Share-The-Meat Program Initiated In Lynn County

Share-the-Meat program was explained to 25 representatives from 15 communities of Lynn county at the county agricultural building on Tuesday afternoon by Miss Kate Adele Hill, district agent, Extension Service, College Station, County Agent Don Turner, and Home Demonstration Agent Maurine McNatt.

Those attending the meeting will carry details of the program to the people of their respective communities.

Briefly, the Share-the-Meat program is a campaign for voluntarily dividing fairly the pork, beef, veal, lamb and mutton which is available for civilians after the needs of the armed services and lend-lease commodities.

Many Are Inducted Into Armed Forces

Many young men and a few middle-aged men have recently entered the United States Armed Forces, according to Mrs. Loyce McMahon, secretary of the Lynn county Selective Service Board.

The following selectees have been accepted by the Army: Joe Wiley Moore, Rt. 1; Lonnie Paul Turner, Albert M. Wagonseller, Nieves Martine, Austin Franklin Glibreath, John Williams (Jackie) Weathers, William David Hodges, all of Tahoka; Curtis Monroe Finley and Frank Junior Burnett, both of O'Donnell; and Wilbert Arthur Wuensche, Route 1, Wilson.

Entering the Army Air Forces are: Ray Sherrod, Lehman James Brown, route 2, and Dwight Irvin (Bud) Gryder, all of Tahoka; Reble Luther Thomas and Otis Odell Bosworth, Grassland; Harris Eugene Gardenhire, Bobbie Lee Shoulters, route 2, and Jess Wiley Cross, route 3, all of O'Donnell; and Carol R. Busby, route 1, Wilson.

Regular Army: Daws Jackson and Fred Virgil Pierce, both of route 2, Tahoka.

Navy: Marshall Justin Whitsett and Lee Houston Lightfoot, O'Donnell; and Marvin Smith, Tahoka.

A few of these have been reported previously by The News as being in the service, but the local Selective Service Board no longer releases a list of men called for service until the men have passed all physical examination and have been actually inducted.

More Men Join Navy "Sea-Bees"

Several Lynn county men have enlisted in the Navy in the past week. Alvin Brower left Monday for service as an apprentice seaman.

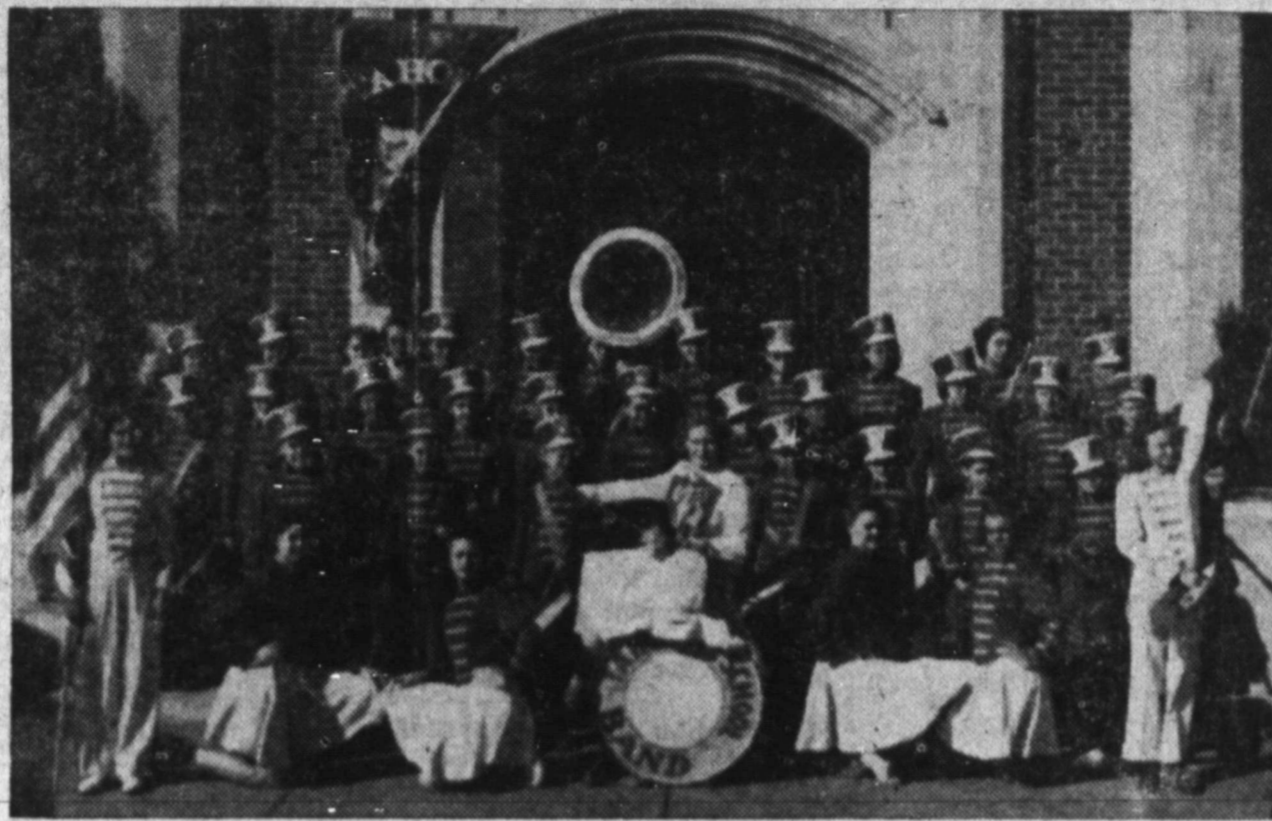

The following have applied for ratings in the Seabees: Thompson Theodore Garrard, John Curtis McGuire, and Alton Pannin Greer, all of Tahoka.

"Boots" King Is Glider Sergeant

Sgt. C. B. (Boots) King, who is a glider pilot at the Dalhart, Texas, Army Glider Field, was a visitor in Tahoka last week end.

Boots, who will pilot one of the new giant transport gliders, tells many interesting facts about glider training and the place of the glider in modern war. He thinks they will be largely used to land supplies in places where planes may not be able to land. The fact that they may noiselessly approach an objective at ten miles or more distance makes them a suitable transport for night-time surprise attacks.

Mrs. H. A. Nichols is visiting her father in San Angelo this week.

TAHOKA HIGH SCHOOL BAND, directed by Miss Mary Eleanor King, is the pride of the town and school. It not only furnishes an means of giving music instruction to a large number of students, but is constantly being called on for public appearances, such as the Victory Concert next Monday night to boost the sale of United States War Bond and Stamps. A Junior Band acts as a feed to the High School Band.

Third Victory Concert Monday

"Fight for Freedom" will be the theme of the second Victory concert of the year which will be held Monday night in the Tahoka High School auditorium. The presentation is directed by Misses Mary Eleanor King and Anita Reddell, music teachers in the school system.

The program was divided into three sections: the first represented the history of America from 1492-1776; the second, from 1776-1865; and the third, 1864-1942.

The program was as follows: 1492-1776 Reading, 'Columbus, by Dorothy Rusk.

Pilgrim's Chorus, band. Scene: Pilgrims at church. Billy Stevens,orgetta Akin, Barbara Jean Henderson, Jimmy Tinsley, Donald Edwards, Dale Rae Smith, Jeannette Hill, Peggy Jean Hill, Alice Roberts, Alice Jewel Parker, La

Christmas Lights Will Be Reduced

As far as the City is concerned, Tahoka's usual Christmas decorative street lights will be dispensed with, Mayor Deen Nowlin states.

