Lorenzo Bank Bandit Still Not Caught

No Clues Are Reported Found

Perhaps the most baffling bank robbery ever committed on the Plains if not in the entire state was that which was executed at Lorenzo shortly before one o'clock last Monday afternoon, when Irvin Bownds, cashier of the Lorenzo State Bank was murdered and the bank robbed of more than $1400.

Bownds had locked the bank and gone to lunch at twelve o'clock. He left his home at 12 minutes before 1 o'clock, was seen walking along the street toward the bank at 10 minutes before one, and his dead body was found sprawled in the vault of the bank at 3 minutes till one. His throat had been cut and there were gashes on his head, right wrist, and right hand.

Persons sitting across the street at the meantime heard no commotion, saw no suspicious activity of any kind in the vicinity of the bank, and noticed no one either entering or leaving it.

The dead body of Bownds was discovered by Woodrow Watts, a bookkeeper for the bank, at three minutes before one, when he went into the bank, and walked back into the vault. Two customers, Thomas G. Hendricks and Oscar Hughes, had entered the bank just a moment before Watts entered it. They found the door of the bank open but no one in the building.

It is reported also that a piece of a pistol handle was found in the bank vault and that there was evidence that Bownds had received a blow on the head. He had bled profusely and his body was lying in a pool of blood.

News of the discovery of the body spread quickly and a great crowd soon gathered. Officers from Crosby, Lubbock, and other counties were soon on the scene, and many of them have been working on the case assiduously, in cooperation with Federal officers, but no clue to the identity of the murderer or murderers has been reported.

The criminal seems to have committed the dastardly deed within a period of seven minutes so quietly that he created no outcry or commotion of any kind that could be heard outside the building, left no clue as to his identity, and escaped unobserved.

20 Men On New WPA Job

Monday a new WPA sanitation project will be started in Lynn county sponsored jointly by the county and the State Department of Health. Judge P. W. Goad, has announced. The project will employ 16 to 20 men.

The project will make available to any and all citizens of the county, individuals, business firms, schools and churches, the erection of sanitary toilets. WPA will furnish the labor and transportation of men and materials. The owner of the property will furnish the material.

This material may be either new or second hand, but in each case the toilet will be built entirely flyproof and sanitary. If all new material is used, the cost will be about $18.00.

A contact man will be here next week to solicit and direct the work.

Free Auctions Will Be Held

An auction sale of stock will be held on Monday, May 13, as the first of a series to be held each second Monday here, sponsored by the merchants. Farmers may auction their stock free of charge.

The sales will be held south of the court house square, just east of the bowling alley building.

Colonel Talmus Bowden of Lubbock will be auctioneer. A full page advertisement announcing the event and paid for by Tahoka's merchants will be in next week's paper.

School Closing To Be Soon

With the close of school drawing near, social and educational events have increased at the local high school.

On Tuesday of this week, the sixth grade had a picnic, and on Wednesday the seventh grade also had one.

This afternoon the Senior class will give their class day program at the high school auditorium, and tonight the Juniors will honor the Seniors with a banquet, an annual affair.

Miss Elray Lewis is sponsor of the Senior class this year, and Miss McEwin is sponsor of the Junior class. Miss Willie Pearl Dockray is sponsor of the seventh grade.

Honor students will be announced next week.

Know Your School

Superintendent W. T. Hanes of Tahoka's schools circulated a list of data on the schools at the Rotary luncheon yesterday as a part of Know Your School Week.

From this circular we have extracted some very interesting information which we reprint here:

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

The school budget for Tahoka is $45,000.00 per year.

The state pays more than half of the operating cost.

Tahoka school buses haul 250 pupils daily and travel 400 miles in doing so.

Eight rural schools send all or part of their high school students to Tahoka high school.

Local schools have 28½ units of affiliation, and bookkeeping will be added next year.

The high school enrollment has increased from 243 in 1938 to 277 in 1940.

There are 23 teachers in the Tahoka school system.

Rotarians Go To Convention Mon.

Eleven Tahoka Rotarians, some of them accompanied by their wives, attended some or all of the meetings of the Rotary convention for this district held in Sweetwater Monday and Tuesday. All report a good program and most hospitable entertainment. More than 700 visitors registered.

The Tahoka party consisted of Dr. K. R. Durham, the in-coming president, Charles Townes, secretary, Mr. and Mrs. Wynne Collier, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Weathers, Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Walker, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McCord and H. B. Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Rollin McCord, Tom Garrard, and W. T. Hanes.

O'Donnell Plans Series Of Rodeos

O'Donnell, May 2—The first of a series of Rodeos and merchants Trade Days will be inaugurated here Saturday, and will be held twice monthly thereafter, so sponsoring O'Donnell business men have declared.

Bronc riding, calf roping, girl riding event, cutting horse, "old man's" riding, steer riding, junior boy's events are among the afternoon's featured entertainments, with a parade each week.

L. E. Robinson, J. T. Middleton Sr., and R. R. Reagan are to serve as the committee in charge, with Ralph Beach as Secretary. Shack Blocker and Joe Proctor were selected to handle entertainment, while Harvie Jordan, J. T. Middleton Jr. and Hall Singleton are on the advertising committee.

Stock will be furnished by O. I. Harris.

Public Is Urged To Cooperate With Census

Frank Farmer of Snyder, assistant census supervisor for this district, called at the News office Tuesday and suggested that if any person in this county had been missed by the census enumerator, he or she should report the fact at once to the enumerator for their territory or to him. Or such person, for convenience, might report such omission to The Lynn County News, and the information will be relayed to the proper authority.

Any person knowing of any one who has not been enumerated should likewise make report of the same.

We don't know what the population figures for the county or any of the incorporated towns therein is going to be, but we do know that there are more than a hundred people living just outside the corporate limits of Tahoka.

125 Present At Ex-Students Meet

One hundred and twenty-five people were present at the Ex-Students Ass'n reception last Friday night at the school gymnasium, including ex-students, ex-teachers, this year's seniors and teachers.

Burton Hackney of Brownfield acted as master of ceremonies and Mrs. J. W. Elliott, one of the first teachers in the Tahoka schools, delivered an address on friendship. Superintendent W. T. Hanes spoke briefly, and members of this year's senior class were introduced. Coach Leo Jackson urged the Exes to attend the Bulldog-Exes game next Wednesday night at the local gridiron. President of the association, Oscar Roberts, and Claude Donaldson, past president, and others spoke briefly.

The game to be played here next November 11 between Post and Tahoka was designated as Homecoming game, and the association voted on the motion of Claude Donaldson, to present the high school with a United States Flag on that occasion. Last year they presented the school with a Texas flag.

Mrs. Marjorie Wells Kemp of Lubbock, and two players from Ropesville, entertained with musical numbers.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Ridings (Thelma Taylor) of Sand equally qualified for the box of candy given the persons coming the longest distance.

Coach Jackson also received a box of candy.

Some of those from out of town were Mrs. Fay George Wington and husband from Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hackney, Grace Thompson Dyess, and possibly many others.

Messrs. West and Nowlin will continue to occupy the building but will hereafter handle Phillips 66 products.

