Rotarians Hold "Ladies Night"

Frank Matchett, Seagraves banker and Rotarian, and Edward McMillan, seaman first class, U. S. Navy, were the speakers Thursday night of last week at one of the largest attended and most entertaining "Rotary Ann" meetings the Tahoka Rotary Club has ever held. The banquet was held in the school gymnasium.

Introducing his talk with quite a bit of comedy, Matchett, delivered a short address fitting the occasion in which he made a plea that the people guard against the giving up of their freedoms permanently at the close of this war. He was accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Armstrong, also of Seagraves. Mr. Armstrong being president of the club in that city.

More comedy was introduced in the program when Rev. Art Brown directed a contest between six Rotarians in which the contestants drank coca colas from bottle to which baby bottle nipples had been attached. A fitting prize was awarded the contestant emptying his bottle first and another to the contestant who was least successful.

Edward McMillan, 1941 graduate of Tahoka High School, home from the Pacific war zone, where he has witnessed six major naval battles, held the crowd's intense interest for an hour as he told of his experiences and answered questions propounded him by Rotarians and guests.

Opening the program, Rev. Brown and Dr. Emil Prohl led the group in a song session.

President Truett Smith presided, while R. P. Weathers acted as master of ceremonies.

Guests other than those already mentioned included Dr. and Mrs. D. D. Jackson of Texas Tech, he being a cousin of John Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hegi, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Applewhite, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roberts, Mrs. "Dub" Kenly, and Misses Hattie Server and Gerry Milliken.

An excellent meal was served by a group of ladies.

Famous Educator Speaks In Tahoka

Rotarians and a number of invited guests had the privilege Thursday of hearing one of the greatest addresses ever delivered in Tahoka. The guest speaker was Dr. Willis A. Sutton, former president of the National Educational Association and for many years superintendent of city schools of Atlanta, Georgia.

Having come to this section to address meetings of the West Texas Teachers' Association, Supt. W. T. Hanes prevailed upon him to come to Tahoka and speak to the Rotary Club.

Dr. Sutton is prominent not only in education circles, but he is recognized as one of the really big men of this nation.

It would be impossible to give any conception of the scope and power of his address here but he stressed the intellectual and spiritual qualities in man as the basis not only of business but also of all progress in every field of life. It was a powerful plea in behalf of education.

He was accompanied to Tahoka by Dr. B. B. Cobb, secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association, and Supt. O. C. Thomas of Spur, outgoing president of the West Texas Teachers Association.

Rev. Art Brown led an enthusiastic singing program to open the Rotary meeting.

One Contest In City Election Tuesday

Four posts are to be filled by Tahoka voters in next Tuesday's city election, but there is but one contest, that of city marshal.

Candidates for the office of city marshal are A. F. (Frank) McGlaun, night watchman for the past three years, and B. L. Parker, former sheriff of Lynn county and well known in South Plains peace officer circles.

The name of Deen Nowlin appears on the ballot for re-election as mayor. He is unopposed.

Also to be filled are two alderman positions, and the names of T. J. Bovell and W. O. Thomas, both are present members of the City Council.

County Produced 98,204 Bales Cotton During Year 1942

The final report of the number of bales of cotton ginned in Texas, by counties, from the crop of 1942, was announced by the Bureau of the Census, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C., a few days ago, and shows that Lynn county leads all the other counties of the state by a very substantial margin.

Lubbock county led the state in 1941 with 86,321 bales and Lynn county was second with 65,958. Lubbock county has led the state several times during the past few years, with Lynn county taking either second place or standing near the top.

Lynn county's lead over Lubbock county this past year was 13,804 bales. Nueces county on the Gulf coast was third in the state, but South Plains counties, Dawson and Hockley, took fourth and fifth places respectively. Of the ten leading counties in the state, six of them were West Texas counties, Jones county holding sixth place and El Paso county tenth.

Ellis and Williamson counties, which used to take it time about winning first place in the state, had to be content with sixth and ninth places respectively, each being surpassed by the four South Plains counties mentioned above.

In addition to bumper cotton crops, these South Plains counties also produced immense feed crops the past year, as they have done in many years of the past. Lynn county's feed crop probably surpassed all previous records.

We give below the cotton ginnings in thirty of the leading cotton counties of the state for 1942 and 1941 respectively. It will be noted that of these thirty counties, seventeen of them are West Texas counties.

Farm Residence Burned Monday

A house on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Garrard about three miles southeast of town was destroyed by fire at 6:30 o'clock Monday morning. Origin of the fire is not known.

