Lynn County Will Celebrate Cotton Week

Farmers Urged To Vote Saturday

(From County A.A.A. office)

All cotton farmers are urged to go to the designated voting boxes on December 9 and express their views on the 1940 Cotton Marketing Quota. Any farmer who grew cotton in 1939 or had cotton grown for him as a landlord is eligible to vote in this election. It is not necessary that a farmer go to any certain voting box but he may vote at any box in the county.

There has been a great deal of interest on the part of the farmers in meetings that have been held in different sections of the county for the purpose of discussing the 1940 Farm Program and the proposed 1940 Cotton Marketing Quotas. As a whole good crowds have been present.

The State Committee has designated December 18 as the time for farmers to meet in their respective districts to elect community committeemen. The county has been divided into five districts for the purpose of selecting these committeemen. These districts are the same as have been in effect the past several years.

The elections in Districts 3 and 5 will be held at Draw and New Home respectively at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon and the elections in Districts 1, 2, and 4 will be held at Wilson, Edith, and Wells respectively at 7:00 o'clock at night on the above named date. It is the duty of every farmer to be at one of the above named places and help select the men to represent him as committeemen during 1940. On this same date farmers will elect delegates to county convention whose duty it will be to select the county committee for 1940.

The 1939 Soil Conservation checks are beginning to arrive almost daily. To the present date this office has received payment on 250 farms for a total amount of $88,272.85. The total amount expected on this payment is $680,000. This amount added to $480,000 received for 1939 Parity payments will make a total received in this county for 1939 of $1,160,000.

Mrs. Roberts Dies At New Lynn

Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist Church at New Lynn at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. D. C. Roberts, who died at her home in that community Sunday.

Services were conducted by Rev. Robinson of Lamesa, pastor of the New Lynn Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. D. W. Reed of O'Connell. Burial was in the cemetery at Post.

Mrs. Roberts had been ill for a long time. She had been a resident of this section for 28 years, residing in Garza county for many years before moving over into Lynn.

She leaves surviving her husband, three sons: Loyd, Eldon, and D. C. Jr., two daughters, Mrs. Gene Gollehon and Anna Pearl Roberts, seven brothers and a number of other relatives.

She was a member of the Baptist church and was highly esteemed in her community.

Mrs. Copelin Died Of High Blood Pressure

Mrs. Troy Copelin, whose funeral was conducted here on Thanksgiving day at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, was a victim of high blood pressure and heart trouble instead of cancer as stated in these columns last week, according to members of the family.

As our paper was actually printed on Wednesday of last week on account of the holiday and as the patient died in a Brownfield hospital, we had little time or opportunity to confirm reports as to the cause of her death. We are glad to make the correction.

Dates Set For Basketball Tourney

At a meeting of basketball coaches here Wednesday night, the dates for the county Round Robin Basketball Tournament were set for two week-ends in February, the days being February 6-9-10 and February 15-16-17. Both the boys' and girls' teams will participate in this tournament.

Rural schools will have preliminary contests and the winning girls' and boys' teams in this series of contests will participate in the county Round Robin.

High schools represented here Wednesday night were: Wilson, New Home, O'Donnell, Draw, and Tahoka, together with a representative of the rural schools.

Pioneer Resident Died Saturday

W. L. Davis, 73, pioneer resident of Tahoka, died at his home here at about nine o'clock Saturday night of dropsy and high blood pressure. He had been seriously sick only a few days preceding his death.

With Rev. C. F. Dyke of the Methodist Church officiating, funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Harris Funeral Chapel and burial was in the Tahoka cemetery.

Mr. Davis and his family removed to Tahoka on September 1, 1903, only a few months after the county was organized and the town of Tahoka founded, and he had been a resident of the town ever since. He was one of the very few men still living here who came to Tahoka that early in its history.

Mr. Davis was born at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, on June 1, 1836. Coming to Texas with his parents in his infancy, he was married to Miss Ella Garland, at Roby, Fisher county, on December 13, 1892.

Surviving him are the widow, four daughters, and two sons. The daughters are: Mrs. Alta Boswell of Dallas, Mrs. Virgie Davis of Compton, California, Mrs. Beula Atkins and Mrs. Lura Mae Gaither of Tahoka. The sons are Tommie Davis of Tokio and Hubert Davis of Floydada.

Other survivors include a brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Garland of Merkel, and a sister-in-law and her son and daughter, Mrs. Bertham of Lubbock, also a niece, Mrs. Ethel Kline of Lubbock.

A number of out-of-town relatives and friends were here for the funeral including Tom Christman and family, E. D. Duncan and family, and John Harred and family, all of Brownfield.

Deceased had long been a member of the Baptist Church. He had many friends, who were grieved at his passing. The News joins in condolences to the members of his family and other relatives.

New Business House Under Construction

A frame building 25 by 50 feet in size with sheet-iron top and walls is now under construction on the Joe Bovell lot at the rear of the McKinnon Laundry for the use of the Raborn Chevrolet Company as a work shop, where used cars will be repainted and reconditioned, and all kinds of body work done. It will also contain a wash room.

Mr. Raborn has found his spacious room in the big brick building he occupies insufficient in size for his requirements, and the new structure will give him the additional room needed.

F. S. A. Loans Totals $19,000.00

One hundred and fifty four loans from the Farm Security Administration in Region XII were repaid in full last month, reports Wyman J. Welch, County FSA supervisor. A total of $181,637.48 payments on loans were made in West Texas Counties with a total of 1,894 loans, he said.

Mr. Welch called the figures further evidence that diversified farming featuring livestock, plus the loan of money to put those plans into effect is what it takes to get hard-hit farmers back on their feet.

"Farmers prefer self-rehabilitation loans to direct loans," he said. "Repayments are due to strong emphasis on home production of subsistence needs, and the raising of feed supplies for livestock. That is the 'golden rule' for every recipient of FSA aid—whether it is a loan or a grant."

Seven hundred and forty-two loans were approved by the FSA during the month—a total of $130,330.45.

The county farm debt adjustment committees—which help hard pressed farmers to get their debts adjusted to current farm values and to plan balanced farming operations which will pay off the adjusted debt—reported 119 adjustments successfully completed during the month. Payment of $1,208 in back taxes was the first result. Debt reduction, interest reduction, extension and sale of surplus property all figure in the adjustments worked out by creditors and debtors with county committees, Mr. Welch said.

A total of $19,318.50 was loaned by the Farm Security Administration during 1939 in Lynn County, and the repayments to date have amounted to $20,511.45. Tenants who have rental agreements signed by them and their landlord for a period of from three to five years amortize their loans over this period, says Mr. Welch.

Chester Connolly In Race For County Judge

Another good man announces for office this week. Chester Connolly's name will appear in our announcement column this week and on the official ballot next summer as a candidate for county judge of Lynn county.

Having been in business here for twenty-one years and a member of the county board of trustees for about six years, Chester Connolly is well and favorably known in every nook and corner of Lynn county. For about twenty years of this time, he was local dealer first for the Ford automobile and then for the Chevrolet.

Chester Connolly proved himself to be a good business man and a good citizen of the county. As head of the commissioners court, he would bring to the service of the people his safe and sound business judgment, and all who know him know that he would undertake to be absolutely fair as judge of the trial court.

Mr. Connolly has never run for a public office. He has permitted his name to appear on the ballot for county trustee, which is not a remunerative office, and has always been elected when his name appeared on the ballot.

He now seeks a position which has some remuneration attached and if elected he will do his best, he says, to serve with credit to himself and to the county.

Boxing-Wrestling Team In High School

Coach Leo Jackson is planning to organize a boxing and wrestling team at the high school here, to compete with other schools in this district.

Although Tahoka held boxing and wrestling meets last year, they did not train their boys or have an organized team.

Norwood Announces For Commissioner

The name of another candidate for county commissioner from Precinct No. 2 appears in our announcement column this week.

Samie Norwood, who resides one mile east and one mile south of the old South Ward school building, is the latest entry.

