HOW TO TURN IN A FIRE ALARM

You don't have to be in doubt as to how to get the fire department on the job in case of fire. Simply dial this number:

In daytime someone at the city hall will answer.

At night, the dialing of this number will set off an alarm at a place where the night patrolman, Elmo Owen, will hear it. There are alarm signals at Western Drug, Muleshoe Locker, and Phillips Service Station. He will soon notice it, answer the call and cause the alarm to be sounded. Or you may call:

4000 — Bill Boothe

But, if you don't get too impatient, the night patrolman will soon catch the signal. The number 3450 is an important one to remember; no telling when you'll need the number and don't want to wait to look it up. Prompt reporting of a fire goes a long way toward getting the blaze under control early.

Red Johnson, the furniture man, bought a shiny new '58 Oldsmobile from Fred Johnson (no kin, they both insist). Red says: "All that car wants is more highway". After two weeks, he's got 22 miles on the speedometer.

Puffs from The GULF BREEZE

Some men wake up and find themselves famous others stay up all night and become notorious.

The fellow who thinks himself a wit is usually half right.

How busy is not so important as why busy. The bee is congratulated; the mosquito is swatted.

The Kent family was amazed when 1,400 persons registered for the grand opening of their new furniture store here. They are sold on the power of Journal advertising; for a one-page advertisement in this paper was the only public announcement they had made. Newspaper advertising is, we think, both effective and comparatively less expensive. Many others must think so, for newspapers the country over are experiencing a constantly increasing patronage.

Various companies have varying experiences with different forms of advertising. About the time this writer got to be a "Love Lucy" TV fan, Phillip Morris discontinued their sponsorship of the program, will spend more money on newspaper advertising in the future. Head of the company said: "It is a wonderful program, but it doesn't sell Phillip Morris cigarettes."

RODEO PEOPLE WILL MISS WILLIS BRANSCUM

Muleshoe's annual three-day rodeo begins today but as the promoters, cowboys and wranglers go about their activities in preparation for the exciting events, their thoughts are bound to revert to one who will not be with them this year.

Willis Branscum has been more than just a supplier of rodeo stock. In times past he has been the announcer, the expeditor, and the man whose enthusiastic spirit brought enthusiasm to those around him and to the spectators.

When he announced, he was more than an announcer. Willis often filled in the brief wait between events by giving the crowd some pertinent history of the development of the rodeo, something about the Brahma bulls that were performing something about the cowboys themselves. He kept things going, kept the big crowd interested in what was going on. He was at once announcer and manager, the historian, and intelligent commentator.

Now Willis lies ill. He won't be present physically, but his spirit will be right with the members of the Muleshoe Roping Club, who stage the show, with the rodeo performers, animal handlers, reporters, onlookers, who are all his friends.

And all his friends are pulling for him in his fight against the dread disease that keeps him from attending this year's rodeo; and they are hoping that he will by another year be able again to take part in this show in which he has such great interest and which he helped to develop to its present stature.

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN

Three Day Rodeo Is Beginning Here Today

Tonight is rodeo night in Muleshoe. At 8:15 p. m. the eight annual non-professional, amateur rodeo will get underway with the first of what is scheduled to be three days of fast moving entertainment.

Entry books closed today at noon and a long list of competitive cowboys and cowgirls are now waiting to dish out thrills and chills to those looking on as the show's five events are unreeled in rapid fire order.

From early until late, there is not one dull moment expected as men like announcer Clayton Myers provide laughs and side-lights to give the annual affair all the trimmings of a first rate rodeo.

Calf ropers and double muggers are predicted to be throwing some mighty fast loops to keep in step with those entered in saddle bronc riding, bull riding, bareback riding, and the ladies barrel race.

A big dance will follow the show each night at the American Legion Home, featuring music by the Rhythm Ramblers.

Farmers Must Sign Housing Statement By September 10

According to information received Monday by the Texas Farm Bureau Association, from the Department of Labor, farmers who have failed to sign a housing statement or Form 342 A by Sept. 10, will not be permitted to use Mexican Nationals, said Arvis Grogan.

Mr. Grogan urges that farmers who are going to need the Nationals to help gather their crops, be sure and come by without further delay.

Farmers are stating that their crops are the best they have ever raised here, and it is expected to have a large demand for transient labor, Grogan said.

Revival Preacher Talks At Rotary

"With so many of us the Gods of America—Insurance, Banking and Industry," Charles Osborn, young Baptist preacher told the Rotary Club Tuesday noon. He said the tendency is to put God in a corner where we can call on Him in great emergencies; but to deny Him the homage due Him when things are going along fairly well.

The young preacher read a message from Paul's writings, but freely quoted Shakespeare, Socrates and other great thinkers to develop his theme. Despite all our strivings for world peace and happiness the great goals elude us; we have tried many schemes to perpetuate peace but peace seems as far away as ever.

A large crowd at the club meeting listened raptly to his splendid message. Rev. Osborn is pastor of the Baptist Church at Moody and is conducting the fourth revival at the First Baptist church here. The revival singer, Tom Dempsey, spoke briefly. The two were accompanied by Rev. E. K. Shepherd, church pastor. E. A. Dalton, was in charge of the program.

Three Men Charged With Bootlegging

Deputy sheriffs Garland Freeman and Bill Boothe are pictured here with a large quantity of liquor which was found in the Homer Toney Cafe here during a raid last Friday by local police officers. A total of 54 pints of wine, three cases of beer, eight 1/2 pints of whiskey and four pints of whiskey were confiscated by the authorities. Bootlegging charges were filed against three men: O. C. Jetton, Perry Lee White, and E. W. Davis.

From early until late, there is not one dull moment expected as men like announcer Clayton Myers provide laughs and side-lights to give the annual affair all the trimmings of a first rate rodeo.

Calf ropers and double muggers are predicted to be throwing some mighty fast loops to keep in step with those entered in saddle bronc riding, bull riding, bareback riding, and the ladies barrel race.

