OUR NEW PRESIDENT

Momentous events have come to pass since The News went to press last week. Just after our last forms had been closed the startling news came over the radio that our President was dead. Death came to him at his retreat at Warm Springs, Georgia, where he had been for two weeks for rest and recuperation. From that time on until after his body had been buried at Hyde Park Sunday, stories of his eventful life and his unexpected death came pouring in over the radio and through the columns of the newspapers in unprecedented number and volume.

Also came stories of the man who was to succeed him in the White House, Vice President Harry S. Truman. A few hours after the President's death, Truman took the oath of office as Chief Executive of this great nation. Almost immediately he made his first announcement, giving assurance to the liberty-loving peoples of the world and serving notice on the dictators and the war criminals of Germany and Japan that Roosevelt's vigorous prosecution of the war would be followed to the utmost without any slow-down or let-up and that his demand for unconditional surrender would be adhered to until surrender came or the criminal nations were utterly crushed.

On Monday the new President made his first joint address to the two houses of Congress, and it elicited almost universal praise at home and abroad except from the enemies of our country. On Tuesday he held his first press conference.

The thing that seems to have impressed the public most is his manifest humility of spirit, his sense of the heavy responsibilities that have been thrust upon him, his recognition of his own limitations and his need of help and counsel, human and divine, and his evidently sincere dedication of all his powers to the accomplishment of his official duties.

That there will be a number of changes in the personnel of the cabinet in due course of time is generally accepted as inevitable and in most cases as desirable. In fact, while President Roosevelt himself has been tremendously popular, many of his most trusted advisers and sycophants have lacked public confidence and esteem. A new New Deal in that respect will be warmly welcomed.

Already, the new President has dispelled most of the doubt which was felt at first as to his ability to "carry on" in an effective manner, and his administration has started off most auspiciously.

Surely and rapidly the past few days the Allied armies on the west and the Russian armies on the east have been closing in like the jaws of a mighty clamp on the devastated and doomed city of Berlin. Men all over the world have stood dumbfounded and aghast that in spite of the certain destruction that awaits those who resist, Hitler has refused to surrender but has urged his servile slaves and sycophants on to continued resistance unto death. In this stern attitude, he is showing that he is as callous to the sufferings of his own people as he is to that of the enemy. Hitler and Himmler and other German war lords are giving to the world in the face of their impending destruction the most hideous examples of devils in human form the world has seen since the days of Nero and Caligula.

For the past few weeks a number of German prisoners have been working at the cotton compress here. From all reports, these prisoners profess to believe that Germany is still winning the war. Reports that American and other Allied armies are now mopping up Germany are mere newspaper lies, they assert. It is difficult to believe that they do actually believe such bosh, but they maintain their position with such doggedness and apparent sincerity as to convince those with whom they talk that they actually do believe what they profess. It all shows how densely ignorant a people may become under the power of an unscrupulous dictator. Ignorance always follows enslavement.

15 Children Born And Not a Death, Is Record of Family

R. L. Craig, who has lived near Central Church about ten miles east of Tahoka for many years, came in Monday to report the birth of a daughter to him and his wife in their home at about 1:00 o'clock Sunday morning, the babe weighing about eight pounds and apparently being normally strong and healthy.

That within itself would be an important item in any family, but in this case it is just one incident in a long string of events that make an interesting story.

In the first place she is Mr. Craig's fifteenth child, and all of the fifteen children are living.

Mr. Craig has been married twice. He and his first wife had eight children, and some time after she died he married a second time. He and his present wife now have seven children. Not a child born to either mother has died.

Furthermore, Mr. Craig has seventeen grand-children, and never has there been a death among his grand-children.

But that is not all, for although he is only 67 years of age, he has two great-grandchildren, both living. Of the 34 descendants which he has had, not one has died.

All of them are living in the three states of Texas, New Mexico, and California.

Harold Edwards Is Now In Kentucky

The News received a request Monday from Mrs. Harold (Kathryn) Edwards for the paper to be sent to them at Winchester, Kentucky, where Harold is now employed by the Tennessee Gas and Transmission Company.

"We are away here in the blue grass," Kathryn writes, "and it is a very beautiful country. We live in a very old town where tobacco and horses are best."

On the opposite side of the card is a picture of an immense and attractive barn and a very green "blue-grass" meadow, on which some blooded mares and colts appear to be at ease after a grazing spree. It is denominated, "A Kentucky Race Horse Farm".