Mr. Norwood came from Knox county to this county in 1925. For seven years he resided in the Joe E.ley community and then removed into the South Ward community. He has been in this precinct therefore about fourteen years. Naturally, he is well acquainted with rural conditions in the county and particularly in this precinct and he believes he can serve the people in this capacity in a most satisfactory manner. He expects to make an active campaign for the office.

Mr. Norwood has been a farmer or on the farm practically all his life. He has never before been a candidate for any office. But he says that if elected he will at all times and under all circumstances attempt to "do right" and believes he can get the job done.

He solicits the kind consideration of the voters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kuykendall have just returned from a two-weeks visit with relatives in East Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Cingan are today removing from the Mrs. Ines Knight place to the Ray Weathers home in northwest Tahoka.

Stimulate Use Of Cotton Is Aim

PROGRAM SUGGESTED BY GOVERNOR; SPONSORED BY LOCAL CIVIC-BUSINESS CLUBS

As an outgrowth of a meeting here Thursday morning of the recently organized Lynn County Cotton Council sponsored by County Agent Donald Turner, with B. J. Emanuel as chairman, an extensive county-wide campaign is to be waged in Lynn county for the more general use of cotton goods and cotton products by all the people.

This is a part, of course, of a state-wide campaign recently suggested by Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel and others and is in response to the Governor's Proclamation designating December as "Cotton Month".

At the meeting here Thursday morning it was decided that County Agent Donald Turner should lay the matter before the local Rotary Club for such assistance and cooperation as it might give. He accordingly did so at its noon luncheon and the club took immediate steps to help make the program a success.

W. T. Hanes, superintendent of the Tahoka public schools, also got busy, and the campaign was launched immediately.

It was decided that the Rotary Club would offer prizes for the winners in essay-writing contests in each and every school in the county entering. The faculty of each school would act as judges of the contest in its school. The student writing the best essay on the topic, "Why Use More Cotton," would be given a prize of $2.50 by the Rotary Club.

The contest will close on December 21. Winners in the various schools will be guests of the Rotary Club at a luncheon on that day, and (Continued on back page)

Clingan Buys Texas Service Station

Conway Clingan last week bought the Texas Service Station from Clay Bennett, taking charge of the business Friday. J. P. Morgan and A. L. White, who have been employed at the station for some time, were retained by the new proprietor.

Mr. Clingan bought the Texaco wholesale oil and gas business here about a year ago, and he and Mrs. Clingan have made many friends since coming to Tahoka. Mr. Clingan invites the public to visit the Texas Station for their gasoline and oil needs. He will appreciate a generous share of their business and promises prompt and courteous service at all times.

Mr. Bennett has made no announcement as to his plans.

Rosemary Nelms For City Secretary

Miss Rosemary Nelms, our efficient City Secretary, has authorized us to place her name before the voters of the city as a candidate for reelection to the office.

Miss Nelms is well known to the people of Tahoka and Lynn County having lived here for a number of years. Likewise the kind of service she gives is well known to the people of Tahoka. That her work is highly satisfactory is evidenced by the fact that she is now serving her third term as City Secretary.

"I appreciate all that has been done for me, and am grateful for the votes given in the past, and, if I am elected again, will continue to give my very best service to all," is about the way Miss Rosemary expressed it, and we believe that she meant every word of it.

The election will be held the first Tuesday in April.

Mrs. Luther Wood and baby of Colorado City who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Inman of New Lynn, for several days was the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. Cowan and family Tuesday night.

New Home Stages Donkey Basketball

It has been announced that there will be a donkey basketball game between members of the faculty of the New Home school and of the Tahoka school in the New Home gymnasium Friday night of this week.

Now don't be mis-led, dear reader, this is no insinuation that the contending teams are donkeys; it means simply that they will "ride donkeys" while playing the game. And that game is going to be fast and furious, you know it. The spectators are promised their money's worth.

Rotarians Sponsor Christmas Lighting

That wide-awake and public-spirited organization known as the Rotary Club has put its shoulder to the wheel to make Tahoka a more attractive and beautiful town, at least during the holidays, according to Leonard Craft, President.

Each business man in Tahoka is asked to display some Christmas motif or use colored lights or other Christmas decorations in his show window or about the front of his store to carry out the Christmas idea. In addition to this it is planned to light the streets.

In the residence district small prizes will be offered to encourage attractive decorations and lighting. Any part of the house or the yard may be decorated provided it shows up well from the street. The judging will likely be from the street and at night. This should be kept in mind when placing the decorations, the whole idea being to make Tahoka as attractive as possible and have it show forth the real spirit of Christmas this year.

Mr. J. O. Tinsley who is General Chairman of the decorating activities and his fine committee has announced the following prizes for the residential district only: Home displaying best and most attractive Christmas idea, First $5.00, Second $3.00, Third $2.00.

Monroe Johnson Died Monday

Monroe Johnson, who was practically reared in this county but who has been residing at Paris the past two years, died at his home there Monday of heart trouble and enlarged liver.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Johnson of Tahoka, and his brothers, Alex, Louis, and Dock and Jesse and Mrs. Louis Johnson of Tahoka, and his sisters, Mrs. Lee McFadden of Tahoka and Miss Lucille Johnson of Hobbs, all hurried down for the funeral, which was to be held in Paris Tuesday afternoon.

C. C. Johnson of Hobbs, who formerly resided here, was unable to go.

Mr. Johnson resided in Tahoka until about two years ago. He was a mechanic by trade. About a year ago he became seriously ill and spent some time in a Lubbock hospital. He has scarcely been able to do any work the past year. He leaves a wife but no children.

The family have the sympathy of a large number of friends.

CITY MARSHAL WARNS AGAINST FIREWORKS IN TOWN

City Marshal W. M. Lee asked that we warn youngsters in advance that they will be subject to fines if they shoot fireworks during the holidays on the courthouse square.

MEMBER OF LEGISLATURE VISITS DAUGHTER HERE

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Reeves of Blackwell left for their home Saturday after a few days visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Curry.

Mr. Reeves, who is a brother of Jack Reeves of the state highway patrol force at Lubbock and a long-time friend of the editor, is now a member of the legislature. He belonged to that famous fifty-six who stanchly stood out for a natural-resource tax and against a sales tax in the long-drawn out session of the legislature this year. He says that there were more than ninety of them taking this stand to start with but that the pressure brought to bear by the governor and by the natural-resource lobbyists gradually won over a large number of them, reducing the band to 56.

He looks for politics to be hot next year.

Cotton marketing quotas will be in effect in 1940 only if two-thirds of the farmers voting in the referendum December 9 favor them.

Mill consumption of cotton is expected to decrease in belligerent European countries in 1940, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics publication, "Cotton Outlook".

If cotton farmers in the United States didn't plant a single cotton seed in 1940, the present supply of 26,000,000 bales would be ample for normal consumption needs, since demand is expected to be around 12,000,000 bales annually.

In 1938 and 1939 more than 84 percent of the farmers voting all over the South favored cotton marketing quotas. In Texas 78 percent favored quotas last year.

In families where more than one person helps produce cotton under a single lease or cropping agreement, only the person who enters into the lease or agreement is entitled to vote in the December 9 cotton marketing referendum.

Cotton marketing quotas are intended to keep supplies in line with demand and to protect cooperators against the effect of overplanting by non-cooperators.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to our many friends and loved ones who came to us in time of sorrow in the death of our darling baby. We wish to extend our deep appreciation for their kind deeds and thoughtfulness. May God blessings be with each of you.

Major Frank Roberts on Welfare Board

Frank S. Roberts of Breckenridge is the successor to Beeman Strong of Beaumont, as a member of the new State Board of Public Welfare. Not a professional politician, he has however, served as District Judge of Caldwell County, and is a distinguished member of the Texas Bar. A veteran of the Spanish-American and late World War, his buddies know him as Major Roberts.