A big dance will follow the show each night at the American Legion Home, featuring music by the Rhythm Ramblers.

Clovis Airmen Involved In Wreck Here Saturday

A chase involving Sheriff Hugh Freeman and four airmen from Clovis Air Force Base ended abruptly on the Clovis highway across the street from the Shamrock Service Station Saturday night. The driver, Curtiss Hoff attempted to pass a car and hit loose gravel on the shoulder of a steep bar ditch. The '53 Ford sedan turned over four times.

Norman Paulson was thrown from the car and suffered serious injury. The other occupants of the car were reportedly in good condition. An ambulance from Clovis AFB returned Paulson to the New Mexico base Saturday night. The other three, Richard Kingery, James Gilmore, and Hoff were placed in the custody of the Air Police by Freeman.

At the time of the wreck, about 11:30 p. m. Freeman was attempting to stop the speeding car because of the reckless manner in which the airmen had previously been driving in the business district of Muleshoe. The group apparently had been drinking.

Pusan is City of Filth, Squalor, Poverty, Exciting Rev. Jones' Pity

Quite some time ago the Journal received a long and interesting letter from Rev. Carrol Jones, who as most of you know, made the trip to Korea with the Texas Friendship For Korea. The letter was misplaced, but since so many of you have been inquiring about Rev. Jones and his trip, this reporter went out to Pusan this week to see Mrs. Jones and other Texas gaggers Jones and got a letter for publication on what Rev. Jones and other Texas people who made the trip have seen, and what they have been doing.

Rev. Jones' letter in part, is as follows:

Now I have seen everything, life in the raw, and the battle for survival. In the beautiful dawn of sunrise, we docked at Pusan. Among the hundreds of cheering people, including 4-H boys and girls, we recognized Col. Anderson and Walter Parr. The Korean Military band marched out smartly and played "The Eyes of Texas," and the Korean anthem. As we docked we heard someone shout, "Hurrah For Texas." We found out later it was a boy from Texas, and he had his wife with him. Bishop Lew and several other missionaries met us, and we were ushered to the place where the welcoming ceremonies were to take place.

Appropriate speeches were made, with the final presentation being made by Jack Sloan. Mr. Sloan took a calf which had been born to one of my cows the night before and gave it to the governor of the province. Two Korean girls then brought beautiful flowers and presented them to Jack and captain Kosairacki.

After eating, we fed the stock and watched the unloading while waiting for our immigration papers to be cleared.

Last night, we were on our way back to the ship after the Army had given us supper, taken us to church services and a show, and we saw some pitiful sights. One cannot imagine the filth, squalor, stench, and poverty which is so evident in many sections of this city of almost 1,000,000 people. We saw many people sleeping on the street on the very edge of the road where wheels of traffic pass within a few feet. Several places we have seen are no better than the junk yard at Muleshoe, and not half as clean. No few words can describe the places in which some of these people live. It makes one's heart burn to realize that such a mess of humanity has to live as they do, and it gives one a feeling of inadequacy. Only education and a Christian philosophy in the hearts of these people can do the needed job.

All the people here seem to have something to sell. Words can't describe the sea of people, but they are packed to overflowing on the street. Most of the people are selling vegetables. They have their little stands on tables, boxes or on the ground. Many times we would see a woman keeping a stand with a child strapped to her back, while at the same time she would be cooking a meal on a little charcoal burner no bigger than a stove cap. On both sides of the street, and down every alley and side street as far as one can see stretch the endless markets, a longside the open sewer and gutter, against a background of too small hovels made of every thing and anything. It is enough to make a person gasp.

The first night we were here, Bobby McGuire met a girl at chapel service, who invited us to her home to talk with her and her family. She is planning to come to Ohio to study in September. The family consists of four girls, a boy and the mother and father. They are very nice people. The parents are Buddhists, but do not insist upon the children being Buddhist.

The mother plays a harp, and the father runs a drug store. A Mrs. Ratliff showed us much of the city, and took us out to Boy's Town, the Methodist Island Orphanage. We saw a

CONSTRUCTION RATE CONTINUES

Addition To Electric Co-op Building Planned

Bids for construction of an addition to the headquarters building of Bailey County Electric Cooperative in Muleshoe will be opened here at 10 a. m., Wednesday, September 7, D. B. Lancaster, manager said today.

He said the contemplated additions to the building will give 1200 square feet of floor space to the structure which is becoming a bit crowded.

There will be two additions really, one in a recess of the front wall on the southeast side, an another in a large recess on the west side. Halls and doors in suitable places will join the older parts of the building to the new offices.

The present building was erected in 1950 and is one of the most attractive in the city. It was designed by Wyatt C. Hendrick, Ft. Worth architect, whose firm has drawn the plan for the addition.

Mr. Lancaster, who last Saturday began his fifth year with the Cooperative as manager, said the Cooperative will head-quarter in the building, and the further fact that the Electric Cooperative has had a tremendous growth in the last few years, necessitated more working space.

The Five Area Telephone Cooperative recently awarded contracts for construction of outside plant and exchange buildings. Mr. Lancaster revealed that sale of electric power by the Electric Cooperative has spurred quadrupled since 1951, largely by the growth of irrigation and the electrification of many gin plants in the territory.

Dunlap's To Open In Near Future

The assistant manager, G. W. Corman, comes here from Holdenville, Okla. He and his wife have not found housing yet. They have a married daughter, who lives in Kansas.

The Dunlap building, just finished, is a handsome structure, 75 feet wide by 120 feet deep, and faces Muleshoe State Bank on Main Street.

Local Committee To Re-number City Houses

A special committee met in the office of the local Chamber of Commerce, Tuesday morning for the purpose of beginning work on the recently proposed project of renumbering houses in the City of Muleshoe. It was decided that the job must be done in the near future because of the town's rapid growth in recent years, in a recent meeting of the City's civic improvement committee.

