Court Disposes Of Criminal Cases, One For Murder

Five criminal cases were disposed of in the district court here Monday, two of which were tried by juries and the other three upon pleas of guilty before the court.

Willie Riley, charged with the murder of Sherman Buchanan, both being Negroes, was found guilty of murder without malice upon a trial before a jury, which assessed his punishment at two years confinement in the penitentiary.

The murder was committed on Christmas day, the accused man using a knife on the victim. He was represented in the trial by Cunningham & Cook, a firm of Lubbock lawyers. District Attorney Rollin McCord conducting the prosecution.

Earl Alexander was tried before a jury on a charge of forgery, which found him guilty, assessing his punishment at five years in the penitentiary, but recommended a suspension of the sentence, which is mandatory upon the court under our law. Alexander is a Negro.

Two Negro youths, Sylvester Williams and Donald Wiseman, 17 years of age, waived the right of trial by a jury and entered pleas of guilty before the court to charges of forgery. They also were given five years suspended sentences.

A young married woman of O'Donnell, only 17 years of age, also pleaded guilty to a forgery charge and was given a two years suspended sentence.

Pictures Shown At Guard Meeting

Monday night's meeting of Co. A, 39th Battalion of the Texas Defense Guard was one of the most interesting in many weeks, and attendance was much improved after the previous week by Major A. C. Jackson for falling down in its attendance record. About fifty men were present Monday night.

A varied program included a very interesting and educational talking motion picture on battle formations, following which an examination was held, close order and extended order drill, short talks, and a chili supper, the latter served by Pete Curry and the Tahoka Co-op Gin.

Five officers from Headquarters at Lubbock were present to conduct the evening's work.

Commissioned officers of the company, Capt. E. R. Edwards and Lieutenants H. O. Hargett and H. L. Roddy have been furnished new officers uniforms by men of the company, assisted by the county and others.

Rifle practice Sunday afternoon likewise attracted a larger attendance than previously.

Lieut. Still of Headquarters complimented the company as being one of the best, if not the best, he has visited.

An interesting program is being arranged for next Monday night, and a "big feed" will be served through courtesy of Mrs. Irene Gallagher of Cobb's Department Store.

ERROR CORRECTED

Recently in announcing the sale of a number of Tahoka residences, The News stated that Clay Bennett had bought the Boyd Smith home. Such was not the case, Mr. Bennett having bought the residence owned by W. E. Suddarth located across the street east from the A. L. Lockwood home.

ADVERTISING IN ENGLAND

From the London branch of Lord and Thomas, New York advertising firm, came the following philosophy about wartime advertising: "Woven deep into the ways of Democracy is advertising: a bridge between the freedom of people to buy and the freedom of people to sell. No Nazi bombing has been able to destroy that bridge in Britain. Every advertisement appearing there today is a flag of defiance; is direct testimony to someone's faith in the future; is someone's toast to Victory!"

New AAA Man Is Employed Here

Linton Pool, formerly of Farwell, has been named AAA administrative officer for Lynn county, and took over the office Monday of this week. He has been with the AAA for a short time only.

Raised on a farm at Canyon, he is a graduate of West Texas State Teachers College, and for several years was principal of the high school at Farwell.

Mr. Pool is married and has four sons, the oldest being ten years of age. They will join him here as soon as he can find a house in which to live.

Many Women Are Making Dressings

This has been a busy week in the Red Cross workroom, where surgical dressings are being made for use in the war zones. Mrs. Irving Stewart told a representative of The News Wednesday. Mrs. Stewart says that rural communities are represented almost every day, now.

"The rural women come in a group and spend the day, and they always get a lot done that way," Mrs. Stewart said.

Groups working this week have been: Monday, T-Bar; Tuesday, Wilson, Draw, and West Point; Tuesday night, business girls of Tahoka; Thursday, Grassland and Hackberry.

Mrs. Stewart feels that these groups who come so far deserve thanks and commendation for making such an effort to work for the wounded and needy ones at the front. If your community or your club wants to work, get in touch with Mrs. Prohl or Mrs. Stewart, or come on to the work room on Main street. Plans will be worked out to accommodate as many workers as may wish to come, the chairmen say.

Simmons' Head Will Preach Here

Announcement has been made that Dr. W. R. White, president of Hardin-Simmons University of Aolene, will fill the pulpit at the Baptist Church here Sunday morning.

Dr. White is well known in Tahoka, having served as pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lubbock for a number of years. Later he was pastor of the First Baptist Church of Oklahoma City, resigning there to take the presidency of the Abilene institution. For years he has been one of the denominational leaders of the South.

Doubtless a large congregation will greet him in the service here Sunday morning.

Income Tax Men Coming To City

Representatives of the Internal Revenue Office will be in Tahoka Wednesday, February 17, at the First National Bank to assist taxpayers with their income tax problems. W. B. Slaton has been informed.

Satisfying the Inner Woman

A careful diet of well-cooked, wholesome food provides members of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps with the energy to accomplish the strenuous course of physical training, drill, and classroom work which prepares them for duty with the Army. WAACs enjoy the enviable opportunity of eating whatever they choose, in the way of fattening foods, for their work and training keep waistlines slim and figures pleasingly trim.

35-Mile Speed Limit Baptist Church Will Be Enforced

Closer observation of the 35-mile speed limit and more diligent effort to fulfill leading requirements set up for conservation purposes must be shown by truck operators, John C. Massenburg, regional manager, Office of Defense Transportation, division of motor transport, Lubbock has announced.

ODT representatives have stopped for inspection nearly a thousand trucks on highways leading out of Dallas, in an initial check on compliance with present operating requirements.

Operators were warned against speeding as the greatest enemy of tire mileage and over-loading as the next best way to shorten the life of both tires and trucks. Truck operators are required, however, to make every effort to obtain a full load for their truck's capacity, for both outgoing and return trips.

Primitive Baptist Leader Is Coming

Elder C. H. Casey of Thornton, Arkansas, will hold services at the Primitive Baptist Church here on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday of next week.

