solo by Miss Mary Jane Weathers, "In a Rose Garden"; a vocal duet, "Sing, Sing, Birds on the Wing", sung by Mrs. F. C. Stanley and Miss Ruth Sud-darth; two vocal numbers, "There Are Fairies in Our Garden" and "If No One Ever Marries Me" by Mary Bland Wells; and a saxophone-clarinnet duet, "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" by Vance and Dale Gildersleeve. Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth, club president, was accompanist.

Acid Stomach—Get Quick Relief

If you are suffering from indigestion, atonic dyspepsia, sour stomach, gas pains, "raw stomach," inflammation of the intestines (enteritis), gastric acidity and sick headaches, due to excessive acidity, you can't afford to ignore these warning signs. You should try at once the Doctor's Prescription, known as Gasa Tablets. If you allow these conditions to become worse, the acids may eat into the delicate mucous membrane of your stomach and intestine and possibly cause dangerous ulcers. Gasa Tablets are pleasant to take and they start to work in just a few minutes to give gentle, effective relief of pain and discomfort caused by excessive acidity. They soothe the raw, inflamed lining of the "acid stomach," and help convert starchy foods into dextrose, which is so essential to energy of the body, and preservation of health. Because of their remarkable success in many cases of acidity, and digestive troubles resulting from acid conditions, Gasa Tablets are offered now to sufferers under a guarantee that the first bottle must produce results or money back. For only a few cents a day, you may now have the benefits of this Doctor's Prescription which has helped so many other sufferers to a greater joy of living. Ask your druggist today for Gasa Tablets. Take just one or two of those quick-acting, soothing, antacid tablets and see how they help your stomach to "tackle a hearty meal." At—

STEEL MAKERS say—"Ford buys the best steel." Other suppliers of materials and parts will tell you—"Nobody checks up as closely on quality and price as Ford."

This means a great deal to you as a motorist. It is our way of safeguarding the interests of every purchaser and it leads to this—"The mechanical depreciation on a Ford is less than most cars, especially after the first year."

This is one sign of the extra value in the Ford V-8. Accuracy in manufacturing is another. (The Ford is made to unusually close precision limits.) And there is a long list of fine-car features that are exclusive with Ford in the popular field.

Have you a V-8 engine in your car? You pay $1645 for it in any other car but Ford.

Does your car have Center-Poise Riding? Ford gives you this modern feature—"a front-seat ride for back-seat passengers."

Does your car have fool-proof Super-Safety Mechanical Brakes? The Ford V-8 gives you this proved design, with 186 square inches of braking surface.

Does your car have a genuine steel body structure? Does it have Safety Glass all around? Ford is the only low-price car that gives you this extra protection without extra cost.

Yard Planning
 The Home Economics 331 class has been spending most of their class periods this week on yard planning. The members have drawn some creditable yard plans to fit their house-plans which they made some time ago.

The girls have learned some definite rules for yard planning. It is always advisable in yard planning as in many other things, to draw definite and specific plans showing house, drives, walks, and surrounding plants. One should study the merits of native plants and try to work them into the plan. The lawn should never be marred by flower beds or tree or cut up by drives and walks.

Trees should be grouped naturally and never planted in straight rows except in plans of formal balance. Trees should not be near enough to the house to cut off light and air. The yard should have a private area. This may be a back-yard or flower-garden. The beds may be of different shapes, but flowers to be cut should be planted in rows so that they can be cultivated. Vines and hedges may be used for increasing privacy.

A lawn should never appear crowded. Naturalness and balance are the keynotes of good planting. To increase naturalness foundation plantings may be used to tie the house to the ground. Informal balance is best used for homes and plots such as most homes in our city and country are.

This study has served to arouse much interest in beautifying home grounds and the girls regret that they have not more time to spend on this work.

As this will be the last issue of the Growl this year, the editor wishes to take this opportunity to say goodbye. She wishes to express her thanks to each of the members of the staff of the Growl. She appreciates their kind co-operation, and interest in the news edition each week. Also, she wishes to thank Mrs. Bludworth for her help and instruction during the year. Also, thanks to the various teachers who have contributed their help. She wishes to say that she has enjoyed the work, and that it has helped her a great deal.

