Former Prisoner Of Japanese Tells Experiences Here

Speaking to a crowd that filled almost to its capacity the auditorium of the Baptist Church here Tuesday night, Miss Blanche Groves, a missionary to China who fell into the hands of the Japanese on the very day that the Japs made their sneak attack on Pearl Harbor, told of some of her personal experiences and observations as a prisoner of the Japs but dwelt at much greater length on the atrocities committed by the Japs against the Chinese.

Miss Groves was a missionary in China for 22 years, but life there was pleasant and unperturbed until the Japs made their undeclared war on China in 1937. After that, the Chinese were compelled to suffer many cruelties and horrors inflicted by the invaders. There was much talk of the probability of war between Japan and the United States but most of the Americans in China thought this a rather remote possibility.

Then came the Pearl Harbor attack like a clap of thunder out of a blue sky on December 7, 1941—it was the morning of December 8 in China. Before Miss Groves and other missionaries knew that anything unusual was happening, Japanese officers appeared at her door, rudely entered the house, unnecessarily kicked one door in, picked up a chair and hurled it across the room, and then notified her that she was under arrest and was to be taken to prison, that Japan had declared war on the United States and Great Britain, and that "this" (Cont'd. on page 2)

Max Minor Will Enter West Point

Max Minor, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Minor of Tahoka, and a junior student this year in the University of Texas, has received an appointment to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point. He will report to that institution July 1.

Minor made an outstanding scholastic record in Tahoka High School and has been on the University honor roll. He was a regular wingback on last fall's Longhorn football team, and is on the track team. As a high school athlete, he starred in football, won several state championships in track, and equalled the world scholastic record in the 220 low hurdles.

Five Graduate At Texas Tech

Five Lynn county students in Texas Tech were among the 284 graduates awarded degrees at the annual commencement exercises on Monday night.

Included were Richard A. Bosworth, BA in government, and Peyton W. Tucker, BS in agriculture, dairy manufacture, both of Tahoka, who are already in the service of their country.

Wayne Coffee received the BS degree in chemical engineering.

Two Wilson young ladies completing their college work were Birdie Dreyer, BS in elementary education, and Dorothy Sue Foster, BS in home economics.

39th Battalion, Texas State Guard, Held Maneuvers In Lubbock Over Week End

Forty-four members of Company F, attended the Texas State Guard, 39th Battalion, training maneuvers at Mackenzie State Park, Lubbock, Saturday night and Sunday. All seven companies and the headquarters company were well represented.

Companies from Lubbock, Slaton, Tahoka, Levelland, Plainview, Floydada, and Crosbyton were inspected in their bivouac area, the CCC barracks at the Fair grounds last Saturday afternoon, following which the battalion was assembled for retreat. Short talks were made by Major A. C. Jackson and Major David L. Schugar, the latter of South Plains Army Air field. Chuck was served in the park.

After supper, training films were shown most of the men, while others

Cpl. Herb. G. Smith Wins Distinguished Service Cross For Work In New Guinea

Cpl. Herbert G. Smith, 36, son of Mrs. H. C. Smith and a brother of Postmaster Happy Smith, Newt and Lynn Smith, of Tahoka, has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross for extraordinary achievement in the New Guinea war zone, according to an Associated Press dispatch in American papers Monday bearing an Australian date line of May 26. Smith was one of 29 men receiving the award.

The group operate "flying freight-trains" across the mountains and jungles of New Guinea. Each man qualified for his medal by taking part in at least 50 round-trip missions, carrying men and materials to forward bases and removing the wounded personnel from battle zones. The transport planes they used had to fly through every kind of weather, the dispatch stated. Herb is an aerial engineer on one of these planes.

Cpl. Smith was reared in Lynn county and attended Joe Stokes school and Tahoka High School. For two years previous to his entering the Army Air Forces, he was employed at the Tahoka Co-op gin.

Herb entered the service only a (Cont'd. on last page)

Cleve Bairrington Is Deputy Sheriff

Having purchased a farm near Friona between Texico and Hereford with a view to moving onto it, Arthur Hodge has resigned as deputy sheriff and Cleve Bairrington was appointed as his successor by Sheriff Sam Floyd.

Mr. Hodge had already moved to a farm a few miles east of Tahoka several weeks ago.

Mr. Bairrington has been a resident of Tahoka for a good many years and is well and favorably known here.

The change took effect Tuesday, June 1.

Three Youths Are Arrested, Charged In Store Burglary

Three O'Donnell youths, 17 and 18 years of age, were released on bond of $1000.00 each last week on charges of burglary filed against them. On Wednesday of this week, a young girl was also arrested upon a charge of being implicated in the same crime.

They are alleged to have entered the George Watts Service station in O'Donnell and to have robbed it of all the money which could be found, which happened to be a small amount, and also of taking a small quantity of merchandise, such as cigarettes and tobacco.

One of the boys, 18 years of age, is said to have been convicted of serious crimes twice before.

RAINDL MADE CORPORAL

San Marcos, Texas, June 2.—Pvt. Johnnie J. Raindl, 20, son of Frank J. Raindl, Sr., Route 1, Wilson, has been promoted to the grade of corporal at the Army Air Forces Navigation School.

Cpl. Raindl is assigned to the 1006th Guard Squadron. He was a farmer in civilian life.

Bovine Feasts On Reddell Egg Mash

W. A. (Bill) Reddell, rural carrier, is looking for a cackling cow that might possibly be laying eggs.

Last Friday a stray cow got into Bill's garage and ate up a sack of laying mash. If anyone finds that their cow is laying eggs, they will know that they owe Bill Reddell for $3.00 worth of mash.

Jess Gurley, local postal clerk, in an effort to help Bill out, is offering a substantial reward to the owner of the egg-laying cow.

Tahoka Schools Presented Award

A certificate of award has been presented Tahoka Public Schools by Henry Morgenthau Jr., secretary of the Treasury "for distinguished services rendered in behalf of the War Savings Program."

Several months ago, the Treasury Department asked the local school to present evidence of work it was doing to further the war effort.

In meeting the request, students arranged an elaborate scrapbook of newspaper clippings, photographs, etc., telling of the Victory concerts, bond and stamp sales, scrap metal and rubber drives, etc. The award is thought to have been presented on account of the unusual story told by the scrapbook.

Cecil Warren Is Reported Missing

Word was received here last week that Cecil Warren, who formerly lived here, is missing in North Africa. No other details are available.

Warren has been in the Army about five years, having enlisted at the same time as one of J. J. Boydston's sons. He is the son of Ollie Warren, now in California. Since leaving here, Cecil married and his wife lives in El Paso.

Sgt. David Weathers Heads N. Y. Parade

Sgt. David Weathers, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Weathers, who expects to start across the "pond" at almost any time, writes home-foiks of an interesting day's experience he had recently in New York City, near which he is stationed.

David and a "buddy" spent a 12-hour leave in the big city. Among other attractions, they went to the double-header baseball game at the Polo Grounds between the New York Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals. At this same game, or games, American Legion convention delegates were in attendance, and two of the latter's leaders conscripted Sgt. David and his friend to lead the parade onto the ball field. David says they got quite a kick out of heading that parade of a band and 350 Legionnaires before the crowd of 40,000 spectators.

He says they also visited Radio City and had dinner at Jack Dempsey's famous cafe.

SIKES AT GULFPORT

Gulfport Field, Miss., June 2.—Pfc. Edgar L. Sikes, grandson of Mrs. W. E. Sikes of Tahoka, Texas, has reported for training as an airplane mechanic at this Army Air Forces Technical Training School.

Before entering military service, Pfc. Sikes was employed by the Piggly Wiggly grocery as a clerk.

Jo Lehman left Wednesday for Austin to resume his studies in the University of Texas, after having spent a week here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al. Lehman.

