Bulldogs Open 1944 Season At Lamesa, Meadow At Home

As The News goes to press Thursday night, Tahoka High School's "B" squad, the third and fourth teams, is playing Meadow in the local gridiron, the first football game of the 1944 season.

But, the main event of the week with local athletic fans, takes place in Lamesa tonight (Friday) at 8:30 o'clock, when the Class A Bulldogs attempt to take a little wind from the Class AA Lamesa Tornados.

Tahoka fans are not optimistic enough to predict victory, but they are enthusiastic about the possibility. In fact, it's been 21 years since a Tahoka football team has defeated Lamesa High.

With the largest squad of boys the school has ever had, Coach Leo Jackson hopes to have a potent team as soon as the boys get a little experience. Several of the first string boys have had colds, however, and are not in tip-top shape for the Lamesa game. These include Hodge, Newton, Lane and Nolan Jones, and Wayne Miller.

Lamesa has two new coaches this year, and some good boys left over from last year's squad, and that town is looking forward to one of the best seasons in years.

For the benefit of those intending to go to Lamesa for the game, Coach Jackson says Section C in the grandstand has been assigned to Tahoka, and these reserved seats will sell for 75 cents plus tax. General admission tickets will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students, plus tax.

LaVaughn Caraway, 180 pound fullback, and W. T. Hines, 155-lb. end, have been selected as captains for this game for Tahoka.

Many Students Leave For College

Several Tahoka boys and girls are beginning their school work this fall in college. A large portion of this year's college students were graduated from high school here last spring.

Tahoka will be represented in Texas Technological College by Euelia Dollins, Clara Faye Nordyke, Joretta Smith, Charlene Bucy, and Johnnie Margaret Price, who began the fall term Tuesday. Winston Redwine, Lubbock High graduate, and Maxine Lindley, Brownfield High graduate, former Tahoka students, will also attend Tech.

Peggy Penton, who attended Hockaday Junior College in Dallas last year, returned Sunday, accompanied by her sister, Mary Beth, and Dorothy Jean Applewhite.

Jimmie Lou Thomas and Beth Shepherd are resuming their work in McMurry College, Abilene.

Clovis Stephens will attend Abilene Christian College.

Marcelene Stephens, Mary Beth Roddy, and Pat Hill will begin their work as Freshmen Sept. 19 at West Texas State College, Canyon.

Myrna Dean Gagnat will leave Sunday for her second year at Briarcliff Junior College in New York.

Virginia Roddy will begin training in the Cadet Nurse Corps in Abilene this fall.

Carl Griffing, Jr., who attended Texas A. & M. this summer, will continue his work there this fall.

Gene Earl Knight attended Texas Tech this summer but will exchange his college life for Uncle Sam's Navy for the duration.

Most of the boys are already in the service, and others expect to be inducted soon.

There are possibly other college students not reported to The News.

Bud Pugh Is Denied New Trial Motion, Will Appeal Case

Motion of defense attorney of L. B. (Bud) Pugh for a new trial was denied by Special District Judge J. E. Gariand at a hearing in district court here Wednesday. Notice of appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin was then filed by Pugh's attorneys.

Pugh was recently assessed a 5-year sentence by a jury in district court here for the murder of Deputy Sheriff Con Burns on the streets of O'Donnell last spring.

Grain Loans Are Explained by AAA

Following is the procedure for the securing of Commodity Credit loans on grain, according to R. L. Adams, ACA secretary:

First, the farmer must have an approved granary. Any substantially constructed frame building, built for a granary would more than likely qualify as an approved granary.

Second, fill this granary as full as you intend to, then notify the local AAA office.

Third, 30 days after you have notified AAA that your granary is full, an inspector will be sent out to probe the grain for a sample to be sent the laboratory for testing for moisture content. If it tests not over 13% moisture content and grades No. 2 or better, it is eligible for a non-recourse loan on 95% of the grain in your bin. A charge of $3.00 is made for this service.

Fourth, you can borrow 95 cents per each 56-pound bushel on 95% of the grain stored, an average of a bit over $1.69 per hundred.

As a loan fee, you will be charged one cent for each 56-pound bushel, which will net you about $1.67 per hundred for your grain.

This loan is obtainable through February, 1945. Your note is due and made payable June 30, 1945.

Solsberys Hear From Two Sons

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Solsbery had communications from their two sons in the service recently, one of them in a German prison and the other in a Navy hospital with both legs broken.

S/Sgt. George O. Solsbery wrote from a German prison situated in southeastern Germany near the former Austrian line to the effect that he was OK and saying, "Tell everyone hello for me." The card was written on June 4 and was received by his parents only last week. He has been in the prison several months.

The other letter came from Marvin E. Solsbery, MM 2/c, in the U. S. Navy, both of whose legs were broken last May 21 from an accidental explosion which occurred while munitions were being transferred from one ship to another in Pearl Harbor. The toes of the right foot also were torn away.

Until recently he was under treatment in a hospital in Hawaii but was transferred some three weeks ago to a hospital in Oakland, Calif., from which he wrote this letter home on Sept. 1. He arrived back in San Francisco exactly two years after leaving our shores, just to the day and almost to the hour, he informed his parents. Both legs are still in a plaster cast and he can be conveyed about only in an invalid's chair. However, he is looking forward eagerly to the time when he can come home and again engage in his chosen occupation of farming.

Donald L. Giles is promoted to captain.

Now, it's Captain Donald L. Giles. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Giles, now of Lubbock but long-time residents of Lynn county, received a cablegram from Donald last week informing them of his promotion Sept. 1. He volunteered for service Aug. 6, 1940, received his commission Sept. 16, 1942, and went to England Nov. 6, 1942.

He writes that he hopes to eat Christmas dinner at home.

Ceiling Price May Be Set on Pulling And Hauling of Cotton, If Farmers Unite

Eight representative Lynn county farmers and County Agricultural Agent R. L. Stone attended a meeting in Lubbock Friday in regard to the possibility of a wage ceiling being placed on cotton pulling and hauling charges for cotton to gins. Farmers from 25 counties were present. Also present was a representative of the U. S. Labor Dept., Washington, D. C., to hear farmers' views and to explain the procedure necessary for this area to follow in having ceiling wages set.

