A Great Figure of the Nineties Passes

In Fort Worth early Sunday morning died a man whose name back in the "gay nineties" was a household word throughout the rural sections of the entire nation. Every living man who was old enough to be a member of the Farmers Alliance and who lived on the farm back in those stirring days will well remember the name of Dr. C. W. Macune.

Although a physician and a Methodist circuit rider in young manhood, Dr. Macune became one of the organizers of the Farmers Alliance when that organization was getting under way. Then he became editor of its national organ, The National Economist, published in Washington, D. C. Many a gray-haired man still living read this great farm publication as long as it survived, which was quite a span of years.

Dr. Macune was an able writer and the National Economist was filled with Alliance news and with discussions pertaining to agriculture, economy, and finance. It wielded a mighty influence in the political thinking and upon the politics and the legislation of that era. Out of the Farmers Alliance movement, which started in the eighties, emerged the Populist party, which saw its palmy days in the early nineties.

With the disintegration of the Populist party, which was almost complete when the present century dawned, Dr. Macune and most of the other Alliance and Populist leaders passed out of the picture. Dr.
Macune, however, continued to be a useful citizen in less conspicuous positions for many years, serving as a minister in the Methodist Church until 1923, when he was superannuated. At the time of his death he was 89.

We are undecided whether we should feel pity or contempt for that fellow Laval, vice premier of the puppet government of France at Vichy. Not only has he been breathing out hatred against France's former ally, Great Britain, but recently he gave out a statement defending Nazism and declaring that democracy is dead throughout the world. If those expressions were forced from him by the monster Hitler, he is to be pitied. If they were his own free expressions he deserves the contempt of every lover of liberty whether British, American, or French. And we do not believe that many of the French entertain any such sentiments or could be forced to become so servile and fawning as to give expression to such sentiments. Petain and Laval are playing an ignominious role.

"I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people;
whose just powers are derived from the consent
of the governed;
a democracy in a Republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

"I therefore believe it is my duty to my Country to love it; to obey its laws; to respect its flag;
and to defend it against all ene-

Some of our good friends yelled themselves hoarse for Al Smith when he was the Democratic nominee for President twelve years ago. We couldn't stomach Smith then and scratched. Four years later Smith got sore because the Democrats declined to nominate him again and he sulked in his tent. We believe that he voted for Hoover, the Republican candidate, for re-election. Then four years ago, he fought Roosevelt and voted for Landon. A few nights ago we heard him on the radio fighting Roosevelt again, still claiming to be a Democrat. We got a lot of criticism twelve years ago for scratching Al Smith. Did we scratch a Democrat, gentlemen, when we scratched him?
We will let you answer.

Old Mussolini and his boasted war machine are meeting up with some terrific and heroic resistance on the part of little Greece. They are not dealing now with a bunch of unorganized and unarmed Abyssinians
but with a progressive and liberty-loving people, few in number though they be in comparison with the hordes of Mussolini and Hitler.
Greece may be crushed, as nearly all the other small nations of Europe have been, but if so, the time will come when all of them will throw off the yoke, and Greece again will be free.

Because of greatly increased responsibilities at home and abroad,
the American Red Cross this year appeals for greater membership.
Last year the Red Cross emblem of mercy waved at the scene of 106 disasters in this country, bringing assistance to more than 100,000 sufferers. Join during Roll Call this year, November 11 through 30, and keep your Red Cross ready for the coming year.

We heard John Lewis and Joe Louis on the same program Monday night, both speaking for Wilkie.
Joe Louis tried to read something that somebody else had written, and John Lewis in the same breath denounced Roosevelt as a would-be dictator and tried himself to dictate to labor. We believe that we have more respect for Joe than we have for John.

SAUERKRAUT

On the Tahoka markets at the present time there is a surplus of cabbage. Cabbage ranges in price from 1 cent to 1 3-4 cents per pound.
Many farm families, find it more convenient and cheaper to make sauerkraut for home use during the winter than to buy commercial kraut.

It was once the custom to keep the sauerkraut in a crock or barrel in the cellar. But the modern way is to use glass jars that hold just enough kraut for a single meal. As the sauerkraut is in glass jars, there is no need to waste the top layer that turns soft and brown in an open crock.

Jars with glass lids, that clamp down, are preferred. The salt in the sauerkraut will corrode metal lids.
If the sauerkraut is to be used in the winter it can be made right in the jars. Mix the shredded cabbage with the salt—1-4 pound of salt to 10 pounds of cabbage—and pack into the jars. Place the lids and rings on the jars, but do not seal tightly.
Place the jars in some kind of enamel pan to catch the juice that bubbles out. Let the kraut stand for two or three days until there is good gas formation. Then pour the juice back into the jars, seal the jars, and let ripen for a month or six weeks, and it is ready to serve.

When kraut is to be kept until summer, it is best to make it in a large jar, crock or barrel and later put into the jars. After the kraut has fermented for nine or ten days it will be ready for canning. Heat the sauerkraut thoroughly, and then put it into the jars. Put the lids and rings on the jars, but do not seal.
Place the jars in a bath of boiling water and continue heating for about 5 minutes, until the water returns to boiling. Then seal the jars and continue heating them in the water bath—10 minutes for quart jars, and 15 minutes for half gallon jars.

tact tell me how they serve sauer-

A Gentle Laxative
Good For Children

Most any child who takes this tasty laxative once will welcome it the next time he's constipated and it has him headachy, cross, listless, with bad breath, coated tongue or little appetite.

Syrup of Black-Draught is a tasty liquid companion to the famous BLACK-DRAUGHT. The principal ingredient is the same in both products; helps impart tone to lazy bowel muscles.

The Syrup's flavor appeals to most children, and, given by the simple directions, its action is usually gentle, but thorough. Remember Syrup of Black-Draught kraut to make appetizing as well as nourishing dishes. Sauerkraut contains calcium and usually some Vitamin C.

Adding celery seed or caraway seed helps the flavor of kraut. Chopped apple mixed with the kraut and heated in some hot fat for a few minutes is good. Kraut, like other vegetables, should not be cooked very long. Tuck some "wienies" in the sauerkraut and serve when piping hot.

