Odean Millman Is Killed When Army Airplane Crashes

A combined church and military funeral service was held at the Baptist Church here at 5:00 o'clock Thursday afternoon for Flight Officer Odean R. Millman of the Laughlin Army Air Field at Del Rio, Texas, who was killed Sunday night in the crash of a medium bomber on a routine training flight ten miles north of Foteet, which is 125 or 130 miles east of Del Rio and approximately 25 miles south of San Antonio.

Another officer and two enlisted men were killed in the same crash. The services here were conducted by Lt. D. D. Long, chaplain at the Laughlin Air Field, who arrived in Tahoka Wednesday morning in advance of the body, and by Rev. George A. Dale of Lubbock, former pastor of the Baptist Church here who baptized Odean several years ago when he was received into the church. Burial followed in the Tahoka cemetery under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home.

Flight Officer Millman would have completed his training in the V-26 Combat School at Laughlin Field next week had he lived, and would then have been transferred probably to a field in Florida, it is said.

Born here on December 21, 1921, Odean Relvau Millman was reared principally in the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Millman of this city. His father, H. O. Millman resides at New Home in this county, while his mother, now Mrs. M. S. Ozier, is a resident of Amarillo.

Odean graduated from the Tahoka High School with the class of 1939, ranking as one of the very best students in the class. During his entire high school career he was a (Cont'd. on last page)

Edmund Macha Is Recovering Wounds

Pfc. Edmund Macha, who was wounded in North Africa about three months ago and who has been in a hospital ever since, has written his mother, Mrs. H. A. Macha, recently that he is steadily improving and gives all the credit to the doctors and nurses, "who are swell."

Miss Jerry Milliken, who hears from Sgt. Felix H. Macha at frequent intervals, says that he wrote a few days ago that England is a beautiful country but he likes Scotland better. He was greatly in love with the Scotch people.

The letter Mrs. Macha received from Edmund was the first she had had from him in over two months.

LEAGUE AND AUXILIARY WILL ELECT OFFICERS

The American Legion and Legion Auxiliary will meet next Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year and attending to many other items of business, Mrs. A. M. Cade, Auxiliary president, announces.

All members are especially urged to attend this meeting.

Hodge Manager Of Tahoka Co-op

Arthur Hodge, who recently resigned as deputy sheriff, has accepted the position of manager of the Tahoka Co-operative Gin Association. He succeeds Pete Curry, who resigned to become interested in the new gin that will be built here.

The Tahoka Co-op operates two gin plants in Tahoka, and Mr. Hodge tells The News that plants are being repaired and put in good shape for the coming fall. New machinery is being installed in the electric gin.

Mr. Hodge is well known to the people of Lynn county, having been a citizen of the county and of Tahoka for many years.

The gin has proven a success under the management of Wiley Curry and later under his son, Pete Curry, and members of the Association predict that Mr. Hodge will prove a worthy successor.

War Prisoners For Labor Proposed

Numerous inquiries have been made lately concerning the possibility of Lynn county getting some "prisoners of war" for farm labor, according to J. C. Smith, county farm agent. He has made investigation and finds that such labor might be secured from the Hereford Internment camp. It is his understanding that the prisoners held there are Italians and that they are making very good farm laborers in the Hereford farming area.

All persons interested in securing such labor are invited to attend a meeting to be held at Tahoka Saturday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the county court room to discuss our need for such labor. All persons opposed to such a measure are also invited to attend the meeting in order that the pro and con of the proposition can be fully discussed. The outcome of this meeting will probably determine whether or not a request will be made for the prison labor.

Burton Edwards Injured In Storm

Burton Edwards sustained very painful if not serious injuries at about 7:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon when a terrific rain, hail and wind storm struck and wrecked his large barn while he was in it at his home ten or twelve miles southwest of Tahoka. Two or three ribs were broken and he sustained bruises on the head, face, and body when struck by falling timber.

Mr. Edwards relates that he was out in the barn getting corn to feed his hogs. As he was in the hallway between the feed bins on one side and the horse stalls on the other, he noticed that the barn was beginning to move. Thinking that it would be certain death if the barn should crash in upon him, he made a dash for the front of the hall to get out of the barn, but just as he reached the front something struck him and knocked him flat. When he regained consciousness, he was lying face downward and torrents (Cont'd. on last page)

COTTON BLOOMING

Lt. Robert H. Maddox, native of Tahoka, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Maddox, who is an instructor in navigation at the San Marcos Aerial Navigation school.

Ranch Changes Are Made Here

A deal, or a series of deals, was recently effected by which Messrs. Frank Parris and W. W. Huffman divided their interests in that portion of the T-Bar ranch lying south of the Brownfield highway and by which B. H. McCarley disposed of his interest therein, according to Mr. Huffman.

First, McCarley sold his interest to Parris. Wayne Chandler took over the lease on twelve sections lying immediately west of the O'Donnell highway. Huffman took over the Chimney Mills pasture, consisting of twelve sections, and Parris took the 18-section ranch lying west of the Three Lakes public road and south of the Brownfield highway.

Chandler still retains possession also of all that vast portion of the ranch lying north of the Brownfield highway.

Parris, however, owns and resides in the former Oscar Roberts home including fifteen acres of land carved out of the north pasture.

Lee Sanders Infant Dies At Birth

Little Doris Marie Sanders, infant of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sanders, died at 10 o'clock Friday morning in the West Texas Hospital a few hours after birth.

Funeral services were conducted at 4:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Harris Funeral Home by Elder Luryl Nisbet, and the remains were interred in the Tahoka cemetery.

