Ernest Cowan Safe After Spending 20 Days On Life Raft

Ernest Cowan, reared at Tahoka and a graduate of the local schools, who is a carpenter in the Merchant Marines, is safe on an island off the coast of Africa after spending 30 days on a life raft following the sinking of his ship somewhere in the Atlantic.

This information was given The News in a letter received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Cowan, Lubbock, long-time residents of Lynn county.

Ernest's home is at Beckton, Lubbock county, where his wife is operating their farm while he is away. He is a brother of T. Cowan of Tahoka.

Following is the letter, written from Funchal, Madeira Isle, on November 29:

"It seems like a long time since I saw you, and I have been a long way. Am well and safe. Have had so many experiences that I won't be able to tell all in a letter, but will give you a sketch.

Have been to seven ports in Africa. Was on the way back to New York and the ship was sunk by a Sub. Spent 20 days on a life raft; almost froze to death; had raw fish and shark meat to eat and very little water to drink. Was picked up by a Spanish ship and treated like kings all the way to this beautiful island—10 days. Arrived here today. The American consul put us (8) in the best hotel and we are to have anything that we want.

"I don't know how long we will be here, but probably two or three weeks. I had hoped to get home for Christmas, but it is an impossibility now.

"Hope to see you when I get back. They have made some new shipping laws there, so I hear, but maybe I can get off long enough for a visit. I sure would like to see the kids and Madelle. Would you please pass this on to Madelle as mail via air is so crowded we are only permitted one letter each. Love to all—Ernest H. Cowan."

Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Grand Saline, Dies

Mrs. J. W. Kirkpatrick, aged about 84, formerly a resident of this county, died Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at Grand Saline, where she had been living with a daughter, Mrs. Dr. Cosby.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick was the grandmother of Kirk Pitts of this city and the mother of Mrs. A. F. Pitts of Lamesa, formerly of Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick came to Lynn county in 1924, and resided in the Dixie community until 1932, when Mr. Kirkpatrick died. Most of the time since then, Mrs. Kirkpatrick had been living at Grand Saline, where she had two daughters.

She was a member of the Methodist church, a highly respected citizen, and had many friends in Lynn county.

Negroes Find Free Board In Jailhouse

A Tahoka negro was lodged in jail this week charged with stealing a coat. A New Home Negro was placed in the same boarding house for possessing a larger amount of intoxicating liquor than the law allows.

An O'Donnell Mexican was jailed for drunkenness in a public place. Sheriff Sam Floyd and his deputy, Arthur Hodge, also rounded up ten dusky gents who reside "over on the hill" for gambling. Some of them paid off; others presumably did not have the "wherewith" and were still in jail when The News man last interviewed the sheriff.

A white man was in jail, having been incarcerated by B. L. Parker before he went out of office, on a charge of failing to support his family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pitts of Lamesa were here Monday visiting their son, Kirk Pitts, and wife.

LYNN COUNTY BANK DEPOSITS LARGEST IN COUNTY'S HISTORY

Deposits in the First National Bank of Tahoka have climbed to dizzy heights, as may be noted from the statement published in The News this week, more than twice the amount of the deposits of a year ago.

The deposits at the close of business on December 31, 1942, amounted to $3,217,059.59, as against a total of $1,575,125.90 at the close of business on December 31, 1941, which is believed to have been the largest amount ever shown in a statement up to that time. In 1937, when Lynn county produced her record-breaking cotton crop, the deposits in the First National amounted to a little more than $1,356,000.00.

The First National Bank, O'Donnell, reports total deposits of $944,652.30, likewise a record for deposits in that city. The News is not informed as to the deposits at the Wilson State Bank, but they are also higher than ever, no doubt.

Naturally conservative, as good bankers always are, W. B. Slaton, cashier, admonished The News not to make its report too glowing. It is not at all necessary for us to do (Cont'd. on last page)

Army Officers At Defense Guard

Three Army officers and three Texas Defense Guard officers from Headquarters company furnished a program of instruction at Monday night's meeting of the Tahoka company. A large crowd of Guard members and about ten or fifteen new recruits were present.

The program included an interesting talk on military discipline, and an illustrated talk by Major Hangs on gas warfare. Major Hangs explained the use, purpose, effect and counter measures in gas warfare, however, he hazarded the guess that gas probably would not be used in this war for practical reasons which he explained. However, if the enemy starts the use of gas, he said the U. S. Army probably would have a little surprise. He also demonstrated gas masks, and talked for a time on map reading and the use of the compass.

An oyster supper was served the men and guests by Frank George and Calvin Edwards.

Sgt. Keith Connolly Returns To Service

Sgt. James Keith Connolly left Saturday morning for an army camp at Pocatello, Idaho, after having spent about a month here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James (Skinner) Connolly.

Of course we have no information as to whether Keith will be sent to a fighting front. It would seem that he has already done his part toward winning this war, having been awarded the silver star for distinguished service as a gunner on a bomber plane in the Southwest Pacific. He was on many raids. It is not known just how many raids. It is planes Keith brought down, but they were plenty.

RETURNS FROM VISIT WITH HUSBAND

Mrs. Richard Young has returned from New York after a six weeks' visit with her husband, who is in the United States Coast Guard. She had planned to spend Christmas with him, but just a few days before he received notice that he was to be transferred. She came on home and was here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Wyatt, for the holidays.

Richard is now stationed off the coast of Charleston, South Carolina, and Mrs. Young has accepted a temporary position in Lubbock.

