New Home Youths Drown On Weekend Fishing Trip

Double Funeral Held Sunday

Tragedy that came noiselessly and without giving warning, like a thief in the night, took the lives of two fine Lynn county boys at an early hour Sunday morning when they slipped off into deep water while setting a trotline at Buffalo Lake in Yellowhouse Draw between Lubbock and Slaton.

J. W. Harston and C. B. Parker of New Home, each 20 years of age, were the victims of the accident.

Harston Parker and J. L. Jennings were in the water walking abreast, Harston being between the other two, hand resting on the shoulder of each, according to Mr. Jennings' version of the affair, when they unexpectedly stepped off into deep water. Mr. Jennings succeeded in swimming ashore, but he says that if either of the other boys ever rose to the surface he was unable to see them. Their bodies were later found with their arms clasped about each other.

Harston was said to be a very good swimmer but Parker could not swim, and the two went down together.

Bud Terry of Lubbock, a cousin of Harston, was also at the lake but was sitting in a car some distance away when the accident occurred.

A joint funeral service for the two youths was conducted at the Harris Funeral Home here at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Rev. M. E. Robinson of Lamesa, who had been young Parker's pastor at New Lynn conducting the services.

A great multitude of many hundreds of people were present and the procession that followed the remains to the cemetery was one of the longest ever seen here.

J. W. Harston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Harston was born at Murchison in Henderson county on February 28, 1920. He came with the family to Lynn county in 1924 and had been reared in the New Home community. He was considered a very fine young fellow and was very popular.

Surviving him are the parents, three brothers, L. P., C. V., and Jerry, and one sister, Mrs. Bill McNeely. (Continued on last page)

Negro Held On Burglary Charge

A negro known over "on the hill" where he hangs out as Coon-in-the-Pocket is in jail here charged with the crime of breaking into the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Carmack with criminal intent about 4:30 o'clock one morning a few days ago.

The negro entered the room of Colene Carmack about two years of age, awoke her and frightened her severely. When she made an outcry he left the house and escaped.

Sheriff B. L. Parker was notified and went to the scene. He was able to track the negro and finally found him in a dug-out over on the hill. He was placed in jail and has been unable to make bond so far. His case will be investigated by the grand jury which will be impaneled the fourth Monday in September.

Foy E. Wallace, Jr. To Preach Here

Evangelist Foy E. Wallace, Jr., editor and publisher of Oklahoma City, will pass through Tahoka this weekend, and on Saturday night of this week will preach at the local church of Christ. Elder Wallace is well-known in Tahoka, having conducted one or two revival meetings here in the past, and has many warm personal friends here. For the past three months he has been doing evangelistic work in the State of California. The public is cordially invited to attend this Saturday night service at the Church of Christ, beginning promptly at eight-thirty o'clock.

Local Girl Wins Tech Scholarship

Miss Mary Margaret Tunnell, daughter of Mrs. Lenora M. Tunnell, was receiving the congratulations of friends Wednesday for having won the Mrs. J. T. Hutchinson Journalism Scholarship of $100.00 for the highest average grade made in this subject during the last session among 139 sophomores and junior journalism students of the Texas Technological College.

Announcement of the winner was made Tuesday, but Miss Mary Margaret did not learn of it until she saw her picture and the announcement in the Lubbock Avalanche on Wednesday morning. Of course she was greatly surprised and delighted.

Miss Mary Margaret was always a high honor student in the Tahoka High School and her friends here are glad to learn that she is likewise winning scholarship honors in the Tech.

Pioneer Resident Passes Away

Becoming seriously ill on Sunday night, July 28, Mrs. Sarah Frances Calahan passed away at her home here at about 1:25 o'clock last Friday morning at the advanced age of 85 years.

Funeral services were conducted from the Harris Funeral Home by Rev. George A. Dale of the First Baptist Church at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and the remains were interred in the Tahoka Cemetery.

The mother of Mrs. John M. Scott and Miss Ethel Calahan, Mrs. Calahan had been a resident of Tahoka only three years, having come to Tahoka with her late husband, H. C. Calahan, from Nashville, Arkansas, on July 16, 1937.

She had long been a devoted member of the Presbyterian Church and was a sweet Christian character, and though confined rather closely to her home by her advanced years she had made quite a number of warm friends here.

Mrs. Calahan was a native of Tennessee, having been born in McNary Co. in that state on May 25, 1854. She was married at Falcon, Tennessee, on October 31, 1886. She left surviving her two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Vaughn of Dallas and Mrs. Josie Puckett of Hartselle, Alabama; two daughters, Mrs. John M. (Frances) Scott and Miss Ethel Calahan of Tahoka; and one son, Luther Calahan of Idabel, Oklahoma, all of whom were here for the funeral.

She also left surviving her nine grand-children and one great-grandchild.

The News joins in sincere condolences to all the bereaved.

Turrentine Continues Ropesville Revival

Rev. George E. Turrentine who is engaged in a successful revival with the Ropesville Church has asked us to announce that he will continue in his meeting through Sunday and that Rev. Ben Hardy will fill the pulpit in his absence. "Come and bring some one with you, and let's have a good crowd" urges Pro. Turrentine.

FFA Chapter Calls Special Meeting

All boys who are planning or have already made plans for the trip of the Tahoka F. F. A. to Christoval to be made on Wednesday, August 14, are urged to attend a meeting next Monday night, August 12, in the high school building. All boys who plan to go, be sure to be at the meeting.—Edward McMillan, Reporter.

Mrs. M. M. Boyd and son Bobby of Amarillo are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight.

County Court In Session; Number Cases On Docket

Two civil suits and one misdemeanor were tried by juries in the county court this week.

On Monday the case of Carl Alexander vs. Vergil May, which originated in the justice court at O'Donnell and was appealed to the county court, came on for trial.

Plaintiff had sued for a debt and had sequestered certain cattle belonging to defendant. The defendant had filed a cross action for the value of feed for the cattle and for the foreclosure of the lien thereon. Judgment was rendered for defendant in the sum of $55.00 on his cross action. Plaintiff was represented by Bolin & Carpenter of Lubbock while defendant was represented by Calloway Huffaker.

On Tuesday the case of L. H. Ebin of New Lynn vs. Weldon Jones of Edith, a suit on a note, was tried on special issues. B. P. Maddox represented the Plaintiff and Calloway Huffaker the defendant. The jury answered the special issue but at the time of going to press the effect of its answers was still uncertain, according to a report given the News by one of the attorneys.

On Wednesday, a young man was tried on a charge of the theft of ten dollars. He had no attorney but pleaded his own case, and it seems that he made his plea stick, for the jury found him not guilty.

Other centers are to be opened at Joe Stokes, Newmoore, and Tahoka, one for whites and one for the negroes here, Miss McNatt states.

She states that the farm women all over the county are showing much interest in this project and she is much gratified at results attained thus far.

Winter Knight In Hospital

Winter Knight in in a Lubbock hospital this week being treated for the flu, rheumatism and possibly other ailments, according to his father, George Knight.

More than a month ago Winter had his tonsils removed. On Thursday night of last week, the wound began bleeding again and he was taken to the hospital, where the flow of blood was finally stopped. But his general condition seems to be bad and the family is much concerned about him.