The house was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. "Coots" Jones, who had left home a short time before the fire was discovered to help with the milking at Jones Dairy. They lost all their furniture and all their clothing except that which they were wearing.

Neighbors rushed to the scene of the fire on noticing it, but arrived too late to save anything.

Mrs. Mary Beckham visited her husband, Sgt. Joe Beckam of the 19th Bombardment Group, at Fayette over the week end.

ON THE NORTHWEST FRONTIER—American soldiers in this Indian village on the Alena highway to Alaska got a taste of Army life of the old frontier days. The difference is that today radio communication and mechanized equipment speed things up over the trails of pony express riders and packhorse drivers of a century ago. He is the son of Lieutenant General Sir on Belvoir Beckner, veteran of the Mexican War and a distinguished officer in the Confederate army.)

Two Red Cross Rooms Opened

Two new centers for making Red Cross surgical dressings were opened in the county on Tuesday of this week, according to Mrs. Irving Stewart, county co-chairman of that work in Lynn county.

Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. H. E. Mather attended the opening of a room at New Home in a two-room building at the Co-op. Gin. The men of the community had put a new roof on the building and assisted the women in re-decorating the interior, Mrs. Stewart said. Mrs. Frank Lisenby is their chairman.

Mrs. Jim Burleson and Mrs. Otho Thomas attended the opening of the room at New Lynn which is located in the former lunch room in the school building. This room was reconditioned by the women. Mrs. Newman Bartley is the chairman.

The number of Tahoka's workers seem to have fallen off recently. This may be due to announcement that a certain part of the quota had been finished. Truth is that within the next thirty days Lynn county must complete 18,000 4x4 inch and 4,680 4x8 inch dressings. Hence, it is important that every Tahoka woman give some of her time to this urgent work.

Tahoka business women continue to give one night a week to this much needed work, thirteen being present Tuesday night.

Since there are machines enough to make only ten percent of the bandages actually needed, will you not lend a pair of hands for one or more hours each week?

After being confined to his room with the flu for two weeks, Ovid Luallin returned to his work in the shop Monday morning but declares that he wishes he hadn't.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Payne and son and Mrs. Grady Howard visited relatives at Ralls last week end.

Mathews' Kin Noted For Lengthy Lives

Fred Mathews of Grassland was a caller at The News office Saturday and stated that he and his wife and little daughter and also his mother recently attended the funeral at Plainview of Mrs. Harriet Bass, a cousin of his father, who died at the advanced age of 96 years. She was buried at Tulla.

As remarkable as it may seem, she leaves surviving her a sister who is 94 and a brother who is 92. Both live in Georgia. The mother of this aged trio lived to be more than a hundred years old, and Fred says that at Plainview he saw a picture of her taken on her 100th birthday. And when she died, death came primarily not from old age but from the fracture of a hip sustained in a fall. Nobody knows, he says how much longer she might have lived if the accident had not occurred.

Mrs. Bass was the mother of eight children, four sons and four daughters, and every one of them is still living.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The tradition of American cavalry threads back to Indian warfare days and although modern armies are largely motorized today, the cavalry still plays an important role. Sturdy, well trained horses and excellent equipment and trappings are necessary.

When men are in the saddle for hours, their saddles, saddle rolls and other equipment must be made to stand the wear. Complete with carbine and helmets, the equipment for the cavalryman runs into hundreds of dollars. You can help provide this with your War Bond purchases. If you have not done so, join the Payroll Savings Plan and put ten percent of your income into War Bonds.

WOMEN AT WAR

Bessie

"All right, Bessie," said the boss of the little factory which was making jackets for soldiers. "Did you want to see me about something?"

The thin middle-aged woman stood up from the chair in the outer office and looked earnestly at the boss with her huge, grave gray eyes.

"It's about this ten percent pledge," she began.

"Oh, that's all right, Bessie," the boss said. "I'd been meaning to speak to you about that. We don't expect you to pledge ten percent of your pay for War Bonds like the others are doing. We know you have a hard time making ends meet since Jake died. Eleven kids, isn't it? That's quite a lot of mouths to feed. Let's see, you make $25.50 a week including overtime, don't you?"

"Yes, sir, but . . ."

The boss smiled. "Don't give it another thought, Bessie. You've got your hands full now. Uncle Sam knows you haven't got a penny to spare. Don't let it worry you. We understand."

The boss turned to go back into his private office.

"But what I wanted to say was . . ."

Bessie raised her voice and the boss looked around. "I wanted to say, would a dollar a week be too little? You see, after we get the living expenses paid, there's just about a dollar a week left. Would they be willing to accept a dollar a week?"