Actual work concerning the numbering will begin on a city map tonight, when the committee is scheduled to meet in the home of Buford Butts. It is hoped that by September 1, the project will be off the drawing table, and the new system will be ready to go into effect. It has already been determined that no changes will be made concerning the names given to city streets, etc.

Co of C Adopts A New Slogan

Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce has formulated a new slogan: "A Community of Opportunity — Where Water Makes The Difference"

The slogan is to be used on all Chamber of Commerce literature, and the organization would be happy if all business and professional people will employ it on their own stationery.

The directors combined suggestions turned in by Mrs. J. W. Roberts of Muleshoe, and Tony Slaughter, a sports writer for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, using portions of each to get the new slogan. The $10 prize money was split between the two contestants, who also received a gift of 100 pounds of Muleshoe Irish potatoes, presented by Bill Millen, a local potato grower.

Ralph Mardis, president of the CoC, said 31 suggestions were received in the contest, and it took the directors a long time to decide what was the best in their opinion.

Fall Tour Set For September

Agriculturally speaking, the highlight of the year is scheduled to take place in Bailey County on September 13. Make your plans to make the tour now. It promises to be interesting, educational, and enjoyable.

REDDY'S Farm Report

FROM THE AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT
SOUTHWESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

Your grass and legume yield from permanent pasturing can be increased through pasture rotation. This type of pasturing has been greatly simplified with modern electric fences. The electric fence also permits you to take full advantage of temporary pastures, and it is equally as useful for permanent fencing.

M. L. Simpson, Jr., Castro County, reports that his dairy cow pasture produces more profit than any of his crop land. His pasture layout consists of six units divided and fenced all the way around with an electric fence. The dairy cows pasture on one plot only four nights. This system allows the grasses and legumes in the pasture to maintain a high level of vitality that keeps them growing fast and discourages weed infestation. Mr. Simpson has set a record for top production from sixty-five acres of land.

The building of an electric fence is further simplified because the fence is an open circuit. The wire leads from the controller to any number of dead ends; therefore, current for cross fencing may be taken from any point on the fence wire. The circuit is completed through the ground. For this reason your electric fencing equipment need consist of only one wire (for cattle), properly insulated posts and an adequately grounded fence controller.

Experts caution not to use a home-made fence controller of any kind and to install approved units strictly according to the manufacturer's directions. An approved fence controller is designed to deliver only a small fraction of an ampere of electricity for a duration of a small fraction of a second. The current should be interrupted, on-and-off, with impulses carefully limited and spaced. A tested and approved controller makes your electric fence a safe, economical investment for your farm.

"My electric fence is inexpensive, easy to install and practical," says M. L. Simpson, Jr., Castro County, Texas. "I can take down and rebuild a fence for an entire pasture in a few hours because of the small amount of equipment that is needed. Iron posts are installed by merely pushing them into the ground by hand."

We Want To Tell You About The New
DEXTER UNDERGROUND LAWN SPRINKLER SYSTEM

IT'S EASY TO INSTALL — There's no tearing up your lawn to install the Dexter system. After assembling above ground, you slit sod to a five inch depth, set system in ground so that sprinkler heads are at ground level, tamp down the sod and connect to outdoor water faucet.

All you need for installation is spade, wrench, knife, screwdriver, and pipe compound.

Dexter's eight solid brass sprinkler heads are adjustable from a fine mist to a coarse spray. And for sprinkling into a corner or along a walk or driveway, quarter-circle and half-circle spray adapter sleeves can be dropped into sprinkler head.

Complete, illustrated, step-by-step installation instructions are included in each Dexter Underground Lawn Sprinkler System Kit. With the installation of a Dexter Kit you take the chore out of lawn sprinkling.

It's now as simple as turning a faucet.

Miss Mary Jo White Is Bride Of Mr. Luther Clegg In Ceremony Saturday

MR. AND MRS. LUTHER CLEGG

The marriage of Miss Mary Jo White and Luther Clegg was solemnized at 8:00 p. m. Saturday, in the Muleshoe Nazarene Church, Rev. J. R. Russell, of Perryton performed the single ceremony before an archway of greenery and candelabra.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. White of Muleshoe, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clegg, of Rotan.

Mrs. Walter Herrick, of Johnson Kans., a former room mate of the bride, sang the wedding solos, "One Alone," "Bless This House," and "I Love You Truly." She was accompanied at the piano by Rufus Aylesworth, of Albuquerque, N. M., who played "O Promise Me," during the lighting of candles, and softly during the ceremony, "Indian Love Call." He also rendered the traditional wedding marches.

Mr. White gave his daughter in marriage. Her street length dress of white nylon over taffeta, featured a gathered skirt and a bodice designed with cap sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. Her fingertip length veil of illusion fell from a tiny white hat, and she carried a bouquet of red roses atop a white Bible. The Bible was given to her by her grandfather when she was eight years of age.

Miss Nita Clegg, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Her dress of blue nylon over taffeta, was designed identical to that of the bride. She carried a basket of white stock flowers.

Buddy Farr, of Texarkana served as best man. Perry Thompson of Rotan, nephew of the bridegroom, lighted candles and ushered.

RECEPTION FOLLOWED

A reception honoring the couple was held immediately following the ceremony. The serving table, covered with a beautiful cloth of white damask, was centered with the wedding cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Other appointments on the table included the napkins of white inscribed with gold letters, "Luther & Mary Jo," and the crystal punch service.

WILL MAKE HOME HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Clegg will make their home near Muleshoe, when they return from a honeymoon to Las Vegas, Taos, Santa Fe, and other points of interest in New Mexico.

The bridegroom graduated from Bethany-Penial College, Bethany, Okla., with a B. A. in English. During his college he was editor of the College Yearbook, student Council, Who's Who, and president of his literary society.

Mrs. Clegg was graduated from Bethany College with a B. A. in History. She was editor of the College year book, member of Phi Delta Lambda honor society Who's Who, and a member of the dorm council.

