Body Planned To Boost Highway 87

An organization will be formed in Denver, Colo., Sept. 14 and 15 to promote U. S. Highway 87 as the official highway connecting the Alcan and Pan American highways and to promote travel over this important link whether officially designated or not. A. B. Davis of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce is chairman of the organization promotion committee.

The highway from Alaska to Cape Horn will eventually be the Main Street of the Americas. In the United States, U. S. Highway 87 from Great Falls, Montana, through Cheyenne, Wyoming, Denver, Amarillo, Lubbock, Tahoka, Big Spring, Brady, and San Antonio, thence over U. S. 81 to Laredo, is the shortest and best route connecting the two international highways.

A preliminary meeting of representatives from Texas towns on this project was held in Big Spring on June 12, and Deen Nowlin, Happy Smith and W. T. Hanes represented the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce at the meeting. Hanes was appointed to membership on the committee to formulate the constitution and by laws for the organization and is serving with Davis and others in that capacity.

This highway already is an important route of the nation, as evidenced by the traffic over it through Tahoka every normal year. After the war it is expected to grow in importance because of its direct connection with the Alcan and the Pan American highways. The organization proposes to see that this route is kept in the public eye and secures the traffic it deserves.

It is not yet known whether Tahoka will send a representative to the meeting or not.

Gin Installing New One-Story Plant

All machinery has been received for the new gin plant of the Farmers Cooperative Association, and a large crew is busy installing it. The work is being supervised by three factory representatives of Lummus Cotton Gin Co.

All the latest and improved devices for ginning cotton are featured in this machinery, it is said. This is a one-story gin and all machinery is steel throughout. The gins are double-moting and produce a cleaner sample for the farmer, as well as doing his ginning in less time.

The president of the Association is B. J. Emanuel, with L. D. Howell as vice president and Vernon Willhoit, secretary. Claude Donaldson is manager.

Screwworms, Flies Infest Livestock

The screwworm and blowfly situation has been very critical this summer in Lynn county, according to J. C. Smith, county agricultural agent. Reports from some farmers and ranchmen show an infestation of all classes of animals, ranging from 2 percent to as high as 15 percent. One rancher reports that he has lost approximately 20 head of sheep due to screwworm.

The best all around treatment for screwworm is the use of Smear 62, a smear developed by the government. Smear 62 can usually be obtained at any place which handles veterinary supplies.

SGT. KADDATZ INJURED IN NORTH AFRICA

A. J. Kaddatz recently had a letter from his son, Sgt. Raymond Kaddatz, who was supposed to still be in North Africa, stating that he sustained an injury to one knee on July 11 and was under treatment. A letter written later and received by Mr. Kaddatz Monday stated that he expected to be through with the treatments by August 11. Mr. Kaddatz has no information as to whether the knee was wounded in action or was injured accidentally, nor does he have any information as to where the son was at the time the letters were written.

Complete Huge Grain Elevator

The new Burleson grain elevator was practically completed last weekend but some little odds and ends are being attended to this week. It is believed that it will be ready for business before this week closes.

This capacious elevator, with its capacity of three million pounds, will enable Mr. Burleson to handle the grain of this section in a much more prompt and satisfactory manner and will accordingly be of great benefit to the farmers of Lynn county who may have a surplus of sorghum grains.

It was erected at a cost of about $30,000.

R. J. Meeks, 77, Buried Saturday

Following funeral services conducted in the Baptist Church at New Lynn at 4:00 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, the body of R. J. Meeks of that community, who died on the preceding Wednesday, was buried in the Southland cemetery under the direction of the Harris Funeral Home, with Rev. Monte Robinson, pastor of the New Lynn Church, conducting the services.

Deceased, almost 77 years of age, had been in ill health for a long time. Death came at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening at the family residence.

Surviving are his aged companion, five sons, three daughters, 25 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. All of these except (Cont'd. on last page)

Lt. Truett Cooper Is In Australia

First Lt. Truett Cooper is now in Australia, according to letters received the last few days by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper, and sister, Mrs. P. A. Nowlin.

He writes that "the people are very nice here and appreciate what the U. S. is doing. That is more than some of the people over there seem to think."

He says it seems strange to see cars driving down the left side of the street, and steering wheels on the right side of cars. Too, it's hard to get used to pounds, shillings, and sixpence. He also tells of seeing some of those strange animals for which Australia is noted, kangaroos.

Lt. Cooper is a graduate of the Tahoka schools and of Texas A&M.

Henry McDaniel Of Forest Service Here

Henry McDaniel, a Tahoka-reared boy who has been in the Forest Ranger Service in Arizona for the past fifteen years, visited his mother, Mrs. S. N. McDaniel, and other relatives in this section a few days last week and this. He came Thursday and departed Tuesday of this week.