First, it is necessary that farmers sign a petition stating they desire a Wage Stabilization meeting and that such ceilings be set, and a majority of the farmers of the area must sign the petition. Wage hauling will be held at which any farmer may appear to express his opinion as to what the wage and hauling ceilings should be. If this Wage Stabilization Board finds that the majority of farmers desire ceilings, such wage and hauling ceilings will be placed upon cotton harvest. The entire procedure can be completed within two weeks and can be in effect by Sept. 25-30.

Once set, the ceilings become binding, and any farmer paying in excess can be prosecuted. In the past few years, farmers have tried to agree among themselves on how much they should pay, but it seemed someone always would get excited and break over, paying more in order to get his cotton picked quickly. Under the wage ceiling, such a farmer could not lawfully break over without being liable to prosecution. Such a program protects all farmers, regardless of acreage and other points, from having to pay excess wages. Such a program will be fair both to the farmers and to the cotton pullers.

Any farmer who, because of a poor crop or for other reasons who could not get his cotton gathered for the ceiling wage, could appeal to the Wage Stabilization Board and upon sufficient grounds would be permitted to pay a wage necessary to get such a crop harvested. Such a procedure would require between 24-36 hours, which is fast enough.

Letter were mailed to every farmer in the county earlier in the week by the County Agricultural Agent describing the plan and enclosing cards which must be signed by a majority of Lynn county farmers to present evidence that

Funeral Held For Accident Victim

Funeral services for A. G. Cawthron, Jr., aged 9 years and 10 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cawthron Sr., living in the New Lynn community in this county, who was killed in an automobile accident Saturday, were held at the Harris Funeral Home here at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, with Rev. Levi W. Price, pastor of the Baptist Church here, officiating. The body was laid to rest in the Tahoka cemetery.

The fatal accident occurred on the Big Spring-Lamesa highway about seven miles north of Big Spring about 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Cawthron, A. G. Jr., and their little daughter

Wilson Soldier Is With Fifth Army

With the Fifth Army, Italy—Cpl. Orville L. Maeker, Rt. 2, Wilson, graduate of Wilson High School, is fighting along the Arno River in Italy with the 133rd Infantry Regiment that has been a nightmare to battered German troops throughout the Fifth Army's Italian campaign. Maeker is a Medical aidman, a group worthy of all honors.

Overseas nearly three years, the 133rd Infantry Regiment of the 34th "Red Bull" Division has piled up more hours in actual combat than many American divisions have time overseas.

The veteran Fifth Army regiment first blazed its guns at a cocky enemy in the boney mountain ranges of Tunisia and defeated the Krauts in the famous battle for Hill 609. Backed from Tunisia to the Arno, the defeat-written faces of retreating German troops are still haunted by the Red Bulls who have gored the enemy at Cassino, Anzio and in crushing drive above Rome.

With a record of having taken every objective assigned to it, the 133rd has become one of the most decorated units in the Mediterranean Theatre. Scattered among the fighting infantrymen of the unit are two Congressional Medals of Honor, 19 Distinguished Service Crosses, 117 Silver Stars for gallantry in action and more than 1500 Purple Heart awards.

First elements of the 133rd sailed for Ireland in January, 1942, one of the first infantry units to go overseas in this war.

Old Paper Tells Of Early Demo Meeting

In reading files of the Star State Patriot, published at Marshall away back in 1848, Dr. J. R. Singleton Tuesday ran across the proceedings of the Democratic National Convention of that year as reported by the Baltimore Sun of May 23, 1848.

He noted with interest that it was at that convention that the Democrats adopted the two-thirds majority rule and the unit rule for the first time. Also, it was at this convention that the Democratic National Committee was authorized.

He states that a Mr. Hannagan of Indiana was prominent in convention affair, and a Mr. Stevenson of Virginia was convention president, but he doesn't know if they were ancestors of present day political figures.

GREATHOUSE PROMOTED

San Diego, Calif., Sept. 12—Frank O. Greathouse Jr. of Tahoka has been promoted to the rank of private first class at this Marine Corps base.

Exhibit of Shells And Bombs Will Be Shown Saturday By Pantex

An exhibit of ammunition loaded at the giant Pantex Ordnance plant near Amarillo, will be displayed on the court house square in Tahoka Saturday afternoon from 1:00 to 5:00 o'clock.

Exhibit trucks will bring bombs and shells made there for use on the war fronts.

War heroes will accompany the exhibit to explain the ammunition and to recruit workers in the Pantex plant.

USO Drive Starts At Legion Meeting

Lynn county's drive to raise its $5,600.00 USO quota was officially started Tuesday night at a steak supper at the regular American Legion meeting at the Legion Hall. The local Legion post is sponsoring the drive in Lynn county this year, according to Wallace Koehler, general chairman.

Tuesday night's Legion meeting is said to have been the most enthusiastic and interesting held here in a long time, 44 members being present.

Talks were made on the good being done by the United Service Organizations by Capt. Miller, chaplain, and Sgt. Baker, both of Lubbock Army Air Field, and both talks are said to have been far above the ordinary. Rod Merritt, district USO representative, also spoke.

Sgt. Miller told of his service in this war in Indian, North Africa, Sicily, and Italy, and of the entertainment and help brought to the boys on the fighting fronts by the USO.

Talks were also made by Koehler and Happy Smith.

Community chairmen have been named for the county and each community assessed a quota, which quotas have been accepted.

The following new Legion officers were installed: E. J. Hendrix, post commander; John Slover, first vice commander; John J. Waldrep, second vice commander; R. R. Adams, adjutant; Frank McLaugh, sergeant-at-arms; Tom L. Gill, chaplain; and A. M. Cade, service officer.

