Bulldogs Will Play O'Donnell Eagles Here Tonight

The annual Tahoka - O'Donnell football game, almost always a classic in this section, tonight at 8:30 o'clock on Tahoka field, ends the conference play of both teams. Probably the largest crowd of the season is expected to be on hand.

All previous team records mean nothing when Tahoka and O'Donnell meet in the annual clash, but it is interesting to note that each team has lost only one conference game this season, and each lost to Denver City, who is expected to defeat Post tonight for the district championship. Denver City defeated Tahoka 12 to 0, and O'Donnell 34 to 6.

Both O'Donnell and Tahoka, however have the best teams in several years, both are offense minded, and O'Donnell's speed may prove a match for the Bulldogs' power.

Last Friday night, Tahoka defeated Seminole on the local field by a 34 to 13 score, with every Tahoka boy in uniform seeing service.

Scoring in every quarter, Tahoka outclassed the visitors. Fullback La Vaughn Caraway made the first touchdown in the first quarter on a 30-yard gallop. In the second quarter, Lane Jones scored from the 21-yard stripe, and a pass Caraway to Buddy Gene Bragg, end, was good for the extra point. Then a few minutes later, Jones scored again from the 8-yard line, and Bill Grider, blocking back, carried the ball through the line for the extra point. The half ended with the score 20 to 0.

Early in the third quarter, End W. T. Hines blocked a Seminole punt, recovered the ball and ran 30 yards for another touchdown. The conversion was good.

Seminole's fast back got away a few minutes later and ran 60 yards to pay dirt, then converted. Pushed back near the goal line, a Tahoka punt was blocked, and two plays later Seminole scored again, to bring the count 27-13.

But, in the fourth, Caraway went back into the ball game by carrying the ball over again, then kicked for the extra point. Final score, 34 to 13.

Cosch Leo Jackson found a new prospect in Pennington, who came out only about three weeks ago.

Tahoka made 9 first downs to 3 for Seminole.

Tonight, all 48 Bulldogs of the A and B strings, and all 45 of the Bulldogs, juniors, will be in uniform the first time they have all been on the field at once.

Bold Thief Steals Car In Daylight

A bold thief stole the Ford car of Roy Scott from the streets of Tahoka late Monday afternoon and got away with it.

Mrs. Scott had driven the car to town and parked it at the curb just north of the Modern Beauty shop and across the street south from the Piggly-Wiggly store, leaving a five-year-old child in the car while she did a bit of shopping.

The thief approached the car, it is said, lifted the child out, took it over toward the sidewalk alongside the Piggly-Wiggly store, placed it on the pavement, and told it to run on into the store. Then he climbed into the car and stepped on the gas.

The few persons who saw the car speeding away thought little about it and could not even tell what course the thief pursued after leaving the vicinity where the car had been parked.

The car was missed within a few minutes, but the thief was gone. The sheriff was notified and he immediately got busy. He is working on the case and doubtless will locate the car sooner or later.

Other cars have been found in this county lately which had been stolen in other counties, one from Lubbock and another from Crosbyton.

Mary Jeanne Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans, underwent tonsillectomy in a Lubbock hospital Tuesday.

Messages May Be Sent Philippines Liberated Prisoners

Judge Tom Garrard, chairman of the Red Cross Chapter in Lynn from headquarters at St. Louis, Mo., county, has received a message advising that "Messages for delivery to liberated U. S. prisoners of war and civilian internees in the Philippines will be accepted by all Red Cross chapters during the month of November."

"Arrangements have been made by the American Red Cross through the cooperation of the War Department, and the Office of Censorship."

Any person desiring to send such a message and who desires further information in regard thereto should see Judge Garrard.

Sgt. 'Bud' Gryder Dies Of Wounds

Sgt. Dwight I. (Bud) Gryder, 21, died on September 27 in England of wounds received in a mission over Germany September 12, according to a letter received Monday by Wynne Collier from Gryder's sister, Mrs. Ruth G. Churchill of Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Bud was tall gunner on an Army bomber based in England.

He was a graduate of Portales, N. M. high school, following which he worked here several months at Gattis Drug and at Wynne Collier Drug before entering the service in 1943. His father, two young sisters, and grandparents live at Portales, and a fourth sister at Fort Sumner.

He made many friends while a resident of Tahoka.

Two Negro Boys Burglarize Home

Two Negro boys, 13 and 14 years of age respectively, decided on Sunday, Oct. 29, that they had picked as much cotton in Lynn county as they cared to pick, and that there was an easier way to make money anyway. So, on Sunday night, while Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Howell, who live five miles east of Tahoka, were attending church here, the boys saw their chance to get rich quick.

They forced their way into the house and proceeded to help themselves. They found and took possession of about fifty dollars in money, three wrist watches, two pair of nice eye-glasses, a gold watch chain, and two pocket knives. Then they parked themselves out on the highway and flagged down the east-bound bus. At Post, they purchased tickets for some place much farther east.

In the meantime, the Howells had returned home and found their house had been ransacked. They notified the sheriff and he notified all neighboring sheriffs to be on the lookout. When the bus reached Albany, officers nabbed the two fugitives and notified the sheriff here. The next day Mr. Howell and Deputy Sheriff Tom Reid went down to Albany and brought the two young colored gentlemen back to Tahoka. About half the money and most of the stolen property were found in possession of the two and recovered.

