Interest Growing In Saturday's Election

Mrs. Jack Alley, Plains Pioneer, Dies Suddenly

It was a great concourse of friends and relatives that gathered in the First Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon to pay their tributes of respect to one of Tahoka's real pioneer women, Mrs. Effie Paralee Alley, mother of Mrs. Ethel (Hall) Robinson of this city and widow of the late Jack Alley, who died at her home here, the Sunshine Inn, at 11:30 o'clock Friday night.

Mrs. Alley had been in failing health for the past year afflicted with ulcerations of the stomach. Most of the time in recent weeks she had been confined to her bed. Her condition grew suddenly acute Friday night, and she died less than an hour later.

Born in Dallas County on September 9, 1870, Mrs. Alley was almost 72 years of age and was a native Texan. Her maiden name was Effie Paralee McNeill.

She was married on January 12, 1886, to John Fenwick Cooke, and of this marriage one daughter was born, Mrs. Ethel Cooke Robinson of this city, with whom Mrs. Alley resided. Mr. Cooke died October 4, 1890.

In 1897 Mrs. Cooke and her little daughter removed to Lubbock, where they continued to reside until 1899, when Mrs. Cooke married Jack Alley and they moved to Lynn County. She was a resident of Lynn County continuously from that date until the time of her death, a period of about forty-three years.

This county had not been organized and Tahoka had not been laid out at the time of her removal to this county. In fact, Mrs. Alley was one of only three women in Lynn County.

Grassland Lady Buried Friday

Funeral services were conducted in the First Baptist Church in Post at 3:30 o'clock last Friday afternoon for Mrs. Martha Jane Potter of the Grassland community, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Babb of that community on the preceding Wednesday, July 15.

Services were conducted by Rev. Lynn Lemons, a Baptist minister, assisted by Rev. J. E. Young, pastor of the Draw-Grassland charge of the Methodist Church. Rev. Frank Thomas, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, of which deceased was a member, was at the Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth at the time of the funeral.

The body was interred in the cemetery at Post.

The maiden name of the deceased was Mary Jane Duke. She was born on February 13, 1870, and was therefore 72 years of age at the time of her death. She was married to J. E. Potter on August 1, 1886, and of this union nine children were born, of whom eight still survive. The husband and father died eight years ago, and the oldest son died at the age of 21.

Surviving children are: Robert S. Potter of Bakersfield, California; Mrs. R. W. Babb of the Grassland community; Mrs. C. H. Underwood of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. W. A. Odem of Post. Mrs. Leroy Potter, Abilene; Mrs. Hugh Hazelwood and N. C. Potter, both of Fort Worth. Also surviving are fifteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Potter was converted and united with the church at the age of 16, since which time she had lived a devoted, Christian life. At the time of her death she was a member of the Central Baptist Church situated two miles north of Grassland.

Mrs. Glenn Ensor of San Diego, Calif., is here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Timmons, in the Lakeview community.

AMERICAN COMMANDER IN EUROPE - Lieut. General Dwight D. Eisenhower, designated Commanding General of American forces in the European theater with headquarters in London, is a native of Texas, entered the Army upon his graduation from West Point in 1915. He was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal for his activity in training tank corps troops during the World War.

W. H. May Wins Scrap Iron Prize

With the contribution of 16,300 pounds of scrap iron to the Lynn County drive for this metal which closed recently, Walter H. May of Wilson won the prize, of a $25.00 War Bond offered by Jack Applewhite of this city to the individual or firm bringing in the largest amount of the metal.

Mr. May is one of the pioneers of this county, farms many acres of land which he owns and on which he lives a few miles north of New Lynn, and uses up-to-date machinery in his farming operations. Naturally much junk iron has accumulated on his farms during the years. So, when he finished gathering it up for Uncle Sam's use recently, he found that his scrap-iron junk pile contained more than eight tons of metal. That's enough to make several Japs sorry that they ever made that assault on Pearl Harbor.

LIEUT. UNFRED HERE

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Unfred of Petty enjoyed a week end visit from their son, Joe D. Unfred, who is now a Second Lieutenant in the army. Lt. Unfred, who has been at Fort Bliss during his first year of service, is being transferred to Camp Young, California.

Lubbock Editor Rotary Speaker

Charles Guy, editor of the Avalanche-Journal newspapers, Lubbock, was the guest speaker at the Rotary luncheon Thursday.

Having visited Washington many times as a newspaper man in the past several years, one visit having been made a few weeks ago, Mr. Guy has become intimately acquainted with the official life of Washington and has gained much knowledge concerning the different departments of the Government, governmental institutions and projects, as well as governmental and political trends. He drew upon this great fund of knowledge Thursday in giving the low-down concerning a number of matters of interest to the average citizen, and the Rotarians thoroughly enjoyed his talk.

Another welcome visitor Thursday was Judge P. W. Goad, former county judge of this county, now connected with the State Insurance Department and residing in Ft. Worth. He brought a few words of greeting.

Rev. H. A. Nichols was welcomed to the club as a new member by Wynne Collier.

Two or three other visitors were present.

Mildred Cox Gets Washington Job

Miss Mildred Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell Cox of Three Lakes, left on the bus Wednesday afternoon for Washington, D. C., where she has accepted a position as filing clerk in the office of the F. B. I.

Miss Cox is a graduate of the North Texas State Teachers College at Denton.

J. E. Rice Gets Hand Wounded

J. E. Rice, who resides in the Joe Stokes community, was in town Saturday nursing a badly wounded hand.

While changing a tire on his automobile parked in his garage, the vehicle slipped off the jack and in some way caught his hand between the tire and the fender. Involuntarily he violently jerked his hand out, but the grip on it was so tight that when he did so he left a lot of the skin and the flesh behind. The home folks gave it surgical and medical treatment, but he was expecting to have a physician give it attention as needed.

GRADUATES IN THEOLOGY

Rev. Frank Thomas, pastor of the Central Baptist Church eleven miles east of Tahoka was one of the graduates at the summer session of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth last Friday, receiving his diploma in the School of Theology along with a number of other graduates.

All high school students of T-Bar school district will attend Tahoka High School this coming school term, as the result of a contract entered into between the school boards of the two districts Tuesday night. About 166 or 165 students are involved.