WPB officials in Washington have made such a request, and local officials will comply in order to conserve critical materials, electricity, and manpower.

WPB has advised, however, that individuals and mercantile establishments may and should continue their Christmas decorations in a limited manner. It has recommended that no business firm spend more than $50 on their Christmas decorations, which is more than most Tahoka firms spend in ordinary times.

Children should not be deprived of the beauties or the spirit of Christmas, it is pointed out, and curtailment of the lighting program and excessive expenditures are made as a necessary contribution to the nation's war effort.

Citizens Register For Ration Books

Lynn county people were flocking to the school houses Thursday with applications for gasoline ration books.

Supt. W. T. Hanes of the local schools said books would be issued at the school until Saturday noon.

Those making application for ration books, must bring their application blank properly filled out, with the five tire serial numbers listed, and their car registration receipts.

Excess tires may be sold at the railroad express office, or turned in for scrap rubber.

Mrs. Pearl Edwards of Fort Worth has been here this week visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Edwards.

Elmo Stell Given Naval Commission

Elmo D. Stell, former Wilson garage operator, has enlisted in the Navy and has been given a rating as Third Class Petty Officer, Mrs. Stell writes The News from Dallas. He is stationed at the United States Naval Aviation Base at Grand Prairie, between Dallas and Fort Worth.

Mr. Stell has been working in a defense plant near there the past few months.

AAA Leaders For County Named

County AAA committeemen were named Saturday afternoon when community representatives met at the county agricultural building.

Roy Adams was retained as chairman of the county committee, J. R. Strain as vice-chairman, and A. L. Shepherd as regular member. H. W. Calaway will be first alternate and James H. Robbins second alternate. Mr. Adams, by reason of his election as county chairman, automatically becomes chairman, also, of the USDA War Board, the Farm Defense Transportation Committee, and the Farm Machinery Rationing Committee.

J. C. Smith is AAA secretary for Lynn county.

Guard Inspection Is Monday Night

Major O. H. Bryant, inspecting officer of the Adjutant General's office, Austin, will make a formal inspection of Company F, 39th Bn. Texas Defense Guard, next Monday night at 8:30 o'clock, he has informed Capt. Don Turner of the local unit.

Since the local company's rating will likely depend to a large extent on the turn-out, Capt. Turner requests that every member of the Guard be present in full uniform.

Close-order drill, wedge formations, and guard duty were included in last Monday night's instruction.

JOB OPEN FOR WOMEN IN AIRCRAFT PLANTS

The aircraft companies in Texas have hired, and will continue to hire a large number of young women to replace workers being called into the armed services and to help fill the openings in this rapidly expanding industry.

For further information, see Mrs. Dr. E. Prohl.

ENTERS OFFICER TRAINING

Corp. G. C. Price of Fort Lewis, Wash., is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Price, en route to Fort Benning, Ga., where he will enter officers' training school.

Staff Sgt. Elbert Crawford of the Roswell Flying School recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crawford of Draw, on a 15-day furlough.

School Carnival Is Next Week

Hurry! Hurry! Hurry! Step right up for the big show.

It's carnival time again at Tahoka high school, and the gala annual affair will be held beginning Wednesday, Nov. 25, at noon through Wednesday night in the Grade school gym.

Townpeople are not only urged to come, but are expected to be present, as the proceeds from the fair go to the athletic fund of the school. A small admission will be charged for entrance to the gym. Each class will have a concession; a rummage sale will be held; and scrap donations will be made. A football queen from both grade school and high school will be selected on strength of votes gained through the carnival, and the winners will be awarded Bulldog football trophy sweaters entitled "Football Queen." Votes for the candidate will be made by the classes through the purchase of picture show tickets for the show which will be held Wednesday morning; garments donated to the rummage sale will tally 25 votes; and each 100 pounds of scrap will total 35 votes. The winners will be announced Dec. 1.

News Out Early For Thanksgiving

Due to the fact that next Thursday is Thanksgiving, next week's edition of The News will be in the mails Wednesday and will carry Thanksgiving messages from the business men of Tahoka.

Advertisers and correspondents are invited to co-operate with The News force by getting in their copy on Monday, or Tuesday at the latest.

HUNTING DEER

Among the deer-hunting parties going out from Tahoka this week was one made up of Sheriff B. L. Parker and his two sons, Dee and Pug, Jim Dye, Russell Vernon, and Judge Ches. Connolly, who left Sunday for Mason county to be ready for the hunt bright and early Monday morning.

UNFRED IS LIEUTENANT

Mr and Mrs. J. P. Unfred of Petty recently enjoyed a visit from their son, Lieut. Joe D. Unfred.

Joe has been in the Army almost two years and a half and has been stationed in several different states. He is now in Virginia, near Washington, D. C., and recently was commissioned a first lieutenant.

Woman, Child Die In Burning House

55,000 Bales Cotton Ginned In County

Approximately 55,000 bales of cotton have been ginned in Lynn county to date, according to the best estimates available to The News.

Tahoka gins had ginned 12,600 bales up to 10:30 a. m. Thursday, and increase of 2,000 bales since last Thursday.

Favorable weather of the past ten days has permitted the gathering of the crop at a rapid rate, though there is yet much cotton to be ginned, possibly 35 or 40 percent of the crop.

Mrs. Romines And Son Fire Victims Monday Morning

Tragedy of the gravest type came to the home of Buster Romines about 3:00 o'clock Monday morning when the house in which the family lived was destroyed by fire and Mrs. Romines and one of their little sons, William Floyd, 6, were burned to death.

When the family awoke, the house was in flames. In great haste and excitement they aroused the children and all fled from the burning building. At least Mr. Romines believes that all of them had gotten out of the house. William Floyd, however, had either failed to get out or had rushed back into the house. Mrs. Romines, hearing his cry, herself rushed back into the flames for him but was instantly overcome and perished.

All this had happened before the fire alarm had been turned in. J. L. Jolly, a next door neighbor, turned in the alarm, but the house was almost consumed by the flames when the fire department arrived. Later, the remains of the victims were found burned to a crisp.

It is not known how the fire started but it is believed that it originated from a stove in which there had been a fire on Sunday night.

Funeral services for Mrs. Romines and little son, William Floyd, were conducted in the Harris Funeral Chapel at 4:00 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Rev. H. A. Nichols Is Returned Here

Rev. H. A. Nichols, pastor of the Tahoka Methodist Church the past few months, was returned to the local charge at the 33rd annual session of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference which was held at Sweetwater last week end.

Dr. O. P. Clark remains as district superintendent of the Lubbock district.

Other Lynn county pastors returned are: H. H. Hollowell, O'Donnell; Ellis Todd, Wilson; O. M. Addison, New Home; and J. E. Young, Draw-Grassland.

Southland has a new pastor, E. C. Armstrong, who succeeds H. B. Coggins, who has become a chaplain in the U. S. Army.

Among former Tahoka pastors, Rev. Geo. E. Turrentine remains at Muleshoe, J. E. Eldridge moves from Levelland to Spearman, R. T. Breedlove moves from Floydada to Dumas, H. C. Smith remains at Big Spring, C. C. Armstrong at Canyon, and Hamilton Wright, formerly at Draw-Grassland, is at Groom.

The local church was expecting the return of Bro. Nichols, who has met popular approval of members of the church and other citizens of the town.

Rotarians Plan Honor to Soldiers

Plans for a great celebration to honor boys in the service and to boost the sale of War Bonds were discussed at the Rotary Club Thursday noon, plans for which will be announced later. The day is expected to be one of the most important and most interesting in the town's history.