Since the two young thieves were juveniles, they were turned over to officers in the county of their residence, Williamson county. There, they were placed under the care of their parents but are required to report to the court periodically. It is hoped that their failure and capture will restrain them from further acts of thievery if tempted again.

ROBERT LEE MACHA

ASSIGNED TO THE NAVY

Our attention has been called to the omission of the name of Robert Lee Macha, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Macha of the Dixie community from the published list of inductees in the service last week.

He was assigned to the Navy and is stationed at San Diego, Calif., according to his mother.

Mrs. Marion Whitaker of Coleman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Paul Howell.

Buddy Gene Bragg Wins Chicago Trip For 4-H Club Work

Buddy Gene Bragg 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cody Bragg of West Point, has been selected by L. L. Johnson, State Boys Agent, Extension Service as a winner in the state contest sponsored by the Santa Fe Railroad company, and will be given a trip with all expenses paid by the railroad to the National 4-H Congress in Chicago December 3-6.

The award was made by Sam M. Tidwell of the Santa Fe at the Post Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday at noon. A Garza county boy, Joe Stokes, was likewise honored. Buddy Gene was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bragg, County Judge Tom Garrard, County Agent Robert L. Stone, and Frank Hill of The News.

The Certificate of Merit presented along with the award reads as follows: "Buddy Gene Bragg: In recognition of outstanding achievement as a faithful member of the 4-H Club in the State of Texas, is hereby declared winner of the Santa Fe Award in the aforesaid State on this First Day of November, 1944, and is earnestly commended for an effort ambitiously begun and worthily concluded. (Signed) F. G. Gurley, President, The Atchison, Topeka, and Santa Fe Railway System."

Petty Crime Wave Sweeping County

Sheriff Sam Floyd reports that many petty offenses are being committed by the Mexican and Negro cotton pickers now in the county. Two weeks ago he caught about forty of the blacks and the swarthy-skinned sojourners in the county and filed against them such charges as drunkenness, gambling, fighting, etc., most of them pleading guilty and paying fines. Last week, he made about fifteen arrests, and these violators also 'fessed up and paid off.

Of course this gambling-drinking class constitute only a small percent of the transient cotton pickers now in the county. Most of them are well-behaved.

SUDBERRY PROMOTED

Promotion of G. D. Sudberry of Tahoka from corporal to staff sergeant, according to announcement of the U. S. Army. He is stationed in Europe.

More Details On Lt. Maasen Death

Sketchy particulars concerning the death of Lt. H. A. Maasen, 21, pilot of a B-25 Billy Mitchell medium bomber in the U. S. Marine Corps, stationed in the South Pacific, have been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maasen from his commanding officer.

According to the recent letter from the Marine Corp officer, H. A. was returning from a special mission through a squall (heavy rain and low visibility) and his plane failed to emerge from this area. The next day a searching party was sent out and Maasen's plane was found crashed on a coral island in the South Pacific. All crew members had met instantaneous death. The commanding officer couldn't reveal where the bodies were buried.

Pfc. Charles Sparks Back In The States

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sparks of Three Lakes have been notified that their son, Pfc. Charles D. Sparks, who has been in a hospital in New Guinea since September, has been returned to the States and is in Bushnell General Hospital in Brigham, Utah.

His wife, who had been employed on the West Coast, is with him.

Negro Killed At Wilson Saturday

Dan Griffin, Negro, was shot and mortally wounded at about 12 o'clock last Saturday night on the Frank Schneider farm three or four miles northwest of Wilson, and Robertson Kennard, another Negro, is in jail here charged with murder with Malice, according to Sheriff Sam Floyd. Kennard is alleged to have used a .22 rifle, firing one shot into the body of Griffin.

Soon after the shooting, Constable Albert Gumm of Wilson arrested Kennard and took him and the wounded Negro Griffin to Slaton, where the latter was given surgical attention in the Mercy Hospital. A blood transfusion was deemed advisable and Kennard, the assailant, furnished the blood. But Griffin died in the hospital about 8:45 o'clock Sunday morning.

Sheriff Sam Floyd was notified soon after the shooting occurred but when he arrived on the scene, both Negroes had already been taken to Slaton. He was notified by Constable Gumm Sunday morning that he had Kennard in his custody at Wilson, and went immediately and brought the accused to Tahoka and placed him in jail.

The case will be investigated when the grand jury again convenes. Mr. Floyd is informed that Kennard had already served one term in the penitentiary on a charge of assault to murder. Both Negroes came from Bryan to this county to pick cotton.

Sgt. Billy J. Edwards Awarded Air Medal

Fifteenth Army Air Forces in Italy—Staff Sergeant Billy Jack Edwards, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Edwards, Bo 547, Tahoka, Texas was recently awarded the Air Medal for meritorious achievement on aerial flights against the enemy.

A waist gunner on a 15th AAF B-24 with a group commanded by Arnold L. Schroeder of Glendale, California, Sgt. Edwards arrived overseas last August. Since that time he has flown on over fifteen missions against the Germans over military targets throughout occupied Europe. He has participated on bombing missions over such targets as troop concentrations and bridges in France, industrial centers in Germany, oil refineries in Austria and Bulgaria, and lines of communications and supply depots in Poland. Sgt. Edwards graduated from the Sand Springs, Oklahoma high school in '42 and was employed as a riveter for the Douglas Aircraft Co. in Long Beach, California before entering the Army in July '43.

