

Interesting Facts On Passover Are Given By Al Lehman

Al Lehman has been treating a few of his friends this week to a thin wafer of unleavened bread such as was used in the Passover feast instituted more than three thousand years ago to commemorate the passing of the Angel of the Lord over the homes of the Israelites in Egypt to save the firstborn of all the faithful from the death that was visited upon the first-born of every Egyptian home.

Al says that this unleavened bread is made of flour, strictly fresh eggs, and small quantities of wine and cider. Every element in it is perfectly pure. The flour is ground and purified by a special process.

Furthermore, the strictest care is taken to make sure that the other articles of food named in the Bible and still used in the Passover Feast are perfectly pure. The stoves in which they are cooked are first "burned out" so as to destroy all impurities that may be lurking therein, and are thoroughly cleansed. The Passover Feast is not served in the dishes used ordinarily by the family but in dishes procured and kept for the purpose.

The Passover holidays began last Monday and the Passover Feast was observed in every Jewish home Monday and Tuesday nights.

Al says that there can be no doubt as to when the Passover Feast was observed by the ancient Hebrews for it was held then and has been held without change ever since on a certain number of days after a certain phase of the moon, regardless of the day of the week on which this date may fall. It fell this year on Monday. The holidays continue for eight days. During this period of time no bread is eaten except the Passover bread. Religious services are held in the synagogues or in other places where no synagogue is available. But the Passover feast is eaten in the home.

It is all very interesting to Christians as well as Jews.

ROY M. BLAND TAKING PRE-RADAR TRAINING

The News received a card Sunday from Roy M. Bland of this county stating that he has been transferred from Shreveport, Louisiana, to Ruston in that state, for training for three months in radio and electrical engineering in the Louisiana Polytechnic Institute.

"This is called by the Signal Corps 'The Pre-Radar Training,'" he says. "This is very interesting work. Ruston is a beautiful little city of about 10,000 population, surrounded by a picturesque countryside."

He signs himself as "A son of the good old Lynn county soil, Roy M. Bland."

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Bennett made a business trip to Dallas and Waco and visited her relatives at Whitney last week. Clay says the corn was up and everybody was planting cotton down in that section of the state.

GILES CHILDREN VISIT PARENTS AT BETHEL

By J. C. Smith, County Agent

Tech. Sgt. Trust Giles of Shepard Field and his wife came over from Wichita Falls on Wednesday of last week to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giles and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crawford, Sgt. Giles having been given a ten days furlough. He may remain longer, however, since he underwent a minor operation Monday in a Lubbock hospital for an injury to the nose which he sustained several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pharras of Levelland came over Saturday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giles, and her soldier brother and wife. Accompanied by Mrs. Donald Giles of O'Donnel, the entire party went to Welch in Dawson county Sunday to visit another son and brother, Rev. ### Agriculture Briefs

By J. C. Smith, County Agent

It is very essential that we protect our crops in 1943 from insects and pests, if at all possible.

Protecting Victory gardens this year with poisonous insecticides is entirely practical and possible if suitable precautions are observed.

Use of active poisons may become necessary where gardeners are unable to obtain enough of the so-called non-poisonous materials like rotenone and pyrethrum. Pests which attack practically all vegetable crops can be destroyed by the toxic substances without undue danger to humans if properly applied and the vegetables and fruits are thoroughly washed and handled after harvest. These poisons include lead and calcium arsenates, cryolite, nicotine sulfate, and special products and the copper and sulphur fungicides.

The most important thing to remember is to wash thoroughly after picking all vegetables which have received poison treatment.

The Lynn County Commissioners Court has obtained a supply of Johnson grass poison. The poison is being handled on a cost basis. Farmers interested in obtaining some of the Johnson grass poison should contact the County Judge or the janitor of the court house.

A survey by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine indicates that Lynn county will have a light infestation of grasshoppers in 1943. Grasshopper poison will be handled on the same basis as it was handled last year.

The latest information available indicates that there will be sufficient cotton leafworm poisons. The two principal cotton leafworm poisons are calcium arsenate and lead arsenate. Due to the over-burdened transportation system, the County Agent suggests that at least enough poisoning be stored away to poison your cotton once.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Terry of Artesia, New Mexico, spent Monday night and Tuesday morning here with their long-time friends, Mr.

