Rotary Clubs At O'Donnell Thursday

Geo. W. Dupree, Lubbock attorney was principal speaker at an inter-city meeting of Rotary Clubs at O'Donnell Thursday at noon, attended by 26 members of the Tahoka club and Rotarians from the clubs at Post, Lamesa, and Lubbock. A total of 65 were present at the meeting. Tahoka club dispensed with its regular meeting scheduled on that day in order that members might attend the O'Donnell affair.

Mr. Dupree brought a stirring address fitting the patriotic theme of the program, designed toward inspiring better citizenship. Many expressions of praise of the talk were heard from Tahoka Rotarians. Hervey von Gadenhrie arranged the program. Music was furnished by himself and the Haney sisters of that city. President Marshall Whitsett presided.

The O'Donnell club is one of the newest Rotary clubs in this district, and its 21 members have inaugurated an active program of work.

Mr. Whitsett announced that Leonard Craft would be the speaker at next Tuesday's regular meeting.

Johnson Buys Registered Jersey

A registered Jersey cow has been purchased by P. R. Johnson of Tahoka from Jim Maverick, San Antonio.

The animal is Sunshine Lucinda 906,341, according to information sent The News by The American Jersey Cattle Club, New York City.

New Funeral Home One Of Most Modern, Complete In West Texas

The new Harris Funeral Home, now nearing completion, will be the best in West Texas, W. O. Robertson, funeral director, told a representative of The News who inspected the plant this week.

Located on Main Street two blocks north of the intersection of the two highways, the building presents a creditable appearance to a town much larger than Tahoka.

The building is of a modified Spanish-style architecture, one story in height, and is finished with white stucco walls and red tile roof, with a large 10x50 front porch trimmed in native stone. The structure is 50x100 feet in size and sits on a lot 118x125 feet which allows ample room for landscaping. In fact trees and hedges were planted long before the building was started and (Cont'd on back page)

Rain Covers All Lynn County

Those parts of Lynn county which had not already received sufficient rainfall for crops, got drenched last Friday and Saturday nights.

Tahoka, which had received only about one-fourth inch during the "wet spell", had 1.61 inches Friday night and an additional .20 Saturday night.

Likewise, most of central and northwestern Lynn county reported as needing rain received good rains on these nights.

Crops are reported to be doing fine and growing rapidly, and if nothing unforeseen happens most of Lynn county is due to make a bumper per acre yield this year.

Masons Install New Officers

The Tahoka Masonic Lodge No. 1041 installed officers at its regular meeting Tuesday night for the coming lodge year.

New officers are: O. A. Luallin, worshipful master; Buel Draper, senior warden; Carlice Edwards, junior warden; Douglas Finley, secretary; H. L. Roddy, senior deacon; Rollin McCord, junior deacon; and Marvin Wood, tiler.

H. A. Maasen is the outgoing worshipful master and V. F. Jones the outgoing secretary.

Women Going To Short Course

Lynn county Home Demonstration clubs will send five members to the annual Short Course at A. & M. College July 12-14, inclusive. In addition to these women, County Home Agent Maurine McNatt, County Agent Donald Turner and wife, and possible two or three farmers will attend.

The Home Demonstration club ladies will leave Monday morning in private cars and return home the following Saturday.

Dixie Club will be represented by Mrs. Marvin Munn, Midway by Mrs. John Thomas, New Lynn by Mrs. Roy Kelley, and Tahoka by Mrs. J. K. Woosley and Mrs. H. M. Snowden. The latter will be accompanied by Miss Julia Snowden, who will spend a few days visiting at San Marcos while the others are attending the Short Course.

The Junior Short Course is being held this week, delegates from this county being Misses Altha Wayne Jennings of West Point, chaperon, Marceline and Clovis Stephens of Midway, Vona Lee Simpson of Wells, and Marjorie Shepherd of Grassland.

Connolly Baldwin, editor of the Lamesa Reporter, made a social call at the News office Monday. He was dressed in cowboy garb, and carried a sign on his back printed on satin, "Lamesa Rodeo, July 19 and 20".

Mrs. H. O. Dickson, the former Miss Pauline Smelser, was here last week visiting in the home of her father, E. L. Smelser.

Miss Kate Heck Rites Wednesday

Funeral services for Miss Kate Heck, sister of John Heck of Wilson, were conducted in the First Baptist Church in Wilson at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, followed by burial in the Wilson Cemetery under the direction of W. O. Robertson of the Harris Funeral Home here. The services were conducted by Rev. Sam Brian and Rev. W. H. Jackson, new pastor of the Wilson Baptist Church.

Miss Heck who lived in the home of John Heck at Wilson, with whom she had come to reside since the death of their mother a few months ago, died at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, July 4, at Mercy Hospital in Slaton. Miss Heck's home for the past fifteen years had been with her mother at Wilmeth in Runnels county.

Born near Coolidge in Limestone county on November 5, 1880, she was a native Texan and was in her sixtieth year. She came to Runnels county from Groesbeck in 1923.

Surviving her is the brother, John Heck, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Berryman of Wilmeth, Runnels county, and Mrs. R. H. Stricklin of Key in Dawson county; also six nieces and six nephews.

Mr. Heck and the other relatives have the sympathy of numerous friends in this bereavement.

Scouts Told Of Early History

The story of the first land survey in Lynn county was told Tahoka Boy Scouts by Oscar Roberts as the feature of their overnight hike to Double Lakes, in the T-Bar pasture, Thursday night of last week.

He told of the trip the surveying party of Capt. Hayes, in whose company was Enos L. Seeds, the man who operated the first postoffice in Lynn county, made to the Plains in 1879. At that time there were no settlers whatever here, there were still a few scattering buffalo, and though the Indians had been corralled in the Oklahoma reservations, small bands occasionally wandered out onto the Plains. Seeds returned to Lynn county in 1891 to establish the Grassland postoffice.

The story was fitting to the occasion, since the Scouts camped between the two lakes near one of the stakes Mr. Seeds and the surveying party put down in running their survey lines 60 years ago.

