Many County Crops Are Hail Damaged

Some Farmers Are Replanting

Crops in Lynn County have been given a rather rough deal by the weather the past week. In many communities, the crops have been bombarded with hail from the heavens, and on Tuesday night high winds damaged crops in some localities.

In O'Donnell Saturday night, a terrific hail storm broke out window lights and knocked holes in roofs and car tops, beat leaves off the trees, and did much other damage. W. G. Forgy, editor of the O'Donnell Press, was exhibiting his car here this week showing a broken windshield, many punctures in the top, and one gaping hole through the metallic portion of the top made by hailstones, some of which, he said, were as large as baseballs. For the first time in three years, he declared, he had left his car parked in the street, and the hail got it.

The stricken area extended about a mile north of O'Donnell, four miles west, and six miles south down into Dawson County, crops in all that area being almost completely wiped out.

Destructive hails Saturday and Sunday afternoons and nights also did much damage to the cotton in many other localities. Hardest hit, perhaps, were the crops in the vicinity of Grassland, Wilson, Three Lakes, and other small areas.

Much acreage in the Grassland-Central Church area was either totally destroyed or badly damaged. John Heck of Wilson reported that his crop and several others had been

Kindrick Boys Have Important Places In Armed Forces

Corp. John William Kindrick Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kindrick of New Lynn, is expected home from New York this week end for his first visit with his parents in two years.

Corp. Kindrick is in the Marines, but is attached to the U. S. S. Flagship Augusta as bugler, which is quite a distinction. He has been in the Service about five years.

Mrs. Kindrick says that John William was on the U. S. S. Augusta when it was at the head of the Asiatic Fleet and when it was bombed by the Japanese. The ship was brought to the West Coast for repairs, and when the Two-Ocean Navy was commissioned, the U. S. S. Augusta became the flagship of the Atlantic Fleet.

Another son of the Kindricks also making a success in the Service is Corp. Samuel E. Kindrick, who is now attending the Officers Training School at Fort Monmouth, Red Bank, New Jersey, and who hopes to be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant soon. He is in the U. S. Signal Corps and enlisted about two years ago.

Service Men's Pictures Displayed

Several dozen photos of boys in the U. S. armed forces have been received and placed on display in the local drug stores as the result of an invitation issued in last week's Lynn County News.

Others having pictures, either photographs or kodak pictures, of sons, brothers, or friends in the Service are urged to bring them in as soon as possible. All pictures will be returned to the owners.

Plane of Tahoka Flying Club Was Wrecked By Wind

The airplane owned by the Tahoka Flying Club and kept at the Lubbock Municipal Airport, was badly damaged Tuesday night by the windstorm, Burnett Smith, reports.

Damage estimated at $400.00 was covered by insurance, however it is doubtful if the plane is either repaired or replaced soon because of Government priorities, Smith said.

50 Tons Rubber Is Already In Locally

Lynn County has dug up a hundred thousand pounds of old rubber for the Scrap Rubber Drive, according to estimates made by Jack Applewhite, chairman of the drive in this county.

More than 21,000 pounds were collected at the service stations in Tahoka during the first two days of the drive. Mr. Applewhite had made no accurate check of the amount brought in since, but early this week one station here had 23,000 pounds on hand and other stations had increased their collections while more than 25,000 pounds had been collected in O'Donnell. Quite a bit had been collected at Wilson and other places, and Mr. Applewhite felt sure that the total in the county had easily reached the 100,000 pound mark.

Nevertheless, any citizen of Lynn County who knows where a single scrap of rubber is should bring it in or see that it is turned in before the end of this week. Rubber is needed in the construction of airplanes, war ships, and other war equipment. It is almost as essential to the winning of a war as is gasoline. Since the United States is cut off from the major portion of its foreign supply, it must get rubber wherever it can.

So, Mr. Applewhite is appealing to the people of Lynn County to gather up all the old scrap rubber they can find and turn it in. It will help to win the war.

Harley Jolly Is A "Bluejacket"

GREAT LAKES, Ill.—From civilian to "boot" to Bluejacket, is the transition that Harley Jolly, 23, Tahoka, is now undergoing at the U. S. Naval Training Station here, since he reported for duty last week. After he finishes his boot (recruit) training, the new recruit will either be assigned aboard a Navy Man-O-War, or held for further specialized training at one of the Navy's many service schools.

Tahoka Men Take Vacation At Athens

Eighteen Tahoka and O'Donnell citizens last week were the guests of Arch S. Underwood at his lodge on Lake Undy near Athens, where they remained from Tuesday until Friday fishing, playing games, and otherwise enjoying the compress owner's hospitality.

Those attending were: E. R. Edwards, local compress manager; J. T. Middleton, Rudolph Middleton, and Harvey Jordan, all of O'Donnell; C. C. Coffee, T-Bar; Henry Heck, and Clyde Ashcraft, New Home; Paul Walker, West Point; and C. C. Connolly, A. M. Cade, Don Turner, Jack Welch, W. T. Hanes, R. P. Weathers, Prentice Walker, Conway Clingan, and Jess Gurley.

Mrs. R. W. (Buster) Fenton was brought home from a Lubbock hospital Sunday.

O'Daniel Is Coming

Announcement has been made that Senator W. Lee O'Daniel and Hal Collins will speak on the Courthouse Lawn in Tahoka at 4:00 p. m. next Thursday afternoon, July 2.

Senator O'Daniel is running for re-election while Mr. Collins is a candidate for governor.

Rev. Turrentine Leaving Tahoka

The news that Rev. George E. Turrentine, pastor of the Methodist Church here, is being transferred to Muleshoe and that next Sunday will be his last in Tahoka came as a great surprise to most of the people of the town.

