Edwards Sell Gin At New Home

Jack Edwards and other members of the family have sold the Edwards Gin at New Home to the Farmers Cooperative Association of that place. The new owners, we understand, have already taken charge.

The Farmers Cooperative association is also rebuilding its gin at New Home which was burned two or three weeks ago. The building is already completed, we are informed, and the new machinery is being installed. They expect to resume operation of the plant next week. Mr. Barron is manager.

Jack Bishop received surgical repairs in a local clinic Tuesday for severe lacerations on the hand, caused by broken glass on which he fell while working at a local gin.

A. T. Grace of Morgan was here Tuesday in company with his son-in-law, Mr. Foster, who resides near Wilson, looking after some city property.

Work Begun On Street Paving

Work preliminary to the paving of many blocks of Tahoka's streets was begun this week.

The calliope bed on the property acquired by the city when it recently purchased the sewer system is being stripped and gotten ready for the trucks, and barricades for the streets are being constructed.

Some of the W. P. A. labor has been released from the highway project and more of it will be released by the end of the week. The work of hauling and pouring calliope will begin early next week. Deen Nowlin, the mayor, thinks.

The first paving done will be the unpaved centers of the streets around the public courthouse square.

Stunt Drivers Will Perform Here

The people of this vicinity are promised tops in thrills next Sunday when Ace Lillard and his world's champion stunt drivers present their "Thrill Day" circus of death consisting of thirteen daring events.

There will be crashes, stunt driving, spirals, speedrolls, etc., reaching one of the high lights when a stock car sails over four other stock cars at 50 miles per hour.

Ace Lillard set a record at the recent Lubbock fair when he jumped his car 196 feet.

The troupe consists of Buddy Lillard, world's youngest stunt driver, Haywire Lou from Kalamazoo, and one of the few lady stunt drivers in the business, Bab Lillard. They also bring a fine set of equipment, a part of which is transported on a huge semi-truck, and carry relief drivers for making long jumps as the troupe are booked practically solid, so great is the demand for this attraction.

They are playing this spot as a break-jump to the Sweetwater fair. The performance will be held one mile south of the city square on highway No. 9.

There will be a popular admission charge.

Rev. and Mrs. George A. Dale attended Baptist Association in Clovis Wednesday and Thursday and were accompanied home by Miss Mary Seroyer who had been visiting friends there.

State Health Department Representative Makes Proposal For County Health Unit

R. A. Jones of the State Health Department was here Tuesday in the interest of the proposed establishment of a Health Unit to be composed of three or four counties of the South Plains.

The matter will be presented to the commissioners court here next Monday, he stated to a representative of the News.

If the proposal should be acted upon favorably by the commissioners court of this and other counties involved, a full-time director would be stationed in the district or unit, and a public health nurse would be placed in each of the counties.

The activities of the director are not curative but preventative. He does not practice medicine in competition with local physicians but he cooperates with them in the prevention of contagious and infectious diseases.

Among other activities, he examines all school children in his health area. The findings are duly recorded and filed on regular blanks for this purpose. The aim is to have the remediable defects of the children corrected by their family physician.

He works out a plan with local physicians whereby the general public may have protection against the preventable diseases. Such as typhoid fever, diphtheria, smallpox, etc.

By persons' contact, talks to civic groups, schools, etc., through the newspaper articles, by furnish-

Home-Coming Game Will Be Climax Of Ex-Students Meet Here Next Week

Next Friday, October 27, is Homecoming day at Tahoka high school. When all ex-students are invited to be present for the annual get-together and ball game. Many out of town guests are expected. Assembly will be held at 3:15 p. m. in the high school auditorium. Both ex-students and present students will attend this meeting.

The feature of the day will be the ball game to be played Friday night between Tahoka and Brownfield. Tahoka has a better team this year than in many years, and this game promises to be very interesting.

After the ball game there will be a social and business meeting of the Ex-Students Association in the school gymnasium, and all are especially urged to attend this, for besides the fun, the officers for the coming year will be elected at this time. Refreshments will be served.

The present officers are: Claude Donaldson, president; Mrs. Bernice Roberts, vice-president; Mrs. Dede Holland, secretary; Miss Jewell Redwine, historian; Jack Wells, reporter.

Sale of tickets for the ball game will start Monday. Tickets will be 25 cents to all Ex-Students.

One Criminal Case Tried This Week

Only one criminal case was tried this week, the case against A. W. Eubanks for accessory to theft of over $50 from the theatre at O'Donnell. Eubanks was convicted and his punishment assessed at two years imprisonment, sentence suspended.

All other criminal cases called which had not been tried the previous week were held over until next term of court.

The grand jury was called in session again Thursday, and probably will return other indictments. If so, these cases will be called to trial before court suspends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson returned Sunday from a visit with relatives at San Angelo following the death of Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. G. W. Knoy, which occurred at Brady the week before. They were present at the time of her death. Altogether they were gone two weeks.

40,000 Bales Have Been Ginned In County To Date

Crop Is Estimated At Above 50,000 Bales. Fair Weather Cause Of Early Finish

With possibly 70 to 75 per cent of the cotton crop gathered, 8,508 bales had been ginned in Tahoka up to an early hour Thursday morning.

