Scout Workers Attend Banquet

A number of local Boy Scout officials and workers attended the annual banquet of the organization at the Hilton Hotel in Lubbock Tuesday night. They report an attendance of about 450 men representing about 25 south plains cities and towns.

The principal speaker of the occasion was Clinton P. Anderson of Albuquerque, New Mexico, former president of the Northern New Mexico council and also former district governor of Rotary International. Local people in attendance give his address high praise.

Dr. F. B. Malone of Lubbock, now beginning his sixth term as council president, and Leslie Pratt of Lamesa were each given the "Beaver" award, the highest decoration a council can give to a volunteer adult leader. The award was presented by K. N. Clapp of Lubbock, himself a holder of this award.

Sixty-five persons from Whiteface won for their town the attendance banner.

Troop No. 57 of Floydada and Troop No. 3 of Lubbock were awarded trophies for the best exhibits at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair last fall. The trophies were presented by Neil Wright of Lubbock.

The annual report prepared by Earl McClure disclosed that during the past five years the Boy Scout membership in the twenty counties of the South Plains Area Council had increased from 300 at the beginning of the period to 2,300 at the present time.

Towns represented at the banquet included Lubbock, Plainview, Floydada, Lockney, Ralls, Spur, Malador, Slaton, Post, Tahoka, Wilson, Sudan, Brownfield, Segreaves, Seminole, Meadow, Ropesville, Dimmit, Littlefield, Morton, Whiteface, Whitfarral, Levelland, O'Donnell, and Lamesa.

In attendance from Tahoka were Scoutmaster W. A. Reddell and wife, Cub Master A. C. Weaver, Levi Noble and wife, Happy Smith and wife, Rev. Geo. A. Dale, Rev. G. E. Turrentine, Fred Bucy, Charles B. Townes.

Former Citizen Dies In Dallas

C. A. Thomas received a message Tuesday morning bearing the sad news that M. M. Herring, former citizen of Tahoka, had died in Dallas at 7 o'clock Monday night. No further particulars were given.

Mr. Herring was an early day resident of Tahoka being engaged in the practice of law and in the abstract business here until the late teens. He established the abstract business known as the Lynn County Abstract Co. now operated by Skip Taylor, Mr. Thomas says. At one time before either he or Mr. Thomas were married they were roommates here.

Mr. Herring was a useful and popular citizen of Tahoka and had many friends here among the pioneers. He had been a resident of Dallas for a number of years prior to his death.

Bishop I. L. Holt Is Coming Here

Announcement has been made that Bishop Ivan Lee Holt will preach at the Methodist Church here on Sunday, February 5 instead of next Sunday, as previously announced.

Rev. George E. Turrentine announces the regular services for next Sunday, W. E. (Happy) Smith will conduct the prayer service on next Wednesday night.

Mrs. Tunnell On Teachers Program

County Superintendent Lenore M. Tunnell attended an executive meeting of the West Texas Teachers Association in Lubbock Monday night at which plans were made for the annual meeting in Lubbock March 10 and 11.

Mrs. Tunnell is chairman of the language arts section of the association.

Rural Basketball Tournament Tonight

Rural basket ball teams of Lynn county will play an elimination tournament in the local gym Friday night, January 27 to decide the basket ball championship in their division.

The Tahoka school and the Tahoka Rotary Club are awarding trophies this year for the first time to the rural schools. A cup will be given to both boys and girls teams who win the championship. These cups will be the same style and size of those being awarded Class A and Class B schools one week later. The winners in each division of the Rural schools will represent the Rural schools in the county wide tournament which begins next Tuesday night in Tahoka.

Mr. Harris, Principal of T-Bar school is director of rural schools this year. He states that because of Tahoka schools offering of trophies this year for rural schools, there seems to be an added interest in the rural division of the Interscholastic League and he expects an interesting and exciting tournament Friday night.

The first game will be called at 7:15. Admission 15 cents.

Come on Tahoka let's help furnish a crowd for our neighboring Rural schools and show them we are glad to have them.

Mrs. Jim Izard Died Thursday

Mrs. Jim Izard, 41, died at 2:30 o'clock Thursday morning in the Lubbock Sanitarium, where she had been a patient for several weeks.

Funeral services are to be conducted in the New Home Baptist Church Friday afternoon, following which the body will be buried in a Lubbock cemetery under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home of Tahoka.

Mrs. Izard leaves as her survivors her husband, Jim Izard, and children, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Whisenant, one sister and three brothers.

She was married to Jim Izard in 1916, and has spent her entire married life at New Home in this county. Her husband was engaged in business at New Home for many years and served two terms as county commissioner of this county. She was a noble Christian character. The husband and family have the sincerest sympathy of many friends.

O'Donnell Lady Dies In Lubbock

Mrs. W. S. Alexander, 71, a resident of O'Donnell and vicinity for the past several years, died in a hospital in Lubbock at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Funeral services were conducted from the Methodist Church in O'Donnell by the pastor, Rev. Crawford, at 3 p. m. Wednesday. Burial was in the O'Donnell cemetery.

Deceased was the mother of Carl Alexander, who at one time resided in Tahoka but who for several years has been engaged in business in O'Donnell and T-Bar.

Mrs. Alexander leaves surviving her husband and four sons, Ernest, of Ropesville, Marvin of Fort Worth, R. J. of Anton, and Carl mentioned above.