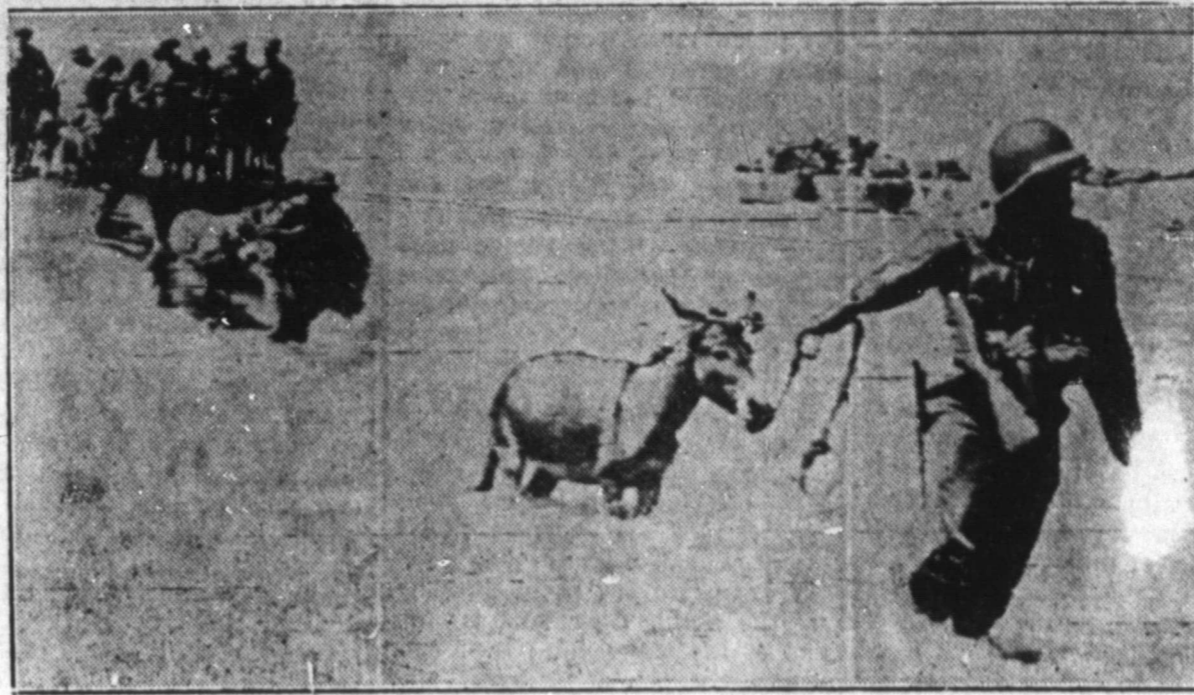

Before leaving Tahoka, Henry was an employee in the First National Bank for several years. He resigned and accepted a position with the Forest Rangers on account of his health. The work and the climate out there must have been good for him, for he looks as if he might have two or three score of years before him yet.

TAHOKA MEN HONORED

Lubbock Army Air Field, Aug. 19.—Four Tahoka men have been presented the Good Conduct Medal at this twin-engine air field by Col. Ralph E. Holmes, commanding officer. The medal is awarded those who have completed a year's service in time of war with a rating of "excellent" in conduct and efficiency on the job.

Tahoka men receiving the medal were T/Sgt. Gerge C. Wells, and Corporals C. C. Garvin, Lester D. Adams, and John Reid Townes.

Fred B. Hegi of the First National Bank received a letter Tuesday from his brother Guy stating that he had recently seen Tom Draper, Felix Macha, and Frank Liseby, all in the service. He failed to contact David Weathers, as he was with another outfit. All are in Merrie Olde England.

AMERICAN ARMY MULE STILL IN THE FIGHT—Pack animals are doing their share in carrying supplies over rough Italian terrain to soldiers in the front lines. This U. S. Signal Corps radio photo shows how some of the first of the mules were led ashore from landing boats. Soldiers said the beasts were reluctant to plunge into the water but were not unwilling in moving forward with their backs when they reached dry land.

Lt. Col. Reed Is Home On Leave

Judge Louis B. Reed, now Lieut. Col. Reed of the Army, Fort Sill, was here Tuesday greeting his many friends. Judge Reed, who is district judge of the 106th judicial district, with his home at Lamesa, a veteran of World War No. 1, and a reserve officer since, offered his service to his country soon after the outbreak of the present conflict and has since been serving in an official capacity at Fort Sill.