"They'd be more than willing," the boss said quietly. "They'd be proud."

Bessie looked relieved. "All we have to do is scrimp a little," she said. "I'd feel just terrible if we couldn't give something."

Back in the boss's office a representative of the Treasury Department was waiting. The boss shut the door and sat down.

"I've just seen the greatest single sacrifice I know of," the boss said. "Listen, if you want to hear what American women are made of . . ."

Mrs Clarence Williams Writes Of Interesting Places In Virginia

Clarence Williams, a resident of Tahoka for the past several years, is now an instructor in the small bore armory at Peary Camp Williamsburg, Virginia, according to a letter received by The News publishers from his wife. "He and the crew he works with," Mrs. Williams states, "will train commissioned officers, and he feels sure that he will be here for several months."

Mrs. Williams says that they have been doing quite a bit of sight-seeing. Williamsburg itself is unique.

"As you know," Mrs. Williams observes, "Williamsburg is the place that John D. Rockefeller Jr. is helping to restore to the original city. Located in what is called the Middle Plantation, which had been established in 1633, the town was an attempt to expand Jamestown, the first permanent English settlement in America."

"When the State House burned in Jamestown, the Capitol was rebuilt in Williamsburg. Here in 1693 the College of William and Mary was established, which today has a large enrollment of several hundred students. Patrick Henry made several of his famous speeches here in the original Capitol. We visited the Raleigh Tavern, built before the middle of the eighteenth century and now restored to its former proportions. Here Jefferson danced with his fair Belinda and here George Washington frequently dined."

"There are other famous buildings and houses too numerous to name. The Wren building, oldest academic building in English America, the Governor's Palace, the Public Wythe House, and the Ludwell-Paradise House are some of the ones we have visited."

"We have visited Yorktown and the battlefields on which the fortifications were erected by Cornwallis in 1781 and which were modified and strengthened by the Confederate General Magruder during the War Between the States. Also saw the fortifications, earthworks and palings (reconstructed) where Washington and Rochambeau, at the head of the allied forces, conducted the siege that brought about American independence."

Where we are located reminds me so much of Ruidoso, New Mexico. We have tall pine trees all around but the house is out in a clearing. We are not far from the river and plan to go fishing one of these days soon."

She closes by wishing that they could be back home "to enjoy some of those good old West Texas sandstorms again."

Construction Order Explanation Given

A War Board Memorandum has been received recently by the Lynn County USDA War Board concerning violations of Order L-41. During the period immediately following the order, the War Production Board exercised a great deal of leniency toward reported violations, on the grounds that provisions of the order were not known and had been insufficiently interpreted, however, WPB believes now that all persons interested in construction have had ample opportunity to learn of the provisions. Accordingly, WPB will deal more severely from now on to willful violation of the Order. This article is being written for your protection as well as to serve as a warning.

WPB issued Conservation Order L-41 April 9, 1942, to conserve scarce materials by allocating them to essential construction and restricting their use in non-essential construction. Only construction that is specifically exempted from the restrictions of the order or which is specifically authorized by WPB can be undertaken.

The following farm construction is exempted from the restrictions of Order L-41.

1. Construction which was begun, as defined in paragraph (a) (8) of Order L-41, before April 9, 1942.
2. Ordinary maintenance and repair work needed to return the structure to a sound working condition without change of design.
3. Construction of farm residence where the total cost is less than $200.00, over any continuous 12-months period.

4. The reconstruction or restoration of "Residential Construction" damaged or destroyed after December 31, 1941, by fire, flood, tornado, earthquake, act of God, or Public Enemy.
5. Construction of irrigation pipe lines or drainage tile drains in which no materials except earth or other unprocessed materials and clay or non-reinforced concrete, tile or pipe, not more than 12 inches in internal diameter, and incorporated.

6. Construction of farm buildings, fences, and other facilities (except residences) serving a single farm where the total cost is less than $1,000 over any continuous 12-months period.
7. Construction of manufacturing, processing, or assembling facilities for farm products (governed in the Order by "Industrial Construction") where the total cost is less than $5,000 over any continuous 12-months period.

8. Any other "off the farm" construction (governed in the Order by "other Restricted Construction") where the total cost is less than $1,000 over any continuous 12-months period.

1. PD-200 (Rev.) Applications are necessary when the total cost exceeds the amount of exemptions; or (2) when priority assistance is needed to obtain materials for construction even though the construction may be otherwise exempted; (3) when specific authorization for the particular construction is required in order to purchase equipment even though the construction itself is exempted from Order L-41 and no priority assistance is necessary to obtain the equipment.

