Tahoka Gets District Rotary Assembly

Changes Made In Court Set-Up In This District

The News has received a copy of the new statute regulating court terms for the various counties of the 106th judicial district, making some radical changes if not revolutionary changes designed to expedite the trial of cases filed in the various counties of the district.

We understand that Judge Louis Reed of Lamesa was instrumental in the drafting and the passage of this new statute, and it is believed that it will not only expedite the trial of cases but will result in a financial saving to litigants and to counties alike.

As heretofore, each of the six counties in the district will have two terms of court each year, but the term in each county may continue until Saturday preceding the Monday on which the next term opens. In other words, court will be open in each county the year round—or may be open, at the option of the Judge.

Any term may be divided into as many sessions as the Judge may deem expedient.

Under this arrangement, the Court may take up cases for trial at practically any time in the year without waiting for another term of court to arrive. This should enable the Court to keep his dockets cleaned up to a much greater degree than is possible under the present system.

The new law fixes the opening of the terms of the court in Lynn county as the fourth Monday after the first Monday in January, and the first Monday after the fourth Monday in August.

Wildcat Test Is Spudded In

Just a few minutes before twelve o'clock Monday night, we understand, a wildcat well was spudded in on the J. E. Rice farm in this county about three miles east and a half mile north of New Home.

Having stopped drilling to lay some surface pipe, the drillers had not reached a depth of more than 250 feet up to Thursday, we were told.

The well is being drilled for Ross Sport of Lubbock. The contractor is the Ussan Drilling Co. of Oklahoma City.

Several major oil companies are financially interested in the test it is said.

Tahoka Quiet Place On Fourth

So many people went to so many different places on the Fourth, that it would be impossible to get the names of all who went or the names of all who visited here.

Many families spent a part of the day in Mackenzie State Park in Lubbock. Others visited kin folks or attended rodeos and places of entertainment in other places. Some of these have been reported to the News, but we have doubtless missed many.

"Mother" Weathers Injured In Fall

Mrs. E. N. Weathers was brought back to her home here Monday from the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock, in which she had been a patient since sustaining injuries in a fall at her home in East Tahoka last Friday. One arm was fractured and two ribs broken, it is said.

The wounds are said to be healing as rapidly as could be expected for one of her age, it is reported.

Miss Pauline Bulsterbaum of Lamesa, former school superintendent of Dawson county and now a teacher in the Odessa school system, was the guest of Mrs. P. Coleman here last Sunday. The two have been intimate friends for many years.

Texas Beauty Wins National Acclaim

Ruth Tilley of Shamrock, Texas, freshman beauty at Texas State College for Women during the last school term, was recently selected by Look Magazine as one of the most beautiful college girls of America in 1941.

Land Measuring Work Started

Seventeen crews of two men each began work Wednesday morning measuring farm land in Lynn county for compliance with the AAA program, C. A. Lawrence, states.

Six or seven weeks will be required to complete the work, and Mr. Lawrence asks that farmers not grow too impatient if the checkers do not get to them for some time yet. With a little co-operation, the work can be finished quicker, he says.

This work has been delayed somewhat because of new maps of the county having arrived late. Because new maps are being used, Mr. Lawrence says there may be slight variation in acreage on farms from that of last year, but he expects these new maps to be more accurate and all future measurements will be based on the maps being used this year.

One reporter and one chain man compose a measuring crew.

Women To Display Work Saturday

West Point Home Demonstration Club expects to exhibit a part of its handiwork of the past year in Cobb Department Store's show windows Saturday. The News is informed.

Though one of the youngest clubs in the county and having a membership of only ten, this club is said to have accomplished much since its organization, and the women will give the public a sample of their accomplishments through this display.

CHARLES GUY RELEASED FROM HOSPITAL

Many friends of Charley Guy, editor of the Avalanche-Journal publications, have been gratified to learn that he is now back on the job after having suffered an attack of pneumonia.

For a week or ten days Charley was a patient in the West Texas Hospital, but he indicates that the curative virtues of sulfa-something-or-other and the ministrations of pretty nurses were sufficient to bring him through.

We have been missing the Plainsman's column and his handsome mug at the top of it during his illness. Glad to see everyting back except the "mug".

Mary Alice Guy, who has been visiting the past three weeks with her aunt, Mrs. G. M. Stewart, left this week for Roscoe, where she will visit before returning to her home in Waco.

Congratulations

To Mr. and Mrs. Samie Norwood on the birth of 8-pound son on July 4. He will answer to the name of Troy Charles.

Four Leave For Army Training

J. T. Sproles of Wilson, route 1, volunteer; Robert Lee Potts of Tahoka, volunteer; Truman Lee Muddock of Redwine community and Foy Russell Swenson of near Lakeview filled the selective service call for four men from this county and left for service Wednesday morning.

L. D. Pate, transferred here from Hidalgo county, also went into training.

A final total of 61 new registrants who recently reached the age of 21 was announced by the board. Fifty-nine men registered here, and four of those were transferred elsewhere. Six men sent their registration cards here from other places.

Serial numbers were assigned these registrants Wednesday and have been posted in the corridor of the Courthouse.

Send Delegates To Short Course

Mrs. W. W. Rowland of New Lynn and Mrs. J. B. Oliver of Tahoka will leave Saturday for College Station by chartered bus, to represent this county in the adult short course which will start Sunday morning and end Tuesday.

Misses Billie and Ruby Greer and Mary Ruth Edwards of Grassland; Reba Watson and Wanda Jean Tyler of Wells, and Sarah Dean Archer of O'Donnell will leave Tuesday to attend the junior short course which will be held Tuesday and Friday.

Miss Maurine McNett, county home demonstration agent, will be at College Station the entire week. The agents' meeting will be held Wednesday.

Hamblen Announces Band Practices

Band Director John Hamblen requests that all boys and girls who have had any band training meet him at the high school auditorium at eight o'clock next Tuesday night, July 15, when plans will be made for giving band practice through the summer.

This service will be free, but he is anxious that all members of both the senior band and the junior band will be present and will avail themselves of the opportunity to take this practice.

Those who have had no practice, however, need not report, as all new entries into the band will be enrolled at the beginning of school about September 1.

This practice is for the benefit of those who have already had some training. It is the purpose not only to give them training but to give a few band concerts at intervals through the remainder of the summer.

DON BRADLEY UNDER HOSPITAL TREATMENT

Don Bradley was taken to the Lubbock Sanitarium Tuesday suffering from a complication of troubles. Several days ago he suffered an attack of the influenza, which was followed by a severe cough, and early this week he had a recurring attack of stomach trouble. His friends hope that he may be able to resume his work at his office within a very few days.

