It is emphasized that great importance is being attached to having a card filled out for each household in town. In addition to the city religious census, workers from First Methodist Church will also begin a census of the rural areas of Lamb, Bailey and Farmer counties.

Judge Praises Today's Children In Rotary Talk

County Judge Glen Williams believes the present generation of youngsters is the most wholesome, the most intelligent, and the best behaved group of children the world has seen. He believes this not in spite of but because of his experience with them since he began his term of office.

He believes that most so-called delinquents are only temporarily so; with the understanding and encouragement they invariably determine to measure up. It is his experience that the number of adults in the county court far surpasses that of juveniles. The juvenile problem, he says, is not nearly so great as it is sometimes pictured.

One little boy has been placed at Boys Ranch, where he is making a fine citizen. The judge visits him frequently and says he is coming along just fine. A young colored boy, after encouragement and friendship extended to him, is also coming along fine and will make a useful citizen.

The judge gave his views in an address Tuesday before the Rotary Club. He was introduced by Rotarian Gordon Doss, who had charge of the program. Sheriff Dee Clements accompanied the judge to the meeting.

Other guests included Mack Fowler, brother of Jim Fowler; Arthur Crow, guest of Robert Alford; and Prof. Shelby, guest of W. T. Bovell.

TSTA President Speaks To 75 At Meeting Monday

Mrs. Sadie Ray Powell, president of the Texas State Teachers Association spoke to approximately 75 persons attending a TSTA dinner on Monday evening in the Richland Hills cafeteria.

Mrs. Powell discussed new frontiers of education, comparing American schools with reports of Soviet schools. She said that this was no time to become panic stricken. She pointed out that in Russian schools only one-third of the student population finish the seventh grade while 90% of American students finish high school.

For this reason Russia is able to better educate the "cream of the crop" while the Soviets send the slower learners to a short session of trade school where they are trained for manual labor.

Mrs. Powell also pointed out that Russia had fewer students per teacher, plus better paid teachers. Russia is educating the few persons who can do her country the most good. America is educating her entire population. Under these conditions it is slower and more difficult, but nevertheless necessary. Mrs. Powell said that Americans need not panic but begin now to help improve every necessary element.

Those present at the dinner included teachers from Muleshoe, Bala and Three Way schools, school board members and wives and other civic leaders of Muleshoe.

Contributions and donations from Three Way school have not yet been turned in, the chairman announced.

Contributions were: FHA, $17.70; P.T.A., $32.93; Bible Study Club, $35; Model 4-H Club, $37.46; and Three Way Home Demonstration Club, $27.35.

Members of the committee who attended the meeting besides Crawford were Randy Johnson, Bill Parker, George Chapman, Harry Jamison, Martin Oliver, Truman Lindsey and Bill Taylor.

The committee met recently and outlined a projected program to be undertaken as soon as practical. This would be based on suggestions received from a group meeting with the committee.

Some of the suggestions advanced are for swimming meets, tennis tournaments, little theatre group, softball teams, basketball

Engineer H. A. Ferrell said the train was going about 50 miles per hour. Skid marks of the 1953 Ford car measured 42 feet, indicating the driver attempted to stop, but may have failed in his attempt due to icy roads.

Freezing rain had been falling since before daylight. The car was crushed inward from the front, with the engine smashed back into the firewall of the front passenger compartment. Parts of the car were scattered for several hundred feet along the tracks. A front wheel was found almost half a mile west of the accident scene.

Investigating officers James Freeman and Bill Angel said the Santa Fe freight westbound, was struck by the car just at the second unit of the two-unit diesel engine, and the impact knocked the car about 20 feet west of the main crossing.

The Farmer Takes A Boarder—And Makes A Profit

A new kind of farm diversification has arrived. It's called the "farm vacation", and for many farmers whose grown-up and teenage children have left them with roomy, semi-empty farmhouses it could well prove to be a profitable sideline enterprise.

In fact, so feasible and successful has the idea been that it has spread all the way from New York's Fifth Avenue where it was first conceived to the heart of Texas and the open spaces of Montana.

Operation of the "farm vacation" plan is a simple one; the farmer who has spare room and facilities and a wife who likes to cook becomes a sort of inn-keeper. For a fair but profitable fee he invites some city folks to spend their vacation down on the farm. Judging from the annual growth of this new type of tourist industry, it is here to stay.

The commercial organization most responsible for development of the farm vacation program was started in 1949 by an ex-farm boy from Delaware, Bill Wolfe, who saw in America's booming and bulging tourist industry a new vacation possibility which could accomplish several important things. First of all, the farm vacation could bring together farmers and city folks so that they might learn one another's problems and profit by the association; also, this could provide the city dweller with relief from the tedium of his existence without high cost and strenuous travel; and, finally, it could help raise the income of some farmers over the country.

Mr. Wolfe's organization, Farm Vacations and Holidays, Incorporated, last year printed and distributed some 250,000 catalogues listing about 300 farms in 15 states and Ontario. They hope eventually to list 5,000 farms which would be catalogued in sections of the country.

Through the Farm Vacation catalog, the prospective vacationer can select the type farm he would like to visit as well as the location he prefers. The listings are not ordinary classified type advertisements such as "have farm—will rent room;" enough details are provided to form a fairly clear picture of each individual farm available, and vacationers and farmer-landlords are expected to have learned a great deal about each other before any actual commitment is made.

All in all, it's a good, sound and healthy idea for the vacationer, and a potential source of supplemental income for the farmer who thinks he might be able to help educate, entertain and generally keep happy a "cityified" stranger.

For information on either securing the Farm Vacation catalogue or on getting a farm listed in the association, also, this could provide the city dweller with relief from the tedium of his existence without high cost and strenuous travel; and, finally, it could help raise the income of some farmers over the country.

Tax Levies By Commission

Tax levies for 1958 were set Monday at a regular meeting of the Bailey County Commissioners' Court. The county rate was set at 95 cents per $100 evaluation. The special road tax is 30 cents per $100, subject to home stead exemption; the road district 1A tax rate is 40 cents per $100 evaluation.

