

ODDS & ENDS

by Eec Eye,
the Elder

Wait a minute, you East Texas folks that the editor invited out last week to view the ruins of our Dust Bowl. Guess you had better wait a few weeks to make the trip—say about the first of August, when the cotton and maize, we hope, will be high enough to make the fields look green and to protect the top soil, a bit from these gentle breezes that we have out here occasionally.

But to tell you the truth, folks, the dust storms and the rain storms can actually do business at the same time out here on these "baldies" when old Nature decides to pull a stunt or put on a show.

On Friday, for instance, before last week's News had reached many of you, it was thundering and pulling off a near sandstorm at one and the same time right here in Tahoka. We were afraid to start to town without first hunting up our dust masks and eye goggles and donning our raincoat—the one we brought with us from Central Texas many years ago.

You black-waxy folks may not believe it, but it sometimes rains muddy water out here in West Texas. A sandstorm will get to fogging and about that time the rain will begin pouring down, and the raindrops are as red and murky when they hit your face as the water that rolls down the Brazos past Waco when a big rise comes from away upstream.

There's no country in the world like West Texas, folks, where you can start to run for shelter across the street to get out of the rain and meet a sandstorm before you get there, or vice versa.

And we don't know of any one out here who would swap an acre of this good old Lynn county soil for any sawmill or pen full of razor-backs to be found anywhere in East Texas.

As backward as those snuff-dippers of the deep piney woods may be in most respects, though, there is one respect in which they have us plainmen skinned in a thousands ways. They sure do know their politics.

For one thing, they got a long start on most of us. They have been studying and playing politics back there ever since the morning stars sang together, if stars can sing—we are not talking about Hollywood stars now, just the regular twinkling kind that you see at night; no, we don't mean on the screen but up in the heavens.

But those East Texas chaps know how to pull their political strings and how to hold on to any good thing that happens to come their way.

For instance; they have been running this legislature that we have down at Austin ever since Sam Houston licked the Mexicans, and we don't see any chance to take the ball away from them.

Here is what we mean. The Constitution directs that the legislature shall redistrict the state following each decennial census.

But what is the Constitution between friends?

The state was last redistricted into legislative districts away back in the early twenties before the teeming crowds had reached these fertile plains. Nearly all the folks lived down east and so naturally nearly all the legislative districts are down there. Just a few districts, each about the size of the state of Oklahoma, were laid out in these great open spaces where ranching was supposed to be the main occupation and where the cowboy was still supposed to be thriving.

But the man with the hoe had already headed for the plains and the Panhandle. When he got here, he didn't use the hoe much, it must be confessed; he preferred a great disc plow drawn by the best team of mules or horses he could get his hands on. The ranches went into farms, and the farmers kept coming. And finally came the tractors. Came also the oil drillers. They punctured the earth in a thousand places and found the liquid gold in many localities. And now just see what we've got out here on these plains!

While this process was still rapidly going on, came also the census of 1930, which showed a wonderful increase in our population—an increase that entitled us to a much larger representation in the legislature at Austin.

Naturally in obedience to the Constitution and as a matter of justice to our people, our state should have been promptly and fairly redistricted. Redistricting bills were introduced. But they all got bogged down.

If any one of them had been enacted into law, a number of East Texas districts would have been abolished and several West Texas districts created.

But for every district that was abolished, some East Texas statesman would have lost a job. Of course those East Texans were going to see to it that no such calamous state. The services of those men as that should be visited upon piney woods snuff dippers were too valuable to be dispensed with; and hence they deftly pigeon-holed those redistricting bills and conveniently forgot about them.

Time rocked on, and legislature after legislature met, but nothing was done about it. Wait till 1940, they said.

And then came 1940. And another census was taken. It revealed the fact that our own district, the 119th, had increased from a population of 30,202 in 1920 to a population of 130,204 in 1940, an increase in twenty years of 100,000 red-blooded Americans, we guess, and maybe two scrubs. But we still had only one representative in the legislature.

What else did this census show? It showed that Panola county, away over on the Louisiana line, with a population of only 22,513, white and black, still constitutes a representative district and has a representative in the legislature, whose vote counts as much there as does the vote of Hop Halsey, who represents practically six times as many people.

It showed that Shelby county, which constitutes another piney woods district, with a representative in the legislature, has a population of only 29,235, all colors; that San Augustine and Sabine counties constituting the eleventh representative district have a combined population of 23,367, but it is just as powerful in the legislature in the matter of voting as our own district consisting of the nine counties of Crosby, Lubbock, Hockley, Cochran, Lynn, Terry, Yoakum, Gaines, and Dawson with more than 130,000 people; that Jasper and Newton counties, constituting the thirteenth district, have a combined population of only 31,191; and that Cass county, with a population of 33,496, not only elects one representative from that county to the legislature but in addition to that it helps to constitute an additional at-large district composed of Cass, Bowie, and Marion counties, which sends another representative to Austin.

Some East Texas districts are much more populous than these, it is true, and the 119th is the most populous district in West Texas with only one representative, but the census shows that 38 counties in East and Northeast Texas with a population of 1,058,347, sends 32 representatives to the lower house of the legislature, which means that their average constituency is 33,073 persons per member; whereas 54 counties lying on the South Plains and in the Panhandle, with a population of 540,936, more than half that of the East Texas group, have only seven representatives in the legislature, or one for each 77,276 of the population.