The board also employed Mrs. Grady Howard, Ralls, as a teacher in the primary grades. She is a graduate of Texas Tech, where she majored in primary education, and has done some work toward her M. A. degree. She has been teaching at Ralls the past five years, and prior to that taught two years in a rural school.

Attention is called to the fact that all students wishing to transfer must do so by August 1 through the office of the county superintendent.

Miss Strain Will Appear In Recital

Friends in Tahoka and over Lynn County are invited to attend a special musical program at the First Methodist Church at New Home Sunday afternoon, July 26, at four o'clock when the Music Department of Texas Technological College, with Julian Paul Blitz as director and Miss Margaret Huff, teacher, presents Miss Thelma Ruth Strain in recital.

Miss Iva Sneed of Fort Davis is here visiting her sister, Mrs. H. A. Nichols, and Rev. Nichols.

The News Absorbs The Wilson Sun

The owners of The Lynn County News have purchased from Frank Fletcher the entire subscription list of The Sun, published at Wilson, and subscribers of The Sun will receive The News hereafter in lieu of The Sun until their subscriptions to that publication expire.

Mrs. Fletcher, however, has been engaged by the publishers of The News to send to us each week the news of that town and vicinity and it will be carried as a special feature in The News.

Mrs. Fletcher has also been authorized to take subscriptions for The News and subscribers to either paper who desire to renew their subscription may see her if they prefer to do so, and she will send in their subscriptions for them.

The News hopes to be of real service to the people of all the northeastern portion of Lynn County, and readers of The Sun who have not heretofore been subscribers to The News are invited to renew for this paper as soon as their subscriptions may expire.

Mr. Fletcher expects to be accepted for service in the armed forces of the United States at a very early date, or, in lieu thereof, to accept work in one of the War Industries. This made it necessary for him to retire, temporarily at least, from the newspaper field.

We welcome these numerous new subscribers into our newspaper family.

Vote Is Expected To Be Light In Most Sections

With only one sizzling hot statewide contest to decide, the voters of Texas will go to the polls Saturday to nominate a Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, a candidate for governor, and candidates for all other elective state, district, county and precinct offices.

On account of the fact that many thousands of our young men are far away from home in the training camps of the nation or in active service in some branch of our armed forces, and other thousands are away from home engaged in war production industries, it is not believed that the vote this year will be as heavy as usual in regular election years. It seems very unlikely that anything near a million votes will be cast this year.

In harmony with conditions elsewhere, the vote in Lynn County bids fair to be lighter than usual. It will probably fall below the 3,000 mark.

The ballots have been printed and election supplies have been furnished the election officers in the various voting precincts. Everything is in readiness for the contest.

There are four candidates for the United States Senate: W. Lee O'Daniel, the incumbent, Floyd E. Ryan of Harris County, Dan Moody of Travis County, and James V. Allred of Harris County.

Ryan has scarcely been heard of during the campaign and doubtless will get only a few scattering votes.

The contest appears to lie between the other three candidates, each of

MONTE RAY KELTNER IS CORPORAL IN MARINES

Mrs. C. B. Keltner had a letter from her son Monte Ray Wednesday stating that he had passed the test and would be advanced to the rank of corporal on August 1. He is in the Marines, somewhere in the Pacific.

In another letter she received recently he asked questions about a number of people here, and in still another he said: "There is a fellow here from Wanette (Oklahoma) and he says that he used to swipe cookies from Uncle Ed's (Keltner's) store in Wanette when he was in grade school there. His name is Skinner, and I guess there are more Skinners there than there are Edwards' and Wells' in Texas."

MRS. ELLIOTT ON STATE BOARD

Mrs. J. W. Elliott again has been appointed to serve on the State Canvassing Board which will meet in Austin and canvass the vote following the primary next Saturday.

Former Citizen Taken By Death

Many people of Tahoka and Lynn County will be interested in the news of the death of Mrs. Frances Adeline Coughran, widow of the late G. W. Coughran, which occurred at 5 a. m. last Sunday at the home of her oldest daughter, Mrs. Hettie Baumann, at Miles. She had made her home at Dudley in Callahan County for many years, but she and her husband were pioneer citizens of Tahoka, having resided here from about 1905 or 1906 until the late teens.

She was the mother of Anson Coughran, who also resided here for many years but who is now engaged in the real estate business at Brownfield, and is a sister-in-law of Mrs. A. S. Coughran of this city, their husbands having been brothers. Her husband, G. W. Coughran, died at Dudley on March 5 of this year.

Mrs. Coughran was 89 years of age. She and her late husband were married in 1869 and accordingly had lived together for 73 years.

Surviving are eleven children, fifty grandchildren, forty great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon in the Dudley Baptist Church and the body was buried there. One son, Finley Coughran, resides at Dudley.

"Uncle George" and Mrs. Coughran were prominent and much-beloved citizens of Tahoka for perhaps a dozen years, well-known by all the old-timers of this section.

Joe Raindl Asks People's Support Of War Effort

Post Medical Detachment, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, July 18, 1942.
To: Editor Hill and All the People of Tahoka;
My recent visit to your city was a very enjoyable one. The people of the city of Tahoka have shown their real down-in-the-heart hospitality, which I have appreciated with great amazement.

In the two years of my service at Fort Sam Houston, I have met more people of your city than the seven years of civil life I have spent living near it.

As for the service of the UNITED NATIONS, I am crazy about it. I am proud to say that I am physically and mentally able to wear the uniform of the UNITED STATES. I once more will repeat the expression, "I am proud to be an American."

Now that I have attained the rank of Staff Sgt. through work, hell and high water, it's a pleasure to soldier, knowing that all my efforts were not in vain. Most soldiers do not like the service. That is because they forgot to apply themselves. The Army is all that a young man makes of it.

For the post of Fort Sam Houston I'll say that it is the best in the United States and all of its possessions.

Upon the closer of this letter to you, Mr. Editor, all the good people and readers of the LYNN COUNTY NEWS, I'll say — "Stay in there all of you and don't let us down, 'cause when we go across to fight on the front lines of our Battle we won't stop till we see BERLIN and TOKYO demolished."

I remain,
Staff Sgt. Joe F. Raindl,
Post Medical Detachment,
Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

W. E. Suddarth left Saturday to attend the state convention of rural letter carriers, meeting Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in New Braunfels. He was editor of THE TEXAS CARRIER, official organ of the Texas Rural Letter Carriers' Association for a number of years, during which time and for some time thereafter this periodical was printed in the Lynn County News office. Following the convention, Mr. Suddarth expected to visit friends in Dallas, Fort Worth, and Wichita Falls, and to be away from Tahoka for a period of about ten days. He cast his ballot before leaving for the convention.