After spending a week in the Lubbock Sanitarium for treatment, M. E. McCord, who resides a few miles east of town, was brought home Sunday. He is suffering from an affection of the kidneys, and while he is yet far from being a well man, he is apparently much improved.

J. H. Turner and Fred Bucy were business visitors in Anson and Cisco last Friday. Mr. Turner reports that heavy rains had just fallen from Snyder on east.

Mrs. J. H. Turner is able to be up again, after being indisposed for two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Garrison of Houston left Sunday after spending a few days here visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stuart. Mrs. Garrison is the former Miss Mary Stuart and formerly assisted her father in his cotton office here.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

The Mothers Day program of music rendered at the Baptist Church last Sunday morning was most impressive and beautiful. Those fine songs about Mother, and the fine old hymns that Mother used to sing, as rendered by the choir, deeply touched every heart.

The pastor, Rev. Geo. A. Dale, brought a very human and personal message in his discourse that was likewise very touching and effective.

A beautiful Mothers Day program was likewise rendered at the Men's Bible Class at the English Theatre by members of the class and visitors.

"Help Somebody Today," with Miss Goza Lee Thompson as piano accompanist, was the opening song. A vocal solo, "Little Mother of Mine," was given in a wonderfully fine way by Bill Sewell of the Methodist Church, with Mrs. Rubie D. Suddarth at the piano.

Members of the class had been requested to turn in choice Scriptures to the secretary. These were read by W. M. Harris.

G. W. Simmons sang "Memories of Mother" as a solo. "Amazing Grace" being rendered by the class as the chorus, with Mrs. J. K. Applewhite at the piano.

A tribute to Mother by E. I. Hill was read by the teacher, G. E. Hogan, and in that connection the class sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul", with Miss Thompson accompanying on the piano.

Mr. Hogan again brought a wonderful exposition of the lesson, taken from the 18th Chapter of Luke.

These men invite you to attend their class next Sunday.

The services at the Church Sunday night were in honor of the Senior Class of the high school and their sponsor, Mrs. Lenore Tunnell. G. H. Nelson was the speaker of the occasion, and his address was much enjoyed by the entire congregation.

There were more than 240 in Sunday School last Sunday. Everybody is urged to be strictly on time next Sunday, in order that Sunday School may close a little early on account of the "Baccalaureate" service at the high school auditorium at 11 o'clock.

WILSON CLUB ACHIEVEMENTS

The Wilson Home Demonstration Club started the year's work with and third week without an exception. The attendance is holding up with enthusiasm. We have met every first unusually well.

The Club had several entries in the Lubbock Meat Show. Mrs. Lumsden won a prize on canned sausage.

On April 2, the play "The Gate to Happiness" was presented in the gymnasium. The proceeds, $23.70, will be used to defray the expenses of the delegate to the short course at College Station.

On April 30, the club sponsored the ex-senior play "Annabelle Lee" at New Home, receiving $4.62 as their share of proceeds. This will be placed in the fund being raised in each club to help send a county delegate to Washington. The remainder of this club's apportionment of the fund is being collected now, each member paying 25 cents.

The luncheon demonstrating family style table service and serving leafy vegetables was given May 1 at one o'clock. There were four tables, all attractively arranged for a family of six. This luncheon was sponsored by the foods demonstrator. There were 21 members and one visitor present.

The kitchen demonstrator is at work remodeling her kitchen, but has not completed enough to report at this time.

The foods demonstrator reports a garden planted and growing nicely. The cooperators are busy improving kitchens by refinishing woodwork, screening opening and planning other improvements. Almost all members have gardens growing rapidly.