Visits News Office Veteran Editor

Ed Franklin of Blaine, Washington, until recently the owner and editor of The Blaine Register, was a pleasant caller at the News office Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Franklin said he had been in the newspaper game for nearly fifty years. For the past eighteen years he had been owner of The Register, selling it about four months ago.

Then he and his wife decided to do a bit of traveling, and here they are down here in Texas, just looking around. Naturally he gravitated into the News office, and we found him to be a very pleasant gentleman—as most newspaper men are, folks, as most newspaper men are.

Mrs. Gladys Weaver Funeral Today

Funeral services are to be held at the Baptist Church this afternoon for Mrs. Gladys Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hogan, who died in a Wichita Falls hospital at 1 o'clock Wednesday morning. The remains will be laid to rest in the Tahoka Cemetery under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home of this city.

Mrs. Weaver had been afflicted for a number of years, but her death in the Wichita Falls institution came rather unexpectedly. Her husband, Dick Weaver, is a traveling salesman out of Dallas and being out on the road somewhere, it was difficult to locate him. Other relatives reside in the lower Rio Grande Valley, and for these reasons the funeral services were delayed until Friday.

Mrs. Weaver leaves surviving her husband, her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hogan of Tahoka, and two brothers and two sisters. The brothers are George Hogan Jr. of Tahoka and "Jimmy" Hogan of the Valley. The sisters are Mrs. Hooper and Mrs. Bryce Ferguson also of the Valley, the latter living at Fharr. She also leaves several nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Mrs. Weaver came to Tahoka a number of years ago, soon after her parents moved here, and has resided here ever since. On account of her long-continued illness she was unable to enter into the social and religious life of the town, but she was a member of one of our finest families. Both her father and mother have been active in the religious life of Tahoka, and Mr. Hogan has been engaged in business here for the past twelve or thirteen years. He himself has been ill for nearly a year, and he and Mrs. Hogan especially have the deepest sympathy of hosts of friends in their bereavement and in their many trials.

McMurry Chanters Coming Feb. 3

Students of Tahoka public schools and citizens of the community are in for another treat on February 3, when the McMurry Chanters arrive at 2 p. m. for a free concert in the High school auditorium.

Several weeks ago the all male chorus of West Texas Teachers College gave a similar concert which was enjoyed by a large number of local patrons as well as the student body.

The Chanters feature a mixed chorus of young men and women who are students in the Abilene school. They are directed by Mrs. Robert B. Wylie, Abilene.

This is to be a free concert and will be staged at 2 p. m. Every person in the community is cordially invited to come enjoy the program.

F.F.A. Boys Have Various Projects

Ray Alvis Botkin is carrying ten acres of cotton, ten acres of milo, and one sow; the cotton for cash crop, the milo for feed for the sow, and the sow for pig production.—Edward McMillan.

He has a wife and little son who will join him here as soon as he finds a house to live in.

Mrs. Jess Jones underwent a major operation last week at the Tahoka Clinic and has this week returned to her home in excellent condition.

Truett Smith Appointed State Commissioner of Insurance

Waldens Moving To Position At Post

Unless plans of the West Texas Gas Company go awry, Charlie Walden, local manager, is to be transferred to Post.

This prospective change will bring a pang of regret to our entire citizenship. He and family have been here only two years, but during this time they have won their way into the hearts of the people here. They have been active in church and civic affairs and will be greatly missed in the town.

Charlie says that they will be expected to move about February 1 if they can find a house in Post in which to live. The Company has no residence there for the local manager and one must be rented. Our people are hoping that the Company may find it more profitable to retain Charlie here than to send him to Post.

If this change is made, five towns will be affected. The Post manager is scheduled to go to Levelland, the Levelland manager to Odessa, the Odessa manager to Midland, one of the Midland employees to Tahoka. Mr. Spikes, brother of Mrs. Jess Lockhart, is the Midland man who is booked to come to Tahoka.

Lynn Is Losing More Farmers

Literally scores of tenant farmers have been moving the past few weeks. Some of them have been unable to find places. A few have moved to other counties. Some have bought tracts of land elsewhere and moved upon them.

Among the families who have moved from our country recently we have noted the following.

Robert Noble and family have moved to Artesia, New Mexico.

Arthur King and family have moved to Portales in that state.

G. W. Wells and family of Midway have moved to Meallow, Terry county.

Herman Bearden and family recently removed to Levelland in Hockley county.

These are just a few of the many who have gone or are going.

One Tahoka merchant told us that at least twenty-five of his customers had recently moved away, no place here for them to go.

Sherrod Announces For City Marshal

City Politics made its debut this week. Guy Sherrod is announcing as a candidate for city marshal, and his name will be found in our political Announcement Column somewhere in this paper.

Guy is not a novice in politics or as a peace officer. Several years back he served two terms as constable of precinct No. 1. While an active sheriff's force and a city marshal at that time left little for a constable to do, yet Guy got considerable experience as a peace officer, working in harmony with his fellow officers in the town and county. He feels that he is thoroughly competent in every respect to make good as city marshal.

Guy is a native of this section of the state and has been a resident of Tahoka since the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. He is an ex-service man and has a wife and two children. He will genuinely appreciate your support.

