Army Plane Wreck Fatal To Pilot, But Three Uninjured

Second Lt. Eugene Francis Moriarty, Tulsa, Okla., pilot of a twin-engine bomber, was killed, and three other occupants parachuted to safety when the plane crashed six miles north of Tahoka, near the W. R. Warren farm, at noon Saturday.

The plane was from the Big Spring Bombardier School, and was out on a practice bombing mission. The crew lost their bearings, it is said, and after flying around east of the caprock hunting a landing field for an hour or two, they had started back to Big Spring as their gas supply dwindled. They circled Tahoka a few times, and not finding a landing field, the pilot ordered the others to "ball out." The pilot is thought to have either lost control of the plane or came in at too sharp an angle, resulting in the crash.

Mr. Warren and several boys witnessed the accident, and rushing to the plane, extinguished the fire that had started. The pilot was thrown about ten steps ahead of the plane, which was only a pile of junk, and practice bombs were scattered over a wide area.

The three men who bailed out, drifting three miles from the scene of the accident, were: Lt. Willard J. Hall, instructor, Beaumont, Texas; Cadet Edwin A. Stern, Washington, D. C., and Cadet George G. Griffin, Roxbury, N. Y.

Rotary Club Hears Talk By Rev. Dale

Following the singing of a number of peppy songs led by Frank George and Rev. E. A. Brown, pianist, Rev. Geo. A. Dale delivered the principal address at the Rotary luncheon Thursday.

Recalling that he had been a member of a Rotary Club five years before coming to Tahoka and five years since coming, he gave the Rotary Club here credit for much of the progress and improvement that have been made here since the organization of the club.

His discussion had to do with three questions which he propounded to himself and to his auditors and the answers which he gave: 1. How did you come to be here? 2. Why are you here? 3. What are you doing here?

The discussion was most appropriate and was greatly appreciated and enjoyed.

Mayor Deen Nowlin also used a few minutes to present the campaign for the sale of War Bonds, expressed the opinion that the county should double its quota. Of the quota of $36,200.00 for the month of January, bonds in the sum of $20,906.25 had been purchased up to January 8. He felt confident that the full amount of the quota had been purchased by the middle of the month.

A number of visitors were present at the luncheon.

The program committee, headed by W. T. Hanes, is meeting tonight to arrange programs for the next few weeks.

Pfc. Tommie Glenn In New Guinea

Mrs. C. A. Isham, who lives on the old W. C. Cowan farm a few miles south of Tahoka, stated to a representative of The News Saturday that she has a brother, Pfc. Tommie Glenn, who is with General MacArthur's forces in New Guinea helping to mop up on the Japs.

Pfc. Glenn enlisted in the Army about three years ago and was on the west coast when Japs struck at Pearl Harbor in December, 1941. He left out almost immediately and has been somewhere in the war zone ever since. He writes interestingly of that part of the world, Mrs. Isham says.

Another brother, George W. Glenn recently enlisted in the Navy and is stationed at San Diego.

Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Glenn of Draw, and each has many friends in Lynn county. Mrs. many friends in Lynn county.

ARMY AND NAVY COLLABORATION—Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson pins the Distinguished Service Medal on Vice Admiral Henry K. Hewitt. Also present at the ceremony in the War Department were Admiral Ernest J. King, Chief of Naval Operations and Commander-in-Chief of the United States Fleet, standing between Secretary Stimson and Admiral Hewitt, and General George C. Marshall, Army Chief of Staff. The award was for outstanding service in the occupation of French Morocco. Secretary Stimson termed it a superb instance of collaboration between the Army and Navy.

Five Men Enter Army, One Navy

Five Lynn county men were inducted into the Army on January 15 but were granted a week's furlough and did not leave for training until January 22.

The inductees were: Houston Harold Bain, Rt. 1, Tahoka; Jack Walton Yandell, Rt. 1, Tahoka; Rural Maurice Lee, Tahoka; Victor Salinas, Tahoka; Jesse Lavell Williams, Rt. 4, Tahoka.

On January 16, Luther Edward Dodd of Rt. 2, Tahoka, was inducted into the Navy in Dallas.

Quite a number of Lynn county men are to be inducted into the Army today but will probably take their furlough before entering a training camp a week or more later.

There will be another call for white men on February 15 and a call for colored men on February 1.

Rifle Practice Will Start Next Sunday

Weather permitting, the Tahoka Defense Guard will hold rifle practice Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Capt. E. R. Edwards announces. Members of the Guard will meet at the Legion Hall at that hour. Ammunition will be furnished.

Monday night, Lieutenants Still and McCasland of Lubbock lectured to the company on squad formations and guard duty.