Applications for special authorization for construction of buildings or other structures used primarily for the production, processing, storage, or other handling of farm products in their primary stage (either agricultural, industrial, or other restricted construction) and including "on the farm" residential or multiple residential construction must be revived by State and County USDA

War Boards and the United States Department of Agriculture before WPB approval can be obtained. Those which are sent directly to the WPB without State and County War Board review will be either denied or returned to the applicant.

General standards for war-time agricultural construction are as follows:

1. The proposed construction must be essential to meet production goals.
2. The intended construction must be consistent with sound agricultural practices.
3. The use of scarce materials and equipment must be reduced to a minimum.
4. The construction must not interfere with labor essential to War industries.

No person shall begin construction or order, purchase, accept delivery of or in any manner secure or use materials to begin construction in violation of the Order.

No person shall sell, deliver or cause to be delivered, materials, if he has reason to believe they will be used to begin construction in violation of the Order.

Information available to War Boards regarding alleged violation of the provisions of Conservation Order L-41 will be reported to the Special War Board Assistant to the Secretary of Agriculture if there is reasonably certain evidence of willful violation.

Pfc. Alvis Mensch came home Saturday night on an overnight pass to see his wife's brother, Pfc. E. T. McLain, who is home on furlough from Hamilton Field, Calif. Alvis is still stationed at Carlsbad, N. M. His wife came home last Monday. Both of these young men say they like the Army fine and "for these farm hands to keep up the good work."

Pfc. Allan Luallin came over from Sheppard Field and spent the week end here with the home folks. His wife accompanied him back and expects to remain there with him until he is moved.

Be Wise...

PLANT A VICTORY GARDEN

The one big thing you can do to help yourself and everyone else get enough food is to plant a Victory Garden.... The present food shortage is no laughing matter, as the people of Greece can tell you. But we are lucky; there are no invading troops in America to trample and destroy our gardens before they have reached maturity.

Be wise! Plant a Victory Garden for your own use in order that our farmers' crops may be used to feed our troops and allies.

We will gladly furnish information on home canning.

Nebraska Man Will Conduct Revival At Assembly of God

Beginning next Sunday, April 4, at the Assembly of God Church, two blocks south of the court house, Rev. H. E. Comstock of Nebraska will preach the old time Holy Ghost revival meeting.

This very able and capable evangelist has served some 15 years in the ministry, both as pastor and as evangelist, and has the needed message of the hour. He is worthy of the attention of the entire public. He has conducted meetings throughout the middle west and has just closed a very successful meeting at Plainview, Texas.

Word comes that last Friday morning at 1 a. m. there were exactly 80 people in the church praying at the altar.

"It is without hesitancy," Rev. Arthur Brown, local pastor, states, "that I invite the entire public to attend this revival and hear this able man of God."

Some of the subjects that he will be discussing during the revival meeting will be: "The Foolishness of God," "The Old is Better," "The Blackest Hour in the World's History," "The Lost Christ," "Why God Permits War," "Canned Religion," "The Altars of the Ages," "Could I Live My Life Over." Many other interesting and timely subjects will be discussed during the course of the meeting.

"I'll be looking for you!"—Bro. Brown.

PREACHING AT EDITH

The pastor, Rev. Earl McManis, having resigned as pastor of the Edith Baptist Church, Rev. Baldwin of Lorenzo will fill the pulpit next Sunday morning at 12:00 o'clock and night at 8:30 o'clock, according to announcement made by G. M. Duckett.

Mr. Duckett urges that the people of Edith and surrounding communities fill up the house for the visiting preacher.

Miss Peggy Fenton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fenton Jr., was the victim of a near-serious accident Monday afternoon, when her horse stepped in a prairie dog hole and fell badly bruising the rider.

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday night will be "Youth Sunday Services" and the Youth Division of the local church will have charge. The subject will be "Christ Above All." Let's be present and enjoy the service and encourage the young people.

During the pre-Easter Sundays we are discussing the subject Evangelism. At the 11 o'clock hour we shall use for our subject, "The Revival That Lasted A Year." The modern day revival lasts sometimes no longer than the two weeks duration. The sustained revival is the most effective and far reaching—that is the kind we should strive to have.

The local Church Board of Christian Education will meet Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Each Sunday School teacher and officer is urged to be present so we shall be able to plan for a successful Easter service in all departments of the church. Don't fail to be present.

A hearty welcome is extended to all who will worship with us at all Services Sunday.

W. S. C. S. MEETS

Twelve members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service met in the Methodist Church Monday afternoon, bringing gifts for Holding Institute, one of our Mission schools for Mexican children, at Laredo, Texas.