Tinsleys Leave For East and West

J. O. Tinsley doesn't do things by halves. He "goes the whole hog or none".

Tuesday he and his wife and three daughters Lucille, Lynette, and Wanda Lee, and son, Jimmie left on a vacation trip, the first extended trip the entire family has had since he entered the dairy business.

And a trip it will be. They are going from Tahoka to the New York World's Fair, back to the "Frontier Days" celebration in Cheyenne, Wyoming, through the scenic Rocky Mountains, and to the San Francisco World's Fair, thence back home.

J. O. expects to drive about 10,000 miles in making this trip, but he says he thinks he and his family deserve one real vacation.

Farm Measuring Half Completed

Measuring of Lynn county farm lands for compliance with the Government farm program is between 40 and 50 percent completed. County Agent Don Turner stated Wednesday.

A crew of workers are busy both in the field and the office rushing the work to completion.

Mrs. Cornelia Kelly of Dallas is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Wells and family.

J. A. GILLIES

New Head Santa Fe Eastern Lines

Appointment of H. B. Lautz as general manager of the Santa Fe System's Eastern Lines, with headquarters in Topeka, and that of John A. Gillies, formerly of Slaton, as general manager of the Santa Fe Western Lines to succeed Lautz at Amarillo has been announced by the railroad.

Lautz has been with the Santa Fe 49 years and has been general manager at Amarillo since 1932.

Gillies, well known on the South Plains, has been with the road since 1906, was superintendent of the Slaton division from 1928 to 1932, and has risen from engineer to general manager of all the Santa Fe Western Lines.

Investigate Cold Storage Idea

Members of the board of the two local cooperative gins last Saturday voted to proceed as soon as possible with the organization of a cold storage plant for the Tahoka trade territory. B. J. Emanuel was elected temporary chairman and H. O. Hargett temporary secretary. Committees on selection of suitable sites for the plant and drawing plans and inspecting machinery were appointed.

A general meeting for the public will be held at the court house on Tuesday, July 11th, at which time full details will be given prospective patrons and subscribers.

The general experience in places where such plants are erected is that more meat is consumed by the farmers resulting in a wider live-at-home program.

The County Agent and Home Demonstration Agent are lending assistance to the movement.

Mrs. Hogan Suffers Paralysis Stroke

Mrs. G. E. Hogan of this city suffered a stroke of paralysis Saturday, affecting the left limbs and the left side of the body. Her many friends are deeply grieved because of her serious condition.

More than a year ago her husband suffered a stroke affecting the right side, since which time he has been confined to his home for the most of the time.

Mrs. Geo. Hogan Jr. and the children are residing with the elder Hogans, George himself having left just Thursday of last week for the lower Rio Grande valley.

O'Donnell Group Given Hearing

Texas Highway Commission last Friday gave Lynn and Gaines county citizens a hearing on their application for designation of a new highway which would connect Seagraves and O'Donnell, but gave no indication as to their possible action in regard to the route. They gave the group a courteous, favorable hearing, however, Judge P. W. Goad says.

Commissioner Waldo McLaurin, D. J. Bolch, Mack Haynes, and Fletcher Johnson, all of O'Donnell, and Judge Goad attended the hearing, which was in Austin.

O'Donnell citizens hope ultimately to secure designation of a highway from Seagraves to O'Donnell to Gail and Snyder.

Farmers Purchase West Texas No 1

Park Playground Work Finished

Installation of playground equipment in the City Park was completed last week by a committee headed by Rollin McCord from the Tahoka Rotary Club, and children are now offered a good place to play.

Equipment in the park includes swings, see-saws, slide, merry-go-round, and sand pit.

Beautiful trees and the grass lawn make this a picnic spot and playground which is being used more and more by the people of Lynn county.

Boy Scouts Are Given Awards

Awards were presented eleven Tahoka Boy Scouts at a court of honor held in the Scout hall Monday night under direction of Scoutmaster W. A. Reddell. Claude Conway acted as chairman.

The following awards were made: First class: C. W. Conway.

Second class: Wayland Hughes, Carl Griffing Jr.

Tenderfoot: D. J. Johnson, Rodney Fern Heck, William Paul Bennett, Jo Lehman, Roy Lotkin.

Merit badges: Elbert Boulloun, first aid and personal health; Jerry Noble, carpentry and first aid; Hoy West, handicraft.

Scouts recently re-registered for the new Scout year, and Mr. Reddell reports that there are already as many Scouts registered as there were last year.

July Fourth Quiet Day In Tahoka

The Fourth of July was a quiet day in Tahoka.

The postoffice, bank, and practically every business house in town was closed tight.

Many citizens stayed at home and rested, or went to the picture show or park in the afternoon, or a dance that night. Many others went to the Slaton celebration, the Buffalo Springs aquacade, or the Stamford Cowboy Reunion.

Bank Reflects Healthy Finances

The statement made by the First National Bank at close of business June 30th shows total deposits of $906,578.97, of which $708,843.74 are individual deposits, considered unusually high, especially at this time of year.

Total assets of the bank are listed at $1,049,905.41. Cash and cash in sight totaled $625,442.33, while loans and discounts totaled $342,458.16.

Healthy condition of the Tahoka bank reflects the fact that Lynn county people as a whole are on a stable financial basis.

The First National Bank of Tahoka is considered to be one of the strongest banks in this section.

R. W. Allen's Aged Mother Is Dead

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Allen were called to Wylie last week by the death of his aged mother, Mrs. Hannah B. Allen, 91, who died Monday, June 26. Burial was in the cemetery there the following day.

Mrs. Allen was born in Jefferson county, Tenn., in 1848, and came to Texas in 1880. Her husband preceded her in death in 1907. Mr. Allen says she remembered well many incidents of the Civil War days.

Miss Jerry Jean Simmons, who with her mother, is spending the summer in Los Angeles, writes friends here that she is having a very enjoyable time and is not ready to return home for awhile.