MOTHER DIES IN WRECK

Mrs. T. Cowan of this city informs The News that Mrs. A. C. Roddy of Amarillo, mother of Mrs. Maurice Cowan, was killed on Thursday of last week in a railroad crossing crash in Amarillo. She had just recently returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Cowan and their new baby in Lubbock.

Mr. Cowan was born and reared in Lynn county and is a brother of T. Cowan of this city.

OLIVER'S BROTHER ILL.

Messrs. C. T. and J. B. Oliver left here Tuesday in company with their sister, Mrs. Pile of Big Spring, for the bedside of their brother at Bowie, who was reported to be so critically ill that he was not expected to recover.

The brother who is ill spent several weeks here last spring and summer helping to take care of C. T. after he had been almost fatally injured in an automobile accident.

Cecil Whiteley of Pasadena, Calif., is here visiting his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Slover, and other relatives. Though he knew nothing of the death of little Carol Ann Slover, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Slover, he arrived just a few minutes before the funeral services. He expects to enter the armed service of our country immediately upon his return home.

Henderson Opens Insurance Office

Harley Henderson has been appointed agent for the Republic National Life Insurance Company of Dallas, setting up an agency here this week at his office in the Thomas building.

92,645 Bales Ginned Up To January 16

Two weeks ago The News published an estimation of 90,000 and possibly 91,000 bales of cotton ginned in Lynn county this season up to January 15.

The News now has official information that 92,645 bales had been ginned in the county prior to January 15.

Negro Gets Drunk, Stabbed By Wife

Attacked by her alleged drunken husband Sunday afternoon over in the Negro district, Jerry Lee Burks, a Negro woman, whipped out a long-bladed pocket knife known to the police as an East Dallas Special, and plunged it deep into the shoulder of her black assailant and slashed him a second time a few inches lower on the right breast or side.

Arraigned in court for her conduct, she entered a plea of guilty to a charge of aggravated assault and paid a fine of $50.00 and costs assessed against her.

Liquor and Negro blood make a bad combination.

Boy Scouts Launch Program of Study

In keeping with the times the local Boy Scouts are now making every meeting count for something practical and beneficial to themselves and to the community, according to A. R. Milliken, Scoutmaster.

Last Monday night at the hall, Happy Smith, one of the local Boy Scout commissioners, and the boys had a most interesting program on air scouting.

Next Monday night, Carl Griffing Sr., another Scout commissioner, will be in charge of a program on First Aid. Some qualified person or persons will give suitable demonstrations on this program.

This type of programs will be followed henceforth, so that each member will get some definite information or training along lines that help him to fit into the plan of present day living and yet to get his share of enjoyment out of life.

Parents are urged to encourage their sons of Scout age to become members of the local troop. Parents and other adults are always welcomed as visitors to the Scout meetings.

Address of Soldiers In Foreign Service Cannot Be Published

The News has been requested several times recently to publish the address of some soldier overseas in order that his friends at home may have the opportunity of communicating with him.

The press is permitted to report that "John Doe is in New Guinea," for instance, but is not permitted to give his exact mailing address, for that might reveal combat units and their potential strength, valuable information to the enemy. The press can reveal that Bill Jones has gone to Africa, but not the name of the ship taking him, or sailing date.

Baptists Dedicate Building Sunday By Burning Notes

A general invitation has been extended to the public generally and personal invitations have been sent to many former members of the First Baptist Church now residing elsewhere to attend the dedication services in the Church Sunday morning, and if the weather is not too forbidding an immense congregation is expected to be present.

The occasion will also mark the close of the pastorate of Rev. Geo. A. Dale, who has served in that capacity for a period of eight years and almost five months.

Not only will a love offering and other honors be accorded him, but the $10,000 note made by the trustees of the church in 1938 and paid in full recently, long before the major part of it was due, will be burned in the presence of the congregation.

The beautiful and spacious superstructure of the Church building was constructed in that year at a cost of about $22,000, about $12,000 of which was paid that year, the remainder being represented by the note of $10,000 executed by the trustees of the Church, W. B. Edwards, A. J. Mullins, and Deen Nowlin, payable to the Southwestern Life Insurance Company of Dallas, in annual installments of $1,000 each, the first installment being due on February 1, 1940, and the last installment on February 1, 1949, bearing interest at the rate of 5 1/2 per cent per annum.

All past installments of principal and interest had been paid when due, and a few months ago a campaign was launched to raise the money and pay off the note in full on February 1 of this year. The amount due on that date was $7,192.50. The campaign went "over the top" early in this month, and the note was paid on January 14. The release has been received and placed of record, and the note will be burned Sunday morning.