The weather this fall has been ideal for gathering the crop, there having been only one rain the entire season, and that caused picking to suspend only a day or two. Gathering has been somewhat hindered since the rain, however, by heavy morning dews. Practically all of the crop thus far has been picked; in fact we have heard of none being snapped or pulled.

It is believed the Lynn county crop will exceed 50,000 bales. Without having authentic figures, it is probable that 40,000 bales or more have been ginned up to this date. Government figures as furnished us by E. W. Holloway, government statistician for Lynn county, show that a total of 20,783 bales had been ginned prior to October 1. It is believed that fully as many bales have been ginned during this month as were ginned in September.

Picking began much earlier this year than last year, for Mr. Holloway's report shows that only 6,355 bales had been ginned prior to the first of October last year.

There are many Mexican cotton pickers in the county, and if the weather continues favorable, practically the entire crop will have been gathered by the middle of November.

There has been little change in the price of cotton the past few weeks. Seed advanced a dollar a ton this week and is now selling for 26.00.

New Uses For Cotton Suggested

Charles L. Grunder of the United States Department of Agriculture is here this week and will probably be in this section two or three weeks longer making investigation to determine whether or not there are any pink boll worms in this section of the state this fall.

Mr. Grunder's home is at Victoria and he has been engaged in the cotton business in one capacity or another for his entire life, he says. He has studied all phases of the cotton industry, and along with many others he is now seeking to find new uses for cotton. He has furnished the News with some suggestions along this line, which he passed on to our readers.

"Supply a layer of closely pressed cotton between the layers of pressed steel on helmets for soldiers. There are millions of soldiers and he suggests that this would require quite a quantity of cotton. The layers of cotton in the helmet, he says, "will not only act as an effective repellent against shrapnel, etc., but also as an insulation against heat and cold."

"The same may be applied to armament on tanks, battleships, etc."

"Cotton is known as the most effective repellent against penetration by projectiles. The only drawback that has been was fire. It is now being made fireproof."

Prizes are now being offered for the best suggestions for new uses for cotton. Among the suggestions that have been made heretofore is one that cotton be used for insulation of buildings. Chemists have found a way of treating cotton so as to make it fireproof, it is claimed.

Mr. Grunder's suggestion may be a good one.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. James Applewhite, and Mrs. L. E. Turrentine were it down to Temple last weekend on a pleasure trip.

Farmers Sign For Soil Payments

C. A. Lawrence states that application for soil conservation payments for 1939 are now being signed. A lot of preliminaries for each application are to be worked out, however, before it is ready for signature.

Mr. Lawrence requests, therefore, that farmers wait about coming in to sign up until he notifies them by postal card. This will save the applicants trouble and facilitate the work in the office.

Homes Burglarized Tuesday Night

A burglar or burglars entered the home of three Tahoka citizens here Tuesday night, netting a haul of $8.75, a suit and overcoat.

The home of Dave Sanders was entered, and his suit and overcoat were taken. At the home of Jack Welch, a wallet containing $8.00 was missing. In both of these cases, the screen was taken off of a window, and entry was made that way.

Mrs. T. Garrard had gone to town for a few minutes, leaving her house unlocked and her purse lying on the bed, when the burglar entered and took it. Fortunately for Mrs. Garrard, however, she had only 75 cents in her purse at the time.

Sheriff E. L. Parker stated that he hoped to make an arrest soon. There have been a series of burglaries here this fall, though in most cases the burglar was barefooted, entering and leaving the premises of his victims minus shoes or socks. In the burglaries Tuesday night, however, the thief wore shoes, according to Parker.

New Business House Will Be Built

Sam Reid, who now occupies the old Security State Bank building, states that he intends to build in the near future a business house on a lot owned by him situated immediately south of the Gulf Service Station operated by Nowlin and West.

This lot is 25 by 80 feet in size, the long side facing highway No. 9. Mr. Reid has not yet decided just what the dimensions of the proposed building will be but it probably will occupy the entire lot.

The structure will be occupied by Reid's Radio Shop and probably by other business concerns. It will be built of brick and tile.

School At Newmoore Opened This Week

The school at Newmoore opened Monday for an eight months term, according to Mrs. Tunnell, county superintendent. All the other schools in the county had opened previously.

Unlike other rural schools, Mrs. Tunnell says that the Newmoore school authorities preferred not to suspend school for cotton picking after once opening up, and they accordingly deferred the opening of their school until the major portion of the cotton crop had been gathered.

ERROR CORRECTED

In the card of thanks published in this paper last week in which Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell expressed her appreciation to a number of Tahoka business firms for supplying Texas Almanacs to the schools of Lynn county, the name of Jones Dry Goods Company was omitted and the name of Levine's Dry Goods was erroneously included in the list. Mrs. Tunnell assures all concerned that the error was wholly unintentional and has asked that correction be made.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Overman are the parents of a fine boy born last Saturday afternoon.

FOOTBALL GAMES

(By William Hill)

SLATON JINX WINS AGAIN

The Tahoka Bulldogs couldn't break the jinx Slaton has had on them for the past several years, as the Slaton Tigers won by a score of 28 to 9 in the game here last Friday night.