Congratulations to:

To Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Hodge on the birth of a son on Thursday of last week at the Tahoka Clinic, weighing 7½ pounds. The little fellow has been named Milbern Lee.

D. D. Monroe

Rotarians Hear Guest Speaker

D. D. Monroe, a prominent business man and former president of the Rotary Club of Clayton, New Mexico, former governor of Rotary International in his district and prominent in Rotary circles throughout the entire country, was the guest speaker at the Rotary luncheon here Thursday, with a number of visiting Rotarians from O'Donnell and Post being present, together with several Rotary Anns.

The speaker and his wife who accompanied him were introduced by Dr. E. Prohl.

Mr. Monroe amply sustained his reputation as one of the best Rotary speakers in this section of the country. Being a member of several nationwide business organizations, such as the American Title Association, the National Association of Insurance Agents, Conciliation Commissioner under the Frazer-Lempke Farm Mortgage Act, as well as Appeal Agent for his county draft board, Mr. Monroe keeps thoroughly abreast of the times, and his opinions carry weight.

It would be impossible for us to give a resume of his address in a few short paragraphs, but he stressed spiritual values rather than material values, and warned his hearers that after this was over they cannot expect to find the world the same as it was before the war.

"This is not a war," he said, "it is a revolution. It marks a new chapter in the history of civilization. It is not the end of the book, but is certainly a turning point in history."

His address was punctuated with many humorous stories that entertained his auditors as he sought to drive home the great truths he presented.

Cpl. Mack Liston Is In Foreign Service

T/Cpl. Mack M. Liston, who has been overseas ten months, in the Pacific war zone, has met his first Lynn county boy in that time, Joe Bob Billman, he writes relatives here.

Liston also writes that he greatly enjoys getting the Lynn County News.

Best Student

Miss Edna Groezinger of Denton has received the Alpha Lambda Delta award for having the highest scholastic average of all graduating seniors at Texas State College for Women, Denton. Her four-year record shows A's in all but three courses.

Remove Penalty On War Crops

According to a telegram received by Lenton S. Pool, AAA secretary, from B. F. Vance, state administration officer, there will be no penalty for under-planting any war crop. The penalty of $15 per acre for failure to meet 90% of the war crop goal has been removed. The necessity for planting these crops, however, has in no way been lessened, and the measurement of all war crops will continue.

Based on the Farm Plan Sheets, which have been signed up, Lynn county farmers have exceeded all of the county goals set up by the State office, but farmers are being urged to plant all of the acreage they can to feed and grain crops because of the livestock feed situation in which the number of livestock are increasing faster than the production of feed.

Judge Connolly Is Critically Ill

Although reported to be considerably improved Thursday morning, the condition of Judge Chester Connolly remains such as to cause his family and friends concern.

Following a second attack at his home the latter part of last week, the Judge was taken to the Lubbock General Hospital on Tuesday morning of this week for treatment. As is well known, he has been suffering for a long time from high blood pressure, possibly serious affection of some of the vital organs, and occasional attacks of heart trouble.

It is hoped that a period of perfect rest, correct dieting, and careful attention of physicians and nurses will speedily affect a great change in his condition and enable him in due time to resume his work in his office.

Ex-Students Added To School Honor Roll

Though there now are 250 names on the Tahoka school ex-students' roll of honor of men and women in the military service, names continue to come in to The News and to school authorities to be added to the list.

During the past week the following names have been added:

- Horace Rogers.
- Turner Rogers.
- J. F. White Jr.
- Parnell White.
- Udell White.
- John Rex Richardson.
- Warren Mark Richardson.
- Wayne Coffee.
- L. O. Mitchell Jr.

S. W. Thomas, 24, Killed In Midland Airplane Crash

Lynn county relatives and friends were shocked to learn of the sudden death last Friday afternoon of Flight Officer Samuel Walter Thomas, 24, son of Mrs. Maude B. Thomas and the late Walter Thomas of Graham community, Garza county.

Thomas was among five crew members of the B-24 bomber from Midland Bombardier school which crashed about 40 miles north of the base. Another member of the crew, Capt. Samuel S. Revis of Midland, was a brother-in-law of Mrs. J. R. King of Southland, Mrs. King and Mrs. Revis being sisters. All five members of the crew were killed.

Military burial rites were held for Flight Officer Thomas at Post and Grassland Monday afternoon, and was attended by a host of Garza and Lynn county relatives and friends. Services held at the Post Methodist Church were conducted by Rev. O. B. Herring, pastor, assisted by Rev. R. C. Tension, pastor of the Baptist Church there, and Rev. D. W. Reed of Grassland, at 2 p. m. on Monday, burial following at about 4:00 p. m. in the Grassland cemetery. At the latter place an honor guard composed of eight soldiers from LAAF, Lubbock, headed by S/Sgt. Billings, fired a salute over the grave and sounded "taps."

pallbearers were eight Army boys who had been his friends in Tahoka, Grassland, and Post, namely: Pvt. Rebel Thomas of Garden City, Kans., and Cpl. Furman Chapman, Mission, his cousins; Cpl. Reid Townes, Cpl. Eldon Carroll, both of LAAF; and Pfc. Elvis Davis and Pfc. Bob Fiuett, both of Bryan.

Finley Buys A. J. Edwards Business

With the acquisition of the business, stock and equipment of the Edwards Implement Company, as announced in this paper last week, adding the Minneapolis-Moline line of tractors and implements to his Allis-Chalmers line, Douglas Finley, operating under the name of the Tahoka Implement Company, has taken another long step forward in the business field in this section.

Combining the two shops and retaining the mechanics connected with both, Mr. Finley becomes operator of one of the largest and most flourishing businesses of its kind to be found on the entire South Plains, a business whose volume is sure to increase to huge proportions as soon as this war ends and business assumes its normal status. Already as an Allis-Chalmers dealer, his business had expanded greatly, and he had become an important factor in the business and farming interests of Lynn county.

Mr. Edwards, of course, will remain here as a valued citizen of the town, but will devote his time exclusively to his farming interests, as he has a number of good farms in the county. For 32 years, however, he had been in business in Tahoka, in the ginning business most of the time, but he disposed of all his ginning interests several years ago.

Lynn County Red Cross Has Completed 77,652 Surgical Dressings To June 1st

A total of 77,652 surgical dressings have been made in Lynn county, according to statistics compiled by Mrs. Emil Prohl, since the work started on January 13, this year.

Of this number, 50,400 have been shipped already and another shipment of 27,000 dressings is ready to go on receipt of shipping orders, Mrs. Prohl says.

Six surgical dressings rooms have had a part in making these 77,000 surgical dressings. The location of these centers and the number of dressings turned out by them is as follows: Tahoka, 34,600; Hackberry, 11,725; Wilson, 11,500; Grassland, 10,750; New Home, 6,150; New Lynn, 2,700.

O'Donnell has just opened a surgical dressing room. At the organization on May 24, thirty women were present. The American Legion Hall was procured for a work room and it has been redecorated throughout. Working hours were fixed at 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays.

Mrs. Thurman Wells has been named as chairman of the O'Donnell room, with Mrs. Charlie Cätthey as chairman and Mrs. Koeninger as co-chairman on Wednesday; Mrs. Calvin Fritz as chairman and Mrs. Roy Miles as co-chairman on Thursday; and Mrs. Levi Noble as chairman and Mrs. Lina as co-chairman on Friday.

"We would like to see more ladies come to the dressing room and help us with our work," was the appeal made by Mrs. Prohl at the conclusion of her report.

Schools Praised For Part Played In Bond, Stamp Campaigns

Tahoka school students and teachers were praised this week in a letter to Supt. W. T. Hanes from Mrs. J. W. Walker, Texas director of the Schools at War program.

