Boy Scout Work Advances Under W. A. Reddell

Sixty-One Persons Now Engaged In Scout Work Here; New Club Room Has Been Provided

W. A. Reddell, the efficient and popular Boy Scoutmaster here, reports that scouting is enjoying much growth at this time. There are now sixty-one persons here actively engaged in scout work in one capacity or another.

These are classified as follows: 26 cubs, 18 scouts, 8 senior scouts, five men scouts, and four Den Mothers.

Mr. Reddell explained that the cubs are boys of pre-scout age who are preparing to become scouts when the eligible age is reached. Their ages range from 9 to 12 years.

At 12 years of age a boy may become a scout. When he reaches the age of 15 he may become a senior scout if he desires to continue in the work. Upon reaching 16, a senior scout is supposed to be placed in charge of some branch of scout work, and is then known as a Junior Assistant Scoutmaster. Two of the senior scouts now occupy positions of this kind. They are D. F. Reddell, in charge of First Aid work, and C. W. Conway, in charge of camping.

Each group of eight cubs or fractional part thereof is placed under the supervision of a Den Mother. There being 26 cubs at this time, there are four Den Mothers. They are Mrs. M. C. Finch, Mrs. E. A. Park, Mrs. C. H. Cain, and Mrs. R. B. Jones. The Cub Master is A. C. Weaver of the Postoffice department.

The scout committee is composed of W. E. (Happy) Smith, E. H. Poulitoun, and Oscar Roberts. Mr. Reddell says that the interest in scout work here is keener than at any other time since he has been in charge of the work. And the scouts themselves, he says, are doing more work, passing more tests, and making more progress than ever before.

He is delighted to report also that the scouts hereafter will have a better meeting place. Heretofore the American Legion has kindly granted them the privilege of meeting in the Legion Hall, which the scouts and scouters greatly appreciate, but they will naturally have more liberties in a meeting place strictly their own.

Accordingly, a room in the old Central Ward School Building has been procured, a room on the lower floor about 20 by 40 feet in size. Here they expect to install a workshop and all necessary scout equipment, place scout pictures and emblems on the walls, etc.

Mr. Reddell and Mr. Weaver and other scout leaders expect scouting to grow in interest and numbers as never before.

Mrs. W. T. Clinton, director of the Renovation project here, says that they are again in need of discarded clothes, hats, shoes, toys, numerous other kinds of articles that may be usually found in the home for their work in the project. She and the women under her supervision will greatly appreciate any contributions to the project which may be made.

Trustee Election Is Next Week

School trustee elections will be held throughout Lynn county on Saturday of next week, April 1. Many names have been filed with the county judge to be printed on the ballots for the various school districts but a verified list of these names is not available at this time. We may publish the entire list next week.

In the Tahoka Independent District, six names have been filed as follows: Prentice Walker, John Slover, Al Lehman, E. W. Shaw, Claude Donaldson, and Dr. K. R. Durham. Two places are to be filled. The terms of W. L. Burleson and the late Dr. L. E. Turrentine expire. Two out of the above named six are to be elected to fill these places.

Begin Revival At Nazarene Church

Rev. Betty Ellis, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, wishes to announce that a revival meeting will begin the 24th of March continuing through April 2.

Rev. J. C. Warrick Jr. of Grassland will be the evangelist. We feel that we are very fortunate in securing this young man to hold us a revival meeting. Brother Warrick is a student of Bethany Peniel College of Oklahoma. We feel sure you will not be disappointed if you hear him.

We want to give everyone a special invitation to attend these services. Let us put forth a special effort to help souls get to God these next few days. Come, work, pray, and sing.—Pastor, Betty Ellis.

Ladies Leave For Caribbean Cruise

Mmes Gladys Stokes and Inez Knight left Monday by bus for Lake Charles, Louisiana, where they were to board the steamship Genevieve Lykes of the Lykes steamship line for a cruise on Gulf, Caribbean, and Atlantic waters.

The cruise will carry them to Havana, Cuba; Port au Prince, Haiti; Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic; Cartagena, Colombia, S. A.; Cristobal, Canal Zone; San Juan, Porto Rico; and thence on the steamship Catherine of the Bull Inular Steamship line to the Virgin Islands.

They expect to remain in the Virgin Islands three weeks. These islands are situated in the Atlantic a short distance east of Porto Rico and about 1450 miles southeast of New York. They consist of St. John, St. Thomas, and St. Croix, and about fifty smaller islands, most of which are uninhabited. The three larger islands have an area of about 130 square miles with a population in 1930 of about 22,000. A large percent of the inhabitants are negroes. They speak the English language. These islands were purchased by the United States from Denmark in 1917 for $25,000,000 or about $188,000 per square mile. They are valuable to the U. S. chiefly as a military base and coaling station.

Mmes. Stokes and Knight expect to be gone seven weeks. They will doubtless have a most interesting trip and will have many interesting things to tell upon their return.

A. H. Raborn attended a meeting of Chevrolet dealers in Amarillo Wednesday.

Wilburn Timmons Died Tuesday

Wilburn Timmons, 64, a resident of the Lakeview community in the northwest portion of Lynn county since 1905, died suddenly from a heart attack which he suffered while riding a horse in his pasture Tuesday morning.

No one was with him at the time, and his dead body was not discovered until possibly an hour and a half or two hours after he had died. A ranch hand noticed his saddled horse grazing in the pasture about eleven o'clock and immediately investigated, finding the body shortly thereafter.

A Harris ambulance was called and the body was brought to the funeral home here and prepared for burial. Funeral services were conducted at the Timmons residence Wednesday afternoon by Rev. W. K. Horn of Post and the remains were interred in the Meadow cemetery, under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home of this city.