The Bulldogs were already crippled from their game with Post last Friday week. Boys who were suffering from their injuries were: Alvin White, Truman Hines, Gloyd Cloe, and Max Minor. None of these boys played the whole game Friday night. Alvin White, co-captain, left the game in the first quarter. Max Minor, co-captain, and Gloyd Cloe left early in the third quarter, and Truman Hines early in the fourth.

The Slaton Tigers had a very good ball club. They had two of their best men back in the line-up for the game with Tahoka. These two boys had been out of the line-up ever since Slaton's first game of the season.

Joe Lehman was the outstanding man for the Bulldogs. Joe took the ball on a kickoff and ran 60 yards, just 15 yards short of a touchdown. Joe got past every man except two. He managed to get away from one of them, but while doing so another man tackled him.

Slaton gained 364 yards running, while the Bulldogs gained 219 yards. Slaton lost 89 yards while Tahoka lost 46. Tahoka gained 21 yards on two passes. Slaton gained 45 yards on one pass.

Scott scored twice for Slaton and kicked one extra point. Gentry and Collier scored once each. Then Tahoka fumbled and recovered behind Slaton's goal line, adding two more points to Slaton's score.

RED RAIDERS VS. MEXICO LOBOS

Lubbock, Tex., Oct. 19 — For the first time in history a Texas Tech football team will be the underdog against a Border Conference team here Saturday night when the Red Raiders battle the New Mexico Lobos from Albuquerque. New Mexico is undefeated in games against the New Mexico Teachers, Wyoming, Denver University and a big Texas Mines team. The Raiders have won two and lost two. They beat Texas Wesleyan and Arizona State and lost to Gonzaga and Texas Mines.

The Lobos have never defeated Texas Tech but the stage is set for them to turn the trick Saturday because the form chart favors them by two touchdowns. The New Mexico band and a special train of Albuquerque fans will accompany the Lobos here.

In addition to the thousands of fans coming from Albuquerque, it will be Parents Day at Texas Tech. Parents of Texas Tech students will be guests of the college Parents of the football players will be seated on the sideline and will be introduced to the crowd between halves.

BULLDOGS INVADE KERMIT TONIGHT

The Bulldogs leave home to invade Kermit tonight.

Coach Leo Jackson, "Our Bulldogs," the Tahoka High School Band, and several Tahoka Fans will leave today about noon or soon thereafter.

Kermit boasts a good football team down in their neck of the woods and promise to really try to give the Tahoka fans a game that will be worth their money and time to see.

Our own battered but blood-thirsty Bulldogs seem to have no comment on the game.

Local Boy Makes 30 Mile Bike Ride To Tech

Lubbock, Oct. 19.—Texas Tech Freshman R. L. Bosworth's bike wasn't built for two, but after four years of service it still holds one up for a 30-mile ride. Bosworth left the wheel at his uncle's farm, eight and one-half miles southeast of Tahoka, when he came to college, but thumbed his way back for it last weekend. He made the return trip in two hours.

"I hadn't ridden in over six months," the boy said, "and my legs were really tired when I got back to school."

He believes the bicycle will come in handy for running errands for upperclassmen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Henderson of Los Angeles, California, are here this week visiting Judge and Mrs. J. W. Elliott. Mrs. Henderson and Mrs. Elliott are sisters. Like the Elliotts, the Hendersons were pioneer settlers in this county but removed to Los Angeles many years ago.

Mrs. Sue Vaughn of El Paso and Dallas left Wednesday night for her home in Dallas after visiting her mother, Mrs. H. C. Calahan, and sister Miss Ethel Calahan, here. She came from El Paso, where she lives part of each year.

County Attorney and Mrs. Burton Hackney have begun the erection of a five-room modern home on Tate Street in Brownfield, says the Terry County Herald. Before marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Hackney each resided in Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Pennington who were celebrating their fourteenth wedding anniversary were hosts to the George A. Dales, who were celebrating their forty first anniversary at a six o'clock dinner Tuesday evening at their home southeast of town.

Mrs. J. H. Collenbeck returned Sunday from a visit of several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Dovie Anderson, and her family at Independence, Louisiana. She was accompanied by her other daughter, Mrs. Reta Lois Grissom of Lamesa.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Billman went down to De Leon Tuesday on a business and pleasure trip, expecting to return before the end of the week. They were accompanied by Mrs. H. L. Roddy, who went to visit relatives at Elco.

Dr. K. R. Durham will spend the weekend at Tulsa attending the meetings of the West Texas Dental Association and visiting his friend, Dr. McCasland.

Women: "Build-Up" To Relieve Pain

A weak, run-down, undernourished condition calls for attention! Such a condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get its foothold. That's one thing which leads to much of women's suffering from headaches, nervousness, those cramp-like pains. A good way to relieve such pains, women by thousands have found, is by the proper use of CARDUI. It stimulates a lagging appetite, assists digestion and assimilation; thus helps build physical resistance to periodic pain. Taken just before and during "the time," many women also report that CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

in Honor of National PHARMACY WEEK

All this week, throughout the United States, a great many pharmacies are observing National Pharmacy Week.