Following is the letter: "Although reports on the outcome of our Jeep Campaign are still coming in to the War Savings Office, it may be said with accuracy that the final results will indicate in excess of 5,250 jeeps purchased by the schoolchildren of our state. This is an outstanding record, and everyone connected with the sale of Stamps and Bonds in Texas, either officially or unofficially, has a right to take great pride in the accomplishment of the schools.

"We consider the report from your school as one that was outstanding. It will appear on our honor roll list of accomplishments.

"The members of the War Savings Staff solicit your continued interest and effort in sponsoring the various phases of the program, which will continue for the duration of the war."

JUDGE GOAD VISITS HERE

Judge and Mrs. P. W. Goad of Fort Worth came out Saturday for a few days visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bradshaw. For more than two years now the Judge has been connected with the office of the State Insurance Commission at Austin, and it is his business, along with many others, to make investigation of the insurance companies that do business in this state. Recently he returned from Minnesota, where he had been since the first of January performing his official duties.

For four years Judge Goad served as county judge of this county.

In another place in this paper it is stated that Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Loyd, who are here visiting, left Tuesday for Coleman. This is error, as Mr. Loyd was not able to go on account of illness. For the same reason, however, his furlough was extended, according to a communication received by them Thursday.

Jap Prisoner . . .

Taking in charge the three other missionaries in the neighborhood, they loaded the four into a truck or some sort of conveyance and took them first to the well-known place of execution in the city, evidently for the purpose of terrifying them, then on to the police station, but finally back to their homes, where they were put under guard, and from that time on she was trailed by Jap spies wherever she was permitted to go.

A similar line of conduct was carried out at exactly the same hour all over China. Miss Groves stated, showing that the whole thing had been planned days ahead.

Her description of the starvation and suffering of many kinds imposed upon the Chinese by the Japs during her stay there was sufficient to arouse the ire of any normal human being, but there is not space in this paper to relate these cruelties.

How did she get her release? There were fifteen hundred Japs in the diplomatic service in the United States that had been interned. The United States had only a fifth of that number in Japan. The Japs proposed an exchange on the basis of one to five. Of course Cordell Hull turned that down. He demanded an even swap. The Japs fell upon the plan of releasing a lot of the missionaries. Miss Groves was among the number that were sent back to the United States.

The Japs have the greatest and best-organized spy system in the world, she declared. Their spies are everywhere.

Furthermore, she did not think we could win the war in a short time. It will be a long, hard struggle, she thought. She saw their navy almost in its entirety, at one time before they made war on us. Such an array of war ship she had never dreamed of. Japan is a mighty military power, and their soldiers will die to the last man almost before they will surrender.

She corroborated what many others have said about Japan's ambitions. Japan wants to dominate the whole world and believes she can do it. She has started out to conquer the world and that is her aim in this war today.

As a Christian missionary, Miss Groves placed part of the blame on the United States. If we had sent armies of missionaries and Bibles to Japan fifty years ago instead of scrap iron, we would not be at war with Japan today, she contended. If we had Christianized them instead of arming them, they would have made no attack on Pearl Harbor.

Miss Groves spoke for an hour and a half and held the interest of her audience to the very last sentence.

Miss Mara Lee Coffee of Lorraine and Miss Mary Hurd of El Paso are here this week visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coffee, and on Monday night the Coffees and their guests attended the graduation exercises at the Texas Technological College, where Mr. and Mrs. Coffee's son, Wayne Coffee, was awarded a B. S. Degree.

New Way Is Found To Kill Rattlers

Ben Moore of O'Donnell is contributor of the following newsy items:

Saturday night after midnight, 35 of an inch rain fell.

Sunday I visited with Dr. O. H. Sheppard on his new 320 acres in Terry, just north of the highway, west of Nobles'. A big bulldozer is lifting out his mesquites. The operator noticed two big rattlesnakes, seemingly fighting over some morsel, maybe a mouse. He grabbed a stick, but they went into a dog hole. Filled? No. He took a few big gouges and brought them up and killed 'em. This is something new under the sun.

GRADUATES AT LUBBOCK

Miss Willella Nelson, daughter of Senator and Mrs. G. H. Nelson, who moved from Tahoka to Lubbock a few years ago, received her diploma from Lubbock High School Monday night, and was given special recognition as one of the class officers. Willella also appeared on the graduating program, speaking on the subject, "We Fight to Protect a Way of Life."

HAROLD EDWARDS IS WITH RUBBER PLANT

The News had a communication this week from Mrs. J. H. Edwards Jr. directing that the paper be sent to them at Houston. "We are with a construction company that is building a rubber plant," she writes. "Living conditions are quite bad, it is so crowded here now. We saw a ship launched last week that gave us quite a thrill."

B. H. Howard of Lubbock visited last week end with his daughters, Mrs. Frank Hill and Mrs. Harley Henderson.

Floods Ruin Crops In Northern States

J. B. Nance, who recently visited his son Dayton B. Nance at Barrington, Illinois, and also visited many other cities in the North and Middle West on the trip, says that he never saw so much water at one time before in his whole lifetime. From Detroit to Kansas City, the flood waters made traffic slow and uncertain, and as a result of the floods Mr. Nance says that the corn and other feed crops throughout that entire section will fall far short of normal this year.

He thinks the farmers of this section should go strong on feed this year.

Wayne Coffee, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coffee of T-Bar, who received his B. S. degree in chemical engineering at the Texas Technological College Monday night, is now at home and expects to be until he receives his call for service in the armed forces. At Tech Wayne was a member of the rifle team in the ROTC, a member of the American Chemical Society and of the American Institute of Chemical Engineering. Wayne graduated at the Tahoka High School four years ago.

Former Citizen Is Building Ships

The News received a letter Wednesday from Mrs. Ben Lee of Richmond, Calif., who formerly resided in Tahoka, in which she states that she is now employed in the ship yards.

"They are really building ships fast," Mrs. Lee writes, "but not fast enough to beat the Axis and Japs quick, as we would like to."

She says that her son John B. Lee, better known in Tahoka as "Rosy" or "Rosebud," has been in training more than a year and is now at Camp Claiborne, La.

She says she enjoys reading the Lynn County News, which goes to her address weekly, and sends her greetings to her friends, wishing them "the best of luck for the year."

Mrs. Lee is the mother of Mrs. Joe Davis, Joe having been in the grocery business here a few years ago.

Farm Machinery Quota Is Lifted

All county quotas on rationed farm machinery were cancelled this week by the Texas USDA War Board. Under the revised program, which goes into effect immediately, eligible producers now may purchase machinery from any dealer in the state instead of restricting purchases to the county in which they carry out farming operations.

They will be required, however, to locate the machinery they wish to purchase and obtain a purchase certificate from Farm Machinery Rationing committees before making purchase. Producers are eligible for purchase certificates when their application for farm machinery and equipment is approved by local rationing committees.

Committees are not permitted to issue purchase certificates unless the machinery first is located by the producer. B. P. Vance, chairman of the board said, and explained that the purpose of this plan was to prevent issuing certificates in excess of available supply.

Purchase certificates are obtained at the local AAA office when they are approved by the Farm Machinery Committee composed of Mr. Willy Curry, Mr. Roy Adams, and Mr. A. H. Hood. The committee meets each Saturday afternoon in the AAA office.