Federal Inspection Of Guard Monday

Federal inspection of the Tahoka Texas State Guard unit, Co. F, 39th Bn., will be held next Monday night at 8:00 o'clock. Capt. E. R. Edwards has been informed. A major from the U. S. Army will make the inspection.

Capt. Edwards requests that every member of the company be present as this is a very important meeting.

Guardsmen will report in full summer uniform with full pack. In case some new members may not know, this means uniform, tie, leggings, helmet, cartridge belt, full pack, canteen, and Enfield rifle.

NEVILL WINS AWARD

Mrs. Pauline Nevill of Tahoka has been informed that her husband's group has received a special Presidential Citation for their work in the invasion of France. He has also received the Good Conduct Medal. Pfc. Alex (Ecky) Nevill is based in England.

AKIN HOME FROM WAR

Leroy Akin, cockswain in the Navy, has been here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Akin. He hints that he saw considerable action in the invasion of the Marianas while serving on a landing craft.

Lynn County Men At Democrat Convention

Lynn county's five votes were cast at the State Democratic Convention, meeting in Dallas Tuesday and Wednesday, by J. W. Elliott, C. H. Cain, A. L. Dunagan, and W. E. Suddarth.

The Lynn county delegation was a pro-Roosevelt one.

District Baptists Hold Annual Two Day Meeting Here

With almost 300 messengers and members of about 20 churches in Brownfield Baptist Association and visitors and speakers from other associations, the 37th annual session of the Association was held in Tahoka First Baptist Church Tuesday and Wednesday.

The meeting opened at 10 a. m. Tuesday with Rev. A. A. Brian, Brownfield pastor, as moderator, and Rev. R. L. Shannon, Meadow pastor, as clerk, and by holding a night session the business was completed and adjournment made at noon Wednesday. Women of Tahoka church served dinner and supper Tuesday and dinner at the close of Wednesday's session.

Among the prominent Baptists from outside the association present were Rev. W. E. Barnes, pastor at Hereford; Rev. C. E. Hereford, pastor of Lubbock First Baptist; Dr. John W. Cobb, dean of Wayland College, Plainview; Mrs. J. H. Mc-

Lain, State Stewardship chairman of Women's Missionary Union, of Falls, all of whom had places on the program. Former pastors present were Rev. Geo. A. Dale of Lubbock and Rev. A. C. Hardin of Tahoka, and their wives. Other visitors included Rev. J. P. Durham of Shreveport, La.; W. S. Armstrong, Plainview; and Mrs. H. C. McDermott, Falls.

Unique in its content and intensely interesting was the annual sermon brought at the 11 o'clock hour Tuesday by Rev. William Roach, pastor of the Wells church.

The dominant feature of the two days program was the attention given to the campaign for the raising of funds for the endowment of Baptist educational institutions in Texas, with special stress on the enlargement of Wayland College.

Dr. John W. Cobb reported that funds already raised for the building program at Wayland had exceeded $72,000.00, only $2,100-plus of this amount coming from this Association. He stated that up to August 20, the Tahoka church led all other churches in Brownfield Baptist Association by contributing more than $600.00. The Brownfield church had given more than $800.

Reports from all churches represented were made and adopted, together with reports on different phases of the work of the Association. Subjects reported on included Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood, Young People, Evangelism, Associational, District, Home and Foreign Missions, and other interesting and timely subjects.

Rev. Levi W. Price, local pastor, brought a very inspirational missionary sermon at 11 o'clock Wednesday to close the two day session. This meeting was generally pronounced one of the best in several years.

Ike Barnes Home From War Fronts

Pfc. Ike L. Barnes of the U. S. Marines is visiting his mother, Mrs. Alfred J. Barnes of Wells, after having spent two years and eight months of strenuous service in the Southwest Pacific.

He was in the thick of the fighting on Guadalcanal and later in New Guinea and New Britain. He was in so many hard fights that it would be futile to attempt to name them. He was never wounded, but finally his health gave way and he was sent to a hospital in Australia, where he remained several months. Then he was sent back to San Diego, where he was in a hospital for three weeks, and from San Diego he was given leave to come home for a few weeks visit. From here he will go to Corpus Christi, where he will report for service about September 23.

Associational WMS Meeting at New Home

New Home Baptist Church was the place of the annual meeting for Brownfield Associational W.M.U. last Thursday, when reports were heard from all chairmen of standing committees and officers of the W.M.U., with Mrs. Garland Pennington, president, in charge.

Featuring the day's program was an address by Mrs. J. H. McLain, state stewardship chairman, Ralls who discussed "Memorials," stressing the Bible-Science building that the Baptist women of this sector propose to build on the Wayland College campus as a part of the Wayland expansion program. Gifts for the erection of this building include War Bonds, which may be given by individuals, societies, or groups. An inspirational sermon was brought by Rev. Lloyd Gentry, pastor at Wilson.

Mrs. J. M. Hale of O'Donnell conducted the Memorial Service. In the election of officers for the year, Mmes. Pennington and Goodell were re-elected president and recording secretary, respectively, and Mrs. D. V. Smith, also of Tahoka, was elected corresponding secretary treasurer.

The New Home ladies served a delicious and bountiful meal at noon to 61 members and visitors present, including the following from Tahoka: Mmes. Pennington, Goodell, J. L. Nevill, J. M. Scott, H. A. Riddle, S. H. Woods, V. A. Botkin, E. J. Cooper, J. R. Wyatt, D. C. Cooper, Smith, E. I. Hill, and A. C. Hardin.

PETTY H. D. CLUB

Petty Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. Lon Cromer Sept. 6 at 4 p. m. Owing to the wet weather, not many were present, but all had a very nice time.

Officers were all re-elected for another year.

Miss Dixon could not be with us as the roads were too muddy. We regret it very much, but hope she can be in our midst next meeting.

The meeting of August 2 was with Mrs. Lee Cromer. The meeting on upholstery was very interesting and educational. Quite a few of our club members have redone old chairs, divans, stools, etc., and they were much better than new when we got through with them.

We are all looking forward to the next meeting, hoping the weather is more favorable and that we have more present then. So, come one, come all—Reporter.

