Funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Church in O'Donnell at 2:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon by Rev. R. F. Pepper, a Baptist Minister residing at Turkey, assisted by Rev. H. H. Hollowell, pastor of the O'Donnell Methodist Church. The body was buried in the Tahoka cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, three sons, two daughters, nine grandchildren, four brothers, and a number of other relatives.

The sons and daughters are: Mrs. Glenn P. Lee of Marlow, Okla.; W. E. Singleton and Hal Singleton Jr. of O'Donnell; Mrs. C. N. Hoffman of O'Donnell; and Sam Singleton of Fresno, California. All of these were present for the funeral service.

Singleton of Denver City, a brother-in-law.

Mr. Singleton had spent much of his life in public service. Born in Hannibal, Mo., on September 17th, 1868, he came with his father's family to Marshall, Harrison County, Texas, when he was a lad about eight years old. There and in that vicinity he grew up, and after reaching maturity he served as deputy U. S. Marshal and then as deputy U. S. Marshal and then as deputy U. S. Marshal and then as deputy U. S. Marshal.

Mrs. D. Sanders' Mother Dies

Mrs. J. H. McCain, 67, mother of Mrs. D. Sanders of this city, died at Sweetwater last Friday morning after a prolonged illness. Mrs. Sanders had gone down to be with her mother the week before and was present when death came.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:00 p. m. Saturday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. T. L. Carter, at Roby. The body was buried at Sweetwater beside her husband, who died six years ago.

D. Sanders and two daughters, Mrs. Garland Cabe and Miss Inez Sanders, attended the funeral services.

Mrs. McCain had visited here the first Sunday following Christmas and became ill while here. She returned to her home and had been ill since.

Mrs. McCain had resided in the vicinity of Roby and Sweetwater since 1907. She was a fine Christian character, and many friends mourn her passing.

Grassland Lady Suffers Bad Fracture

Mrs. J. H. Tate of Grassland, 69, fell and broke her hip Wednesday morning as she was arising from her bed. Her clothing caught in some way on the bed, causing her to fall, resulting in a compound fracture of the left hip.

W. O. Robertson took her to the Lubbock General Hospital in a Harris ambulance, where she is receiving treatment. It will be a long time, it is said, before she will be able to walk again.

Mrs. Tate had been a resident of this section for many years, and her numerous friends greatly deplore this most serious accident.

GIVE THE BOYS A BOOK

Practically every family in Lynn County has a boy in the armed forces. Another part of America is giving a book for your boy. Won't you give one? Will you help? If our boys fight surely we can furnish books for them. There are boxes in the different stores. — Mrs. G. M. Stewart.

Anzac Defenders

MANNING AN OLD-FASHIONED Lewis anti-aircraft machine gun, three Australian soldiers search the sky over tropical, heavily-bombed Fort Darwin, in Northern Australia. Port Darwin, only 400 miles south of the embattled Netherlands East Indies, is the last Southwest Pacific naval base which can be used by the United Nations for an offensive action against Japan. It is strongly held by Anzac troops and militia, but the Australians need reinforcements and a steady supply of new, up-to-date equipment to defend the port effectively against the expected Japanese onslaught.

School Man Is Rotary Speaker

Deputy State Superintendent E. H. Boulter of Lubbock was the principal speaker at the Rotary luncheon Thursday, Superintendent W. T. Hanes having charge of the program.

The first number on the program, however, was a series of songs rendered by thirty-two pupils of the fifth and sixth grades of the Tahoka public schools, under the direction of Miss Georgia Taylor, a teacher, who presided at the piano. The children sang "Home, Sweet Home"; "America the Beautiful"; and "The Star Spangled Banner." Their singing was unusually fine and showed careful training.

Mr. Boulter declared that the public school is our first line of defense. This is no time to let down in our school work, he asserted. "The school teacher today has the richest opportunity in history to serve his country," he said. "We must re-create the spirit of democracy in the heart of every child to keep democracy alive." He expressed gratification that the spirit of democracy was being inculcated in the minds of the children and that they give evidence of being 100 per cent Americans.

County Teachers In Meeting Here

Teachers of the county met at the grade school auditorium and gymnasium last night to elect delegates to the West Texas Teachers Conference to be held in Lubbock on March 20-21.

They had planned to have a big fish fry and a jolly good time at the Thursday night meet, but it was impossible for the News to get any report on the meeting before going to press.

Sanders Gets Hand Mangled In Combine

While Marvin Sanders, who resides on the Marvin Hinkle place east of town, was operating a combine in the field of Belton Howell last Friday, he got his left hand caught in the machine and badly mangled. He was given first aid treatment by Mrs. Hinkle.

He was rushed to St. Mary's Hospital in Lubbock in a Harris ambulance, where surgeons amputated the mangled member, leaving the thumb, however.

It was expected that he would be brought home one day this week and is reported to be doing as well as could be expected.

D. W. Gagnat has been suffering this week from a severe attack of the "flu." His fever has been running rather high, it is said.

New East-West Bus Service Will Afford Better Service For Travelers

L. H. Wheeler of Fort Worth has established a new bus service over highway No. 380 extending east and west through Lynn County.