Just a little different scene from what Harold and Kathryn are accustomed to, as they grew up here in Tahoka at the east gate of the T-Bar with its whiteface Herefords.

Mrs. H. A. Nichols is a great lover of flowers. At the passage she has grown some wonderful iris plants now in full bloom. Monday she brought a lovely giant cluster of them in a vase of water and left them at the News Office for Mrs. Hill and the force to enjoy as they work, for which she has our thanks.

Lt. Martin Sylvester Reese, son of Mr and Mrs. J. L. Reese of Tahoka, who had been stationed at Norfolk, Virginia, for about two years, was recently transferred to St. Simons Island, Georgia. Sylvester almost grew up in the Lynn County News Office.

Pvt. John Hudman, the News is informed, is now stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky. Just a few weeks ago he was called for service in the armed forces.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardul is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional-periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1-Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2-Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardul. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Pvt. Melvin Bartley Is In Philippines

With the 24th Division in the Philippines.—Pvt. Melvin N. Bartley, who is the son of Mrs. Hattie B. Bartley, Rt. 4, Tahoka, Texas, has joined the veteran 21st Infantry Regiment of this famed "Victory" Division.

He has been assigned as a Browning Automatic rifleman.

In the 21st, Bartley is surrounded by combat-wise troops of one of the Pacific's crack regiments. As part of the hard-hitting 24th Division, it went through the December 7th sneak attack on Pearl Harbor; has since taken its revenge on the Japanese at Hollandia, where it spearheaded the Division's attack, and on Leyte, where it fought and won the bitter battle of Breakneck Ridge, as well as in numerous smaller operations.

The regiment is a regular Army unit and rich in tradition. It was organized during the Civil War, and has vanquished the enemies of America for almost a century.

MAKES HONOR ROLL

Ablene, April 18.—Miss Clovis L. Stephens, 1944 graduate of Tahoka High School, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Stephens, had her name placed on the honor roll for the fourth six weeks at Ablene Christian College as a result of her making a grade of "superior" in two subjects. She is a Freshman majoring in business administration.

Keep a close watch now for each occasion. I give my child Dr. Salsbery's BEN-O-SAL for its tonic benefits now and will increase it to eight tablets per gallon of drinking water if each occasion appears. Ford Tractor Has Many Advantages

In discussing the future regarding mechanized farming, Mr. Satterwhite, who recently presented a demonstration at the Lynn County Tractor Co., points out some of the interesting facts regarding the soil and the farming industry, and goes beyond the mere mechanics of the tractor and explains the philosophy behind its development, and you can easily see that in the Ford tractor with Ferguson System there is more than a machine. We consider it as a means for accomplishing a far-reaching goal of benefits to agriculture.

When we changed from beasts, this change in power resulted in a change in implements. Each implement could be built to do more work because there was more power to pull it. The tractor took the place of the animal in pulling the implement, and naturally many developments in implements resulted from this new source of power. The third major change in farm power was introduced by the Ford Tractor with Ferguson System. As Mr. Satterwhite explained, it is the combining of power and implement into a single unit, just like the automobile, and combining them in such a way that they use the available power to the greatest possible extent.

The land itself has not collapsed or shrunk either in extent of productivity. But means have not been at hand whereby the family unit, on which the well-being of the land must depend, could produce at a profit and at the same time have the leisure to enjoy the fruits of their labor, and it was Mr. Harry Ferguson who said, "Our purpose is developing the entirely new system of land cultivation which is embodied in the new Ford Tractor with Ferguson System was to give effect to the principles which we think to be fundamental."

1. To cut the cost of farm products that farming can be made prosperous without increasing the cost to the consumer.
2. To make farming attractive to youth and largely solve the unemployment problem by stopping the drift from the land.
3. To assist all other industries through a prosperous agriculture and to stimulate greater industrial use of farm products by cutting cost, thus increasing the total farm market.

4. To lay the foundation for a greater National Security.

Mr. Satterwhite went on to point out that to achieve these four great objects, we should not only aim to produce more food stuff. We should aim at a lower cost of production on all farm products. New ways in which farm products could be used in industry are being discovered faster than they can be put into general practice. Their general adoption and the large consumption of farm products that must follow await the magic word "cost."

the end of school. Those on the committee are Jane Bosworth, Johnnie Anderson, Gerry Connolly and Alice Roberts. Seniors are busy trading calling cards and preparing invitations, which reminds us that graduation is not long off and we are anticipating it with great eagerness.