Muscular Pains Promptly Removed

Feels Like Living Again After Many Years Suffering

In commenting about her long illness with muscular rheumatic pains, Mrs. Ivan Yargus states, "I had such pain in my back, shoulders, neck, arms and hands that I couldn't rest at night. I couldn't raise my arms to comb my hair and felt life wasn't worth living. I saw an ad in the paper about Williams R. U. X. Compound and got a bottle. After two doses the pain began to leave. I have taken this medicine now for a little over two weeks and feel like living again. Can do all my work now where before I had to have of many others taking Williams R. help."

Mrs. Yargus' experience is like that of U. X. Compound, who have found that it is no longer necessary to suffer stabbing muscular rheumatic pains without the benefits of this doctor's prescription.

Take just a few doses and see how quickly you are relieved. Williams R. U. X. Compound contains pain-relieving ingredients which are absorbed into the blood, and carried to sore, inflamed muscles and parts, giving ease and comfort which is a blessing to sufferers.

Don't let muscular rheumatic pains tear you down. Get a bottle of WILLIAMS R. U. X. COMPOUND today and get relief. On sale at—WYNN COLLIER DRUGGIST

Unicameral Legislature Is Proposed For Texas

By G. H. NELSON
State Senator, 30th District

THE FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The free conference committee in Texas is composed of five men appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives from such House and five from the Senate appointed by the Lieutenant Governor. It being the rule that the Speaker and the Lieutenant Governor can appoint whomsoever they will, it is easy to be seen that the selection of such men, so far as legislation in this state is concerned, becomes a very important matter.

The function of this committee, supposedly, is to iron out the differences in a bill which might exist as it comes from each of the two houses. Practically every piece of major legislation goes into the hands of a free conference committee. What they actually do, is to write that character of bill which to them seems most plausible. There are no restrictions upon them; they can add to or deduct as they may see fit. They can, and in many instances do, write a completely new Bill and pass it back to the two Houses, which by them must be rejected or received without amendment.

It is not difficult, therefore, to see that instead of a two house Legislature, as most people of this State think we have, we do in fact have three Houses, the free conference committee being the most powerful of the three. No record is kept or has ever been kept by any free conference committee of any State in this Union of how the members of such committee vote. How are the people to know who is responsible for the formation of various pieces of legislation under such a system?

I have no objection to the free conference committee under our present form of Legislature. I know there must come a time when the consideration of a Bill must cease if an agreement is to ever be reached. I know likewise there must be some body of men to adjust the differences between the two houses so long as we have two houses. Neither do I believe that a free conference committee can be successfully instructed for the reason that the instruction from one house to their committee may not conform to the instruction given the committee from the other.

It will therefore be seen that should such conferees from the one house receive instruction counter to those from the other there will come a deadlock in legislation resulting in the defeat of the pending legislation.

It is the elimination of the necessity for such a free conference committee and the consequent elimination of the evils of the same for which I contend. It is altogether possible, and it has actually happened in many instances, when a man could stand on the floor of either house, fight for and secure the passage in his respective house of legislation demanded by his constituency, and immediately thereafter by becoming a member of the free conference committee, defeat under cover, the very thing he was instrumental in having done in the open.

Hence, you can see that the elimination of the free conference means the elimination of the opportunity for your Representative to dodge responsibility. It will tend to put his work in the open where the spotlight of public opinion is ever beaming upon him.

"FOLLOW THE FLEET" WITH FRED ASTAIRE, GINGER ROGERS AT THE ENGLISH

In the parlance of the men who write motion picture ad copy, "Follow the Fleet," the new Astaire-Rogers picture booked for showing at the English Theatre Sunday, Monday, and Tuesday, is a terrific musical bombshell, with a complete score by Irving Berlin. The music master doesn't come to the screen himself, but his genius floods it from front to back to provide rhythm for the miraculous feet of Astaire and Rogers and infectious lyrics for their voices.

The nimble Astaire and his lithe titian-haired partner, have scored three record smashing hits within the short period of a year. They come to the public with quite a new and bewildering display in "Follow the Fleet."