TAHOKA FFA CHAPTER ENTERS CONTEST

The Tahoka F. F. A. Chapter entered a contest Thursday sponsored by the Friendship F. F. A. Chapter.

It will consist of judging milk, butter, and cream. A banner and ribbons will be given.

Mrs. L. O. Sparks underwent surgery at the Scott & White Sanitarium in Temple Monday morning. Word from the hospital is that she is doing just fine. Mrs. D. W. Gaignat accompanied her to Temple.

District Attorney Truett Smith, popular Lynn county "favorite son" was this week appointed by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to the chairmanship of the Texas Insurance Commission, one of the highest appointive offices in Texas in the power of the governor.

Cotton Acreage Again Reduced

Lynn county has been allotted a cotton acreage for this year of 149,500, according to Deputy County Agent C. A. Lawrence.

This is a decrease of about four thousand acres from the allotment of last year, which was 153,640 acres.

Lubbock and Dawson counties were each given slight increases over their allotments last year, but Garza and a few other counties in this section suffered slight decreases.

Mr. Lawrence explains that these slight variations are due mainly to the fact that the high-ups had such a brief time last year to figure the acreage that it was impossible to be as accurate as they are this year after having had plenty of time to make their figures.

Nobody knows as yet how much cotton these 149,500 acres are likely to yield. It may be 30,000 or 100,000, depending on weather conditions and other factors. But the year has started off encouragingly.

Diphtheria Fatal To Flint Child

Little Dixie Flint, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Flint of the West Point community died of diphtheria at the family residence Tuesday night. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon in the Brownfield Cemetery, where the remains were buried. The family had been under quarantine during the child's illness.

Six other school children of that community now have the same malady, according to Mrs. C. T. Tankersley, and school has been suspended till next Monday. Every reasonable precaution is being taken to prevent the further spread of the disease.

Urges Co-operation With Radio Program

Teachers of Lynn county are urged by County Superintendent Lenore M. Tunnell to secure radios for use in their schools and tune-in on Station KPVO each Tuesday morning at 9:30, beginning Feb. 7, for a series of educational programs.

The first program will feature creative and imaginative arts, she says, and should be of value to the third, fourth and fifth grade students. The programs will be arranged and presented by Lubbock teachers and their students.

NEW CITIZENS

C. C. McKnight, late of Paducah, has accepted a position as bookkeeper for the Farmers Cooperative Gin here. He began work Monday. His wife will come to Tahoka as soon as he can find a house in which to reside. Mr. McKnight has been deputy tax assessor of Cottle county the past several years.

District Attorney Gets Important State Job

Smith Is Expected To Become Chairman Of Body; Term Is For Six Years

The announcement made Wednesday that District Attorney Truett Smith of Tahoka had been named by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel as a member of the state life insurance commission brought general satisfaction here and elicited many expressions of delight by the citizens of his home town. No doubt the same feeling of approval and appreciation prevails throughout this entire judicial district and in every section of this state where he is known, for Truett is affable and unfailingly courteous and makes fast friends rapidly.

Not only will Truett become a member of the board upon confirmation by the Senate but, according to an Associated Press dispatch from Austin, he will become chairman of the commission. He succeeds R. L. Daniel, who was appointed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson.

The position is for a six years term and carries a salary of $5,600. It was one of the major positions at the disposal of the new governor.

Smith has been district attorney here since 1935, when he was appointed to the office by Governor James V. Allred, succeeding G. H. Nelson, who resigned when elected to fill a vacancy in the state senate. He has made an excellent record as the State's prosecuting attorney.

Smith barely escaped being a native of Lynn county. He was born near Anson in Jones county thirty-four years ago, but while yet an infant he was brought by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Smith, to Lynn county. He was reared in the New Home community, where his parents still live. After completing the course then prescribed in the New Home public school, he entered Wayland College at Plainview, where he studied for a year. Then he entered Texas Technological College, and it was while he was a student in this institution that he decided to become a candidate for county clerk of Lynn county. He was elected, defeating one of the most popular men that ever held office in the county, W. E. (Happy) Smith.

While performing the duties of this office, which he did to the entire satisfaction of the people, he took a correspondence course in law. After pursuing his study of the law for two or three years, he was admitted to the bar, announced soon thereafter for county attorney and was nominated and elected. It was while he was serving a second term in this office that Nelson resigned the district attorneyship and Smith was appointed to the place. He has been elected to the office twice since, without opposition.

Whatever charges may be brought against other appointees of the new governor, W. Lee O'Daniel, there can be no valid objection to this appointment. It is one of the best that could be made.

"Sod" Farmers Must Sign up

According to information from the State Office which we have just received, all 1939 sod land farms and all old farms that have not planted cotton since 1935 must make application for cotton allotments before February 15, 1939.

There probably are not any farms in this county that have been in cultivation for as much as two years that will be affected by this regulation. However, all farmers who have 1939 sod land and expect to plant cotton in 1939 should come to the county agent's office and make application just as soon as possible.

President, Finis Connolly.
 Vice-President, Rosalie Thompson.
 Secretary-Treasurer, Dick Bosworth.
 Senior Reporter, Grace Great-house.
 Social Reporter, Eloise Roberts.
 Sports Reporter, Herman Reid.
 Editor-in-Chief, Sara Lou Rumbow.
 Typists, Bryan Wright and Martha Fleming.