Announcement of the decision to make the transfer was brought to Tahoka Thursday morning by District Superintendent O. P. Clark of Lubbock. The transfer was made, of course, by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of Dallas.

Brother Turrentine will be succeeded here by Rev. H. A. Nichols of Chillicothe.

This is one of a number of changes resulting from some of the pastors having resigned to do work as chaplains in the army or in other branches of service among the soldiers, it was explained here by a prominent member of the Methodist Church.

Rev. Mr. Turrentine would have rounded out a pastorate of four years here had he remained until the Northwest Texas Conference next Fall. In leaving Tahoka and going to Muleshoe, he is being given a promotion, at least in the matter of salary. He has done a good work here and will leave with the respect and confidence of our entire citizenship and the deep affection of many.

Rev. H. A. Nichols is expected to remove from Chillicothe to Tahoka next week and will conduct his first service here the following Sunday.

He comes highly recommended by the fact that he has been pastor at Chillicothe for the past seven years, and just prior to that he was pastor at Perryton in the north Panhandle for five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Rogers and daughter, Johnnie Lee and Leta Faye of Los Angeles, California, are here visiting Mr. Rogers' sister, Mrs. N. M. Wyatt and family.

Survivor of Aircraft Carrier Lexington Tells of Battle During Visit In Tahoka

Norbert Morris, a Lynn County youth who has been doing valiant service in the United States Navy and who was one of the brave boys on the U. S. S. Lexington while she was being bombed and torpedoed to death in the great Coral Sea battle on May 8, was a visitor in Tahoka and a caller at the News office last Saturday.

It was with a note of deep sorrow that Norbert spoke of the fate of the Carrier Lexington, pride of the Pacific fleet. "It was the greatest disaster the U. S. Navy has ever suffered," Norbert said in summing up the sinking of the proud vessel.

The fact that some of the finest ships of the Japanese Navy were sunk in the same battle and that Japan suffered far greater losses than did the United States, seemed to bring little consolation to him.

It was as if his home had been blown up, or as if his best friend had been killed.

Norbert had been on the Lexington for many months. It was like home to him. And he was proud of her prowess too. "She was the greatest aircraft carrier in the world," he proudly declared.

He was at his station on the second deck, he said, when the bombs

Annual USO Drive Started In County

Lynn's Quota Is Set At $2,300.00

Although the U. S. O. campaign for funds got off to a late start in this county, R. P. Weathers, chairman, has expressed the hope that the county will raise its full quota of $2,300.00 promptly.

O'Donnell has already gone over the top with $350.00 of the amount. Thurman Wells is chairman there. Chairmen have been named for other precincts in the county also, and the campaign has already started in some of them.

With Mrs. W. P. Thomas named as chairman for Grassland, Mr. Weathers announces that a meeting will be held there on next Tuesday night, beginning a 9 o'clock war time, and that speakers will be present to present the matter.

On Thursday Mr. Weathers appointed a committee of Tahoka citizens to make the canvass here.

Many counties in the state already have raised their full quotas, but other drives seem to have interfered with the campaign for this county, but now the time is growing short, as the campaign closes July 4, and committees necessarily must function promptly.

Lynn County has had the habit of raising her full quotas in this and other matters before the time expired.

A year ago, the U. S. O. quota for

J. G. Price's Two Sons In Service

James Price, graduate of Tahoka High School, who has been attending the Tech for the last three years volunteered for service in the ground work of the Air Corps at Lubbock on Thursday of last week. He left for Fort Sill, Oklahoma, that night.

His brother, G. C., also a graduate of the Tahoka High, has been in the service the last two months. These are the only sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cox have moved to Lubbock, Paul having accepted a position in the Quartermaster's Department out at the Lubbock Air Base.

Tahoka Closing Up On July 4th

Nearly every business house in Tahoka will be closed all day Saturday of next week, July 4. A petition was circulated this week by representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club, after several business men had asked that Tahoka join in taking this National holiday.

Lubbock and most of the other neighboring towns will also be closed July 4, it is said.

The buying public is asked to co-operate by doing their trading on Friday or the following Monday.

Next week's News will be published Thursday, one day earlier than usual, in order to reach our readers before Friday.

Rotary Year Is Brought To Close

With Mrs. W. A. Eppes of Wilson as piano accompanist, her son, Paul Eppes, sang a couple of selections and was then honored for a third one at the Rotary luncheon here Thursday.

Paul is the lad who won the first prize on county-wide "I Am An American" program given in the city park here several weeks ago. He has a wonderfully clear and musical voice, and his singing is "tops."

Mr. Eppes and his niece, Joann Eppes were also present as guests of the Club.

Dr. Carl Prohl, dentist, brother of Dr. Emil Prohl, and Mrs. J. K. Applewhite were also present as visitors, Mrs. Applewhite having a place on the program as an advocate of the U. S. O. campaign now being made in this county under the direction of Ray Weathers. Mr. Weathers and W. T. Hanes also made brief speeches for the program.

This was the last meeting of the Club under the administration of Frank P. Hill as president, and he made a report of the Club's accomplishments during the year. It showed a most creditable list of achievements, and he thanked the various committees and the members for their co-operation.

Truett Smith will be the new president, and it is expected that he will present next Thursday to wield the gavel and to make a report of the Rotary International convention in Toronto, which he is now attending.

Two Hill Boys Are Now Sergeants

Two sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hill, who live on the Lockwood farm north of town, are now sergeants in the U. S. Army. Both have been in the Service nearly three years.