Mr. McCord began almost immediately making some necessary or desirable changes on the building. The old pumps are being removed and new pumps will be installed. Changes will also be made on the driveway and approaches.

Mr. McCord is wholesale agent for Phillips 66 products.

Five-County Medical Clinic To Be Here

A medical clinic for the benefit of the members of a five county medical association, of which Lynn county is a part, will be held here Wednesday May 8, sponsored by the State Medical Association and the State Health Department. The clinic will open at 9:30 and close at 5 p. m.

A luncheon at noon will be a feature of the day's program. Principal speakers at the clinic will be Dr. Robert Moore, Dallas, who will lecture on pediatrics, and Dr. R. L. Grogan of Fort Worth, who will lecture on obstetrics.

Dr. Emil Prohl, local physician, is secretary of the association.

Political Game Opened Here

Two candidates for district offices were here with their loud speaking equipment Saturday afternoon and addressed the voters on the streets.

Burton Hackney of Brownfield, candidate for district attorney, was here in his sound-equipped car and made his opening speech of the campaign from the courthouse lawn. Burton lived here for several years and graduated from the Tahoka high school. He worked in various positions here and then entered the Tech. Later, he took a correspondence course in law and was admitted to the bar in 1934. He is now serving his second term as county attorney of Terry county.

Marshall Formby spoke to a crowd through a microphone near the First National Bank corner. He is a candidate for the state senate to succeed Senator G. H. Nelson. He is a graduate of the Texas Technological College and is now serving his second term as county judge of Dickens county. He comes stanchly backed up by his home people who say that he has made an excellent record as county judge.

Bulldogs Down Exes, 7-0

Next fall's Bulldogs met the Exes on the local gridiron Wednesday night before a good crowd for a game of thrills and fight, with the students coming out ahead with a score of 7 to 0.

The Exes team included seven seniors, top-ranking players in 1939. "The team sure looks good," Coach Jackson stated. Roy Botkins, school-boy back, looked fine, and was star of Wednesday night's game. Nothing to snicker at were Jo Lehman and Earl Adams, West, Kelly and Jake King, Truman Hines and Pug Parker. Adams and Hines are co-captains of the 1940 team.

All of the 33 members of this year's team saw service, three full teams of them. On the opposition were the following seniors: H. A. Maassen, Alvin White, Arthur Hammonds, Lowell Thompson, Jake Weathers, Dee Parker, Curley Reid and J. H. Dyer.

Election Contest Is Filed Here

The Joe Bailey-O'Donnell school district consolidation election is being contested in an action filed in district court last week by Nelson and Brown, attorneys, for a group of Joe Bailey school patrons.

Joe Bailey on March 30 voted, to consolidate with O'Donnell by a vote of 32 to 28. O'Donnell favored the move by a 60 to 0 vote. However, the dissenters charge that several illegal votes were cast in the election in the Joe Bailey district.

Dupree and Crenshaw will represent the defendants.

Proctor Boy Buried Here Tuesday

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist Church here at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon for James Elbert Proctor, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Proctor, who died of an inflammation of the larynx and trachea at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Loveless-Bennett Hospital in LaMesa. He became seriously ill only two days before.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Geo. E. Turrentine, pastor of the Methodist Church, and burial was under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home. Employees of the highway department in the Post division attended in a body, as did also the Tahoka Boy Scouts and cub, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Wilson of LaMesa also attended the funeral services.

James Elbert was a cub boy scout and was a fine little fellow. His associates and playmates together with scout officials, teachers, and others who have had occasion to know him intimately speak of him in the highest terms. He was a student of the fifth grade in the school here.

Born at Stratford in the north Panhandle on July 4, 1929, James Elbert was in his eleventh year. Later the family moved to Corpus Christi and then to Beeville, coming from that city to Tahoka in 1933. They have lived here since, Mr. Proctor being employed with the state highway department.

Surviving are the parents, one grandfather, several aunts and uncles, and twenty cousins, none of whom reside here except one uncle, Earl Proctor.

The parents have the deepest sympathy of numerous friends here in this irreparable loss sustained in the death of their only child.

McKinnon's Kin Killed In Wreck

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. McKinnon were called to Brownfield Thursday morning of last week by the death of Mr. McKinnon's brother-in-law, Geo. W. Whisenhunt, who died in a hospital there from injuries sustained early Tuesday morning when a pick-up which he was driving turned over on the highway near Tokio.

Burial was at Meadow Friday, where Mr. Whisenhunt formerly lived.

Three other persons were seriously injured in the accident in which Mr. Whisenhunt received fatal injuries. They are Mrs. J. A. Ratliff and two daughters, Misses Gladys and Edna A. niece of Mrs. Ratliff, Miss Dollie Ann Carlisle, received only slight injuries. All were taken to the Treadway-Daniels Hospital in Brownfield where they received treatment. All lived near the line of Terry and Yoakum counties and all were riding in the Whisenhunt pick-up.

It is thought that the accident was caused by a blow-out of one of the tires.

Mr. Whisenhunt, 48, left a wife and eight children, most of whom were grown and married. Mrs. Whisenhunt is a sister of Mr. McKinnon.

Singing To Be At O'Donnell

With a large crowd expected to be in attendance, a singing convention will be held in O'Donnell Sunday afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock, in the First Baptist church according to C. H. Mansell, O'Donnell merchant.

The district is composed of the south part of Lynn county and the north part of Dawson. However, singers from a much wider area are invited and are expected to attend. Mansell also says.

Another Is Also Injured Sunday

Mrs. Jim Hazelett, 40, and Miss Georgia Cox, 18, both of whom were seriously injured in a collision of two automobiles at a street crossing one block south of the public square shortly before ten o'clock Sunday night, are each said to be improving in the respective Lubbock hospitals to which they were taken in Harris ambulances following the accident.

Miss Rose Mary Gable was also painfully but not seriously injured and was not taken to a hospital. She is also recovering.

The accident occurred when a car filled with young folks, with Mrs. Hazelett and Miss Georgia Cox standing on the running board going west, was crossing U. S. Highway No. 87, on which Mrs. Irvin Gable and Miss Rose Mary Gable and the former's little daughter Virginia were driving south. The drivers of the two cars evidently did not see each other until the cars were too close together for a collision to be avoided. Mrs. Hazelett and Miss Cox were on the runningboard on the north side of their car. When the cars struck, several of the occupants were thrown from the car onto the pavement and another passing car is said to have passed over one of them. It was at first thought that at least four of them were seriously injured.

There were several eye-witnesses, but the confusion and consternation were so great that it was some time before an ambulance was procured.

82 Club Women Here Tuesday

Demonstrations on the making of slip covers and the use of sewing machine attachments were given at the American Legion Hall here Tuesday by the representative of a well known sewing machine concern for the benefit of members of the Women's Home Demonstration Clubs and the Farm Security Administration families. The demonstration was sponsored jointly by Miss Maurine McNatt, county home demonstration agent, and Miss Ovel Lyle of the P. S. A. office here.

