County's War Bond Quota Is $695,000

Honor Roll Board For Service Men Will Be Erected

A Servicemen's Honor Roll will be erected on the courthouse square bearing the names of all men and women in the service, or who have been in the armed forces in this war.

This was the decision reached Monday by the Lynn county commissioner, court, representatives of the O'Donnell and Tahoka Rotary clubs, and of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

Following the meeting a committee made up of representatives of each organization, to direct the assembling of names, arrangement of finances, and erection of the Honor Roll board. Pat Swann will represent the commissioners court, Mack Haynes and Frank Liddell, the O'Donnell Rotary Club, Harley Henderson, the Tahoka Rotary Club, and J. L. Smith, the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

The board, decorations, lighting effects, and the painting of the names on the board is estimated to cost $1200.00 to $1500.00. Of this amount, the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce has pledged $300, the commissioner, court has promised a nice-sized appropriation, and the citizens of O'Donnell will do their part and more, and several Wilson people have already expressed a desire to help.

Most of the funds are to be raised by voluntarily subscription. Therefore, anyone wishing to contribute to this worthy cause is urged to see Harley Henderson or A. L. Smith in Tahoka, Pat Swann at Wilson, or Noel Booth, Chas. Cabool, Mack Haynes, or Frank Liddell of O'Donnell.

Anderson Seeks Precinct 3 Office

John Anderson, commissioner of Precinct 3, the southwest one-fourth of Lynn county, is a candidate for re-election.

If elected, he promises fair treatment to all constituents and to all areas, judicious expenditure of the county's funds in keeping with standards of economy. He has made a close study of the county's affairs, and during his administration the county's finances, as well as that of his precinct have been placed on a strictly cash basis. He feels that the experience he has gained during this term of office will help him make a better commissioner in the future.

Mr. Anderson is one of the county's best citizens, of the strictest integrity, and is highly regarded by the people as a whole.

His only promise is to do his best to serve the best interests of the county and precinct in an efficient, business way. He says he greatly appreciates the confidence placed in him by the voters, and intends to continue to do his best throughout this term of office. If the voters see fit to re-elect him, he promises to continue doing the best possible job he can.

P. D. Server Asks For Re-election

P. D. Server, Tahoka's genial Justice of the Peace, announces that he is a candidate for re-election to the office he now holds.

Judge Server says he hates to see any of our citizens have to pay fines, but he sure is in a receptive mood when it comes to this marrying business.

The Judge promises to give the same efficient service that he has tried to give in the past. He, also, expresses his sincere appreciation of the voters' support heretofore, and says, if elected, he will do his level best to live up to the confidence that they have placed in him.

Noted Author Will Present Address

Dr. Douglas Southall Freeman, editor of the News-Leader, Richmond, Va., will speak on the Southern Baptist Hour at 7:30 Sunday morning over a radio hook-up which includes stations WFAA, Dallas.

Dr. Freeman, Pulitzer prize winner and holder of 12 honorary degrees, is author of "Robert E. Lee" and other books. His subject Sunday is, "A Free Church in a Free State."

Negroes Arrested With Liquor Cargo

Two Crosbyton negroes are in the Lynn county jail charged with possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale, having been arrested here early Saturday morning after Nightwatchman L. E. Isbell had found seven cases of liquor in their pickup.

The negroes were said to be coming from Big Spring and were having trouble with their car. They reached Tahoka and inquired of the nightwatchman where they could get gasoline. Mr. Isbell noticed that the negroes acted suspicious, and that bundled feed in the back of the pick-up apparently covered up something else. He allowed the nearby-frozen negroes to go in the courthouse to warm, locked the door on them, and searched the pick-up. On finding the liquor, he called Sheriff Sam Floyd and the two colored boys were given a room in the county hotel, where they are still boarding.

Lonnie Williams Seeks Re-election

Lonnie Williams, commissioner of Precinct 2, in asking for re-election, states that he sincerely appreciates all past favors of the voters of his precinct, and if returned to the job will do his "dead-level best to make a good hand."

Mr. Williams has lived in this county and precinct 3 for many years, and is intimately acquainted with problems of the county and community bodies. He is conscientious, sincere and hard-working, and declares that he has tried to attend to the business of his office in an efficient, fair and impartial manner.

Though handicapped by shortages caused by the war, he has done the best possible under the circumstances. He says he knows he has made mistakes, but has tried to profit by them, and feels that his experience as commissioner will help him to be a better commissioner in the future.

One thing he has reason to be proud of is the fact that the county now is in excellent financial shape due to judicious handling of funds and better tax collections, and just as soon as men and materials are available he hopes to build some roads of which the people will be proud, if they see fit to re-elect him.

Johnnie Wells received the fracture of a leg bone while playing basketball at school Friday of last week.

Mrs. Thomas, 91, Died on Monday

Mrs. Amanda A. Thomas, aged 91 years, three months, and 28 days, passed away at 6:30 Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Walker, where she had made her home for the past seven or eight years.

After being prepared by Harris Funeral Home, the body was carried to her former home at Ennis, where services were held at Kever Chapel at 4:00 p. m. Tuesday by Rev. Brown, pastor of the Methodist Church, at Ennis. The remains were interred in the family plot in the cemetery there.

Though a native of Georgia, Mrs. Thomas had lived many years in Texas, and leaves surviving her the following sons and daughters: A. I. Thomas, Mrs. A. A. Walker, C. A. Thomas and W. O. Thomas, all of Tahoka; Dr. A. L. Thomas of Ennis, and Mrs. R. H. Collier of Post. Wynne Collier of Tahoka is a grandson.

Long a Christian and a member of the Methodist Church, Mrs. Thomas had lived a long and useful life, and was loved by all who knew her.

Those going to Ennis for the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Thomas and Wynne Collier of Tahoka, and Mrs. R. H. Collier of Post.

C. A. Thomas and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Harris, and A. I. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Walker were ill, and members of those families were unable to go to Ennis for the services.

Car Stolen Here Found In Lubbock

C. O. Carmack's Chevrolet car, stolen Monday morning at 1 o'clock, was recovered by officers that day at College Avenue in Lubbock, where it had been abandoned.