HUDMANS FIND MANY FRIENDS AT LOS ANGELES

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hudman, accompanied by Miss Obera Forrester and Arthur Eiggerstaff, returned Saturday from a vacation trip to Los Angeles. They report that they saw a number of former Tahoka people who now reside there. Mr. Hudman says that he could name dozens of families in that vicinity from Tahoka or other parts of Lynn County.

While there, Mr. and Mrs. Hudman were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Boydston, while Mr. and Mrs. Frank Larkin live just across the street. Dave Penninger was employed in an aircraft plant there and his wife and family joined him there about the time the Hudmans arrived.

With people swarming into that city and vicinity from all parts of the United States, Johnny says that we may guess that it is a busy section of the country.

Mrs. Gladys Stokes had as her guests Wednesday morning some of the officials of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company of Dallas, which she represents here, including Richard R. Lee, the vice-president, Rip Davenport, assistant agency director, and J. Carlton Smith of the home office. She says that they were thrilled at the wonderful crop prospects that greeted them everywhere here in Lynn County.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boles and baby arrived Sunday from Los Angeles to visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Edwards, and other relatives.

LOUIS B. REED

for RE-ELECTION DISTRICT JUDGE 106th Judicial District

Judge Reed has served this district faithfully and well for six years. It will be remembered that he was appointed by the Governor, confirmed by the Senate, upon the death of our beloved Judge McGuire and then was elected. He is recognized as being honest, conscientious, fair, and impartial and as having given his best efforts and attention to this office. He has inaugurated many reforms, the most important of which is that of the policy of continuous terms of court. Formerly each county had only two terms per year lasting from one to five weeks. Only during that specified term could legal business ordinarily be transacted. This resulted in numerous delays working hardships upon litigants. It was expensive to the state and to the various counties. The present plan provides that district court is in session or may be in session for the transaction of legal business all the time, thus enabling the court business to be handled with promptness and dispatch.

The counties are saved heavy expense in jury service since jurors are called only when needed. It has practically put an end to the old practice of continuancy or postponements because as cases are continued or postponed, they may be called within a short time. It is noticed that practically the only opposition circulated about Judge Reed is that he is in the military service. Judge Reed was a soldier in World War One and was commissioned before the end of the war. Upon leaving the army in 1918, he joined the Officers Reserve Corps and kept up with his army work through study and taking training on the field in summers. At the outbreak of this war, he was called into service on January 12 and is now stationed at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Many other judges of the state and nation have done as he has. Other state and federal officers as members of the Reserve Corps are now in military service. Laws were passed long ago and have been confirmed in the highest courts making specific provision for reserve officers to be in military service without vacating office.

Your attention is called again to the fact that Judge Reed is receiving no salary as Judge. He receives only his military salary. The salary is being paid to Judge J. E. Garland. The state is saving the expense account in Judge Reed's absence because only the salary is paid to the special judge, thus, the charge of the opposition that Judge Reed holds two remunerative positions is refuted.

Insinuations have been expressed orally and in print that his military training is inimicable to fitness for court duty. Our reply is, "The Army of the United States exercises every effort to make men fit for any duty by increasing their general knowledge and ability to perform official duties with undue loss of time and to develop ideals of public service to the highest possible degree. The army training in manners and gentlemanly conduct is unequalled in exactness and thoroughness by any other agency."

Lt. Col. Reed has been an apt student of military subjects. He has acquired skills and techniques and a gentlemanly demeanor as is indicated by his rise in rank and it is manifestly unfair to infer or to insinuate that honorable military service unfits one in the common niceties of human relationships.

Some argue that Judge Reed is away on indefinite leave. He is away by virtue of having been called to active service following the opening of the war. His friends' position is that the legally constituted authorities for selecting one to serve as district judge, namely, the respective Bar of the counties of this judicial district, can be depended upon to select a competent judge while he is away. In fact, they have selected Judge J. E. Garland, a jurist of extraordinary ability, who is an ex-soldier himself, who has a son at Pearl Harbor, and who is as patriotic as any living man.

Judge Reed, by military regulation and by virtue of his work, cannot campaign for office. He cannot be both there and here. His campaign must of necessity be conducted by friends. He appreciates beyond expression the many kind words which have been spoken and the efforts put forth in his behalf while he is away devoting his entire time and attention, all his energy, and life if necessary, that our armed forces may be successful.

Statement By Judge J. E. Garland

A statement to the people of Dawson, Garza, Gaines, Lynn, Terry, and Yoakum Counties, with reference to the District Judge's Office.

The lawyers of all the above counties having unanimously chosen me to preside over this court during the absence of the present incumbent, I feel duty bound to make a statement of the situation, on the eve of the election.

I am filling this position the best that I can and appreciate very much the confidence bestowed upon me which is wholly unsolicited in so far as I am concerned. I felt it my duty to respond and am making a financial sacrifice in doing so, as I have abandoned my private practice, the overhead of my office goes on just the same. The state does not pay my traveling expenses and the pay checks for the salary can be cashed only at a discount, and then when it comes to making income tax returns from 25 to 50 per cent of the salary will be paid to the Government, but this is one way I can serve.

I have served as Special Judge of this District at intervals since 1911 and am proud of the service. I have never secretly had a craving for office and up to the present time have never asked a political favor, either for myself or for anyone else, and never expect to. I will serve as Special Judge only so long as the bar of every county in the district invite me to serve, and no longer. There is no understanding whatever between the present incumbent and myself with reference to me filling the time when he is absent. That is a matter solely with the bar of the several counties.

The only conversation that I have had with Judge Reed was early in January. He called at my home, after I had retired. He told me he had just had a call to appear at Fort Sill, that he did not know how long he would be gone, and told me that it was the wish of the Bar that I hold courts and asked if I was willing to do so. I vacant, which has not been done, and the rulings of the Supreme Court are that a member of the Officers Reserve Corps do not forfeit their Civil Office when called into the service. And certainly this question is of no importance in this election when he is neither serving as judge or drawing any pay.