MILLMAN GETS WINGS

Williams Field, Chandler, Ariz., Jan. 7.—Odean R. Millman, graduate of Tahoka High School, received his silver wings and graduated as flight officer at the ceremonies held Jan. 4, at the Air Force Advanced Flying School, Williams Field, Chandler, Arizona.

New Home Agent In Lynn County

Upon recommendation of District Home Demonstration Agent Miss Kate Adele Hill, the commissioners court last week employed Miss Carolyn Dixon of Crosbyton to succeed Miss Maurine McNatt as home demonstration agent for Lynn county. Miss Dixon assumed her official duties last Saturday morning.

Miss Dixon had been the home demonstration agent of Crosby county for three years and three months, with headquarters at Crosbyton, having begun work there on October 1, 1939. Prior to that time she had been vocational homemaking teacher at Dilley in Frio county.

Miss Dixon received her college training at the Texas State College for Women, formerly known as the C. I. A., at Denton, and at the Texas Technological College, receiving her degree from the latter institution in 1933. Since then she has done work on her Master's degree at the University of Texas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dixon, who reside at Bellevue in Clay county.

Miss Dixon has been spending the time this week in getting acquainted with club leaders and in familiarizing herself with the H. D. and 4-H club work in this county. She declares that she has been received most cordially, that the people have been very nice to her, and that she likes "just fine."

Lieut. W. K. Boyd Japanese Prisoner

Lieut. William Knight Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Boyd, is a prisoner of the Japanese in the Philippine Islands. His parents have been informed by the War Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd were much relieved to learn definitely that he is still alive, for nothing had been heard from him since long before the fall of Bataan, and they feared he was dead. Last June, they were informed by a nurse, Mrs. Dorthea Daley Engle, who escaped before the final capitulation, that Lt. Boyd was still alive on April 29.

Lieut. Boyd is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Knight and grew up in Amarillo, but his parents have been living here the past two or three years.

Callaway's Nephew Dies At Fort Worth

C. A. Thomas had a telephone message Monday from Dr. E. E. Calloway of Abilene telling him of the death that morning in Fort Worth of his brother, Sam J. Callaway, a prominent lawyer of that city, and requesting that Mr. Thomas take the news to their uncle, J. K. Callaway, here. The Doctor was planning to attend the funeral.

Mr. Callaway had held a number of important positions in Fort Worth and was well known throughout that section of the state. He had visited here a number of times.

Gin Adopts Payroll Deduction Plan

Regular employees of the Farmers Co-operative Gin and Service Station this week voted to adopt the payroll deduction plan of buying U. S. War Bonds, according to Claude Donaldson, manager.

Each man will thereby invest 10 percent of his salary in War Bonds.

Miss Eleanor King member of the high school faculty and band director here, has resigned her position to go back to her home city of Ft. Worth to take a place in the schools there. The News is informed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell, who have been living out east of Tahoka for many years, have bought the Kidwell place in South Tahoka facing the highway and have already moved into it. The News is informed.

REV. GEO. A. DALE

Rev. Dale Resigns Baptist Pastorate

Rev. Geo. A. Dale tendered his resignation as pastor of the First Baptist Church here at the 11:00 o'clock service last Sunday morning to become effective on February 1, at which time he will have served for a period of eight years and five months. This is the longest period of service that any pastor has rendered to this church during its almost forty years of existence. It is also a longer period than any of the present pastors in this section of the state have rendered their churches with the exception of Rev. E. F. Cole of Lamesa, who has served for a slightly longer period of time.

Rev. Dale came to this church as pastor on September 11, 1934, from Madill, Oklahoma, where he had (Cont'd. on page 3)

O'Donnell Man Is Rotary Speaker

Rev. Howard H. Hollowell, pastor of the Methodist Church at O'Donnell, was the principal speaker at the Thursday noon meeting of the Tahoka Rotary Club. He brought a talk that held the rapt attention of those present.

Six new members were voted into the club and they will be inducted at next Thursday's meeting.

R. P. Weather's was program chairman for the day. Naymon Everett, O'Donnell Rotarian, and County Agent "Judge" Smith were visitors.

T. Garrard Joins Navy, Assigned

T. T. Garrard, formerly mail carrier here and then at O'Donnell, left Saturday for Norfolk, Virginia, to take training in the Naval Station there.

He will start in as third class petty officer after receiving his training there, and his work will be that of mail specialist in a post office at some naval base, probably overseas.

In addition to serving as mail carrier, T. T. Garrard has served as mail clerk in the post office here. Mrs. Garrard will continue to reside here during his absence.

ENSIGN ROBERT GIBSON VISITS PARENTS HERE

Ensign Robert L. Gibson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gibson of Tahoka Lake, spent Christmas week here with his parents on a leave of absence from the Naval Training Station at Norfolk, Virginia.

Robert enlisted in the Naval Reserve in March, 1942, and went to San Diego, California. From there he was sent to the Naval Training School at Chicago, Ill., where he graduated on November 13. He was then sent to Norfolk, but he is expecting to be sent out to sea some time soon.

Mrs. Jane Minor Buried Tuesday

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist Church at 3:30 o'clock last Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. Jane Minor, proprietor of Mrs. Jane's Beauty Shop, who died in San Bernardino, California, at 2:30 o'clock Friday morning, January 1. In spite of the very unpleasant weather that prevailed, a large concourse of relatives and friends attended, most of the business houses in town closing for the services.

Rev. Geo. A. Dale, pastor of the church, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Geo. E. Turrentine of Muleshoe, former pastor of the Methodist Church here, and by Garville Atkinson, minister of the Church of Christ.