Miss Ina Faye Minor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Minor of Midway, is expected home about the end of this week after a visit with relatives in Fort Worth, after which she attended a reunion of the Pierce family at the home of her sister in Greenwood in Uphire county. She was accompanied on the trip by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pierce of Lubbock.

Mrs. E. A. Pope of Rockwall is here this week as the guest of the W. A. Reddell family. She is a long-time friend of Mr. and Mrs. Reddell.

Sina Barrington returned this week from Paducah, where she visited an aunt.

Cal Farley, New Rotary Governor, Colorful Character, Man of Action

By JOHN McCARTY
Editor Amarillo Globe-News
(Special to Lynn Co. News)

Cal Farley of Amarillo, governor of the 127th Rotary district, won the first World War. That however is just one of his many accomplishments and while he doesn't have any certified record of winning World War No. One, he does have positive proof that he won the Welterweight Wrestling championship of the A. E. F. and Interallied games in Paris in 1919. He has wrestled twice for the world's championship since that time, being defeated both times by Jack Reynolds. Despite his extravagant claims on World War One, Farley does have a discharge (honorable) from the army which shows he took part in seven battles. He modestly admits he won each of those fights.

The new district governor was born in Saxton, Iowa, two years before the Spanish-American war, or he would have claimed credit with Admiral Dewey and Teddy Roosevelt for winning that one. He lived on a farm until he entered the war. (Continued On Back Page)

Park Equipment Is Reconditioned

Playground equipment in the Tahoka City Park has been repaired and repainted by the local Rotary Club in recent weeks, outgoing President K. R. Durham announces.

The equipment was installed by the Rotary Club and the P. T. A. about two years ago for the benefit of the children of Tahoka and Lynn county.

New Best Sellers On Library Shelf

The arrival of 15 best-selling books during the past week boosted the number on the shelves of the Lynn County Library in the court house basement to 1,925 volumes.

One of the new books, "A Treasure of the World's Great Letters" is on loan shelf. All others are on the rental shelf at present. Included are "Out of the Night" by Jan Valentin, "A Letter of Credit" by Jerome Weidman, non-fiction, and the following books of fiction: "This Above All" by Eric Knight, "Between Two Worlds" by Upton Sinclair, "I'll Never Be Young Again" by Daphne DuMaurier, "Scattergood Baines Pulls the Strings" by Clarence Buddington Kelland, and "Plotsam" by Erich Maria Remarque, and two murder mysteries, "The Station Wagon" by Gropper, and "Bird Walking Weather."

MUTT SESSUMS IS ENLISTEE IN ARMY

Walter Lewis "Mutt" Sessums went to Lubbock Monday and volunteered for service in the army training camps under the Selective Service Act. He will be inducted on the next call from Lubbock county, August 6.

"Mutt" is yet a minor, being only 18 years of age. He has gained quite a reputation locally the past few years as a boxer. He has been a student in the Tahoka high school.

A card from Guy L. Stroud, whose address is now Alpine, Texas, states that he likes his new job with the U. S. Border Patrol very much. He says he enjoys the News very much and asks that we "tell every one hello".

W. H. Fulkerson Jr. left Sunday for California, where he hopes to work this summer. He plans to enter the University of Southern California next fall.

Miss Louise Rogers of San Saba arrived Tuesday night to visit Miss Jo-Belle Milliken, and other friends here. She formerly lived in Tahoka.

Conway Clingan was out again Wednesday after having been confined to his room several days with the flu.

CAL FARLEY

Require Penalty On Excess Cotton

Cotton farmers of Lynn county who are issued red marketing cards because they have overplanted their 1941 cotton acreage allotment will be required to pay a penalty on the excess cotton they market equivalent to one-half the basic loan rate for cotton, C. A. Lawrence secretary of the Lynn county ACA has announced.

The penalty on cotton for the 1941-42 marketing year had been set at 3 cents per pound but a recent amendment to the Agricultural Adjustment Act has increased this penalty.

The exact amount of the penalty cannot be determined at this time, Lawrence continued, since the basic loan rate for cotton has not been set for Texas, but it probably will be about 7 cents per pound.

"The state AAA office at College Station has notified us of this new AAA amendment and also will advise us as to the exact amount of penalty per pound when the basic loan rate is received," the ACA official continued.

Production Credit Officers In City

The officers and directors of the Lubbock Production Credit Association visited Fred McGinty, local representative here Wednesday.

The Board, E. R. Davis, Lubbock; Roy Fitzgerald, Plains; Lee F. York, Lubbock; Roy Sherman, Seminole; G. C. Keith, Whiteface; and C. E. Hicks, Meadow, was accompanied to Tahoka by K. E. McGinty, Manager of the Brownfield branch office. Fred McGinty joined the group in a visit to the Hockley County branch office at Levelland.

The Production Credit officials were favorably impressed with crop prospects in Lynn County.

EDWARD McMILLAN WRITES FROM SAN DIEGO

The News has received the following card from Edward McMillan, written Monday, from San Diego, where he is in a naval training camp.

"I have passed all exams and am now ready for the grinder (drill). About 75 per cent of the camp is made up of Texans. There are four quarters in camp and I am in the South 41-84 Company.

"We have entertainments every night. The camp is only about one-fourth mile from the ocean. It is now clothes rolling time. Write soon." (Signed) Edward E. McMillan, Company 41-84, Naval Training School, San Diego, Calif.

The News is requested to announce that there will be a special meeting of the Legion Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. E. R. Edwards at 4:00 p. m. next Tuesday afternoon, July 15.

ODDS & ENDS

by Eec Eye,
the Elder

No, we were not still celebrating the Glorious Fourth when we made that dive down off the caprock Sunday, folks. We just drove down to old Buffalo Gap to attend the second annual reunion of former Bell county people who now reside in the West.

And they were there—a lot of them.

Only a few Lynn county people, however, were in evidence. In the car with Mrs. Hill and her husband were her father, Mr. Hop Halsey, Sr., of Lubbock, and our good friend John Ray of the Garolia community. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Craft also showed up on the grounds in the afternoon.

Mr. Ray had a good excuse for leaving his wife at home. She had just returned Saturday afternoon from a visit with relatives near Vernon, and of course Mr. Ray did not feel that she was able to start on another long trip so soon after returning from the first one. So she stayed at home. But John went along, and Boy, he had a time. Don't you folks say anything to his wife about it, but he met up with just coddles of old girl friends that he had known and gone to school with down there at Hay Branch in Bell county in the long ago. He seemed awfully glad to see them. Of course he met a lot of the old boys too, who have grown up and gotten gray-haired or bald-headed like the rest of us, but they didn't seem to interest John so much. It was those girl schoolmates of his, who by the way still look marvelously young, that arrested his attention. John had a time!