HACKBERRY COMMUNITY CHECKS COOKERS

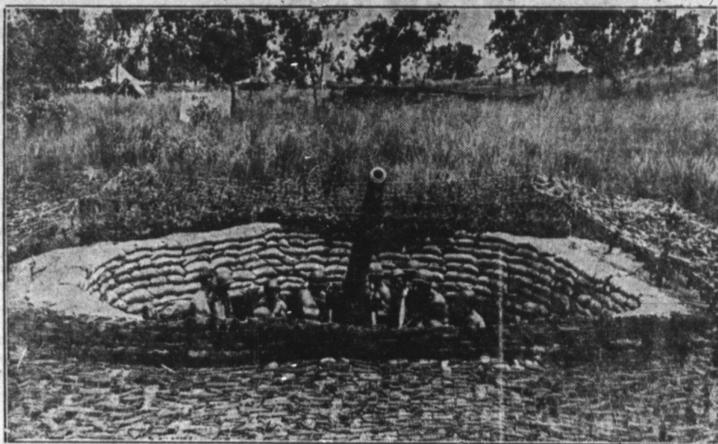

Tuesday, May 25, an all-day meeting was held in the Hackberry Club to check pressure cookers. The gauges of cookers were checked.

Those checking cookers were: Mesdames H. D. Taylor, S. D. Martin, B. H. Thomas, B. N. Billingsley, Claude Cooper, T. H. Basinger, Zella Smith Wilkins, M. C. Edmunds, J. F. Rackler, Miss Ora Minning and Mr. J. M. Johnson.

Miss Carolyn Dixon, county home demonstration agent, was present, and assisted the women in checking their cookers.

Wendell Coffee, who was a student of the Texas Tech during the regular term, is spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Coffee of T-Bar. He will re-enter the institution for the summer term.

PETTY ORGANIZES WOMEN'S H. D. CLUB

Women of the Petty community met in the home of Mrs. Lon Cromer Wednesday, May 19, for the purpose of checking gauges of pressure cookers. Six cookers were checked.

Following the pressure cooker testing demonstration given by Miss Carolyn Dixon, county home demonstration agent, the group organized a Home Demonstration Club, which will meet each second and fourth Thursdays, 3:00 to 5:00 p. m.

The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. W. Lowrey; vice-president, Mrs. A. L. Perry; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Ray Hoover; parliamentarian, Mrs. J. B. Jones; reporter, Mrs. S. M. Watkins; and Council delegate, Mrs. B. Cromer. Committee chairmen are: Program, Mrs. Perry; exhibit, Mrs. L. C. Crews; recreation, Miss Ina Mae Carroll; and finance, Mrs. B. Cromer. Members on the roll: Mesdames Lloyd Bealy, J. W. Carrell, L. C. Crews, B. Cromer, Lon Cromer, Ray Hoover, J. B. Jones, J. W. Lowrey, G. B. McAllister, Alvin Perry, and S. M. Watkins, and Miss Ina Mae Carrell.

Little Miss Dawn Dobbins, daughter of T. M. Dobbins Jr., formerly of Roscoe but now in the Army and stationed in California, is here spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. G. M. Stewart.

NEW HOME GIRLS' 4-H WILL MEET JUNE 14

The New Home Girls' 4-H Club met Wednesday, June 2, 2:30 p. m., in the home of Fernova Balch. Visitors present were Miss Billie June Balch and Mrs. W. L. Balch. Miss Carolyn Dixon, county home demonstration agent, was also present.

There will be a called meeting at Fernova's at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, June 14. Miss Dixon will give a demonstration on "Preparation of Tasty Dishes for the 4-H Club Girl." Each club member is urged to attend this meeting.

PARISH BROUGHT HOME

Leslie Parish, who has been in a very serious condition for the past two or three weeks and who underwent an operation in the Lamesa General Hospital two weeks ago, was brought back to his home in Tahoka on Wednesday night with the expectation of undergoing another operation as soon as his physical condition will permit. His physician, however, has forbidden all company for the present. Mrs. Parish expresses deepest gratitude for the great kindness shown them by friends in these trying hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. Cawthron received word last week that their son, E. T. Jr., was stationed at Camp Berkeley, Abilene. He is in the Medical Corps.

Cpl. Jackson Wins Praise of Officer

Corp. Rayburn Rex Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jackson of Draw, recently received high praise from Capt. Wm. A. Murphy, Special Service Officer at the Lubbock Army Flying School in a letter to Lt. O'Leary, Special Service Officer, Advanced Army Instructors School, Bryan, Texas.

"Corp. Jackson, the Director of your Special Training Unit of Special Service," Capt. Murphy writes, "is today completing his period of instruction in the Directors' Institute of the Special Training Unit of Special Service at the Lubbock Army Flying school."

"May we offer our congratulations to you on the type of man you have selected to organize and direct this work at Bryan? We have had a number of men to study with us but none have manifested Corporal Jackson's enthusiasm and purpose. He is sincere and practical and he displays much functional initiative."

Corp. Jackson graduated at the Draw-Redwine high school in 1938, and at the Texas Technological College in 1941. After teaching for awhile at Lorenzo, he enlisted in the armed forces in December, 1942. The people of Draw and of all Lynn county are proud of him for the advancement he has made and for the efficiency he is displaying in the service.

Another son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, Ralph, who enlisted in February of this year, is now in training in a parachute troop at Fort Benning, Georgia, having been transferred to that place recently from Camp Mackall, North Carolina.

BULMANS VISIT TAHOKA

Mr. and Mrs. John Bulman of Jonesboro, Hamilton county, were here last week end visiting relatives and friends. John has a nice stock farm on the Leon River and seems to be happy with his move.

One of their sons, Raymond, is a radio operator, second class in the U. S. Navy, and is somewhere out in the Pacific. Another son, Guy in an instructor in an Army camp at Grand Falls, N. D.

Ben Floyd of El Segundo, Calif., is here this week visiting his mother Mrs. R. B. Floyd, and other relatives.

PLEASANT GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Pastor O. D. Hollins and five delegates from the Pleasant Grove Baptist Church (colored) attended the District Sunday School and B. T. U. Congress in session at Crosbyton over the week end.

With Mrs. R. B. Thompson of Tahoka directing all Sunday School activities of the district, Mrs. Ellen D. Sayles as director of the W. M. U's, and Miss P. L. Sayles as district secretary, Mrs. Louise Wilson as district song leader, and Rev. D. F. Nelson as one of our best teachers, our District B. T. U. and Sunday School Congress was very inspiring.

Rev. O. D. Hollins is president of the Congress.

After returning home Sunday afternoon, the Pleasant Grove W. M. U. entertained the Church with a great program directed by Mrs. O. D. Hollins.

For the month of May the Society had a special meeting for Mother Hood.

Among some paying $1.00 were R. B. Thompson, B. Brown, Amanda Hillins, other sources $6.40. Money given for other charitable causes $15.00.

Bible Vacation School will begin June 4, under the supervision of R. B. Thompson. All are invited.—Contributed.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Mosquito Bar

Among the casualties returning to the United States from the Solomons are men who have lost their hearing, not from injury, not from shock, but from attack by insects upon men who have been without mosquito bar protection.

We'll never know how many lives this mosquito bar has saved and you probably never will know just how much good your purchases of War Bonds have done, but you should know that regular and increasing purchases are necessary.

Many people are wondering when the invasion of the continent of Europe is to begin. If the invasion is not already in progress we should like to know what it takes to constitute invasion. It is true that our land forces have not yet put foot on German soil but our air forces in flocks are invading German skies and dropping many tons of explosives on German industries and German cities almost every day and every night, wreaking destruction and devastation equal to that which any on-the-ground army could inflict in the same length of time. It is true we are not destroying as many lives nor losing as many lives as we would in an invasion by land, but we are crippling the power and the morale of the enemy that a land invasion will be less costly to us either in men or in fighting equipment than it would be otherwise. Let the air invasion continue in ever-increasing intensity until German morale is broken and Germany is practically brought to her knees, if that can be done in a reasonable length of time, before the land invasion begins. But whatever it takes to do the job, Germany must be whipped thoroughly.

by Eec Eye, the Elder

Some of our boys who have been to the Southwest Pacific since the outbreak of this war tell us that the natives of many of the islands are looking eagerly to the time when they may become American citizens. America is their ideal. Do you wonder why?