The Commissioners also formally named road overseers for the year, as follows: precinct 1, Paul Morgan; precinct 2, W. W. Couch; precinct 3, W. H. Eubanks and precinct 4, R. P. McCall.

Establish Court Terms

The term of county and justice courts for the year were formally established for the record by the commissioners. County court will be held in six terms of two months each, beginning with the first Monday in January, March, May, July, September and November. Justice court will be held in twelve terms of one month each, beginning the third Monday in each month.

For Garment Factory

The industrial committee met Tuesday afternoon, and instructed Gunstream to contact Mr. Agee, informing him that in view of the additional requirements, the committee does not believe the investment a wise or practical one.

Agee did however hold out a slim hope that if he could arrange for the additional financing through eastern banks, he would still consider Muleshoe as a possible site for the factory.

He also pointed out that all the labor information and other pertinent facts compiled by the industrial committee have been turned over to Sears, Roebuck and Company, and may be used by them at some future date in selecting another factory site.

More than a year ago, the industrial committee began work to locate the clothing plant here. Several trips were made to El Paso to talk with Agee, and countless phone calls were placed. The entire community cooperated in taking a labor survey, and furnished the names of more than 1,000 persons who would be interested in working in the plant.

A number of questionnaires were filled out and submitted to the company, in addition to a public pledge of almost $100,000 in subscriptions toward the cost of building the plant here should Muleshoe be chosen as the factory site.

Now has been received from Rex-Togs for several months, prior to the receipt of the above mentioned letter this week.

Although the committee has not closed the door, members expressed the feeling that the community could not afford to meet the most recent requests, and therefore are so informing Agee.

could sell their crops through the shed if they chose to do so.

Early plans call for an estimated cost of about $55,000 to construct the shed which would be 70x140 feet in size and contain machinery for processing various types of vegetables, a cooling room, handling equipment, and office space.

Long term plans are to develop, along with five neighboring counties, an informal vegetable growers association to handle a full line of mixed vegetables, including tomatoes, cabbage, peppers, and possibly sweet potatoes. Facilities for handling all these vegetables are to be included in the shed plans.

Messrs. Scoggins, Lee, Myers, Parker, Williams and Stemmmons are to tour the Rio Grande Valley late this month, and hope to contact a reputable firm to lease the shed here this summer. They will also study the vegetable operations in that section of the state.

Agee also pointed out that all the labor information and other pertinent facts compiled by the industrial committee have been turned over to Sears, Roebuck and Company, and may be used by them at some future date in selecting another factory site.

Setting Or Resetting Shrubs

Now is the time to set out shrubs or to reset those that need moving. You may have shrubs that dot the lawn and complicate moving. It is a good idea to move them and now is a very good time.

Consider the potential size of tree or shrub, when choosing a location. Large growing plants are not suited for planting around walls or foundation of the average home. Large growing plants make excellent screening plants to give privacy to a work or recreation area. Shrubs suitable for foundation plantings are those that do not grow more than 8 or 10 feet tall.

You may have large shrubs that have outgrown their beauty. The best solution to this problem is to dig them up and replace them with young plants. It is very difficult to prune a large neglected plant and give it a young look.

Prune plants often enough to keep them from getting out of control and they will give beauty and enjoyment much longer than if left unpruned.

Some large plants that require little water are, Althea, Ligustrum, Arizona Cypress, Cherry Laurel, Crepe Myrtle, Evergreen Sumac, Holly and Photinia.

A few shrubs suitable for foundation plantings are Rosemary,

Two Thread Hose

Information from one of the hoisery mills tells that two filament nylon stockings have been tested by 700 women and the wearing qualities have been rated as outstanding.

When two filament hose are knitted, two filaments are knitted as though they are one filament. Of course the filaments are very tiny and the appearance is as one.

Keep Nylon White Proper care can help to keep white nylon looking white.

Wash white nylons separately. Nylon has considerable affinity for dye and will easily pick up dye from colored articles.

Wash nylon garments thoroughly after each wearing, using hot water and detergent. Machine washing, whenever possible, is the most effective method.

Water softener added to the water will help.

Don't be afraid to use liquid laundry bleach on white nylon.

Nylon brighteners such as "Pro-Nyl" or "Nylon" available for consumer use, will help maintain whiteness of nylon garments.

Preventive bleaches should be used to retain the brightness of the white. Restorative bleach is to use to restore the whiteness after it has become dull.

Lions To Turn Back The Clock For First Annual 'Gay Nineties Revue' On March 17

The Muleshoe Lions Club's first annual presentation of a "Gay Nineties Revue", March 17, in Muleshoe high school auditorium will feature an unusual opportunity for area residents to relive the theatre at the turn of the century.

Authentic costuming, musical selections of the period, and a carefully planned atmosphere are all designed to transport theatre goers back more than 50 years to see what audiences then enjoyed.

Times were freer then, and the audience frequently joined the performers in community singing, applauding the hero and heroine, and lustily booing and hissing the dastardly villains.

Audiences at the Lions club show will be able to participate in the same enjoyable way.

The "Gay Nineties Revue", will feature local performers in musical and dance routines, and will be highlighted by two one-act "melodramas"; one a pantomime called "Innocent Triumphs", and the other called "Dark Doings at The Cross Roads". Both contain all the elements of turn of the century melodrama.

Proceeds from the revue will be used by the club in its civic activities, which include sight conservation, Little League baseball, crippled children's camp, and other worthy charities.

Enochs News Events

by Mrs. C. C. Dorn

The people of the Enoch community are still thinking of Mrs. Floyd Elms. The men have started breaking land for Mr. Elms and are hauling in his feed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reeves celebrated their 27th anniversary Sunday with a dinner.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reeves, Shirley, Jack and Joan Hodge, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davis, Dennis and Dona, Mr. and Mrs. James Reeves, from Arch, N. M.; Vickie, Kathie and

by JOHN CROW

It was one of the most famous trials of the century and debate over it rocked the nation. Tennessee had passed a law forbidding the teaching of evolution in public schools. An obscure teacher named John T. Scopes had defied the law. Now he was on trial.

The attorney for the defense was the most famous criminal lawyer of his time. Clarence Darrow. Opposing him for the prosecution was an even more famous name . . . William Jennings Bryan.