Operation of the line was begun Monday morning, running from Post to Roswell, through Tahoka, Brownfield, Plains, and Tatum.

Connections are made with other lines at Post Brownfield, and Roswell, affording a short route from Fort Worth through Abilene, Sweetwater, Post, Tahoka, Brownfield and Roswell to Albuquerque and Santa Fe or to the Pacific Coast.

The bus arrives in Tahoka from Post at 7:37 a. m. and from Brownfield at 6:28 p. m.

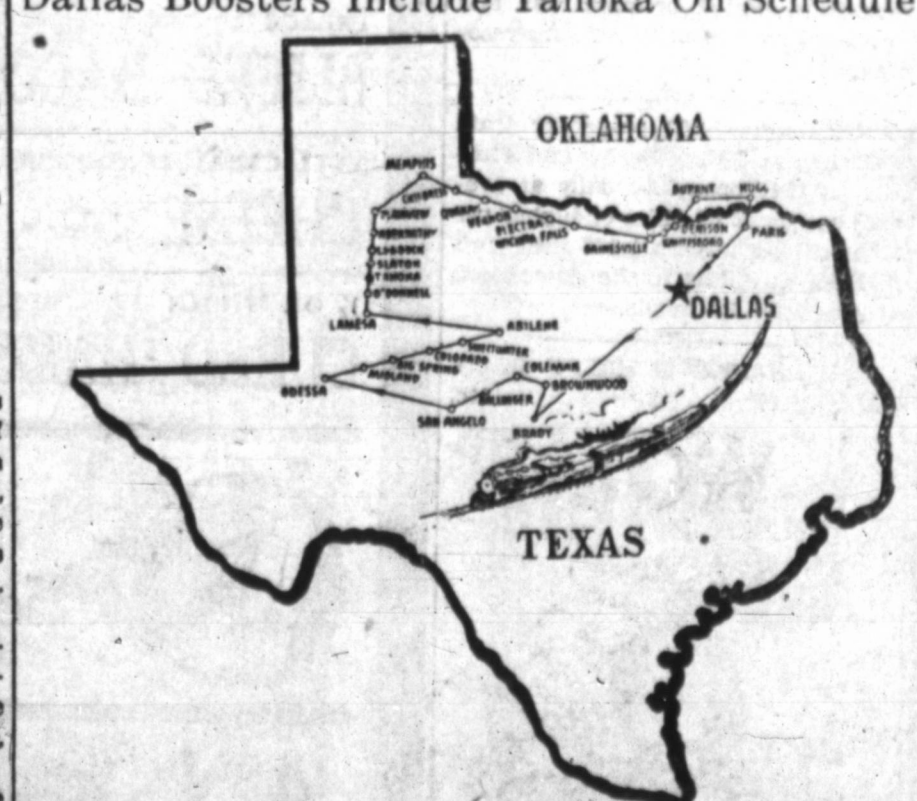

Basinger Out Of Commissioner's Race

T. H. (Haywood) Basinger has instructed the News to announce his withdrawal from the race for county commissioner in and for precinct No. 1, and to drop his name from the list of candidates carried in the News.

Mr. Basinger states that he has purchased the wholesale agency for the Phillips Petroleum Company at Southland and will be compelled to devote most of his time to that business. "I believe that the office of commissioner of Lynn County has become so important as to demand most of a man's time and I can't attend to both jobs," Mr. Basinger stated. "I certainly do appreciate the offers of support given to me and the serious consideration others promised. I thank you all."

Terry Noble Director Ginners Association

At the meeting of the Texas Co-operative Ginners Association in Dallas on Thursday and Friday of last week, Terry Noble of this county was elected one of the directors. He is secretary of the Farmers Co-operative Gin here.

Terry and Mrs. Noble attended the convention.

Baptist Revival Closed Sunday

The ten-days revival at the Baptist Church came to a close Sunday night, with a baptismal service in which five converts were baptized. Rev. Clyde Jackson, who did the preaching throughout the meeting, administered the ordinance of baptism in the absence of Pastor George A. Dale, who was ill.

Seven candidates were baptized, five of whom united with the church here and two with the church at Wells. Rev. Frasier, pastor of the Wells church, and a number of the members there were present for the service.

Only fair-sized congregations were in attendance during the revival with the exception of last Sunday, when the house was well filled at each service.

In addition to those who were baptized, a number joined the church by letter and a few back-sliders were reclaimed.

New Contracts For Entire School Force

Cecil Johnson Injured In Pearl Harbor Attack

Mrs. D. Sanders received a letter a few days ago from Mrs. Ollie Johnson, now of Sacramento, Calif., stating that her son, Cecil Johnson, lost his right eye in the attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, and that he was then on his way to Billings, Montana, to enter the transfer business. It was not stated in just what capacity he was employed.

The Johnsons lived for years in Tahoka, and Cecil was reared here. Mrs. Johnson and the boys moved to California a few years ago.

Rev. Geo. Dale Has Heart Attack

Reports from the bedside of Rev. George A. Dale Thursday were to the effect that his condition was decidedly improved. He has been seriously ill since he suffered an attack of heart trouble at the Baptist Church, of which he is pastor, during a service of the revival meeting in progress there, between ten and eleven o'clock last Friday morning.

