Farm Meetings To Be Held In County

The first of the series of farm meetings to be held over the county to discuss the 1940 Farm program and the Marketing Quota referendum were held this week. On Tuesday night, meetings were held at Wells and New Lynn. Good attendance was reported at each meeting. A meeting was held at Hackberry last night.

Other meetings are scheduled as follows: Wilson and Dixie, November 27, Grassland and Draw, November 28, Lakeview and New Home, December 4, O'Donnell and Morgan, December 5, and Tahoka, December 7.

Business men are urged to attend the meetings at O'Donnell, Tahoka, and Wilson, as they will be vital interest to the whole community. Of course all farmers are urged to be present.

Farmers over the entire cotton belt will vote on December 9 as to whether Marketing Quotas will apply in 1940. Any farmers who produced cotton in 1939 either as tenant, share-cropper, or landlord is eligible to vote in the election. A farmer may vote at any voting box in the county in which he resides. The boxes designated by the county committee for Lynn county will be at Tahoka, Wilson, O'Donnell, Draw, New Home, New Moore, Lakeview, Morgan, and Grassland.

Geo. E. Turrentine Returned Here

At the close of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference in Lubbock Sunday afternoon, announcement of the appointments for the ensuing year were made.

As was anticipated, Rev. Geo. E. Turrentine was returned to Tahoka. He has had a successful year here and his church and the people of the town are glad to see him back.

Rev. J. H. Crawford was likewise returned to his charge at O'Donnell, where he also has had a successful year.

Rev. A. D. Moore, pastor at Wilson and Dixie the past year, was sent to the Lamesa circuit, and Rev. G. W. McLain is the new Wilson-Dixie pastor.

Rev. S. H. Crockett was sent from the Draw-Grassland charge to the Bula circuit in Bailey county. Rev. J. E. Young is the new Draw-Grassland pastor.

Rev. Tony Q. Dyess went from the Southland charge to be assistant to Pastor C. A. Long at St. Paul's, Abilene. Rev. Dyess is well known here, his wife being the former Miss Grace Thompson.

Rev. R. I. Hart, who formerly lived here and whose wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. Sanders, was returned to the Vera-Benjamin charge.

Of the former pastors here, Rev. C. C. Armstrong was returned to Anson, Rev. H. C. Smith to San Jacinto Heights in Amarillo, and Rev. R. T. Broedlove to Levelland.

Rev. M. R. Pike, former pastor at O'Donnell, was transferred to Dalt Central.

Rev. J. T. Howell, pastor here quite a number of years ago and more recently the pastor at Wilson, was returned to the Anton-Spade charge.

Rev. J. Hamilton Wright, one-time pastor at Draw-Grassland and later at Southland, was returned to his charge at Baird.

Rev. Clarence bounds was transferred from Post to Hooker, Oklahoma, and Rev. J. Witt Hendrix from Brownfield to Hamlin.

Upon the merger of the three branches of the Methodist Church, the title Presiding Elder was abolished and the title District Superintendent was substituted therefor. Rev. O. P. Clark is the district superintendent for the Lubbock district, as he has been the presiding elder.

John Heck Will Be Candidate For Judge

John Heck, prosperous farmer and business man of Wilson, dropped into the News office last Saturday and asked that we state that he will be a candidate for county judge of Lynn county next year.

He will make formal announcement about the first of January.

Thanksgiving

Even the troubles that we run from may be blessings in disguise upon which later we may feast.

Yesterday was observed by a large portion of the people of the United States as a day of national thanksgiving.

Next Thursday will be so observed by still another large portion of our citizenship, including most of the people of Tahoka and of Texas.

Yet, we wonder if very many people really made yesterday a day of thanksgiving. Most of us observe it merely as another holiday. We make a day of mere cessation from our daily vocations and of pleasure-seeking. Comparatively few people, probably, even pause to sincerely return thanks for the blessings received.

Let us all remember to do that very thing on next Thursday. Let us attend the Union Thanksgiving service here on Wednesday night and publicly return thanks to Almighty God for his goodness and mercy and for the bountiful blessings that have come from his hands.

And then let all of us privately make every day a day of thanksgiving. His blessings come to us every day. We should be just as punctual in expressing to Him our appreciation of them.

If that were done, we verily believe that our national problems all would soon be solved.

R. E. A. Farm Equipment Show To Be Held Near Lubbock Next Week

The biggest traveling electrical demonstration in the country, the REA Farm Equipment Tour, comes to this territory, Lubbock, and opens its two-day show Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. November 30th. The huge tent, covering more than one-sixth of an acre, will be pitched on the fields of the Old Canyon School Site, on the Canyon-Acuti Highway, 6 miles East of Lubbock.

The big equipment caravan is brought to Lubbock by the Lyntegar Electric Cooperative, and neighboring cooperatives in Floyd, Lubbock, and Lamb Counties, in cooperation with the Extension Service, electrical farm equipment manufacturers, and the Rural Electrification Administration, to give rural electric users a chance to see a wide variety of equipment and household appliances in actual operation under farm conditions.

The program Thursday evening includes a cooking contest, a lighting demonstration featuring the new low-cost package lighting fixtures, a wiring demonstration, and general discussion of irrigation systems, motors, and various farm equipment.

On the next day, starting out at 10:30 and carrying through all day and evening with intermissions for lunch and supper, the tour will provide continuous demonstrations on (Continued on back page)

Band Gives Program At Rotary Luncheon

With J. H. Felts directing, twelve members of the Tahoka High School Band gave the program at the Rotary luncheon Thursday. Besides several numbers given by the entire group, instrumental solos were given by Carl Griffing Jr., Jack Felts, H. B. McCord Jr., and Billy Jack Edwards, with Mrs. M. H. Edwards as piano accompanist.

Visitors present were County Superintendent Lepore M. Tunnell, Deputy State Superintendent E. Estan Day of Plainview and Bill Sewell, banker, of Levelland.

On account of the fact that next Thursday falls on Thanksgiving day as observed here and throughout this section, it was decided to dispense with the luncheon next week.

R. P. Weathers In Race For Assessor-Collector

R. P. (Ray) Weathers authorizes us to place his name in our announcement column this week as a candidate for tax assessor and collector for Lynn county.

This is the first time Ray has ever offered as a candidate for public office of any kind, but as assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Tahoka for the past nineteen years he has been serving and dealing with the public continually.

In this capacity, he has probably met more Lynn county people in a business capacity than any other man in the county with the exception of the cashier of the same institution.

In his dealings with the public he has uniformly been courteous and affable and has made a multitude of friends both for himself and for the Bank. Necessarily, he has also gained an insight into county affairs and a familiarity with the general problems and duties involved in the business of the tax assessor and collector that will be invaluable to him if he should be elected to this office.