Some cooks serve sauerkraut with
and cook. Ground meat cooked alone baking dish and put a layer of spare-ribs, loin or shoulder of pork on top

and cook. Ground meat cooked alone and then added to kraut with a tomato sauce makes a savory dish. A can of soup mixture or left-over vegetables added make a tasty and economical dish. Another idea is to scallop the sauerkraut with macaroni and cooked sausages or add bits of chopped or ground meat.

Chevrolet Sales Surpass 1939 Mark

DETROIT, Nov. 6.—Chevrolet retail sales in 1940, in exactly nine months and 20 days, have surpassed those for the entire calendar year of 1939, it was announced here today by William E. Holler, general sales manager. The figure for the current year through Oct. 20, he said, is 814,951, as compared with 791,886 for the entire year of 1939. This is already a gain of 2.9 per cent.

Coincidentally with the sales record for the annual period, Mr. Holler announced two other Chevrolet selling records. The period just closed—the second 10 days of October—establishes a new record as the greatest similar period in Chevrolet history. Likewise, the record for the first 20 days of the month surpasses any previous Oct. 1-20 in Chevrolet annuals.

During the second 10-day period, he reported, dealers sold a total of 31,091 new passenger cars and trucks, a gain of 100 per cent over the same period last year, and a substantial increase over the first 10 days of October this year. Combined sales for both 10-day periods in October of this year, Mr. Holler said, totalled 61,147, a gain of 167 per cent over the 22,898 sales reported during the same 20-day period last year.

Harley Sadler's Show Is Coming

Elsewhere in this issue you will find an ad heralding the coming of America's oldest and leading stage shows. For something like 25 years

Harley as the "Old Grouch"

this popular company has been playing here each season and this year, according to Mr. Sadler, the people of Tahoka have a real treat in store for them in the way of a stage attraction. He has gone to the four corners of America for talent, which includes singers, dramatic artists, musicians, dancers, the best that could be found in their respective lines. Many new features will be introduced. Special scenery will be provided for each play. Harley has selected as his opening play a domestic comedy drama entitled "The Lovable Old Grouch," a brand new play that the Sadler company has never presented before. An outstanding feature this year will be the vaudeville talent, which will be presented by 30 minute presentations preceding the show. This presentation will be under the personal direction of Mr. Dick Darling, who joined the Sadler company direct from a Metropolitan engagement. Special costumes and Strobelle electrical effects which might be termed technicolor in vaudeville will be used, a feature not seen before in the southwest. The doors will open at 7:15. The vaudeville program starts at 8:10. Popular prices will prevail. General admission prices are 10 cents for children and 20 cents for adults. Special reserved chairs are 10 and 20 cents extra, government tax included. The Sadler show engagement will be sponsored here by The Marion G. Bradley Post of The American Legion.

Grassland P. T. A. Met October 29

The Grassland P. T. A. had their regular meeting Tuesday night, October 29. The people present enjoyed numbers by the Rhythm Band and the songs sung by the Tahoka Mother Singers were especially good. Mrs. Applewhite spoke on "Advantages of P.T.A." Her talk was very informative. Since the Grassland P. T. A. is a new organization, it appreciated all the pointers and suggestions offered throughout Mrs. Applewhite's talk.

On Hallowe'en night a large crowd was on hand to enjoy the 42 party. Several who didn't play 42 played Bingo and Shuffleboard. The hostesses were Mesdames Howard Davis, Auvie Lee Norman, and Byron Terrell. Cleo Cowan entertained the little folks and Elzora Rallsback entertained the intermediate group with Hallowe'en parties.

The farm home of Miss Minnie Cooper of Tulla situated in the West Point community and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ethan Bartlett is undergoing extensive repairs and remodeling, according to J. W. Minor. It is being treated to a new stucco finish outside and sheetrock finish inside.

Garrard Urges Red Cross Aid

To relatives and friends of men registered for military training, Tom Garrard, chairman of the Lynn County Red Cross chapter, extends assurance the Red Cross is making full preparation for expansion to deal with welfare problems of all men who enter service as well as their families at home.

Pointing out that the Red Cross is the government's official agency chartered to deal with personal or family problems of men of the army and navy, Mr. Garrard said the public will be asked for increased membership support during the organization's annual Roll Call, November 11 to 30, that military, public health, first aid and other national defense responsibilities of the Red Cross may be met adequately.

"Increased staffs of chapter home service workers, and field representatives at training points," Mr. Garrard said, "will assist the men or their dependents in matters of illness, emergencies, material relief, obtaining of information needed by military authorities for furloughs or dependency discharges, advising in business difficulties, obtaining of employment for a member of the family, and other problems."

"Army hospitals have already asked for more than 4,000 Red Cross nurses to be on duty by next July. The first groups were called on September 15 and October 15. For convalescents, Red Cross "Gray Ladies" will write letters; read books, provide games and other amusements. Red Cross volunteers will make comfort items for hospitalized men.

"Among other preparedness measures being taken by the Red Cross, our chapters will be expected particularly to train more women and girls in home hygiene and prevention of disease as a civilian safety measure, train additional thousands of first aiders in industries affected by war materials production, increase enrollment in the Red Cross nursing reserve corps and in nurse's aide special courses for training of assistants in civilian hospitals in time of national emergency. In addition, they must continue to produce garments and surgical dressings for use overseas and here at home. This expansion will take into account also, the continuing need of domestic Red Cross peacetime services."

TEXAS IS SIXTH IN DUCK HUNTERS

Austin, Nov. 6.—Texas is the sixth leading duck hunting state, figures released by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service show. Texas sold a total of 63,460 migratory waterfowl stamps last year. Minnesota was the leading state with a total of 120,034 stamps being sold, according to word received by the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission here.

Other states in the big ten of duck hunters are Michigan, 86,964 stamps; Wisconsin, 84,075; California, 74,644; Illinois, 66,434; Washington, 50,796; Iowa, 39,143; Louisiana, 33,870, and New York, 32,304.