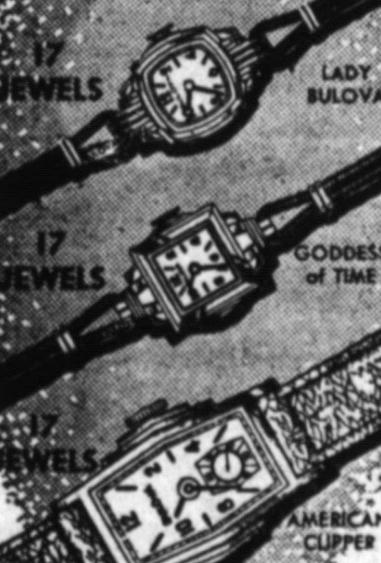

Judge Roberts has kept up with the activities of the Board since its first existence and he is not at all unacquainted with what has been going on during recent years in the pension bureau in Austin.

Texas is indeed fortunate in having Major Roberts as a member of the Board. He is honest, fearless, frank and friendly, as courtly as a son of the South could hope to be; a believer in discipline, orderliness and obedience to law, and what is more, he is a real man who realizes the grave responsibilities and need for action now on the Board with two other members who likewise are men of splendid attainments and broad and deep sympathies for those concerned in and with the outcome of their public services.

Arthur King and family returned last Friday to their home at Portales. Mr. King worked at one of the gins here until a week ago.

MINCE PIE IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE

Recently we've been making a Christmas tree crust for our holiday mince pies. We cut the pastry for the top crust with a Christmas tree cookie cutter—and place these trees (bases toward center) over the filling. Then we sprinkle the trees liberally with green colored sugar and put them in the oven. You can imagine how festive these pies look—the dark fruity filling showing between the glistening green little trees.

One of our girls has improved on this by making wide tartlets for evening refreshments and placing a Christmas tree crust on the top of some of the tarts and a star (sprinkled with blue or red sugar) on other tarts. They really are quite stunning-looking—and different from the usual holiday cookies and ice cream one is served so often at this time of year. A sprig of holly and two or three red and green mint patties are on the plate with each tart. Plenty of hot coffee is all that's needed to complete these refreshments.

Or, perhaps, you'd like your mincepie tarts covered with a frothy meringue that's been set in the oven long enough to give it those delicate tan and gold shadows in lovely contrast with the silvery white interior. The entire tart is covered with this light-as-thistle-down meringue. Thus each one looks like a captured crest of sea foam. This is the way they are made:

Mincepie Meringue Tarts
16 baked and cooled Pastry Rounds
2½ cups mincemeat (drained)
3 egg whites
Spread a generously rounded tbsp. mincemeat on a pastry round. Place a second pastry round on top of it—spread more filling on that. Make a meringue by beating egg whites with cream of tartar until stiff enough to hold a point, then gradually beating in the sugar—continuing beating until mixture is stiff and glossy. Fold in the grated lemon rind at the last. Spread this meringue over the tops and sides of the tarts. Bake 15 to 20 minutes in a slow moderate oven, 325° F. Amount: 8 individual tarts.

Pastry Rounds
1 cup all-purpose flour
½ tsp. salt
Sift flour once before measuring. Sift flour and salt together. Cut in shortening with 2 knives or a pastry blender—leaving some of the shortening in lumps the size of giant peas. Add ice water. Sprinkle the water lightly—a little at a time—over the flour and shortening. At first, blend it in lightly with a fork; then gather dough together lightly with the fingertips. As soon as you can make dough stay together, you have plenty of water in it. Round up dough on cloth-covered board (using flour rubbed into cloth to keep dough from sticking). Roll out about ¼ inch thick. Cut into 3-inch rounds. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Prick with a fork to prevent puffing. Chill thoroughly. Bake 10 to 12 minutes in a very hot oven, 500° F. Amount: 16 pastry rounds.

Mrs. Tunnell Reports Teachers Convention

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, who attended the convention of the State Teachers Association in San Antonio the latter half of last week, says that she derived much pleasure and profit from the discussions and addresses.

The convention is so large and the interests so vast and varied that it meets in sections, for the most part, and she spent most of her time with the County Superintendents section, where matters that are of special interest to them are discussed. This year, the chief topics discussed in this section were the proposed reorganization of our schools on the twelve-year basis instead of the eleven year basis as at present, and the proposed organization of county units for health supervision of the schools with competent physicians and nurses in charge.

A wonderful address on Reorganization of the elementary school was given by Miss White of the Cleveland, Ohio, public school system. Mrs. Tunnell says, and she also enjoyed some musical numbers interpretative of various Spanish dances.

She was somewhat disappointed in that very few county superintendents from this section of the state were in attendance.

Mr. C. Doyle of Beaumont was elected chairman of the county superintendents division of the T. S. T. A. for the ensuing year.

VISITORS FROM OREGON

Mr. and Mrs. T. Cowan had visitors in their home Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson of Monmouth, Oregon. These families met last Summer when the Cowan family visited Mrs. Cowan's sister, Mrs. Jim Chandler out there last Summer.

The Wilsons, who had never seen this part of Texas, found many things that were both strange and interesting, the cotton plant being one of the most interesting. Accompanied by the Cowans they went through a cotton oil mill in Lubbock and watched the manufacture of some of the cotton plant's by-products which convinced them that cotton is, indeed, a wonderful plant.

Boy's Life Magazine Great Influence

"In this year of 1939, the greatest single influence over the mind of man is still the printed word," declares Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America and Editor of Boy's Life, in rallying the more than 300,000 adult Scout leaders of the country to the extension of the reading program of the Boy Scout Movement. These men, the largest group of volunteer workers with boys ever enlisted in the support of any social program, will in turn, as part of Boy's Life Week, from December 10-16, urge parents to support the effort to provide good books and magazines for their children.

"I have always felt it to be the duty of our Movement," Dr. West added in his message to Scout leaders, "to give the boys of America the vital factors for character growth and citizenship training that can be conveyed through the printed page. It is my personal conviction that reading is an essential factor in the leisure time of all."

boys. Wholesome reading cues, in a very definite and practical fashion, supplement the idealisms of the Boy Scout program.

Dr. West also recalled that the Boy Scouts of America has always been an active worker with other agencies and groups promoting better reading for boys and has demonstrated that its books and Boy's Life magazine have long been a vital force for good, for enjoyment and for the kind of information every American boy should have. In addition to being the publishers of Boy's Life and several other periodicals designed to help Scout leaders, the Boy Scouts of America has produced a technical library of pamphlets in more than a hundred hobby and vocational fields and as many more pamphlets and books. The new famous "Handbook for Boys" has sold more than six million copies and is regarded by many people a standard reference book in its field.

Librarians throughout the country report that boys of Scout age read more during that period than at any other time of their lives. The average boy will often read, one, two or even three books a week if he can secure them, in addition to all the magazines he likes best. Scientific tests have shown that Boy's Life occupies a unique position in the publishing world. Less than a year ago a group of independent and impartial investigators addressed an interest inventory questionnaire to 200,000 boys and girls. The 24,671 boys who replied to the question, "What magazine do you like best?" voted Boy's Life as their first preference in the boys' magazine field, which reveals, it seems, that the Boy Scouts of America knows from experience how to create reading material that captures the imaginations and holds the interest of its tremendous reader audience.

Mrs. J. H. Colleenback returned Tuesday from a three week's visit with friends in San Antonio. Going down to attend the Baptist State Convention in November, Mrs. Colleenback remained for a visit with Mrs. Martha Stroud, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ross Kettner and family. She reports a wonderful time. "Mother Stroud" sent greetings to her many friends here.

LeMay Endorsed By Teachers

San Antonio, Tex. Dec. 2.—S. R. LeMay, attending the State Teachers Association in session at the San Antonio Municipal Auditorium, was urged by a resolution, adopted by a large delegation of teachers in a "LeMay for State Superintendent" state-wide rally, to make the race for State Superintendent of Public Instruction in opposition to the incumbent State Supt. Educational democracy and equalization of educational opportunities was the theme slogan of the educational rally to draft LeMay to run for the state superintendency office. The teachers conducted the rally at the down-town Gunter Hotel. Mr. LeMay was runner-up in the short campaign for that office in 1938.