One of the first things that Hop Halsey did when the legislature convened last January was to introduce a redistricting bill, and although it met with much indifference and considerable opposition, he finally succeeded in pushing it through the house. Then it went to the Senate, and there it seems to have died a painless death.

Pardon us please, but we have noted that our Governor is not a bit bashful in asking West Texas people for their votes, but if he has ever made a single suggestion to the legislature that it get in behind this redistricting bill and blot out this glaring injustice to West Texas that is being perpetuated by refusal of East Texas politicians to permit its passage, then such a suggestion on his part has escaped our notice.

He has sought to have the poll tax requirement repealed, thereby permitting hundreds of thousands of ignorant and venal negroes to swarm into the Democratic primaries and thereby increasing the relative power of other sections of our state in the election of state officials, but he does not seem to have been concerned in the least with our representation set-up that gives 25,000 people in an East Texas district as much power in the lower house of our legislature as 130,000 citizens in a West Texas district have.

There is also a shameful discrimination against portions of West Texas respecting representation in the state senate, though the senatorial districts were re-vamped following the 1930 census, but it's been eighteen years since we have had a new deal on Representative districts.

We do think that somebody should help Hop Halsey bring this injustice to the attention of the people of Texas—and first of all to the people of West Texas.

1 FILL LASTED 13,398 MILES—Certified

Then how long is a quart of this great New Motor Oil?

STRAIGHT FROM SIZZLING DEATH VALLEY COMES YOUR ANSWER...

The lock-guarded engines of 6 coupes faced the Death Valley desert with oil exactly up to "Full." Not a drop could be added. The destination of all 6 identical everyday engines was... Death!

Here were 6 high quality motor oils getting the same strictly fair opportunity to show how long they'd let an engine live on one exact fill and no more.

Down in Death Valley—hotspot of the U. S. A.—every car sped at 57 miles an hour, till its oil gave out and the engine smashed. The brand of oil that used up quickest was outlasted 8,268 miles by a revolutionary new oil in this impartial, certified test. This new oil exceeded the average mileage of the other 5 oils by all of 7,057 miles! Certified. This longest-lasting oil in the test, which your car can have today—at popular price—is new

IMPARTIAL

Latest available products of 5 leading competitors bought retail by Referee.

New everyday coupes used—identical. Broken-in alike. Engines taken apart for Referee—to assure uniformity.

Cars tuned alike. Same Death Valley route for all. Drivers rotated to even up on skill.

One fill per car. None added. Engines under lock—under scrutiny—every mile.

CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL

with its Man-made new Economy aid

The record long life that defied Death Valley comes from a new laboratory creation... man-made... called Thialkene inhibitor. Its action in some ways suggests Vaccination—which puts the right protective substance on guard to keep a trouble from even starting on you.

The trouble aiming to start on motor oils lurks in the engine's normal firing. Filth is formed that tends to start the oil "festering." First one drop spoils—then two drops "catch it"—then four—then sixteen—faster, faster, FASTER. Soon oil stamina is sapped; the engine suffers, and cries for quart after quart... but not when the worst of this "festering" attack is nipped in the bud—inhibited—by the life-giving Thialkene inhibitor in new Conoco Nth motor oil.

Now you'll never rashly exceed the proper oil-change period for your car and driving conditions—any more than you ignore traffic rules just to "get away with it." But Certified Proof from the desert that the new Conoco Nth could outlast the other oils in the test by as much as 161%, gives you more than mere hopes of long Summer mileage between quarts. Change to Conoco Nth—at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station... today. Continental Oil Company—Pioneers in Bettering America's oil with Synthetics

AND CONOCO Nth OIL OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE!

Long the keystone of Conoco success, OIL-PLATING comes from another great Conoco synthetic... man-made under the famed Germ Processed oil patent. By magnet-like action, OIL-PLATING is bonded to inner engine parts. Then it can't all drain down—not even overnight—not while you're using Conoco Nth. So OIL-PLATING is on guard against wear in advance!... and helps mileage, as it did in Death Valley. An OIL-PLATED engine is one more economy you get from a change to popular-priced new Conoco Nth oil.

18 Candidates Bear President's Approval?

The News on Wednesday morning received a Western Union message of more than 150 words sent out from Austin in which it is claimed that Lyndon Johnson has again received the endorsement of President Roosevelt for the Senate.

We quote: "A reporter asked at the President's press conference if the Administration had any comment on the Texas Senate race now that around 18 of the candidates were claiming Roosevelt support. Referring to his press conference several weeks ago at which he followed Johnson's announcement from the White House steps with a statement that the Congressman was his 'old and close friend' the President smilingly said he thought he had done a good job the first time and was quite certain the people of Texas understood him."

Ed. Note: We are running the above as a news item, though it is mere political propaganda rather than news. It contains at least one implication which we believe to be false. We do not believe that there are eighteen candidates in this race who are "claiming Roosevelt support". Lyndon Johnson is the only candidate who has made such claim so far as we have ever heard, and he is making frantic efforts to acquaint the people with the fact that he has received a favorable nod from the President. The People of Texas have great respect and admiration for President Roosevelt, but they will probably consider themselves competent to select their own senator on June 28 without any suggestions from Washington. In fact, they know that the President does not know any of the candidates with the possible exception of Johnson and Dies as well as the people of Texas themselves know them, and they will probably vote as their own judgement dictates.