A total of 1,111,561 hunters purchased the $1 duck stamps which must be carried by all migratory waterfowl hunters over sixteen years of age. The stamp must be in the hunters' possession when they are in the field. Texans usually stick the stamp on the back of their state hunting license. It must be canceled by the holder writing his name across the face of the stamp.

Hot Check . . .

the four checks on the farmer, whose name was H. P. Winters, making the checks payable to Clyde Bates, took them to four separate grocery stores, where he got the money on them, and then caught the bus to Lubbock.

He stayed at a hotel in Lubbock Friday night and then caught the bus to Tahoka early Saturday afternoon. Leaving his coat again at a tailor shop, he obtained the name of T. I. Tippit as a prosperous farmer from somebody, went to a drug store and procured some checks, wrote them out in a rest room, signing the name T. I. Tippit to them and making them payable to Clyde Bates, and then started out on his forging expedition over town.

The first store visited was that of E. H. Boullouin, who hesitated at first to take the check offered in payment for a small purchase. The young fellow appeared surprised and hurt, declaring that everybody knew him, so Mr. Boullouin finally yielded and delivered to the youth the "long green."

Then the artist visited the Cash Store, the A. L. Smith Food Market, both of the Piggy-Wigly Stores, the J and R Food Store, Mack's Food Store, Cobb's Department Store, and the Jones Dry Goods Store, at each of which places he made a small purchase and cashed a check.

After the fellow left the Boullouin store Mr. Boullouin made inquiry and found that not a single person in the store had ever seen the man before. After some little investigation he reported the matter to the sheriff, and the sheriff caught him before the next bus was due.

The checks given ranged in amounts from fourteen dollars to sixteen and a half dollars, totaling about $133.00. At most of the stores where he made purchases he left the goods with the explanation that he would call for them later.

He had made no second calls when he sheriff tapped him on the shoulder.

This year, the Red Cross trained nearly 94,000 life savers. Since this program was established 25 years ago, thousands of lives have been saved through greater knowledge of water safety and the ability to meet emergencies. Join your Red Cross chapter during Roll Call this year and add your name to the millions of Americans who are combatting human distress.

"Build-Up" Important Protector of Women

A weak, undernourished condition often enables functional dysmenorrhea to get a foothold; thus leads to much of woman's suffering from headaches, nervousness, and other periodic discomfort.

CARDUI's principal help for such distress comes from the way it usually stimulates appetite; increases flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion; helps build energy, strength, physical resistance to periodic pain for many.

Another way, many women find help for periodic distress: Take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time." Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years!

On next Monday we will celebrate the signing of an armistice two years ago which marked the close of the World War. Let us do honor to those who had contributed to the winning of the war. Let us do honor to those who had lives on the field of conflict to curb the power of autocracy, the world safe for democracy."

At that time, many of us felt that the bloody hand of war had been stayed never to strike again. At that time we felt that had won a triumph that would assure peace and safety to all races of the world for generations.

But today we find that not only have many of the democracies of Europe been destroyed or crushed but that our own great democracy in America is being menaced, that our own principles of individual rights of the individual, our entire way of life is being threatened by those within and without.

Let us today rededicate our lives to the preservation of and of those great tenets of liberty and freedom on which it

Myrtle Rochelle

A certain drug clerk was in a dither for a few minutes Wednesday. He had just finished talking to a lady over the telephone when her husband came in and asked to be sold some shotgun shells. He says the conversation was strictly business, but just the same they do say he quivered and shook until the husband left.

For the first time in a long time Tahoka will have a big attraction on Armistice Day, with a patriotic street parade, a program and every thing that goes with it. The gift by the Ex-Students Association to the school of a United States flag, voted on last year on the motion of Claude Donaldson, makes that day a most appropriate one for Homecoming. The football queen, Helen Bell Pemberton, is all that can be hoped for for charm and talent, and who could miss Harley Sadler? Let's all stay at home for our Armistice fun!

It will be hard to forget that there can be no Celebration across the waters this year, and that it is barely possible that we may not celebrate the occasion next year—so let's have lots of fun and give to the ex-soldiers the salute they deserve.

LAST METHODIST SERVICES OF CONFERENCE YEAR

The last services of the Conference year will be held Sunday morning and evening. "Bringing Forth Fruit to Perfection" will be the morning topic. Conference will meet in Pampa, Friday November 15 and close Tuesday Nov. 19. Appointments will probably be broadcast from Amarillo Tuesday.

We congratulate the Scouters and Mr. Gilley for the splendid school which was held in the scout hall for one night each week of the last three weeks. Our town should become more conscious and assist the Scoutmasters in building up the scout troop. Scouting helps your boys achieve manliness and independence. See that your boys get to meetings of the troop.—Geo. E. Turrentine.

GRASSLAND M. E. SOCIETY MEETS

The recently organized Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Grassland Methodist church held an all day meeting in observance of Week of Prayer at the church Wednesday. A covered dish luncheon was served at the lunch hour, and the day was taken up with an inspirational program.

Last week the society quilted a quilt for a neighbor who has been ill several months.

Mrs. George Porterfield is president of the organization, which meets each Wednesday afternoon at 2:30.

Schools Plan Parade Floats

"Rights Equal Responsibilities" in brief, the theme of the float to be presented in the Armistice Day parade by the Grade School.

The float will depict in a very effective manner our rich heritage as American citizens of this Great Democracy.

Its objective will be two-fold. First, that of making our citizenship more conscious not only of our inalienable rights as guaranteed by the Constitution but to drive home the fact that with every right there must inevitably accompany an equally commanding responsibility. Second, that of bringing our citizenship to the realization that we should be just as faithful in the discharge of our responsibilities as we are in the exercise of our rights.

President Roosevelt said, among other things, in his last speech of this campaign on last Saturday evening, "Freedom of speech is of no worth to one who has nothing to say. Freedom of worship is of no use to one who has lost sight of his God." Are we exercising or neglecting using or abusing those rights guaranteed us by our Constitution? What is your answer?

