

Texas Is Not New Land, Revealed

Dallas, Texas, July 23.—The opinion current with many Texans, not to mention non-Texas residents, is that the Lone Star State is a new land. But as early as 1540 El Paso del Norte, near where the present city of El Paso now stands, was very definitely on the map as an important place of entry into the land of fabled wealth.

In 1542 Coronado, the Conquistadore, returned from his fruitless search for the Seven Golden Cities of the Cibola to the far north, marching homeward across the plains of the Panhandle "level as the sea," which he had staked with sticks and buffalo bones to mark his backward route. The Staked Plains were on the map of the Land of the Tejas, along with the Palo Duro Canyon which had halted Coronado's men in wonder.

The dramatic story back of the naming of "Llano Estacado" is one of the many thrilling scenes in the first episode of the Cavalcade of Texas, at the Texas Centennial Exposition which depicts the birth and growth of an empire. "El Turco," the treacherous Indian guide, who tried to lead the Conquistadores to death, the noble Spaniard Coronado, with his golden armor and his plumed bonnet, the red-coated soldiers of Aragon and the humble Franciscan Friars who plodded over the vast Panhandle Plains, are all to be seen in "Cavalcade" which presents the stirring events in the history of Texas four centuries ago.

Today "Llano Estacado" is covered with miles of fertile wheat fields. The grandeur of Palo Duro still holds the beholder enthralled as it did when the Spaniards first beheld it, and the city of El Paso guards the one famous "gateway to the north" where lay the fabled wealth. The Conquistadores and Cavaliers found no Golden Cities with roofs that glimmer in the sun. The wealth of Texas lay in the land. El Paso is one of the modern Cibola cities of Texas, which has been built within four centuries. And the staked plains which Coronado scorned, are sources of boundless wealth for the Lone Star State.

A CAPABLE SERVANT

The visit of Senator G. H. Nelson, of Tahoka, to Floydada on the Fourth of July and his talk at that time was a reminder that the district in him has a good representative, capable and sincere. Perhaps a newspaper man might not want to be so outspoken in the matter if the incumbent had several opponents. Fortunately, he does not have and one can hasten to throw some flowers his way, while there is none to be affronted by it.—Floydada Hesperian.

JONES AT A. & M.

County Agent V. F. Jones is at College Station this week attending the Farmers Short Course being given at the A. & M. College. Mrs. Jones and the children are visiting relatives at Eden.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burleson left the first of the week on an extended pleasure trip. They expect to attend the big rodeo at Cheyenne, Wyoming, visit the Yellowstone National Park, and then swing down southward through three or four of the Rocky Mountain states, and thence home. They expected to be gone two or three weeks.

Marian Holmes is the girl singer with Art Kassel and his Kassel-in-the-Air Orchestra, the third name band in free daily concert at the Texas Centennial Exposition in Dallas by General Motors.

Low-Down Given On Bees At Fair

Dallas, July 23.—You get the low down on bees at the Texas Beekeepers Association exhibit at the Hall of Agriculture at the Texas Centennial Exposition.

A queen is never selected after being born. Her Majesty is chosen while she is still an egg. When the bees elect a queen they pick out an egg and surround it with the sweetest of sweets to appease the royal baby's first appetite.

A queen bee only mates once in a life time. She spends the remainder of her days laying eggs. The honeymoon is over when the queen quits the embrace of her drone mate. He dies instantly. Ladies in waiting push food into Her Majesty's mouth while Her Queenship deposits eggs.

The digestive machinery of a queen is so highly geared that food is almost instantly converted into eggs.

Bees have a keen sense of selecting the choicest of sweets for the queen's menu. The workers are content with coarser stuff. A queen has a corps of servants as extensive as a dowager. A queen's daily egg production is bigger in size than the queen herself.

She will produce between 2,000 and 3,000 eggs every twenty-four hours. In Texas a queen spends ten months laying eggs and takes her vacation during the two coldest months.

A working bee always commits suicide, works herself to death. Her normal span of life is eight weeks. There are more than 200 practical uses for bee products.

Mrs. Hall Robinson leaves Sunday for Fort Worth and Dallas to make her purchases of fall and winter dresses, hats, and ready-to-wear. She will be accompanied by Mr. Robinson and by her mother, Mrs. Jack Alley. They expect to visit the Texas Centennial at Dallas before returning home.

Well Known Baptist Minister Is Dead

Many friends in Lynn county will learn with regret of the death of Rev. I. D. Hull of Snyder, which occurred early Tuesday morning of last week. He was the father of the late Rev. O. J. Hull, former pastor of the Baptist Church here, who died suddenly from a heart attack about four years ago when he was stricken while driving along the highway a mile north of town.