On Monday of this week Lee Roy Knight also went to a Temple hospital for examination. It is expected, however, that he will be back home before the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Henderson and daughter, Miss Belle, returned Tuesday night from a few days visit at Glenrose and Iredell, where they have relatives.

Numerous Run-Offs In Lynn County

Unless some candidate should withdraw nine runoff contests will be settled by voters in Lynn county on August 24.

Two of these contests are for state offices, one for district office, three for county offices, and three for precinct offices.

One of the most important offices in the state is that of railroad commissioner. One member of this body is to be elected to succeed Lon Smith, who has been a commissioner for long years but who was not a candidate in the primaries this year. The two men who will contest for this place are Pierce Brooks of Dallas and Olin Culberson of Jackson county. Brooks led Culberson by just a few thousand votes in the first primary.

Another very important state office to be filled is that of chief justice of the supreme court. Two able men are contesting for this place, Judge H. S. Lattimore of Fort Worth and Judge James P. Alexander of Waco.

One of the most hotly contested races, perhaps, will be that of district attorney, in which Rollin McCord of this county and Burton

No Rodeo To Be Held In Tahoka

The committee appointed by the Rotary Club to canvass the business men of Tahoka respecting the advisability of holding the rodeo this summer reports that on account of the drouth that prevailed through July it was deemed inadvisable to undertake it. No rodeo will be held here, therefore, this summer.

Had the rains come a few weeks earlier the project doubtless would not have been abandoned.

More Mattress Centers Opened

Two additional mattress making centers have opened in the county recently, according to Miss Maurine McNatt.

One was opened at T-Bar on Wednesday, July 31, and another at Grassland on Monday, August 5.

Two had been operating already, one at Draw and the other at New Lynn. These two up to last Saturday night had turned out about fifty mattresses. The four centers up to the present time have turned out about a hundred mattresses, Miss McNatt estimates.

Other centers are to be opened at Joe Stokes, Newmoore, and Tahoka, one for whites and one for the negroes here, Miss McNatt states.

She states that the farm women all over the county are showing much interest in this project and she is much gratified at results attained thus far.

Breaks Arm

J. A. Godfrey Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey of Route 4, sustained a fracture of his left forearm at his home Saturday night while he and some cousins were playing "cowboys" with their ropes and ponies, J. A. being accidentally dragged from his horse.

While Mrs. C. C. Barnes, who is critically ill in the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock, is said to have been resting better this week, yet we understand that physicians and members of the family entertain little hopes for her final recovery, and there is no way to predict what any day may bring forth.

Rotarians Here Preparedness Talk.

Calloway Huffaker was the principal speaker at the Rotary luncheon Thursday and he gave a very interesting discussion of world conditions at the present time and the dangers which confront America, setting forth world events that have happened in rapid succession since 1932 and our great need to be prepared for any emergency that may arise.

According to the great array of figures which he presented, America is very poorly prepared at this present time to defend herself if Great Britain should be defeated and America attacked. And he stressed the urgent necessity for us to prepare speedily.

It was a thoughtful and forceful presentation of the matter that all of us could have profited by hearing.

Olin Culberson Speaks Here

Surrounded by a score of enthusiastic supporters who formerly resided in Hill county and who had known him there, Olin Culberson, candidate for state railroad commissioner, addressed a sizable crowd of voters on the courthouse lawn and adjacent streets here last Saturday afternoon.

Culberson was escorted to the lawn by members of the volunteer fire department, who, it is said, are for him to a man. For a number of years he has served without remuneration as the secretary of the state fireman's association. He was introduced by District Attorney Truett Smith, and through the generosity of County Attorney Rollin McCord he was permitted to use that gentleman's sound equipment for the address.

Giving a brief history of his experience in Hill county in bringing to justice a bunch of road grafters who had stolen more than $240,000 of the people's money, as a result of which several of the thieves were sent to the penitentiary and the money recovered, he stressed the importance of honesty in the public service.

He openly charged that the candidacy of his opponent, Pierce Brooks, was being supported by the Lone Star Gas Company. He declared that other than the promises which he was making the people from the public platform he had made (Continued on last page)

Crop Prospects Are Brighter

A crop-saving rain visited most of Lynn county and other counties in this section of the state Monday night. In some localities, it was a regular gully-washer, but for the most part the precipitation came gently and thoroughly soaked into the soil.

In Tahoka, the rainfall Monday afternoon and night amounted to 1.68 inches. On Saturday night a light shower fell depositing .31 of an inch in the News rain gauge, making a total of 1.99 inches during the two days. In the Dixie community north of Tahoka and also covering a small strip of country a few miles east of town the fall amounted to two to three inches. In many communities, however, only about an inch of moisture fell. At Draw and Redwine to the southeast, at West Point near the Lynn-Terry line, and at Three Lakes, Newmoore, and other localities southwest of Tahoka the precipitation was light, running from practically none up to a quarter of an inch.

The major portion of the county was covered, however, and the rain came none to soon to save the crops. Some farmers facetiously reported that it had not rained for so long that all the frogs had forgotten how to swim. The throats of many of them were so dry that they could not even croak when the soaker came.

In most of the county, every stalk of cotton and maize and higeri showed the effect of the drouth and even the few prairie dogs that are left out in the pastures, it is said, had been down on their knees for weeks praying for rain.

Now some of the lakes are full of water and the fields are wet. The cotton plants are already perking up while all the feed plants are turning green again.

As this is written on Thursday afternoon, the prospects appear to be good for more rain, but the News never makes a weather prediction; it has been here a long time.

Farmers and business men however are feeling much better and Lynn county will probably make a lot of feed and cotton yet this year.

Former Tahokan Dies In Wreck

William J. Duncan, 39, who was killed when struck by one or more automobiles on the LAMfield highway a short distance out of Lubbock last Saturday night is believed to be the same man who worked here as a mechanic for Chester Connolly a dozen years ago or more.

Mr. Connolly says that from newspaper descriptions of the man he is sure that he is the same man who was employed in his shop here.

Duncan was walking along the highway when struck. One witness stated that just as he raised up another car hit him. At any rate, his body was badly mangled, many bones being broken and other serious injuries sustained. He died almost instantly.

Duncan's brother, 26, was found shot to death at his parents' home early on Monday morning of the same week. A verdict of suicide was rendered by the coroner.

Redwine Youths Enlist In Air Corps

Truett and Donald Giles, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giles of Redwine, have enlisted in the Air Corps Division of the U. S. Army, and they left Lubbock Tuesday for Lowrey Field, Denver, Colorado, where they will take training.

These are fine young men and they have the best wishes of all our people.

COLORED BAPTIST ASS'N IN SESSION HERE

The New Zeal Baptist Association, colored, is meeting here with the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church "over on the hill" this week.

The association opened on Tuesday night and expects to close Sunday night. Large delegations are expected during the weekend, Rev. O. D. Hollins, the pastor, announces, and a most successful meeting is in prospect.

This is the first time this association has met in Tahoka.

In addition to the hearing of reports from the various churches in the association some stirring religious services are being held and the white folks of Tahoka and vicinity are cordially invited to attend.

"Build-Up" Good News For Suffering Women

Much of women's periodic distress may be unnecessary!

Many who suffer from headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain, other symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition are helped by CARDUI.