A committee composed of W. T. Hanes, Dr. J. W. Sinclair, Leonard Craft, L. C. Hanev, Happy Smith, and Frank Hill will meet this morning to make further plans for the day.

The program Thursday consisted of a "man on the street" program conducted by Dr. K. R. Durham, and was a most interesting one. Other participants were C. A. Thomas, Walter Mathis, J. L. Heare, Boyd Smith, and Deen Nowlin.

Deen Nowlin, Happy, Smith and Dr. Emil Prohl called attention to the Victory Concert Monday night at the Tahoka high school, and urged citizens to attend or to send their checks for bonds and stamps.

Visitors were: Rotarians F. C. Parris of Charleston, West Virginia; and Homer McCrary and A. B. Haws, Post. Also present were A. L. Pace, New Home, and Porter Giles and A. A. Allen, Lubbock.

Hanes, vice president of the club, presided in the absence of President Truett Smith. Wynne Collier was program chairman for the day.

ON FOREIGN SOIL

A cablegram to Mrs. Gladys Stokes on Saturday from her brother, A. H. McGonagill, and another on Monday from W. V. McElroy to Mrs. McElroy, gave the information that each was safe and well and indicated that the two Macks had arrived safely at their destination—wherever that it. They are in the Seabees.

J. P. McGuire, 65, Buried Wednesday

Funeral services for J. P. McGuire, 65, were conducted at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, following which interment was in Tahoka cemetery. Elder Walter Jackson of the Primitive Baptist Church, Cisco, was in charge, assisted by Garnie Atkinson, local Church of Christ minister.

Mr. McGuire died of a heart ailment at his home in Edith community at 7:15 Monday evening.

A native Texan, he was born in Shelby county on May 10, 1877, and was married to Miss Lela Robinson at Mineola December 22, 1897.

With his family, Mr. McGuire moved to Lynn county from Panola county in the fall of 1936, and lived several years in the New Lynn community. They later moved to Sylvestor, but returned to Lynn county, Edith community, this year.

Neighbors and friends of Mr. McGuire speak of his self-sacrificing life, always willing to do all that he could for others. He was a devoted husband and father in his home.

Though he had been troubled with a heart ailment for some years, he led an active life as far as possible and carried on work with his family until the very end of his life. On Monday he had been pulling bolls, and spoke of being tired but did not indicate any feeling of illness until later. His final illness terminated quickly, even before the services of a physician could be secured, only Mrs. McGuire and a small grandchild being present when the end came.

During their almost 45 years of companionship, Mr. and Mrs. McGuire had lost in death seven of the eleven children born to their union. Of the four left, their youngest son, John Curtis, had left Monday for Dallas to take the examinations for a rating with the "Seabees," Naval construction unit. He returned here for his father's funeral.

Other survivors include the widow, a son, B. M. McGuire of Edith, and a son, T. T. McGuire of Mooringspost, La., and a daughter, Mrs. Archie Reese, New Home. Also surviving are four brothers, all living in Texas.

The liquor habit made of a certain star such a confirmed drunkard that in the divorce trial that resulted the court awarded the custody of her five children to her husband. Liquor broke up that home. It is breaking up thousands of homes in America every year.

"Praise the Lord, and pass the ammunition!" Those bold, audacious, ingenious, unscrupulous, crafty, cunning, treacherous, sneaking Japs have again been given a terrible and much deserved drubbing, Nimitz, and Halsey, and MacArthur are rapidly debunking the superiority complex with which they seem to be afflicted along with the Germans. They claim that they have not been licked in two thousand years, but now they must be finding out, to their great consternation, that that two thousand years is fast drawing to a close. Henceforth she is the land of the setting sun.

The landing of an American Expeditionary Force in Northern Africa and the successes achieved by American troops there since seem to put new life and hope into both the Russians and the British. It has made Hitler ease up somewhat on the Russian front and brought a good word at last from old Joe Stalin, while the British are fairly running over with glee. On account of their victory over Rommel in Egypt and the arrival of the Americans, the British rang their church bells again last Sunday for the first time since they entered the War. It does look better.

The News regrets that it must omit some verses written by Mrs. W. J. Failes of this city several years ago and now furnished us for publication, as we must conserve space and rarely ever publish poetic compositions, though we appreciate the sentiment of these verses.

ODDS and ENDS

by Bee Eye, the Elder

Were you in town Saturday afternoon? Everybody else was. Stores jammed! Crowds everywhere! Cotton pickers here from the black lands! Here from the San Antonio country!

Go out into the country and it's Cotton, Cotton Everywhere! Another 1937, if we had the acreage we had that year. Already over fifty thousand bales have been ginned in this country this fall, and nearly that much more to be ginned! What a cotton country this is!

No, it isn't all cotton. The feed acreage almost equals the cotton acreage, and there is a bumper yield of feed. Already four hundred cars of grain have been shipped from Tahoka. What a farming country! And out here on these boundless plains! It used to be strictly a cow country; and before that they called it a desert!

We believe it was General Sherman who was credited with saying on one occasion that if he owned Hell and Texas he would rent out Texas and live in Hell. Let us hope that he didn't finally move to that region.

What is it that has converted this "desert" into a second garden of Eden, at least occasionally? "Water!" you say.

Yes, but even with all this underground water and with the annual rainfall that is much more abundant than denizens of the East once thought, these plains still could not have been converted from a cow country into a farming country except for the invention of one thing—barbed wire!

Yes sir, barbed wire is responsible for the presence of all these Mexicans in town each Saturday afternoon, for all these White people being here, in fact. If it had not been for barbed wire, this doubtless would still be an open range country. In that case there would be no Tahoka here—no O'Donnell, no Lamesa, nor Brownfield, nor Lubbock, except as mere cross-roads trading points or villages.

No sir, Texas could not have been the rich and populous state she is without barbed wire.

As much as we regret to admit that we are that old, we can remember the time, folks, when there was no barbed wire. We lived then down in the black-land belt of central Texas, in Bell county. And when we discovered America down in that land of milk and honey cows, spotted and speckled and brown and mottled ones, there were no wire fences.

What did the people do for fences? Well, where rocks were plentiful, they built fences of rock. That must have been a laborious task. In other places they built their fences of rails. There were the old "worm" fences that stood for years after the advent of barbed wire. And then there were the later model fences, in which posts were set into the ground a few feet apart, holes bored through the posts with a bit at proper intervals, and the rails fastened to the posts with round, smooth wires that were passed through the holes in the posts and then around or through the rails near the end. This made a substantial fence, but the building of such a fence was also a laborious and expensive task.

It required a long time to place such a fence around even a small farm. That was a virgin country then; and most of the first settlements were made in the woods along the streams or near some spring of water. But a little later the settlers established little farms here and there out on the prairies too, but the fields for the most part, before the introduction of barbed wire, were small.

And, believe it or not, some folks grew their fences. There are places in that country yet where one may see the remnants of an old bois d'arc hedge. A bois d'arc tree is a strong tree covered with thorns, that grow a milky "apple" two or three times as large as a baseball. These balls contain the seeds, and as they drop onto the ground each fall new twigs come up each year—or possibly they come from the roots of the mother tree. At any rate, that row of bois d'arc trees soon becomes a dense mat of thorny brush, an excellent fence.

The white-headed guy that hammers out this stuff on a typewriter was born at the end of one of these bois d'arc hedges, and so we know.

And woe to the kid that happens to step on a bois d'arc thorn! It's worse than a mesquite thorn, and lots worse than a grass-burr, for it goes into the flesh much deeper.