Like the son, the father died from a heart attack, which he suffered early Sunday morning preceding his death. Funeral services were conducted in the First Baptist Church in Snyder on Wednesday morning. Rev. George W. Parks of Roscoe, who entered the ministry shortly after Rev. Hull did, officiated. He was assisted by Rev. M. C. Bishop, late pastor of the First Baptist Church at Post.

Brother Hull was 79 years of age and had been engaged in the ministry for 48 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roberts are touring Tennessee, Alabama, and other Southern states as a mere matter of recreation and pleasure. They are expected home by the end of the week.

4500 GUESTS CAN DINE AND DANCE UNDER MILKY WAY

That Casa de Manana, the House of Tomorrow, is 100 light years ahead of anything else of its type in the world came from Billy Rose, Billy's director of the Fort Worth Frontier Centennial on whose spacious esplanade the gaudy facade of Casa Manana fronts.

To begin with, it's the largest cafe-theatre in the world. As another staggering item, it contains the biggest revolving stage in the universe. Compare its 130-foot diameter with Radio City Music Hall's 40-foot one and what do you get? Artist's Conception of What the Casa Manana Looks Like

The dizzying array of 600 arches in the building pattern suggests a general style copied from the land of the bullfighters. Dotted the huge tiered amphitheater will be tables, where 5,500 guests may dine and dance. More secluded parties can be arranged for balcony tables. The brilliant blue and white contrast will, to say the least, knock your eyes out.

There inside as Paul Whiteman twitches his baton to extract rhythmic patterns from the orchestra, the stage will spin around on a mammoth pool to reveal an elaborate setting for the glamorous show guaranteed to quicken the pulse.

With modest pride there will be presented Texas' own fairest daughter, Faye Cotton of Borger, winner of 75-city "Texas Sweetheart Contest," glittering like a Hollywood premiere in a $5,000 gold mesh gown. Other blossoms of the Texas plains will hold their chins up among the Broadway show girls. Big-name stars of radio, stage and screen will have you rubbernecking. Shirley Temple, Dick Powell, Fannie Brice and Everett Marshall to name a few.

If you can come down to earth after the show there will be moonlight dancing designed especially to start a romance and patch up a quarrel each time around the floor. And here's where sweet revenge comes in for the females. There'll be a Prince Charming for every Cinderella.

If the boy friend winks at a beautiful chorie drifting past in a gondola, the jilted femme can pick a waits partner from a stag line of 100 bona fide dukes, counts and princes.

To say it is colossal dwarfs its real magnitude.

MRS. GARLAND PENNINGTON IMPROVES KITCHEN

"Before I began work on my kitchen, I had the cabinet and stove on one side and water on the opposite side," said Mrs. Garland Pennington, cooperator in the Tahoka Home Demonstration Club.

"My new storage space and work surface is eight feet long, finished in old ivory. I removed the shelving space at the top and below on the old cabinet and now I have a table with a porcelain work surface. I have my stove placed so I am able to leave the doors open without the burners being affected by the wind and the other pieces of furniture have been more conveniently arranged. I repapered my kitchen in keeping with the color scheme of green and ivory. I have refinished the stove, added a new garbage can, added new pyrex dishes and an ovenware stone bowl. My kitchen dining room are combined. I refinished the dining table and chairs with oak," said Mrs. Pennington.

KITCHEN DEMONSTRATOR MAKES REPORT

By Mrs. Chas. Nelms, H. D. Club Kitchen Demonstrator

When I decided to improve my kitchen, I first listed the things which needed to be done. The wallpaper was dark and unsightly, the woodwork scarred and stained. The breakfast table and chairs needed repainting; the cabinet was too low and also needed refinishing. Several pieces of small equipment were needed.

My aims in improving my kitchen were to make it a more convenient and attractive work center at a minimum expense.

I selected as a color scheme ivory and green; the ivory added needed warmth and light—the kitchen is located on the northwest—and the green added the desired amount of coolness. The floor was already covered with a dark green linoleum in a marble pattern. It was not worn enough to warrant replacing.

I gave all of the woodwork one coat of quick drying enamel. As it was originally finished in white, one coat was sufficient. I used two coats of ivory enamel on the inside of the cabinet and one of Nile green on the outside. I gave the breakfast table and chairs one coat of ivory enamel. My set of tin food containers was finished in ivory with green lids. The sink is built in a frame so this was painted in the Nile green like the cabinet.

I chose a heavy oiled paper in a marble pattern. The background is ivory with a faint trace of green in the design. The ceiling paper is also oiled paper which will stay clean longer than ordinary ceiling paper.

I purchased a new fiber shade for the window and used a simple scrim curtain of white with green dots which I had. I hung a curtain of yellow print to conceal the frame in which the sink was built. I also purchased a sanitary garbage can, a small wooden spoon and a kitchen stool. The placing of a piece of lumber two inches thick under the legs of the cabinet elevated it two inches thus making it a more comfortable work center. Later, I plan to add two small shelves over the stove to hold such as my recipe file, cookie jar and teapot.