Mr. Timmons was unmarried. He left surviving him three brothers and two sisters: H. H. Timmons of Lubbock, John A. Timmons of Meadow, W. H. Timmons of Ropesville, Mrs. Dollie Freeman of Crosbyton, and Mrs. Sallie Godfrey of Weatherford.

Mr. Timmons was born in Young county May 1, 1874. He came from Briscoe county to Lynn county in March, 1905, acquiring ranch interests here. He owned a three-section farm and ranch at the time of his death. Being a pioneer citizen of Lynn county he had long been a reader of the Lynn County News and visited this office regularly once each year. Apparently he was a strong and healthy man, but he had suffered frequently from heart trouble before the final attack, it is said. A physician who was consulted expressed the opinion that he suffered a sudden attack while riding and fell from his horse dead. He lived alone at his ranch home a mile south and a half mile west of Lakeview.

He had many friends among the pioneers of this section as well as the late comers who greatly deplore his untimely death.

Tahoka Rifle Club Has First Meeting

The Tahoka Rifle Club held its first meeting Wednesday night with thirty-one members present. The formal opening of the range will be next Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, at which time officers will be elected and dues collected.

Tahoka business men have given many prizes to the club which will be well worth shooting for. T. Garrard says. The club also needs two old mattresses to use at the shooting range, and anyone having same should get in touch with T. Garrard at the postoffice.

Several additional members were taken in at the meeting, and others are expected to join at next week's meeting.

Max won first places in the 220 yard dash at 23.6 seconds; 440 yard dash, 53.9 seconds; the low hurdles; and second place in the broad jump.

Mrs. S. M. Bean Died Monday

After having reared a large family and lived out a long life of more than four score and four, Mrs. Mary Josephine Bean died of the dreaded disease pneumonia at 1 o'clock Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Curry, five miles north of Tahoka.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. George A. Dale in the Baptist Church here at 3:30 Monday afternoon, and the body was laid to rest in the Tahoka cemetery under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home.

Mrs. Bean was a native Texan, having been born in Parker county September 5, 1854. Before reaching her eighteenth birthday she was married to S. M. Bean at Gatesville in Coryell county on July 24, 1872. She and her husband walked and labored side by side for nearly 65 years, their companionship being interrupted by his death on March 14, 1937. They lived in Central Texas until about nine years ago, removing from Falls county to Tahoka in 1930.

Mrs. Bean united with the Baptist church at the age of 40 while a resident of Limestone county, and her friends and loved ones say that she exhibited the principles and precepts of Christianity in her daily living.

Mrs. Bean was the mother of nine children, seven of whom are still living, five sons and two daughters. They are: A. D. Bean of San Antonio, J. V. Bean of Refugio, C. A. Bean of Dublin, Johnnie Bean of Tahoka, G. A. Bean of O'Donnell, Mrs. Jack Curry of Tahoka, Mrs. Minnie Isham of Houston. A number of the children were not able to attend the funeral, even the daughter, Mrs. Jack Curry, at whose home Mrs. Bean died, was not able to be present on account of the serious illness of her fourteen-year-old son.

Besides the children, Mrs. Bean leaves a host of grand-children and great grand-children. Out-of-town grandchildren attending the funeral were Mrs. E. L. Roman and family of Knott and Mrs. A. C. Hodge and family of Post.

Filling Station And Warehouse Started

A combination service station, warehouse, and office building is being constructed by the Farmers Co-operative Gin Association on the southwest corner of the lots on which their two gin plants here are situated.

The building is to be frame with a stucco finish outside and celotex inside.

The office is to be 24x40 feet in size, the service station 24x18 not including the drive-way, the wash and grease room 24x26, and the warehouse 30x34.

It will be not only a commodious but an attractive building.

Claude Donaldson is the secretary and manager for the Farmers Co-operative Association which operates the two gins here.

Mrs. A. M. Thomas, who has been seriously sick for a long time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Walker, just outside the northern limits of Tahoka, is now much improved and able to be up. She is the mother of the three Thomas brothers here.

Dr. Sinclair is already well known to many people here and throughout Lynn county.

THS Band Makes Good-Will Trip

Tahoka high school band, under the direction of J. H. Feltz, Tuesday made a good-will trip, attired in their new uniforms, to O'Donnell, Midway, Draw, New Lynn, Wilson, and New Home, playing short concerts at each place. The band also played on the streets of Tahoka in the afternoon.

The trip was partly for the purpose of advertising the Womanless Wedding in Tahoka that night sponsored by the Rotary Club to raise funds with which to pay expenses of the Lynn County Interscholastic League Meet here this week-end.

Compliments have been profuse from each community visited on Tahoka's band and the spirit of neighborliness displayed.

Prohl Is Having Bad Eye Treated

Dr. E. Prohl left for Fort Worth Tuesday to have one of his eyes treated by a specialist. He was accompanied by his wife and baby. It is hoped that the affection will yield readily to treatment and that he will be back in two or three days.

In the meantime his office is being kept open for the accommodation of any who might have any business matters that need attention.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Barnett who live northeast of town are parents of a baby girl born at 9:40 Monday morning, according to Dr. J. W. Sinclair.

School Children And Spectators Invade City

Contests Began Thursday Night And Will Continue Through Today and Saturday

The Lynn County Interscholastic League Meet is now on in full blast. Thursday night was devoted to declamation contests. Both the school auditoriums here were made to ring with the eloquence of our young orators coming from every section of the county.

Contests for rural junior boys and rural junior girls, rural senior boys and rural senior girls were held in the grade school auditorium-gymnasium. Contests for ward school pupils and high school pupils were held in the high school auditorium.

Contests in spelling, extemporaneous speech, and music memory. Tiny Tot story-telling, and Three-R, as well as tennis and playground ball are being held this morning.

On the boards this afternoon are Choral singing, Ready writers, Picture memory, final debate, and a continuation of a number of the morning subjects.