America's Food Emergency

A Statement by Santa Fe

United States facing most critical "crop year" in its history.

During the coming months, the need for more food may be greater than the need for more guns, tanks and planes.

Serving, as it does, "the breadbasket of America," the livestock and meat industry, and the great fruit and vegetable areas of California and the Southwest, Santa Fe pledges its all-out effort in the production and mobilization of food.

What Santa Fe Is Doing
Santa Fe employees are planting Victory Gardens along their railroad's 13,199 miles of right-of-way.

Everything that rolls on the Santa Fe is being kept in fighting trim.

Old cars with good running gear are being rebuilt into sleek new gondolas.

Many Santa Fe refrigerator cars that used to go back "dead-head" now hurry back loaded with other freight.

Cars are few and hours are precious. Every hour a freight car stands idle holds back food or other vital war freight from folks who need it. Every unused cubic foot squanders vital space.

The supply experts of the Army and Navy, the ODT, and the Interstate Commerce Commission Bureau of Service are all focusing on this problem.

How Shippers Are Helping
Shippers are helping and can continue to help (1) by maximum loading; (2) by quicker loading; (3) by quicker unloading.

More than 37,000 Santa Fe folks join with the farmers, the livestock producers, the shippers, and the consumers of all America to help meet the greatest food crisis our nation has ever faced.

They're On The Job, Too!

For years the Agricultural Development Department of Santa Fe has cooperated with growers all along the line, for greater production per acre, through better seeds and better cultural methods. For example:

The people of the middle Rio Grande know how the desert has been converted into paying crops.

The folks in Blue Water Valley of western New Mexico know how the production of vegetables has increased from 86 to 1076 carloads in the past three years.

The potato growers of Kern County,

California, know how Santa Fe cooperated in stamping out ring rot and blight.

This year, the people in the Texas Panhandle are bringing in their first harvest of waxy kafir which promises to produce the starch for tapioca and other important products that formerly came from the cassava roots of Java.

In the present national food emergency, these people of Santa Fe's Agricultural Development Department are working harder than ever, doing everything they can to help food growers all along the line.

Cunninghams Return From Extended Trip

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cunningham of this city accompanied their daughter, Mrs. Ruby Collins of Amarillo, on an extended trip downstate and over into Louisiana, leaving here two weeks ago and returning home Tuesday afternoon. They visited relatives at Caddo the first night, then drove to Houston, where they visited a granddaughter and her husband, and while in that vicinity drove down to Freeport and saw the great aluminum plant and to Baytown and got a bird's-eye view of the big synthetic rubber plant now under construction.

And then they hiked out through the pines and the swamps to New Orleans, going by way of Baton Rouge. On the trip down and back, they crossed the Mississippi river three times, going across on the great Huey Long bridge at New Orleans and being carried across on a steam-propelled ferry boat at another place. Twenty-six cars were carried over on that boat on that trip across, Mr. Cunningham says. He saw a lot of sights and had a wonderful trip.

BOOK REVIEW

Forty-five ladies were guests at a tea given by the Phebe K. Warner Club at the home of Mrs. Winston Wharton Wed. April 21. Mrs. T. D. Young of Roscoe, Texas, very ably reviewed "The Robe" by Lloyd Douglas. Mrs. Young, who has had a great deal of experience in reviewing books, gave such a vivid account of the story that the audience felt themselves moved along with the characters. Her choice of "The Robe" was a very appropriate one for this particular season since the book deals with crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus.

A friend of Mr. Douglas wrote to ask him if he knew what became of the robe Jesus wore at the crucifixion. After many years of studying history, Mr. Douglas could not find any record of the robe. He thought a good story could be made from this idea, so he wrote "The Robe."

The story tells of the young, handsome Roman Tribune Marcellus, who was sent for revenge since he laughed at the foolish ruling Prince Caius—to command Fort Minca, a place for rough, banished Romans. Every year, a legion from this fort was sent to Jerusalem to be present at the feast of the Passover—in case of a revolution should start. It fell to Marcellus' lot to crucify Jesus. In order to go through with this awful thing, Marcellus got very drunk. At the foot of the cross, in a game of dice, he won the robe Jesus had worn to the crucifixion. The robe had a very disquieting effect on Marcellus at first—but later it became the means of leading him to seek more knowledge of Jesus and his works. He became a Christian leader and was sentenced to death by the corrupt Caligula because he would not renounce Jesus. As Marcellus and his beautiful bride, Diana, the granddaughter of Tiberius—also a Christian—go to meet their death, she hands the robe to a Christian servant in the household of Marcellus' family with the words, "Give it to Peter, the Big Fisherman."