JEFF REAGAN HOME

Jeff Reagan, MM 3/c of the Navy Seabees, is home on a 30-day leave with his wife and son Harley and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Reagan of Lakeview.

Reagan has been in service 25 months, all but seven weeks of this time having been spent overseas. He has been on 14 different islands, among them being Saipan, Guam, Iwo Jima, Green Island, New Guinea and New Caledonia.

W. S. Anglin left Thursday for Sweetwater, where he is attending the annual Northwest Texas Methodist Conference. Mrs. H. A. Nichols expects to join Rev. Nichols there Saturday for the last two days.

Incomplete returns indicate that Tuesday's election has resulted in the return of President Franklin D. Roosevelt to the White House for a fourth term by a sweeping popular majority vote and by an enormous majority of the electoral votes.

Latest returns, as this is written, show that in all probability he has carried 35 of the 48 states, giving him a vote in the electoral college of 413, as against a total of 118 for Governor Dewey. His popular majority will run up to possibly three and a half million.

The Democrats have likewise made gains in the House of Representatives and possibly in the Senate. Most significant was the defeat of Senator Gerald P. Nye, Republican, of North Dakota, one of the leading isolationists in the Senate, and Hamilton Fish, Republican, of New York, leading isolationist in the House. They will be replaced by Democrats.

All Texas Congressmen who were renominated in the July primaries were re-elected. Some of them had no opponents, George Mahon of the 19th district being in this category. Hatton Sumners of Dallas and Kilday of San Antonio, who had the most formidable opposition of any of the Texas delegation, were each re-elected by sweeping majorities.

Roosevelt carried Texas by a vote of more than two to one over the Republicans and the Regulars combined. The Republicans made their best showing in San Antonio, their vote there running in the ratio of about two to three for the Democrats. Many dissatisfied Democrats throughout the state apparently voted for the Republican Presidential electors rather than for the Regulars, probably feeling that a vote for the Regulars would be a vote thrown away.

Governor Stevenson and the whole Democratic state ticket were elected by tremendous majorities over the Republicans.

The three proposed constitutional amendments in Texas are said to have carried, though returns on these are far from complete.

In Lynn county, Pres. Roosevelt's majority was almost 4 to 1 over all opposition. Democratic electors received 1968 votes against 263 for the Republicans and 256 for the Regulars. Five votes were cast for the Prohibition party and one for the America First party.

Governor Coke R. Stevenson received 2,034 votes for re-election against 106 votes for Peaseley, his Republican opponent.

Only one of the three proposed constitutional amendments was approved by the voters of Lynn county, though the vote on the other two was very close.

The Municipal Pensions amendment lost in this county by a vote of 356 for to 385 against; the State Officials Pension amendment by a vote of 345 for to 378 against. The County Tax Reallocation amendment was the only one that came safely under the wires in this county, the vote being 346 for to 344 against.