Tonight a one-act play will be presented in the high school auditorium. The small admission fee of ten cents will be charged.

Tomorrow will be Track and Field Day, and athletes will be here from almost every school in the county.

The prospects are that many pupils and their parents will be here today, but Saturday will be the big day of the week and great crowds are expected.

Benefit Show Is Howling Success

The womanless wedding sponsored by the Rotary Club and directed by Miss O'Bera Forrester, scored heavily in the realm of entertainment at the high school auditorium Tuesday night. It was pronounced a howling success by a huge majority.

The farce was presented for the purpose of raising funds with which to pay the expenses of the Interscholastic League meet here this week-end. The proceeds amounted to about sixty dollars, we are told, from which a few dollars expense must be deducted.

C. N. Woods was the tall, handsome groom and Wynne Collier the delicate, petite little bride. Jake Leedy was the minister who officiated. Ray Weathers was the mother of the groom who conducted a contest to determine who the winner of her son's hand should be.

There were a number of contestants and numerous other members of the wedding party, whose ridiculous appearance and conduct were enough to make the angels weep. Grandma was there too and made herself conspicuous throughout the performance. Oh yes, and a couple of negro boys full of wise cracks. You will want to see the next womanless wedding, dear reader.

Placing Stakes On Electric Line

The Lyntegar Electric Cooperative is staking lines in Lynn, Terry, Garza, and Hockley counties. These stakes indicate the location of poles, guys and other structures, and require much time, effort and money to place them properly. It is necessary to employ civil engineers, transits, chains and other equipment are used in locating stakes as they must be properly placed.

The farmers in this territory can be of great assistance to the cooperative in speeding up the construction of these lines and in reducing the cost of construction to the members if they will avoid plowing up or otherwise damaging these stakes, whenever possible. In case a stake is unavoidably moved no attempt should be made to replace it without the use of a transit as this may cause poles or other structures to be improperly placed.

Highway Work Is Assured Section

J. Sam Lewis, staff writer on the Lubbock Avalanche, quotes from a recent report made by District Engineer George Garrett to Highway Commissioner Harry Hines showing the status of highway construction in the nineteen counties of district 5.

From this report we glean the following statements respecting the work as it affects Lynn county.

"At this time, we have under construction in Lynn county the placing of caliche shoulders on U. S. highway 87 from Tahoka to Dawson county line. Also, we have authorized the placing of flexible base and asphalt surfacing on U. S. highway 380 from Tahoka to Garza county line. Also, a survey from Tahoka northeast to Lubbock county line near Slaton."

"At this time, we have under construction on U. S. highway 380 west of Post the caliche base and the commission has authorized the placing of the asphalt surfacing on this caliche base during the summer of 1939. The present caliche base job on U. S. highway 380 will absorb all the WPA laborers in Garza county until July of this year."

"We have authorized on the 1940 Federal Aid program the placing of asphalt surfacing on six miles of U. S. highway 380 from Yoakum county line east, and also the construction of the grading and drainage structure as a WPA project on highway 51 from Brownfield to the Hockley county line; also a survey of 137 from Brownfield to the Dawson county line."

"We have under construction in Yoakum county the caliche base and asphalt surfacing on U. S. Highway 380 from Plains to the Terry county line, which will be completed in the summer of 1939, and we are preparing the plans on west to the New Mexico state line, and we will probably complete the construction of this project through the surfaced state in the 1939 Federal Aid program."

Negro Baptists Plan Big Day

With the assistance of the whites, the members of the Negro Baptist Church here are planning for a great day Sunday, when they will have the "formal opening" of their new church building and a kind of corner-stone-laying program. Rev. George A. Dale, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, has promised to speak for them at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Other white people are cordially invited and numbers of them are expected to be present.

Members of the Negro Baptist Church at Lamesa are also expected to be present. Rev. O. D. Hollins is pastor of both the Tahoka and Lamesa churches. Among the interesting numbers on the program will be several selections by the "Sunset Four" of the Tahoka church, composed of Rev. O. D. Hollins, L. J. Martin, Argie Hollins, and John Williams. They will render some Negro spirituals.

The church is having services of some kind each night this week. On Monday and Tuesday nights, a few of the women of the W. M. U. of the white Baptist Church presented a mission study. On other nights, Negro pastors from Lubbock, Slaton, and Brownfield, together with some of their members, were expected to be present.

The church here now has a membership of about sixty, and with some aid from the whites they recently constructed a new church building here.

Wiring Money Is Loaned Lyntegar

REA has allotted $10,000 to the Lyntegar Electric cooperative, to be re-lent to finance individual members' installations of wiring and plumbing, according to Garland Pennington, superintendent.

The cooperative will determine just how the money will be available; and in general, the terms on which it will re-lend the funds. REA requires, however, that the individual notes shall not finance more than 80 percent of the cost of any installation, and the money must be repaid in not more than five years. At least two payments a year must be made.

Although the cooperative will pay only about three percent on the money owed, the rate of individual borrowers must be higher, in order to meet the expense of collection, bookkeeping, and so on. REA suggests that individual notes be made at six percent annual interest on the unpaid balance.

Picture Memory, Burnice Clark and Billie Joe Stephens.

Declamation tryouts will be held Wednesday night.

Negro Citizen Is Buried Monday

Tom Belvin, colored, a well-known resident of the negro section of Tahoka, died at about 8 o'clock Sunday night from a throat infection. He had been ill about a week.

Belvin left a wife, generally known as Fanny, and two children, a boy and a girl. He was 41 years old and an ex-service man. Recently he had been employed as a WPA worker here.