Mr. and Mrs. Craft seemed to be greatly enjoying the occasion too. Leonard's parents lived many years at Salado, Bell county, but came west in an early day. Leonard grew up at Blackwell on the line of Coke and Nolan counties and then migrated to the plains, leaving his parents behind. He and Mrs. Craft went down to Blackwell to visit them last Sunday and to take them over to the Gap. When we saw Leonard he was dispensing smiles right and left, but he was just a bit handicapped. With his wife and his Pa and his Ma along, he was not quite as frisky as our friend John.

To tell you the truth, folks, we all had a good time. The perpetrator of this column met a few of his schoolmates too; and some of them actually seemed glad to see him. And Mrs. Hill met some of her schoolday chums also. Of course they are all rather young yet, and very few gray hairs or bald heads in the entire bunch. But we must confess that our old schoolmates are somewhat more matured.

There is Dr. W. B. Halley of Balenger, for instance, who was there—a man who has spent his life healing the sick, ministering to the afflicted, and being kind to the unfortunate and the needy.

We know that is true, for we have heard it from the lips of mutual friends; and we would have known it whether anybody had told us or not.

As a green country boy, this writer went down to the fine little town of Salado away back in the "gay nineties" to enter the Thomas Arnold High School, an institution that would compare favorably in many respects with the junior colleges of the present day.

Salado was an old college town, filled with highly educated, cultured people. But in spite of my greenness, which I have not worn off until this day—if I may be allowed to lapse into the use of the first person, singular, as this is a very personal matter—in spite of my greenness, the good people of Salado were indeed kind and considerate toward me. None was more so than Will Halley. He was in his senior year when I entered as a freshman. He took me under his wing, as it were, and became an elder brother to me. During at least one summer, I remember, he wrote to me, and we kept up a friendly correspondence during the entire summer vacation—just a sympathetic elder brother helping a stumbling little greenhorn over the rough places and lifting him to higher ground. When Will Halley meets me—though he has long been Dr. Halley now, a very capable and successful physician, he places his arms around me and hugs me as if I were his little brother.

Yes, good Dr. Halley was there, and it was worth the trip to Buffalo Gap to meet him again. And his good wife, who also was a schoolmate of mine, younger than I, and who has been a wonderful helpmeet to him through the years, she was there too. We are sure that Ballinger must be a little better town in which to live because of the fact that Dr. and Mrs. Halley have spent the major portion of their lives there.

This reunion was an informal affair—not much speech-making. However, Will Hair, Mayor of Abilene, did make a neat little speech in the morning. Will was born, reared, and educated in Bell county, and for years he was leader of the Bell county bar. Early in his career he became district attorney of the Bell-Lampasas-Mills district, and he was not just merely another district attorney. When he turned on a defendant or a lying witness with his verbal branding iron one could figuratively see the smoke rise and hear the hide of his victim sizzle, and after he went out of office, he was just as hot on the side of the defense, or in the trial of hotly-contested civil suits. Not many years ago he removed to Abilene and joined the law firm of Stinson & Brooks. He has been serving as mayor now for a number of years.

Jim Stinson also was born, reared, and educated in Bell county; but when he obtained his license to practice law he came to Anson and hung out his shingle. He climbed rapidly and soon became district attorney of the old Haskell-Anson-Snyder district. And if you don't think he was a tornado before a jury, just ask any of the old boys who live down below the caprock. But Jim is one of the most genial gentlemen you ever saw, and he is the man who organized this Bell county reunion last year and started the thing off. Of course he had some good help.

One of his helpers was his other law partner, Ernest Brooks. Ernest practiced law in Killeen, Bell county, until there were no more cases there to be tried, and then he too came to Anson. That was a good many years ago. Soon he too drifted over to Abilene, where he and Jim Stinson have been making it hot for the other fellow's clients ever since.

It's funny how so many of those Abilene lawyers originated in Bell county. In addition to the three just mentioned, there are two others living in Abilene and one in Anson who were at Buffalo Gap Sunday and who knew nearly every pig trail and every black-haw patch in Bell county.

Now, there's Jim Millerman. He started out as a school teacher, then turned to law and hung out his shingle in Belton, and when the great and extinguished legal light who presides over this column managed to get elected county attorney of Bell county to the great astonishment and disappointment of a good many people, Jim Millerman was made assistant county attorney to file delinquent tax suits and to look after tax matters generally.

Then there was A. J. Smith, then justice of the peace at Belton. After two or three years experiences in dealing out justice, he caught the western fever and came out to Haskell. There he engaged in business for a few years, studying law in the meantime. Finally, he hung out his shingle at Haskell, later moved to Anson, and now does much practice in and around Abilene. He and Millerman and this scribe all occupied offices together in the courthouse in Belton, and on last Sunday there we were, all of us, at Buffalo Gap. And Smith was just closing out a year as president of this reunion shebang.

The other Abilene lawyer at the Gap Sunday is handsome Joe Childers. He was born in Temple. His father before him was a native of Bell county. His grandfather came to the county in about 1833. Joe grew up in Temple and after completing his academic education he also graduated in law. Then he came out to Abilene, and there he is, a most promising young fellow. He was elected vice-president of that Bell County organization.

And My! My! Just think of the other old-time friends we saw there too. But we can't mention them. We finally managed to tear John Ray loose from those Hay Branch boys and gals—by the way, he and old Jim Stinson were raised up together, at least in the same community, but Jim didn't much want to admit it—we managed to tear John loose and bring him home, and we understand that Mrs. Craft finally succeeded in getting Leonard away from there. We'll bet Leonard has to stay at home next year, and if John Ray goes we imagine his wife will go along with him.

Judge and Mrs. P. W. Goad and their daughter Ethel came Thursday night to visit their son Floyd Goad and his wife and other relatives in this section. They returned to their home in Fort Worth Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Grady Goad, who had been visiting in Lubbock. She and Grady had recently moved to Fort Worth also.

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Callaway of Abilene were here the first part of the week looking after farming interests in this county and visiting their many friends here. The Doctor practiced here for a number of years.

MONTGOMERY FAMILY OBSERVES BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARIES

There was a big birthday dinner out at the Will Montgomery home last Sunday, with a number of visitors present. The occasion was the celebration of the birthdays of both Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and also of Mrs. Montgomery's sister, Mrs. Fred Higby of Lubbock, all of which come within a few days of one another.

Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Higby of Lubbock, another of Mrs. Montgomery's sisters, Mrs. Hugh Henry of Torrance, California, and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Huff, of Portland, Oregon.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Tune and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris of O'Donnell and Mrs. Nannie Swope of Kilgore.

