New Lynn County Officials Take Oath Of Office

Two new county commissioners Wednesday and filed their official bonds, Re-elected officials were also cost him his life. re-installed into their respective

Cooper of Tahoka, succeeding Pat Swann of Wilson as commissioner of precinct No. 1, and Willis Pennington of Tahoka, succeeding Lonnie Williams of Draw as commissioner of precinct No. 2.

Frank McGlaun Jr. was sworn in as county tax assessor-collector, succeeding R. P. Weathers; and served several terms as treasurer, and R. P. Weathers had served three terms as assessor-collector Mr. Weathers had not been a candidate for re-election last summer, since he had entered the grocery business here a year or more ago.

Pat Swann had served two terms as county commissioner and Lonnie Wiliams three terms. Both were candidates for re-election last summer but were defeated by Cooper and Pennington respectively.

The commissioners court met Monday to attend to some routine matters and to approve the bonds of county and precinct officials. All members of the court were present except Pat Swann. Upon concluding the work in hand the old court adjourned and the new court was called in session immediately by County Judge Tom Garrard to attend to such matters as needed immediate attention. The court was to meet again Thursday.

Upon retiring from office, Lonnie Williams filed an inventry of the county road machinery and equipment under his charge. In the absence of Pat Swann other commissioners made out a tentative list of the mach ery and equipment in his charge, for the benefit LaMon Keith Has of the new commissioner; E: J Cooper.

County officers who had been reelected and took the oath were: County Judge Tom Garrard, County Clerk Walter Mathis, District Clerk W. S. Taylor, County Attorney B. P. Maddox, Sheriff Sam Floyd. County Superintendent Lenore M. Tunnell, P. D. Server was sworn in as justice of the peace here to succeed himself: T. W. Brown as justice of the peace at O'Donnell; and J. M. Christopher as constable

Calloway Huffaker of Tahoka again qualified for the office of district attorney.

PTA Head Asks Larger Attendance

To members of the Tahoka Parent-Teachers Association:

Christmas is over, and we all had a big Christmas. We have gained a few pounds from over-eating and probably feel sluggish Let's work off this sluggishness by starting the New Year right. We want a bigger and better PTA from now on through May. So far we have had a good year, but don't stop now and take it easy. New Year's resolutions are made to be broken, it seems, so we won't RESOLVE; we will PLAN, I hope, to attend al the PTA meetings (second Thursday each month) from now on through May. Your co-operation the past months has made our PTA what it is. Let us continue to lay firm foundations!

To each member and her, or his family—a happy and prosperous New Year.

Pdesident Anne Thompson.

Many Stores Close For January 1st

Most Tahoka business and professional firms, the bank, postoffice and county offices were closed on Watnesday, January 1st, the first day of the new year 1947

Most business men worked all day, however, completing the job of taking inventory, and other similar jobs connected with their business. Little attention was given here to the celebration of New Year's Eve, and only a few small parties were held in private homes in observance of the passing of the old year and the advent of the new.

Serious Injuries

L. C. Keith of New Home, whose son La Mon was severely injured when he fell from a box car down between the cars of a moving freight train at Richmond, California, on which he was braking several months ago, reports that the son is still in a hospital in San Fdancisco, more seriously injured than was first reported.

He isn't doing as well as the doctors had hoped Mr. Keith says, and besides they have discovered in addition to his other 'njuries he has a dislocated hip, which is very painful. One arm and one leg were broken. The doctors can promise only a fifty percent cure of the

Oliver Child Is Taken By Death

Funeral services were conducted at 2:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Stanley Funeral Home for little Charletta Sue Oliver, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oliver, who died unexpectedly at about 7:45 A. M. Tuesday December 31 Services were conducted by Rev. Levi Price and the little body was laid to rest in the Tahoka Cemetery. The infant, born prematurely on October 10, 1946, in a Lubbock hospital, had been a very delicate child and was kept in an incubator for . about four weeks following birth; then she was brought home and had apparently been doing fairly well until a few days ago, when she became a bit puny. Deposits Large In Tahoka Bank

In spite of the short crops of the past two years, the financial statement of the First National Bank made on December 31, shows hat there is still lots of money in he country. Though the report is not the best in history, it reflects the sound financial condition of the bank and of the county.

The bank has resources totaling $4,581,218.47, and deposits totaling $4,347,140.69. Loans and discounts otal $425,735.43.