The Hackberry Unit of the Red Cross in a period of ten weeks has made the following garments: 57 pairs of pajamas, 24 shirts, 44 blouses, 7 Red Cross sweaters, 7 Army helmets, 11 Army sweaters, 6 mufflers, 4 Navy sweaters, and 5 pairs of Army gloves.

One of the rooms of the community club house was equipped and qualified as a center for the making of surgical dressings in the last of February, and since that time the women of the community have made 8,1505 of these dressings.

Forty-seven dollars was raised at a "pie supper" the past week and this money will be used to buy more chairs, another large table and pay the electric bill of the club house for a year in advance—so that monthly "chore" will be out of the way.

The Hackberry Unit meets twice

If you haven't gotten around to buying a Second War Loan Bond, stop and think what it would mean to you if our soldiers hadn't gotten round to the fight.

If members of the United States Senate and the Lower House knew how rapidly sentiment in this country is growing in opposition to the domestic policies of the present administration they would be voicing their own opposition in terms that could not be misunderstood. Just this week we heard men on the street complaining bitterly about the endless maze of nuisance regulations being imposed upon the people under the guise of necessary war measures. If they were really necessary to winning the war there would not be a single complaint registered; but the people are convinced that these regulations do not add one whit to the efficiency of our war program. And, believe it or not, many of them are itching for a chance to scratch the national Democratic ticket next year from top to bottom.

This is not intended as a grouch edition of our editorial page but as a mere reflection of the things the man on the street is thinking and saying about the trend of affairs at Washington. One prominent citizen called attention to the fact that the Government is now making a stupendous effort to raise thirteen billion dollars alleged to be needed in the prosecution of the war, and he himself has helped materially to raise the quota in this county, but at the same time the Government is maintaining four agencies here to loan money to the people, which would indicate that the Government has a plenitude of money already. Another called attention to the fact that a certain prominent business man of Tahoka was notified a few days ago by one of these Alphabet agencies that he would not be permitted to buy a certain quantity of lumber needed by him in the expansion of his business on account of a scarcity of lumber, and that no man could buy lumber with which to build a modest little home for the same alleged reason, yet a certain Government agency has let contracts under which several dozen granaries have been built here in Tahoka to be sold to farmers, but very few of them have been sold for the reason that the price is too high—much higher than farmers could have them built for themselves if permitted to do so. So there they sit, two or three dozen of them, on vacant lots in our town, while farmers and families in town are unable to buy lumber with which to build needed additions even to their homes. And so the conversation went, one Governmental inconsistency and extravagance after another being mentioned, and several present indicated their intention of

ODDS and ENDS

by Eee Eye, the Elder

For the first time in the history of Lubbock county negroes are serving on a Lubbock county grand jury. Two of the twelve members of the present inquisitorial body are colored.

This course, it is deemed, has been rendered necessary by recent decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States. That court has been knocking over as fast as brought to it convictions of negroes for crimes in cases appealed from Southern counties in which a considerable proportion of the population is colored. If no negroes sat on the petit juries which rendered the verdicts of guilty or on the grand juries which brought in the bills of indictment.

The Supreme Court of the United States is a great court, even as constituted at the present time, after it has been practically remade by President Roosevelt, and we would not presume to question its decisions, but it does seem to us that it did require quite a bit of stretching and straining of the Constitution to invalidate the proceedings of the trial courts in these cases.

Remember, there was no question as to the guilt of the defendants. There was no charge nor contention that either the grand juries or the petit juries in these cases had acted improperly or unfairly in any particular.

The point on which the cases were reversed was that there had obviously been discrimination against the negroes in the selection of members of the grand juries and the petit juries which sat in these cases, in violation of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution.

Section 1 of the Fourteenth Amendment, the only section which has any bearing on this matter, is as follows:

"All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

In this connection, it might be stated that the Sixth Amendment to the Constitution contains the following provision: "In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall enjoy swatting everybody at the next election who is in any way responsible for such conditions. Some included all members of Congress who have not been conspicuous in their opposition to the policies of the Administration that have resulted in this "mess".