Due to the critical condition of the child's mother, neither she nor the father was able to attend the funeral. Mrs. Sanders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sanders of Socorro, New Mexico, did not get word of the death in time to attend, though they came late.

Criminal Cases Tried Monday

A number of criminal cases were disposed of in the district court here Monday, with Judge Garland of Lamesa presiding and District Attorney Rollin McCord representing the State.

Also before a jury, three young Negroes were tried on charges of felony theft, the stealing of feed from an O'Donnell farmer's barn. One of them was found guilty and given two years in the penitentiary, another was found guilty but given a suspended sentence, and the third one was acquitted.

A local young man charged with criminal assault was granted a postponement of his trial until Thursday of next week, July 15.

Two divorce cases were tried and divorces granted.

Boy Loses Fingers In Meat Grinder

Benny Thorpe, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Thorpe, operators of Plains Cooperative Locker and Storage station here, will go through the remainder of his life with only five fingers, though that does not seem to be worrying him greatly yet.

Benny lost the four fingers and the major portion of the thumb of the left hand when he got them caught in a meat grinder at the Co-operative station here on Thursday morning of last week. He was feeding chili meat into the grinder, at the time and accidentally got the fingers too far into the mouth of the machine. The fingers were caught and literally torn from the hand. He was hastily taken to the Lubbock General Hospital where an amputation was performed and the wound dressed.

On Sunday, he was able to be brought home and by Tuesday the parents reported that he was playing around as happy as a lark.

Benny was no novice at feeding the grinder, for he had been performing that duty for a long time.

POETRY NOT ACCEPTED

The News has repeatedly stated that we do not accept original poems by local talent for publication. We regret that we must disappoint any of our fine young people who are poetically inclined, but practically all newspapers have found it to be the best policy not to accept such productions. We have found it best to follow that rule.—The Publishers.

FATHER DIES

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Lehman and sons were called to Houston last week end by the death of her father, Mrs. Lehman left Saturday but Mr. Lehman did not leave till Sunday. More information will be available upon their return.

Mrs. 'Boots' King Died Wednesday

Funeral arrangements still had not been completed late Thursday afternoon for Mrs. June Gary King, wife of Flight Officer C. B. "Boots" King of Bowman Field, Kentucky, who died about three hours after her little daughter was born in the Tahoka Clinic early Wednesday morning. The baby was born at 12:30, and Mrs. King died at about 3:30 the same morning.

The baby, a girl, apparently is well and healthy.

Funeral services were being delayed pending the arrival of her husband, who was expected in late Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. King were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gary, in O'Donnell on March 14, 1942. Her husband being in the Army, she had resided with him at several Army posts but for the past few months with her parents in O'Donnell or with his aunt, Mrs. Zoe Lowrey, in Tahoka.

She had many friends both here and at O'Donnell who deeply deplore her untimely death.

Mrs. King was a native of Risk county, Texas, having been born in that county on June 8, 1913. She came with her parents to Lynn county in 1919. Her father was a farmer and settled on a farm near O'Donnell, later moving into town.

After graduating from the O'Donnell High School several years ago, she was employed successively by several business firms. She worked for Thornhill's Variety Store here for about two years, back in 1936 and 1937. Later she was employed (Cont'd. on page 2)

Jake joined the Navy on September 8, 1942.

New Topping For Highway East To Post Being Poured

A crew of workmen is here ready to begin the re-topping of Highway No. 380 from Post to the George Small place three miles east of Tahoka. In fact, the preliminary work has already been done and the actual spreading of the topping was expected to begin today.

The job is to be done by the Public Construction Company, which was given the contract by the State Highway Commission.

Fifteen or twenty cars of sand and gravel have been on the Santa Fe tracks here all this week and workmen have rented practically every available apartment in town. The topping will be mixed here. The company has set up its office here near the Santa Fe tracks, has its equipment and machinery here, and this will be headquarters while the work is being done.

Construction work will begin at Post and proceed westward until the job is completed. Whether other portions of this highway will be re-topped following this job is a matter about which The News has no information. Much of the highway west from Tahoka to Brownfield, really needs the same kind of treatment. But so far as local highway men are informed, this is the only improvement of this highway under contemplation at this time.

When this highway was paved from Post to Tahoka a few years ago, it will be remembered, several types of base were laid as an experiment. For the first three miles out of Tahoka east, conventional base material was used. From that point to the Garza county line, only sand and oil were used. From the county line on into Post other types of base were laid. Much bad weather prevailed while the work was being done, and it soon became necessary to do much repair work. The Highway Commission has had the re-topping of this section of the highway on its agenda for a year or more, it is said, but has not been able to get around to it until this time.

To tie the new topping onto the old, a spray of tar will first be spread and the Pre-Mix will be placed on top of this. The Pre-Mix will consist of a mixture of gravel, sand, and tar, and the mixing will be done here.

Everybody who has occasion to travel this highway—and it carries no small amount of traffic—will appreciate this improvement. It is to be hoped that similar treatment can be given the highway from Tahoka to Brownfield at some time in the near future.

O'Donnell Infant Buried Tuesday

Helicopter to Go Into Quantity Production

This Sikorsky type of helicopter which will be built in quantity for the Army Air Forces can alight on land, water, snow, thin ice, a rooftop or a parking lot. The craft can hover motionless in mid-air, descend and ascend vertically.