Astaire sings and dances to "We Saw the Sea" and "I'd Rather Lead a Band." With Miss Rogers he sings and dances to "All My Eggs in One Basket" and "Let's Face the Music and Dance." Miss Rogers has a solo song and dance, "Let Yourself Go," which is reprised with Fred as a dance contest. Randolph Scott, who first crashed in that musical fantasy of Paris, "Roberta," reaches for new laurels in this show. He neither sings nor dances but delivers red-blooded romantic appeal.

All Astaire-Rogers pictures have one or more personality surprises to pop. "Gay Divorcee" was loaded with them. . . Astaire, Erik Rhodes, Eric Blore, "Roberta" had Scott. "Top Hat" gave Helen Broderick to the screen, and now comes "Follow the Fleet" with Harriet Hilliard, considered by Hollywood the most important find of the year. "Beauty, a lovely figure; a glorious voice, acting talent and a personality that will reach out from the screen to capture any audience," are her assets. She came from the radio and the New York dance bands to play opposite Randolph Scott and help weave the second of the two romantic threads of the story. She sings two of Irving Berlin's numbers, "Get Thee Behind Me, Satan" and "Here Am I, But Where Are You?"

"Follow the Fleet" is an adaptation of two famous plays, "Hit the Deck" and "Shore Leave." New York stage sensations. It is a story of gobs and girls.

TEXAS' $25,000,000 FAIR OPENS JUNE 6

City of Dallas Plans Real Southern Welcome for Throgs Who Will Visit Centennial Exposition This Summer.

By WILLIAM C. UTLEY

“WELCOMED TO DALLAS!” The sign is going up in the city where the $25,000,000 World's Fair of the Southwest opens June 6. With every intention of according to the millions of sightseers expected at the Texas Centennial Exposition which will remain open until November 26, a real, old-fashioned southern welcome, Dallas is undoubtedly one of the busiest cities of the land today.

Her beautiful “salesladies,” the Rangerettes, 50 of the fairest daughters of the Lone Star state, have for the last few months busied themselves with gadding about the country presenting various celebrities with 10-gallon hats and 24-carat kisses, and spreading the news that this is to be one of the most picturesque, historically fascinating and recreationally diverting fairs in the annals of expositions.

Now it's up to the home folks to make good the promises of their much photographed lady ambassadors and put on a show for the victims who have fallen prey to their charms.

Fair Speeds to Completion.

This the Texans are doing in a big way. Three shifts of men, working night and day, are putting the finishing touches on the buildings, exhibits, parks and amusement areas so that they will open complete and on time. Anyone who has doubts that this can be done need only be reminded of A Century of Progress, the World's Fair which had a two-years' run in Chicago. The night before opening day, Chicago citizens, peering over the fences for a preview, went back to their homes heartsick in the conviction that the fair was still months from completion. They returned to the grounds in the

The grounds, which embody chiefly the $4,000,000 plan of the Texas state fair, cover 200 acres. Over this vast area is rising a fairland city of unusual buildings, characterized by massive pile, unbroken sweep of wall and gay, painted borders. Architecture is of the classic modern type, with a definite pueblo influence. City, state and federal governments, and exhibitors and concessionaires are combining their efforts to make up the whole.

Lagoons Are Decorative.

At the main entrance is to be an esplanade, 300 feet wide and 1,000 feet long, leading to the Texas Hall of States. Centering the esplanade will be a huge reflecting basin with concealed lights shining through the water to illuminate the surrounding buildings. Flanking the basin are to be two permanent buildings, the halls of transportation and varied industries.

The beauty of water will be a delight frequently to meet the eye in this fair, for yet another lake will appear in the a hall of religion, in which all creeds will participate.

Flowers and Music.

For the nature lover, the hall of horticulture will be near approach to heaven. It will be surrounded by flower gardens where hundreds of varieties of roses, wild flowers and other floral gems will be growing. Strolling the gardens, the visitor will be able to hear the music from the symphony shell on the lagoon nearby; where outdoor programs will be given daily during the exposition.

Elaborate industrial exhibits are planned by some of the nation's largest corporations.

Andrew Jackson Houston, 82, is the only living son of Gen. Sam Houston, and will be one of the outstanding figures in the Centennial at Dallas.