By election of the various bars of the district, Judge J. S. Gairland of Lamesa has been substituting for Judge Reed on the bench during the latter's absence.

Mrs. Reed is with the Judge at Fort Sill but accompanied him back to Lamesa on this visit.

Work Progresses On Curry Plant

Work on the building and installation of the press on the new Curry Gin has been completed, and installation of the gin machinery will begin just as soon as this equipment arrives, according to R. W. Fenton, Jr., one of the owners. The plant will be complete in time for the opening of the ginning season.

Due to the shortage of lumber and other building materials, the residence on the property probably will be used as the gin office this year, he said.

Mrs. W. O. Henderson has been in a Lubbock hospital the past week or ten days, where she underwent a minor operation.

PARATROOPERS ARMED FOR ACTION—The call of Lieut. Gen. Lesley J. McNair, commanding general of the Army Ground Forces, for soldiers with basic training to join the paratroopers has been answered by many young men with topnotch physical training who are anxious to land a hammer blow on the enemy where it will hurt him most. Here is a famous father and step-son paratrooper team prepared for flight. Paratroopers are made up entirely of volunteers who receive $50 a month over the pay of enlisted men.

FFA Boys Are At Ruidoso This Week

E. J. Hendrix and about sixteen Tahoka F. F. A. boys left in a truck late Sunday afternoon for Ruidoso, where they were to spend the week in the mountains.

The trip was intended to be educational as well as recreational.

The broken bones were set by Dr. Prohl, and an x-ray examination Friday showed the injury to be healing nicely.

Plans Formulated Opening Of School

Plans are being formulated this week for the opening of the Tahoka public schools on Monday, August 30, though the system still is short two or three teachers and repairs on the school buses are not yet complete.

Leo Jackson, High School principal, announces that all students entering the local High School for the first time should meet at the school Friday morning of next week to have their transcripts checked, program of courses arranged, etc.

All prospective football players are asked to meet Tuesday night of next week at the gymnasium at 8:30.

Complete schedules for enrollment, school opening, and other events will be announced in The News next week.

Everything was expected to be in readiness so far as possible by the opening date, a week from Monday, according to Supt. W. T. Hanes.

Guinea Gold Sent By Homer Parker

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Parker have received a copy of a very interesting little paper, Guinea Gold, from their son, Homer Parker, who has been in New Guinea, in the Southwest Pacific, fighting the Japs for many months.

Guinea Gold is a four-column, four-page paper published by our soldiers for the benefit of the soldiers. It is a neat little sheet, and carries news of happenings in the jungles and also world news, news from the States, sports, politics, and strikes and labor troubles. The only ads are two theatre ads and classified ads, the latter including two or three in which soldiers are seeking the whereabouts of lost buddies.

Guinea Gold is published "in the field."

EDWARD McMILLAN HERE

Edward McMillan, printer 3/c in the U. S. Navy, now doing land duty in San Francisco, arrived home on a ten-days leave Monday night for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McMillan, and other members of the family. Until a few months ago, Edward was in active service out on the Pacific and saw plenty of action. He gave a brief account of some of these experiences on a previous visit here.

A. J. EDWARDS HOME

A. J. Edwards, who was seriously injured a few weeks ago when his tractor ran over him down on his farm in Borden county, was released from the hospital and brought to his home here Saturday. The pelvic bone was broken in several places and it will be necessary for Mr. Edwards to remain in a cast for several weeks yet.

Rotary Governor Visits In Tahoka

Tahoka Rotary Club was host Thursday at noon to the 127th district governor of Rotary International, W. N. "Pic" Larmour of Graham, Texas. He spoke at noon to the club and was meeting with chairmen of the various club committees Thursday evening as The News went to press.

"Pic" Larmour is one of the Southwest's outstanding Rotarians and has long edited the club publication at Graham which has been outstanding in Rotary affairs in this section. He is a theatre owner, officer in a loan association, and has headed many local and sectional civic enterprises. He has served his home club in practically every official capacity.

At the evening meeting he was scheduled to offer advice to the local club in the conduct of its affairs and to hear reports from the 15 committee chairmen on the program of work of the Tahoka club for the current year.

Rotary is a world-wide organization, with 5,100 clubs in 50 countries throughout the world. The prime objects of Rotary are service fellowship, and the promotion of a better understanding between the various businesses of the town, between the various communities, and the various peoples of the world. Rotary was conceived by a Chicago business man, Paul Harris, in 1905, and the movement reached its (Cont'd. on page three)

Mail Early To Men In Foreign Service

In order that Christmas parcels may reach the men in the Armed Forces on time and in good condition, arrangements have been made by the Post Office department for mailing of packages at an early date, according to Postmaster Happy Smith.