Main way it helps relieve periodic distress is by increasing appetite and flow of gastric juice. Thus it often aids digestion; helps build strength, energy, resistance to periodic disturbances.

Others find help for periodic discomfort this way: Start a few days before and take CARDUI until "the time" has passed. Women have used CARDUI more than 50 years.

ARKANSAS ROTARY SPONSORS COTTON PICKING CONTEST

Charles Townes, secretary of the Tahoka Rotary Club, recently received the following communication from the secretary of the Blytheville, Arkansas, Rotary Club, which is self-explanatory.

"Dear Charles: For the first time in the history of the cotton growing South, folks are going to have an opportunity of knowing who is really the world's champion cotton picker. To settle this argument of long standing, there has been organized at Blytheville, Arkansas, the National Cotton Picking Association and this Association will hold a world's champion picking contest at Blytheville September 23 and 24th of this year, at which time the world's champion cotton picker will be selected and paid a cash prize of $1000 for picking more cotton, in a given period of time, than anybody else. There will also be an additional one thousand dollars distributed to other contestants.

"The Blytheville Rotary Club, whose members are cooperating in this event, extends to every Rotary Club in the Cotton South an invitation to enter their best cotton picker in this contest, and we are enclosing an entry blank for that purpose should your club see fit to sponsor an entry.

"In addition to selecting the world's champion cotton picker, this Association hopes to help at the job of popularizing cotton and bringing about increased use of cotton in this country, a job in which we think every member of every Rotary Club should cooperate.

"We will be pleased to have you read this letter at your next meeting and to have your reaction to this proposition at your earliest convenience.—U. S. Branson, Rotary Secretary".

MAYBERRYS RETURN FROM CALIFORNIA VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Mayberry and son, Nelson, accompanied by G. R. Bohannon, returned July 31 from a month's visit among friends and relatives in California. At Bisbee, Arizona, they visited with one of Mrs. Mayberry's brothers, at Willows, they visited a married daughter of the Mayberrys, Mrs. Dewey Thurman and family who formerly lived here, and two of Mr. Mayberry's sisters and visited his mother and another sister at Corning. They also visited at Artois.

Mr. Bohannon visited two married daughters at Booneville, visited Ft. Pragg on the coast and took in as much as he could of the World's Fair in San Francisco. Mr. Bohannon says he just did not have the time to see all of the Fair but greatly enjoyed what he saw there as well as the rest of the trip.

S. J. R. No. 4

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas as giving the Legislature authority to provide for appeal direct to the Supreme Court in cases involving injunctions granted or denied on the grounds of constitutionality or unconstitutionality of any statute or on validity or invalidity of administrative orders; providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; and providing for the necessary proclamation and expenses of publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 3-b, which shall read as follows:

"Section 3-b. The Legislature shall have the power to provide by law, for an appeal direct to the Supreme Court of this State from an order of any trial court granting or denying an interlocutory or permanent injunction on the grounds of the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of any statute of this state, or on the validity or invalidity of any administrative order issued by any state agency under any statute of this State."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at the general election to be held on the 5th day of November, 1940, at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"FOR THE AMENDMENT to the constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the Legislature to provide for appeals direct to the Supreme Court in instances involving the Constitutionality of certain laws and orders."

And those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"AGAINST THE AMENDMENT to the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the Legislature to provide for appeals direct to the Supreme Court in instances involving the constitutionality of certain laws and orders."

Section 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Section 4. The sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of said publication and election.

Girls Are Advised To Build-Up For Relief

Lack of knowledge causes many a weak, undernourished girl a lot of suffering!

Many others, however, know how the headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition are helped by the proper use of CARDUI.

Some take it a few days before and during "the time," to help ease periodic distress. But CARDUI's principal use is to help increase appetite; stimulate the flow of gastric juice; so aid digestion, assist in building up physical resistance and thus help reduce periodical distress. Women have used CARDUI for over 50 years.

ATTENDS FUNERAL OF ACCIDENT VICTIM AT AMARILLO

H. B. McCord and son H. B. Jr. went up to Amarillo Monday and attended funeral services for Mark Taylor, manager of the Amarillo division of the Phillips Petroleum Company, who was killed in an automobile crash near Canyon early Sunday morning when four occupants of the other car were also instantly killed. Mr. Taylor was a good friend of his.

The heavy sedan which he was driving collided with a light coupe occupied by Arvid Faulcher, 21, of Welch; Roland Faulkenberry, 23, of Weatherford; Mary June Decker, 17, and Violet Bippus, 27, both of Weatherford. The coupe was hurled 75 feet and ignited when the collision occurred. The occupants could be identified only by the number of the car in which they were riding. It is not known just how the accident occurred.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Though Mrs. F. H. Hancock, long a resident of Lynn County, has lived in Tahoka only about a year she is convinced that she has some of the finest neighbors to be found anywhere. When her birthday came along recently it seemed like everyone living in her part of town came over to congratulate her and to shower her with gifts as well as good wishes. And along with the neighbors came a sprinkling of life-long friends from other communities, and her twin sister, Mrs. J. K. Calaway from Draw.

Mrs. Calaway was, in fact, a special guest and received a gift too.

With three birthday cakes and plenty of iced punch it is needless to say that the social hour was greatly enjoyed by the honoree, her sister and some twenty-five friends who called from four to six.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Burrough left yesterday morning via Santa Fe Railway for Chicago, Canada, the New York World's Fair, St. Louis, and to visit with relatives at several points in Missouri. They expect to be gone a month.

An Open Letter . . . TO THE VOTERS OF LYNN COUNTY REGARDING MY CANDIDACY FOR THE OFFICE OF SHERIFF

Only a short time remains before you again go to the polls to make known your choice for sheriff, in fact it is so short it may be impossible for me to see you and solicit your vote and let you know how I stand in regard to the duties of your sheriff.

As you already know I am no politician, neither do I have the politicians and big money boys behind me, nor can I point to a long record as a peace officer. However, I have had almost two years in the Military Police during the World War and I served most of that time with the Department of Criminal Investigation, which I think has given me a fair training towards the duties of the sheriff's office, and I ask that you consider my record as a citizen of this county for the past 26 years, and as commissioner from precinct 4 for the past four years.

Should you see fit to elect me no person need fear the law as long as they are within the law. You are assured certain rights and I promise you that I will respect them. Yet when duty calls for me to act I will not side step that duty even though my friends be involved and this is the only promise that I have made or will make anyone during this campaign.

I pledge the fullest cooperation to the officers of our neighboring counties, to all state and national officers and the citizens of Lynn county.

My candidacy is in your hands. It is up to you to select and your officer only to serve. I want to again thank you for your help in the first primary, and ask you for your vote and support in the second election.

Sincerely,

TOM N. HALE

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC
Any erroneous reflection upon the vidual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

There are a lot of band-wagon
Democrats in this state. They stay mum until they find out which way
the crowd is headed and then with a great flourish they climb onto the band wagon. We would fight for the majority to have their own way and would willingly submit to the will of the majority but we would not grab a flag and rush to the front ranks of those we believe to be going in the wrong direction. We just simply were not built to be a mere band-wagon climber.