Eighty-two women and girls, including a number of Tahoka high school girls, it is reported, attended the two meetings, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon.

J. Wright Moor Dies At Snyder

Word reached Tahoka Wednesday of the death of J. Wright Moor of Snyder, 88, who died at his home near Snyder Wednesday afternoon. Born in Vermont, Moor came to Texas in 1875, locating first at old Fort Griffin.

He is said to have been a leader of the first buffalo hunting expedition on the plains. At any rate he was a noted buffalo hunter, and had many thrilling experiences in those early days. He was well known throughout this entire section of the state and had a number of acquaintances in Tahoka.

Funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Church in Snyder Thursday afternoon. The body was buried with Masonic honors.

Nobody can tell what a day will bring forth, but the Germans seem to be digging in and getting such a foothold in Norway that it will become all but impossible for the Norwegians with the aid of all the allies ever to dislodge them. What was that Hitler was saying a few months ago about wanting no more territory in Europe? He is now saying that he has no intention of attacking Sweden. But just wait till the British are repulsed and Norway is subdued and see what happens. Just as soon as the time seems opportune, Sweden will also be invaded and gobbled up. And, if the Germans should succeed in destroying the British navy, then look out Greenland! look out Canada!

We want no war. We hope we will never have to use our navy. But if we ever should have to use it, we want it to be the best in the world. Senator Tom Connally is right. Let's make it the best in the world.

If Americans have hogged the Mexicans out of their oil and other natural resources, then they should be made to disgorge and the properties should be restored to the Mexican people. On the other hand, if they have gone into Mexico and made bona fide contracts to drill for oil and to mine other minerals and have honestly carried out their contracts, then Mexico has no grounds for complaint. Cordell Hull says that the United States is willing for this matter to be submitted to arbitration. Why shouldn't Mexico be willing also?

Uncle Sam has no imperialistic designs on Mexico. But there are frequent rumors of all kinds of plots in Mexico, instigated by agents of certain European nations, against the people and the government of this country. If it ever should become necessary for the United States to send her armies again down into that country for her own protection it would be the dawning of a great day for the down-trodden peons of that benighted land.

After congratulating the citizenship of his town upon a clean-up of vacant lots and blocks which had been messed up with all kinds of junk, Herald, makes the following comment: "Here is an idea: Suppose every vacant lot owned by resident man or woman should have a tag-sign on it saying 'this vacant lot

TEXAS PRESENTS JOHN GARNER

John Nance Garner, the farm boy who became the greatest Vice President since Thomas Jefferson, will be officially presented to the nation by his native Texas this month as a candidate for President of the United States.

Patriotic Texans will assemble at precinct conventions next Saturday, May 4, and at county conventions the following Tuesday, where delegates will be chosen for the state convention. It is expected that they will adopt resolutions endorsing the Roosevelt-Garner administration and urging the nomination of their favorite son as the President's most logical successor.

Unlike the favorite-son candidates of most states, John Garner is a leading choice for the nomination. His unexampled public record makes him the most unique statesman of our time. Not only is he the only living man who has presided over both Houses of Congress, but he is the only Southerner who has been elected to a national office by a vote of all the people of the United States since before the Civil War.

Because of his liberal record, rural background, and unquestioned Americanism, political observers in Washington believe he is the best bet to carry the Democratic Party forward to victory this fall.

belongs to Mr. or Mrs. So-and-So'. If it was clean and park-like they would be proud of it. If it was nasty, bushy ugly, they might get busy and make it look better. Such a sign would be a severe penalty we admit. And that is a capital idea. If all the messed-up vacant lots and blocks in Taboka were labeled as Mr. Pope suggests, we imagine some good folks would get busy and clean up their lots.

Horace Hale returned Monday afternoon from Corpus Christi, where he spent the winter, having gone down there in October. He says it is still very dry in the Corpus Christi country.

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, county superintendent, received word this week that she had been appointed chairman of Lynn county of the Citizens Military Training Camps, division of the U. S. Army. The appointment came from the U. S. Secretary of War.

Former Tabokan In State Meet

J. A. Bartlett, who resided here for many years but who now resides at Tulsa, was here Wednesday.

He had in his possession a newspaper clipping containing the picture of his daughter Verda Bartlett stating that Verda had won first place in typing in the Swisher county interscholastic league meet; that she won second place in the district meet at Canyon, and third place in the regional meet which was also held at Canyon. This made her eligible to enter the state interscholastic meet to be held in Austin this month.

Miss Verda is just a first year student in typing, and after removing from Taboka immediately following Christmas she had no opportunity to resume her school work in typing until March 20. In spite of this fact, she made 50 words per minute for fifteen minutes and made only two errors.

Rev. T. F. Kelley of Weslaco down in the Rio Grande valley and his son Burton Kelley and the latter's wife of Snyder visited the former's niece, Mrs. James Godwin, here Sunday. Rev. Kelley is a Baptist minister and had just recently conducted a successful revival at Harlingen.

J. B. Nance returned Tuesday from Plainview where he and Mrs. Nance had been visiting several days. Mrs. Nance remained and, with her mother, will go from there to Cooper, Texas to visit other relatives.

J. Emory Nance was pretty sick at his farm down in Borden county for a few days but was reported to be better Tuesday.

LEMAY ENTERS RACE FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

Uvalde, April 29—Emphasizing his pledge to introduce business-like methods of administration into the State Department of Education, S. R. LeMay of Athens this week brought his vigorous campaign for State Superintendent of Public Instruction to Southwest Texas.

LeMay, for the past 18 years superintendent of schools at Athens, is conducting one of the most extensive personal campaigns ever made for the Superintendent's office.

"The handling of public school moneys by the State Department of Education has been filled with politics rather than practical business efficiency," LeMay charged.

"We must work out an automatic method of disbursing rural aid funds so that schools can know in advance how much state aid they can expect, and can prepare their budgets accordingly," he pointed out.

"The present system of allowing the schools to remain in uncertainty is just what a politically-minded State Superintendent desires," he declared. "As long as the rural aid system is filled with uncertainty, it can be used to browbeat and intimidate school people into supporting those already in office."

Teachers and bus drivers and school authorities are kept in suspense and anxiety by the present system, never knowing exactly what they can expect from the state. This is decidedly poor business both for the local schools and for the state, and my first job as State Superintendent will be the drafting of an automatic plan administering rural aid," LeMay asserted.

"Moreover, we will put an end to the extravagant expenditure of public funds for traveling expenses by political deputies who cruise over the state building political fences, coercing teachers, and threatening trustees," he promised.

"The taxpayers of Texas will never complain of the cost of education as long as their tax-dollars are spent wisely and efficiently, but they do have a right to resent the political fence-building with tax moneys which has been the keynote of the present administration in the State Superintendent's office, LeMay declared.

A total of 77,630, 892 tons of freight were moved in 1937 over the 17,393.96 miles of railroad in Texas.

5TH CHAPTER OF JIM

And it came to pass that after the second reign of Jim and his handmaid Miriam, had come to an end, they retired into their house which pardons built and rested from their labors.

Then came Jimmy, the son of Allred, and these were without price.