All the visitors left Sunday with the exception of Mrs. Henry, who is here for a longer visit. She and Mr. and Mrs. Huff came on last Friday.

Lee Jones of Lone Oak came Monday for a week's visit with his daughter, Mrs. W. T. Hanes. He says excessive rains have almost ruined the crops in his section of the state.

Paul Cox was a visitor in Wichita Falls the past weekend.

WYNNE COLLIER, Druggist

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamblen returned last week from Camp Berkeley near Abilene, where he has been employed recently. They are occupying the residence formerly occupied by John Hudman. He expects to put in the rest of the summer giving the band members some practice and lining up new members for the band when school opens next September.

Conoco Nth oil kept on 5,683 miles longer than any other oil in the Death-Test... Certified. And all five competing Death-Tested oils didn't average half the mileage of Conoco Nth oil. Certified.

Man-Made new Life-Giver does it

Now think a moment of Vaccination—putting protective substance on guard to keep a trouble from starting. And the trouble aiming to start on motor oils lurks in every engine's normal firing. Filth forms that can spoil one drop; then two drops "catch it"—then four—then SIXTEEN... faster, faster, FASTER. As the whole fill weakens, the oil-level sinks too fast... but not when the start of this oil-fouling trouble is inhibited—held back—by life-giving Thialkene inhibitor, the man-made new economy aid in patented Conoco Nth motor oil.

No, you'll never Death-Test your own Conoco Nth oil. You'll still sensibly drain and refill as recommended. But knowing how Conoco Nth out-mileaged the other Death-Tested oils, you can reasonably believe that every look at the oil-level won't mean adding a quart. Keep count of your saving after changing to Conoco Nth today at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company—Pioneers in Bettering America's oil with Synthetics

AND CONOCO Nth OIL OIL-PLATES YOUR ENGINE

Long the keystone of Conoco success, OIL-PLATING comes from another great Conoco synthetic... man-made under the famed Germ Processed oil patent. Magnet-like action bonds OIL-PLATING to inner parts. It can't all quickly drain down—not while you're using Conoco Nth oil. So OIL-PLATING is on guard against wear in advance!... and helps mileage, as it did in Death Valley. An OIL-PLATED engine is one more economy you get from a change to popular-priced new Conoco Nth oil.

CERTIFIED

I hereby certify that the Death Valley Test and related work were thoroughly and fairly conducted. Engine Destruction occurred in each case at the mileage stated.

London Red Cross Worker Writes To A. M. Cade

A letter dated June 2, 1941, was received by A. M. Cade, Chairman of Home Service of the Lynn county chapter of the American Red Cross, written by Stelle Reeding, Chairman of the Women's Voluntary Services for Civil Defense, 41 Tothill Street, London, England. The letter follows.

As Chairman of W. V. S. I want to thank every member of your Chapter for the wonderful contributions you have sent to us, and for the help this has been to everyone who has suffered.

The gifts received have made it possible to assist people who have lost everything in the bombing of their homes; people who have not only lost their possessions but often members of their family as well.

While Canteens given by you feed those who have been bombed; War Nurseries, which take in the small children suffering from enemy action, have been started because your Junior branches have sent us donations; clothing you make is issued to persons as they emerge from the horrors of being bombed.

I wonder if you realize how much the fact that each individual member of you has shown self-sacrifice and understanding in your gift has helped to strengthen the courage and the determination of the recipients of what you have sent.

Every man, woman and child in this country is playing a definite part in the battle which is now raging, and it is because of your help and sympathy that battle is less bitter, suffering is less severe, strain is less acute.

It is for this reason that as Chairman of W. V. S. acting for the American Red Cross in matters of civilian relief in this country, I thank you, both on behalf of those who benefit by your generosity and of our members who have the joy of handling your gifts.

(Signed) STELLE REEDING.

 Any erroneous reflection upon the vidual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of The News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

Reports from the German-Russian battlefield are so contradictory and conflicting that it is almost impossible to reach an intelligent conclusion as to just how much progress the Germans are making on that front. But, as this is written, it would seem to us that the Germans have not made the progress that they expected and hoped for.
 It seems probable that it will take a long time for them to crush Russia. In fact, unless they should speedily rout the Russians, it would seem to us that Hitler is on his way out. He found England such a hard nut to crack that he despaired of cracking it right soon, otherwise he would not have turned aside to tackle as strong a country as Russia.
 If he fails to crush Russia as he has failed to crush England, he had better be hunting a good spot of tall timber somewhere, for he will need it before many months.

As regrettable as the election of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel to the United States Senate may seem to be, there is some comfort to be derived from it. In the first place, a sane, level-headed man will become governor when O'Daniel vacates that office; and in the second place, the defeat of Lyndon Johnson has served as something of a rebuke to Washington politicians who undertook to dominate the politics of Texas. The hope is that a much more capable man than Lyndon Johnson will defeat O'Daniel for the full term in the Senate at the elections to be held next year.

We heard a radio address by W.
 Lee O'Daniel on July the Fourth that very clearly and forcefully set out, briefly, the functions of the three departments of this government, the legislative, the executive, and the judicial, and that stressed the importance of keeping the three departments separate and distinct from one another. The speech must have been written by a good lawyer — and we have been wondering what lawyer; we should like to congratulate him.

There is much talk of an investigation into the manner money was raised and spent in the recent Senatorial campaign. It is probable that very little money was spent illegally, but it might be very enlightening and helpful to learn where the money that was spent legally came from.
 Who was it in Texas, or up in Washington, or elsewhere, that had a big axe to grind in this contest?

We hope that the time will never come in Texas when a majority of the people will listen to the advice of department heads at Washington as to whom they should elect as their Congressman and Senators.
 Members of the executive department of this government should keep their noses out of the election of candidates for positions in the legislative department.

 cars of us and the pick-up carry-

 We crossed the state line at 8 o'- clock Texas time. We went off the for refreshments, which Happy Smith paid for.

At Plains we saw a herd of buffafirst saw El Capitan, one of the largest mountains in New Mexico, about 25 miles this side of Roswell.

 About five miles east of Roswell we crossed the Pecos River. We ate lunch at the City Park in Roswell.
 The weather was pleasant all the way to camp. The scenery was beau-and spent the rest of the afternoon unpacking.

Sunday morning we went for a

Rotary Names Committees For This Years Work

At the Rotary Club luncheon Thursday, the new president, Frank P. Hill, gave some of the objectives to be attained during the ensuing year, following which Kenneth Reid took charge of the program.