Well, wherever the Stars and Stripes have floated for any considerable length of time over any of the islands of that region, the people have advanced as if by magic from the ways of savagery to the ways of civilization. To them, Uncle Sam indeed has been a philanthropic old uncle.

Perhaps the most outstanding example is the Philippines.

For three centuries preceding the Spanish-American War, the Philippines had been a possession of Spain. She had done little for them except to firmly establish among them the Catholic religion, just as she did in Mexico. The ritualism and ceremonialism of the Catholic Church appealed to them. But it is doubtful if many of them really became imbued with the spirit of Christianity. Certain it is that most of them remained in ignorance and poverty and filth until Uncle Sam took over at the end of that conflict. Spain had subdued many peoples of the Western continent and of the far-flung islands of the Pacific for two primary purposes, to make Catholics of them and to exploit them. This she had done to the superlative degree.

But when the United States liberated the Philippines from the tyranny of Spain, he immediately set about the task of making the cities sanitary, establishing public schools, fostering the introduction of modern conveniences, and teaching the natives the ways of civilization. The change wrought at Manila and throughout many of the population centers of the islands in a single generation was comparable to the change that may be noted in North America when one crosses from the south bank to the north bank of the Rio Grande.

Manila is now a modern city, and a large percent of the Filipino people are fairly well educated and enjoy all the modern conveniences; at least they did before the Japs overran the country and drove our forces out.

If John L. Lewis and his striking miners are not "Fifth Columnists" we wonder what a person could do to become one. There may be some merit in their demands for higher wages—we do not know—but this is no time for any class of workers in essential war industries to be staging a strike. In our opinion, this striking business should have been made illegal a long time ago. We think Congress should have enacted an effective law when the very first strike was staged, whether the President favored it or not.

The quickest and surest way for us to lose this war and become vassals of Hitler and Hirohito is for us to stop the wheels of all our defense industries. Let all the workers in them go on a strike as the coal miners have done and we would just as well raise the white flag tomorrow. Disloyalty like that of the coal miners can never win a war.

It is now up to us to decide whether or not John L. Lewis is bigger and mightier than this Government. He has made us all to hang our heads in shame before the nations of the world. Can he continue to defy this Government and set away with it? Maybe we shall know by the time this paper reaches the reader.

The Japs now are having some success, we understand, in weaning the Filipinos away from America.

The Samoan Islands are another striking example of what Anglo-Saxon civilization will do for savage Polynesians.

Time was when the Samoans were savages just like other Polynesians, though they were comparatively few in number. The United States has had a coaling station in the Samoans for sixty or seventy years, but since the first World War the eastern group of the Samoans have been under the protection of the United States, and this country has played the part of a benevolent benefactor. Most of the younger generation are being given a high school education, we are told, and many of them are college graduates. They speak better English than most Americans, we are assured.

The western group of the Samoans were first German possessions but at the close of World War No. 1 they were mandated to New Zealand, descendants of the English, and the New Zealanders have doubtless done much the same for them as Uncle Sam has done for the eastern group.

And so the leaven of civilization has been working wherever Americans and English-speaking peoples have had control. And wherever Americans go, they sow the seeds of democracy.

It is natural therefore that the natives of the islands of the South Pacific should regard Uncle Sam as a rich and benevolent old gentleman and that they should long for the time when he shall adopt them as members of his family.

That entails a great responsibility upon us when and if we win this war and drive the Japs back out of these islands—the responsibility of civilizing and educating those that are yet in the savage or semi-savage state, of teaching them the American way of life, and making it possible for them to have the same high standard of living that we have here in our country.

That will be the job of the American capitalist and industrialist, the American school teacher, the Protestant minister and missionary, and the American Statesman.

Some claim that we may thoroughly whip Japan, however, without being able to drive her back out of these islands; that we may destroy her navy, annihilate her army, blast all her military establishments to smithereens, station an army of occupation on the mainland to keep her from re-arming and still not be able to drive all those rats out of the islands of the South Pacific which they have over-run and in which they have entrenched themselves.

But even if that is so, it will be impossible for these invaders, cut off from the home land, to dominate and control the native populations; and they can never build a second Japanese power in these islands to subdue or even to menace the other nations bordering on the Pacific.

We believe that when the opportune time comes America and Great Britain will strike straight at the heart of Japan, and when they do they will get her life.

But even if that is so, it will be impossible for these invaders, cut off from the home land, to dominate and control the native populations; and they can never build a second Japanese power in these islands to subdue or even to menace the other nations bordering on the Pacific.

But even if that is so, it will be impossible for these invaders, cut off from the home land, to dominate and control the native populations; and they can never build a second Japanese power in these islands to subdue or even to menace the other nations bordering on the Pacific.

But even if that is so, it will be impossible for these invaders, cut off from the home land, to dominate and control the native populations; and they can never build a second Japanese power in these islands to subdue or even to menace the other nations bordering on the Pacific.

World War II Is Subject of Programs At Rotary International Conference

Below is the second of two articles by Supt. W. T. Hanes, who returned last week end from the annual conference of Rotary International:

As one speaker put it, it is symbolic of the times that Rotary International, which is dedicated to international good will, emphasized the stern task of waging war at its annual meeting in St. Louis recently.

One phase of that task was emphasized by Col. Carlos P. Romulo, Philippine aide to General McArthur and the last man to leave Bataan. He reminded us that Japan thus far has gained one of the world's richest empires in the conquest of Java and other territories in the Far East. Each day's time given Japan to consolidate its gains increases the difficulties of ousting it from the conquered territories, he warned.

Cloud Wampler, president of the Carrier Corporation of Syracuse, N. Y., warned that the United States, in an effort to redesign the world overnight, may lose some of its democratic qualities. The best way for the United States to be of service in global planning is to scrap many of the high-sounding post-war theories and set an example which will aid other nations, he declared.

Mr. Wampler said many people believe the United States government is making global pledges which will be repudiated by the people because they will interfere with the country's post-war welfare. He urged the government to get the opinions of the common man in post-war planning "because without their authority our representatives will have little influence at the peace table. My only fear is that our American system may be unintentionally destroyed just because so many of our fellow citizens don't seem to understand clearly that welfare isn't possible without wealth and that profits can be taxed away to an extent that makes new jobs impossible and old jobs insecure."

Attacking bureaucracy, Rotarian Wampler said the only capital available for investment to any one is private capital, because no government has any money except that which it borrows from its people. "At this moment," he said, "it is our solemn duty to accept and support every necessary and essential war measure but as we do this we must make it clear that we are yielding our liberties only for the time being and that when the war is won they must be returned to the people. If they are not returned to us we must fight for freedom at home just as we are now fighting for freedom abroad."

Tom J. Davis, former president of Rotary International, in a speech said that this nation's problem is two-fold, that of rebuilding postwar domestic economy and of feeding and policing the nation. He cited the need for a European federation of states and a non-political League of Nations.

George A. Fitch, president of the Chungking, China, Rotary club pleaded for more confidence in the Chinese.

Hebert J. Taylor, vice chairman of the War Department Price Adjustment Board in Chicago, said at one meeting: "Our greatest need is for a revival of our faith in God which will be reflected in the business life of our communities." He said Rotarians, because they belong to an international organization, could best help the post-war world by strengthening international trade relations.

Richard H. Wells, Focatello, Idaho, addressing one section of the conference, said that though Rotary has tried to eliminate world "hate" from its vocabulary, it has learned that love does not make good soldiers, so the Rotarian has had to reconcile his emotions to fit war-time needs.