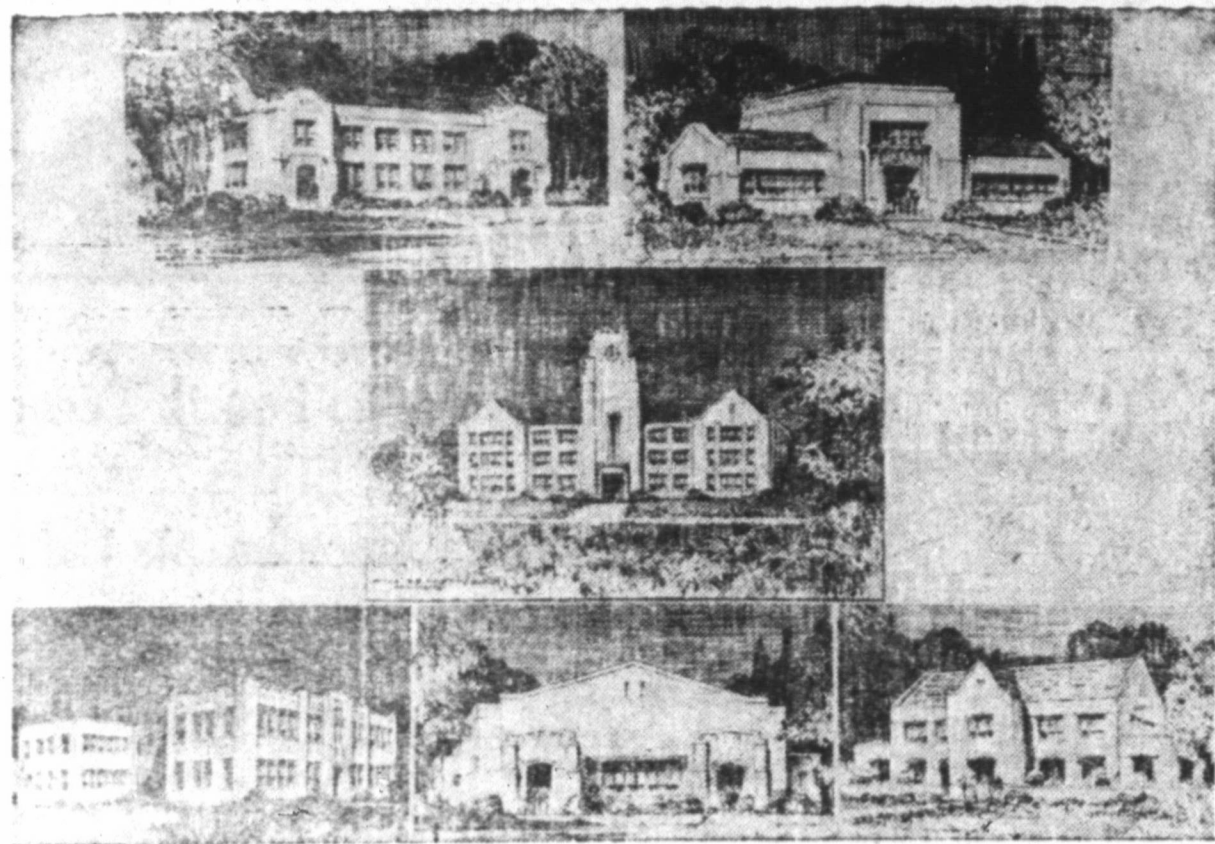

A total of 2,453 valid votes were cast in the Presidential contest in this county. A few votes had to be thrown out for various reasons.

Three Negroes voted in Precinct 6 in Tahoka. It is not known here whether there were other Negro votes in the county or not. All Negroes who held poll tax receipts and were otherwise qualified might have voted had they chosen to do so. It is presumed that there was quite a sprinkling of Negro votes in some parts of the state.

Health and Physical Education Building, and the Dining Hall and Union Building.

TEXAS LUTHERANS FORGE AHEAD

An extensive building program is being launched by the American Lutheran Church in Texas according to Rev. E. Herber of Wilson, pastor of Wilson and Suohland Lutheran churches, to make Texas Lutheran College of Seguin a Million Dollar institution, and adequate to operate efficiently for this great church in Texas. The ever increasing need of better and more definitely Christian institutions moves this church to go forward. The actual dates for this campaign are Nov. 12th to 26th, and the church solicits the support of every member and every other lover of Christian ideals. The slogan is: "Help Build Texas Lutheran College Now!" The purchase of War bonds in the name of Texas Lutheran College is being urged which affords one of the opportunity of doing two noble acts in one, serving our country that we love, and honoring God, whom we worship

We are going all out to win the war, but also to preserve the Peace. Series F or G Bonds are preferable. Rev. Mr. Herber has been the popular pastor of the Wilson and Southland churches for ten years, and will lead the campaign for funds for this building program in this area to be assisted by local committees.

METHODIST PASTOR IS ATTENDING CONFERENCE

Northwest Texas Annual Conference of the Methodist Church convened at Sweetwater on Wednesday and will close Sunday. Some 290 ministers will receive their appointments at the close of the conference.

There are nine districts, Abilene, Amarillo, Chandon, Perryton, Plainview, Lubbock, Sweetwater, Stamford and Vernon. Three District Superintendents will retire from their districts, having served six years, the limit. They are Dr. Wm. House, Amarillo, Rev. Geo. Palmer, Chandon, and Rev. Cal C. Wright, Abilene. Perhaps there will be pastors to be elevated to these appointments who have never been superintendents before. The largest district is Lubbock with 53 churches. Tahoka is in the Lubbock district, of which Dr. L. N. Lipscomb is the superintendent. The district leads all other districts in members received and money collected.

Tahoka Methodist Church will have the best report it has had for many years. During the past two years the pastor, Rev. H. A. Nichols, has received more than 200 new members, a net gain of some 150. This year the church has paid out nearly $13,000 for different purposes. No debts were paid, for the church has had no debts for years. The Board of Stewards voted for the pastor to return for another year with salary increased $500. The past two years the church has increased the salary $1,000. As far as the pastor knew, he expects to be returned for another year.—Reporter.

We are responsible for our salvation, but God is responsible for our salvation.—Selected.

Interest and attendance is increasing with the churches in Tahoka and O'Donnell. A number have placed membership at Tahoka recently. Elmo Burkett is doing a fine work with these brethren, and the future looks bright for him.

The Church in O'Donnell has sent their preacher, Garnie Atkinson, to Socorro, New Mexico, for a mission meeting Nov. 10. Interest and cooperation are fine among the churches of Lynn county. Recently money was sent to Bro. Cecil Smith in Socorro that the meeting house might be completed. By the end of the year the churches of the county will have supported a man through the year at $50 a week, bought lots that cost better than $500.00 and built a nice meeting house that will cost better than $1200.00. This is the mission spirit that should be manifested. The churches are to be commended for this fine effort.

It is good to check up once in a while and make sure you have not lost the things that money cannot buy.

Visit the Church of Christ near you; it is different.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Upon recommendation of the board of deacons, the Church on Wednesday night voted to launch immediately a campaign to raise funds for the construction of an educational building on the church premises. The building is to be constructed as soon as sufficient money can be raised and the material can be procured, which may be soon or many months in the future. The building, however, is sorely needed at this time to adequately take care of the growing Sunday school. Plans will probably be secured from the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and it is estimated that the cost of the structure will be around $15,000.

Presumably as a result of the Inside-Enlargement study course conducted by W. J. Lites, Sunday school field representative, in the church last week, there was a decided increase in the enrollment and the attendance last Sunday, 329 being registered at present. This is the largest attendance ever recorded at the Sunday school of this church, with the possible exception of one occasion when Tahoka and Brownfield were winding up a hot contest years ago.

A reorganization of the women's adult classes and the organization of one new class was approved by the various classes concerned.

Each Thursday has been designated by the church as visitation day.