The President of the United States and the Secretary of the Treasury say that we need thirteen billion dollars now with which to prosecute the war. This, in addition to the vast sums of money that have been raised by taxation and previous bond sales. We do not know whether they have overestimated our needs or not, some say they have, but we feel that any doubt in the matter should be resolved in favor of bonds. We do not want a single American boy sacrificed because there was lack of sufficient fighting equipment. So, let us all buy bonds today, tomorrow, next week, and on through the war to the limit of our ability. We must win; and it must be an overwhelming victory. The sooner we win it the better. Buy a war bond today.

But we submit that if these provisions of our Constitution require that a negro or negroes must be selected to sit on the grand jury and on the petit jury when a negro is the accused, then the same rule would require that women be selected to sit on the grand jury and on the petit jury when a woman is accused of crime. There is no escaping such a conclusion.

Hence, the time may come when, under these decisions, in cases in which a negro woman is accused of crime, one or more white women and one or more negro men may be selected to serve on the same grand jury or the same petit jury in Texas—a situation that would scarcely be tolerated in this state.

However, we believe that the courts of this state should substantially comply with the provisions of our Constitution as interpreted by the Supreme Court, and in all those counties in which there is a considerable colored population, care should be taken to place one or more negroes on every grand jury and on every petit jury selected to try a negro defendant. Southern states should give other sections of the country no grounds for charging that justice is being perverted by our courts in dealing with negroes accused of crime.

In fact, we want our courts to render only just verdicts whatever the opinion of the rest of the country may be. As a rule, they are just. Occasionally, however, there are jurors who are not willing to accord a negro the same rights they would accord a white man under similar circumstances. And we have known some jurors whose prejudices were so pronounced that they could hardly accord a negro any rights whatever. Their expressed feelings indicated that they did not think a negro had any rights. Such a man, of course, is not fit to serve on any jury in any case in which a negro is involved. Jurors should have consciences that would impel them to render just and fair verdicts even if the defendant were a dog.

While our courts in Texas usually guard the rights of negro defendants just as scrupulously as they guard the rights of white defendants, yet we can not say so much for many of the peace officers of Texas. Peace officers must be cautious and often harsh in dealing with criminals whether white or black, but we have known peace officers who were unreasonably and unjustly harsh with negroes regardless of their crime record. Every peace officer who would kick a negro around as he would a dog just because he is a negro ought himself to be kicked out of office.

Furthermore, it is sometimes the case that when negroes embark upon the unlawful business of "bootlegging," they are encouraged to do so and even promised protection and immunity from punishment, by white men who back them up and hope to reap profit from the illicit business. Every time a negro is caught bootlegging officers should look for a white man in the woodpile somewhere.

When Thomas Jefferson wrote in the Declaration of Independence that "all men are created equal," he meant that they are equal in their rights before the law. We people of the South should see to it that the negro has the same rights, in fact as well as in theory, in the courts of our land, that we accord the white man. And we should see to it that he has these rights whether any members of his own race sit on the juries that indict and try him for crime or not.

Miss Ruth Cox, teacher in the school at Welch, spent the week-end here visiting her brother, Jarrell Cox, and family.

ACID—not speed—may "burn up" your engine now!

You don't go "tearing off" the miles, and you hate tearing off ration coupons, too. You'd think your low speed and mileage would almost do away with engine wear. But the products of combustion—always hanging back in the cylinders after stopping—contain acids that nibble at metals!

Engine acids are nothing new, only they couldn't do their worst when interrupted by frequent use of your car and fast driving, instead of staying in your inactive engine for days. Short, slow, infrequent runs don't help much to clean acids out. So now when you're not even sure of getting any needed replacement parts, make sure you muzzle acids as well as you can, by keeping your engine's insides OIL-PLATED.

You know of plating being used to resist such corrosion as rust, for instance. And to resist acid corrosion, have your engine OIL-PLATED—quickly—simply—economically—by changing this Spring to Conoco Nth motor oil—patented. ## Sure, it makes you mad!

Do you realize that thousands of our good American soldiers are behind barbed wire—with Jap sentries marching up and down outside?

Do you know that American women and children, too, are in Jap concentration camps?