Now, my kitchen is so much lighter and cleaner that I enjoy working in it much more than before. It is so much more attractive that it has been worth all the time, labor and money spent on improving it. The cost was:

Paper	$2.79
Paint	2.29
Garbage can	.50
Window shade	.15
Wooden spoon	.10
Print for curtain	.25
Stool	1.29
Total cost	$7.37

WILSON H. D. CLUB

"I try to select good quality products to can," said Mrs. W. C. Huffaker to the Wilson H. D. Club at the home of Mrs. S. A. Cummings July 15.

"Vegetables must be canned at the proper stage to be of best quality. Nothing improves in quality with canning; it must be good before canning to be good after canning." "Pack products in the containers carefully in order to give more space and also to make them look more attractive. Peaches should be packed with the cut side in or down. Food should not be packed too tightly in the container. Remove all air bubbles before sealing," said Mrs. Lemon.

"It is better to select standard containers for all cannings as lids, rubbers, caps, etc., may be secured at any time for using the containers again," added Mrs. Lamb.

Mrs. Paul Lawson of Grassland gave a most interesting account of her trip to Washington.

Definite plans were made for the club picnic at Tumble Inn Park August 28 at 6 o'clock.

BUSINESS OF PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATION GROWS

The Lubbock Production Credit Association is a private corporation engaged in the business of loaning money for profit.

It seems to have the idea, however, that it requires no money nor labor to run a newspaper. It has frequently asked us to run stories about its operations free of charge. It has so requested that we publish the following statement, which is purely advertising matter, without remuneration. For the benefit of the many farmers who read this paper, we will break over the rules of good newspaper ethics this one time and publish this matter free of charge.

The statement follows: "More members and a steadily increasing volume of business were reported for the Lubbock Production Credit Association, according to E. R. Davis, of Lubbock county, a director, who attended a meeting of the directors of a group of West Texas production credit associations held at Sweetwater on July 15 and 16, 1936. Mr. Davis declared that directors from all over this territory report that their associations are making very satisfactory progress. Farmers and stockmen are getting a better understanding of this new system of credit and are coming to like the idea of budgeting their loans.

"Mr. Davis pointed out that the borrowers find that this method enables them to get along on less money and that getting the money as it actually is needed reduces the cost of the loan. He said that borrowers are beginning to realize just how low the cost of a production credit association loan really is.

"It was reported at the meeting that the Lubbock Production Credit Association had increased its volume of business from $189,387.00 at the end of June, 1935 to $217,325.00 at the end of June 1936. It also was brought out that the association had net earnings of $5,132.00 for the year 1935 and that the net earnings during the first half of 1936 were $2,884.00.

"Emphasis was placed on the fact that the association is attempting to build up adequate reserves to take care of any losses which may occur in hard times. Mr. Davis declared that the facts brought out at the meeting convinced him that stock purchased by members of the association is being protected adequately and that in the long run it will prove to be an excellent investment.

"He said that farmers and stockmen in this territory are making more and more inquiries about the association and that many of the most prominent men of this county are becoming members.

"Among the speakers at the meeting was Mr. E. R. Davis, vice president of the association and the meeting was conducted by Mr. Tully C. Garner and Dr. Virgil P. Lee of the Production Credit Corporation of Houston, who told of the progress of production credit associations over Texas and the United States. They also lead the discussion of income and expenses of the associations in this territory. According to Mr. Davis a great deal of emphasis was placed on the importance of making loans upon a sound basis. A number of cases in which unsound loans had been made were studied and it was shown that such loans are detrimental both to the borrower and the association.

"In addition to those mentioned the Lubbock production credit association was represented by Mr. Wade Cooper, secretary-treasurer and Mr. Roy Sherman and Mr. Roy Fitzgerald, directors.

"Other associations represented at the Sweetwater meeting were Coleman, Marfa, Midland, Stamford, Sweetwater, Wichita Falls, and Texas, the state-wide production credit association with offices at San Angelo and Ft Worth."

METHODIST CHURCH

We had a larger attendance at Church School last Sunday than we did the Sunday before. Let's make it more next Sunday. When you neglect the development of the spiritual side of your life, you suffer an irreparable loss. Since this is true, why not make your arrangements to be in all the services of your church?

The picnic Wednesday night, sponsored by the young married women's class, was a big success. Let's have more of them. This class has set the example. Who will be next to furnish some real worthwhile entertainment? The way is wide open.

Church school begins at 9:45. It pays to be present at that time. The adult division had a decidedly interesting and enjoyable worship service last Sunday, as did the other divisions. Don't miss the worship services next Sunday. They are profitable.