AN EASY FRUIT CAKE

Several years ago, when we were conducting a recipe contest, we received a letter from a woman out in South Dakota telling us that she was sending her fruit cake recipe because the cake was so popular among her friends. She explained that she lived in a small town where she could not get many of the ingredients called for in most fruit cakes. She went on to say—"It always seemed to me so many ingredients are required in most cakes, that the ordinary housewife would hesitate to try it on account of the expense." That sounded very interesting to all of us, and we watched the making of her simpler fruit cake with special interest. And when it came from the oven, it was indeed beautiful to behold—a lovely golden brown—and so very moist and tender, too. It was filled with whole nuts, large pieces of luscious fruits—and it had the most delightful flavor! Then and there it received the prize, as the best fruit cake entered.

Then just to satisfy ourselves, we checked carefully on the expense. We found that the two loaves we made had cost us exactly $6.66 each, according to the prices for food at that time in Minneapolis. That meant for the two cakes we'd spend $13.32. Now that is reasonable for fruit cake as you know if you have priced them in any of the stores.

The name of the cake is Whole Nut Fruit Cake—because the different kinds of nuts used are left in whole pieces. Here is the recipe:

Whole Nut Fruit Cake
1 lb. seedless raisins (2½ cups)
1 lb. dates (2 cups)
½ lb. citron (¾ cup)
½ cup walnuts
½ cup pecans
½ cup Brazil nuts
½ cup almonds
1 cup shortening
3 eggs
2½ cups all-purpose flour
2½ cups cake flour
1½ tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
½ tsp. nutmeg
½ tsp. cinnamon
½ tsp. cloves
½ cup milk
½ cup corn syrup
1 tsp. wine or fruit juice
1 tsp. vanilla

The first thing in making a fruit cake is to prepare the fruit and nuts. It is always best to "plump" the raisins. This means washing them in warm water, then draining them and spreading them out on a pan, covering them and heating them slowly in the oven until the wrinkles come out. Then pit the dates and cut them in large pieces. Cut the citron, leaving the pieces quite large but very thin. Leave the nuts as large as possible—although the Brazil nuts will need to be cut in at least two pieces. With the fruit and nuts already—here are the directions for mixing this fruit cake:

Cream the shortening, add the sugar gradually, and cream thoroughly. Blend in the well beaten eggs. Sift the flour once before measuring, then sift the flour, baking powder, salt and spices together. Mix 1 cup of this flour mixture with the fruit and nuts. Add the remainder to the creamed mixture—alternately with the milk and corn syrup (which have been stirred together). Blend in the wine (or fruit juice) and the vanilla. Stir in the fruit and nuts. Pour into 2 loaf pans 8 inches deep and 4½ by 8½ inches (measured across the top) which have been lined with 2 thicknesses of paper that are well buttered. Bake for 2 hours in a slow oven, 275° F. The oven should be preheated so that it is slightly more than 275° F. when you put the cakes in. If you have a regulator—keep it at 275° F. for the entire baking time.

One special precaution. Because of the large pieces of fruit and the whole nuts—you will need a very sharp thin bladed knife to cut this cake evenly.

OIL INDUSTRIES START ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN

With December issues of state newspapers, the Texas Oil Industry through its service organization, the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association, will begin a series of institutional and educational advertising.

"It is logical that Texas, being the biggest producer of oil, should think along lines of institutional advertising," George C. Gibbons, executive vice president of the oil and gas group, said. "Twenty-five percent of all the oil in the world and forty percent of the oil in America comes from Texas. One hundred and thirty-four countries now in production with exploration located throughout the state are now in production with exploration or leasing under headway in all but fourteen counties of the 254."

"Outside competition has forced average well production to such a low figure in Texas today that only by most careful management can our industry survive its fixed overhead costs. If through this institutional advertising program we can help stimulate the bringing of other industry into the state, we can help stimulate added employment and incidentally our own industry through the use of more of our products at home."

"Each time we interest other industry in coming to Texas to use our oil products we cut down exportation of our surplus. The new paper mill at Lufkin is an example in point. Though the paper is made of another raw product, timber, it is made possible through the tremendous supply of cheap fuel. Much of our raw product is yet to be processed within the state. Wool and cotton are both examples of such opportunities."

"The oil industry has made tremendous strides in the processing of its crude oil, now refining more than eighty percent within the state's borders and thereby furnishing employment for many thousands of Texas people."

"The advertising series will endeavor to portray to the public the part the oil industry plays in the economic life of Texas and its contribution to employment, tax revenues, distribution of new wealth created through constant production of oil and the advantage it offers to new industry."

PEOPLE URGED TO BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS

Washington, Dec. 7.—The campaign against tuberculosis, made possible by Christmas Seals, merits the support of all people. President Roosevelt said today in praising the activities of the National Tuberculosis Association.

The 33rd annual Christmas Seal Campaign of the National Association and its nearly two thousand affiliated groups throughout the country starts on December 1.

"As the Christmas Season approaches, my mind is drawn to the fact that it is again time for all of us to give our support to the sale of Christmas Seals," President Roosevelt said.

"This is such a well established custom in the United States that it seems hardly necessary again to call the attention of the people to its importance."

"Tuberculosis still menaces the lives of all our citizens and it leads in the cause of death of those between the ages of fifteen and forty-five. The fine work that has been done by the National Tuberculosis Association in the prevention of this dreaded disease merits the continued support of all the people of our country."

Dr. Bob B. Caveness, Dentist, of Seagraves spent the week-end with his parents, and his sister, Mrs. Henry L. Dixon and her family.

Suffering Women Welcome "Build-Up"

A simple method is saving many women much pain and discomfort! It is based on the knowledge that women's headaches, nervousness, and cramp-like pain often are symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to a weak, run-down, under-nourished condition. That so many women find relief from these painful symptoms through the CARDUI "build-up" is easy to explain. By improving the appetite, assisting digestion and assimilation, CARDUI helps to build physical resistance against periodic pain. Thousands of women also report that CARDUI, taken just before and during "the time," helps to ease periodic pain.

LIFE INSURANCE REPORT SHOWS INCREASE

A business impetus that bids fair to continue unabated into 1940 is seen in a brief economic survey just made by the life insurance fraternity, according to Mrs. Gladys M. Stokes representative of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company here.

A few of the national barometers embodied in the survey to which Mrs. Stokes referred include:

An increase of 86 per cent in the building industry, the highest advance since June, 1937, with private awards 182 per cent larger for this period of the year than the same period of 1938.

Motor car sales setting an all-time high, with the greatest volume of unfilled orders in the history of this industry.

A rapidly expanding volume of orders for airplane production, with more than $200,000,000 in requests pending.

Five mills of the nation operating at 100 per cent capacity, and production averages exceeding all previous records (war orders not included).

A gain of 24 per cent in paint sales.

Railroads and truck lines enjoying best business in years.

The report, Mrs. Stokes said, pointed to the increased employment nationally, with actual shortage of skilled workers claimed in some spots.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bostick, who have resided at south Ward for the past several years, have recently purchased a house in Tahoka, moving into it a few days ago. Mr. Bostick is a member of the Tahoka School Faculty.

TAHOKANS ON VISIT INSPECT SUBMARINE DESTROYER

Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell Cox and two sons of the Three Lakes community had a most pleasant and interesting trip down state last week. The greatest thrill of the trip was experienced at Corpus Christi, when to their great surprise they spotted a strange, heavily armed little vessel at the dock of the bay, which they soon learned was a submarine destroyer. Mrs. Cox Monday gave us a rather minute description of the formidable vessel, which it would be impossible for us to repeat here accurately or even intelligently, but it was an interesting boat, kept well guarded while it was in dock there for two days undergoing minor repairs.

Mrs. Cox learned that there are five such vessels plying the waters of the Gulf of Mexico, a part of Uncle Sam's navy.

The Cox family left here Sunday, November 24, bound for Kilgore, where they expected to visit her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Crews. Upon arrival at Kilgore, they learned that Mr. Crews and family themselves were away on a trip and expected to arrive at their home here on the very day that they left. The Crews family did in fact arrive here on that date and learning that the Cox family had gone to East Texas they proceeded homeward, but arrived at home after the Cox family had been there. The Coxes visited other relatives, however, at Grand Saline, Tyler, Henderson, and other points and then came to Denton, where their daughter is in school. She accompanied them on the trip to Corpus, all stopping en route to visit relatives in Mart and Waco.