SCHOOL DAZE
Did you know that there are only 15 more school days? That means that we will have to study or at least think about the final examinations. The only way we can stay in this dear old school another year is to throw away our books and not study any for the remainder of the year. Think what fun it would be to get to go to school for at least another year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

out that the worker will be able to combine industry and agriculture and to gain an economic stability which is unshakable. With the Ford Tractor with Ferguson System, the workman and his family can run a mechanized farm without impairing his industrial efficiency. So, we threw overboard all the old ideas about pulling and controlling an implement in the soil, and developed a new principle of applying power in which the tractor and each basic implement are one operating unit. This principle is so efficient that this lightweight tractor, using little fuel, will not only pull tools for which a heavy tractor has heretofore been necessary, but will go everywhere and do everything the horse will do, and do it better.

for Life ...

Every business and professional woman—every woman who works—reaches the day when she no longer can or no longer cares to work. When that day comes to you, Lady, will your savings continue to bring you a paycheck for the graceful years of life, or have you been preparing for your retirement? Out of your earnings you can, you know, just as Miss R. B. did.

Miss R. B. was a teacher in the public school system of a Central Texas City. Through the years she set aside a nominal monthly sum out of her earnings to create a fund for her retirement. In the course of time she paid for two SOUTHWESTERN LIFE RETIREMENT INCOME contracts. Both contracts have matured. But Miss R. B. never missed the money she took periodically from her paycheck to create her savings fund—not as much as she would miss the $92.51 she receives from SOUTHWESTERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY each month, and will continue to receive as long as she lives.

Out of your earnings you can get yourself an income for life. You can have $50-$75-$100, or whatever you wish a month—every month, as your income for life, and you can have the checks begin at age 50, 55, 60, or whenever you wish them to begin. Now, while you are earning, is the time to start your program. Get an estimate of your needs today. Response to a request for full information regarding your requirements will not obligate you; that's a part of our service.

R. C. Wood Chairman Jefferson Campaign

R. C. Wood received a telegram Tuesday from Austin, Myron G. Baylock, National Democratic committeeman from Texas, asking him to act as chairman for Lynn County in the Jefferson Day dinner campaign.

Money is badly needed, Mr. Baylock says, and Lynn County's quota has been fixed at $200.00. The time for raising the funds is short.

Mr. Wood requests that Democrats wishing to donate should see him at once or leave their contributions at the First National Bank in his name as chairman.

BAPTIST NOTES

Rev. Levi Price is in Lubbock this week doing the preaching in a revival meeting at the College Avenue Baptist Church in that city. It is to continue through Sunday, April 29.

Rev. George A. Dale of Lubbock, former pastor of the Tahoka Church, will fill the pulpit next Sunday and also the following Sunday here during the pastor's absence, at both the morning and the evening services.

Rev. A. C. Hardin began an evangelistic campaign at Plains on Monday night. He had just closed a meeting at Muleshoe on Sunday.

Between 65 and 70 men attended the regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood at the Baptist Church here Tuesday night. Rev. L. B. Edwards, pastor of the Redwine Baptist Church, was the speaker of the evening. Prior to his discourse E. W. Holloway gave a brief history of the Redwine Church. Also in attendance were five or six men from the O'Donnell Baptist Church, as well as a few local visitors. A feast of fried chicken was served.

The local W. M. S. was represented at the Associational Mission Study Institute at Meadow on Thursday of last week with 13 members and won the Attendance Banner.

The W. M. S. of Mexican and Colored Churches were invited to send representatives and Pleasant Grove Baptist W. M. S. of Tahoka was represented by Mmes. Roberta Thompson and O. D. Hollins, accompanied by Pastor Hollins.

Mesdames Garland Pennington and E. I. Hill assisted in a B. T. U. study course conducted at the New Home Baptist Church for five nights last week. Mrs. Leon Henry, a state-approved worker, was the director. The pastor is Rev. E. C. McDonald.

A new distribution of Congressional districts is made every 10 years, after each Federal census is taken.

METHODIST CHURCH

Services Sunday at the usual time. To all of the services, you are invited, and a hearty welcome awaits you.

Last Sunday evening, in the absence of the pastor, the young people had charge of the services. George Maurice Small filled the pulpit to the edification of the large audience. His subject was, "The Three Crosses." Not often is the pulpit filled with one whose age is barely 15 years. Both the pastor and the members were highly pleased with the evening services.

The District Conference will convene in the Lubbock First Methodist Church May 1 at 10 a. m. The following were elected delegates to the Conference: R. L. Northem, Mrs. Edna Ware, R. C. Wood, John W. Slover, Roy Poer, and John G. Price.