Aside from his unusual business qualifications, Ray Weathers has personal qualities that win him friends in every walk and circumstance of life. Possessed of an affable and genial disposition, and a fine sense of humor, he makes friends readily. He is well-known to a vast majority of the men and women of Lynn county, having been a resident of the county since 1907.

He says that he will resign his position at the Bank about January 1, and will then launch out actively upon his campaign, expecting to see every man and woman in the county, whether a voter or not, before the first primary next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Kidwell and Mrs. Kidwell's sister, Miss Dorothy, are planning to leave Saturday night to visit relatives first in Elk City, Oklahoma, and will go from there to Rochester, Texas, to spend Thanksgiving Day with Mr. Kidwell's parents. They expect to return home that night.

Jack Link Captures Dope Smugglers

A clipping from the San Antonio Light was brought to our attention this week. It carried the story of how Jack Link, in company with two other customs officers, apprehended and captured three smugglers of marijuana from Mexico into Texas.

An accompanying photograph showed how the smugglers had concealed the marijuana-filled cigarettes in the headlights of the car they were driving. 100 such cigarettes were found in the possession of the captured men, also 100 pints of contraband liquor.

The marijuana traffic is said to be on a steady increase in the United States, and as the drug is a very degrading and dangerous one, the increase is very alarming. Mr. Link an ex-Tahokite, is to be commended for his part in the fight for the banishment of the border traffic. He has figured in several such captures recently it is said.

O'Donnell Mexican Stabs His Brother

Manuel Penea is in jail here charged with the stabbing of his brother, Ben Penea, at a cotton pickers shack on the P. E. Askew farm near Wells Tuesday night.

The weapon used was a small pocket knife. Two wounds in the chest were inflicted, one near even nipple. Just how serious the wounds were is yet to be determined.

No information as to the cause of the attack was available. He has two brothers and a third brother, all unmarried, lived together in this same shack.

Manuel is being held in jail pending developments and the outcome of the injuries.

Judge and Mrs. P. W. Good left Thursday for Mineral Wells where they expect to spend a couple of weeks. The Judge has not been enjoying good health recently and hopes to be benefited by his stay there.

Mrs. T. W. Copelin of south of Midway, who has been seriously ill is reported to be improving.

Young Man Fatally Injured In Car Wreck

Soil Conservation Checks Received

On Wednesday morning the first shipment of conservation checks was received at the AAA office here, according to C. A. Lawrence, local secretary. The total of the first group of checks was $18,666.68.

The conservation checks will be coming in steadily now, he stated, and cards will be sent out each time a shipment arrives to notify those whose checks are here.

Mrs. Sam Weathers Buried Sunday

Mrs. Sam Weathers, 44, died at 11:00 o'clock Saturday morning at the home of her parents in Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Pinkston.

Mrs. Weathers had been ill for some time, suffering from two serious troubles, and had undergone an operation two weeks before her death in a Lubbock hospital. She was thought to be recovering, it is said, although little hope had been expressed before the operation, and had been removed to her parents' home, when she became worse and died.

Funeral services were held in a Lubbock funeral home, and interment was made in Memorial Park cemetery at Lubbock. Reverend G. C. Brewer, pastor of the First Church of Christ there, officiated.

Mrs. Weathers first came to Tahoka 23 years ago, and had lived here at intervals since.

Besides her parents and husband, she is survived by three sons, Edward Pinkerton Weathers of El Paso, Jack Reagan Weathers of Lubbock, and Jake W. Weathers of Tahoka; three daughters, Dora Edith, Ouida Yvonne Weathers, and Mrs. Landon Smith, all of Tahoka.

Mrs. Weathers had hosts of friends who mourn at her passing and offer their sincere sympathy to the children.

Parker Announces For Re-Election

Every body knows E. L. Parker, sheriff of Lynn county.

Well, he wants the people to know that he is willing to serve them another term, following this one. In fact, he wants to serve another term, and he will probably interview you about it between now and the next election.

Mr. Parker has been sheriff a number of terms, and the people have just kept on electing him because he kept hot on the trail of the criminals. He has probably run down and landed in jail more crooks and thieves than any other peace officer in a county of like population in west Texas.

He admits that there may be others who would do it just as well but he wants to keep on doing the job. He has no promises to make other than that he will try to make just as good a sheriff in the future as he has made in the past, and he will appreciate your support right up to the close of the polls on election day.

Arvel Akin Injured In Car Wreck Saturday

Arvel Akin sustained a broken collar bone Saturday night, when the car in which he was riding overturned on the Seagraves road four miles from O'Donnell. Alton Akin, driver, and Odell Jones, also in the car, were only slightly injured, suffering bruises and abrasions.

The boys were returning from Seagraves to Tahoka by way of O'Donnell in a 1934 V-8 belonging to Alton Akin, when they unexpectedly came upon a turn in the road, and before they were able to make the turn or stop the car, they careened off the road, turning over four times. The car was badly pancaked, and it was miraculous that the occupants escaped without serious injury.

Ed Davenport of Brownwood, 21, was fatally injured at about eight o'clock Wednesday night when the Ford coupe which he was driving struck a concrete post at the end of a bridge on highway No. 380 thirteen miles west of Tahoka, overturned, struck a telephone post, and was badly wrecked.

Young Davenport was evidently traveling alone when the fatal accident occurred. Shortly after the accident, C. T. and Joe Tankersley, who live in the West Point community came along and found the wrecked car and the injured man lying unconscious by the roadside fifteen feet from the car.

They placed the man in their car and hurried to town with him. After first aid was given by Dr. Frohl, he was taken to a Lubbock hospital in a Harris ambulance. He died in the hospital at about eleven o'clock. His skull had been badly crushed, his right shoulder broken, an injury to the left side sustained and other bruises received.

The body was brought back to Tahoka by W. O. Robertson of the Harris Funeral Home, where it was prepared for burial and held awaiting the arrival of relatives.

Papers found in the injured man's pockets and in the car indicated that his name was Ed Davenport, that he had recently been released from the army service, at Fort Clark at Brackettville, that he was then a salesman for The L. B. Price Mercantile Company of Dallas and that he had a half brother bearing the name of J. N. Anderson at Brownwood.

Mr. Anderson was located at Mason and notified of the accident. He arrived about noon Thursday, as did also Wm. Meyer, auditor for the Price Mercantile Co., but funeral arrangements were still being held up as our forms closed awaiting the arrival of two other brothers, one of whom is said to live in Amarillo.