God grant that we may, as individuals and as a town, school, community, state, and nation understand and appreciate, enjoy, preserve and pass on to our posterity this rich heritage—Our Constitutional Rights.

Plans for the High School float have not been completed but are under way. Tentative plans call for a float which will carry out the theme: "Liberty Depends Upon Popular Education" Color themes will be blue and white, to represent the school; plus red to represent the nation.

Prominent Plains Pioneer Is Dead

One of the earliest pioneers and one of the most interesting personages of the entire Panhandle section of Texas, Judge L. Gough of Amarillo, 78 years of age, was found dead in his room early Sunday.

The body was buried at Hereford Tuesday, following funeral services in the First Christian Church at that place. Judge Gough had resided in Hereford many years before removing to Amarillo.

He came to the Panhandle as a tenderfoot cowboy more than 50 years ago, being employed on the old T-Anchor Ranch. Later he taught school, then studied law and was admitted to the bar, and practiced his profession many years. He also had a talent for writing and in 1886 he published a book entitled "Western Travels and Other Rhymes."

In 1936 this book was re-published under the title "Spur Jingles and Sad Songs." In recent years he has delivered many lectures before public schools and other organizations, and for years he was a director of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society.

He was well known throughout the entire Panhandle, especially among the old-timers, and had friends and acquaintances in this county.

Odds and Ends See Eye, the Elder

How keen must be the disappointment of those men and women in the northern and northwestern portion of this county whose crops were almost totally destroyed by a hailstorm that swept over that region last week. Ever since early last spring they had been planning and toiling that their fields might return bounteous yields of the crops they planted and cultivated. And then, just at harvest time, came the hail—unexpected and destructive.

It must be admitted that one of the greatest crop hazards in this section of the state, next to drought and withering winds, is hail. But destructive hailstorms rarely come in the fall, just occasionally. Yet, destructive hail in the fall is more exasperating than in mid-summer, for then it is too late to plant and grow other crops on the land. We are sorry for any family whose crop is riddled by hail, and especially when the hail comes in the fall. The victim's only remedy then is to save what he can from the wreckage. And sometimes more can be saved than at first seemed possible. Continued dry weather and sunshine, even in the dead of winter, will sometimes so fluff up the cotton that has been beaten into the ground that it can still be scooped up and saved. That has happened more than once in Lynn county.

To us, one of the never-ending wonders is the power of the wind. Just think of upward currents of air so strong as to arrest drops of falling water, to sweep them upward and upward into the regions of freezing temperatures, and to bandy them about in that region until the tiny drops have grown into great missiles as large as hen eggs or even baseballs, before permitting them to drop to the earth.

Just think of the power of the wind in a tornado! Air so thin that the eye may see through miles and miles of it as if it were a mere pane of glass; and yet in motion it can attain such speed and irresistible power as to twist off trees and pick up houses and hurl them through space.

Just a little heat applied here and there, causing the atmosphere in the heated localities to expand and rise, can cause mighty disturbances in this gaseous substance that surrounds this ball on which we live. It may set gentle breezes to stirring or it may set in motion a terrific wind storm. It may bring us welcome showers or torrential downpours of rain and hail. Or, in this western country, it may bring us the colorful sandstorm or the hot winds that blight and destroy.

How marvelous are the laws and the forces that govern the elements!

To most of us all nature is a miracle. Think of the power of dynamite! Of nitroglycerine! Of the ex-they will fall, lifeless. But they are beautiful, even in the blighting grip of Death.

But why must they die and fall? Winter, you say. Winter is coming. It's natural that they should succumb to the changes of the seasons.

But the leaves on the trees at the equator wither and die too, where the weather never freezes, just the same as they do in the temperate zones. Maybe the trees do remain green throughout the year, but they shed the old leaves and put on new ones. It's a law of nature—seedtime and harvest; birth, a span of years, and then death. All flesh is as grass. And the laws of Nature are only the laws of God.

This is a universe of mystery. How were the stars set in motion? How do they hold their places, through the countless aeons of time, in this infinite expanse that we call the Universe? How do they maintain their balance? And when one minor body does lose its balance and goes crashing wildly through space, why doesn't that cause larger bodies to lose their balance also and cause a general smash-up?

The heavenly bodies and their clock-like movements constitute a mystery that can be explained in only one way—God. Infinity is incomprehensible. So is Eternity. It's all beyond the mental powers of finite minds. How puny is man, when he stands

MAN REALLY SAW SNAKES

A Newton, Texas, resident recently struck a snake on a log and before he left the spot had killed fifteen rattlers, some of them with as many as twenty-three rattles. When he struck at the snake on the log a larger one emerged. He got his gun and cleaned out fifteen rattlers. While he was concentrating on the rattlers a wildcat ran out of the other end of the same log, believe it or not!

"I wholly disapprove of what you say but will defend to the death your right to say it."—Voltaire.

Volume XXXVII

Tahoka, Lynn County, Texas, Friday, November 8, 1940

Number 13

Roosevelt Is Elected For A Third Term

Vote One-Sided In Lynn County

Ten to one is a big majority, but President Roosevelt carried Lynn county last Tuesday by a vote of a little more than ten to one. He received 2,618 votes while Willkie received only 255.

West Point is entitled to the honor of being crowned as the banner Democratic box in the county, since it cast 40 votes for the head of the Democratic ticket and not one for the Republican candidate, Wendell Willkie.

However, Newmoore registered an even more remarkable vote than that. Of the 106 votes cast for President at Newmoore, Mr. Willkie received just one vote; Roosevelt rolled up 105. There must be one brave but lonesome man living out at Newmoore.

Gordon made almost as good a Democratic showing. It polled 83 votes for Roosevelt and two for Willkie.

Wilson proved to be the banner Republican stronghold in the county. It registered 43 votes for Willkie against 209 for Roosevelt.

New Home stands second in the Republican list, polling 40 votes for Willkie to 219 for Roosevelt.

At O'Donnell Willkie received 38 votes but Roosevelt rolled up a total of 476, beating the big electric power mogul by a majority of 12½ to 1.