METHODIST CHURCH

In pursuance of announced plans for a Spring revival to be held during Holy Week, beginning April 2, sermons Sunday will be in preparation for that meeting. We urge all members and friends of the church to be present and become active between church services in working for men's and women's commitment to Christ. All teachers, officials, and visitors are considered key workers for whose active service we plead in the name of our Lord and Master whose passion we are soon to celebrate.

"The Power of the Spirit Filled" and "Conditions for Revival" are sermon topics. Our text for the whole revival effort will be "Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord." Will you not plan now to cancel all social engagements and give yourself and your attention wholly to the Lord during Passion Week? Talk to your friends and acquaintances, make a prayer list, and work for the revival ourselves and the conversion of the lost.—Geo. E. Turrentine.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dye were called to Plainview late Saturday night by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. J. L. Craig. Mrs. Dye has been there since helping to nurse her back to health. Jim has been going back and forth. His mother is reported to be improving. She had been unwell for some time but became seriously sick when pneumonia developed.

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Nubia of El Paso visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henderson last week end.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation for the kindness of our friends and neighbors during the sickness and death of our beloved mother, Mrs. Mary J. Bean.

—Mrs. Jack Curry, Mrs. Minnie Lasham, John Bean, George Bean.

NAZARENE MEETING AT LYNN CHAPEL THIS WEEK

A meeting is being held by the Church of the Nazarene at Lynn Chapel this week, with Rev. J. R. Ferguson of Grassland doing the preaching. Rev. Carroll Sanders is the pastor.

The meeting will continue through the week.

The ten-days meeting conducted at the Nazarene Church at Grassland, which came to a close last Sunday night, was greatly hampered by the prevalence of the flu. Pastor Ferguson reports. Rev. Noble E. Berryhill of Fort Worth was the evangelist.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Pennington and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Rowe and little son left Monday for Arkadelphia, Arkansas, where they expected to visit relatives and put in their spare time fishing. The men said that unlike a prominent citizen of Tahoka they expected to wear britches while visiting on their native heath. They left in high glee, promising to bring the editor a "mess" of perch on their return.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Gagnat of Kansas City and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Briggs of Memphis, Tennessee, left for their respective homes Tuesday morning after a week's visit here with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gagnat. The visiting Gagnats are parents of D. W. and Mrs. Briggs is his sister.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Watson and baby of Grassland returned Monday night from Durant, Oklahoma, where they visited relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Barksdale of Canyon spent Saturday night and Sunday here with Supt. and Mrs. W. T. Hanes.

Mrs. A. A. Lawson of Grassland returned a few days ago from Jacksboro, where she had been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Claude Harper of the Magnolia community is visiting her son J. D. Harper and family at Sayre, Oklahoma, this week.

Mrs. Ernest Mash of Roby spent the week-end here visiting her brother Ernest McCrary of the Redwine community.

Hanes Speaks At Rotary Luncheon

Superintendent W. T. Hanes was the principal speaker at the Rotary luncheon Thursday, having been requested to report on his recent trip to Cleveland to attend the convention of the National Education Association.

Mr. Hanes gave some of the "trends" in education and in the attitude of the country toward government that he noted at the convention. He stated that he got new viewpoints altogether respecting these matters, but he came back more impressed than ever before with our individual responsibility for the proper education of our children and the preservation of American ideals.

Judge P. W. Goad spoke a few minutes on pending legislation at Austin which, he thinks, would be a great injustice to West Texas and would greatly hamper highway building throughout the state and in this section in particular. These bills pertain to the distribution of the gasoline tax and the motor vehicle license tax.

Jack Welch was voted into the club.

Lockney Beacon Changes Hands

J. L. Suits, who has owned and published the Lockney Beacon for a number of years, has sold the paper to R. J. (Bill) Dison.

Last week's issue of the paper was the first under the new management, and Mr. Dison gives evidence that he knows the newspaper same.

Mr. Suits expects to devote his entire time to his irrigated farm near Lockney. Tom Suits, who has been associated with his father in the publication of the paper, has also entered another field of business. Tom served as Linotype operator in this office for a few months some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Reid left Saturday for a few weeks visit with their son Robert Reid and family at Mercedes. They were accompanied to Mercedes by G. M. Reid, who has been back to his job of carrying the mail on his rural route.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Dickson of Dodge City, Kansas, were here Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning visiting Mrs. Dickson's father, E. L. Smelser, and also a member of Mrs. Dickson's friends.

The News has received information that Crawford Edwards of Fort Worth, one of the owners of the T-Bar ranch here, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is now much improved and has been released from the hospital. He has been suffering of heart trouble, we understand. His father, "Uncle Cass", is in feeble health too. It is said.

The News is informed that Mrs. R. R. Ragan of draw is being treated at a Lubbock sanitarium for a serious malady. Her many friends are hoping that the treatment may prove effectual.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

AGREED

That clear-thinking political commentator, Lynn Landrum, who conducts a column entitled "Thinking Out Loud" in the Dallas News must have been reading our editorial columns recently. Two weeks ago the following brief editorial appeared in this paper:

"Realizing that the so-called 'neutrality' law enacted by Congress last year is anything but a neutrality law in its operation and effect, members of Congress are now proposing its repeal. President Roosevelt is also advocating repeal. The 'peace-at-any-price' crowd, however, are fighting for it to be retained on the statute books. Any baboon with a glass eye can see that it operates in favor of the rich and powerfully armed nations and against the weak and meagerly armed nations. Therefore it tends to defeat the very purpose it is supposed to serve. In our humble judgment it should be junked speedily."

In Monday's Dallas News Lynn Landrum discussed the same subject. Of course the chances are a thousand to one that he had never read or heard of our editorial, but he voiced the same thought in a much more forceful way than we had expressed it. Here is what he said:

"Mr. Roosevelt is absolutely right in his request that our absurd neutrality act be repealed. He knows that we have been neutral to the advantage of the attacking countries and neutral to the disadvantage of the attacked countries under the practical workings of the law thus far.