Immediately upon the arrival of Messrs. C. T. and Joe Tankersley in Tahoka with the injured man Wednesday night, Deputy Sheriff Ed Sanders, Night Watchman Milt Finch, and Mayor Deen Nowlin hastened to the scene. Markings on the ground and the bridge post showed conclusively that the car had been traveling west, that the right fender swiped the concrete post and that the rear wheel either struck it or went astride it. The rear axle was badly bent, the fender and the top indented, and much other damage to the car was done, though the motor was still running when Messrs. Tankersleys found it.

The car had been purchased by young Davenport at Brackettville on July 21 of this year.

Upon being released from the army about the first of this month, he procured a job as a traveling salesman from the Price Company.

Just what caused him to strike the post at the end of the bridge will never be known. Possibly he failed to see it for some reason, and possibly he had temporarily fallen asleep.

Business Firms Change Location

W. H. Thornhill, proprietor of Thornhill's Variety Store, is opening up a stock of Christmas holiday goods this week in the building occupied so long by the G. E. Hogan dry goods and clothing store. He expects to be open for business Friday or Saturday of this week.

On or just prior to January 1, he will move his entire stock of variety goods into the new place of business. This building is much larger than the building he now occupies.

The removal of this store is made necessary by the fact that Cobb's Department Store is preparing to expand and needs more room. The wall separating this store and the variety store will be removed and the Cobb store will occupy both buildings as soon after January 1st as the remodeling can be completed.

The Cobb Department Store has been a consistent advertiser and its business has expanded steadily since opening here under the present management.

Reply To Tyne W. Smith No. 2

By J. L. Nisbett

Eliminating the personal matter from Mr. Smith's lengthy article, we find a few passages of Scripture which deserve our attention. He quotes from John the seventeenth chapter where Jesus speaks of, and prays for "the men that Thou gavest me out of the world," and says that these references are to "God's elect," and implies that it refers to all of the saved. But "those whom thou hast given me" refers to the apostles of Christ, if we let the text explain itself, for verse 12 says, "those that thou hast given me I have kept, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition"—the son of perdition was Judas Iscariot, one of the apostles. That these passages refer to the apostles only and not to all believers in Christ is seen in verse 20, "Neither pray I for these alone" (these that thou hast given me), "but for them also which shall believe on me through their word" (i.e. for those who would believe the gospel preached by the chosen apostles.) Who is this class he prays for in verse 20, if "those that Thou hast given me" for whom the first prayer was offered include all of the saved?

Mr. Smith says, "those he saved didn't accept or choose him, but he chose them", and quotes John 16:16 where Christ is talking with His twelve apostles while they were observing the passover feast in the upper room. No one else was present, and to them He said, "Ye did not choose me, but I have chosen you". Mr. Smith mentions Rom. 8:13, "Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord." Notice this says "chosen IN the Lord" and not "BY the Lord". As to the "how" we will notice shortly.

He also quotes Eph. 1:3-9 as a proof text—"According as He hath chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world." Let us note that from the third verse through verse twelve Paul uses the pronoun "we" and "us", but in verse thirteen he changes the person of the pronoun and begins to use "ye". Verse twelve says: "That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ". This is the same "we"—the same class he speaks of as having been chosen, predestinated etc. before the foundation of the world. That this refers to a particular class—the apostles—is proved by the sudden change of person in verse thirteen, notice: "In whom YE also trusted after that YE heard the word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that YE believed, YE were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise". Now if "WE who FIRST trusted in Christ"—the same "we" that had been chosen in Him before the foundation of the world—included all the elect, who were the "YE who Also trusted in Him" after they heard the gospel of their salvation?

He quotes 2 Thess. 2:13-14 which says, "But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth; whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ." Now here is a passage that does not refer to the choosing of the apostles. But HOW has God chosen us? Let the same passage answer, "through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth." The next verse says: "Whereunto he called you BY OUR GOSPEL". Let the Bible explain itself. When we are called by the gospel and the belief of the truth, we are God's elect.

Going back over the article we shall answer two requests for Scripture. "Now you say that the sinner has to accept Christ to be saved. I defy you to show our readers the scripture that said that." Here is one: "But as many as received him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believed on his name." (John. 1:12. Another: "—if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins" (John 8:24). Another: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if ANY MAN hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him and he with me." Rev. 3:20.

Mr. Smith said, "Show our readers the place where it said we are redeemed by obedience." I will gladly do that. Remember that "to be redeemed", "to be sanctified", "to be made free from sin" means the same thing. Paul to the Romans said: "But God be thanked, that (whereas) ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being THEN—" (When? "When ye obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you")—"—being then made free from sin", (i.e. redeemed), "ye became the servants of righteousness." (Rom. 6:17-18) Notice Mr. Smith says, "So redemption and forgiveness of sins are not by obeying the gospel", but the Apostle Peter said to a group of sinners, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ FOR THE REMISSION OF SINS." (Acts 2:38) Paul in 2 Thess. 1:7-9, "—when the Lord Jesus shall be

Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding Last Week

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight, who, on last Friday, observed their Golden Wedding Anniversary. They were married at Omaha in Morris county, Texas, on November 17, 1889. They have been residents of Tahoka since January, 1916, almost 24 years. Three of their four children and their families came Friday to enjoy the occasion with them, and many friends called during the day to extend congratulations.

revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, in flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and THAT OBEY NOT THE GOSPEL OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST; who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his power." And in Heb. 5:8-9, "Though he were a son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; and being made perfect he became the author of eternal salvation TO ALL THEM THAT OBEY HIM."

Mr. Smith says in reference to 1 Pet. 22, "So after redemption, being sons of God, then as obedient children, they can purify their souls in obedience." Let me ask: After a man is redeemed and a son of God, does he still have an impure soul? Must he then do something to purify his soul? Suppose that a man is saved by a DIRECT act or "calling" of God, how long does he have to obey the gospel before he is lost again? All who obey not the gospel will be lost. (2 Thess. 1:7-9) Yet you teach that he cannot be lost, for what purpose then, must he obey the gospel? What will happen if he fails to purify his soul by obedience to the truth? Mr. Smith said: "Anything that is preserved in Christ does not spoil or fall from grace." Christ said "Every branch IN ME that beareth not fruit he taketh away." (John. 15:2) to be burned. Again, "The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather OUT OF HIS KINGDOM all things that offend and them that do iniquity, and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth." (Matt. 13:41-42) No man can enter the kingdom of God but those who have been born again, Jno. 3:5. "Except a man be born of the water and of the spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God." Then when the Saviour comes again he shall gather "out of his kingdom," that is, some of those who have been born again, and shall cast them into hell. Again Paul says, "Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you THE GOSPEL which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, wherein also ye stand, by which also ye ARE SAVED, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain." (1 Cor. 15:1-2)

Mr. Smith says that Acts 1:35 has reference only to nations of people, but read it again, "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons, but in every nation He that feareth him and worketh righteousness is accepted with him."—"In every nation HE—" that is, each individual.

