More Than $800,000 Tabbed For Highway Construction In County

More than $800,000 has been earmarked for purchase of right of way and construction and re-surfacing of state and federal roads within Bailey county within the next two years, according to an announcement made last weekend by Marshall Formby, chairman of the State Highway Commission. The Bailey county work is part of an estimated $8,223,000 program set up for the 17 county district on the Plains, and includes work on highways 79 & 84.

The highway department announced the following program for Bailey County: On U. S. 84 from Farmer county line to Muleshoe, 10 miles; purchase of right of way and grading, structures and surface for two additional lanes. Total cost $170,000 for right of way and $330,000 for construction.

On U. S. 70 from Muleshoe to the Lamb county line 6.5 miles; purchase of right of way and re-construction of grade, structures, surfacing and shoulder construction. Total cost of right of way $8,000 and $198,000 for construction.

On U. S. 84 in Muleshoe from West city limits to Eighth street, one mile; widening pavement at a cost of $110,000.

County Judge Glen Williams said the first item listed above is a projected plan, and that the county has not been officially notified of the program as yet. The item was set up in the two year program, and when the county is notified officially, the matter of obtaining an equal amount of funds for purchase of right of way will still have to be resolved.

Judge Williams said the Commissioners have discussed the matter briefly, and are agreeable to securing more and better roads, but are aware of the difficulty of obtaining funds for right of way purchase at this time.

On the second item above, the judge told the Journal that the project will involve hard surfacing the shoulders of U. S. 70 from Muleshoe to the Lamb county line, and will not involve the purchase of any additional right of way.

On the third item above, all right of way has been secured and work on the widening within city limits is scheduled to be done at the same time as the widening of U. S. 84 east from the city limits to the Lamb county line.

The U. S. 84 east project is complete insofar as obtaining right of way is concerned excepting one plot, for which condemnation suit has been filed in court. Southwestern Public Co., has already begun the job of moving their high lines out of the new right of way area.

New funds announced last weekend are in addition to approximately $2 million earmarked near the end of last year for South Plains highway construction during 1958-59.

Community Wide Sunrise Service At First Methodist Church For Easter

SCOOP SEZ

By J. M. Forbes

Charlie Guy, in his Plainsman column in The Lubbock Avalanche has reprinted something we had been looking for; "The Legend of the Dogwood Tree". It's been printed and reprinted but we felt readers of this corner would like to see it, even though they may have read it often.

"At the time of the Crucifixion the dogwood had been the size of the oak and other forest trees. So firm and strong was the tree that it was chosen as the timber for the cross. To be used thus, for such a cruel purpose, greatly distressed the tree. Jesus, nailed upon it, sensed this. In gentle pity for all sorrow and suffering, he said to the tree: "Because of your regret and pity for My suffering, never again shall the dogwood grow large enough to be used as a cross."

"Henceforth, the dogwood shall be slender and bent and twisted, and the blossoms shall be in the form of a cross—two long and two short petals. And in the center of each petal there will be nail prints, brown with rust and stained with red. In the center of the flower will be a crown of thorns. And all who see it will remember."

"And so it has come to pass. "The dogwood, to our very day, remains a living symbol of the eternal Easter—an inspiration for Christians the world around."

Another Holy Week Item: MY FAVORITE PRAYER

O God, by Whom the meek are guided in judgement, and light riseth up in the darkness for the godly; grant us, in all our doubts and uncertainties, the grace to ask what Thou wouldst have us to do, that the Spirit of Wisdom may save us from all false choices; and that in Thy light we may see light, and in Thy straight path may not stumble; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

—Quoted by Laymen's National Committee.

4% LONG TIME PAYMENTS Expanded Farm Housing Loan Plans Announced By Local FHA Director

An expanded farm housing loan program, designed to speed up farm building construction improvement as well as act as an additional anti-recession measure, was announced today by Walter T. McKay, Farmers Home Administration state director, according to John C. Kennedy, the agency's local county supervisor.

Now an owner of a farm in agricultural production and on which the operator plans to produce at least $400 worth of farm commodities for sale or home use may qualify for the 4 percent long-term housing loan provided that he meets other standard eligibility requirements.

Formerly an eligible applicant had to own a farm that produced a more substantial part of the operator's annual cash income.

Loans may be made to build, improve, or repair farm houses or other essential farm buildings, and to provide water for farmstead and household use. Mr. Kennedy said that in addition to financing major construction, the loan funds can help meet many other needs for farm and farm home modernization such as adding bathrooms, utility rooms, better kitchens, and many other improvements to the home as well as to farm service buildings. While tenants and farm laborers are not eligible, the owner may borrow to do the construction work or make improvements to them.

The loans are made to farm owners who need credit to finance building improvements or repairs, but find that adequate credit is not available through banks or other regular credit channels. The interest rate is 4 percent and loans may be amortized over periods up to 33 years.

Eligibility for loan assistance is determined by the three-member County Farmers Home Administration committee, and applications are now being accepted in FHA County Offices.