The idea back of this event is to give the public a better knowledge of what is expected of present-day pharmacists. The drug business is quite different from most other enterprises. With a little experience and capital anyone can open a shop for the sale of groceries, meats, clothing, furniture, and the like. The drug business, however, is different. Before one can operate a pharmacy and compound prescriptions, present-day legislation demands that he or she pass a rigid state board of pharmacy examination. Among other requirements are that applicants for registration be graduated from colleges or schools of pharmacy before taking examinations.

The standards of pharmacy are constantly being raised. Educational requirements are more exacting. Examinations are more rigid. The purpose, of course, is to eliminate the unqualified and thereby protect the public. With their broad training, pharmacists are co-workers with physicians and are ever-ready to serve you in maintaining the good health of your community.

We are indeed proud of this store's record having filled over 180,000 original prescriptions written by hundreds of Doctors since its establishment, thirty two years ago.

We have two registered pharmacists graduated from reputable colleges of Pharmacy that are anxious to serve you at any time, day or night.

H. D. CLUBS TO HAVE BREAD SHOW

The women's clubs of Lynn county planned early this year to hold a flower show this fall in connection with the Bread Show set for October 21.

On account of the unusual weather conditions, which have caused the late flowers not to be in bloom, the committee has decided not to offer prizes this year. It extends a cordial invitation to every Lynn county woman to bring any cut flowers she has for exhibit to the J. K. Applewhite Store east of the courthouse by 10 a. m. on Saturday, October 21, and call for her flowers and vase in which she arranged them after the Bread Show closes in the afternoon.

Each woman on the flower committee from the H. D. clubs is asked to be present to help place the flowers.

Miss Irene Beckham, who is teaching near Lamesa, was the guest of Miss Lorene Reese last weekend.

TECH GRADUATE MAKES GOOD IN ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING

Lubbock, Tex., Oct.—Perfection of a beam which brings airplanes over a field, also in blind landing, is the work of Joe J. Caldwell Jr. of Abilene, Texas Technological college electrical engineering graduate. He is working on the Klystron, a resonant cavity high frequency radio tube.

GRASSLAND 4-H CLUB

"Meat Salads should be allowed to marinate before serving", stated Miss Maurine McNett at the Grassland 4-H club, Friday, October 13 at the school building.

Unlike vegetable salads, a meat salad should be made a few hours before serving. This allows the salad dressing to mix and blend well with the other ingredients. Should it be made a few minutes before serving it would not be a well blended product.

Several members were present. The next meeting will be Friday, October 20, with the sponsor, Mrs. Treasle Kenley, in charge.

HACKBERRY COUPLE MARRY

Robert Lee Hagler and Opal La Verne Bradshaw of the Hackberry community, were granted license to marry here last week. They were married Saturday by Rev. Roy Fouts of the Slaton Church of Christ, according to the returns received here.

Parents Are Interested In School Work

Thirty-five grade school room mothers attended a meeting called by Mrs. Harley Henderson, president of the P. T. A., Wednesday afternoon, to discuss plans for assisting the school in its work this year.

Much enthusiasm was shown by the mothers, all of the designated room mothers but two being present. Each room has three room mothers who will cooperate with the teacher and students for the betterment of school environment.

Advice Given On Common Colds

Austin, Texas, October 19.—Loss of hundreds of school days during the school year could doubtless be saved with some advance home teaching in connection with prevention of colds and other respiratory infections, according to the Texas State Department of Health.

A considerable reduction would result in school time lost if parents would instruct children regarding proper use of the handkerchief. School children should be taught to cover the mouth and nose when coughing and sneezing. Both channels must be covered to prevent spread of infectious material.

The common cold virus is conveyed in secretions of the mouth and nose of infected persons. Colds are the most common of the infectious diseases, outnumbering any of the other communicable diseases about twenty-five times, according to some estimates. Other diseases spread by respiratory discharges are influenza, scarlet fever, diphtheria, measles, whooping cough, smallpox, and meningitis.

The State Department of Health advises that school children go to bed at the first sign of a cold and stay there until at least twenty-four hours after the temperature is normal if there has been fever. At school, children who have recently had a cold should avoid conversing with others at close range, and should take care to use a handkerchief whenever they cough or sneeze.

Because of the complications of the common cold, it is a disease of major importance; among possible complications are sinus infection, middle ear and mastoid infection, throat infection, bronchitis, and pneumonia.

Increased Interest 4-H Club Work

College Station, Oct 17.—Enough fruit trees and berry vines to make a row from Brownsville to Dalhart and halfway back were planted by Texas 4-H club girls during the past year, says Onah Jacks, state girls' club agent for the A. and M. College Extension Service, in checking on the girls' progress in club work.

During the same period, she comments, nearly 2,000 mattresses were added to 4-H club girls' homes through their work, interest, and influence. Half of this number was actually made by the club girls from home grown cotton.

At least 4,000 more girls are enrolled in 4-H club work this year than were last year, the agent points out. She adds: "Texas 4-H club girls have had more regular meetings than ever. Also the number of county camps, tours to see good demonstrations, rallies, exhibits, and other public meetings where they shared information, have increased this year."