"Build-Up": Way to Ease Women's Pain

Many weak, run-down women are in a vicious circle. Their under-nourishment often leads to what is called functional dysmenorrhea and its symptoms—headaches, nervousness, irritability, intermittent cramp-like pains—from which many women suffer. ## Aged Thinker Comments On News Editorial

Our little editorial recently commenting on that college youth's idea of morals elicited the following comment from that aged philosopher and thinker, L. B. Russell of Comanche, now in his 90th year and conscious of the fact that certain death lies just a short distance out in the future. A lawyer, editor, lifelong student of Nature, and the Universe, Mr. Russell has had an unusual career and is one of the most interesting characters in Texas. He is loved and admired by the great as well as the humble and we gladly give space to his letter, omitting that part that is purely personal and his highly-appreciated praise of this paper.

"Your editorial in the issue of the 10th inst., 'Nothing Either Good or Bad', is good, even if the universe is bad, as your sophomore sage seems to think. To say that there is no such thing or qualities of goodness or badness is to say that the entire Cosmic field is neither good nor bad. Ignorance is just as good as knowledge, and knowledge is just as bad as ignorance.

"Well, in the case of this young wisacre, probably we can agree that his knowledge is worse than his ignorance, and that his ignorance is better than his knowledge. Pope says, 'A little learning is a dangerous thing; Drink deep, or touch not the Pierian Spring.'

"Right—Wrong; what do they mean?"

"Right means straight; Wrong means wrong, twisted, out of line, crooked. Both have their etymological meaning in metaphysics. Right means in line—a straight line—with Cosmic law. Wrong means out of line, wrong, distorted, twisted, out of line with Cosmic law.

"To say that men differ as to what conduct is in line with Cosmic law, and therefore that no standard of moral conduct is possible, is eventually to deny all existence, because we can not prove it.

"But the world is governed by law. It is not man-made law, but Cosmic law is one of the eternal verities that never change. Gravitation is a part of the law. So are Newton's three laws of motion.

"But Cosmic law extends, unbroken and seamless, into the realm of psychology, and everywhere. We are developing our knowledge of it daily. God (or Nature) did not inspire us with a knowledge of Cosmic law. But we soon learn some of them by experience. A child tumbles off a bed or chair. A few accidents teach him the existence of gravitation and how to avoid injury from its continuing pull. He also learns that fire will burn human flesh as well as wood and coal, and how to avoid injury through that line.

"So, our lives are a series of trials and errors—falling down and getting up again.

"What does he think of the Cosmos? Does he imagine all this order in Nature, by which an eclipse can be calculated thousands of years before or after its date, is a mere accident? If not a mere accident, it must be the result of some kind of a plan, and necessarily argues a planning intelligence behind it.

"But if the intelligence is admitted, can you imagine an intelligence without a purpose?"

"You see a phenomenon, e. g. a flash of lightning. You may take an inner view of yourself, the ego that means me.

"What for?"

"That is the sagest of all questions and has been asked from man's beginning here on earth down to the present but has never been answered. What are we here for? We can't help asking it in all ages, and we continue to ask it.

"My theory is that whatever tends to the advancement of human life as a whole is right—straight, in line with cosmic law—and whatever tends to limit human life and human life as a whole is wrong. My entire ethical being is based on this rule, and I can construct a pretty good system of ethics upon it as a basis. But it keeps the world of thinkers busy in seeking to know the Cosmic law. Doctors, lawyers, preachers, statisticians, and philosophers are all engaged in the search of Cosmic law, to apply it when discovered, to the promotion of the more abundant life.

"And, despite our sophomore philosopher, it is RIGHT!"

"Hence, the converse is WRONG!"

"Thanks—L. B. Russell."

A ROUNDUP OF ANTELOPE

Few places in the world has there been such a unique roundup as has been going on at the Brennan ranch six miles northwest of Sterling City this week.

The animals rounded up were not cattle, horses, sheep or goats but wild antelope, which have increased on the range so that they must be moved to other ranges in order that they may be preserved.

Dr. Lee W. Fisher, regional game manager, Phil Goodrum, director of game restoration, Ray Osborne, director of research and education for Texas Game Commission and E. P. Haddon official photographers for movies, are here directing and officiating at the roundup.

Local cowboys are driving the antelope into large rope-net traps where they are roped, put into trucks and hauled to other ranges. Up to Tuesday 38 animals had been taken and hauled away.

Last year 35 of these animals were captured and placed on different ranges where they have thrived and increased in a most satisfactory degree—Sterling City News-Record.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Goodnough and their daughter, Mrs. Shelton (Aetha) Holmes, and baby Sheila were here Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Cook, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cook and baby Marlon were also here from Fort Worth over the week end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rusk. Mrs. Rusk is Mrs. A. G. Cook's mother.

The News has had a communication from Rev. J. R. Ferguson, who recently removed from Grassland to Quanah, where he is pastor of a Nazarene church. Brother Ferguson says that he likes his new location fine but misses the Lynn County News. It will go to his address for the next few months.

Women: "Build-Up" To Relieve Pain

A weak, run-down, under-couraged condition calls for attention!

Such a condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get its foothold. That's one thing which leads to much of women's suffering from headaches, nervousness, those cramp-like pains. A good way to relieve such pains, women by thousands have found, is by the proper use of CARDUL. It stimulates a lagging appetite, assists digestion and assimilation; thus helps build physical resistance to periodic pain. Taken just before and during "the time," many women also report that CARDUL helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

ELDER DRENNON'S NOTES

I am down to a ragged edge today with a toothache, but I am happy I still have my right mind and am able to discern facts when I read them. But I still say that I think Mr. Tyne W. Smith distorted them last week as bad as they could be.

He quoted Titus 1:15-16 and II Timothy 3:5 to prove that I deny John 3:16. Mr. Smith, you surely don't mean that "I am a reprobate and have only a form of godliness" when I tell inquiring sinners what to do to be saved, just what Peter did on the day of Pentecost, Acts 2:37-38.

If it makes me a reprobate it does the same to Peter; and as Jesus selected him to open the doors of the kingdom, Matt. 1:18-19, I am in pretty good company.

You say that Old Baptists baptize children of God. If that is true then Jesus was wrong when he said, "Except a man be born of water and of the spirit he can not enter into the kingdom of God." Reader, you can choose between what Jesus says constitutes the new birth and what Mr. Smith says. I will take what

Jesus says.

He also says that Old Baptists have a good conscience before they are baptized. But Peter says, I Peter 3:21, it is in order to have a good conscience. Peter also says "Baptism now also now save us". In what sense is this statement true Mr. Smith? As to Joshua 24:19, please turn and read verses 20 to 24 and see how absurd he has made verse 19.