Christmas parcels and cards for Army personnel overseas must be mailed during the period beginning Sept. 15 and ending Oct. 15, the earlier the better, while parcels for members of the Navy may be mailed as late as Nov. 1.

Parcels should be labeled "Christmas parcel." In order to conserve shipping space, parcels shall not exceed 5 pounds in weight or 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and girth combined. They must be packed in metal, wooden or strong corrugated fiberboard boxes. Perishable matter will not be accepted, and toxicants, inflammable materials, etc., are prohibited. Addresses must be full and legible.

Hogs Need Wallow For Best Growth

Lynn county farmers have made wonderful progress in the last few years in hog raising and swine management, according to J. C. Smith, county agricultural agent. However, many farmers have failed to recognize the importance of providing their hogs with hog wallows.

Statistics show that a hog provided with a concrete hog wallow will put on 17 pounds more flesh than the hog that does not have access to the wallow, although both hogs have received equal amounts of the same kinds of feed and similar swine management otherwise.

It is very essential that we utilize to the fullest extent, all of our feed during these war time conditions. Uncle Sam is calling on every farmer to do his or her best. We can't do our best with hogs unless we have suitable wallows. A suitable wallow can be built for a small amount of expense and in a very short time.

The hog wallow for the average size herd of hogs should be about 8 feet wide and about 10 feet long and 2 feet deep. It should not be located in the corner of the hog lot but should be placed where it will extend out of pen, accessible only through a short narrow lane.

The county agent invites all interested to call by his office and he will assist in planning an individual hog wallow for your farm.

Paul Joseph Goebbels is the Propaganda Minister for Germany. In other words, he is Hitler's hot air dispenser. It is his duty to keep up the morale of the German masses whatever happens. That requires a good deal of lying, and Goebbels has been crying to make a good hand. But even the most prodigious liar is compelled to admit the truth occasionally. After a dozen German industrial cities had been blasted into piles of debris and Hamburg virtually destroyed, Goebbels admitted the other day that the Allied air offensive is pausing the Germans "many difficulties and sorrows." But he added: "Nothing can wrench victory from our hands if we only manage to overcome the growing difficulties of the air war." And that certainly is a big "if," for the American and British air power is increasing in strength and effectiveness every day. During the first of the war, Hitler held supremacy in the air. He came very near bombing the life out of London when the British could not so much as get across the English channel with a single big bomber. But now he has lost the supremacy in the air—and that forever. He can never surmount that "if" and Goebbels well knows

ODDS and ENDS

by Eec Eye, the Elder

President Roosevelt a few days ago gave assurance to the people of the Philippine Islands that the United States will give them complete independence just as soon as the Japanese are driven from the islands, whether that be before or after the time set by statute for that important event.

The President doubtless made this pronouncement not only to reassure the Filipinos but also to off-set propaganda which the Japs were putting out. The Japs had just told the Filipinos that they would assure them independence as soon as the war is over. If they can make the Filipinos believe this, it will soften the attitude of the Filipinos against their Japanese conquerors and will be of great benefit to the Japs in resisting the efforts of the Americans to drive them back out of the Philippines.

It is to be hoped that no considerable portion of the Filipinos will fall for this kind of dope being issued out by the Japs. It is such a palpable lie that we can not see how any Filipino could be deceived by it.

The Japs are in the Philippines today not because they wished to give the Filipinos their freedom but because they wanted the Philippines as a part of their great Asiatic empire.

The Japs have been appealing to the brown and the yellow races of Asia and the Pacific ever since this war started to join with them in their effort to expel the whites from Asia and the Pacific. "Asia for the Asiatics" has been their slogan from the start. They have held out to the people of Malaya and Burmah and India, even to China, to the peoples of the East India Islands, to the Philippines, and the

it. Goebbels' "if" amounts to a confession that Hitler can not win.

A brief little news item dated last Friday stated that Helen Keller had entered the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minnesota, for a check-up. Let's hope she is not seriously ill; though age must be creeping on. Helen Keller is one of the most remarkable women of all time for the effectiveness with which she overcame handicaps. Being both blind and deaf from babyhood, she yet became a highly educated and intelligent woman, achieving some fame both as an author and a lecturer, and accomplished far more good in the world than most of us who have two good eyes and two good ears. The accomplishments of blind and deaf Helen Keller should knock all the egotism out of all of us vain little ignoramuses.

The mesquite is about the only native tree on these plains, but the plains are becoming a land of trees nevertheless. There are far more trees today around the homes on these plains than may be found around the homes on the prairies of North and Central Texas. That may sound incredible to any person who has not seen the plains in the last ten or twelve years, but it's the truth. The Chinese elm is well adapted to this soil and climate and is a tree of rapid growth. It is transforming the aspect of this entire region, and we can only hope that our people will make even greater use of it around their homes and along the highways.