Clegg, mother of the bridegroom; Frances Clegg, sister of the bridegroom; Agnes Hudnell, niece of the bridegroom; Rheta Hendrix and John Potteet, all of Rotan; Roberta Posey, Wellington; Walter Herrick, White and Judy Jay, Ralls; and Carol Clegg, Sweetwater.

Gil G. Gray Shrine Circus Coming To Clovis For Second Successive Year

Local fans have it straight from the lion's mouth, and the Clovis Shrine Drum and Bugle corps, sponsors, that the world-famed Gil G. Gray Shrine Circus is coming to Clovis for the second successive year, for a two day stand at Pioneer baseball park, Sunday and Monday, August 21 and 22.

Ray's Conoco Ser. Has Successful Grand Opening

Blondy Ray is now officially back in business in Muleshoe. Ray, who for years has been one of Muleshoe's best known service station operators, welcomed many old friends and customers back to his place of business at the intersection of Highways 70 and 84, during the grand opening of his new station last Saturday.

In exactly the same location as the old station, Blondy's new business offers the very latest in modern equipment, plenty of parking space and prompt Conoco service to all customers. In design and location the new station ranks as one of Muleshoe's foremost.

Five pounds of sugar was given to each person filling their car with ten or more gallons of Conoco gasoline Saturday and there were favors for both children and grownups.

Helping Blondy and the regular crew give that thorough Conoco service to every car during the terrific opening day rush were several representatives of the Conoco company, John Miller, who operates the Conoco Wholesale Co. here joined with a special crew made up of Marvin Dunn, Plainview district manager, Dale Brown, Assistant division manager, and Jay Nagle, Conoco merchandiser from Childress.

Local fans have it straight from the lion's mouth, and the Clovis Shrine Drum and Bugle corps, sponsors, that the world-famed Gil G. Gray Shrine Circus is coming to Clovis for the second successive year, for a two day stand at Pioneer baseball park, Sunday and Monday, August 21 and 22.

Capt. Joe Horwath, above is shown with one of the lions in his den of mixed jungle beasts. Upper and lower grandstand seats will be available for youngsters of all ages at three performances scheduled for 2:30 Sunday afternoon, and at 2:30 and 8:15 p.m. Monday. Rated as America's No. 1 out door-indoor Shrine circus, and claiming more performing trained animals and more "imported" aerial and acrobatics than any other circus in the nation, the big outdoor "big top" will present 16 acts from three stages and barred arenas at its two and one-half hour performances.

Popular priced general admission seat tickets on sale by Shriners in Clovis and neighboring communities and reserved seats will be on sale at Pioneer park offices starting one hour before the performances, according to Mark Sellers, general chairman of the Shrine Corps sponsoring committee.

Mystery Farm Was Glaze Place

Mrs. C. E. Briscoe and Butch Douglass have won two tickets each to the Cox-Drive-In Theatre by being the first persons to correctly identify the mystery farm in last week's edition of the Journal. They may pick up their tickets at The Journal Office.

The farm has been identified as the Ross Glaze place. The Glaze family has an aerial photo of their homestead awaiting them at The Journal office.

There was only one winner in last week's contest. He was John Benson, who guessed the farm to be that of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gaede.

Bailey County Men Buy Lamar County School Lands Here

PARIS, TEXAS — Five hundred and five acres of Lamar County public school land has been sold to two West Texas ranchers for a total of $10,387.35, according to Judge Henry Braswell.

Income from the public lands, which is the last property owned by the county schools, will be reinvested to give the schools more benefit from the property. Previously, the land which is located in Bailey County, had rented for barely enough to pay the tax. No revenue was gained by the schools from the property.

Proceeds from the land count only in the schools total amount received from the state fund, according to Judge Braswell. The sale price will be figured in the total assets of the Lamar County School fund.

Land transfer papers were handled by the Commissioners' Court, the official overseers of the school property.

Jack Lowe and W. T. Parker purchased the land by entering the highest bid. The property in Bailey County marks the final piece of land owned by the Lamar County public schools.

Local Youth Are Invited To Attend Baptist Revival

Muleshoe's First Baptist Church is in the midst of a youth led revival campaign this week. The meeting, which opened last Sunday morning, will continue thru the evening services this Sunday, August 21. Evangelist, Charles Osborn is bringing a message twice daily (at seven a. m. and eight p. m.) and Tommy Dempsey of Pecos, Texas, is directing all musical activity. Both of these men are young and dedicated to God and have a powerful testimony.

Prayer meetings are being held each evening, preceding the services, at 7:30. A place has been provided for all age groups, and everyone is urged to attend these meetings as well as the preaching services each evening. Fellowship and periods of religious discussion follow the evening services for the young people. The best of Christian entertainment can be found in these gatherings.

A very special invitation is extended to everyone by the church to attend each service throughout the remainder of the week. It is believed that in a meeting such as this one can meet life's greatest problems face to face and solve them with the help of God.

CROP PRODUCTION OUTLOOK

The 1955 crop report points out the false idea of selective acreage controls. Acreage forced out of one crop pops up in another to create a wheat surplus.

Cotton and wheat cuts have gone into soybeans, grain sorghums, hay and other products. Neither does lower price supports discourage planting. The farmer plants more to make up his losses in price.

Here are the details of the bumper 1955 harvest expected in the nation:

FEED grain supply will be the highest in history.

CORN crop forecast is almost 3.5 billion bushels — 16% over 1954—coming from a new record yield of 42.7 bushels per acre despite acreage cuts.

OATS supply looks like a record 1.8 billion bushels—slightly higher than last year. Carryover is about 325 million bushels—also the highest.

BARLEY will be about 524 million bushels, about 75 million more than last year. Carryover is estimated at a record 140 million bushels.

GRAIN SORGHUM in Texas will approach a record probably break records but production is not yet estimated. The same should hold true for the nation. Acreage is about 23 million, putting production estimates unofficially above the record 233 million.