A complete financial statement of the institution will be published in The News next week.

Loctrinal Revival

Something out of the ordinary vill be the Doctrinal Revival to be conducted at the Baptist Church here throughout next week, begining Sunday night.

This will not be primarily an evangelistic campaign but it wil. onsist of a series of discussions of the great fundamental doctrines of the New Testament based on Paul's

The speaker will be Rev. C. A Powell of Rule, generally recognized as one of the greatest Biblical scholars among Southern Baptists. For many years he was pastor of the University Baptist Church Abilene, the church home of most of the ministerial students in Simmons University.

His discussions are not of a controversial nature but are uniformly given in the true Christian spirit and members of other denominations often hear him with keen interest and appreciation.

Members of other churches are cordially invited to hear him at any or all services. Services will be conducted twice daily. in the morning and at night.

Two Speakers On Rotary Program

The program at the Rotary Club Thursday was given by County Superintendent Lenore M. Tunnell and Mr. Cleveland Littlepage.

Mrs. Tunnell told about the G. I. school that is being conducted in f last year and in August took def "ite steps to get the work started. So far, only vocational agriculture business men and employees in own. The greatest difficulty is found in the scarcity of teachers. Only one teacher has been procured so far and 53 students are takng the course, with 15 or 20 others n the waiting list. Cleveland Litlepage is the teacher.

Mrs. Tunnell introduced Mr Littlepage and he proceeded to explain the scope and the nature of he work he is doing. As Mrs. Tunnell stated, perhaps no better man for the job could have been found anywhere. He has taught vocational agriculture for seven years and he knows not only the theories but the practical side of farming, for e was reared on a farm and is a ractical dirt farmer himself even now. He gave one of the best discussions of his subject that has ever been heard by the Rotary club. He thoroughly convinced his hearers that he knows his stuff and knows how to get it over to an audi-He thoroughly convinced his audience. Student Night Is Held By Baptists

Student Night was observed with a most interesting program at the First Baptist Church here Sunday night. The program was given by College students home for the holidays and local high school students.

The preluce was given by Miss Valerie Wells, pianist, while the students marched down the aisles carrying lighted candles and took their places on the stage The candles on the stage were lighted by Miss Gwynelle Davis and-

The student choir sang "Give of Your Best" with Delores Nowlin rendering the solo parts.

Lena Williams, a high school student, read the Scripture selection and offered prayer, and three other students, Wanda Faye Smith, Joreta Shawn and Nan Pennington rendered a trio, "I'd Rather Have Jesus."

Miss Mildred Cox, graduate of North Texas State Teachers College, made a few introductory remarks, telling something of B. S. U. work in the colleges.

Miss Bettye Frazier as leader conducted a quiz in which Miss Jerry Frazier, Joe Allen Webb, and Miss Leola LaGrone took part. Miss LaGrone, a student in Baylor University, gave an account of B. S. U. activities at that institution.

"My Outstanding Spiritual Experience in College" was given by Miss Clara Faye Nordyke of the Texas Technological College.

The pastor, Rev. Levi Price, spoke briefly, his subject being "Maximum Christianity Has a Carry Over Value."

"I Surrender All" was the closing musical number rendered by the choir, and Rev Howard Martin pronounced the benediction.

GARLAND, TEX., 4-H BOY NATIONAL FIELD CROPS WINNER

One of the four national winners in the 1946 4-H Field Crops Contest, Harris Hill, 17, of Garland, Dallas county, Tex., receives his $200 Fowler McCormick scholarship award from John L. McCaffrey, president of International Harvester Company.

McCaffrey, president of International Harvester Company.

Harris was named 4-H southern extension section winner following the judging of the national field of 859 county champions in 44 states. The presentation of the scholarship, good at any accredited state agricultural college, was made during the recent 25th annual 4-H Club Congress, when International Harvester, donor of the awards, brought all state winners in the Field Crops contest to Chicago for this silver anniversary assembly.

During his seven years in 4-H, Harris raised 41 acres of cotton, 30 of corn, 46 of wheat, 101 of clover, 17 of barley, 35 of oats, four of row cane, nearly eight of grain sorghum and two of sudan. Income from these was nearly $10,000 and with swine, beef and dairy returns, brought the total to $17,890.56. He employs the best known tillage methods, and much of his grain and all of the cotton and clover seed are being certified and sold for planting.