Tahoka Co-op. Is Completing Deal

Wiley Curry, manager of the Tahoka Co-operative Gin, announced Thursday that their offer for the West Texas Gin plant No. 1 had been accepted by the Quana Cotton Oil Co., owners of the property. Purchase price was not mad known.

The West Texas gin is across the highway south from that now owned by the cooperative organization. W. O. Henderson has been manager for several years.

Mr. Curry also announced that the present Tahoka Co-op gin would be known as No. 1 plant and the newly acquired plant as No. 2. Both plants will be reconditioned before the opening of the fall ginning season, or after the deal is completed. He said the Tahoka Co-op. Association, which was organized in 1932, has paid for its present gin and in addition has paid stockholders $17,000.00 in cash dividend since buying the plant. They are asking customers of the West Texas plant to join them in the coming ginning season.

Officers of the organization are: C. T. Tankersley, president; H. O. Hargett, secretary; G. A. Edwards, Irvin Stewart, and A. C. Aycox, directors; Wiley Curry, manager.

Last year the Quana Cotton Oil Co. sold its No. 2 plant to the Farmers Co-operative Association, and sale of the No. 1 plant this year to the Tahoka Co-operative Association completes the disposal of that firm's property in this city.

All Tahoka gins are now home owned and home operated. The fifth gin in Tahoka is the C. O. Carmack gin, which he bought several years ago from outside interests.

Carriers Meet At Lubbock Park

G. M. Reid, W. A. Reddell and family, and H. L. Roddy and family attended a picnic of the West Texas Rural Letter Carriers Association held in MacKenzie State Park, Lubbock, Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The meeting was a social one, and also for the purpose of electing delegates to the state convention which meets in Abilene the latter part of this month. Delegates elected were: G. M. Reid and W. A. Reddell, Tahoka; W. E. Suddarth, O'Donnell; C. G. Woollard, Muleshoe; Jno. M. Moore, Sudan; and F. A. Gilley, Post.

W. J. (Bill) Klattenhoff of Slaton is delegate from the 19th Congressional District, elected at the district meeting held here in Tahoka last month.

Mrs. H. L. Roddy, Tahoka, and Mrs. F. A. Gilley, Post, were elected delegates to the Auxiliary to the State Auxiliary Convention which likewise meets in Abilene.

Mr. Reid says the West Texas Association is the largest local in the state, and Texas boasts of about 1700 carriers.

Their picnic Saturday was cut short by the rain that night.

Officers are C. G. Woollard, president; F. A. Gilley, vice president; and G. M. Reid, secretary.

Bar Association Attends

District Attorney Truett Smith, County Attorney Rollin McCord, and Hon. Tom Garrard attended the meeting of the Texas Bar Association in Austin last Wednesday night. They say the meeting was a dandy.

Truett and Rollin also attended a banquet of District and County Attorneys.

Rollin made the trip with a party of Lubbock lawyers.

Mrs. Otis Curry returned home Saturday from Blackwell, where she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reeves.

HOME ECONOMICS NEWS

The achievement day which closed the month of summer work was held Friday. All of the girls and a few mothers visited each girl's project in their home. At these homes many hours of work were evident. Some of the outstanding projects included yard improvement, bedroom improvement, clothing construction, food preparation, and child care.

After the achievement tour was completed thirty-eight girls and three mothers, along with Mrs. Hegl, went to Lubbock for a swim and picnic supper.

Both activity and work of the club will be discontinued until fall.

To Query Women All Over South

Touring Reporters have now asked over 1,200 women and girls of leading Southern Cities the now famous question: "Were you helped by CARDUI?"

Averaging all replies so far shows that 93 out of every 100 users questioned declared CARDUI benefited them!

Users by thousands are eager to tell how CARDUI has given them appetite; helped them gain strength; has thus relieved them of the symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition. Many also say that, when symptoms indicate the need, CARDUI in larger doses helps "at the time" to soothe pain.

MANN SETS RECORD FOR LEGISLATIVE VETOS

The scalp of the so-called fair trades bill, which dangled last week at the belt of Attorney General Gerald Mann, gave him a string unrivalled by any recent Attorney General.

The young Attorney General, who promised to run the Attorney General's office on the basis of a law office, has probably "vetoed" more enactments of a single legislative session than the Supreme Court itself.

The opinions were particularly significant in that they were often displeasing to the political "pressure" groups which sponsored the bills in their legislative course. Here are some of the more outstanding Mann "vetoes."

1. The bill authorizing barbers to fix prices, Mann's ruling resulting in an executive veto.

2. He ruled the Legislature could not authorize the sale of liquor by the drink.

3. Local option features of the bill to legalize horse racing were unconstitutional, Mann said.

4. Two attempts to regulate travel bureaus were held in contravention of court opinions. A third bill was approved.

5. Plans to divide up a surplus of some $10,000,000 in the funds for retirement of local road bonds were held invalid.

6. Mann held that the Legislature could not authorize loan sharks to collect 42 per cent or any amount in excess of the 10 per cent maximum fixed by the Constitution.

In addition to these No. 1 legislative subjects, the Attorney General held several lesser measures

MISS HELEN ALLEN WEDS M. J. WILLIAMS, LAKEVIEW

Miss Helen Allen and M. J. Williams, well known young people of the Lakeview community, were united in marriage Wednesday night of last week by Rev. N. S. Daniels, pastor of the Methodist Church at Meadow.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Allen. She is a graduate of Texas Tech, taught two years at Lakeview, and the past year has been teacher of home economics in the Quitaque high school.

Mr. Williams is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Williams. He, too, is a Tech graduate, and while in that institution was on the stock judging team. He is teacher of vocational agriculture at Shallowater.

Immediately after the wedding, the couple left for a two weeks' vacation trip to Florida. They will make their home at Shallowater.

DYE MARRIES COUPLE

Justice of the Peace James E. Dye officiated in the ceremony last Saturday which joined Mack Courtney Johnson of Marfa and Miss Lucille Matthews of Lamesa in matrimony. Miss Matthews lived in this county several years ago.