Book Is Reviewed At Rotary Club

Principal speaker at the Rotary Club luncheon Thursday was Claude Donaldson, who gave a review of the book, "I Saw the Fall of the Philippines," written by Col. Carlos P. Romulo, editor of a Manila newspaper, who is a native Filipino, and was in the Philippines during the time the Filipinos and Americans were being besieged and bombed by the Japanese hordes.

Mr. Donaldson says that the author declares that both the American soldiers and their officers kept hoping for and expecting help from the home land right up to the last day of their resistance. The struggles which they made against overwhelming odds, without food and without equipment, were most heroic but heart-rending.

Our failure to be prepared, he emphasizes, constitutes one of the darkest pages of American history.

Lt. J. C. Womack, now home on leave from Hawaii, spoke briefly preceding Donaldson's discussion. He asserted modestly that the soldiers in the service are doing no more to win the war than are the folks at home who are doing their best.

"Dock" Nance was present for the first time as a club member. Several other visitors were present.

Howard Tredway, pharmacist's mate second class, and wife were visitors in Tahoka Thursday. Howard is now stationed at the Navy base at Norfolk. He formerly lived at O'Donnell, and was employed by the Tahoka Drug for a while.

Cpl. Foster Tells Of Life In Africa

Cpl. James Foster, who is with a field artillery battalion in North Africa, writes interestingly of the country and peoples in a letter received this week by his foster mother, Mrs. L. F. Craft. James was originally in the National Guard. He is a graduate of Tahoka High School.

The letter follows:
Recently you wrote wishing to know about the manner of dress, customs, etc., of this region. Unfortunately, I am beset with the inability for highly illuminating description, but perhaps I can paint a slightly revealing picture of these people. An account of an ordinary trip to town will be most adequate, I think.

You crawl into a GI truck with a weird feeling of expectation and anticipation. This is your initial journey to an African city, and there is certain to be an abundance of novelty. Almost from the moment the wheels start rolling you are twisting your neck this way and that in order not to miss a single sight.

All along the highway you witness scenes which are probably prevalent throughout North Africa. First, you pass a venerable Arabian male plodding casually along astride the tinnest donkey you have ever seen, the reins dangling loosely, or clasped lightly, and his feet beating a continuous rhythm against the lean sides of the animal. He is dressed in conventional Arab garb: an ankle-length smock which closely resembles a gown, sandals (or bare feet), and a wrap-around turban or a fez of some other type. His face is unshaved, and of the two—he and the donkey—the donkey appears more intelligent.

Farther along the road, at intervals, you meet more Arabs either lounging beside the road or walking methodically toward their home. And each may be dressed differently from his companion. This woman may be outfitted in a gown and a veil—truly Arabian—while her masculine chum wears a pair of GI winter underwear, GI shoes, a tattered short smock, and a brilliant red fez. But don't grow disgusted at the veiled women, because the next woman may be naked above the waist, without a veil.

Incidentally, whenever an Arab couple and a mule are encountered, the man is almost invariably riding while his squaw walks, toting the family wares. In frequent cases, one baby is strapped to its mother's back in some uncomfortable manner.

Now you are entering the city and you gaze astounded at the buildings. Your surprise is profound that such splendid architecture occupies the dark continent. Most edifices are not, it is true, masterpieces in masonry, with their square shapes, lack of porches, and dismal color; but an amazing number of the more opulent homes and chief public places are built along the American line of taste and style. Many buildings such as cathedrals and French houses are so artistically constructed as to provoke sincere awe analogous to that emotion experienced when first visiting Grand Canyon.

The war has brought innumerable changes to Africa, but outwardly it is probably very much the same. The streets and shops, bars especially, are always packed with people of all descriptions. Native soldiers, the rejuvenated French Army, and our own khaki-clad lads seem to predominate, but they disperse so well that the ensuing mob of civilians and soldiers makes an interesting scene.

Were it not for the queer language of the French, one might take them for Americans easily. For, although their dress is a trifle obsolete, they do for a fact make you think of home. The petite little girls of France are most deceiving of all, because not only are they possessed of familiar charm and shapeliness, but they wear exactly the same dresses as the gal back home. Not once, but often, is heard the single agorized phrase: "My, if I only knew French."

Transportation here is varied in type. American and other autos are scarce, as well as bus lines. So the

Churches Plan Daily Vacation Bible School

In a meeting of the representatives from the Methodist and Baptist Churches of Tahoka, date for the summer Daily Vacation Bible School was set for July 12th through July 21st. The school is for pupils from four through sixteen years of age, and will be divided into four age groups.

Superintendents for each department or age group are: Mrs. L. C. Haney, Intermediates; Mrs. A. L. Smith, Juniors; Mrs. James Clinton, Primaries; and Mrs. E. B. Gaither, Beginners.

Each of the above workers have selected their teachers and helpers, and have been making plans to have a full program for the boys and girls in each department, keeping them busy with music, Bible study, handwork, and directed recreational activities.

School will open every morning at 9 o'clock and will turn out at 11 o'clock.

There will be no cost for the children to attend, and it is hoped that a great band of our boys and girls will come and be blessed by attending our Daily Vacation Bible School.

METHODIST CHURCH

Sunday morning, Dr. O. P. Clark, district superintendent of the Lubbock District, will preach and hold the Third Quarterly Conference. All reports from the various auxiliaries, boards and superintendents, etc., must be ready when called for. We shall have fine reports to make. Quite a nice increase in church school attendance, and an increase in church membership during this quarter. All finances are kept paid to date.

Our annual meeting is to begin in early August, if we can secure the help we desire.

Many new faces have been in our audiences for the last few Sundays. We trust they shall become regular attendants upon all of the services.