We guess there are a lot of kids half grown out on these plains who have never seen a bois d'arc tree, even though they have gone about a lot in this day of Fords and Chevies and automobiles. The truth is that we have seen very few of them even in central Texas in recent years. The folks quit growing them when they didn't need them any longer for hedge fences.

In case you want to know how the name of that remarkable tree is pronounced, kids, we can not give you the correct French pronunciation, but the plain old hickory-shirt nineteenth century American pronunciation is "bo-dark".

Yes sir, we can remember one of the very first barbed-wire fences that was ever built in our neighborhood—and that was one of the first in that county, in fact. We were then just a little tow-headed kid, and as we remember it the wire was red and was twisted, and the barbs possibly were just sharp projections at regular intervals of the flat wire. Several types of wire were put on the market soon after the first appeared and we can not be sure as to which type appeared first but we can remember that red wire. We were too young then to realize the importance and the significance of that barbed wire fence.

Most of the land was "outside" then. There were many herds of sheep on those prairies, but for every herd there was a sheep-herder.

We don't know how those rich prairie lands would have been converted into farms, one after another, one after another, all over that marvelous black-land belt, if barbed wire had not been invented.

It was along in the late 1870's when the first barbed wire appeared, and by 1890 all those central Texas black-land counties had become one great farming area, with cotton as the major crop.

And the cattlemen in the west were able also to fence their ranches, and that was the origin of the great ranches of that section of the state. Had it not been for barbed wire, the cowboy would have been compelled to depend entirely on the cowboy to keep his herds intact.

And then came the farmer with

his teams and his plows and converted these ranches into cotton fields and maize fields, and now herds of Mexicans are here gathering the bumper cotton crop.

And so occasionally we cast our eyes backward and see again that red barbed wire fence that was built on that Bell county hillside a little more than sixty years ago, and we wonder what America would be to barbed wire.

Possibly a strong smooth wire would have been devised that would have turned the same trick, but we doubt it.

OLIVER REUNION

The C. T. Oliver home has been the scene of a family reunion during the past few days. Last Friday Charles Oliver, who is engaged in defense work at San Diego, Calif., accompanied by his sister, Mrs. John Brock and two little daughters, Paula Jan and Nancy Kay, arrived for a few days' visit before Charles enters the Armed Forces. On Sunday, the other daughter, Miss Merle Oliver, arrived from Oregon.

A big Thanksgiving dinner on Sunday was attended by the family members and Mrs. Oliver's sisters, Mrs. D. V. Smith, Miss Mary Georger, and Mr. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Baker of Tahoka, and Jim Wetzel of Cross Plains.

THOMASES IN EAST TEXAS

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Thomas returned last mid-week from a three weeks trip down east, visiting relatives and friends at Strawn, Denton, Sulphur Springs and Tyler.

At Sulphur Springs they visited with his cousin, John Thomas, who lived here for a number of years and represented this district in the legislature two terms.

Crops in North and East Texas had suffered from too much rain. Ellis county, for example, making only forty-odd thousand bales of cotton this year, whereas it used to make from eighty to a hundred thousand bales almost every year. He had to come back to the Caprock to see real cotton, he said.

James Clifford "Bud" Johnson of Lubbock, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cunningham of Tahoka has been in the Navy since last May. He is on the crew of the U. S. S. Montpelier.

DUCKETTS HOLD REUNION

A happy family of relatives and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Duckett Sunday, Nov. 15, as a regular home-coming for 9 out of 19 children. The eldest son, M. J. Duckett, who is in the service of Uncle Sam, was not able to be present. A grandson, Wayland Edwards, who is in a California defense plant, and a grand-daughter, Mrs. Doris Rogers, who is in Arizona in defense work, were also absent.

A sumptuous dinner was served at the noon hour. Picture taking made the afternoon slip away too soon.

The nine children and their families were as follows: Mrs. Tom Hurst and children, Pauline, Guldolyn and Jack, of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Troy Edwards and daughter, Glenaree, of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Duckett and son Darwin, of Levelland; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Duckett and son Royce Jean, Grassland; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Robison and children, Davis and Helen; Mr. and Mrs. Muri Duckett; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Duckett and daughter, Carolyn; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shewmake and children, Gleda, Hollis and Dorothy Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Odom and children, Margaret and Richard, all of Tahoka; two granddaughters, Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Walker and daughter Edna Faye, and Mr. and Mrs. Guest Withers and son Elmer Bruce of Tahoka.

The day was enjoyed by all and the family hopes to meet again soon, when none will be missing.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon Smith, who went to Los Angeles in 1939 and had not been back to Lynn county, made a week's visit here between November 7 and 14, with Landon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith of Redwine, and her father, Sam Weathers of Draw, and other relatives in this section. Landon is engaged in defense work in an aircraft plant.

Mrs. W. S. (Skip) Taylor and daughter, Mrs. A. R. Milliken are visiting relatives in San Antonio this week.

Mrs. W. E. Sikes, who has been quite ill at her home for about two weeks, is reported to be improving.