It is now being demonstrated that pecan trees, with a little irrigation thrive out on these plains. A number of farmers in Lynn county are growing nice pecan trees on their premises, and it is to be hoped that many more pecans will be planted out this fall and winter.

brown and yellow races on all the islands of the sea the roseate picture of a great empire of the brown and yellow races, free of the white man's domination and influence.

Of course it has been their purpose to rule this empire; to make China, and India, and Burmah, and Malaya, and the East Indies, and the Philippines, and all the far-flung islands of the Pacific mere subjects of the Japs. They have soft-pedaled this fact but they have not concealed it.

If the Germans have entertained dreams of world domination, much more have the Japs done so. For years and years Jap leaders have been teaching the Japanese people even from babyhood that they are a superior race and are destined to rule the world. Their land is the Land of the Rising Sun; their emperor is the Son of Heaven and descended from heaven to lead his people.

They believe their emperor is divine just as truly as we believe Christ is divine, except that they have no conception of a great all-powerful, all-wise, and holy God, who watches over the destinies of men and of nations.

They do not believe that there is a place of punishment for the wicked nor a place of rewards and of happiness for the righteous.

In fact, they draw no sharp line of distinction between righteousness and wickedness except as to a person's attitude and conduct with respect to his country and its rulers. If he is loyal to his country and willing to make any kind of sacrifice for it at any and all times, he is supremely righteous. If he fails in his loyalty and his devotion to his country at any time, he is supremely wicked, a creature to be despised and even put to death. There can be no extenuating circumstances.

Shintoism, which teaches the Japanese that their emperor was not born as other men are but came down from heaven to rule their nation, is a religion without a moral code. There is no such thing as Jap does not go to heaven nor to as morals in the Shinto creed. The hell when he dies, according to Shintoism and Buddhism, the only two religions that exist in Japan, with the exception of a mere toehold that Christianity has gained there. He may live again in the form of a frog or a fish or a snake or a pig or just any other kind of animal, but his final destination is extinction. And that he regards as the greatest possible happiness. Death means one long step toward final extinction and therefore toward the great goal to be desired. Hence, the Jap counts it gain to die. No wonder there are Japanese suicide squads. No wonder a Jap would rather die than to surrender.

Furthermore, as already intimated, the Jap is not bothered about his morals. If he chooses to murder a white child, ravish a white woman, or to destroy or injure, by lying and treachery, a nation of whites, as he sought to do at Pearl Harbor, he has committed no moral wrong, according to his conception of right and wrong. On the other hand, he has done a commendable act, for in destroying or injuring a white nation or a member of the white race, he has shown his loyalty and devotion to his own country and his own emperor. He wins the praise of his own people for his dastardly conduct.

That is why Americans can not afford to trust Japanese under any circumstances, except those Japanese who have been reared or have resided for years outside of Japan and imbibed other conceptions of right and wrong.

That is why the Japanese soldier is so treacherous—why so many times he has run up the white flag of surrender just to lure his "captors" into an ambush that means their death. This has happened more than once, according to the boys who have been in the Solomons and other islands of the Southwest Pacific.

It is a bit of this treachery that Japs are now employing in trying to make the Filipinos believe that they mean only to break the shackles that bind the Philippines to the United States and to give the Filipinos their independence as soon as the war is over.

It is a piece of treacherous propaganda. What the Japanese really intend to do is to keep the Philippines under their heel forever. What they intend to do is to keep the Dutch Netherlands, or East Indies, forever; to subdue China and make of her a subject nation forever; to hold Burmah forever; to eventually annex India and then hold her, by stealth or by force, forever.

With four hundred millions of Chinese subjects, three hundred and fifty millions of Indian subjects, many many millions of Burmese subjects, and countless other millions of Javanese, Filipinos, and other Pacific Island subjects, Japan expects to become the head and center of the most extensive, populous, and wealthy empire the world has ever known.

And if she can win this war and weld all these peoples into one vast empire and one fighting unit, then indeed will she be in position to make slaves—or angels—out of the rest of mankind.

That is Japan's dream, and that is the trophy for which she is waging this war.

It would be a calamity for Germany to win this war, but it would be a ten times more disastrous calamity for Japan to win it.

highest peak prior to the opening of the war. Since the rise of the dictators, Rotary has been banned in Germany, Italy, Japan, and the occupied countries, though underground reports have come through that secret meetings are still being held by at least some clubs in France, Belgium, the Philippines, and possibly others. In spite of the war and numerous bombings it is said the clubs of London, England, and Chungking, China, have never missed a weekly meeting.