The program consisted of reports by Hill and Travis Hanes on the Rotary International convention recently held in Denver, which they attended as delegates from Tahoka.

Hill also called attention to the district Rotary assembly to be held here on July 22, and states that the attendance promises to be surprisingly large.

Lee Dodson, club member recently called into military service, was voted to honorary membership in Tahoka Rotary Club. John Hamblen was voted into the club as a regular member.

Gilbert Gollehon, former president of the Post Club, is also a new member here.

T. R. Greenfield of Post was a visiting Rotarian, and also present were County Judge Chester Connolly, Commissioners Leon Jennings and Lonnie Williams, and also Rev. Durham, father of Dr. K. R. Durham.

Correct Election Results Are Given For County In Senator's Race

Last week we undertook to publish the election returns of Lynn county, but through some mishap the returns from North Tahoka precinct was left out. This is the largest voting precinct in the county, and it was in this precinct that Gerald Mann received his heaviest plurality.

In fact, he carried the box by a clear majority, receiving 147 to 141 for all his opponents. There were a few errors in the table of votes printed, which we have corrected. Complete official returns for the county by boxes are as follows.

Heavy Wind And Hail Storm Does Damage To Crops in County

Heavy rains which have fallen the past few days in the north part of Lynn county and hail which visited some sections Thursday afternoon have done considerable damage to crops, according to reports coming into the News office as we go to press.

Hail Thursday afternoon is said to have done much damage in the West Point community and in some other localities northwest of Tahoka. Hail which fell last Saturday and again on Monday did damage to a few crops in the Dixie community.

Torrential rains fell Monday from Crossroads filling station north to a point within a few miles south of Lubbock, washing fields and doing much damage to many crops. A portion of this same territory were likewise additional territory were likewise visited by heavy rains Thursday afternoon. Woodrow and vicinity was covered by both rains, and the water in the lake there almost covers the highway pavement for possibly two hundred yards.

Light to heavy rains have fallen the past week over many sections of the county, but little damage to crops has been reported except as indicated above.

Wind is said to have blown down one warehouse, crashed in the plate window of one business house, wrecked a number of cooling systems, uprooted a number of trees, and done much other damage in O'Donnell Thursday afternoon. The rainfall amounted to 1.55, with little hail.

In Tahoka, the rainfall the same afternoon amounted to only .35 of an inch, while .39 had fallen on Monday afternoon. A shower on Saturday amounted to .09.

On the whole, the crop outlook is still very fine.

Mrs. H. M. Snowden is visiting her mother near San Marcos.

Seminole Golfers Coming Sunday

The golf match scheduled between Seminole and Tahoka here next Sunday has been postponed, according to Charles Townes, secretary of the local club.

The play has been postponed because of the fact that so many of the Tahoka golfers are away on their vacations.

Mr. and Mrs. Prentice Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Wynne Collier are expected home the latter part of the week from Colorado, where they have been vacationing the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Edwards and Charles Townes are leaving Friday for Colorado and California on a vacation trip. The Edwards will visit Mrs. Edwards parents in Los Angeles, and Pete and Charles will likely play most of the golf courses they run across.

Farm Workers Meet In Tahoka

A meeting attended by some thirty or more AAA representatives from ten counties in the South and West part of District Two attended a meeting here on Thursday when Gary A. Barnes, Principal Field Assistant of the AAA office at College Station led a discussion on the supplementary cotton program dealing chiefly with the Cotton Stamp Plan, especially explaining the eligibility of the producer and the procedure for the insurance of stamps. It is said that the plan will be begun in Lynn county by the first of August. The meeting was held in the County Agricultural Building.

It was explained that before a farmer is eligible to receive stamps, his cotton must be measured, and if his cotton acreage is found to be below his 1940 cotton acreage or his 1941 cotton allotment whichever is smaller, he will be eligible to receive stamps immediately as soon as his application can be made out.

Stamps are now in the office. However no stamps will be issued before July 20 in any county.

Mrs. J. B. Ray of Garnolia accompanied Eugene Long and family to Vernon last week and also visited at Oklaunion. Mrs. Ray was fortunate enough to see her mother and all of her brothers and sisters while on this visit.

Mrs. Florence King, 90, is showing improvement at her home here after having suffered a light stroke Tuesday morning. She had been suffering from an attack of influenza for a few days preceding the stroke.

Mrs. H. P. Caveness returned Sunday from a visit with relatives at McGregor.

Defence Program Creates Problems

The national defense program has created a number of perplexing problems with which the American people have to deal, and as the program continues to grow and expand, these problems will become more acute. Not all of these problems, by any means, are of a military nature. In some respects the most serious are those which are abstract and intangible; those which have to do, for instance, with the national morale.

What is this morale? Is it bravery? Is it happiness? Morale is a state of mind. In simple, unheroic terms, it is that state of mind which makes the difference between two of your own employees—the one who likes his pay check, and the other who likes his job.

Multiply this distinction by 1,500,000 young Americans already under arms. Apply whatever factor you will to indicate that their number is increasing daily. Then you will see quite clearly the problem with which General Marshall, Secretary Stimson, and Secretary Knox are concerned.

It was at the request of these men and others that U. S. O. undertook the task of working out that problem as its chief concern. U. S. O. looks to the corporations of the country for 20 percent of the total amount to be raised.

You and your associates recognize your personal stake in our National Defense Program.

American business has a stake in the outcome of the present situation even beyond that of individual citizens and their families. For should that outcome be unfavorable, there is no place for free enterprise under a totalitarian system.

This is an opportunity—not a charity. It is our chance to serve—to join the army behind the Army by contributing to the U. S. O.

By July 15th we will be able to make a complete report of the Lynn county U. S. O. Drive.—Mrs. Era Stewart.

Committees on which Lynn County citizens will serve are Rural Rehabilitation Farm Debt Adjustment, and Farm Tenant Purchase.

In addition to these committees, FSA officials have appointed a County Council composed of the above committee personnel in addition to three members at large. Purpose of the Council is to advise with respect to all phases of the FSA program as they affect, or are affected by, local and individual situations.

Appointed to serve on the County Rural Rehabilitation Committee were:

B. J. Emanuel, Route 1, Tahoka, Texas; Rudolph J. Maeker, Route 1, Wilson, Texas; and Zuella F. Lawson, Route 1, Tahoka, Texas.

Names on the Farm Debt Adjustment committee were:

B. J. Emanuel, Rufus C. Woods, and Zuella F. Lawson.

The Farm Tenant Purchase Committee is composed of: B. J. Emanuel, Rudolph J. Maeker, and Rush Dudgeon.