Being an ex-service man, I may be biased in their favor, but if I am, I am in good company, because Congress in enacting the Draft Law made the following provision: "An employee of the U. S. Government and of a private employer must be restored to his position or to a position of like seniority, status, and pay on his completion of army service."

I do not wish to be in the attitude of trying to blight the ambitions of any worthy aspirant for office, but these are times that duty requires us to sacrifice many things that are personally pleasing to us and to devote our all to the saving of our country, and one of the safest guides as to what is one's duty is to comply in letter and in spirit with the laws and regulations of those whom we have trusted with leadership during these trying days.

As I view the situation, whoever enters our military service does so with the uncertainty of ever returning. All that they have, they are offering that we may live, and we do not have too many opportunities to demonstrate our appreciation, and it seems unthinkable to me, that the people of this district would bestow honors on one of its citizens, when he was in civil life, and then when called upon to give even his life for his country would reject and repudiate him. I fear that if I was one who did this, and he was one who never came back, that for the remainder of my days there would be a small whispering voice, asking me, "why did you do it?"

Respectfully, your disinterested friend.
J. E. GARLAND.

whom has served as governor of this state. It's a toss-up as to who will be the leader in the election Saturday. O'Daniel supporters make large claims for their candidate, but the Alfred followers are also very sanguine that their candidate will lead the ticket. Dan Moody admittedly is not as strong as the other candidates on the Plains, but there are many who believe that he will be first or second in the state.

Unless the unexpected should happen and O'Daniel should get a near-majority in the first primary, he most certainly will be defeated in the run-off.

For governor, Coke Stevenson, the present incumbent, seems to be running far in the lead. He has five opponents: Alex M. Ferguson—of Grayson County, Charles L. Somerville of Dallas County, Hope Wheeler of Tarrant County, Gene S. Porter of Bell County, and Hal H. Collins of Palo Pinto County. Collins is the only one of the bunch who seems to have given Stevenson any concern. He jumped into the O'Daniel band wagon even before the campaign opened up, and O'Daniel immediately hugged him to his bosom. The two have been campaigning together. Collins has gathered a very enthusiastic small following but it is not believed that this following will be as loud at the polling places as it has been before the hillbilly microphone.

Wheeler is a Townsendite and in previous campaigns has been a vociferous supporter of O'Daniel. By rights he ought to have the support of the O'Daniel following, but O'Daniel seems to have given his blessing to Esau, and Jacob (Wheeler) is left with the empty bag.

Alex M. Ferguson is a brother of Jim Ferguson but is an entirely different type of man. He worked his way through college, later became a college professor, then turned his attention to agricultural pursuits and became a seed-breeder. He is putting his finger on some sore spots on our election system, and there ought to be some way to remedy the evils that he points out, but it can hardly be done as long as we have the primary election system of nominating candidates.

Stevenson will probably be nominated in the first primary, with Hal Collins as the only opponent who will get a considerable vote.

There are nine candidates for lieutenant governor. Some of them are nonentities; some of them are probably well qualified for the place. John Lee Smith of Throckmorton County and Vernon Lemens of Ellis County are the two whose names are most frequently mentioned in this section of the state. Both are state senators, as is Harold Beck also, and one or two of the others have served in the legislature.

George H. Sheppard of Nolan County has one opponent, but he will be re-elected without knowing that there is another man seeking the job. Sheppard went into the office at a time when it had been badly mismanaged, and he rapidly brought order out of chaos, straightened out the kinks, placed the office on a business basis, and has run it that way ever since. The people appreciate his services and they just keep on electing him.

When Charley Lockhart resigned as state treasurer, Jesse James of Travis County was regarded as the logical man to succeed him. He was appointed and is now a candidate for election to the office. There are four other candidates for the office but little is known about any of them except W. Gregory Hatcher of Dallas, who has served a term or two in the Capitol but doesn't seem to be popular.

Bascom Giles of Travis County has a cinch on the job as commissioner of the General Land Office.

Gerald Mann is a sure shot for attorney general.

L. A. Woods will be re-elected State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

J. E. McDonald has three opponents for Commissioner of Agriculture. Many of the farmers and others are after him with a sharp stick. Bill Corry of Tarrant County is probably the most popular of his opponents in this section of the state though Bailey B. Ragsdale of Houston County has supporters all over the state.

Ernest O. Thompson of Amarillo undoubtedly has the inside track for re-election as railroad commissioner, regular term, though he has two opponents, Lester Boone of Tarrant County, a member of the legislature, and an oil operator named Saulsbury at Amarillo.

There are eleven candidates out after the job that Jerry Sadler resigned and then decided to take it all back when the shenanigan which he and his friend Kilday had plotted failed to work. Look over the list, find out all you can about the candidates, and then pick out your choice. Richard B. Humphrey of Dallas, Beauford Jester of Corsicana, T. Leo Moore of Wichita Falls, and others have received favorable comment here.

Harry N. Graves of Williamson County will probably be re-elected judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, as his opponent, Walter H. Strength, is not so well known among the laity of Texas.

There are four good men in the race for Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh District, but on account of his proximity to the people of Lynn County and his broad acquaintance among them, Judge E. L. Pitts of Lubbock will probably be a strong leader in that race in this county.

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, James P. Alexander of Waco, Congressman George H. Mahon of Colorado City, and State Representative Hop Halsey of Lubbock have no opponents.

Judge Louis Reed of Lamesa has an opponent; for district judge in the person of Judge W. W. Price of Brownfield.

For county offices, there is only one contest. Sam H. Floyd is pitted against B. L. Parker for sheriff.

There are four candidates for county commissioner from precinct No. 1: E. J. Cooper, P. F. (Pat) Swann, Vernon Willhite, and Curtis Morgan. Mrs. W. O. Henderson, who succeeded her husband by appointment, is not a candidate.

In precinct two, there are also four candidates, Lonnie Williams, the incumbent, being opposed by J. P. Tippit, Clyde Sargent, and Samie Norwood.

In precinct three, there are likewise four candidates to succeed Wajdo McLaurin, who chose not to run. They are Ted M. Clayton, R. O. (Roy) Miles, John A. Anderson, and E. O. Slaughter.

Leon Jennings, commissioner from precinct 4, faces Claud H. Reagan.

In precinct 2, there are two candidates for public weigher, Chester C. Swope and J. L. Hyde, and the present prospects are that the winner will have something to weigh this fall.