During the service, which was being held in a Sunday School assembly room back of the main auditorium, he arose and walked back into his study, but members of the congregation did not know that he was ill. When the service, which was being conducted by Rev. Clyde Jackson of Abilene, came to a close, most of the members left the church for their homes, still unaware that their pastor was ill. But finally, the music director, Melvin Rathel, walked back into the study and found the pastor in great pain.

He supported him physically while others called a physician. When the physician arrived he gave him immediate first aid treatment and then an ambulance was called. He was taken to his home in a precarious condition, and for more than twenty-four hours it was generally believed that he had practically no chance whatever to recover.

Saturday afternoon the children were called, and they came immediately.

A. I. Thomas Breaks A Rib

A. I. Thomas was able to do a day's work Wednesday and is still up and about in spite of the fact that on Thursday of last week he fell from some framework in the rear end of his reconstructed building on Sweet Street now occupied by the Conoco Service Station, and broke a rib. You can't kill an old warhorse like A. I. but he says the doctors taped him up so tight he can hardly breathe.

Registrants Take Physical Exams

Thirty-one Lynn County registrants were taken to Lubbock Tuesday to take the physical examination there preliminary to their being called to serve in the armed forces of the United States.

Mrs. McMahon, secretary of the county board, declares that this is the best percentage of those called that has been noted yet.

Kenneth Reid Now In Ogden, Utah

Kenneth Reid left Monday for Ogden, Utah, where he will serve as a radio technician at the Ogden Signal Depot. Mrs. Reid and the baby expect to join him there in about a month.

Kenneth has become quite an expert in this line. He began studying the science of radio transmission as a mere boy and he has kept it up until he has gained recognition as an expert throughout this entire section of the country.

Bonds From Old Issue Retired

At a regular meeting of the school board Tuesday night, the entire personnel of the Tahoka public schools were re-elected by unanimous vote, according to a report made by Supt. W. T. Hanes. Mr. Hanes himself was given a three years' contract some time ago, and A. L. Pace was elected high school principal at the meeting of the board a month ago. Carl Griffing was also re-elected secretary of the board of trustees at that time.

Those elected Tuesday night included also janitors and the teacher for the colored school. Bus drivers are to be elected at a later date.

Hope Haynes was officially made high school principal for another year.

The board also took action to retire another thousand-dollar bond on the old Central Ward building, leaving only a thousand dollars of that issue outstanding.

The faculty for the ensuing year as it now stands is as follows:

Superintendent of Schools, W. T. Hanes; Principal of High School, H. E. Haynes; English and Speech, Miss Willie Pearl Dockray; English and Librarian, Miss Ineva Headrick; Social Studies, W. T. Hanes; Vocational Home Making, Miss Lucille Wright; Vocational Agriculture, Leslie Browning; Coach of Athletics, Leo Jackson; Mathematics, B. T. Jaquess and Harold Snowden.

Tahoka Teachers Hear Truett Smith

Tahoka Teachers Association met Monday, March 9, at 6:30 in the high school building. The principal speaker was Truett Smith, who spoke on "America Today and in the Post-War Period."

In his speech, he brought out strikes, our relationship and our responsibility toward them. He stated, "Our administration believes it is better to have a contented rather than a forced worker, thus the continued efforts being made to stop strikes by peaceful methods. All of us in civilian life are going to have to contribute a great deal, the least of it being the purchasing of defense bonds and stamps."

"When we win this war we will still have a big job left. We will have to feed the world, thus the main burden of the world will rest on our shoulders, yours and mine."

Mr. W. T. Hanes closed the program with the thought that the teachers have the largest job they have ever had in fighting for the free public school system. "They are on front line defense," he stated.

Mr. Jackson, football coach, gave a short talk on "What the High School Is Doing Toward National Defense." Mr. Bostick, grade school teacher, gave a report on the grade school and National Defense.

VISITING SCHOOLS HERE

Deputy State Superintendent E. H. Boulton of Lubbock and County Superintendent Lenore M. Tunnell are visiting the schools of Lynn County this week, checking up on classification and affiliation credits.

Serial Numbers For New Registrants

At a meeting of the County Draft Board Monday, the names of Lynn County registrants were drawn and given serial numbers.

There had been about 794 registrations in the county, but a little more than a hundred of these were transferred to other counties. At the same time about thirty registrants had been transferred from other places into Lynn County. Many of the transfers from this county went to Dawson County, many persons living in Dawson County in the vicinity of O'Donnell having registered at that place. The number given serial numbers here Monday was 720, according to Mrs. McMahon.

Registrants should bear in mind, however, that the order numbers will be given out from Washington later and will be quite different from the serial numbers.

REGISTRANTS LEAVE

Most of the twenty-four registrants named last week as scheduled to leave for army training on Thursday of this week, were here according to schedule and left on a bus for the camps.

One or two of the number had joined the navy and had already gone.

A fine lot of young men they were, 100 per cent Americans, and they will doubtless make some of the best soldiers in the world, just like many other Texans who have gone on before them.