METHODIST CHURCH

For three Sundays, beginning July 9, the church will need to throw her united strength into the preparation for revival.

On July 30, Rev. Clyde Smith will come to assist us in a revival campaign.

Much needs to be done to build back that loyalty in attendance which has been strained by engaging in the pleasures and recreation which warm weather has brought.

Every officer and teacher in his place, is our slogan. Wednesday nights may be used to warm our Christian experience and testimony as well as a time for learning the great hymns.

"The Two Baskets of Figs" is the subject for the morning hour, "Married and He Made It Again" at 8:00—Geo. E. Turrentine.

FORMER CITIZEN IS MARRIED IN COUNTY

Claude Tankersley, formerly of the Grassland community but now living in Seagraves, was married here early Friday morning to Miss Floy Bracey of Lamesa. Rev. Geo. A. Dale, pastor of the Baptist Church, read the rites.

DUCKETT IS MARRIED

The News is informed that Menard J. Duckett of the Magnolia community was recently married to Miss Mildred Pearl Bradley of Waco, where the Duckett family formerly lived.

EUZELIAN CLASS ENTERTAINS HUSBANDS

One of the most attractive lawns in the city, that of Mrs. R. C. Forrester, was the setting for a very enjoyable occasion when the Euzelian Class members of the Baptist Church entertained their husbands last Thursday evening.

The first thing on the program was supper, consisting of barbecued steak with sliced tomatoes, onions, potato chips, bread and pickles, cookies and coffee. Messrs. Sam Holland and Jim Dye, with Mmes. Dye, Forrester, and Russell, made up the refreshments committee, and they handled their job in a very capable and satisfactory manner.

The recreation and games were directed by Mmes. Gladys M. Stokes, Carrie Greathouse, and Beulah Applewhite.

At a late hour the following members and guests departed declaring Mrs. Forrester a most gracious hostess: Messrs. and Mmes. H. P. Caviness, S. H. Holland, J. E. Dye, H. L. Roddy, J. K. Applewhite, H. B. Howell, P. M. Billman, C. S. Greathouse, W. A. Reddell, E. J. Cooper, George A. Dale, J. L. Reese, Carl Owens, H. M. Snowden, and Mmes. Val Morris, Essie Russell, Gladys M. Stokes, R. C. Forrester, Misses O'Berger Forrester, Ruth Roddy, Laverne Reddell, and little Miss Virginia Ann Edwards of Dallas.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH STARTS REVIVAL

The Assembly of God Church is starting an old time revival Saturday night, July 8. Rev. and Mrs. E. O. McElyea of Lockney will be doing the preaching, for two weeks or longer.

Everyone is invited to each service.—J. H. Owens, Pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Swan and baby of Conchas Dam, near Tucumcari, New Mexico, spent the first of the week here visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Boullion, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Carmack, and other relatives. "Boots" for the past two or three years has been employed at this gigantic Government project. He says the dam is almost complete, but that the lake is not yet full. However, motorboats navigate 15 miles up the lake along the Canadian River and ten miles along the Conchas.

Rev. and Mrs. Ben Hardy had as their guests on July 4th, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Randal and daughter, Sally Ann, from Seymour. Mr. Randal is mayor of that city and his wife is president of the women's work in the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church. Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. Randal are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roberts went to Stephenville Saturday and were accompanied home by their daughter, Miss Eloise, and friend, Miss Margaret Barry of San Angelo, both students in John Tarleton College, who spent the week-end and holiday here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Story are leaving this week to spend a few months in Albuquerque for the benefit of Mr. Story's health. Many friends here are wishing them a pleasant sojourn with the hope that they return in much better health.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Story and daughters, Ernestine and Ruth Evelyn, went down to Wylie last week to visit his parents, returning Monday. Miss Ernestine remained for an extended visit with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Bailey of Midland are spending their vacation with her parents, Mr and Mrs. S. W. Sanford, here and with his relatives in Oklahoma.

Headache, Bad Breath Tell of More to Come

Just as Paul Revere's famous ride warned of the Redcoats' coming, so Nature's messengers—headaches, biliousness, bad breath—often warn of faulty elimination. Neglecting these signs may cause a host of constipation's discomforts: sour stomach, belching; no appetite or energy; mental dullness.

It's so easy to wake up your lazy insides. Just take spicy, all vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT. Its unusual help comes from its principal ingredient—an intestinal tonic-laxative which imparts tone to lazy bowel muscles. Millions of packages used testify to BLACK-DRAUGHT'S merit. Try it.

Mrs. G. A. Thomas and children returned to her home in McAllen Saturday after having visited here about a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Donaldson, and other relatives.

OUR INSANE ISOLATIONISTS

Many people in this country are continually talking and writing about our relation to Europe and its troubled affairs as if it would be as easy for this nation to keep out of the general conflagration that seemingly is about to break out there as it would be for an ordinary on-looker to stay out of a scrap that might break out at a baseball game.

Moreover, many of our people of the present generation who seem to have no clear conception of the events that drew us into the World War in 1917, many young polititians who know no better and many older politicians, who do know better, keep casting slurs at our entry into that war as a mere benevolent attempt to "make the world

safe for democracy".

That was indeed the hope and one of the purposes of the American people when we went into that war, and it was a worthy purpose
not to be sneered at and derided,
by any patriotic American citizen of today. But, aside from any benevolent purpose that we may have had and which may have failed to materialize, we were forced into that war by the fact that Germany first made war upon us. We had no alternative except to fight unless we chose to play the coward, tuck our tails, and run. Unable to send her merchant ships to our shores for supplies herself, Germany decided to destroy our commerce with her enemy nations. After repeated violation of American rights and repeated protests on the part of President Wilson, Germany gave notice to the United States on January 31, 1917, that she would the next day begin unrestricted submarine warfare on our merchant ships and would sink every one of them she could "without warning and without giving the passengers or crew any opportunity to escape.

She generously stated, however,
that she would permit one passenger ship per week to visit England,
provided no munitions of any kind
were aboard.

