Death of Pioneer Physician Shock To Entire County

of the homes of the people of Tahoka and vicinity. Many times he went when he was sick himself. Beneath a seemingly rugged exterior, he had a warm, sympathetic heart, and he never heard a call of distress without answering it. Furthermore, he was always frank and honest with his patients and their families, and this is doubtless one of the reasons why he was so greatly appreciated and esteemed.

Dr. Turrentine had not been very well for several months, and in recent years had had two or three rather serious attacks. Early in January he decided to take a short vacation and he and Mrs. Turrentine went to Corpus Christi to spend a few days. On Tuesday, January 10, while out on the walk that tops the sea wall, he dodged and threw up an arm to protect himself and wife from a fisherman's line as he made a cast into the water, stepping backward unintentionally off the wall. As the result of the fall the bone of one leg was broken just below the hip.

He was taken to the Spohn Hospital in Corpus Christi, where the leg and lower portion of the body were placed in a plaster cast, and on the following Sunday he was brought by the Harris ambulance and placed in the west Texas hospital in Lubbock. His desire to return to his home became so intense that the family decided to accede to his wishes and he was accordingly brought home last Saturday morning. He did not rest well, however, and his condition growing decidedly worse during the night, it was decided to take him back to the hospital Sunday morning, which was done. He suffered from pleurisy intensely throughout the afternoon and by five o'clock physicians gave up hope for his recovery, we are told. He died at 7:30.

Dr. Turrentine was the son of Daniel and Mary Elizabeth Turrentine and was born on July 5, 1886, in Howard county, Arkansas. When he was eight years of age he removed with his parents from Arkansas to Waxahachie, Texas. Later the family came to Hereford, where he grew to young manhood. Deciding to study medicine, he was graduated from the Southwestern Medical College with an M. D. degree and served his internship at the St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas. For a few months following that he practiced medicine in Vega, and then moved to Tahoka. He has practiced here ever since except for the period of his service in the army during the World War. He attended the Officers Training Corps in Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, and upon enlistment in the army received his commission as First Lieutenant in Company 10 in his regiment, in which he served for the remainder of the War. He was stationed first at San Antonio and later at Fort Bliss, El Paso.

While stationed at Fort Sam Houston he was married to Miss Iva Cowan of this city on February 7, 1917. To this marriage was born one daughter, Dottie. Dr. Turrentine became a Christian at an early age and joined the Methodist Church in Waxahachie. He was a member of the Tahoka Methodist Church at the time of his death. He was also a member of the Masonic Lodge here and of the American Legion and for several years had been a valued member of the Tahoka school board. He was county health officer at the time of his death and had served many years either as county or city health officer. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. L. E. Turrentine, his daughter, Miss Dottie Turrentine, two brothers, Joe of Yuma, Arizona, and George of Hereford, Texas; three sisters, Mrs. J. L. Cannon of Texarkana, Arkansas, Mrs. E. W. Harrison of Hereford, Texas, and Miss Frances Turrentine of El Paso. One brother, Dr. D. E. Turrentine, a dentist, preceded him in death, having died in 1928.

The people of this entire section of the South Plains as well as many in other sections sincerely mourn the death of this devoted physician and useful citizen.

ANOTHER YOUNG COUPLE WEDS

F. E. Redwine Jr. of this city and Miss Donnie Lee Fulford of the Lakeview community were married in Brownfield on Sunday night, January 22. Rev. William Avery Rogers, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Brownfield officiating. F. E. Jr. is the son of the late F. E. Redwine and Mrs. Redwine, prominent pioneer citizens of Tahoka. He was born and reared here and is a popular and gentlemanly young fellow. He is employed at the A. L. Smith Food Market.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fulford and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Yates, all of whom are also well known pioneer residents of Lynn county. She also is a native of Lynn county and is highly esteemed by all who know her.

The young couple have an apartment at the Mrs. F. E. Redwine home.

Approval Given Liquor Board

Austin, Feb. 1. — (Special) The Texas Senate's unanimous confirmation of E. W. Crouch of McGregor as chairman of the Liquor Control Board was interpreted today as approval by the lawmakers of the Board's "strict enforcement" policy.

Appointed April 2, 1938, by former Governor James V. Allred, Mr. Crouch has been chairman since the Board's sustained campaign for the elimination of "honky tonks" and other undesirable establishments got under way.

Mr. Crouch is a businessman and Baptist Church officer in McGregor.

When he assumed the chairmanship early in 1938 he publicly reiterated the Board's policy of "strict enforcement" and has worked persistently with his colleagues to back up that statement.

Records of liquor law enforcement for 1938 as compared with 1937 show a two-fold development: better observance of the law, and more certainty of punishment for violators.