It seems to us that the Republican nominee Wendell Willkie has endorsed just about everything the Democrats have done the past seven years except the promotion of the T. V. A. He favors Roosevelt's foreign policy, he approves the W. P. A. and we have heard no complaint from him as to the other alphabetical organizations, and now he comes out flat-footed for the farm program and hands a bouquet to Henry A. Wall-lace, secretary of agriculture and Democratic candidate for the vice-Presidency. That leaves the Republicans practically nothing to hop on except the Third Term "booger".

A lot of folks have been insisting that the legislature shall cooperate with the governor. That is all right.
But the legislature is made up of many men of many minds. A legislator is responsible to the people of the district who elect him. He should reflect their will where it has been made known to him on a clear-cut issue. Otherwise, he should be guided by his own judgment and conscience. No legislator is responsible to the governor.
He is under no obligation to take the advice of the governor. On the other hand, if it becomes necessary for either to yield, the governor should do so. Why? Because the governor is not the law-making power; the legislature is. Why not insist that the governor cooperate with the legislature a bit?

In striking contrast to the attitude taken by half-baked statesmen like Charles A. Lindbergh, General John J. Pershing, who had charge of the American Expeditionary Forces that were sent to France in the World War, spoke Sunday in favor of giving all aid possible to the British short of actual war. Among his suggestions was one that we send to Britain at least fifty of our over-age submarine destroyers,

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a Republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my Country to love it; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies."—William Tyler Page.

If we can find a legal way to do so,
since, as he stated, we have a large number of these left over from the World War. General Pershing takes the view that the quickest aid of this kind that we can send to the British will be too slow, and that if Germany should whip England's ears down and destroy or capture the British navy it would then be too late for us to avoid war. He thinks the best way for us to stay out of war is to help the British stop Hitler now.
That sounds like sense to us.

It is apparent that there should be a redistricting of the representative and senatorial districts in this state. The average senatorial district should have cast about 37,500 votes
last Saturday. In the 30th district about 55,000 votes were cast. In some districts in other parts of the state possibly not more than 20,000 to 25,000 votes were cast. There is too much disparity in the voting strength of the various districts. An equitable redistricting measure would give West Texas a number of additional senators. The same is true respecting our representative districts in the state. The average district
should have cast about 7,750 votes
last Saturday. This district in fact cast about 28,000 votes. It should be divided into at least three representative districts to give it equal representation with the older sections of the state. The constitution provides for the redistricting of the state following each decennial census. The provisions of the constitution should be obeyed and steps taken this year to redistrict the state. We hope that our western senators and representatives will press this matter upon the legislature at its next sitting.

When France collapsed, some of the patriotic leaders refused to surrender and fled the country. Among these was General Charles de Gaulle, who made his way to England where he formed a provisional French committee to assist in carrying on the war. A French military court acting under orders of Adolf Hitler tried him in his absence on some kind of trumped up charges a few days ago and condemned him to death. Now other French leaders including former Premier Edouard Daladier, Paul Renaud, and Leon Blum, and former Allied Commander-in-Chief Maurice Gamelin, and others are to be tried by a court set up by Marshal Petain under the instructions of Adolf Hitler and his confederates. This trial is scheduled for Thursday of this week and these patriots probably will have been condemned to death before this paper reaches our readers. The charges? That Daladier and his compatriots declared and waged war against Germany illegally! If Hitler and the Nazis ruled this country, that in the kind of courts we would have in this country too—controlled courts, courts that must render such verdict as the dictator demands, courts that may try a man and condemn him to death in his absence, and that too for the heinous crime of defending his country.

Yet there are said to be some good German citizens in this country who sympathize with Hitler. May the Lord forgive them, for surely they know not what they do.

We have greatly admired the daring and efficiency of Charles A. Lindbergh as an aviator. We have never questioned his patriotism, though he did leave his own country in a huff
a few years ago and take up his residence in England. We have never been unkind enough to charge him with being a secret sympathizer with the aims, objectives, or methods of that heartless monster, Adolf Hitler.
But we do think that if patriotic he is a very stupid American and a very bum statesman. In an address in Chicago Sunday opposing compulsory military training and active aid to Great Britain, he is quoted as saying that we must cooperate with the winner in that European war whoever the winner may be. To cooperate means to work together with.
If he means that we must cooperate with Hitler politically, economically, and commercially, we think he is entirely wrong. If Hitler wins this European war, the only way we shall be able to cooperate with him will be to trot along under his wagon and do as he says. The only way we shall be able to cooperate with him will be to give him the whip-hand. The only way any nation can cooperate with him is to be his puppet. To state in advance that we must cooperate with him if he wins is equivalent to saying that we must be willing to cooperate with one who would utterly destroy our form of government and completely eradicate liberty and democracy in all the nations of the world. A Christian might as well announce to the Devil that he is willing to cooperate with him if he the Devil, succeeds in winning his fight on Christianity. As for us, we are not willing to give this international outlaw any such assurances.
We are against him and any of his kind, and we are against the fellow who would excuse or defend him. We are for America and Americanism, and we think Lindbergh just now is exhibiting a very poor brand of Americanism.

A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing
an Amendment to Article 8, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new Section thereto to be known as Section 9-A;
providing that the Commissioners Court of Red River County, after a majority vote of the resident qualified electors owning taxable property therein, shall have the authority to levy a tax not to exceed Twenty-five (25) Cents on the one hundred dollars valuation for a period not exceeding fifteen (15) years for the purpose of refunding the outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of the County by the issuance of bonds under the provisions of the General Laws regulating the refunding of outstanding debts of the County; providing for the necessary proclamation; and appropriating funds to defray the expenses of the proclamation, publication, and election.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article 8, Section
9, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding thereto another Section to be known as Section 9-A, which shall read as follows:

"Section 9-A. Upon the vote of a majority of the resident qualified electors owning taxable property therein so authorizing, the Commissioners Court of Red River County, Texas, may levy an annual tax not to exceed Twenty-five (25) Cents on the one hundred dollars valuation for a period not to exceed fifteen (15) years for the purpose of refund of the outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of such County and issue bonds under the provisions of the General Law regulating the issuance of bonds to refund said indebtedness.

"At such election, the Commissioners Court shall submit for adoption the proposition of whether such outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of such County shall be refunded in bonds, the amount of special tax to be levied, and the number of years said tax is to be levied. The funds raised by such taxes shall not be used for purposes other than those specified in the plan submitted to the voters.

"The provisions of this Section
9-A shall apply only to Red River County; and the provisions hereof shall be self-enacting without the necessity of an enabling act of the Legislature of the State of Texas,

but shall become effective immediately after the official canvass of the result has been made and it is determined that this Amendment has been adopted by a majority of the voters of the State."

Section 2. The foregoing Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November, 1940, at which election all voters favoring such proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the Constitution providing that the Commissioners Court of Red River County may upon a vote of the qualified electors therein, levy a tax and issue bonds to refund the outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of such County"; those voters opposing such Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words: "Against the Amendment to the Constitution providing that the Commissioners Court of Red River County may, upon a vote of the qualified electors therein, levy a tax and issue bonds to refund the outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of such County."

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue
the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution for Amendments thereto.

Section 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of such publication and election,
which shall be refunded to the State of Texas by Red River County out of its General Fund or any other available fund. Provided that no election shall be held until Red River County shall first deposit with the State Treasurer the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) with which to pay such expense of said election.