Serving with these committees on the County Council will be:

The function of the Rural Rehabilitation Committee, Mr. Welch said, is to assist the county FSA personnel in developing among borrowers and applicants an understanding that sound, long-time farm and home planning, keeping accurate records of income and expense, and home production of feed and food are important to successful farming.

Other functions of this committee, Mr. Welch explained, include assisting in solving problems of distressed farm families by making it possible for them to use the maximum facilities, help and guidance possible in the FSA program.

The Farm Debt Adjustment Committee will study the financial situation of FSA applicants and borrowers and other low-income farm families, and explaining their problems and plans for rehabilitation to the creditors, effecting those possible, adjustments profitable to both creditors and debtors.

Billy and Bibby Oliver returned Tuesday from Big Spring where they had been visiting an aunt.

A careful study of the tenure situation and assisting in working out more satisfactory and profitable lease arrangements for landlords and tenants, will be among the other primary functions of this committee. It will also seek to improve the living standards of tenant families and to protect the land resources of the landlords.

The Farm Tenant Purchase Committee will assist the FSA personnel in passing on all applicants for loans and will seek to interpret the Tenant Purchase Program to the public. This committee will also help work out the problems of the borrower-families as they arise.

In addition to duties previously mentioned, the County FSA Council will cooperate closely with the County Land-Use Committee, AAA Committee and other community groups in planning and promoting a coordinated attack on community problems as they effect low income farm families.

Moreover the Council will help determine what land adjustments should be made within the county to alleviate specific problems. Another function of this group will be to study the problem of rural housing conditions here in cooperation with the Federal Government and low-income farm families.

In a communication to Mr. Welch, Wilson Cowen, regional director of the Farm Security Administration, said, "The Department of Agriculture, through this agency, is anxious to adjust its program to meet the specific problems and needs of low-income farm families on a wider scale than ever before."

"In this connection," Mr. Cowen continued, "I hope various people and the public generally will, through these committees and councilmen, strive to develop methods by which we can do even a better job and reach the greatest number of families needing the services of this agency."

Mr. Welch said he had been advised by State Director Rex B. Baxter that meetings for all committeemen and councilmen in Texas will be held in the near future at which time they will be given detailed instructions as to their duties. Time and place for the meeting will be announced soon, he said.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas,
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Lynn County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon D. E. Marshall by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Lynn County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Tahoka, Texas, on the first Monday in September, A. D. 1941, the same being the 1st day of September A. D. 1941, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 10th day of June A. D. 1941, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court as No. 1388, wherein J. R. Hicks, H. E. Hicks, Florence Alford and husband E. P. Alford, C. M. Hicks, Avon Parrish and husband Luther Parrish, are Plaintiffs, and Walter Williamson and D. E. Marshall are Defendants, and said petition alleging

Now comes J. R. Hicks, H. E. Hicks, Florence Alford and husband E. P. Alford, whose residence is in Scurry County, Texas, C. M. Hicks who resides in Roswell, New Mexico, Avon Parrish and husband Luther Parrish who reside in Algiers, La., hereinafter called plaintiffs, complaining of Walter Williamson who resides in Dallas County, Texas, and D. E. Marshall whose residence is unknown, hereinafter called defendants, and for a cause of action plaintiffs respectfully represent to the Court the following:

On the 1st day of January 1941 plaintiffs were, and still are, the owners in fee simple of the following described premises situated in the county of Lynn and State of Texas, and known and described as being:

All of the W 1/2 of Section 23 in Block "O", H. & O. B. Railroad Company Survey, containing 320 acres of land more or less.

On such day also, they were in possession of such premises, and afterwards on the 1st day of January 1941, the defendants unlawfully entered upon and dispossessed them from such premises and withheld from them the possession thereof.

Defendants have occupied and used such premises under such lawful possession for a period of six months and the rental value thereof during such occupancy is $1000.00, in which amount by virtue of such wrongs the defendants are justly indebted to plaintiffs; but, though repeated demand for the payment thereof has been made of defendants by plaintiffs, defendants have failed and refused, and still fail and refuse to pay the same, to plaintiffs damages in the sum of $1000.00.

Wherefore plaintiffs pray that the defendants be cited to answer this petition, and that plaintiffs have judgment for the title and possession of the above described premises, for their damages, for costs of suit and for such other and further relief as they may be entitled to receive either at law or in equity.

Herein fail not, and have you before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Tahoka, Texas, this 8th day of July, A. D. 1941.
HATTIE SERVER, Clerk, District Court, Lynn County. (SEAL)
I, B. L. Parker, sheriff of Lynn County, Texas, do certify that the above and foregoing is a true copy of the original citation and petition on file in my office.
B. L. PARKER, Sheriff, Lynn County, Texas. 48-4tc.

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell returned from her vacation Sunday. She attended the Convention of School Superintendents at College Station and visited for some time with relatives and friends in Houston. She was accompanied by her daughters, Mary Margaret and Savannah Lou.

A Trip to Colorado

(By Frank P. Hill)

Almost a month ago, the writer and wife and daughter, Patricia, and Supt. and Mrs. W. T. Hanes and son, Billy, left Tahoka for Denver to attend the annual convention of Rotary International and to spend a while in the Rocky Mountains of Colorado and New Mexico, from which trip the Hanes returned Tuesday of last week and the Hills Monday of this week.

Several readers have claimed they enjoyed our travel stories in the past and as a result we are attempting to put some of our observations and feelings gleaned from the trip onto paper.

Leaving Tahoka Friday morning, June 14, we were soon passing through counties that then gave promise of a bumper wheat crop—Lubbock, Hale, Swisher, Randall, Potter, Moore, Hartley, and Dallam—but which have since lost much grain because of too much rain, and other causes.

No Dust Bowl Now

This North Plains land had little semblance of that described by Rex Tugwell and other so-called "experts" a few years ago as the "Dust Bowl", a region which they said was forever doomed as far as agriculture was concerned. Now, everything was green, crops were growing, carpenters were busy erecting new homes on farms and in such towns as Plainview, Tulla, Canyon, and Amarillo. The grass was green and the cattle rolling fat on ranches through the Canadian River country, around Dumas, now quite a little city because of oil development and gasoline plants. Even Dalhart's streets were crowded with automobiles, and wheat and row crops were doing fine.

Skeptical About Plains

However, portions of Hartley and Dallam counties show effects of poor soil control policies, and today there is plain evidence that some of the lands in those counties should never have been plowed up. Although these two counties have much fine crop land, yet because of these small areas of eroded lands, one long drouth, and the blating of such "city-bred farm experts" as Rex Tugwell, all West Texas will long be looked on by many, many people of the nation as a vast desert of shifting sands, dilapidated and abandoned farm homes, and one-gal-lus emaciated farmers. In fact, at the Rotary convention we had to set right two newspapermen, one from Indiana and one from old Arkansas, about West Texas. And the old Arkansawyer laughed out loud when we told him Lynn county raised 152,000 bales of cotton in 1937, and the Indian didn't even know what a bale of cotton is anyway.