Colonial Charm Combines With "Ranch" Convenience

From the drawing board of Designer Donald Scholz comes this gracious American Colonial in modern ranch house motif. Both indoors and out, the home combines the appeal of tradition with functional excellence. Here are eight typically "Scholz" interior features of the home: (1) a paneled recreation room served from the kitchen's shuttered pass-through; (2) stop-saving "U"-shaped kitchen with separate laundry area; (3) an intriguing breakfast nook set in a bay window; (4) separate dining area; (5) big living room with fireplace wall in Colonial paneling; (6) entrance foyer with immediate access to all rooms and areas; (7) two full baths, back-to-back, with large vanities; and (8) a large master bedroom with an 8-foot, full-access sliding door closet.

Combined with the Colonial charm of the exterior are such modern-living features as a rear private patio, and deep roof overhang protecting all entries. The home in L-shape, permits versatile use of a relatively narrow lot, making it possible for either bedroom or garage elevation to face the street. Moore Funeral

by JOHN CROW

Americans did a lot of traveling that year. One reason was the fact they had a choice of two great spectacles to see, one on each coast.

In New York, a World's Fair opened, featuring a host of scientific exhibits that envisioned the push button world to come and a time of great technological advances. The theme of the Fair was the World of Tomorrow. But there was plenty of fun, too, in New York that year at the Fair.

At the same time, clear across the country, a whole man-made island had been prepared just to house the Golden Gate International Exposition. Called Treasure Island, it was set in the beautiful bay off San Francisco. And thousands of tourists from all over the country visited the city of the Golden Gate that summer . . . to drive up its famous hills, to tour through its Chinatown, and to visit its colorful Exposition.

Remember the year? America was beginning to fight its way back to real prosperity that year . . . and a lot of people bought new cars. But they were careful bargain hunters . . . and they shopped around for a deal that meant real savings.

The year was 1939. If you're looking for legitimate savings on a new or used car . . . and what buyer isn't? . . . be sure to come in and talk to us about our deal either on a new 1958 CHEVROLET or on one of our dependable, clean used cars. See us, too, for the finest in auto service, at—

New GMC Pickup Has 50% More Capacity

GMC's new Wide-Side pickup truck has 50 per cent greater cubic load capacity than conventional models, with either 6½ or 8-foot long boxes having 59.5 and 75.6 cubic feet, respectively. EGG MARKET ENDS — A NEW SERVICE FOR TEXANS

Sometime in April, thousands of Texans connected with the state's mammoth egg industry will benefit from a new and important Texas Department of Agriculture service—regular reporting of prices and conditions on Texas eggs.

Since the recent inauguration of the Texas Egg Law made possible more uniform egg marketing conditions over the state, the need for such a service has been voiced from every direction. The main problem facing the Market News Section of the TDA is setting up an egg market report was to make certain all areas of the state benefitted equally when reporting began. And that was a lot of territory to cover. It was determined that no less than six areas should have individual price reports, at least at the beginning, in order that regional differences in prices and conditions would not be overlooked.

Therefore, present plans are to report a Texas six-area market including the Lubbock-South Plains area, Dallas-Ft. Worth-Houston area, Corpus Christi-Rio Grande Valley area, and Austin-San Antonio area. The report is tentatively scheduled for bi-weekly release, on Monday and Thursday of each week. Prices will be given at first on five grades—AA Extra Large, AA

Large, A Large, A Medium, and B Large—with possibly other classifications to be added later. Sources for price information in each of the six areas will be bona fide egg buyers who directly purchase the producer's eggs. They will be contacted directly by personnel from each of the TDA's regional offices.

The Texas Egg Market will be made available to all interested persons through the press and radio as well as through the Texas Poultry & Egg Market News bulletin, mailed free of charge on request. Requests for information should be addressed to John C. White, Commissioner, Texas Department of Agriculture, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas.

MAN ON THE WAY UP ...

Air Force Speaker Thrills Local Group, Describing Things To Come

Progress not only in conquering space, but in the field of education, in military affairs and the general improvement and development of the country as well as what future generations will think of us, was placed not upon society as a whole but upon the individual by M. Sgt. Joe Lackey U. S. Air Force Recruiting Service who addressed the Rotary Club of Muleshoe at its Tuesday luncheon with the subject, "Man on the Way Up".

Putting a man into a space ship will not be accomplished by the Air Force, the Navy, or the Army as a whole but techniques will be worked out by various reasoning individuals, he said.

Sgt. Lackey amazed his listeners when he described the universe in which we live, giving some approximate, unbelievable distances. He first told about our sun and the planets, called our solar system; then its relation to our galaxy; its insignificance in the scheme of things. In our own galaxy, he reminded his audience, are billions of stars like our sun, some of them many, many times as large.

But the more powerful telescopes have been able to discover billions of galaxies similar to ours. He told of stars whose light traveling at the rate of 186,000 miles per second, takes many thousands of years to traverse the tremendous, fantastic space separating us from them.

Some of the stars we see may even have ceased to flame and create light, may have gone out of existence as a bright star many years ago, so far does their light have to travel.