Furthermore, the pews costing around $2,000 were paid out a long time ago, and nice carpets were laid in the aisles last summer at considerable cost, which also has been paid.

The original cost of the basement was about $18,000, paid in full before the present pastor came to the church, making a working plant now well worth more than $45,000, and there is not a cent of indebtedness on any of the Church property at this time.

One Nance Relative Dies, Two Are Ill

J. B. Nance left by bus Monday for Paris, having been called by the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. L. A. Nance, who died of a lingering disease at 10:55 Sunday night.

Mrs. Nance had been down there some time helping to take care of her sister-in-law. After going down there, a sister of hers near by underwent a major operation and a daughter at Tyler has pneumonia, Mr. Nance stated to a representative of the News before leaving.

Mrs. L. A. Nance visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nance here last summer.

Sgt. David Weathers of the Air Base at Pueblo, Colo., is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Weathers, and other relatives.

He holds the American Distinguished Flying Cross, the British Flying Cross and the Starred Wing and Cloud Banner, Fifth

Jackson Infant Buried At Draw

Funeral services were conducted by Garnie Atkinson, Minister of the Church of Christ here, for little Sewel Lawrence Jackson, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jackson of Draw, at 3:00 o'clock last Friday afternoon in the Draw Methodist Church, followed by burial in the cemetery at that place.

The baby died of pneumonia on Wednesday of last week at Amarillo, where his parents were temporarily residing while Mr. Jackson was employed there. The child was born on December 5 and was therefore only one month and 15 days old at the time of its death.

Survivors include the parents, grand-parents, a little brother, Cecil Ray, a little sister, Shirley Jannelle, and other relatives.

Donations Asked To Paralysis Fund

There will be no President's Birthday Ball in Tahoka this year.

However, a committee is soliciting contributions to the fund for the treatment of infantile paralysis victims. The town will be canvassed Saturday, and a desk will also be available at Deen Nowlin's office, where contributions will be received, if a solicitor misses you.

County Agent J. C. Smith is chairman of Lynn county, W. J. Welch is vice-chairman, Raymond Weathers executive secretary, and Deen Nowlin treasurer.

Mrs. W. B. Edwards Is Brought Home

Mrs. W. B. Edwards, who was taken to a hospital for treatment following an attack of heart trouble several weeks ago and who has been in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joe Boles, in Lubbock the past two or three weeks, was brought back home Monday, apparently much improved in health. It is to be hoped that she will soon be as well and strong as usual.

Mr. Edwards also brought along their oldest daughter, Mrs. Velma Godwin of Vernon, who also underwent a very serious operation in a Lubbock hospital about three weeks ago.

Congratulations to:

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lamb of Lubbock, the proud parents of a daughter born in the West Texas Hospital Tuesday, 6:30 p. m. The little Miss weighed 8 1/2 pounds.

Officers Make War On Bootleggers In Tahoka, O'Donnell

Sheriff Sam Floyd and Deputy Sheriff Arthur Hodge seem to be waging a winning war on bootleggers operating in this county. They are joined in the drive by officers of the State Liquor Control Board.

Last Saturday the sheriff and his deputy, accompanied by County Attorney Calloway Huffaker, made a raid on some suspicious joints in Tahoka.

At a place operated by Will Johnson, colored, they found 24 pints of whiskey under the floor. They took charge of the liquor and brought the colored gentleman to jail. He entered a plea of guilty in the county court and was fined $100.00 and the trimmings by His Honor, Judge Chester Connolly.

On the same day a raid was made on a place operated by Charlie Malone. This time 32 half pints of whiskey and a quantity of beer were found, hidden away in a trunk. He likewise was brought to jail and his corn juice and sloop confiscated. He didn't care to "buck the law" either, pleaded guilty, and paid off, $100.00 fine and costs.

On Thursday night of last week, Liquor Control men got on the trail of a couple of "white" Negroes, driving a car. Being hard pressed, they turned off of the highway onto a side road just this side of O'Donnell (Cont'd. on last page)

Two Boydston Boys In Africa

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Boydston of Tahoka have four sons, and all of them are in the armed service of the United States, two of them in Africa.

Ted and Billy went over across the seas at the same time. They landed at Casa Blanca on the northwest coast of Africa in November, according to their mother. She had a letter from them written just before Christmas, but has had no message of any kind from them written since Christmas. She does not know, of course, where they are now nor just how much of the fighting they have participated in, but they say that they found a strange land over there, inhabited by a strange people, living under strange conditions and using strange methods in their farming operations. The ox and the camel are still being used as draft animals.