Bryan, now an old man, was still eloquent. He built his case around a literal interpretation of the Bible, stoutly maintaining that Eve had literally been formed from a rib of Adam, and that the world had been created exactly 4,000 years before.

Darrow was equally persuasive for the defense . . . but when the two famous lawyers had finished and the verdict came in, Bryan had won his case. Scopes was found guilty.

Remember the year? There were great debates in those days over cars, too, and over the merits of the roadster and the closed sedan. But when it came to buying, a man couldn't be persuaded by a silver tongue. He wanted real savings.

The year was 1925. We won't give you any fancy oratory when you come in to see and drive a new 1958 Chevrolet. But we will give you real savings. That goes for our big stock of late model used cars, too. So for a better deal, see—

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Whitfield left Monday for Dallas, where they are to place their son, Elvin in the Baylor Hospital for treatments.

Miss Betty Hallford is still in the Littlefield hospital, suffering from pneumonia.

Bro. C. C. Dorn is doing fine after taking a fall Saturday while wiring the home economics room.

The ladies at Monument Lake served the dinner at the sale Monday, at the Cecil Cole farm.

Pro Tennis Comes To Lubbock 27th

Tickets are now on sale for the Jack Kramer Pro Tennis tour, coming to Lubbock on Thursday, February 27. Mail orders can be filled by writing the Sports Center, Lubbock, Texas.

Pancho Gonzales, who has had a strangle hold on the realm of professional tennis since 1954 seems to have lost his grip completely. In this tour he is being challenged by two time Wimbledon champion Lew Hoad. Hoad now leads in the 100 city series, 8 to 5. In the opening match, Tony Trabert takes on Pancho Segura. To conclude the evening, the four will pair off in what should prove to be an exciting doubles match.

Farwell Approves School Bond Issue

Voters of the Farwell Independent School District voted 309 to 114 for a $296,000 school building bond issue.

The bond money from the issue will be used for additions to the school plant, including an 800 seat auditorium; new commercial and science department facilities; offices and remodeling of the home economics department.

A similar bond proposal was turned down last year. However, renewed interest among school patrons caused trustees to call a new election.

TAX OFFICE ONLY A CUBBY-HOLE

CROWDED conditions in the busy tax office of the courthouse hinder the work of the tax assessor-collector and the two clerks, Mrs. Jean Lovelady and Mrs. Emil Macha.

Tax Collector-Assessor Office Crowded And No Adequate Storage Is Available

Editor's Note: This, the third in a series of articles on the inadequate facilities of the Bailey County courthouse, will detail the need for additional space and storage facilities for the office of the county tax collector and assessor.

The offices of the county-district clerk, and of the county tax assessor-collector, are visited more often by citizenry of the county than any other office in the courthouse. Paying taxes, filing records, seeking licenses, and similar legal affairs bring an enormous amount of traffic to these two offices.

Both are located on the south side of the second floor of the building, and at the top of a double flight of stairs. A small lobby gives access to both caged offices, and to the sheriff's office also.

The tax assessor's office is actually only a tiny space separated from the lobby by a waist-high counter and a flimsy wire netting. Two windows are available through which the citizen must transact his business with the tax assessor and two clerks employed there.

At license buying time, and again at poll tax time, the clerks and other personnel are tremendously overworked. When property taxes must be paid, the facilities of the office are stretched to the utmost. The big tax roll books require quite a bit of room, and there simply isn't enough space for the rolls, other records, office machines, and three people to work.

A considerable volume of paper work is required in the tax office, calling for adequate desk and work space, which again is not available in the limited quarters now occupied by the office.

A vault, of sorts is available for the storage of certain tax receipts, records, and a not inconsiderable amount of cash which the office frequently keeps on hand. The vault is very much like the one in the clerk's office, in that it has an imposing steel door, with combination lock, all safely mounted in the wall of an ordinary closet, or small room. The walls could be cut thru in minutes by any semi-skilled burglar with no special tools needed.

In addition, because there is so little space elsewhere, and because the office cannot be locked at night, all license plates, (a truck load at the present time) must be kept in the vault.

taking up precious space needed for records and other valuable papers.

Although some relief from the crowded conditions was afforded when the sheriff's office was separated from the tax office a couple of years ago, there still exists extremely cramped circumstances in the tax office.

Due to the large amount of paper work necessary in the office, there are several electric office machines which with their desks and tables take up additional needed floor space so that personnel are constantly at a hazard when moving about the narrow space which is left.

Spectacular Results Seen From TRF9 Hybrid Corn Developed At Renner Farms

Texas Research Foundation's new white corn hybrid, TRF 9 has come through extremes of drought and high rainfall to take spectacular first honors in the Foundation's corn-testing program at Renner and other Texas points.

"Yields as high as 82.4 bushels an acre by TRF 9 under dryland cultivation at Renner encourage recommendation of the hybrid for North Central Texas corn growing areas", Dr. C. L. Lundell, Director of the Foundation, said.

Ample seed supplies for the 1958 planting season are available to the region's farmers.

The Foundation recommends stands of 8,000 to 12,000 to the acre for the new hybrid, the number depending upon the available moisture, the fertility of the soil and the fertilizer treatment used.

"With adequate moisture and heavy fertilization, the heavier rates of planting should be used to obtain maximum yields," Dr. Lundell added.

He said the Foundation's 82.4 bushel yield of TRF 9 was obtained from a 12,000 plant stand, properly fertilized, under dryland cultivation at Renner.

"The Foundation's yield tests during 1950-57, inclusive, have shown TRF 9 to be well adapted throughout all corn growing areas in Texas", Dr. Lundell continued.

"The new hybrid has proved superior to the older hybrid, TRF 3, which it replaces."

Averages for the two hybrids from 11 tests conducted over a 6 year period show 41.9 bushels an acre for TRF 9 and 39.5 bushels for TRF 3.

A comparison of yields obtained with six hybrids in 12 tests during the last three seasons showed TRF 9 first with an average of 32 bushels to the acre", Dr. Lundell said.

TRF 9 has met with widespread acceptance by Texas farmers since Texas Research Foundation released it in 1956 for commercial field production.