Sgt. Jess L. Hill is stationed at Camp Claiborne, La., while Sgt. David L. Hill is stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif.

Another son, Andrew, will probably be inducted into the Army soon.

ELECT SAILOR AS TEACHER

Hollis Garmon, graduate of East Texas State Teachers College, who was recently given an honorable discharge from the Navy, last week was elected grade school principal of the Draw-Redwine School.

Garmon has been seeing action in the U. S. Navy since the Pacific war started, and was released because of injuries he received when his ship was sunk.

Boys 18 to 21 Will Compose New List Of Registrants

Governor Coke Stevenson has issued a proclamation calling upon every male citizen of this State born on or after January 1, 1922, and on or before June 30, 1924, to register with Selective Service between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 9:00 p. m. on Tuesday, June 30, in accordance with a proclamation, issued by the President of the United States calling for a Fifth Registration Day.

Governor Stevenson urged all employers and governmental agencies of all kinds operating within the State of Texas to give those persons under their charge who are subject to this registration sufficient time in which to fulfill the obligations incumbent upon them under the Selective Service Act and the President's proclamation.

The youths of Lynn County coming within these ages will be registered at the offices of the draft board on the third floor of the courthouse. Provision has been made for a sufficient number of registrars to register promptly all who appear.

Just how many youths there are in this county subject to registration is a matter of speculation. A number have already joined up with the armed forces of the nation; though it is not contemplated that those registering next Tuesday will be inducted into the service any time soon. This registration is, for the time being, merely a matter of "taking invoice" of the young manhood of the nation and of preparation for the years to come.

Married Men Are Given Deferment

Judge J. W. Elliott, chairman of the Lynn County Selective Service Board, received a telegram from the state office about noon Wednesday instructing the board to postpone temporarily the calling into the service of all men who were married prior to December 8, 1941.

These instructions were given in conformity with an act of Congress recently passed and signed by President Roosevelt Wednesday morning setting out the general policy for deferment of married men with dependents. In pursuance of this general policy, selective service officials established four broad categories to govern the order in which men shall be called:

Category 1. Registrants otherwise qualified for military service who have no bona-fide financial dependents.

Category 2. Registrants otherwise qualified for military service who have financial dependents other than wives or children mentioned in categories 3 and 4.

Category 3. Registrants otherwise qualified for military service who have wives with whom they are maintaining a bona fide family relationship.

Mrs. Collier, who was 79 years of age, had been in bad health for some time. She and her aged companion had been visiting in the Smith home for the past several weeks.

News dispatches appearing in the daily newspapers Sunday stated that the Imperial Sugar Refinery at Sugarland, Texas, had closed down temporarily because all its warehouses were full of sugar. Since everybody has had about all the sugar they wanted anyway and in view of the surplus stock of sugar that is stacking up, we wonder why it was necessary to ration sugar in the first place. Was it just the idea of some bureaucrat in Washington?

If some way is not found soon to curb the deadly activities of German submarines in the Atlantic, the Gulf, and the Caribbean, a wave of discontent is likely to sweep this country even as in England. But just as our position is improving in the Pacific, it is believed that we will be able before long to begin destroying these under-surface rattlesnakes of the sea in the Atlantic. In fact, we must and we will find a way to put them out of business.

Our Navy has been doing valiant work as it had opportunity since the attack on Pearl Harbor, but the growing power and effectiveness of our aircraft and of the aircraft of other nations has convinced our military leaders and our Congress that what we need most just now are mighty fleets of airplanes and airplane carriers. Our building program for the immediate future is sure to be directed along these lines.

Disappointed and angered because of the disastrous defeat of British forces in Libya, members of the British Parliament are calling upon Prime Minister Winston Churchill for an explanation. A vote will probably be forced, but while the defeat in Libya is disappointing almost to the point of exasperation, it is hoped that Churchill will be sustained in his administration, for where is the Englishman that could take his place?

We think that a lot of little men, even in a democracy, like to show their authority. They want to ration everything, everywhere, regardless of the necessity.

Four Candidates In Judge's Race

In a recent issue of this paper we made mention of the four candidates for Chief Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals but erroneously stated the name of one of them. We refer to W. T. Link of Clarendon, whose name was really omitted altogether but the name of "one Mr. Payne of Childress" was given as that of the fourth candidate. This was an error.

Mr. Link has been a resident of Clarendon for thirty-one years and is well known in the northern and eastern parts of the district. He is said to be an able lawyer.

The other candidates are Judge E. L. Pitts of Lubbock, Judge E. C. Nelson of Amarillo, and J. Ross Bell, a prominent attorney of Childress.

GRASSLAND

(Mrs. V. V. Laws, Correspondent.)

The farmers of this community have suffered another hail on their crops. Some are planting over. Others have decided to leave what they have left, thinking it better to take a chance rather than have their cotton so late.

Mrs. Rosa Davis was happy to have her mother visit her this past week.

Miss Doris Chapman was down for the week end. Miss Doris has a good job in the recruiting office at Lubbock, we are glad to report.

Mrs. M. L. Thomas, who has been sick for the past week, is better at this writing.

Mr. Gatzki is on the sick list this week but is reported improving.

Mr. Clety Walker and his father-in-law, Mr. Inklebarger, were honored with a birthday dinner Sunday.

We are glad to have Brother Arch Gibson back.

Every one is invited to a "42" party at the Grassland Gym July 2 at 9:00 p. m. All ladies will please bring a covered dish or sandwiches.

ODDS and ENDS

by Eee Eye, the Elder

Our idea of heaven is a place where no glaring errors or omissions will show up in the paper immediately after it comes off the press.