Recommendation has been made by the board of deacons that three new deacons be ordained at an early date.

A number of Tahoka Baptists attended the Workers' Conference at the Wells Church Thursday. Among those on the program was Rev. B. N. Shepherd, the new district missionary, who has located in Lubbock. He recently resigned as pastor at Hobbs, where he had been the past six or seven years. He was formerly pastor of the Tahoka church.

Miss Rae Fern Pennington, student in Hardin-Simmons University and Miss Virginia Roddy, student nurse in the Hendricks Memorial Hospital, Abilene, visited their parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Garland Pennington and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Roddy, over the week end. They came up with Mrs. Jim Burleson and Mrs. Obara Biggerstaff as they were returning from the meeting of the Grand Chapter of the O. E. S. in session in Fort Worth last week.

Pvt. Edwards Davis returned Saturday to Camp Bowie, Brownwood, after a two-days visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Davis have two other sons in the service, both overseas, Cpl. Archie Davis in England and Pvt. Lester Davis in Italy.

Pvt. J. L. Waggoner returned last week to Fort Knox, Kentucky, where he is in training, after a visit here with his sister, Mrs. Olin Johnson, and his step-brother, W. W. Gurley.

John Heck Builds Big Farm Elevator

John Heck of Wilson this year forsook old King Cotton and planted his entire farm in certified maize seeds, 446 acres of it. So this year Heck has a heck of a lot of planting seeds for sale.

But in order to take care of them until farmers need them for next year's crop, he has built a big elevator out on his farm, and on last Friday, when the editor was in Wilson, he invited us out to his farm to see his new lay-out.

The pit for the elevator, or for these elevators, rather, for there are two of them side by side, is eight feet deep and the bins, each 10 by 10, rise to a height of 28 feet above the surface of the earth. He has 84 tons or 168,000 pounds of planting seed stored in them now, with room for much more. He plans to build two others of the same or a little larger capacity later.

As a part of the equipment, he has a seed cleaner in a structure adjacent to the bins and a conveyor to deposit the seeds in the bins.

For years Mr. Heck has been raising many hogs, when prices were favorable. He has only forty in his pens and grazing fields at the present time, but when you take a look at some of them you feel that you have been at a fat stock show.

Seed houses equipped with self-feeders, feeding pens, and a big house cut up into mating pens, concrete water pits which supply clean water automatically, a big modern poultry house, and other buildings, are scattered over several acres of terrain on the Heck farm, and make it one of the most attractive and business-like farms to be found in all this section.

We guess John is a really progressive farmer.

Robert Warren, S-1-c., came Monday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Warren. He is a radio student and will be on duty at Corpus Christi following the termination of his visit here. He expects to leave here Saturday.

Wins Chicago Trip

record in 4-H work. He has been an active member for four years, carrying on demonstration projects each year. By years, these projects have been: First year, 1 registered Berkshire gilt and litter; second year, Berkshire sow and 12 pigs; 3 acres kaffir; third year, 4 dairy cows and calves, 1 beef animal, 5 acres cotton, 5 acres grain sorghum; and, this year, 2 acres Victory Garden, 4 dairy cows and calves, 3 beef animals, 1 registered Berkshire gilt, 19 feeder pigs; 15 acres cotton, 15 acres grain sorghum.

During his four years in 4-H work, Buddy Gene has been a leader in many phases of 4-H work. He has three times won registered gilts in county-wide contests, won one Hereford feeder steer, a county medal in meat production, showed swine in county and district shows, winning first and second places. He was one of 25 boys to attend the SPAAF 4-H Field Day this past spring honoring 4-H boys who had produced enough food to meet the needs of one or more soldiers during the past year; and he attended the District 4-H encampment at Ceta Glen during August. He has an outstanding scholastic record, having ranked first in his class in Tahoka High School this past year.

He is a member of the Tahoka Senior 4-H Club, and recently was elected its president.

Buddy Gene Bragg, by winning this contest, becomes the first Lynn county boy to win such distinction, according to County Agent Stone. He won because he worked long and hard toward his goal and believed that winning was within his power. Such should be the belief of every Lynn county 4-H boy. There are approximately 22 such trips awarded annually to Texas 4-H boys and many other awards. Numerous other boys are showing great promise in the rapid increase in their scope of demonstration work, and it is to be expected that in the future Lynn county will have other winners. Buddy has blazed the trail and your county agent stands ready to help other interested boys to reach the same goal.

Submitting a state contest entry requires much work and long-time planning. Buddy turned in 4-H record books covering a four year period. In addition, it was necessary to complete many other record forms and to submit an extensive paper on his 4-H work. He is very proud now of his long and hard efforts. Although the trip is of paramount importance to Buddy, the knowledge he has gained thru his 4-H work has always been the main point of interest to the Extension Service, which considers the winning of a contest incidental to a good piece of work.

He will leave for Chicago about Dec. 1 and return on Dec. 8 or 9. While in Chicago, he will attend all of the meetings of the National 4-H Congress, be taken on trips all over Chicago, and be dined in many of Chicago's most famous places and entertained by some of the nation's top-flight entertainers. His trip will be highly educational and will undoubtedly be a wonderful memory throughout his life.

Pvt. Archie Whitaker of Ft. Still visited his aunt, Mrs. Paul Howell, here Thursday and Friday of last week.