Mrs. Max Dodson returned Monday from Mineral Wells, where she had gone on Friday to visit her husband, Max Dodson, who is in training at Camp Wolters. Max is a brother of Lee, who was principal of the high school here until he went into the armed forces as a teacher of mathematics at an aviation school in Illinois.

Mrs. Janie Minor, proprietor of Jane's Beauty Shop, who has been seriously ill several weeks, is said to be much improved now and able to be up part of the time.

AUSTIN, March 12—Urgent need for strategic war minerals has resulted in certification by the U. S. War Department of a $220,579 grant from the WPA for a statewide survey of vital mineral resources in Texas, to be sponsored by the University of Texas Bureau of Economic Geology.

Minerals to be sought include manganese, barite, iron ores, tin, celestite, fluorite, high alumina clays, graphite, tungsten ores, lead and zinc ores, titanium ores, dolomite for magnesium, and mercury ores. The survey will be conducted by counties, about eight or twelve county units operating simultaneously, using an average of 12 WPA workers for each.

Texas Asked To Increase Castor Bean Production

COLLEGE STATION, March 3 — Twenty-four Texas counties are being asked to plant 3,000 acres of castor beans this year, according to B. F. Vance, administrative officer in charge of the AAA in Texas.

Primary motive of increased acreage is to produce sufficient seed for planting in 1943 if further decreases in imports are experienced, Vance said. Shipment of tung oil and perilla from the Far East have been cut off by war with Japan, but a sufficient supply of castor beans is being imported from Brazil to take care of present needs, he added.

"It's just another precaution we're taking in plenty of time to ward off any probable shortage," he explained.

Under the plan, AAA will furnish seed free provided one per cent of the crop is returned this fall. Farmers must also agree to carry out approved cultural practices, provide proper storage facilities, and deliver castor beans to designated places or the thrasher.

Commodity Credit Corporation will purchase castor beans in the hull with prices contingent upon shelling percentage. Prices will range from $4.29 per 100 pounds for beans shelling 75 per cent, to $3.71 per 100

West Texas Buffaloes Return To Madison Square Garden

CANYON, March 12 — The banner of the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference will be planted at Madison Square Garden March 17 by the Buffaloes of West Texas State, champions of the far-flung circuit of the cactus country.

West Texas State's decision to accept the invitation to the metropolitan tournament was made along with consideration of bids from nearly every other cage meet in the country. The colorful Border Conference champs, averaging 6 feet 6 inches in height, have the unique ability to attract more fans than any gymnasium will accommodate. In their ten-gallon hats and cowboy boots, which they include in their traveling regalia, the plains giants make up a startling picture in any setting.

While the Tall Texans were tempted by all the tournament invitations, their desire to return to Madison Square Garden was a natural one. They lost a game there to Long Island University on January 28 in an overtime period, 56-58 — one of the two contests dropped this season. But having played in the Garden, the Buffaloes believe their next engagement there will be minus the nervousness any team is likely to feel in a first-time appearance.

That is not to say, however, that the giant cowboys are afraid of big-town environments. They are one of the nation's more traveled outfits. They opened the season at Chihuahua, Mexico, then won the Oklahoma City invitation tournament before making road trips into the Middle West and the East. Their only other loss in 30 games was a 49-52 game with Bradley Tech at Peoria, Ill.

We don't know a thing about how to wage war. We are not qualified to offer advice to anybody on that subject. But we have noticed that Japan and Germany have won their victories so far largely through the use of aircraft and submarines. With their swarms of bombers, the Japs wrought havoc at Pearl Harbor and sunk two big British battleships near Singapore, the Repulse and the Prince of Wales, to the great consternation of America and Great Britain. With her swarms of big bombers, Japan has riddled and conquered Java and Burma. Principally with her aircraft, Germany last summer conquered Greece and then Crete out in the Mediterranean. We don't know a thing about how to wage war, but we do hope that we will find out some of these days that the United States has built an enormous number of fighting planes of the most effective types and a fleet of submarines to swarm through every sea. We must gain ascendancy in the air and on the water, it seems to us, before we can stop the onward march of our enemies.

To all outward appearances, the War in the Pacific is still going against us. The Dutch East Indies have fallen into the hands of the Japs. The Japanese forces continue to push a little closer day by day toward Australia. On the continent of Asia, too, the Japs are marching on. This week Burma has fallen almost completely into their hands, and it is anticipated that the Japs intend to push on into India proper. The only bright spot, on the surface, is the successful stand that MacArthur continues to make in the Philippines, although a drive by overwhelming Japanese forces seems imminent there. So, on the surface, the outlook is gloomy. But evidently much is being done under the surface which has not yet come to light. The United States obviously is preparing to launch soon a great offensive. Nobody but the leaders know where she will strike. Nobody knows just how hard she will be able to strike. But as for us, we believe that when she does strike Japan will know she has been hit.