We heard a preacher declare over the radio last Sunday that it is the Devil who makes people go to sleep in church. If that is so he certainly does have a strangle hold on a lot of us.

We learned from that same preacher that we are liable to be sent to hell for going to see grandma on Sunday instead of going to church—his church, of course.

We also learned from that preacher that most of the things we believe religiously are the work of the Devil. He led us to believe it. Yet that same preacher scoffed at the idea of folks being led by the Holy Spirit. It looks just about like the Devil is going to get us in spite of all we can do.

But, we went on to church, our church, last Sunday morning, and our preacher managed to keep us awake in spite of the Devil. The Old Boy got in his work, however, for in the afternoon we drove out to the big Army Air Base ten miles west of Lubbock to attend the dedication exercises and to see the inside of the thing.

We heard an army man and a civilian speak. Both of them told us in effect that we are fighting this war not merely to save our own skins but that we are fighting it for righteousness and for God. We heard nothing that seemed objectionable in the speech of either of them. On the other hand, they exalted righteousness and recognized God as the ruler of the universe and the father of us all. Their addresses were highly patriotic and highly commendatory of the "four freedoms" we enjoy in this country. Maybe all that came from the Devil, too.

Anyway, those big twin-engine airplanes looked mighty good to us. They looked good sitting there on the ground, but they looked a lot better doing their stuff in the air. We felt that they and thousands and thousands of others like them, as well as other thousands of other types, are the boats that finally will win this war for us—that will drive back into the confines of Japan the pagan hordes that have swept into China, engulfed Malaya and Burma, spread their sway over all the vast and rich East Indies, taken from us the Philippines, Guam, and Wake Islands, built their fortresses on scores of other islands in the Pacific, gotten a toe-hold on the western-most points of the Aleutians, sunk our ships in Pearl Harbor, and are hoping eventually to take possession of our Pacific Coast and to dictate the terms of peace in Washington.

We felt also that it is these flying boats that will eventually help to shatter Hitler's dream of world empire, crush the fanatical German war lords that have helped him run rough-shod over Europe, and teach the German people that right and justice and not mere brute force are eventually to rule in the affairs of this world.

Yes, we got some inspiration from this Sunday visit to the flying field which we trust did not come from the Devil.

It surely does look this morning as if the United States has got to win this war. Russia is still holding her own at this writing but the indications are that she may never do more than that—and possibly not that much.

Great Britain is keeping up her record of fighting gloriously but eventually losing the battle. She has lost everything yet. First it was the disaster at Dunkirk. Then she met a disastrous defeat in Greece and lost Crete.

In anticipation of trouble with Japan, she sent two of her finest warships, the Prince of Wales and the Repulse, steaming proudly and imperiously into the South China Sea. We had not got over the first shock that came to us by reason of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor until came the news that Japanese airplanes had sunk these two British leviathans.

Then followed the Japanese invasion of Malaya. Yard by yard, mile by mile, the British were driven back toward Singapore. But Singapore was impregnable. So said all the British. The Japs would be stopped there. But they were not stopped. Mighty Singapore fell.

Then the Japs pushed on into Burma. There the British again made a brave and desperate stand. But one day they were driven out of Rangoon and it fell into the hands of the yellow devils. Then in due time came the fall of Mandalay; and the British have become virtually helpless in the Far East.

And now Tobruk has fallen, and the Germans are on their way into Egypt and to the Suez, unless they are stopped.

Britain is doubtless doing her best, but America has got to win this war!

Moody Opens Active Campaign

AUSTIN, June 24—Pledging himself to follow the lead of President Roosevelt in winning the war, former Governor Dan Moody this week began an active speaking tour to put his campaign for the U. S. Senate before the people of Texas.

The red-headed Moody, once attorney-general and twice governor of Texas, last week made a statewide radio address from Houston and spoke before a mass meeting in El Paso. Saturday he spoke at Hillsboro and Waco.

Challenging Sen. O'Daniel to "defend his record as an isolationist," and pointing out that Jimmy Allred has yet to define his stand on the 40-hour week law and other issues of the day, Moody is outlining his views on the measures necessary to win the war and to insure peace.

"My idea of winning the peace is to win the war — not a negotiated peace. We must disarm the aggressor nations and bring about an association of friendly nations pledged to the preservation of peace and the use of force to maintain the peace. "We must bind to us with hoops of steel, in a broadening and strengthening of President Roosevelt's policy, the countries of South America. We must have a peace that insures to the people of all nations a feeling that they can live safely within the borders of their own land."

Discussing how these aims may be achieved, Moody declares "we must preserve the freedom of the seas, re-establish world trade and make the raw materials and the markets of the world available to all nations. "To this end new tariff policies must be adopted. We must, through the re-establishment of world trade, promote the prosperity of our nation and improve the living conditions of the people here and in the lands beyond the seas."

"I stand for bringing the maximum of resources and manpower into the struggle to win the war. I pledge that I shall devote every talent that I have toward seeing to it that while our army and navy win this war, that we do not lose at home the cause for which they fight."

"No isolationist should be permitted to block our war effort or wreck the peace this time. President Roosevelt is entitled to the loyal and wholehearted support of every citizen. I count it as a duty of citizenship to follow his lead and support his efforts in waging freedom's war."

Mrs. W. L. Burleson, Billie Lee and W. L. Jr., Mrs. D. B. English and Virginia Lee Traylor of Lubbock left Friday for San Antonio, where Billie Lee and Virginia Lee will enter a business school in San Antonio for three months.

Herman Sherrod and wife, who visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sherrod and family, here last week on a ten day furlough, has been transferred from El Paso to California, where he will be a glider pilot.