Baptist Church Calls Post Pastor

In a called Conference at 11:00 o'clock last Sunday, the Baptist Church here called Rev. A. C. Hardin of Post as pastor.

Rev. Mr. Hardin has not yet accepted the call but is to meet with the deacons of the Church tonight (Friday) to discuss the call. It is believed that he will accept.

Rev. Mr. Hardin has been pastor at Post for the past five years and is held in high esteem there. Last summer he conducted revival services in the Church here, preaching fervently and ably and doing effective personal work between sermons. By his fine spirit and faithful work he greatly endeared himself to the members of the Church. Recently he was the speaker at a regular meeting of the Brotherhood here; his address bringing much praise.

It is a rather unusual incident that he was called as pastor on the first Sunday following the previous pastor's retirement, Rev. Geo. A. Dale having voluntarily retired on account of the condition of his health after a service of eight years and five months.

Board Re-elects Hope Haynes As Principal

Hope Haynes, teacher in the Tahoka high school for three years and acting principal for nearly two years was re-elected to his present position at a meeting of the school board Tuesday night.

Haynes was at New Home prior to coming to Tahoka.

Worst Sandstorm In Many Months Sweeps Across The South Plains

A country's bad traits, like a man's will crop out now and then in spite of a long-continued good record.

The South Plains was at its worst last Tuesday. It all started when the day dawned with a gentle breeze coming out of the west. As the sun rose so also did the wind, and by noon it was picking up clouds of sand and lashing old Mother Earth like a million demons. It was the worst sand storm that has visited the county in many months.

Little damage was done by the storm, however, though a few limbs were broken from trees and a few frail small buildings were moved off their blocks. Tumble weeds came leaping across vacant blocks and down streets of the town with the speed of an antelope.

By sunset the wind had switched around far to the north and the temperature had dropped very perceptibly. Though the winds had largely spent their fury, the mercury fell rapidly during the night and Wednesday morning the temperature had dropped to 22. It remained cold through the day and Wednesday night the mercury went down to 21.

Dr. K. R. Durham Rotary Speaker

Dr. K. R. Durham was the speaker at the Rotary Club Thursday, having been asked to discuss the profession of dentistry. He did so in a manner that was highly pleasing to his auditors. He discarded the use of technical terms, for the most part, and talked in good old common-sense American.

As incidental to the subject, he discussed also the peculiarities and preconceived notions of people about dentistry and the care of the teeth, punctuating his remarks with frequent sallies of humor which entertained his hearers while imparting to them valuable information. It was one of the best discussions of a vocation or a profession that has yet been heard by the members of the club.

A number of visitors were present, including Judge J. E. Garland, who is here holding court, and Sheriff "Buck" Bennett of Lamesa, and the new Lynn county AAA secretary, Linton Pool.

W. T. Hanes, chairman of the program committee, announced that A. P. "Pete" Edwards, a Rotarian who some time ago joined the Marines and is now here on a visit, will be the principal speaker next Thursday.

George's Brother Is Killed In Action

John George, 21, brother of Frank George of this city, was killed on January 15 in the Southwest Pacific war zone, according to information received here last Saturday morning. George enlisted in the Army three years ago and was stationed in Honolulu, Hawaii, until November when he was granted a transfer to active duty. Frank thinks he was in the Solomons.

Young George was a graduate of Amarillo High School, his mother Mrs. Alma George, having resided there about ten years.

J. W. Tippit Writes From North Africa

Mrs. Pauline Owens Tippit received a letter a few days ago from her husband, J. W. Tippit, who is in the Navy, stating that he was in Egypt, the letter having been written early in January, and he furnished corroboration in the form of a photograph taken while he was mounted on a camel, with a Sphinx and the Pyramids in the background.

He was one of a party who had gone from their port to Cairo in a caravan mounted on these beasts of the desert. With a fez on his head and a broad smile on his face and a camel under him, he seemed to be enjoying life immensely.

RED CROSS WORKERS

Please bring in all the sewing and knitting which you have out at the earliest possible date, as we are making a Red Cross shipment next week. Don't fail us, please.—Mrs. H. L. Roddy, County Production Chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Goodell have been here this week visiting his brother, J. W. Goodell, and family.

Registration For Ration Book 2 Will Start February 22

Plans will be completed here Saturday for registration of all citizens during the week of February 22-27 for War Ration Book Two, which will be necessary for any person to buy many kinds of foods.

W. T. Hanes, superintendent of the Tahoka schools, who was recently appointed registration chairman by the Lynn county Rationing Board, is requesting all school superintendents and principals to meet with him in the County court room Saturday morning at 10 o'clock to discuss registration and rationing plans.

Definite days and hours for registration at the school buildings in the various communities of the county will be worked out at this meeting. Anyone may register any day that week for this second War Ration Book. Hanes says, but one day will likely be set aside, in the Tahoka district, at least, on which school will be dismissed and all the teachers made available for assisting with the registration.

No one will be able to secure at this time the No. 2 book unless he has received a No. 1 book and brings it with him to the place of registration.

Negroes Nabbed After Wild Chase

Two Tahoka Negroes paid $148.10 each in fines in county court Saturday for possession of intoxicating liquors for the purpose of sale as result of an escapade on the night before in which two colored gentlemen and two officers participated.

The two colored boys had had business in Big Spring on Friday, it is reported, and returned home on the 2:46 a. m. bus. Evidently fearing that they might be questioned if they alighted from the bus at the bus station here, they decided to pull on through Tahoka.

However, Sheriff Sam Floyd and Deputy Arthur Hodge were expecting the prodigal boys to return, watched the bus and followed to north, with their car lights extinguished. About two miles north of Tahoka, the colored gent's, with their handbags, got off the bus. As the officers approached, the travelers took to their heels across the field.

