Site Selected For Baptist Camp

Members from more than 100 churches in the District met in the First Baptist Church in Plainview Monday afternoon and selected the location of an encampment to be established in lieu of the one previously established in the Palo Duro Canyon which they had abandoned recently on account of the difficulty and expense of building a safe paved road to get into the canyon and of making other improvements. The Palo Duro site with the improvements desired was recently sold.

The new encampment is to be situated in the White River Draw south of Floydada about a mile east of the Palo Duro state highway. Negotiations for the property which are pending are consummated. In the event that the deal pending should fail to materialize another piece of property adjoining it will probably be bought. It is practically an assured fact that one of the pieces of property will be acquired.

The committee which has the matter in charge was instructed by the Plainview meeting Monday to proceed with the negotiations. The site is situated about half way between Floydada and Ralls. It consists of a tract of about 72 acres of land in the canyon, mostly comparatively smooth land, flanked by a bluff on one side. An abundance of underground water at a shallow depth is available.

This site was chosen in preference to another site situated in the Tule Canyon about eight or ten miles northwest of Silvertown. It consists of about 41 acres of land which was offered to the Baptists free of charge, a stream of water runs through it, and a passable road crosses it, and the committee was given authority to deal with the matter to be held until they were met by the state, but had no definite plan as to what they would do. The site was not only smaller but much nearer than the Palo Duro site and situated almost in the center of the district.

The Plainview assembly therefore expressed its preference for the Floydada site by a vote of 229 to 41. This would seem to settle the matter definitely.

Baptists here and plan to make this one of the greatest encampments in the state. District Wide events from the position outside of Amarillo on the north to O'Donoghue on the south and from the New Mexico line on the west to Spur and Midler on the east, embracing the heart of the Plains, Tahoka, Wilson, New Home, Redwax, and perhaps other Lynn county churches were represented at the Plainview meeting, some fifteen or sixteen messages altogether.

REVIEW OF BORN AGAIN
SERVED AT QUASH
Mrs. M. E. Ford, returned home Monday after having attended funeral services at Quash on Friday for her nephew, Sgt. William T. Brady, who served with the United States forces in Germany and fell at Aachen, Germany, on November 22, 1944. His body was buried at the time in Henri Chapel cemetery, where it remained until recently, when it was removed and sent back to the United States, arriving in Quash on Thursday of last week.

Funeral services were conducted at 4:30 p. m. Friday in the First Methodist Church of Quash with military honors, with the American Legion in charge.

Sgt. Brady was the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Brady, who was born in Oklahoma on November 20, 1918, but was in the Army for a few years in New York in this country. He started to serve at New Leon and moved with the family to Quash, where he was in the Army from November 1942 to the day he was killed.

Mrs. W. W. Ford, widow of the late Sgt. Brady, has the day's funeral services on Friday.

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT
Louis Bromfield, noted author and proponent of soil conservation, who recently visited Lubbock with a party of leading business men from various parts of the country, is quoted by Cecil Horne of the Texas Technological College as declaring that agricultural practices will probably be improved 75 per cent by the next generation of farmers because of the agricultural education that is being given the boys of today in colleges and high schools and their participation in 4-H and FFA activities.

There certainly needs to be much improvement in farming practices, according to Mr. Bromfield, who is quoted further as stating that only 10 per cent of today's farmers are really good farmers with 30 per cent more classed as fair. The remaining 60 per cent, he says, are very poor. But farmers should not feel too badly over this criticism, for a similar criticism might justly be made of those engaged in other lines of business, including editors, authors, doctors, lawyers, and school teachers.

Furthermore, great improvement in farming methods have been made during the past quarter of a century. Farmers in this area have learned the value of terracing and contouring and they are giving more attention to the matter of protecting the soil against wind erosion.

But much further improvement is desirable if not imperative. It is to be hoped that the time may speedily come when almost every farmer becomes a scientific farmer. By learning and observing all the scientific rules, farmers in the course of time can probably make this Plains country much more productive than it is now, even though now it is one of the most productive areas in Texas. By employing scientific methods, they can not only conserve the soil but doubtless can continually build it up.

The teaching of agriculture to our youth in high schools and colleges should be intensified and made more and more efficient from year to year.

Few of us know much about the troubles that beset the other fellow, especially if he is engaged in a kind of business that differs materially from our own. For two or three years now the publishers of the daily newspapers have been bedeviled with a newsprint shortage, and for the past year or two the country weeklies have also been feeling the pinch. The publishers of the News for a year now have been vexed and perplexed almost continually by the problem of procuring even a minimum supply for our needs. In fact, there have been a number of weeks when we did not know where the next week's supply would come from. For many weeks we have been getting out only a ten-page paper when we should have been running twelve or fourteen pages. On account of this situation, we are sure that our usual Christmas edition will be cut far short this year. And there is little prospect for the matter to ease up much in the near future. We are informed, however, that the paper mills at Lufkin are being doubled in capacity; that the additional units of the plant will come into production early in 1948, and that thereafter the shortage may begin to ease off gradually. We are hoping for the best.