WHEAT supply is estimated at 1.890 billion bushel, about 30 million more than last year's record. Carryover next July may be around 955 million bushels with no break in sight on the surplus supply situation.

SOYBEAN crop is not estimated yet but unofficially looks like a peak of 360 million bushels or more, based on 1954's near-average yield.

RYE crop is forecast at 27.2 million bushels, 15% more than last year.

FLAXSEED is estimated at 43.4 million bushels, up 4% from a year ago.

PEANUTS are planted on 2 million acres, 5% above 1954's 1.9 million.

HAY is forecast at a record 109 million tons. Alfalfa and its mixtures also is at an all-time high of 53 million tons.

RICE crop of 42.2 million 100 lb bags is expected; 12 million less than 1954. In Texas, however, a record crop is anticipated but a breakdown is unavailable. The increase in production comes in spite of acreage cutbacks.

Poor Quality
Wheat Will Be
20 Cents Bushel

The Agriculture Department announced Friday that wheat of 23 designated "undesirable" varieties grown next year will be docked 20 cents a bushel under the grower price support program.

Next year's crop will support at a national average of not less than $1.51 a bushel.

The discount will be applied to varieties which the department said are of inferior milling or baking qualities. The total production of these varieties last year was about 31 million bushels out of a crop of 969 million bushels or about 200 varieties are grown commercially.

The purpose of announcing deductions, the department said, is to encourage farmers to produce better wheat. Wheat has accumulated into huge government surplus stocks because of no satisfactory market.

HERE FOR SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Timmens, of Whittharrel, visited here over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jackson, and other relatives and friends.

Farm Exports
Gain 7 Percent

Exports of United States agricultural products for the year ending June 30 totaled $3,130,000,000, an increase of 7 percent over the previous year and 11 percent above the 1952-53 total. Extension Economist Pat Wooten says the U. S. Department of Agriculture has reported that all major commodity classes showed some improvement but it took a grain buying upswing in June to bring that commodity up to the level of the year before.

Exports registered gains in 1954-55 mainly for vegetable fats and oils and livestock products, but increases were also listed for cotton, tobacco, and fruits and vegetables.

Cited by the economist as contributing factors to the increase were improvements in economic conditions abroad and Europe's poor grain harvests in 1954.

Satisfactory levels of gold and dollar accumulations attained during the year also made it possible for some countries to expand their dollar purchases of American farm products, said Wooten. On the other hand, some European countries continue to maintain restrictions against imports from the United States. Exports would probably have increased further had foreign demand been able to fully assert itself, he said.

The large supplies and Government programs aided the flow of farm products abroad. The most important of these programs were sales for export at competitive prices, sales for foreign currencies, barter agreements, grants to foreign countries for emergency relief and welfare donations in foreign countries.

The group toured various points of interest in Colorado including Estes Park. They reported there wasn't much snow, but that it was rather cold there. The crops there are good this year Mrs. Loranca said, because there has been quite a bit of rain.

They said they had a very enjoyable trip.

Figures He's Waited Long Enough!

The long-striding, fast-moving man you see in this picture has made the right decision at the right time!

For the past year or so, he has been thinking about a Cadillac—and he has finally made up his mind.

He is through with compromise and doubt and wonder. This time, he is going after the real thing!

And how lucky he is that he made that decision today! For wonderful news of a special nature is waiting for him.

He'll find, for instance, that Cadillac ownership is far more practical now than ever before. He'll learn, in fact, that the lowest-priced Cadillac can be purchased for little more than he might expect to pay for a godly number of the so-called medium-price cars.

He'll also find that his dealer—because of a low-used-car inventory—is in a position to offer him a very generous allowance on his present car.

And he'll discover that, because of Cadillac's greatly increased production during the current year, he can take title to his new Cadillac after a surprisingly short waiting period.

And all these special inducements, of course, are in addition to the other great Cadillac virtues—such as legendary dependability and long life... remarkable economy of upkeep and operation... and traditionally higher resale value.

All in all, he's walking in on the motor car opportunity of a lifetime!

And how about you? Have you been postponing your dreams of a Cadillac?

If so, there's no reason to wait any longer. Come on in and see us. Let us put you behind the wheel of a Cadillac... and give you the whole, wonderful story of the "car of cars." We think you, too, will decide that you've waited long enough!

Muleshoe FFA News

By WAYNE BRISTOW

A long standing rule at Muleshoe High school has always been that Ag 1 be listed with the required subjects for freshmen. Due to the fact that this course deals entirely with one specific vocation, the requirement has always been a subject of much controversy. Many questions arise each year concerning whether or not it is practical for a boy who does not live on a farm to take vocational agriculture.

Experts in agriculture and economy today answer such questions concerning students in communities like Muleshoe with a positive YES. Muleshoe, like any other town in West Texas, has been built by the rich agricultural district it serves. Everyone living in such a town is dependent upon farming, either directly or indirectly, for their livelihood.

Because the above is not only true now, but will continue to be true in years to come, it is extremely important that every person living in this section of our nation receive enough education involving agriculture, to be able to know the local farming methods and be able to appreciate the tremendous job farmers and ranchers are doing to serve the world today.

It would seem that a boy living in town would have two strikes against him before he even took his first step into the FFA program. However, this is far from being true at MHS. Although few boys who do not live on a farm are able to obtain the higher degree set as goals for chapter members, it is possible for these boys to have a worth while project and receive lasting benefits from their course in vocational agriculture.

Two examples of such boys from the local class are Stanley Myers and Jimmy Laux. Both boys live within the Muleshoe city limits and have no other facilities other than what the school provides with which to raise their projects. However, they took full advantage of the opportunities offered them last year and provided to themselves as well as many other boys "in their shoes" that today there is a place for everyone in agriculture.

As a '54-'55 freshman in Muleshoe High school, under the instruction of Charles Thomas, Stanley Myers developed a keen interest in farming and at this time is continuing the swine program he started as an FFA "Greenhand" last year. As his freshman project, Stanley had a Hampshire gilt for pig production. At the present time he has the sow and seven pigs, and high hopes of increasing his swine program even more during the coming year.