"School must be mobilized to teach the science of peace until this epidemic of wars is stamped out as completely as science has stamped out other forms of disease," said Paul Harris of Chicago, founder of Rotary. Technological institutions which promote effectiveness of war also should feel it their duty to promote peace, he said. Rotarian Harris, who founded the first Rotary club in Chicago in 1905, said "our technological institutes for international co-operation and peace should be equipped with research departments to delve down into the causes of war, past and present."

The same speaker said the few such organizations as Rotary, Carnegie and Rockefeller, foundations and the Pan-American Union still fall far short of finding the causes of war and eliminating them. Machines, he said, have their place, but they should not be allowed to dominate the lives of men. "What does it profit industry," he asked, "if wealth it creates is dissipated

Southland News

(By Mrs. Marvin Truelock)

Capt. Samuel S. Revis, who was among those killed in the plane crash 40 miles north of Midland Friday afternoon, was the husband of the sister of Mrs. J. R. King. The funeral was held at Midland Sunday afternoon, and the body was carried to Tucson, Arizona, the home of Mrs. Revis' parents, for interment. He is survived by his wife and two months old daughter, Carolyn Ann. His next nearest living relative is an uncle in Kentucky. Capt. Revis attended the University of Arizona in Tucson before becoming an Army aviator. He was pilot of the ship Friday afternoon. Mrs. J. R. King arrived here from Midland Thursday afternoon on a business trip. She was spending Friday night with other former local residents, Mrs. R. J. Ranton, when the death message came.

Of the 282 members of Tech's graduating class, three are natives of Southland: Eula Lee Davies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Davies; Rena Bell Noack, whose mother, Mrs. Bertha Noack, moved to Lubbock two years ago; and Dorothy Sue Foster, whose mother, Mrs. Charles Dodson, moved near Wilson in January. Eula Lee majored in business, Rena Bell in English, and I think Dorothy Sue was a Home Ec. major. Many local people attended their baccalaureate service Sunday evening and graduation Monday evening.

Olive Davies, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Davies, planned to leave either Sunday afternoon or Monday for Abilene to attend summer school at Hardin-Simmons.

Miss Bettye Hitt returned last Sunday from Plainview, where she was attending Wayland College. This daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hitt of Pleasant Valley graduated here last spring, and plans to attend Wayland again this fall.

Wednesday night Mesdames Hub Haire, Sam Martin, Ed Denton, Lonnie Collinsworth, and Mrs. S. B. Edwards of Lubbock attended an affair of the Order of Eastern Star at Brownfield. The honor guests of the evening were several Grand Officers of the Grand Chapter of Texas Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Hattie Angling, Grand Conductress, Mrs. T. H. Bernard of Lubbock, Deputy Grand Matron, Mrs. Cal Stewart of Lubbock, and District Deputy Mrs. Althea Russell of Morton.

Ten local O. E. S. members received certificates last Monday at the School of Instruction in Lubbock.

A cablegram Saturday morning from Pvt. Nathan Lamb informed his mother, Mrs. Ada Lamb, that he was safe and well.

Last week Mrs. J. B. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Jones received their first V-Mail letter from their husband and son.

A week ago Thursday, Vernon E. Armstrong received his medical discharge from the Army, because of his right shoulder, broken several years ago which became worse with electrical treatments. He and his wife arrived here from Lubbock Tuesday to spend the remainder of the week with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Armstrong.

Patricia Cooper, four-year-old daughter of the Claude Coopers of Hackberry, went to the hospital at Lubbock the first of last week for a tonsillectomy.

The Hackberry Red Cross chapter no longer meets twice per week, and Thursday was chosen as the more convenient meeting day. Mrs. August Becker and Mrs. M. Truelock of Southland attended last Thursday.

E. M. Basinger thought he had to help re-roof his business buildings here. Wednesday he fell from a five-foot scaffold, staying-up his leg and necessitating the use of a crutch.

Mildred Hancock, a seaman stationed with the Navy at Corpus Christi, came home last Saturday night on leave.

Delbert Alcorn passed the cadet examination last week. His wife's brother, Clarence Taylor, planned to begin the long course of becoming a pilot, but changed his mind.

H. D. Jr., Mrs. H. D. Sr., Mrs. Wheatley and her daughter, Ella Faye of Slaton left last Monday for Dallas to get Wayne and visit Pvt. and Mrs. Winifred Hallman at Camp Hook.

Friday afternoon of last week, members of the Hackberry community painted the insides of their church and stained the benches. More than a hundred dollars has recently been spent by these people in repairing their church.

Mrs. L. O. Stewart of Monterey, California, is spending this month with her daughter, Mrs. Wilburn Woods. Last Sunday they went to Tatum, New Mexico, to bring back their daughter and sister, Mrs. Jess Hennington and children.

Mrs. W. T. Kidwell received a letter a few days ago from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rogers of San Diego, Calif., stating that they had just had a message from their son, Turner Rogers, stating that he was well. He is now doing service in the Merchant Marine and this was the first word they had received from him in several months. Turner formerly resided here.

Mrs. J. H. Palmer and children of Tulla spent the past week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Burrough. While here Mrs. Palmer's daughter, Joretta, underwent a tonsillectomy at Tahoka Clinic.

Mrs. Melvin Romine, the former Miss Beckie Jenkins, left Tuesday morning for Camp Polk, Louisiana.

Mrs. Way of Post spent last week with her step-daughter, Mrs. G. N. Smallwood.

Marvin West's two sisters, Mrs. Boyd House and Husband and Mrs. Charlie Bell of Waco, were their guests Sunday night.

Congratulations to Rev. and Mrs. O. E. McGaw. Their 7½ pound girl, Martha Carolyn, was born at Slaton Hospital at 3:00 Sunday morning.

Mrs. Cam Evans left Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. C. F. Wilson, who is ill in Dallas.

Week-end guests of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Armstrong were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Noble, who was one of his stewards at Cone, his former pastorate. They accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Thomas, who spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Thomas.

Robert Sartain opened the local cafe Thursday night and seems to have plenty of business. It has been closed four months.

There will be a cemetery working at Southland all day Monday.

Cpl. Deck Dunagan Tells Of Life In Canada Along the Alcan Highway

Mrs. Deck Dunagan has been assembling a most interesting scrapbook of pictures, letters, and mementoes depicting the wilds of Canada, Alaska, and the Alcan Highway sent her by her husband, Corporal Deck Dunagan, who is driving a truck along this famous road.

Cpl. Dunagan, who has been in the Army less than nine months, several weeks of which were spent at Camp Berkeley in the Medical Corps, has been in the Canadian wilderness over four months.

Pictures he sends home depict the scenery, the snow-covered landscape of mountains, forest, and lakes, Indian camps, trout streams, and his own barracks and the American settlements.

He is stationed at Watson Lake, 950 miles up the highway on the line of Yukon Territory and British Columbia. Watson Lake is 300 miles south of White Horse.

Cpl. Dunagan writes that he has seen the temperature go as low as 70 degrees below zero. But, he explains, the cold is not so bad when you are properly dressed. Too, there are no high winds.

He says their huts are nicer than those at Camp Berkeley, although they have made most of their own furniture. Their mail is flown in to them, and most of the men fly out for their furloughs, otherwise they would use up all their furlough time getting outside. For this reason, a soldier on the Alcan does not have much opportunity to come home.

He drives a 11-ton diesel truck, and it is built and equipped to travel in extreme cold, over slick roads, through mud and slush. A relay system is used, each man driving truck over a 100-mile route, where another driver takes over.

The woods and mountains are beautiful. Streams and lakes are full of fish, and the woods full of game. He has fished for trout and pike, and one picture sent his wife shows him holding a 32-inch pike.

He says the Indian trappers are of interest. They travel by dog sled, and live in tents, frequently as many as 25 occupying one tent.

At Watson Lake there will be only one hour of night on June 21, he is told.