Sheriff Floyd admits that the two Negro boys had a little the better of the race, but "the law" was not outdone. One of the travelers threw away a handbag containing three quarts and three pints of liquor, and a couple of hours later they got one Negro at a farm northeast of town. Later in the day, the other came in and gave himself up.

Both Negroes paid off their fines with cash and checks.

"Take My Ad. Out, I Got Quick Results," Reader Writes News

J. H. Kuykendall had a little classified ad. inserted in The News last week inquiring for a farm hand, to be run three times. This week he wrote in to have it taken out.

"I have already made a deal with a man," he states, "and men still coming nearly every day. . . . Am sorry I did not have that little ad. in your paper a month ago. If I had I guess my land would have all been listed up. . . . Just keep the rest of the little bit of change, J. H. Kuykendall."

These little ads. have not only found farm hands; they have found horses, cows, hogs, dogs, cats, and have sold everything from a pig to a section of land. Just try a classified ad.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Save now to buy later, after the War. That's good common sense because if you spend now, you help to drive prices up for everything you buy. Durable goods are scarce so invest in War Bonds today and do that house remodeling when Victory is won.

If you have not done so, join a Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory. If you are not investing at least ten percent in War Bonds, increase your regular deductions on your Payroll Savings Plan. Let's "Top that ten percent."

TWO COUPLES MOVE TO SAN ANGELO

The house which they occupied here having been sold and being unable to find another vacant residence in Tahoka, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Baker went down to San Angelo the first of last week to look for a house there.

Just as they were about to give up in despair and leave town, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dye arrived from Tahoka and found a note in their door which the Bakers had left. They immediately got in touch with the Dyers with the result that they rented them some rooms in their newly-acquired home; and both couples are now "at home" in San Angelo.

We are anxious that you will worship with us Sunday—member, visitor, and friend!

ANGHEEN AT WAR

Mom
 "Sausages for breakfast! Sausages for breakfast! I can smell 'em!" Small Joe came tumbling downstairs fastening the belt of his shorts as he came. He made a beeline for the kitchen. Pop was already sitting at the table, reading the paper, while Mom held the handle of the frying-pan over the stove. Small Joe came close and sniffed the delicious smoke, wriggling all over with early-morning joy.

"Better be thankful for them while you can still get them." One glance at Mom's face told small Joe this was one of her tight-lipped days. "Not a drop of coffee in the house, and no sugar left to put in it if there was. Some war!" Small Joe kept still.

"Letter for you, son," Pop said in his quiet voice. Small Joe made a leap for his place at table. There it was, a private personal letter for him alone, propped against his milk glass.

"Hey, Pop! It's from brother!" Small Joe was pulling the envelope apart and diving over the contents.

"Hey, look what he sent me." He passed over an oblong of thick, crinkly paper while he leaned over the sheet of writing-paper.

"A twenty-five dollar War Bond," Pop said slowly. Mom turned and looked at it over Pop's shoulder, with the frying-pan in her hand.

"Listen what he says. 'How are you doing, kid? Hurry and grow up so you can help me slap the Japs. Aren't you most big enough to get into the Army? Here's something for you in your name. Let's the whole family gang up and help to win this war.'"
 Pop and Mom were silent. But small Joe didn't notice that. He was full of his letter and his War Bond.

"Gee, Pop, in six years I could get into the Army, couldn't I, Pop? Gee, Pop, I want to be a soldier like brother and fight in this war. Gee, isn't that bond nifty? Look, it was issued in Honolulu. It's mine."
 But Pop was looking at Mom and Mom was looking at Pop. There were tears in Mom's eyes. She shook her head sharply. Pop reached out and patted her hand gently.

"Well, can't let our soldier boy beat us to buying War Bonds, can we, old lady?" was all he said. "She shook her head again. 'I guess if he can give up his job and get off to war I can do some fighting back at home,' she said in a queer voice. Small Joe looked up at her in surprise. She saw him looking at her and spoke sharply. 'Well, Joe, we're about ready to eat. Say grace.'"

Small Joe folded his hands and bent his head as he had been taught. "Oh Lord, we thank thee for this food and all thy bountiful gifts..."
 "Amen," Pop said. "Now eat your good sausages."

MISS O'BERA FORRESTER GIVEN BRIDAY SHOWERS

Highlighting the social calendar of the week for Miss O'Bera Forrester, whose engagement to J. A. Elgerstaff of the U. S. Navy was announced recently, was the tea-shower given Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jim Burleson by Mrs. A. N. Norman Jr., calling hours being from four to seven.

The hostess was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Jim Burleson and Mrs. Irving Stewart, others in the receiving line being Mrs. R. C. Forrester and the honoree, Miss O'Bera.

After signing the bride's book, in charge of Mrs. G. M. Stewart, the guests viewed the display of attractive and useful gifts which included a large variety of linens, pictures, pottery, crystal and silver, a beautiful handbag, and other miscellaneous articles.

In the candlelighted dining room, Mrs. Oscar Roberts presided at the silver coffee service, at a refreshment table covered with imported linen and lace cloth, centered by a crystal bowl of red and white carnations and tall blue tapers in crystal holders. The buffet held a miniature lighted ship and tall red tapers. The patriotic color scheme was used throughout the reception suite.

Besides a large number from Tahoka and vicinity, several out-of-town guests attended this delightful affair.

The Dale home was attractively decorated with vases of winter berries and patriotic colors, while the Valentine motif appeared in refreshments.

Miss Forrester dressed in a smart frock of aquamarine crepe wore a shoulder corsage of sweetheart roses.

Girls Planning For National 4-H Week

By Carolyn Dixon
County Home Demonstration Agent

The American young people are eager to help in the war programs. Lynn county girls and boys have responded enthusiastically as they have been helped to understand the seriousness of our food problems.

Three hundred and 47 boys names and 140 girls names have been added to the 16 boys' club rolls and the eight new girls' club rolls. This is preparatory to the 1943 4-H program that is being launched during this week, Feb. 6 to 14, National 4-H Club Mobilization Week.