YATES GRANDDAUGHTER WEDS
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Yates attended the wedding of their granddaughter, Miss Willie Marie Yates of the Army Air Base at Lubbock, to David Callaway of Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. Madison Yates, in Lamesa, at eight o'clock Wednesday night.

It will be remembered that Miss Yates received much publicity recently on account of the fact that she was one of two women mechanics in the service at the air base.

The couple took a honeymoon trip to Carlsbad Cavern.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Fields have moved to Tahoka from California. Mrs. Fields is the former Miss Ruby Davis, and is the daughter of Mrs. E. S. Davis.

Wind Is Cause Of Car Accident

Blinded by swirling dust and sand that lashed across the highway on the wings of a terrific gale, Herman Reid crashed into the rear end of a truck on the highway six miles north of Tahoka Tuesday night, almost wrecking his car and sustaining painful bruises and abrasions on one leg and one arm.

Both vehicles were coming south on the highway. The truck is said to have been from Brady. It was not seriously damaged and the driver was not hurt, it is said.

Young Mr. Reid had been up to the Evans home and was hurrying back to beat the storm into Tahoka, but it caught him and was blowing at the height of its fury when the accident occurred.

DISTRICT NINE BAPTIST CAMP

Ceta Glen in Ceta Canyon, 15 miles northeast of Happy, was the setting for a training camp of some 800 Baptist young people from Baptist churches all over District Nine last week.

The boys of the district were in camp from Monday until Wednesday noon, the girls arriving Wednesday afternoon and remaining until Friday at noon.

Melvin Rathel was Recreational Director for the Boys' Camp, while Mrs. Melvin Rathel was the camp pianist. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Rathel, Gene Akin, Bentley Galtner, Sidney Cowan and Bobby Boyd were among the 318 persons attending the Boys' Camp. Four Lynn County churches were represented in this camp with a total attendance of 31.

Camp life started each day at 6:00 a. m. and bedtime came at 10:00 p. m. During the intervening time the young people attended classes for instruction, attended religious services, took part in various recreational activities such as swimming, hiking, singing and playing games, or resting, to say nothing of eating. But all of it was done according to a strict schedule!

In a "Talent Parade" Bonnie Jean Clark of Tahoka played an original number, her own composition.

Mrs. Melvin Rathel taught a class of 11-12 year girls in the Girls' Camp.

Girls, sponsors and visitors going from Tahoka included: Misses Bobbie Jean Minor, Dona Sue Milliken, Billy Wayne Pennington, Anna Freeman, Eva Jo Reid, Gaye Jackson, Billy Jo Cowan, Rae Fern Pennington, Virginia White of Mercury, Billy Nell Johnson of Lubbock, La Juan Moore, Georgetta Akin, Wanda Faye Smith, Bennie Lou Fridmore, Mary Beth Roddy, LaVerne Reddell, Velma Ruth Howell, Ruth Roddy, Joretta Shawn, Virginia Roddy, and Bonnie Jean Clark, Mmes. Melvin Rathel, Garland Pennington, A. L. Smith, J. K. Wooley, E. I. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. E. Freeman and family who were generous enough to take a group though it was impossible for them to remain for the Camp.

Take Advantage of Onion Plenty

A taste-exciting odor from something a-cooking in the kitchen? More often than not, there's an onion involved.

Perhaps it's a suggestion of onion in the hashed potatoes — golden onion rings to serve atop steak — tangy onion soup — or it could be one of a hundred dishes. For the onion has almost unlimited culinary possibilities.

As every good cook knows, the chief value of the onion is for its flavor. Perhaps it is most appreciated by women who must plan meals using certain bland but nutritious foods day after day. Onions help them to vary their menus inexpensively. Dehydrated onions are being shipped now under terms of the Lend-Lease Act — to brighten up monotonous wartime meals in countries where practically all food is rationed.

However, onions are not at the foot of the class as far as food value is concerned. In their raw state they have small amounts of vitamin B, riboflavin, vitamin C, iron and calcium. Young, green onions are fair sources of carotene, which the body can change into vitamin A. All onions are high in water content, low in calories.

Because large supplies are available at low costs, onions have been featured as a Victory Food Special by the nation's grocers. Onions fit into the meal all along the line, with the obvious exception of dessert. Now that they are plentiful, try them in soups, serve them with meat, and mix them with other vegetables in all sorts of dishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Horten came down from Amarillo Saturday and spent the week end here visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Thorpe, Mrs. Horten being Mr. Thorpe's sister. They are now located in Lubbock, Mr. Horten having accepted a position there.

Richard McNeeley, about ten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McNeeley, underwent tonsillectomy by Dr. J. W. Sinclair in the Mercy Hospital in Lubbock Monday morning.

He has been confined to his bed much of the time recently by a stubborn disease, from which he has been suffering at frequent intervals for several years. Mr. Farmer — you're a general now — in command of a vital force. Its members may never man a cannon, pilot a plane, or steer a ship: but they will produce the food that will give those fighting men the strength, the hardiness, the alertness they must have, to fight to win! You command land, livestock, poultry. Keep 'em producing. You command tractors, tillers, plows and reapers. Keep 'em rolling. So not a moment's time... not a grain of produce will be lost from the storehouse of Victory.

A. Stevens, one of the memoers.

Local members have been conducting the services on Sunday and Wednesday nights during his absence. Elmo Burkett, who resides six miles north of Tahoka, preached last Sunday.

Reports received from the minister indicate that there were two additions to the Church and much interest manifested in the services at Superior. The meeting closed Wednesday night.