SPORTS

Monday night the O'Donnell Eagles and Tahoka Bulldogs tangled again. Not on the gridiron but pounding the hard wood floor in a very interesting and exciting series of basketball games. The O'Donnell boys won a close victory over the Tahoka boys. High point man for O'Donnell was C. R. Burleson. Our own "big foot" Connolly was high point man for Tahoka.

The Tahoka and O'Donnell girls played a closer and more exciting game than the boys. When those Dames from O'Donnell tangle with these Tahoka roughnecks, there is bound to be a battle. The O'Donnell girls won by one point.

The faculty also played and it seems that they have lost their rabbit foot again, because the O'Donnell faculty won.

THE INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

What is known as The University Interscholastic League was first organized in December 1910, at the State Teacher's Meeting at Abilene. Each year since then it has been organized by a bureau of the Extension Division of the University of Texas. For the first year the League's affiliated with the University. The following year contests in declamation were added and membership in the League was thrown open to all the schools of the State below college rank. Subsequently there were also added contests in music, memory, typewriting, art, 3R contest, rural pentathlon, etc., until the present schedule of events was made up.

The membership has constantly increased for twenty-six years, growing from 28 schools in 1910 to 3,397 schools during the school year of 1937-38. This represents a large gain in percentage of schools over the few preceding years, since the records show that there are fewer and fewer schools in the State each year due to the great consolidation program which has been steadily gaining headway.

This League is the most highly organized and has the largest membership of any similar school organization in the United States. Its purpose is to organize and direct through the medium of properly supervised and controlled contests, desirable school activities, and thereby assist in preparing pupils for citizenship.

Competitions organized in a sensible way, surrounded with more proper controls, have demonstrated usefulness so often, have furnished so much inspiration to talented pupils in Texas for so many years, that we feel that the League organization should have the active cooperation of every school teacher in Texas, and that every school in Texas, no matter how small, should become an active member.—From University Bulletin No. 3824.

GRASSLAND 4-H CLUB GIRL REPORTS ON CUP TOWEL

"I used unbleached domestic to make my cup towel and it is a square yard", said Maxine Cash, cooperater in the Grassland 4-H Club.

"I tore the selvages off from both sides then basted a one-half inch hem in, then hemmed it by hand. I worked on it two afternoons after school", Maxine said.

The members had their choice of making a cup towel or head scarf as the first sewing problem. Maxine, like several of the other members, decided to do both. She used print material 28 inches square for the scarf and made it like the cup towel, only made the hem one-eighth inch.

FIFTH SUNDAY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

After a good trip home, with home family Xmas, and after the opening of this new year with good rains all about us, we enter upon this new year with hope and good cheer and some courage for all the work and challenge of the same.

Was completely rained out at Tahoka first appointment of this new year. So much water all about the home, and all about the Church, about Church time, people here and there thanked the Lord for this good rain, and other blessings and stayed at home on Sunday. But, am glad that I can be at Tahoka again next Sunday, our regular 5th Sunday there.

S. S. 10 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. Women's Bible class Monday afternoon.

Subject of sermon 11 a. m. "The Christian and His Bible".

Upon the threshold of this new year, can anything be more important or urgent than a new acquaintance with, and a new appraisal of our Bibles? Nothing but religious failure for Christians and families who neglect or slight this word of God. The Bible.

Be in our services next Sunday. Everybody cordially invited.—W. K. Johnston, Minister.

Those present were: Margie Shepherd, May Ruth Edwards, Maxine Cash, Beth Shepherd, June Cooper, Margie Norman, Nelda Lois Moore, Joy Moore, Billie Greer, Cloeta Hicks, Parsena Hudgens, Beatrice Hudgens, Eula Mae Laws, Wanda June Hicks, Frances Aten, Pauline Hudgens, Faye Hudgens, and the sponsor, Miss Pauline Travis.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Emanuel of Magnolia returned a few days ago from a visit with their doctor son in Chickasha, Okla.

BAPTIST LAYMEN ATTEND MEET AT BROWNFIELD

Accompanied by Rev. George A. Dale, a dozen or more men of the Tahoka Baptist Church attended an association-wide laymen's meeting at Brownfield Monday night.

Other Lynn county Baptists in attendance included three or four from O'Donnell, two or three from Wilson, three from Central, and perhaps others. John Anderson of O'Donnell served as chairman, and John Heck of Wilson conducted the devotional service. This was followed by a number of short talks and addresses. As a part of the program, Dr. K. R. Durham and Messrs. G. W. Simmons, J. M. Scott, and Harold Snowden gave a quartet with Mrs. J. K. Applewhite as piano accompanist. Two young men of O'Donnell also sang a duet.

The purpose of the meeting was to sponsor the organization of the Laymen's Brotherhood in the leading churches of the association. Probably a hundred men were in attendance.

GRASSLAND 4-H CLUB HAS LARGE ATTENDANCE

With sixteen members present, the Grassland 4-H club had its regular meeting in the school building last Friday afternoon. Also one new member was received, Faye Hudgens.

Miss Pauline Travis, the sponsor, checked the sewing boxes of five of the girls and found them OK. These were the boxes of Margie Shepherd, Maxine Cash, Nelda Lois Moore, Frances Aten, and Beth Shepherd.