We welcome you to the preaching services at eleven o'clock in the morning and at 8:30 in the evening. The young people meet regularly at 7:30 in the evening. All young people are welcome.

HONORED WITH PICNIC

A crowd of young people held a lovely picnic at the Sandhill last Friday evening in courtesy to Miss Ruth Suddarth, who is to be away at college the second summer term. Weiners and marshmallows were the chief items on the menu—following their sessions with the campfire. Miss Eva Douthitt was "toast-mistress," but the honoree was too bashful to make a speech, a condition which they all hoped college life would remedy.

A tired but happy party dispersed at a late hour.

DIXIE H. D. CLUB

"With the few changes that have been made and the equipment that has been added, my kitchen is a room I will enjoy working in," said Mrs. Guion Cobb, kitchen demonstrator for the Dixie Club, at the meeting in her home July 15th. Mrs. Cobb has improved her kitchen by adding new wall paper, blue voile curtains, baseboard moldings, and cleaning all her wood-work.

Plans were made for a picnic for club members and their families to be held Friday, August 7, 10 a. m. at the City Park in Lubbock.

A demonstration on handy kitchen utensils was given by Miss Boyd. Miss Virginia Cobb gave a demonstration on jelly roll which was very interesting. After letting the roll cool, she sliced it and passed it to all and we found that it was not only an interesting demonstration, but a very delicious jelly roll.

Refreshments of spiced lemonade and honey drop cookies were served to all, after which we were invited out to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cobb's to view the new bathroom recently added. It is very nice.

Our next meeting will be with Mrs. B. C. Aycox September 2nd. Members present were: Mmes. A. C. Aycox, B. C. Aycox, M. Berry, Buel Draper, A. L. Dunagan, L. E. Huffaker, Paul Johnson, G. B. Sherrod, V. H. Macha, H. A. Macha and Miss Irma Macha.

Visitors present were: Mmes. Roy Bayse, Scoggins, H. D. Short, Sue Robinson, Mittie Nettles, Miss Virginia Cobb and our demonstration agent, Miss Lillith Boyd.

GRASSLAND H. D. CLUB

The Grassland H. D. Club met on July 14th with Mrs. C. E. Short.

We voted to entertain near-by clubs, such as Midway, Draw-Red-wine, and New Lynn, on August 11, at which time Mrs. Paul Lawson will give an account of her trip to Washington.

Miss Boyd showed many time-saving things for a kitchen, after which the inspection of Mrs. Short's kitchen was made.—Reporter

MIDWAY H. D. CLUB

Midway H. D. Club met at the home of Mrs. I. M. Draper July 16 at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. G. A. Edwards reported last council meeting. The club voted unanimously to go to Grassland August 11 in response to an invitation of that club.

Mrs. I. M. Draper read the story of her kitchen improvement. A majority of the members reported some improvement in kitchens. Miss Boyd exhibited many kitchen utensils.

Visitors were: Misses Marian Draper, Omega Murphy and Maxine Floyd; Mmes. E. F. Edwards, Buel Draper, and A. C. Aycox.

Members present were: Mmes. O. R. Crow, Lloyd Edwards, R. T. Cope, Austin Rowe, Howard Draper, G. A. Edwards, I. M. Draper, R. L. Littlepage, Rufus Slover, Pete Curry, Sam Floyd, Marie Owen, R. B. Floyd, A. O. Murphy; and Agent Miss Lillith Boyd.

MIDWAY 4-H CLUB

The Midway 4-H Club girls met Tuesday in the home of their president, Maggie Russell. The attendance was very good. Eleven of the sixteen club girls were present.

Everyone had their pajamas finished and they were declared to be 100% by Miss Boyd, county home demonstrator, as she graded them. Refreshments were served and Miss Boyd took a picture of the girls before adjournment.

Dr. and Mrs. Robt. F. Harp and son returned Sunday from an extended trip to San Antonio, Galveston, and other South Texas points. They also spent several days at the Centennial Exposition in Dallas.

The editor and Mrs. Hill took Berta to Breckenridge Sunday, where she went to visit awhile with her sister, Mrs. Earl Rochell.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Henderson and children left last week end for South Texas, where he expects to buy cotton until the crop opens on the Plains.

Rev. H. C. Smith, former pastor of the Methodist Church here, now pastor of the San Jacinto Methodist Church in Amarillo, was a brief visitor in Tahoka last Saturday. He had been engaged in conducting a revival meeting at Southland.

Jim Weatherford returned Wednesday from Higgins, where he spent several weeks visiting H. H. Hale and family. Jim says that although terrific rains fell in the Dust Bowl in May, there has been practically no rain since, and the country is again very dry. The wheat crop is extremely short.

Work Order Issued On School Building

Alvin Hicks, president of the Tahoka school board, received a work order Thursday, advising that work on the grammar school building will be resumed on Wednesday, August 5.