Burial followed in the Tahoka cemetery, under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home. Pall bearers (Cont'd. on last page)

Scrap Rubber, Metal Shipped

Salvage gathered in recent weeks in Lynn county was hauled out of Tahoka Friday and Saturday by a fleet of trucks furnished by the Lubbock Army Flying School, and the proceeds brought $193.00 to the Red Cross and U. S. O. funds, according to J. K. Applewhite and Judge Chester Connolly of the county salvage committee.

Included were 15,000 pounds of rubber and 12,900 pounds of scrap metal, which brought Lynn county's salvage total to over 100 tons of scrap rubber and over 600 tons of scrap metal.

Tires suitable for retreading were taken out of the scrap pile and will be turned over to the War Board for retreading.

Jim Burleson also shipped a total of a little more than 15,000 pounds of scrap rubber from the drive conducted by filling stations some time ago.

Arthur Hodge Is New Deputy Sheriff

When Sam Floyd was sworn in last Friday as sheriff of Lynn county, he presented the name of Arthur Hodge as his chief deputy. The appointment was approved by the commissioners court and the new deputy was given the oath of office.

Born in Jack county in 1907, Arthur came with his parents to Lynn county in 1915, and he has resided here since. His father helped to build the courthouse in which Arthur is now serving as deputy sheriff. But this is the first official position he has held. For fifteen years he was an employee of the Burleson Grain Company of this city and is well known in the county.

Lt. Col. Louis B. Reed Visits In Tahoka

Lieut. Colonel Louis B. Reed of Lamesa, district judge of the 106th judicial district and now in the U. S. Army, stationed at Fort Sill, was a visitor in Tahoka Wednesday.

He took the oath of office January 1st for a second term as judge of this district.

Being a reserve officer, Judge Reed was called to duty at the outbreak of the present war.

IN NEW GUINEA

Johnnie B. Williams, colored, step son of Earley Lee Lawson, writes from New Guinea that though home is waist deep they will soon have the Japs whipped. He arrived in Australia last April 10, and only recently was sent to New Guinea.

Another colored boy from Lynn county in foreign service is William Andrews, who formerly worked for Tom Hale. He is in Africa.

Justice of the Peace Geo. L. Foster and wife of O'Donnell attended the funeral rites of Mrs. Janie Minor here Tuesday afternoon.

H. P. Caveness, who had gotten out again following a rather serious illness, was in bed again this week suffering from an attack of flu.

All Tires Must Be Inspected, Or No Gas, Tires Issued

All truck tires must be inspected by January 15, and all passenger car tires must be inspected by January 31 by OPA authorized stations, the Lynn County Rationing Board has announced.

OPA regulations will prohibit any operator from securing either tires or gasoline unless the requirements for tire inspection are met.

Inspections may be made at most filling stations, and motorists will be required to pay a maximum charge of 25 cents per car for inspection, unless removal of tire is necessary to make the proper inspection. In that case, a maximum charge of 50 cents per tire for each tire removed, not including any repairs that may be necessary, is allowed the inspector.

The following have been approved as tire inspectors: Curtis Stevens, John Inman, Hercul Roberts, C. E. McKnight, Clyde Spruill, Alton Cain, W. C. Wharton, Boyd Smith, H. B. McCord, W. H. Fulkerson, Vernon Davis, and J. K. Applewhite, Tahoka; Robert Maeker, Wilson; Bill Balch, New Home; H. H. Roberts, Grassland; Frank Liddell and John Earles, O'Donnell.

Negroes Jailed On Forgery Charges

Three of the colored citizens of Tahoka, two of them comparatively newcomers, are getting their room and board now in some little room-cells up on the fourth floor in the court house because they decided that they could successfully "buck the law." Maybe they were just trying out the new sheriff. At any rate, Sam Floyd got onto their game and decided to take care of them for awhile.

These three gents of color, strange as it may seem, decided that they might forge the names of other citizens on checks on the Bank and get by with it. At least six such checks were passed by them to business men here in Tahoka. Two of the checks bore the name of H. B. Caveness, the name of H. P. Caveness doubtless being intended; one check bore the name of R. W. Fenton, one the name of Clint Sikes, and two the names of Henry Sayles, colored, the latter name being misspelled.

One of the checks was passed to the Levine Bros. store, one to the Jones Dry Goods store, one to Muri Jones, and two to the Piggly Wiggly. They ranged in amounts from $25.00 to $45.00.

An investigation conducted by Mr. Floyd and County Attorney Calloway Huffaker, it is said, produced evidence establishing the identity of the guilty culprits. One or two of the negroes, we understand, confessed to the crime.

The cases will be investigated by the grand jury soon to meet. Forgery is a felony under the laws of this state, and if these gents are convicted they will have an opportunity to find out about life "down on the farm," but it will be a state farm.

Homer Parker Is In New Guinea

B. L. Parker says that he received a letter Wednesday from his son Homer, who is now in New Guinea with General MacArthur's forces. The letter was written on December 24 just after he had received a letter from B. L. telling of a hunting trip he had planned. Homer jokingly remarked that if B. L. came over there he could show him a lot of better hunting than he could find in Texas.

B. L. reports that his son Dee has completed his training at Wichita Falls and expects to be made a gunner on an airplane.

Pvt. Price Brookshire, stationed in an Army Camp at Santa Barbara, California, spent Christmas, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brookshire, who live east of town.

LEGISLATIVE REDISTRICTING
Although the State Constitution makes mandatory the redistricting of State Senatorial and Representatives' districts, and Congressional districts, immediately after each federal census, the Texas Legislature has been delinquent in this obligation since 1921.

The result is as follows: Seventeen Representative districts have one State Representative for each 65,133 population, while 17 other districts have one Representative for each 22,766 population. This condition favors somewhat of the old "rotten borough system" that once prevailed in England, and is a negation of the democratic principle of equal legislative representation.