There were two girls who had completed their cup towels, Margie and Beth Shepherd, and six girls who had started their scarfs, Margie Shepherd, Nelda Lois Moore, Joy Moore, Beth Shepherd, Maxine Cash and Frances Aten.

The secretary being absent, Mary Ruth Edwards was elected assistant secretary.

KLDER DRENNON'S NOTES

Jumps on Editor and Files to Defense of O'Daniel
In reply to the editor's note of last week as to my age, will say that I have lived long enough to know a good governor when one is elected, but still am not as old as the editor. I visited the editor last week end and he still seems not to know that one of our brainy and best citizens has become governor. In his note I see he charges O'Daniel with inexperience. If my memory serves me right he boosted Senator G. H. Nelson for all the offices he sought before he had experience in any part of them. Why show partiality, Editor Hill?

You also spoke of his political vagaries. I heard his inaugural speech and I did not hear anything wild or freakish about it. If you heard them you have better ears than mine.
Back to Nelson again. What about the one-house legislature plan? Some thought that was political vagary. What say you?
I am glad to see the editor appreciates the O'Daniel family, but don't forget that W. Lee is the head of it.

While last Sunday was bad as far as the weather was concerned, we had a large crowd at worship, which has convinced me that the weather does not have much to do with people going to church when they become interested. Dear reader, what about you? Is your church attendance regulated by the weather? If so, you need a change of heart. I don't know much about the power of New Year resolutions in general, but it seems some of the members here have made some that have wrought wonders in their church attendance since the first of the year. I hope they hold good the whole year.

I observed another thing last Saturday that put me to thinking. One of our local grocery stores had a formal opening. He had advertised it well. When I visited the store late Saturday afternoon I found his store packed full of people. I then visited the other stores who had not advertised much and you had plenty of room to trade. The moral: 'It pays to advertise'. I believe fewer people will go to Lubbock to trade when more home merchants advertise more.

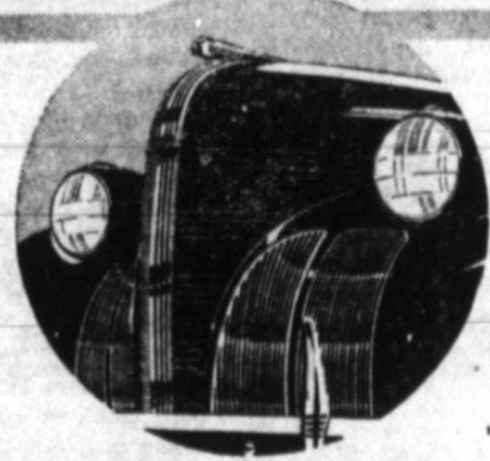

A few wise cracks.
"A fellow with a slender salary should marry a girl with a small waste."
"The man who thinks by the inch and talks by the yard should be dealt with by the foot."
"Some people are good because they fear to be bad; other people are good because they have no opportunity to do ugly things; a few are good by preference."
Yours for more people who had rather be right than be great.
Hope to see you at church next Sunday.—R. P. Drennon.

(Editorial Note: We merely remarked last week that we hoped O'Daniel would make a good governor in spite of his inexperience and his vagaries. Nelson did make good in each office he has held, we think; and if governor O'Daniel had started where Nelson did, first with some study of law and government, then as county attorney or some other minor office, and then as district attorney or other important office, and then as state senator or other legislative position, by that time doubtless he would have had enough "experience" to make a good governor if otherwise qualified, as he probably is. Do you see what we mean by experience, Brother Drennon? No? Well, do you think a man who had never studied the Bible, who had never attended church, who had never taken any interest in religion, would be qualified right off the reel to make a good pastor of the First Church of Christ in Dallas? Or even in O'Donnell? Still, we hope that Brother O'Daniel has such an abundance of good and wholesome advice on matters of government that he may make a good governor, in spite of any mistakes that he may have made so far. Now jump on that.)

Herald Editor Observes Thirtieth Anniversary In Brownfield

By A. J. (Jack) Stricklin
Terry County Herald

Just a bit of insight of the mode of living here thirty years ago, many friends then, still our best friends.

"A. J. Stricklin, a young man of Anson, Texas has accepted employment in the Herald office. Mr. Stricklin has had several years experience in the printing and newspaper work, and is competent to render valuable aid in the publication of this paper. He comes well recommended as a young man of exemplary character; and will be welcomed by the good people of Brownfield." — From the Terry County Herald January 30, 1909.

The above local news item was penned by the late Neil H. Bigger, then editor and publisher of the Herald, but was hand-spiked into type by the writer. Just who recommended us, or guessed that we were "a young man of exemplary character" our boss did not state, nor did we deny, as that made little difference just then. Anyway, we then became a piece and parcel of the good town and county, and so far no sandstorms or other adverse winds, and we have had many, have caused us to move, even temporarily.

The best we can gather now is that we left Anson on Monday morning, January 18, 1909, on the Wichita Valley railroad. Remained in Abilene all day or just about rightfall, when the T. & P. passenger pulled out west. Now we did not ride the rods; we borrowed sufficient money from brother Tom to get to Brownfield, feed and all. The balance of the night after about eleven p. m. was spent at the old Stewart Hotel, at Big Spring. And next morning about nine, we left for the future home on the cap. Jack Head was heading this way in his two-cylinder Maxwell, carrying us and three other bums.