METHODIST REVIVAL
The revival at the Methodist Church is creating a great deal of interest. Large crowds are attending the services both morning and night. Mrs. Flowers has been delivering at the morning services some of the strongest sermons heard in this community. Her last morning service will be Friday.

At night, Rev. R. L. Flowers is preaching some of the most soul-stirring sermons that this community has ever heard. They are Biblical, earnest and effective. Sunday night will be the last service of the meeting. It is hoped by the workers of the church that the entire community will cooperate in helping put over this revival meeting in a great way. The Christians who have been attending the services have been feasting spiritually. Some have declared that they have never had such soul-stirring sermons. —The Pastor.

PHEBE K. WARNER CLUB
The Phebe K. Warner Club began a new club year with a meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. G. M. Stewart.

The club was honored with a vocal solo by Miss La Voyle Richardson, accompanied by Miss Frazier, and with piano selections by Mrs. John Simms.

Club members held an enthusiastic round table discussion on "Let's Build a Better Club." Later during the year the club will study Russia. Dainty refreshments were served to the following members and guests: Mmes. John Chandler, John Simms, Paul Pitman, R. L. Richardson, Pete Hegl, G. M. Stewart, Skiles Thomas from Galveston, Winston Wharton, Douglas Finley, Calloway Huffaker, H. A. Nichols, Truett Smith, and Misses Frazier and Richardson.

The next meeting will be Sept. 26 at the Red Cross Surgical Dressing room unless we are notified otherwise.—Reporter.

CONNOLLY ENJOY REUNION HERE LAST WEEK END

For the first time in many days, the entire James Connolly family and "in-laws" were together last week-end, including two sons and two sons-in-law in the service.

Finis Connolly, now stationed at Moody Field, Ga., had come home on furlough the week before, and Sgt. Keith Connolly came home on a week-end pass from Biggs Field, El Paso. Son-in-law Reid Parker of Midland Field came home, and unexpectedly, to the family at least, Bonnie Brower of the Merchant Marines came in from Houston. Sgt. Keith Connolly has seen much service in Java and Australia, and is entitled to wear the Silver Star and numerous other medals and ribbons for his part in the air battles as a Flying Fortress gunner early in the war.

Bonnie Brower, who also visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Brower, had just returned from a trip to England on a merchant ship. He has been over much of the world in this service.

JOINS NAVY WAVES

Mary Lynn Morris, of the northeast part of the county, returned this week from Dallas, where she was sworn into the Navy WAVES. She will leave soon for training at Hunter College, New York City.

En route to Dallas, Mary Lynn and her sister, Janey Ruth Morris, visited their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Morris, in Fort Worth.

Herds of War

"Out where the West begins" is where important food for war begins too.

The thundering herds of our western ranges stand for a basic food men eat to fight on, men eat to work on.

When the war cry went out for meat and still more meat, western ranchers, stockmen and farmers responded by raising the greatest number of beef cattle, hogs and sheep in the history of our country.

Put her there, partner! You're doing a great job in that fighting home on the Range!

Armontrout Fighting On Pacific Islands

Pfc. Joe Mack Armontrout, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Armontrout of Route 4, has been active in the Jap extermination campaigns on Saipan, Tinian, and Guam, according to letters from the Marine to his parents.

Joe Mack is exceedingly optimistic, but he admits the going has been mighty rough at times, and that our losses have been heavy. Guam is cleaned up now, but he tells his dad that the hunting has been "just like shooting jackrabbits."

Joe Mack, who attended school at New Home, volunteered for service before he was 18 years old, but in spite of the fact that he has been in the service only a year on this Sept. 18, he has been around considerably. After training a while in California, he served in New Caledonia and Guadalcanal before taking part in the invasions of Jap-held Saipan, Tinian, and Guam with the Marines.

SGT. ROY HARVICK HERE

T/Sgt. Roy C. Harvick left Friday for Great Bend, Kansas, after a visit here of several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Harvick. He recently graduated at Lowry Field, Denver. He is now a flying engineer on a B-29. It is probable that he will be sent to some war zone soon.

Harvick has two brothers in the Marines somewhere in the Pacific. One is in the San Marcos Army Air Field, making four of the Harvick brothers in the service.

IN NEW YORK SCHOOL

Miss Myrna Gagnat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dean W. Gagnat of Tahoka, will return to Briarcliff Junior College, Briarcliff Manor, New York, as a member of the senior class on Tuesday, Sept. 19.

Miss Gagnat, who was a prominent member of the Drama group and took part in several productions during her freshman year, has been elected president of the Drama Club for the coming year.

IMPROVEMENTS AT GIN

The new Curry gin has recently completed a 250-bale cotton house, put in a new seed box, and is completing a burr burner built of brick and sheet iron with smokestack. All gins of the town have built these burr burners to guard against fires.

WAGE HEARINGS WEDNESDAY ON PULLING OF COTTON

The County Agricultural Agent was advised Thursday by telegram that the Texas War Food Administration Wage Board will hold a meeting at Lubbock Hotel main ballroom Wednesday, Sept. 20, at 9 a. m., for the purpose of obtaining evidence and information pursuant to establishing wage ceilings for cotton pulling over this area.

Any farmer may appear before the board to express his opinion as to the figure wages should be fixed at. This is a farmers' program and evidence presented by farmers will be the basis of establishing the wage ceiling. Go appear before the board and help fix the wage.

Ceiling Prices . . .

(Contd. from first page) they desire this program. If you do not want this program, be sure to return this card immediately, as all of them combined forms this county's petition. The gins, also, have been called upon to poll their customers and members to submit signed statements of the wishes of their respective farmers. Don't depend on your neighbor, if you favor a ceiling on cotton pulling wages—SIGN and RETURN YOUR CARD NOW!

Public notice will be made as to when the hearing to determine the ceiling wages will be held. Present indications are that it will likely be Tuesday of next week at Lubbock. A number of Lynn county farmers will be notified by the County Agent to represent Lynn county. Anyone may appear who desires to do so.