Bangs Tests Made On 1126 Head Cows

County Agricultural Agent Robert L. Stone announced this week that during the past eight months, 1126 head of dairy cattle have been tested in a cooperative Extension Service program by 182 cooperating Lynn county farmers, for Bangs disease.

Bangs testing is an important program and every farmer who has his cows tested is wise in doing so, as reacting cows can transmit Undulant fever to human beings who drink milk from infected cows. Undulant fever is a very difficult disease to cure and often requires considerable time. The fact that a cow carrying this disease is in a herd does not necessarily mean that persons drinking milk from that animal will be so affected, but it is entirely possible and probable that sooner or later they will be when the germs catch them physically weakened.

A farmer who has his cows tested and finds that he has a clean herd needs only to never bring other animals into his herd until they have been tested and proven clean to enable him to always keep a clean herd. Those who have reactors should dispose of the infected animals. Such animals should be sold only for butchering; the meat is absolutely safe for consumption. Ninety days or so later, the farmer who had reacting cows should test his other animals again to see if the disease was spread, as it can be passed from one animal to another. Reacting cows cannot be vaccinated and cured. However, young calves can be vaccinated and prevented from contracting Bangs disease. If you are interested in further details of this program and Bangs disease, see your county agricultural agent.

By organizing large groups of farmers to have this work done, considerable expense is saved the farmer. A licensed veterinarian is the only person qualified to make these tests. Ordinarily it costs the individual farmer $15 to $20 to have a veterinarian come to his farm. By cooperating in this type of program, the farmer gets his cows tested for $1.00 per head if he has as many as three and the veterinarian comes to his farm to do the test. Considering the fact that 1,126 have been tested for 182 farmers, an average of a fraction over six cows per farm have been tested at conservative estimate of $.00 per farm, a saving to the farmer had he attempted to have the work done as an individual, a total conservative estimate of $1,628 saved these cooperating farmers.

The county agent generally organizes one or two days of testing each month. If you are interested in

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC:
Any erroneous reflection upon the reputation or standing of any individual, firm or corporation, that may appear in the columns of The Lynn County News will be gladly corrected when called to our attention.

We have not read the entire record respecting the fuss that has arisen between the president of the University of Texas and the board of regents which resulted recently in the dismissal of the president by the board. But both sides probably are at fault. It would seem that members of the board at times have been a bit too officious and unreasonable in their demands upon President Homer P. Rainey, but, on the other hand, if we correctly interpret the president's published statement of the case, he demands that he be given an absolutely free rein in running the University—that the board should accept his recommendation as to teachers without question, that they should not dismiss any teachers except upon his recommendation, and that it is none of the board's business as to what is taught in the University. We think he is wrong. The law makes it the province of the board of regents to employ the members of the faculty, and they are paid with tax money that comes from the people. We think the regents have a right to know what the people's money is being spent for; and if it comes to their ears on good authority that a faculty member is teaching communism, or fascism, or nihilism, or atheism, or other "isms" contrary to principles of democratic government or our standards of morals, then the

W-O A. F. McGlaun Writes From India

Warrant Officer A. F. McGlaun Jr., who is with the famed 20th Air Force, somewhere in India, with the crew of a giant B-29 bomber that has been busy bombing the Japanese home-land, writes The News the following letter, dated October 15:

I thought that I would drop you a line to let you know that I have finally started getting the Lynn County News. It is two months old but still it is new to me and the time I spend reading it is like a furlough to me away over here exactly on the other side of the world from you.

I'm in the famed 20th Air Force as a gunnery officer, and I have nothing but praise for our men and the people at home who have bought bonds and backed us up so that we might have a weapon to use on the Japs instead of falling down on the home front, which would enable the Japs to be on the shooting end of the deal.

I sincerely hope that with the termination of hostilities in the European Theatre that the people back home won't forget the Japs and our fight to rid the world of them.

Too many people are inclined to believe that the Germans are the only enemy we have. The Japs are like Johnson grass—to completely rid the world of it you have to get to the roots, and that is our aim in this war.

I have seen the Chinese, and what I mean those people share the hardships of this war with everyone else. They are in this war body and soul.

Well, I will close this time, and maybe the next time I write the world will be at peace again and all we will have to fight will be Johnson grass and politicians.

Incidentally, my brother Grady is also in this land of mystery and faith.

To really appreciate this place, you would have to visit it, and I wouldn't wish that off on anyone. Thanks for The News.

As ever, Frank McGlaun, Jr.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this method to thank the good people of Wilson and Lynn county for their fine offerings and their kindness following the accident to our son and brother C. E. Rhodes—the Baptist Church, the bank, the other business places, and all. We want you to know that we are grateful and think there are no finer people anywhere.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bishop, Lola Ann Rhodes.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1-Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2-Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

HATCHELL EXHIBITS TITANIC TURNIP

A. B. Hatchell, who lives up in the vicinity of Wilson, favored the editor with a batch of turnips from his patch Saturday. He had one jumbo turnip with him for exhibition purposes that was a sight to behold. By accurate measurement this turnip had a circumference of 23 5-8 inches and turnip and top weighed 7 1/2 pounds.

It may be that no one can get blood out of a turnip but you can get a lot of "chow" out of the Hatchell variety.

Mrs. S. W. Ellis of Christoval has been here visiting her son, Burns Ellis, and family, and her daughter, Mrs. Maurice (Grace) Huffaker and other relatives and friends.