By dent of good luck, Lamesa was reached slightly after noon, where we partook of a good lunch provided by a fine pioneer lady at a combined cafe (no restaurant) and boarding house on the north side of the square. Wish we could recall her name, as it was a fine dinner. Stuck in a sand bed just north of Lamesa square, but finally got out, and reached Brownfield about five o'clock, and took up board (on credit) with a fine lady and life long friend, Mrs. Daugherty, now deceased. As a place to sleep, we shared a bed with the school principal (Supt.) Jesse Webb, now a prominent Houston lawyer. This bed was a wall let-down affair at night, and hang up affair in day time in the offices of a small lumber yard then run by W. G. Hardin for Connell Lumber Co., of Big Spring. But it was a good bed in a warm room and we appreciated it.

We find that the issue of January 23, was skipped, the paper then being issued Saturday. There was two reasons for this, the main being the editor was down with lagrippe or flu, we now call it, and there was no copy. Second, we had been out of a printing office ten years, and wished to practice sticking type a few days. So the next issue was January 30th. Yeah! those were the good old days. It took a freight wagon just twelve days to go to Big Spring and back, and if the weather wasn't just right, much longer. One week we published the Saturday issue on the next Tuesday. Had to wait for print paper to come in on wagons. And many times, chuck (groceries to you) would get scarce, but as long as anyone in town had flour neat or lard they divided.

And fuel was an object as well. While coal could be purchased in Big Spring at $8.00 per ton, it took just $17.50 to get it hauled to Brownfield. So many substitutes were used, mainly mesquite grubs and cow chips. The grubs could be purchased for about $2.50 per load, but you don't realize how fast they would go in a sheet iron stove when a blue norther or sandstorm struck. But then coal was $25.50 per ton in your bin. To offset this, there was the finest people on earth as your neighbors. If your friends had food, fuel or money, you had it. The bank never took mortgages those days, and didn't lose a dollar. No home and few business houses had a key—you didn't need locks.

It was a hard struggle for our

Howell Families Attend Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Belton Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Howell, and Mr. and S. H. Howell attended the funeral of Herman Howell, 18, at Seagraves last Friday. Deceased was a son of "Babe" Howell of Seagraves and a grandson of S. H. Howell of this city. He was a nephew of Belton and Paul.

Young Herman died after only a brief illness. He had been "puny", Belton says, for a couple of days but did not become seriously ill till early Wednesday morning. He was then taken to Treadaway-Daniel Hospital in Brownfield for treatment but died early that night.

He left surviving him the father, two brothers, one sister, the relatives named above and other relatives. His mother died 27 months to a day preceding his death.

Belton says that the boy's father, "Babe", had a strange premonition or warning of Herman's approaching death. In a vision which appeared to him in his sleep before Herman became seriously ill, the apparition of his departed wife appeared and she told him "Herman is coming to live with me." Awakening, Mr. Howell jumped up and hurried to Herman's bedside and inquired as to how he was feeling. The boy answered that he was feeling all right and there was nothing to indicate that his condition was serious, but a few hours later his condition did become serious and the journey to the hospital was begun. On the way "Babe" told the others that they would not bring the boy back alive. The apparition and the warning had been so vivid and real to him that he felt positive all the while that the boy was going to die.

boss to pay us $45.00 per month, and that was just about as little as we could get by on, as room and board was from $25.00 to $30.00 per month, not to mention laundry and other incidentals, so by about the first of June he owed us $85.00 he could not pay, nor had he ever paid the late Judge W. R. Spencer the $700 for the plant, so a sale was negotiated, wherein for the $85 in wages and $125.00 in cash we obtained from that faithful older brother, Tom, we took up the first note, and Judge Spencer graciously agreed to extend the other so long as it took us to pay it.

But luck turned our way, for the next year, 1910, the railroad came to Lubbock, and in 1912 to Tahoka, so that we got enough extra advertising out of those places to make our payments. We took charge of the plant with the first issue in June, 1909. At that time we were using an old George Washington hand press to print the paper, and the type was worn and not much more than one and a half cases. In June, 1910, we went to Dallas and purchased a large job press for the paper and two big cases of new type, paid what we could on it and came home and put the proposition up to W. A. Bell, then cashier of the Brownfield State Bank. He capitulated after some grousing, as is the case with bankers.

This is an old story repeated again to the old timers who have been here 20 or more years, but to the newcomer, gives just an insight of some of the things the pioneer was up against. There are some things about pioneering that is great, the common level of all humanity, and the common honesty of the citizenship. But who would now do without their electric lights, their gas fuel, running water, sewer and other modern conveniences, such as frigidaires, radios, etc?

And too, we beg the reader's pardon for writing about ourselves this week instead of someone else or some other business firm, but this was really an anniversary. We already know of some other firms that will get their writeups in these columns on their anniversary, one of them real soon, and it is going to be a dinger, all illustrated 'n' nothing.

BEN HARDY'S CAREER

Somewhere back was born the expression "You can't write a book about a good man."

The statement naturally is exaggerated but serves to direct attention to an unfortunate custom—that of giving too much emphasis on the printed pages to individuals whose reputations at best are a bit salty and too little to those who lived a sort of prosaic existence characterized only by their generous consideration of others.