Listen to what he says about the Spirit not being in the Bible, then turn and read what Jesus says in John 6:63. Read also Ephesians 6:18. By all means buy your children a Bible and they will have the sword of the Spirit, as Ephesians 6:18 states.

As to the challenge, I don't think it would do much good to have it so far away. Why not have it in Tahoka where your people have a congregation?

As my wife has been away three weeks, I wish Editor Hill in his Odds and Ends would give some attention to this question. How to batch and make a success of it.

I am glad to say that while we lost our case at Tahoka on Sunday closing, the most of the stores are observing the Lord's Day by staying closed; so our efforts were not in vain after all.

I am having a fine interest in the old fashioned Bible study at Mesquite schoolhouse every Thursday night. I would be glad to have other classes at other school houses in the county Monday, Tuesday, or Friday nights. Let's hear from you if you want to start one.—R. P. Drennon.

SOUTHLAND NEWSPAPER WILL MOVE TO WILSON

Frank Fletcher, owner and publisher of the Southland Sun, is preparing, we understand, to move his plant to Wilson and to publish the paper, for both towns, at that place.

A building for housing the plant is now under construction in Wilson, we are told.

Glad to have you as a close neighbor, Frank. Come to see us some time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Baggett of Quail, Collingsworth county, spent Friday night in the New Lynn community visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Winkler.

Otha Thomas, Terry Thompson, and T. Garrard spent the latter part of last week up in the Davis mountains hunting, but they came back disappointed; they didn't get a deer.

JUST PREJUDICE
After quoting the editorial written by Frank Hill and published in The News a few weeks ago in which he called Charley Guy to task for his attack upon the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon,

Andy Jack Stricklin of the Terry County Herald last week made the following comment.

"We have been watching to see when Sharley attempted to answer the above. We didn't believe from the beginning that he would attempt to answer it, because there is no answer. Charley just got one of his prejudice spells on and socked the West Texas College. He sometimes socks the church schools too.
Our idea is that there is a place in West Texas for every state or (denominational) school, and we're for all of 'em, teeth and toenails."

To which we say Amen. West Texas needs every college she has. We are proud of every one of them and would like to make each one bigger and better. We believe in every man standing up for his home town and its institutions, but when he undertakes to do so by criticizing institutions in other towns he has launched upon a poor business. Personally, we are for the Tech and we are for the West Texas State, and like Jack we are for the church schools.

There are many former pupils and friends of the West Texas State scattered over the South Plains, and Charley did himself and his paper no good when he made his unprovoked and inexcusable attack upon it.

Attorney-General Gerald Mann is a man after our own heart. He is intellectually honest and has the courage of his convictions. The constitution of Texas provides that the legislature may remit to a county the state taxes in that county in case of a public calamity. For years the legislature has been taking undue liberties with this provision of the constitution. The present legislature remitted the taxes of so many of the wealthy counties, including Harris county in which the city of Houston is situated, that it then turned around and remitted a part of the taxes to all of the counties.
When the constitutionality of this law was put up to the attorney-general, he held that it was unconstitutional. Just recently, he voluntarily took cognizance of the Houston tax remission and also declared it unconstitutional. Apparently he is dead right. If such legislation is constitutional, then the constitution means nothing. This paper has severely condemned such legislation time after time. We hope that Gerald Mann and eventually the courts will put a stop to this kind of vicious and unconstitutional legislation.

College, Goodwell, Oklahoma, in will be listed in the 1939-40 issue of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

The book will be released in January or February.

This publication is published through the cooperation of over 500 American Universities and colleges. It is the only means of national recognition for graduates which is devoid of politics, fees, and dues. Several students from accredited colleges are selected each year, by an unprejudiced committee for their biographies to appear in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."
These books are placed in the hands of hundreds of companies and other who annually recruit outstanding students for employment.

The purpose of "Who's Who" is to serve as an incentive for students to get the most out of their college careers; as a means of compensation to students for what they have already done; as a recommendation to the business world; and as a standard of measurement for students comparable to such agencies as Phi Beta Kappa and the Rhodes Scholarship Award.

mother Mrs. Lawler spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. Harold Everson.

week's stay in Dallas where they had the pleasure of visiting with one of Mrs. Well's sisters, Mrs. F. A.
Finn of Maricao, Venezuela, South America. Mrs. Finn came by plane from her home town to Dallas where she made an extended visit to a sister, and a brother and her mother, Mrs. C. H. Elliott of Clovis, N. M.

Baldwin Sells
Hockley Co. Herald

J. W. Baldwin, owner and publisher of the Hockley County Herald for the past thirteen years, has sold the paper to Forrest Weimhold of Sudan and J. D. Saunders of Lubbock. The new owners took charge on Monday of last week. Mr.
Baldwin did not announce his plans for the future.

Mr. Weimhold is editor and Saunders is general manager of the paper.

Mr. Weimhold has been associated with his father the past three years in the publication of the Suddan News, the Oldham County (Vega) News, and the Earth (Lamb county) Sun. He is a graduate of the Texas Technological College.
Mr. Saunders has been connected with the Kerr Paper Company of Amarillo the past few years. He also received his college training in the Tech.

The Hockley County Herald is one of the best and most prosperous weekly newspapers on the plains.
Sited in Levelland, a town just slightly larger than Tahoka, it scarcely ever runs less than twelve pages, and the large number and the large size of the ads it carries each week indicates that the town is full of progressive and aggressive business men who believe in the virtue of printers ink.

We regret that Mr. Baldwin is retiring from the newspaper field even temporarily, but we are glad to welcome Messrs. Weimhold and Saunders as newspaper neighbors.

Messrs. H. B. McCord Terry
Thompson, E. I. Hill, Callaway
Huffaker, Aubrey Cade, and Judge
P. W. Goad attended the Rotary luncheon at O'Donnell Tuesday.
They certainly got a good meal and found the fellowship fine.

Miss Eloise Hanes, member of the Littlefield High School Faculty visited her Uncle and Aunt, Superintendent and Mrs. W. T. Hanes here over the week end.

Court Refuses Enloe Bond

At an examining trial held before justice of the peace Jim Dye in the district court room here Thursday, the court refused to grant bail to Drew Enloe, charged with the murder of Glenn Browning early Sunday morning, November 12, at the home of Browning's mother one mile east of Central Church, and remanded the prisoner back to the custody of the sheriff.

Bail was allowed his brother, L. A. Enloe, charged as an accomplice, in the sum of $10,000.

Defendants were represented by Nelson and Brown of Lubbock. The State was represented by District Attorney Truett Smith.