And he spoke of travel to the moon, Venus, and Mars, in the manner that we now discuss a rip to Lubbock or a visit downtown. Remembering the progress that has been made in the last sixty years, excursions to outer space and the nearest objects to us seem to him as certainly to be made soon; the Air Force will launch this year a man carrying space vehicle.

It is for the individual, each of us, to "Mark your place in the race of space", he said. At the close of his talk he was bombarded with questions and several ought to secure him for talk before other groups of the area.

Guests at the meeting included Mrs. E. O. Baker, Mrs. J. M. Orbes, Bob Harvey, Muleshoe Truck White, Clovis Rotarian Tomer Albrecht Brownfield; and Sgt. Glen K. Ryan, Air Force Recruiting Service, Clovis, who accompanied the speaker. Robert Alford was in charge of the program.

THIS WEEK

—In Washington

With Clinton Davidson

Rep. Perkins Bass, a New Hampshire Republican, recently made a speech in the House that some think may have been the turning point that will lead, eventually, to repeal of all farm price supports and production controls.

Using figures supplied him by the White House and the Department of Agriculture, Rep. Bass attempted to show that Federal farm programs not only have failed to help farmers, but have also placed an unfair burden on consumers.

Many members sat in shocked silence, but the number who rose to support and praise Rep. Bass was a clear indication of a substantial division of opinion in the House over continuation of programs costing about $3 billion a year.

The threat of a consumer revolt against farm supports is one that farm spokesmen have feared for a long time. They recognize that if consumers are organized in opposition to farm programs there can be little doubt of the final result.

With a farm population already dwindling to 12% of the national total, the political power of the Farm Bloc is becoming weaker and weaker. It will become increasingly difficult to muster a majority back of programs sponsored by the Bloc.

Farm spokesmen are gearing for a showdown vote at this session of Congress, but many of them concede, privately, that they face an up-hill battle. Two speeches, emphasizing the wide differences in opinion in Congress over farm legislation.

The farm viewpoint, as expressed by Rep. George Christopher, a Missouri Democrat, will be reported next week. Following are quotations from the speech of Rep. Bass:

"The program for high price supports is a failure. It has never and will never solve our farm problem. It has cost taxpayers untold billions of dollars.

"Most Americans would be astonished and deeply shocked at what it costs them to carry on this farm price support program. It cost in 1957 more than $3 billion, plus $2 billion in other USDA costs.

"If they knew what this program costs them as individuals they would become very curious indeed about what benefits, if any, they are getting for their money.

"Consumers are forced to pay twice for the farm support program. First, through taxes they pay to finance the program and, second, through higher costs of the food and clothing they buy.

"For example, suppose I told a young man with an income of $6,000 a year that it is costing him $11.50 a year for Federal programs to support the price of wheat. He would say 'Well, what do I get for my money?'

"And I would have to tell him that the effect is that the bread he buys costs him about $20 a year more than it otherwise would. The young man would say 'Are we crazy? Is the Federal Government carrying out a program to lower the standard of living of Americans?'

"Suppose the instead of paying for farm programs out of the Treasury, each of us walked up to the tax window and said 'How much do I owe for the farm program?' The answer would be $56.30 a year (on a $6,000 income).

"For would we feel about paying that at the tax window, and still pay in higher food prices also? We would say 'no, that's one I don't want to pay.'"

Labor Department Seeks Spanish Speaking Workers

If you speak Spanish (habla español) and are qualified to perform other duties in the Mexican Farm Labor program, the U. S. Department of Labor may have a job for you.

This announcement came today from William E. Corwin, Executive Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners for the Labor Department's Bureau of Employment Security. He said the grade for the position starts at GS-7, $4,525 per year.

The required civil service examination is not a written test. Applicants will be judged on the basis of their experience and training, and their fluency in Spanish. Application forms and information are available at most large post offices and at the U. S. Civil Service Board of Examiners for the Bureau of Employment Security, 630 Sanson St., San Francisco, Calif.

Compost Will Boost Your Garden Soil

"Look at that beautiful, rich soil", is a comment from visitors admiring the garden landscape exhibits at spring flower shows. "No wonder those plants grow better than ours", is likely to be the next remark.

And these people are right. Garden and landscape plants do thrive better in good soil containing plenty of organic matter to help it hold air, moisture and giving it loose structure that permits roots to develop naturally.

With a little effort, it is possible to have such soil in your flower or vegetable gardens, says B. G. Hancock, extension horticulturist. A compost pile may be the answer. Grass clippings, leaves, weeds, plant residues and even vegetable parings and fruit peels from the kitchen will decompose into suitable compost material.

To make compost, build up alternate layers of soil and organic waste materials. Over a five or six inch layer of the organic materials, spread a thin layer of manure or a high-nitrogen fertilizer. Hancock emphasizes that the nitrogen is needed for hastening the decomposition of the organic materials. Then add one or two inches of soil to the pile and continue the alternate layers until the pile reaches the desired height. The sides of the pile should be kept vertical and the top should be level or slightly sloping to the center so as to catch and hold moisture. In dry seasons, Hancock suggests sprinkling the pile to keep it moist.