For District Attorney

Part of every Texas oil dollar finds its way INTO YOUR POCKET

EVERY merchant in our State—every business and professional man—every worker, shares in Texas oil's huge expenditures.

Many Texas cities with all their varied businesses and employment exist and prosper today because of oil.

Last year petroleum created a direct buying power in our state of 550 million dollars.

Of this, Texas retail merchants received 324 million dollars, landlords 44 million, utilities 38 million and professional men 22 million, while 83 million more went for insurance and savings.

This huge sum is distributed and redistributed in an endless chain of income for our State and its people.

Texas oil payrolls are over 60 per cent of all the wages paid to all Texas workers. Directly or indirectly, you get a part of your income from oil.

If you're a Texan, you're in the oil business.

Mrs. Finch was a resident of Taboka for many years and has many friends here who are delighted to see her back.

S. J. R. No. 6
A JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas amending Section 26 of Article IV so as to provide that Notaries Public be appointed by the Secretary of State of the State of Texas; providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; and providing for the necessary appropriation to defray necessary expenses for the submission of this amendment.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 26 of Article IV of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 26. (a) The Secretary of State shall appoint a convenient number of Notaries Public for each county who shall perform such duties as now are or may be prescribed by law. The qualifications of Notaries Public shall be prescribed by law.

(b) Nothing herein shall effect the terms of office of Notaries Public who have qualified for the present term prior to the taking effect of this amendment.

(c) Should the Legislature enact an enabling law hereto in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such law shall not be invalid by reason of its anticipatory character."

Section 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at a special election to be held on the 5th day of November, 1940, at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"FOR AMENDMENT TO THE Constitution of the State of Texas providing that Notaries Public be appointed by the Secretary of State of the State of Texas".

And those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"AGAINST AMENDMENT TO THE Constitution of the State of Texas providing that Notaries Public be appointed by the Secretary of State of the State of Texas".
Section 3. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Section 4. The sum of Ten Thousand ($10,000.00) Dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of said publication and election.

Thrilling romance of the south seas, Two hours of adventure and reckless romance, a breathtaking climax and excitement.

Odds and Ends See Eye, the Elder

"Man that is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down, he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not."

How like man are many of the institutions that he creates! They too perish like the flower. They too flee away as a shadow. Rather should we say that they fade away like the golden beauty that glides the clouds at sunset.

We have in mind some more of those fine old schools that flourished for a time in the pioneer days of this state and then silently passed into oblivion. Scarcely any trace of them now remains except in the memories and affections of a few of the still surviving students who, in youth, were so deeply touched and richly fed, in mind and soul, by these great old institutions.

One of these schools was Buffalo Gap College, situated in the once thriving town of Buffalo Gap in Taylor county, about fourteen miles south and slightly west of Abilene.

Buffalo Gap was then regarded as a far western town. It must have been typically western. The very name is suggestive of the untamed West. The school must have had a strong western flavor. Yet it was a church school. It was founded in 1884, according to Hon. J. M. Wagstaff of Abilene, by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. It finally breathed its last in 1900, after a brief but fruitful existence of only sixteen years. We are wondering if it was launched as a sort of missionary enterprise. Possibly so. Or, it might have been established at the instance of well-to-do cowmen of the region who were members of the Presbyterian Church. At any rate, it was in the heart of the cow country, and the Indian and the buffalo had vanished only a few years before. The ranchmen from all over the West and even other parts of Texas sent their sons and daughters to Buffalo Gap to be educated. At the height of its prosperity, which was about the year 1889-90, it enrolled approximately 500 students. It seems remarkable that a College situated so far west and in so sparsely-settled a section of the country could have built so large a student body in so short a time.

This must have been done too in the face of inadequate building facilities and equipment, meager financial support, and other discouraging circumstances.

That it was done must have been due to the fine character of the men and women who constituted the faculty and to the burning desire of the supposedly uncouth young men and young women of the cow country to drink deeply at the fountain of knowledge and culture.

The first president of Buffalo Gap College was W. H. White, who served in that capacity only one year. The second president was a mere youth of 23, who graduated from Cumberland University in Lebanon, Tennessee, with the class of 1884, and almost immediately thereafter turned his face westward and soon landed in West Texas. That youth was J. M. Wagstaff. He was elected to succeed W. H. White as president of the Buffalo Gap College and served in that capacity from 1885 to 1890. It was during his administration that the school reached its zenith in efficiency and popularity. That feat was accomplished, it seems, in the face of most trying circumstances.

For instance, although approximately 500 students were enrolled in the college, the faculty never consisted of more than five or six members. Furthermore the college building contained only five class rooms, though there was a large auditorium.

With practically 500 students enrolled and only five class rooms in which to teach them, those five or six professors must have had a gloriously hard time.

Youthful President Wagstaff surely must have had many a headache during those five years. Yet grizzled men and cultured women living today who attended Buffalo Gap College in those early days name President Wagstaff "only to praise him". We talked with a few of them not long ago and all of them lavished praise upon him.

Three other men followed Mr. Wagstaff in the presidency of that school, W. H. Melton, R. W. Bengel, and John Collier, but we have little information about them.

Something about the buildings of that institution might be interesting. While the College building—there was only one—was built of stone and was quite an imposing structure, yet in the course of time it developed that the foundation had been improperly constructed and was giving way. Soon after the college suspended work in 1900, the building was torn down, and a public school was built on the site.

On grounds near the College building was a dormitory for boys and girls. It was a wooden structure but we are not advised as to how many students it would accommodate. Certainly it was not large enough by any means to accommodate all of them.

In spite of the strict rules and the watchful eyes of the president and faculty members, it's a safe guess that many a happy courtship had its beginning under the fine old oaks that surrounded the dormitory.

After the school ceased to function, this old dormitory was torn down and moved to Abilene. The grounds on which it stood are now used by the Presbyterians as an encampment ground, and hundreds of them gather each summer for their annual encampment. It is a beautiful park, and many other gatherings are held there.

The town of Buffalo Gap was the first county seat of Taylor county.

Vegetable Laxative With Proved Feature

The punctual, satisfying relief from constipation and its headaches, biliousness, bad breath, so often experienced by users of this laxative, is mainly due to its combination of purely vegetable ingredients.

BLACK-DRAUGHT'S principal ingredient has high medical recognition as an "intestinal tonic-laxative"; helps impart tone to lax bowel muscles.

A little of this spicy, aromatic product by simple directions at bedtime, generally allows time for a good night's rest; acts gently and thoroughly next morning.

Next time, take time-tested, economical BLACK-DRAUGHT.

The first court was held there according to Judge Wagstaff's information, in 1879, and the last in 1883, when Abilene was made the county seat.

It was a bitter fight that resulted in the removal of the county seat, and a terrific blow to the Gap. Abilene had been founded in about 1881 when the Texas and Pacific railroad was built to that point from Fort Worth. Of course it soon became a thriving town with ambitions to become the county capital. It made the fight and won.

But this did not mean instant death for Buffalo Gap, for it was about this time that the Presbyterian school was being established there. And the school kept the town alive and thrifty for another dozen years or more. Then the school died; and this was another terrific blow to the town. Naturally, after this, it began to dwindle away.