Last year Jimmy Laux raised two lambs for mutton which he showed at the Ft. Worth Fat Stock Show. His projects also included 250 broiler chickens. Laux was a member of the Junior Chapter conducting team and was also a member of the dairy cattle judging team.

Pen space, a hay rack, and feed trough, were provided by the school for Jimmy's lambs, and he was given space in the MHS livestock barns for his chickens. Jimmy received instructions from Bill Bickel.

Space can be provided by the school for approximately 26 lambs and 4,000 chickens thru the present facilities.

Each year there are about 60 freshmen boys in the ag. classes here. From that number approximately 30 of these live in town. It has been proven necessary for both halves of the class to receive training in the things that keeps their country alive, in order to assure them of a well balanced education, and the world of qualified leaders in the future.

"Pertinent Paragraphs"

By J. C. Ebersole
S. C. S. Agronomy Specialist

As the winter cover crop season approaches some of the following observations may be helpful. They are based on studies of results of irrigated cover crops last season.

Most common among causes of unsatisfactory results is inadequate watering. Careful timing of the last watering and planting of the cover crop is necessary for establishment of inter-row plantings.

Shading is an important factor in inter-row plantings. Earlier planting might help. Drying of the inoculum through the water would give added insurance.

Indications are that fertilization of cover crops would speed up establishment of the seedlings particularly where the previous crop was not fertilized.

Vetch planted after sorghum harvest permits using the Harber system of seedbed preparation in the fall for the crop following the vetch. By this means cotton could follow the vetch.

Winter crops can be used the easiest way by killing it with some sort of implement which will leave it as nearly all on the surface as possible until it is thoroughly cured out. After this no difficulty will be experienced with any type of tillage or planting equipment.

The tandem disc and off set one-ways are the most practical implements for mixing a cover crop into the topsoil. For killing the cover crop bedding discs are best where it is on lister ridges and with stubble in a changing sweep where the land is flat. Indications are that the crop following will need nitrogen fertilizer if the cover crop is allowed to mature before utilization.

Austrian winter peas make more rapid growth early in the season but vetch overtakes them in the spring. Peas appear to be more susceptible to insect damage than vetch. No serious damage was observed on either where irrigation was adequate.

Rye planted with vetch complicates the problem of utilization of the cover crop due to its earlier maturity. It is not needed

Lans Brown Now With Local SCS

Lans Brown arrived in Muleshoe Monday to begin his work with the Soil Conservation Service here. A specialist in farm planning, he was transferred to the local Service from the SCS training school in San Angelo. The school offers two months training for new workers in the soil conservation field.

He was raised in Atascosa County in South Texas and attended school at Campbellton, Texas. After high school Lans majored in agriculture at the University of Arkansas. He was graduated in 1952. He received his master's degree from New Mexico A & M.

Brown brings with him to Muleshoe, his wife Mabel, and two children; Randall aged six, Lana aged eight. The Brown's attend the Church of Christ.

Another new man will begin work with the Service here Monday. He is, soil scientist, Ernest D. Rivers.

ESTACADO REUNION TO BE HELD AUG. 21

Estacado Reunion will be held Sunday, August 21, in the East MacKenzie State Park, near the Little Party House under the trees. Markers will direct attendants to the spot. All former residents of this, the first white settlement on the South Plains, and members of their families, are invited to attend and bring picnic lunches.

A very interesting program with good singing has been arranged. The program beings at 10:00 a.m.

RETURNED HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Lane, Shirley, Joe and Jo Ann, have returned home this week from unless there is danger of wind erosion or the vetch is being grown for seed.

Some excellent results were obtained with Hubam and Madrid Clover last season. In one instance, on the Robert Biffel farm in the Levelland area, both varieties were planted on sorghum land after harvest last fall. A seedbed was prepared and they were planted with a grain drill. There was no apparent difference in the results and both equalled any vetch we observed.

A planting of Hubam on the W. M. Connell farm at Muleshoe was three to four feet high and maturing a good seed crop in the latter part of July. It was planted the latter part of March. Inter-row plantings of Madrid this fall and early spring plantings of both on sorghum land, offer further possibilities for cover and soil improvement.

Buena Vista, Colo., where they visited their son Buddy, who is stationed at Camp Hale. They reported seeing a lot of beautiful mountainous country.

One of the points of interest the group visited was the Royal Gorge Bridge, the world's highest bridge at Canyon City, Colo.

STOCK MARKET

New York City, August 18 — What is the truth about the stock market? Is it very high or is it not? Should stocks be sold now? Should investments be made now? These are questions which this column will try to answer this week.

TRUTH ABOUT THE MARKET
 Unfortunately, the stock market is judged by the Average Daily Price of Thirty Industrial Stocks. It is true that for this list, after adjustments for "splits", mergers, etc., is near its all-time high. To be specific, these 30 stocks are now at about 450 compared with 350 a year ago, 381 in the Fall of 1929; and 41 at their all-time low of 1932. But when averaging all 1500 stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, I find that all are not too high, based upon earnings.

I especially want readers to remember the above, when this Industrial Average begins to slide off as it surely will someday. Don't then think that business is going on the rocks and that our prosperous days are over. Just as a high Industrial Stock Average does not now give you more customers and profits, so your business can continue good later when these Thirty Stocks slump. Protect your inventories, keep your people employed, and continue your advertising, whatever these Thirty Stocks do.

MOST GAINS IN VERY FEW STOCKS
 Not only are these Thirty Stocks an unfair measure of the entire market, but an analysis of even these "Thirty" is important. For instance one day recently this Thirty Stock Average went up (the newspapers broadcast "Highest Prices Ever Known"), when actually more stocks made new "lows" for the year than made new "highs". The concentrated buying, by Pension Funds and Investment Trusts, of a few stocks like General Motors, Du Pont, and Eastman Kodak, ran this average up so it was useless as a true measure of the stock market or of business.