The assistant county agent says, "He has a brilliant mind and is valuable not only to the club but to his home and community." Harris is now a freshman at North Texas Agricultural College.

There have been several plane crashes on the South Plains the past several months that probably could have been avoided had the pilots of these planes been only a hundred or so feet higher. Some of those accidents were fatal and some of them weren't.

A couple of those crashes have occurred here at Tahoka, and the pilot's were much luckier than Lane was, but they learned their lesson the hard way and we'll bet you will neved see either of these two boys out buzzing houses and hedge-hopping around over the country again.

Instructors at the local field always are cautioning their students about low flying, and tell them what kinds of difficulties it can lead them into. I know they do because I have heard them cautioning students, including myself about that very thing several times.

BILBO SHOULD BE OUSTED To our way of thinking, evidence adduced on the recent investigation of the activities of Senator Bilbo of Mississippi respecting the awarding of war contracts revealed disgraceful course of conduct on his part that should cost him his seat in the great logislative body to which he has been re-elected.

Time was when any course of conduct that smacked of dishonesty or graft was thoroughly "taboo" in the South. Every southern Senator, Congressman, Judge of a court, or other high official was supposed to be the soul of Usually, when a Southern Senator has fallen below this ideal, he has lost his prestige and eventually his seat. Not even the great Joe. Bailey of a generation ago could survive the revelation that he had accepted numerous sums of money from H. friend although he confessed that he had been instrumental in securing the re-admission of the Company back into the state after it had been heavily fined and banished from the state for numerous violations of the anti-trust law.

Bailey was an intellectual giant and the most powerful orator in the United States Senate, and h was virtually worshipped by thousands of Texans even after his secret financial relations with H. Clay Pierce had been revealed, bu the sickening revelations caused other thousands to turn agains: him in sorrow or disgust, and Joe Bailey went down.

For Bilbo to be permitted 'strut his stuff" in the Senate after the recent revelations would be disgrace to old Mississippi, to the entire South, and to the nation. We sincerely hope that Southern Democrats in that body refuse either to defend him or to vote for his retention in that body.

We read an article in a magazine the other day in which the author was explaining that Congressmen do not have time to study proposed legislation and can not therefore vote intelligently on most of these measures for the reason that we load them down with so many other duties, most of them unimportant or even frivolous, which they must give attention if they expect to be re-elected. It is the truth. We make errand-boys out of men elected to serve a statesmen. Some of the ablest men in Congress were frank enough to make this complaint to the author of the article. We all know that it is so. We folks back at home expect our Congressman to spend hours and even days tf necessary in looking after some personal matter in which we are particularly interested, when he ought to be gathering information or making a study of some grave matter of interest to his entire district on to the nation. to keep your land PRODUCTIVE!

An alarming portion of the original tillage land in the United States has been ruined for further practical farming. If your farm is heading that way, now's the time to adon these soil-saving practices:

1. Dississ your soil maintenance problems with your county agent or local soil

2. Stally your conservation survey map to de the characteristics of your land a... i. i.

3. Decide what crops to raise . . . which fields are best suited for each crop and what rotation and fertilizing practices to follow.

4. Follow through your farming plan.

5. Use your John Deere Farm Equipment. It's fully adaptable to the soil conservation practices recommended for your farm. By the way . . . be sure to get your free copy of "Soil Conservation". It's yours for the asking!

ROBINSON Ready-To-Wear

Mr. Fenton was born in Havana, Metal and Plywood Combined Illinois, on February 17, 1862. A the age of 14, he came with his widowed m - her and two sisters to Dallas county Texas. The family moved to Denton county in 1891 and on October 24, 1894, he was married to Mary L. Richardson.

In 1916, he and his family moved to a farm in Lynn county just east of Tahoka, where he and Mrs Fenton continued to reside until 1938, when they moved to the present home in Tahoka. It was about that time that he became seriously ill, and he had been an invalid ever since.