Members and friends—to you—we extend a hearty welcome to all of the services of the church Sunday.

Lt. Sam Privitt of Grenada, Miss., visited in the home of his father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Applewhite, last week. Lt. Privitt was on a cross-country flight and came down from Lubbock. Mrs. Privitt is remembered here as the former Miss Greta Joyce Applewhite.

Billy Hill wrote the home folks on July 1 stating that he was aboard ship and was expecting to leave port he expected to be gone at least nine soon for another long trip. "I knew we couldn't bank on any new models for a long while after this mess, so I played safe with our car...kept her engine OIL-PLATED like always, with Conoco Nth motor oil, especially to not let the engine get ruined by acid. Your old Mileage Merchant pal told me why there was no worse wartime danger than engine acid."

"Dad, I learned that too, in the service..."

"Quiet Sergeant, till I show off what I know. That acid comes from ordinary combustion, but when the car was run often and got plenty warm the acid petered out—not causing rank corrosion the way it does with the engine mostly resting. But knowing as I did that chromium-plating won't corrode easy, I could see it would check corrosion to give the engine's insides OIL-PLATING."

"A synthetic in Conoco Nth oil acts sort of like 'magnetism'...to keep OIL-PLATING fastened to inside engine surfaces—not all draining down to the crankcase even standing still. The car ran sweet bringing you back home, didn't it? Too bad some folks have got to wait months for new models, when they should've used Conoco Nth to OIL-PLATE and save their car. Let's go."

Congressman Hatton Sumners of Dallas is suggesting that our Constitution be changed so as to require that only a majority vote of each house shall be necessary to override a veto of the President. A two-thirds majority in each house is required under the Constitution as it has existed since it was adopted a hundred and fifty years ago. But there is good reason for the suggested change. By legal enactment, by judicial interpretation, and by Presidential assumption of authority in some instances, the powers of the President have been greatly increased and there is no doubt but that today he exercises far more power than was originally intended by the forefathers who wrote the Constitution. The Congress is really the legislative body of this nation under the Constitution. Why should not a majority vote rule? Under the present system, the President has as much power as two-thirds of both houses of Congress. When he vetoes a measure passed by Congress he sets forth his reasons for the veto and may present arguments against it. The purpose is to cause Congress to pause and give the matter further thought. If a majority of each house still feels that the measure is wise and meritorious, why should not a majority vote of the people's representatives prevail? We believe that the adoption of this change would tend to curtail the growing concentration of power in one man and restore it to the duly elected legislative body of the nation.

Mussolini made a frantic appeal to his Fascist party followers the other day to resist the allies to the death. Either we must win this war or be pushed back to the rank of a fourth or fifth rate power, he declared. Well, he aspired to rise to the rank of a first rate power through conquest, robbery, and murder. He sent his armies to Africa to conquer and subdue the helpless

ODDS and ENDS

by Ee Eye, the Elder

One result of this war is going to be that many of our young men and boys are going to get a lot better acquainted with this old world on which we live.

American boys are now to be found in many parts of the world. Many thousands of them spent the Fourth of July in old England, the country from which we won our independence. Other thousands are in Ireland. The Irish have always been exceedingly friendly to America and thousands of them have migrated to this country. A lot of Irish blood flows through the veins of Americans, but because of the animosities that have long existed between the Irish and the English, our boys were not very hospitably received when we began sending them over several months ago to the Emerald Isle. It is to be hoped that July 4 brought no clashes between the Irish and our boys on their shores. In fact, it should have been an occasion to draw the Irish a little closer to our boys, for they have long sought the complete independence and separation from Great Britain that Americans won a hundred and sixty years ago.

There are other thousands of our boys in North Africa, some over in the Middle East, some in India, some in China, thousands of them in Australia, New Guinea, the Solomons, and in many other parts of the Southwest Pacific, in Hawaii, in Alaska, and even out on that finger and unoffending Negroes of Ethiopia. He joined with Hitler in an avowed purpose to become the masters of Europe and of such other nations as might hereafter become easy prey. Having started out to become mighty through conquest, robbery, and murder, he must take the consequences that result from failure. He must take the punishment due a robber and a murderer. And the allies have already begun to mete out that punishment. Mussolini's days are numbered.

Mrs. Chiang Kai-shek, wife of the Chinese generalissimo, is back in her own home land after an eight months visit to the United States and Canada. While here, she won the almost universal admiration and esteem of our people, and it is to be hoped that before long our sons will be swarming into her land to assist in crushing our common enemy, the treacherous and brutal Japs, who are today the world's most aggressive and fanatical champions of paganism and autocracy. Adolf Hitler not excepted.

American soldiers, sailors, and Marines are giving a good account of themselves on every battlefield today.

of islands, the Aleutians, that points menacingly toward Japan. And before this war closes, they are going to be in Japan, to the consternation of old Tojo, Hirohito, and the rest of those little yellow war-mongers.

Yes, and some of them are going to be in Berlin too, but we doubt if Hitler will be there to welcome them.

Many of our boys are still going across, to fight on the land, on the sea, and in the air—to batter down the ramparts of that "European fortress" and to teach those Germans this time that war is what Sherman said it was. They are still going west too, not to grow up with the country, but to convince the Japs that treachery and brutality do not pay.