Miss Jacks says 4-H club girls' increased interest in country life is attested by the fact that they are remaining in club work longer now, and by the increasing enrollment during the past two years despite the fact that contests and competitive work have been discontinued.

"The fact is now," she points out, "every girl who does 4-H club work does it for the natural benefit that it brings—not because she hopes for a prize or an extra honor."

W. R. Ledbetter of Wells returned last week from a two month's stay in Albuquerque N. M. He reports that he is feeling fine.

L. L. Busby of O'Donnell was a caller at the News office Thursday. Mr. Busby reports that he is remodeling his home there.

Mrs. J. F. Walton of Beeville is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Julia Houston and other relatives.

WHY NOT A NATURAL RESOURCES TAX?

Joseph White, Jr., representing district No. 1 from New Boston, Texas, says that a $10.00 per ton tax on sulphur would put 25 million dollars in the State treasury, and if matched by Federal funds, would be enough to give all the old people the amount Gov. O'Daniel promised last summer. Most of Texas' natural resources are being exploited by out-of-state people, and why not divide the matter as between sulphur, gas and oil, and give the old people, teachers, blind children, etc., what they need. But the governor seems to be set on making the common people pay the bill by sales tax, and not take it from corporations that are taking millions of dollars profit out of Texas annually. If Gov. O'Daniel really wants to see the old people helped, like he claims, let him call the legislature together, quit his dictatorial methods, and watch results. That is the honest opinion of this humble country editor.—Terry County Herald.

There are a lot of us who believe that Governor O'Daniel made a serious mistake by insisting upon a sales tax frozen into the constitution by amendment when a reasonable tax on natural resources would have turned the trick and could have been levied by statutory enactment.

At last the dream of many of our people has been realized. Two paved highways cross in Tahoka No. 87, better known as No. 9, is paved practically all the way from Amarillo to San Antonio. With the exception of a gap between Plains and the New Mexico line and a gap between Tahoka and Post now under construction, No. 380, better known as No. 84, is now hard-surfaced from the west line of the state through Plains Brownfield, Tahoka, Post and Clairmont to a connection with No. 70 in Kent county. No. 70 is likewise paved to Roby, where it intercepts No. 15, which runs eastward through Anson to Albany America, leading on through Fort where it intercepts the Broadway of Worth and Dallas to the Atlantic seaboard. In the course of time, No.

380 will doubtless be hard-surfaced from Clairmont to Haskell, thence on east. With the completion of the gap between Tahoka and Post, we have a reasonably straight paved highway all the way to Fort Worth, either via Clairmont or Snyder, and from Snyder either through Anson and Albany or through Sweetwater and Abilene. Except for the traffic from Tahoka to Lubbock,
No. 380 is more important to Tahoka and to Lynn county than is highway No. 87, state highway No. 9. We are grateful to the Texas State Highway Commission and to Uncle
Sam for the funds furnished by him.

A lot of newspapers that do not dare to openly espouse the cause of Adolf Hitler are indirectly doing so by continually taking dirty digs at England and France, especially England. In them we find hardly a word of criticism of the arch-fiend of modern times and the greatest liar living, the said Adolf Hitler. England is not perfect by any means. It has not always been just in its dealings with other nations. It has sometimes treated America unfairly.
It has a lot of snobishness that we detest. But after all is said and done, it is the most democratic country and possibly has the most just government of any country on earth today except the United States.
Furthermore, it is our mother country. We Americans have more English blood in our veins than we have of any other nationality. We are closer kin to the English by blood and in our manners, customs, and ideals than we are to any other European nation. Just why a few of our people, including a few newspaper editors, take pleasure in directing thrusts at England week after week at just this particular time unless their sympathies are really with that monster Hitler, is more than we can understand.

Every dollar that is collected for old-age pensions, less administration costs, should go to the needy. Not one cent of it should be taken from the needy and given to the opulent.
Furthermore, as Governor O'Daniel said in his pre-election campaign, the money should be gotten from those who have it. Who are the people who have it? Well, among others we might name are the big corporations that are exploiting our natural resources and sending the profits to their banks in New York and other northern cities. Let a heavier tax on sulphur and oil and gas first be levied, and if necessary a general sales tax can be considered later.
But let us collect nothing from any source to be poured out to those who are already rich or well-to-do.

Some of the Senators opposing repeal of the embargo on arms have been charging that repeal would be helpful to France and Great Britain in the war now raging in Europe and that Senators favoring repeal must therefore be favorable to the allies in this conflict. The converse of that statement would be that retention of the embargo would be helpful to Germany and that Senators opposing repeal must therefore be favorable to Germany. Is it possible that Hitler has some lieutenants in the United States Senate?

WHAT SORT OF MEDIATION

A Nazi mouthpiece supposed to be talking for Der Fuehrer has given out the information that President Roosevelt is the only man to avert
"the most gruesome bloodbath in history."