In 1938 there were 4,868 complaints filed, as against 5,948 in 1937, and 2,554 convictions in 1938 as compared with 2,491. The 1938 convictions resulted in the assessment of $230,647.83 in fines, all of which go to county treasuries.

CARD OF THANKS

We are deeply appreciative of the kindness shown us and the words of consolation spoken by our neighbors and friends during the great bereavement which we have suffered in the death of our daughter and sister, Mrs. Gladys Hogan Weaver. May God bless every kind and sympathetic heart. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hogan Mr. and Mrs. George Hogan Jr. Mrs. E. M. Hooper Mrs. Bryce Ferguson.

Mrs. Alton Cain and baby returned Saturday night from a few days visit with Mr. Cain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cain at Canyon, a sister at Hartley and a sister at Clovis, N. M.

SHAUB-LUMSDEN
Among the outstanding social events of the season was the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Shaub and Mr. William Lumsden which was solemnized at the First Baptist Church of Wilson at 10:50 o'clock Sunday morning January 29th with Rev. Paul A. McCasland, pastor of the First Baptist Church, reading the beautiful single ring ceremony. Preceding the ceremony Harry Epps played as a violin solo Minuet by Seydel with piano accompaniment by his mother Mrs. W. A. Epps. Following this was heard the beautiful strains of Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin played by Mrs. W. A. Epps. The attendants were Mrs. Elmer Blankenship as Matron of Honor and Mr. Elmer Blankenship as Best Man. Serving as ushers were Messrs Robert Maecher, Irvin Sanders and S. G. Anthony. As a recessional Mrs. W. A. Epps played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride was very attractively dressed in a Milgrim's costume suit of light wool in hunter's green, with a short gray caracul jacket with black accessories, and a corsage of white gardenias and lilies of the valley. Other members of the bridal party wore corsages of gardenias and white rose bud boutonnières. Mrs. Lumsden is the charming daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Schaub of Wilson, formerly of Dallas. She attended Miss Hockaday's School of Dallas, and is also a former student of Southeastern Louisiana College of Hammond, Louisiana.

William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Lumsden, prominent citizens of Wilson. He is a graduate of Wilson High School and a former student of Texas Technological College of Lubbock.

After a short wedding trip to Carlsbad, New Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Lumsden will be at home in Wilson, where he is assistant cashier of the Wilson State Bank.

In addition to a home filled with loved ones, friends and acquaintances were the following out-of-town guests: Mr. and Mrs. Roy G. Loveless, Mr. and Mrs. Holt and Miss Omega Taylor of Slaton and Mrs. Bob Forrester and Miss O'Berá Forrester of Tahoka and Judge E. L. Pitts of Lubbock.

MRS. HAMILTON IS HONOREE AT SHOWER
Mrs. E. R. Tunnell complimented Mrs. Clifton Hamilton, the former Miss Frances Myrtle Price, with a shower Wednesday, January 25, at her home near Dixie. The bride was introduced in a game to the different and lovely ways of getting romance out of cakes. Advice was freely given on tiny cards. After winning a contest the Mrs. Hamilton was presented a multitude of lovely gifts. The following ladies of Dixie and Wilson attended: Mesdames J. R. Hamilton, Nael Galloway, Norman Galloway, G. E. Galloway, C. E. Campbell, John Lamb, O. W. Ray, E. R. Tunnell, T. G. Dulin, Egbert Evans, Archie Sims, O. W. Lemon, W. C. Huffacker, H. C. Fountain, Bill Deavers, L. Holly, Lee Holly, S. G. Anthony, S. H. Grider, J. O. King, J. L. Rumbo, S. N. Price, Allie Price, and Misses Earlene Tunnell, Dairyne Evans, Thomas Grider, Oleta Price.

Thomas J. Williams of Draw has been brought home from a Lubbock hospital, where he had been under treatment for a most serious malady, and his condition is reported to be critical.

MRS. A. L. WOMACK OF WILSON GIVEN BRIDAL SHOWER

The Young Ladies Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church of Wilson, together with their Sunday school teacher Mrs. S. G. Anthony, gave a miscellaneous shower last Friday, January 20, at the Baptist Parsonage honoring Mrs. A. L. Womack, who before her recent marriage on Christmas day was Miss Gladys Young. Mrs. Womack was a popular member of the local High School basket ball team.

The guests registered in a beautiful guest book which was painted by Miss Clara May. Then very lively and enjoyable games followed, many lovely gifts were presented on a raft which had been built on a small wagon and pulled by Dan Howard Cook. The flag on the raft bore the letters, "A Raft of Good Wishes".

Mesdames Clyde Shaw, Lonnie Lumsden and John Heck assisted Mrs. Anthony in serving a very attractive refreshment plate of pink iced angel food cake, punch and mints.