"The corn has a large, white grain which is superior for milling purposes", Dr. Lundell said. "Such white corn has always been in demand by the milling trade for use in making high quality products."

Representative Of Social Security Office Here Feb. 20

Persons applying for social security benefits can speed the payment of their claims by bringing the necessary records with them according to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock social security office.

Wage earners and the survivors of deceased wage earners should furnish a copy of the Form W-2 "Statement of Wages Paid" for the preceding year. In addition they should supply the information regarding earnings for the current year.

Self-employed persons or their survivors should be prepared to furnish a copy of Schedule C (or Schedule F for farmers) and other supplementary schedules with their income tax reports for the preceding year. They should also furnish the cancelled check or other evidence that the tax has been paid. The estimated earnings from self-employment for the current year should also be furnished.

No person should delay contacting his social security office, because he lacks any of these records, Hutton states. Delays in filing claims may mean a loss in benefits. However, if all the records available are taken to the social security office when an applicant seeks to file a claim it will assure the earliest possible payment of benefits.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Muleshoe on February 20, at 9:30 a.m. at the courthouse, and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to Social Security.

Army Accepting Applications For Overseas Teaching

Teachers who wish to live and travel in a foreign country will have an opportunity to fulfill that ambition by applying for a position in U. S. Army-operated schools for American children in Germany, France, Italy, Japan, and Okinawa for the 1958-59 school year.

To assure consideration for the coming school year interested teachers in Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas should write for information to the appropriate installation which has been designated recruitment center for their area.

The greatest number of vacancies will be in the elementary grades. Secondary teachers who qualify in two major fields will be needed also. BABSON DISCUSSES

Real Estate Sales And Weather

Babson Park, Fla., Feb. 13—A few weeks ago I was asked by a friend to go twenty miles from here and look at a piece of Florida property. The weather here had been wretched, cold and rain with constant fog. Very few people were on the streets or in the stores. The restaurant where I expected to get luncheon was closed, with a sign that it would be open "when the sun comes out". Even the real estate offices that I visited were closed. When I found one of the men at his home, he said that it was impossible to sell real estate "during weather like this."

Weather and Land Sales
Apparently most people lack vision. When it is sunny, they think it will always be sunny; but when it has rained for a week, they think it will always rain. They lack vision as to temperature. The real estate man claims that his business is "seasonable"; that most real estate buyers lack reason and foresight. This is why most sellers of real estate are obliged to work on a commission basis. The weather primarily explains why the real estate business is so cyclical.

Every business is more or less cyclical, constantly revolving like a wheel. Most people buy at the top and sell at the bottom; a few buy at the bottom and sell at the top. Those, however, who get aboard the wheel at any point and stay with it, dealing with honest brokers, usually come out satisfactorily. This applies to land and buildings as well as to stocks and bonds. It means that the shrewd buyer buys during periods of bad weather and bad news. This, moreover, applies to all sections of the country as some sections are always suffering from long rains, or long droughts, or long cold spells, or long hot spells. These, however, are the periods it is best to buy real estate.

Swampy Land Should Become More Valuable
Up to the present time, pasture land or raw land that is swampy has sold at a very low price—probably only one-quarter of what well-located pasture land would bring. Wet land cannot successfully grow orchards or fruit trees. Cattle like ponds for their pasture; but they must have dry land to feed upon. Rice and cranberries are about the only commercial crops which can use wet land.

Statistics show, however, that the water table of most states is gradually but seriously falling. Most states now have commissions which are engaged in the water table. This means that the supply of water is being lowered; one owner can drain his property and another can drain his. The "dry bones" property which needs more water. Every state is endeavoring to get more industries and yet most industries are large consumers of water. This means that water will become of great value some day. Cheap swamp land should, therefore, constantly become more valuable and should be a good purchase today for those who have the patience to wait.

Surplus Water From Canada

I have already spoken in this column of the "John Powers, Jr. Plan" to bring surplus water from Western Canada down through North Dakota into the dry sections near our Rocky Mountains. Tremendous reserves of fresh water are now running northward into the Arctic Ocean. Mr. Powers shows that, with the permission of Canada, these waters could be turned southerly to ir-gate, at slight cost, the "Great American Desert". It would cost more than it costs to build modern turnpikes for automobiles. As this may come about sooner than most people realize, advise people not to sacrifice such waste land they might now own in Utah, New Mexico and Arizona.

Coming back to the theme of this week's column, let me urge real estate salesmen to educate their prospects as to the most suitable seasons to buy real estate. Instead of going on vacations during the "off season" they should advertise that these "off seasons" are the best times to get bargains. They would also stabilize what is now a hazardous occupation, dependent on business conditions, on seasons of the year, and upon rain, snow, fog, drought, insects, gales, and almost every other uncertainty.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

NO FRONTIERSMEN, THE FREEMANS MAY RETURN TO MULESHOE FROM ALSAKA
The Journal has received an interesting letter from Mrs. H. M. Freeman, now living in far away Alaska. Maybe they're homesick, anyway it looks like they're thinking of coming home.

Feb. 7, 1958

Dear Editor:
Hello to all you good people in good old Texas!
Just a line to let you know we would like our subscription renewed. Would it be possible to get our paper air mail? It takes over a month to get it and that's certainly a long wait. Don't understand why it takes so long! How's everything in Muleshoe? Heard you've had quite a bit of snow, so have we but believe you me Alaska's 30 or 40 below zero weather is nothing to brag about. Brother, it's plenty cold when your tires freeze flat and you bump along like your axles are broken and dragging, you just drive on and pray that it's not a real flat.

The temperature can drop from 20 above to 20 below in a couple of hours, snow flakes about the size of a Texas thistle (small thistle of course). When it's 20 above or more and starts to snow, it's a beautiful sight to see, as there's not a trace of wind.

The Northern Lights are beautiful to see, as is Mt. McKinley. We haven't seen too much of Alaska yet but plan to do some sightseeing before returning to Muleshoe. Unless we change our minds we plan to be back in Muleshoe by late summer. This is indeed a beautiful country and full of opportunities if you're frontier minded, but Harold and I just aren't "fortniersmen."