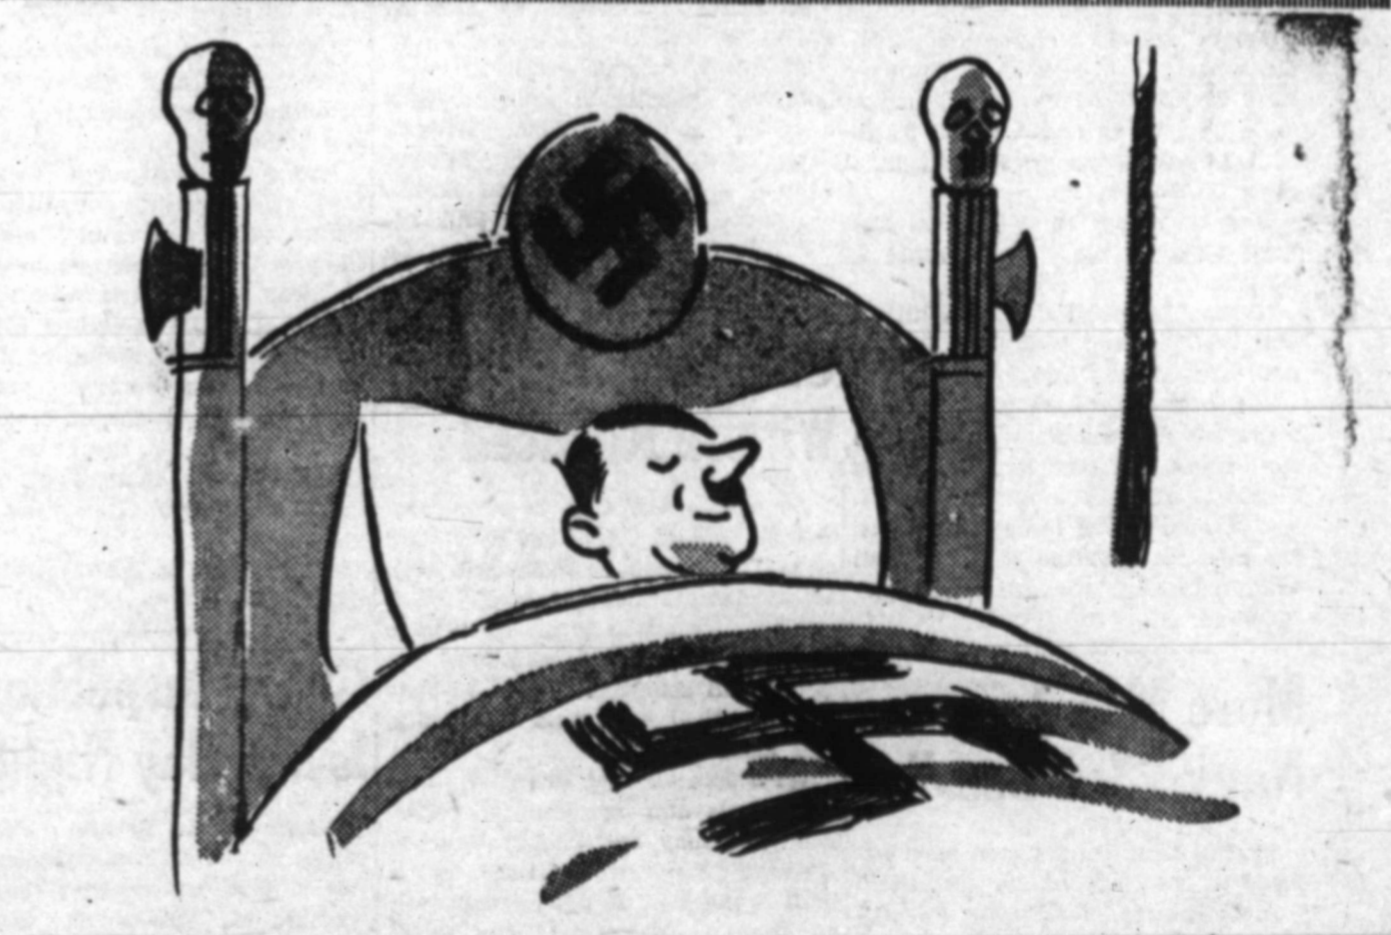

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the kind people of Tahoka for the comforting words and the assistance given us following the tragedy which took the lives of our loved ones, Mrs. Ivy Romines and William Floyd Romines. May God bless you all!—Buster Romines and other relatives.

- This man is not dead. He is just sleeping. And sleeping a little more soundly, perhaps, because there are still many Americans who are not putting at least 10% of their pay into War Bonds on a regular Payroll Savings Plan. How about you joining a lot of other fellows in giving the little paperhanger a rude awakening? How about you signing up with a Payroll Savings Plan today... to the tune of not 6%, or 7% or 8%, but 10%, and more if you can? LET'S TOP THAT 10% BY NEW YEAR'S. WHAT YOU SHOULD DO: If you are... 1. Already investing 10% of your pay in War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan—boost that 10% if you can. 2. Working in a plant where the Plan is installed, but haven't signed up yet—sign up tomorrow. 3. Working in a plant where the Payroll Savings Plan hasn't been installed, talk to your union head, foreman, or plant manager—and see if it can't be installed right away. The local bank will be glad to help. 4. Unable to get in on the Payroll Savings Plan for any reason, go to your local bank, or wherever Bonds are sold. They will be glad to help you start a Plan of your own.

Lt. Donald Giles Writes Of Service

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giles received a communication recently from their son, Lieut. Donald L. Giles, stating that he had landed safely at his destination, but he gave no inkling as to where that was. He may be somewhere in the British Isles or in North Africa.

Lieut. Giles received his commission as second lieutenant at Miami Beach, Florida, on September 16, was then given orders for overseas duty and sent to Fort Dix, New Jersey, near Trenton, where his wife, Mrs. Cassie Giles of O'Donnell, visited him in October.

Only 20 years of age, Lieut. Giles is a graduate of the Draw High School, and he made an average grade of 88.59 percent through the three months course at Miami Beach, which according to authorities equals a nine months college course, it is said, and the physical training is strenuous, Lieut. Giles writes.

His parents have received frequent letters from him, but they take special pride in one which he wrote on September 30 soon after his arrival at Fort Dix, from which we quote:

"Dear Mom, Dad, and all:
"How is everyone tonight? This finds me way up here in New Jersey at BOQ in Ft. Dix. I was just writing to Cassie (his wife) this afternoon about the immensity of the place. It is 47 sq. miles in area. I think I walked all over it this afternoon trying to finish some unfinished business, such as "dog tags," "shots," etc. We arrived in here early yesterday morning. . . . We have no idea when we will leave. Everything is done under the utmost secrecy. We might be here a couple more days or a couple of months. There's that old problem of uncertainty again. So, if you suddenly stop hearing from me you will know I'm on my way. You will be notified by the War Department of my address, so as soon as you get that write me. All are unpleasant thoughts, I realize, but I consider America worth what little effort I might expend toward the successful promotion of the nation's task. I am afraid this country wouldn't be a fit place to live in if the Germans and Japs won this fight. I am afraid our home would suffer from starvation, and the right to say what we wanted to, as we do now, would be taken away. Truly it is a life and death struggle for us.

"I'm willing to risk my life, if I can help us win. I'm willing to take the necessary 'chances' in order to come back to free America where I may live and love as decent people should, not like some fanatic creature would have me live. Mother, I hope you won't be the selfish mother and say 'Why did they have to send my boy?' but I hope you will pray to God saying 'Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.' Please don't worry yourself too much.

"If I'm still here over the week end, I plan to go up to N. Y. City and see if I can't see a few of the sights of the big town—might even be so lucky as to get to see the Yankees and Cards battle it out. Want to join me, Bob? (Bob is his younger brother.) . . .

"I presume you're all busy gathering the crop, aren't you? I saw some open cotton when I came through the Carolinas. Made we think of good old West Texas.

"I better close and get some sleep. We have a formation at 8:30 in the morning, so I'll have to get up by 8:00 at least. Ha! This being an officer is making me lazy. Write me. Love—Don."

National Hog Goals Released

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 12 — The 1943 Food for Freedom program got underway recently when the nation's hog farmers were asked to increase spring farrowings by at least 16 per cent over this year's record crop.

Although state production goals have not been received by the Texas USDA war board B. F. Vance, chairman, said that Texas hog farmers would be asked to fall in line with the national increase.

He explained also that hog farmers were requested to market their hogs 10 pounds heavier than they are this year.

The national increase will result in an estimated 1943 slaughter of pork amounting to 13.4 billion pounds dressed weight, compared with slightly more than 11 billion pounds of slaughter this year.

Ever-increasing demands for meat products to the fighting forces, Lend Lease purchases and civilian needs were cited as reasons for the increased production.

Hog producers were urged to plan their 1943 farrowings so that their marketings would avoid the normal marketing peaks, thereby relieving transportation and processing congestion. Particular emphasis was placed upon their earlier-than-usual farrowings, which might result in heavier marketings during the normal late-summer bare spots.

Answering the nation's call for more pigs early in 1942, Vance pointed out that Texas hog farmers saved 1,620,000 head of pigs from spring farrowing, the largest crop on record.

Other Food for Freedom goals probably will be announced in December, the war board chairman said.

D. H. Goodnough, who has been employed the past few weeks at the Lubbock Army Flying School, moved to Lubbock this week to be nearer his job. D. H. says he is not leaving Tahoka permanently, however, and that J. L. Holt will be in charge of his shoe shop while he is away.

H. P. Caveness, former county superintendent of schools, has been confined to his home the past two weeks with rheumatism.

G. W. Simmons, local manager of the Jones Dry Goods Store, left Monday for Dallas to purchase shoes for the store, as he stated upon leaving.

Pvt. Henry Jahnke of Camp Berkeley, near Abilene, recently spent a week in the homes of Frank Raindl Sr. near Dixie and Arthur Hagens at Wilson.

Mrs. N. M. Smith returned to her home in Idalou Wednesday after a ten-days visit here with her son, W. A. Reddell and family.

The Texas Legislature consists of a Senate of 31 members, elected for four-year terms, and a House of Representatives which may not exceed 150 members, elected for two-year terms.