The high point of the meeting was a joint report given by the president, Mrs. Mather, and Mrs. Nichols on the recent zone meeting held in Lamesa. Mrs. Hardy gave a lighter touch by her comments on the nice lunch served the visitors by the Lamesa church. It seems that two different kinds of cake were served and they insisted that the visitors try both. Now, they are all wanting the recipe for the orange fluff cake.

April 4th at 2:30 p. m., the W. S. C. S. will begin their Bible study, "Will A Man Rob God?" This study will be taught by Mrs. Nichols. You are most cordially invited to take this study.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Parrish of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hickerson spent several days last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Ellis at Monahans. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis are the parents of Mrs. Parrish and Mrs. Ellis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hickerson, and is a former resident of this county.

Interest and crowds continue very good. We urge that everyone begin now to prepare for the meeting that will begin the Third Lord's Day in this month. Begin now to plan your trips that you may have plenty of gas to come every night and bring someone with you. The new song books have been ordered, and we hope that the building will be finished on the inside by the third Sunday.

We ask that everyone remember the meeting that is now in progress at Grassland. Guy N. Woods is doing the preaching. The Grassland congregation extends to all an invitation to be present at every service.

W. M. U. MEETS

Three circles of the Baptist W. M. U. met in homes Monday afternoon and completed the Mission books they were studying. They also discussed plans for a series of prayer services to be held during the coming revival.

All members of Walker and Sallee circles will meet together next Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Chester Connolly for a Bible lesson by Mrs. H. A. Riddle.

LOOK! QUARTET! SINGING!

Friday, April 2, there will be quartet singing at the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church (colored) of which Rev. O. D. Hollins is pastor.

One quartet is coming from Lubbock and another from Tyler. The singing begins at 9:30. All are invited. There will be no admission charge but a free-will offering will be taken.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Elliott of Wichita Falls are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tyler, of Draw.

MISS MARY BLAND WELLS WILL MARRY SOON

Last Friday afternoon at her home in Temple, Mrs. Ben T. Brown entertained with a tea announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of her niece, Miss Mary Bland Wells, to Lt. James H. Reego of Chicago, now with the Communications Department at Camp Hood.

The wedding ceremony will be read by Rev. Roy A. Langston at First Methodist Church in Temple at 8:30 p. m., April 20, and a reception will follow in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Among those participating in the wedding will be Mrs. Raymond Stevenson, formerly Miss Evelyn Wells, as matron of honor, and Miss Daisy M. Brown as bride's maid.

Miss Wells is well known in Tahoka, where she spent her early life and attended school before moving to Temple several years ago with her mother after the death of her father, Coleman Wells.

She was graduated with honors from Temple High School, attended Baylor College, where she specialized in music. She also attended business college and has been connected with several business firms in Temple, being with Temple Retail Merchants Association the past two years.

DO YOU HAVE A HOBBY?

Do you have a worth-while hobby? Perhaps you have and perhaps you have not. Perhaps you collect buttons, sea shells, stamps, or old coins. But what is the object of such collecting? Unless you plan to be a novelty dealer, none will do you much good. Webster defines the word hobby as "something in which one takes extravagant interest." To merit such interest, a hobby should be of some worth, and such a worth to youth could only be in the line of vocational interest.

Practically all of us have some idea of what we would like to do after leaving school. This makes the choice of a hobby comparatively simple. We usually like to do one thing more than any other, and a hobby can easily be developed into a career if one is truly in earnest.

Hobbies are generally one of three types, the acquiring of knowledge in any subject, the acquiring of things, which at present seem to be the most popular, and the creating of things (handicrafts). Some of these especially in the collecting field, are expensive. But, fortunately, interest and enjoyment in a hobby are not in ratio to the amount of money spent. One can get a great deal of enjoyment reading about airplanes without having ridden in one.

The best way to start a hobby is first to study it. In this respect, the libraries are treasure houses, for books have been written on practically every conceivable line of interest.

Mount your hobby, ride hard, and you will never have "nothing to do."

League Contests Are Being Held

Tahoka High School is still going to have County Meet, but the contest is within the school, owing to the fact that other schools are not competing.

This year classes are competing against each other. There are ten contests, volleyball, basketball, baseball, spelling, tennis, declamation, extemporaneous speaking, ready-writing one-act plays, and track. Each class is to enter one contestant in each of these events. Leaders were elected in all of the classes. Dub Harvick and Peggy Fenton represent the Seniors as leaders. Tryouts between the contestants in the same class will probably be held the next two weeks.