There is still talk in Austin of the probability of both Dan Moody and Jimmie Allred entering the race for the U. S. Senate against W. Lee O'Daniel. Some think this is a bad year for a man on the outside to try to break inside; but we don't know. Yes, and we were about to forget: The State Observer, a political sheet published down Austin way, says that Hal Collins of Mineral Wells is listening intently to the buzzing of the political bee that has gotten into his bonnet; and it even publishes Hal's mug on the front page as that of a probable candidate. Hal is a former "all-out" supporter of "Pappy," but he now imagines that he might be able to unhorse his former chief. He has a radio station himself, that is, he and his brother, Carr Collins have. Strange things happen in politics; and so there may be a warm race for the Senate seat this year yet.

An Associated Press report from Bern, Switzerland, was published in the daily papers Monday, stating that official Berlin circles acknowledge total losses of 1,500,000 German soldiers in the Russian campaign. This includes the number killed, wounded and missing since the campaign started last June 22. That's a lot of dead and crippled Nazis. But they raise 'em and train 'em in a hurry in Germany. It is claimed that Hitler's reorganized army with which to start his Spring offensive against Russia will still amount to 5,000,000 men. We saw an estimate the other day that Japan also has 5,000,000 soldiers in the field. All of which means that we have a job ahead of us, folks. Don't imagine that we can just fool around and win this war.

It has been stated that official government figures indicate that the American people are spending ten million dollars a day, or more than $3,650,000,000 a year, for liquor. Some statements are that the total bill runs to six billion dollars a year. But taking the lower figures the amount is appalling. If our biggest battleships cost fifty million dollars each, this sum would build seventy-three of them each year. We should not complain at the expense of financing this war as long as we are willing to virtually burn up, without any profit to us, the equivalent of seventy-three big battleships each year.

When a Jap gets licked he commits hara-kiri, a form of suicide by which he disembowels himself. There have been persistent reports that General Homma, because he had failed to conquer MacArthur in the Philippines, recently committed hara-kiri. At any rate, the Japs have sent the best general they have, General Yamashita, to get MacArthur's scalp. Here's hoping that our general retains his scalp, and that Yamashita feels impelled to follow the example of his predecessor. In fact, we would not object if half the Japanese army would use their knives upon their own paunches.

Thanks! Mr. Mahon

The editor of the News is indebted to Congressman George Mahon for a copy of the Yearbook of Agriculture for 1941 issued by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The volume, containing 1228 pages plus an index is filled with valuable statistics, tables and maps besides a wealth of other information and a discussion of the subject, "Climate and Man," which is given as the title of the book.

It is a valuable public document. I know that if I were a Frenchman or a Dutchman and I looked across the channel and saw that the British were still eating pretty well, eating good American food, while I was looking on cat meat as somewhat of a delicacy, I'd be inclined to rise up and try to get in on some of that American food. — Secretary of Agriculture Wickard.

Legion Post Adopts Ringing Resolution

At a meeting of the Marion G. Bradley Post of the American Legion on February 24, the body adopted ringing resolutions, following an address by Hon. Tom Garrard, petitioning Congress to take drastic action to prevent strikes in war industries. A copy of these resolutions was sent to Congressman George Mahon, and Mr. Mahon very courteously acknowledged receipt thereof and expressed himself as heartily in favor of such action. In fact, he stated that the House of Representatives had passed a bill dealing with the matter on December 3, and that it had been sent to the Senate, but that the Senate had taken no action.

In a belated report of the meeting given to the News, it is stated that a number of other talks followed the address made by Mr. Garrard, with the result that a committee was appointed to draw up a set of resolutions covering the matter. This committee consisted of Happy Smith, C. C. Coffey and A. D. Schaffner, and it was assisted by Judge Garrard in drawing the resolutions.

After calling attention to the fact that a ruthless and unprovoked war is being made upon the United States by a country that had been preparing for such a war for years; that the enemy is now at our very gates; and that it will require "all of our resources and all of our energy upon a full-time basis to properly defend ourselves and win the war," the resolution proceeds as follows:

"Whereas, organized labor to a large extent has engaged in various strikes and has refused to work on holidays and other days, except for time and a-half, or double time, and

"Whereas, we think such action is vital to the defense of the nation in this hour of emergency:

"Therefore, Be It Resolved by the Marion G. Bradley Post of the American Legion of Tahoka, Texas, that we respectfully petition our representatives in Congress and the Senate of the United States that drastic action be taken at once to prevent strikes and walkouts, and a slowing up of the work on Defense jobs, and, if need be, a conscription of labor, as well as capital, to the end that labor, as well as capital, be required to work and put in as much time and energy as the soldiers in the camp and on the battlefield are required to work."

Responding to the Resolution, Mr. Mahon stated in part: "I believe ninety-nine per cent of the people of Texas, if they had an opportunity, would vote to concur in the resolution."

Your resolutions also reflected the attitude of Southern Democrats in Congress: "It is discouraging to find that about the only large block of people who feel as you and I do about the matter are the people of the South. Over the opposition of Members of Congress from the industrial districts we passed on December 3rd the so-called Smith bill which would have been wonderfully helpful. The bill was referred to the Senate on December 3rd, but nothing has been done about it in the Senate."