Virgil Shell of Lubbock has the contract for the foundation and brick work, while Roche, Newton & Co. of Lubbock have the contract for the plumbing, heating and electric wiring.

The foundation was completed several months ago, when a hitch came because more money was required than had been provided for the building of the superstructure. Difficulty after difficulty was encountered by the board of trustees, but all the troubles have been finally ironed out, and now at last work is to be resumed, due to the persistence and determination of the board to put the proposition over.

It will require probably two or three months to complete the new structure.

AGGIE BOYS ATTENDING STATE FFA CONVENTION

Cecil Ayres, teacher of vocational agriculture in the high school here for the ensuing year, and George Wright, Bryan Wright, Wyman Johnson, G. C. Price, and James Price, vocational agriculture students, left Thursday afternoon to attend the Future Farmers of America convention being held at the John Tarleton State College at Stephenville.

Following the convention Mr. Ayres and his pupils will visit the Texas Centennial Exposition at Dallas. They left expecting to be gone five or six days.

Mr. A. J. Humphries, who resided in Lubbock a number of years and who taught three years in Lynn county, now employed in one of the departments in Austin, was a visitor in Tahoka Wednesday afternoon. At one time Mr. Humphries was a candidate for state superintendent of public instructions and received a heavy vote, though not sufficient to elect.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sanders and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Sanders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lindley, of T-Bar.

Mr. Ira Hart of Tell is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanders this week.

His wife and children have been here for some time. They will return to their home this week end. Miss Beatrice Estes of Tahoka visited Miss Leah Mae Bell Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Payne is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Dudley Martin, of Draw.

Let's everyone come to church Sunday night. The meeting will close at that time.

J. F. Thorp returned Thursday of last week from a several weeks visit at Gatesville and other points in Coryell county. He reports that crops have been almost ruined there by the dry weather. Politics is about as hot as the weather, he says.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McCord and H. B. Jr. have just returned from Cloudcroft, New Mexico, where they spent several days "vacationing" and enjoying the scenery—and the climate.

I wish to thank the people of Lynn county for the generous vote they gave me two years ago. I will be just as thankful for every vote given me on July 25.

I am still a young man with an ambition to serve. I believe I can do the job to the satisfaction of the people generally. Why not give me a chance to prove it? If you will, my time, my talents if any, and my most earnest efforts will be at your service. Sincerely I thank you.

Farmer Thomas gave his new hand a plateful of mushrooms for his supper.

"Isn't anyone else having mushrooms for supper?" asked the hand, noticing that he was the only one eating them.

"We like them for breakfast best," said the farmer.

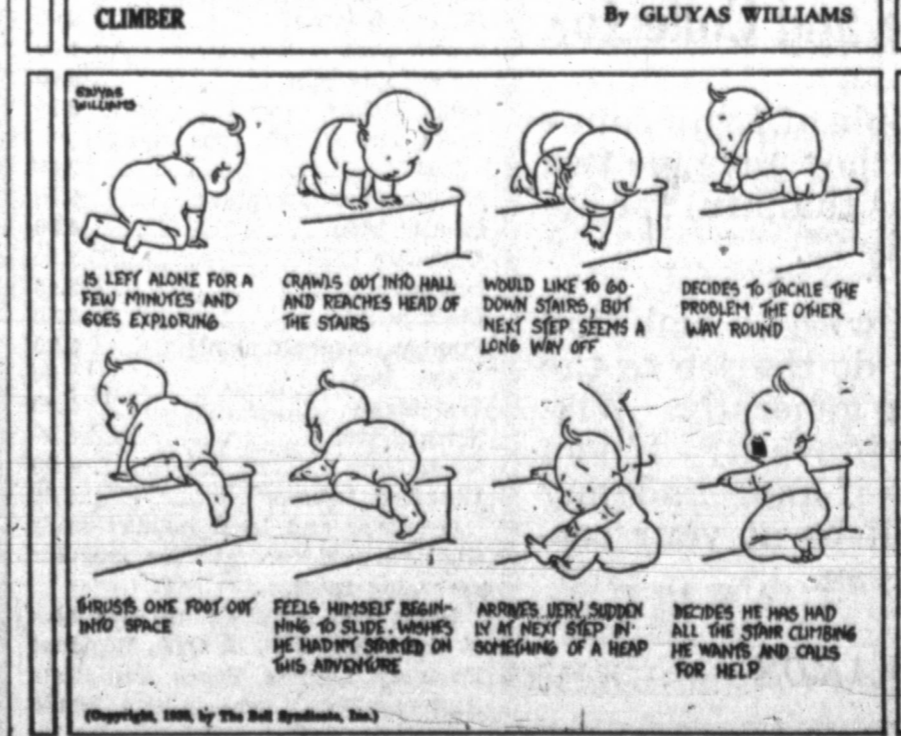

Next morning Thomas went to his new hand's room and asked him how he felt.