Tuesday night, April 24, will be the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Stewards. This will be the last meeting before District Conference—and every Steward should have a 100 percent report to date. A full attendance is desired.—Reporter.

Neal "Coon" Gibson of Tahoka is in the 90th Division in this same army. Mr. Hill was becoming greatly concerned about his son and was much relieved when he received this letter.

New Home Sailor

 tiger, Mrs. Sarah Churchill Oliver, and Miss Kathleen Harriman. Miller brought back a special telephone director of the conference and a book of pictures of the dignitaries taken aboard ship.
 In fact, he brought home 11 bags full of souvenirs, plus two guns, one seven feet long and weighing 75 pounds.
 Most valuable of the souvenirs are the antique guns. The one described above, a flintlock muzzleloader which he got in Southern France, was used 400 years ago by pirates. The other, obtained in Russia, was used by Napoleon's army in the Franco-Russian war. It looks like a modern rifle, but is also a flintlock muzzle-loader.

 A French saber dated March, 1873, and an American bayonet dated 1918 and used in World War I are two more of the mementos with a military purpose. Miller commented on the irony of an American soldier taking the bayonet to France in one war and an American sailor bringing it back in the next.

 The complete personal gear of a German soldier is in the possession of Miller. It includes picture postcards from friends and family, with pictures of Rommel, Messerschmitts, naval battle and homeland scenes. But the most interesting of all was a scrapbook in which the German soldier had pasted songs and poems he had clipped from newspapers and magazines. Several books on military regulations were also in the collection.
 In Italy the sailor bought souvenirs that were made up by the Italians for sale to German military personnel, but were revamped in some instances, for sale to Americans. One outstanding example is a link-bracelet with one side engraved with the words, "Germany, Greece, France, Italy, Iran" and the other, engraved after the Yanks came with "Africa, Rome, Cassino, Pisa, Sicily, Florence." In the middle in the American side is the inscription, "Naples—Do not forget me."
 Other souvenirs include hundreds of things, from a Russian cigaret to two rosaries blessed by Pope Pius at a special mass for American troops. There is even a fine gold German watch in a steel, pear-shaped case with a glass front for protection from the shock, mud and water of the battle field.
 "Soapy" was wounded in the invasion of Southern France, and was awarded the Purple Heart.
 He told some of his experiences in a talk at the New Home grade school one day last week.
 Miller left last week to return to New York for further duty. His wife and son, Edward, who visited at Lubbock recently, make their home there.

Pres. Truman . . .

 this newspaper and Mrs. Hill had the rare privilege and pleasure of entertaining him for a few minutes in their home. On his way out to Lubbock, he was met at Big Spring by Arch Underwood, Senator G. H. Nelson, and C. W. Ratliff of the Avalanche-Journal publications, all good friends of the editor, and upon stopping at The News office they found that the editor had already gone home. Thereupon, one of the party telephoned that they were coming by to see us, and that they did.
 We found the Senator to be a very courteous and charming gentleman, and it has not been hard for us to understand why he has been so popular among his colleagues in the Senate.

MISS MAXINE McALLISTER MARRIED AT LAAP

Miss Maxine McAllister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. McAllister of Petty and Lt. William J. Berridge of Seattle, Wash., were married at a double ring ceremony Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock at Lubbock Army Air Field chapel by Rev. W. F. Blakeslee.

Miss Imogene Webster, popular radio artist, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. W. C. Cole who sang.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mrs. Hugh Rowland of Lubbock was matron of honor, and the bride's brother, Captain Joe E. McAllister of Lake Field, Arizona, was best man.

A reception at the Hilton Hotel followed the ceremony after which the couple left on a brief honeymoon to be spent on a South Texas ranch. They will make their home in Dallas, where Lt. Berridge is stationed and where the bride has been employed in the air service.

The bride attended New Home and Lubbock High Schools, and was a student at Texas Tech for three years. Lt. Berridge attended Seattle College.

Bob McAllister, brother of the bride, who is a student in Schreiner Institute, Kerrville, and the groom's father and two sisters from Seattle were also here for the wedding.

Mrs. Joe F. Raindl and baby returned last Wednesday from Fort Riley, Kan., where they visited their husband and father, S/Sgt. Joe F. Raindl, who has now gone to the West Coast.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui, many women say, has brought relief from the cramp-like aches and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come. Started 3 days before "cramp time," it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes. TRY IT!