Texas is told that at the close of 1942 there were 300,000 Texans in the armed services of our country. That number will continue to grow. The slogan of the 4-H Expansion program for 1943 is: "I will try to feed and clothe a fighter and myself." Many of the younger members can not reach this objective, but all can contribute their best efforts toward this goal. National 4-H week will further detail plans for the 417 girls in 4-H work in Lynn county.

All girls are signing for a (1) project in the production phase of food, as a frame garden, a row of her own in the family garden, chickens, strawberry culture, a pig, or calf, and an (2) improvement project, as yard, bedroom, or clothing.

The Extension Agents are meeting all 4-H clubs during National Club Week. Let every member be ready to follow the 4-H club motto: "To make the best better."

YANKS ARRIVE IN FIJI ISLANDS—When a contingent of American troops recently landed at the Fiji Islands in the Southwest Pacific they were greeted by friendly natives instead of the cannibals the boys had read about in their school books. Pictures of landing scenes by the U. S. Signal Corps disclose the touch of civilization among the one-time eaters of "long pig." Left, Pfc. Benjamin H. Burton with good reason admires the abundance of crisp hair on this Fijian's head. Some natives bleach their hair with lime and go in for elaborate headdresses. Right, Sergt. Charles Auski, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., checks supplies loaded on a train on an island railroad.

HACKBERRY WOMEN DO RED CROSS WORK HERE

Twelve women of the Hackberry community situated on the line of Lynn and Garza counties spent last Thursday afternoon in the Red Cross surgical dressings room here rolling bandages for use in the armed forces of the United States.

These women plan to spend every alternate Thursday afternoon here, according to our Southland correspondent, with one or more women remaining at home to care for the small children of the group.

The remaining Thursday afternoons are spent at the Hackberry Club House knitting and sewing for the Red Cross.

This is an outstanding example of self-sacrifice and patriotism on the part of these women. If the women of Tahoka and of other communities in Lynn county were exhibiting the same degree of patriotic fervor, this Red Cross room would be crowded every day in the week, except Sunday.

The women of Southland, just over the line in Garza county, are likewise manifesting a very patriotic spirit. They have a service flag upon which they sew the name of every young man from their community who enlists or is inducted into the service. According to our correspondent, the flag now bears 136 names.

Our Freedom Is Priceless

By JOSEPH E. DAVIES
Former Ambassador to Russia and Belgium.

(Written for the Treasury Department in connection with the Retainers' "BUY YES" campaign to complete the nation's 100,000,000 partially filled War Stamp album.)

What I myself saw in my four years in Europe gave me a new realization of the priceless rights which we here enjoy.

No secret police can in the night whisk us away, never again to be seen by those we love.

None of us can be deprived by any party, state or tyrant of those precious civil liberties which our laws and our courts guarantee.

None of us can be persecuted for practicing the faith which we found at our mother's knee.

None of us can be persecuted, tortured or killed because of the fact that an accident of fate might have made us of the same race as the Nazarene.

No American can be placed by any party or government in a regimented vise which takes from him or her either freedom of economic opportunity or political religious liberty.

What would the millions of unfortunate men, women and children in Europe give to be able to live and enjoy such a way of life?

Well, in this war, those are the things in our lives which are in jeopardy. Our boys are dying to preserve them for us.

Then we can do no less than to "say yes" and fill those war stamp albums. It is our duty and privilege to help the secretary of the treasury, Mr. Morgenthau, in his magnificent effort to do the tremendous job of getting the money to keep our boys supplied with the weapons with which to fight our fight.

Surely that is little enough for us to do on the home front.

John Heck of Wilson was a business visitor in Austin last week and says he took a look-in on the legislature. John had a good word for the bus drivers, who get hard boiled with any passenger who tries to play tough. He says that down in that country they put their foot down hard on any guy who takes a drink or uses improper language while on a bus. He didn't undertake to say what the legislature was doing.

Jim Banister went to Mineral Wells Monday and brought his wife home Tuesday. She had been there about three weeks taking treatment. Mr. Banister says that he found out Tuesday that the wind blows down about Breckenridge and Albany the same as here, though there is not so much sand mixed up with it. Mrs. Banister came back somewhat improved.

When President Roosevelt scathingly denounced Italy's assault on France while that nation was fighting for its life against the invading German hordes as a "stab in the back," Mussolini treated his remarks with contempt: He as much as said scornfully: Well, what are you going to do about it? He is now getting his answer. While the British have driven Italy out of Libya, American soldiers by the thousands have taken possession of the western half of northern Africa, American planes have been sinking Italian vessels on the Mediterranean and blasting Italian cities into kindling wood. Now, Italy has the choice of making an "unconditional surrender" or of being blasted into smithereens and herself invaded by American and British armies.

A year ago haughty Hitler declared that America had gotten into the war too late and with too little to do any particular harm to his victorious armies. Now German cities are being bombed by American planes and German armies are fighting desperately to keep from being crushed by American, British, and French soldiers in northern Africa, just as his other "invincible" army is being destroyed piece at a time by the infuriated Russians. And hundreds of thousands of other American soldiers will soon be on the way and American planes and tanks and ships will be produced this year in far greater numbers than last year. America is just now getting ready to fight. Well may Hitler be jittery. His doom is already written.

We have never had any noteworthy admiration for Jim Farley but we have long regarded him as a long-headed, far-seeing personage whose judgment in matters political are nearly always approximately correct. We were glad to hear him quoted as saying a few days ago, therefore, that he expects the war to be over before the end of this year. He may be too optimistic in this respect but it does seem that with the disaster which the Germans are meeting in Russia the rest of us ought to be able to drive a wedge into Germany from the south and the west before many months. We can visualize Germany as a thoroughly crushed nation before the end of this year, but we do not believe that we will be able to whip Japan thoroughly enough within that time to make her willing to behave herself. Japan must be given just the same kind of crushing defeat right in the home land as we are expecting to give Germany.