Expressing himself as strongly opposed to the "forty-hour week" for workers while "men are fighting and dying for their country" and "when the destiny of this Republic is in the balance," and declaring "it makes my blood boil to contemplate the actions of those who are engaging in strikes and stoppage of our program," Mr. Mahon further expressed the hope that President Roosevelt would make a public statement in the near future "to the effect that he is favorable toward legislation to prevent strikes in defense industries and that he favors a suspension of the so-called forty-hour week in order that war production may be speeded up for our fighting forces who confront the enemy twenty-four hours a day."

But, continuing, he stated that "Cabinet officers who have to do with the war program and numerous Senators and Representatives from industrial areas have opposed legislation by Congress designed to meet the situation."

What Democracy Means To Me

We present to our readers this week the essay of Miss Johnnie Margaret Price, sophomore in the Tahoka High School, who won first place in her class in the contest recently sponsored by a Rotary Club committee headed by Harley Henderson.

What Democracy Means To Me
When I think of what the tyrants are doing to the democratic countries in Europe today, it makes my blood boil. To think of democracy being wiped off the earth is an awfully dark picture. Of course, I know the war is not ended yet, and there are still democracies left, but so far the outlook of the war has not determined whether the democracies or the dictators will win.
Hitler and Mussolini are doing all they can to destroy the democratic countries and set themselves up as dictators to rule the world. Although Hitler says he will not invade this great land of ours, we cannot believe him, because he said in 1938 that he would not enter Czechoslovakia, but you know that he did and that he also invaded Poland and other small countries.

Boy Scout Council Buys Defense Bonds

Boy Scouts of the South Plains Council will have a part to play in buying Defense Bonds, it was announced today by John M. Randal, council treasurer. $4000 in bonds will be purchased by the Council this week in 19 counties, Randal said.
The money is derived from a special "Stabilization Fund" set aside in the First Federal Savings and Loan Bank for use in future emergency, Randal said. The Executive Board and Council voted in February to purchase the bonds.
Each of the 19 counties of the council (there are 20 counties but Borden does not have Scouting) will share in the purchase. Bonds will be purchased according to the manner in which they contribute through communities to the council's $18,600 budget in 1942. Lubbock County gets $1500 of the $4000, which includes Slaton. Hale County will receive credit for a $400 bond, Lamb $300 and Terry and Dawson $200 while others will receive credit for $100 bonds. These are: Castro, Swisher, Briscoe, Lynn, Garza, Hockley, Motley, Cochran, Yoakum, Gaines, Dickens, Crosby, Floyd, and Bailey.

George Knight went down to Roton Sunday and brought back to Tahoka his wife and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Gray, the latter having been seriously ill the past three or four weeks. Mrs. Knight has been at her bedside. The aged lady has shown marked improvement in spite of the severity of the attack and of her advanced years.

Bascomb McCord has been laid up in bed this week with an infected jaw, the infection developing after he had a tooth extracted.

Democracy means a great deal more to me, since this war has come closer to America, than it ever has before in my short lifetime. I think that during this crisis the American people should realize what true democracy means, and also how fortunate we are to be in a democratic country that has not been touched by the war so far, and not in Germany, Italy, England, or any other war-torn country in Europe. I also think that any person no matter what country he comes from who would talk about the United States government should be shipped back to the country of a dictatorship ruling so that they might realize the true meaning of democracy and see what kind of government they had been praising. Anyone, I don't care who they might be, should be punished if they take advantage of our government and talk about it.

Americans should wake up and prepare for the crisis that may come. I think that strikes should not be allowed, because the people working in the factories where the strikes occur are making much more money than the men in our training camps, and yet the men and boys of America are willing to make sacrifices to enlist in the U. S. Army, U. S. Navy, Air Corps and Marines to protect the great democracy that we have here in America.

To me democracy means a land where we have freedom of speech, freedom of press, and freedom of worship; a land where we have government of the people, by the people, and for the people; a land where we can have our say in the government. It also means a right to live our own lives, without having a dictator to live it for us. By that I mean that in Germany, Hitler tells the people every move they may make. Here in America, we can do as we please as long as we let other people's freedom alone.

Now that Japan has declared war on us, we should unite and defend our democracy. Not only should we unite but we must. We must save our democratic country. I believe that Germany is back of this and will try to get our Army and Navy in the Pacific and will then attack us from the east if they can whip England and Russia. America! Let's wake up and defend our great Democracy!

Getting Your Money's Worth
With food prices soaring from week to week Lynn County people who can't produce and conserve most of their food at home need more than ever to get full value for their money when they buy canned foods.
Miss Maurine McNatt, C. H. D. A., thinks that whether the consumer's pocketbook is plump or lean, it pays to buy canned foods wisely.

Since there are thousands of brands available in retail stores neither the homemaker nor the retailer can be sure of the quality each brand is supposed to represent. That's where the Department of Agricultural Marketing Service has come to the rescue.

Regardless of the brand name, the quality classes for canned fruits and vegetables established by the Department of Agriculture provide a reliable means of identifying quality. Only products packed in plants under the "continuous inspection" of the Agricultural Marketing Service can be labeled as a "U. S. grade."

Here are the four grades, guideposts to consumers:
Grade A—(Fancy)—the finest canned fruits and vegetables are in this grade. They are carefully selected as to size, color, degree of maturity and freedom from blemishes.