Texas is second in the United States in number of airports, pilots and planes.

Texas' largest underground cavern is Longhorn Cavern, 11 miles southwest of Burnet.

The editorial staff of the Growl has had no success in its effort to arouse interest in a dramatic club. The staff would like to get the opinion of the students and faculty on whether Tahoka high school should or should not have a dramatic organization. The editors are asking that you write letters to the editor expressing your ideas on the subject.

Dee Howell Lindley, former student of Tahoka high school, was home on a 15-day furlough last week. Dee Howell, who is a second class fireman in the Navy, has just returned from across the sea. He has been to England, Ireland, Iceland, and Africa, returning to his sub-base in New London, Connecticut, Tuesday.

The New Lynn students are having a difficult time getting to school as they are unable to find a bus driver. The Tahoka bus has been going to New Lynn after the students in cooperation with the New Lynn people.

In spite of Billy Barham's broken hand, he was given the honor for playing the best game against the Levelland Lobos in the Armistice game.

The "very little" cramming the students have been doing for their exams will be over for two weeks, as this is the end of the second six weeks. Fourth and eighth period exams are being given today which include speech, typing, chemistry, and Spanish.

The Sub-Debs are turning "jeep" since they are all sporting red jeep hats. They are being worn in every shape possible: some turned up in front and down in back, and others turned down all the way round. Wearing pens stuck on the brim seems to be the vogue.

Mrs. W. C. Wharton was substitute teacher last week for Mrs. Charles Stewart. She taught journalism, typing, and seventh grade English.

Billie Lane, 1941 graduate of Tahoka, spent the week end with Dorothy Ann Roberts. She is now living in Amarillo.

It seems as though we have thieves in Tahoka, or near by, for while our football boys were fighting to win the bi-district football game, someone broke into their dressing room and stole several bill folds and some money. That's a pretty low thing to do, don't you think.

Sarah Jane Jones, former student of Tahoka, was here last week visiting her grandmother, Mrs. W. T. Clinton. She visited school Friday.

Prizes Are Offered Aggie Students

Thirty-seven prizes are to be awarded by Swift and Company for the best essay written by Agriculture boys throughout the state of Texas.

The Tahoka Agriculture boys have the opportunity to participate in this contest. The first prize to be awarded is $100, the second prize $60, five prizes of $35 each will be given, and ten prizes of $25 each will be presented. The topics of the essay can be the choice of the writer, but must pertain to agriculture. The company furnishes sufficient material needed to write the essay.

The Aggies are now studying the butchering of hogs and calves.

The Texas Legislature meets in regular biennial sessions on the second Tuesday in January in odd-numbered years.

Texas' first state park was Mother Neff Park, 8 miles southwest of McGregor.

Speech Class Presents Play

The high school student body had a treat in assembly Wednesday, as the speech class under the direction of Miss Ineva Headrick, presented "The Prompter Scores."

The one act play was woven around the plot of a disappointed high school girl who wanted to be the heroine in the class play. At last she got her "chance" and the play ended with the co-ed's success.

The cast of characters included: Lois Sproles, playing the part of Sally Morgan; Billie Greer, the part of Helen Keyes; Billy Ray Strickland, as Norman McFall; Peggy Fenton, as Irene Moore; Ruby Smith as Ruth Wentrop; Minia Waldrip, as Miss Gardner; Joan Boydstun, as Miss Mason; Bo Cruce, as Jack Roland; and Mrs. McDonald, as Mrs. Ellis.

Wanda Cruce was the announcer. Beth Shepherd gave a biographical sketch of General "Ike" Eisenhower, and Miss King led the student body in three songs.

Serving Methods Are Taught Girls

"Serve plates from the left and beverages from the right," were orders carried out by the third year Home Economics girls Wednesday while serving the Levelland football team luncheon before the game.

Wholesome food served in small quantities would be a fitting description of the menu, but since the meal was served before the game, the roast and creamed potatoes were all the coach would allow the players to eat.

The team, arriving at 11:00, was served at 11:30.

Personality . . .

Three guesses as to the identity of our personality for this week! Follow these clues and see if you can decide who our "mystery" man is:

1. His favorite subject is history, but he strings along with English, algebra and biology.
2. He plays football and basketball.
3. He's 15 years old, blond, and has blue eyes.
4. His favorite food is fried chicken.
5. And, he's president of the sophomore class and manager of the football team.

Grade School Whine

Mr. J. O. Reed as a new grade school teacher takes the limelight this week. As a former Bluejacket is the United States Navy, Mr. Reed is at present on the Marine reserve.

Mrs. James Clinton takes the other headline, teaching the sixth grade history, health, and geography.

Mrs. Clinton was a substitute before taking the regular job.

A clever game has been initiated by Mrs. Minnie Fitzgerald. She has two pens drawn on the blackboard: a talker's pen and a pig pen. Talkers get their names placed under this heading, and those excessively causing discipline problems find themselves listed in the pig pen.

"It works wonders with the noise in the rooms and on the playgrounds," said Mrs. Fitzgerald.

Mrs. J. K. Applewhite accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Greta Privitt, to Childress Monday afternoon, where the latter expected to take the train for Dallas to meet her husband, St. Sgt. Sam J. Privitt, on his way from San Antonio to Stuttgart, Arkansas. Sgt. Privitt, whose parents live at Childress, was being transferred from one of the flying fields at San Antonio to Stuttgart. Mrs. Privitt will remain with her husband at Stuttgart as long as he is there.

Mrs. Milton Burrough and Mrs. Richard Young left Monday to visit their husbands in the Service. Mrs. Burrough will stop off at Baltimore, near which place her husband is stationed, while Mrs. Young will go to New York.

Edward McMillan, in letters to his family this week, reported that he was well and that he was glad to see Billy Hill not long ago. As is well known, both boys were formerly associated in the News office.

William B. Cook of Big Spring, son of the late Ed Cook of Wells in this county, has enlisted in the air forces at Big Spring, according to members of the family in this county. Mr. Cook, who is married, formerly resided in this county himself and still has many friends here.

The Conference has returned the pastor for the new year of 1942-43.

The appointments were read last Sunday afternoon at Sweetwater, and 219 ministers returned home for another year's work or to move to a new field. Out of that number of ministers, some 64 were changed, largely due to the great number of preachers going as chaplains to the war.

The greatest reports financially in the history of the Northwest Texas Conference were made—a single district or church but that paid 100 percent on all financial claims. More than seven thousand was the net gain in membership.

We shall call all the boards together soon for re-organization for the new conference year. All committees should organize too. We are setting our goals high this year and shall expect every member to heartily cooperate in every undertaking.

Your presence at all the services of the church is desired by the pastor and leaders of the various divisions and departments. To attend is to cooperate and contribute to the on-going and up-building of the church. There is no reason why we shall not expect this of every member and friend of the local church.

RAY SMITH PROMOTED

Ray Smith, brother of Mrs. Osa Gattis of Draw, has been promoted to staff sergeant, according to Mr. Gattis, who was in Monday to have The News sent to the soldiers at Camp White, Medford, Oregon.

Ray has been in the Army about three years, having been stationed at Fort Bliss, El Paso, prior to being transferred to Oregon about three months ago.

W. E. Suddarth, a prominent and long-time citizen of Tahoka, now employed in the Postal Censorship office in San Antonio, came up Saturday night and visited friends here until Monday. He says that his work there is very pleasant but that living expenses are very high. He still owns his home here and will probably come back some time.

Mrs. George Akin reports that their son Arvil, who joined the Navy early this year and served as a cook first at Norfolk, Virginia, and then in the Canal Zone, is now serving in the Coast Guard in that region.