In other words, Adolf Hitler is now appealing to the man whom he ignored before the bloody jaunt into Poland which Nazis have glorified as a symbol of Germanic achievement. Mr. Roosevelt in his several previous efforts to prevent or delay the European war was either snubbed or ridiculed by other servile spokesmen of Der Fuehrer.

The sudden change of heart on the part of Hitler toward Mr. Roosevelt should be explained. Does Hitler wish Mr. Roosevelt to play
"stooge" for him in averting a war, which many believe will lead to the destruction of Germany? What would be the issue to be laid before an American mediator—Hitler's terms or those of Mr. Chamberlain?
Mediation implies compromise or a partial surrender by both sides, while Hitler's peace "threats" have contained the opposite.

The latest Nazi spokesman for Hitler was as confusing as Der Fuehrer himself. The spokesman said that the Nazi regime was planning a war in earnest to prevent the destruction of the Reich and the German people by Great Britain. That statement is the old Nazi "self-defense plea" raised to support the destruction of Poland by aggression, and hence would obviously seek to justify such "defensive" moves as bombings of London and Paris.

So far, the only alternatives that Hitler has offered is unconditional surrender by the British and French or the destruction of Europe. Such is a poor starting point for inviting impartial mediation. Peace can not be arrived at by threats from Berlin.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Smith dropped in Saturday to play

dicated that he was going to attend

ODDS AND ENDS

By Bee Eye the Elder

Sherman was right when he said "War is Hell". But when Sherman said that, war was a picnic spree as compared with what war is today. Sherman got his first-hand knowledge of war in 1861-65.

With the giant guns of the present day, armored tanks, bomb-dropping air-planes, poison gas, titanic warships, and swarms of deadly submarines, war can work more havoc in a day now than it could in a month fifty years ago.

But war was terrible enough even in Civil War days, as the survivors of Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, and numerous other battles could testify. It was far more destructive then than at any previous time in the world's history.

We read of the wars of ancient times and get the idea that they were horribly bloody and destructive. But when it occurs to us that the ancients had none of the modern weapons of warfare, none of the modern implements of destruction, we wonder how it was possible for them to inflict any very great havoc. Gunpowder had not then been invented. There was no such thing as an explosive shell, no such thing as a cannon or machine gun, no such thing even as a flint-lock rifle, no such thing as a gun of any kind.

We read of great naval battles, but there was no such thing as a steam-driven or iron-clad vessel. The warship was only a wooden boat with hundreds of them would not have the tonnage capacity of one modern battleship or one modern merchant vessel. The power and use of steam were not then known. The steam engine was not invented until 1769 and it became of little practical use until Robert Fulton built a steamboat, the Clermont, and set it to plying the waters of the Hudson from New York to Albany in 1807. The first practical railway locomotive did not make its advent until the 1820's, the first real steam railroad being constructed in South Carolina in 1830. The ancients had no railroads for the transportation of their armies or implements of war, no steamships, no telegraph lines, no established mail systems. Their battleships, if such they may be called, were propelled only with oars in the hands of human beings. How could war in those days have been so terrible? With what weapons did men fight?

The earliest men probably pommelled one another with their fists, sticks and stones. The sword was one of the earliest implements of war devised by man, and it was no mean weapon. Imagine a man coming at you today with a sharp two-edged, sharp-pointed knife, two or three feet long. Imagine an army of men making an assault upon another army with such weapons. That gives you an idea of what an ancient battle was like, and it might have been bloody enough.

But the use of the sword as an implement of war involved only hand-to-hand combat. Possibly the next development was the fashioning of javelins and spears, with which an enemy could be killed at some little distance.

Slings for the hurling of stones at an enemy were also used with great effectiveness. Many became expert in the use of the sling. Old Goliath, you remember, was a giant and an old experienced warrior, and when he came forth to defy the armies of Israel he came armed with a spear and a sword. But little David, who came out to meet him, had only a sling and five smooth stones as his weapons. You know the rest. The sling put Goliath out of commission before he could get close enough to David to harm him with a spear.

Five centuries before Christ Persia had become a great empire. She had extended her sway over all western Asia. Under Darius, the king, she had attempted to conquer Greece but had been defeated on the plains of Marathon. This defeat was a great surprise to her for she had ten times as many men engaged in the conflict as did the Greeks. But the Greeks were protected with heavy armour that the javelins and scimiters of the Persians could not penetrate and they fought with long, heavy spears that easily penetrated the light armor and the linen of the Persians. More than six thousand Persians were left dead on the field while only 192 Greeks were killed.

But Persia sought revenge. She began preparing for a new attack. Old Darius died, but his son Xerxes undertook to carry on. He marshalled a mighty army, estimated at a million men. At least they must have looked like that many to the Greeks. He assembled a mighty fleet of 1,200 war vessels and 3,000 smaller vessels. With this mighty army and fleet he set out for Greece. Two-thirds of the peninsula surrendered with scarcely a struggle, except for the stand made by 300 Spartans at Thermopylae who were all killed except one or two who escaped. But the Athenians had themselves built a formidable fleet of 200 vessels and other states of Greece had furnished nearly 200 others. A mighty naval battle took place off the coast of Salamis. Although greatly outnumbered by the Persians both in men and in ships, the Greeks won another great victory. Their victory was again due in large measure to the superiority of their fighting equipment. Of course the fact that they were fighting for home and country on the waters of the homeland greatly strengthened their fighting spirit and their valor, still they could not have won but for the fact that they had more effective weapons of war.