After the reign of Jimmy the son of allred had an ending, there came tearing out of the sunflower weeds of Kansas, a man whose name was Lee O' a seller of Hillbilly flour, a seeker after shekels and a singer of songs.

And the same man Lee O' rode in a chariot up and down the land of Tehas recommending himself unto the people as a very wise guy. Likewise cometh after him a band of musicians who played upon banjo plunks, swinets, guitarpriks and other instruments of music. And they played loudly unto the people and sang funny songs to make them merry, the man from the land of Kansas.

Then stood Lee O' upon a soap box and spoke unto the people saying:

"Behold me, a man of Hillbilly flour and good biscuits, come unto me all ye who craveth something for nothing and I will give it unto you."

And the people being beguiled rose up and shouted: "bully! that suits us fine, we are your huckleberries! Give us some more!"

And then saith Lee O' unto the people "smite the McCrawites, the Thomsonites, the politicians and the other ites, and make me ruler over the land of Tehas and I will give each of you who are 65, a job of thirty bucks a month without increasing your tithes, and to each of you whose belly is vacant, I will give a sack of Hillbilly flour and a bottle of that delicious snuff, yea, even that snuff which Levi, son of Garrett made.

And the people shouted: "Golly, Golly, hooray, fer Lee O'!"

Then the band playeth the sweet strains of 'Fidos Retreat to the Rye Patch', which moved the people, yea, muchly and they rose up and smote the McCrawites, the Thomsonites the politicians and other ites, hip thigh and tail.

When the sound of battle had ceased to mar the slumbers of the people of the land of Tehas, they gathered in the city of Aus, by the river Colorow, where they made merry and crowned Lee O' amid the solemn strains of the good old tune of 'Piddle Died With the Hollow horn!

When Lee O' began to reign over the land of Tehas, the people at the same time began to cry out: Gimme!
Gimme!" Then when Lee O' fain would give unto them he found no shekels in the sanctuary.

When Lee O' was vexed and sore troubled he asked counsel of the chief priests, and they said: "ask the lawgivers."

He asked the lawgivers to give him shekels that he might give unto the people lest they murmur.
They shook their heads and said, behold the bucks in the sanctuary have all been expended and there are none to give.

Then said Lee O' unto them: "go now, I pray you, and gather tithes from all the people whomsoever in the land. Take tithes, even to the widow's mite and let no one who, eats, drinks or wears anything escape the tithes, not even the babies of the land, that I may be able to hang out each month thirty bucks to mine friends who voted for me."

Then said the lawgivers again,
"nothing doing." As Lee O' sat up on his throne, they came before him and said: O, King, Gimme!
where is my thirty bucks thou didst promise to give last summer?"

Then Lee O' said: "boys, give us another tune." Then the supplicants turned away and there was great murmuring among them.

Meanwhile, Jim and Ma who were resting under the vine and fig tree of their mansion which pardons built, heard the cry of "Gimme, Gimme!", in the land, Jim arose, hitched up his britches and said: "Ma, did you hear that?"

And she said unto him, "Jim, we are growing old and I am filled up on these political messes, lets stay at home with our grandchildren."

And Jim said unto Ma, "Behold, the spring cometh and the summer is nigh. The birds singeth in the treetops, the flowers are abloom on the prairies and the suckers swarmeth in the land of Tehas and are easy to catch with pension bait.

"Behold, Lee O' is going forth with pinhooks and pension bait and he-stringeth scads of suckers. His plunketty-plunk band plunks their ears and they take the bait, hook, line and sinker. Therefore, mine handmaid, arise put on thy bonnet and let us haste to the fishing. Let us set our hooks and spread our nets as we did in the days of yore.

Altho we have no flour, or snuff which Levi, the son of Garrett made we can promise as Lee O' doeth, and a whole lot of other things which Lee O' knoweth not thereof. Our stuff may be old but we know our stuff. The people like old stuff if it's mixed with pensions.

And it came to pass that Jim and Ma arose and girded on their raiment and went forth to meet the tribe of Lee O' and his mighty host in battle on the plains of Tehas.
Only the seers can tell who shall prevail. Selah. Gotoum Lee O' Go-toum Jim.—Uncle Bill in Sterling City News-Record.

We believe in the "good neighbor" policy. We believe that the people and the government of the United States should be very considerate and patient in dealing with Mexico. Especially should we undertake to be helpful to the benighted and poverty-stricken peons of that country. We should deal fairly with them and insist that our citizens in Mexico do the same thing. In addition to that we should take to them the little red school house and the little brown church. What they need most next to bread and clothing is the Bible, the spelling book, and a sympathetic spirit from this side of the Rio Grande.

Odds and Ends See Eye, the Elder

It is regrettable that there is not the same profusion of wild flowers in West Texas as is to be found in other parts of the state, unless it be yellow ones not particularly noted for their beauty.

But if one entering Tahoka from the north will slow down a bit at the Harris Funeral Home and steal a glance at the vacant block to his left, a wealth of purplish blue flowers will meet his vision.

If he will leave the highway at the court house square and go either east or west, exploring either the southeast or the southwest section of our "little city," he will find almost every vacant block and lot in Old Tahoka beautifully adorned in this same color of purplish blue.

These flowers, so far as we know, are known only by the name of Tahoka Daisy. There are more of them in Tahoka this year, we believe, than we have ever seen before. In places, the daisy-covered landscape is almost as colorful and showy as the fields of bluebonnets in central and south Texas. Strange as it may seem, they are not to be found in the same profusion anywhere else as in the city limits of Tahoka. They may be seen sprinkled about here and there in other places, and in some parts of the county we have seen small patches where they are blooming profusely, but nowhere is there the same wealth of them as to be found here.

The story of the finding and the naming of the Tahoka daisy has been related in these columns before.

Many years ago, when this country was all in ranches or was open range, Mrs. W. A. Myrick Sr. of Lubbock one day was visiting in the vicinity of Tahoka Lake. She discovered this beautiful little flower, many of them in fact blooming on the prairie. It so interested and charmed her that she plucked a few of the plants and transplanted them in her garden. They lived and bloomed, and the next year she planted the seeds. Then she sent some specimens to northern florists. Two or three of them became interested and later included the seeds in their catalogues, selling them under the name of the Tahoka Daisy which Mrs. Myrick had given them. They seem to be indigenous to this section of the country, and if they have grown wild in any other part of the world, we have never heard of it.

And so, no doubt, they are rightfully called the Tahoka Daisy. Incidentally, we did see a few of them blooming one time in the Palo Duro Canyon and they are to be found doubtless in many places on the plains.

Of course the mere men may not be interested in all this, for many of them refuse to grow enthusiastic about wild flowers. It may be because we men do not have the same sense of delicate beauty found in nature that the women have; or it may be because too many of us men have had too many unhappy experiences with wild flowers that persist in growing in the cotton and corn fields. As a kid, we had to swing a hoe so long and so often trying to get rid of the wild flowers in the cotton patch that we are yet unable to see much beauty in an old sunflower. Yet our wife persists in planting these "weeds" on our premises every year.