The social was closed with a serious thought in the form of Mrs. Lonnie Lumsden reading one of Grace Noel Crowell's poems on Home. Following this Mrs. Anthony dismissed the social with a prayer for the new home that has just been established.

Those who attended the shower were: Mesdames Paul Dwaroczyk, J. B. King, Robert Womack, L. B. Mockzygamba, Clyde Shaw, J. J. Alderson, Hubbard Young, S. B. Kirbie, H. C. Hemmeline, A. D. Schneider, Edwin May, W. H. May, L. Lumsden, John Heck, Howard Cook, Paul McCasland and Misses Clara May, Eva Pearl Williamson, and Mildred Holder. Many people sent gifts who could not attend the party.

ELDER DRENNON'S NOTES

Since last week's notes I have had another birthday—will not say which. Several members of the church gathered at the parsonage and gave me a surprise party. A pleasant evening was had, and when the guests departed I found I had several nice presents.

I had the pleasure of going to Mesquite last Lord's Day and preaching three times to fine, attentive audiences.

The attendance here during January was the largest of any month since I have lived here. The second Sunday in next month will complete one year since moving here. It has been a pleasant, and I trust profitable, year and I am beginning to think it is a better place to live than Tahoka.

I see by last week's News that Editor Hill has found two things to commend our beloved friend Lee O'Daniel, I am glad that he can see at least partly straight. In regard to his note I have just this to say: "Does one have to be a lawyer before he can be a good governor?" If so, some of our best material will be cut out. After reading the law on my mother's pension envelop I think it would be better if we had some men in the Senate and Legislature who didn't know so much law and had a little more common sense.

I want to commend the editorial of last week on the pari mutuel race horse gambling bill. I hope our best citizens will rise up and demand it not be made a law. It will take public sentiment to keep it and the sale of liquor by the drink out. Let's write our Senators and Representatives about it.

Yours for more people who will use their brains as much as the other organs of the body. Visit the friendly church once and you will come again.—R. P. Drennon.

(Ed. Note: "Does one have to be a lawyer before he can be a good governor?" One does not necessarily have to be a lawyer in order to be a good governor. But any man is better equipped to be governor by having studied and practiced law. It is one of the functions of a governor to approve or to veto every law enacted by the legislature. In other ways he must deal with the law almost every day. How can he be well equipped for the governorship without having an intimate knowledge of the law? Only a man of unusual ability and talents can make the grade, though there are a few men capable of making a good governor who have not previously studied law. The more a man knows, in fact, the better equipped, he is for any important office like the governorship. Thanks for your commendations of at least a couple of our editors.)

Mrs. Roy Green is reported to be in very serious condition at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Millman. She has been ill for several months.

The addition of a rug is listed in her plans for the year and perhaps the wood work will be refinished.

What Does the Future Hold for The Smaller Towns in Texas?

What must inevitably be the fate of the small towns and communities in Texas?

This question is being asked in literally hundreds of interior places over the state where today "For Rent" signs clutter the windows of numbers of empty business buildings! It is a question of increasing serious importance, not only to these small towns and communities, but to the state as a whole.

These once busy places of community life, around which has largely grown the progressive development of Texas, are being dried up by the operation of heavy trucks over our highways. Their local business firms and enterprises, the dry goods, hardware, drug and fruit and vegetable stores, retail lumber yards, wholesale grocery houses, bottling plants, feed mills, oil mills, grain elevators and cotton compresses are unable to meet the competition of the larger business centers because of the almost unrestricted and promiscuous use of Texas highways in the delivery of goods by trucks from the larger cities holding the quantity-purchase advantage.

The absorption and manipulation, in varying degree, of the cost of transportation by highway for competitive purposes, if not restricted, will inevitably drive dealers and wholesalers in the smaller towns and communities out of business. They must succumb to the inequality of opportunity with which they are burdened and thus contribute further to our growing economic chaos. The plea now being made by certain interests to increase the load limit on trucks operating over Texas highways will hasten the end of local enterprises in smaller Texas communities. If under the present statute harm already has been done the small town merchant and property owner, what then must be the effect of any increase in the allowable truck load limit? Certainly the larger the load limit the greater will be the distance over which goods can be hauled from the larger distributing centers, and the greater will be the harmful effects on dealers and enterprises in the smaller towns!

The burden of taxation borne by the business interests of the smaller towns and communities throughout Texas will, as a natural result, be shifted more and more to the shoulders of the remaining property owners. Those who have invested in homes and business buildings must sacrifice their investments to what some might mistakenly call "the march of progress."

The thousands of families, for so many years dependent upon employment by these business enterprises as a means of livelihood, must be forced to the cities in quest of work, and falling in that add further to our burden of relief and unemployment!

Increased by long distance truck operations on the traffic of the railroads must necessarily result in the abandonment of more and more railroad mileage, with consequent loss of payrolls and taxes to these communities and an increase of tax burdens to their citizens.