Seniors Victorious In League Contest

The Senior class started off with a bang in the County Meet this week, running up 30 points by defeating all other classes in basketball, senior division.

The Senior boys won over the Junior boys with a score of 23-6, "Red" Harvick being the high-point man.

The Senior girls added fifteen more points to the total by defeating the Freshman girls 22-9. Beth Shepherd was high-point girl with 11 points to her credit. VeNell Walker scored 2 points, Joan Owens 4, Rubie Greer 4. Nancy Nell Wyatt made two goals and one extra point. Kate McMillan played the hardest game of all players, including any girl on the victorious Senior team.

Sub-Debs Present Victory Concert

Presenting the first Victory Concert since November, when $18,000.00 was received by the sale of War Bonds and Stamps, the Sub-Deb Club introduced a two-act play entitled "War Changes Everything," featuring the songs of the last war and this war Thursday night of this week.

The cast was as follows: Mother, Gwynelle Davis; Father, Gerry Math; Little Sister, Joan Owens; and Dottie, Peggy Fenton. The play concerned a young girl who knew that there was a war but did not realize the seriousness of it or the things one person could do to help win the war.

The second act was presented in the Stage Door Canteen. The act concerned the rehearsal for the program that night at the canteen.

The program included the following numbers: "Marching Along," sung by the chorus; Tribute to Our Allies, chorus; play: "When You Were a Tulip," by Charlene Bucy and Jeanette Coughran; talk by Supt. W. T. Hanes; "Any Bonds Today," chorus; "Star Spangled Banner," by audience and chorus.

Personality . . .

By Jimmie Lou Thomas
Having black wavy hair, green eyes and being of medium stature, Clyde Briley, with his pleasing personality, proves to be a favorite of many of the students in Tahoka High School.

As a result from an interview, it was found that the subjects he is taking to complete his senior year are chemistry, bookkeeping, and pre-flight.

Since he has lettered four years in basketball, this sport proves to be his favorite, with hiking following.

The high school seniors had a play party at James Ellis Ensor's last Saturday night, with almost all of the seniors present.

Leon Jennings and family recently went to El Paso to visit the son, J. L., who is stationed there.

On Tuesday, March 17, Mr. N. S. Abbott took a group of about 18 boys to Brownfield to enter FFA contests there. Our group won fourth in parliamentary procedure, and three of the boys, Emory Gannaway, Murray Jennings, and Charles Hammons, won second place in one-act demonstration contest.

Clifford Gannaway has been sick of influenza but is recovering.

Recently the high school students voted to participate in Interscholastic League work. Several pupils are taking an interest in the contests and are making preparation for them.

Mrs. J. H. Kornegay is ill with rheumatism. She is under the care of a doctor from Lubbock and hopes to be better soon.

All students in the high school are required to participate in the physical fitness program conducted by Ray Thruston, principal, unless excused of physical defects or weakness. It is very strenuous calisthenics, and many pupils complained at first of the soreness it produced, but most of them enjoy the exercise and realize that such form of exercise helps to keep them more physically fit. When they are graduated they will be better equipped for the war program that they shall inevitably be called to enter.

We are glad to announce that Miss Lena Marie Skeen has been released from the hospital and is living in Lubbock while she continues to improve.

The following faculty members from New Home are contributing a day's salary to the Red Cross: Mr. A. L. Pace, Mr. Roy Thruston, Mrs. Roy Thruston, Miss Virginia Ruth Robertson, Mr. N. S. Betty Jean Mitchell gave a slumber party to a group of her friends last Friday night. Nine girls were present.

Mrs. John Timmons has gone to Young county to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Jones, who died Monday.

The Intermediate Training Union of the New Home Baptist Church rendered a demonstration Training Union program Sunday night at the Lakeview Baptist Church, which is beginning a Training Union.

RATION FOR DAIRY COWS

By J. C. Smith, County Agent

The proper care and ration for the dairy cow has always been important, but it is more important now than ever before. The armed forces and the civilian population are using larger quantities of milk than ever before.

Lynn county farmers and dairymen can help avert a milk shortage by feeding a proper ration, and by giving old Jersey better care.

Failure to keep the protein content of the grain mixture in balance with the roughage will invariably decrease the amount of milk that the cow is capable of producing. A low protein roughage requires a high protein grain mixture and a high protein roughage requires a low protein grain mixture. Protein stimulates milk production.