By voting precincts, the vote for President in Lynn county was as follows:

BOX	F.D.E.-W.W.
South Tahoka	357 34
North Tahoka	497 28
O'Donnell	476 38
Wilson	209 43
New Home	219 40
Draw	147 21
Grassland	111 5
Dixie	104 6
Newmoore	105 1
Morgan	85 17
Lakeview	81 12
Gordon	83 2
Garnolia	62 4
Three Lakes	40 4
West Point	42 0

Total 2,618 255

The state Democratic candidates received about the same number of votes as did the candidate for President, with the exception of J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture, who was the Democratic nominee for a sixth term.

Having announced a few days prior to the election that he expected to vote for Wendell Willkie for President, he thus brought down upon his head the wrath of a majority of the Democrats of this county. An active fight was made for a write-in campaign for W. N. Corry in opposition to McDonald and the Corry supporters carried Lynn county by a substantial majority. He received 1476 votes to 1223 for McDonald. In some of the rural boxes the vote for Corry was overwhelming.

The vote by boxes was as follows:

BOX	W.N.C.-Mc.
South Tahoka	189 170
North Tahoka	260 240
O'Donnell	214 258
Wilson	95 189
New Home	125 118

Morgan	44 64
Lakeview	61 31
Gordon	68 17
Garnolia	55 9
Three Lakes	33 10
West Point	30 11

Majorities were rolled up against all of the proposed constitutional amendments in this county except the last one.

Red River County Amendment: for, 233; against, 452.
Notary Public Appointment: for, 347; against, 362.
Civil Service Office Holders: for, 255; against, 357.
Appeals on Constitutional questions: for 413; against, 276.

Elliott Speaks To Rotarians

Judge J. W. Elliott, chairman of the Lynn County Draft Board, was the speaker at the Rotary Luncheon Thursday.

A number of questions respecting the selective service law and especially the matter of deferments had been submitted to the judge by Leo Dodson who had charge of the program, and the Judge gave clear answers to most of them—in fact to all of them on which the board had been given information from Washington.

John Hamblen, high school band director, gave a couple of vocal numbers, accompanying himself on the guitar.

Miss M. Cooper of Tulla was in Tahoka last weekend looking after business interests.

Showers Stop Crop Gathering

Thursday dawned with a fine mist in the air, which grew heavier as the morning advanced, and before noon a slow but steady rain was falling. At 2:45 in the afternoon, the precipitation amounted to .39 of an inch, and it was still raining. In fact there were good prospects for a protracted season of moisture.

Cotton picking, of course, has been completely stopped by the rain.

BEATRICE SHERRILL BECOMES MEMBER SPEECH CLUB

LUBBOCK, Nov. 6.—Beatrice Sherrill, freshman Arts and Science student at Texas Technological college, recently became a member of Sock and Buskin Speech club.

Beatrice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sherrill of Tahoka.

Popular Vote Margin Narrow

Breaking a precedent set by the first President of the United States 143 years ago, when George Washington declined to stand for election to a third term, Franklin Delano Roosevelt was elected to a third term as President over his Republican opponent, Wendell L. Willkie, by a substantial popular majority and a tremendous electoral majority, in the nation-wide election held Tuesday.

When 47,000,000 votes had been accounted for Thursday morning, Roosevelt was running over four million votes ahead of Willkie and was leading in 39 of the 48 states. These 39 states will cast 468 electoral votes while the nine Willkie states will cast only 63 electoral votes. Final returns may possibly switch the votes of the state of Michigan into the Willkie column, but that is not now expected and could not greatly change the result. The vote now stands: Roosevelt, 25,694,767; Willkie, 21,427,832.

It is believed that more than 50 million votes were cast. It is possible that Roosevelt will have a popular majority of more than four and a half million.

In Texas Roosevelt received considerably more than 80 percent of the votes. This was generally expected, however, in spite of the vigorous, organized fight made on him by such would-be leaders as Mike Hogg of Houston and Joe Bailey Jr. of Dallas.

The most determined, vigorous, and vitriolic fight yet made upon Roosevelt was the fight which has just terminated most disastrously for the Republicans.

Playing up the issue of a third term for all it was worth, attacking Roosevelt as ambitious to become a dictator of the American people, recklessly charging that he was bent on plunging the nation into war, appealing deftly to the mother love of the women voters of the land to vote against Roosevelt lest their sons might be sent to fight again in foreign lands, attacking his methods in the administration of New Deal measures, holding up to criticism the heads of the various departments who are most vulnerable to criticism, loudly professing that they believed victory for their candidate was assured, finally enlisting the aid of that supposedly powerful labor leader, John L. Lewis, and pulling every possible string that might win a vote, it did begin to look as if the Republicans had a good chance to win.