Carmack was awakened when the thief or thieves made their first attempt to start the car, parked by his home, but before he could get out, the culprit had driven away. He notified Sheriff Sam Floyd immediately, and the sheriff warned officers over the South Plains to be on the look-out for the machine.

That same day, W. A. Reddell reported a strange car parked in front of his home south of the square, and on investigation Sheriff Floyd found that the car, a 1941 Ford, had been stolen from a Levelland man the night before.

Lt. J. W. Hickerson Is Home On Leave

Lt. J. W. Hickerson of the Army Air Forces is home visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hickerson, before reporting on Jan. 19 at Smyrna, Tennessee, where he will pilot one of the big four-engine B-24 bombers.

Lt. Hickerson, a graduate of Tahoka High School of the class of 1937, received his wings and commission as a second lieutenant on January 7 at Freeman Field, Seymour, Indiana. He has been in the Army 18 months.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT

Earl Alexander, colored, is in the custody of Sheriff Sam Floyd on a theft charge, he allegedly having stolen a $26 suit from the car of Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell recently.

Alexander was given a five-year suspended sentence in district court here early last year on a forgery charge.

BUYS HOME HERE

John J. Waldrip of the Wells community has bought the former Mrs. Florence King home in west Tahoka, and will move there to live.

W. S. Weatherby and family have bought a farm southeast of Seagraves and moved to it Tuesday of this week.

Another Snow Is Received Here

An estimated three inches of snow fell in Tahoka Wednesday, which showed 30 inches of moisture in The News' government rain gauge. Last Friday's snow showed only .06 of an inch.

Tuesday's snow was lighter north of town, and the north side of the county received little or no snow. Lubbock reported none. However, last week's snow was heavier at both Wilson and O'Donnell than in the vicinity of Tahoka.

Lowest temperature recorded here last week was 14 degrees, and the lowest this week was 20 degrees on Wednesday night.

Snow and ice which slowed down traffic on the streets and highways Wednesday was melting Thursday.

Many Service Men Eligible To Vote

Though there has been no special provision for men in the service voting in Texas, most servicemen will be able to vote if certain precautions are taken, according to R. P. Weathers, Lynn county tax assessor and collector.

The following is the substance of an opinion from Attorney General Grover Sellers regarding the service ballot:

"All members of the armed forces in the services of the United States government, except members of the regular Army and the regular Navy, are entitled to vote in the coming primary election, of this state, provided that they are otherwise qualified to vote in such elections.

"Such voters may vote absentee in exactly the same manner as provided for absentee voting by other voters.

"They may vote absentee, in person, at the office of the county clerk of the county of their residence at any time not more than 20 days prior to election day and not less than three days prior thereto.

"They may vote absentee by mail by making written application for a ballot in the statutory manner.

"The poll tax must be paid by members of the armed forces to be eligible to vote in the primaries."

Training Films Shown at Guard

Three one-reel training films issued by the War Department for use of the Army were shown members of Co. F, Texas State Guard, Monday night by officers from the 39th Bn. headquarters company of Lubbock.

Following showing of the films, coffee and doughnuts were served and the men attended the fights at the gymnasium.

Similar training films are planned for the near future.

A week from next Monday night the Company hopes to have a five to seven reel restricted showing of a film from the War Department on World War II battles.

Production Credit Has New Manager

Ross Smith, manager of the Production Credit Association office in Tahoka, and family moved to Floyd county last week to make their home on a farm he has bought.

W. E. Russell, formerly of Lubbock, who has been with the office here since Dec. 1, succeeds Mr. Smith as manager here.

SISTER-IN-LAW DIES

Mrs. R. B. Floyd and daughter, Mrs. Rufus Glover, were called to May Saturday by the death of Mrs. Ellen Harlow, 86, sister of the late R. B. Floyd early that morning. Funeral services were held Sunday.

Marvin Smith of the Navy is in the Aleutians. He is the son of Frank Smith.

Adventurer, Explorer Coming To Tahoka

Alonzo W. Pond, explorer, adventurer and lecturer, will speak at Tahoka High School auditorium next Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock on "Algeria and North Africa."

Mr. Pond is a noted newspaper writer and scientist, archaeological explorer. As an explorer, he visited many parts of the world. As an adventurer, he served with the French army and later with the American army, shot rapids in a frail canoe, down San Juan and Colorado river canyons, been a seaman on the oceans. He has led three expeditions to Algeria and Tunisia.

He will bring much enlightening information on Africa, the so-called "dark continent" and the background of our Army campaign in North Africa.

He will also display many curios and relics along with his thrilling and educational lecture.

W. M. Mathis Is Clerk Candidate

W. M. (Walter) Mathis, county clerk, authorizes The News to announce that he is a candidate for re-election to the office he now holds.

"I certainly appreciate the support the citizens have given me in the past," he said in making his announcement. "I have tried to carry on the business of the office in an efficient, business-like manner and to give service to all alike. If the voters see fit to return me to the office of county clerk, I expect to continue the same type of service I have tried to give."

Mr. Mathis is known by nearly every person in Lynn county. He came to Garza county in 1916, and to Lynn county several years before entering the race for county clerk. All who know say he has done a most excellent job a county clerk.

All citizens are asked to carefully consider his candidacy.

Leon Jennings Seeks Re-election

As candidate for re-election as county commissioner of Precinct 4, Leon Jennings asks The News to thank his constituents for the kind treatment they have given him in the past, and asks that they consider seriously his candidacy for another term.

He has carried on the business of his precinct, and that of the county, as well, in an efficient manner. His district is in good financial condition, as are the finances of the county as a whole. He feels that he has done his best under the conditions, having gone into office when there was a deficit, whereas, at the present time all debts are paid and the business is on strictly a cash basis.

Due to the manpower shortage, scarcity of machinery, etc., he says he has not kept all the bumps out of the roads, but he hopes to put the roads in first class shape at the first possible moment.

Mr. Jennings is an official of the highest type, and warrants the careful consideration of the voters.

Truett Smith Heads 4th War Loan Drive Beginning Tuesday

Lynn county's quota in the 4th War Loan Drive, which starts next Tuesday, January 18, is $695,000.00, according to Truett Smith, county chairman for the drive here. The nation's quota is 14 billion dollars.