No doubt, Deck will have many interesting tales to tell when the war is over.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Johnson of Redwine and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young and son Shirley of Grassland made a visit last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Eubanks at Lueders and went fishing in the Clear Fork. Mrs. Johnson says they caught a hundred pounds of fish and brought 75 pounds back home with them. She says that Jesse knows all the good fishing holes and he and Mrs. Eubanks know how to show their guests a good time. It was the best fishing trip we ever made, she said.

Mrs. N. E. Finley arrived Saturday from Uvalde for a visit with her brother, W. A. Yates, and Mrs. Yates.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Wags!

No quadruped of the K9 contingent used by the Marines, the Army or the Coast Guard is purchased. They're strictly volunteers for the duration, loaned by their masters and mistresses. These dogs are taught to hear and smell and see enemies where humans cannot. They are invaluable at night.

Several K9 training stations are maintained by various branches of our fighting services.

You may not have a dog to send to war but you can send your money Buy War Bonds.

New Lynn News

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Roberts and family were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Yandell of Wilson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wilburn of Tahoka spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Yandell.

Miss Georgia Grubbs of Tahoka spent the week end with Miss Opal Ruth James.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Yandell, Wilson, Buck Snider of Lubbock, Georgia Grubbs and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wilburn of Tahoka; Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Yandell, Juanita Young, Opal Ruth James, D. C. Roberts and Jimmie Yandell, all of the New Lynn community, enjoyed fishing Saturday night at the lake northeast of Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell Cox went down to Athens recently to visit their son Jimmy, who was about to leave for an Army camp. He left the next day after their arrival for Camp Wolters at Weatherford. They went on to Grand Saline to visit relatives, and then came back to Fort Worth and visited their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Paul Cox, and then had another visit with Jimmy at Camp Wolters.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrell Scott and little daughter, Linda, left for their home at Sulphur, Oklahoma, Tuesday morning after a week's visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Scott, and his aunt, Miss Ethel Calahan.

Uncle Sam!

Although the Second War Loan Drive has been completed and its objective was more than accomplished, we'll keep on buying War Bonds! When the war is over, we can spend this money again. Every Bond we buy is an investment in our future happiness and security... every dollar we put into Bonds will help bring our boys back sooner and safer! AND THEN... all those marvelous new Electrical Servants we have been wanting will be ours... INVEST IN WAR BONDS TODAY... It is the surest way to Happiness, Peace and Security!

Grassland News

(By Mrs. V. V. Laws)

Our deepest sympathy goes to the mother and wife and to the many other relatives of Flight Officer Samuel W. Thomas (we knew him as Son), over his tragic death. We knew and loved him for what we knew him to be. For greater love has no man than those who are willing to lay down their lives that others might live.

Pvt. and Mrs. Rebel Thomas came from Garden City, Kan., to attend the funeral of his cousin, Pvt. Thomas was granted a four-day leave beginning last Sunday, and will return this week.

Cpl. Furman Chapman of Moore Field, Mission, Texas, another cousin of the deceased, was granted a leave to attend the funeral also.

Miss Georgia Mae Lankford of Big Spring was here for the rites.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Duckett are moving this week to Meadow. Mr. Duckett is employed in the Farmers Co-operative Gin there.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Duval are now residing in Grassland. Mr. Duval is employed by the Farmers Co-operative gin here.

NEW HOME H. D. CLUB

A meeting of the New Home H. D. Club was held May 14 to discuss upholstering furniture. Margaret Shadden was hostess and demonstrator. The simplest way is measuring between the two points, pinning the material on, then cutting it out.

The Club planned a picnic for June 4 at Mackenzie Park.

The club has two new members, Mrs. Herron and Mrs. Floyd Smith.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mmes. Winfield Overstreet, D. C. Caudle, Boswell Edwards, Grayham George, Charles Armontrout, Almie Pace, Glenn Allsup, D. D. Renfroe, Floyd Smith, Melton Herron, and E. R. Blakney Jr. We also had a visitor from El Paso, Mrs. Dutch Davis.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Aubrey O'Dell on May 28.

The Club met again on Friday, May 28, at 2:00 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Aubrey O'Dell. The president, Mrs. Donald Caudle, and the secretary, Mrs. Clyde Ashcraft, were present.

"Repair springs and broken arm pieces before upholstering furniture," she stated "to have successful upholstering."

All Club members, friends and families are to meet in New Home, June 4 at 8:00 p. m. to go to the Mackenzie Park on a picnic.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Winfield Overstreet on June 11 at 3:00 p. m.—Reporter.

Miss Mildred Cooper, who joined the WAACs a few months ago and who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper, other relatives, and friends here recently, is now at Camp Abbott, Bend, Oregon, according to a letter received by her parents Tuesday. She had been at Camp Ruston, Louisiana, prior to her visit here. Upon arrival at Camp Abbott she was assigned to duty in the provost marshal's office and was delighted with the assignment.

LAWS PROMOTED

Kelly Laws, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Laws of Grassland, who is in the Glider Infantry at Camp Mackall, Hoffman, N. C., has been promoted to private first class. He writes that he hopes to get a furlough in July.

Billy Hill Home From Southwest Pacific War Zone

Petty Officer 3/c Billy Hill, who has been in the Navy for the past 17 months, the captain of a gun crew on his ship for the past few months, operating in the Pacific, left here Wednesday with his wife for Amarillo, after visiting here for a week, expecting to return to his base at San Francisco about the last of this week.

Billy has seen plenty of service out on the Pacific since he made his first voyage out upon those waters more than a year ago. His service stripes show he has seen service in the Atlantic, Pacific, and Asiatic waters, and the two silver stars and two bronze stars he wears indicate that he has been in 12 engagements with the enemy. However, he says the action he has seen is mild compared to what some of the boys have experienced.

He has visited most of the island groups of the Pacific, including the Solomons, New Hebrides, Fiji, Samoa, New Zealand, New Caledonia, Tonga, and many others.

Like most other Navy men, Billy thinks it is going to take a long time to dislodge all those Japs from the many islands which they now hold, or to exterminate them, which he thinks it will be necessary for us to do.

Billy's two sisters, Miss Berta Hill, who is employed by the State Welfare Board at Navasota, and Mrs. Myrtle Rochelle, employed in the office of the State Unemployment Compensation Commission in Austin, and the latter's two little daughters, Anita Jo and Sara Sue, who had also been here visiting, left for their respective homes on the same day, Wednesday.

NEW SOUTH PACIFIC NAVY CHIEF

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The Navy Department has announced appointment of Vice Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., famed task force commander who carried out the smashing attacks on the Jap-held Gilbert and Marshall Islands, as successor to Vice Admiral Robert L. Ghormley as commander of U. S. Naval forces in the South Pacific. Admiral Ghormley, who has been in command of the U. S. forces in the Solomons, has been relieved of his command. His new duties have not been announced.

Install New Officers Of Eastern Star

A public installation of Eastern Star officers was attended by a large number of visitors at Masonic Hall Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Launa Thomas was the installing officer and was assisted by Mrs. Pherne Cade as marshal, Mrs. Sue Cain as captain, Mrs. Julia Maassen as secretary, and Mrs. Marjorie Kemp as organist.

Officers installed were: Mrs. Minnie Davis, worthy matron; W. E. Smith, worthy patron; Mrs. Clara Harris, A. M.; Dr. E. Prohl, A. P.; Mrs. Era Stewart, secretary; Mrs. Annie Forester, treasurer; Mrs. Mittie Walker, cond.; Mrs. Grace Prohl, A. cond.; Mrs. Lahrre Tippit, marshal; Mrs. Grace Clinton, chaplain; Miss Mary Beth Roddy, organist.