How long do you want them there—and what are you willing to do to get them out?

We can't do it by flag-waving, by slogans, and by cheers.

It takes planes, tanks, guns, bombs, shells, ships. And those don't grow on trees.

We MUST buy these things. Not the Jap way, nor the Nazi way, nor the Fascist way. The AMERICAN way—gladly. In War Bonds!

Regardless of whether or not we approve of everything being done by others, or even by our Government, in the War effort, we can not take any chances now.

We know it takes money for munitions. We know it takes munitions to win wars. Our boys are out there facing death. We will furnish the money that may mean the difference between life and death to them.

Lynn county's quota for this month is $415,000—our part in this great April effort to raise 13 billion dollars. We can not reach that goal unless we all pitch in and loan our money to the government.

Billy Hill Writes From Foreign Port

The News force received a letter Sunday from the editor's son, Billy Hill of the U. S. Navy, written from "Somewhere in Port," stating that he was "well as can be and looking forward to coming home when I get back this time." But he had no assurance as to when he would be back in home port again.

"Tell every one I said 'Hello,'" was his parting shot.

Billy was Linotype operator for The News before enlisting in the Navy in January, 1942.

Sgt. Chas. Florence On Foreign Soil

Mrs. Walter Florence says that they recently received a letter from their son, Sgt. Charles Florence, indicating that he was among the forces which had left the home shores and gone across. Whether he is now in England, in Africa, or in some other land across the seas, she does not know, but she is confident that he will see action on some fighting front before many weeks.

Another of their sons, Tech. Sgt. Willie Florence, who was stationed at New Orleans for about two years, was recently transferred to Camp Cooke in California. His wife was still in New Orleans but was expected to follow him up soon.

These two sons entered the National Guard and went into Camp Bowie at the same time long before the United States was drawn into the war.

Their third son, Pfc. J. B. Florence, is now in training in an Army camp at Garden City. His wife is here visiting his parents, the couple having married about three weeks ago.

JOHN CURRY GOES TO CALIFORNIA

John Curry left Friday morning for Burbank, California, to accept a position in the Lockheed Aircraft plant. He has been employed for some time in the Lyntegar Electric Cooperative office here. His wife and child will follow as soon as he can procure a house or apartment in which to reside. In the meantime they will remain with relatives here and at Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edwards have moved into the residence which the Currys have just vacated, owned by Garland Pennington and situated next door to the Walter Anglin residence.

Mrs. James Clinton returned on Tuesday from Christoval, where she had a few days previously taken her husband for rest and treatment. She reports that Jim was apparently much improved when she left.

Mrs. A. V. Johnson of Willard, New Mexico, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. O. M. Murrah. She expects to leave for home today.

Juniors Will Give Annual Class Play

The annual Junior play will be presented tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the Tahoka high school auditorium. The play is entitled "Home Ties," and is a melodrama of four acts.

The cast includes: Len Everett, Kenneth Carter; J. Harold Vincent, James Brookshier; Martin Winn, Carl Griffing; Josiah Tizzard, Winston Redwine; Mrs. Poplin, Mary Beth Fenton; Alma Wayne, Charlene Bucy; Ruth Winn, Dorothy Lee Carmack; Lindy Jane, Dot Applewhite; Aunt Melissa, Rae Fern Pennington.

When Ruth Winn comes home from boarding school, bringing a boy friend, other than the one she is engaged to, it upsets the Winn household in more ways than one. Lindy Jane, Mrs. Poplin, and Josiah Tizzard furnish comedy for the play.

The admission charges will be 10c for grade school students, 20c for high school students and 30c for townspeople. Activity tickets will be good if presented at the door.

GIRL SCOUTS ENTERTAIN

The Intermediate Girl Scouts entertained their mothers and friends Tuesday with a tea at the high school auditorium. The girls sang two songs, Hymn of Scouting and Hike song. Imogene Hargett told what the troop has done the past year.

The main attraction was our stifle show. Each girl modeled four garments, school dress, church dress, sports wear, and party dress. Prizes were given for each garment. They were judged not on quality but on the way their hair looked.

The prizes went to Imogene Hargett, School dress; Eddie Lois Hamilton, church dress; Joretta Will sports and Betty Jo-Tucker, party dress. There were several honorable mentions. The judges were Mrs. Pete Hegl, Mrs. Truett Smith and Mrs. H. A. Nichols.