This policy she proceeded to carry out. In the months of February and March she sank a number of American merchant vessels resulting in the loss of quite a number of American lives.

Protests on the part of President Wilson were of no avail, and he therefore called Congress in special session early in April. Congress immediately considered the grave situation and with little delay and by an almost unanimous vote declared a state of war to exist.

And that's how we got into the war.

With our merchant ships today sailing all the seas and carrying cargoes of American goods to all the major ports of the world, including every port in Europe, how could we expect to escape the fury of Hitler and Mussolini today, if war should break out, unless we immediately called all our merchant ships home, discontinued the shipment of cotton, wheat, meat, machinery, and the products of our farms and factories of every kind to all the nations of the Old World, and sought to live strictly as a hermit nation?

If such a war should break out,
it would be next to impossible for us to avoid involvement.

The best way for us to avoid such a catastrophe, it seems to us, is not the passage of "neutrality"
laws that can only give comfort and aid to the totalitarian powers and the would hamper and cripple
the democratic nations they are seeking to destroy, but to give the dictators to understand that we have no sympathy with their

Many believe that Japan is acting at the behest of Hitler in its hostile attitude toward Great Britain and her interests in China. Hitler, they think, was attempting to so embarrass Great Britain as to make it possible for him to repossess Danzig
and the Polish corridor for Germany without serious British interference. The British lion roared with great vehemence, however.
Hitler was warned in language that could not be misunderstood that if he undertook to retake Danzig by force or if he undertook to invade Poland, Great Britain would immediately swing into action on the side of Poland. Hitler has made no attack and he has not retaken Danzig. But he doubtless will do it if and when the time seems propitious.

Deskins Wells, editor and publisher of the Wellington Leader, was honored one evening recently with a banquet by his home town, sponsored by the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs and attended by 125 business men. "Deck" is one of the outstanding young publishers of Texas. He has been a leader in his community having served his town as mayor; in the Panhandle, having served as president of the Panhandle Press Ass'n.; and is just retiring as president of the Texas Press Association. His paper is one of the best weeklies in Texas;
in fact, he has won many newspaper prizes in national competition. The News joins the citizens of his home town in doffing our hats to this No. 1 citizen. Congratulations, Deck!

The Avalanche-Journal recently sponsored a swimming school in Lubbock, at the close of which certificates were awarded by the Red Cross to about 150 graduates.
It is claimed that almost that many more learned to swim during the school. This certainly is a laudable move. Because of the scarcity of natural swimming places many boys and girls grow up without learning to swim, and they are helpless therefore when they do accidentally or unintentionally get into deep water. Every boy and girl should learn to swim at the first opportunity offered.

Since Tahoka obtained a greatly enlarged water supply two or three years ago, the town has undergone a revolution in beautification. In addition to the beautification of the premises of private homes, the premises of the churches and the courthouse yard as well as the city park have also been wonderfully beautified. Recently playground equipment was also installed in the city park, and this spring it has become a real playground for the children. The Parent-Teachers Club as well some of the men of the town are to be thanked for this improvement.

In pursuance of the state and federal water conservation programs, many dams for the impounding of lakes of water will probably be constructed at many places on these plains and throughout West Texas in the course of time. These will not only conserve the water for municipal and irrigation purposes but will afford many beauty spots for recreation and amusement. We need to conserve every drop of water that falls on these plains.

Five or six gentlemen are already feeling out the situation to find out if they would have a chance in a race for governor against Lee O'Daniel for a second term. If any of them wants our opinion, there is not a one of them, as the land les-now, that would have a ghost of a show.

It is said that William McGraw is one of the likely candidates for governor next year. William might do nearly as well as he did last year, but he doubt it. If he has a good law practice he had better keep it.

high-handed acts of international brigandage and they will certainly find us aligned against them the moment they violate any of our rights on land or sea.

For us to have permitted Germany to clear the high seas of our merchant ships and utterly destroy our commerce in 1917 would have been a cowardly surrender of our rights and would have been financially disastrous to the American people. Without a market for his cotton the Southern farmer would have been utterly ruined.

Would these "isolationists" and neutrality hounds in Congress have us to pursue such a course now if another war should break out?

Well, whatever we may think about it now, America would not pursue such a course long even if she could.

The City of Lubbock was made to realize suddenly a few weeks ago that her water supply was about to become inadequate. The city authorities immediately took action to have a couple of new wells drilled, which will greatly relieve the situation temporarily, but it is probable that steps will be taken soon to procure a greatly increased water supply. It must be done, it would seem, if the city is to continue to grow. Without any information whatever as to the City's plans, it is probable that sooner or later a great dam will be constructed across Yellowhouse creek, thus impounding a great lake of water
both for domestic use and for recreation purposes.

If Judge S. J. Isaacs of El Paso,
a member of the legislature, has any aspirations for a higher position we are not advised of that fact. Judge Isaacs, however, is well qualified to fill any office within the gift of the people of this state.
Many years ago he was district judge in the Midland district for several terms, and he was then one of the best judges in the state.
Furthermore, he is clean, honest,
and fearless. We need more men of his type in the legislature and in the higher positions in this state.

We hope that our brilliant young attorney-general Gerald Mann doesn't make the mistake of running for governor next year. He would be an exceedingly formidable candidate three years from now. If he can have the patience to wait, we believe he will be governor some day.

Colonel E. O. Thompson of the state railroad commission is sure to be a candidate for governor
again next year, the wise ones say.
Thompson is remarkably well qualified but he is a poor rabble-rouser.

Senator Joe Hill is believed to be storing up ammunition for a fight for the governorship next year.
The Senator has made too many bitter speeches and accumulated too many powerful enemies, in our humble opinion, to get very far in gubernatorial race.

ODDS AND ENDS
By Eee Eye the Elder

Say, folks, all you fellows who, like this writer, have a little knotty head stuck up there above your shoulders that looks like a hair-covered coconut, we want to bring you a little information this week that should give you great comfort and consolation.