Some of our boys will sail all the oceans and some will probably entirely circumnavigate the globe during the current unpleasantness. They will place foot on many foreign lands and on many islands of the seas. They have already done so, in fact. They will come home some time—most of them will—after having met face to face the head-hunters of the Fijis, the highly intelligent and beautiful blondes of Australia and New Zealand, the brunette brigades of northern Africa and the dusky damsels farther south on that continent, the strange peoples of Persia and India and Burma, the Eskimos and the Aleuts of Alaska, the singing sons and daughters of the Hawaiians, the Spanish and Portuguese peoples of South America, the Icelanders, the Chinese, and many others.

Yes, they should be a lot better acquainted with the world after this brush at arms is over.

And they should come back with a much clearer outlook upon the world and upon world problems. They should come back with a friendlier feeling for the other peoples of the earth.

And all this may be placed on the profit side of the ledger in so far as they are individually concerned and in so far as our nation is concerned—doubtless in so far as the world is concerned.

There is going to be another result of this war—on the home front—that should be to the good of all of us. That is, that the people of this nation are becoming better acquainted with one another. We are learning more about the New Yorkers and the Bostonese and we hope that they are learning more about us. If so, they are learning that the "Wild and Woolly West" no longer exists, that most of our "shoot-em-up" cowboys are merely drugstore cowboys.

We hope that as people of the North and East get better acquainted with us they will like us better and will be more friendly. And, maybe they will become more friendly with one another.

Some soldiers from Camp Hood, Killeen, spent Thursday night of last week in Tahoka. There were said to be thirty or forty of them. Two of them visited The News office Friday morning. We were not in but the associate editor was. He got the low-down on them. One of them was from New York City. He had been reared there, and had spent his entire life there until he got into this soldier business. He said that he liked Texas because the people here were friendly—said that in New York you could work side by side with a man for months and still he would hardly speak to you.

We have heard that from others many times. And that is what Texans do not like about Northerners. Texans like to be friendly, and they like for other people to be friendly with them. They get a lot of fun out of it. And they can not understand why a fellow will work alongside of you and have nothing to do with you and nothing to say to you. They can not understand why a fellow will live neighbor to you for years and never neighbor with you.

Well, this war-is-bringing a lot of Northern soldiers south and it is taking a lot of Southern soldiers north. Maybe the mingling will be good for both sections.

One thing we do know—we know that the Northern soldiers find friendly and hospitable girls down here in Texas, and some of them are marrying Texas girls. We bet these girls teach these old boys of the North how to be friendly, how to be courteous to strangers, and how to treat a neighbor.

And maybe our boys who go north and marry Northern girls will also set an example for the Northern boys with whom they come in contact.

And maybe this contact, this intermingling and intermarriage between the young people of the North and the South will prove helpful to the Southern boys and girls too—maybe it will be good for both sections.

For one thing, maybe it will cause us to put a higher valuation on education—a thing which nearly all of us sorely need. But that is another story, that we will talk about some other day. Good-bye.

ELDER DRENNON'S NOTES

Last week I visited Tahoka to have Dr. Durham work on my mouth. He did.

I found a good season in the ground from Muleshoe to Tahoka, a thing we do not have in this county.

The trip was very pleasant for wife and me; we were accorded the finest hospitality by the people of Tahoka and O'Donnell. It made us a little home-sick for dear old Texas.

We regret that we did not get around to The News office and have a chat with the editor.

One of the things that impressed us with Tahoka was the fine growth of trees and the well kept lawns, which add to the attractiveness of any community.

Our people here are getting a little uneasy about a broomcorn crop, as we do not have enough moisture to avertsttdidEiw usann cmfwy sh plant on yet and it will soon be too late to plant.

Several friends asked us to write a few notes along, which we shall endeavor to do.

We sure do enjoy reading The News. I get so disgusted with the Clovis News. He gives us darned Democrats a drubbing every day. I think we have one good Democrat in Washington, and of course it is my friend Lee O'Daniel.

Yours for more people who will stand for the right whether it is popular or not.—R. P. Drennon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Matlock were killed Saturday morning at 5:30 when a loaded truck ran into their beds alongside of the highway three miles southeast of town. Their four children were only slightly injured. The Matlocks were school teachers moving from Concho county to Littlefield. When a flat tire caused them to stop, they couldn't move the car and loaded trailer from the highway, so hung a lantern on the back of the trailer.

SYNTHETIC RUBBER NEWS

Phillips Petroleum Company

Announces the Completion and First Operation of Its 90,000,000 Lb. Butadiene Manufacturing Plant

For an annual production of rubber equivalent to 11,000,000 tires

A MODERN miracle of petroleum research and chemistry has figuratively transformed a few acres in the Panhandle of Texas into one-third of a million acres of rubber plantation.

Here rubber will be drilled from the depths of the U. S. earth, instead of tapped from East Indian and Malayan trees.

From wells overlying the greatest raw gas field ever discovered, will come the natural gas to be processed into butadiene, the basic and major ingredient in synthetic rubber.

This great plant . . . designed and built by Phillips . . . based on Phillips research . . . using Phillips own patented processes . . . independent of German research . . . will make butadiene for an equivalent of 30,000,000 rubber trees.

Thus is brought nearer the no-longer distant day of U. S. self-sufficiency in rubber. Thus is Victory made more certain. And with that great day will come the full peacetime benefits of this outstanding wartime development.

Brief Notes about Phillips as Trail Blazer in the Synthetic Rubber Field

Tires containing rubber produced from Phillips butadiene have been on the nation's highways for more than two years.

In 1941 Phillips produced, for commercial rubber use, more than four times as much butadiene as any other oil company.

Phillips has freely supplied technical data on butadiene, styrene, and other related processes, to the petroleum and other industries participating in the Government rubber program. As a matter of company policy, Phillips advocated the production of butadiene by all dependable processes, from all possible raw materials, including products of the farm.