We chanced to see Russia's satellite three or four times as it circled the globe. Went over Fairbanks several days.
Enough of this chatter, after all I just wanted to renew the paper. Thanks,

SANDHILLS PHILOSOPHER GLAD TO TAKE HIS Shoulder Off The Wheel Now That Satellite Is Launched

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm adds his two-bits to the discussion of the satellite, although that may be pricing it a little high.

Dear editor:
I don't know about you, but I'm certainly glad we got that satellite up and maybe now we can stop some of this talk about everybody putting his shoulder to the wheel.
Understand, I was willing to put my shoulder to the wheel, if that was the way to conquer space, but frankly Washington never did convince me the way to help this country launch a satellite was for me to get on my tractor and work longer hours. I ain't a scientist, but I never could see the connection.

Also, I never was really worried. Impatient, maybe, but not smart enough to produce a self-defrosting refrigerator, a machine propellers of an airplane, a chine gun that could fire through hydrogen bomb, an electric razor, a tubeless tire, and an atomic submarine, could figure out how to launch a satellite.

The fact Russia got ahead of us only emphasizes my contention that scientific secrets, like the secret of the bicycle, can't be held exclusively very long by any one country.
But now that we've got that satellite going around the earth, I would like to point out that there are still other problems, and if man thinks the only way to be happy is to get out in that drafty, sun-blasted and sub-zero void called space, he's in for a let-down. I figure a man can be just as miserable gliding through space as he can fighting traffic on a highway, just as he can be happy sitting on his own farm.

I read just the other day where airplanes have become so smooth you can't feel the motion, it's as if you were sitting at home in an easy chair while you travel aloft above the clouds, but my contention is that, that sure is going to a lot of trouble to get what I've had for years—the pleasures of sitting still in a chair, without near the gasoline consumption.

At any rate, now that Explorer is circling the globe on schedule, I'd appreciate it if you'd find out from our Congressman if it's all right for me to go on with my loafing and fishing with a clear conscience. Can I take my shoulders off the wheel now? After all, it was just resting there anyway, I actually wasn't heaving.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Other Southwestern farmers have discovered that the 82% nitrogen in top quality Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia helps them to get more profit per acre, through higher yields and lower production costs.

They have found that, by using Phillips 66 Ammonia, they get more cotton that grades out higher at the gin; yields of grain sorghum grain and ensilage are increased; more marketable vegetables are harvested, and profits on wheat are increased through better forage, and higher yields of grain.

Christian Science Services

The spiritual relationship of God and man will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul" is the Golden Text from Isaiah (25:9): "Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the Lord; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (120:4): "Soul, or Spirit, is God, unchangeable and eternal; and man coexists with and reflects Soul, God, for man is God's image."

Scriptural readings will include the following from Psalms (43: 5): "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God."

TODAY'S MEDITATION

Read Galatians 3:23-29. Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. (Galatians 3:26.)

An interesting sidelight on the parable of the prodigal son is found in John Wesley's notes on the New Testament. He says: "In the 30th verse the elder son had unkindly said, 'This, thy son, the father mildly reproves him and tenderly says, 'This, thy brother.' Amazing intimation that the best of men ought to account sinners their brethren, and should especially remember this relation when they show any inclination to return."

Jewish Christians had no proper cause to murmur at the reception of the gentiles into the flock, nor Pharisees at the reception of the sinners.

Such a conception of brotherhood is firmly rooted in our relation with the Father. His love is what enables us, selfish and sinful men that we are, to find the secret of loving one another.

See the picture of the angry, scornful brother pointing his finger and saying, "This, thy son." Against this censorious tone came the gentle words, "This, thy brother." Does this not rebuke us all?

PRAYER

Our Father, we are reconciled to Thee by Thy merciful and loving gift in the death of Thy Son. We have joy in the reconciliation which restores our love to Thee and to one another, in the name of our blessed Redeemer we pray, Amen.

Thought For The Day Under God, the loving Father, men become brothers through Christ, His Son.

Plains Counties May Be Invaded By Grasshoppers

Cooperative grasshopper adult surveys made during the late summer and fall of 1957 revealed that the Panhandle and upper South Plains counties may undergo widespread and damaging infestations of grasshoppers this spring.

The survey reveals where and how many grasshoppers infest an area, and indicate the potential severity of infestations for 1958, according to F. M. Fuller, extension entomologist. Surveys next spring for newly hatched grasshoppers will provide a final index of populations and identify areas where control will be necessary to prevent severe losses during the 1958 growing season.

Fuller says the survey showed infestations in 5,972,000 acres of Texas. This is more than last year when approximately five million acres were infested with the pests. Control was administered to about 50,000 acres in the Panhandle.

He points out that predators and grasshopper parasites and weather conditions can have a pronounced effect on the infestations. Cool, wet weather with heavy rains during the hatching season can greatly reduce hopper population.

Fuller points out that six or seven grasshoppers per square yard at about the same rate as grass at a pasture can consume a cow. The fall survey showed that many acres in Texas in the regions mentioned have potential populations of 28 or more per yard.

So, farmer and ranchers should be prepared to act promptly if spring survey show that damaging numbers of hoppers are hatching, advises the entomologist. The savings in grass could amount to much more than the cost of control.

American Cancer Fund and its unknown members, shareholders, officers, and representatives, and the persons who own stock or constitute the American Cancer Fund as an entity, corporation, association, firm, company or partnership, if it be any of such; and to the unknown devisee or devisees under a purported will of Clifford Mooers, deceased, dated September 24, 1956, admitted to probate in Kendall County, Texas, on December 10, 1956, and the unknown owners or claimants of any interest in the estate of such decedent or in any property, standing in his name at the time of his death on November 13, 1956, including the lands and interests therein described in such suit and as described and identified in this citation, which are owned or claimed by such unknown claimants as devisee under such purported will. Defendants, each of whose identity and residence are unknown other than claimants American Cancer Society, Inc., a New York corporation, and American Cancer Society, Texas Division, Inc., a Texas corporation, who have been joined as defendants in such suit for personal service.