Ada, Mrs. Oia Hughes; Ruth, Mrs. Willie Thomas (to be installed) Esther, Mrs. Annie Lehman; Martha, Mrs. Estelle McCord; Electra, Mrs. Nora Luallin; Warder, Mrs. Jewell Connolly; Sentinel, Mrs. Onie Botkin.

Lt. James Minor And Cpl. James Foster Meet In North Africa

Lt. James L. Minor and Cpl. James Foster, both of whom are somewhere in North Africa, recently had a pleasant visit. Lt. Minor wrote Mrs. L. F. Craft, James Foster's foster mother this week.

He reports that they are both getting along "great" but are working so hard they hardly have time to sleep.

His letter follows: "Received your letter the other day and was very happy to hear from you. I have been intending to write you but I just kept putting it off. Too, I stay fairly busy—sometimes I hardly find time to sleep.

"I saw James about two weeks ago. He looks great and is getting along fine. I got to talk to him for about 10 minutes. I told him that I had promised you I would look him up. We talked over 'old times' out at Tahoka, and had a very informal 'chat'. He's 'kinda' lonesome where he is, since he is the only boy from Tahoka left over there.

"I told him not to let that worry him, because every man has a place in the war, so the best thing to do is to do the job we have to do to the best of our ability. That way we can get this war over much faster and be back at home before we know it. Anyway, we both enjoyed seeing each other.

"Tell everybody hello. I really enjoy hearing from my 'best former teacher'. Don't worry about your James, because he is getting along fine."

SELLS HOME HERE

Mrs. J. H. Coltenback of Lamesa, who was a resident of Tahoka for many years, was here Thursday closing a deal whereby she sold her home here to Mrs. Tom Anderson. Many friends here regret that she is breaking these ties which have bound her to our little city so long but hope that she will visit here often.

Pvt. and Mrs. Reble Thomas left Thursday for his station at Garden City, Kansas, having arrived Sunday to attend the funeral of his cousin, Flight Officer S. W. Thomas.

Tech. Sgt. Roy C. Harvick and wife of Garden City Kansas are here visiting with their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harvick and they are going to visit her parents at Abilene.

Mrs. W. T. Hanes was called to Lamesa Wednesday evening by the serious illness of her brother's wife, who had undergone a major operation.

Staff Sgt. Odell Liston has returned to Camp Maxey, Paris, Texas, after spending a 10-day furlough here visiting his sister, Mrs. Marvin Walker.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Prevents the "Bends"

Before our fighting pilots take to the air for stratosphere flying they must be "suped-up." To do this the pilot just before he takes off pedals a stationary motor driven bicycle to reduce the amount of nitrogen in his blood. Otherwise gas bubbles would collect in his blood stream.

The stationary bicycle is an inexpensive piece of equipment, but the vast quantities of this and other materials of war make it imperative for all of us to keep our fighting men well supplied by greater and greater purchases of War Bonds.

U. S. Treasury Department

HERE LAST WEEK

Among the grandchildren here last week for the funeral of Mrs. Florence King were the following: Cpl. Bill King of Garden City, Kansas; Kelly King, Haskell; Miss Florence and Kathleen King, Mrs. Jessie King, Mrs. Clint Breedlove and daughter, Mary Louise, all of Lubbock.

James Smith, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith, who has been in an Amarillo hospital so long under treatment for paralysis, will be taken to a Fort Worth hospital soon for further treatment, according to members of the family.

Miss Lenore Anglin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anglin, who taught at Wells and then at Brownfield during the past scholastic year, has now entered the Texas Technological College for the summer term.

Mrs. Edward Betts, the former Miss Lucille Hall, a teacher in the high school here for several years who now resides at Littlefield, visited friends here this week, being the guest of Mrs. R. C. Forrester.

John Rex and Warren Mark Richardson, both former students of the Tahoka schools are now mechanics in the Air Corps, stationed at Midland.

John R. Hudman, Army aviator student at the Woodward, Okla., Teachers College, the past few weeks is home visiting his wife and daughter while awaiting his next training course. He arrived here Thursday.

New Home Farm Meeting Monday

Men and women of New Home and surrounding communities are invited to an agricultural meeting Monday night, June 7, at 8:45, by N. S. Abbott, vocational agriculture teacher at New Home High School.

Talks will be made by County Agent J. C. Smith, Home Agent Carolyn Dixon, and Miss Dorothy Sue Foster, new home economics teacher at New Home.

Mr. Abbott says he expects to conduct a series of meetings on vegetable and canning during the coming weeks.

Walter Anglin was in Plainview on Monday and Tuesday on business for the Southwestern Public Service company, formerly the Texas-New Mexico Utilities company, for which he is the local manager.

J. W. Pearson, who has been employed by the Gibson Motor Freight lines, is taking a training course at a Lubbock machine shop preparatory to taking a job in the aircraft industry.

Herb Smith . . .

bout a year ago. He received training at Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, at Selfridge Field, Michigan, and at a field in Pennsylvania. He arrived in Australia last October, and was sent directly from there to the war zone in New Guinea, where he has been for eight months.

Though the family has had frequent letters from him, he had told them almost nothing of his activities. He wrote of the mosquitoes, the rain, the collection of native trophies and pictures he was gathering, his longing for a mess of spare-ribs or sausage and eggs, but has told them nothing of the fighting, or his flights, possibly due to the censorship rules.

His last letter home, written on April 25, contains the following paragraph: "Well, as today puts us well into our seventh month on foreign soil, we still haven't had it too bad and have lots to be thankful for. We have one boy in our outfit that lost his wife and baby in an automobile accident, and his mother is not expected to live. Believe me, when I think of that, I realize that as long as we have our family all in good health we have lots to be thankful for."

Since the above was written, Hap Smith has received another letter from Herb, telling of the decoration, and revealing the information that he is due to receive soon the almer's medal and a second Flying Cross. The letter was written May 22, and contained snap-shots of himself, his plane, and of New Guinea natives.

State Guard . . .

area the rest of the morning.

Following dinner, demonstrations were presented in first aid, the sending and receiving of messages by code, formations for riot control, etc. by picked men from the battalion. Closing the day's training the battalion stood formal inspection by the commanding officer, Major Jackson, and his staff at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Tahoka men participated in practically every event of the day, and received special praise for efficiency on guard duty, as messengers, and on demonstrations, etc.

Capt. E. R. Edwards, Lt. H. O. Hargett and H. L. Roddy and the men were unanimous in asserting that the training and information received was very worth-while, and are talking plans for inter-company maneuvers in the future.

Airplane Crash

Flower girls were likewise old friends: Misses Jean Barham, Lois Chapman, Betty Swafford, Lois Nance, Dolly Gatzki, Dorothy Ann Roberts, Betty Sue Roberts, Dorothy Jean Applewhite, and Mrs. Eldon Carroll.

Samuel Walter Thomas, known to friends as "Doc" and "Son," was 24 years of age last January. Practically all his life was spent in the Graham and Grassland communities. His father died during the first World War at Graham before the young man was born. "Doc" was a graduate of Post High School and attended Texas Tech.

He was a member of the 144th infantry before transferring for flight training, and graduated as a flyer at Lubbock Army Air Field last year. Only last month, May 8, he was married to Miss Beth Ann Taylor of Odessa and spent a part of their honeymoon visiting Tahoka friends.

Besides his mother and wife, the deceased is survived by M. L. E. A. M. C., and W. P. Thomas, uncles, and Mrs. Henry Aiken and Mrs. Bryan Childs, aunts, all of Grassland, and many cousins and other relatives in Lynn and Garza counties. Samuel W. Thomas has frequently been praised as a fine young man with a promising future, and many were deeply grieved to learn of the fatal accident.

Tahoka between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. on Saturday, June 12, 1943, to satisfy impounding fees and expenses. A. F. McGlaun, City Marshal. 43-2tc