BILLY HILL, WRITES FROM "AT SEA"

The News had a card Wednesday from Billy Hill, formerly of The News force, who enlisted in the Navy last January and who since has had some exciting experiences on the sea. The card, however, was written only 17 days after he put to sea on his current voyage on Sept. 6.

"At Sea, Sept. 23, 1942.
"Dear Folks: Well, I am doing just fine. I had a big surprise the other day—Mr. Hough, our officer, told me that I would be a 3rd Class Gunner's Mate October 1. There is another Lynn county boy on here now, and we were fairly well acquainted. He comes from Wayside, about 12 miles north of town. However, he hasn't lived in Lynn county for quite a while. We had a good time talking about old times. Well, I guess I had better quit as I don't have much more space and the censors will probably take some of that away from me. Don't worry. I'll be back soon. Lots of love, William E. Hill."

Billy's wife, Ruthel, is at Amarillo with her parents.

Staff Sgt. Frank Lisenby, who recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lisenby at New Home, is now stationed at an Air Forces training field in New York.

Mrs. Inez Knight reports that her brother A. P. Edwards and brother-in-law, W. T. Bovell, who enlisted in the Marines several months ago, are still stationed at the Marine Corps Base rifle range at Camp Calver B. Matthews, San Diego, Calif. Mrs. Bovell and children recently went to California to be near Mr. Bovell and are located at Escondido, about thirty-five miles from San Diego. Since both A. P. and W. T. are doing guard duty, they are allowed two and three days off each week.

Mrs. Aletha Goodnough Shelton and children have recently gone to join her husband, Sgt. Shelton K. Holmes, who is stationed at Camp Blanding, Fla.

THE BULLDOG CREED

The Bulldog Promises:
To be for America first, last, and always.
To be a booster for Tahoka High School, Tahoka, and West Texas.
"To do unto others as I would have them do unto me."
To look at the sunny side of everything.

To live my life to the fullest.
To be the type of student who will later be a well-rounded man or woman.
To fulfill the duties assigned to me daily.

To pledge myself and my life to live where my friends about me may honor me in my daily task.
To learn to know others that I may love them and respect their ideas.

To live that my past life will not hinder my future.
YOU ARE A BULLDOG!

The 700,000th volume to be added to the University of Texas Library was catalogued recently. The Library ranks 13th nationally and is first in the South.

The blue velvet felt Bulldog head, awarded each year, went to Bill Barham, Bulldog co-captain, for playing the best game. He played 60 minutes of hard football with a broken hand.

Football Boys Given Banquet

"Send that chicken to the right, and throw me a slab of bread," made up the conversation carried on by the members of the Tahoka and Levelland football teams while being served at the Legion hall after the game Wednesday.

"Excellent passing was performed over the field by the Levelland players," was the remark of several players.

"G. W. White runs like he had played two years of football with the Lubbock Westerners," exclaimed one of the Lobos.

One might think these football boys were half-starved by the way they stored away that fried chicken and gravy, two servings each being a minimum. Football really seems to whet the appetite.

"Where is that thirteen year old freshman who plays on the Bulldog team? He will be a star player for Tahoka in another year," were the remarks of several Levelland football players. "Who is this speed demon freshman of the Tahoka team?" His identity was revealed as Billy Knight, who plays right halfback.

The blue velvet felt Bulldog head, awarded each year, went to Bill Barham, Bulldog co-captain, for playing the best game. He played 60 minutes of hard football with a broken hand.

Levelland was presented with a new football as a prize to the winner. The ball was the one used in the Armistice day game.

The menu served to the teams consisted of fried chicken and gravy, pinto beans, cream potatoes, coffee, pickles, and lemon and pineapple pls. The food was cooked and served by the Tahoka Rotary Annex.

Seniors Entertain Juniors In Gym

Don't walk under that ladder. It's bad luck!

Thirty-five juniors and seniors had the pleasure of "turning the tables on luck" in the gym Friday night. The seniors, who were the hosts, greeted their guests by making them walk under a ladder and open an umbrella on the inside on Friday, 13th.

Bessie Rainey, who was in charge of the games, introduced several and interesting ones. Some of the most exciting were grape hunting, Adam and Eve, and airplane rides.

Prizes were given to Mary Nell Crouch, Eva Woods, Leonard Wardlow, Joan Owens, and L. J. Walker for being the winners of the games played.

Refreshments were candy bars and fritos.

Charlene Bucy Is Presented In Recital

In the home of Mrs. J. K. Applewhite, Miss Charlene Bucy was presented in a piano and voice recital last Thursday, Nov. 12.

The program is as follows: "Sonata," Beethoven; "Little Prelude in C" Bach; "Little Prelude in F," Bach; "Mighty Like a Rose," Nevin (voice solo); "Berceuse," Iljinsky; "The Cricket and the Bumblebee," (Ehelenne Bucy); "Humoresque," Dvorak; "Jolly Thoughts," Crammond (Ehelenne Bucy); "In the Garden of Tomorrow," (vocal solo); "Russian Romance," "Pelican Parade."

Many guests from Tahoka attended the recital. Dorothy Applewhite and Mary Beth Fenton presided at the punch bowl.

Charlene is the first pupil of Mrs. Applewhite to receive a credit for music by presenting a recital.

Because of its abundance of good flight conditions and its comparatively level terrain, Texas is a natural field for both civil and military air activity.

This And That . . .

Excitement struck Tahoka again this week when Harley Sadler drifted into town. Almost everyone took in the big tent show at least once during the week. The Sub-Debs went in a body one night for a big time.

Miss Headrick caught everyone's eye Sunday wearing a black chapeau dress, purse, and shoes to match. She really looked stunning.

E. L. Short and Red Harvick really put on an act in assembly Wednesday. It's funny how bashful boys are.

We heard there was a shortage of leather. We understand why, since Charles Reid liked boots so well.

Alice Jewelle and Lois Parker were "steppin' out" in attractive twin shoes this week.

Geraldine Connolly went decked out with a green purse, beanie, necklace, and shoes to the Armistice game last week.

The Home Economics girls seem to be first in everything. They served the Levelland football club before the game last Wednesday. It has been rumored, however, that next time they will serve the Tahoka boys, where they will be appreciated.

Our new Agg teacher, Mr. Seay, seems to be making a hit. Everyone hated to see Mr. Richardson leave but Mr. Seay is quickly filling his place.

SPORT EDITORIAL

(By Winston Redwine)

Did you go to the football game last Wednesday? If not, you missed the best game of the season, and you also failed to support the team, which fought for 60 minutes playing hard, tough football for the honor of Tahoka high school and its students.

Absence of some of the students from the game did not make any serious difference, but what if the whole student body had failed to show up? We need not answer that question for you; you already know the school would have been disgraced.

The Tahoka high Bulldogs were not only representing Tahoka high, but the whole of district 6-A as well, having beaten Seminole, Seagraves, and Denver City. It was your duty at least to show them respect by being present.

In a few short days basketball season will start, and more than likely several of the football boys will make the team, so why not make up for the football games you have missed and see ALL of the basketball games?

To the Football Boys: If we may speak frankly for the students in Tahoka high school for a moment, we will say this: We, the students know that the football team has done an excellent job this season. We know that all of you feel disappointed over losing the bi-district game, but you shouldn't. There will be other victories, and other opportunities for you to win honors for our alma mater; so, take it on the chin and resolve to fight just a little harder next year.