Tahoka Pioneers Visit Friends Here

Mrs. A. D. Shook and her two daughters, Mrs. Sid Sanders and Mrs. Morlin Jordan, and the latter's daughter, Miss Niva Marie Jordan, all of Waco, are here this week visiting the Bouliouins and Swans and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Shook and two daughters, Mesdames Sanders and Jordan, were pioneer residents of Tahoka, they and their husband and father, the late A. D. Shook, having owned the land on which much of the town of Tahoka now stands. Mr. Shook, in fact, helped to build the town and constructed several buildings here.

Mrs. Sanders and her husband moved from Tahoka back to Waco only a few years ago.

The visitors are expecting to return home Saturday.

Indian Preacher Visits Here This Week

Rev. White Parker, son of the noted Quanah Parker, was a pleasant caller at the News office Monday afternoon. He had been attending the Northwest Texas Conference of the Methodist Church in Lubbock, and he was on his way to O'Donnell to spend the night with his long-time friend, Ben Moore. He was accompanied by his wife. They reside in Oklahoma. Rev. Parker, it will be remembered, spoke in the Methodist Church here about two years ago.

Brother-in-Law Of Geo. Small Died

John Burns, 78, brother-in-law of George Small, died at his home in Plainview Sunday and the remains were buried there Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Small spent several days there last week and were present when he died. Maurice Small and family and Irvin Stewart and family went up to the funeral Monday.

Many years ago Mr. Burns resided in the vicinity of O'Donnell in this county. Mrs. Burns is a sister of Mr. Small.

Feed Crop Is Short In Lynn County

According to estimates given us by grain dealers, about 3500 tons of feed have been marketed here by farmers of the county this year. This number is far below the amount for the same period last year, they stated. It is estimated that the total crop will not exceed 4500 tons.

Dealers also estimated that around 7500 cattle are being fed out this year, which of course will take a large amount of the crop.

NEGRO CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

Jack Thomas, colored, was arrested Sunday morning and placed in jail here charged with the burglary on the preceding night of the Evans Cafe. He has made a written statement confessing the crime, according to Sheriff B. L. Parker, who traced the culprit from the cafe to the negro section of the town and thence back to town, finding him at the Sunshine Inn.

Parker also recovered $17.50 of the money which the negro had stolen, the same being hid under the pillow on which he slept. The culprit had effected an entry into the building through the roof and had stolen $38.00 from the cash drawer. The remainder of the stolen money was lost in a gambling game that same night, Parker says.

He traced the negro by a peculiar track made by one of his shoes. The negro had recently worked for a short time at the cafe.

We Will Close On Nov. 30

We the undersigned Business Men and Women of Tahoka, wish to announce that we will close our places of business on Thursday, November 30, in observance of the time-honored Thanksgiving Day observed for many years on this date.

We wish for all our friends and customers a happy Thanksgiving season, and may there be no accident or ill fortune of any kind to mar the pleasure of the day.

Our customers should make their Thanksgiving purchases some time before Thursday of next week, and we will be back in our places of business, if not providentially hindered, on Friday morning to serve them with renewed zest.

Would We Have Given Thanks?

When you sit down to your turkey and dressing, think how little the early Pilgrim really had to be thankful for compared with the inestimable blessings we enjoy today. Untilled soil, ferocious Indians, inadequate tools, and the work of his own hands were his lot. Think of the advancement made in every field of industry and social life.— Factory dressed lumber, ready prepared food, and even Milk-Fed, home-grown turkey —Let us realize that this should truly be a day of thanksgiving for all of us.

PARENT TEACHERS SOCIAL A BIG SUCCESS

Approximately 75 persons attended the Parent-Teachers sponsored party at the school gymnasium last Thursday night. The affair was said to be a huge success, with everyone taking part in the fun.

Mrs. Harley Henderson, president of the PTA, introduced Mrs. Langford of Texas Tech, who talked on the importance of recreation and physical education to everyone. Then she and Miss Bascom directed the playing of musical games. Miss Todd, accompanist for Texas Tech, played the accompaniment on the piano. Mrs. Langford and Miss Bascom are members of the Texas Tech faculty.

Mrs. Deck Dunagan's Third Graders won the banner for having the largest number of parents present. They also won it last month at the "42" party.

Next week the News will carry an announcement of the next public entertainment to be sponsored by PTA.

ERNESTEEN LOCKHART TO MARRY DECEMBER 2

Last Sunday morning's Avalanche Journal carried the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Ernesteen Lockhart, daughter of Judge and Mrs. G. E. Lockhart of Lubbock. She will become the bride of Bill Ed Watson, also of Lubbock, on December 2.

The announcement was formally made at a coffee Sunday morning. Mrs. Winter Knight of Tahoka, sister of Miss Lockhart, was in the receiving line.

Miss Lockhart was born in Tahoka, but her parents moved away while she was yet very young. The family still have a host of friends here however, who will wish the bride-to-be every happiness.

TWO O'DONNELL COUPLES GET LICENSES HERE

Marriage licenses were issued here Monday morning to two O'Donnell couples, Henry Baker and Jewell Alexander, and J. O. Parker and Doris May Crutcher.

The brides are step-sisters, R. L. Alexander, the father of one, and the former Mrs. Crutcher, the mother of the other, having recently been married.

PEP SQUAD-FOOTBALL BANQUET IS BIG SUCCESS

The annual banquet given by the pep squad in honor of the football team was held last Friday night at the high school, and was a big success, according to those who attended. The dinner was served by the Home Economics girls, under the direction of Mrs. Pete Hegl, H. E. teacher, and Miss Dockray, pep-squad sponsor.

The theme of the program was "Goals", and the decorations carried out the idea. At the head of the table was a huge basket of roses with huge candelabra on each side. Blue and white balloons hung from the ceiling. On the table were blue and white goals made with candies and streamers. The candles were placed on blue candlesticks, forming goal posts, with the blue and white streamers forming the tops of the goals. White chrysanthemums graced the table at frequent intervals.

Eighty-one guests were present, including the high school faculty, the football team and pep squad.

Hazel Thomas, Mistress of Ceremonies, opened the program with a welcome to the team. Mav Minor, co-captain, responded. The main address of the evening was given by Berl Huffman, freshman coach at Texas Technological college. Marjorie Wells gave a piano solo, and Peggy Fenton and Myrna Dean Cognat sang a duet. A farewell to the senior members of the team and the pep squad were given by Greta Joyce Applewhite and H. A. Maassen.

BPW CHAIRMEN MET HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

The committee chairmen of the Business and Professional Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Inez Knight, program coordination chairman, Friday night, for the purpose of planning the programs for the coming year.

An entertainment committee was appointed by the president to plan entertainments between regular meeting dates.