Of this amount, Lynn county citizens will be expected to buy $302,000.00 in "E" bonds, the most popular Bonds, for individuals who buy the $25.00 to $5,000.00 denominations.

Though about $250,000 less than the county quota in the 3rd War Loan Drive, this quota will be hard to raise unless all people co-operate by investing as much money as they possibly can in Bonds, Chairman Smith said.

Truett Smith has been named chairman of the drive on recommendation of General County Chairman Deen Nowlin, who is ill. Smith is completing plans for the drive and asks the co-operation of a large group of workers in putting over this drive in a big way.

For this drive, every school community in Lynn county has been given a quota by C. M. Smith of Plainview, regional manager of the War Bond drives, who informs Chas. Truett Smith that the figures below are based on scholastics, valuation, and income last year of the respective school districts. Quotas are also given for county-line districts lying partly in Lynn county, based on the proportion of these districts lying in this county.

The quota by districts follows:

Draw-Redwine	$ 45,176.00
New Home, Joe Stokes
Lakeview, Petty	60,812.50
T-Bar	15,637.50

Judge C. Connolly Candidate Again

Chester Connolly is a candidate for re-election as County Judge of Lynn County.

"It has been a pleasure to serve as your county judge," he states. "I have had excellent co-operation from practically everyone, which has made the duties of the office easier to attend to. We have tried to operate the county's business in a business-like way, and I am happy that the county's finances are now in excellent shape. If re-elected, I hope to continue an efficient, conservative, and economical administration. We have not been able to do everything we have desired. We have probably made some mistakes, but I am sincere in saying that we have done our best. We have some projects planned for the good of the county, such as road improvement, that the county hopes to carry out in the future, and, if re-elected, I hope to concentrate on if the manpower and equipment situation will permit it."

Judge Connolly is a practical business man, having engaged in business in Tahoka for many years, and has conducted the important affairs of the county with such good business judgment that the finances are probably in better shape than at any other time in the county's history. Though he has been in ill health a part of the time, he now feels that he is much improved and will give his whole energy to the affairs of the office.

Lt. Donald Giles, In England, Writes Soldiers' Opinions On World Peace

1st Lt. Donald L. Giles, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giles of Rt. 3, who is in England with a Bombardment Squadron of the Army Air Forces, indicates in letters home that the boys fighting this war have some definite opinions on the kind of peace that is made following the war. The following interesting comments are from a recent letter:

Picture this scene, if you will: In a small room (pretty cold, I might add) at a Flying Fortress base, somewhere in England, sits a young man with a pipe in his mouth and a typewriter before him. His thoughts are at home—the place where a soldier's thoughts turn many times each day—more especially during the early part of the evening, after the day's duties have been concluded, and he is faced with the somewhat dull but very necessary task of letting his loved ones at home know that all is well.

Such is the pose as I have adopted this early evening, Dec. 15, 1943. I dare say that there are thousands more like me who are doing the same thing at this moment, all under slightly different circumstances. From all over the world, from the foxholes in Italy, from the jungles of New Guinea, from the ships of our mighty Navy at sea, and even from the planes in the sky, there are millions like me this evening whose thoughts are focused to that little home in Texas, or California, or Colorado, or Wisconsin. Many of us are recalling more pleasant memories of our past life in those homes, but at the same time there is in our hearts that fervent hope that once again we shall tread the earth which is so dear to us; shall once again have the privilege of enjoying the life that we once knew. That is our driving force.

Take the average Nazi soldier. Why does he fight so furiously? Mainly because of his fanatical belief in his leader, Adolf Hitler. This fanatical belief even goes so far as to say that the German race is the Master Race that is destined by Providence to rule the World. Ask any American soldier why he is fighting, and he will answer in the slow drawl of a Southerner or in the Brooklyn accent, or some other accent, but he will say quite emphatically, "I'm fighting to get this thing over with so I can go home again." That is why men—especially we Americans—shall always be free!

I guess you sometimes wonder what we, over here, are thinking all the time. Well, our duties keep us occupied quite a bit, believe me. We, like you, follow the course of the war in every theatre of operation—more especially in the theatre in which we are stationed. But our thoughts are not all of war. I, personally, like to get away from that so far as is possible.

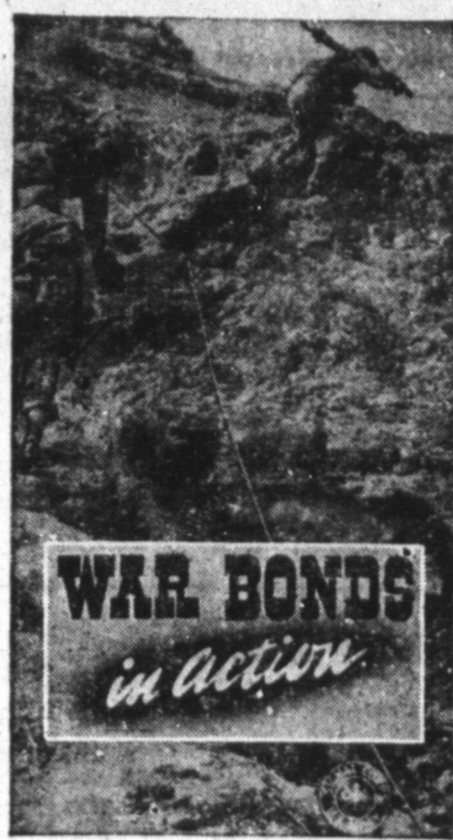

My thoughts are trained on the world after the war quite a bit. Will it be the same thing over again? Read the speeches of Woodrow Wilson and President Roosevelt when they were addressing Congress at the declaration of Wars I and II.

It seems incredible that a supposedly civilized world and people should allow themselves to be subjected to the boiling cauldron of a world at war; to suffer its horrors and hardships. To me, it is so appalling that we, as a Nation, must devote our entire resources, if necessary, to avert the same state in the next generation. The problem is so magnanimous as to warrant the fullest concern and cooperation on the part of us all—the average citizens.

Of course, all of us have our own ways of settling the thing for once and for all. We embryo statesmen have our "14 Points" and Atlantic Charters. It all seems so simple. After the war, the winning nations shall sit around the peace table with the conquered and draw up an Armistice and say, "Well, it's over now, we can go home."