Larmour's talk covered the growth and ideals and purpose of Rotary, Rotary's relation to world affairs, and he issued a warning on the drift toward totalitarianism in our own government. He asserted that business men, like Rotarians, must be watchful or free enterprise and freedom of speech may be curtailed even after the war is won.

The membership committee presented four new members, Carl D. Griffing, C. N. Woods, J. W. Goodell, and Leo Jackson, and Wynne Collier gave the induction talk.

President Travis Hanes announced that committees were functioning and would make reports to the district governor at the night meeting.

L. C. Haney was host in his home at the night meeting.

Guests Thursday included three service men, Carra Reese of the Army, Horace Rogers of the Army Air Forces, and Edward McMillan of the Navy, all home on furlough. One Rotarian from Sweetwater and one from O'Donnell were also present, along with several local guests.

REMAINS IN WAC'S

Luke Field, Ariz., Aug. 19.—When the opportunity presented itself to continue in the Women's Army Corps and carry on the important job of releasing enlisted men for combat duty that was started by the predecessor organization, the WAACs, little time was lost in re-enlisting by S/Sgt. Cynthia L. Waldrip, daughter of Mrs. W. M. Waldrip, Rt. 3, Tahoka. She was among the first group sworn into the new service in impressive ceremonies held at Luke field, and is a supply sergeant.

W. L. Knight comes in every year and renews the subscription for the paper for his three children, Mrs. F. T. Carson of Washington, D. C., K. F. (Buddy) Knight of San Angelo, and Mrs. J. E. Nance of Borden county. He says it saves him a lot of writing. He just writes once every few weeks and tells them: "We are well; get the news out of the Lynn County News," and that is about Nuf-sed." He came in Monday and renewed before the time was out.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Williams of Draw, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Cook, are visiting their daughter in Washington and Oregon, Mrs. Bill Williams and Mrs. Inez Morgan. They expect to arrive back home about the first of September.

Capt. McCasland will be succeeded by Lt. L. T. Craig as adjutant. A small attendance was present at the Monday night drill of the Tahoka company, but those present went through one of the snappiest drill sessions held recently, including some more complicated commands.

Officers urge a larger attendance next Monday night, when some new work will be started if most of the company is present.

METHODIST CHURCH
Sunday night Dr. O. P. Clark, superintendent of the Lubbock district, will preach. There will be no business or conference to transact, but just preaching by him. Let us make it a point to be in our pews at all services Sunday. This is his last of the six years he has been on this district and he will be assigned a new field of work in November at our annual conference. So, let each of us make an effort to be present Sunday night. The pastor will occupy the pulpit at the morning hour. His subject will be "Visions and Tasks." Without vision people will perish; without a task the vision is nothing more than a dream. Must idealism be translated into realism? The latter is the complement of the former. It takes both to make the whole of man. If we are one without the other, we are lopsided and unbalanced. To all of the services of the day we extend to all members, friends, and visitors an urgent invitation.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
Brother Atkisson returned early Tuesday morning from Cottonwood, Texas, where he had concluded a meeting last Sunday night. This meeting was one of the most successful, judging from visible results, that had been held in Cottonwood in a number of years. There were nineteen baptisms and six restorations.

Brother Atkisson will be with the congregation here the rest of this month. On the third of September he will begin a meeting with the Gordon Church of Christ.

We urge that everyone be present next Lord's day for all services. There is much to be done, and there is something that you will be able to do to help the cause of our Lord. We want to remind the young people to be present for their classes. There will be some plans that will be of interest to them. We invite all to worship at the nearest Church of Christ to you.—Contributed.

NAZARENE REVIVAL
The revival meeting in progress at the Church of the Nazarene will come to a close next Sunday night. Rev. B. W. Taylor of Cisco is doing the preaching.

Congratulations—
Pfc and Mrs. Loyd F. Swann of Wilson on the birth of a son at 5:20 o'clock Monday afternoon at the Lubbock General Hospital, weighing 6 pounds. He has been named William Pat. The father is stationed at Sherman. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Pat Swann and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shaw.

It's a good idea to "put up" fruits and vegetables for next winter... but if you put up your car instead of using it for essential transportation, you actually throw an additional burden on overloaded streetcars, buses, and trains.

In the national interest, as well as in your own, the way to preserve your car is to give it the care it needs and deserves in times like these.

Save rubber, gasoline, and oil by cutting down driving speed. And get expert help to make your car and your tires go farther and last longer.