So, go to the polls early, folks, vote for your choice, keep as cool as the weather will permit throughout the day—but keep your shirt on—don't get hot at your neighbor because no doesn't see things as you do, and come to town as soon as the polls close and watch 'em chalk up the returns. If they please you, smile; if they don't, smile anyway.

To the Voters of Precinct No. 3, Lynn County

I want to solicit your vote again in my race for commissioner. To those I have not seen, if any, please take this as a personal solicitation. I have tried to see every one.

I have nothing new to say to the voters, but just restating some of the things I propose to do if elected.

I intend to co-operate with the Commissioners Court in the interest of the county, realizing that my first duty is to this precinct, fairly distributing the benefits of the office back to the taxpayers, removing debris from the road bed and keeping them in condition for travel.

Economy in the management of the office of this county and precinct.

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

"Not until Yank bands have played the Star-Spangled Banner in Berlin, Tokyo, and Rome, and totalitarian peoples have seen the horrors of war on their own ground, would Dan Moody vote in the United States Senate to ratify a peace treaty" according to a report of his speech made in Houston Monday night by a staff correspondent of the Dallas News. That sentiment will touch a responsive chord in the heart of every patriotic Texan, if we know the temper of the people of this state. The people of Texas are not cruel and they are not abnormally revengeful, but they know that those who make war must be made to feel the horrors of war if the peace of the world is to be maintained following this conflict. Besides, after years of the tyranny and horrors of Hitlerism and Fascism and Tojoism, we believe that the patriotic strains of a free people would thrill the hearts of millions in Germany and Italy and Japan. The Star-Spangled Banner which sings of the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave should be sweet music all over the world immediately after the fall of the world's most relentless dictator.

If this Government really desires to prevent inflation it should quit paying inflationary prices. The rock on which the Democratic Party will be broken and defeated at the next Presidential election is the rock of reckless and extravagant spending. Thousands and thousands of men and women are being paid top-flight wages for doing practically nothing. The graft and the corruption which this government is permitting, with little apparent effort to eliminate or curb, will be exposed and paraded before the public by the opposition party in the next Presidential campaign and unless the Administration at Washington takes prompt and effective action to stop these practices, the Democratic party will suffer such a defeat two years from now as it seldom has suffered in its history.

One can not study the faces of the young men of Lynn County now in the service as displayed by the photographs in the drugstore windows of Tahoka without feeling a keen sense of pride. They are a fine lot of young men. Their faces as a rule reflect a high degree of intelligence and character. Sons of freedom they are, fighting that freedom may not perish from the earth; and we verily believe that they and others like them from all parts of our country are the best soldiers in the world. What a pity that any of them must be sacrificed in order that a tyrant or a group of tyrants shall not spread their power throughout the world and stamp out liberty and democratic government everywhere! Let's arm them and equip them to the extent of our ability in order that as few of them as possible may be sacrificed in achieving victory for us and for the liberty-loving peoples of the world.

After hearing numbers of radio speeches by Jimmy Allred and a few by Dan Moody since this campaign started we feel that we have some excellent material in either one of them for a United States Senator. Mr. Allred has visited Tahoka and spoken here during the campaign and had visited here a number of times before, and he will probably be a favorite of Lynn County voters. Dan Moody has not included Tahoka on his speaking itinerary and has rarely if ever visited here before, and consequently he will probably not make as good a showing here as will Allred, but for ability, courage, eloquence, and solidity of character he is probably the strongest man in the race. Dan Moody would be a great credit to this state as a member of the United States Senate.

This war was thrust upon us suddenly and unexpectedly. Many of us believed that war could not long be warded off, but we did not expect Japan to make the attack at the time she did. Caught unprepared, we had to get ready for it in a hurry. It was to be expected therefore that some vultures would get in their bills and get away with the carrion. A recent investigation in Congress showed that certain commission men have reaped enormous profits as commissions for war production contracts. The American people have little more respect for that kind of grafter than they have for a traitor. They will enthusiastically applaud the action of the Lower House of Congress Monday, therefore, in outlawing the commissions on war contracts.

The effectiveness of American bombers are being felt more and more on the war-fronts of the world—in Egypt, in Russia, in Western Germany, in the Southwest Pacific, in China, and occasionally on the western tip of the Aleutians. Their might was felt in the Coral Sea and at Midway Island. Their effectiveness will increase in the months to come much more rapidly than that of our enemies. Let us turn in every scrap of iron and every bit of rubber that we can scrape up in order that our building program may not be held up one second. We started far behind; now we must strain every nerve to forge steadily ahead. We must win this war, whether it takes five months or five years.

Quoting and discussing a candidate's record is not "singing mud." It is legitimate and often commendable campaigning. It will be a sad day for democratic government in this country when a candidate on the outside dares not discuss the record of his opponent on the inside for fear he will be branded a mud-slinger. Nothing could contribute more surely to the perpetuation of incompetence and venality in office than the adoption of such a rule by the voters.

In the Senatorial election last year, W. Lee O'Daniel received only 31 per cent of the votes cast. The indications are that he will not do much if any better this year. It is not at all probable that he will get more than 35 per cent of the votes at the highest estimate, and that means that he will be gloriously swamped in the run-off.

ROLLIN MCCORD MAKES STATEMENT

To the Voters of the 106th Judicial District:
May I take this means of expressing my gratitude and appreciation to the citizens of this district for your support and assistance during my first term as your District Attorney.

I have enjoyed serving as your public servant and have appreciated the splendid co-operation of all the Grand Jurors, Juries and Public Officials with whom I have worked. During my second term, I pledge the same fair treatment of all regardless of race, creed or color in enforcing the criminal laws of our state.

Respectfully asking your vote in the coming Primary, I am
Sincerely yours,
Rollin McCord.

Old Age Pensions Are Paid In Full

AUSTIN, July 16—State Auditor C. H. Cavness reported today, after his current examination of the records, that in his opinion all taxes collected for the Old Age Assistance Fund have been properly handled by the State Comptroller and State Treasurer and that every individual old age assistance applicant who has been duly certified by the State Department of Public Welfare has been paid in full the entire amount to which he is legally entitled to date.