ODDS and ENDS

by Eee Eye, the Elder

When Burton Edwards told us about his ducks he didn't know we were going to print it. If he had known it, he probably would have told us what they did to his crop in other years also. One year, back in 1919, we believe it was, he says they literally cleaned up a thousand dollars worth of feed for him — fifty acres of it, making a ton to the acre, which was selling on the market for $20.00 per ton. He estimates his loss this winter at $300 to $400.

Other farmers support Burton in what he says. E. J. Cooper, for instance, says he thinks he has about a million ducks out on his farm. Of course he hasn't counted 'em, but he says they are there in great numbers and have done great damage. and Wash Hickerson agrees that these wild ducks are very destructive of the farmers' crops some years.

All agree that a duck can scoop up enough feed at a few licks to last him all day and that a great flock of them can destroy a lot of feed in a few minutes. They are far more destructive than prairie dogs, crows or coyotes, and Burton thinks that they should not be protected by law merely for the benefit of a few hunters. And a lot of other folks evidently agree with him.

It does occur to the perpetrator of this column that duck hunters should be willing for this pest to be utterly exterminated even though it would put an end to their sport, for the benefit of thousands and thousands of farmers in Texas.

Yes, we think the legislature and Congress should repeal a law.

Wash Hickerson, one of our fine citizens who recently retired from the business of farming and moved to town, declares that he is a new-comer. He has not resided in Lynn county but a little more than thirty-six years. Recently he gave us the low-down on his peregrinations, or sumpin'. He was born in Bosque county but his parents wouldn't let him stay there but three years. They moved him over into McLennan county, that county whose name about ninety-nine percent of the people mispronounce; they call it McClellan county. This is dead wrong.

Well, anyway, G. Washington was brought up in that good old county and stayed there until he was thirty-five years old. Then he got the Western fever. We don't know who told him about Lynn county, but he moved out here in 1906, just three years after the county was organized. He didn't come in a limousine, either. He didn't climb the cap rock even in a Ford or a "whoople." He didn't roll into Tahoka on the Blue-weed Special. The railroad had not been built out onto these South Plains. We don't know how he got here. We can think only of old Jack and Judy, Beck and Kit, or some other of their tribe. Your guess is as good as our own.

But anyhow G. Wash and his family got here, and they crossed the T-Bar and bought land at Three Lakes. They still own that land and have lived on it most of the time since. They must have been brave souls to have located at Three Lakes in 1906. There might have been great flocks of wild ducks here in 1906, oodles and oodles of prairie dogs, more rattlesnakes than were needed, and more jack rabbits and coyotes than the country would support, and even immense herds of long-horns, but there were mighty few people.

The Texas Almanac says that the population of Lynn county in 1900, when the then last census had been taken, was just exactly 17, but it doesn't name 'em. We know who some of them were. There were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Petty, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alley, and Mrs. Hall Robinson, then a very little girl, and a few others. Think Jim Weatherford was still roaming around down about Gaff. Then a few more drifted in, and they organized the county in 1903 and started the town of Tahoka. Yes, and they started The Lynn County News, too, and a couple of churches. They managed to find enough men in the county to fill the offices and have a few left over, yes, quite a few. There was talk of a railroad coming and the county was getting on a boom. The population was probably several hundred when Wash and his family got here in other team of fine Texas mules, to his wagon; and headed for the West. Old Sam Lanham of Weatherford was still governor of Texas at that time, Charlie Culberson and Joe Bailey were United States Senators, and Theodore Roosevelt was President of the United States. Jim Ferguson was operating a bank in Taylor, W. Lee O'Daniel was just a kid up in Kansas somewhere, Jimmie Allred was matching scraps with other school kids over at Bowie, and Gerald Mann hadn't even been born. We haven't looked up the records to see who the county officers here were in 1906, but this judicial district was a whole of a big one, and so was this congressional district. Judge Cain might tell you the name of the district judge and of the congressman, but we have forgotten them just now. Yes, Wash Hickerson is a new-comer. Mrs. Marjorie Wells Kemp has gone to Santa Ana, California, to visit her husband, Aviation Cadet Elias B. Kemp, who is in training there.

Boys Can Cook

Culmination of the first semester's work at Wilson revealed some very interesting facts. Those who say boys can't cook are proved wrong.

In finishing their semester's work and after previous study, Theo Campbell, Henry Dryer, Jack Frank Fletcher, Harold Lee Joplin, Robert Ray Pair, Thomas Parks, Kenneth Schneider, and Walter Ray Steen, who call themselves "Army K.P.'s," prepared and served lunch to the High School teachers, Mr. E. T. Dodson, Mr. S. G. Anthony, Mr. J. B. Biggs, Miss Pauline Duff, Mrs. Marion Leftwich, the hostess and Theo Campbell, the host.

The menu included grapejuice cocktail, Swiss steak with mushrooms, baked Irish potatoes with butter, Harvard beets, Waldorf salad, rolls, coffee, and fresh strawberry shortcake. The food was deliciously prepared and thoroughly appreciated and enjoyed by all the guests.

Girls Helping Red Cross

Each person or group of people have their own particular way of helping Red Cross work to be carried on. The classes of Homemaking and the Future Homemakers of Wilson have been helping by cutting clothes and shirts from cotton and wool material. Altogether they have out garments from 115 yards of material.

At present they are finishing an intensive course of study from the Red Cross Home Nursing book. From necessity this work is being carried on without the assistance of a registered nurse, but the students have found this work particularly interesting and the knowledge that they have gained has more than compensated them for their hard study. Each girl advises everyone who has an opportunity to take advantage of such courses offered.

Entertain Former Teacher

Friday, Jan. 29, the Future Homemakers of Wilson gave a farewell party for one of their former teachers, Miss Pauline Duff, who has entered defense work training. After a short program of mock parliamentary procedure, because she had just completed a unit in it, a will compiled by these girls was read, each presenting her with a characteristic of their own to help her in her new work. After presentation of a gift, punch and cookies were served to the club.