In the hall of varied industries, electricity and communications, for instance, will be found General Electric, Westinghouse, the American Telephone and Telegraph company, du Pont and other manufacturers.

In the hall of transportation and petroleum will be the displays of the great automobile and airplane manufacturers, as well as the oil companies. The petroleum show will be inspired by Texas' leadership in the production of oil.

Midway Takes Shape.

No matter if he misses many of the cultural and educational exhibits the average visitor never fails to find his way to the Midway of a world's fair. At Dallas the seeker after entertainment will find it plentiful. Already nearing completion are the German Black Forest village, the English village, the famous Old Globe theater of Sixteenth century London, and other gay spots which were outstanding hits of the World's fair in Chicago and will probably be repeated in many world's fairs to come.

The visitor's comfort will by no means be overlooked by the hospitable Texans. Already steps are being taken to shelter the world's fair wayfarer, especially the visitor from the cooler regions of the North, from the Texas sun. Six hundred large trees have been planted for their shade value as well as the natural beauty they will add to the scene. Also of decorative importance are the 50,000 shrubs which will be set out before opening day.

Leading among the show attractions is the “Cavalcade of Texas,” a vast pageant which will be produced on a stage 350 feet across and 200 feet deep, and will dramatize the history of the Lone Star state, beginning with the landing of the conquistadores in 1519. Many of the 300 actors in the extravaganza will be descendants of the heroes and heroines whom they will impersonate.

Pageant Is Ambitious One.

Audiences at this giant spectacle will see on the stage, artificial rivers with Spanish galleons and pirate ships floating upon them. Massed singing choruses will include cowboys, Franciscan friars, revolutionary and confederate soldiers, trail drivers and Texas rangers. Stage coaches, covered wagons, Spanish armor, frontier rifles, long horn cattle and buffalo will be among the colorful properties. It is said that the pageant will far outdo even the magnificent “Wings of a Century,” pageant of transportation which played to more than 2,000,000 persons at the Chicago fair.

Unique among theatrical effects will be the “curtain” between scenes. This will be nothing more than a vast sheet of fine water spray, 100 feet high, with colored lights playing upon it to produce the mood of the scene to follow. So large is the stage, even great battle scenes will be enacted.

Dallas itself is being beautified in anticipation of a great influx of summer visitors. Fifty street cars and a number of buses are being added to the transportation systems to handle the crowds. Civic plans include the establishment of adequate housing facilities. Permanent guests are being asked to move out of the hotels, and managements are pledging definite numbers of rooms for exposition visitors. At Southern Methodist university dormitory rooms will be opened to summer guests, and at the Hockaday School for Girls dormitories will be held open part of the summer for guests. Hundreds of private homes have listed rooms which will be available to the traveler. The city's department of information is ready to offer what services it can.

All Around the House

Soot on wall paper may be removed with corn meal. Brush off as much of the soot as possible, then rub on corn meal until it becomes soiled, and brush off.

Equal parts of alcohol and glycerin applied to the windshield of your automobile in rainy weather will keep shield clean.

When making iced tea double the amount of tea leaves used. When ice melts it weakens tea.

If water seeps through the wells of your garden pool, paint with waterproof paint.

Bread used in making sandwiches should be bought the day before sandwiches are made. Cut bread thin and remove all crusts. Crusts may be used for croutons, bread puddings, dressings, etc.

Moth balls tied in mosquito netting and hung on rose bushes and grapevines, will drive away rose bugs.

Soak cauliflower 15 minutes, head down, in cold water, to which one teaspoonful of salt has been added. Small insects lurking in the vegetable will be drawn out.

Dilute canned soup with water in which vegetables have been boiled instead of with pure water. The flavor is much better.

To determine whether or not the soil in your garden is acid, buy 10 cents' worth of litmus paper at the drug store. Put litmus in a ball of moistened earth taken from your garden. If the slip turns pink, soil is acid.

Sympathy Has Power
Sympathy is a mighty power; even a touch of it in the drooping ear, the faltering voice, the quivering lip, will often move a soul to its center. No man is his real self until he has developed his powers.