To determine the grain mixture, find the percentage of the crude protein content of the roughage, dry basis, and subtract it from 27. The difference will be the desired crude protein content of the grain mixture. For example, a cow is getting hegar silage which contains 7 per cent protein basis. Accordingly, 20 should be the protein content of the grain mixture. A mixture composed of 100 pounds each of ground ear corn, ground oats and wheat bran, and 125 pounds of cottonseed meal would provide 30.5 pounds of protein to each 100 pounds of the mixture. This would be close enough and would be all right to use with hegar silage.

The cow should get about 4 pounds of the grain mixture per day to each gallon of milk produced.

"Renegotiation" Might Touch You

Under no other circumstances is the fine spirit of neighborly cooperation shown to better advantage in a rural community than in the case of fire or other calamity. This friendly spirit is not based upon personal interest, but upon the deep sympathy that just naturally arises in case of disaster. Of course, there is a personal interest if the fire threatens our own property, but we like to think this unity of spirit in our rural life is typical of America.

There is this same community of interest between industry, labor and agriculture, although sympathy for each other's troubles seldom comes to the surface.

Every farmer knows that his best market for the produce of his farm is our local domestic market. He depends upon this domestic market to consume over 90 per cent of what our American farms produce each year. If anything happens to his domestic market, like the depression and loss of employment in the early thirties, agriculture is at once affected. On the other hand, if anything happens to the buying power of agriculture, industry is hurt just as badly.

Right now congress is considering the renegotiation of all government contracts. The law was passed on April 28, 1942. Some people are urging that these new renegotiation bureaus should examine contracts made long before the law was passed.

Take the case of a contract made in 1940. The work has been done and paid for; taxes have been paid to the government on the profits, if any; labor has been paid and the money balance distributed either in repairs to plant or perhaps paid in dividends to stockholders.

Danger of Retroactive Measures. Suppose that same thing happened to our local store, or even to our farmers themselves. Suppose the prices we received for our crops, or the conservation payments by the government for 1941 or 1942 were suddenly to be "renegotiated." Every farmer has either fed out or sold his crop, purchased new machinery or perhaps painted the barn, or bought a new dress for his wife. If, under a retroactive law, he were suddenly put up against the threat of renegotiation, all of his credit, and perhaps even his investment would be disturbed.

No one wants unfair profits or excessive dividends out of war contracts. Investigation has shown that over 95 per cent of industry and business made no excessive profits out of the war. Certainly no farmers have received excessive prices for farm crops.

Now Is the Time for Unity. We want to get on with this war. We must have unity. Unity is based upon mutual confidence in our government and in each other. We are all looking forward to a return of peace after the war has been won. We will then want to resume our domestic markets, replace worn-out farm machinery and resume our normal trade relationships. Industry and business will need all of their American ingenuity and strength to provide jobs which, in turn, furnish our domestic market after the war.

True, renegotiation at present is applied only to industry and contracts with the government. But we all recognize the good old American principle that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander.

If business contracts can be renegotiated under a law passed long after the business contracts were made, how about the sanctity of our own contracts?

Just now the fire seems far from our own neighborhood, but if we look closely, our domestic markets, both now and after the war, are involved. We can well take time off to show a little neighborly spirit and help put out the fire.

The Peoples' Edict

Money to pay for the war, yes; but no money for frills in the civil operations of any of our governing bodies. That is the edict of the American people.

Women AT WAR

Sophia

Mrs. Kimball and Mrs. Worthington, dressed soberly and wearing their best black gloves, walked along the stony country road back toward Sophia Hardy's farm, to pay their visit of condolence.

"How do you reckon she'll be bearing up?" Mrs. Kimball asked Mrs. Worthington. Both ladies wore their most solemn, funeral expressions.

"A mighty severe blow," Mrs. Worthington said. "Mighty severe. To lose your only son, the mainstay of your declining years. And such a dreadful death, too—to go down with a ship. Mercy!"

"The first of our boys from Hand County to go, too," Mrs. Kimball said, mournfully. "I wouldn't blame Sophia Hardy for feeling right bitter."

They stood on the simple stone doorstep, with downcast eyes, getting themselves into the proper commiserative mood.

"Come in!" The voice was brisk and cordial. They looked up in surprise. Sophia herself had come to the door. As they followed her into the parlor they exchanged glances, with eyebrows lifted. Sophia was not even in mourning. The parlor shades were not even drawn.

"It's nice of you to come," Sophia said. "Do sit down."

"We came," Mrs. Kimball said almost reprovingly, "to tell you that our hearts are bleeding for you in your great loss."

"We know how lonely you must be out here," Mrs. Worthington said. "With nothing to take your mind off of."

"Oh, I keep busy," Sophia said. "I've just finished applying for the Government insurance on Tom's life."