About two weeks ago Governor Jester issued a proclamation adding twenty South Plains and other West Texas counties to the pink boll worm quarantine area. We do not know who induced the governor to take this action but we think that it was wholly unnecessary. Old-timers will remember that during the Dan Moody administration inspectors from the state agriculture department came out to this section of the state and inspected fields and gin plants and reported that they had found dead pink boll worms in a number of counties. These counties were quarantined and a great stir was created. So far as we know, none of those pink boll worms ever rose from the dead, and we doubt if a live one has ever been seen in this area since. About the only result was that persons driving out of or through this quarantine area were subjected to inspection of their cars and other belongings at the quarantine line. Just a nuisance that did nobody any good but that the people of this area had to endure. The pink boll worm thrives out here just about like a prairie dog would thrive in Matagorda Bay.

NATION-WIDE STUDY OF COLLEGE STUDENTS NOW UNDERWAY

LUBBOCK, Nov. 25.—In an effort to see if high school graduation is the best criteria for predicting success in college, a nationwide study of records of students who entered college without completing high school in comparison with records of students of the same age group who received high school diplomas is being conducted, according to W. P. Clement, Texas Technological College registrar.

The study is made possible on a large scale because many war veterans who did not complete high school are now attending colleges throughout the nation after passing general education development tests, Clement explained.

The Texas Tech registrar, who is chairman of the committee on special projects for the American Association of Collegiate Registrars, is directing the study for the association.

DINNER HONORS
EMBE-ELECT

Miss Gwynnelle Davis, bride-elect was named as honoree when Mrs. Irving Stewart and Mrs. Raymond Weathers entertained with a 6 o'clock dinner at Mrs. Stewart's home Thursday, November 20. A pink and gold color scheme was carried out in table decorations. Guests attending included Mrs.

Bendon Davis, mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Beulah Davis, mother of the groom-to-be, Mesdames David Weathers, Tammie Weeds, Gerry Lanford, Colene Puffer, Alice Reid, and Aleta Thomas.

Juanelle Martin and Mrs. E. B. Gayden left Wednesday to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. James Gayden and children at Ruidoso.

JOAN OWENS WEDS
GLEN ADKINS

Miss Joan Owens, daughter of J. Carl Owens of Lubbock, became the bride of Glen D. Adkins of Hamlin in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. George A. Dale in the First Baptist church chapel Thursday, at 6:30 p. m.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a blue crepe evening length dress with a spray of ice-blue beading. She carried a white Bible topped with a bridal bouquet of white gladioli and wore a diamond lavalere which her mother wore at her wedding. Mrs. J. W. Tippitt, of Lubbock, matron of honor and sister of the bride, wore a gray crepe dress and carried a pink gladioli bouquet. C. J. Adkins, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Against a background of white gladioli and palms, Miss Betty Rabun, Lubbock, and Miss Jane Taylor, Tahoka, lighted white tapers in candelabra. Douglas Blackourn, accompanied by Mrs. J. P. Watt, Jr., sang "Because" and "Now and Forever." A string trio composed of Mrs. Don Nichols, Mrs. Charles Stone, and Miss Patsy Gibbs, played "Serenade" and "Beautiful Dreamer." The processional was Wagner's Wedding march and Lohegrin was the recessional. During the ceremony "Liebestraum" was played.

Ushers were Buster Owens, Jr., Littlefield, cousin of the bride; J. W. Tippitt, Lubbock, brother-in-law of the bride; and Clyde Owens, Lubbock, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the bride's parents' home. Serving at the table were Miss Hazel Adkins and Mrs. Delma Shelburne. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Everette Guth, Phoenix, Ariz., aunt of the bride; Miss Hazel Adkins, Altadena, Calif., sister of the bridegroom.

Spanning Canyon
Diablo

Another new bridge on the Santa Fe

A new double-track steel bridge spans Canyon Diablo (a giant gash 225 feet deep in the upland of northern Arizona) on the main line of the Santa Fe between Chicago and California. This new bridge, which replaces the old single-track viaduct, is 544 feet long, 32 feet wide at track level, and contains over 2,000 tons of structural steel. The heaviest trains can cross it in both directions at once, and it's built to handle anything in rail traffic the future may bring. Canyon Diablo Bridge is just a part of Santa Fe's continuing program of improvements—typical of the Santa Fe spirit of progress and initiative—to provide Santa Fe passengers with smoother riding, and Santa Fe shippers with more efficient freight handling. It is another good reason for traveling or shipping "Santa Fe—all the way."

passage that mentions an invisible church.