GREETING:

You and each of you are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to plaintiff's petition before the 28th Judicial District Court of Kendall County, Texas, in the Courtroom in the City of Boerne, Kendall County, Texas, at or before ten o'clock a.m., on the Monday next following the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this citation, said Monday being the 17th day of March, 1958, and then there to answer the original petition of Dolores Mooers, a widow as plaintiff, filed in said court on the 30th day of January, 1958, against H. B. Fuqua as Independent Executor under a purported will of Clifford Mooers, deceased, and in which suit the other named defendants are those persons first named in this writ and to whom it is above directed, and other defendants to be cited personally are:

American Cancer Society, Inc., a New York corporation, and American Cancer Society, Texas Division, Inc., a Texas corporation, and Betty Nuss, Chester Green, R. J. Kelly, Mrs. Gladys Van Pelt, Genevieve Conroy, Ralph Dahlstrom, Sven Lundahl, Russell Baughman, Charley McClaskey, Allan H. Ellington, Paul S. Oles, and Mrs. A. G. Koenig, as executrix under the will of A. G. Koenig, deceased, and the said Mrs. A. G. Koenig, a widow, and Elizabeth Koenig, a feme sole, as the only heirs of A. G. Koenig, deceased; John T. Claybourne, Frank Demas, Mrs.

C. W. Farley (and husband, C. W. Farley), Tom Walters, Leonard Ward, Bruno Brandt, W. B. Davis, and John W. Clark, individually and as constituting and representative of that class of five-year employees given cash legacies of $500.00 each under the terms of such purported will of such decedent.

Said suit styled "Dolores Mooers, A Widow, vs. H. B. Fuqua, Independent Executor, et al.," being numbered 1525 on the docket of such court and a brief statement of the nature of the suit being as follows:

Plaintiff seeking equitable relief asks to set aside a settlement made with her husband, Clifford Mooers, dated May 1, 1956, and this Court's decree of approval entered the next day in cause No. 1464, styled "Ex Parte: Clifford Mooers and Wife, Dolores Mooers" recorded in the minutes, Vol. 6, p. 636, and asks an accounting and for a declaration fixing the identity of the residuary devisee under a purported will of such husband as admitted to probate December 10, 1956, in which suit it is claimed that plaintiff as the wife of such decedent for 27 years before his death was induced to consent to such property settlement and decree by the fraud of her husband and his agents, consisting of false representations and concealment of material facts as to the nature, extent and value of the community property and plaintiff's true interest therein at such time, and because of further false promises to bequeath and on account of mistake induced by fraud of her said husband and coercion; and it is claimed that a fraud was also practiced by such decedent on this Court, and that the proceedings did not comply with Article 2624a.

It is further claimed in such suit that all or substantially all property in decedent's name at the time of such settlement and at the time of his death was community property, and that the wife received those properties awarded to her in such settlement, such were greatly less than her share at such time, and such contract was grossly unjust and disadvantageous to her, but that there was further material fraud and deceit practiced on her as to those properties which it was thought she was to receive under such settlement because of failure of title and of consideration in material part and inability to deliver and failure to deliver personal property of the kind and value which it was represented such wife should receive.

Plaintiff offers to do equity and makes a continuing tender to restore that which she has received and asserts that due to her situation, inexperience, ignorance and deception she could not sooner have discovered such fraud and brought this action. It is further claimed that since such husband's death the defendant H. B. Fuqua, acting as Independent Executor under the purported will of such husband, has come into possession of but has not distributed all of those properties which the husband wrongfully took under such settlement and decree and in which plaintiff had a continuing equitable ownership and interest, and that the other defendants are claiming to own or have some interest in such properties and estate as the respective cash legatees and residuary devisee under such purported will; and that among such properties are lands and interests in lands within the State of Texas including those described, listed and identified in such petition, including the following:

CRITICAL SHORTAGE SEEN Cotton Growers Seek Additional 1958 Acreage For Better Grade Of Lint

Unless cotton growers are permitted an immediate increase in their 1958 acreage allotments to relieve a critical shortage of the better grades of lint, the cotton industry faces a severe loss in its markets.
The need for quick action to head off what could well become a disaster is being pointed out by the National Cotton Council and other groups concerned with the future of cotton.
In recent testimony before Agriculture Committees of both Houses of Congress and in a statement to the Secretary of Agriculture, Wm. Rhea Blake, Council executive vice-president, explained that bad weather over most of the Cotton Belt in 1957 brought a shortage of good quality cotton.
"The size of the crop," he noted, "was reduced two million bales, which together with a serious deterioration in quality resulted in a three and one half million bale loss in the production of good quality cotton (grades of strict low middling or better)."

"If this critical shortage is not relieved, United States cotton faces a situation potentially more serious than that precipitated by the Korean crisis of 1950-51, which resulted in our greatest loss of markets in history. The only answer is immediate action to substantially increase cotton acreage in 1958."
Demand for higher quality cottons has been rising steadily during recent years, both at home and abroad, Mr. Blake said. A scarcity of these qualities, he declared, would mean severe losses in U. S. cotton exports and give domestic mills a great incentive for turning to cheaper synthetic substitutes.
With the letter to Congressmen was an analysis pointing out that an increase of 50 per cent over the prospective 1958 crop would be needed to meet demand and provide for a minimum carry-over of better quality cottons on August 1, 1959. However, as the analysis pointed out, "an increase of this magnitude is virtually impossible to achieve at this late date with cotton planting time so close at hand."

"From a practical standpoint, it appears that the 1958 goal should be: (1) a minimum production of 1 1/2 million bales in order to meet requirements of the 1958-59 season; and (2) such additional production as may be obtainable to begin building back stocks of quality cotton."
The Council has outlined the problem to Secretary of Agriculture, Benson, the House Agriculture Subcommittee on Cotton, on the 24th day of February, 1958.
A cashier's check or certified check, issued by a Texas Bank, payable without recourse to the order of Glen Williams, County Judge of Bailey County, Texas, in the amount of five (5%) per cent of the amount of the bid must accompany each bid as a guarantee that if awarded the contract the bidder will promptly enter into contract and execute bonds in the amount and in the form required by law.
The County will make arrangements for the contractor to dispose of the Warrants herein mentioned at not less than par and the contractor must agree to deliver the warrants at such price to the party with whom the County has made such arrangements.
Bailey County reserves the right to accept or reject any of all bids.