Miss Sallie Calloway, who has been employed in Oklahoma City, visited from Saturday afternoon to Monday in the home of her uncle, J. K. Calloway. She left Monday for her home in Fort Worth, going by way of Abilene to visit with her brother, Dr. E. E. Callaway, a former resident of Tahoka.

WHOSE FAULT IS IT?

It may not be entirely the fault of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, but he has made a notable failure of getting along with either of the two legislatures that have served during his two administrations.

Two years ago his inaugural address and the messages to the legislature that followed closely thereafter were of such a nature as to arouse hostility on the part of many members. And the longer the legislature remained in session the wider grew the rift between the Governor and a faction of the legislature.

The Governor was unsparing in his criticism of those who dared to oppose him and the resentment of these members became deep and bitter.

Demanding that a Constitutional amendment providing for a sales tax be submitted to the people for the purpose of raising funds with which to pay old age pensions when the legislature had the power to enact such a tax law without any constitutional amendment, the Governor was at least partially responsible for the failure of that legislature to provide the pension funds which the people were demanding.

But the Governor was astute enough and unfair enough to put the monkey on the backs of the recalcitrant legislators and to picture himself in the next election as the great and only real friend of the old people and as a martyr in their behalf.

As a result, he was again nominated in the first primary, receiving a clear majority over all of his opponents, while most of those who had opposed his policies in the legislature either did not run for reelection or were defeated.

During the interim that intervened between the election and the beginning of his second term, he visited most of the legislators in their own home towns, some of them in their homes, for the obvious purpose of cultivating their friendship and good will.

As a result of all this, the new legislature that greeted him in Austin last January was distinctly friendly to him. A vast majority of them wanted to get along with the Governor. For some time they did get along with him much better than did the preceding legislature.

But for some reason, the legislature had not been in session long, when the Governor, in one way or another, began making enemies among their number. This has continued, and his enemies have increased until now again a majority of the legislature is ready to defy him.

They have declined to adopt many of his recommendations, they have passed other measures upon which he had frowned, and lately they have been busy passing laws over his vetoes. He has made an utter failure of getting along with this legislature just as he made a failure of getting along with the preceding one.

There must be a reason.

There is a reason. There are a number of reasons, in fact. These reasons must be obvious to every one except his blind worshippers. It is not our purpose to discuss them here.

But for the same reason that he has not been able to get along with the legislature in Austin, he would not be able to get along with his fellow senators in Washington, if he should be elected as a member of that body. Already he has assumed a superiority complex and a critical attitude respecting that body and respecting the President's advisers and collaborators in Washington that will place him under a cloud and at a distinct disadvantage from the very beginning.

Of all the four leading candidates for the United States Senate, Governor O'Daniel would probably be the least able to render efficient service for the people of Texas and of the nation.

IS HITLER BECOMING DESPERATE?

For some weeks there has been a lull in Germany's offensive warfare. She has been making few raids over England lately and those she has made have not been on the large scale of preceding ones. Although she has been sending additional troops to North Africa, her drive there seems to have bogged down. It was expected that she would follow up her conquest of Crete with an all-out assault upon Cyprus or upon the British in Iraq. She has done neither.

On the other hand the British in the near east have assumed the offensive and have taken most of Syria from the possession of the French, who are now doing the bidding of Germany; and instead of rushing to the assistance of the French, German air forces and apparently most other German forces which had been assembled in Syria have tucked their tails and fled.

What does all this mean? Does it mean that Germany is quitting the drive? We think not. She is probably getting ready for another major, supreme effort to sink the British.

In getting ready for what she hopes to be her final drive, she is resorting to desperate methods. She needs more food and oil and supplies of many kinds. The Russian Ukraine, rich in agricultural and mineral resources, lies just across the international border line east of Rumania, now in the hands of the Germans. Hitler apparently has demanded of the Russians that he be given access to the riches of this territory.

Stalin, cowed by German power, apparently yielded. But military

Connally Measure Gets Results

WASHINGTON, D. C. June 16.—With word from the War Department that more men were on strike than at any other time since the beginning of the emergency, the bill to stop strikes by Senator Tom Connally of Texas effected a crystallization of sentiment among both executive and legislative authorities expected to end this irritating interference with national defense efforts.

The measure, known as Senate 1600, authorizes the government to take over and operate in the national interest any plant or factory engaged in the production of defense articles in which the production of such articles is hampered, delayed or impeded by the existence of a strike or other labor disturbance.

Senator Connally emphasized that strikers, who are stopping work in plants that ought to be running twenty-four hours per day in behalf of our defense, are attacking the national welfare and the national safety by a form of creeping paralysis.

"My bill," pointed out Connally, "denies to no man his fundamental rights. It does demand that there shall be no stoppage of work in national defense plants. The processes of mediation and conciliation will be preserved. In the meantime, however, the plants must continue to operate under government direction and government protection. Men who do not desire to work may quit their jobs. Those who desire may continue to work with the government's protection. No right is denied any citizen."