But before it had entirely disappeared from the map, the Santa Fe railroad built through the town from Coleman to Sweetwater and on to Lubbock and Clovis, and the staggering village suddenly experienced quite a pleasing resuscitation. The town now consists of two or three brick store buildings, about the same number of filling stations, a depot, a postoffice, a hotel, a public school, a church or two, and a number of residences nestling here and there under the fine old liveoaks that constitute the chief glory of Buffalo Gap.

And thus, in spite of blow after blow, Buffalo Gap has thus far escaped the misfortune of having become another of those mere "ghost towns," but it has escaped, as it were, by the skin of its teeth.

Buffalo Gap was an ideal place for a town and a college. Situated on a small stream whose banks are lined with groves of the finest live-oak trees to be found west of Weatherford, nestling in a gap of a spur of the western highlands that protrudes southeastward as the "Divide" between the Colorado and the Brazos River systems, the precipitous highlands to the west and a detached mountain to the east, Buffalo Gap is one of the most restful and attractive spots to be found in Central West Texas. In fact, it has a kind of classic beauty that is to be found in only a few spots in this part of the state.

Buffalo Gap, we are told, was named from the fact that "the great buffalo trail passed through the gap, and many of the buffalo watered there."

We have asked a number of pioneers for an explanation of the fact that so many and such fine live oak trees are to be found in this gap while there are few such trees to be found in the surrounding territory.

Nobody has given us a satisfactory explanation, though a number of possible explanations have been suggested. One fellow down at Buffalo Gap, when the question was asked him, replied that he did not know, but "Those trees look just exactly like they did when I came here more than fifty years ago", he commented.

"I can not see that they have grown or changed a bit".

But of course there has been a change. Judge Wagstaff says that formerly there were many trees immediately south of Buffalo Gap but most of them have been cut down to make way for farming.

Recent reports are that many of the aged trees are apparently about to die from the lack of water, due to drought and the impounding of the water in lakes above the Gap. What a misfortune that would be!

Yes, Old Mother Nature seems to have been in a happy mood when she made Buffalo Gap.

How unfortunate it was, it seems to us, that such circumstances arose as to kill the town and the school that were built there. Maybe Old Mother Nature had decreed that her handiwork should not be marred by the hand of man—not even in the building of a town and a school. Fine Old Buffalo Gap!

Visitors from Brownwood in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wells last Thursday included Mrs. R. E. Graves and her nephew, Brown Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Trigg.

STATED MEETINGS of Tahoka Lodge No. 1041 the first Tuesday night in each month at 8:30. Members urged to attend. Visitors welcome. O. A. Lualin, W. M. Douglas Finley, Sec'y.

A TIMELY TIP TO TRUCK USERS

MODERNIZE YOUR TRUCKING EQUIPMENT NOW AT today's low prices

CHEVROLET TRUCKS LEAD IN SALES..

because they lead in economy, dependability and value!

TRUCK OWNERS WANT FACTS... CHEVROLET GIVES Certified Proof
On the longest test run ever conducted under the supervision of the A.A.A., a stock Chevrolet 1 1/2 ton truck turned in a marvelous performance record. These facts are clearly outlined in a booklet entitled "You may know" You may obtain it from your Chevrolet dealer or by writing to Chevrolet Motor Division, General Motors Sales Corp., General Motors Building, Detroit, Mich.

Chevrolet trucks lead in sales because they have the most desirable balance of power, economy and durability—power to do the job well, economy to do the job at low cost, and durability to stay on the job. That all adds up to value—exceptional value that has kept Chevrolet trucks out in front in sales—leading again in 1940, as they have led year after year. Consider modernizing some of your trucking equipment, now—all models and types of Chevrolet trucks are still available at today's low price level.

Hackney Makes Statement

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 106th JUDICIAL DISTRICT

After a week's delay waiting for the official checking, I am in the run-off in the race for District Attorney, and wish to take this means of expressing my thanks to the people of the 106th Judicial District for their expression of trust and confidence.

To you who helped put me in the run-off, may I ask your continued support. I deeply appreciate your friendship, your vote, and your influence. To you whose first choice did not win, I earnestly solicit your consideration and support in the second primary.

Covering the entire district in three weeks is an impossible task, but I shall try to see as many of you as possible before August 24th. Respectfully, Burton G. Hackney.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT IN AND FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS WACO DIVISION

No. 236 In EQUITY
J. M. HUBBERT VS. TEMPLE TRUST COMPANY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned has filed his application with the Clerk of the United States District Court in and for the Western District of Texas, Waco Division, for an order authorizing him to sell and convey to G. ATTEND RUNNELS COUNTY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Calaway of Draw, W. T. Knight and family of Lakeview, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stuart and son, Joe Nickols and family, District Attorney and Mrs. Truett Smith and their little son, W. W. Simpson and daughter, Mrs. Poe, all of Tahoka, attended the reunion of ex-residents of Runnels county held in Mackenzie State Park in Lubbock Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Smith were never residents of Runnels county but by invitation Mr. Smith addressed the assemblage.

Mr. Stuart says that many people who still reside in Runnels county came up to mix and mingle with their friends who had moved away. A number of counties in this section were represented among those present.

H. W. Calaway of Draw is president of the association.

Mr. and Mrs. James Clinton and children and niece, Grace Jones of Plains, returned last Sunday from a vacation trip which took them to Rosenberg to visit in the home of Mr. Clinton's sister, Mrs. Daws and family, to Galveston for a dip in the surf, through the state capitol in Austin, and back by Christoval for a short season of fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Odie Mayberry and baby left Wednesday morning for Willows, California, where they expect to make their home.

Louise Foote of Abilene, the Texas Queen of Queens of 1939, is shown in a love scene with Don Castle of Houston, who has played in such MGM pictures as "Rich Man Poor Girl," "Love Finds Andy Hardy," "Thunder Afloat," "Northwest Passage," and other feature pictures. Miss Foote, who was awarded the movie test as the Queen of Queens, was directed in the test by Fred Wilcox.

The 1940 Queen of Queens will also be awarded a trip to Hollywood and a screen test.

FARM TENANT COMMITTEE IN SESSION HERE

The county committee for tenant purchase met Wednesday and Thursday to review the applications and for a general review of the tenant purchase program for this year. The meeting was under the direction of Mr. John Barbee and Mrs. Ruby D. Mathews of the Amarillo office of Farm Security, assisted by Wyman J. Welch and Miss Hix, local representatives.

The committee reports that two out of every five farmers in the United States are tenants, farming land they do not own, and their ranks are increasing rapidly. One tenant out of every three moves to a new farm each year.

The Tenant Purchase program was originated as one approach to the solution of this problem. The Bankhead-Jones farm tenant act was passed to provide loans to help a limited number of tenants, sharecroppers, and farm laborers purchase their farms. The county committee is composed of B. J. Emmanuel; Salah L. Williams and R. J. Maeker.

National Defense Contracts Awarded Texas Concerns

Contracts totaling $7,807,701.01 were awarded to Texas concerns from June 13 to July 17 under the national defense program, Governor W. Lee O'Daniel announced today.

The list of awards was compiled by the Office of Government Reports.

The largest single award was to the Pennsylvania Shipyard, Inc., at Beaumont for two cargo vessels to cost $1,974,000 each. One of these vessels is scheduled for delivery on February 22, 1941. The keel for the other will be laid on September 27, 1940 with expected delivery date of April 23, 1941.