The State Auditor pointed out that under the present Federal law, with which the State must conform, all monthly payments to each individual are fixed by the Department of Public Welfare after investigation of each case to determine actual individual need. He said that the amount of the cash balance that may be on hand cannot legally be used to increase the size of the checks—that any excess cash over the amount necessary to pay the ones on the roll can be used only to increase the number, and that the total cash balance after the July 1942 checks had been written was only $15,813.96. Cavness also stated that 176,413 Old Age Assistance checks were issued for July 1942, or an average of $19.86 per check. In July 1941 checks were issued to 144,359 old people—average $18.54. This is an increase in 12 months of 32,054 checks and $1.32 in their average monthly amount. Since January 1941 the lowest average check was $11.47 in May 1941 and July 1942 was the highest, the average having increased somewhat every month since June 1941.

When a Child Needs a Laxative

Your child should like this tasty liquid laxative and you should like the gentle way it usually wakes up a youngster's lazy intestines when given by the simple directions.

SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT contains the same principal ingredient which has enabled its older brother BLACK-DRAUGHT to give so many users such satisfying relief for so many years!

Perhaps that's why it usually gives a child such refreshing relief when the familiar symptoms indicate a laxative is needed.

SYRUP OF BLACK-DRAUGHT comes in 2 sizes. The introductory size is 25c; the economy size is 50c.

A large electric fan contains enough steel to make three .38 caliber-revolvers, enough zinc for the zinc parts of an Army motorcycle, enough copper for 77 .30 caliber machine gun bullets and enough aluminum for the aluminum parts of seven gas masks.

FATHER: Well, the way living costs are up, I'll give a dollar to anybody here who contributes a suggestion to save money. How about it, Bob, my boy?

DAUGHTER MARY: For goodness sake, Father, you know Bob never saved a cent in his life... he...

SON BOB: Silence, worm! I've got an ad here. It's about motor oil and it says: "You can hardly think of one working part in your engine as cheap to replace as dirty, thin oil—a jinx to precious parts."

FATHER: I get it, son... and that car of ours has to go another two years at least. What oil is it?

SON BOB: It's Conoco Nth motor oil and the ad tells how the six engines were run to destruction in a Certified Death Valley Test. Conoco Nth made twice the mileage averaged by the five other big-name oils.

FATHER: Son, you get the first dollar. Take the car down tomorrow and get Conoco Nth oil.

Boles Orphans Will Appear Here

There will be sixteen children from the Boles Orphans Home at the Church of Christ Wednesday night, July 29, to give a program. These young people are all fine singers, and we feel that you will want to come and hear them.

Boles Orphans Home is located at Quinlan, and is under the supervision of the Elders of the Church of Christ there, with Mrs. J. B. Nelson acting as superintendent.

The children that come there from all parts of the country receive the very best training possible and Bible teaching every day, regardless of the religious training they received in their former home. This home, as well as others, is dependent upon the support of the hundreds of friends that it has.

Everyone is invited to come and hear these young people and to see the results of the efforts that have been put forth for their benefit.

PRICE SELLS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Price have sold their home to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thornhill.

The place is being repapered and re-decorated throughout and the outside walls re-dashed, after which it will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wyman J. Welch.

Mr. Price is employed as a guard at the big new Army Ordnance plant at Amarillo.

Mrs. Edgar Womack of Bonham is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hancock of New Home.

BOOK REVIEW AT TAHOCA H. D. CLUB

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell reviewed John Steinbeck's "The Moon Is Down," when the Tahoka Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Snowden Wednesday afternoon.

In her complete understanding of this ardent, stirring adventure, which could have had for its setting any hamlet in any one of the over-run countries, Mrs. Tunnell was able to make her hearers feel the mystery, the suppressed human passions, in fact, the clash of the wills of invader and invaded, like the clash of cold steel upon flint.

Mrs. J. B. Oliver, who presided over the meeting, expressed the appreciation of the club and presented to Mrs. Tunnell a small gift from the club.

Present were Meses. G. W. Forsythe, L. A. Forsythe, R. W. Fenton, E. I. Hill, W. H. Kenley, A. L. Smith, F. D. Server, Ben Hardy, S. W. Sanford, W. S. Anglin, T. J. Clark, J. K. Wootley, J. B. Oliver, W. S. Taylor, Tunnell, and Snowden.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fielder and son Melvin were here the first of the week visiting in the Coy Fielder home. Coy is their son. They went to visit a daughter at Lamesa before returning to their home at Hamlin.

Van Calvin Ellis and George Hancock of Dallas are here visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edwards. Van Calvin is a nephew of Roy and Bernyce Edwards. The boys spent Wednesday in the Carlsbad Cavern in New Mexico.

Lee King Making Flight Instructor

RANDOLPH FIELD (Special)—More Veterans of America's skyways... civilian airplane pilots—reported this week to the "West Point of the Air" to take a short-course in military aviation and become instructors to Uncle Sam's growing army of aviation cadets.

To be commissioned in the Army of the United States and given a service pilot's rating after approximately nine weeks of intensive study, these commercial flyers, many over age for combat duty, will relieve potential fighter pilots now serving as flight instructors and utility pilots in this country.

Reporting with the new group was Lee E. King, 36-year-old motion picture projectionist and aviation enthusiast, of Tahoka. The service is not new to the King family. King has two brothers already in the Army Air Forces and one in the Navy.

Civilian pilots between the ages of 21 and 42 who hold commercial licenses to operate craft of over 250 horsepower are eligible to apply for training as trainee-instructors. Applicants must pass a physical examination and a proficiency airplane check ride with an army-flyer.

Application may be made to the regional procurement supervisor of the civilian aeronautics authority in Ft. Worth, Kansas City, or Chicago, to any CAA official or at any basic flying school. While taking the short-course, trainee-instructors will work for civil service, receiving $300 per month. Training is offered at the Gulf Coast Army Air Forces Training Center at basic flying schools at Randolph Field, Sherman, San Angelo, Waco, and Enid, Oklahoma.

MRS. FLOWERS HONORED

Mmes. Alice Fortenberry, Clayton Lawrence, and J. W. Tippitt, were hostesses at a gift shower held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Harris, late Wednesday, honoring Mrs. Melton Flowers, a recent bride.

Mrs. Powers, the former Jennie Reba Nevill, was married in Flagstaff, Arizona, early in May, and her husband is in training at Pine Camp, N. Y. She has recently returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nevill, here.