But listen, you fellows who have great big fine, handsome, statesman-like heads proudly ensconced above your manly shoulders and who are always bragging about the size of your hatband that encircles your dome, you had just as well come down off your lofty perch, for right here is where we are going to puncture your bag of conceit.

We learned a long time ago that the scientists had found out that the size of the brain has little to do with the size of the intellect but the information doesn't seem to have leaked out among the people very much, and these gentlemen of massive head and handsome brow do not seem to have heard of it at all.

So, a couple of weeks ago, when we read an article in a magazine, written by an eminent medical scientist, declaring that the size and weight of the brain means absolutely nothing and that a moron, just a plain fool, may as often do as well as big and just as weighty a brain as does the intellectual giant, and that a little weasel-headed guy, like the conductor of this column, may have more sense than the fellow who prances around under a head as big as a wash-tub, we decided right then and there to publish the information to the world in defense of ourself and our kind and to the great discomfit of our big-headed friends.

Now the fact is that this writer has such a diminutive dome that it often becomes the source of great humiliation on his part.

Frequently we have gone into a store to purchase a sky-piece and were unable to find one small enough to fit. As we ambled out of the store, we often imagined that we could hear the disgusted clerk muttering to himself something like this: "Well, I always thought that guy was kinda nutty and now I know why; he has a little old knotty nut perked up there on the top end of his backbone that he is trying to use for a head."

Often, too, we have been at public gatherings of one kind or another and when the men would be getting ready to leave some guy would nonchalantly pick up our brand-new good-looking hat and undertake to put it on. When he would do so it would sit on the tip-top of his rounded dome like the half of a coconut shell on top of an inverted washpot. With an expression of deep disappointment and disgust, he would pull the thing off and look at it long and intently in amazement, evidently wondering what simpleton could have worn a little thing like that to the meeting. Sometimes we were ashamed to admit that the hat really belonged to us.

In all our long and more or less eventful lifetime, we can not remember but two instances when our hat was actually worn away from a public place by the other fellow. One time when we were in court, a genius with a little knotty head who was a member of the jury picked up our hat when court adjourned and made way with it. We had to chase him all over town to recover the coveted head-gear.

Another time, a dandy new hat of ours disappeared from a church house; and it never did come back. We decided that some shrewd or brilliant young fellow with a diminutive conscience as well as a diminutive dome had perpetrated the dirty trick. So, that's that.

The eminent physician we referred to above was Edward Podolsky, writing recently in The Quarterly Review, London.

"The first study of the brain of men of genius and those of men of ordinary achievement", he says, "was undertaken in 1860 by Dr. Rudolph Wagner, who was bequeathed the brains of three geniuses, among them that of Gauss, one of the greatest of mathematicians. Dr. Wagner undertook a very careful comparative study of this brain and the brain of one Krebs, an ordinary day-laborer. After careful investigation, Dr. Wagner could not find the slightest difference. He studied the fissures of both brains; he studied the depth of the convolutions, their number and pattern. He also compared the weights. He found them practically identical in all respects. Quite frequently since then, it has been noted that the brain of an idiot weighs more than that of a man of superior talent, whose brain may be very light in weight. Furthermore, the depth and number of convolutions in the brain of a highly endowed man are not more complicated than those in the brain of a moron."

Dr. Podolsky says that some thought that the front portion of the brain was the seat of the higher faculties. "But a careful study of the frontal lobes of the brain of the eminent psychologist and university president, G. Stanley Hall, and of the brain of the world-famous physician, Sir William Osler, and a comparison of the frontal lobes of men of ordinary mental endowment showed no essential differences."

Well, what in the world then makes the difference between the genius and the fool?

Dr. Podolsky explains that when it occurred to somebody to study the membrane that covers the brain, the difference became at once apparent.

"In 1926", he says, "Dr. Hindie began to find real differences in the blood supply of the brain coverings in those of superior mentality and those of ordinary ability. He found that the blood supply of the brain coverings of the former was richer and more complex. The membrane covering the brains of men of genius have blood vessels of magnificent caliber and are rich in the supply of these conduits of blood. The half-wit, on the other hand, has a brain covering poor in blood vessels and even those are of constricted caliber."

Moreover, the chemical composition of the blood itself play a very important role in fostering intelligence, the Doctor continues. Later investigations have disclosed, he says, that in most insanity cases investigated the lime content in the blood has been too small or the sugar content too large.

"Brain students are now certain that intelligence at any rate depends not upon the size or weight of the brain, as heretofore believed, but upon the amount of blood furnished to the brain, and the quality of the blood as influenced by internal chemical changes," he concludes.

In other words, brain production—intelligence and intellectuality—is like crop production in a desert land. It all depends upon the irrigation system. If the irrigation ditches are few and far between and the water supply scant, the cotton crop is sure to be very short. If the ditches are large and numerous and the water supply abundant, the cotton may produce two or three bales per acre.

So you gentlemen who like to boast of the size of the hat you wear had just as well quit strutting your stuff. That massive fine-looking head of yours was doubtless given you as a matter of ornamentation rather than utility. And you little gourd-headed guys, take courage. If your apparently meager supply of brains is being properly irrigated—with blood—you may far outshine any nit-wit big-head that ever came down the pike, however proud and handsome he may be.