HICKERSON CHILDREN VISIT PARENTS IN TAHOKA

Cpl. Ray Hickerson of the base weather observation station at the Army Flying Field, Phoenix, Arizona, came Thursday of last week for a visit of several days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hickerson.

Other children were notified of his arrival, and on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Ellis and of Monahan, who work at the air field at Pyote, came for a visit over Sunday, returning to Monahan Monday.

Mrs. J. H. (Thelma) Ellis and two children of Plains came over Saturday morning and remained until Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Fern Parris of Lubbock, grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hickerson, came Sunday morning and spent the day here.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Edwards and other relatives were also in the Hickerson home, Mr. Edwards having been hurt in a storm as related elsewhere in this paper, and so it was quite a gathering of the Hickerson-Edwards clan on this July the 4th Sabbath day.

The dominant decorative theme found in pottery of the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico is a prayer for rain for maturing crops.

ton Hancock and Mrs. Otis Neill of Slaton, and the hostesses. Many more sent gifts.

FINE CROPS AT LAKEVIEW

E. E. McManis of Lakeview was a brief caller at The News office Monday and stated that they had rain in his community every day last week except one. They had a heavy downpour on Thursday night. What they needed, he said, was some sunshine, but crops were fine, though his cotton was late, the crop having been destroyed by blowing sand about a month ago. His corn is tasseling and silking and promises to be fine. Other feed crops are excellent. The community has had no destructive hail, as yet, this year. Mr. McManis says, in fact, that he has had only one hail in the 39 years that he has been in the county that destroyed his crops, for which he is very thankful.

Miss Helen House boarded the train at Post Sunday for Belton, where she is spending her vacation visiting relatives.

Fresh Pineapple Scores High

Fresh Pineapple is appreciated by all in the menu. Miss Carolyn Dixon, Home Demonstration Agent, gave a demonstration on "Preparing Pineapple for the Freezer Locker" in her office Saturday afternoon, June 26th, 3:00 P. M. Similar demonstrations on both canning pineapple and preparing the fruit for the locker have been given in various communities in the county. Below are instructions for preparing and preserving the fruit.

Select ripe orange colored fruit from which spines may be pulled out readily. Cut stem and twist out top. Wash pineapple with a vegetable brush.

Sliced Pineapple: Slice off ends to the size of a No. 2 tin can. Cut pineapple in half crosswise. Turn pieces up on plates. Use No. 2 tin can, which has holes in the end of can that is left in, and cut through center of each piece. Use paprika can for cutting centers out of the pieces. Then slice, making pineapple rings from each piece from which the core has been removed.

Crushed Pineapple: With a knife, cut off all pineapple remaining on the peeling, and place in a bowl. Be careful not to get any black specks in this quantity. Use the No. 2 tin can to crush this amount.

Syrup for Sliced and Crushed: Take all trimmings that are not suited for the crushed pineapple and the core pieces and cook with water. Strain and make syrup with this juice, using 1/2 to 1-3 cup sugar to 1 cup juice. The riper the fruit the less sugar will be required. One cup of syrup usually covers 1 qt. of fruit when it is well packed.

Packing for the Freezer Locker: Place the fruit (sliced or crushed) in containers and pour the syrup over fruit. The syrup excludes the air and prevents the oxidative action of the enzymes and prevents the loss of VITAMIN C. Place the lid on the container and seal. Place in locker immediately.

Pre-cook and Pack Canning Method: Pre-cook fruit in the syrup 5 to 8 min., by which time the fruit will turn a straw color. Use aluminum or heavy enamel cooking utensils. Pack hot into jars or can. Cover with hot syrup in which the fruit has been cooked. Leave 1/4 inch headspace in jars and 1-8 inch headspace in cans.

Pack Raw and Steam Canning Method: Pack the can or the jar with prepared fruit as tightly and as full as possible. Pour hot syrup over the fruit to within 1 or 2 inches of the top. The riper and softer the fruit the smaller amount of syrup is required, since some juice will be drawn out of fruit in the steaming process. Place the jars in warm water and cans in hot water in the water bath. The water should be about 2 inches below the rim of the can or jar and should not be allowed to boil so rapidly as to bubble into the container of food. Cover the water bath kettle with a lid. Count steaming time as soon as the steam accumulates above the jar and the water begins to boil. Rubbers that fit on the jar instead of in the lid may be placed on the jar before steaming for ease in handling. Do not use lids on tin cans while steaming, because paper gaskets would be ruined. At the end of the steaming period remove containers from water bath. Press food down. If container is not full, use fruit from one can to fill each of the others. Have fruit well covered with liquid. Leave 1/4 in. headspace for jars and 1-8 in. for cans. Have food hot when sealed whether it is precooked or packed raw and steamed. This precooking or steaming is used to shrink the food and drive out the air which prevents loss of liquid during processing discoloration, and even spoilage. It also, enables the homemaker to obtain a fuller pack. Process in water bath - qt. and pints 20 min., half gallon 25 min., and No. 2 and 3 cans 15 min. The plain can may be used. Cool as quickly as possible, but use care not to place jars in a draft.

Please clip this article as the "Pack raw and steam, and process in hot water bath" methods of canning will be referred to in later articles.