Decorations featured a patriotic theme, with flags, toy soldiers and other military insignia mingling with summer flowers throughout the entertaining suite.

Misses Valerie Wells, Bonnie Jean Clark and Rae Fern Pennington furnished a program of music and readings.

Punch and cookies were served to about 50 guests.

The A. L. Smith home has recently undergone a complete re-decorating inside and out.

LOBBIED AGAINST TAX ON CRAZY WATER

DALLAS, July 23—G. C. Morris of Greenville, author of the tax bill at the last regular session of the legislature which raised $21,000,000 annually for old age pensions, charged Wednesday in an address here that Hal Collins, now a candidate for governor, lobbied against including a tax on "crazy water" when the old age pension tax bill was under consideration.

Morris is unopposed for election to the senate from the 10th district. As a member of the Texas House of Representatives he sponsored the tax bill. Morris gave Governor Coke Stevenson, then lieutenant governor and presiding officer of the Senate, a large share of the credit for passage of the pension tax measure.

ODDS and ENDS

by Eee Eye, the Elder

When Mother Eve brought forth into the world her first son, according to the Biblical record, she exclaimed exultantly, "I have gotten a man from the Lord!"

As she looked into the face of that first infant from her couch, improvised, no doubt, from furs and leaves and flowers, in some shady bower just outside the Garden of Eden, she must have been delighted and thrilled beyond the power of expression. Her hopes for his future must have been high indeed. She must have visualized in him a most righteous and mighty servant of God.

Doubtless she remembered the curse which God had pronounced against that Satanic Serpent which had deceived her and had cost her perpetual happiness in Eden, and perhaps she dreamed that little Cain was the "seed" which should bruise this Serpent's head.

How disappointed she must have been in after years when that babe turned out to be a murderer, a liar, a rebel against God, a fugitive from men, and a vagabond on the face of the earth!

How strange it is that even yet the offspring of righteous parents sometimes turn out to be the most wicked of men! In spite of this fact, however, it is true that, as a rule, the monsters of history have been the sons of wicked or dissolute women.

We often wonder what kind of woman was Hitler's mother.

Some day, we suspect, the character of his parents and his more remote ancestry will become a matter of common knowledge. Up to this time, we have been given little information on this matter.

We do know that he has turned out to be one of the most heartless murderers of all time.

We think that any man who leads a nation to wage a war of conquest upon weaker or unprepared nations, just for the purpose of gaining power for himself or for his people, is in fact a murderer. In that category would fall many of the great military leaders of the world, such as Philip of Macedon, Alexander the Great, Julius Caesar, Napoleon Bonaparte, and others.

But when a great leader proceeds to put to death innocent and unarmed people who may fall into his power, in order to create terror and submission on the part of their fellow countrymen, then that man is just as truly a murderer as the bandit who goes out to rob or despoil and to kill.

Adolf Hitler, on this score, is a murderer a thousand times over. He has proved to be one of the most relentless and heartless butchers of all history! The victims of his ambitious and ruthless spirit run in fact into the millions.

We wonder if this propensity to murder, this brutality, was inherited or has been acquired.

Up until the opening of the current World War, it was not believed that such monsters as Caligula and Nero and Marat had any rivals in the modern world. It now transpires, however, that Adolf Hitler is rapidly taking his place as one of the most brutal monsters of all time, Caligula and Nero not excepted.

As many consider Hitler as the Madman of Europe, Caligula was the Madman of ancient Rome. He was the son of an ambitious, unscrupulous father and of a cruel, dissolute, thoroughly wicked mother. He came to regard himself as a god, and made human sacrifices in his own honor. He was eventually assassinated at the behest of Roman conspirators in A. D. 41, at the age of only 29 years.

Nero surpassed even Caligula in his excesses. His mother, Agrippina, poisoned her second husband and married again with a view to clinching the throne for her son Nero. She committed other murders just as heinous. Then, after Nero came onto the throne, one of his crimes was the murder of his own mother. He caused the city of Rome to be burned and charged the crime against the Christians. He caused hundreds of Christians to be thrown to the lions to be torn to pieces and devoured.

A rebellion incited by his atrocities finally caused Nero to flee for his life, and he committed suicide to prevent being captured alive. He thus met his death at the age of 31. Hitler possibly has not yet done anything quite so horrifying as the crimes of Caligula and Nero, but he has committed a thousand murders through orders given to his henchmen where Caligula and Nero committed one.

That French monster, Jean Paul Marat, was perhaps the outstanding murderer of the French Revolution. For weeks he kept the guillotine busy chopping off the heads of his enemies and even friends whose loyalty he suspected. He was finally assassinated by a woman, Charlotte Corday, who felt that an end must be put to his wild murderous career. Gaining entrance to his bathroom, she stabbed him to death and was herself later executed for the act. Marat was murdered at the age of 49, after having lived many years too long.

We have no data as to the character of his mother, but the indications are that she was a respected and respectable woman, a native of Switzerland.

Far back in the early years of divine history God decreed this law: "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed; for in the image of God made he man."

Philip of Macedon was assassinated at the age of 46 by a youth of his own country possibly at the instigation of Philip's divorced wife.

Alexander the Great died of a fever brought on by dissipation at the age of 33, but if he had survived the fever he doubtless would have been slain by some of his thousands of enemies within a few months.

After long years of warfare and conquest, Julius Caesar was stabbed to death by a disloyal friend, Junius Brutus, in the Roman Senate.

Napoleon Bonaparte, the greatest military genius of modern times if not of all time, died a prisoner of the British at the age of 48, on the lonely and desolate isle of St. Helena. Though he won many a victory, he was at last conquered by his enemies and suffered a fate worse than death on the battlefield, for on that lonely island he gradually wasted away under the ravages of cancer, death finally coming to relieve his earthly suffering.

Adolf Hitler is riding through rivers of blood to fame and power.

But his time is coming. We wonder just when.

Mrs. Gladys Stokes reported recently that she had just had a letter from Mrs. John Bulman, who now resides in Hamilton County near Jonesboro, stating that she received a letter on July 15 from her son, Raymond Bulman, written from New Zealand on May 5, and she was delighted to know that up to that time at least Raymond was sound and well. The Bulmans resided in this county many years. Raymond is now serving as radioman on a merchant ship.

Sergeant Woodrow Brewer of the 12th Air Base, Kelly Field, San Antonio, was here last week end on a three-day furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brewer, who live about fifteen miles south of Tahoka.