Mrs. Knight served refreshments to the following guests: Mesdames G. M. Stewart, D. W. Gagnat, Lois Daniel, Gladys Stokes, Myrtle Rochelle, Hall Robinson, and Misses Olabelle Singleton and Ethel Callahan.

MR. AND MRS. W. L. KNIGHT HONORED LAST FRIDAY

Last Friday was certainly a happy occasion for Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight, when their children gathered in and helped them celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Boyd and two children of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Knight and little daughter of San Angelo, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nance and two children of Borden county. Also present were Mr. Knight's sister, Mrs. W. G. Brunette and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Rutherford and two children of Eastland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mullins of Shallowater also came down for a visit with the Knights on Sunday, Mrs. Mullins having been a friend of theirs in East Texas for several years before they moved west.

Mrs. E. S. Davis, a friend and neighbor of the Knights, assisted in making the occasion perfect.

One daughter, Mrs. Ollie Carson and Mr. Carson of Washington, D. C. could not be here, but they were constantly in touch with the situation, helping to give the parents a happy surprise.

Among the gifts received was a beautiful and costly radio.

The day brought back many sweet memories to the honorees.

Coming here in January, 1916, Mr. and Mrs. Knight resided in a house where the City Park service station now stands just across the street east of the McDaniel home until they could build them a residence.

Mr. Knight first opened a big wagon yard which covered the south half of the block which has since been converted into a city park. He built the immense shed which later was converted into a city tabernacle, where many a revival meeting and a number of great political rallies were held.

That shed, Mr. Knight says, would house thirty wagons, and sheds and stalls for the stock lined the east and the west ends of the yard. There was also a good well of water and a windmill on the yard. This wagon yard did a thriving business for a few years, but its business was finally spoiled by the constantly increasing number of automobiles, and Mr. Knight went into other business.

Mr. Knight also recalls that when he came to Tahoka, people were living in tents all over the town, and there was a tent hotel known as the Rag Hotel on the corner now occupied by John Evans' service station. Mr. Knight says this hotel fed oodles of people, but a little later it too went the way of all flesh.

Following his wagon yard experience, Mr. Knight and Mr. Brashear went into the general mercantile business. After several years of successful business they dissolved partnership and divided the property. Mr. Brashear taking the east end of the building as a dry goods and clothing store and Mr. Knight taking the west end as a grocery store. Until three years ago he and his son K. F. continued to run this business, since which time he has been taking life easy.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Knight are many and wish them years yet of usefulness and happiness. On last Friday and since that time they have received many congratulatory messages, two of them coming from far-away New York.

Miss Lois Goad, daughter of Judge and Mrs. P. W. Goad, and Harry McElfresh of Lubbock, were married Tuesday afternoon at the home of Reverend W. R. Campbell, a Baptist minister. Rev. Campbell who is an old-time friend of the Goad family performed the nuptial ceremony.

The marriage took place at 3:15 p. m., and the couple came to Tahoka for a wedding supper with the bride's family, Judge and Mrs. Goad.

The bride is a graduate of New Home High school and of Draughton's Business College in Lubbock. She had been working in Lubbock for several months previous to the wedding. She moved from New Home to Tahoka with her parents when her father was elected county judge. She has many friends here who wish the couple every happiness.

PETTY 4-H CLUB

"Cottonseed meal is an excellent source of protein for chicks and growing stock", stated Miss Maurine McNatt, home demonstration agent, at the meeting of the Petty 4-H club Thursday, November 9, at the school building.

Cotton seed meal is a good feed for chickens but not for laying hens. Feeding it even in very small quantities affects the quality of eggs and makes them unfit for storage. Miss McNatt gave a demonstration on proper ingredients for feed.

The girls learned several new songs and filled out their report card.

The next meeting will be on November 22 with the sponsor, Mrs. J. W. Lowery, in charge.

ODDS AND ENDS

By Bee Eye the Elder

"The melancholy days are come, the saddest of the year, Of walling winds, and naked woods and meadows brown and sere. Heaped in the hollows of the grove, the autumn leaves lie dead; They rustle to the eddy gust, and to the rabbit's tread. The robin and the wren are flown, and from the shrub the jay, And from the woodtop calls the crow through all the gloomy day. —But why go on? Perhaps you have not read this far. Most people do not care for poetry. Others say that they like it, but they rarely ever read it. We are too prosaic, too practical, too busy trying to make a living, or trying to make money, or to find excitement, thrills, and other forms of pleasure, to sit down and read and enjoy a real poem. In a machine age, we have no time for poetry.

And yet, poetry is the music of the soul. It is the language of the emotions. If we would find the finest expressions of the emotions of love, sympathy, pathos, friendship, reverence, patriotism, courage, kindness, the spirit of sacrifice, we must seek for it, as a rule, in the great poetic productions of the linguistic masters.

The Bible is full of poetry. The Psalms were beautiful, touching, reverential, sometimes majestic, Hebrew poetry. Isaiah, and Daniel, and other of the prophets had the poetic fire. Revelations contains flights of poetic eloquence and imagery unsurpassed, perhaps, anywhere else in all literature.

Poetry is not only the language of the imagination, it is the voice of idealism—the beautiful, the good, and the true.

Headache, Bad Breath Tell of More to Come

Just as Paul Revere's famous ride warned of the Redcoats' coming, so Nature's messengers—headaches, biliousness, bad breath—often warn of faulty elimination. Neglecting these signs may cause a host of constipation's discomforts: sour stomach, belching; no appetite or energy; mental dullness. It's so easy to wake up your lazy insides. Just take spicy, all vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT. Its unusual help comes from its principal ingredient—an intestinal tonic-laxative which imparts tone to lazy bowel muscles. Millions of packagers used testify to BLACK-DRAUGHT'S merit. Try it.

her, when the forest cast the leaf. And we wept that one so lovely should have a life so brief. Yet not unmeet it was that one, like that young friend of ours, So gentle and so beautiful, should perish with the flowers. William Cullen Bryant, the author of this and many other fine poems, for years was a newspaper editor, and we think he was one of the greatest American poets.

For soul-stirring pathos, turn to one of the less distinguished English poets, Thomas Hood, and read his "Song of the Shirt", beginning with these lines: With fingers weary and worn, With eyelids heavy and red, A woman sat in unwomanly rags, Plying her needle and thread— Stitch! Stitch! In Poverty, hunger, and dirt, And still with a voice of dolorous pitch She sang the "Song of the Shirt". Even more pathetic, perhaps, is "The Bridge of Signs", which portrays the tragic end of a sinning woman: "O, it was pitiful! Near a whole city full, Home she had none!"

Gray's Elegy is said to be, perhaps, the most nearly perfect poem, from a metrical standpoint, in the English language. Note the cadence of these first lines: The curfew tolls the knell of parting day, The lowing herd winds slowly o'er the lea, The plowman homeward plods his weary way, And leaves the world to darkness and to me.