Mr. and Mrs. Crews, Mrs. Cox is informed, are coming back to Tahoka in a short time to visit them here.

DUNAGANS HAVE PLEASANT VISIT IN EAST TEXAS

Just as we were bringing the paper off the press last week, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dunagan returned from a three-weeks visit with their daughters and other relatives in Central and East Texas, one daughter at Bynum in Hill county and three at Madisonville in Madison county.

When they reached Madisonville, their youngest daughter, known here as Miss Bobbie Dunagan, introduced them to their newest son-in-law, Mr. Ira Knox, he and Miss Bobbie having married on November 9. Miss Bobbie formerly worked in the office of the county clerk here but had been employed in Madisonville the past eighteen months.

While visiting their daughter at Bynum they attended a great "home-coming" celebration at Frost in Navarro county, where the Dunagans lived for a long time before coming to Tahoka. A. L. says old-time friends were there from every point of the compass, many of them coming "a fur piece" to be present.

While in southeast Texas they also visited a sister of Mrs. Dunagan in Houston, and on the return trip home they stopped in Austin two or three days to visit two other sisters of hers and a brother of Mr. Dunagan.

By the way, Mr. Dunagan confided to us that young Mr. Knox is their eleventh "in-law." How many daddies and mothers in this county can point to a record like that?

ODDS AND ENDS

By Bee Eye
the Elder

From the very beginning, music has been associated with Christianity. At the institution of the Lord's Supper, we are told that after they had eaten "and had sung a hymn, they went out". The singing of spiritual or sacred songs is mentioned and enjoined in connection with worship in a number of the books of the New Testament. The singing of the psalms and the playing of various kinds of musical instruments indeed characterized Jewish worship long before the coming of Christ. In fact, music of a crude form has been connected with many forms of Pagan worship.

But in none of the great religions of the world has music played anything like the prominent part that it has played in the worship of the Christians. Christianity is a singing religion. Paul and Silas sang and prayed in jail; and many another martyr since their day has done the same thing.

There is no way of knowing how much the singing of devotional songs has contributed to the propagation and spread of the Christian religion. Imagine a Sunday morning service without any singing, any music. Imagine a revival meeting, if you can, without singing. Christian ownership everywhere, in all the churches, under tent, or tabernacle, or brush arbor, in cathedral and in shanty, has ever been accompanied by the singing of hymns. Millions of people have been led to embrace religion and to profess faith through the power of the gospel expressed in song.

Some of the songs sung in church services in these latter days, we must confess, are very light and meaningless, some of them the sheerest kind of doggerel. They inspire no spirit of reverence or devotion. Some of them in fact inspire a spirit of levity. Some of them are freakish and are intended to be so. Such music should be thrown out the window of our churches.

But there is a wealth of fine old hymns and occasionally a fine new hymn that count for much in our church services—hymns that are real poems, devotional in spirit, set to music which itself inspires a spirit of reverence and worship.

Who has not felt the all-but-irresistible power of such hymns as "Amazing Grace", "There Is a Fountain Filled with Blood", "How Firm a Foundation", "Am I a Soldier of the Cross", "Children of the Heavenly King", "Jesus, Lover of My Soul", "Rock of Ages", "Near the Cross", "Nearer, My God, to Thee", "My Faith Looks Up to Thee", "Holy Spirit, Faithful Guide", "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah", "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing", and many, many others?

In many hymns, the poetry is just as fine and beautiful, the literary merit just as excellent, in our humble opinion, as many of the best productions of the secular writers which are taught as literature in our schools and colleges. Few literary gems are more beautiful than, for instance, the little hymn beginning with these lines:

Twilight is falling over the sea,
Shadows are stealing dark on the lea;
Borne on the night winds, voices of yore
Come from the far-off shore.
What is more poetic than these lines taken from the hymn, "He Leadeth Me":

Sometimes mid scenes of deepest gloom,
Sometimes where Eden's towers bloom,
By waters still, o'er troubled sea—
Still 'tis God's hand that leadeth me.

Or take these lines inspired by the Twenty-third Psalm:
Savior, like a shepherd lead us;
Much we need Thy tender care;
In Thy pleasant pastures feed us,
For our use Thy folds prepare.
More exalted still are these stately lines:

Lead, kindly Light, amid th' encircling gloom Lead Thou me on!
The night is dark, and I am far from home;
Lead Thou me on!
Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see
The distant scene;
One step enough for me.
And here is the first verse of another of our finest hymns:
Abide with me; fast falls the even-tide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with

Miss Smith Goes to Hollywood

RADIO'S greatest stay-at-home, singer Kate Smith, recently broke away from her New York moorings and went to Hollywood to be guest of honor at the premiere of "Drums Along the Mohawk." Though busy with her broadcasts, Kate did everything worth doing, saw everything worth seeing, including the picture stars in their native haunts. The cameraman found her (1) lunching with Brenda Joyce and Richard Greene at the 24th Century-Fox studio commissary; (2) with Nancy Kelly and Henry Stephenson; (3) with Ted Collins (Left) in the office of movie producer Darryl Zanuck who asked Kate to star in a picture. However, the songstress found movie commitments impossible at present what with her radio work, and waved farewell to Screenland (4) from the steps of the train that will carry her back to New York and her Friday night broadcasts over Columbia.

me abide:
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,

Help of the helpless, O abide with me.
It is hard to tell which is the finest of the three verses composing this selection, the first verse being:

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty;
Hold me with Thy powerful hand:
Bread of Heaven, Feed me till
I want no more;
Bread of Heaven, Feed me till
I want no more.

Here is another great prayer set to music:
Jesus, Savior, pilot me
Over Life's tempestuous sea;
Unknown waves before me roll,
Hiding rocks and treacherous shoal;
Chart and compass come from Thee,
Jesus, Savior, pilot me.
What rhapsody is contained in this fine production!
Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels descending, bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love.
What hymn has a greater appeal than this?

On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wistful eye
To Caanan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.
I am bound for the promised land,
I am bound for the promised land;

O who will come and go with me?
I am bound for the promised land.
And here is a strongly imaginative number:

I know I'm rearing the holy ranks
Of friends and kindred dear,
For I brush the dew on Jordan's banks.
The crossing must be near.
O come, angel band, come and around me stand;
O bear me away on your snowy wings
To my immortal home,
O bear me away on your snowy wings
To my immortal home

And we could quote from many, many other hymns almost if not quite as fine as the above specimens.

These great hymns were written by persons of many different denominations. Not one of the authors, however, belonged to any modern denomination that claims that it alone teaches the true way of salvation and that only its members are given any assurance of reaching Heaven?

Is it possible that the writers of these great hymns all missed Heaven or will miss it when they are called hence by the Angel of Death? Is there no Christ to pilot them across the sea? Are there no angel bands to bear them home?

O that we might be more tolerant of those who disagree with us! O that we might be broader-minded and more sympathetic with our fellow-men in this matter of religion.