Both are seasoned soldiers, Ted having enlisted in the Army four years ago and Billy three years ago. They were at Fredericksburg, Virginia, for quite a while before leaving their shores.

Two other sons are in the Air Forces in this country. Elmore has been at Miami Beach, Florida, since about the middle of October, 1942, and Glenn has been at the Lubbock Army Air Base since about the same time, though he was expecting to be transferred to some other field some time this week.

Lieut. Corbin Douthit Is In North Africa

Douthit left the States on September 25, spent a short time in Northern Ireland, and was with the invasion forces that landed in North Africa in November.

He has been in the Army about a year and is a graduate of the officers training school.

Douthit is a graduate of the local schools and of Texas Tech, and had been teaching for several years at Draw-Redwine when he joined the Army.

Lieut. Douthit's wife, the former Miss Helen Williams, is employed at Lubbock Army Air School.

The revelation that President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Winston Churchill and the military leaders of both the United States and Great Britain had been in ten-days conference at Casa Bianca, on the northwest coast of Africa, was a surprise to the world. At the close of the conference they made the thrilling announcement that they would accept nothing from the Axis powers at the close of this war except unconditional surrender. This gave assurance to the world that the gangster nations must be and will be completely crushed before this thing is over so that they may never be able to plunge the world into war again. It was a momentous and thrilling announcement.

Marcantonio!
That doesn't sound very much like an American name, does it? And Marcantonio isn't American to hurt, in our humble opinion, but he's a congressman.

We judge that he is a transplanted Italian. He comes from New York City, doubtless from one of those districts made up of almost all races and nationalities—from the very middle of the "melting pot," where the melting process is going on all right but where very little Americanism is being mixed in with the other ingredients.

While we doubt the wisdom and the desirability of merging diverse races, such as Negroes, Chinese, and Whites, into a single conglomerate race, yet the merging of different nationalities of the same or kindred races is doubtless wholesome, provided they are Americanized while being merged.

But Marcantonio, whether he was born in this country or elsewhere, seems to have been Russified rather than Americanized.

He is a near-communist if not on all-out communist. He not only believes in the communistic doctrines respecting the ownership of property but he also holds to the communistic theories respecting the mingling and inter-marriage of the races.

Marcantonio is the sort of guy that would abolish all racial distinctions socially, the sort of guy who would compel white children and Negro children to sit side by side in the school room, who would make it possible and common for a big burley Negro man to plop down on the seat beside your wife or daughter on the railroad train or in the church and make you like it, the sort of guy who would like to see an America in which Negro men would lead white women to the altar of marriage and white men mould lead Negro women.

At least, that is the condition that the doctrines which he and many others like him preach would lead to.

And so, living in one of the polyglot districts of New York City, the voters sent Marcantonio to Congress, not as a Democrat, not as a Republican, but as a Laborite.

But he has hob-nobbed with the New Dealers quite a bit and has enthusiastically supported the Administration since Hitler made war on Russia, as Russia is the country where his communistic theories have been put into practice, and so when the House Democrats held their caucus the other day to make up their slate of committee assignments, Marcantonio wanted a place on some of the most important committees, particularly on the judiciary committee of which Hatton Summers of Dallas is the chairman.

Summers and other Southerners put their foot down on the suggestion. Then Marcantonio became insistent. And the Southerners became more determined. Summers declared rather vehemently that he wanted no such guy as Marcantonio on his judiciary committee. Marcantonio declared that if he was shut off from a place on that committee he would refuse to accept any committee assignments whatever. And, so far as we know, there is where the matter rests. Marcantonio didn't get on the judiciary committee.

At the instigation or with the encouragement of White communists, two or three communistic Negro organizations have been formed in the North during the past fifteen or twenty years whose members have become rather arrogant and hostile in the demands that they have been making of the national, state, and city governments.

Those same Negro organizations, encouraged and assisted by many prominent Whites in the North and East, have tried to infuse a like spirit into Negroes throughout the country, North and South, and they have had considerable success in the North but not much in the South.

One of the results of this agitation has been the hue and cry that has been raised in the North and East for the passage of a Federal anti-lynching law. There has been some just provocation, we will admit, for the sentiment in favor of such a law, but Southern Senators and Congressmen as a rule have insisted that this is a matter for states action, and they have fought the proposal on Constitutional grounds. Furthermore, they have shown that the States in fact are making rapid and continual progress in stamping out this evil. There are now very few lynchings. It is to be hoped that they will soon be stamped out entirely.