Grade B—(Choice)—products in grade B are of excellent quality but not so carefully selected or so tender and succulent as those in grade A.

Grade C—(Standard)—products in grade C are of good quality but not uniform in color, size and maturity as B.

Below Grade C—Some canned fruits and vegetables which fail to meet the requirements of Grade C in certain respects may be wholesome, nutritious and acceptable in flavor. If labeled to meet regulations under the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act they may be wholesome, nutritious and acceptable in flavor. If labeled to meet the regulations under the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act they may be sold on the retail market.

Vitamin Loss May Be Prevented By Proper Cooking

Vitamin values and minerals lost in cooking foods may be avoided according to Miss McNatt, who lists here 12 rules formulated by the Bureau of Home Economics for preventing these:

1. Don't stir air into foods while cooking.
2. Don't put them through a sieve while still hot.
3. Don't use soda in cooking green vegetables.
4. In boiling foods, raise the temperature to the boiling point as

MRS. HENSLEY-HOSTESS TO DRAW H. D. CLUB

The Draw H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. Graham Hensley last Friday, March 6, at 2:30 p. m. with the H. D. agent present.

Miss McNatt said, "Look for a good grade of material, also the line and design in shoes. Simplicity in selecting shoes means a smartly dressed person. Choose hose with a good color and sheerness to suit the occasion."

The club decided to set aside the second Thursday in each month for Red Cross work. We will work in the Draw Methodist Church, so come and bring a covered dish and do all you can for a good cause.

Members present were: Meses. Sewell, McKay, Ragan, Lutrell, Martin, Jones Young, A. R. Hensley, Ruth Martin, and a visitor, Mrs. Pace.

Old-Time Citizen Visiting Tahoka

M. M. Skinner of Waco came out to Tahoka Wednesday to remain two or three days looking after business matters and incidentally meeting a few of the old-timers.

Mr. Skinner was an old-timer here himself. He came out to Tahoka with his father and family in the latter part of 1903 and they continued to reside here until 1913. They were engaged in the real estate business here and Mr. Skinner is still engaged in this same line of business in Waco. His father was E. D. Skinner.

Calling at the News office Thursday, he was shown the copy of the first issue of the Lynn County News, which has been placed in a glass frame and hangs on our walls. He scanned its pages with much interest and declared that he knew every person whose name he saw in that paper; and he could tell you a lot about some of them.

He admitted the town had changed a bit since he left here.

McPherson Sells Grocery At Draw

H. W. Calaway, a prominent citizen of Draw and a former resident of Tahoka, has purchased the grocery store of Leon McPherson at Draw, taking charge Monday last week. Mr. McPherson stated Monday that he had no plans for the future to announce yet.

The Judge was here last Friday but was in a terrible hurry and didn't stay long. He usually had a lot of time on his hands as long as he was operating his farm, but them days are gone forever; he is now a busy man—he said so himself.

Any way, good luck to you, Judge.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Hamilton and children are spending several days this week at Waco and vicinity visiting relatives.

Norwood Infant Is Pneumonia Victim

Little Troy Charles Norwood, 8-months-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Norwood of the Midway community, died about one o'clock last Friday in the Lubbock General Hospital of pneumonia.

The child was taken to the Hospital in a Harris ambulance Friday morning, arriving there about noon, and its condition was so critical that physicians advised that it could not possibly live but a short time. Louie Weathers, driver of the ambulance, remained therefore and brought the body back to Tahoka the same afternoon.

Funeral services were conducted in the Harris Funeral Chapel here at 3:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon by Rev. J. E. Young of Draw.

Surviving are the parents, one brother, and three sisters.

The family have the genuine sympathy of many friends, especially of those who have suffered a like bereavement.

Ratheals Will Not Leave Tahoka

On account of the serious illness which has come to Rev. George A. Dale, pastor of the Baptist Church, Melvin Ratheal, Education and Music Director, who had tendered his resignation to accept a similar position at Monahan, has informed the Church that he has reconsidered his resignation and decided to remain here for the present.

At a meeting of the board of deacons recently, they reconsidered and rescinded their action in accepting his resignation.

Many friends will be gratified to learn that he and Mrs. Ratheal are to remain here.

TAHOCA YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED IN LEVELLAND

Miss Lillie Mae Clinton and Mr. Leroy Sikes were united in marriage Wednesday in Levelland by Rev. A. A. Brian, pastor of the First Baptist Church there.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clinton while Leroy is the son of Mr. E. L. Sikes.

Both were reared here and attended the Tahoka High School. Leroy is now employed at the Piggly-Wiggly store.

They are fine young people and have the best wishes of many friends.

Legion, Auxiliary In Joint Meeting

The Maron G. Bradley Post of the American Legion, and Auxiliary, held a business and social meeting at the Legion Hall February 24, with a nice crowd of ex-service men and their families present, according to a report made to the News by Aubra M. Cade.

"Mr. John Hamblin and his hungry five made the music, which was enjoyed by all," Mr. Cade continued. "Hon. Tom Garard was the principal after-dinner speaker, his subject being 'World Conditions Today.' His talk aroused great interest and was enjoyed by all present. A round-table discussion followed, with talks from several members of the Legion and members of the Auxiliary."