"I want to get it right away," Sophia said. "So I can put it into War Bonds. My boy hasn't finished fighting yet, not by a long shot."

The ladies were so occupied with feeling horrified, so titillated by this callous behavior in a bereaved mother—that neither of them noticed Sophia's hands. Under the folds of her clean print dress, against the seat of her chair, they were tightly clenched.

WELLS 4-H CLUB

The Wells 4-H Club met at the Wells school house in the Intermediate room at 10:30 o'clock on Tuesday, March 30. Miss Dixon, Lynn county home demonstration agent, met with the club.

Following the opening of the meeting by the president, Miss Lovena Watson, the roll was called by the secretary, Miss Mary Lois Moore. Each member answered the roll call by stating the number of Defense stamps she had. The grand total was 167.65. Each member pledged to buy more stamps before the next time.

During the demonstration, Miss Dixon discussed the Texas Food Standard and gave copies to each member. Then attention was turned to baby chicks. A count of baby chicks showed that members of the club have 800 to date. Miss Dixon gave a preventive formula and also a cure for coccidiosis among baby chicks.

The meeting was adjourned to meet again on April 20, when the sponsor, Mrs. Lalean Jordan will meet with the club.—Reporter.

Homan Edwards Ends Basic Training

Aviation Cadet Homan R. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Edwards of Tahoka, was recently graduated from the Marana Basic Flying School located near Tucson, Ariz., according to Lt. Col. Wallace S. Ford, commanding officer of that field.

He had attended the Tahoka High School and before entering the Air Corps, he had spent several years in the Army, including a few months in the Philippine Islands. Prior to entering the Army, he was employed by Edwards & Lockhart Gin at New Home.

Cadets at the school are given the second phase of their flying training in the heavier, faster BT-13, as well as courses in instrument flying and ground school instruction.

Class 43-E, of which Cadet Edwards was a member, was composed not only of American cadets but also of a detachment of Chinese students sent to this country from China for flying instruction. The class completed its schooling on schedule and was to leave for single and twin-engine flying schools for advanced and final training before receiving the coveted silver wings of the flight officer in the U. S. Army Air Corps.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

A Flying Fortress is to America's air fleet what heavy artillery is to the Army. This gigantic four-motored bomber, equipped with heavy cannon, carries about three tons of bombs and reaches a speed of about 300 miles an hour.

These ships carry a crew of seven to nine men, weigh about 22½ tons, have a wing spread of 105 feet and each motor develops 1,000 horsepower. We need more of these "Flying Fortresses" to compete with the Nazi air force. You can help by investing at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every payday. Buy them from your bank, post-office or other convenient issuing agent.

GARRARD IS HOME

T. Garrard arrived home Saturday from Virginia, where he has been stationed with the Navy "Seabees." T. was given a discharge from the Navy on account of his health. However, he plans to enter the Army at an early date, physical requirements in this branch of the service not being quite so stringent.

W. G. Forgy With Bonham Newspaper

Mrs. E. I. Hill received a letter last Friday from Mrs. W. G. Forgy, formerly of O'Donnell, stating that she and Mr. Forgy are now located in Bonham. Mr. Forgy is the advertising man for the Daily Favorite, the only daily newspaper published at Bonham. He has been there since March 1. Mrs. Forgy and little daughter Cynthia had just come down from Tulsa last week.

Mr. Forgy was formerly editor and publisher of the O'Donnell Press, which was printed in The News office. When he gave up its publication several weeks ago, he and family went to Tulsa, Okla.

Of Bonham, Mrs. Forgy writes: "This is a nice city of about 8,000, the home of Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn. There are such lovely trees, homes, and churches here. Jones Field, a government cadet flying school, is located here, and there is lots going on."

Mrs. Forgy stated that they had greatly enjoyed the weekly visits of the News while they were at Tulsa and requested that it be sent to them at Bonham.

John Hudman, employee of Deen Nowlin's office for the past several years, left Saturday for Weatherford Oklahoma, where he will receive pre-flight training in the Army Air Forces at Southwestern (Okla.) State Teachers College. John enlisted in the Air Forces several months ago and has been awaiting call. His wife operates the Modern Beauty Shop here.

Wm. H. Fulkerson Jr. Is Now A Coporal

Lubbock, March 31.—William H. Fulkerson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fulkerson of Tahoka, has been promoted to technician corporal at the Lubbock Army Flying School, where he is a clerk in the officers' pay section of the finance office.

A graduate of Tahoka High school, Cpl. Fulkerson enlisted last October and came to the advanced twin-engine flying school at Lubbock after spending a short time at Fort Sill, Okla.