Another result of this agitation has been the increasing demand that Negroes be allowed to sit on juries. The supreme court of the United States has recently held that in counties which have large colored populations, the absence of Negroes on juries will indicate discrimination against Negro citizens respecting jury services, and it will hereafter be incumbent upon the courts to see to it that no such discrimination is allowed. Negroes in such counties must be placed on juries selected to try Negro defendants. While it will be distasteful to many Southern white men to be compelled to spend days and nights with Negroes on a jury, yet, otherwise, there will be little objection to this innovation.

Still a third result of this agitation is the demand being made for a Federal law abolishing the payment of a poll tax in certain Southern states as a pre-requisite for voting. All efforts to pass such a law have been defeated thus far, and the chances are that any such measure introduced in the new, or 78th Congress, will likewise be defeated.

Marcantonio has been prominent and persistent in the movement to pass both the anti-lynching bill and the anti-poll tax bills. He and others have seemingly had little regard for the Constitution. And in fact, in our opinion, no communist or near communist can have a very robust regard for the Constitution. A lot of these guys are not really interested so much in the welfare of the Negro as they are in creating discontent with our form of government.

Another bunch of Northerners who have been agitating these matters have probably been actuated more by a desire to discredit the South and Southern people than they have been in really helping the Negro.

And still a third class, especially the politicians, have espoused the Negro cause for political reasons. They want the Negro votes in their respective states or districts.

But all this agitation only breeds trouble for both the Whites and the Blacks. And the Whites of the North will probably reap a more bitter harvest as a result of their sowing than will the Whites of the South.

Many Negroes know already that the White people of the South are really their best friends. As a rule, the Negroes and the Whites get along together just fine in the South, because they understand each other. Negroes know that they must stay in their places, and Whites, as a rule, stay in theirs. Nearly every Negro has some real personal friend or friends among the Whites who are glad to help them and to offer them needed

The Hackberry unit of the Red Cross continues to do excellent work and is not afflicted with "cold feet" as is often the case in various efforts, after the "new" has worn off. That more could be accomplished, it was recently voted to meet in all-day sessions for awhile, during this slack time in farm work.

Mrs. Heywood Basinger supervises the knitters with kindly efficiency. It is a job that requires forbearance, patience, tact, self control, etc., and apparently Mrs. Basinger has them all, for, as with the proverbial patience of Job she corrects our forthright mistake, she never implies by word or look that we are dumb to the "nth" degree.

Mrs. Clyde Haire, supervisor of the sewing group, is also outstanding in leadership and faithful service, always doing more than her share. For instance, in a batch of a little more than one hundred garments, Mrs. Haire made thirty-four of them. She has also knitted several sweaters.

Such leaders by their own example will keep the Hackberry unit from counsel. Though social equality is not granted by the Whites and is not sought by the Negroes, the two races are friendly on the streets and in all their business contacts. As the years come and go, better educational facilities will be afforded the Negroes than are provided at the present time, especially in the vocational training field. If the agitators of the North will just attend to their own affairs, the Whites and the Negroes will continue to get along together in a fine way in the South, and the living conditions of the Negroes will continue to be improved, gradually but steadily.

But there will be no inter-marriage of Negroes and Whites in the South, and they will continue to have separate churches and schools and separate compartments in passenger railway cars. We are neither communists nor miscegenists down here in the South.

"dying out."

The recent visit of Mrs. H. L. Roddy and Mrs. L. O. Mitchell of Tahoka was much enjoyed by all. There were twenty-six women present and practically the same at our last meeting.

The only near casualty happened when a shirt was partly made tall end up. However, such accidents are entirely understandable when we consider that shirt making "went out" with soap making, but if the war lasts very long we will probably be learning these forgotten arts all over again.

Mrs. Ed Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cook, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Dial, H. L. Cook, and a little grandson and granddaughter of Mrs. Ed Cook, all of Wells, drove down to Big Spring Sunday to visit their son and

Bulldogs Lose In Lopsided Game

Opportunity knocks but once, but this old proverb may not hold true, in the case of the Tahoka high school Bulldogs.

Wednesday, January 20, the Tahoka High Bulldogs met the Lamesa Golden Tornadoes, in a "harum-scarum" basketball game, however, the Bulldogs found themselves on the short end of the score 29-5.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 6-0 in Lamesa's favor. The score at the half was 15-5 in favor of Lamesa. Robert Harvick made Tahoka's initial score.

Lamesa had a total of 5 foul shots, making four of these. Tahoka was given four extra shots, of which three were made.

Tahoka's starting line-up was: Short, Roberts, Harvick, Harvick, and Briley. Substitutes were: Wardlow, Brookshire, Walker, Inklebarger and Caraway.

WHY AM I HERE?

"I wish I didn't have to go to school, I'll be glad when I graduate. Oh, why do I have to attend this institution?"