"America faces a great crisis. The national security is involved. The nation does not propose to have its safety imperiled and its program for national defense delayed or bogged down by selfish and wilful groups who seek to take advantage of the nation's necessities to improve their own condition at the expense of the safety of one hundred and thirty millions of people. Strikes in defense plants must stop. My bill will stop them."

leaders in Russia, it seems, registered a strong protest. Just what the outcome will be nobody seems to know. But the chances are that unless Russia yields Germany will undertake to take the Ukraine by force. That will mean war also with Russia.

Whether war ensues there or not, Germany committed an open act of war upon the United States on May 21 when a German submarine deliberately sank the Robin Moor, an American vessel enroute from New York to Cape Town Africa, and in violation of all international rules of warfare took no steps to save the lives of the crew and the passengers aboard but on the other had forbade the giving of distress signals to the world.

It may be that Germany is not discouraged but she certainly seems to be getting desperate. We believe that she must win the war before another winter comes if she wins it at all—and we do not believe that she can win it before winter. Hitler's doom is already written.

We think that no man can become a great United States Senator unless he has much native ability, proper legal training, and a will to work and to study assiduously. In addition to this, he must have a spirit of independence without being offensively obstinate, he must be able to think for himself without being narrow or intolerant, he must be considerate of the rights and the views of others without being swayed by every wind that blows, he must neither yearn to be a boss nor yet be willing to be a mere rubber stamp, he must work with other senators if he would have them work with him. It is our humble opinion that Gerald Mann comes nearer to filling all these requirements than any other man in the race. If you do not feel that way about it, friend, vote your choice, whoever he may be.

73½ Bushels From Acre Of Barley

Miss Attie Belle McGonagill, who has charge of the old home place out seven miles east of Tahoka, has made some sort of record in the production of barley this year.

While she had only a small acreage planted in this crop, the yield, she reports, has been heavy. The crop was harvested this week and threshed out 73 1-2 bushels per acre, according to Mrs. Gladys M. Stokes, her sister. Barley is a comparatively new crop in this county, but for the past few years many farmers have been sowing a mixture of barley and wheat for pasturage. Miss McGonagill this year sowed a small patch of unmixed barley, however, and the result has been most gratifying.

Barley is said to be one of the finest feeds for hogs that can be grown.

The Summer Homemaking class started May 28th. Twelve girls enrolled, as follows: Virginia Roddy, Ray Fern Pennington, Rose Mary Knight, Dolly Gatekile, Elizabeth, Shepherd, Joy Moore, Margie Shepherd, Dorothy Lee Carmack and Marie McBeth.

Several different projects were begun, such as improving bed rooms, wardrobes, yard improvements, rug making and other hand crafts. Each girl was to get in one hundred hours working on her project.

Our class meetings were held on Monday and Wednesday mornings from nine o'clock to ten thirty. In these class meetings—we have had talks from the girls on cold desserts, hot desserts, cold and hot drinks, and on household linens, especially stressing the use of cottons in home furnishings.

We close our work Friday, June 20th, with a tour on which each girl will show the work that she has been doing and will see the work of each of the other girls. When we have seen all the work we expect to leave, about noon, for Mackenzie State Park in Lubbock to enjoy a picnic.

L. D. Swafford, 37, Buried Sunday

Funeral services for Lawrence D. (Rip) Swafford, 37, were held here at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Harris Funeral Home, with Rev. George E. Turrentine, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was made in the Tahoka cemetery.

Mr. Swafford died at the home of "Aunt Becky" Roberts shortly after twelve o'clock Friday. Death was attributed to hemorrhage of the brain. Deceased was a brother of Van Swafford of this city who is a son-in-law of Mrs. Roberts. He had resided until recently in Amarillo but had been in ill health a long time, and on Sunday preceding his death he came to the home of Mrs. Roberts here.

On Monday he was taken to a hospital in Lamesa and remained there under treatment till Thursday. On that day, Mrs. Oscar Roberts brought him back to Tahoka with the intention of taking him back to the hospital Saturday. Upon arrival, here he continued to grow worse, however, and on Friday morning he suffered a "stroke", from which he never rallied.

Mr. Swafford left surviving him the wife, Mrs. Ettie Swafford of Long Beach, California, who has come to Tahoka upon being informed of her husband's death; his mother, Mrs. A. F. Swafford of Dalhart; six brothers and four sisters, some of whom were only half brothers and sisters.

These are J. B. Swafford of Amarillo, Van A. Swafford of Tahoka, R. N. Swafford of Littleton, Colo., D. C. Swafford of Gallup, N. M., Ray Swafford of Columbia, S. C., Leonard Swafford of Castle Rock, Colo., Mrs. Mamie Swafford of San Antonio, Mrs. Addie Watkins of Walters, Okla., Mrs. H. A. Covey of Yuma, Ariz., and Mrs. J. C. Crawford of De Land, Florida. A number of these were here for the funeral.