It has got to be something more this time, though. Yes, we must have the peace table, and we must have the Armistice, that is all very true. And right here, I'd like to suggest that the average soldier have a say at the peace table. Let those men who have lain in foxholes filled with water, dodging bombs and machinegun fire, and those men who have come to grips with the enemy on the sea and in the air, have a say in the matter. They know what war is like—they will all agree that Sherman was definitely right. Their perspective of the world they want has been gained by making comparison with the things they have and the things they want.

This must be a just peace, yet an enduring one. It is my contention that the Armistice should be drawn only after the greater part of the reconstruction of this battered and torn world has been accomplished. Let the first five or six or seven ten years after the war be a cooling-off period. Then the terms of the Armistice can be drawn up. Disarm Germany and Japan, yes! The main thing is to profit by the mistakes that were made the last time. Let us be sure that the seeds of an-

Over the top in Italy! One more ridge, one more mile on the road to Berlin.

As in victorious military campaigns, people on the home front must sacrifice to provide all the sinews of war. One of these is the regular purchase of War Bonds.

U. S. Treasury Department

Other world conflict are not sown at this peace table.

After the Armistice, I believe that a World Commission should be set up—a commission composed of the "key" men of the governments of the different countries of the war. This commission would be entrusted with the organization of a plan for the betterment of this world as a whole.

Let me say here, too, that we as nations must in a way subordinate ourselves to the level of others. Isolationism is dead! We must once and for all unravel ourselves from our cocoon of selfishness and greed and come face to face with the dire needs of the world as a whole.

The main reason the League of Nations did not accomplish its goal is because its member nations refused to cooperate fully. Another reason for the failure was the need for the force to back its decision. Such a force must emerge from this war. A world police force to check any would-be Hitlers and quell any uprisings in any part of the world.

This World Commission would hold the key to the better world we want. We don't want just a new home with all the gadgets that science has promised. We want a chance to work, to live and love, peacefully and quietly. And we want everybody that inhabits this planet to have the same opportunities. Let there be no half-starved, semi-civilized people on this earth. Let us as Americans devote our time and talent to the creation of a better world—a world of a Brotherhood of Nations and people working for a common aim, making this a pleasant world in which to live. Such are my thoughts this evening.

Sgt. Herb Smith in Australia Hospital

Sgt. Herb Smith, twice decorated as a member of the Air Transport Service in New Guinea, in the southwest Pacific war theatre, writes his mother, Mrs. H. C. Smith, that he is in the 4th General Hospital in Australia, recovering from a fever contracted during his many months service in the jungles.

His letter, which follows, tells of the wonderful treatment given the boys in the hospitals during the Christmas season.

"Well, this is Sunday, Dec. 26, and I want you to know that I really had a very good Christmas, although, of course, I would much rather have been home. But, as for as the efforts of the staff made to enable us to enjoy ourselves—we'll they can't be beat. These nurses are really wonderful, and the ward boys are tops, and no foolin'! We had the best variety of foods, well cooked, and I knew that the President couldn't have had any better.

"The mess hall was decorated with the most complete selection of flowers. Big pots of flowers lined the walls, with every color of the rainbow and several varieties that I have never seen. The tables each had a large bouquet, and every hall end entrance and even our rooms had their floral offerings. In fact, we are still surrounded by this beauty. We could not be better treated or cared for if we were kings, and I am not exaggerating either—they are simply wonderful to us.

"I haven't gotten any of my boxes from home as yet, of which I am really looking forward to, but we each got two very nice boxes from the Red Cross. I just hope all of you at home had just as good a Christmas as I've had.

"I have not been to town yet to have my picture taken, and if what I hear is true, it may be almost impossible to get into a studio for one.

"I guess you will all be together for Christmas, and of course I would like very much to have been able to have been there too, but maybe next Christmas."

Sgt. Smith is a brother of Postmaster Happy Smith.

Tahoka Publicity In State Magazine

Tahoka, Lynn county, and Co. F of the Texas Defense Guard received a full page of publicity in the January issues of The Texas Guardsman, published at Houston by the State Guard organization which magazine has been acclaimed one of the best regional magazines in the nation and compares favorably with the Army's Infantry Journal.

The publicity dealt with the local Guard company, but two thirds of the page featured Tahoka and Lynn county, its business institutions, crops and industries, and the schools and churches and civic organizations.

The Guardsman is read by about 15,000 members of the organization in Texas, and likewise goes to the headquarters companies and adjutant general's departments in nearly every state in the Union.

The publicity was made possible by the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

METHODIST CHURCH

Many of our members who attend when they are well, are ill now, and we miss them greatly in our services. Let those who are well fall not to attend all the services of the church. Last Sunday many were absent on account of being ill. However, we were happily surprised to have a splendid attendance at both the morning and evening services. So far this winter, all departments of the church work have functioned well. Let's keep it that way the remainder of the year.

Bad weather is here, too, but our church will be warm and comfortable for all services. No one need be afraid of a cold auditorium at church and hesitate to attend. We shall make it as comfortable as it is in your home. Therefore, we shall expect you at all services Sunday if you are not ill.

A hearty welcome awaits all who will worship with us at both the morning and evening services.

REDWINE BAPTIST CHURCH

We appreciate the people that have been faithful to attend our services regardless of the severe weather we have been having. Our courageous soldiers on the battlefronts are on the job in all kinds of weather. Why shouldn't we have more hardy Soldiers of the Cross. We invite the new people that have moved into our community, along with everyone that is not enlisted elsewhere to worship with us regularly.

Sunday morning services, begin at 10:30, evening services, at 7:30, and Wednesday evening prayer services and teachers' meeting at 7:45. May we forsake not the assembling of ourselves together for moral and spiritual strength in these trying days.—L. B. Edwards.

Pfc. Ernest Carna Reese arrived home last week end from Fort Sill, Okla., having been given an honorable discharge from the Army because of a physical disability. Reese has been at Fort Sill since entering the service about three years ago.