Announcement is also made that the revival meeting at the Church of Christ here will be held in August, covering the third and fourth Sundays.

METHODIST CHURCH

The pastor will be in his pulpit Sunday after having been at Pastors' School for eleven days, at S. M. U. "The Gospel of Christ" will be the sermon topic Sunday morning. Another text from the book of Romans will be announced for Sunday evening.

After sitting under the inspiring lectures and sermons by E. Stanley Jones, H. S. Leiper, American Secretary of the World Council of Churches, G. A. Buttrick, pastor of Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church, New York City, and Bishops Kern, Smith and Holt, and many others, one would be spiritually obese who did not find inspiration and also information therefrom.

All meetings at their usual hour Sunday and week days.—George E. Turrentine, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Mayberry and son, who moved from Tahoka to California several months ago, are here visiting relatives. Mrs. Glenn Boydston is a daughter.

When a Child Needs a Laxative

Your child should like this tasty liquid laxative and you should like the gentle way it usually wakes up a youngster's lazy intestines when given by the simple directions.

SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT contains the same principal ingredient which has enabled its older brother BLACK-DRAUGHT to give so many users such satisfying relief for so many years!

Perhaps that's why it usually gives a child such refreshing relief when the familiar symptoms indicate a laxative is needed.

SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT comes in 2 sizes. The introductory size is 25c; the economy size is 50c.

L. C. Johnson Is Honored On Birthday

Exactly fifty persons were present, he says, to feast and enjoy the day together, and he declares that it was a delightful and glorious occasion.

Bishop and family of Wofford; the only son, Clayton Johnson, and family; three grandchildren and their families, together with other grandchildren and other relatives. Jack King Tells Of The South Seas

Miss Florence King received a letter from her brother Jack, who is in the U. S. Navy, a few days ago, which gives some interesting sidelights on life in the Navy. He wrote on June 18 from San Diego. Here it is—

Dear Florence and all:

Got back from American Samoa, in the little village of Pago-Pago, June 16. Arrived at Los Angeles. Had a good trip, didn't get a scratch. We are back at San Diego now, today the 18th. I got 17 letters from you all, also Boots and Bill. Took me a half day to read them all. I wrote you twice from the Island, but no mail was sent out to us. I will try to get around to answering some of the letters.

Hope "Gran" is getting better. Tell her I would have written more often but it was too hot to think out there. There were only certain times we could write. Fifteen days to get there and spent about a month and a half there. Went to several of the islands around there. Fairly cool at night but hotter than heck during the day.

Tell Bill if he signs up for foreign service he won't be able to get his whiskey and very little beer, but there would be plenty fishing for sharks and all kinds of tropical fish.

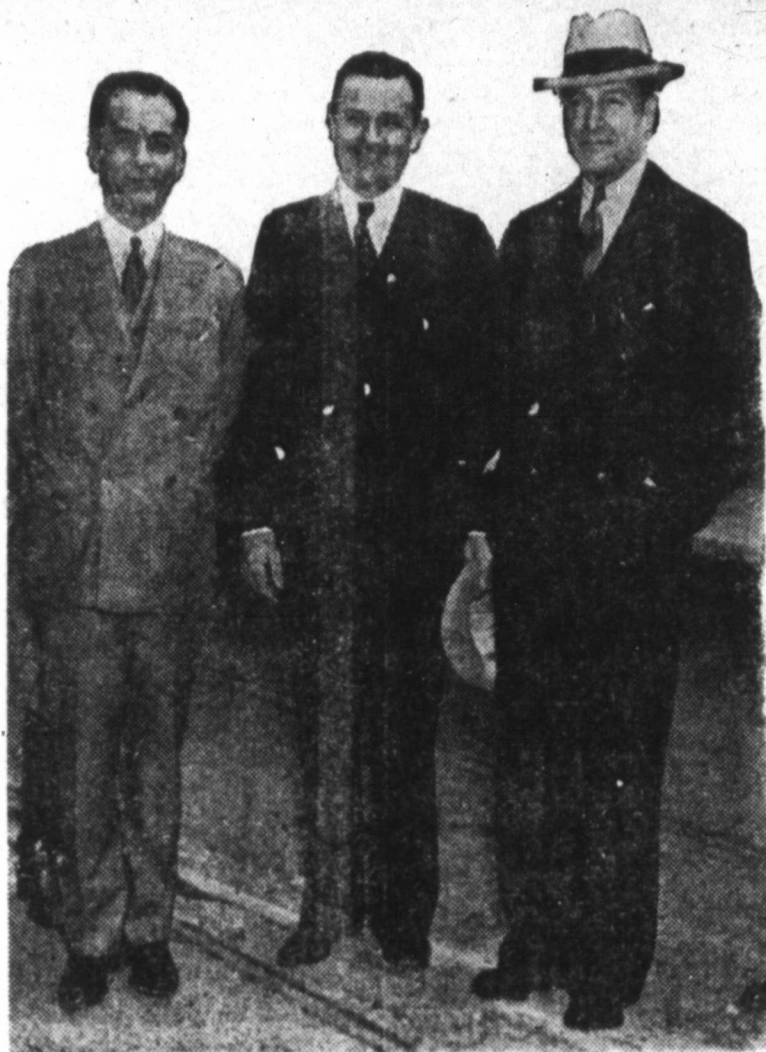

Most of the natives there can talk English. The men and boys wear just a piece of cloth around them and the women wear regular dresses. Funny people.

When we crossed the equator I became a Shellback. Before I was a pollywog. There was quite an initiation before I became a Shellback. They paddled us, cut a big chunk of hair off our heads, and dunked us in a tank of water, and a dozen other things. It took two days. Sure had a good time. The officers and sailors that were already Shellbacks performed the ceremonies and initiated us, so many hundreds of officers, sailors, and Marines.