Plains Dairy Cattle Need Minerals

By N. S. Abbott

New Home Voc. Agriculture Teacher

The minerals most usually lacking are salt, calcium, and phosphorus in this area. The use of mineral supplements when they are not needed is not only a waste of money, but in some cases may be injurious. It is important that stockmen know when supplements are needed and how to supply them at minimum cost.

Calcium and phosphorus make up about three-fourths of the mineral matter in the entire bodies of farm animals and about 90 percent of that in their bones. They also form more than half of the minerals in milk. Liberal amounts of calcium and phosphorus are needed by growing animals, those that are with calf, and those that are producing milk. Even for mature animals, sufficient amounts of these minerals must be provided to replace the daily losses from the body.

Under many conditions the supply of phosphorus and calcium in the usual rations are enough for farm animals. Dairy cows that are fed a grain mixture containing cottonseed meal or wheat bran will usually get enough phosphorus. In this case the mineral needed by the cows will be calcium and salt, and these can be supplied in correct amounts by adding two pounds of oyster shell flour or pulverized limestone and two pounds of salt to each hundred pounds of the grain mixture.

Dry cows and young stock not receiving cottonseed meal or wheat bran will need both calcium and phosphorus, and the easiest way to give it to them is to mix two pounds of steamed bone meal or spent bone black with one pound of salt and place in a trough for free access away from rain.

Cattle should not be fed steamed bone meal mixed with a grain ration containing cottonseed meal or wheat bran, for bone meal is a source of both phosphorus and calcium, and these must be kept in balance.

SGT. OLIVER JOHNSON WRITES FROM HONOLULU

J. T. Johnson, who lives out on Route 3, recently had a letter from his son, Sgt. Oliver L. Johnson, stating that he is in Hawaii and has an office job in the Army.

Sgt. Johnson gave only meager information about his work or his surroundings but declared that he enjoys his work. "I went to town the 3rd (of January) on a pass," he states, "A person has to have his fun here in the day time as everything is black out here at night. That is a great disadvantage for me, as you know what a night owl I am. Ha!"

He proposed to send his Dad the Honolulu paper if his Dad would have the Lynn County News sent to him. It is going, starting with this issue.

Mrs. E. B. (Grandma) Gayden of Draw has purchased from Deen Nowlin the small F. E. Redwine Jr. house on lots adjoining the W. M. Mathis home. She will move into it a little later and make it her home.

Boys Team Loses Basketball Meet

Southland was winner in the boys' basketball tournament held here last week.

Teams playing here included Draw, Post, New Home, Brownfield, Tahoka, and Southland.

Tahoka was literally a bee hive Thursday night, Friday and Saturday as basketball teams from surrounding towns met in the local gymnasium to exhibit their skill with a basketball and also try to win the annual tournament.

Thursday night, Tahoka met the Brownfield Cubs in a terrific game. Tahoka coming out on the long end of the 21 to 16 score. Players for Tahoka were: Short, Inklebarger, Briley, Harvick, Walker, Harvick, and Roberts. Tahoka had a total of seven fouls to Brownfield's nine.

At 11 a. m. Friday, Tahoka met Post in the first game of the day. The final score was 25 to 7 in favor of Post.

After losing to Post, Tahoka boys played Draw, the final score being 38 to 17 in Tahoka's favor.

Tahoka again met Post in a terrific game, and the score was 18 to 16 in Post's favor. Tahoka made 11 fouls in this game, while Post made only 5.

Girls Winners In Two Games Here

The old adage "practice makes perfect" proved true for the Tahoka high school girls' basketball team Friday when they scored two victories over the girls' team from Post. The first game resulted in a 14 to 6 victory, the second 23 to 6.

High point player in the first game was Billy Greer making a total of six points. Venell Walker takes the honor of high point player in the second game making a total score of eight points.

The list of players for Tahoka is as follows: Jimmie Lou Thomas, Billy Greer, Ruby Greer, Mary McDonald, Iva Jean Steel, Beth Shepherd, Venell Walker, Kate McMillan and Nancy Nell Wyatt.

Other teams were to participate in the tournament, but because of transportation they were unable to attend. Therefore, the tournament championship depended on the best two out of three games between Tahoka and Post.

Seniors Working On Annual Play

Be sure to understand the meaning of your sentence before repeating it and always face the audience, are the orders given to the play cast by Miss Ineva Headrick, sponsor.

The characters are making a great progress in learning their lines. They went over the first act Monday without the play books and are now working on the second act.

Every student in high school is looking forward to the play, which is scheduled for March 9. Everyone is urged to come and share the hilarious laughter and gay entertainment in the play "Saved by the Belle."

The Mirror . . .

(By Jimmie Lou Thomas)
Dorothy Nell Johnson was very appealing to the eye when she came to school dressed in a red jersey jumper suit and baby blue sweater.

Dressed in a pink sloppy jo sweater and black velvet skirt, Joan Edwards caught the eyes of the students as she went about her studies in school.

Our vote goes to Colene Carmack and Gwynell Davis as being the most attractive and best dressed girls in Tahoka high school.

Miss Ruby Perry took the spotlight as she went about her work dressed in a very attractive pink jersey dress.

Lols Sproles had many admirers when she came to school dressed in her blue shark-skin slacks.

Low heel sandals are taking the place of saddle oxfords as spring is approaching.

Dressed in a green plaid two-piece suit and green sandals, Iva Jean Steel enthusiastically watched the basketball games.

Eyes turned Peggy Fenton's way Thursday when she wore a red flannel two-piece dress with gold studs down the front and on each pocket.

Joan Owens, with her tiny figure, looked very neat in a two-piece black jersey dress with an insignia trimming of red and white stripes on each sleeve.

Have you seen Billie Greer in her stunning white teddy bear coat?

Dressed in a white flannel skirt and a white sweater trimmed in blue Alice Roberts enthusiastically watched the basketball games Wednesday night.