A terrible tragedy had taken the lives of two members of the Swafford family just a few days prior to Rip's sudden death. An older brother, Tank Swafford of Dalhart, and a sister, Mrs. Duke Morgan of Shamrock, had died from injuries sustained in an automobile wreck near Shamrock on Sunday, June 1, in which seven persons were instantly killed or so badly injured that they died soon thereafter. In addition to this, Mrs. Morgan's husband was terribly crippled, one leg which had been badly broken in a previous wreck being crushed. The other leg also was broken, and Mr. Morgan remaining in a critical condition. The Morgans', Tank Swafford, and three or four others were riding in one car, all of whom except Mr. Morgan were killed or died from their injuries; and two of the men in the other car that figured in the collision were killed. The accident occurred about dark at a curve on the highway during a rainstorm. We understand.

It was just one week after this accident that Lawrence (Rip) Swafford came to Tahoka, a seriously sick man.

Mr. Swafford was born at Wellington, Texas, on March 9, 1904. He first came to Lynn county in April, 1921, and worked a few months here in a tailor shop. Leaving here, he located in Amarillo, and on April 4, 1931, he was married to Miss Ettie Freeman at Clovis, N. M. He and Mrs. Swafford later moved to California, and she still resides there. They had no children, and some time ago Rip came back to Texas, since which time he had resided in Amarillo.

He did not have many acquaintances here, and few knew of his illness until news of his death spread over town. He had visited here a number of times and had made a few warm friends on these visits, who speak kindly of him. The circumstances of his death make it a sad one, and all his loved ones have the sympathy of many friends.

A. L. Lockwood, who has been a patient in a Lubbock hospital since Thursday of last week suffering from a complication of ailments, was reported to be decidedly better Thursday morning. Asthma, bronchial trouble, and a kidney affection are responsible for his trip to the hospital. Many friends here are hoping for his speedy improvement and that he will be able to return home soon.

Mrs. Elton Wessum and children of Whitharral have been here the past ten days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Godwin and other relatives.

Many friends will regret his passing from the walks of men.
He was buried with Masonic honors.

Grasshoppers are causing crop damage in some areas of the county according to Don Turner, County Agent. All of the damage reported so far is in fields that adjoin pasture land. ### RIDDLE FAMILY RETURNS TO TAHOKA

H. A. Riddle and family have returned to Tahoka and are again occupying their little home at the western outskirts of the town.

Ovid Luallin and Ray Nevill went down to Weatherford on Thursday of last week and brought them and their household goods back. They were accompanied by W. J. Riddle, who came in Wednesday from California, where he had been working.

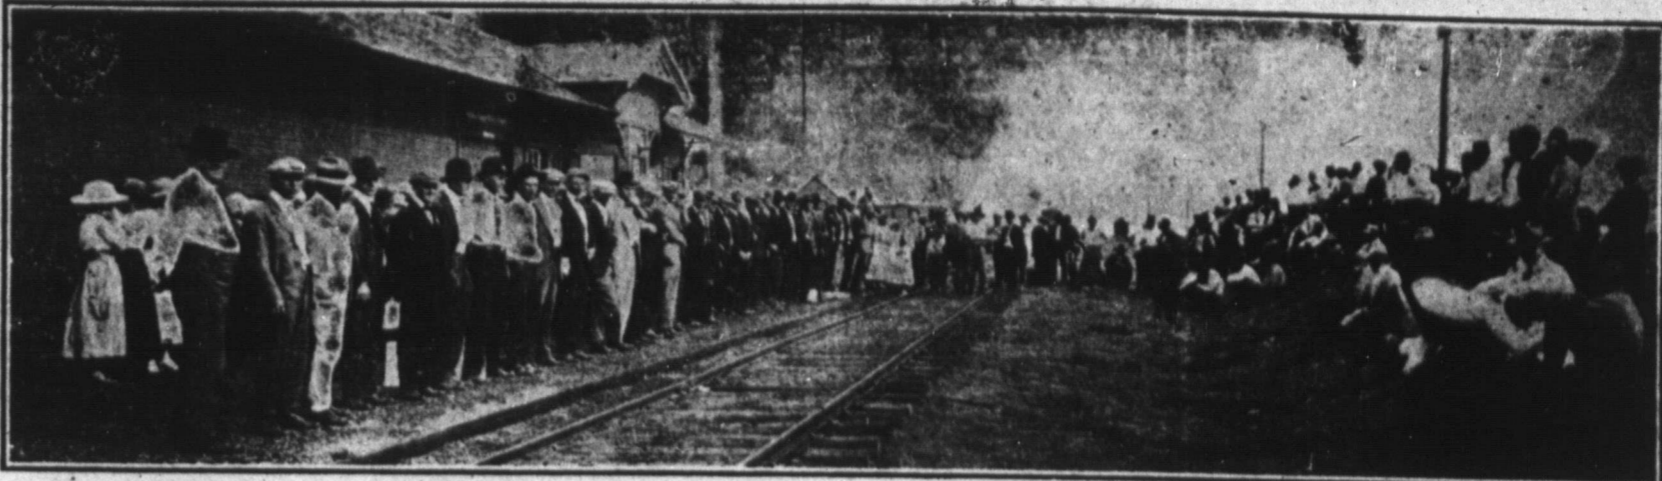

Mr. Riddle and family moved from here to El Paso several months ago, hoping that his health there would improve, but they soon moved from there to Weatherford. His health is still bad, we are informed, and the family decided to come back home.