Based on the farmer's discussion at the Sept. 8 meeting, the average opinions indicated that likely $1.25 for pulling and 26 cents per hundred for hauling to gin would be the ceilings. These ceilings would be in effect over all the approximately 70 cotton producing counties of this area.

The cotton crop down state is very poor this year. This is resulting in more gatherers being in this area earlier than normal, which indicates that there will be plenty of pullers. Likely this country will be in better labor situation for cotton gathering than in several years, but even so, we hear stories of possible $2.00 per hundred cotton pulling wages. Ignore such rumors. They have no basis of truth, and if spread can effect an upward trend in cotton pulling wages. A ceiling wage will protect all alike and might result in saving the farmers many hundreds of dollars. The ceiling just states the most you can lawfully pay, but does not control the minimum you can pay.

Accident Victim

(Contd. from first page) Margaret Gene were on their way home from Big Spring and had stopped their car by the side of road for some purpose, and A. G. Jr. started to cross the highway. While watching one car that was approaching he failed to see another, and when the first car passed he started to run across the pavement and ran right in front of the other car. The impact of the collision killed him instantly. The driver of the car, V. A. Cross of Lubbock, seems to have been entirely blameless.

The body was taken to a funeral home at Big Spring and the Harris Funeral Home here was notified. Mr. Harris went for the body that afternoon.

A. G. Junior was born here on October 24, 1934. He attended school at New Lynn, where he was in the fifth grade. Besides his parents, survivors include both grandmothers, Mrs. Rosa Young and Mrs. Edna Cawthron, both of Tahoka, a number of aunts and uncles, and other relatives. His mother is a niece of Mrs. W. M. Harris, being the daughter of Mrs.

Harris' brother, Mr. J. O. Young, deceased.

Out of town relatives and friends attending the funeral services here included Cpl. L. A. Young, stationed at the Internment Camp at Hereford, Drue Cawthron and family of Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Tatum, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. Cawthron, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cawthron, and Mr. and Mrs. Halbert

Fuller, all of Big Spring, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cawthron of Lubbock. Mrs. Luther Baker of Stanton, and V. A. Cross of Lubbock, driver of the car that struck the boy.

A. G. Junior was a fine little fellow and had many friends, a large crowd being present for the funeral services. The bereaved parents and little sister have the sympathy of all.

In this crisis in the history of our country, we believe that international affairs are of greater concern to our people and to the world than are domestic affairs, and we therefore favor the re-election of President Roosevelt for the reason that we believe he is far abler and far better qualified to deal with these problems than is the Republican nominee. If he has been wrong in some of his domestic policies, we can see no hope of improvement by electing the Republican candidate. He is wrong too on some of the most vital problems this country faces.

This row we are having in Texas over Democratic elections is the result mainly of President Roosevelt's friendly attitude toward the labor racketeers and the fanatics who have been advocating social equality for the negroes and stirring all sorts of racial prejudices. Such rows may be expected to increase in number and in vehemence in the South as long as Northern Democrats and Republicans continue to maintain their present attitudes along these lines.

American troops for the first time in history have invaded German soil. We know not what a day may bring forth, but as this is being written, it looks as if the Allied forces are sweeping on to a swift and overwhelming victory. Hitler should be calling for the rocks and

PERSONALITY . . .

(By Josie LaVerne Blair)
This week let's all turn our eyes toward the Senior's candidate for football queen and make her our personality for the week. She's a newcomer to our Tahoka High, hailing from Draw. She has blue eyes and brown hair and a wonderful personality. The Senior are proud to have her represent their class as football queen. So, let's all salute Radine Hutchins.

SOCIETY NEWS

The students of our "dear old High School" voted for class queens Friday. The Seniors elected for their queen Radine Hutchins. The Sophomores elected Dolores Nowlin, the Juniors Colene Carmack, and last but not least, the "minnows", or Freshmen, elected for their queen Joretta Shawn.

The way to find out who will be the real queen is for everyone to cast his or her vote. Just remember that each activity ticket will count 800 votes, and that will be left up to you to decide which queen you want.

CHEER LEADERS ELECTED

Cheer leaders for the football season were elected last week. The leaders from the different classes are: Senior, Billie Jo Cowan; Junior, Jerine Bartley; Sophomore, N. M. Barham Jr.; Freshman, Kenneth Reed; and the eighth grade Laura Mae Howell.

Again this year the student body cheering section will be used instead of the uniformed pep squad. Each Friday during home room period in the auditorium a pep rally will be held and the student body will be backing the Bulldogs one hundred per cent.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore class met Wednesday at their regular home room period and elected officers.

Elected were: James Cleve Bairrington, president; Joretta Hill, vice president; Loydine Edwards, secretary; Billy Dee Dorman, treasurer; Nancy Weathers, reporter; George M. Small, representative. As the president wasn't there, the vice president took over.

We feel sure this is going to be one of our best years in school.

mountains to fall upon his head before a worse fate overtakes him.

We cuss Hitler every time we undertake to rub out one of our many mistakes. The inferior grade of rubber in all these present-day lead pencils just simply will not do the job. Uncle Sam is using up all our real rubber in whipping the furious Fuehrer. We're hoping we soon get the job done, for we surely do need a pencil with A-1 rubber in it.

SENIOR CLASS NEWS
(By Virginia Montgomery)
Monday, Sept. 4, was chosen as the day to elect class officers in Tahoka High School for the new year and, of course, everyone took part enthusiastically.

As president of the Senior class, Johnnie Wells was elected by popular vote; Neita Bragg, vice president; Jane Bosworth, secretary; Johnnie Mae Anderson, treasurer; Virginia Montgomery, reporter; and Zelma Willingham, parliamentarian. Billie Jo Cowan was elected Senior cheer leader. Billie has a strong voice and is a natural leader in any group.

During home room period Friday Tahoka High School chose its candidates for the football queen's race which ends in a carnival each year. Radene Hutchins of Draw is the Senior candidate for the race. Incidentally votes are one cent each, and any vote received for the Senior queen will be appreciated, for we know Miss Hutchins will come out the winner.