ELDER DRENNON'S NOTES

I was sorry I did not get to attend the Old Settlers Reunion but feel sure I would have enjoyed it. I can think of nothing finer for us younger people than to have respect for the older ones, and as Solomon said, "Thou shalt rise up before the hoary heads, and honor the face of the old man" which I have always tried to follow. It seems to me that the children of today do not have as much respect for their elders as they should. But Solomon made another statement in Proverbs 16-31 that needs to be studied in this connection. It reads "The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness". No sadder sight to me than an old wicked man. I have just been talking with an old man that is foul of mouth, wicked in heart, and low in ideals. I can not have much respect for him, even if his hair is grey and his body is bent. I sometimes think for every prodigal boy and girl there is a prodigal father and mother some where. How sad, the legislature went home without making some provision for keeping up payments to the old people. If they could look into the faces of an old couple near me and see the fear and anxiety, I feel sure they would have done something about it. But, I want to commend brother O'Daniel for his fine efforts in their behalf and may God bless him and give him wisdom in working out the hard problems that are before him. The Bible urges us Christians to pray for our rulers, so I am asking the readers to unite with me in praying for brother O'Daniel in this trying time, when so many enemies are seeking his downfall. What a wonderful thing to have a sure enough christian as governor of our great state. We need the same kind of a man in the White House. There is only one salvation for America and that is to return to the faith in God, of our founders. I enjoyed Rev. Turrentine's report of his trip to Georgia, and what a fine thing for the church to give him this trip. Many times the church forgets the heavy load the preacher is carrying and how he needs to be released once in awhile from the strain, and with pay. I want to commend this example to other churches in this neck of the

LOCALS

Mrs. A. M. Daniels, county treasurer, returned Friday from a two weeks' vacation in South Texas. While away, she visited San Antonio, Houston, Galveston, and Fort Worth. She made the trip in company with her sister, Mrs. R. V. Huff, and husband, of Dickenson, near Galveston, who had been visiting her here.

Mrs. T. J. Watson, Houston, who had been here several days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Edwards, and other relatives, returned home Sunday. Her husband and his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Watson, of Mart, and sister, Miss Lucille Watson, of Dallas, came up after her and visited a short time.

Lamesa citizens have donned their redco regalia this week. Failure of any man or woman to wear some article of cowboy or cowgirl regalia makes them eligible to punishment by serving a "term" in the "bullpen" which has been constructed on the court house lawn.

Little Miss Eva Jo Reid, daughter of G. M. Reid, returned to Nashville, Arkansas, last Friday, in company with Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Canaday, who were here visiting. She will visit relatives there.

Mrs. Val Morris and son, Jack, spent the weekend and Fourth in Lubbock visiting her daughter, Miss Willie Marsh Chappelle, who is employed there.

Messrs. A. A. Mourfield and Verner Smith were mingling with the many thousands at the Stamford Cowboy Reunion on July 4.

As a fine rain is falling at the present, it is but a reminder of God's wonderful love for poor, lost men. God is so good it looks like it would lead all men to obey him. Yet the records show that only one out of every hundred are really and truly serving God in the world. Yours for more people who will live within their income, and be willing to live by the sweat of their own face.

Remember, the judgment is coming and be ready.—R. P. Drennon.

Tom Reid, who works at the Phillips Service Station, was carried to Lubbock last Thursday afternoon suffering with appendicitis. He was operated on late that evening. At last report, he was improving nicely and expected to be home the last of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Stevens returned recently from a three weeks' visit with a son and daughter in Flagstaff, Arizona. Their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller accompanied them home, and had a few days, visit with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Donaldson and children left Wednesday for a week or ten days vacation at Galveston. They were accompanied as far as Crowell by Mrs. Donaldson's mother, Mrs. J. C. Roberts, who has been here visiting several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Odom, wife and son, Ray Odom, B. A. Norman and family, G. R. Smith and wife, and Mack Saunders and wife spent Sunday before last with their son and brother, E. D. Odom, and family at Ropes.

Mr. and Mrs. Melle Rogers and two children were here from Mt. Pleasant, Texas to spend the holiday with her sister, Mrs. W. C. Wright and family, returning home Wednesday.

Harry Woods, who has been ill for several months, is now able to be up and to walk around some, it is said. Many friends hope that he may completely and speedily recover.

Mrs. Jim Bob McAtee and daughter, Janie Lee, are here from Henryetta, Oklahoma, for a month's visit with her mother, Mrs. J. H. Cobb, and other relatives.

Joann, 4, and Jimmie, 6, children of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Conley, had tonsillectomies in a local clinic Thursday and are doing nicely.

Coke Pullingim, Lorenzo farmer-stockman, was a business visitor here Monday.

PREPARING FOR A REVIVAL

We are approaching that season of the year when we lay by our crops and seriously and consecutively begin the cultivation of our spiritual life and the challenge of the unsaved.

This is a life and death matter. Eternal life or the second death will come to many according to the way they accept or reject the overtures of mercy of the Lord.

For pastor and people to set a date for a protracted meeting, send for an evangelist, and then comfortably sit back and wait his coming is to invite failure.

A young man told his mother he was going to prayer meeting to seek to get right with God for his sins. The wise mother replied, "Why not get down on your knees, confess your sins, repent, and have faith to believe that God receives you back to himself, and then go to the services to contribute your share of light and helpfulness."

A number of hearers on fire for God and filled with truth can start a revival the moment they come together. You will not get on fire for God until you feel a sense of need of his presence.

Are you as good as you want to be? Then you are not even acceptable to God. If you are not seeking to grow in Grace, you are as good as you want to be.

The lack of conviction of the sin of living as if there were no God is appalling. I have heard many confess that they are not living right, but too often they smile while they make the confession, showing that they regard it as a little matter, to be lightly laughed off.

caused of piety would embarrass many people more than to be seen insufficiently clothed. God is not impressed by our wit, but there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

The most vital question that should be brought to our attention is "What must I do to be saved?" The next should be a serious consideration for the salvation of others. When Booth would send a cablegram to the Salvation Army stations around the world, he chose one word, "Others." If you have a living faith you are still derelict of your duty until you share it.

More than eighty per cent of all tenants and sharecroppers have only verbal agreements with their landlords and have no assurance that they may remain upon the same farm beyond the year. This situation, not necessarily the fault of either tenants or landlords, need not serve as a basis for condemning farm tenancy or for condemning investment ownership of farms.

Landlords and tenants have a common interest and a mutual advantage to be gained by joining hands in a systematic effort to improve the tenure system, with the cooperation of landlords and tenants generally and individually.

Attend the worship services of the church, the study services, and the prayer services. Religion is an individual matter, but it must also become social or selfishness will strangle the love we have. Can the Lord count on you to do your duty? —Geo. E. Turrentine.