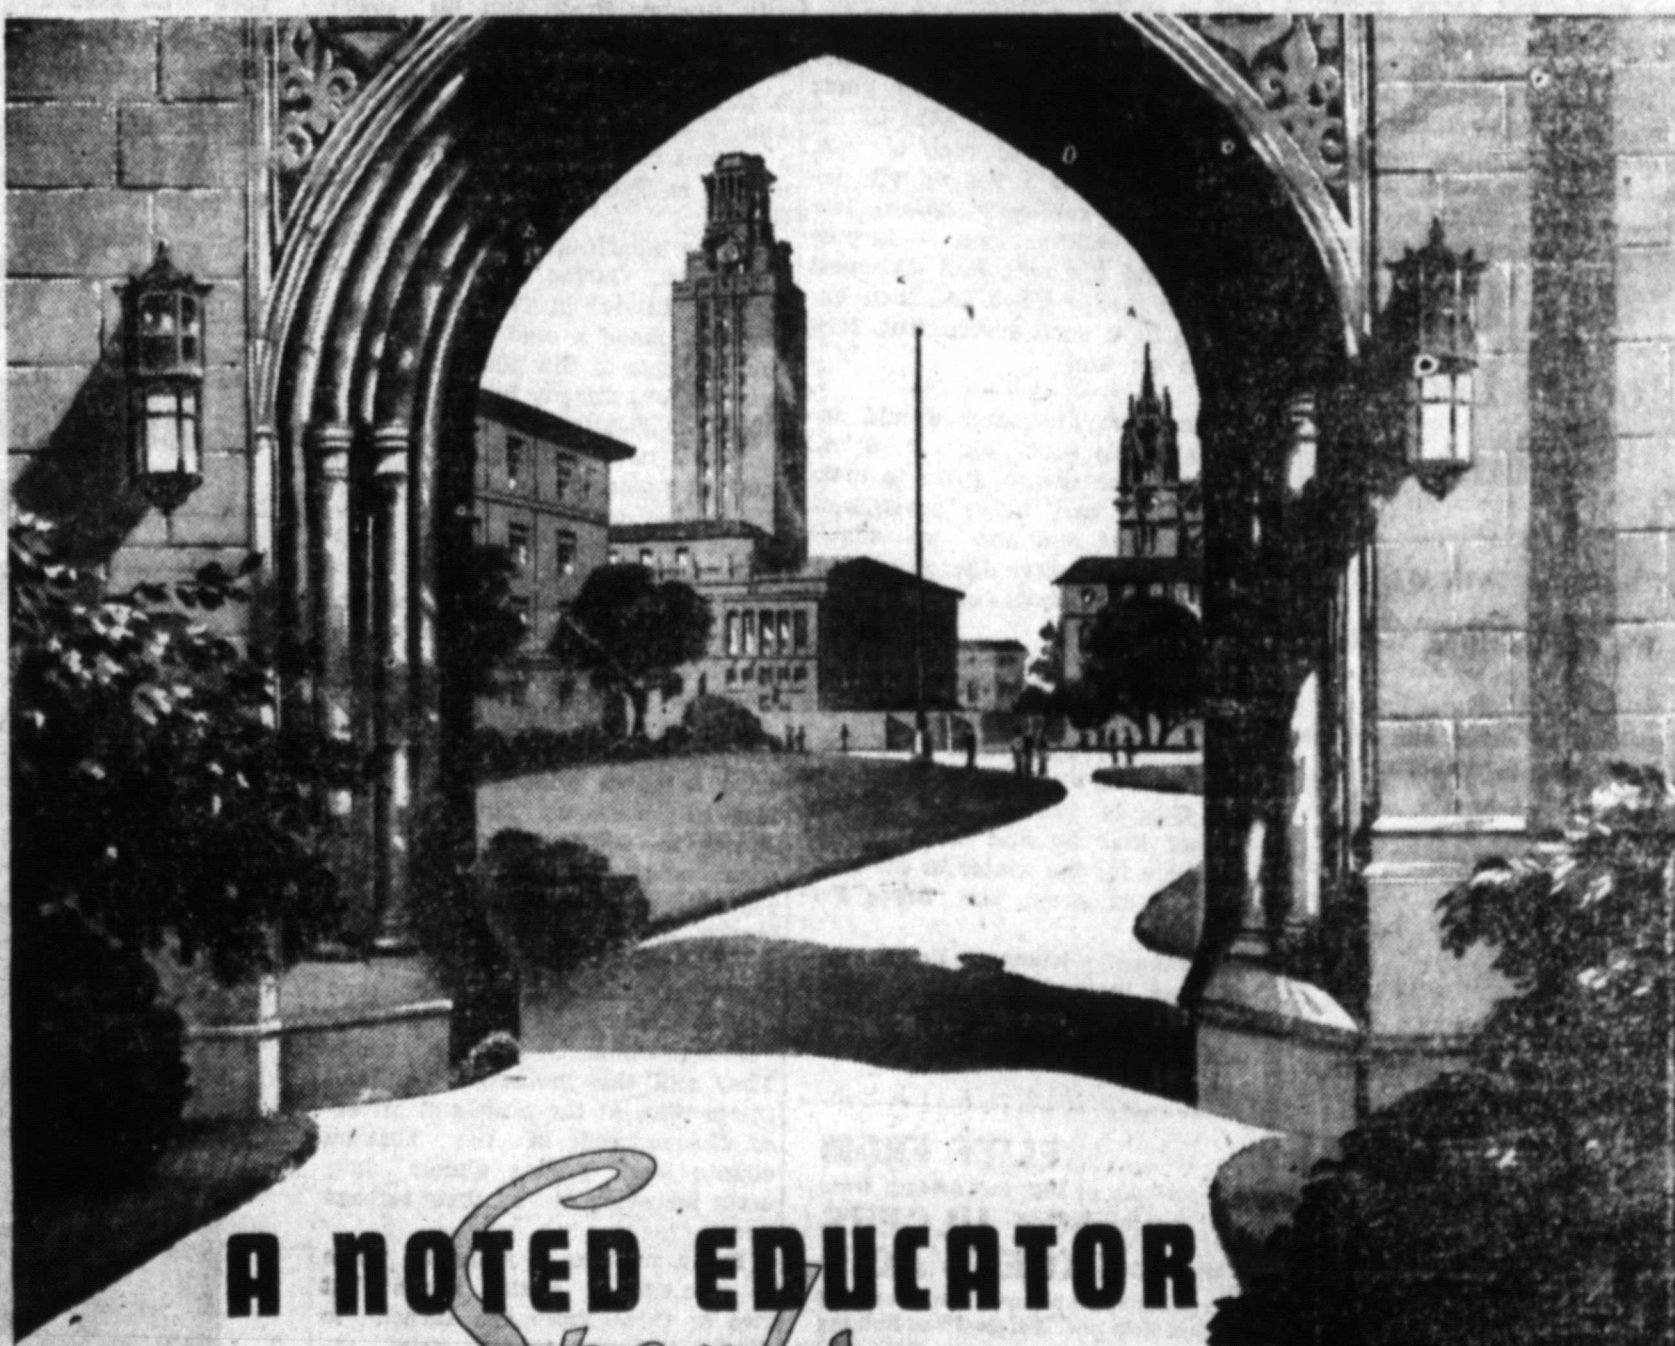

It might be well for us narrow-minded fellows to again examine our respective positions respecting spiritual matters in the light of what Jesus himself did and said and taught.

A NOTED EDUCATOR Speaks...

Dr. Homer P. Rainey, President of the University of Texas, has analyzed Texas' future possibilities in repeated public address. These statements express his thought:

"The next stage in the progress of Texas lies in the development of our great industrial and commercial possibilities."

"A program of industrial development centers around the manufacture of raw materials into finished products."

"American industry is moving closer to its raw material sources. We in Texas can capitalize on this movement if the opportunity is grasped."

"Our great highway development, coupled with industrial progress, will greatly aid the Texas farmer in his marketing problem."

"The best measure of the importance of an enterprise is the employment it creates and the income it produces."

"Our need for increased employment requires the keenest intelligence in solving the problem. Our boys and girls must be trained in highly efficient schools to meet the growing needs of farm and business."

"Our Universities are dedicated to a program of scientific training and research which will create employment and build industry to use our raw materials at home."

"Repeated failures did not stop our hardy pioneers in the building of our present empire. The same spirit must prevail for a successful future."

The Texas oil industry recognizes the soundness of these broad principles. They underlie present employment and provide for expanded future employment for our Texas people. The vital part oil plays today in putting these principles into actual practice will be portrayed in a series of advertisements to follow in this publication.