Mrs. Hall Robinson, who attended, said that she had been to many style shows in her life, but had never seen one nicer than the Girl Scouts.

We served to the mothers and friends refreshments of punch and cookies, which were made by the group.

Lloydine Edwards won a prize for the best attendance record and doing her work loyally.—Reporter.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS

Texas peanut producers who sold oil peanuts to designated grower agencies under the 1942 peanut program will receive additional payments on their crop. Payments will be made at $10 per ton, less outstanding indebtedness to the Government for seed. The designated agency in Texas is the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association, Gorman.

Instead of incentive prices previously announced, the Department of Agriculture has announced new support prices for war crops, $140 per ton for Spanish type peanuts, $1.80 per bushel for soybeans, $50 per 56-pound bushel for number 2 grain sorghums, $6.50 per hundred for Pinto, Great Northern, Small White, and Cranberry beans, $7.50 will be paid for Lima, Light, Red Kidney and Western Red Kidney, and Dark Red Kidney.

Sub-Deb Girls Spend A Day In Lubbock

"Boy, did I have fun today!" This sentence was uttered by eleven tired Sub-Deb members as they returned home after an all-day trip to Lubbock.

The Mexican Inn was selected as the dining place for these eleven worn-out girls. The Tahoka bus left Lubbock at eight and everyone managed to get on, and the happy SubDebs landed here around nine.

Those attending were: Joann Edwards, Pat Hill, Dot Applewhite, Jeanine Smith, Gerri Connally, Jerine Bartley, Donna Sue Millikin, Charlene Bucy, Gwynnelle Davis, and Macky and Peggy Fenton.

Southland News

(By Mrs. Marvin Truelock)

Saturday's sale of Bonds here was two $25 ones, two $100, two $500, and two $1000 Bonds—the total sale price for the one day was $2,437.60, which exceeded our sales for last month, our largest, which was $2100. The Postal Inspector was surprised at so large a total for March for such a small town. Apparently, Saturday's huge sale was no planned affair by these eight purchasers. The bond committee plans to canvass the community omitting those families who have already purchased a Bond this month. Won't you join the group of volunteer buyers?

THE 2ND WAR LOAN DRIVE IS ON!

Winner Take All!

There is one stark and simple fact about war which you had better get straight . . . and quickly, too THERE IS NO SECOND PLACE IN A WAR — IT'S EITHER WIN OR LOSE!

This war is being fought for tremendous stakes . . .

- ... for your life and your liberty.
- ... for your church and your children.
- ... for your freedom and your future.

And it's WINNER TAKE ALL. Don't forget that for a minute.

The winner will dictate whether tomorrow you shall be a free citizen of a free world, or a helpless serf to a "master race."

The winner will dictate whether you shall live and prosper under the Four Freedoms, or toil hopelessly in the darkness of a "New Order."

The winner will dictate . . . because the winner takes all.

The winner takes all. All you own, all you hold dear.

The winner is being decided right now . . . today . . . this very minute . . . on battlefields all over the world. Will you stand idly by . . . or throw all your weight on our side?

The weight of mighty tanks and planes. The weight of thousands of guns and millions of shells. The weight of billions of dollars . . . 13 billions your country asks you to lend during this Drive.

Your country wants to borrow every idle dollar you have—every dollar except what you need for the barest necessities of life.

You'll have to give up some luxury or comfort which was dear to your heart. You'll have to postpone some pleasure which you had been eagerly anticipating.

But what of it? Your sons and brothers and husbands are dying out there . . . fighting your fight. Surely it is no sacrifice to lend your dollars while they are giving their lives.

They need your help. They need the weapons your money can buy. If one of the War Loan volunteers calls on you . . . greet him with open pocket-book. Remember, Uncle Sam's goal is 13 billion dollars in April.

Don't wait to be asked. Go to your nearest bank, investment dealer, broker, Post Office or issuing agency and lay your money on the line. Remember, it's an investment you're making—an investment that pays a good return and insures a happier future for you and your loved ones.

So lend up to the limit. You'll sleep better for it.

Extensive improvements are being made on the Central Baptist church eleven miles east of Tahoka, according to Rev. Frank Thomas, the pastor. A. H. Hood of that community is superintending the work with the pastor assisting.