In the classification too often overlooked might be mentioned Rev. Ben Hardy, retiring pastor of the Tahoka Methodist church.

Mr. Hardy quite probably never flew an airplane, or pulled a drowning man from a stream, or rode with the Rough Riders, or invented a new kind of mousetrap.

Probably he has never found himself in any sort of trouble that so easily falls into the category of feature news, unless you except the probability he was a normal chap when a youth and as such subject to the pranks common to youth.

But he has done more than that. For 41 years he has served in a single conference of his church, a record few ministers can match. When he was superannuated, at his own request, by the bishop at the last Northwest Texas conference, he could look back at a simple life that created respect for his own ministry, more confirmed faith in his belief and a conscience that allowed for repose.

It is not necessary to this tribute to point out that he was a professor in Clarendon college, president of the church extension board and at various times pastor of churches at Childress, Plainview, Memphis Lubbock, Seymour, Big Spring, Haskell, Quanah, Floydada, Hamlin, Roscoe, and Anson.

It is sufficient that he has devoted his life to an attempted betterment of society and that, despite his having retired from an active pastorate, he has dedicated his remaining years to visiting other pastors and their churches and continuing his ministry in the numerous ways he has learned.—Lubbock Avalanche.

Proposes Opening Big Spring Hospital

Austin, Jan. 26.—The new hospital for the insane at Big Spring would be opened immediately under terms of an emergency appropriation bill introduced last week in the Texas Senate by Senator G. H. Nelson of Lubbock.

Senator Nelson's bill calls for the immediate appropriation of $275,000 to furnish and equip the new hospital, and to complete some small buildings for which insufficient funds were originally provided. The appropriation will be sufficient to operate the hospital until August 31.

"I am anxious to see this hospital opened as quickly as possible, and I know that all the people of West Texas join with me in that hope," Senator Nelson said.

"When this new hospital is opened, it will save West Texans many thousands of dollars in transportation costs and at the same time will permit those having friends or relatives in the hospital to make the visit much more frequently," he pointed out.

"A regular appropriation will be made for the new hospital in the eleemosynary appropriation bill, but those funds will not be available until August 31. I want to see the hospital in operation long before that, so my bill will provide the funds needed to equip and operate the hospital from now until August 31," Senator Nelson declared.

Representatives Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo and James H. Goodman of Midland are sponsoring an identical bill in the House of Representatives.

Cotton Surplus Will Be Reduced

Washington, D. C. United States Senator Tom Connally of Texas gave immediate attention on his arrival in Washington for the opening of Congress to a plan for reduction of the cotton surplus.

"The accumulation of the vast cotton surplus on account of government loans is a constant load that is keeping down the price of cotton," Senator Connally asserted, adding: "This surplus must be reduced. The government now has on hand more than eleven million bales of loan cotton and, by August first will possibly have two additional million bales."

Continuing, Senator Connally said: "I propose that the government turn over to the Commodity Credit Corporation and the WPA three million bales of this cotton with directions that the same shall be manufactured into cotton mattresses and other cotton articles for home consumption and be distributed to families on relief and to indigent persons who can make a showing as to need for same."

Stressing this feature of the plan, Senator Connally observed:

"Many persons who spend their lives raising cotton are in need of many simple home necessities, which could be supplied by the utilization of cotton. Of course, the WPA or other distributing agent would establish a standard as to applicants who may be worthy so as not to disturb the market now supplied by manufacturers and dealers. To give a mattress to one who is not able to purchase one would not in any wise interfere with such market. The tremendous cotton surplus must be reduced. The government already has on hand this cotton for which it has paid. We are spending many hundreds of millions for relief purpose. Why not spend some of this cotton and serve the double purpose of affording relief and also reduce the cotton surplus."

"The surplus must be reduced if we are to have any success with the cotton program," Senator Connally concluded.

Senator Connally's action was based on information and advice received from many sources while spending the last several months in Texas giving attention to various problems coming before Congress with especial reference to agriculture. He travelled over 14,000 miles, going into every section of the state and contacting thousands of people in an effort to be of aid.

A. I. Thomas Builds Fireplace From Rocks Collected From Over Nation

By dint of much travel and toil and through the generous assistance of many friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Thomas have a unique and unusually attractive fireplace, recently completed, in their home in northwest Tahoka.

The fireplace was built of stone gathered from here, there, and everywhere. Thirty-five or forty states and at least ten foreign countries are represented. These stones are of various sizes, shapes, and colors, ranging all the way from ebony to almost snowwhite. A number of them are petrified rock. One is what Mr. and Mrs. Thomas call a brain stone because, by reason of its shape and its convolution it greatly resembles the brain of a human being. This stone came from Florida and was sent to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas by a brother of Mrs. C. H. Cain. Mrs. Cain also secured another stone which has gone into the structure from Canada.

Just above the fireplace is the only stone that contains an engraving. It was procured by a sister of Mrs. A. L. Lockwood in Washington. It is yellow marble with black streaks and came from the same marble beds from which were quarried the stones of which the Congressional Library is built. Engraved on its face are the following words and figures: Library of Congress Washington, D. C. 1934.

There is one stone that came from the premises of Washington's historic home, Mount Vernon; one that came from the grounds adjacent to Lincoln's tomb, which is situated in Springfield, Illinois; and descending from the sublime to the ridiculous, one from Langtry, Texas, the place where the famous Roy

Bean lived and administered the "law west of the Pecos."