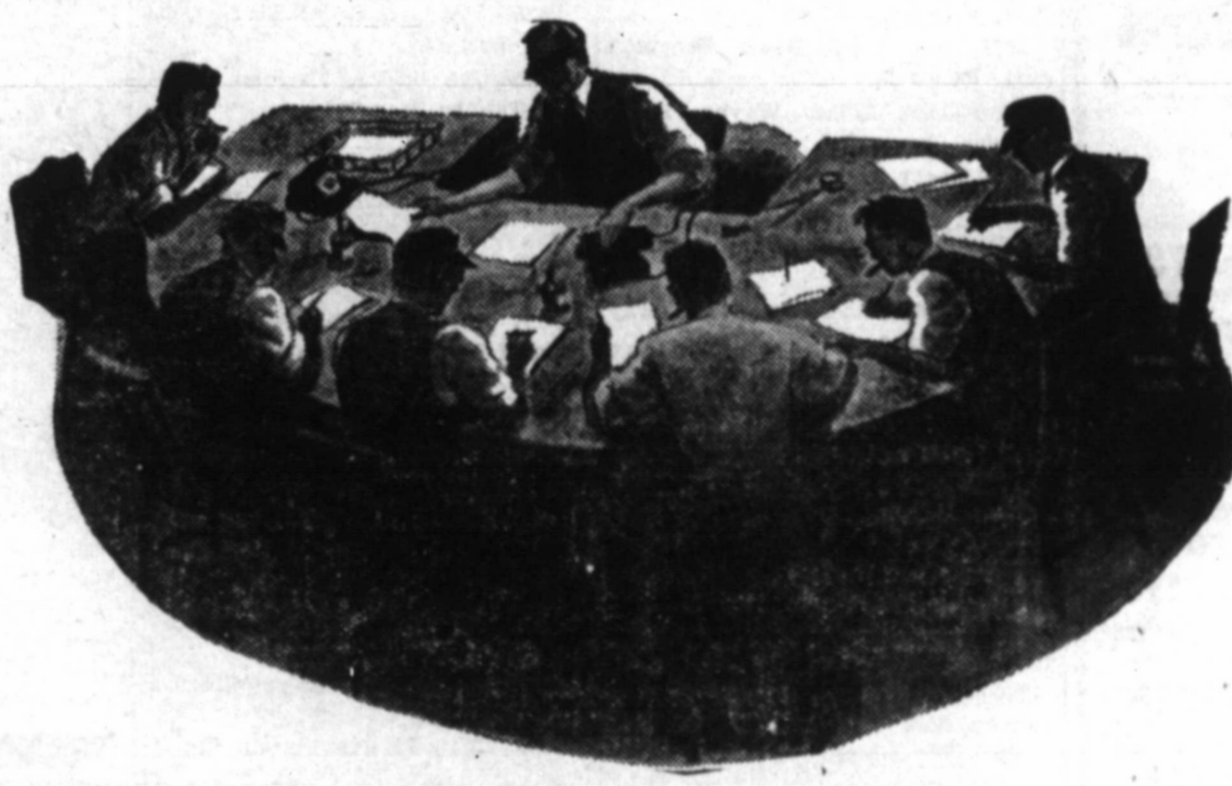

But scarcely more than a week before the end of the campaign, Roosevelt himself went on the stump. He spoke to the millions all over America over the radio. And whatever else any one may think of the President, he is generally conceded to be one of the most astute, powerful, and effective radio and platform orators in America. In comparison, Willkie was crude and ineffective. The wonder is that Republicans were able to engender as much support and enthusiasm for him as they did. They will never risk him again. Now that he has had his fling and has been found wanting, this is the last of Willkie.

And so this election has made history. For, aside from the issues involved and aside from Roosevelt's official record, this is the first time in the history of the nation that a President has been elected to serve for a third term.

"First Line Defense" of American Democracy

A free people must be an informed people. They must have facts on which to base their action... their right to think and do what in their individual opinions is the right thing to do.

Not half truths... not biased representations... nor information colored by prejudice! Their first need is learning the truth about what goes on in a world of momentous change and crucial happenings.

Fortunate are the American people that at their press is alive to this urgent need of the American public for facts... is alert in providing these facts and in defending the right to present them in full, unhampered by meddling interference.

America's first line of defense is the American Press that has made the American public the best informed in the world... and the best qualified to think and act. Your newspaper realizes its responsibility... and has directed all its efforts to give you the news of the day, uncolored, unbiased, free from subversive influence, and completely reliable as your daily source of information.

A WORD FROM JOHN PAUL KING

Friends here will be glad to hear a word from John Paul King, who was reared in this county and formerly worked in Tahoka.

He is now a minister of the Methodist Church and has been serving the past year as pastor of a charge in Oklahoma.

"We have finished a most successful year in Cimarron county at our recent charge, but have just recently been transferred to another charge in Texas county, Oklahoma, the Optima circuit."

Paul says they enjoy reading the Lynn County News very much and asked that we continue sending it to his new address.

Drennon's Notes

Election Day tomorrow, and I can't vote after paying one seventy-five for the privilege. It just doesn't seem fair, but I guess one vote won't make much difference anyway.

The Republicans seem to be in the majority around here, but I still think Roosevelt will go back in. I don't know what is best but I believe he is the best qualified of the two for the office.

It is great to live in a country where you can speak your mind. I don't know if this state will go Democratic or Republican but I do know it is not popular to be for Roosevelt around here.

The newspaper I take is very one-sided for Willie I think any newspaper should publish both sides of any issue and let the readers do some thinking as well as the editors. That is one of the things I admire in Editor Hill. He has published things for me that were contrary to his views, yet he has not blue-pencilled anything I have sent in, even praise for Brother O'Daniel.

My quails will soon be going the way of all the earth, as killing season will soon be open. As I do not have a hunting license, so I will have to stand by and see them slaughtered. I sure have some fine plump ones which eat with my chickens every morning. I have been eating rabbits till I can hop around fine.

The calf selling season is on and things are humming here now. Some ten or fifteen thousand have been shipped out the last ten days or two weeks and business is good in town. The calf and fruit in the valley are the two principal money crops.

I preached yesterday on prayer, and I think in these trying times what a fine thing if the people of America would put more confidence in God and less in themselves. God will finally decide the battle after all.

Yours for more people who will not only be good but do good, and remember others have rights as well as you.—R. P. Drennon.

Ed. Note: Many thanks, Brother Drennon, for the flowers. You make us blush. But any newspaper that is a newspaper will publish legitimate news whether it bears on one side or the other side of some mooted question. And no fair newspaper will refuse to publish a communication from a citizen for the sole reason that it contains expressions of opinion contrary to the opinions of the editor or publisher. We have tried to be fair in this respect, and most newspaper publishers do. In fact, in spite of charges to the contrary, most newspapers are eager to get and to publish important and interesting news, and if they publish opinions on one side of an issue they are willing to print controverting expressions of opinion. No class of our citizens are fairer than the great majority of the men who publish our newspapers, not even the judges of our courts. But thanks again for the bouquet.

CHILD GUIDANCE CLUB
Meeting in the home of Mrs. E. R. Edwards Tuesday afternoon with eleven members present, one new member and one visitor, the Child Guidance Club had as speakers Mrs. James Clinton, whose subject was "Being the Mother You Want to Be," and Mrs. Alton Cain, who spoke on the subject, "Critical Days for Mother." Mrs. W. E. Smith read a poem, "The Story Mother Tells," and Barbara Ann Finley sang a song and gave a reading.