"The little countries haven't arms. When it comes time to need arms, they either buy them from abroad—or they go undefended. The little countries can't help themselves against the big ones. A policy, therefore, of treating the rape of a little country as if it were the evenly matched struggle of two big countries merely turns the fate of the little country over into the hands of the dictators.

"If we are going to do nothing, at least we ought to leave it to the wisdom of the individual case as it may turn out to be, instead of declaring in advance of the fact that we will never take a stand for freedom against aggression."

Mr. Landrum has expressed a great truth clearly and forcefully.

Furthermore, we might add that when and if Congress enacts a law informing the world that America will never fight until it is invaded or until the people vote for war, that will be notice to dictators that they may feel free to wage wars of conquest everywhere else and gobble up all the weak nations around us, without fear of molestation from us. It would be notice to the world that we ourselves had junked our own time-tried and much-prized Monroe Doctrine.

What silly fools a lot of so-called smart people are!

If you wish to catch a gleam of simple faith, of burning zeal, and of a vivid imagination in action, just attend a Negro religious service. Though crude oftentimes in thought and expression, they can put most white folks to shame in their sincerity and in their ability to contact God. Furthermore, as long as you can keep a negro really religious, it is not likely that he will commit any outrageous crime or give the white race any serious trouble. We attended a Negro service in Tahoka the other night and enjoyed it thoroughly. May our Negro churches grow and prosper numerically and spiritually.

Elliott Roosevelt is strongly boosting John Garner for President of the United States as the successor of his distinguished father. There is little evidence, however, that his daddy agrees with him.

HITLER MARCHES ON
Dictators are never scrupulous of the means used to accomplish their ends.

Within the past few days Adolf Hitler has proven himself to be the most shameless deceiver and trickster in Europe. Without any excuse or apologies for his perfidy, he has brazenly violated the solemn promises he made at Munich last September. He said then that beyond the acquisition of the Sudetenland in Checho-Slovakia, in which there was a strong German population, he had no desire or designs for the further extension of German boundary lines in Europe.

That was a lie deliberately and positively stated in order to deceive Chamberlain of England and Daladier of France and to quiet the fears of the English and the French people. Hitler has demonstrated to the world the past two weeks that any agreement made with him can be regarded only as another "scrap of paper."

In spite of the solemn promises deliberately made, he has sent his armies into the heart of Checho-Slovakia deliberately and gobbled up the entire country, with the exception of one little finger which Hungary has seized.

Following that coup, he has made demands that Germany be given commercial and economic control in Roumania. The indications are that Roumania will accede to these demands without a struggle, though momentous events are happening in Europe so rapidly that it is unsafe to make any kind of prediction. It may be that, on account of England, France, and Russia all showing their teeth, Hitler will rest on his oars for a spell, so far as outward appearances are concerned; but it is a cinch that if he makes no immediate open move to absorb Roumania, he will begin immediately to bore with a powerful auger inside with respect to both Roumania and Hungary, and at the opportune time he will strike a sudden blow that will bring both these countries under the ruthless Nazi heel.

Hitler is pushing his sway relentlessly to the southeastward to impound the rich wheat fields and the rich oil fields of Roumania and to obtain a water outlet on the shores of the Black Sea. Having done that, he will be the virtual master of Europe.

It may be that in his mad march for more territory and more power, he will also decide to take a part or the whole of Poland and a slice off of Southwestern Russia. He will probably not do this, however, until he feels that with his added military and economic strength and with the aid of his allies, Italy and Japan, he can whip the lights out of Russia, England, and France combined and thus become the master of the Eastern hemisphere.

In the meantime, he is by no means idle respecting his designs on South America. His emissaries are swarming in the countries of our neighbor continent busily sewing the seeds of Nazism. If and when the opportune time comes, which condition he hopes to bring about, he will declare the Monroe Doctrine to be a monstrosity, establish his power in South America and hurl defiance at the United States.

That is a remote possibility, you say. That may be true, but there is little doubt but that Hitler has it in his dreams of conquest and empire. We don't think his wildest dreams will ever be realized, but it may take another terrible world war to stop him.

William O. Douglas, chairman of the SEC, has been nominated by President Roosevelt to succeed Louis D. Brandeis, retired, as a Justice of the Supreme Court. Douglas is being touted as brilliant and well qualified. We don't know. At any rate, he has risen with meteoric rapidity in the field of law and government service. Born of poor parents in Minnesota, reared in California and Oregon, he worked as a farm hand, as a junk dealer, and as a janitor to pay his way through Whitman College at Walla Walla, Washington. Then he made his way eastward and landed in New York with 36 cents in his pockets, it is said. He worked his way through the law school of Columbia University and a few years later gave lectures on law in the same institution. Then he became a professor of Law in Yale. He has had very little active practice as a lawyer and no experience as a judge on the Bench. He is said to be an aggressive New Dealer. He is 40 years of age, is married, and has two children. He may become a great Justice of the Supreme Court. But somehow, we have always felt that a seasoned practitioner of law who has also had experience on the Bench is the best material out of which to make a great Justice of the highest court in the land, the greatest tribunal on the face of the earth. Douglas will be confirmed.

America hates war. America wants peace. She has no spirit of conquest flowing in her veins. There is no danger of the Congress of the United States declaring war upon any country until war becomes necessary to protect our own people or to insure against impending danger. Why then should people be demanding that the power to declare war be taken away from Congress until an election can be held after an emergency arises? It sounds like some kind of foreign propaganda to us. For a plebiscite would require time, and quick action might be fearfully imperative when the next emergency arises. Let's leave this power in Congress, where it has resided since this government was established.

The buds are bursting forth, the grasses are coming out, and surely Spring is just around the corner.