Representative Marshall O. Bell of Bexar county, who is sponsoring a redistricting bill to be presented at the next session of the Legislature, points out that West Texas would gain five or six Representatives by redistricting in conformity with the Constitution. Tarrant county also would gain one Representative. Both from the standpoint of enlightened self-interest and from the view that requirements of the Constitution ought to be met, West Texas and Tarrant county should throw its support to Representative Bell's measure, already endorsed by Governor Stevenson and Lieutenant Governor-elect Smith. Redistricting will not increase the size of the Legislature, already at its constitutional maximum.—Star-Telegram.

The News has called attention many times during the past few years to the injustice that is permitted to exist by reason of the failure of the legislature to redistrict the state and it has insisted with all the earnestness and power at its command that something be done about it.

The main trouble is that a redistricting of the state would necessarily decrease the number of districts in some sections of the state and would therefore cause some legislators to lose their jobs. Legislators therefore who might be adversely affected by a redistricting of the state always fight any redistricting bill that may be proposed, and thus far they have been able to defeat or pigeon-hole every such measure.

Our own Representative, Hop Halsey, introduced such a bill near the opening of the legislature that convened nearly two years ago—a fair and just bill—but the East Texas stand-patters succeeded in keeping it from coming to a final vote. Other bills in the past have met a similar fate. We hope that the measure which is being sponsored by Representative Bell of San Antonio and allegedly approved by Governor Stevenson and Lieutenant Governor-elect John Lee Smith may receive better treatment. But we are predicting now that those East Texas politicians will be up in arms against it. Probably they will attack it by proposing amendments or substitute measures with the hope of again delaying action until the session of the legislature shall have ended.

We shall watch the outcome of this measure with much interest.

Odds and Ends . . .

By Eee Eye, the Elder

The perpetrator of this column never has written a grammar, folks. He does not claim to be a paragon in the use of correct English. In fact, he makes a lot of errors himself, many of them through pure ignorance, others through carelessness, and some by accident. Nearly every week, after The News comes off the press and we begin to scan its pages, (if we may change the person, Mr. Charley Guy) we discover some error staring at us from the front page or some other page and seeming to accuse us of being a driveling ignoramus. Sometimes it is almost humiliating.

But in spite of all this, folks, right here we are going to stick our neck out. We are going to call attention to an inexcusable error or two that we often hear others make, others who ought to know better.

It certainly does grate on our nerves to hear some teacher or some college graduate use such expressions as this, "John told she and I that he had been to town," or "What John said to she and I was that he was going to town." And when an English teacher in the high school hears some other member of the faculty or any college graduate or public speaker make use of such an expression, we suspect that she is stricken with an almost uncontrollable desire to scream. It sounds as if the speaker were trying to use correct English and doesn't know how.

Suppose that John were talking to only one of us, would it be correct to say, "John told I that he had been to town," or, "John told she that he had been to town?"

We wonder if these college graduates skipped the English course altogether when they were in college; and if they skipped it also when they were in high school. Were they never taught anything about the case forms?

If this scribbler were a teacher and a seventh grader should make an error like that, we should try to set him right. If he should make the error a second time we think we should keep him in after school. If he should make it a third time, we would take him down across our lap and do our best to remove the cuticle from one of the most important parts of his anatomy.

Yet, we hear college graduates using such expressions repeatedly. It gets our goat.

Of course this matter is not as important as winning the war. It is not as important as the moment as crushing Hitler and his fellow thugs and murderers. We would rather hear an "educated" man make such a mistake than to hear that old Tojo had sunk our Navy.

But such errors are bad enough in themselves. They impress us that the noble and beautiful English language is being murdered in the house of its friends.

By the way, it is refreshing to hear some great naval or military leader now and then express the conviction that we are going to win the war, win it soon, and win it completely.

A lot of those guys up at Washington seem to think that they must continually feed us on dire and doleful predictions in order to get us to do our duty to our country. If the people don't do this and if the people don't do that, they are continually telling us, we are going to lose this war. We hear it till it makes us sick at heart. If we listened to all of it and believed that the people are as ignorant and indifferent respecting the war situation as these Washington swivel-chair bureaucrats seem to think, then we would throw up our hands in despair and feel like quitting.

It is refreshing therefore to hear some great leader speak out as Admiral Halsey did a few days ago.

"Can you give us an idea what the new year holds in store?" a news reporter asked him.

"Victory for the United Nations. Complete, absolute defeat for the Axis powers," she shot back. "But let's not be stopped this time until we fix things up so they will never be able to rise again."

"This year?"

"Yes."

"Do you include Japan?"

"Yes, sir, and here are a few messages I wish you would send to Japan for me."

"To Hirohito:
"As emperor and leader of traitorous and brutal Japan during the years of her foul attacks on peaceful peoples, your time is short!"

"To Tojo:
"When you unleashed your cowardly attack on Dec. 7 you started something you can't finish. Beneath your thin veneer of civilization lies the dominant instinct to kill. Because of this you have released the greatest instinct to fight in the American people ever in history. We have good evidence of your atrocities and know where they were perpetrated. They'll be properly repaid."

"To Yamamoto:
"You will be present at the peace if you are still alive. That peace will be in the White House but the White House will not be as you envisaged."

"To the American People:
"Under my command the United Nations in the South Pacific have the finest fighting men our country ever produced. They are imbued with a fighting instinct and it is conceded we will not stop until there is a complete victory."