Texas Railroads, who seek no favors and advantages, but who willingly pay their own way to render efficient, dependable and economical transportation service to Texas communities, have felt the ill effects of unfair and subsidized competition in the same way and measure as the small town business men and, in the interest of our mutual preservation, join with them in urging that existing legal truck load limits be not increased!

Farmers May Apply For Cotton Classing Service In 1939

Organized cotton improvement groups may apply for free classification of their 1939 crops under the Amended Grade Statistics Act, any time after March 15, 1939, but no later than September 1, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics announced today.

Regulations now require that improvement groups file their requests for the free classing and supplementary market news service, after their grower-members have completed planting. "This requirement was not in effect for the current season," the Bureau pointed out, "but will apply for 1939 so that each organized group may give detailed acreage figures upon which the Bureau can plan its services for the 1939-40 season."

Organized groups approved in 1938 may apply for renewal of their applications any time after their cotton has been planted, and between the dates specified for new applications. A total of 311 organized groups representing 460,000 acres of improved varieties was approved by the Bureau to receive the free classing and market news services during the current season, the first year in which the services have been available.

Should it appear that funds available for the coming year may be inadequate for supplying the services to all groups requesting them for the 1939 crop, applications will be considered for approval in the order in which they are received, with allowance for planting dates in each section of the Cotton Belt.

Government Power Firm Enlarges

Austin, Jan. 28.—Central Texas' empire of public owned electric utilities became a reality today with the execution of a contract for the purchase by the Lower Colorado River Authority of properties operated by the Texas Power and Light company in a county area.

Contract between the Authority and the power company for transfer of the properties was approved today by the board of directors of the Authority.
 The purchase price was $5,000,000.

The trade, under consideration since last September, was finally worked out this week by A. J. Wirtz, general counsel for the Authority, and attorneys representing the power company.

Involved in the trade were properties operated by Texas Power and Light in San Saba, Lampasas, Llano, Burnet, Blanco, Travis, Hays, Bastrop, Guadalupe, Caldwell, Kerr Lee, Fayette, Washington, Austin and Colorado counties.

While Williamson county was not in the original offer, towns on the border of Williamson county along the Austin-Burnet highway have been included in the properties.

Georgetown, in Williamson county, already is a municipal plant city. In Travis county, Austin operates its own plant. It already is taking some power from L. C. R. A., and plans to increase its use in the future.

Purchase of the properties opens the way for an empire of cities distributing, through municipal systems, low cost power generated by the Authority at its dams on the Colorado River in the picturesque hill country above Austin.

WASTED ENERGY

A Texas politician at Fort Worth recently filed a report of his expenditures during his campaign for Congress. Here is what he showed:
 Lost 1,347 hours of sleep thinking about the election; lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal encounter with an opponent; donated a beef, four pigs, and five sheep to a community barbecue; gave away two pairs of suspenders, four calico dresses, $5 in cash and thirteen baby rattles; chopped 132 acres of cotton; kissed 126 babies; kindled 14 kitchen fires; put up two stoves; walked 4,074 miles, shook hands with 9,508 persons; told 10,101 lies; talked enough to make in print 893 volumes; attended 16 revival meetings and was baptised four times by immersion and twice in the other ways; contributed $50 to foreign missions; made love to nine grass widows; spent $106 at box suppers; hugged 49 old maids; got dog bitten 37 times—AND WAS DEFEATED.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Walker of Lubbock were here Monday for the Dr. Turrentine funeral.

Santa Fe Booklet Boosts Canning

The history and development of the widespread canning industry is illuminatingly depicted in a booklet entitled, "Delicious Foods in Tin Glass," published by the Santa Fe Railway.

The booklet also points to the railway's part in aiding the industry to far flung markets. Attractively illustrated, it carries the reader from the first practical attempt to preserve foods in 1782 down to the present day when virtually every table staple is placed under glass or tin.

John Owens of Tipton, Oklahoma, who is attending A. C. C. at Abilene, was here over the week end visiting his uncle Carl Owens and family.

STOP Coughing and Stop It NOW

Enjoy A Good Night's Rest
 BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE certainly makes a short work of relieving those stubborn old hang-on coughs and colds that other cough remedies fail to budge, according to Mr. H. A. Allen.
 Mr. Allen says: "For years I suffered every winter with a terrible cough. I have had many sleepless nights and coughed until tears ran, and my stomach ached. I started again with the same old cough this year—but after a few doses of BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE my cough was gone."
 You can't go wrong on BUCKLEY'S—by far the largest-selling cough medicine in all old Canada. One or two doses and stubborn tough hang-on coughs are often on their way. And it's only a few cents at drugists everywhere. Money back if not delighted.