Highlands Beautiful

Soon after noon, we were in the highlands of Northeast New Mexico, a cattle and sheep country of high rolling grass-covered hills, reaching an altitude of nearly 9,000 feet. The highway crosses the Cimarron cut-off of the Old Santa Fe Trail, swings around Capulin Mountain, the crater of a volcano extinct only about 1,000 years, and down to Raton nestled in the mountains at the line of New Mexico and Colorado. Though only 7,837 feet, which is low in comparison to many other mountain passes in Colorado, Raton Pass, between Raton, N. M., and Trinidad, Colo., is steep but beautiful, as tall pines shade the winding road that crawls through the hills to colorful Colorado.

Down the mountain valleys the road leads through a mining region, mostly coal, to Trinidad, once a rough, tough, haven of miners and cowpunchers and adventurers, and still no pink-tea town. There's snow on the sides of Spanish Peaks and Mount Blanca, to the west, which poke into the sky for 12,708, 13,623, and 14,363 feet respectively.

Skirting the mountains over a rolling grass land, we pass through Walsenburg, another coal-mining city, and reach Pueblo by night.

Pueblo Industrial City

Pueblo, like many Colorado towns and cities, is old in comparison to our modern West Texas towns, but it has the largest steel mills west of Chicago and is quite an industrial city of 52,000 people, now busy day and night, except for a few sit-down strikers, on defense orders. Mines in its area, principally up the Arkansas river, which flows through the city, produce gold, silver, copper, iron, lead, zinc, coal, and many other products. This Pittsburg of the West is populated largely by people of foreign ancestry such as Dagoes and Greasers and we don't know what else. Though most of them live in very nice homes and drive fine cars, we decided right here that the good old West Texas Americans are good enough for us.

Colorado Springs Is Sportsman's Playground

Out early the next morning, we're soon in sight of Pike's Peak, which lost a whole lot of its glamour to us a few years ago when we found out there are 27 peaks in Colorado higher than the one pronounced unscalable by its discoverer, Lieut. Zebulon Pike, in 1806. It's a beautiful sight, though, and one never grows tired gazing on this scenic wonder. With the ever-changing lights and shadows caused by sun and moon and clouds and rain and snow, the old peak never looks the same twice each day.

Colorado Springs is a very beautiful city of 38,000, and is said to have more millionaires than any other city its size in the world. It's a resort city, as is also the suburb of Manitou Springs. In addition to Pike's Peak, we rate Seven Falls the most worth-while sight. Then, there's the chapparal took two more vicious stabs at it, cocked his eye at the warden and nonchalantly strolled off into the brush. Upon examining the reptile, the warden found a hole completely through the center of its head, three lacerations on its belly and the rattler was missing both its eyes.

More To See Deep In In Mountains

Fresh air and water and a look at the mountains is about all that is free in Colorado Springs—the natives fifty-cent and dollar the tourist sucker to death, unless the tourist has a pocket full of dough and don't care about keeping it. We don't mean to belittle Colorado Springs in the least, but its no place for people from the cotton country to stay very long. We had been there before, so after a few hours we drove on toward Denver, as we knew from past experience that there was much, much more beautiful scenery and many more worth-while sights away back in the mountains that was all free for the looking.

Arrive at Convention

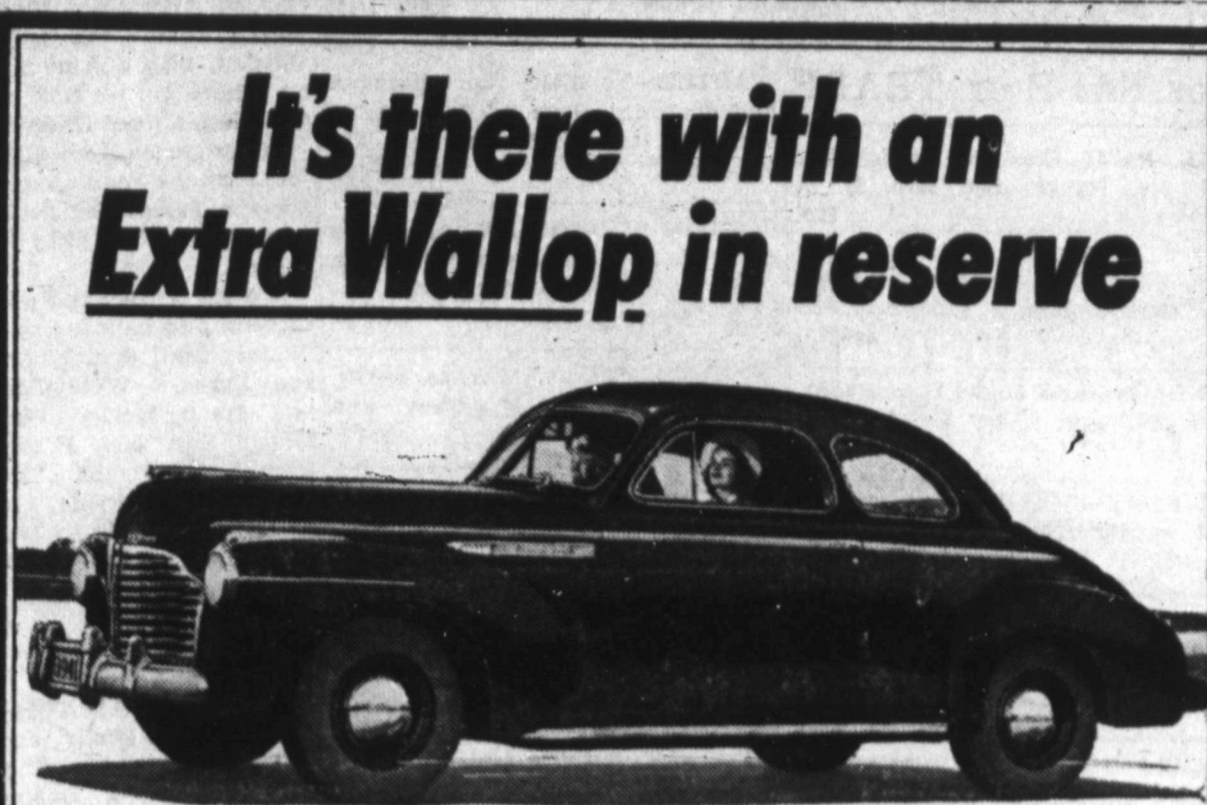

Near Littleton, on the southern edge of Denver, convention bound cars were stopped by Littleton Rotarians, given a hearty welcome and convention information. Soon we were located in living quarters and ready to attend the five-day convention of Rotarians representing 5,088 Rotary Clubs, with a membership of 212,000, in practically every nation of the world except conquered Europe.