This expert help is waiting for you at every Phillips 66 Service Station. Go there at least once a week so that the Phillips 66 Service Man can check tire inflation. In hot weather, twice-a-week tire checks are even better. Remember, under-inflation not only increases tire wear but places an unnecessary drag on the engine and thus wastes gasoline.

The Phillips 66 Service Man will also inspect your tires for cuts and bruises, will crisscross them with the spare every 3,000 miles, will tell you when re-capping is advisable. He will check your radiator, battery, and air filter. Will change crankcase oil, and lubricate chassis parts at the nationally recommended 60-day intervals.

Remember, whether you buy one coupon's worth of famous Phillips 66 gasoline, or merely want water or air, Good Neighbor Service is always waiting for you at the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Mr. Poultryman: YOU!

Can help save 12,000,000 bags of poultry feed by culling 20% of all hens NOW. Many hens have already stopped laying, and will lay NO MORE until they have molted this Fall.

October is the normal time to sell cull hens to make room for new pullets. But feed is critically short and must be saved and stretched to make the most food for VICTORY!

CULL NOW

Instead of October. Save three months feed (18 lbs.) on each cull hen. Every six hens culled NOW will save a bag of feed. Every 120 hens culled NOW will save a ton of feed.

If every poultryman will immediately cull 20% of his hens, it will mean sending 71,000,000 hens to market, and will save 12,000,000 bags of feed.

SO, LET'S SAVE FEED NOW!

'Winning Marbles,' Navy Man Writes

The News received last week too late for publication in that issue of the paper the following letter from Wallace Gannaway, Fireman 2/c of the U. S. Navy, who is on a ship somewhere out on the Pacific. His parents reside in the vicinity of New Home.

"Dear Mr. Hill: I, as one of the Navy boys of Lynn county, am trying to do my part to lick the Japs.

"The paper my father subscribed for has been coming to me regularly and I appreciate it a lot, to see some, or read about some, of the things that are happening back in Lynn county.

"I will soon be away from the States one year, which seems like a short time in ways and a long time in other ways. To me and boys who have been out here several months longer than I have, the States seem like some foreign country.

"Oh, yes, and before I forget, E. R. Price said also for me to thank you and tell you that he appreciated the paper. E. R. is a New Lynn lad with plenty of resistance toward the Japs.

"I was probably near your son Billy and I imagine I have seen things that would make a guy's hair stand out. But good or bad we take them all on the chin with the best smile we can punch forth. We are treated well under the conditions of war.

"To our good luck we play marbles with those slant-eyed babies pretty often but so far we have won all the marbles.

"Since my days I have spent with the Navy I have never been with a better crew of sailors than I am with at the present time. I myself have never been homesick but some of the boys get that way. We stay busy a great deal of the time, and really have to really turn-to.

"As for myself, I will probably stay in the Navy after the war if I make out OK. I have spent many good times in Lynn county and in my high school days at New Home High, but those days are over, even the basketball I used to play for Mr. A. L. Pace. Those were picnic days, these are business days.

"Well, as the time is late, I will close in thanking you again for the paper. Sincerely yours, Wallace Eugene Gannaway."

DUNAGAN GRANDDAUGHTERS ARE DONG THEIR PART

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dunagan have some grand-daughters of whom they are very proud. Two of them spent several weeks with the grandparents here this summer returning to their home near Malone, Hill county, last week.

The two girls, Maxine and Valorie Craig, 16 and 14 years of age, are students of the Bynum, Hill county, high school, the older being in the 12th grade and the younger in the 11th.

As soon as school was out in May, these girls got their hoes and went to work in the cotton fields of Hill county, chopping out many acres of cotton. As the cotton-chopping season was closing there, they came out to Lynn county, arriving here June 28, remaining in the Dunagan home until August 11. But they were not here as mere visitors. They were in Grandpa Dunagan's cotton field with their hoes as long as they could find a weed to cut.

Then they got word that the cotton was popping open in Hill county, and so on Wednesday of last week they left for home, where they expect to pick cotton until school opens on September 15.

And Maxine expects to get her high school diploma next May. Valorie will get hers in May, 1945.

And, well, we bet they make some fellows two mighty good wives after awhile.

Sgt. Eural (Shorty) Lee of Camp Haan, near San Diego, Calif., was here from Friday until Monday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee. His wife, Mrs. Louise Lee, came over from Levelland to be with him while he was here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bevers of Plains were here over the week-end visiting their niece, Mrs. Edna Huling of Draw. She also had as her guests Miss Elizabeth Huling and Miss Wynona Clipper of Colorado City.

R. J. Meeks, 77,

two grandchildren were present for the funeral, the services being delayed until two sons in California could arrive.