Another contract awarded by the United States Maritime Commission was for the reconditioning of the S. S. West Segovia. This contract went to Todd Galveston Company at Galveston for $141,965.

The United States Navy Department has contracted with Crawford-Austin Manufacturing Company of Waco for fold canvas cots to cost $8,333.45.

Construction contracts have been awarded by the United States Army for a temporary warehouse at the San Antonio air depot costing $405,000; for hangars, buildings, and utilities at Brooks Field for $708,000.

The Humble Oil Refining Company of Houston was awarded a contract in the amount of $814,231.80 for aircraft engine fuel.

In addition to the contract awarded it by the United States Navy, the Crawford-Austin Manufacturing Co. of Waco has received two orders from the United States Army for folding canvas cots. The amounts of these contracts are $99,030, and $73,806.40.

The Quartermaster Corps of the United States Army has announced the awarding of a $107,734.38 contract to the Taylor Boddling Manufacturing Company at Taylor for cotton mattresses.

Many minor contracts are also included in the list.

W. E. SUDDARTH AND DAUGHTER VISIT IN THE NORTH

W. E. Suddarth and daughter, Miss Betty Lu, left Saturday morning for a visit to the World's Fair in New York and to other cities in the North and East.

Their first stop after leaving Tahoka was to be at Wichita Falls, where they expected to visit his sister.

Then they were to go to Brownsville, Tennessee, where Mr. Suddarth was born, for a visit with relatives and friends there.

Then they were to visit the Nation's capital, and are just wondering if Mr. Suddarth would honor his big boss, Jim Farley, with a call while in that city.

Annapolis, Philadelphia and then little old New York, where the big show is being staged. They hoped to spend four or five days there.

The next big sight Miss Betty Lu expected to see was Sunbury, Pennsylvania, the place of her birth. Then on to roaring Niagara Falls, Detroit, Chicago, and St. Louis where the national convention of the Rural Letter Carriers Association will be in session August 19-22 inclusive.

From St. Louis they will head out to Missouri's cow town, Kansas City, and thence home.

It should be a really wonderful trip.

A WELL-REMEMBERED HOUSE

EVERY once in a long while, when driving through the country, one sees a house that is worth remembering. Well designed, and well kept, it also contains some additional spark of individuality that sets it off from its fellows.

Such houses, one tends to imagine, must have just as charming owners. Through constant association, they seem to have absorbed something of the spirit and character which show so strongly in the form and color of their homes. It is a not-to-be-taken-too-lightly theory that people in time take on the characters of their houses.

This little house has some of that easily remembered quality. Its low, modest walls, watched over by a hearth-warming chimney and a slightly pitched asphalt shingled roof, are somehow different from the usual run of small houses.

Perhaps it is because considerable care has been taken with the details of its design. Windows are not just holes punched in the outer wall. They are smartly match. Since the roof is covered with asphalt shingles—recommended by its architect for their fire-resistance, beauty and long life—its owner may have his choice of almost any roof color he desires.

A good part of the appeal of this house is its planting and position. Note how foundation bushes have been kept low and bushy; and how the use of pointed or spiked shrubs or trees has been avoided to give a soft undulating line. In addition, the lawn has been kept perfectly clear of all plantations or beds. Only a great-grandfather of a tree, to shade and protect it, stands between the house and the road.

And so the sum of these things makes this house an unusually attractive one, and well suited to a small family that cannot afford—or doesn't need—a rambling place of many rooms. Randolph Evans, its architect, who designed it for the Monthly Small House Club, 140 Nassau Street, New York City, says that it can be built in most parts of the country for about $3,500, exclusive of land,

Vegetable Laxative Makes Happy Friends

Here's a laxative that usually acts thoroughly as harsher ones but is a gentle persuader for intestines when used this way: A quarter to a half-teaspoonful of spicy, aromatic BLACK-DRAUGHT on your tongue tonight; a drink of water. There's usually time for a good night's rest, with a gentle, thorough action next morning relieving constipation's headaches, biliousness, sour stomach, bad breath.

BLACK-DRAUGHT is a splendid combination of vegetable ingredients, chief of which is an "intestinal tonic-laxative" that helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles. It's economical. 25 to 40 doses; 25c.

But "The Masses" were not so foolish, after all!

LESS LOUDLY NOW, you may still hear an occasional agitator blasting away at the American system of business—which depends on big factories, big networks of dealers, trade-marked goods, heavy advertising, and low prices.

Agitators complained for years that "the masses" were injured by this system, and that we'd all be richer if we went back to the old cracker-barrel days.

But in spite of the complaints, little factories which have made dependable goods grew into big factories. Dealers insisted on having trade-marked goods which their customers could recognize. And the heavy advertising helped to give us our modern newspapers, magazines and radio.

Who built this system? The masses built it, by insisting on crackers they could recognize in the package, on automobiles, soups, soaps, chewing gum, cigarettes, and all other articles that carried well-known trade names.

So the agitators have had to pipe down. They have discovered that "the masses" were not so easy to lead astray after all.

Texans to be Farm Week Stars

TWO Texans will help entertain hundreds of thousands of farmers who will visit the New York World's Fair during Farm Week, which begins August 12. The two are Red River Dave (with guitar), who in real life is Dave McEnery, of Simmons and San Antonio, and Bill Benner of Tahoka (extreme left). Their companions are Joyce Thomas of Denver and Roy Horton of Montana.

The Ford Exhibit will hold a continuous open house during Farm Week, with free concerts in Garden Court afternoons and evenings, special tractor exhibitions in a big outdoor plot, and twelve performances daily of the hilarious horse opera "A Thousand Times Neigh," in which Dobbin, the two-man dancing horse, has cavorted his way into the hearts of a million people.

No. 8 HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas to be known as Section 30b of Article 16; providing that the provisions of Article 16, Section 30, of the Texas Constitution limiting the duration of all offices not fixed by the Constitution to two (2) years, shall not apply to appointive offices of any municipalities that are placed under the terms and provisions of Civil Service but the duration of such offices shall be governed by the provisions of the Civil Service Law applicable thereto; providing for an election on the question of adoption or rejection of such amendment; making an appropriation therefor; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof; prescribing the form of ballot.

of the State of Texas be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto, a new Section to Article 16 to be known as Section 30b which shall read as follows: "Section 30b. Whenever by virtue of Statute or charter provisions appointive offices of any municipality are placed under the terms and provisions of Civil Service and rules are set up governing appointment to and removal from such offices, the provisions of Article 16, Section 30, of the Texas Constitution limiting the duration of all offices not fixed by the Constitution to two (2) years shall not apply, but the duration of such offices shall be governed by the provisions of the Civil Service law or charter provisions applicable thereto."

Section 2. Such proposed Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas at the general election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the 5th day of November, 1940, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the State Constitution providing that Article 16, Section 30, of the Constitution shall not apply to appointive offices of any municipality placed under the terms and provisions of Civil Service."

Those voters opposing said Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the Amendment to the State Constitution providing that Article 16, Section 30, of the Constitution shall not apply to appointive offices of any municipality placed under the terms and provisions of Civil Service."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the Amendment the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

Section 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published, as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Section 4. The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election.