"Fine," said the hand.

Returning to the kitchen, and putting his head round the door, he shouted to his wife: "It's all right, Jane, they're not toadstools!"

Married Women Know Constipation Danger

After childbirth, women often suffer with constipation. That is why Feen-a-mint, the delightful chewing gum laxative, is so ideal. As soon as you start chewing it, the stomach-settling mint brings a clean, fresh taste to the mouth. As you chew out the laxative ingredient, which is absolutely tasteless, the flow of digestive juices is increased. The laxative is mixed with them and carried into the system evenly and gently. Without causing upset, it passes through the stomach and into the bowels so scientifically that your action is wonderfully easy and thorough. Doctors prescribe Feen-a-mint's laxative ingredient for both children and adults. It is non-habit-forming. Sold on money-back guarantee. Generous family size package 15c and 25c.

Lesson for July 26

CHRISTIANITY SPREAD BY PERSECUTION

LESSON TEXT—Acts 7:59-64; 1 Peter 4:12-19.
GOLDEN TEXT—Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.—Revelation 2:10.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Man Who Was Not Afraid.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Stephen the Unstrait.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Persecution, Then and Now.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Modern Forms of Persecution.

Leaders of contemporary thought and observers of modern life decry the evident decadence of old-fashioned virtues. Our times are too materialistic, encouraging young people to strive for worldly success rather than high and noble character.

In a time when expediency is the ruling principle, it is well for Christians to emphasize the fact that following Christ has through all the years called for that loyalty to convictions which has caused some who bear his name to be willing to die for him, even to live and to suffer for him, for sometimes it may be harder to do the latter than the former. True followers of our Lord are willing.

I. To Die for the Faith (7:54-8:1). Stephen, one of the first seven chosen as deacons of the church, "a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit" (6:5), having been called before the Sanhedrin to answer false charges (6:8-15), faithfully stands for the truth. His indictment of Israel cuts to the heart. In anger his hearers stone him to death. He becomes the first martyr of the Church, that holy succession which has representatives in the young manhood and womanhood of today, ready like John and Betty Stam, to die rather than to deny Christ. Note that in this hour Stephen was given a vision of his risen and ascended Lord (v. 55), standing at the right hand of God to welcome his faithful servant. He prayed for those who took his life (v. 60). How gloriously that prayer was answered in the subsequent life of the young man Saul, who was "consenting unto his death."

Not to all who follow Christ comes the need to face death for him, but all should be determined.

II. To Live for the Faith (8:2-4). The early Church found that living for Christ entailed bitter persecution. Not even the sanctity of their homes was inviolate. Their persons and property felt the hard hand of havoc-making Saul, yet we find no intimation of complaint. Soon they were driven from home and scattered abroad, but the result was the establishing of gospel centers wherever they went. Living for Christ calls for daily witness, for more than steadily bearing the responsibility of life. Not to preachers and Bible teachers alone is this sacred duty given, to be discharged only in a church service or Bible school. No, "they that were scattered abroad"—all of them went "everywhere." They were not merely reforming or devoting their lives to social service, good as these might have been, but "preaching the word" (v. 4).

Are we who are now "scattered abroad" going "everywhere," and are we "preaching the word"?

III. To Suffer for the Faith (1 Peter 4:12-19).

1. We are not to be surprised by suffering (v. 12), not even by fiery trials, for blessings will follow. The Lord proves his children, even as the refiner tests gold to cleanse it, to prove its worth, and not to destroy it. God's testings are to prove us worthy.

2. We are so to live as not to suffer for our misdeeds (vv. 15, 16). Many are they who would have the world believe they suffer for Christ's sake when they are but meeting the just recompense for their evil deeds. It is a shame to suffer as an evildoer, but an honor and privilege to suffer for Jesus' sake.

3. Believers are to make their sufferings a testimony (vv. 17-19). If we as Christians must needs be purged in order to be fitted for God's service and the glory that is to come, what will be the end of those who "know not God and obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ" (II Thess. 1:7, 8)? Peter refrains from even mentioning what their ultimate end will be, but the writer to the Thessalonians goes on to say that they shall be "punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his power." Solemn words are these. Have we, and those to whom we minister, heeded their warning?

Real Character of Man

It is the relaxation of security; it is in the expansion of prosperity; it is in the hour of dilation of the heart, and of its softening into festivity and pleasure, that the real character of men is discerned.—Burke.

Our Friendships

How few are there born with souls capable of friendship. Then how much fewer must there be capable of love, for love includes friendship and much more besides!