They will be welcome by many friends, as they had resided here for many, many years.

now available to farmers who are having damage. Requests for this material may be made through County Agent Turner. A mixing station has been set up in Tahoka and farmers are requested to come in the afternoon to mix their poison and apply it early the next morning.

Rotary Discusses USO Program

The program at the Rotary luncheon Thursday was turned over largely to Mrs. Irvin Stewart, who explained to Rotarians the purpose of the recently launched United Service Organization, of which she has been made chairman for Lynn county, and she appealed to the Club to join with other clubs and individuals in the county to provide funds with which to inaugurate a program of helpful recreation and entertainment for our boys in the training camps of the nation.

She stated that many evil influences will be thrown around many of these boys and it is the purpose of USO to combat these influences by throwing wholesome and helpful influences around them.

Lynn county has been assigned a quota of $800 for this fund, she said, and she pleads that the clubs of the county shall join in with her and her committee in raising the funds.

The music for the day was again led by Melvin Ratheal, music director for the Baptist Church.

A few visitors were present and a number of the members absent.

A Card From Denver

USO District Leaders First To Fill Ranks

T. N. Whitehurst, Beaumont, top, and James H. Allison, Wichita Falls, bottom, rank top honors for being the first congressional chairmen in Texas in the campaign to raise funds for the United Service Organizations to complete organization of their districts. Kenedy County was the first in the United States to raise and oversubscribe its quota. Baylor County came in second, with a county from Oregon reporting third. Rev. B. N. Shepherd pastor of the Baptist Church at Hobbs, New Mexico, has accepted an invitation extended him by the pastor and the board of deacons of the Baptist Church here to do the preaching in a revival meeting to be conducted in the church the latter part of August.

Rev. Mr. Shepherd is a former pastor of the Tahoka Church, being pastor when the basement of the present building was constructed. Remaining here about five years, Bro. Shepherd did a wonderful work in building up the membership, the fellowship and the spiritual life of the church.

The revival is set to begin August 22 and to continue through the second Sunday thereafter, which will be the last day of the month.

ALL DAY SERVICES AT WOLFORTH FIFTH SUNDAY

Special all-day services will be held at the Church of Christ at Wolforth, which is situated about 12 miles southwest of Lubbock on the Lubbock-Brownfield highway, on Sunday, June 29th.

FSA Family Income Shows Increase

Farm families in 47 West Texas Counties, including Lynn County, with standard rehabilitation loans from the Farm Security Administration have increased their average yearly net income 44 percent from $549.00 to $788.00, it is revealed by a nation-wide survey just completed in Washington and comparing FSA borrowers' 1940 status with their condition before coming into the program.

Results of the survey were received this week by Wyman J. Welch, county FSA supervisor, from Rex E. Baxter, state director of this agency's rural rehabilitation program.

Purchasing power of 4,435 standard rehabilitation borrowers in the 47 counties included in the survey was increased by $1,082,521.00.

The families are making satisfactory progress in the payment of their long-term loans. They have thus far paid $3,555,622.00 into the Federal Treasury in loan installments out of $6,668,577.00 borrowed, although much of the money does not fall due for four or five years.

Mr. Welch said the average FSA low-income borrower could not be considered a top ranking credit risk, since this agency makes loans only to families who cannot obtain adequate credit elsewhere.

"This repayment record is a tribute to the honesty and industry of needy farm people working with FSA," Mr. Welch declared. "There is ample evidence that the majority of them are getting back on their feet and becoming permanently self-supporting."

In large measure, Mr. Welch explained, much of the progress is due to the advice and technical guidance in sound farm and home management which accompanies each Farm Security loan.

On the basis of last year's operations, the average FSA borrower in West Texas produced $300.00 worth of goods for home consumption, as compared with $155.00 before coming into the FSA program.

Home produced goods included 429 gallons of milk per family; 386 pounds of meat; and 225 quarts of vegetables and fruit canned for the winter.

In addition to the rural rehabilitation program, Farm Security is carrying out the Bankhead-Jones Farm Act, which provides a limited

Slaton Rodeo Dates Announced

SLATON, June 19—The South Plains Round-Up Association, Inc. of Slaton announces that the Slaton Rodeo, which was originally set for June 13 and 14 and was postponed because of flood conditions, will be held Friday and Saturday, June 27 and 28.

There will be two shows daily, the first at 2:30 p. m. and the night show at 8:30 o'clock. On Friday, June 27, beginning at 12:45 a mammoth street parade will be held. Many of the most expert feminine riders of the South Plains have been invited to ride as sponsors for their home town, generous prizes are to be given for the best of these performers. Also in the parade will be seen the amateur rodeo performers who will take part in the show, as well as many other features, including Juanita and Weaver Gray, trick riders and ropers, who will take part in the Rodeo as entertainers.

Many of the prize winners from other rodeos held in this section have signified their intentions of contesting in the Slaton Rodeo; the stock that will be used is untamed and has not been seen on the South Plains before.

Slaton is preparing to entertain one of the largest crowds ever assembled in this section on June 27 and 28.

number of loans to competent tenants to enable them to buy family-type farms.