Lone ★ Agriculture

By JOHN C. WHITE, Commissioner

Only a few more days remain before the Texas Egg Law becomes effective.

On Monday, February 17, official enforcement of the new law is inaugurated by the Texas Department of Agriculture. After that date, Texas will no longer be the only state in the Union without legal protection for the egg industry.

The new egg law is essentially a grading and labeling act. Briefly, it requires all eggs sold within the state to be properly marked as to its grade—and the eggs must meet the specifications indicated on the carton or crate whenever inspectors from the department make one of their frequent spot-checks at any level of trade.

The end result of this new law will benefit all persons connected with the industry. The producer is given an incentive to market high quality eggs that bring a premium price. The better his eggs, the more his profit and his good quality product will not have to compete on the same levels with inferior eggs.

The housewife, too, will be relieved of the hit-or-miss methods of egg buying. No guesswork is involved when she picks her eggs at the market. The grade on the box is the grade of the egg inside and she will have a wide choice of quality and price according to her cooking needs.

The entire egg industry can expect a boost, also. For years, Texas eggmen have been plagued with false or misleading labeling methods within the trade. Various phrases were used in advertising which lead to confusion in trying to buy high quality eggs. Now the trade has a uniform system of grading on which to base their price.

In addition, egg handlers can buy and sell Texas eggs of a known quality without having to rely on out-of-state purchases for accurately graded eggs. This will help to keep Texas money in Texas.

When the legislature passed the egg law, it also set up a Texas Egg Marketing Advisory Board to aid in policy making and enforcement problems. Agriculture Commissioner John White is chairman of this board, with D. W. Reneau of Seguin, serving as vice-chairman.

Other members of the board are: T. D. Craddock, Hamilton; G. F. Siebel, Burton; Jim W. Whitaker, Paris; Jack Dubose, Gonzalez; Marvin Gilbreath, Weimar; Dewey Stringer, Houston; Tom R. Boothe, San Antonio; and Frank Ehrle, Childress.

Forage Sorghums For Ensilage On The High Plains

High Plains farmers can produce thirty tons of ensilage per acre with forage sorghums. This is shown in a variety test at the High Plains Station of Texas Research Foundation.

In a test of six varieties planted at the Station in 1957, the yields ranged from 23.5 tons to 30.5 tons of green material to the acre. Honey Drip was the highest yielding variety and produced approximately 2 tons more than Honey Sorgo, the second highest.

This test was planted June 21 at the rate of ten pounds of seed per acre. The seed were planted in four row plots 100 feet long with four sets of plots (replications) randomly placed so as to eliminate differences in soils, watering, and other factors in the field which effect yield. Thirty six pounds of nitrogen and forty five pounds of P205 were applied at planting time with seventy five pounds of nitrogen sidedressed July 18. The plots received a preplant irrigation with three subsequent waterings. A total of 15 inches of water was applied by irrigation and 17.4 inches of rain fell during the period of April 1 to October 1. This made a total of 32.4 inches of water which could have been available for plant growth.

In this test a difference of less than 1.12 tons per acre between any two varieties might be due to chance and one might produce as much as the other under field conditions. The varieties that were grown are listed with both the green weight and the air dry forage yields.

Variety	Green Wt. tons/acre	Air Dry For. tons/acre
Honey Drip	30.55	12.22
Honey Sorgo	28.79	11.52
Tracy Sorgo	26.80	10.72
Sugar Drip	24.12	9.65
Sart	23.76	9.50

Soil Conservation District Issues Annual Report Book

The problems and accomplishments of the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation District, with headquarters in Muleshoe, are reported in detail in an illustrated annual report booklet released this week by work unit conservationist Dale Fishgrabe.

The district comprises all of Bailey County with 532,480 acres, of which 521,831 acres are in agricultural use. There are some 1500 operators in the district, with 1027 being District cooperators.

Members of the board of supervisors of the district are Sherman Inman, chairman; Dan Darsey, secretary-treasurer; E. N. McCall; W. H. Eubanks and Virgil Nowell.

Among practices carried out during the year were 10,969 acres of cover crops, 5165 acres of soil improving crops, 5481 acres of rotation hay and pasture planted, ten miles of terracing, ten acres of waterways, 9000 acres sprinkler irrigation, 230 acres land leveling, 2475 acres planted to pasture, plus windbreaks, range management practices, deferred grazing and crop residue utilization.

Among activities of the district during 1957, were the annual fall tour, land judging contest, special edition on conservation in The Journal, erecting boundary signs for the district, weekly news columns and feature stories in The Journal, award to outstanding cooperator Carl Bamert, award to outstanding supervisor Sherman Inman, and work with the Great Plains Program.

Authorities on use of chemicals in West Texas farming operations will meet at Texas Tech February 25-27.

Planned primarily for agricultural chemical dealers, distributors, processors and manufacturers, the meetings are open to anyone interested in these chemicals, their distribution and use.

Sponsoring the fifth annual agricultural conference are Texas Tech, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce and the A&M College System of Texas. The fee is $2.

Support Of Cotton In 1958 Is Set At 81 Per Cent Parity

The U. S. Department of Agriculture last week announced it will support grower prices of 1958 crop cotton at an average of about 81 percent of parity.

This means the price for middling 7/8 inch grade will be 30.75 cents a pound. This compares with 28.81 cents for the 1957 crop which was supported at 78 percent of parity.

Better grades will be supported at premiums and poorer ones at discounts from the base grade. The schedule of premiums and discounts will be announced later.

W. O. Fortenberry, president of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., explained that the USDA after announcing this support of the 1958 crop at 81 per cent, has the privilege of raising the per cent of support later this year, probably this summer, if the cotton situation at that time indicates a need for a higher support price, however, the USDA cannot lower the support percentage from the announced 81 per cent.