Lt. Maddox has been based in Hawaii since last September, previous to which he spent three months as an instructor at San Marcos Army Air Field, where he also had received his wings and commission. Robert was a member of the old National Guard, the 131st Field Artillery, activated at Lubbock, but had been transferred out of it before it went to Java. He later transferred to the Air Forces for cadet training.

He is a graduate of Tahoka High School, following which graduation he studied at the University of Texas.

DAIRY PRODUCTION PAYMENT EXTENDED

The War Food Administration has announced the continuance of dairy production payment through January to help farmers maintain the output of milk and other dairy products at high wartime levels. The payments, in effect since October, are designed to offset the rising production cost since September, 1942, and to effect a more favorable price ratio for the production of milk and dairy products.

County AAA offices began accepting applications for payments on November and December production on Jan. 1, 1944. Additional applications for payment on October production may be filed in conjunction with November and December applications.

For January some adjustments were made in the rates in effect during October, November and December. The rates for January in all Texas counties are 50 cents per hundred weight of milk delivered and 6 cents per pound of butter fat delivered. The rates in some Texas counties during these months was 40 cents per hundred weight of milk delivered and 5 cents per pound of butter fat delivered.

Cpl. James Foster Writes of Landing Made at Salerno

The News has published several of the interesting letters from Cpl. James Foster, with the 36th Division Infantry in Italy, to Mrs. L. F. Craft. Below is another, which his many friends will enjoy reading:

"Try as I may, I cannot seem to find time for regular, lengthy letters to you—or anyone! Circumstances have not favored me the past 10 or more days, as usual, but now I am resting for a brief period, so perhaps just a letter will partially compensate for the gap. All my excuses sound rather lame, I'm sure, but you really can't picture the difficulties involved in writing more than a paragraph. At present, for instance, although the time is available, I am forced to concentrate amid a jumble of idle talk, continued troop movements here and there, and the uncoordinated attempts of a GI to master an accordion. Indeed, it is a wonder you ever hear from me at all.

"I might try to summarize one or two aspects which to you may be more or less indefinite.

"The initial landing on the Peninsula was made by this Division at a time and place already familiar to the American public. Boys from almost every state in the Union summoned their 'Sunday courage' that chilly morning and scrambled ashore on a mission that took more nerve than they will ever be forced to exercise again. No one individual from any particular state deserves full credit, but the state of Texas can be proud forever and always of that Division which originated from her bosom. The landing, according to captured Germans as well as military leaders, was nothing short of a miracle. From a strictly military standpoint, the odds against a successful beachhead were enormous in the face of such superior numbers and advance preparation. Only the will of God and an abundance of inexorable American Spirit was responsible for the toe-hold that soon became the long-awaited second— or third—front.

"The present method of measuring time has long been accepted as logical and suitable; and Father Time has never been doubted—that is, until my first step on Italian soil. That first 24 hours was the longest day ever unfolded. The 'avalanche' of events has long ceased to register in succession, but fresh as dew yet is my remembrance of the uncanny, elastic expanse of those hours from 12:00 a. m. until dusk on D Day. Amid all the confusion of attempted advance and repulsion, while the very earth seemed to cringe away from the incessant din, I prayed not once but many times for night to fall as a protective cloak against the deadly eyes of the enemy. Nothing could have seemed more Heaven-sent than the darkness that finally spread over the bubbling inferno.

"After escaping unscathed thru the first week of combat, I can hereafter feel capable of any mission without fear of injury. The following days and nights have been like a tonic after a severe shock. For a real thrill—even better than Coney Island's rollercoaster—I highly recommend making an invasion with the third wave of assault infantry.

"When first I began this letter I had intended writing a full account of my landing, but after considering the time and effort involved I hesitated. If at all possible, I will write you a description sometime in order to give you a first-hand idea of this praiseworthy accomplishment.

"My actions since the invasion are a much simpler story. They are an epic of climbing one lofty peak after another, of dodging an occasional shell and of hoping constantly for an end to hostilities. Each day has been just another day, each hour, a new experience. I have not been in great danger since the landing despite the fact that I have been in combat. As a result of past experiences, I think I said before, I am confident.

"As I write this letter, my thoughts are not entirely yours, thus explaining the incoherent style. The news has just reached me that one of my closest pals has been critically wounded in the performance of duty. Because of my concern over his condition, I find my mind wandering away from this letter. For that reason, I am going to quit for this time. I will try to write again during my rest."

THE BEBE K. WARNER CLUB

The Bebe K. Warner Club met Tuesday, Jan. 11, in the home of Mrs. G. M. Stewart. A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Winston Wharton.

Miss Carolyn Dixon, county home demonstration agent and chairman of the Lynn County Nutrition Committee, was the guest speaker in the afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. Sam Floyd and Mrs. G. B. Sherrod.

Miss Dixon presented her subject, "Food Fights for Freedom," by an illustrated talk, outlining the standards to be followed in planning a well balanced daily diet.

A game called Vita-Min-Go was then presented by Miss Dixon, which was enjoyed very much because of its humor and instructive value.

Also, to test the knowledge of the club members, on world food problems in war time, a "Food Quiz" was given.

A talking picture, obtained from the State Nutrition Committee, was then presented by Miss Dixon, which emphasized the necessity of proper food habits, especially in time of war.

Mrs. Truett Smith presented a paper, "The Moral Safety of Our Youth." Mrs. Smith said that if our young people could find the entertainment they needed in our homes, schools, and churches, there would be far less juvenile delinquency.

TAHOKA H. D. CLUB

The Tahoka Home Demonstration Club met on Thursday, Jan. 6, at 3 p. m. in the home of Mrs. R. C. Wood. Each member answered the roll call by giving the name of her favorite magazine. Hostesses for the coming year were selected and the standing club committees were appointed by the president.

Miss Carolyn Dixon gave a demonstration on the making of grape cuttings and each member was given several cuttings, with instructions to bury them until Spring. Then they are to be planted in a sheltered place and kept thoroughly watered. Varieties of grapes recommended for this area are: Beacon, Bailey, and Extra, producing large bunches of black grapes, Catawba, a red grape, and Edna, a white grape.

The members enjoyed an interesting period of recreation directed by Mrs. J. B. Oliver, after which

Millions of motorists are amazed by unexpected extra mileage from cars and tires

WHO WOULD ever have thought, countless car owners, that the old bug would still be running strong in 1944!