We had occasion, or took occasion, to drive down to Snyder Sunday afternoon in spite of the high wind. As we were speeding along down highway No. 7 just beyond Post, the good wife called our attention to streaks of blue flowers seen here and there in the edge of the grass along the bar ditches. We slowed down to take a glimpse and finally stopped just to drink in their beauty for a moment. They were wild sweet peas. Though the flowers were tiny, there were many of them on each plant, and they were as blue as indigo. Beautiful! Here and there were little clusters of wild verbena, than which there is no wild flower more charming. West of Gail, on the way back, we found even larger clumps of them growing along the highway. We only wish that our West Texas highways were literally lined with such flowers as the Tahoka Daisy, the wild verbena, and the golden galliardia.

While the highway department is planting trees along the highways, a very fine thing to be done, why not plant strips of wild flowers also beside the roadbed? Flowers suitable to the region and that bloom throughout the spring, summer, and fall?

But as suggested, men are interested in many other things more than they are interested in wild flowers. One of these is roads themselves. Well, we found that construction work on highway No. 15 west of Snyder toward Gail is proceeding rapidly. Grading is being done now from Snyder most of the way to the Borden county line, and the route has just been surveyed from the line west to Gail. The right of way is a hundred feet wide, or more, and the roadbed is to be almost as straight as an arrow. From Gail west to the Dawson county line, the new road will follow the present one except for a few minor changes. The indications are that No. 15, the Dal-Paso highway, will be a dandy road when completed.

Gail is also to have another highway, it is said. A crew is now surveying a road from Big Spring, to run through Gail and Post, and thence north. We don't know just how long it will be before the road is built, probably several years, but such a road has been designated and surveying has begun.

And Gail has a new courthouse too. Most of our people have probably heard about it but few of them have seen it. Well, it is a beauty. It is unlike any courthouse we ever saw before: it consists of only one story. Who can imagine a one-story courthouse, spread out over a large area, like one of these modern school buildings? It is built of beautiful cream-colored brick and looks as neat as a pin. Evergreens and other shrubbery have been planted out on the premises and Bermuda or some other variety of grass will be planted a little later. It is all being done according to landscape plans made by a nursery, and these premises promise soon to be among the most beautiful in all this section of the state.

And as we drove onto the public square in Gail, we noticed another new building too. It was not a large building and not a brick building, just a little frame structure, but over the door had been painted the sign: THE BORDEN COUNTY SUN. The door was open, and as we approached it the editor appeared, M. L. Hunter. Mrs. Hunter is the publisher. The Hunters had gotten out the first issue of the paper just last week, and Mr. Hunter obligingly gave us a copy. It is an attractive eight-page, five-column paper, four pages of home print, and would be a credit to a town much larger than Gail.

Time was when Gail had a newspaper: The Gail Citizen, we believe, was the name. It died many years ago of under-nourishment.

Time was also when Gail was one of the thriftiest and gayest towns of the Old West. That was back in the "GAY NINETIES", and just after that period. That was before the Santa Fe built its network of railroads across the plains and before the motor truck, of course, had been invented. That was the day of the chuck wagon, the freight wagon, and the mail hack.

Gail, was then the only town of any consequence west of Snyder and south of Amarillo, and north of Colorado, except the straggling village of Lubbock and the trading posts at old Emma and at Estacado.

Gail had a hotel, and a saloon or two. When court convened, the lawyers would come from a wide territory and would "put up" at the old Gail Hotel south of the courthouse square. They had some real court at Gail in those days, and they also had other festive occasions, when the cowboys would gather in from the ranches from all over this south plains country and celebrate only as cowboys knew how to celebrate. But Jim Weatherford or Horace Hale or even Sam Sanford could tell you more about that ancient period in an hour than we could tell you in a month. So we will give them the floor.

Then the railroads came and cut off Gail's territory. Other towns sprang up. Gail was strangled and starved to death. The customers at the hotel became fewer and fewer, until finally it closed its doors. The saloons also closed for lack of patronage. Some of the businesses moved out. Many of the old buildings went to rack. The old hotel rotted down. The newspaper died. Gail became all but a ghost town. Then came the New Deal with all its alphabetical organizations. They needed more room in the court house. The old one was an old shack any way. So, by the voting of bonds and with the aid of the PWA, a commodious and most attractive new courthouse was built. And while the railroads missed Gail, a paved state highway is soon to pass through the town and another is now being projected. And so, if Gail has never heard the whistle of a railroad locomotive, she has heard the lumbering roar of the motor truck and soon she will be hearing oodles of them. Gail is coming alive.

Way "Build-up" Helps Will Interest Women

The cause of a woman's periodic suffering from headache, irritability, cramp-like pain, may be functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition, a condition that is often helped by CARDUI.

Principal way CARDUI helps is by stimulating appetite and the flow of gastric juices. Thus it may aid digestion; help build up a woman's strength, energy and nerve-force; so increase physical resistance to periodic discomfort.

It also helps reduce periodic distress for many who take it a few days before and during "the time." Your confidence in CARDUI is invited by its 50 years of popularity.

You can have easy-handling—with big-car room and ride!

Everyone knows how easy it is to drive a Ford. But no one could know, till he gets inside, how big this Ford is in leg-room, seat-room, knee-room... nor what a thrillingly soft, steady, big-car ride it gives!

You can have low cost upkeep—and enjoy real fine-car features!

You shift gears on a Ford with the easy-acting type finger-tip shift used on costly cars. You get a semi-centrifugal clutch giving lower pedal pressure at shifting speeds, also typical of costly cars... to say nothing of the biggest hydraulic brakes ever used on a low-cost car. Monahans Band Thanks Tahoka

The News has received from Superintendent M. L. H. Baze of Monahans the following expression of appreciation.

"Please express our appreciation for the fine reception and the hospitality extended to our band during its recent appearance in your town."

—M. L. H. Baze, Supt. Monahans-Wickett Schools.

This band gave a free concert in the high school auditorium here on Thursday night of last week. This is one of the best high school bands in the entire state and the program was very, very fine. Only a fair-sized crowd was present, due to the fact that revival services were in progress at the Methodist Church and there were also other attractions in town that night.

Those who were fortunate enough to be present feel that the people of Tahoka are due expressions of appreciation to Mr. Baze and his fine band for the excellent program rendered here.

T-BAR CLUB MEETS AT SCHOOL BUILDING

"Sunbonnets can be attractive as well as protective", stated Mrs. Paul Johnson, sponsor of the T-Bar 4-H Club at the schoolhouse Thursday, April 25.

Kinds of material and trimmings were discussed. "Fast colored materials with small figures or checks trimmed with small rickrack would make a pretty bonnet."

Each girl was urged to complete her goals so she can attend the slumber party May 11.

There were nine members present.

The next meeting will be May 2. Reporter

2 Injured . . .

All the local physicians were out of town at the time too, and a physician was called from O'Donnell.

Mrs. Hazelett was taken to the West Texas Hospital, where it was found that she had sustained a fracture of the left thigh, a fracture of the right collarbone, a fracture of the fifth rib on the right side, and other less serious injuries.