MR. AND MRS. GREATHOUSE MOVE TO CROSS PLAINS

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Greathouse sold their home, store and filling station building on Wednesday of last week to their son Frank Greathouse, and on Thursday they moved to Cross Plains, expecting to buy property in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Greathouse had been residents of Tahoka for many years and for the past several years he had been operating a store and filling station three blocks south of the courthouse square on the highway. They had made their home on the same block, had improved their residence, surrounded it with beautiful trees, and otherwise adorned the premises until the place was one of the most attractive in South Tahoka.

Frank Greathouse had been reared here and formerly assisted his father in operating the store but more recently he had been residing at Brownfield and working in the oil fields. He and wife moved into the home immediately.

Miss Sibyl Anne Firtle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Firtle of Draw, who recently enlisted in the WAVES, is taking hospital training at the U. S. Naval Hospital at St. Albans, New York.

Sgt. R. C. Wells of the Pampa Army Air Field, came home Saturday and spent the Fourth with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wells, and other members of the family. He returned to his post Monday.

Soldiers Enjoy Visit In Tahoka

Thirty-five Army men, who had occasion to spend nearly 24 hours in Tahoka from Thursday noon to almost Friday noon of last week, have asked The News to express to the people of this little Southwestern town their appreciation for the hospitality extended them, a friendliness that some of them could hardly understand.

Tahoka young ladies, on learning that the men, traveling in Army trucks, would be here overnight, gave them a dance at the Legion hall on Thursday night, and District Attorney Rollin McCord entertained six of them in his home with a supper. Others treated the boys kindly, and they seem to have appreciated it very much.

All were from the North and East, had trained in Michigan, and were in transit from Camp Hood, Texas, to some new post. A majority of the men, including Lieut. Ara Hart, who was in command, were from New York City.

The men were so well impressed with Tahoka, that two of them called on The News for copies of this country weekly for the men. One of these fellows was born and reared in New York City, worked for the New York Stock Exchange until his enlistment in the Army a year and a half ago, where he drew a handsome salary. The only time, prior to his enlistment that he had been any distance out of the great city was seven years ago when he took his honeymoon trip to Buffalo and Niagara. Incidentally, he has two children, is a university graduate, and declares that after the war he is going to move to West Texas, "where strangers speak when they meet on the street."

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dye of San Angelo spent Saturday night and Sunday here as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Vernon. They had been to Oklahoma on a visit with his folks, stopping and visiting here for a short time on the way up. They asked us to state that they were anxious to see more of their friends but had a very limited time to visit here. Mrs. Dye is serving as a nurse in a hospital in San Angelo, while Jim works in a barber shop. They are prosperous and happy in their work but declared that they still love Tahoka. They greatly enjoy the weekly visits of the Lynn Co. News to their home.

Cpl. James E. Cook from Idaho has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cook, at Draw.

Claude Johnson Gets Medical Discharge

Pvt. Claude Johnson, who had been serving for a number of months in the United States Coast Artillery, and his wife returned from California to their home here on Wednesday night of last week. Pvt. Johnson having been given a medical discharge. He comes home not a casualty of the enemy but of the too strenuous training that was given him by Coast Artillery officers. He had been in the hospital about three months before being discharged.

Pvt. Johnson suffered injuries, it is said, when he was required to jump from an embankment to the ground several feet below with a 95-pound bag on his back. He still plainly shows the effects of the injuries in his walk and will probably suffer from them the remainder of his life.

Friends feel that it was indeed a regrettable misfortune.

OPA WARNS AGAINST UNNECESSARY DRIVING

Lubbock--There are going to be some awfully red faces and some motorists who are going to get the idea of walking, Howard Gholson, district director of the Office of Price Administration, advises today. Through the Lubbock district covering 71 counties ranging from the top of the Panhandle to Brewster on the Mexican border, legal investigators have been busy checking license numbers and A, B, and C windshield stickers.

There have been some very interesting findings, the OPA chief revealed. For instance, if a man from Breckenridge is seen at a Lubbock night club or a Lubbock man at a fishing resort on the Pecos, they may have some tall explaining to do to their local War Price and Rationing Boards on how they are using their gasoline coupons. The "B" and "C" coupons are special allotment for business or emergency purposes and not to be used in wearing out tires on pleasure trips, Gholson said.

Local ration boards are authorized to call in a motorist found to be violating regulations and take away his ration or refuse renewal of coupons when he next applies, the OPA director pointed out. Many boards in the district have found that motorists who were tempted to speed have slowed down to the legal limit when they learned they were in danger of losing rations, he added.

MAN ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF SOLICITING PASSENGERS

Lubbock--A complaint charging a Grand Junction, Colorado man with resurgences of gasoline rations was filed Saturday before U. S. Commissioner Olive Fluke in Lubbock by OPA district enforcement attorneys. The man, Marvin Rush Cope, was arrested in Amarillo by city police after Union Bus Depot employees protested that he was soliciting passengers from among persons who had already purchased bus tickets. Cope is in the Potter County jail awaiting transferral to federal custody.

It was found by OPA investigators that Cope had secured special mileage rations from Potter County and Rifle, Colorado rationing boards for alleged emergencies and then used the rations to haul paying passengers on long trips. The investigators' report further shows that Cope had secured a "T" commercial coupon from a trucker to purchase for his car.

Where Will Money Come From?

People ask: "Where will the money come from?" to reach the thirteen-billion dollar objective of the Second War Loan. The answer is simple. The people HAVE the income. When we produce munitions or peacetime goods, or anything else, we likewise produce income. For every dollar of production, there is a dollar of income.

The problem of war finance boils down to this--if individuals and businesses receive more income after taxes than there are things produced for them to buy, then excess funds arise. The government deficit is matched by the combined surplus of everybody else. This surplus should be put into Government securities to wipe out that deficit. They give their lives... You lend your money.