At the business meeting, resolutions were presented by a committee consisting of Happy Smith, C. C. Coffee, and A. D. Schaffner, and were adopted unanimously, asking Congress to take immediate action to curb strikes in defense industries.

"We were glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Connally, formerly of Lubbock, as members of the Legion and Auxiliary," Cade stated.

"This Post has a membership well over the quota set by the State Dept. and is increasing in membership each week."

"Also, this Post is sponsoring the Defense Guard Unit of Lynn County, and we take pride in seeing the company shape up so fast. With their new uniforms and rifles, they can march right out and drill as well as any regular Army company."

"At a regular meeting held on the 10th, the Legion agreed to sponsor the Defense Bond and Stamp drive in taking pledges for regular investments in Defense Savings Bonds and 'Next regular meeting will be on the fourth Tuesday night of this month. All ex-service men and wives are urged to attend. We have the greatest responsibility at this time since the organization of the Legion and Auxiliary. Let's put it over.'"

VOLLEY BALL TEAM HERE

J. B. Bolin and his volley ball team from the Eola school down in Concho County were here Thursday afternoon on their way to Slaton where they were to play the Slaton team that afternoon. They were to play Lubbock Thursday night, and Levelland and Meadow Friday afternoon and night. Thence they were to visit the Carlsbad Cavern and return home.

Mr. Bolin was the former principal of the New Lynn school in this county, serving there in that capacity for seven years.

LYNN COUNTY STUDENTS ON TECH HONOR ROLL

Of the 182 students making the Honor Roll at the Texas Technological College as announced Monday, five of them were from Lynn County.

Of the 24 making the highest grades, two were from Lynn County. These were Miss Edith Robertson and Miss Mary Margaret Tunnell, both of Tahoka.

The other three Lynn County students making the Honor Roll are: Lenore Frances Anglin of Tahoka, Edward Turrentine of Tahoka and Miss Leta Merle Koeninger of O'Donnell.

This certainly is a creditable showing for Lynn County. Misses Edith Robertson and Mary Margaret Tunnell have been outstanding students at Tech ever since they entered. They are seniors this year.

J. D. Smith, father of A. L. Smith, who suffered a hemorrhage on the brain two weeks ago and has been critically ill since then, is now showing decided improvement and it is believed that he may be able to be brought home Sunday. He is in a Lubbock hospital.

Clinton Walker, who is in training as an aviator at Grand Prairie, was here last Friday visiting friends. He volunteered for service several weeks ago.

YOUR ATTENTION, PLEASE!

Don't Hoard SUGAR!

I am requested to call your attention to the fact that the dates for sugar rationing will be set soon. The head of every family will be required to call at the school house in his town or community and register for every member of his household. Designated teachers will act as registrars. Each registrant will also be required to state the amount of sugar he has on hand at that time. Any who has hoarded sugar will be required to turn back to his grocer the excess. Any false representation as to any of these matters constitutes an offense punishable by heavy penalties.

Let us all work together in this matter, all for one and one for all, for it is in this way only that we can win the war.

Singleton . . .

S. Clerk under his father.

For thirty-nine years he served as a postmaster in three post offices; Gilmer, Jefferson and O'Donnell, under nine Presidents of the United States: Benjamin Harrison, Grover Cleveland, William McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, William Howard Taft, Woodrow Wilson, Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover and Franklin D. Roosevelt. He did not serve under Harding.

He was married to Miss Daisy Singleton in Colorado City on March 5, 1898. She survives him.

He removed with his family from Jefferson, Texas, to Tahoka in 1914, but soon thereafter moved out onto the Singleton Ranch in the Southwest portion of Lynn County, and from the ranch he moved to O'Donnell in 1915.

There he engaged first in the lumber business with his brother, Dr. J. R. Singleton, and later in the mercantile business.

In 1922, he was appointed postmaster at O'Donnell and served until

Jimmie Shook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Shook of O'Donnell and recently an employee in the Deen Nowlin office here, came up from Camp Barkeley at Abilene last Saturday and spent the night with his parents at O'Donnell. He also visited friends briefly here. He returned to Camp Barkeley Sunday afternoon.

In the meantime he had acquired much property in this county, and at the time of his death he owned farms and ranch lands together with several business buildings and a hardware business in O'Donnell.

Mr. Singleton united with the Presbyterian Church in early manhood and remained a member during the remainder of his life.

He was a man of the strictest integrity, excellent ability, and splendid character; and he was highly respected by a large circle of friends in this and many other counties.

Mrs. Dale states that he had suffered a few previous light attacks, but soon recovered without any serious consequences.

Eldridge Daniel procured a release from the county draft board a few days ago to enlist in the Navy. Dan Daniel, son of Mrs. Lois Daniel, is still stationed at an air base near Sherman, where he is a supply sergeant.

Mrs. P. Coleman came in Friday from El Paso, where Mr. Coleman is employed as a mechanic, to visit friends and look after property interests here. She expects to be here only a few weeks.

Corp. Joy Edwin ((Sonny) Brown, who has been in Fort Bliss, left Big Spring last Saturday morning for Columbus, Georgia, to attend an officers' training school.