During the first three years of this program, it was learned, FSA has made 79 such loans in West Texas. The purchase loans are made for periods of 40 years at 3 percent interest.

Another important phase of FSA's rehabilitation program, Mr. Welch explained, is the adjustment of the family's old debts.

"Local Farm Debt Adjustment committees are set up for this purpose. They have no legal authority to compel adjustments, but by bringing the farmer and his creditors together in a neighborly way, they usually are able to help both parties reach a friendly understanding and settlement."

Mr. Welch said this service is free to all farmers whether or not they are rehabilitation borrowers, and, he added, creditors as well as debtors may apply for assistance.

Lynn County has loaned $194,670.00 to farm families in Lynn County since 1935 and collected $108,284.00. This does not include any loans made during the last part of 1940 and the first part of 1941. Some of these loans are not due until 1945.

Five water facilities loans have been made to date in Lynn County. These loans include windmills, stor-

Copeland-Walters Nuptials Saturday

Miss Lillie Belle Walters became the bride of Troy Copeland in a ring ceremony Saturday afternoon in Lamesa, after procuring their license here. A Justice of the Peace read the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Ussery of Dallas, and has resided in Tahoka the past two and a half years, living in the home of her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Weaver.

Mr. Copeland is a prominent farmer of the Dixie Community, having resided in this county many years.

They were accompanied by Joyce Weaver, niece of the bride.

On Thursday, June 5, the bride was honored with a shower in the home of Mrs. Marvin Wood, attended by about twenty friends, while many others sent gifts.

The couple will make their home on Mr. Copeland's farm north of town.

age tanks and supply lines to the kitchen and stock lots.

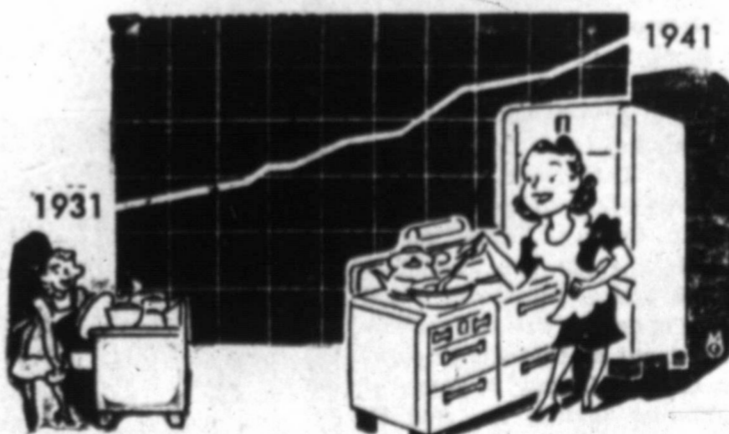

Farm Security, it was pointed out, offers many other kinds of help to low-income farm families, such as loans for community and cooperative services, whereby farmers can have facilities jointly which none of them could own individually; loans for water facilities purposes, and so forth.

"In making America strong," Mr. Welch concluded, "the Federal Government is not neglecting to improve the living standards, health, sanitation and economic conditions of the low-income families in rural America, is contributing much to the present National defense program."

New Manager Of Farm Bureau

WACO, June 16—E. R. Alexander, known as "Alec" to thousands of Texas farmers, has been appointed general manager of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, J. Walter Hammond, president of the organization announced today.

The new general manager, who already has assumed his duties, has been recognized for many years as a farm leader and a real friend of agriculture, Hammond said in announcing the appointment.

"Agriculture in Texas has been doing a lot of thinking lately," the president said, "and has come to the conclusion that a strong organization with aggressive leadership is absolutely necessary. A puny outfit is worse than no organization at all. Labor and industry are strongly organized. They hire the best talent available to handle their affairs. Agriculture, if it is not to be left far behind and if it is to get fair treatment, must do the same. The board of directors of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation for the past several months has carefully surveyed the state in an effort to find the man best suited to manage its affairs. We wanted a man who believes sincerely in the value of organization and whom the farmers of Texas respect and admire. E. R. Alexander is that man."

Hammond, who is a member of the board of directors of the American Farm Bureau Federation with which the Texas organization is affiliated, recently returned from Washington where he worked for passage of the 85 per cent of parity loan bill.

In accepting the position, Alexander pointed out that farm organizations in Texas never have been strong enough even to claim that they represent a substantial portion of the farmers in the state.

"Farmers must organize for their own protection," the Farm Bureau official declared. "Without organization they will be shunted around and stepped on. With organization they can stand up for their rights and they can work on an equal basis with industry and labor. Agriculture needs leaders to fight for its rights, and farm organization will provide the training for those leaders by helping them to equip themselves for their work.

"The people in the cities depend upon the farmer for food and clothing, for their very existence. In return for providing these things, the farmer has a right to expect a fair return for his labor. He has a right to security. Without a fair return and without security, the farmer cannot be expected to provide abundantly for the nation, to conserve the nation's soil, and to participate in family and community life."

Alexander has been connected with A. and M. College since 1919 and for the past six years has been head of the Department of Agriculture Education at the college. Born in Wise County, he studied at Baylor University, Texas A. and M. Iowa State College, and the University of Texas. For 15 months during 1938 and 1939, he was on leave of absence from the college in the government service.