L. B. Mathis Of Southland Dies

Belatedly The News received a brief account Monday of the sudden and unexpected death of Lewis Barton Mathis of Southland, which occurred on Tuesday of last week at Hawley, Jones county, his former home town, where he was visiting. He was stricken while at a filling station with an attack of heart trouble, which quickly proved fatal.

The funeral services were held at 3:30 p. m. last Thursday in Southland Methodist Church, Rev. Elmer Crabtree of Happy, former pastor at Southland, officiating, assisted by Rev. O. J. Harmonson of the Baptist church.

Surviving him are the wife and one son, L. B. Jr. of Sundown, two brothers, J. W. Mathis of Tahoka and W. K. Mathis, principal of one of the Lubbock grade schools and former principal of the Tahoka grade school; four sisters, Mrs. A. M. Hawthorne of Lubbock, Mrs. S. B. Dean of Levelland, Mrs. J. R. Wood of Southland, and Mrs. J. P. Pierson of Amarillo; two grandchildren, Carolyn Sue Basinger and Rony Mathis; and a host of other relatives.

Mr. Mathis was born on Jan. 28,

1890, in Comanche county. He was married to Miss Nellie Kellum on Dec. 14, 1913. Two sons and daughter were born to them, one son and the daughter preceding him in death.

Mr. Mathis and family made their home at Southland for many years, and he had many friends there who were deeply grieved at his untimely death.

S/SGT. CALVIN KLAUS WRITES PARENTS FROM ENGLAND

Mrs. Marvin Truelock, The News correspondent at Southland, has furnished us copy of a letter written by S/Sgt. Calvin Klaus to his parents at Southland, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klaus, about a 24-hour pass which he spent in an English home recently, which was a novel experience for him.

"I slept in a nice soft bed with sheets," Sgt. Klaus says. "About 7:30 a. m., Stanley (that's the man's name) brought up a cup of tea, which evidently is an English custom—to have tea early in the morning."

"Then I slept until 9:00, when he came back with two soft-boiled fresh eggs and some toast and more tea—which is good when prepared by the English, not when prepared by American cooks."

"On with the story: I got up at 11:00, shaved, etc., only to come downstairs to find more tea and a snack waiting for me. I drank this all dutifully. We spent the afternoon talking, and my buddy and I went up town to find gifts for folks at home; looking for souvenirs mainly but about all one can get is a fancy handkerchief with 'To My Dear Mother, wife, etc. on it, and that costs a dollar; so it was no soap. Spent the evening playing darts and having a bit of beer."

"When we came back from town we had more tea to drink. I drank two cups, as I was getting 'climaxed' by now. These people are really tea-drinkers, as you can judge. They are of Catholic faith and have their nine-year-old son in a Catholic school. Schooling is something the ordinary people can't afford, as it is a little expensive and restricted over here, but evidently these people have a bit of extra cash. Their home is really nicely furnished."

"He has a truck and hauls horses and cattle; also owns a farm on which he breeds a fine line of horses which are of racing stock. I have never seen them but hope to have the chance to go out some day. You see he lives in the city."

"Funny thing, they don't ever know my name. Everyone calls me 'Tex' or 'Texas' because my West Virginia friend and I went there together the first time I saw them and he always called me 'Tex.'"

Sgt. Robt. Fulton Fletcher, son of the W. H. Fletchers of Plainview, parents of Mrs. Marvin Truelock, recently wrote them from a Pacific island where he is stationed: "We keep our ears glued to the radio when we are not working. We can pick up a few West Coast stations at night. Radio Tokyo sure stays on the air. I really get a kick out of their broadcasts. Their propaganda is so obvious that a grammar school kid could see through it. They've 'sunk' our navy dozens of times during as many ways and shot all our planes down. Some 4-F is sitting under the apple tree with every guy's gal. According to them, we're in a tough shape. You'd never know it, though."

Friday Mmes. Agnes Collinsworth and Dolly Haire returned after an absence of five days attending the Eastern Star Grand Chapter held in Fort Worth.

The former Millie Anderson's husband is in the hospital with pneumonia.

Friday our football boys defeated Whiteface on their home grid 18 to 14. J. P. Hewlett is boys coach and Mrs. Phillips Brooks is sponsor of the pep squad. Nine girls accompanied her. B. H. Thomas Jr. could not play in that game because of a rib broken at Sundown.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Merrell and daughter and her sister, Mrs. Charles Richmond, went to Amarillo Sunday to attend the dusk wedding of Mr. Merrell's sister, who is employed at the air base there. Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Armstrongs left Monday to visit friends and relatives near Sweetwater before attending Northwest Texas Methodist Annual Conference there from Wednesday through Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Lonnie Collinsworth, local delegate, will leave Wednesday. Several families plan to attend Sunday.

THE DANGER LEVEL in number of automobiles in use is rapidly approaching. Out of 30,000,000 cars, 6,000,000 or one in every five have already disappeared from the highways. And of those remaining, more than 5,000 every day go to the scrap heap!

CPL CLARA G. SCRUGGS MEETS TAHOKA BOY

The News has received the following brief letter from Cpl. Clara Gene Scruggs, a WAC, stationed at Camp Myles Standish, Mass.:

"Well, here's another letter from that WAC. Just want to prove that this is a very small world."