They say it with wonder . . . and that is a tribute to the lasting quality which American automobile and rubber companies built into cars and tires.

They say it with pride . . . and that is recognition of the vital part each car plays in helping to solve the nation's wartime transportation problem.

So, to the man who has made his car last, this is a deserved word of thanks. You have done your part in two ways: By driving under 35, and by driving to your service station at least once a week for wartime car-saving and tire-saving care.

This help is always available, ready and waiting, at every Phillips 66 Service Station. Tire-Saving Service includes weekly checking of air pressures . . . inspection for cuts and bruises . . . crisscrossing with the spare every 3,000 miles . . . recommendation for recapping. On Our 4th War Loan Drive

Every farmer, every office, every business, every home and every individual in Lynn county has a quota to meet. We are not going to let our fighting men down by failing to meet this quota.

We have been extremely prosperous during the year 1943 . . . we have made fine crops . . . we have more money on deposit in the banks of Lynn county than we have ever had before . . . and the very least that we can do in our war effort is to subscribe the quota shown above in the first part of the drive which begins on November 18th.

Our dollars invested in War Bonds are as safe as our Nation, itself.

We should ask ourselves this question . . . Have I done all I can to win this war and to back up our boys on the battlefields?

Remember your job in this Drive is to buy more than your share of bonds. That's the only way you can be certain you are still backing the attack. So see your banker or postmaster NOW and place your order for War Bonds in this 4th War Loan Drive!

Federal Aid For Schools Opposed

"Education and War-Time Activities" was the subject of a thought provoking address made by President Travis Hanes, local school superintendent, before the Rotary club Thursday at noon.

Last week he and Prentice Walker, president of the Tahoka school board, who was program chairman for the day, made a trip to Austin to attend an annual meeting of school superintendents and other educational leaders of Texas, at which, Mr. Hanes declared, a resolution was steam-rolled over favoring Federal aid for education.

Mr. Hanes opposes the bill on the grounds that it is packed with "dynamite" that may lead to complete Federal control of the school system, and therefore of education. Such a system, as has practically every other agency taken over, may lead to more politics or become a means of taking more affairs from the hands of the people.

He pointed out that the secret of the success, to a great extent, of the rise to power of dictators in Germany, Italy, and Japan was the fact that they gained control of the educational facilities and educated the children of the land into fanatics.

He decried the fact that a majority of the school people favor Federal aid in hopes that they may get salary increases. Since the money comes from the taxpayers, anyway, he feels that the local communities and the states, and the individuals thereof wake up, pay more for their teachers and demand that their children have as good facilities for education as anyone.

Rotarians agreed that his talk was a most excellent one.

Mr. Jim Wood has gone to Gulfport, Miss. to join her husband, who is stationed there.

Capt. Pemberton Is Flight Commander

Capt. Delton Pemberton, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Pemberton of Seagraves, a graduate of Tahoka High School, now is a squadron flight commander of B-26 bombers at Atterbury Army Air Field, Indiana, according to his mother who was here visiting Saturday.

Capt. Pemberton entered the Army his promotion from first lieutenant at Tampa, Florida, and will likely be leading a formation of bombers over Axis territory before long.

Mrs. Pemberton also revealed that Delton was married on Oct. 9 at Tampa to a Miss Derrell Mahon, and that he and his bride visited them briefly in December.

Capt. Pemberton entered the Army in August, 1941, was commissioned in April, 1942, promoted to first lieutenant in March, 1943, and until recently has been an instructor at Tampa, Fla.

CHIEF A. H. MCGONAGILL IS EN ROUTE HOME

Chief Petty Officer A. H. McGonagill, company adjutant, in the Navy Seabees, stationed in Alaska and the Aleutians for many months, wired his sister, Mrs. Gladys M. Stokes this week from Seattle: "Arrived safely. See you soon."

Capt. and Mrs. T. T. Turner arrived Wednesday to spend a few days with Mrs. Turner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cade. They were en route from the East Coast, where he had been for some special training, to the West Coast.

Miss Alice Roberts, who underwent an appendix operation Dec. 21 in the Slaton Hospital, is recovering. She returned home Dec. 28, and expects to be back in school some time this month.

V. F. Jones, county agent of Lamb county, formerly county agent here, was a business visitor in Tahoka a short time Tuesday.

Sgt. James Clayton Wounded In Africa

Sgt. James Clayton, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Clayton, O'Donnell, is in a North African Army hospital recovering from wounds received in battle in Italy.

He was shot through the shoulder and received a compound fracture of the large shoulder bone during battle on Dec. 6. He is a paratrooper, and took part in the fierce mountain fighting of Dec. 3 to 6.

Sgt. Clayton, member of a pioneer family has been in the Army three years, having entered Jan. 23, 1941. Before going to Italy, he saw action the Aleutians, and was with the forces invading Kiaka.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton have two other sons in the service. Wayne Clayton is metalsmith 2/c in the Navy, and is stationed at the Naval Air Station at Pensacola, Florida. Pvt. Billie Clayton is at Amarillo Army Air Field in training for aviation gunnery and mechanics.

The following letter is from Sgt. James Clayton, written from his bed in the 23rd General Hospital in North Africa on Christmas Day:

"I have just finished supper, and I guess you all haven't eaten Christmas dinner yet. I think there is seven hours difference in the time here and Central Standard Time. "We had a nice Christmas dinner here at the hospital. The turkey was good, but nothing like I used to eat at home. I'll be glad when we can all be together again on Christmas and enjoy some of Mom's turkey and dressing like we used to."

"I haven't had a letter from anyone since away back in November, but I know I have several letters over in Italy now, and I guess they will send them on to me as soon as possible—and the sooner the better."

"I'm getting along fine, but I guess I'll be here quite a while yet before I go back to the outfit. I'll be glad to get back with the guys. It gets pretty rough at times, but I don't especially like this laying in a hospital."

On the beaches of Italy, in the jungles of the Pacific—planes, tanks, artillery must move—and fast; no waiting to build roads or airfields. That's when our soldiers must unroll these "steel mattresses," as you see them in this photo. Your War Bonds pay for them.