Many home owners are busy tidying up their premises. Evergreens and other shrubs are being planted out. Flower seeds are being buried, and soon the roses will be blooming again. Some of the fruit trees are already in bloom. Not many days hence the few redbud trees here will be things of beauty. We are glad that the people of Tahoka are taking an interest in the beautification of their premises. We hope that the good work continues until there is scarcely an ugly spot in the town.

Why The Difference? Botkin Wonders

V. L. Botkin owns a farm down in Coryell county, and a few days ago he brought to the News office a notice from Secretary Wallace stating that his share of the administrative expenses were 7.8 per cent, which had been deducted from his compliance check.

Now, only one per cent, approximately, was deducted from his Lynn county check, which was very gratifying, of course, to Mr. Botkin. The county agent's office here is to be highly commended for holding the administrative expenses at so low a per centage, but Mr. Botkin can not understand why they should run nearly eight times as high in Coryell county as in Lynn county.

Mrs. L. Lumsden of Wilson was here Tuesday. Mrs. Lumsden, who has been president of the W. M. U. of Brownfield Baptist Association for the past ten years, was recently elected president of District Nine, which embraces seven associations.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kaddatz and daughter Miss Beatrice and Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Nowlin were recent visitors to the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show.

The New Lynn H. D. Club met with Mrs. Caveness March 7.

Miss McNatt, our new home demonstration agent, met with us and gave a very interesting demonstration on Quick Breads.

Every one was glad to have Miss McNatt. We hope she will like the work here.

The hostess served delicious peach jello and cookies to the following: Miss McNatt and Mmes Doyle Terry, Rowland, Joe Thurman, Jaynes, Susie Bartley, Kelly, E. B. Terry, Cooper, Roper, Dickens, Newman Bartley, Barton, Flemings, Lee Roy Baker, John Meeks, and visitors Mmes. Olton Flemings, Nicholson, and Luther Baker—Reporter.

MIDWAY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. DRAPER

"Hot breads will not hurt you if they are a good product", Miss Maurine McNatt, Lynn County home demonstration agent, told the Midway club ladies at their regular meeting March 9 at 2:30 with Mrs. I. M. Draper.

The materials used in breads should be nutritious and palatable. The characteristics of good breads are: Be round, verticle sides, be flaky, and have good odor and taste.

Have your oven ready, as the carbon dioxide begins to escape when liquids are added, and you do not want to lose it all in the air.

Members present were Mesdames C. Driver, Jno. Thomas, K. W. Phillips, Rufus Slover R. L. Littlepage, V. P. Carter, H. C. Warren, I. M. Draper, Sam H. Floyd and Alice Duncan.

Prompt Help For A Listless Child

Scolding won't help a boy or girl who is listless, dull or cross from constipation. But, here's something that will!

If sluggish bowels have your child headachy, bilious, upset, give him a little Syrup of Black-Draught to-night. Like the original famed BLACK-DRAUGHT, its principal ingredient is an intestinal tonic-laxative. Helps impart tone to the bowel muscles.

Children like the taste of Syrup of Black-Draught. It is an all vegetable product. When simple directions are followed, its action is gentle, but prompt and complete. Comes in two sizes: 50c and 25c.

FLDER DRENNON'S NOTES

A few more notes from the best country in which to live and the best times in which to live; so you see I am optimistic this morning. Why not be? What is to be gained by sighing over the past and forecasting evil for the future? Several people of my acquaintance miss the best of the "Great Present" by sighing over the past and dreaming of the future. The past is gone, the future may never be, so let's enjoy the present.

Yesterday was a fine day for the church here, extra large audience at the morning service, two took membership at the evening hour, Brother and Sister Nudgen who formerly lived at Tahoka. At a business meeting, the officers granted me leave to hold two meetings, one in Monument, N. M., in April, the other in Grayson county in July. So Editor Hill's wish in last week's note may come true. I hope, as to me keeping sweet, I am always that way, though it may seem a little bitter when I am trying to keep you on the right track.

And I see you are off the track again in your editorial on the Catholic Church. I want to know why you put "Protestants and Baptists" three times, what is the difference between the Protestants and the Baptists? The dictionary gives as a definition for Protestants, "A member of any of those bodies of Christians that protest against the spiritual supremacy of the church of Rome". Does that not include the Baptist Church? Please straighten this out for me, and don't forget to keep sweet.

Let some one should think I am opposed to the editorial, I want to say I heartily agree with it; it was timely, and I want to commend Editor Hill for having the courage to speak out. Let's have more along the same line. The church of Rome is a great menace to our American ideals.

I see Editor Hill is still a little off on old age pensions. In his editorial on "What the People Voted For", he closes his comments like this, "We are for liberal pensions for the aged needy, but we are not in favor of loading the people down with taxes just to give a hand-out to the wealthy or those in easy circumstances. It is not right and not just and we are against it, the demagogues and politicians to the contrary notwithstanding."

Now, Editor Hill, as you are for liberal pensions for the aged needy, I want to ask if you think thirty dollars is too much for the aged needy? That is what Brother

SCHOOL DAYS

By DWIG

O'Daniel is for. That every one ever sixty-five shall have at least thirty dollars income, if they already have it, well and good, if not the state will supply what is lacking. What is wrong with that?

Yours for more people who know when to admit that he does not know.

The preacher for the friendly church.—R. P. Drennon.

Editorial Comment: We are strongly inclined to believe that you already know, Brother Drennon, why we referred to "Protestants and Baptists". If you do not know, we suggest that you make a little study of both profane and ecclesiastical history. We do not care to discuss the matter in these columns. But the expression does not reflect on anybody or anybody's religious beliefs and therefore calls for no explanation.

You ask us if we think a pension of thirty dollars is too much for the aged needy.