Easy to Knit and Easy to Wear

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

IT IS a foregone conclusion among women of varied activities that knitted clothes are the logical sort to wear at lay or at work. This conviction in regard to the practical wearability of things knitted has come about from actual experience, and not from mere theory. And so the clicking of needles goes merrily on, more so than ever this season.

There is added inspiration, too, in the knowledge that knit or crochet yards have been brought to such high state of perfection through modern processing that one is cheered with the assurance of dependable washability both as to shrinkage and to color fastness. Thus a new confidence has been created in the minds of the practical minded to the extent that knitted apparel has come to be recognized as staple wear rather than in the category of fleeting moods or fads.

As to the knitted items pictured they are new and they are practical, just such as you will appreciate wearing during week-end and vacation hours. The suntan halter as shown in the upper left of the group will give you all the exposure and freedom you need in beach and summer sports clothes. You can combine it with knitted bathing trunks or gaboridine shorts or the popular culotte costume, or wear it with a linen skirt.

Out in the garden on a warm summer day with gay flowers about and skies that are blue it will be the frivolous dainty type of a blouse you will be wanting to fit in with the joyous landscape. Centered in the picture is a pretty blouse that is so simple and easy to crochet you can make it in a jiffy. It is cool because it is lacy. Choose yellow for the color of the mercerized crocheted cotton so that it will match the sunshine of a perfect summer day. This cunning model has practically no sleeves and is held together by a drawstring about the neckline in peasant fashion.

To the left below a sheer blouse is shown knitted of mercerized crocheted cotton. It is the sort that will add the feminine touch to your mannishly tailored suit or will carry through smartly with your summer linen skirts. The rows and rows of tiny ruffles at each side above the waistline is something new. You will like this styling immensely and so will your friends for it is out of the ordinary. The sleeves puffed just above the elbow are also a smart and very new feature. The neck is high, giving that close-to-the-throat line which fashion decrees this season. This high neck effect fills the opening of a classic laped suit jacket to perfect satisfaction.

Cool and lovely in its dainty coloring is the dress pictured to the right. The majority of dresses are knitted but this one is crocheted of soft washable knit-cro-sheen. The work goes rapidly as the stitch is a very open lace one. A dress of this type should go into every trunk that is vacation bound, for it packs, washes and wears beautifully. The soft rolled collar and the cord and tassel fastenings are style details that give "class" that is recognized at a glance.

Of course you have taken note of the crownless garden hats which the girls in the sweaters are wearing. You can make one yourself and at trifling cost—just one of those big farmer straw hats with the crown cut out and the brim slashed up the back, rounding the corners. Finish all edges with a wide bias-cut binding of gay gingham and add ties of the same.

STAR-PRINT CREPE

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Attractively studded with the symbol of the Lone Star state, this star print crepe cocktail dress is a special design in honor of the Centennial now being held there. The closely positioned buttons, the tunic silhouette, the fanciful slit hemline, the widened puffed shoulders and the turnover collar effect are all contributing style details. Free-flowing, allowing ease of movement, this smart-looking dress is ideal for semi-formal wear.

WOMEN ADD COLOR; DON GAY GALLUSES

Not satisfied with copying men's suits, both as to material and styling, the women are now wearing suspenders. They have discovered that galluses not only furnish an added chance to introduce color and swank to the accessory theme, but these dashing skirt "holder-uppers" are exceedingly practical. In the narrow width sizes, chosen to form a daring contrast with the suit and blouse, suspenders present a smart appearance as they flash out from behind an unbuttoned jacket.

The whole idea, designers claim, is not just another fashion whim but springs directly out of style requirements set by the present trends in women's apparel; manly suits, hence suspenders! Clipping onto the skirt, suspenders hold this garment in line properly, preventing it from acquiring that ungainly "sat-in" look.

Swim Suits Are Dark and Snug-Fitting This Season

Wine-and-white is the prize color combination for swim suits this season.

Navy-and-white comes next, and then black, in lustrous suits of elastic satin.

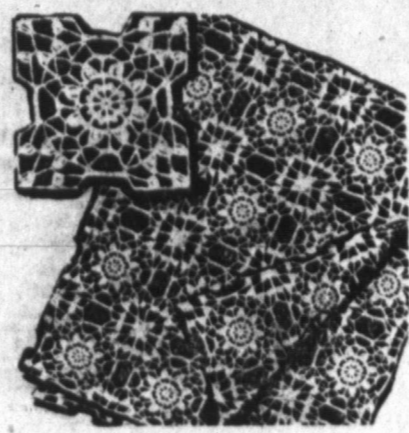

Most of the newest suits have a dressmaker look. They are closely fitted, complete with uplift brassiere top, halter necks and sunbacks.

The great-open-spaces fad, which left the tummy bare to the sun's rays, is doing a graceful fadeout.

Negligee Ensemble

In making a silk nightgown, buy enough silk to include a little bed jacket to match it. This can be elbow or waist length and slip on over the nightgown for breakfast in bed.