The Greeks doubtless had better equipment both for attack and defense than had the Persians, but the thing that wrought most havoc and struck consternation and despair into the breasts of the invaders was a strange machine used by the Greeks but which seems to have theretofore been unknown to the Persians. This was a contraption known as a catapult. It worked on the principle of the "nigger-shooter" familiar to every boy. More accurately, it worked like the "flip" that boys used to whittle out when the writer was a kid. It had a powerful spring, which, when released, could send heavy missiles of iron and stone for a long distance through the air. With these catapults, the Greeks sent not only heavy stones and slugs of iron into the Persian ships, thus disabling and sinking many of them as well as killing outright many of the soldiers, but they also sent firebrands aboard the Persian vessels, setting many of them on fire.

Thus did brains and ingenuity and skill triumph over vastly superior numbers in War, as they have triumphed in every other field of endeavor.

Cannon did not come into use until early in the fourteenth century, and muskets and other fire arms did not make their appearance until the sixteenth century. They have wrought plenty of havoc since. But, in the hands of the common man, they have also helped him to win many a victory over tyranny.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jaquess are the parents of a 7½ pound girl, born Sunday morning, and named Onie Belle.

The high school pep squad is sponsoring Dr. Strout's speech, and tickets will be sold at popular prices.

It is hoped that a large number of Tahoka people will take advantage of the opportunity afforded them by the pep squad to hear this most interesting and informative speaker.

Rotarians Hear Hon. Geo. Dupre

Hon. Geo. Dupre of Lubbock was the principal speaker at the Rotary luncheon Thursday. He spoke in the interest of peace in so far as the United States is concerned. He expressed himself as opposed to the idea that the United States should undertake to settle the political disputes of Europe. He did not believe that Uncle Sam should undertake to protect the interests of private American corporations in foreign lands. He thought that in the event of our becoming involved in another war, every dollar of American capital should be so controlled as to prevent profiteering.

Deen Nowlin made a brief statement regarding the city paving program, requesting that all property owners who intend to sign paving liens shall do so at once.

MRS. TANKERSLEY RETURNS FROM VACATION TRIP

Mrs. C. T. Tankersley returned last Saturday from a two weeks visit with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denman and their little son, in El Paso.

While there they took a pleasure trip out to Phoenix, Arizona, where they visited the Ed McGee family, who formerly lived at West Point in this county.

Mrs. Tankersley says that they intended to visit Flagstaff, and Boulder Dam, but were deterred by reports of snow in the mountains. She says the climate at Phoenix, however, was ideal, with oranges and grape fruit crops just now ripening. Great shade trees, especially the palms, greatly adorn the whole countryside. Mrs. Tankersley talked about half-way like she had the Phoenix fever.

TAHOKA H. D. MEETS

Discolorations in the wood may be removed by bleaching with vinegar or lemon juice or a solution of oxalic acid, said Miss Maurine McNatt home agent, at the Tahoka home demonstration meeting Wednesday October 11, with Mrs. W. Fenton senior as hostess.

The oxalic acid can be made by using one tablespoon of crystals to one pint of water, allow this solution to remain on the stained portion for ten or twenty minutes. If vinegar or lemon juice is used, remove in four or five minutes. It may be necessary to repeat this process. Afterward the wood should be washed with weak ammonia water.

Mrs. Doosa Heie, Parent Education and Child Training Extension Specialist, talked on family relations.

Mrs. J. K. Woosley was elected secretary to fill the vacancy of the unexpired term of Mrs. Harold Edwards.

The club voted to sponsor the Cub Scouts. Mrs. Jim Dye was a volunteer Den Mother.

Ball jar contest was held and 15 women entered fruits and non-acid vegetables. Winners were: Mrs. R. W. Fenton Senior, Mrs. Jack Fenton, and Mrs. W. S. Anglin.

Next meeting will be October 25th and the lesson will be "A gracious hostess and a welcome guest".

MIDWAY H. D. CLUB

Miss Maurine McNatt, Lynn county home demonstration agent, told the Midway H. D. club ladies Oct. 12 at 2:30 p. m. when they met with Mrs. Howard Draper, to study refreshing furniture. "Do not destroy your paint brush, use improves it."

Select a good brush, and never allow paint or varnish to dry on it. It is best to remove them from the brush with turpentine, if this is not available kerosene or gasoline may be used, then wrap the brush in oil paper and it will be a better brush than when new.

We had nine entries in the Ball jar contest, each entry consisted of two standard quart jars, one containing an acid and one a non-acid food. Mrs. Rufus Slover won first place, Mrs. J. M. Draper second, Mrs. T. M. Lockaby and Mrs. H. V. Emerson tied for third place.

The meeting of this club will be with Mrs. T. M. Lockaby Oct. 26 at 2:30 p. m.

"Poultry should be served at least once a week", said Miss Maurine McNatt at the meeting of the New Home 4-H club Tuesday October 17, 1939 at the school building.