We have made ourselves so clear on that proposition so many times in our editorial columns that we do not believe you need any further light on that matter either, Brother Drennon. But since there are so many politicians who have been misleading the people on this issue, we will answer your question.

We do not believe that thirty dollars per month is too much for many thousands of the aged needy in Texas.

But there are many thousands of the aged needy in this state who can be amply taken care of at a lesser sum per month and at less expense, therefore, to the burdened tax-payers of the state.

For instance, here is a Mexican and his wife, both over 65 years of age, who are eligible for pensions. In San Antonio, El Paso, Laredo, Brownsville, and in a hundred other cities and towns of Southwest Texas, there are thousands of such couples, thousands of other individual Mexicans, who are drawing pensions today.

If we pay them thirty dollars each per month, that means sixty dollars per month per couple. Do you feel that the honest hard-working tax-paying citizens of Texas should be required to dig up hundreds of thousands of dollars each month to pay thirty dollars per month to these Mexicans? "That is what Brother O'Daniel is for."

In 1930, according to the United States census, there were one-fifth as many Texas Negroes as whites. There are nearly a million Negroes in Texas today. There are many, many thousands of them on the old-age pension rolls. Do you believe that good, old Ephraim and his wife Aunt Eliza whose wants are simple and few should each be paid $30.00 per month at the expense of you and me and other hard-hit tax-payers of Texas? And what about those thousands of trifling, worthless negroes that would draw their $30 per month, if Brother O'Daniel has his way? Would you like to pay an extra two per cent on each sack of O'Daniel's flour you buy to support them? "That is what Brother O'Daniel is for."

And, we might carry this argument even into the white ranks. There are scores of sorry white trash in almost every county in Texas, able-bodied white men who have gone hardly a day's hard work in years, who would get in—and have gotten in—on this raid on the treasury. Can you cheerfully dig up to the tune of two per cent or more on all your living expenses to pay them their thirty per? "That is what Brother O'Daniel is for."

Just another word about Brother O'Daniel's. In his campaign, he favored paying all citizens who are over 65 this pension of $30 per month, except criminals, etc., regardless of their financial circumstances, didn't he? rich and poor alike. Since the election, he has come down off that limb, hasn't he? He now wants to supplement the old people's incomes so as to make them equal $30 per month. Changed his mind didn't he?

But he still wants to make you and me dig up $30 per month to pay aged people who live with their well-to-do children. He wants to lift the burden of supporting their parents off the shoulders of wealthy children and place it on the ordinary John Citizen. The poor fellow out here on a farm or in town with a wife and nine children to support, must dig up two per cent, or possibly five or six per cent according to the O'Daniel's plan, on the clothing and food that he must buy for his family, in order that some wealthy oil crook may be relieved of the burden of supporting his poor old aged and destitute father and mother. "That is what O'Daniel is for."

We answer you, Brother Drennon, that thirty dollars per month is too much to require the honest hard-working citizenry of Texas to pay for the support of people so circumstanced.

We repeat that we are in favor of liberal pensions, as much as thirty dollars in many instances, for the aged needy in this state, but there are thousands and thousands of pensioners in the state, black, brown, and white, who are not entitled to that much money. And Brother O'Daniel wants to greatly increase both the list and the pay.

Does this answer your question?

S. F. Johnson, superintendent of the O'Donnell schools, who underwent an operation in a Lamesa hospital recently, has recovered sufficiently to return to his work, we understand.

W. S. Anglin and A. C. Weaver and their families visited Mr. and Mrs. Charley Nelms and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noble at Artesia, New Mexico, last Saturday and Sunday. Messrs. Nelms and Noble are preparing to do irrigation farming over on the Pecos this year.

F. M. Billman went down to Roscoe Saturday afternoon and brought his son Levi up home for a Sunday visit with the family and friends here. Levi is employed in a clothing store there.

A. W. Bratcher of Draw is said to be critically ill of pneumonia. Mr. Bratcher had been in ill health for some time preceding the present pneumonia attack. Relatives and friends have almost despaired of his recovery. Mr. Bratcher is the public weigher for the Draw-Grassland precinct.

Sam Holland and family went to Goldthwaite the first of the week for a few days visit with relatives.

Dr. A. J. Sparks wishes to announce the opening of his office in the Thomas building, room No. 6. Dr. Sparks is a graduate of the Southwestern Optical College and the Columbia College of Naturopathy of Kansas City, Mo. He is an associate member of the faculty, and a member of the American National Naturopathic Association. He has been recently connected with the General Clinic of Kansas City, Mo.

To many people, Naturopathy is new. However, it is one of the oldest healing arts, dating back to Medieval times. False sciences, false philosophy and traditions of man were not able to extinguish the torch of truth concerning the workings of Naturopathy. The beams of light from that torch penetrated through the darkness of superstition and the voice of mother nature can be heard all through the earth. Her Naturopathy philosophy as to the cause and cure of disease continues to spread. True Naturopathic positions hold forth her beams of light to the world. Man has no excuse for following the disease depressive system, nor any other philosophy that is uncertain concerning the real cause of the disease. (Advertisement)

The Tahoka team will play the winners of the O'Donnell and Wilson game Saturday in the County Meet. Bands from Brownfield, Laraine, Stanton, Coleman, Midland, Big Spring, Coahoma, Porsan, Odessa, and Tahoka attended a Band Clinic in Lamesa on Friday, March 17th. The clinic was under the direction of D. O. Wiley, the director of the Texas Tech Band, and Conway King, director of the Lamesa Band.

The clinic started at 9:00 o'clock Friday and was concluded with a massed parade at 4:30 in the downtown streets of Lamesa.

The many different colored uniforms of the bands made the parade very colorful. The parade was led by the Drum Majors of the bands. The parade was perhaps the most colorful Lamesa has ever seen.