PROCESSORS TO SET-ASIDE PORTION OF FEBRUARY OIL-SEED MEAL

College Station, Jan. 14—Processors have been ordered to set-aside 20 percent of their February production to areas designated by the War Food Administration.

The set-aside order, second to be issued under Food Administration Order No. 9, is designed to make protein meal available for wider distribution. A similar order covering January production was announced early in December. The order pertains to cottonseed, soybeans, (except those furnished southern mills by OOC) linseed and peanut oil meal, cake or pellets.

In announcing the order the WFA requested the voluntary cooperation of oil - seed processors in making the quantity, of protein meal to be set-aside during February available for distribution during January. Such meal will be credited against the February set-aside.

Oilseed meal set aside under this order will be distributed by the Food Administration through the State and County Agricultural Conservation Committees. Processors can sell or deliver set-aside meal only to holders of a certificate of designated buyer, issued by the State or County Agricultural Conservation Committee.

Mrs. Paul Howell, who underwent major surgery in a Lubbock hospital last Wednesday is reported to be well on the road to recovery.

Interest continue to be good in spite of so much illness. Garnie Atkisson is still preaching for the church at Gordon every Thursday night. Good crowds are attending these services. If you live near Gordon, your time would be well spent by attending these services.

Often the question is asked, "Why does the Church of Christ do a certain thing?" We are going to answer a number of these questions from time to time, hoping that all will be helped to understand the Truth.

The question for today is: "Why does the Church of Christ observe the Lord's Supper every Sunday?" Answer: We get our instruction from the New Testament. We believe it to be sufficient instruction for all things pertaining to the will of the Lord.

In Matt. 26: 26-29; Lk. 22: 14-20; I Cor. 11:23-34 we find in account of the Lord instituting the supper. We learn from these passages these things: (1) He took bread and gave thanks and broke it and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." (2) He took the cup and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink ye all of it." (3) He said, "This do in remembrance of me." (4) Paul said as often as we eat the bread and drink of the cup we proclaim the Lord's death till he come.

In Acts 2:42, we learn that the first members of the church of our Lord "continued stedfastly in the apostles' teaching, and fellowship, in the breaking of bread and the prayers." Also in Acts 20:7, "And upon the first day of the week, when they were gathered together to break bread . . ."

We observe the Lord's supper every Lord's day because, (1) He told us to DO it. (2) We proclaim his death in doing so. (3) We partake of the supper in remembrance of what he has done for us. (4) We continue in the apostles teaching—they met on the first day of the week to break bread. (5) We respect the passage, II Jno. 9; Rev. 22: 18-19.

Attend the services of the nearest Church of Christ to you next Lord's day.

EDITORIAL

Just what does our flag stand for? I imagine a lot of us are probably asking that question especially since there is a war to remind us of it. Sometimes I wonder if we think about the United States flag in peace time as we should. In wartime, we think of it pertaining to our nation and what it stands for and have the utmost respect for it, but in peace time we just more or less lay it aside except on special occasions.

In the United States and her possessions, the American flag always goes to the right of all flags, foreign or domestic.

In memorial or funeral parades, the flag may be either dipped or dropped forward or may have a shroud tied about it as it is wrapped about the staff.

In military or civic parades it should be held on a staff raised at more than 45 degrees.

In bad or stormy weather it is considered unkind to permit the flag to fly.

In battle, the flag may wave day and night.

The flag may float over the House or Senate as long as they are in session.

The only place where in peace the flag may float all night is at the grave of Francis Scott Key, to make always true his famous lines: "Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there."

Students, let's learn to be good citizens and respect OUR flag.

High School Clubs Hold Meetings

The Dramatics Club has ordered material for several plays, Rev. A. E. Brown, sponsor, announced Monday. Due to present conditions, it will be a week or two before the material arrives, but the club, after overcoming many handicaps, is "really getting underway," he said.

Mr. Tom Seay, sponsor of the Tahoka F. F. A. club, announced that the regular meeting of the boys held Thursday night, Jan. 13, in the Tahoka High School gymnasium. He did not state the program to be followed at the meeting.

The commercial club met Wednesday with their sponsor, Mrs. Lester Adams, and had a social hour. Charlene Bucy, the social chairman, served "cookies" and smacks.

Dorthea Jean Brown, vice-president, presides at the meetings now since Johnny McLaughan does not attend school in the afternoon.

The club is still progressing and planning to visit Draughon's Business College in Lubbock sometime during January to see the different methods of teaching and equipment.

Plans are being made for a program next week, probably an outside speaker.

The Correspondence Club met January 5. In the club, we read letters that we had received from other states. One was from India. At the next club meeting the club plans to write more letters to boys and girls in other states.

Twins Have Been Numerous In Halls Of Tahoka High

"Peg-uh-Pan-uh Peggy?" But, look-alike, like the Dunlap twins, Peggy and Pansy, are used to being mistaken for one another a dozen times a day, as is the other set of T. H. S. twins, Ilene and Pauline MacMillan.

Almost every year, T. H. S. has had a least one set of twins enrolled. The last twins enrolled, of course, excepting the present two pair, were Faye and Ray Shadden, and the Eaton twins, Dana Sue and Dona Lou, and before them, the Kings—dark, handsome Kelly, and pretty freckle-faced Kathleen. Still further back were the red-headed Perkins twins, Faye and Faye; Evelyn Jefferies and carbon copy Estalyn; Faye and Ray Nevill; Dorothy and Doris Thomas; and the Doak girls, Eva and Neva. This record of ex-student twins is, of course, far from complete, but it gives an idea of one of the puzzles teachers have to cope with.

But being super-puzzlers doesn't bother the Dunlaps. "We just think it's amusing when people get us mixed up," laughs Peggy—or was that Pansy.

NEW FACES

New faces appeared on the Tahoka High campus this week as it is the beginning of the second semester.

Barbara Galtner, senior, enrolled from Los Angeles, Calif.; Iris Floyd, freshman, from Sparrenburg; Bobby Frances Reese from Big Spring and Betty Jean Johnson from Draw, are in the eighth grade.

Elmer Owen enrolled as a senior for make-up work.