Being a blue-eyed blonde and home ec. teacher, Miss Lucille Wright took the spotlight as she came to school dressed in a blue plaid wool suit.

Striped polo shirts seem to catch the eyes of the girls of Tahoka for they are modeling them in colors of light blue, red, navy blue, yellow, and brown.

Ruby Greer flashed around at the Post and Tahoka basketball game with a very attractive red gored skirt on and a white crepe blouse to complete her new costume.

The men at Lexington in 1775 fought for our freedom, and now we are fighting to keep it! Let us remind you to be good Americans and fight with war bonds and stamps.

Congratulations to the girls' basketball team for having won the tournament Friday!

Beth Shepherd has what it takes to make a hit on the basketball court and believe us she made several in the game with Post.

Well, since shoes are rationed now, we sincerely hope that no one comes to school barefooted!

OUR MARINES
By Lois Parker
On the land as on the sea, this is the duty of the United States Marines. They are members of the nation's armed forces and are now engaged in the biggest battles being fought. The Marines are proud to be the toughest and best branch of our services as they have fought in all our country's battles since Tripoli. They were first noted for their stand at Tripoli and Montezuma.

Our Marines have most recently been honored for their stand at Guadalcanal and their brave stands against the Japanese on other fronts.

Last Friday an accident occurred in the hall of Tahoka high school. Water was brought, and the victim, coming to, exclaimed: "At last, one of the water fountains in the school works."

People used to rub their noses together to show their affection for each other instead of kissing. Joan Owens stated, "I prefer the modern method."

Teacher of Week—

A worth-while personality flashes around high school with his red hair, could easily be distinguished from the others. It appears to be that history is his favorite subject, since his schedule consists of American History, Texas History, World History, and Civics.

During the past week-end he was seen walking the side-lines and pulling his hair and begging those basketball boys to please make one more goal. (He must be the coach.)

If there is a least bit of doubt in your mind about who this young gentleman is, just look in the column, "This and That."

Library Receives Additional Books

"Oh, boy! New Books! Nineteen of them!"

This is one of many explanations heard by students when Miss Ineva Headrick, librarian, received nineteen new books for the library last week.

The list of books follows: Alcott's Little Women, Young Trailers by Altsheier; Blackmore, Lorna Doone; Clemens, Adventures of Huckleberry Finn and The Adventures of Tom Sawyer; Collins, Moonstone and the Woman in White; Cobb, Old Judge Priest; Defoe, Robinson Crusoe, Star Series; Eggleston, Hoosier School Boy; Eliot, Mill on the Floss.

Lewis, Main Street; Meigs, As the Crow Flies; Poe, Tales; Van Dyke, Blue Flower; Chase, Mexico; Moss, Flag of the United States; Richards, Florence Nightingale; Steffens, Autobiography; and Queen Victoria by Strachey.

Brief Review Of Book Is Given

By Mary Ruth Edwards
James Hilton's Random Harvest. Random Harvest has a World War I background but deals rather with the effects of war. Telling the warm and simple story of a shell-shocked officer and a show girl who loves him, it is a stirring story of human relationships.

A shell-shocked officer is picked up by Paula, a dancer. In her dressing room she says, "I will call you Smitty." Walking dazedly, his memory of the war gone, Smitty has wandered out of Melbridge Asylum during excitement of the celebration of the 1918 Armistice. Smitty regains his health at a small English inn, where Paula has taken him. At a picnic, Smitty shows Paula a check from a newspaper for articles he has written.

A simple marriage ceremony with Paula marks the beginning of a new life for Smitty. Having sold more stories, he and Paula go to live in a small cottage in a country-side village.

Registering his son's birth, Smitty talks excitedly to the town clerk in typical new-father fashion. Smitty is completely recovered except for his memory of the past. A street accident in Liverpool, where Smitty has gone to see about getting a job, brings back his memory of his earlier days but blots out years he spent with Paula.

At the family breakfast table the next day, Smitty takes over his rightful place as Charles Rainer, now head of the house of a prominent and wealthy English family. Paula, unrecognized, becomes his secretary, is so indispensible that he marries her again. Patiently Paula waits for him to recall the years they spent together.

Mrs. W. P. Inman of Snyder spent last week here with her daughter, Mrs. T. Cowan.

if you're annoyed by "private blackouts"

Military blackouts are often necessary these days... but "private blackouts" aren't! You can save time and nervous strain... as well as the annoyance of an unnecessary blackout in your home by remembering two things: (1) Keep a supply of fuses... correct size... always handy. (2) Check your switch box fuses immediately if your lights go out... replace any "blown" fuses with your good ones.

Tire Recapping Rule Is Modified

Effective about March 1, ration board control over recapping of passenger automobile tires with reclaimed rubber will be eliminated, according to a telegram received this week by Judge C. H. Cain of the Lynn County Rationing Board from Howard R. Gholson, district manager of the Lubbock district Office of Price Administration.

Gholson had this message from the National office: "To encourage recapping as against replacement tires and to reduce the work load of local boards, Rubber Director requests that we discontinue rationing of Grade F Camelback about March 1. This will permit any person including operators of light trucks, to have his own tire recapped with passenger type Camelback without local board authority. Since all passenger car operators are already eligible for recaps, very little increased drain on reclaimed rubber stock piles will result and public will be saved many trips to local boards. Rubber Director assures us of sufficient supply of Camelback and adequate recapping facilities to support this program at annual average of 5,000 miles per car. Factory molds will be used if necessary. This step made possible only by recent rigid restriction gasoline usage. Unless such restrictions continue to be rigorously applied by all local boards so that we reach and maintain a 5,000 mile average, this program may have to be withdrawn. No relaxation of eligibles for tires or gasoline can be permitted since the rubber shortage continues to be acute."

W. A. Reddell was confined to his bed several days this week from an attack of asthma and other ailments.

Lieut. Lee King, who was stationed at Harlingen, has been transferred to Laredo. His wife and son are now there with him.