"To the Japanese People:
"That heavy rumbling you hear now will gradually grow into a shock of bursting bombs, the shrieking of shells, and the clashing of swords on your own soil. You had better stop now before it is too late."

"What do you think is the significance of Tojo's recent remarks?" Halsey was asked.

"He sees the handwriting on the wall," he replied. "It was only a month ago that he annihilated the United States fleet for the fourth time."

"Do we have enough material here to conduct the offensive?"

"No man in military history ever had enough men and material but he has always gone ahead and done it just the same."

"Can you give a message to the fighting forces as to whether there is a good liberty town in the offing?"

"Liberty for the boys, yes. We will bypass all smaller towns and let them loose in Tokyo. That will be a liberty town they will really enjoy."

Isn't it refreshing to hear a great leader express himself with confidence and optimism like that? Say, folks, let's go and buy another war bond.

daughter of Seminole spent the holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Spence.

The local Lutheran Church presented their pastor, Rev. E. Herber, with a $25.00 bond for Christmas.

Helen Becker and her employees, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Connell of Seagraves, spent Christmas day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Becker. Mrs. Becker's mother of Holland presented each of her nine children with a bond for Christmas.

The Wallace Beckers and Albert Krause visited relatives in Stamford Saturday night.

Rev. O. J. Harmonson spent Christmas in Ropesville with his daughter, Mrs. Roy Dopson, and family.

served as pastor five years. Prior to that time he had served churches in Hunt and other North Texas counties and for some years was associational missionary for Hunt county.

While he was at Medill the church there built a commodious house of worship, as the church here has done during his pastorate.

Brother Dale tendered his resignation on account of the condition of his health. During a revival meeting being conducted in the church last March he suffered a severe attack of heart trouble. For three months he was confined most of the time to his home, at the end of which period, with dauntless courage, he resumed his active duties as pastor of the Church, but physicians have repeatedly advised him to "slow down" or take a long period of rest. It was only recently that he would give his consent to such a course; but Sunday morning he stated to the Church that he felt that it was imperative that he do so.

Following the usual course, the resignation was not acted upon immediately but was referred to the board of deacons for a recommendation, and in a meeting Sunday afternoon the deacons voted unanimously to recommend its acceptance. This doubtless will be done at an early meeting of the Church, and at that time a Pulpit Committee will be announced, whose duty it will be to recommend another pastor.

The Church here has made great progress during Brother Dale's pastorate. The Church was worshipping in a basement when he came. Owing to the depression that gripped the country, no effort was made immediately to build the superstructure but early in 1938 a building campaign was launched and in September of that year the first service was held in the completed structure, which is a commodious and attractive building.

Also concrete curbs and walks have been built and the premises greatly improved and beautified, grass, shrubs and trees having been planted and nurtured, making the premises one of the beauty spots of the town. During the past summer nice carpets were laid in the aisles of the main auditorium and just recently permanent partition walls were built in the basement cutting it up into many Sunday School rooms, taking the place of screens and frail partitions that were highly unsatisfactory. This work has been done at considerable expense and is not yet completed but it probably will be completed in the near future.

Most of the cost of the superstructure has been paid and it is contemplated that the remainder will be paid during the present month. The balance owing is about $7,200 and more than $5,000 of this has been raised already, with additional pledges that will cover the amount.

Some improvements have also been made on the parsonage and the premises greatly beautified. Some of this expense has been borne by the pastor himself.

As an appreciation of the splendid work done by the pastor and Mrs. Dale, the deacons are recommending that the Church present him with a free-will love offering on the last day of his service here, Sunday, January 31. If any one desires to make such an offering before that date, it should be placed in an envelope, "ear-marked," and turned in to the treasurer, Deen Nowlin.

Rev. and Mrs. Dale will make their home at 2112 25th street in Lubbock.

ACCIDENT VICTIMS IMPROVING

W. J. Failes reports that his granddaughter, Miss Mary Catherine Failes, whose parents reside near O'Donnell but who has been working in the bank at Post recently, is now showing much improvement from injuries she received in an automobile accident in Lubbock about three weeks ago. The pelvis was broken and injuries to the kidneys were inflicted. She was placed in a plaster cast upon being taken to the hospital and may be kept in the cast a few weeks longer, but physicians express satisfaction at the improvement in her condition. Cecil Gray, son of Elmer Gray, residing several miles northeast of Tahoka, was similarly injured in the same accident. He and Miss Failes and two or three other young people were in the car that was wrecked. Gray's pelvis was also broken and he sustained head injuries. He likewise was placed in a cast and is also improving satisfactorily. Both are in the West Texas Hospital.

The others in the car were not seriously injured.

Ex-Student Teaches, Bus Driver Quits, Water Does Damage

If you saw students crowded around the bulletin board Monday, you probably knew something special was there. The schedule for mid-term exams given Thursday and Friday had just been posted.

Here is a quoted query Tahoka girls might be asking boy friends in the Air Corp, etc.:

"I often wonder, dearest dear, Are you faithful there as you are here
Or from other lips do you seek wine
Missing the familiar touch of mine?
The reason I should like to know
My conscience sometimes hurts me so!"

Mrs. Samuel J. Privitt is substitute teacher this week in the high school. She is teaching bookkeeping and history.

J. W. Inklebarger, senior in Tahoka high school, received a sprained ankle Thursday night in the basketball game between Tahoka and New Home. Fortunately, he is able to attend school this week.

Miss Eleanor King, chemistry teacher, is trying to find the neglectant student who left the water running in Chemistry lab. The result was a few vacant seats in the study hall for a few days. Evidently, the water ran from the laboratory through the ceiling into the study hall just below. Next time maybe the students will think twice before leaving the water dripping.