With these words, many students in high school begin the average school day. They keep wondering why they have to come to school, never realizing the real reason. Some students give these five answers.

1. "Well, there are always a lot of parties and entertainments and I'm here to have a good time."
2. "I'm here so I can play football."
3. "If I stay at home, I'll have to work so I'd rather be at school."

Measurement Devices Studied By Girls

How many teaspoons make a tablespoon? How many cups in a pound?

These are some of the problems girls of Homemaking I experienced as they took up the study of measuring and the importance of accuracy in measuring.

Flour, sugar, salt, soda — all measurables, covered the tables as the girls practiced measuring each.

This laboratory was in connection with the study of cooking.

Regulator On Boiler Goes Haywire, And Students Get A Rest

By Mary Ruth Edwards
Disappointment came to the Tahoka high school students Wednesday when they arrived at school to find the boiler on a verge of explosion.

On arriving at the building the students were allowed to grab a few books and were ushered to the gymnasium, where they remained until the boiler had been repaired.

For entertainment to occupy the students minds, the basketball boys demonstrated the plays to be used in the game against Lamesa the coming night.

Mr. Jaques, janitor of the building, came over to turn on the steam and the steam was half way up before he knew that the "safety plug" which keeps the boiler from exploding had melted and the water overflowing had put out the fire under the boiler.

With icycles on their noses and feet so cold that if you dared to walk they would break, the bus students scampered to the gymnasium and to their satisfaction found the gym had been heated.

Some of the students living in town returned home when they arrived at school as it was possible that the repairing of the boiler would take the remainder of the day, but to their disappointment they found that the boiler was fixed in time for the third period classes.

As a result of the accident the students returned to the high school ready for classes and happy because they had already missed two of them, and that no damage was done.

HE DIDN'T LIKE TO THINK OF DEATH . . .

He DIDN'T like to talk about life insurance because it reminded him of death, and he didn't like to think about death. Anyway, he was young and healthy, and there was plenty of time to buy life insurance.

But the tires didn't hold on the slippery curve, and a fractured skull rarely bows to good health. He had his wish. He never had to think about death. He just passed the worry along to a wife he had tried to tell people he loved.

Edward McMillan Writes From Pacific

Mrs. H. L. McMillan had a letter from her son Edward Wednesday, who is in the Navy and is doing service somewhere out in the Pacific. The letter was written on January 15 and stated that he had no idea when he will come home. But he wanted her to say Hello to all the folks for him.

This was the first letter the family had had from Edward in several weeks, the last letter having been written in November. So far as they know, Edward has not been back in the States for almost a year, and they hear that he has been in a lot of the fighting out in the Southwest Pacific.

Edward worked in The News office part time for several years before enlisting in the Navy. He had a narrow escape in Pearl Harbor when the Japs made their sneak attack there and hit his ship.

METHODIST CHURCH

At the monthly meeting of the stewards Tuesday night, there were representatives from the boards of Finance, Property, Stewards, and Trustees. Several things were recommended in the way of improvement and repair. One of the first was placing banisters by the side of the steps leading into the auditorium; also banisters for the stairways leading to the basement, repair of the roof and walls of the church, chancel rail and kneeling board in front of the altar of the church, etc. As soon as possible, the committee on Improvement and Repair will make estimates and work will begin.

Let's keep in mind the Week of Dedication—February 28 to March 7. May each member pray, read the Bible daily, and expect great things during these weeks—being spiritually prepared for this hour of global disturbances.

A hearty welcome awaits you at all of the services at the Church Sunday.

Ben Moore Is Busy Planting New Trees

Ben Moore of O'Donnell has been here and in this vicinity this week planting out fruit and pecan trees. The fruit trees, 300 in number, were being put out for H. W. Pennington, who resides about ten miles southeast of Tahoka, and they include apples, cherries, pears, plums, and several varieties of peaches. Mr. Moore has had many years experience in experimenting with trees and possibly knows better than most any other man in this section what trees are best suited to our soil and climate. He believes his selections will prove to be unusually successful.

Mr. Moore also planted out a number of pecan trees for Deen Nowlin on one of his farms. These are large, thin-shelled pecans and have already proved their adaptability to conditions here. People of Lynn county are becoming more and more interested in pecan culture. A number of farmers in the county already have producing trees on their premises. Mr. Moore himself is a pecan enthusiast.

PVT. ALBERT MCKINNEY WINS PROMOTION AND MEDALS

Pvt. Albert C. McKinney of Camp Carson, Colorado, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. McKinney who reside three miles west of Wilson, was recently promoted to private first class and also won the third medal which has come to him since enlisting in the Army in July, 1942.