Turning or mixing a "ripening" pile will help the decomposition process and produce a compost mixture of more satisfactory fineness. By noting the condition of the material during the mixing or turning process, it is easy to determine when the compost is ready for use.

In using compost, Hancock points out that for most plants additional fertilizer will be needed.

Holt Member Of Record Setting Mile Relay Team

Jimmie Holt, of Muleshoe, ran the third lap on the record setting mile relay team at the Texas Relays Saturday. The Texas University quartet covered the distance in 3:10.4, and it was the fastest mile relay ever run anywhere excepting the record mile relay run in California in 1941, in 3:09.5.

Jim's time for his quarter of the race was clocked at 47.7. He was able to give the anchor man, Eddie Southern, a nice lead over their nearest opponent and the great Southern ran his quarter in the unofficial time of 45.3.

Jim ran the first quarter for Texas in the two mile sprint relay, but Texas lost this race. Kansas U. piled up a big lead on points and Texas was second high in the meet.

The entire Texas track team will be at Big Spring this week-end for the West Texas track and

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Muleshoe Journal

Dear Sir: One and a half billion dollars in taxes were paid during 1957 by United States telephone subscribers, twenty-eight cents out of every dollar the telephone industry received for service. Most people think of taxes paid out by telephone company as coming out of the telephone company's pocket, but every tax dollar the telephone company pays out it must first take in from telephone users. There is no other way.

Facts point out that the telephone industry is carrying its share of the country's tax load, in addition to the one and a half billion dollar annual payment in taxes, there is another tax burden piled on top of that. This is Federal Excise Tax or 10% over and above that already mentioned. In 1957 this increased the total U. S. tax on telephone service by additional five hundred fifty million dollars.

Believe that this tax is discriminatory. Telephone service is as essential to the American way of life as electricity and gas. Jobs depend on it—trade and commerce depend on it.

But your telephone is subject to excise tax at the same rate as fine furs, perfumes and jewelry. In fact, only a very few things are taxed at a higher rate such as liquor, tobacco, club dues and night clubs.

The telephone excise tax began in 1941 as emergency measure. It should not be continued longer lest it become regarded as a permanent part of our tax structure.

Since none of this tax is retained by the company, the only person to benefit by its repeal is the subscriber. It would mean a substantial reduction in individual monthly telephone bills both on long distance calls and local service.

Even without this discriminatory excise tax, telephone users are paying a big share of the nation's tax bill. We of the telephone industry do not consider the telephone a luxury, but rather an essential. If you feel this field meet, Jim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Holt were at the Big Spring meet.

Now Is Time To Plant Glads To Bloom In July

Growing flowers can be just as entertaining as any sports event and the time to start "training" is now, says a Texas Tech horticulturist.

Edward W. Zukauckas, assistant professor of horticulture at Tech, points out that while the cheering crowds may not exist, the challenge of proper timing and showmanship is present for any gardener.

For instance, if you wish to have gladiolas blooming in your yard by mid-July, better start planting gladiola corms (bulbs) sometime between April 1 and May 10, Zukauckas advises.

Because the number of days between planting and blooming varies from 70 to 120 days for gladiolas, it's a good idea to plant corms at various times. This gives you a greater span of time for blooming flowers in your yards, he added.

The Tech horticulturist names a number of varieties that excel in this area. Among the All-American selections are varieties such as "Apple Blossom", "Caribbean", "Royal Stewart", "Emperor", and "Maytime".

Standard varieties that do well in this region are "Spic and Span", "Burma", "Mother Fischer", "King David", "Jene", "Sans Souci", "Traveler" and "Prospector".

With spring officially here, it's time to start cleaning the trash out of the flower beds, the Tech horticulture department reminds. It would also be a good idea to watch for plant disease at this time, especially on roses, Zukauckas said. Mildew is the danger for roses this year so spraying with any one of a number of mildew controls containing a copper or sulphur base is advisable. Spray every two weeks.

New Bulletin On Growing High Plains Cotton

A new bulletin, entitled "Growing High Plains Cotton", has recently been published by the Texas Extension Service. The following excerpts from the leaflet may prove of interest to cotton farmers in this area.

Jam Up Expected As Deadline Nears For Inspections

Roughly, 1 out of 5 Texas autos have not been inspected as required by State law and there remains but 9 more working days prior to the inspection deadline on April 15.

Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said today that some 700,000 motor vehicles must still pass through the inspection lines prior to that date if their owners are to avoid being handed tickets for violation of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Law. Enforcement will begin April 16, he said.

"It is still possible," said Garrison, "for the State's 4500 licensed inspection stations to handle the last minute rush provided that motorists take their cars immediately in order that there will be no delayed period between the handling of one vehicle and the next."

The Public Safety Director pointed out that every minute of the inspection stations' time will be at a premium between now and midnight April 15, and that waiting lines will be in store for those who wait as the deadline draws nearer.

lowing excerpts from the leaflet may prove of interest to cotton farmers in this area.

"The purpose of this guide is to help High Plains cotton farmers grow quality cotton and to have it processed and marketed for greater profit."