We also crossed the international date line. x x x x

I had about $55.00 saved up when I got back. I bought me a pair of tailor-made dress blues, $32.00. I am getting paid about $48.00 a month now.

Tell Cat I got her a grass skirt and will send it to her soon. May go back to sea soon. Yours truly, J. J. King.

RECOGNIZE THE GENTLEMAN ON THE RIGHT?—This hitherto unpublished photograph shows Gen. Douglas MacArthur as Texans last saw him, in April, 1937, when MacArthur accompanied President Manuel Quezon of the Philippines, at left, on a goodwill trip through Texas to Mexico. James V. Allred, center, then governor, welcomed the visitors to the state. Then a major general and American advisor to the Filipino army, MacArthur wore a business suit as impeccably as the military dress with which Americans are more familiar now.

D. H. Lindley Tells Of Life In Navy

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Lindley received two letters recently from their son, Dee Howell Lindley, who is in the service of the Navy on the U.S.S. Rodman.

One of the letters was written about a week later than the other but they were received at about the same time.

"I am well and happy and glad to be alive, ha!" Dee writes exultingly, addressing his mother. "Wish I could see you and the rest of the family and sit down to a good meal at home. You know I always did think you were the best cook in the world. I can just taste those good biscuits and fried chickens. Tell Max to eat a leg for me, because I'm afraid I won't be there this summer."

"I guess you thought I would never write you but I wrote you as soon as I could. It may be a long time before I see you again, because I don't look for a leave until the war is over or my time is up. I have seen a lot more of the world since I've come abroad. Wish I could tell you some things I know but I guess they will just have to wait till the war is over."

"I sure hope you have a good crop this year. Mother, you can save me all the red beans and I will eat them when I come home, ha!"

"Mother I have such a tan you would think I am a Mexican if you saw me. I weigh 157 now. The chow on here is not so good any more but I am still growing like a weed."

"This is about all I can think of to write. So you and Daddy and the girls remain the same sweet family until I see you again. I think about you all every day. Now don't worry about me because I'll be all right. Send all my mail in care of the Postmaster New York. x x x Oceans of love, Son."

CONNOLLYS RECEIVE MESSAGE FROM KEITH

Though it was delivered several days late, James Connolly received the following Father's Day message on Thursday afternoon from his son Keith, sent from Australia.

"Dear Pop: Greetings and best wishes on Father's Day. Your son, James K. Connolly."

The message was sent from Australia. It was the first word they had had from Keith since Mother's Day.

Young People Will Meet Here

Soul Winning is to be the theme of the regular quarterly meeting of Brownfield Association young people when they meet in Tahoka's First Baptist Church Monday evening, June 29th.

The group will have recreation on the church lawn from 7:30 to 8:30; the picnic supper brought from home will be enjoyed before the song service begins in the church at 9:00. Besides bringing his own supper each individual is to bring a nickel to purchase his own drink (because of sugar rationing.)

There will be conferences on each phase of Young Peoples' work, with special numbers from different groups. Rev. John Rankin of Seagraves will bring the sermon, while others taking part include Mrs. R. T. Barton of Ropesville, Bro. R. L. Shannon, Meadow, Melvin Rathel, Tahoka, and Mmes. Henry Heck of New Home, Melvin Rathel of Tahoka and Miss Catherine Korney of New Home.

"Our goal is 150, and we need everyone," added Mrs. Collins Webb of New Home as she gave this report to the News.

J. K. WOOSLEY HEARD FROM

Mrs. P. E. Calvery received word from the Army this week that her brother, J. K. Woosley had landed safe and sound.

Three Candidates For U. S. Senate Outstanding In Texas Politics

For the benefit of youthful voters who have become old enough to vote during the past few years and some of the "oldsters" who may have forgotten, we give below the records of the three principal candidates for the United States Senate in the July primary. They are three ex-governors of Texas, Dan Moody, James V. Allred, and Wilbert Lee O'Daniel, the present incumbent of the Senatorial post.

Since Dan Moody, though only 49 years of age now, was the first to come on the scene, James V. Allred the second, and W. Lee O'Daniel the last, we give their records in that order.

Dan Moody...

Dan Moody was born in Taylor, Williamson County, Texas, on June 1, 1893. The son of a widow, he helped to earn the family income while a student in the Taylor public schools. Then he attended the University of Texas, where he studied law, and he began the practice of law in his home town at the age of 21. He volunteered for service in the first World War and was commissioned a second lieutenant.

In 1920, at the age of 27, he was elected county attorney of Williamson County. Two years later he was appointed district attorney of the 26th judicial district, which embraced Williamson and Travis Counties. Soon after assuming the duties of this office in 1922, it became his duty to prosecute a member of the then politically powerful Ku Klux Klan who had been indicted for perjury; and he performed this duty ably, fearlessly, and successfully, an achievement which brought him state-wide fame.

In 1924, he was elected Attorney-General of Texas, and in 1926 he was elected governor, defeating the incumbent, Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, by an overwhelming vote. He was the youngest man ever elected either as attorney general or as governor of Texas. He was re-elected governor in 1928, again by an overwhelming vote. At the end of his second term in January, 1931, he retired from politics and entered the private practice of law, with his law office in Austin, where he now resides. He has never been defeated for any office for which he ever ran.

Here are the results of the elections in which he was elevated first to the office of attorney-general and then to the office of governor.

James V. Allred...