Next week we'll give our impressions of this great convention which was attended by 10,000 representatives from all over the world.

BIRD KILLS 43-INCH SNAKE

Details of the efficient warden in which road runners or chaparrals go about killing snakes, was contained in a report of a game warden to the Game Department recently. The warden got in on the start of the fight and remained until the close, exactly an hour and 21 minutes later.

The roadrunner was jogging down a small path through the brush when it stopped suddenly and started circling a bunch of cord grass. The warden approached to within twenty yards of the bird and remained there while the chaparral proceeded to trim a 43-inch rattlesnake down to its size and then to dispatch it. Darting in and out, the road runner dug viciously at the rattler time and again and each time managed to evade the fangs of the six-button reptile. After 81 minutes the rattler was lifeless. The

It's there with an Extra Wallop in reserve

SOMETIMES in your automobile you want zip and ginger, sometimes thrift.

Just name your choice. In this high-stepping Buick straight-eight with Compound Carburetion you can have either, each in its proper place.

You can go about your business in easy, ordinary, everyday travel—and this frugal, two-carburetor system will keep you rolling smoothly with only the forward, thrift-size mixer on the job.

Yet any time you want life, lift, super-power it's there with an extra wallop in reserve—just step down on the treadle and you've got it.

That simple move sends the second carburetor into action; steps up not only fuel supply but the air supply as well.

Thus you have your fun—and frugality too. Owners report mileage figures as much as 10% to 15% higher than on previous Buicks of the same size.

Which means, better go look at the engine that's both thrill-packed and thrifty too. You'll find it in a bigger, roomier, smarter-looking automobile that gives you more value per dollar than anything else you can buy.

Available at slight extra cost on Buick SPECIAL models, standard on all other Series.

At present Federal tax rates, the savings on gasoline effected by Compound Carburetion are usually more than enough to pay Federal taxes on the gas you buy.

SIMPLE SUMMER SUPPERS
Seeking to free the housewife from some of the hot weather worry and work the Grassland Home Demonstration Club featured simple meals in their educational exhibit in the A. L. Smith Food Store last Saturday.

This exhibit showed how a good wholesome meal of cold foods may be attractively arranged ahead of time, kept cold, then enjoyed by the family when a hard day of field work, or canning, or other labor is at an end.

The evening meal may be built around a platter of any cold meat, a cheese or cottage cheese dish or an egg dish, raw and cooked vegetables and fruits, cold milk and butter, bread, and home made sweets. When eaten on the porch or out-of-doors, the family can relax and have a jolly time, because Mother, too, can enter into the spirit of things. The Club women say that meals prepared and eaten like this will save: TIME, MONEY, WORRY and WORK.

Cal Farley . . .

ter the war he played professional (rotten) baseball being a second baseman with St. Paul of the American Association in 1922. In 1923 he was farmed (traded) out to the Amarillo club of the Panhandle-Pecos Valley league where he hit his weight (145), played a fair second base and at the end of the season took over a defunct tire shop and married Miss Mabel Fincher, an Amarillo girl who has worked in the business ever since. She runs it while he gallivants around the country. They have one child, a talented daughter named Gene Tunney. He is past president of the Amarillo Rotary Club and has taken side-splitting, mountain music programs to more than 200 clubs over the nation during the past few years. While he was president of the Amarillo Rotary club the attendance jumped so high that the club considered selling tickets to his weekly performances. He usually had his members rolling in the aisles before the meeting was over. If they didn't roll he knew enough wrestling tricks to make them.

The 55 clubs of the 127th district, accustomed to some dignified, serious-minded orator type of district governor, are going to get the surprise of a lifetime this year. Farley is just as likely to turn a handspring into the banquet room and burst into a line of comedy chatter as he is to walk in on both feet the way a man is supposed to enter a club room. Another thing is that the ladies will get a real treat this year. Farley is a handsome devil despite the manner in which his ears have been pinned back by wrestlers in various parts of the world. He also recognizes the importance of women in the success of any organization so he has asked that instead of meeting with the sourpuss men members of the club he be given the opportunity to hold club assembly meetings with their wives.

That was one of the planks in his platform at the Lubbock convention. Said Farley to the assembled Rotary Anns: "District governors have been going along all these years working with the men and ignoring the women and you see what a 'shape' they've gotten Rotary into. I'm going to ignore the men and work with the women and see what the results will be."

Farley's greatest love, and the only thing he has ever been serious about except the collection in his budget-pay-plan business, is boy's work. Years ago Farley saw the need of doing something for the underprivileged boys, and with a group of similar minded fellows he aided in organizing Amarillo's famous Maverick Club in 1933. He has been president of the Mavericks since its inception. That club has achieved a national reputation for its work and has been invaluable to Amarillo. It has 400 members. Out of the work with it grew the idea for Boy's Ranch which is located at old Tascosa, 35 miles northwest of Amarillo. This is for boys without homes or in trouble. Boy's Ranch and the Maverick Club are both sponsored by the Amarillo Rotary Club.

There are 32 boys at Boy's Ranch and it is fast growing into one of the nation's largest. The boys do their own farming; milk their own cows, go to their own school and live there working and playing until they graduate. Their first graduate this spring was a top hand and is now holding down a good but hard job as a plumber's helper and is supporting his mother and two smaller brothers.

Farley is, of course, a sports expert and is known to thousands for his sports broadcasts of football games and other contests. His own daily radio program put on in his Number One store in Amarillo is now in its tenth year. Friends of Farley wanted to elect him Mayor last year but he turned it down saying that one job at a time was enough. That job he had in mind was the district governor's office of Rotary.

If he gets serious at any time when he visits the Rotary Clubs in the district it will be when he starts talking about the Maverick Club or Boy's Ranch, and you will like him serious then because he has a heart big enough to be a daddy to 432 boys, and he is keeping a place for the many more these two clubs are constantly being called on to serve.

DRAW H. D. CLUB HAS VARIED PROGRAM

The Draw Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Dayton Short on June 27, with eleven members present.

With Mrs. L. B. Jones presiding, a very interesting program on canning was given by different members of the club.

Following the reading of the minutes by Mrs. Pirtle in a business meeting, Mrs. John Berry gave an interesting talk and explanation of the United Service Organizations, and the Club pledged five dollars for this purpose.