The income of cotton producers on the High Plains has been penalized because some of their cotton lacked uniformity, quality and character.

Production practices in general govern quality and yield. Processing procedures are problems of the farmer in harvesting and of the ginner in ginning cotton. The cotton farmers has a greater opportunity to improve his production and harvesting practices than to better the ginning and marketing procedures, but an understanding of how cotton is processed and marketed may enable him to realize more net return from his investment and labor.

Preparation

Land preparation affects the quality of cotton only if it affects tillth. Check your soil for fertility needs—for maximum production of quality cotton, nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium and organic matter requirements must be met. Heavy applications of nitrogen should not be made after July 1.

Optimum planting dates on the High Plains are May 5 to 20. Later planting usually results in lower quality. If planting must be done after June 1, select an early maturing variety.

Minimum soil temperature should average 60 degrees for 10 days at eight inch depth from the top of the bed. Delinted, treated seed should be used.

Planting Rate

A uniform stand of approximately four stalks per foot in 40-inch rows is recommended. Plant 20 to 30 pounds of seed per acre, adjusting the rate according to germination tests. Use a seed press wheel and make the furrow shallow so that plant emergence will be rapid.

The method of harvest to be used should help determine the variety to plant. Storm resistant cottons maintain quality longer in the field and strip better than open boll types.

Insect Control

Early season insect control is profitable three out of five years. It insures early fruiting and maturity and results in higher quality cotton. Late season control should be based on the amount of insect infestation.

Irrigation before planting is important in the production of quality cotton. The soil profile should be moist to a depth of four to six feet to insure adequate moisture storage and root development. Eliminate any hard pan so that roots can penetrate deep.

First summer irrigation should be made after the cotton begins blooming. It should provide moisture to a depth of two to three feet. Earlier irrigation encourages vegetative growth, retards fruiting and delays maturity. Additional summer irrigations tend to increase yields but lower quality, which may mean lower net returns.

Defoliant and desiccants are recommended if the crop reaches maturity before frost. Applications before 60 percent of the bolls are open usually lower the micronaire (fiber fineness).

Harvest

Avoid hand snapping cotton while it is wet. Use large enough trailers (250 to 300 cubic feet of trailer space per bale) and avoid tramping.

Stripper harvest should be planned from the beginning of the season. Wait until the open bolls are dry. Take advantage of separation devices to separate the green bolls from the mature bolls. Proper adjustment of the stripper is essential.

When ginning is delayed, cotton maintains quality longer if stored on a well drained spot in the field than when left on the stalk.

Two sided bales are the result of mixing cotton of different quality. Do not mix irrigated and dryland cotton into the same trailer.

Net income—take home pay—should be the most important consideration for the cotton farmer. For this reason the production of quality cotton for greater profit is most important. Each farmer should realize the individual production potential of his farm. Follow the 7-step cotton program.

1. Fit cotton into balanced farming.
2. Take care of your soil and water.
3. Act together on the best variety.
4. Make labor and machinery count.
5. Control insects and diseases.
6. Handle, harvest and gin for high grades.
7. Sell for grade, staple and variety value.

BABSON DISCUSSES How School Committees Can Save The Taxpayer's Money

Babson Park, Mass., April 3—Do you realize that school enrollments have increased this year for the 13th year in a row; and that right now one out of every four persons is attending school or college? This is why two national problems are reaching crisis proportions: (1) classroom space; and (2) the teacher shortage. How is your community solving these problems?

Classrooms and Money
Already operating expenses of our public schools are consuming about 50% of the budget in the average New England town; and I imagine this is typical of other areas across the country. School building committees simply cannot continue to spend the taxpayers' money as freely in the next ten years as they have in the past ten, for already in this light recession, home owners are finding their tax load more than they can bear.

In 1952, we were short some 312,000 classrooms. The figure probably approaches 500,000 today, despite all the building already completed. How are we going to pay for these needed new schoolrooms? May I be bold enough to suggest that we cannot—at least in the fashion we have been accustomed to in the past! There must be some changes made. Let me ask you, could you afford a custom-built automobile at, perhaps, $20,000? Your town can no more afford a custom-built school! If our federal government officials really want to help in this crisis, they will stop talking subsidies for education and, instead, lead in designing prefabricated schoolhouses that could be mass produced—basic schoolhouses that rooms could be added to or subtracted from, and which could be moved elsewhere as occasion demands. Communities are going to have to "put the horse back in front of the cart", first asking how much they can afford for the schoolhouse; then sending their building committee out to buy the best they can afford.

A New Look In Education Needed
To have the average elementary school lying idle for three months and to have the average high school catering to but a few summer pupils compared with the total it might serve is poor economics. In many privately endowed institutions of higher learning today, the seats are never allowed to cool off. Space is at a premium, and they know how to use it!

I can hear the hue and cry from parents in your town already, when we talk about running school continuously, perhaps staggering vacations, and even operating Saturdays. All sorts of reasons are going to be given why a five-day, one-session, nine-month program is a very sacred thing... but the only sacred thing about it is that we have always done it that way!