"During that year I talked with farmers in practically every state in the Union," he said. "The more farmers I talked with, the more I became convinced that they wanted organization and that they certainly needed organization."

Alexander will maintain headquarters in Waco from which point he will direct the activities of the organization.

B-P. W. Club Has Business - Social

The business and Professional Women's club met in the home of Mrs. Myrtle Rochelle last Thursday night, June 12, for a social and business meeting.

After playing games, the group participated in a sing-song led by Miss Florence Gary of O'Donnell, new member. Miss Claire Ruth Nichols won a toy pop gun in a test on Americanism and the flag.

Miss Nichols, delegate, made a report on the state convention, and a business session followed. A light refreshment plate was served.

The club will join the Lubbock club in joint initiation service on Wednesday evening, June 25, in Lubbock. Officers of the Tahoka club to be initiated are Miss Nichols, president, Mrs. Inez Knight, vice-president, Miss Ethel Calahan, secretary, and Mrs. Rochelle, treasurer.

The club voted to hold meetings during the summer. Last year no meetings were held from June to September.

The groom is the son of J. H. Poindexter, now owner and operator of the Wayside filling station, who until recently resided at O'Donnell. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Kirby of O'Donnell.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Kennedy and daughter, Dorothy Dale, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Dale, all of Lubbock, and Anne Edwards of Dallas, visited Rev. and Mrs. Geo. A. Dale here Sunday.

This is an eventful week. Yesterday (Thursday) was June Teenth, and tomorrow is the first day of summer. In fact, summer begins at exactly 2:34 o'clock tomorrow, as per our calendar. See you next summer!

Once a year there comes a day yours truly has designated "Disillusioning" day. For all year long we consider ourself sort of an oldtimer around here who knows most everyone and is known by far too many people. But when June 24 comes around, we find we're just a newcomer so we take a back seat to the real oldtimers who come back to the old diggin's for a day's reunion with their former neighbors and friends. They are the pioneers—and their children—who date back to the days when. Welcome pioneers, back to the old homestead!

We heard so nice a compliment on Mrs. Claude Donaldson recently that we think it's worth repeating here. Said a mutual friend.

"Now there's a little lady who is a model mother. She has been able to train her children to be respectful, good mannered and kind, but has not sacrificed any of their individual personality in the process. They have learned to think for themselves and speak for themselves."

No one's name suits them better than Gay Jackson's. . . . We have greatly missed our political and war arguments with Dr. J. R. Singleton and Hall Robinson since they have been ill. . . . It has seemed strange not to see D. W. Gaignat hustling about trying to do the work of two or three men, too. . . . Hope they'll all be back on the job soon. . . . Does anyone have the music to "Tomorrow is a Lovely Day"? . . . The English women have adopted it as a theme song, we are told. It's optimism is very touching.

Allen and Ovid Luallin Jr. and C. W. Conway headed out west Saturday night on a vacation trip. They did not know whether they would stop at Flagstaff, Arizona, or go on to the coast. Anyway the boys are out for a good time.

Mrs. Mattie Bradley went to San Angelo last week for a short visit with her son Irvin. She had just returned from Clovis, N. M., from a visit with her oldest son's family.

Mrs. H. P. Caveness left Sunday afternoon to visit relatives at McGregor. Her only unmarried niece is to be married in McGregor next Saturday. Mr. Caveness expects to drive down to McGregor for his wife possibly a week or two later.

Rev. Dale Conducts Oklahoma Funeral

A. L. Smith accompanied Rev. and Mrs. George A. Dale to Madill, Oklahoma, last week when they were called there for a funeral. A. L. did not mention the intended trip before going, but he told us a plenty about it when interviewed after his return. Madill, he says, is the craziest town he ever saw. He declared that a stranger there would get lost right out on the public square in broad daylight. The streets headed in and out in such crazy manner—and at one place the business houses faced the street as they should do down to the alley and then took off down the alley. He was told that the town had been laid out by a drunk Indian and he believed it. The Baptist Church, too, had a crazy setting. He says that he went into it at one door, came out at another, and was then unable to find his car. Otherwise, the town is all right. But A. L. says that he doesn't blame the preacher for moving.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES MAY TRAIN AS PILOTS

ambitious to become pilots in the Regular Army Air Corps now have the opportunity. Even if their educational qualifications will not permit them to become commissioned officers, they still may fly Army Airplanes and may look forward to careers as pilots.

All they need to do is to enlist in the Army Air Corps and this course of training will be open to them after July 1st, 1941, as soon as administrative details can be arranged. They will be taught to fly and they will be paid while learning. After they have qualified as pilots their futures as Regular Army pilots are assured.

All this is made possible by a bill which has just passed Congress and which has been signed by the President. It authorizes the Secretary of War to detail men for training and instruction as aviation students, in their respective grades.

All qualified young men who are interested should apply to the nearest Army recruiting station—Let's Go America, Keep 'Em Flying.

Mrs. Garland Pennington and daughter, Ray Fern, returned Wednesday from a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Russell at Beeville. They also visited at Corpus Christi. They were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. W. C. McKinzie of Portales New Mexico, who visited her parents at Taft.

Otis Wharton of Albany spent the weekend here visiting his brother, Winston Wharton.