A possible alternative for cotton producers this year may be offered if a proposed cotton bill, introduced by Senator James Eastland, (D-Miss.) is adopted and passed by Congress. Senator Eastland's bill calls for a referendum to the cotton farmer whereby he would be offered increases in acreage of approximately 25 per cent to be supported at 75 per cent of parity.

Few cotton observers feel this bill can be passed in time to be effective on the 1958 crop, since planting is already underway in the Rio Grande Valley.

High Plains Station Reports Results Of Fertilizer Tests On Sorghum Grain

An application of 120 pounds of nitrogen per acre produced the greatest increase in yield of grain sorghum on Pullman clay loam in 1957 at the High Plains Station of Texas Research Foundation at Halfway. This application also gave the greatest net return per acre over fertilizer cost.

In this experiment with different rates and ratios of nitrogen and phosphate (P205) both nutrients were applied at the rate of 40, 80, and 120 pounds per acre alone and in all possible combinations.

The phosphate was applied as raw phosphoric acid in bands 20 inches apart on each side of the beds at a depth of five inches just before planting. Four-row plots 100 feet long with each treatment replicated four times were used. Texas 610 hybrid was planted at the rate of six pounds per acre in 40-inch rows on June 19, 1957. The nitrogen was applied as anhydrous ammonia in bands 20 inches apart when the grain sorghum was from one to two inches high.

The soil was irrigated prior to planting in addition to three waterings during the growing period. A total of 32.4 inches of moisture was available from the time the preplant irrigation was made in April to the end of the growing period on October 1. Of this total 15 inches were applied through irrigation with 17.4 inches of rainfall.

The two interior rows of each plot were harvested on November 15 to determine yield. The yield data reported are the average of four replications.

Yield data for one year are not adequate to use as a basis for making fertilizer recommendations but these results indicate that nitrogen alone at the rate of 120 pounds per acre will give the greatest yield increase and net return per acre of any of the tested thus far.

Bailey County Ginning 70,266 Bales For January 1958, Compares To 72,867 In '57

The U. S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, recently announced ginnings of the 1957 crop prior to January 16, 1958. Ginnings on that date of 23 counties totaled 1,534,094 bales.

This compares to approximately 1,650,000 bales harvested on that date a year earlier.

Significant are the noticeable decreases from a year ago in Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Floyd, Hale, Lamb, Lubbock, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum counties. Biggest increases are in Dawson, Garza and Lynn counties, all southern counties with only one-third of the cotton acreage irrigated, as compared with 75 to 90 percent irrigated in the central and northern sections.

Also noticeable is the fact that even in a poor year such as 1957, the 23 counties produced more cotton than the entire states of California with 1,527,144 bales; Mississippi with 1,032,485 bales; Arkansas with 920,179; Arizona with 718,854; Alabama with 526,182; Louisiana with 342,982; and Oklahoma with 256,100 bales.

Texas had ginned 3,510,304 bales as of January 16. The 23 Plains counties harvested 42 percent of the Texas crop in 1957.

Bailey county had 70,266 bales ginned to January 16, 1958, as compared to 72,867 bales for the same date in 1957.

Comparable figures for 1958 and 1957 in the following counties are: Castro, 39,734 and 54,404; Hale, 137,793 and 199,574; Lamb, 139,925 and 172,222; Packer, 49,623 and 58,505.

Outlook For Beef Cattle For 1958

Prices of cattle should rise some further in 1958, according to John McHaney, extension economist. However, he adds that prices after 1958 will depend to a great extent on the general level of business activity.

The inventory of cattle and calves on January 1, 1957, showed a decrease in number for the first time since 1949, says McHaney. There was a further reduction in 1957 and on January 1, 1958, numbers were probably down to about two million head from the 95.2 million head on January 1, 1957.

Less cows will probably be slaughtered in 1958, says the economist. Cattle producers did not withhold many cows from slaughter until the last part of 1957, but more are likely to be withheld in 1958. However, this may not reverse the cattle cycle in 1958, because last year's reduction will mean a smaller 1958 calf crop. But it will reduce total cattle slaughter and total beef output in 1958.

Ranges and pastures over much of Texas have a good growth of winter grass and weeds. This feed, plus small grains, stubble hay reserves should carry stock through the winter in good condition, points out McHaney. All range feed in the state was reported at 80 percent condition on January 1, 1958. This compares with 51 per cent on January 1, 1957, and 69 per cent for the ten-year average to this date. The improved range conditions have created a good demand for range cattle which should continue in 1958 assuming favorable moisture conditions.

McHaney says that little change is likely in the total meat output in 1958. There will probably be a reduction in the slaughter of cattle and calves, but there will likely be an increase in the slaughter of hogs. Heavy carcass weights for cattle will also help maintain the output. Lower pork prices during the latter part of 1958 will certainly make pork more competitive with beef.

Parmer County Farm Bureau News

by Raymond Euler

Jack Patterson, vice-president and membership chairman has more people buzzing around getting ready for a county-wide canvass for Farm Bureau members than we have seen in quite a while. Unless we miss our guess membership will exceed six hundred by victory meeting time, March 3.

President Kaltwasser and all the other officers and directors are giving full assistance where and whenever they can. The kick-off banquet, which is reserved for invited workers and guests, will be held in the Farwell school cafeteria on February 24. The following Monday night will find the workers gathering in the Priona school cafeteria for their victory reporting meeting. These meetings are two of the most interesting and lively meetings of the year held in the interest of agricultural people.

Everyone who has spent time in studying and working for improved agricultural situations knows that there is no single, simple solution to the problem. They also know there is no permanent solution to the problem, just as there is no permanent solution to other problems of great magnitude in America or the world. America has stood, and will continue to stand as a bulwark to freedom so long as she continues to produce men and women who are willing to face the facts and give themselves for a better America. From there, as in the past better conditions can be made possible for other parts of the world.

There is no possibility of a successful compromise with "One World" government ideas unless we are willing to drag the better governments and their peoples to the levels of the poorest. We don't believe anyone who has enjoyed American Citizenship is willing for this to happen. It is much better to be in a position to give assistance, rather than having to ask for it, especially if there should be no nation able to give such aid.

CONSIDER THIS: For three things the earth is disquieted, and four which it cannot bear: For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat. Proverbs 30:21-22.