Mr. Fenton was a highly respect ed citizen and had a host of friends here who regret his passing in spite of his ill health and his advanced years. Many of them were present and greatly appreciated the fine tribute paid to him by his former pastor, Rev. H. A. Nichols, at the

In Sturdy New Material

Cigarette-proof desk tops, fireproof office partitions, and lighter planes, made possible by a new method of combining metal and plywood layers in manufacture, are described by Thomas D. Perry of the Resinous Products and Chemical company of Philadelphia

Plymetal, he said, is the relatively new product which combines the good qualities of both wood and metal, and compensates for the less desirable qualities of each. It is made by gluing layers of metal to sheets of veneer with a resin adhesive, to which heat and pressure are simultaneously applied.

Some of the uses already made of plymetal include a table-top construction developed for office desk, bank counters and smoking stands, where an inserted sheet of aluminum is provided to absorb and distribute the heat from lighted cigarettes so that the outer wood surface is in no way disfigured. Kitchen equipment, table tops, drainboards and the like are much improved by metal surfaces for cleanliness and wear, backed by a lightweight plywood for stiffness and heat insulation. Both steel and aluminum are employed for this.

Coal and Lignite Supply Assures U. S. of Fuel Reserve

Although liquid and gaseous fuels make up only 1.2 per cent of the mineral-fuel reserve of the United States, the reserves of coal and lignite can be used to supplement declining reserves of natural gas and petroleum for "certainly not less than 1,000 and probably for 2,000 years," according to Arno C. Fieldner, chief of the fuels and explosives branch of the bureau of mines.

Fieldner estimated the proved fuel reserves of the United States at an energy equivalent of 2.6 trillion tons of bituminous coal having a heating value of 13,000 b.t.u. per pound. Coal and lignite comprise 98.8 of this reserve. Fifty-five per cent of this solid fuel reserve consists of high-volatile bituminous coal, 23 per cent subbituminous coal, 19 per cent lignite, 2.5 per cent low-volatile bituminous coal, and 0.5 per cent anthracite.

'All of these fuels can be converted by suitable processes to gaseous and liquid fuel," he said. "Satisfactory fuel gases have been manufactured from coal or from coke and petroleum for many years. Processes and equipment for this purpose have been well-developed. years in Germany, in particular, processes have been developed and put into commercial operation for coal and from lignite.

Preserved Order

Prior to the existence of law courts and peace officials in the United States, vigilance committees, formed of substantial citizens, operated in border communities to combat desperadoes. Following the gold rush in San Francisco in 1848 outlaws endangered the lives and property of residents of that area until the San Francisco Vigilance committee was formed in-1861 and drove them from that section or apprehended and executed them. When the terrorists fled to other localities like committees were organized, resulting in mob rule at times but generally well coordinated procedure prevailed." The Squatters' Claim association was established near Leavenworth, Kan., in 1854 to protect slaveholders' rights. Eventually all the Western States and territories had vigilance committees to break up organized outlaw rule.

Pasture Moisture

The amount of water entering the soil following rainfall has been found to be about five times less on heavily grazed pastures than on those not grazed since 1940, according to the Rocky Mountain Forest and Range experiment station. On land heavily grazed by cattle, after .65 inches of artificial rainfall, .44 inches were lost through run-off. Only .21 inches soaked into the ground. On pastures ungrazed since 1940, following a simulated rain of 60 inches, run-off amounted to only .08 inches, while .52 inches filtered into the soil. This indicates that on ungrazed or moderately grazed pastures, rainfall is much more likely to enter the soil. This reduces the possibility of erosion, siltation and pared for burial at the Stanley Funeral home here.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodis: Church here at 2 n'clock Fricay afternoon by pastor. Rev. J. W. Rosenberg, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. H A. Nichols of Stratford. Burial followed in the Tahoka cemetery. Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones, and two sisters. Mrs. Mattie Pearl (Ivan) Cathcart of Tahoka and Mrs. Maxine (J. W.) Auld of Tinsley, Miss. Also surviving are the grandmother Mrs. Pearl Jones of Lubbock, a niece. Retha Cathcart of Tahoka, and a nephew, Clyde David Auld of Tinsley, Mississippi, All were here for the funeral except the grandmother, who is sick and was anable to, come.

William Lane Jones was, born at Wilson in this county on April 26 1927. The family moved to Tahoka in January, 1931 and Lane was reared here. He graduated from the Tahoka High school in May, 1944. He later volunteered for service in the army but was rejected on account of being afflicted with asthma. He began taking flying lessons, however, more than a year ago and some months ago was granted a student license as an aviator.

He had many friends here, who deeply deplore the tragedy which took his life.