His first medal was won some time ago for proficiency in bayonet work. Later he won a medal as a sharpshooter, and just recently he won a second medal for his skill in handling the rifle.

This news was given us by Pfc. Albert McKinney's brother Alton, who farms with his father just west of Wilson. Alton was justly proud of the advancement being made by his brother.

Senator Formby Is Second Lieutenant

Austin, Jan. 28.—State Senator Marshall Formby of Plainview, who entered the Army as a private, was wearing his second lieutenant's insignia this week.

Formby won his promotion at an officer's candidate school. He said he would be stationed at a Louisiana camp, and would not be able to attend sessions of the 48th legislature.

However, while in Austin, Senator Formby was informed by Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith that he had been appointed to a place on the finance committee, which considers all appropriation bills.

He said that he had asked several other Senators to handle any business relating to his district in his absence.

home Friday after having come out to attend the funeral of his little niece, the baby of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Slover, and to visit home folks. Aubrey is now employed in a Defense plant at Arlington.

J. J. Adams Boys In Army, Parents Move To Concho Country

J. J. Adams, a long-time citizen of Lynn county, dropped into The News office Saturday to have his address changed to San Angelo, to which city he was preparing to move. His three sons having enlisted in the Army, and feeling unable to carry on his farming operations alone, he decided to retire for the duration at least, and he chose Angelo as his place of residence, being situated at the confluence of the Conchos, where fishing is mighty good.

One of his sons is in the Navy and two are in the Air Forces of the Army.

Carl C. Adams, seaman, has his address as San Francisco.

Wade H. Adams, of the Air Force, is stationed at Foster Field, Matagorda Peninsula, Texas.

Alva R. Adams is also in the Air Forces but is stationed near Amarillo.

The Adams family mean to have a part in winning this war.

Seaman Walter L. Sessums, son of J. E. Sessums residing a few miles north of Tahoka, who enlisted in the Navy several weeks ago and who was sent to San Diego for training, was given an honorable discharge on January 7 on account of an injury sustained several years ago when a leg was broken in a car wreck. After coming home and remaining for a few days, Walter left for Houston to seek employment in a Defense industry.

Eat Right To Work And Win

By Carolyn Dixon, Chairman Lynn Co. Nutrition Committee

Strength and health are essential in our nation's meeting demands of war. Improvement of the health and strength of every American citizen calls for adequate production of foods, proper food preservation for home use, intelligent planning for well-balanced meals, the scientific preparation of these foods, and the daily consumption of essential food nutrients.

The nation is depending upon not only the aid of the housewives in this home front offensive but also upon every individual, professional man and woman and school boy and school girl, to do their part in the nation-wide nutrition program by eating the right food each day. Let's have an "all-out" program in which EVERYONE eats by the Texas Food Standard each day.

This means every person, in order to serve his country best, will eat each day:

- 1 pint to 1 quart milk.
 - 1 egg.
 - 1 serving meat, poultry, fish or cheese.
 - 1 serving Irish or sweet potatoes.
 - 1 serving green or yellow vegetables.
 - 1 serving citrus, tomatoes, raw cabbage, strawberries or melons.
 - 1 other serving fruit.
 - 1 serving whole grain products, including bread.
 - Other cereals and bread as desired, preferably enriched.
 - Butter or margarine with vitamins added.
 - Some sweets.
 - More of the above or other foods as needed.
 - 6 to 8 glasses of water.
- Copies of this Food Standard are available through the Lynn County Nutrition Committee.

Brownfield Editors Visit News Force

A. J. Stricklin and A. J. Jr., editor and operator respectively of the Terry County Herald, were pleasant visitors in The News office last Saturday afternoon while waiting for Mrs. Stricklin to come in on the bus.

Newspaper folk are all running with a shortage of operating force these days, and editors have little time to visit with one another. It was the first time we had had an opportunity to "talk shop" with the "Dean of Newspaper Men" in the bounds of the Panhandle Press Association for many moons, and we greatly enjoyed the visit of the inimitable "Andy Jack" and his capable son, A. J. Jr.

"Andy Jack" is to appear on the program at the annual meeting of the Panhandle Press Association in Amarillo in April to tell the boys about his experiences in the early days on the Plains. Jack came to Brownfield and established the Herald away back in the fall of 1904, and he has kept the old Herald coming out once a week ever since.

Born in Tennessee, Jack was named for Old Hickory, and he began work in a newspaper office in that state when a mere kid. Naturally, he not only knows the country newspaper business from a to zizzard but he also knows a lot of Tennessee and Texas history.

Come over more often, Jack.