It's a shame how those little countries of Europe for the past year have been trying to gobble up the big ones. First Austria got pert and began to harass Germany to such an extent as to cause the big boy real alarm. In self defense, Germany just had to go over and thrash the life out of Austria. It wound up by Austria finding herself in Germany's dog house under the protection of big German guns pointed in her direction. Then little old Czechoslovakia decided she would clean up on Germany, and started a war, to hear Hitler tell it, and so Germany had to go over and murder a lot of her women and children and take the poor, ob-streperous little up-start under her protecting wing. Poland was the next urchin that undertook to oppress Germany, and just look what happened to her. Now, little old Finland has decided that she will put big old Russia out of business.
Accordingly, she rushed across the border, according to the Bolshevik dictator Stalin, and began shooting up the country. In sheer self defense, Russia just had to send her army, her navy, and her air force over into Finnish territory, Finnish air, and Finnish waters and finish up the Finns. It's awful the way

Germany and Russia have been imposed on by their impudent little neighbors.

Conservation is getting to be a great word. It should be, for it is a great idea. We hear much about water conservation, soil conservation, oil and gas conservation, and so on. Just now farmers are beginning to wake up also to the importance of feed conservation. There has always been great waste, out in this western country, in the feeding of maize and kaffir and higeri and kindred feedstuffs to livestock.
It has been the custom to allow a great part of the stalk to go to waste in the fields or to throw bundle feed on the ground in an open lot where the stalk is trampled under foot and even much of the grain is wasted. Progressive stock farmers are learning that this is extremely wasteful. They are learning that practically all of the stalk as well as the grain can be conserved and utilized as feed. The trench silo has shown them the way.
The stalk and the grain are cut and ground up together, placed in these trenches with a heavy admix-ture of water, packed down, and covered with earth, and thus the ensilage may be preserved indefinitely. When uncovered months or even years later, the feed is found to be practically as fresh and nutritive as when first stored away;
and cattle and work stock will eat and relish practically every jot and tittle of it. We are steadily learning to conserve.

Perfidy and treachery and brutality have marked the career of almost every despot in history. The careers of Hitler and Stalin are no exception to the rule. But rarely ever has a despot come to a happy end. Usually they become the victims of the same kind of perfidy and treachery and cruelty that they practice toward others. Or, sometimes, they become the victims of the righteous wrath and resentment of an outraged people. There is Hell down the road somewhere for these European dictators, for they have been busy dealing out Hell to others.

He would be a foolish farmer who would deliberately or carelessly plant undeveloped or inferior seed in his fields and expect to reap a rich harvest, in the fall. Yet we will deliberately or carelessly plant immature or inferior men—in competent and ignorant and dishonest men—in public office and then expect to have good government. How foolish we are!

O how we Americans should appreciate this good old U. S. A. I And how we should strive to make it a better and juster government day by day! And how we should guard and preserve the great fundamental principles on which it was founded!

FORMER PREACHER SUCCEEDS
AS STOCK FARMER

One of the most successful stock farmers anywhere on the South Plains is Rev. H. D. Heath, a former resident of Lynn county who now resides about ten miles northwest of Tokio and almost the same distance north-east of Plains, Yokum county, on a large farm and ranch which he has acquired and paid for since he retired from the ministry about fifteen years ago.

The editor and wife accepted an urgent invitation to spend the day with Brother Heath and his good wife last Sunday. Present in the afternoon also were Mr. and Mrs.
L. C. Heath of Brownfield and two sons, their daughter, Louise, being a student in Texas Tech, who also resided in Tahoka for a number of years.

In the Heath home resides their son-in-law, George Halliday, who formerly resided in Tahoka and at one time made a creditable race for county judge of this county. He inquired about friends here.

Brother Heath owns three and a half sections of land, clear of debt, most of which is in cultivation. On this is the comfortable, well furnished home with all modern conveniences, as running water, electric lights, mechanical refrigerator, radio, etc. Two or three years ago he bought nine other sections of grass land, one of which he sold in turn to his son, L. C. Heath. This year, he planted no cotton but had 1,800 acres in feed. Much of this feed he converted into ensilage, storing more than 800 tons of it in trench silos. He is now fattening 300 head of steers and cows. He will market them next spring and they should bring him a pot of gold.

Rev. and Mrs. Heath at one time owned a couple of farms in the Dixie community in this county.
They sold this property when land prices were at the peak and invested the proceeds in the Yokum county land, getting almost four acres for every one of their acreage here.

For a number of years he made a specialty of raising mules but two or three years ago turned to cattle. Untiring energy, strict attention to his business, good business judgment, and the assistance of a son who lives on the property and has acquired quite a bit of acquirement of his own, are responsible for his successful operations.

Mrs. Charley Latham visited her son, Monroe Ayres and family in Lubbock over the week-end.

Women: "Build-Up"
To Relieve Pain

A weak, run-down, undernourished condition calls for attention!

Such a condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get its foothold. That's one thing which leads to much of women's suffering from headaches, nervousness, those cramp-like pains. A good way to relieve such pains, women by thousands have found, is by the proper use of CARDUI. It stimulates a lagging appetite, assists digestion and assimilation; thus helps build physical resistance to periodic pain.
Taken just before and during "the time," many women also report that CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

So I looked all of them over and

JANE RABORN AND RAY HICKERSON WED

Miss Jane Raborn became the bride of Ray Hickerson last Wednesday night, November 29, in a ring ceremony consummated at the Baptist Parsonage. Reverend Geo. A. Dale performed the ceremony.

Present were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Raborn, her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Raborn, Jr. The groom's parents intended to attend, but were too late for the ceremonies due to illness.

Immediately following the ceremonies, the happy couple left for El Paso and New Mexico for a short wedding trip, returning Sunday.

The bride is a graduate of Little Rock high school, Little Rock, Ark. She moved here with her parents almost a year ago, and is employed as bookkeeper at the Raborn Chevrolet Co.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hickerson, who reside at Three Lakes west of Tahoka. He is a graduate of Tahoka high school and is at present employed at Edwards Implement Co.

The couple will make their home in the little Craft house. It has been remodeled for them, with new wallpaper and paint.

ANNUAL SCHOOL OF MISSIONS NEXT WEEK

The Annual Cooperative School of Missions in Brownfield Baptist Association, participated in by fourteen churches of this Association and one of the Lubbock Association, will begin December 10, and close December 17, 1939. Returned or furloughed missionaries will hold one or more programs daily in these fifteen churches. Information about every Mission Field of the Southern Baptist Convention will be given at these meetings, most of which will be held at night.

In addition to the daily meetings held simultaneously in these fifteen churches there will be two general meetings in which representatives and visitors from all churches in the Association will come together for programs directed by these Missionaries.

The first meeting will be an all day affair in the Baptist Church in Ropesville, Wednesday, December 13. The second and last meeting of the Association-wide week - long Mission School will be held in Tahoka Baptist Church at 2:30 P. M. Sunday, December 17.

In addition to talks by Missionaries and reports of the week's activities, there will be a special message by Dr. R. C. Campbell, Baptist State Secretary.

Like all other cooperating Churches Tahoka will have a daytime program on each of the two Sundays, Dr. R. E. Beddoe on December 10, and Dr. R. C. Campbell on December 17.

The hour for the night programs is 7:30, and the following speakers are scheduled to appear as given: Monday night, Miss Alma Jackson, Sao Paulo, South Brazil Mission. Tuesday night, Dr. J. J. Cowert, and Wednesday night Mrs. J. J. Cowert, both of whom are from the South Brazil Mission. On Thursday night Dr. Clem D. Hardy of the North Brazil Mission will speak, while the speaker for Friday night will be Mrs. Richardson, Missionary to India.

Having served so long in China, and being so recently from there, Dr. and Mrs. Beddoe have experienced many things and his talk will doubtless be very interesting and worth while.

Breath Bad, Lousy? You May Need This

Just as the lighthouse flashes a friendly warning to sailors, so Nature sends out headaches, bad breath, biliousness, which often warn of constipation.

Too many misunderstand or neglect these symptoms and thereby may invite a host of constipation's other discomforts: sour stomach, belching, loss of appetite or energy.

Be wise. Take spicy, all vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT tonight by simple directions and clear your bowels gently, promptly, thoroughly. This intestinal tonic-laxative helps give tone to lazy bowels.