"I was driving here in camp today and noticed a boy walking by the road that I thought I knew. He turned around and kept looking, so I went back. I did know him, Cpl. Eugene C. Schulz from home. Even though I was supposed to be at work, we sat there and talked about good old Tahoka and friends for almost an hour. He has been here for two months and I had never seen him. He is doing fine now and his legs are completely healed. He is much taller than when we were in school together."

"Just thought I'd let you know how grand it is to see some one from home. Sincerely, Cpl. Clara G. Scruggs."

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "cramp time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic action. 717 1/2

SPORT HIGHLIGHTS AT TAHOKA HIGH

The football season for Tahoka High School is coming to a successful close with only two more games left of the season and the last home game to be played Friday, Nov. 10, with O'Donnell at Tahoka High field, then the final game to be played at Monahans on Nov. 17.

Tahoka Bulldogs played the Seminole Indians on the Bulldogs' field last Friday and were victorious by a score of 34 to 13. LaVaughan Caraway and Lane Jones each made two touchdowns and W. T. Hines carried the ball over once. This was a conference game. Tahoka had lost only one conference game, which was to the mighty Denver City Mustangs.

Friday night's game against O'Donnell is THE game of the year for the Tahoka High Bulldogs, as well as of the student body. The game is expected to be one of the best of the year for both teams. The time is 8:30 p. m., November 10, at Tahoka High field.

Please help me solve the problem of who he is. Have you found out? Well I have, it's Charles Fulkerson.

PETTY H. D. CLUB OBSERVES ACHIEVEMENTS

The Petty Home Demonstration Club met in a regular meeting Wednesday, Nov. 1, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Lowrey, bedroom demonstrator, and then went to the home of the food demonstrator, Mrs. S. M. Watkins. Reports of club members were summarized by Mrs. Watkins.

The food demonstrator gave an excellent report on her achievements. Six varieties of fruits were conserved. These included plums, cherries, apples, grapes, peaches and tomatoes, all of which were home-grown except the apples and peaches. Six different ways, tomatoes, tomato jelly, catsup, tomatoes and okra, preserves, and tomato juice, were exhibited in conserving tomatoes. Butters, jellies, preserves, and apples represented the apple family. Among the vegetables she grew and canned were okra, greens, two kinds of beans, cream peas, squash, corn, and pumpkin. On her relish menu, she may have from her pantry shelf cucumber and beet pickles, pepper relish, chow-chow, and brined cabbage. Canned sausage, also, rated a place on the front row. She has certainly provided her family with a bountiful supply of food for well-balanced meals for the winter months.

A make-up meeting was held in the home of Mrs. J. W. Lowrey, bedroom demonstrator, the last of October. That date and achievement day, the hostess showed the group her two new bedrooms. A window seat is between the two closets in the master bedroom. The back entrance opens into a vestibule, opening into both the kitchen and the bedroom. A large closet is provided for the other bedroom.

The bathroom has been enlarged. Ample storage space was provided. A small hall was made from a part of the kitchen, thus allowing entrance to the bath from all bedrooms and kitchen without going through other rooms.

Mrs. Lowrey also covered a dressing stool and changed her front gate in order to have a more accessible location.

Petty club is proud of the work not only of the demonstrators but also of the individual club members, and are looking forward to a still better year in 1945.

This meeting was held to give special help to the Wilson bedroom demonstrators, Mrs. R. A. Kahlick and Mrs. Mueller and others.

The group worked on five footstools. Those making stools were: Mrs. Mueller, who made two; Mrs. A. E. Hagans, and Mrs. L. B. Jones and Miss Blanche Parker of Draw. Mrs. Kahlick and Mrs. Pat Swann of the Wilson Club also were present and assisted the others in making their stools.

An all-day meeting of the Hackberry Home Demonstration Club was held in the club room Tuesday, Oct. 21. Detailed instructions on upholstery were given by the agent, Mrs. B. N. Billingsley, Mrs. Herman Debbis, Mrs. Earl Lancaster, and Mrs. H. D. Taylor made footstools, which were completed before adjournment.

A BOY DIED LAST NIGHT..

A BOY died last night. It doesn't make much difference now about his name. It might have been your son, your brother, your husband. The important thing is that he died, in poignant and awful loneliness out somewhere on a waste of sand, out in a starless silence, 10,000 miles from home.

"Missing in action" read an obscure line in this morning's communique. That was all. Now he lies there, a crumpled, twisted mass of flesh, that yesterday was his body. The fine head and the shining face and the broad shoulders remain only in a picture that looks out upon a quiet living-room on a shaded street an eternity away.

Last night, in those agonizing hours of unspeakable isolation, he went through a thousand deaths without the one thing that might have helped a little—the sound of a familiar voice, the pat of a friendly hand. Many people died last night in their beds at home, surrounded by those who cared. Last night he died in utter desolation in an unimaginable loneliness.

The pain was terrible enough. But then there had to be that dreadful burden of thought in those endless last hours. Mom and Pop. The flowers blooming again in the backyard. The good old roadster in the driveway. That last sweetheart kiss at the station. Those dances last summer. That half-finished letter in his blouse. All those plans for the future. Couldn't somebody find him, please? The wrenching pain again.

Too much for you, all this? But it really happened last night, just like that. It's going to happen a thousand times—ten thousand times, and perhaps a million times in the nights to come. If people could only understand it. If they would just grind deep into their thinking the stark, terrible reality of it, every petty, selfish interest would be swept away. They would sacrifice anything and everything just to make themselves worthy of that boy.

He died last night, you see. There's no way to get around that.