The Average of 265 Common Stocks issued weekly by the S. E. C., is a far better barometer. Besides, the S. E. C. divides its list into six divisions, viz: (1) Durable Products, (2) Non-durable Products, (3) Transportation, (4) Public Utilities, (5) Trade, Finance, & Service, and (6) Mining. An analysis of these 265 shows also that while the high-priced stocks were gaining in price an average of 8%, the low-priced stocks lost 1%. Probably many readers of this column will say: "All other stocks have gone up but mine". But I reply: "What of it? You seldom take profits when your stocks do go up. Like a 'hog', you always wait for higher prices before selling, and then you wait too long and your profit is lost!"

BUY FOR INCOME
 One big day when the Thirty Stocks were jumping, of the 1231 stocks traded, 636 closed lower, while only 361 closed higher, and 234 closed unchanged. Many of these last 234 were "investment stocks" which people buy to hold for dividends. Some of these have paid dividends for 50 years. I forecast that you would be better off to forget speculating for profit, and to have an estate of sound dividend payers of honestly operated companies. Remember that money earning 6% will double in twelve years.

Hence, when you ask me if this is a time to sell or buy stocks, I reply that now is the time to do both; in other words, this is a time to switch. Take your profits on the popular "blue chips", which are yielding only 4%. Invest one half of your money in some of the 234 (mostly dividend payers) mentioned above. Deposit the other half in your local Savings Bank and wait for the big decline which will come someday.

LIKES MERCHANDISING STOCKS
 One can get 6% today by buying good chain-store stocks. Every week I invest some money in the Variety Chains (5 & 10 Cent Stores), at whatever price the stocks are selling. If you want to know the reason "why", just go into one of these "Discount" stores and note the 10,000 useful items which they have at sale for "Cash and Carry". They have no credit accounts, no delivery

Today's Meditation

FAMOUS JOURNEYS IN THE BIBLE
 Read Acts 9:1-9.
 I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision. (Acts 26:19.)
 All day we had traveled through scenes of beauty. Evening brought us to Zermatt, the little village, where guides are secured for the ascent of the Matterhorn. Zermatt was cold, and mist hid the great peak. Then, suddenly, we saw it, stark and mighty in the moonlight, surpassing all our expectations.

It is not the outcome or the length of the journey that matters. Paul must have traveled on the Damascus Road before, but what occurred on this day changed his life. His restlessness, hatred, and misdirected zeal were banished as he beheld his Saviour, incomparable in compassion, in majesty, in holiness. His surrender was unconditional. Henceforth his powers and loyalties would be consecrated to the Lord whom he had been spurning.

PRAYER
 Our Father, Thou knowest our hearts the jealousies and wilfulness that separate us from Thee and put there a joyous obedience to Thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
 I will make the necessary journey to give God first place in my life.
 Jessie Duryea (New York)

Tilling The Soil May Be Fun, But Getting A Deposit Slip Is Better

Editor's note: The Sand Hills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm discusses the pleasures of farming this week, in his own manner.
 Dear editor:
 I ran across a statement the other day which has kept running through my mind.
 The statement was: "The satisfaction of tilling the earth—that is what makes a farmer."
 That's a nice, profound-like statement, but the only trouble with it is that about half the time it ain't true.

For example I know several farmers that what made them farmers was going bust in town. I know some more who are still farming because they never made enough to get to town to try their hand at going bust.

And of course there are a lot of farmers who are farming because they like it, they like to be their own boss, and they make good money at it.
 But the idea that you have to like to till the soil to like being a farmer doesn't set well with me.
 Sure, it's fun to plow, up to a certain point, but after that point it gets a little monotonous, which is the reason you see farmers frequently standing up while plowing.

Understand, though, there are lots of satisfactions that come from farming, and tilling I guess is one of them, but it's not the biggest. For example, one of the biggest satisfactions I know connected with farming is coming out of the bank with a deposit slip, when the price is right. There just never was a piece of ground whose turning with a plow could equal the satisfaction of folding a deposit slip in your bill fold and heading for a store.

I'll admit there's a lot of real

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

How understanding of divine Mind's government of man brings health and harmony into daily experience will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind includes the account from the King James Version of the Bible of Christ Jesus' healing of the man afflicted by leprosy" (Luke 5).

Among the correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (108:25-27): "When man is governed by God, the ever-present Mind who under stands all things, man knows that with God all things are possible."

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (2:16): "Who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him?"

FARMER COUNTY Farm Bureau News

By RAYMOND EULER

Cotton growers and ginners will appreciate the program Friday night, August 19 at 8:30, John T. Gregg, West Texas District Representative of the National Cotton Council will conduct the meeting, designed to help you know the problem of marketing cotton, and what you can do about it. Betty Hawkins and her western band will furnish entertainment from 8:30 to 9:00.

Tuesday morning at 9:00, August 30, Mr. Darwyn Metcalf, of A & M Extension Service at Texas Tech, and Mr. Roberts, Chief State Grain Inspector, also of Lubbock, will be ready to leave the Farm Bureau office with weed committee members and farmers interested in checking fields planted to certified seed. It seems that there are excessive amounts of foreign plants present this year.

Mrs. Cynthia Bell, who spent five weeks with us, rearranging office files and working with Glenda, left for Michigan last Saturday. We feel that the office can render even better service to you since she has been here.

Glenda Rickard, office secretary, will leave for Waco next Sunday morning where she will attend a secretary's training school with other Farm Bureau Office Secretaries. She will return home Wednesday evening.

Clara Jean Jesko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Jesko, of the La Zubly community, was crowned Farmer County Farm Bureau Queen for 1955, Friday night. She received a $100 check for further outfitting in which to appear in the District Contest in Lubbock in September. She appeared on Cotton John's Farm and Home T V Program Wednesday night on Amarillo's KGNC. Farm Bureau's float, will be graced with her presence in the fair parade, September 10th.