The walls and floors of Tahoka high school are spoken of as being considerably clean but there are still some students who delight in making long pencil marks on the walls and slinging ink from their pens on the floor. Why can't they stay as clean as they are now, students?

"Everyone is tired of us," say the pupils riding the Grassland bus when the fourth bus driver quit Monday. We are hoping the bus, not the pupils, had something to do with so many drivers.

Why don't you fill out the Dramatic club ballot?

Did you notice: All the college students still around after Christmas while we had two weeks of school. Students busy as bees studying for mid-term exams. Eva Jo Reid and her Sub-Deb hat with white letters of cloth.

And then there's Reid Towne who wrote at the end of examination paper:

Lord God of Hosts was with me not;
For I forgot! For I forgot!

All-American 1944
End—Euella Dollins, an ardent pupil of "Coach" Driver.

Tackle—Alice Roberts, very good on defense—knows all the answers. Center—"Dot" Applewhite, she's always in the middle of things.

Quarterback—Dona Sue Milliken knows all the signals (including the two-second wink, the one-second wink, and the flush wink).

Guard—Pat Hill, plenty good on offensive.

Halfback—Joyce Kinley, very pretty (nuff sed).

Fullback—"Jerry" Connolly, "the bigger they come, the harder they fall."

We view with alarm: Mid-term exams. All the teachers leaving after mid-term. The possibility of no County Meet next Spring.

Five New Members In Sub-Deb Club

Five new girls were voted into the Sub-Deb club at the last meeting which was held in the home of Pat Hill. The girls are: Dorothy Nell Johnson, Dora Ruth Fenton, Ruby Coughran, Maxine Lindley, and Ruby Greer.

The club is planning to present a program February 3 in the high school auditorium entitled "The Hit Parade."

A gift was presented to Mrs. Houston Spikes by the club. Mrs. Spikes has been one of the sponsors for the past three years.

The girls in the club sold tickets last week for the Defense Guard benefit dance which was given in the Legion hall Friday night.

Grade School Works For PTA Members

Do you know what the Parent-Teacher's Association means to the school?

Grade school pupils evidently have a good idea of pupil-parent-teacher cooperation, for they have launched a drive in an effort to get more parents to attend the meetings of the organization. The class in grade school represented by the greatest number of parents at the next meeting will be declared winner and will receive a prize.

Jack King Home From War Zone

Jack King is home on furlough this week visiting relatives, and it is evident that he could tell some thrilling stories if the rules of the Navy permitted.

Jack has been serving as a gunner on a transport vessel, and it was his ship that took one of the first if not the very first boat-load of U. S. soldiers to Guadalcanal. Although transport ships seek to avoid action, it is impossible to do so at all times, and Jack, it seems, has been in the thick of the fighting on more than one occasion.

Jack says that those Japanese, according to some of them who have been taken prisoner, have been taught to believe that capture means certain death, that the Americans kill all their prisoners. This lie is told them by their superior officers to make them more desperate fighters. He says that some whom he saw in an American "bull-pen" had gotten fat since they were captured.

He also says that he heard many reports, which he believes to be true, that often Americans who are captured are tied to trees and then bayoneted.

Jack took his naval training at San Diego. He was there a few months and was then assigned to duty on a transport. He has been in the Southwest Pacific, much of the time in the vicinity of Guadalcanal, since that time. His vessel recently came back to a port on the western coast and he was given leave to come home for a few days. He is leaving today.

BAPTIST W. M. U. NOTES

Next Wednesday night, Jan. 13, the W. M. U. of Tahoka First Baptist Church will begin meeting on the second and fourth Wednesday evenings at 7:00 o'clock, which is one hour before prayer meeting time. They are inviting whole families to come to the church together and hold meetings of the different organizations at the same hour.

Places or rooms will be assigned each organization and sponsors will be present for all junior organizations such as Y. W. A., G. A., R. A., and Sunbeam Band. The Brotherhood will hold its meeting and the W. M. S. and the Business Women's Circle will meet in their respective groups.

This change of time and place of meeting for the various organizations has been recommended in order that every member of every family may participate in the organized work of the church and yet keep in step with conservation measures now in use.

Prayer meeting will be at 8:00.

WEATHERS PROMOTED

Reports from the hospital since indicate that his condition is hopeless. He has no relatives here at this time except a daughter-in-law, who is afflicted.

Agriculture News

By J. C. Smith, County Agent

President Roosevelt has proclaimed January 12 Farm Mobilization Day and asks that on that day farmers gather with department representatives to discuss ways and means of insuring maximum production of vital foods.

Quote from the President's proclamation: "I should like farm mobilization day to be a symbol of free America; a symbol of the might and productivity of our nation; and a symbol of our unalterable determination to put to full use our agricultural resources as well as our other resources, in the achievement of complete victory."

Plans are under way for Farm Mobilization Day in Lynn county. It becomes the duty of every agricultural leader in Lynn county, as well as the nation, to concentrate his or her efforts to the widely expanding food and feed production program.

Lynn county farmers are becoming aware of the fact that they play a very vital role in the war effort. It is necessary that the farmers produce enough food for our boys in the armed forces, the civilian population of our nation, as well as to supply large quantities to our allies.

Farmers are extended a special invitation to use the assistance of the county agent in the planning of their 1943 farming operations.

INSURANCE COMPANY BUYS WAR BONDS

Mrs. Gladys M. Toles, local representative of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company of Dallas, calls attention to the fact that on December 23 her company purchased war bonds in the sum of $25,000.00 which were allocated to Tahoka for the Lynn county drive, thus helping to swell very materially Lynn county's excess over her quota.