JUNIOR NEWS

The Junior class of '44-45 is behind THS one hundred per cent this year and expects to make this school year one of the most successful ever of the Tahoka Public School system.

The Junior class is organized and is ready to do its part toward a successful school year. We also appreciate the new students in our class and school. You have really shown a great example of co-operation and are helping to make our class and school a better organization.

The class held a meeting Friday and elected Jerine Bartley a cheer leader for our school pep rallies. Jerine has held this position once before, proved to be quite capable, and the entire class feels that she is the person for the position.

The class elected its officers in a class meeting Monday, Sept. 4th. They are: J. Fred Bucy, president; Jeannine Smith, vice president; Gwynnelle Davis, secretary; Jo Bennett, treasurer; Dorothy Johnson, reporter.

The president appointed program and social committees. Class dues were decided upon, and the class expects to select a class song, motto, flower, yell and class colors on next Monday.

The Junior class is very happy to have for its sponsors this year Mrs. Travis Mason and Mrs. Lester Adams, who have made great efforts in the support of our class.

CHILD CARE WAS PART OF SUMMER H. E. ROGRAM

As part of their group work this year, summer Homemaking girls sponsored a play school.

Seventeen girls took part in this project, and following is a list of the children who attended the school: Don Galyen, Reba Jean Cook, Jerry Cain, Janith Hickerson, Genellon Renfro, Idella Woods, N. E. Woods, Jo Ann Walker, Nancy Nowlin, Phyllis Ann Fielder, Ronald Brownlow, Marion Douglas McClan, Roy Gene Sherrod, Douglas Renfro, Devereal Pendleton, Keneth Cawthron, Alton Lee Terry, Taylor Sims, Ruby Mason, Charlie Holland, Ann Wharton, Dottie and Shirley Floyd.

Not only did the girls receive practice in child care, but the children also received help. They learned to play with other children and to share their toys. Some were very timid at first but soon overcame this handicap.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the school.

F. H. T. CLUB

The F. H. T. Club of Tahoka met Thursday, Sept. 7, in the Homemaking department.

The following officers were elected: President, Darlene Wilke; vice president, Nema Pool; recording secretary, Mary Jo Anderson; corresponding secretary, Ula Dee Henderson; treasurer, Alice Parker; reporter, Loydine Edwards; song leader, Ruth Huffaker; parliamentarian, Veda Ruth Chancy; social chairman, Modena Murray. The club has planned to have one social, two programs and one business meeting during the following school months.

HOMEMAKING GIRLS DID WORK DURING SUMMER

Girls taking Homemaking this summer were never idle, according to reports on their work.

Each girl was given a choice of a project which would be of value to her and other members of the family. Various girls worked on such projects as gardening, canning, selecting food, planning and preparing meals, improving personal appearance, improving the home, yard improvement, selection, care and construction of clothing, family and social relationship, child care and guidance of children, earning and budgeting own money, consumer buying, and Red Cross work.

As a result of the home project work, many pantries have been filled with food for the winter months. The group has canned 1413 jars of vegetables, 398 jars of fruit, and 38 jars of meat. The girls have prepared and served 352 meals. The homemaking students finished their work the last of August. 22 girls having received one-half unit credit in school.

FRESHMAN NEWS

The officers of the Freshman class are as follows: Phil Bairrington, president; Billie Faye Anderson, vice president; Nan Beth Pennington, secretary and treasurer; Laquita Anderson, reporter. We also selected a song leader.

Soldier Writes Of Trip Across Pacific

Pfc. J. A. Febworth Jr., son No doubt, any museum would be of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Febworth, Et. 2, a graduate of Draw-Ked-wine High School, and a former student of Draughan's Business College who now is with the Army in India, writes the following interesting account of his service:

It was in January, 1944, when this whole situation of coming over got under way. There were the minutest preparations made all along, which added up to a certain day when we were told to pack our bags, police our area, and load on. With a toot of the lead truck, we were off to we knew not where. Of course, there were those who had suspicions, but this time we were to see for ourselves.

Finally, this phase of the trip ended, and we were to load on trains. It was a very cold day and very miserable to wait so long with heavy packs on our backs, with our hands and feet numb from the cold.

An interesting scene occurred as we were waiting to entrain. There we were, in full field pack, bags rifles slung on our shoulders, ready to leave for the war, when there passed us going the other way a line of raw recruits just coming in the Army. It made me think of myself, the Alpha and Omega.

Now, I suppose, the ill-advised reader will assume that our being an Air Corps unit, we would sing something like "Off we go into the wild blue yonder," scamper into our waiting planes, and in a blaze of glory fly to our destination. But the ways of the Army are varied and strange. So we climbed aboard the train and started out.

We arrived at the staging area later, from whence I wrote you I was somewhere on the East Coast. Here we got everything ready and had our physical examinations. We were always on the alert—just like the Army. We were told to put on our long handles, woolen uniforms, overcoats, field jackets, etc., even though the sweltering sun was casting its warmest beams. It seemed smothering at times, but we pulled through. Another great day had come for us, and we were off.

We arrived at the port, detrained, and wearily sat down to rest as the Red Cross hurriedly gave us coffee and doughnuts. They did a swell job of it, too. We then lined up in preparation to going up the gang plank, something I had often seen in movies, but now I was to experience it myself.

The band begins to play, the lines begin to move, your name is called, and then up the plank you go, tugging your equipment as the band plays "Anchors Aweigh." A strange sensation comes over you, a feeling of emptiness in your stomach, both of your feet are off "good ole Mother Earth" that has supported you so faithfully and through the years—the earth of the good old U. S. which every soldier is praying to touch again.