Teachers and Money

Teachers will probably oppose any change in routine. After all, one of the compensations of teaching is a long vacation. They will probably say that a longer day or week is psychologically unsound for both teachers and pupils. My own college administrators say that this is not necessarily so. Furthermore, if teachers would accept an 11-month job responsibility, a longer work day, and a longer work week like all other professional people, they could readily become more productive and their incomes would be raised. School Committees could also help make much better teachers by cutting out a lot of extracurricular nonsense. I do not forget that children cannot be put on an educational production line and have their education added like parts to a car. Education is a process of reaction between student and teacher. This, like a great work of art, takes time to put together; it takes reworking; it takes patience; it takes a master to produce good results. So I say to school committees and those concerned with education, weigh your educational values, cut your heavy spending on bricks and mortar, make more economical use of your buildings and time, and immediately cut out the extracurricular nonsense. Then put your tax money where it will do the most good—into capable, inspiring, and devoted teachers.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

by Lydon Johnson

Dear Friend:

The home building industry is likely to be a highly important factor in leading the Nation out of the present business slump. There is a widespread expectation that this industry, which has experienced two successive years of decline since hitting an all-time peak in 1955, will revive this year.

What is the basis for this expectation?
Action is being taken to make credit more freely available in the housing field. The new housing bill is designed to stimulate the building of 200,000 additional new houses this year.

Number of new housing starts already is increasing—in Texas and in the country as a whole. Residential building permits in Texas are above the level for the same time last year.

Why is a healthy home-building industry so essential to a healthy economy in general?

Home building ranks second in importance perhaps only food and food processing among America's major industries. In recent years the value of new houses constructed annually has been running close to $16 billion. When land and other non-construction factors are considered, the value of the industry's annual product probably is close to $20 billion a year.

The industry has directly been providing about 2.5 million jobs a year.

Does it also provide many jobs indirectly?
Yes. Around 3,000 items go into every new home. Residential building uses one-third of the United States' total output of lumber, two-thirds of all brick produced, four-fifths of all gypsum. The sale of a new home generates the sale of about $1,500 worth of furnishings and equipment in the first year of occupancy. Building new homes also creates demand for other types of construction—utility expansions, schools, stores, churches.

Effect of an expanding home-building program will spread out widely among our people. The construction of an additional 200,000 new houses, made possible by the housing bill, will stimulate industries turning out everything from steel to shingles — from bathtubs to electric switches.

A real pickup in housing has become crucial, in my opinion to a revival in business. That is why I felt it essential to give such a high priority in Congress to the passage of the housing bill.

That legislation is of immediate importance to all of us.

Today's Meditation

Read Mark 14:23-31.
Broken for you. (1 Corinthians 11:24.)

Jesus spoke these words when He was changing the Jewish Passover into the Lord's Supper. The bread was broken for distribution, but this practical purpose acquired symbolic meaning. The breaking of the bread on Thursday evening foreshadowed the wounding of His body on Friday morning.

Why was His body pierced and wounded? It was broken for you, broken for each one personally, as if each person were the only one in the world who needed to be saved.

The broken body of our Lord was taken down from the cross and buried, and the sepulcher made secure. But in less than three days there was a broken

Sandhills Philosopher Willing To Have Taxes Cut Strictly In Interest Of Ending The Recession

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is off on the subject of economics this week, with what success you'll have to decide for yourself.

Dear editor:
For the past few weeks I've been reading everything I could get my hands on about the cause and cure of recessions, and so far all I've been able to figure out is that a recession is like a virus—medical science isn't sure what causes it or what cures it, but it has no trouble discovering when you've got one.

However, there's been an argument going on over one of the proposed cures of the recession that interests me.

According to one expert, the way to cure the recession is to cut income taxes 20 per cent, starting next week. This way, he says, everybody who gets paid by the week and has his income tax withheld from each paycheck, which is the installment method of paying taxes, would have a little more money to spend, and any close student of human nature knows he'll spend it, which will increase the demand for goods, stir the factories up, and get things rolling again.

Another expert though argues that if you cut income taxes 20 per cent now, just intending to keep em cut for the duration of the recession, you'll hit a stump when you try to restore em later on when things are booming again. He says it'd be dangerous to tamper with the tax rate.

Frankly, I can't follow this line of reasoning, and think it demonstrates a gross lack of confidence in the government. I have never seen a government, from local level to the state to Washington, that couldn't manage to raise taxes when it really put its mind to the job. People have been running for office on a platform of more economy and getting elected since elections were invented, and the cost of government has been going up steadily from the same date.

Understand, I'm not saying government ought to cost less, or more, I'm just saying that anybody who thinks any government can't figure out how to restore a tax, is just not familiar with modern governmental leaders, regardless of which party he runs under.

If cutting taxes for a few months will end whatever recession we've got, I say go ahead and try it and don't be worrying about Congress' ability to restore it later on. I've got confidence in Congress. I figure it'll restore the tax the minute it figures I can pay it, and frequently it jump the gun and does it before I'm ready.