We are proud of her, and hope she wins in the district, too. We thought Tom Dyeus, of Lubbock's Community Cross Roads KDUB-TV show did a good job as Master of Ceremonies. Mrs. Eva Miller and others worked hard and well, too. And we're proud of our President, Gilbert Kaltwasser, who did a nice job of running the show. Our thanks to all the entertainers, and everyone.

Farm Bureau will sponsor and promote the talent show, scheduled for Saturday night, the last night of the County Fair. Watch for details.

Mrs. J. L. Morris and son Sammie are here from Albuquerque, N. M., visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kemp and her sister Mrs. Bill Millen and family.

Siegrid Hoffman Exchange Student From Germany Making Home With Murrachs

Miss Siegrid Hoffman, a charming young lady of sixteen, arrived here from Germany last week, to make her home for the coming year with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Murrach.

Mr. and Mrs. Murrach met Siegrid at New Windsor, Md., August 3. Her boat, on which she and one hundred fifty-seven other German exchange students came over, docked at Montreal, Canada, July 31, and the group came overland to New Windsor, Md., where they were met by their respective families for the coming year.

Siegrid's home is in Wiedenau, a suburb of the city of Siegen, Germany. She has two sisters, one older and one younger than she. Last year she attended a girl's school with an enrollment of 600, and her subjects were Latin, English, French, German, history, geography, sports, chemistry, physics, biology, swimming, gym and religion.

Siegrid reports that she loves sports, and is hoping to take an active part in some of the sports in Muleshoe High School this year, where she will be a senior student. As yet she doesn't know what subjects she will be able to take. In Germany, Siegrid said students do not have a choice of subjects, but have to take what the school has chosen for them. One subject which is required all four years of high school she said, is German.

When asked what most impressed her about America, she said it was the fine homes in the towns and cities, the food and the heat. In Germany she said, it never gets as hot as it is here.

Siegrid has never lived on a farm, so she is eagerly looking forward to her stay with the Murrachs.

Continuing their steady rise, sales of 1955 Chryslers and Imperials for the last 10 days of July, 1955 increased more than 78 per cent over the same period a year ago, and more than 24 per cent over the previous ten day period.

Dealers delivered 4,869 new cars to owners during the last 10 days of July, 1955 compared with 2,723 cars for the same period in 1954 — an increase of 78.8 per cent. This represents a 24.6 per cent increase over sales for the preceding 10 day period.

Deliveries for July, 1955 totaled 13,396 cars, more than 63 per cent above the 8,209 delivered in the same period in 1954.

Deliveries for the past seven months of 1955 were at the highest post-war rate with 105,358 cars going to buyers between January 1 and July 31. This is a 72.9 per cent increase over sales for the same period last year.

Paralleling the record sales trend, Chrysler Division of Chrysler Corporation is rushing installation of machinery in its ultra-modern new $20,000,000 body plant which when in operation in a few weeks will increase productive potential by 40 per cent to more than 1,200 cars per day.

About
Homemakers & Homemaking
IN BAILEY COUNTY
By MOLLIE STINSON
Home Demonstration Agent

When the column comes out this week no doubt I'll be having a wonderful time in the mountains of New Mexico with the 4-H girls. I'll think of all of you.

Plans for camp are all proceeding according to schedule and it looks like we'll have a good trip. The girls all have their blankets and warm jackets packed for those cold mountain nights.

Several people have asked me this past week about the necessity for blanching foods before freezing them. It seems that people re-experimenting with just packing the food in cold water and freezing them.

I cannot recommend this practice at all. The purpose of blanching or heating foods before freezing is to halt the action of enzymes. Until vegetables are ready to pick, enzymes help them grow and mature. After that they cause loss of flavor and color. If vegetables are not heated enough the enzymes continue to be active during frozen storage.

The vegetables will then develop off-flavors in a few months and may discolor or toughen. Also there is danger of botulism.

Heating also wilts or softens vegetables and makes them easier to pack. Too long heating period will result in the softening of texture and an unnecessary loss of water soluble vitamins and minerals.

For home freezing the most satisfactory way to heat practically all vegetables is in boiling water. Use a large kettle that can be covered and into which fine-mesh wire basket fits, or use a blancher which has blanching basket and cover. A large cheese cloth bag may be used in place of the wire basket in kettle.

For each pound of prepared vegetables at least 1 gallon of boiling water in the blancher or kettle. Put vegetables in blanching basket, cheese cloth bag or wire basket and lower into the boiling water.

Place cover on blancher or kettle and keep covered during entire heating period. Keep the heat on light so that the water will continue boiling vigorously. Start counting heating time as soon as vegetables are put into the boiling water. Each vegetable requires a different heating time. Allow exactly time given for each vegetable.

Pumpkin, sweet potatoes and winter squash may be heated in pressure cooker or in the oven before freezing. Tomatoes for freezing may be simmered. Follow instructions given for these vegetables.

Cool vegetables quickly and thoroughly to stop the cooking process and other instructions as specific directions for different fruits and vegetables are in the extension Bulletin "Frozen Foods" available in the county home demonstration agent's office.

Social Security Worker Coming Here August 24

Nellie was a domestic—had been ever since she started working. She believed in social security; she wanted its protection, she couldn't have it though, for she worked only one day a week for each employer.

You could see a smile on Nellie's face as she learned of the 54 improvements to the Social Security Act—when she read the 1954 amendments bring under social security, beginning in 1955, all household workers who are paid $50 in a calendar quarter by one employer. A calendar quarter is a three-month period beginning January 1, April 1, or October 1.

Nellie makes $6 a day, and there are thirteen weeks in a quarter of a year. It wasn't hard for her to determine that as of 1955 she was protected by social security—that employment for which of her employers was covered. She called at her social security office for a household employment pamphlet to present to each of her employers.

Yes, Nellie can look forward to her future years with confidence. She has the assurance of social security benefits when she is over 65 and no longer able to work.