For sheer beauty and elegance of expression, none of the poets excels Tennyson or Poe. Most of us, perhaps, have memorized this gem from the pen of the Englishman: The splendor falls on castle walls And snowy summits old in story; The long light shakes across the lakes, And the wild cataract leaps in glory. Blow, bugle, blow, set the wild echoes flying, Blow, bugle; answer, echoes, dying, dying, dying.

"Crossing the Bar", "The Song of the Brook", "Sweet and Low", and "Break, Break, Break" are other striking examples. In "The Bells", "Annabel Lee", "The Raven", and "Ulalume", Poe gives us some of his finest work. In "The Bells", one can fairly hear the jingling of the sleigh bells, the mellow notes of the wedding bells, the wild clanging of the fire bells, the melancholy tones of the tolling funeral bells. First the sleigh bells: Hear the sledges with the bells— Silver bells! What a world of merriment their melody foretells!

Time and space will not permit us to even mention scores and scores of other great English and American poets, such as Southey and Cowper and Coleridge and Wordsworth and Byron and Shelley, and Keats, or such as Longfellow and Sydney Lanier and Oliver Wendell Holmes and Walt Whitman and Joaquin Miller and John Pierpont and many others. And then there are the dialect and children's poets, such as Eugene Field and James Whitcomb

Riley and Frank L. Stanton, etc. Some of you fellows who spend your time chasing up and down the highways, going here, there, and yonder, seeking pleasure, thrills, and excitement, should take a day off sometime and read a few of the real poems of our language. If you are unable to appreciate the beauty and the sentiment of the nobler productions, then start out with lighter ones. Cultivate the habit of reading poetry. It will help you to grow, mentally, morally, and spiritually. It will help you to enjoy life and mayhap lead you to prepare for eternity. Young man, young woman, read poetry; give your soul a chance.

Much Building Of Homes Here

There has been an unusual amount of building and remodeling of homes this fall in Tahoka and vicinity. Among the homes recently built, now under construction or remodeled or repaired, we note the following.

G. A. Edwards is building a five-room residence in the northwest part of town, between the homes of Borden Davis and J. B. McPherson. Harvey Freeman is building a neat cottage in South Tahoka immediately west of Minnie's Laundry.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Walker moved into their new home in northwest Tahoka just two or three weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Edwards have also constructed a new home in northwest Tahoka this fall.

Boyd Smith constructed three rent houses in northeast Tahoka this fall.

Carl Williams, who resides near Draw, has almost completed construction of a new stucco residence, 36 by 44 feet in size. Other homes have been constructed in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Winter Knight have almost completely remodeled their home, inside and out. The exterior has been redashed, another room has been added, and many new features have been built in. The interior is all newly decorated with oak floors.

Judge and Mrs. B. P. Maddox have done quite a bit of remodeling on the interior of their home and have constructed a new porch. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McCord have installed new bath fixtures. Judge and Mrs. Tom Garrard have installed new bath fixtures and repaired two rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fulkerson have tiled the bath and kitchen of the home they recently purchased in northwest Tahoka. All the rooms are being repapered. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Appiewhite have tiled their kitchen. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Park are remodeling the J. H. Edwards home which they recently purchased and now occupy, redashing the exterior and tiling the kitchen. T. B. Cowan, who recently purchased the interest of the other heirs in the W. C. Cowan home, is remodeling it. The exterior has been redashed, the interior repapered, and the wood work repainted.

There are doubtless many other improvements which we have failed to note, but these show that there has been considerable activity in the building and repairing of homes recently.

Other nice homes were built here earlier in the year.

G. W. Simmons, who has been seriously ill in the Lubbock Sanitarium following an operation for ruptured appendix about three weeks ago, was brought home Saturday and is still improving.

R. E. A. EQUIPMENT SHOW AT LUBBOCK NEXT WEEK

(Continued from page one) the machinery line-up near the big tent, conducted by Mr. J. R. Cobb of REA, and someone of the State Extension Service, and demonstrations within the big tent of a special interest to farm women. This program is shared by Miss Kathryn Harris, REA Home Economist, and Miss Clara Pratt, Home Demonstration Agent of Lubbock. Joint programs for men and women are held in the big tent in the late afternoon and evening.

So that farm families may come prepared to stay all day without the trouble of packing a lunch, an all-electric lunch stand manned by local farm clubwomen will be in continuous operation, serving up hot food.

The women's program also includes a laundry demonstration, small electric appliance cookery, studies of the refrigerator, range, ironers, and water heaters.

Stock tank heaters, pig brooders, kitchen and bathroom setups for farms, water heaters, refrigerators, ranges, ironers, shelling, grinding and chopping of feed, burr and hammer mills and many kinds of inexpensive farm and home electrical devices.

All of the equipment on demonstration will be supplied power by the same motor, by use of the "motor-totor". An irrigation system will be shown in actual operation near the tent.

The show promises to be an interesting one to farmer and town resident alike. All farmers are urged to attend whether they are users of electricity or not.

Among the Thursday visitors in Tahoka were Messrs. Fred Barker and Bill Sewell, both former members of the bank force here. Both are now connected with the bank in Levelland. Mr. Sewell was accompanied by his wife and son who visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Weathers.

Olivers Called To Bedside Of Sister

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Oliver, and Mrs. Edna Tullous, who was visiting here from McGee, Ark., joined Mrs. Douglas Pyle of Big Spring Thursday noon and the group left for Comanche, Okla., to be at the bedside of Mrs. Jim Trusty, who is critically ill following a heart attack.

Miss Trusty's sister of Messrs. Oliver and Mrs. Pyle, and an aunt of Mrs. Pyle's, Word was received Thursday morning by her relatives here that he could not live long, and the family rushed to be with her before death came.

Pioneer Of Panhandle Here Tuesday

Floyd McNeill of Amarillo, investigator for the Securities and Real Estate Division of the office of Secretary of State, was in Tahoka Tuesday on official business. Mr. McNeill says that he has been a resident of the Panhandle for almost fifty years, and for a number of years he was a resident of Dalhart, capital of the Dust Bowl. There were very few people in the Panhandle in the early nineties, and few of those who were here then are still left.

Leroy Knight and W. E. Taylor returned Tuesday from a deer hunt in Mason county. Each of them brought back a deer. Mrs. Taylor visited in Coleman while the men folk went hunting, and returned to her home with them. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor live in Dawson county.

Miss Vaudine Thompson left Wednesday morning for her home in Dallas after visiting her brother and wife, Dr. and Mrs. Chase S. Thompson, here last week.

Joe Hodge left Wednesday morning in company with a Lubbock group for Mason county, where they will hunt deer.