Mrs. Carl Walters of Dallas is here visiting her sister, Mrs. A. C. Weaver, and family. Mrs. Walters formerly lived with her parents in the Morgan community, where she was active in 4-H club work and other community activities.

Mrs. A. N. Hughes, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. R. C. Forrester, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Clifford Cathey in Greenville, having gone down with Miss Maurine McNatt last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gariand Edwards, Mrs. L. E. Turrentine, and Mr. and Mrs. Jake Leedy spent from Saturday until Wednesday at Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Applegate and daughters, Greta Joyce and Dorothy Jean, left Sunday for Lampasas to visit relatives, fish golf and swim.

Headache, Bad Breath May Be Your Warning The sea's thrilling S. O. S. means "Help is needed now!" And, so do most of those headaches, that biliousness, coated tongue, or bad breath which are often signs of constipation. To disregard these symptoms may bring on a host of other discomforts from sluggish bowels: sour stomach, belching, loss of appetite. See how much better you feel the day after taking spicy, all vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT. By simple directions, it acts gently, cleanses promptly, thoroughly. Its principal ingredient is an intestinal tonic-laxative; imparts tone to lacy bowel muscles. Next time try BLACK-DRAUGHT!

Flexible Farm Lease Explained

Forty-two per cent of the 6,812,355 farmers in the United States are tenants or sharecroppers. In recent years the number of tenants and sharecroppers has increased at the rate of approximately 40,000 a year. Out of 6,812,355 tenant families, one million move each year at an estimated cost of $50 a family for each move.

Landlords and tenants have a common interest and a mutual advantage to be gained by joining hands in a systematic effort to improve the tenure system, with the cooperation of landlords and tenants generally and individually.

The first step in creating a mutual understanding and trust between the landlord and the tenant is for them to enter into a definite agreement which covers all the important aspects of their relationship.

Landlords and tenants have a common interest and a mutual advantage to be gained by joining hands in a systematic effort to improve the tenure system, with the cooperation of landlords and tenants generally and individually.

agreement which covers all the important aspects of their relationship. Good business requires that the agreement or contract be in writing. A written lease will not within itself create a mutual confidence, but it is an essential step in that direction.

A Flexible Farm Lease has been prepared by the Farm Security Administration which is widely applicable to the prevailing arrangements and needs of landlords and tenants in almost all parts of the United States.

FUNERAL HOME IS MOST MODERN IN WEST TEXAS

 already have made considerable growth.

Although the building is now ready for use in an emergency, final completion will not be for a month or more. And when finishing touches are put on W. M. Harris, the owner, expects to hold a formal opening, at which time all the people of the town and county will be invited.

Entrance to the building from the front will be through the funeral home office. Next to the office, on the north, is the slumber room, where bodies will lie in state.

Just to the west of the office and slumber room is the chapel, 27x50 feet in size, with a seating capacity of 250, and an overflow capacity of 400. This will be furnished with folding chair. At the west end will be the family room and the music room. Ample accommodation will be made for almost any type of musical program desired with a funeral.

Next to the chapel, on the west, is the garage for two large ambulances.

Down the center of the building there is a long hallway, the first room to the left of which is the display room 18x46 feet in size, where Harris has almost any type casket from $1750.00 down to $45 00 on display. There are also moth-proof cases for burial dresses and suits, likewise carried in a variety of quality and sizes.

Then, there is a bed room, ladies' rest rooms, a coffee room, and a large storage room.

The preparation room is in the rear, and is completely equipped with the very latest of instruments and furnishings. In this are two preparation tables. This room is snow-white, sanitary in every way, and as meticulously clean as a hospital operating room.

Other features of the building include plastered walls, celotex ceilings, steel, dust-proof windows, Venetian blinds, water cooler, water heater, indirect lighting, and many other modern conveniences.

To the south and rear of the building, is a separate preparation room and funeral room for Negroes and Mexicans, a feature that not many funeral homes in this section of Texas offer.

The funeral home this week is taking delivery on another big combination hearse-ambulance very similar to the one now in use. These are the most modern that money can buy, Mr. Robertson says, with all the latest features and conveniences.

In fact, Mr. Harris and Mr. Robertson say that there is not another funeral home west of Fort Worth, not even in Lubbock, that compares to this complete lay-out in modernity or convenience.

Two Win Prizes At Morton Rodeo

Two local men were "in the money" at the Morton Rodeo Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Clovis Honeycutt won two first and one third place in the bareback bronc riding contests, and Ray Grider won one second and two third places in the same event.

Brahma steers owned by O. L. Harris of O'Donnell were used in the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Deck Dunagan, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Dunagan, and daughter, Elma, and Mrs. A. L. Dunagan visited a sister of the Dunagan boys, Mrs. Hoyle and her family at San Saba Monday night and Tuesday. They were accompanied by Miss Jo Belle Milliken, who visited a friend, Miss Louise Rogers, at San Saba.

Only A Few Bears Remain In Texas

Austin, July 5.—It has been many, many years since there have been bears in most sections of Texas, but a few, probably less than 200, remain in the Trans-Pecos and the largest killed in a score of years was reported recently by State Game Warden T. S. Redford. The bruin, slain by a party of ranchers under the supervision of the game warden, weighed 463 pounds. It was tracked down after having killed twenty-five sheep in the Davis Mountains. The open season on bears is from November 16 to December 31, but special permission was obtained from the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission to slay this sheep-killing bruin.

"I JUMPED AT THE DEAL

the Ford Dealer made on my old car!"

"How much?" says I to the FORD Dealer.
 My wife has been crazy for a FORD V-8. Figured I could swing it if I got a good trade on my old car. So I took the old fuss-maker around to the FORD Dealer.

"HAS IT GOT STYLE?" Drove home in a brand new FORD V-8. Man, that is the sweetest running car I ever handled. And it is my wife proud? She says the FORD V-8 was designed for women—the last word in style and luxurious comfort. We are the envy of the neighborhood—but not for long, I expect. Tom, Jim, Dave, Henry and Bill have already talked to me and the FORD Dealer is going to have a busy day.