Poultry is a complete protein food, and it is used in the body to build or rebuild broken tissues. It is easily digested therefore it is good food to serve the sick. Miss Freddie Smith gave a demonstration on a meat salad.

Our next meeting will be on November 7, 1939 with the sponsor in charge.

Headache, Bad Breath Tell of More to Come

Just as Paul Revere's famous ride warned of the Redcoats' coming, so Nature's messengers—headaches, biliousness, bad breath—often warn of faulty elimination.

Neglecting these signs may cause a host of constipation's discomforts: sour stomach, belching; no appetite or energy; mental dullness. It's so easy to wake up your lazy insides. Just take spicy, all vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT. Its unusual help comes from its principal ingredient—an intestinal tonic-laxative which imparts tone to lazy bowel muscles.

Millions of packages used testify to BLACK-DRAUGHT'S merit. Try it.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

"The Mind to Work" will be the topic of the eleven o'clock worship. Sunday School should have another increase, and we desire a good church attendance on this Sunday to welcome our new members.

Progress is being made on the basement, which is being worked over. Come and see it.

Our adult classes were well attended last Sunday with a record attendance for the new class also. We invite you to the play being sponsored by Mrs. Harley Henderson Sunday evening at 7:15. Both young people and adults will stage the play, with which we close Childhood and Youth Week—Geo. E. Turrentine.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Services at the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening were very good—well attended, with one conversion and one addition to the church for baptism.

Two hundred and forty was the number in Sunday school. The B. T. U. under the new setup, is showing a new interest in the program and in numbers.

Next week, beginning Monday night at 7:00 o'clock, the B. T. U. will have a study course, with four classes, one for each of the adults, seniors, intermediates, and juniors. With books and teachers selected, we are ready to go. Do not miss this opportunity to meet with that group of enthusiastic workers and have a good time doing good.

We will expect every one in their place Sunday morning—Geo. A. Dale, pastor.

Mrs. Tom Mott is visiting, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. McCord of Grassland. Mrs. Mott is the former Pauline McCord who married recently. She and Mr. Mott have been residing near Fort Worth, but he has gone to take a position in Amarillo, and she will join him there following her visit with her parents.

San Antonio Will Be Host To Baptists

The Alamo City is rapidly formulating plans for the entertainment of 10,000 visiting Baptists who will attend the annual session of The Baptist General Convention November 12-17. Dr. J. Howard Williams of Amarillo, president, will wield the gavel during the eight sessions.

This meeting will climax one of the best years in the denomination's history. There has been much increase in members which now total 700,000 in 3,174 churches. Dr. R. C. Campbell, executive secretary, expects to report to the attending delegates the successful raising of one million dollars for all causes sponsored by the denomination.

These include home and foreign missions, Christian education, hospitals and orphanages. Reports will be heard from eight colleges and universities, five hospitals, an orphan's home, and a theological seminary, all owned by the convention and located in this state, and from various boards of Southern Baptists mission work around the world.

Preliminary meetings will be held by the pastors and laymen headed by Roy S. Hollomon of El Paso and Women's Missionary Union of which Mrs. B. A. Copess of Fort Worth is president.

Phillips 66 Supplies School Book Covers

Phillips Petroleum Company is again this year furnishing school book covers for many of the schools throughout its marketing territory. 29,800 covers are being furnished in the Tahoka territory.

State law requires that all text books be covered adequately and the covering of the books ordinarily presents quite a problem, both to the schools and to the individual pupils, according to the Superintendent. With the Phillips Petroleum Company furnishing the school book covers needed in this locality, free of charge, that problem is solved.

The need for these school book covers has caused Phillips Petroleum Company to furnish covers similar to those to schools throughout West Texas and the Panhandle. "Make A Mattress" Movement Is Started College Station, Oct. 17.—Texas people are going to become mattress conscious within the next few years.

This was assured when representatives of 31 organizations and agencies of Texas agriculture, industry, and education pledged support to a "Make a Mattress" or "Buy a Mattress" campaign during a conference on the campus of Texas A. and M. College this week.

The conference was called by H. H. Williamson, director of the Texas Extension Service. Representatives concurred that a million new mattresses or more probably can be placed in Texas homes within the space of the year, so time will not be a limiting factor in the campaign.

Details for the movement soon will be worked out by a steering committee to be selected by Director Williamson, together with three leaders in the agricultural press: Frank Briggs of Farm and Ranch, Eugene Butler of Progressive Farmer, and Victor H. Schoffelmayer of the Dallas Morning News.

With so many groups already in existence in Texas, Williamson pointed out there is no need for another "over all" organization. Instead, agencies represented at the conference agreed to act as co-sponsors of the movement. A successful campaign, it was believed by the conferees, would result in the consumption of 100,000 bales of cotton.

Among the organizations represented at the conference were the Texas unit of the National Cotton Council of America, Texas Agricultural Workers' Association, State-Wide Texas Cotton Improvement Association, Texas Cotton Ginners' Association, Texas Cotton Growers' Association, Farmers' League, Texas Mattress Manufacturers' Association, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and numerous others State and Federal.