FORGYS TO TULSA

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Forgy and little daughter of O'Donnall are expecting to leave this week end, possibly today, for Tulsa, Oklahoma, where he expects to work for the Government, he told The News.

Mr. and Mrs. Forgy have made many friends in Lynn county while editing the O'Donnell Press who regret that they are leaving. Forgy is succeeded as editor at O'Donnell by Augustus Hunter, until recently of Gall, Borden county.

Billy Joe Oliver is reported to be ill with the mumps.

THE TIMID SOUL By Webster

Mrs. E. D. Payne of Edith reports that she heard from her son, Ralph E. Payne of Dora, New Mexico, a few days ago and that he is now in Camp Haan, California. About three weeks ago he enlisted and was sent to Fort Bliss but was promptly transferred from there to Camp Haan. Ralph formerly resided here but has been in Dora, New Mexico, the past few years, where his wife is a teacher in the public schools.

Pvt. Harvey A. Bates of LAPS, son of Mr and Mrs. R. H. Bates, now of Lubbock but formerly of New Home, was transferred to Bryan last week, according to his mother. His wife, the former Miss Mattie Faye Waggoner of Tahoka, expects to join him soon. The couple were married at Brownfield just recently, December 26, by the Methodist minister there.

A. L. Dunagan returned Monday from Corsicana, to which city he had been called two weeks ago by the serious illness of a brother who had undergone a gall bladder operation. He left his brother much improved. While in that section he also visited a daughter and her family in Hill county and on the return trip he visited a sister in Young county.

Mrs. John Curry underwent an operation for appendicitis in the Lubbock General Hospital last Monday. Mr. Curry reports her condition as very satisfactory Thursday.

THE FIGHTING THREE

FOR VICTORY

The man behind the gun is the one we must implement to fight—to win! That is why the man behind the man behind the gun—the war production soldier—must keep on the job, turning out the machines of war unstintingly until this nation is ready to meet and beat any challenger! There is yet a third man backing up both the war front and home front soldier: and he is the American farmer, dedicated to '43 for Victory through his all-out effort in behalf of the nation's Food for Freedom program. He will produce the livestock, the poultry, the eggs and milk, the fruit and vegetables—which will invigorate the worker, that he may be able to produce the guns and tanks, ships and planes, which will equip our armed forces so that they can produce the Victory the world awaits! Together, they are unbeatable: fighter, worker, farmer united under one flag, for one cause—the triumph of freedom.

Rationing . . .

Price information should be of interest to every person:

Every week we are sending ship-loads of canned goods to feed our fighting men and our fighting allies in Africa, Britain, and the Pacific islands. We must see that they get all the food they need.

We at home will share all that is left. Point rationing will be used to guarantee you and everyone a fair share of America's supply of canned and processed fruits and vegetables, soups and juices.

Here is how they will be rationed:

1. Every eligible man, woman, child, and baby in the United States is being given War Ration Book Two. (This book will not be used for sugar or coffee.)

2. The Blue stamps are for any kind of canned or bottled fruits and vegetables, canned or bottled juices and soups, frozen fruits and vegetables, and dried fruits. (The red stamps will be used later for meat.)

3. The stamps in this book are "point" stamps. The number on each stamp shows you how many points that stamp is worth.

4. The letters show you when to use the stamps. The year will be divided into rationing periods. You can use all blue stamps marked A, B, and C in the first rationing period. A, B, and C stamps cannot be used after the first rationing period ends.

5. You must use the blue stamps when you buy any kind of the rationed processed foods. Official lists will be at your grocers. Different kinds of these foods will take different numbers of points. For example, a can of beans may take a different number of points from a can of peas.

6. Of course, the more of anything you buy the more points it will take. For example, a large can of peas takes more points than a small can.

7. The government will set the points for each kind and size and

Mother Of Huffakers Dies Near Stamford

Mrs. J. H. Huffaker, mother of three well-known Lynn county citizens, died suddenly early Wednesday morning at her home at Avoca, Jones county. She had previously had a heart attack, and it is likely that another one caused her death, her grandson, County Attorney Calloway Huffaker, thinks.

Mrs. Huffaker was the mother of W. C. Huffaker Sr., Mrs. O. B. Davis Sr., who live north of town, and Mrs. Chas. Campbell, Wilson. Her husband survives. The couple were pioneer residents of Jones county.

Mr. and Mrs. Huffaker Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Davis Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell left Wednesday morning for Avoca on learning of her death, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Huffaker, Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Evans, the latter friends of the family, left Thursday morning to attend the funeral, which was to have been held Thursday afternoon at Avoca.

Mrs. Homer Maxey and two children of Lubbock were in Tahoka a short time Sunday afternoon en route home from Corpus Christi, where Homer has been in training as a Naval officer. Mrs. Maxey and the children had been with him until he was transferred to an unknown destination. The Government will announce these changes when it makes them and they will be put up in the stores.

8. The number of points for each kind of processed food will be the same in all stores and in all parts of the country.

Former Lynn County Boy's Plane Wrecked In Wilds Of Canada

That picture of Flying Officer Carl Hickerson telephoning to his wife that he was safe after his plane had been forced down in the bushes in far-away northern Ontario, Canada, which appeared in the Star-Telegram Tuesday, is the picture of a former Lynn county kid.

When his plane was first missing it was feared that he had been killed, but a search was instituted and he was found and rescued. Then he telephoned his wife.

Hickerson is a nephew of G. W. (Wash) Hickerson of Tahoka. In about 1908, his father, Clay Hickerson bought land near Three Lakes in this county and he and his family lived on it about two years. Carl was then about five or six years old. The family moved from here to Oklahoma in 1910, and his father now resides at Vernon, Texas. After growing up, Carl became interested in aviation and for the past two and a half years he had been an aviation instructor in Canada.

Mrs. Marvin Hinkle, who underwent a major operation in the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock about ten days ago, was brought home Wednesday, well on the road to recovery.