DEMAND FOR TIRES GREAT BECAUSE OF WHEAT HARVEST

Lubbock--The demand for tires in July will be greater than in previous months because of wheat harvest on the North Plains and hotter weather. Howard Gholson, director of OPA, said in announcing only a two per cent increase in the July quota, July quota of grade one and three passenger tires for the district is 14,735 while allocation in June was 14,449 tires. There were only 3,207 grade three tires in July to 4,858 in June and the decrease reflected a definite shortage existing in dealers stock of grade three tires, the district pointed out.

There was a slight decrease in July quota of truck tires, the OPA official said. June's quota was 5,740 tires and the July quota 5,722. Applicants for passenger or tires with mileage of 240 miles per month or less will be placed on an eligibility list if they can show need for essential driving. Gholson said. He warned that outlook for several months would continue to be critical.

Miss Alice Roberts left Wednesday for a visit in Amarillo with Mr. and Mrs. Van Swafford and Billy, and in Garden City, Kansas, with her daddy, "Toe" Roberts, who is in the Army camp there.

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

Hymie Epstein knew that after wounding a man the Japs around Sanananda were withholding their fire, using the injured soldier for bait until unarmed medical aides like himself came into range. Yet again and again he crept out under sniper fire to rescue wounded comrades until at last the Japs got him. "That kid was the best," his commander said of determined little Hymie Epstein. Are you buying War Bonds as determinedly?

Odean Millman

leader in school activities, and was popular with his associates.

In September 1939 following his graduation, he enlisted in the U. S. Army and soon thereafter was sent to the Hawaiian Islands. He was in Hawaii at the time of the Japanese attack upon Pearl Harbor and Hickam Field. That sneak attack and the destruction wrought by the Japanese warplanes must have fired his soul with a desire to pilot a plane himself and to help to pay the Japanese back in their own coin, for in May, 1942, he transferred to the Air Corps and went into training at Hemet, Calif. He took the various stages of his training at several different air fields, receiving his wings at Williamsville, Arizona, in January of this year.

Following that, he was in training at Kirtland Field at Albuquerque, New Mexico, about four months and then at the Carlisbad Army Air Field two months. He was transferred from Carlisbad to the Laughlin Field, Del Rio, just a few weeks before the fatal accident.

It was while he was in training at Phoenix, Arizona, that he was married to Miss Mary Katherine Walker, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. E. E. Walker of Honolulu, Hawaii whom he had met and to whom he had become engaged while stationed in the Hawaiians. She came to the States for the wedding, and they were married at Yuma, Arizona, August 8, 1942. She remained with him through all his changes of residence from field to field following their marriage and was at Del Rio and with him on the very day of his death. She arrived in Tahoka on Wednesday morning in advance of the body.

In addition to his wife, young Millman is survived by his parents, by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Millman, and by numerous other relatives.

His many friends here deeply deplore the accident which resulted in his death, which unfortunately came just at the time when he was prepared and ready to be of greatest service to his country, and they deeply sympathize with the bereaved family and relatives.

Injured In Storm

of hail and water were beating upon him. He tried to get up but found he was unable at first to do so. He could only squirm around and around in the water, hail, and slush. Finally he did succeed in arising and scrambled over a fence and took refuge for a time under a wagon. Then the wind changed and he had to move out, so he managed to rise to his feet again and limped on to the house. His wife and daughter, Mrs. Erma Faye Buck, were in the house but did not know till then that the barn had been blown down.

An inspection of the wrecked barn convinced members of the family and others that Mr. Edwards' escape from death was all but miraculous. He was knocked down and fell to the ground on the only narrow strip of earth not covered by the wreckage of the roof immediately behind him and of the east wall of the barn loft immediately in front of him. If he had run a split second sooner or later he necessarily would have been caught beneath the wreckage.

Mrs. Edwards and daughter hurried with him to town and to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wash Hickerson, Mrs. Hickerson being his sister. A physician was called who ministered to his injuries, and he is recuperating in the Hickerson home.

The hailstorm virtually destroyed Mr. Edwards' cotton crop and did much damage to his feed, as it did also for the crops of one or two of his neighbors.

The storm came from the southwest on the wings of a high wind, but Mr. Edwards says that there was a strange lull of the wind just before the furious devastating blast came and he thinks he never saw a more terrific downpour of rain and hail in his life.

Leslie Paris

funeral services, except the two soldier brothers, the mother having been here since he became critically ill on May 20.

On that date Mr. Paris was taken to a hospital in Lamesa, where on the next day surgeons undertook to operate. Upon making an incision they decided that the condition of the vital organs was such that surgery was not advisable and they closed the incision. At a later date he was brought back to his residence here and still later was taken to the Lubbock Hospital. There, on Monday of last week, surgeons performed an operation as the only possible means of saving his life. In the meantime, and following the operation, he was given several blood transfusions, but on Friday morning Death conquered. Virulent abscesses on the intestines had practically destroyed portions of that organ.

Leslie Paris was born at Cooleedge on June 2, 1910. He was married to Miss Violet Hedge at Hubbard City on September 14, 1929. Following their marriage, they lived at several different places but moved to Lynn county ten years ago and with the exception of one year they have lived in this county ever since. The past six years they have resided in Tahoka, where he has worked as a mechanic.

In August, 1942, he united with the Baptist Church here and remained a member up to the time of his death.

The widow and the little children together with other relatives have the sincere sympathy of many friends and acquaintances.