When the work is completed the church will have eleven Sunday school rooms instead of the three it now has. Partitions in these three rooms are being rearranged and new partitions installed so as to make five rooms out of the three, and two adjacent new rooms are being constructed, while four other rooms in the back end of the auditorium are also being partitioned off.

The work is being done free of charge by members of the church.

DORCAS CLASS FUN NIGHT

Mmes. J. W. and Ralph Goodell were hostesses in their home on Tuesday night of last week when the Dorcas class of the Baptist church enjoyed a "Kid Party" at their regular class meeting.

Though all the costumes worn were mirth-provoking it is said that the "hit of the evening" was Mrs. N. E. Wood with her twin babies who were Mmes. A. L. Smith and W. H. Kenley, who carried their bottles.

Mmes. Deen Nowlin and J. W. and Ralph Goodell had charge of the entertainment and served refreshments. Mmes. Wood, T. Cowan, Beulah Pridmore, Lewis Murray, Marvin Hinkle, Ernest Drager, John R. Sain, Newt Smith, Kenley, Smith, K. R. Durham, Loyce McMahon, Garland Pennington, W. O. Morgan, Nowlin, A. E. Ware, Clay Hughes and the hostesses.

Mrs. N. E. Wood is teacher of this class.

Fred House is hunting an easy job. Says he is getting too old and clumsy to do carpenter work. He fell from the scaffolding Monday while at work on the Thomas building recently damaged by fire and fractured three ribs. But he was "hitting the ball" again Wednesday.

Robert Hill of Camp Carson, Colo., here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hill, north of town. Another son, Jim, arrived home several days ago to stay, having been released from the Army.

Jack Alley Robinson suffered a bad sprain on the left foot Wednesday when he dropped a tire upon it. No bones were broken, however.

HECK IS LIEUTENANT

Floyd H. Heck, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Heck of Wilson, who has been in Australia and New Guinea for the past year and a half, is now a second lieutenant, one of 13 Texans to receive this promotion in Australia.

The HOG SPECIAL hogs on the Dr. Hess Research Farm always gain faster—and they finish out on as much as a third less supplement and a tenth less grain. # Will Americans Be More Tender With Their Money Than Lives of Their Sons

Washington, D. C. — A blunt challenge—whether Americans will be more tender with their money than with the lives of their sons—confronts U. S. citizens as they prepare to meet the appeal of the government to put an additional 13 billion dollars into the fight in the next three weeks.

American dollars which run off to some cozy shelter to hide while American boys are dying to defend our cities and towns from destruction and invasion will face a rising demand from all classes of patriotic citizens to come out and fight.

Millions of workers who now are buying War Bonds regularly out of current income must send extra money to their government during the Second War Loan campaign (which started April 12).

In recognition of the spirit of sacrifice which is sweeping over the land as our troops swing into offensive action in Africa and await the signal for a landing in Europe, the Treasury Department is offering a series of government bonds to fit every pocketbook.

No matter whether Americans buy the familiar Series E Bonds or 2 1/2 per cent bonds or 2 per cent bonds or tax certificates, they will be doing their part to make the Second War Loan drive a success.

Consumer Spending Too High.
Consumer spending in 1942 was much too high to meet the war situation of 1943. Last year more than $2 billion dollars of our soaring national income went to feed the desires of Americans for clothes, recreation, foods and luxuries. As these items grow scarcer, more of our income must be diverted from such expenses into government bonds.

During 1942 millions of our fathers, sons, relatives and friends were in training here and abroad. Some were already in action. Casualties were beginning to bite into every community. War Bonds became a vital link between the home and fighting fronts.

Today sacrifice has become a way of life for America's fighting men. Civilian spending on the 1942 scale must go out the window if the home folks are to attempt to match the heroism of our boys at the front.

Not every American can take his place in a bomber or in a foxhole or on a fighting ship but he can fire away at the enemy by lending money to the government.

Lt. James Minor Tells Of Arrival In Africa

Mrs. J. W. Minor received a letter Tuesday from her son Lt. James Minor, who is now somewhere in North Africa, evidently near Casablanca, which we pass on to our readers for their enjoyment.

North Africa, March 31.

"Dear Mom, Dad, and Kids: "Just a line or two to let you know that I'm safe and sound and that I arrived here safely. We had a very enjoyable trip over—no trouble at all—for which we were all very thankful.