Mrs. E. E. Cryer and daughters, Patsy and Billie Joe, of Del Rio, are here visiting Mrs. Cryer's sister, Mrs. Roy Edwards, and family.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO MEET

The Legion and Auxiliary will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Legion Hall in a joint meeting. A chicken barbecue will be served. Mr. Aubra Cade urges all ex-servicemen to be there. Important business is scheduled to be attended to. The Legion is to take over or look after the recruiting service. Ex-service men please co-operate. This is important.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pitts, who now reside several miles southeast of Lamesa in Dawson County, were here over the week end visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Pitts, and greeting friends. They formerly resided for many years in the Dixie community but sold out and bought a farm in Dawson County last year.

Mrs. K. G. Hines of Levelland was here over the week end and during the first part of this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Roger Bell, and her brother, D. H. Goodmough, and their families.

According to the best records, the first farm terrace in Texas was constructed by a Newton County farmer, Duke Howell, in 1882.

Texas lumber industry employs about 18,000 workers annually in the woods and mills.

Mrs. Alley ...

County at the time.

Mr. Alley was a ranchman and had been in this section since 1879, when he came to Crosby County with Will and John Slaughter. At the time of their marriage Mr. Alley was manager of Col. C. C. Slaughter's Tahoka Lake Ranch, which then covered about half of Lynn County.

Mrs. Alley's ranch home at Tahoka Lake was for years a favorite meeting place of cowboys and ranchmen from all over the Plains and even then she was famous for her cooking.

In those days, Mrs. Alley enjoyed riding, and she spent much of her time on the range and even participated in cattle drives to Stanton.

Mr. Alley also at times was manager of the Long-S Ranch and of the Runningwater Ranch, also owned by Col. Slaughter, and when the vast Slaughter empire was broken up, Mr. and Mrs. Alley acquired a part of the Tahoka Lake Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Alley had their part in the organization of this county and the founding of Tahoka in 1903, and she had known the place from the time the first dug-out was excavated here until Death called her hence.

In the pioneer days, Mrs. Alley became acquainted with all the ranchmen and their families in this entire section of the state, and many warm friendships were formed in those trying days.

For many years Mrs. Alley had lived in the town of Tahoka itself. Her husband, Jack Alley, died here in 1934. He operated a hardware store here, and served for a time as postmaster. For a number of years before his death he and Mrs. Alley operated the Sunshine Inn here, which had been built out of material coming largely from the old Methodist Church building, and she has continued to operate this popular house since his death, assisted in recent years by Mr. and Mrs. Hall Robinson.

In their early married life, Mr. and Mrs. Alley adopted a daughter, Miss Hazel Mason, whom they reared as their own child and who took her name, now Mrs. Carl Bennett. Survivors include Mrs. Robinson and her son, Jack Alley Robinson; Mrs. Bennett and two children, Ethel Margaret and McNeill Bennett.

Deen Nowlin Has New Hybrid Corn

Mr. and Mrs. Deen Nowlin presented the News force with several ears of green corn Monday grown in his own field out in the Edith community. Of course we enjoyed and appreciated the corn.

But Deen explained that this was not just the ordinary run of corn. It is a hybrid corn, first produced by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace a few years ago. It is a product of the cross-breeding of distinct types of corn, and will not very successfully reproduce.

The virtue of the hybrid corn lies in the fact that the yield on an average is about 25 per cent greater than that of the parent varieties. Deen says that he had fourteen acres last year that made over 50 bushels to the acre. He has 40 acres this year and expects it to produce 40 bushels per acre.

But, before planting next year, he must buy seed from the breeder, for as stated this hybrid corn will not successfully reproduce.

Buster Fenton. Honorary pall bearers were George Small, A. L. Lockwood, J. S. Weatherford, Hub Clark, all of Tahoka, and George Boles, Easton Wolfarth, and Albert Taylor of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Russell of Forsan visited Rev. and Mrs. George A. Dale here Sunday afternoon. The two families are long time friends, having known each other at Madill, Okla., while Rev. Dale was pastor there.

A wilderness of flowers banked around the casket and the great concourse of people that crowded into the Church for the funeral services were mute testimony of the esteem in which she was held.

The body was laid to rest in the Tahoka Cemetery under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home of this city.

Active pall bearers were Walter Slaton, Jim Burleson, Otho Thomas, E. H. Boullion, Bill Burleson, and

He is 40 years old, a product of Lynn County and has had much experience dealing with the public.

He has a sincere desire to serve as Sheriff, and, if elected, will appreciate it as much as anyone and will do his best to make a good Sheriff.

Due to the rubber shortage, and a limited amount of time for campaigning, he has not been able to see all voters, but assures those he has missed that he has not done so intentionally. Sam Floyd can do the job, and will give fair and just treatment to all.

Deen Nowlin Has New Hybrid Corn

Mr. and Mrs. Deen Nowlin presented the News force with several ears of green corn Monday grown in his own field out in the Edith community. Of course we enjoyed and appreciated the corn.

But Deen explained that this was not just the ordinary run of corn. It is a hybrid corn, first produced by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace a few years ago. It is a product of the cross-breeding of distinct types of corn, and will not very successfully reproduce.

The virtue of the hybrid corn lies in the fact that the yield on an average is about 25 per cent greater than that of the parent varieties. Deen says that he had fourteen acres last year that made over 50 bushels to the acre. He has 40 acres this year and expects it to produce 40 bushels per acre.

But, before planting next year, he must buy seed from the breeder, for as stated this hybrid corn will not successfully reproduce.

Buster Fenton. Honorary pall bearers were George Small, A. L. Lockwood, J. S. Weatherford, Hub Clark, all of Tahoka, and George Boles, Easton Wolfarth, and Albert Taylor of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Russell of Forsan visited Rev. and Mrs. George A. Dale here Sunday afternoon. The two families are long time friends, having known each other at Madill, Okla., while Rev. Dale was pastor there.

A wilderness of flowers banked around the casket and the great concourse of people that crowded into the Church for the funeral services were mute testimony of the esteem in which she was held.

The body was laid to rest in the Tahoka Cemetery under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home of this city.

Active pall bearers were Walter Slaton, Jim Burleson, Otho Thomas, E. H. Boullion, Bill Burleson, and