All Baptist women living east of the street in front of the Baptist Church are in the area of the Sallee Circle of the Baptist W. M. U. This circle is having a covered dish luncheon and studying a mission book in the home of Mrs. E. I. Hill on Friday, Jan. 8. All are invited to bring dish and be present at 11:00 o'clock Friday morning. Mrs. D. V. Smith will have charge of the mission study.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bishop, long-time citizens of this county but now residing at Brownfield, announce the birth of an 8-pound son on December 20. The new baby has been named Jackie Bill.

Since the attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, she says, the Southwestern Life Insurance Company has invested fifteen million dollars in war bonds, according to C. F. O'Donnell, president of the company.

America can't take chances with precious rubber and tires . . . that is why tire inspection is compulsory for every registered motor vehicle in the country. If your tires have not been inspected and your Tire Record signed by an authorized OPA Inspector at an Official Inspection Station BEFORE midnight, Sunday, January 31, 1943, and at regular intervals thereafter, you will not be able to get other tires or recaps; you will not be getting another Gasoline Ration Book when your present one expires; you will be allowing your tires to deteriorate for lack of repairs.

Girls Learn Knitting To Aid War Effort

Girls of Homemaking II and III combine pleasure with duty as they take up the task of learning to knit. Knitting, which will continue until school is out, will begin with the plain stitch, the girls having had no experience in this phase of homemaking. Class periods, formerly used for the Unit Club meeting, will be given over to this project. Thread for use in this new study will be furnished by the Red Cross. Miss Lucille Wright, Home Economics teacher, will be in charge.

"SECRET CODE" No. 11

Students Making Defense Scrapbook

Trying to get a group of students at one shot and securing enough light to take the picture were the problems of Mr. "Barney" Dwight as he scammed from the high school to the grade school in order to snap pictures to be placed in the Defense Scrap Book which is being completed.

Rae Fern Pennington was shot demonstrating first aid by placing a bandage on Mary Ruth Edwards' arm, with a group of interested girls watching.

The first year home economics girls demonstrated sewing as Jeanine Smith measured the hem in Gynnell Davis' dress, as Jerine Bartley sewed on the machine.

Canning demonstration was performed with a cooker and jars of canned vegetables by a group of second year home economics girls. The picture taken of the school cafeteria revealed the hungry look on the faces of many grade school students as they held their trays filled with food ready to eat.

Stair-steps made the formation for twelve basketball players as they posed before the camera.

To show that the grade school students get their share of physical education, Mr. Dwight snapped a picture of the sixth grade boys taking calisthenics.

A good example for high school students to follow when a fire occurs was demonstrated by several high school students as Mr. Hope Haynes pulled the fire bell.

How the students bought the "jeep" car was exhibited as students gathered around the office - bought bonds and stamps as they had their picture snapped.

One hundred and seventy fingers moving at once made the picture for the typing class.

A poster encouraging the buying of bonds and stamps and being tacked on the bulletin board by Billie Wayne Pennington made another picture to be placed in the "scrap book."

The tiny-tots under the care of first year home economics girls displayed "child care" at the grade school.

The scrap book is being made to be entered in a contest of schools at war, a program for action sponsored by the War Savings Staff of the U. S. Office of Education and its Wartime Commission.

Lost Puppy Finds Friends At School

"Rock-a-bye puppy" were some of the crooning sounds coming from a class room closet last week when Charles Haynes was discovered singing to sleep a tiny bulldog puppy. Charles had found this little puppy on the play ground, cold and shaking.

It was easy to decide that one day was long enough for the sixth grade to care for this helpless little creature. Finally a second grader volunteered to take this bulldog for a playmate.

Party Held By Eighth Grade Students

The Tahoka gym set the scene for the eighth grade New Year's party Monday night as students and sponsors celebrated by playing games.

Refreshments of "cokes" and candy were served to the members present. Sponsors, Miss Mary Eleanor King and Mr. T. H. Seay, were guests.

BALLOT

I am in favor of a Dramatic Club in connection with Speech Class. (Mail to the Journalism Class)

Signed:

EDITORIAL

Our editorial campaign on a dramatic club resulted in little or no results. Many students want this organization in our school, but they never have voiced their opinions about it. The advantages of such a club have been given and teachers and students have been interviewed about the club. It took a reporter to get them to say something about it. Why? If you want a club, why not make it known?

This week, the Growl is printing a ballot on which you just simply clip the ballot out of the paper and sign your name. If you are in favor of having a dramatic club in Tahoka high school, please fill out this ballot and send it to the Journalism class. There is one way to have a dramatic club in connection with our speech class, and that is by the majority of students voting in favor of one.

New Faces...

A broad smile, grey eyes, and blonde hair would describe Onetta Brasher, freshman student from Spur who enrolled in Tahoka High last Monday.

She is quite up to her ears in work after signing up to take History, English, Home Ec., and Junior Business. Her favorite sport is baseball and she adores choral singing.

She confesses to be 14 years of age and has not decided whether or not she will like to go to school here. She also wants to find new friends!

After enrolling for courses in Junior Business, History, English, Vocational Agriculture, and Literature, Prentice Brasher, freshman from Spur, says he has quite enough work to keep him busy.

Prentice has grey eyes and black hair and wants time out sometime to play football, his favorite sport. He also likes basketball.

He is willing to meet new friends and he is sure that he will like Tahoka High.

Personality...

Santa Claus' jester is our personality for this week. A well dressed boy with brown hair and eyes, who weighs 87 pounds and is five feet and three inches tall claims our attention. He plays football, baseball, and tennis, while swimming is his favorite summer sport.