Answers 1. c. clear. note that this question radius. This radius increases as the have learned to fear snow, rain and fog, and we drive accordingly. There are many minor mishaps in such weather, but because few of us drive at high speeds under these conditions, fatal accidents occur more rare than one would suspect. 2. f. 720 feet. As speed is increased, the car requires an increased turning radius. This radius increases as the square of the speed. Thus when speed is doubled, the safe turning radius is quadrupled; when speed is tripled the safe turning radius in nine times will explain many accidents on curves.

3. c. high. Under any other conditions this would be considered a driv- longer. An appreciation of these facts ing error. Using the gentler gear maintains the light friction which exists between the tires and ice, mud or clay. Be sure, however, that you engage the clutch with all possible care and slowness.

To The Voters Of Lynn County:

I wish to express my appreciation to you for the good vote that you gave me in the July Primary. I have no ill feeling toward anyone that may have voted against me, not even those who would persecute me or despitely use me. That is your sacred privilege if you desire to do so.

Now, it has been rumored by some that I have withdrawn from the race. May I say here and now that all such reports are false. My father taught me when I was just a lad to always hoe my row out, so I am definitely in the race to the finish. I feel that this is a matter for the people themselves to decide and I am leaving it up to you, the people of Lynn County, to determine by your sacred ballot on August 24 whom you desire to serve you as your County Judge.

Due to the fact that County Court is now in session and it having never been my policy to neglect my duties of office to promote my political ambitions, it will be impossible for me to see you personally during this run-off campaign, however, I will surely appreciate your vote and influence on August 24.

I promise you, if re-elected to the office of County Judge, to continue to render you honest, faithful, and efficient service. I shall strive at all times to represent the interest of the masses against the interest of the classes in the future just as I have done in the past. Again I thank you for all past favors and I hope to continue to serve you in the future.

As ever yours, For a better County Gov't.,

P. W. Goad County Judge

Marshall Formby Thanks Friends

"My Friends elected me!" This was the statement issued at Dickens this week by Marshall Formby who on July 27th was nominated State Senator of the 30th District on the Democratic ticket. Judge Formby, serving his fourth year as Dickens County Judge, defeated Alvin R. Allison of Levelland approximately 8,000 votes in the 24-county district.

"I am deeply thankful to my friends who elected me", Judge Formby said. "A man is helpless working alone, and I shall always be thankful for my friends who came to my aid. I could not have possibly won without my friends and I am grateful to them all in this county and in the district. I ask now for the cooperation of every man, woman, and child in this district to help me make the kind of a State Senator you want".

Judge Formby said he expected to visit here as soon as he catches up with his work at Dickens.

Methodist Plan Revival Services

An old-fashioned Methodist revival meeting will begin at Harmony school house ten miles southeast of O'Donnell on Sunday, August 11, conducted by Rev. H. L. Braswell of O'Donnell and Rev. Allen Soule of Lamesa.

10,000 Indians Attend Gallup Ceremonial

GALLUP, N. MEX.—Ten thousand Indians from thirty tribes will attend the annual Inter-Tribal Indian Ceremonial to be held here August 14 to 17 inclusive. The most talented among them will present age-old symbolic dances, sing or chant traditional tribal songs, compete in sports and games and exhibit their handiwork in rug and blanket weaving, pottery-making, basket-weaving, Katchina-doll carving and decorating, and silversmith's art. Scenes similar to above will be enacted. Upper left, masked Navajos made-up for their best dance. Yet-be-cha! or Fire Dance. Right, Hopi Katchina doll-carver and decorator at work. Lower left, Zuni leader signaling his men to start dancing. Right, Tug-of-war for Indian women.

Relatives Attend Funeral Here

Out-of-town relatives here for the funeral of Mrs. H. C. Calahan Saturday afternoon included two of her sisters, Mrs. W. H. and other relatives. C. B. Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Parker, was born on January 12, 1920, at Whitewright in Grayson county. He came with his parents to Lynn county in 1927, and the family resided until two or three years ago in the New Lynn community. At the time of his death he lived a few miles east of New Home and about twelve miles northwest of Tahoka. While residing at New Lynn he united with the Baptist Church at that place and was a member until his death. He, too, was a model young man, highly respected and greatly beloved.

Besides his parents he left surviving him two sisters, Mrs. Virginia Yandell and Miss Velma Lee Parker, one brother, George Parker Jr., a grand-father, J. E. Parker, two uncles, J. H. and W. O. Stalcup, and an aunt, Mrs. Lou Isabelle.

The News joins numerous friends in sincere condolences to all the bereaved.

Midway Revival Begins Sunday

Golden Wedding Anniversary

It was a happy occasion last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Walters, residents of Brownfield for the past 27 years, were hosts to their eighteen children and sixteen of their eighteen grandchildren, one great-grandchild and several friends.

This fine couple, who are well-known here, have been fortunate in bringing up their family, as within these fifty years the Death Angel has visited in their midst only once—when a grandchild was taken—and last Sunday these ten grown men and women gathered in from Houston, Lubbock, Tahoka, Seagraves and from several points in New Mexico to enjoy a day which included a variety program and a dinner with a complete family circle around the board.

Mr. and Mrs. Belton Howell and son, Wade, and Mr. and Mrs. Oran Short, all of Tahoka, attended this celebration, the ladies being daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Walters.

BRUCE GILES WEDS OKLAHOMA GIRL

Mr. Bruce Giles, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giles of Redwine, and Miss Hazel Fern Clifford of Forgan, Oklahoma, were united in marriage at the home of Rev. W. P. Brian at Field-ton Tuesday, August 6, at 3:00 P. M.

They are staying at the home of the groom's parents for awhile, after which they plan to make their home in Fort Worth, where he will attend the Baptist Theological Seminary.

Mr. Giles is one of the finest young men of this county and has chosen the ministry as his life work.

Mrs. Giles is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Clifford of Forgan and was a student of the Panhandle A. & M. College at Goodwell, Oklahoma. These fine young people have the best wishes of hosts of friends.

OLIN CULBERSON ADDRESSES LYNN COUNTY VOTERS

no promises to any man in this state and that if elected he would go into office unhampered and under obligation to no special interest.

He further asserted that his wife was his only campaign manager and that a few stenographers at his home were the only paid campaigners he had.

Mr. Culberson was county clerk of Hill county when he unearthed the evidence which sent the road grafters to the pen, and following his second term he was elected county judge of Hill county and served as such for two terms. Later he served as an employee in the offices of the state railroad commission. For many years, he states, he was top-ranking official in the agency which regulates oil production and transportation. He was active in the long fight which led to reduction of gas rates in scores of Texas towns and cities.

He doubtless is thoroughly familiar with every phase of the work of the railroad commission, and if he is as honest as his friends say and has no strings tied to him by the interests, as he says, then he is no doubt one of the best qualified men in the state for the position he seeks.

BOY DEVELOPS BLOOD POISON FROM INJURY

Harley D. Schulz, youthful son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Schulz of Dixie, was taken to the Lubbock Sanitarium Sunday morning suffering from blood poisoning resulting from an infection of a wound received in June when he got his leg caught by the cogs of a planter.

Harley had been attending the revival services at the Methodist Church at Dixie and on Saturday night was called upon to pass the collection plate. On the next day, we are informed, the Church passed the collection plate for his benefit, to assist in paying the hospital expenses.

This is a fine example of Christianity in action. It is to be hoped that the stricken youth recovers speedily.