TAHOKA DEBATE TEAMS

The Lynn County Interscholastic League meet started last Saturday with debates between various teams including Tahoka, Wilson, New Home and O'Donnell.

The first debate was between Tahoka boys and O'Donnell boys. This debate was judged by three teachers from the southern part of the county. O'Donnell won this placing Tahoka with Wilson to debate for third place.

The Tahoka Girls drew a debate with New Home and scored a victory. The Tahoka girls were then matched with O'Donnell and were defeated. As Wilson did not have a girls' debate team, the Tahoka girls won second place in the county with fifteen points.

The final debate will be between O'Donnell and New Home for first and second places in the county.

Frances was seen in town nearly every night last week-end, but not with Dyer. Now was she two-timing or just running around. What do you say, Dyer?

Quiet little, timid little Jenny Jo Reeves was actually seen flirting with some boys at Lamesa Friday. She and Doyce had one cornered until they were told Mr. Felts was looking for them.

CAMPAIGN; FEWER LIVES LOST
IN 1938

(By Max Minor)
The National Safety Council recently announced through final statistics in fatal accidents in the United States that fewer lives were wasted needlessly during the year 1938 than in any year since 1933.

These facts are encouraging only because the record of wasted human life during 1938 was much less horrifying than during any previous year. The fact that fewer persons were killed is evidence that we are showing much progress in our Safety Campaign. But the life loss still fills one with terror after looking over the records which disclose that 95,000 persons were killed, 9,200,000 were injured so that they missed time from normal duties because of accidents which could have been prevented, almost without exception.

The 95,000 lives lost last year compared with 105,205 lives in 1937 and 110,052 lives lost in 1936—the worst record in history. The figure for 1938 is smaller than for any year since 1930 when 90,932 were killed.

Traffic accidents were not the biggest contributor to the toll of dead or injured. This is the first time in history traffic accidents have not led the list. The total of 1938 automobile accidents was 32,090. The total for 1937 was 39,643. The improvement is encouraging when one considers the record is even better than the figures indicate. In 1938, more automobiles were on the highway and each traveled more miles than during any year for which records show. There were more chances for accidents, but accidents were fewer.

Only one reason can be given for the improvement of the automobile traffic record and that has been the hammering on the public of the uncontrolled automobile traffic. Tightened driving regulations, more rigid law enforcement, and safety factors in the mechanics of automobile construction have originated directly from a public consciousness.

In 1938, homes were the scenes of accidents which contributed most to the death total. Deaths in the homes, according to estimates, were 22,500, which was more than 500 above the total of the year 1937. It is in the home that the most avoidable of all accidents occur; therefore attention should be called to the dangers of accidents in the homes.

Even though the records show improvement, 95,000 persons killed in one year is still far too many. At least 95 per cent of the person killed in one year would still be alive today if they had remembered to take the most elementary precautions.

The progress has been started, but a big job is still in front of us. Most of it can be accomplished through good education, but the remainder must be done by laws. Laws must be had for those who will not or cannot observe the ordinary rules of common sense.

The task is a hard one, but it is also one that cannot be shunned. Let's continue the powerful drive for fewer wasted lives by a sound Safety Campaign.

News Press Fixed; Operator Gets Sick

After being out of commission for two weeks, our old cylinder press has been made "good as new," as evidence of which just look at this paper. For two weeks we were compelled to have this paper printed elsewhere, and Mr. Forgy of the O'Donnell Press was kind enough to permit the use of his press.

But it's good to be back at home. However, we are still laboring under difficulties, for on Tuesday Charley Curry, our Linotype operator, took to his bed with the flu, and so again we had to call on O'Donnell for help. Reed Eubanks came up Wednesday night and helped us out.

Charley hopes to be up and back on the job soon.

Court Opposes Change In Law

Judge P. W. Goad and county commissioners Waldo McLaurin and Tom Hale left for Austin Monday morning in response to a call from the state highway commission advising that a hearing would be given on a bill pending in the legislature Tuesday afternoon which would so amend the present law as to give all motor vehicle registration fees to the respective counties in which such vehicles are registered.

The law at the present time, Judge Goad explained, gives such fees to the counties up to the sum of $50,000, all sums exceeding $50,000 up to $200,000 are divided 50-50 between the counties and the State, while all above $200,000 are given to the State.

The populous counties of the state like Dallas, Tarrant, Harris, Bexar, Jefferson, El Paso, Travis, and McLennan, and even those of smaller population such as Wichita, Potter, Lubbock, Taylor, Smith, Gregg, and many others would profit by this change, while all the counties of medium size or lesser population figures would greatly suffer.

At the same time, the state highway commission estimates that its funds would be reduced at least eight million dollars annually, thus greatly crippling its highway-building program.

The highway commission as well as county judges and commissioners courts in these less populous counties are therefore strongly opposed to the change, and our judge and two commissioners have accordingly gone to Austin to help fight the bill.

Another bill is also pending and will probably pass which would have a detrimental effect on many counties in this part of the state. That is the bill which would authorize the State to assume payment of all county and district road bonds heretofore issued. Some counties in the state have issued large amounts of road bonds for purely local purposes and in some of these counties the money has been spent wastefully and there is little road improvement in these counties to show for the bonds. If the State assumes this indebtedness, millions of gasoline tax money will be required each year to pay the interest and due installments on these bonds, and the highway funds available for building purposes will be correspondingly reduced.

Yet this proposal was endorsed by an overwhelming majority at the convention of the West Texas county judges and commissioners association in Lubbock last week. Be it said to the credit of our county judge and commissioners, they opposed the endorsement of this measure.

Mrs. Jack Alley Robinson, who underwent a serious major operation in the West Texas Hospital about two weeks ago, was released and brought back home Wednesday. She has been recovering very satisfactorily.