For Bedspread and Scarf

Pattern 5560

"Company's coming!"—so out with the best bedspread, the dresser's matching scarf, both crocheted this easy way. You'll have reason indeed, to be proud of this lacy pair, to say nothing of a tea or dinner cloth, buffet or vanity set, all of which grow little by little as you crochet a simple medallion in humble string. Repeated and joined they make stunning "heirlooms." In pattern 5560 you will find complete instructions for making the square shown; an illustration

Beautiful Memories

Each one of us possesses a store of beautiful memories which he alone can read, a volume closed to all but himself. These are treasured throughout the years, and may include some special kindness shown, some hospitality extended, some word of encouragement spoken at the psychological moment. A recommended book, an appreciative note may have given to us lasting pleasure and inspiration.

It is decidedly ungrateful to accept so much without giving all we can! So let us take time to consider how many beautiful memories we are creating for others. Are we prompt in writing the letter which will bring happiness and comfort to some one waiting to hear? Are we dropping cards or roses or gifts to our friends on ordinary as well as special days?

Beautiful memories are easy to live with; so let us cherish those we have and deliberately go out of our way to provide many for others.—R. E. C.

Major H. Rodgers Visits In Far North

Mr. and Mrs. Major H. Rodgers and two children were here a short time Wednesday on their way home at Levelland from a trip which carried them to the Canadian border, followed by a visit to the great Texas Centennial. Mrs. Rodgers was reared in this county, being a daughter of Charley Doak of O'Donnell, the first sheriff of Lynn county.

Mrs. Rodgers made a brief call at the News office and related some interesting incidents of the trip. For instance, one of the interesting points visited was Lake Itasca, the source of the Mississippi River. Mrs. Rodgers says that she waded across the Mississippi at the point where it starts its way onward from the lake to the sea. At that point it is a stream only three or four feet wide and the water is just a few inches deep. So there was no hazard in wading the stream. Lake Itasca is surrounded by mountains, she says, and the little baby Mississippi

To The People Of Lynn County—

You are going to the polls Saturday, July 25th, 1936 to select a man to handle your County Clerk's office. I have endeavored to see each of you personally and place my application with you. In case I have missed a single person in this County, please consider this as my solicitation of your support.

I want to thank the people of Lynn County for the wonderful way they have treated me, for all the courtesies that I have been extended, and for the votes that I hope to get Saturday.

I have placed my campaign on the same plane that I hope to run the office, seeing everyone that I could, missing no one as far as I know, and treating them all alike. I have had nothing whatever unkind to say against my opponents but have run my own race strictly on whatever merits I may have.

Please do not forget me on July 25th.

Thankfully yours,

HERSCHEL D. COLLINGS Candidate for County Clerk

To The Voters Of Lynn County:

I wish to thank each and every one of you for the courteous way in which you have received me in my campaign for office. I have made a sincere effort to see all of you personally, and should I have not seen anyone, I take this means of soliciting your vote this Saturday.

I wish to state that I have lived almost half of my thirty-two years of life in Lynn County, and appreciate the many friends I have made during this time.

Should I be fortunate in being your next County Attorney, I promise to perform the duties of that office to the best of my ability and in the most courteous and friendly manner.

ROLLIN McCORD

Candidate for County Attorney

Your Support Appreciated!

I wish to assure the voters of Lynn county that I will deeply appreciate their support at the polls next Saturday for the office of

County Treasurer

I am 27 years of age, have had practically three years of college work, have taught one year, have served 15 months in the sheriff's office, and have had considerable experience in dealing with the public.

I believe that I am amply qualified to serve as your County Treasurer. I need the work, and believe that I can give the people value received in this office. I will sincerely thank you for your support next Saturday.

JEWELL REDWINE

We will thank you for your support of his candidacy next Saturday. (This advertisement is furnished and paid for by the friends of Roy O. Nettles.)

JESSE ROBERSON PREACHES AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

The Rev. Jesse Roberson of McMurry College, Abilene, former Tahoka boy and graduate of T. H. S., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Suddarth several days last week. Jesse is a senior ministerial student who will receive his B. A. degree in August. He has consistently held places of responsibility in school and student work at McMurry, including in part: serving the past year as director of student religious activities, also teaching the college young people's class at First Methodist Church; acting as associate editor of the college paper; one year winning the first prize in the state Inter-Collegiate Press Association for the best short story, which was printed in "The Galleon"; business manager of the choral group which travels extensively every year, as well as an active member of choral and glee clubs, etc.

He will enter S. M. U. in September to take up further work on his M. A. and B. D. degrees. While in Tahoka he very creditably filled the pulpit at the M. E. church both Sunday services and made a splendid contribution to the Tuesday program of the Luncheon Club.