Miss Cox was taken to the Lubbock Sanitarium and there it was found that she was suffering from a fracture of the left ankle, a fracture of the left hip, and a severe gash in the hip.

Miss Gable received injuries to one of the legs but no bones were broken. Others sustained bruises and shock but their injuries are not serious.

One of the strange and regrettable features of the accident was that other members of some of the families involved had also been injured in other recent accidents.

Jack Cox, brother of Miss Georgia, suffered horrible injuries in a car wreck on the highway a few miles north of Tahoka several months ago. He was sent to a government hospital at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and is still receiving treatment there. In fact his leg, which was badly broken, is still in a plaster cast. It was only a short time before this accident that his step-father, R. L. Gray, died. Thus it will be seen that Mrs. Gray, mother of Jack and Georgia Cox, has had plenty of trouble the past year.

On the last Sunday night in February of this year, Irvin Gable, husband of Mrs. Ruth (Irvin) Gebie who was driving one of the cars that figured in the last Sunday night's accident, was himself so seriously injured in a car collision near Brownfield that he died the next day, and his brother, Lee Gable, injured in the same collision, died a few minutes after reaching a Brownfield Hospital. A third one of the brothers, Jake, was seriously injured.

Mrs. Merle Stewart of Odessa and Mrs. Jeanette Brock and little daughter Paula Jan of Lubbock are spending the week here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Oliver.

C. B. Keltner Resumes Possession Of Hotel

After a lapse of several years and as the result of long-continued litigation, C. B. Keltner, in association with his attorneys, G. E. Lockhart and Franklin D. Brown, is again in possession of the old Keltner Hotel. The three took possession of the building Thursday morning, Mr. Jones, manager of the Hotel for the Temple Trust Company, having vacated the building earlier in the week.

Possession of the building was being disputed Thursday, however, by a gentleman who claimed to have leased the building from the receiver of the Temple Trust Co. It was believed that the dispute would be ironed out, however, and that Mr. Keltner and associates would have uncontested possession of the building.

The litigation which resulted in the dispossession of Mr. Keltner a few years ago and in his repossession of the building this week has been too involved and too lengthy to be set out here, and we are unable to state whether the matters at issue have been finally settled or not.

Deen Nowlin In Washington

Deen Nowlin, representative of the Federal Loan Association here, and mayor of the city of Tahoka, left Sunday for Washington, D. C., on business for the Association and for the City.

He is expected to return home about next Monday or Tuesday.

THE "TAX RACKET"

A recent survey, reported to be among the most accurate ever made, concerned the proportion of income paid in taxes by a typical workingman earning $20 a week. The survey found that $4 of this modest wage went to the tax collector.

That $4 was not paid directly, of course—it is probable that the average worker doesn't know he is taxed at all. He isn't concerned with income tax blanks and the other myriad and involved tax reports required by government of those in higher income brackets. His $4 was paid indirectly, throughout the entire week. High taxes make a loaf of bread cost a penny more than it would otherwise, a pair of shoes cost fifty cents more, a ticket to a movie a dime more, the monthly electric bill sixty cents more. So it goes, down the endless list of purchases and payments we all make. The tax collector is always at your elbow—a highly expensive if unseen companion.

And here is the living proof of the fact that the real burden of taxation falls more heavily on the man of small means than the man of large. Four dollars a week taken out of a $20 paycheck means that this typical worker's family must go without needed clothes, medical attention, entertainment, etc. It means less money for insurance or savings. It means poorer housing, poorer meals.

We've heard much of that proportion of the population which is "ill fed, ill housed, and ill clothed." What we don't hear often enough is that the burden of debt and taxation is largely responsible for that, and in two ways. First, it takes a percentage of the small wage earner's income which he obviously cannot afford if he is to maintain a decent standard of living. Second, it deprives him of jobs and opportunities and the chance for better pay. An overtaxed business doesn't expand and hire more men. Nor, when it is being drained to the limit by government, can it increase wages.

So the "little man" is getting it in the neck—as a result of those suicidal fiscal policies pursued by a group of politicians who weep copious crocodile tears on behalf of the people. It's time the "little man" woke up to the racket.

New License Plates To Be Gold and Black

Austin, Texas, April 29—The State Highway Commission announced today that the order for 1941 License Plates has been placed with the State Prison System which manufactures the plates according to specifications prepared by the Highway Department.

Passenger car plates will be black with numerals of gold. Truck and other series of plates will be the reverse, gold with numerals of black. These color combinations were selected because of high visibility and proven durability.

The manufacture and distribution of three and a half million plates is a job of considerable magnitude, requiring careful preparation and constant inspection.

LOCAL MEN ATTEND LAWYERS MEET

Judge C. H. Cain and Tom Garrard attended the two-days conference or clinic conducted by Judge John Alexander of the Waco court of civil appeals in Lubbock Wednesday and Thursday for lawyers of this section.

Judge Cain says that many matters pertaining to court procedure were discussed with a view to bringing about some salutary reforms, thus making the trial of cases more expeditious and bringing about settlement of cases without a long-drawn-out trial in many instances. He thinks the conference was very helpful.

Mrs. D. E. Harris and Mrs. C. R.

Brock of O'Donnell were here last Sunday visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Odell Jones, and other relatives and friends. Mrs. Brock formerly resided here.

Harley Henderson, Douglas Finley, Frank Hill and Carl Grafflin are down at Red Bluff trying to catch fish this weekend. They left Friday and will return Sunday.

Committees Are Named To Choose Park Location

A three-way sponsorship of a park and playground for O'Donnell has been decided upon by members of the Rotary club, American Legion and city officials.

According to J. Mack Noble, secretary of the Rotary club, two sites are available. One, belonging to the American Legion, is located just off the city square east of the Cicero Smith Lumber company grounds, and the other, which the city controls, is located farther out in the east part of town.

Members designated to work on the committees are: Rotary club: Namon Everett, J. H. Crawford and Don Edwards. American Legion: Bill Sauls and J. L. Shoemaker. C. H. Deak, city park commissioner, has not named his assistants, but is expected to secure the advice and wishes of prominent local women, and, as far as possible, guide the city's action accordingly.

AN ELEGANT SUNDAY DINNER

- Crown Roast of Pork
- (with mashed potatoes and chives in center and surrounded by young whole carrots, buttered)
- Spiced Crab Apples Jelly
- Rolls
- Crisp Green Salad in Lettuce Cups
- Strawberry Cream Nouveau or Angel Food Delight Coffee

Crown Roast of Pork is a very grand-looking affair. It will give your guests the feeling that you have made a very special effort in their honor. Best of all—it's a dinner that is easy to manage. Meat, potatoes and vegetables are all on one platter, and a handsome and appetizing-looking dish they make, too. But before I tell you how to arrange the platter, perhaps I'd better explain about the roast.

Your butcher will be glad to arrange the "crown" for you from the pork ribs. There should be from 8 to 12 ribs—depending on the size of a crown you want. The bones should be cut to a uniform length, and the meat trimmed from them as far as the lean meat. The ribs are now bent and sewed into the shape of a crown with the ribs outside.