Finally and quietly we depart those shores. With strained eyes and fixed emotion, we watched the shore lines recede into nothingness. This was the beginning of a long voyage that most of us hadn't yet realized. Like every other change of life, we had to become accustomed to the boat. Being crowded was something a guy disliked, but everyone soon chipped in and we were all one big happy family. A guy might have to wait an hour or two for chow or 30 to 40 minutes to get a shower. It seemed that every time he reached his objective he was disappointed, for once in the mess hall, it was so hot a healthy appetite would disappear; and, too, the food was often prepared poorly. When a guy reached a shower, salt water was in store for him—and salt water doesn't feel very cleansing. News broadcasts, music, card games, and a movie now and then counteracted the unpleasant things, so the daily routine was absorbed by each of us more pleasantly later.

Then came the day when, while scanning the wide horizon, we sighted land, and it wasn't long before we were appraised of the fact that this was Panama. Oh! but there was vegetation of all types.

Since we spent some time here, I might as well tell you more about it. I will always remember Panama by those delicious banana splits. Oh, those beautiful, heaping hunks of delicious ice cream surrounded by a peninsula of ripe, delicious bananas smothered under dripping strawberries. A guy could buy watches jewelry, perfume, cokes—just everything mentionable. Those post exchanges did a landslide business during our stay.

We were fortunate enough to get passes and enjoy a visit to town. The streets were very narrow in and about the business section and all the streets smell with an unfortunate and unforgettable stench. Natives live in rooms practically on the streets. Most of the business places are small holes in which no doors or windows are supplied. The entrance would be as large as the store itself. Interspersed among them, however, were a few modern stores.

The soldier is forewarned that few native places are safe in which to eat, so Cahoon and I ate at the American Red Cross. We took a ride in a rubber tire buggy, went shopping, and bought some souvenirs. We also went to some of the alleged night clubs, where pretty Senoritas cater to the entertainment of the GI.

Besides the pass, we were taken in trucks on a sight-seeing tour. We saw old ruins and historical grounds of long ago. We also had a swim in the ocean. Another time we ventured out in the tropical area, where we gathered coconuts off the trees. It was fun to watch the mon-crane swimming in the water, and the colorful birds chirping in their happy manner. I, too, couldn't help from being happy. Oh, those were happy days in Panama that I'll never forget! It had been a wonderful stay, with PX's, movies, church passes, scenery, and to meet my friend, the Morgan boy. It would have been nice to have remained in Panama a great deal longer, but like all good things, this, too, had to end.

So, one day, we were off again to continue on our way to some destination unknown to us. But, we were guessing closer every day.

By this time, everyone had become accustomed to life aboard ship. Those of us who were going to be seasick, had already overcome it, and the other seasoned sailors didn't seem to worry about it.

Now comes an interlude during which we have a picture of a cruise through the vast Pacific. But, even the vast Pacific must have its horizons of blankness change eventually and merge into the irregular contour of land.

As we passed the many islands, GI's would rush to the rails, for they had been to the movies and had seen beautiful Dorothy Lamour conquering on the sandy beaches of just such places, waiting for a white man to crush her in his arms. But, strain their eyes as they did, No Lamour was visible. Instead, as we approached we were greeted by a group of outrigger canoes filled with natives. The natives spoke little English, but as usual they knew American currency. We soon had bushels of shells, necklaces, bracelets, grass skirts, bananas and coconuts on board. For a bar of candy one could secure anything that would cost a dollar or more otherwise. Our stay here was novel and very interesting.

Time means nothing at sea, for one day is much like another. To find out the day and date, one had to inquire of someone who kept a record. Sunday was a big day, for services were held all over the ship. Time really marched on as we went sailing under star-studded skies and sunrises and sunsets, the like of which I have never before seen. To say they were beautiful would be a gross under-estimation. The beautiful red sun seemed to sing in the water.

These islands with the white sandy beaches, the beautiful palm trees, banana trees, etc., with the natives that seemed so innocent of the outside world—I'll never forget. I'd perch myself on the railing and gaze upon the islands and inhabitants and recall the times I had seen such in the movies, more or less thinking of it as a fairy tale. Here I was in person (or was I in a dream) looking upon these natives that seemed to be so proud to see us. They enjoyed our stay, too, and they were with us till the last possible moment. As we sailed away, I looked back in the distance and there they were, the several little boats rowing home. The natives looked kind of sad as they waved farewell and slowly paddled toward home. I'm sure they wondered where we came from and if we'd ever be back. I, too, gazed at the beautiful island as long as I could see it, which was several miles, for I wondered if I'd ever see the island again.

Times like these repaid us for the other monotony of the trip. Times were many yet till we reached our next stop. The water was rough and the nights were dark. It seemed that the boat was only going up and down instead of covering miles, since the ocean was rough for many days, then there were many, many days, too, of sunshine, of rain, of wind.

Finally, one morning, this was it. Land was in sight. We could see beautiful cities and vegetation. We would again be able to get foot on soil again. Happy? Yes, we were all thrilled and over-joyed!

CARDUI

A 62 year record of 2-Way help*
*See directions on label

Used as a tonic, Cardui easily peeps up appetite, aids digestion, and thus helps build energy for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before your time, and taken as directed, it should help relieve pain due to purely functional causes.

J. E. Moyer, minister of the Pioneer Park Church of Christ, Lubbock, who is conducting a Gospel meeting at the Tahoka Church of Christ. Everyone is invited to the services, which come to a close Sunday night.

O'Donnell, Tahoka Rotary Clubs Will Have Barbecue

Tahoka Rotary Club will entertain O'Donnell Rotary Club with a barbecue in the McGinty pasture seven miles south of Tahoka next Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, President Fred McGinty announced at Thursday's club meeting here. All Rotary Annas are invited.

The beef will be furnished by McGinty, and is given by the Tahoka club as the result of having lost the recent attendance contest carried on between the two clubs. Another Tahoka Rotary Ann program will be held the last week in this month, when the public school school teachers also will be guests. Carl Griffing and Lum Haney will be in charge of the program.

At Thursday's meeting, J. E. Moyer, minister, who is conducting a revival at the Church of Christ spoke briefly on ideals for business and professional men, and praised the work of Rotary. Leroy Alkin, home from the war at Salpan and Guam, was the serviceman guest of honor.