Yours faithfully,

February sales in Bailey county totaled $12,594 and sales for the two months of 1958 totaled $12,594, which is 12.8% of our 1957 goal of $123,000, chairman Bobo said.

1957-58 Ginnings Take Drop From Previous Year

Total number of bales of cotton ginned and harvested from the 23 member counties of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. of the 1957-58 crop according to the Bureau of Census, U. S. Department of Commerce stands at 1,570,520 bales.

The Bureau of the Census released the figures as of March 24. The 1957-58 crop total compares to approximately 1,650,000 bales produced in 1956-57.

For the entire state of Texas production was higher in 1957 than it was in 1956. The '57 crop total was 3,600,425 for the state as compared to 3,535,106 bales in '56.

Nation-wide the 1957 crop totaled 10,875,297 running bales and compared with 13,151,206 bales ginned from the 1956 crop and 14,542,000 bales from the 1955 crop.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has reported that 1957 ginnings contained the smallest proportion of higher-grade cotton of any crop in the past eight years.

In Bailey county, the 1957-58 cotton crop was officially set at 72,632 bales, as compared to 73,148 bales for the previous season.

A portion of a letter from American Farm Bureau Federation to Senator Lister Hill of Alabama, chairman of the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee. Some political groups are attempting to use the unemployment situation as an excuse for using federal funds for building local educational facilities. Farm Bureau and most other people are opposed to intervention by the federal government into local educational advancement programs with its accompanying regulatory provisions.

There are still some people who do not understand that the government is not the best market for farm commodities. Because of variation of general cotton grades in some areas, it is hard to believe that the average market price for cotton has been above the government support price every year but one since cotton has been supported.

We are glad to note that some who a year or two ago would not discuss the supply and demand, due to price differentials, situation, are now incorporating this consideration into their proposals for improving the orderly marketing urgency.

CONSIDER THIS: He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough. Proverbs 28:19.

Corn Hybrids Test At Hi Plains Research Station

Sixty four commercial corn hybrids were tested at the High Plains station of the Texas Research Foundation in 1957 to determine their yielding abilities under High Plains conditions.

White corn varieties produced the highest yields in the tests. These were Funks G779W and TRF3. Highest yielding yellow corns were Conrads No. 1 and Texas 28. Close to these varieties were white corn varieties Asgrow 101W, Texas 17W, and TRF 9. Yellow varieties were Texas 36, Watson 111, Texas 30 and Texas 26.

Unfavorable weather conditions delayed planting of this test by over a month to June 12. The combined irrigation and rainfall between April 1 and October 1 were 32.4 inches. Fertilization consisted of 36 pounds of Nitrogen and 45 pounds of P2O5 applied at planting time plus 75 pounds of Nitrogen sidedressed July 18.

The corn ear worm and South western corn borer did considerable damage to all entries in the test.

In order to determine if the date of planting can be utilized to reduce or eliminate these insect problems, representative early, midseason and late maturing corn will be planted on five dates. Weather permitting, these dates will approximately be April 5, April 20, May 5, May 20 and June 20 of this year.

The Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality" will include the Scriptural account of Christ Jesus' healing of the woman who had "a spirit of infirmity" eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself" (Luke 13).

Correlative passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (243:32-3): "Inasmuch as God is good and the fount of all being, He does not produce moral or physical deformity; therefore such deformity is not real, but is illusion, the mirage of error."
The Golden Text is from Job (35:13): "Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it."

He is Our Father—what should we fear, knowing this glorious truth?

Can't tell any difference — whether it's a fresh refill, or time to drain. Same power. Hate to throw away my drains, and don't drain near as often, either. Butane or propane (Liquid Petroleum Gas) burns HOT. That common-grade oil I used to use sure did thicken up — almost like gear-grease. Sure is different, with AMALIE L. P. G. Oil!

Because AMALIE L. P. G. Oil is ENGINEERED to the job. First, it's 100% pure Pennsylvania crude — nothing on earth equals it. Second, refined by an EXCLUSIVE process that HOLDS its great lubricating power, and its viscosity, or flowing quality. Third, additives developed by our great laboratories — to make sure grit, dust, etc., stay in suspension — so they filter out. There's just no other oil like AMALIE L. P. G.

NEW SPELLING CHAMP NAMED
Mary Ellen Wedel To Represent
Bailey County At District Bee

Mary Ellen Wedel, 14, a student in the 8th grade in Muleshoe school, is the new Spelling Bee champion for Bailey County, and will represent the county in the district Bee in Lubbock, April 12.

Freddie Paiz, 13 year old 8th grade student at Bula, missed the word pleasurable when only two students remained standing in the Bee held last Thursday. Mary Ellen spelled the word correctly, then spelled the next word to

Other contestants and the word they missed: Lamar Pollard, 10, 5th grade at Bula, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pollard, "giraffe"; Wanda Hubbard, Bula, 14, 8th grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hubbard, "ashamed"; Janet White, Muleshoe, 12, 7th grade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. White "mimicked", city; and Virgil Thomas, Three Way, 12, 7th grade, "kernel".