The entire program was both instructive and interesting. During the social hour, the hostess served refreshments to Mes. Wynne Collier, Cain, Deen Nowlin, W. E. Smith, R. H. Gibson, K. R. Durham, Douglas Finley, Clinton, Jack Welch, Rollin McCord, Edwards, and new member Mrs. P. A. Nowlin, and the visitor, Mrs. Fred Bucy.

Hen houses are being 'air conditioned' in California, where evaporator type coolers capable of holding the interior under 90 degrees as compared to outside temperatures ranged upward to 110 resulted in lowered mortality among hens and raised egg production 11 percent.

BAPTIST W. M. S.
Mrs. J. L. Nevill was quiz-leader when eleven women met in the Baptist Church Monday afternoon for the monthly Bible study meeting. This group is following a three-year plan of daily Bible reading, which was begun January 1, 1940.

Lest We Forget!

November 9 will be National Poppy Day.

These little red paper poppies are made in likeness of the ones blooming in Flanders Field, where so many of our boys were left after the World War.

Each flower is made by ex-Service men who are in Government hospitals more than two months, if they are physically and mentally able to make them; and the money they get for making them they have to send home to their loved ones. Often, it's the only thing they can do and the only money they have to send home.

The Auxiliary buys the poppies from the hospital. Then the money paid to the Auxiliary goes to Child Welfare and Rehabilitation work only.

Mrs. R. C. Forrester is Poppy chairman for the Marlon G. Bradley unit, Tahoka, and with the aid of the Junior Auxiliary will have the poppies for sale in town Saturday.—Mrs. Rafe Richardson, assistant state committeeman, 19th district.

WORKERS' CONFERENCE AT LOOP

Rev. and Mrs. George A. Dale accompanied by Mmes Cornelia Kelley and Molly Doss attended the Workers' Conference of the Brownfield Baptist Association at Loop, Thursday.

CRITICISM

Here's a little salve for some of you fellows who have to take it on the chin occasionally:

Elbert Hubbard's advice on how to avoid criticism was to "do nothing, say nothing, be nothing." And the man who follows this advice might be a good man, but it would be negative goodness and worth nothing to others. It is too bad that good men must suffer unjust criticism, but there is no way to avoid it and amount to anything.—McLean News.

Lawyer: Then you admit that you struck the plaintiff with malice aforethought?

Defendant (indignantly): You can't mix me up like that. I've told you twice that I hit him with a brick, and on purpose. There wasn't no mallets nor nothing of the kind about it—just a plain brick like any gentleman would use.

Derwood Unfred, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Unfred of Petty community, who has been stationed at Fort Bliss, El Paso, since August, came in Thursday to visit his parents for a few days.

Dr. J. W. Sinclair has been confined to his bed this week by illness.

OSA GATTIS BUYS LINLEY PRODUCE

A deal was consummated this week whereby Osa Gattis became the owner of the produce business heretofore known as the Lindley Produce. Mr. Gattis took charge of the business as the Gattis Produce.

Mr. Gattis has been a resident of Tahoka for a number of years here and has many friends who wish him success in this new business venture.

Mr. Lindley, who operated this produce business the past two years, announces that he will remove to Crosbyton, where he will open a feed store. He stated to a representative of the News Thursday that he "sure did like Tahoka" and had no kick coming against the town or anybody here. Many friends regret his removal.

Mrs. Ruth Parker was here a few days this week from Odessa visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Shaffer, and other relatives.

MONA RAE EDWARDS IS BRIDE OF ALBERT DeBUSK

(From O'Donnell Press)

In a quiet ceremony at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Edwards, near Brownfield, Miss Mona Rae Edwards became the bride of Albert DeBusk, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. DeBusk, this city.

Rev. J. W. Jackson, pastor of the Levelland Baptist Church, officiated. The bride wore a soldier blue velvet dress with black accessories; her corsage was of pink gladiolas.

For something old she wore a necklace belonging to her mother. Miss Aris Thompson and Willie Gates, this city, attended the couple. Mrs. DeBusk attended school in Levelland and the local school. For the past two and one-half years, she has been an employee of the local telephone office.

Mr. DeBusk also attended the local school and is at present employed with the Arizona Chemical plant here.

Following a short trip, to Lubbock, the couple returned Tuesday and are living in the Sanderson home on East Ninth Street.

Other than the family, attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. D. Rodgers of Tahoka and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Edwards of Tahoka.

Lubbock Cowhands Tahoka, Post Meet Armistice; Defeat Bulldogs Other Games In District

Everything went wrong for the Tahoka Bulldogs in their second home game of the season here last Thursday night, and the Lubbock Cowhands, feeder team to the state champion Westerners, won 19 to 6. However, the speedy fighting Cowhand presented stronger opposition than many had expected, and in fact was one of the best teams the Bulldogs have met this season.

Due to a roll on the right hand of Tahoka's "Sammy Baugh", "Rusty" Waldrep, and due to the Cowhands strong pass defense, the Tahoka lad's usually passing attack was not up to its usual high standard.

The game, however, was not without its thrills. One of the most beautiful runs of the season was Earl Adams' 45-yard gallop to pay dirt after receiving a short pass from Waldrep. It was Tahoka's only score, and took place in the first quarter.

Pipes was the outstanding ball totter for the visitors, he having individually accounted for the three touchdowns, one after a run of 50 yards, one for 65 yards, and one for a line buck from the 1 yard line.

Lubbock made 9 first downs to Tahoka's 7, punted 8 times for an average of 34 yards, while Tahoka punted 7 times for a 31-yard average. Lubbock lost 33 yards on run-

The Tahoka Bulldogs, "crippled" for the first time this season, will put up the hardest fight of the season to stay out of the cellar this year when they meet the Post Antelopes on the local field Monday Nov. 11, Armistice Day and Homecoming Day for all Tahoka Hi Ex-Students.