Usually, a person with a proud disposition has to get his entire satisfaction out of that.

Trouble can be met with resignation and it can be met with opposition.

morning, to find the scene completely changed and the job finished, so swiftly do the builders of modern expositions work.

The opening of the Fair will be the culmination of preliminary celebrations held in various cities throughout the state, commemorating 100 years of Texan independence. This independence, gained by revolution against the government of Mexico in 1835-36, plus the richly dramatic events which followed, and with which anyone who has studied history in the public schools is generally familiar, forms the background for the exposition.

It will not be the purpose of this account to review the historic events which the fair commemorates, for there are many books which do it far more thoroughly. Rather it will be an attempt to cover briefly what the visitor to Dallas this summer can expect to see.

“The most beautiful girl I have ever seen” is the way Walter Winchell described Frances Nalle, Dallas red-head and queen of the Rangerettes who have been used to publicize the exposition.

Plans Are Made For Tech Museum

Lubbock, Texas, May 14.—Tentative plans for the museum to be built at Texas Technological college will be sent to Austin soon for consideration by the State Board of Control. The plans are being drawn by the faculty of the Tech architecture department with the help of student assistants and local architects. Centennial funds amounting to $25,000 have been granted for the museum, and an attempt will be made to raise additional money.

The plans to be submitted are for an L-shaped, modern-classic building of two stories with an entrance at the right angle. Part of the interior will be a two-storied rotunda probably to be known as a Pioneer Memorial hall, which will lend itself to mural decoration and panelling. The panels will commemorate Texas pioneers, especially famous West Texans.

Nelson Has Many Speech Engagements

On Friday night of this week he is to address the class at Spur.

On May 21 he will speak to the graduating class of the high school at Lorenzo.

On May 29, he will address the graduating class at Southland.

On June 4, he will be the speaker at the Wilson graduating exercises.

On Saturday, May 23, he will attend a big Home-Coming celebration at the East Texas State Teachers College at Commerce, where he is to deliver an address.

On June 12, he will discuss his proposal for a Unicameral Legislature before the students of the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon. This address will be one of a number to be delivered by distinguished citizens of Texas and other states on governmental, economic, and social problems in the summer course given by that institution.

In addition to this, Senator Nelson expects to attend the Democratic state convention to be held in San Antonio on May 26, and may attend the Democratic national convention to be held in Philadelphia in June.

BROWNFIELD IMPROVES

Judge G. C. Grider, who is farming this year near Brownfield, was here Tuesday greeting friends. The Judge reports much activity in Brownfield now. Quite a number of new residences have been built recently, caliche is being spread over all the principal unpaved streets in the town, and business in many mercantile stores there is excellent. Yet he reports that Terry county has had very little rain yet and very few crops have been planted.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Stewart and daughter, Aleta Lois, attended a reunion of the Stewart family at Brownwood over the week end.

Mrs. W. J. Crouch left Sunday for a few days visit with relatives in Hobbs, New Mexico.

Mrs. George A. Dale left Sunday to spend a few days with a son and his family in Dallas.

IT HAPPENED YEARS AGO WHEN LADIES WERE HEROIC

Many long years ago there was a little boy very sick in a community north of Lockney, and it was twenty-five miles to the nearest doctor. All the men at the house were either away or for some reason unable to go for help.

The situation began to look distressing without any apparent hope of reaching a doctor. The little child's life was being tampered with by fate while the night winds howled around the house of sorrow with a determination to snuff out the last spark of life with each new puff.

Then a little neighbor girl not yet out of her teens having the sagacious ability to realize the perilous situation, offered to ride to Plainview for a physician in the middle of the night. She was given a race horse owned by the Jaspers who lived near Silvertown now to make that wild ride against death.

The owner of the $3500 horse told the valiant little girl to hold the steed down for the first fifteen miles and then turn him loose. She followed instructions very carefully and returned with a doctor who saved the child's life.

The intrepid little lady was Mrs. John Stevenson who now lives north of Lockney—Lockney Beacon.