Fred Johnson again pronounced the words. Judges for the Bee were Mrs. Stanley Barrett, Mrs. M. D. Gunstream, and W. M. Pool, Jr.

The Bee was broadcast by Gil Lamb over KMUL, Muleshoe. Each contestant was awarded ribbons and a ball point pen by The Avalanche-Journal, sponsors of the district Bee.

THREE LEADING SPELLERS

Crankcase Crisis!

It seems this nice old lady drove into a Phillips 66 Station to fill up with Flite-Fuel. When the attendant checked the dipstick, he found she had only about a quart of oil left in her car. When he pointed this out, she replied: "Fine... as soon as I use that up, I'll put in some more!"

Of course the Phillips Dealer explained that she needed five quarts of oil for adequate lubrication!

Now that spring is here, it's time to think about the oil in your crankcase. If you are still using "winter grade" oil, it's time to change it. But why use two, when one will do? Better switch to Phillips 66 Trop-Artic* which gives you the effects of 10w, 20 and 30 grade oils. Compared to old-fashioned oils Trop-Artic Motor Oil can actually double engine life. Drive in today for your spring change-over. *A trademark

HOW MANY OF THESE MUSTS WILL YOUR NEXT WAGON HAVE?

LOOK FOR TENNESSEE ERNIE FORD STAR OF THE FORD SHOW ON TV EVERY THURSDAY NIGHT

- 1. STYLING THAT WILL STAY IN STYLE
Ford Station Wagon styling is Thunderbird-inspired. So you know it's going to be in style for a long time to come. And Ford offers you six different body styles to choose from.
- 2. ALL-NEW V-8 ENGINE
Ford V-8 power is all-Thunderbird, too... with new Precision Fuel Induction that pays off in still better gas mileage. And it can be yours in all Fords (including the lowest-priced wagon of the low-price three).
- 3. MOST MODERN "SIX"
The Ford Mileage Maker Six is the most modern and most economical Six in its field. It's the 1958 version of the engine that scored most miles per gallon in last year's Mobilgas Economy Run.
- 4. SINGLE-CONTROL LIFTGATE
Loading and unloading is a cinch with Ford's single-control latch. Just a flick of the wrist and both lift-gate and tailgate open. You can close both gates with one hand, too.
- 5. GENUINE FOAM-RUBBER CUSHIONS IN FRONT SEATS OF ALL MODELS
Only Ford wagons offer you the added luxury of genuine foam-rubber front seat cushioning in every model. And all Ford wagon seats are scientifically contoured over non-sag springs for greater riding comfort.

Anything GAS can do gas can do BETTER!

A meat thermometer holds roasting heat to a constant minimum for best results.

The Burner-With-A-Brain acts like a robot pot watcher to end burning and scorching.

A luxury of Gas cooking is closed door broiling — the live flame consumes vapors!

The best cooks have found they get Better Results with the precision accuracy of a gas oven.

"Better" is a word you have to back up with facts! And when we tell you Gas cooks "better," we have the facts in hand! What's your prime requirement for roasting meat to perfection? Low, low temperatures, of course! Only a Gas flame can maintain really low temperatures with an absolute minimum of fluctuation. That means with Gas you get less shrinkage, less drying, so that your meats have wonderful texture and flavor! What's the secret to turning out delectable pastries, airy and delicate? The answer is perfect heat control, of course! Even the pastry cook with the "lightest hand" imaginable is no match for heat that's unvariable. And that's why the best cooks insist on Gas which, alone of cooking fuels, can hold an oven temperature within a margin of five degrees. These are sound reasons why Gas would be best at any price, but again facts prove that Gas consistently costs less! It costs less to buy, less to install, less to operate. And with Gas, lifetime parts cut maintenance right out of the picture. We'd like to give you all the facts, or we invite you to visit a gas appliance dealer, soon!

THE PAST INSIDE — THE FUTURE OUTSIDE

That might well describe the architects design of the $5 million National Cowboy Hall of Fame and Museum at Oklahoma City, for which the first $1 1/2 million unit will start construction this autumn. Somewhat unusual in design, the open spaces of the west, cool water in pools and the shape of a trail camp cook fly are all caught here. Among national trustees for the shrine are Gov. Daniel; J. Evetts Haley, Canyon and A. M. G. Swenson, Stamford.

President Calls Safety Meeting

MORGAN DAVIS

Morgan I. Davis, president of Humble Oil & Refining Company, is scheduled to take an active part in a conference called by President Eisenhower's Committee for Traffic Safety.

The purpose of the conference, to be held in Chicago April 1 and 2, is to mobilize wider and more effective support for the President's Highway Safety Action Program.

Civic and business leaders from Texas and 13 other states have been invited to attend this Midwest Region meeting. More than 100 Texans are expected to participate.

Mr. Davis will serve as chairman during two conference sessions at which the representatives from Texas will discuss the state's highway safety needs.

"Traffic" deaths last year decreased slightly in Texas for the first time in four years," Mr. Davis said, "but available figures show that 2533 persons died as a result of traffic accidents. The death toll of this size demands that an effort be made to further reduce this tragic loss of life."