Its long life and popularity testify to BLACK-DRAUGHT'S merit.

Pace, Lloyd Edwards, Claude Donaldson, Elbert Rogers, Skip Taylor, Clay Hughes, O. A. Lammell, Fred Bucy, W. H. Kenley, V. D. Armstrong, W. T. Hanes, Deen Nowlin, Harley Henderson, L. D. Howell, K. BOYS STRUCK BY CAR OR TRUCK AT O'DONNELL

What came near proving a fatal accident to two O'Donnell youths, Fred and Orville Braswell, was reported last Saturday night when a passing motorist's light revealed the two lying unconscious by the roadside near the Clinic.

It is not known who struck the boys, but one of them said later that as they walked beside the pavement a car overtook them and ran out on the gravel, striking them before they could get out of the way.

They were carried to a Lamesa hospital where both regained consciousness some time Sunday. Fred, about 15 or 16, was bruised about the head and body in addition to an injured hip, crushed ankle, and some dislocated ribs. Orville about thirteen, seems to have sustained serious internal injuries. Both boys are now being cared for in the home of their parents at O'Donnell.

The boys are nephews of Mmes. Elmer Richey and Julia Houston of Tahoka.

MORE PECANS

Now comes B. J. Emanuel of Garbolia, representing the farmers, and proving by samples, that good pecans can be grown in the county. Mr. Emanuel could not recall the name of his pecans but they are a softshell variety, full of meat of a good flavor. Mr. Emanuel says that he has not sprayed nor given the trees any special care but has gathered some nuts from each tree each year of the last seven, or since the trees were three years old. He thinks late freezes and bad sandstorm are the greatest disadvantages to growing pecans on the Plains. But farm wind-breaks may overcome even that handicap in time. Who knows?

HOWELLS HAVE REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Howell had as their Thanksgiving dinner guests their son Wade, who is a student in the Texas Tech, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Walters, Brownfield and the following brothers and sisters of Mrs. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Walters and two children, Brownfield; Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Snodgrass and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dickson and daughter, Mrs. R. C. Loyd and baby, all of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Oran Short, Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tunnell and daughter, Pamela, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Pennington, and daughter, Doris Ann, left Wednesday morning for Boaz, Ala., where the Penningtons expect to remain indefinitely. Mr. and Mrs. Tunnell plan to drive back through Mississippi, Louisiana and other parts of Texas, reaching home before Christmas.

W. J. Baldwin of Levelland, until recently the owner and publisher of The Hockley County Herald, was here Wednesday returning from a trip in South Texas, having gone as far down as Corpus Christi. He made a pleasant call at the News office.

Judge and Mrs. F. W. Goad, who have been at Mineral Wells the past two weeks recuperating and taking the mineral baths, were expected to return home Thursday night or Friday. Miss Floyce Sherrod kept office for Judge Goad during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wells and family are planning to leave Sunday to visit Mrs. Coleman Wells and daughter, Mary Bland, at Temple. Mrs. Wells is ill in a hospital there.

Mrs. Josie Dossett of Fort Worth came Wednesday for a visit with three of her daughters, Mrs. S. H. Holland, Mrs. Paul Johnson and Mrs. E. O. Overman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Promand and daughter, Dorothy, accompanied members of the Johnson family to Paris, Texas, Monday night and attended the funeral of Monroe Johnson there on Tuesday.

J. Q. WARNICK HAS INJURY TO EYES

J. Q. Warnick, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Warnick of Lubbock and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Small of Tahoka, suffered very painful injuries to both eyes while playing at his parent's home late Wednesday afternoon.

Squeezing in his hand some kind of wild berries that he had found a charge of the juice entered each of the little fellow's eyes and caused so much pain and swelling that it was, at first, feared that his sight would be lost or seriously impaired. Reports today are that no serious damage will result from this strange accident.

LEGION AUXILIARY

Tahoka Legion Auxiliary has been invited to attend the monthly meeting of the 19th District Legion and Auxiliary which meets at Snyder Tuesday night, December 12. All who can are urged to attend.

Harold Snowden is recovering nicely after undergoing tonsillectomy Wednesday.

IRWIN HENDERSON KILLED AT BIG SPRING

Mrs. L. C. Crews of Petty and Mrs. H. P. Lindley of T-Bar were called to Big Spring Wednesday by news of the death of their brother Irwin W. Henderson who died instantly of a broken neck when his car crashed into a concrete culvert at Big Spring where he lived. Funeral rites were to be conducted there. Mr. Henderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Henderson were long time residents of the T-Bar community.

LYNN COUNTY WILL CELEBRATE COTTON WEEK

the essays written by these winners will be submitted to a committee appointed by the Rotary Club to determine whose winning essay is the best. The final winner will be awarded an additional grand prize of $5.00.

In order to launch and stimulate interest in these essay writing contests and to otherwise promote the cotton campaign, programs will be given in various communities in the county.

On Thursday afternoon immediately following the Rotary Luncheon, Donald Turner, W. T. Hanes, and Frank P. Hill started out to arrange a schedule of programs. Before night they were ready to report that the first program would be held in the New Home High School auditorium on that very night.

Other programs had been arranged as follows: Monday night at Draw, Wednesday night at New Lynn, and either Tuesday night or Thursday night at Grassland. Still others are to be arranged.

These are to be musical programs given by the Band and the Choral Club of the Tahoka High School, and probably a talk explaining the nature of the contests and promoting the Use-More-Cotton campaign generally.

Another way in which the Council hoped to promote the campaign and emphasize the use of cotton was to ask the merchants in the county to feature cotton goods and cotton Christmas gifts in their stores and show windows this month.

Also, farmers and their wives are urged to make cotton mattresses from cotton grown on their farms, and the county home demonstration agent, Miss Maurine McNatt, has already given one demonstration in mattress making and is to give another such demonstration in the courthouse today.

In short, every family in the county, whether residing on the farm or in the town, is urged to make larger use of cotton goods. If this is done throughout Texas and the entire South, it is believed that the result would be most helpful and gratifying.

Wreck Victims Carried
To Fort Sill, Okla.

Jack Cox and Robert Thornbrough, the two boys who were so seriously hurt when their car struck a calf and overturned on highway No. 9 about six miles north of Tahoka on Sunday morning, November 26, and who have since been receiving treatment in Mercy Hospital in Slaton, were transferred to the Government Hospital at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, on Wednesday of this week, in a Harris ambulance driven by W. O. Robertson.

The boys were employed in the C. C. Camp in Lubbock at the time. They were first taken to the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock but transferred to Mercy Hospital the next day. For a number of days, relatives here expressed little hope for their recovery, and judging by the number and severity of the injuries they sustained it does seem miraculous that they are still living, but apparently they have shown considerable improvement the past few days. Robert Thornbrough in particular, and it is now hoped that in the course of time they may recover.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS HAVE DINNER AT MEXICAN INN

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell attended a dinner at the Mexican Inn in Lubbock Saturday night given for the county superintendents of the sixteen counties included in the South Plains district.

Mrs. Tunnell gave a report on the convention held in San Antonio last week, and Mr. E. Esten Day, deputy state superintendent, discussed the latest rulings and changes respecting the Rural Aid law.

Twelve Superintendents and a number of other guests were present.

Lester Adams Scores
High In Cattle Judging

With a score of 50½ out of a possible 60, Lester Adams of Tahoka is one of the ten highest students in dairy cattle judging at John Tarleton College. Competing against a field of over two hundred contestants, Adams has consistently ranked high in all phases of stock judging, and has an excellent chance at making the Tarleton stock judging team, which will compete against colleges of equal rank in a number of competitions.

The John Tarleton judging teams have been consistent winners for a period of years. A large percentage of the Tarleton boys have made the Stock Judging teams at A. & M. after leaving Tarleton.

Miss Lucille Patterson is spending the week with her brother, E. T. Patterson, and his family at Hale center.

Thursday Afternoon

Funeral services for Clinton Smith, three months old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith of Draw, were conducted at the Draw Methodist Church at one o'clock Thursday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Young.