Post, like Tahoka, has a very good ball club this year—in fact the best team in several years, but the Antelopes have not won a single conference game this year.—In every game either team has played this year the teams they have been matched against were not the better ball club because they won.—The Bulldogs have played two conference games and have out-played both teams, but were defeated by just a breath. Post has played four conference games and has lost everyone of them by just a breath.

The two teams seem to be evenly matched except by weight. The Antelopes out-weigh the Bulldogs on an average by several pounds and they have a man by the name of Gossett that is plenty good at carrying the ball and three or four other outstanding players while the Bulldogs feature Earl Adams, Duane McClintock, Roy Botkin, Cecil Curry and Jo Lehman as nice ball toasters and "Sling'in'—Rusty" Waldrip who puts on an aerial "blitzkrieg" that is as good as any passer any where on any body's football team in the U. S.

"Hoss" West is as good an end as there is to be found any where and the same goes for "Cotton" Davis and Jake King. A. G. Deason, A. G. Crutcher, Ray Knight, Pug Parker, and Kelly King are as good a bunch of linemen as can be found on ning plays, Tahoka only 9. Lubbock attempted 8 passes, 6 of which were incomplete, and two of which were intercepted. Tahoka did considerably better at passing, having completing 7 for 127 yard; 15 were incomplete and 3 were intercepted. Each team fumbled three times, Tahoka recovering four fumbles.

"Sonny" Roberts, Tahoka back, received a broken arm early in the game which took the fight out of the Bulldogs somewhat. However, the break is not a bad one, and Sonny watched the game to its end and was able to be in school the next morning.

It is impossible for us to predict how this ball game will come out since old "Lady Unlucky" has been mad at both teams all this season—so we hope that old "Lady Luck" will be riding with the Bulldogs Monday afternoon.

With 1940 feed supplies, and with pastures improved by conservation farming, farmers could provide every person in the nation with 45 quarts more milk and cream and 81 pounds more cheese, butter, ice cream and other manufactured dairy products than each person ate in 1939.

Mrs. E. S. Evans arrived Friday and spent several days here on a combined business trip and visit. Mrs. Evans now lives in Austin, where she and Mr. Evans are operating a tourist camp and filling station.

The public question we can be calm about in 1940 are those of 1940.

O'DONNELL PLAYED TWO GAMES LAST WEEK-END; LOSE BOTH GAMES

The O'Donnell Eagles had a game scheduled with Southland last Friday and Seminole also had a game scheduled with O'Donnell—so they played both games losing to Southland 12 to 6 and to Seminole

The Eagles have been a hard team to figure out this year, one week they are defeated by a very weak team and then they win over a very strong team and then the next week they lose to a strong team etc.

There is not much telling what kind of a game they will play from one week until the next.—It seems that the first of the season they found it pretty rough going and then things started to click and a machine was perfected and then all of a sudden the gears were stripped and the machine began to flying in every direction.

We don't know how well Coach Ray DeBusk has rebuilt his piece of machinery but we will know after their game tonight being played at O'Donnell with Fluvanna.

LUTHERAN MISSION FESTIVAL IN LAMESA SUNDAY

There will be no services of the American Lutheran Church in Tahoka Sunday because of Mission Festival services in Lamesa.

The congregation and friends are invited to spend the day with St. Paul's Congregation at South 5th and Katherine in Lamesa, where two special services are being held, one at 10:30 A. M. and the other at 2:30 P. M.

Rev. A. H. Muehlrad of Sagerton will be Mission speaker for the services.—Theo F. Sager, Pastor.

WAYSIDE NEWS

We are still enjoying beautiful sunshiny weather. Several years ago I heard a land agent speaking of the wind in this country say "Isn't this breeze fine?" So, I will say "Isn't this weather fine?"

Alvin Shambeck, Mildred Macha and Rhinehard Ernst visited Miss Edith Macha in Snyder Sunday. Miss Edith is a nurse in the Snyder Hospital.

Lavoce, Laroyce and Lavar Moore who are in training in the Medical Corps of the Army at Fort Bliss, El Paso, spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Moore. The two first named are twins.

Mr. and Mrs. Alford Hill of Sudan visited over the week end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shambeck.

The Home Demonstration Club did not get to have their entertainment at Joe Stokes last week on account of the rain and hall, but expect to have something very soon and give the club quilt away.

The Lynn County News is a mighty good paper. We like the editorials. We are sure that if others would read our paper they, too, would enjoy it. Wish we had some correspondents from the other communities.—Reporter.

J. H. Kuykendal Observes Changes

"Tahoka has changed a bit since I came here," observed J. H. Kuykendal Tuesday as he strolled away from the courthouse and cast his eyes across the street to the west side of the square, now a solid block of brick business houses. "I hauled the first load of brick and of sand that went into that courthouse," he continued.

Mr. Kuykendal came to this county from Prairie Dell in Bell county many years ago, and he has seen ranch after ranch in this county converted into farms. He has seen Tahoka grow from a straggling village to a beautiful and progressive town of brick business buildings and lovely homes and paved streets.

We should say Tahoka has changed a bit since he came here. There were only two or three brick buildings on the west side of the square then. There was a string of wooden shacks and a number of vacant lots.

"And yet they say I am not an old-timer here," he concluded, "and I have never tried to join the old settlers' association."

But he is proud of his home town

SISTER OF MRS. J. C. LACKEY DIES AT GOLDTHWAITE

Mrs. J. C. Lackey of Tahoka and two brothers, Ben and Charlie Casbeer, who had been here working the past few weeks, were called to Goldthwaite Sunday evening by the death of their sister, Miss Wanda Louise Casbeer, 24 years of age, who died at 4:10 Sunday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Casbeer, at Goldthwaite. She had been in very ill health for four months.

Besides her parents, she left surviving her six brothers and five sisters, all of whom were present at the funeral except a sister residing at Webster, who was unable to attend.

Funeral services were conducted by Mrs. Keeton, the Nazarene pastor at Coleman, and the body was laid to rest in the Pleasant Grove cemetery near Goldthwaite.