Baking a Crown Roast

Put one inch cubes of fat salt pork or raw potatoes on the end of each rib to prevent them from burning. Now place the meat on a rack in an open roasting pan. Season well with salt and pepper. Roast it uncovered for 15 minutes in a very hot oven (475° F.) to sear the meat. Now reduce to a moderate oven (350° F.) cover, and allow 25 to 30 minutes for each pound.

When it comes from the oven, remove the cubes of fat or potatoes from the rib-ends and place on them paper frills, or olives. Fill the center with the mashed potatoes to which chives have been added. Surround the roast on the platter with the carrots and green parsley or watercress.

Make a salad of any green vegetables you can muster—celery, little green onions, radish slices and cucumber with a sharp French dressing would be delicious.

If you do not have spiced crab apples, the spiced peaches will do—or canned apple sauce.

ANGEL FOOD DELIGHT DESSERT

- One 8-inch Angel Food Cake
- 2 cups whipping cream (1 pint)
- 6 tbsp. confectioners' sugar
- 1/2 cup pineapple, cut in 1/2-inch pieces (well drained)
- 1 cup strawberries, cut in halves or quarters
- 6 marshmallows, cut in quarters
- 1/2 cup toasted pecans, cut up coarsely

Place cooled Angel Food Cake with the larger surface at the bottom on a large serving plate. Cut the entire top from the cake—about 1/2 inch down. Lift off this top layer. Remove the center from the main part of the cake by cutting down into the cake 1/2 inch from the outer edge, and 1/2 inch from the middle hole leaving a 1/2 inch wall all around. Remove this center with a curved knife or spoon, being careful to leave a wall of cake at the bottom about 1/2 inch thick.

Beat the whipping cream until stiff. Blend in the sugar. Divide this sweetened whipped cream into 2 parts, taking a little more than half for the filling. Into this more generous half, fold the well-drained pineapple and strawberries, marshmallows and pecans. Fill the cavity of the cake with this mixture. Replace the top. Spread the remaining cream over the top and sides. Chill in the refrigerator for 3 hours or longer before serving. This will give you 14 servings.

- While a newspaper is a marvel of mechanical efficiency, there are limits on what can be done by a given force of printers, stereotypers and pressmen in a short, crowded period of stress.
- There is plenty of time to give every advertiser good service when early copy is sent in.

There's no dearth of Kindness in this world of ours; Only in our blindness We gather thorns for flowers. Massey

May is here with all the sweet essence of true springtime—the month of graduation, and the month in which we honor our mothers and our valiant soldiers who apparently fought for a lost cause some 22 years ago.

Also in May is National Baby week, just now ending, National Restaurant week, National Cotton Week—this should be very important in this cotton country—and May Day, just past.

A century ago there existed a custom of leaving a basket of flowers hung on the door of the homes of your friends on May Day morning, and running away to avoid being seen. What a beautiful custom!

Thumbnail Sketch: Black-eyed, black haired, our object seems always to be happy, her musical smile is very infectious, and she has a rich soprano voice. She came to Tahoka several years ago to teach expression, and stayed as the wife of a native son. They have two beautiful little girls, a blonde and a brunette. She is president of the PTA and a member of the Mother Singers. If you don't know her, look for her name at the end of the column.

We have an apology to make—Ham Maasen is not president of the senior class as we said last week. That honor belongs to Mildred Cooper. He is editor of The Growl, school organ, however.

Echo Milliken asked us to print this statement: "I did not plan or have printed the program for the Ex-Student Reception Friday night, and was not asked to preside, or I would have been there."

We hope that nothing like this happens to any of our candidates this year, but they say that way off somewhere there was a man who ran for sheriff and only got 5 votes. The next morning he came to town wearing a gun on each hip. A friend met him.

"Why, Sam, you weren't elected! Why the guns?" "I know it," Sam drawled, "but anybody who don't have any more friends than I have NEEDS protection."

Our personality — Mrs. Harley Henderson.

Mrs. A. D. Sawyer and children of Loraine visited her brothers, James and Grady Godwin, and their families here Sunday.

Mary Nell Porter of Memphis, Tenn., 1940 Maid of Cotton, poses in one of the exclusive new cotton evening dresses she will wear in style shows in 28 major cities during her tour of the nation as King Cotton's good will ambassador. Traveling with a Lux fashionist and a National Cotton Council representative, Miss Porter made the initial appearance of her 12,000-mile air tour at a fashion show at Miami on March 17.

Mrs. L. Lumsden of Wilson Guest Speaker of Local W. M. U.

Mrs. L. Lumsden of Wilson, District nine W. M. U. President, was the speaker when 49 members and friends of the Tahoka Baptist W. M. U. met in a Fifth Monday social in the home of Mrs. W. M. Harris Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Lumsden, who with her family, recently returned from a visit to the mission field of Cuba spoke interestingly, but with deep concern of the mission work on that island. The people, she said are a mixture of nationalities, chiefly of Indian, Spanish, Negro and Chinese blood, though there is an intermingling of other races.

Mrs. Lumsden told of the great numbers of children, where twenty to the family is the average, many of them uncared for and with no educational advantages to fit them for life.

Dr. McCall, Miss Mildred Mathews and the other Missionaries of the Home Mission Board in Cuba are making heroic efforts to help as many of these families as is possible and Mrs. Lumsden urged the Tahoka women to do their part in promoting this work. Continuing she said that Dr. McCall has had as one goal the building of Christian homes and she urged that the local women take that as one of their goals. She urged that all young home makers decide early in their homemaking experience that they would never cease working and praying for that goal in their own homes, pointing out that good literature, especially that giving information on denominational and missionary subjects should be included in the budget of every home.

Mrs. Lumsden paid tribute to the

J. A. Lunsfords, our neighbors who are leaving O'Donnell soon for the mission fields of Africa, saying that in them we have a tie that will draw the people of our Association and this section closer to the mission work.

NEW MOORE ORGANIZES 4-H CLUB

Boys of the New Moore school met with County Agent Don Turner Monday April 29 for the purpose of organizing a 4-H club. Twelve boys enrolled to carry on demonstrations in livestock and crop production.

The following officers were elected: A. G. Crutcher, President; Alvin Brower, Vice-president; Buddy Webb, Secretary; Arnold Brower, Reporter. A. G. Crutcher, Alvin Brower, and L. A. Light Jr., were appointed as a membership committee. The club will meet the first and third Fridays of each month.

Several new clubs are being organized in the county. The Lakeview boys will meet Friday May 3rd. to elect officers and form an organization.

TAHOKA FRAME GARDEN FURNISHES AN ABUNDANCE OF EARLY VEGETABLES

An experienced gardener, in the Tahoka Home Demonstration Club, Mrs. A. C. Weaver, is on the job again this year and it is canning time in her home. Yes, it sounds a bit early, but on April 29 she canned 34 pints of spinach, mustard and spinach greens from her frame garden. She also marketed 3 dozen bunches of radishes on the same day.