Seventh grade president, Charles Stevens, is the person we take pleasure in introducing.

Homemakers Present Assembly Program

If you are interested in becoming a Cleopatra or a Marie Antoinette perhaps the homemaking girls chapter meeting will hold something of interest for you.

Care of the fingernails, care of the skin, new hair styles—these are some of the topics for group discussion selected by the program committee.

The meeting, scheduled for January 12, will take place in the high school auditorium.

CALENDAR

The calendar of events taking place from January 11 to January 15 is as follows:

Jan. 13—Fourth and eighth period six weeks tests.

Jan. 14—Midterm examinations—Home Ec., History, Agriculture, Algebra, Arithmetic, English III and IV, General Science, Typing, Health, Journalism, Jr. Business, and Language Arts.

Jan. 15—Mid-term examinations—Biology, History, Typing, English I and II, Geometry, Algebra, Chemistry, Speech, Language Arts, Spanish, Sr. Band, History II, Social Science, Music, and Civics.

Boxing Contests Aid Athletic Fund

The amateur boxing tournament for this year started off with a bang in the Tahoka Gymnasium last Friday night.

In addition to local entries there were some from New Home, O'Donnell, and Lamesa. Elwood Wright of LaBoock refereed the twelve fights, including the preliminaries, in the tournament.

The proceeds from the boxing matches will be spent for volley balls, basket balls, and other athletic equipment.

Coach Leo Jackson, former football coach of Tahoka, assisted in staging the event. Coach Jackson is football coach in Olney at the present time.

J. W. Jaquess, Care-Taker, Has Birthday

(By Faye Shadden)

Mr. J. W. Jaquess, janitor of Tahoka High school, celebrated his 62nd birthday January 5.

He was born in Jackson county, Tennessee, where his occupation was farming. He moved to Tahoka in August, 1926, being employed by the contractors erecting the present Tahoka high school. Following completion of the building, he was elected care-taker for the building, which has been his duty for the past 16 years.

Pets win first prize in Mr. Jaquess' hobby collection, and his pet squirrel, Buster, occupies most of his leisure time. However, Mr. Jaquess is fond of all pets, including a dog owned by his nephew.

Another pastime for Mr. Jaquess is reading. He keeps posted on all the war news and his opinion of the activities of this war is that all American citizens are involved as well as the boys who are doing the fighting.

CHECK IN BAND SUITS

Due to the fact that Miss Mary Eleanor King, band director, will soon be leaving, the band students are checking in their suits this week. They must have them cleaned and pressed and pay fifty cents for having it done before they are permitted to take their mid-term tests on Thursday and Friday.

Juniors And Seniors Busy With Studies

Juniors and seniors have been very busy keeping "up" in their courses and cramming.

The Journalism class has been writing editorials on "Should or Should Not Texas High Schools Have Compulsory R. O. T. C. Training."

English IV class has been reading essays and reviewing for mid-term exams.

The speech class, small but peppy, has been studying pronunciation of common words which are frequently misused. The group is making speeches and studying the difference between oral and written communication.

Tops of the past three weeks in typing class are Macky Fenton with 1844 lines, Peggy Fenton 1774 lines, Joreta Smith with 1734 lines, and Beth Shepherd with 1641 lines. Students are graded by the total number of lines and errors per week.

Mrs. Jane Minor

Mrs. Minor was seriously stricken with an attack of heart trouble in January of last year. For several weeks little hope for her recovery was entertained. Finally her condition began to improve, however, and though she suffered frequent setbacks she again became able to sit up in her room and even to leave the house at times. In October she had made such marked improvement that she felt able to make the trip to California to be with her husband, A. J. Minor, who was engaged in war work there. She remained there accordingly until her death, having suffered the fatal attack just a few days before the end came. The body was shipped from California and arrived here Monday afternoon, accompanied by her husband, A. J. Minor, her brother, Chester Bairrington of Ontario, Calif., and her sister, Miss Nell Bairrington of Tahoka, now working in Lubbock, who left for California when the message came that Jane's condition was critical, Jane dying before she arrived.

Besides the husband, Mrs. Minor left surviving her six sisters and four brothers. The sisters are: Misses Nell and Sina Bairrington, Mrs. C. W. Stevens, Mrs. W. F. Henderson, and Mrs. C. B. Cook, all of Tahoka, and Mrs. A. E. Carter of Beaumont. The brothers are: Cleave, Ben, and Gus Bairrington, all of Tahoka, and Chester Bairrington of Ontario, Calif. Also surviving is her husband's son by a former marriage,

A. J. Minor Jr. of Amarillo. Janie Bairrington was born in Navarro county on January 10, 1908. She came with her parents to Lynn county in December, 1924. She was married to A. J. Minor of Tahoka at Odessa on October 19, 1935. She united with the Baptist Church in girlhood and became a member of the local Baptist Church in 1926, being a member of this church at the time of her death. For a time, she was also a member of the Business and Professional Women's Club here.

Several years ago she opened a beauty shop here, and her shop soon became the most popular and prosperous in the town. She continued to operate the business personally until January of last year when she suffered her first heart attack in the shop and had to be taken to her home.

Following the death of her mother a number of years ago, the responsibility of rearing the younger children fell largely upon her, and also of caring for her aged father until he died a few years later. She met these responsibilities in a manner that won the admiration of friends and acquaintances everywhere. Genuine and impressive were the tributes paid to her by the ministers conducting the funeral services Tuesday afternoon, and many were the expressions of regret and sorrow heard on the streets and in the business houses of the town. The numerous and lovely floral offerings were a fitting tribute to her life of service and usefulness.