McGinty, on behalf of the club, presented a past-president's pin to Travis Hanes, whom he succeeded as president on July 1.

Congratulations to:

Donald Roy Hicks has the honor of being the first baby born in the new Sinclair Clinic. The young fellow, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Roy Hicks, was born Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The father is with the Army in Italy. The mother is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Stephens. The little fellow weighed 6 pounds, 11 ounces.

Rev. and Mrs. Levi W. Price upon the birth of a daughter, Lucianne, Thursday, Sept. 7, at 9:55 p. m. in a Wichita Falls hospital. They have a little son, aged three.

Mrs. H. P. Caveness returned Tuesday from a three weeks visit with relatives at McGregor.

OLDTIMER VISITS TAHOKA

Henry McDaniel, whose face was familiar in the First National Bank along about the time the present publishers of The News came to Tahoka and for a few years thereafter, but who moved to Arizona for his health about fifteen years ago and entered the Forest Ranger Service, was again greeting friends on the streets of Tahoka last week end and the first of this week. Henry was practically reared here and still has many friends among the oldtimers.

Henry came down from Springerville, Arizona, last week, arriving here Friday, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Mary, to visit his mother, Mrs. S. N. McDaniel, and to enter the daughter in Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene. Mr. and Mrs. Homer St. Clair of Lamesa were also here Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. McDaniel, and the visitors from Arizona.

Mrs. McDaniel's sister, Mrs. Winfield Scott of Bowie, was another visitor present.

D. I. Gill of Pence Lake, New Mexico, is here visiting his son, T. L. Gill, and family. Mr. Gill was section foreman here for several years but retired because of ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor and four children, Jimmy, Allan, Jan and Nancy, have moved back to Tahoka after having been away for eight years.

Wilson News

(By Eva Williamson)
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jones and children have been visiting relatives in Waco for the past several days. W. J. Hancock came in from Hearne, where he had been with his brother. While Mr. Hancock was there the brother died and was buried Sunday.

Mrs. Nolan Robnett, who has been at Lamesa recovering from an operation two weeks ago, is able to be home. We are proud to know that she is doing so nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith spent Saturday night and Sunday in Lubbock visiting relatives.

Mrs. Carol Cummings is visiting her mother, Mrs. Effie Snodgrass. The Methodists had a nice sized crowd at Conference Saturday.

Young people from the Methodist Church at Tahoka came down Sunday evening and put on a nice program for the young people here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Murray, Juanita and Lynn of Slaton visited Mr. and Mrs. Hancock Tuesday and Lynn remained with his grandparents for a longer visit. Lynn is in college in Baton Rouge, La.

Mrs. McDougal of Lubbock is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Onis Ray and Peggy Lou of Slaton visited in the home of Mrs. Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lamb.

Frank Bailey of Fort Worth was down Saturday looking after business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCormick and Ruthie Mae of Hale Center made a business trip here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Schnell have gone on a few days vacation visiting relatives in Austin, San Antonio and Shiner.

Miss Marjory Key has gone to Crane, where she will teach this year.

Billy Key and little daughter of Sundown were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Key, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Lemon spent Sunday at Petty with the Brown family.

Mrs. Geo. Williamson left Thursday for Memphis, Tenn., where she will spend ten days with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin and Ina Ruth spend Sunday in Lubbock with the Whitlocks.

Misses Elizabeth Crowder, Naoma Powers, and Rob Key, all of Lubbock, spent Sunday with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Key helped celebrate their grandson's birthday, Leroy Johnson, Sunday in Lubbock.

Mrs. Nettie Richards and son, Charles Roy, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Richards' sister, Mrs. M. L. Murray of Slaton.

After nearly two years service in the Navy, Truett Hannabas, Motor Machinist Mate, recently visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hannabas, at Wilson. He had been stationed at Pearl Harbor nearly two years. Following his visit, he left for San Francisco, where he was to take schooling in the operation of diesel engines.

MONTY RAY KELTNER WEDS IN NORTH CAROLINA

S/Sgt. Monty Ray Keltner of the U. S. Marines, was married to Miss Laurene Marshburn of Durham, North Carolina, at her home on July 10, he has written his mother, Mrs. C. B. Keltner.

The bride is this month re-entering college at Greensboro, N. C., where she is a senior student.

Sgt. Keltner is due to finish a course in radar at Cherry Point, N. C., on Sept. 15, where he has been attending the school for Marines several months.

Monty Ray, who is a graduate of Tahoka High, has had 22 months service in the South Pacific as a radio operator in the Marines.

MISS TUNNELL HONORED

A surprise farewell party honoring Miss Frances Tuennell was given by Miss Dolly Gatzki Monday evening.

A watermelon feast was served to the following: Misses Gerry Milliken, Christine Wenzel, Eloise Nettles, Billie Riddle, Pauline Hale, Kittie Paires, Rubie Greer, Dot Roberts, Billie Wall, and Mmes. Jewell White, Avis Buchanan, Eloise Carroll, Jennie Reba Flowers, and Lauraine Boshalm.

WHO CALLED THAT LAMP A "LIGHT"?

Home study takes enough energy without having to use so much trying to see under poor light. Willie is probably bright enough, but if the light is not, his work suffers. He needs good light (and so do you) for all indoor seeing tasks. When proper home lighting is so easy to obtain, why be without it? By observing the following simple rules you can be sure your light is right, even in war time: Keep spare bulbs on hand, so that you can replace burnouts at once. Most electric dealers now have light bulbs in all common home sizes. Use the RIGHT SIZE bulb in each lamp or fixture. Use flaring shades (wider at bottom than top) instead of straight-sided ones on your lamps. See that the shades have white or light-colored linings, to reflect more usable light. Move lamps closer to points of use, so they shed light directly on the work. Light should come from the left side for right-handed persons, from the right for left-handed persons. Keep bulbs, reflector bowls and shades clean. Dust and dirt cut down light output. Make your good lamps do double duty by rearranging furniture so that more than one person can use each lamp.