There is one from the region of the only diamond mine in North America, situated near Murfreesboro in Pike county, Arkansas, and one from the shores of the Great Salt Lake, Utah. One was given to Mr. Thomas by Ford Ingram a short time before his death, which he said he had dug out of the bluff overlooking the Trinity River at the point where Lake Worth now is. He had procured this stone more than sixty-two years ago when he was a mere lad.

Others have been gathered by friends from all sections of the country from the New England States to the Pacific coast and from Canada to the Gulf.

One stone was procured for him by Dr. Durham through a friend from some point in Porto Rico, two that came from Mexico were given him by a Mr. Tippit of Mitre Peak, Jeff Davis county, an uncle of the Tippit brothers here, and one was sent him from Panama by a son of Lt. Moore of New Home.

One came from the Virgin Islands, and Mrs. Ruby Burget, the former Miss Ruby Ketner, sent one from the Hawaiian Islands. A Mr. Monroe of Carrizo Springs gave him one stone which he procured in Scotland and another in Ireland while he was in the U. S. Navy. More interesting than that, however, is a stone which Wilson Farmer of this city took from the old crumbled-down Chinese Wall while he was a member of Uncle Sam's Navy in 1932.

Possibly the stone which Mr. and Mrs. Thomas value the most highly is an insignificant looking specimen from Cahuapanas, South America, near Lima, where the historic Pan-American Conference was held recently. They appreciate this stone not because of its beauty or other inherent quality but because of the story that lies back of it. It was procured for them by a little native Indian boy about nine or ten years old who once visited Tahoka. This little fellow is the ward of Rev. E. F. Reifsnnyder, a Methodist Missionary in Peru. A few years ago, the missionary brought the boy with him when he came on a visit back to Texas, and the two appeared on one Sunday in the Methodist Church here.

This boy is a member of a wild pagan Indian tribe in Peru. It is one of the customs of these Indians, when a mother dies in giving birth to a child, to bury the living child with the dead mother. This living infant was about to be buried with the dead mother when Missionary Reifsnnyder arrived on the scene. He persuaded the Indians not to bury the infant but to give it to him. They brought it to his home, where they left it, and he is rearing the child. The boy is a bright little fellow and can speak in several tongues, it is said. He remembered his trip to Tahoka, and when Mr. Thomas wrote to Rev. Reifsnnyder a few months ago for a stone to be placed in his fireplace, the boy asked for the privilege of selecting the stone, and did so.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas have a photograph of the boy which they also value very highly.

LYNN COUNTY CHILD GOES TO DALLAS FOR OPERATION

Joan Moore, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Moore, Wilson, Lynn County, and one of a family of eighteen children is in a Baylor Hospital for an operation on a soft palate which will correct an impediment in her speech.

Mrs. Moore, who is with her daughter, said the family lived on a farm and that she had eighteen children, all but two of whom are living. There are three sets of twins in the family, the oldest child being 26 and the youngest 14 months.

Doctors will perform the operation which is not a serious one. Wednesday if present symptoms do not develop into a severe cold.—Dallas News, Jan. 19.

Mrs. Jessie Jewell Stevens, Jerry Jean, Travis McCord, and Mrs. Dan Morris of Los Angeles, who was visiting here, drove down to Abilene Sunday for a visit with Mrs. Travis Veteto, sister of Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Morris. All returned home that afternoon except Mrs. Morris who remained for a longer visit.

Mrs. Hattie O'Hair, sister of Hall Robinson, who has been making her home here recently, returned Tuesday from a trip to Mexico City.

Mrs. Hall Robinson is in Fort Worth and Dallas this week making purchases for the Robinson Ready-to-wear store.

Feed Loans Are Again Available

Applications for emergency crop and feed loans for 1939 are now being received at the office of Mrs. Lucile Knight Tahoka, Texas, by Fred N. Warren, Field Supervisor of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration.

The loans will be made, as in the past, only to farmers whose cash requirements are small and who can not obtain credit from any other source. The money loaned will be limited to the farmer's immediate and actual cash needs for growing his 1939 crops or for the purchase of feed for livestock.

Farmers who can obtain the funds they need from an individual, production credit association, bank, or other concern are not eligible for crop and feed loans from the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration. The loans will not be made to standard rehabilitation clients whose current needs are provided for by the Farm Security Administration, formerly known as the Resettlement Administration.

As in the past, farmers who obtain emergency crop and feed loans will give as security a first lien on the crop financed, or a first lien on the livestock to be fed if the money borrowed is to be used to produce or purchase feed for livestock.

Where loans are made to tenants, the landlords, or others having an interest in the crops financed or the livestock to be fed, are required to waive their claims in favor of a lien to the Governor of the Farm Credit Administration until the loan is repaid.

Checks in payment of approved loans will be mailed from the Regional Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Office at Dallas, Texas.

A son weighing ten pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bill McNeely of the Dixie community on Monday night of last week. Both mother and babe are doing just fine. This is their fifth son; no daughter in the family yet. But Bill says he recently heard of one couple who had nine sons and no daughters.

Mrs. A. Martin of Tulla visited her sister, Mrs. I. I. Gattis, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.