"This is a very scenic and interesting country. The natives are mostly Arabs, but there are a good many French here. The French language is spoken almost 100 per cent, so if I'm gonna' do any talking to any one I'm gonna' have to study up on the French language.

"We have just been here one day now and I haven't had much time to see anything, but the first chance I get I'm going 'sight seeing.' I do know that the natives here are filthy; everything is dirty, due to them.

"We are near a large city where a conference was held about two months ago between two great men. From a distance it looks beautiful, but I haven't had time to go there yet. All of the buildings look very modern, and most of them are white and yellow stucco. As soon as I see the sights I'll let you know what I found.

"How are all of you getting along? Fine, I hope. I'm in perfect shape—didn't even get sea-sick coming over and almost everyone did.

"Have you heard from Jack lately? How is he getting along? How about Max? Has he been called as yet? How's Joe and Bobby? I sure would like to see all of you. Is A. J. still in California? How's Jewell and Cleave and the kids? Sure would like to see all of you! Be good and write me soon. I may not get to write as often as I would like to but I'll be thinking of you all the time. Tell everybody Hello for me.

"If you can have The Lynn County News sent to me over here, I sure would enjoy getting it. Love, "James"

CHEMIST WARNS OF DANGER OF ACID IN MOTOR CARS

New York, April 24.—Danger of acid in the engines of America's motor cars, due to slow driving necessities by wartime rationing, was pointed out today by Dr. B. H. Lincoln, chief chemist of Continental Oil company. He warned that motorists must be doubly cautious under present conditions if they are to preserve the country's transportation system for the duration of the war.

"There won't be any new cars until long after the war is over," said Dr. Lincoln, "because manufacturers will have to divert from wartime to peacetime production before they can turn out new automobiles. Consequently it behooves all motorists to take the best possible care of the cars they now have.

"Due to war conditions of slower driving and less frequent driving, an old danger threatens to become more pressing and to do immeasurable damage. It has always been known that cold engines, not run long enough nor hard enough to get really warmed up to their jobs, wear out fast. Engineers have estimated that the first few minutes of operation, the warm-up period, are responsible for 80 per cent of all engine wear.

"Actually this has not been due to 'wear' from friction, as the word is usually understood. Corrosion of metal parts by the action of acids is to blame.

"The ordinary driver does not know much about the danger of engine acid and corrosion, its causes and effects, and the best method of prevention. Most of all he does not know how and why this particular operating problem has become suddenly more dangerous as he patriotically reduces his speed and cuts down his driving mileage."

Dr. Lincoln went on to say that this acid condition and its dangers are responsible for Continental Oil company's current advertising them—an effort to prolong the life of America's automobiles by a timely warning to motorists.

One of Continental's advertisements, in this series, featuring the dangers of acid, appears in today's issue of the Lynn County News.

of lumber, on account of its alleged scarcity, and advised that masonry or concrete be used instead. This being contrary to all the plans he had made, Mr. Burleson expressed the intention of dropping the matter for the present unless he can procure enough second-hand lumber to supply his needs.

Mr. Burleson's grain business has grown to be an immense business. During the past season he shipped to various parts of the United States between 400 and 500 carloads of threshed maize and other sorghum grains. That means at least 10,000 tons. He needs more room and better facilities for caring for this immense business. Furthermore, it is an industry that gives the farmer a market for his surplus grain crop and that enables Mr. Burleson to furnish feed to other farmers in other parts of the country who need feed. He thought that his business was a link in the chain of industries and enterprises that aids and encourages the farmer to produce more food and feed for the nation, in accordance with the hue and cry of those in authority that this be done.

But this experience convinces him that there is some useless and costly bungling somewhere.

Where Will Money Come From?

People ask: "Where will the money come from?" to reach the thirteen-billion dollar objective of the Second War Loan. The answer is simple. The people HAVE the income.

When we produce munitions or peacetime goods, or anything else, we likewise produce income. For every dollar of production, there is a dollar of income.

The problem of war finance boils down to this—if individuals and businesses receive more income after taxes than there are things produced for them to buy, then excess funds arise. The government deficit is matched by the combined surplus of everybody else. This surplus should be put into Government securities to wipe out that deficit.

They give their lives . . . You lend your money.