The sons are: W. P. Meeks of the New Lynn community, L. Dee Meeks of Los Angeles, C. W. Meeks of Rt. 2, Wilson, John L. Meeks of Shallowater, and H. G. Meeks of Los Angeles.

The daughters are: Mrs. Sam Rosson of Royalty, Ward county, Mrs. W. E. Stone of New Lynn, and Mrs. C. O. Lackey of Lorenzo.

Also surviving are five brothers and four sisters, four of whom were present.

Ransom Jefferson Meeks was born in the state of Arkansas on October 18, 1866. Coming to Texas as a young man, he was married to Miss Cynthia Elor Cooper near De Leon on July 26, 1894. They lived in Comanche county for ten years and then removed to Taylor county, where they resided until 1928, when they came on out to the Plains and settled at New Lynn. They have resided there ever since.

Mr. Meeks had been a member of the Baptist Church since 1902 and a member of the Church at New Lynn since moving to that community.

He bore a good name among his neighbors and possibly did not have an enemy in the world. The father of a large family, he was devoted to his wife and children, his church and his country, and he did his part in making this a little better world in which to live.

Drury W. Bass and daughter, Mrs. Aline Forester, and his son, Charlie Edd Bass of Athens came out this week to remain through the fall and winter if they can find a house in which to live. Charlie Edd spent last fall out here in the Draw community picking cotton, and he hoped to find a lot of cotton to pick this fall. Tahoka really needs twenty-five or thirty nice new rent houses right now. Everyone of them could be filled in a week or two.

Pfc. Carna Reese Home From Hospital

Pfc. Carna Reese, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reese, who has been at Fort Sill, Okla., practically ever since the outbreak of the war, arrived home early Wednesday morning on furlough.

Carna had been in the Army hospital at Fort Sill for several weeks, where he had undergone an operation to correct a defect in the shoulder joint. For some time, one of his shoulders had been slipping out of joint occasionally, which caused him much pain and rendered the arm useless. Army surgeons decided that an operation was the only remedy, an operation by which the ball was made so secure in the socket as to prevent further disjoints.

PETTY H. D. CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING

The Petty home demonstration club met with Mrs. S. M. Watkins on Thursday, August 12.

Business session was held by Mrs. J. W. Lowrey, president; demonstration on drying fruits and vegetables given by Miss Dixon was very educational as well as interesting to all present.

Those present were Mrs. G. B. McAllister, Mrs. Lee Cromer, Mrs. Lon Cromer, Mrs. Ray Hoover, Mrs. Alvin Perry, and one new member, Mrs. H. A. Cowart.

Recreation period was conducted by Mrs. Perry. A vegetable game was lots of fun; every one enjoyed it very much.

Mrs. Lee Cromer was elected delegate to the T. H. D. A. meeting, leaving for Dallas Sunday afternoon. The Club is looking forward with great anticipation to the helpful report we are sure she will be able to give on her return.

Our next meeting will be on September 23, at the home of Mrs. Alvin Perry. Everyone is invited to come and bring some one with you. —Reporter.

Homer St. Clair of Lamesa was here in company with his brother-in-law, Henry McDaniel, visiting Mrs. S. N. McDaniel and greeting friends Sunday. Henry and folks lived here so long that it sounds absurd to speak of him as a Lamesa man.

BIGGERSTAFF SENDS WIFE SOUTH PACIFIC GARB

Mrs. Obera Biggerstaff received through the mail Tuesday from her husband, James Arthur Biggerstaff of the U. S. Navy, a sample skirt used by the natives of the South Sea Islands—a grass skirt. Gentlemen who are in the habit of ranting at the brevity of women's dress, may find a new object of scorn in the dress of those Islanders.

She also received a quite ornate certificate, ostensibly issued by His Majesty King Neptune to her husband, James Arthur Biggerstaff, upon his crossing the equator in May, certifying to his admission into the Ancient Order of The Deep. Biggerstaff should now be well qualified to get the scalps of a few Japs.

Miss Eva Dell Davis received a telephone call Sunday from her friend W. A. Hardy, Yeoman, 2/g, who is stationed at Honolulu in the Hawaiian Islands. Among other things, he stated that he was well. Davis enlisted in the Navy from Snyder.

Must Piles be Cut?

If not, Try Easing Pain, Itching, Soreness, this Palliative Way. If you have a case of piles that need cutting, have it done. But for palliative relief of pain, itching, soreness of simple, non-surgical piles, fissures, rectal irritations, try a real DOCTOR'S ointment. Use one used adjunctively at acted 44-year-old Thornton & Minor Clinic. Supply was sent to so everyone could get it. Get a tube of Thornton & Minor's Rectal Ointment (with pile pipe, cover) if not available, money back.