WARNING

People who have been in the habit of dragging old cars to down town streets and leaving them until they can be repaired, are hereby warned that such cars when left on the streets 24 hours or longer will be hauled to a city lot. Many complaints are being made of old cars littering up the streets, in many cases on or near other people's property, taking up parking space, creating traffic hazards, and being unsightly. Streets are for driving and for temporary parking only, and were never meant for storage spots or dump grounds. A. F. McLaughan, City Marshal.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Adams have returned to the farm, after having in town during the fall.

PERSONALITY OF THE WEEK

This week we move on to the Senior classroom. There are so many faces. Now, at least one of the personality sketches we've written about? Ah, there's a familiar face behind that thick skull. He's a real Bulldog. This boy was right tackle on the football team and you can bet that when Interscholastic League practice starts he'll do his part on the track. With a pleasing disposition that can't be beat, the personality of the week is Dan Curry.

Turner Rogers of the Merchant Marines has been here visiting his sister, Mrs. W. T. Kidwell, the past week. He is stationed in San Diego, Calif.

FACES ON THE HEN-HOUSE DOOR

Let these faces be an ever-remembered reminder that we need more eggs! Add Dr. Hines' Famous Fertilizer to your laying routine. Research Farm has received Pat-4-285 by as many as 27 more eggs per bird per year.
We believe Pat-4-285 will do the full share toward stimulating production. You can't produce too many eggs—you get a good price for all you produce.

Many Class Activities During Past Week

Eighth Grade
The eighth grade has been learning about symmetrical figures, to bisect a line segment, to erect perpendiculars in math. All of it is very interesting.

We have two new pupils this week, Charles Hibbs of Malton and Bobbie Reese of Big Spring. We are very glad to have them in our class.

Freshmen
In Home Room Monday, the Freshman class selected their class color, motto, and song. They are as follows: color, red and gold; flower, the rose; song, America.

Sophomores
The Sophomore class is still keeping up with their citizenship programs and are planning a good program this week.

They are making plans for a party to be given soon.

Juniors
The Juniors have had several business meetings the last few days in which they discussed the Junior-Senior banquet and party.

They plan to have a skating party some time in February, but as yet the date is still undecided.

The Junior girls seem to have a new pad—appendicitis! Johnnie Mae Anderson was operated on Saturday, Jan. 8, for appendicitis in the Lubbock Hospital. She is the fourth Junior girl to undergo an appendectomy this year. The other three are: Geraldine Connolly, Billy Jo Cowan, and Alice Roberts.

Incidentally, these girls sit at the same table in Home Economics class!

Seniors
The Seniors elected Johnny Allen to succeed James Brookshire in the office of vice-president.

The Seniors have paid a 2 cent deposit on each of their invitations. They are planning a second assembly program of the year which promises to be good.

Tahoka High School had as visitors Monday Werner Schaffner and S/1 Blair Ramsey. Blair is home on furlough until Jan. 18. He joined the Navy last March, receiving his boot training at Farrigut, Idaho. For the last six months, he has been overseas as a gunner on a merchant ship.

S/2c Gordon Gass, who has been visiting his parents here since Christmas Eve, left Monday for San Diego, where he is stationed. Gordon is on a Navy LCM, one of the new-type landing craft.

STATED MEETINGS of Tahoka Lodge No. 1041 the first Tuesday night in each month at 8:30. Members urged to attend. Visitors welcome.

H. L. RODDY, Secretary.

YOUR GAS WATER HEATER
Can help win the War!

By using your gas water heater (as well as your other gas appliances) wisely you can help in the war effort. Natural gas is a vital fuel needed to keep war plants operating. We, as patriotic Americans, should use as little natural gas as possible in order to save it for these war-time needs.

5 ways to make your gas water heater save gas

- 1 Repair dripping hot water faucets.
- 2 Avoid letting hot water run while washing hands, dishes, or shaving.
- 3 Insulate hot water tanks and pipes to avoid waste.
- 4 Turn off non-automatic water heater when enough water is heated.
- 5 Check thermostat setting on automatic water heater. (120 to 140 degrees should be sufficient for normal use.)

A VITAL MESSAGE TO EVERY NATURAL GAS USER:

With the increased use of natural gas by the many war production centers and military camps that have been an outgrowth of the war, there is now a need for everybody to cut down as much as possible on their use of this vital fuel. Because of the shortage of equipment, material, and manpower, the facilities for providing the natural gas cannot be enlarged. For this reason the Office of War Utilities has asked every gas user, whether in the home, office, or plant, to "Use what you must, but save all you can!"

Truett Cooper Is Made a Captain

Now, it's Capt. Truett Cooper, according to word received here by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cooper.

Capt. Cooper, 23, is with the Field Artillery in Australia and New Guinea, and has seen much action in the latter place since his arrival in the Southwest Pacific last July. Recently he has been in an Army hospital in Australian recovering from burns supposedly received in battle.

He writes that "things are really hot in New Guinea and the weather is nearly as hot as the fighting." There was no snow for Christmas, but he says he certainly did enjoy the presents he received.

Capt. Cooper graduated from Tahoka High School in 1938, and received his degree from Texas A. & M. in 1942. Shortly thereafter he was commissioned a second lieutenant, and later a first lieutenant, and was stationed at Fort Bliss until going overseas.

CPL. FULKERSON MOVED
Cpl. W. H. Fulkerson Jr. of Lubbock Army Air Field left last Friday for Salt Lake City, Utah, where he expects to receive final training before going overseas. Because of his excellent record in the finance department at LAAF, he was the only man from that department selected for overseas service.

TRAINED WOMEN NEEDED

AT $1752 PER YEAR
A letter just received from Office of Dependency Benefits says thousands of trained clerical employees are needed for vacancies that are developing every day, and urges us to recruit, train, and recommend women for these positions.

About three times as many calls as we can fill are being received from business concerns for trained office help—stenographers, secretaries, accountants, and the like—even though many undergraduates are being placed at unprecedented salaries.

Women who aspire to an important part in the war effort at good incomes now, or who want to become thoroughly established in business positions so that their future will be secure should enroll at once, where the nationally-known Draughon training and placement facilities assure not only quick and thorough training, but superior starting positions.

New class starts soon. Call, phone, mail or mention coupon, for low rates and special information.