Lt. Elwayne Nevill Bombardier Teacher

Lt. Elwayne Nevill, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nevill, writes to the home folks that he is soon to graduate his fourth class of bombardier students in the air school at San Angelo. Three classes under him have graduated already.

Lt. Nevill has been instructing both day and night classes, he states. The boys are first given day instruction, and this is followed by night instruction. It is indeed a responsible position which he holds, for bombardiers in the Air Forces have come to be one of the most effective agencies in putting the enemy out of commission.

WILSON GIRL WEDS, THEN GRADUATES

She is to be commended for finishing her high school course for few students do so after marrying. Alton has been farming in the meantime and just recently purchased a good tractor at an auction sale in order to do a really good job of raising food for the nation this year.

Ray Nevill Writes From North Africa

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nevill received a letter a few days ago from their son, Pvt. Charles Ray Nevill, who is now Somewhere in Northern Africa. The letter is dated December 28 and is in part as follows:
"Dear Bunch: I am somewhere in North Africa in the Engineer Dept. How is every one at home by now? Hope fine.
"Well, I am still doing the same thing here (carpenter work) that I was doing at home a part of the time. I am keeping pretty busy but in a good dry place to work and a good dry place to sleep.
"There is lots of amusement here. The people are so different here than at home. Most of them ride bicycles and wagons.
"I would like to have been at home Christmas with all the bunch but some one has to be here to help win this war. We had to work right through Christmas over here. The Company gave each of us boys a box of stationery and a pocketbook too.
"Well, how is everything going at home? Don't worry about me, for I am all right. I don't have time to write often but will write when I can. It takes so long to hear from you.
"Give my best regards to all my friends. With love to all of you. Goodbye, Ray."
His address is: Pvt. Charles Ray Nevill, 6th Port of Embarkation, A. P. O. 668, in care of Postmaster, New York City, N. Y.

only to run up to a dead end at a farmer's residence. They abandoned the car and its contents were taken in charge, and the "contents" were found to consist of 14 cases of liquor, or 336 pints. The blond brunettes were afterward captured and at first denied their guilt, but being confronted with the convincing evidence which the county attorney and the peace officers had gathered, they told it to the Court, he assessed the fines at $150.00 each, which, together with the trimmings, amounted to a total of $348.00 They dug up and paid off.

On Saturday, the raiding party, consisting of Sheriff Sam Floyd, Deputy Hodge, and County Attorney Huffaker, hid off down to O'Donnell and rudely inspected three places of business, two operated by Mexicans and one by a Negro. The other Mexican and the Negro escaped, but their booze didn't.

Jess Olgin was the unfortunate gentleman of swarthy complexion whom the officers landed in jail. They went under his house to find his liquor, and County Attorney Huffaker declares that he dragged bottle after bottle of whiskey out until he thought he would faint from exhaustion. Anyway, when they got through, they counted 103 pints of the fluid which sparkles and inebriates.

At the house of the escaped Mexican, 18 1/2 pints of whiskey were found. The Negro made his getaway so fast that he didn't have time to take with him seven cases of beer which he had neatly tucked away. They call the gentleman from the Rio Grande "Mexican Joe," while the colored beer-boarder is known as "Big John."

Then, lastly, on Tuesday afternoon the sheriff and his deputy got into their car and started down the highway expecting to meet a citizen of Tahoka whom they suspected to have departed from the straight and narrow way, and sure enough they met him and a traveling companion just beyond the lakes on the O'Donnell highway. When the sheriff turned his car around and started in pursuit, the driver stepped on the gas with all his might, and pretty soon one of them began to hurl bottles from the car in rapid-fire succession. But they were caught and brought to Tahoka and several bottles of their liquor were found and taken in tow. On Wednesday, Ben Barrington entered a plea of guilty to a liquor charge. His escapade cost him just $124.00. His companion in the car was allowed to go free.

On Wednesday, there was another plea of guilty by a Negro to a charge of aggravated assault. He was alleged to have "beaten up" a Negro woman a couple of weeks ago. He was fined $25.00 and costs.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hickerson had as their guests Sunday Pvt. and Mrs. Eddie Parrish and Pvt. and Mrs. Cecil Stewart of Lubbock. The men are taking training at the Lubbock Flying Field. Mrs. Parrish was formerly Miss Fern Ellis and is a granddaughter of the Hickersons.

Mrs. H. A. Winkler of New Lynn returned Monday from a visit with a sister and nephew at Bryan. She also visited at Houston and San Antonio while away.

J. W. Griffin returned Wednesday from a stay of several months in California. En route home he stopped off in Amarillo for a ten-day visit with his daughter, Mrs. J. B. Anderson, and family. He reports the Andersons, former long-time residents of Lynn county, getting along fine in Amarillo.