The garden is 30' x 33' and is divided into four sections by boards which support the canvas cover. She has learned a new trick in planting and that is to rotate the vegetables. She planted one row of beans, two of onions, one of beans, etc. and they are doing nicely. Radishes, rape, onions, beans, lettuce, pepper plants, and several hundred tomato plants are growing vigorously in this well protected and cared for plot of soil. The vegetables are tops in quality because they are young, tender, crisp and clean.

J. H. Kuykendall of Edith brought to the News office Tuesday a freak pullet egg. This egg was shaped much like a kershaw but was little larger than large-sized peanut. This form of mis-shapen egg is frequently seen but it is curious nevertheless.

Mr. and Mrs. X. R. Banks of Lamesa were the guests Sunday of Dr. and Mrs. K. R. Durham and of Mrs. Lois Daniel. Mr. Banks was formerly principal of the grade school here. He is now supervisor of the N. Y. A. work at Lamesa.

Schools Seek Standardization

Two rural schools in Lynn county, Joe Bailey and Edith, had their closing exercises last Friday.

Two others are to close on Friday of this week, Grassland and Dixie.

All these are eight-months schools. Two of them, Grassland and Edith, are making application for standardization, according to Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, county school superintendent. To be standardized, a school must meet certain requirements with respect to grounds and buildings, equipment, teacher qualifications and curricular activities.

New Lynn, Gordon, and Dixie among the rural schools became standardized schools some time ago. In company with assistant state superintendent E. Esten Day, Mrs. Tunnell spent last week in visiting the standardized schools and the affiliated high schools of the county.

There are three affiliated high schools in the county, to wit: Tahoka, O'Donnell, and Wilson. In addition, there are two affiliated rural high schools. These are the New Home and the Draw high schools.

If and when the rural schools in the county now making application are approved for standardization, there will remain only three schools in the county not standardized.

Mrs. Tunnell thinks this is an unusual record. The people of Lynn county indeed have reason to be proud of their public schools.

WAYSIDE H. D. CLUB STUDIES REARING OF CHILDREN

"In family life nearly everything depends upon good common sense and judgment", stated Miss Maurine McNatt, home demonstration agent, at the Wayside H. D. Club Thursday, April 25, at the home of Mrs. Elmer Cary.

"It takes patience, tolerance and forbearance as well as wise planning to make a home go right. No two children are the same trying to figure out what is best for each. Some folks are equal to the job of studying and understanding the aptitudes of their children while others are not."

Mrs. Jackson read a poem on "Home". The club voted Mrs. Jackson to be the candidate for the trip to the H. D. Association.

The next club meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Leon Jennings May 9.

METHODIST CLOSE REVIVAL ON LAST SUNDAY NIGHT

A most successful revival meeting came to a close at the Methodist Church last Sunday night. Good crowds were in attendance throughout the entire campaign and the congregation last Sunday was unusually large.

Rev. Preston Florence of Seminole did the preaching and his messages were much enjoyed. His discourses dealt almost altogether with the great fundamental teachings of the Bible and he brought his messages in the old-time way that appealed strongly to his hearers. Rev. Will Culwell who directed the music is a very effective soloist and a great leader of congregational singing, and his work was universally enjoyed and appreciated.

About twelve professions of faith were reported and there were many others who were greatly strengthened spiritually.

On next Sunday morning a number of the converts will receive baptism and be received into the Church. Regular preaching service at night.

Rev. George E. Turrentine, the efficient and much-beloved pastor, will fill the pulpit at both the morning and the evening hours.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stuart were called to the home of the latter's brother, Omar Reed, fourteen miles west of Lubbock, Tuesday morning by his serious illness. Soon after his arrival, Mr. Stuart took Mr. Reed to a Lubbock hospital, where his malady was diagnosed as gall bladder trouble. He was taken back home that night, apparently much improved. His father, W. T. Reed of this county went up to be with him Wednesday. Omar himself formerly resided in this county.

Mrs. Belle Mathews of Grassland went to Lubbock Friday afternoon to visit a nephew, Loyd McKinley, who is seriously ill with heart trouble.

Candidate For RR Commissioner

OLAN R. VAN ZANDT

Tioga, May 1.—All politics must be removed from the Railroad Commission to insure efficient administration of the utility and common carrier trucking regulations as the basic step for the proper conservation of this state's vast natural resources date for Railroad Commission. Senator Olan R. Van Zandt, candidate in opening his campaign here today. The Senator's statement reads in part as follows: "Should the great powers vested in the commissioners be diverted from commercial channels into political channels, then the danger must be fully realized by the people. By all means, in so far as possible, the commission should be eliminated from politics. As a business institution, its beneficial work must be keenly felt by every material interest in the state. As a political machine, every revolution of it would menace the happiness of the people."

The hearings of the Railroad Commission should be openly had. Its decisions openly arrived at and publicly pronounced. The rule of equal handed justice and fair play to all, irrespective of political power should be its motto. If elected to this important office I shall strive to maintain this motto. The railroad commission is largely a judicial body and should be removed from politics and to do this end I shall not seek any other office during my incumbency."

Jim Ellen Wells Weds Lubbock Man

Miss Jim Ellen Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wells of O'Donnell and J. L. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams of Levelland were united in marriage at the home of her parents Thursday, April 25, by Rev. J. H. Crawford, Methodist pastor. A double ring ceremony was performed.

Miss Beverly Wells attended her sister as maid of honor. Billy McKnight of Austin was best man. A reception was held following the wedding.

After a short wedding trip, the couple returned to Lubbock to make their home.

Mrs. Adams is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wells, pioneers of Lynn county, and has a score or more relatives in Taroka as well as a host of friends who wish the couple much happiness.

Minor Accepts All-Star Game Invitation

Plainview, May 2.—Max Minor, Tahoka high school football player, has accepted an invitation to play in the all-star game that will be held in Plainview on August 30, at the conclusion of the Plains coaching school August 26-30. Minor is a back, and will play on the West team.

Forty-four boys, outstanding Class A football players on their high school teams this past season, have been invited to attend this Coaching School, the first high school coaching school to be held on the Plains. The school is being conducted under the auspices of the Plainview Chamber of Commerce, and will be held August 26-30.

Two teams, East and West, will be organized, with Frank Kimbrough, football coach at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, mentor of the East team, and Jack Curcio, West Texas State College, Canyon, coach of the West players.

The boys have been selected on the basis of votes received from coaches of opposing schools, and some of the finest talent in the sports world of the Plains will be on hand for this school.

An invitation has also been issued to all Southwest Conference coaches and sports writers of leading newspapers in the conference to attend a banquet that is to be held at the Hilton hotel on the concluding day of the school. These men will also be guests at the all-star game that will follow the banquet.

SOME FRUIT ESCAPES FREEZE

Just to show that there is fruit in this country that will successfully withstand a low temperature of 24 degrees, J. L. Holt was exhibiting at his shoe shop this week a tree loaded with peaches which he said he had broken from a tree at the rear of the old Wells warehouse.

One side of this tree which was protected from the cold north winds by the warehouse has many peaches on it, Mr. Holt says, while the side on which the wind had full sweep had been swept clean of fruit. Not a peach was to be found on that side of the tree.