James V. Allred, 43, was born in Bowie, Texas, the son of a rural mail carrier, and as a boy he acted as substitute mail carrier himself.

When the World War came on, Jimmy Allred as a mere youth enlisted in the U. S. Navy.

After the War, he studied law and was admitted to the bar. In the early twenties, he was elected district attorney of the Wichita Falls district, serving two terms.

In 1926 he made his first race for attorney-general but was defeated by Claude Pollard.

In 1930, he again made the race for attorney-general and was successful, defeating Robert Lee Bobbit and others.

In 1932, he was re-elected as attorney-general and in 1934 he made a successful race for the governorship, his principal opponents for the first primary being Tom Hunter, C. C. McDonald, and Clint Small.

In 1936 he was re-elected governor in the first primary, Tom Hunter again being his chief opponent.

Retiring from the governorship at the close of his second term in January, 1939, he was appointed judge of the U. S. district court at Houston by President Roosevelt.

W. Lee O'Daniel...

Wilbert Lee O'Daniel was born in Ohio, reared in Kansas, and came to Texas after he was married and began raising a family.

For a time, he was secretary of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce.

Entering into business for himself, he became noted and popular as a radio entertainer and flour salesman.

He made his first race for governor in 1936 without having ever paid a poll tax or voted in Texas. He won in the first primary.

In 1940 he ran for re-election and was again nominated in the first primary.

In 1941, while he was serving his second term as governor, Senator Morris Sheppard died. He appointed A. J. Houston, aged son of Sam Houston, to serve until an election could be held. Without resigning as governor, he entered the race for the U. S. Senate to serve out Sheppard's unexpired term. The election was held June 28, 1941, and in a field of four candidates, Governor O'Daniel barely nosed out ahead of Congressman Lyndon Johnson, and was declared elected. He is now serving out Sheppard's unexpired term.

WINTER WHEAT

Once more the miracle of the winter wheat harvest is with us. Nature has been kind, in Santa Fe territory, and another bumper crop is indicated. Prices, too, are good.

That is a happy prospect, but it brings serious problems with it—both for you who raise the grain, and for us who move it.

You face a shortage of harvest labor, and a serious lack of storage space, at terminals and in rural bins, because of the unprecedented carry-over of old wheat. We face the job of moving a vast grain tonnage, in a short time, on top of the greatest railroad traffic load in history.

Married Men ...

lationship in their homes and who were married prior to Dec. 8, 1941, and at a time when induction was not imminent.

Category 4. Registrants otherwise qualified for military service who have wives and children or children alone, with whom they maintain a bona fide family relationship in their homes who were married prior to Dec. 8, 1941, at a time when induction was not imminent.

After setting forth these classifications the selective service system added that it wished to make it "emphatic that they do not provide for the permanent deferment of men with dependents but rather provide the order in which registrants with dependents will be inducted."

Moreover, it appeared that in some cases married men might still be called ahead of others, if such action were necessary to fill draft calls on time. The announcement emphasized that "the national interest requires that all calls to meet the manpower requirements of the armed forces be filled on schedule" but that insofar as was practical in meeting these calls, the category system should be followed.

Thus, it seemed possible that in cases where a draft board is already on the point of sending married men up for induction and can not substitute single men quickly, the married men may have to serve.

The effect of the instructions given to the Lynn County Board, it is understood, will be to defer temporarily the call of three of the six men who had been selected for induction from Lynn County on June 30 and possibly forty per cent of the large number of men who were expected to be called for induction on July 7.

This call was for the largest number...

ber of men that has yet been included in a single call. Even with the names of the married men deleted, the call doubtless will still be the largest number of men included in a single call from this county.

The County Board is meeting today to delete the names of married men who come under the terms of the law providing for a postponement and to make up a revised list of those who are to be inducted on July 7.

The three Lynn County men who were included in the call of June 30 but whose call has been deferred by the above action are Lee Roy Knight, Byron West, and Marion Talmadge Farr.

Those not affected by this Act include Elmer George Hodge, George D. McCracken, and Ernest Clifford Evans. They will be inducted into the service next Tuesday as originally planned, it is presumed.

The purpose of the new law is said to be to preserve to the greatest degree possible consistent with the war effort the integrity of the family and family life. Married men without dependents will be called before married men with dependents, of course, but even married men without dependents will not be called until the list of single men without dependents is exhausted.

USO ...

Lynn County was $800.00. More than a thousand dollars were raised before the time was up.

The function of the U. S. O. is to raise funds with which to provide recreation centers at the various army camps and an abundance of good clean entertainment for the boys in the service. Much praise of the entertainment provided has come from many of the boys. Recreation and entertainment are almost as necessary as food. It is to be hoped that Lynn County will do her part in this good work.

Hail Damage ...

destroyed at and near Wilson Saturday afternoon. In fact, hail did damage to a strip extending across a large part of the north side of the county.

Many crops in the Three Lakes, West Point, and Wells communities were hard hit.

First reports are usually the worst, however, and the total area of crops utterly destroyed is not as large apparently as was first reported.

Many farmers are planting over, while others who were stricken have decided to salvage all they can from the wreckage.

Downpours of rain were reported in some areas, and almost the entire county has been covered by showers. Crops not damaged by hail are looking good, somewhat above normal, perhaps.

Feed, of course, has been less seriously damaged by hail than has cotton, as it will stand more punishment and succor out more readily.

It is too early to make predictions, but even after these visitations of hail, it is yet possible for Lynn County to make excellent crops of both cotton and feed.

According to reports, other South Plains counties have suffered from hail to about the same degree as Lynn County has suffered. But as a rule, crops not damaged by hail are very promising over the entire South Plains.