To the Band: There is no doubt about it. The Tahoka Band is one organization in Tahoka of which the citizens and students alike should be proud. Under the direction of Miss Mary Eleanor King, the band this season has made much headway and made great accomplishments. To the tune of the "Alma Mater," the band has helped the football team climb toward greater victories than ever before.

To the Pep Leaders: Never before has Tahoka high had such spirited pep leaders as those chosen to perform during this season of football. Their untiring efforts in not one, but all the games, deserve credit, indeed. The pep leaders this year were: Mary Beth Fenton, Peggy Fenton, Dora Ruth Fenton, RubyLou Coughran, Thomas Fulkerson, Moselle Jones.

Commercial flying activity began in Texas, May 12, 1926, with first airmail service between Dallas, Fort Worth and Chicago.

Haynes' Birthday Is No Secret Now

Mr. Haynes doesn't like to tell his age but we bet he certain looks young.

Mr. Haynes had a birthday Thursday, November 19, but he thought nobody would know it.

Having taught for the last three years at Tahoka high school, he claims Texas Tech his alma mater; however, he also attended Abilene and Texas Teachers College. He graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in 1938 with a bachelor degree. While in college, he majored in education and social science.

Mr. Haynes especially likes basketball, having played while in both high school and college. Although his hobbies are numerous, he likes hunting and fishing best; reading also rates tops with him. Mr. Haynes appreciates the Readers Digest and other current magazines and keeps posted on development of the war. He also enjoys autobiographies and especially that of Lowell Thomas.

Girls Will Make Soldier Presents

The boys in Uncle Sam's forces will receive card table covers being made by the third year Home Economics girls.

"The girls are anxious to get started making the covers," stated Miss Lucille Wright, Home Economics teacher.

To help the Red Cross, the students are to buy their own materials used in making the attractive satteen slips for the tables.

PTA Hears Book Review, Program

The P. T. A. met Wednesday afternoon, November 18, in the music room of the high school. They were entertained with a Thanksgiving program by the second grade and rhythm band. Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell reviewed The Seventh Cross, written by Anna Segar.

The business that came before the house pertained to war work that the members had been participating in.

Pop And Popcorn Bring In Cash

All of the bustle and noise heard at Tahoka high school last Wednesday afternoon was not on the football field. Laughter, yelling, and loud talk filled the air as girls of the Homemaking department tried to fill the demands of the students and visitors.

The scene of the sale was a small building on the campus which, during "peace" times serves as a shop for the Agriculture boys; it was converted into a make-shift store, and the girls sold soda pop and popcorn.

Ten girls worked during the game, some behind the counter and some among the crowd. Fifteen cases of pops were sold before the beginning of the second half and two girls were kept constantly busy popping popcorn.

The girls took in a little over $24, which is to be for the use of the Chapter club.

Time Change Gives Chance For Sleep

Oh, how I hate to get up in the morning!

This is the cry of every Tahoka high school student. From now on you can sleep thirty minutes longer because the time for classes to begin has been changed from 9:00 to 9:30 a. m.

Although the noon hour is thirty minutes later, school will be dismissed at the usual 4:00 o'clock.

What's worse:—35 miles an hour or 00 miles an hour?

Don't flunk an easy one!...The prize at stake is your car!

...Today's sensible top speed of 35 is a cinch for your engine, compared to unlubricated cold starting—way down at 00 miles an hour!

People in dead earnest to battle wear from the very start are having their engines OIL-PLATED, simply by changing to Conoco Nth motor oil. This oil's added synthetic—with apparent "magnetic attraction"—closely bonds lubricant to inner engine parts. That's OIL-PLATING. It resembles any protective plating in not all "going elsewhere" while the car stands cold.

OIL-PLATING doesn't all quickly drain off to the crankcase. Oil down there is still trying to "get a move on" as the engine starts, while OIL-PLATING is already fastened clear up to the topmost piston rings. It's there ahead of rampant wear in starting cold. It's there the rest of the time, too. And so the strong liquid-type film of Conoco Nth is sliding between OIL-PLATED surfaces. Not much look-in for wartime wear. Better change at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. He knows your correct Winter grade of Conoco Nth, Continental Oil Co.

mittments have been met. The "sharing allowance" of two and one-half pounds per adult per week includes only the muscle meats, not fish, poultry, and the "variety meats" such as hearts, kidneys, livers, sweet breads, and the like.

Since October 1, deliveries of "muscle meats" for civilian consumption have been reduced considerably. That means homemakers who cannot shop early and "diners-out" who get to restaurants late in the meal, may not be able to get their share of meat. Although families who are heavy meat eaters are asked to limit their consumption, those now eating less than two and one-half pounds is not expected to cut his consumption. Instead, he should eat his allowable for the sake of good health.

The program is a co-operative move of OGD leaders, the National Defense Committee for Texas, and the A. and M. College Extension service.

Present at the meeting were: A. L. Dunagan, Dixie; R. J. Maeker, Mrs. Pat Swann, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Maeker, Wilson; R. L. Pirtle, Draw; G. W. Hickerson and Mrs. Jarrell Cox, Three Lakes; L. C. MRS. WEATHERS' NEPHEW SUFFERING FROM WOUNDS

R. P. Weathers says that the family are still anxious about the condition of his wife's nephew, O. P. Rutledge, formerly of Floydada, who was wounded in the fighting on or about Guadalcanal, one of the Solomon Islands, on September 10. His parents, who reside at Floydada, have never been informed of the exact nature of the wounds.

Rutledge has been in a San Francisco Hospital the past six weeks, and the family has no information as to how long it will be necessary for him to remain in the hospital. He was serving in the U. S. Air Forces in the Solomons when wounded.

Press reports Sunday carried the news that Capt. Haley Aycock, a native of Midland and a grandson of Mrs. J. A. Haley of that city, had been seriously wounded November 8 in action over Western Europe while piloting a flying fortress. Capt. Aycock's mother is a cousin of Frank P. Hill of the News office. His mother resides in Fort Worth.

Marvin Smith, 20, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Smith, who has been living here with them for more than year has volunteered for the Navy and is awaiting his call.

Miss Mary Eleanor King, band director, left Wednesday night for Fort Worth in response to a message telling of the death of an aunt.

noon. Rev. George A. Dale of the Baptist Church officiating, assisted by Garnie Atkisson, minister of the Church of Christ. Six of Mr. Romines fellow workers at the Gaignat store or shop at present or in the past, acted as pall bearers. They were Marshall Akin, Ralph Carpenter, Post, Charles Terry, J. T. Elliott, J. C. Moore, and E. B. Gaither.

The bodies were buried in the Tahoka cemetery.

Survivors include the husband and father, Buster Romines, and one daughter, Faye, 8, sister of William Floyd; and two sons, Carl Ray, 4, and Travis, 18 months old, little brothers of William Floyd. Surviving also are Mrs. Romines' father, G. B. Bennett; three sisters, Mrs. Hattie Nerlon and Mrs. Ila Box, both of Mississippi, and Mrs. Allene Henson of California; seven brothers, O. B. and T. R. Bennett of California, Hubert Bennett of Ladonia, Texas, D. L. Bennett of Washington, D. C., George Bennett of Oklahoma, Gordon Bennett of Arizona, and William Paul Bennett of California. Monroe Darnell was a step-brother.

Ivy Bennett Romines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bennett, was born at Ladonia in Pannin county on December 31, 1902, and was there for thirty-nine years and ten months old. She united with the Baptist Church at Ladonia when she was thirteen years of age and later placed her membership with the Church at Honey Grove. She was married to Buster Romines at Honey Grove in December, 1934. They moved to Hugo, Oklahoma, and came from Hugo to Tahoka in 1935 and had resided here since.