Question III. "Does Jno. 15:1-6, refer to the different denominations as branches of the one church?" Answer. No, it surely does not. Christ said, "I (Christ) am the vine, Ye (disciples) are the branches. In verse 6, Christ makes it plain who he is referring to. If a Man Abide Not In Me." No denomination as we know them today was in existence when Christ used the language. Jno. 15:1-6 is one of the stronger passages in the Bible on the absolute unity that must be among disciples of Christ.

Neighbor attend the services of the church of Christ in your community, where children of God meet together as Christians, and not as members of some man made denomination. Where as Christians, the worship as directed by the apostles is enjoyed. Remember you are always welcome at the church of Christ.—Price Bankhead, Post, Texas.

ZONE S. S. MEETING

A meeting of the Baptist Sunday schools of Lynn county, constituting the eastern zone of the Brownfield Association, was held in the Baptist Church here at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, with six of the ten churches in the county represented.

Rev. R. D. Hill, pastor of the Lakeview Baptist Church and director of the organization, had charge of the program. Discussions of Sunday school work were given by Rev. W. P. Brian, pastor at Wells, and Rev. T. L. Pond, pastor at Redwine. A discussion of "The Failure of the Church" was also given by Rev. Levi Price of Tahoka.

Sunday schools represented were those at Lakeview, New Home, Wilson, Redwine, Wells, and Tahoka. The meeting next month will be held at Redwine.

Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Speer of Frost left for home Monday morning after a week's visit here with their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Alheart.

TAHOKA 4-H GIRLS MEET

The 4-H Club girls of Tahoka met with the County Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Hard, on last Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 13.

Miss Hard discussed school clothing and their care with the 4-H girls. After the discussion, officers for the coming year were elected. They are as follows: President, Jane Taylor; Vice President, Deanie Edwards; Secretary, Joyce Sharp; Reporter, Carolyn Henderson. Mrs. Edwards was selected as the sponsor. The next meeting is scheduled for December 9.—Reporter.

Mrs. Pearl Calloway of Abilene left for her home Monday after having spent a few days here visiting and looking after her property interests. She was accompanied on the return trip by Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Thomas, who were going to Strawn to visit two weeks with their daughter and her husband and their granddaughter.

Mrs. H. A. Patterson is a patient in the Tahoka Clinic.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1- Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2- Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Mrs. R. L. Pirtle has been in the Lubbock Memorial Hospital taking treatment for a heart ailment.

Cotton was first grown in China for ornamental purposes, but was put to practical use about 1300 A. D.

SOCIAL SECURITY MAN TO BE HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

Elhott W. Adams, Social Security Administration Representative, will be in Tahoka at the U. S. Post Office at 11:00 a. m. on Wednesday, December 3, 1947, for the purpose of answering any questions you may have on Social Security; discussing possible benefits and taking claims from persons who seem to be entitled to benefits; and taking applications for Social Security account number cards.

Some employees who have moved and who have lost their social security account number card seem to think it is compulsory to secure a duplicate card from the office where they secured the original. The facts are that any field office of the Social Security Administration will be glad to accept an application for a duplicate and thereby save the applicant the expense in writing or writing to the office where the original was issued. The nearest office of the Social Security Administration is at Lubbock, Texas.

Will Tahoka Close For The Bi-District Football Contest?

For the past several days the business men of Tahoka have been wondering whether or not the town will close its doors on December 5, or whether they will stay open for business as usual.

Some business men have stated that they were going to close while others seem to be undecided about what to do. They all want to back the Bulldogs 100 per cent and attend the game, but some feel that since this is the busiest part of the year, they can't afford to close their doors for half a day.

The past two games played on the local field were played in bad weather in the afternoon, but even so there should have been many more fans out there rooting for them than there were.

FIRE COMMISSIONER ISSUES TIMELY WARNING

AUSTIN, Nov. 26—Gasoline will not only shorten that new skirt but also sour life if you use it for dry cleaning. Texas housewives were warned today by Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

The Commissioner said that the improper use of gasoline caused 14 fires in August in Texas and 5 in September.

NOW—make a date to OIL-PLATE!

Let's change that dirty, beat-up summer oil! Let's refill with brighter, lighter Conoco Nth winter oil!

Free-flowing Conoco Nth Motor Oil (patented) includes an added ingredient which fastens an extra film of lubricant so closely to metal surfaces that cylinder walls are OIL-PLATED!

This extra OIL-PLATING actually resists gravity... won't all drain down even overnight! So, you're extra-protected from metal-eating, combustion acids... from "dry" starts... from sludge and carbon caused by wear!

And that means zingful power... pick-up... get-up-and-go! A change you'll be thankful for!

per cent, based on the county road and bridge fund.
The County is deriving larger and larger amounts each successive year from the gasoline tax and other sources to be placed in this fund. It is believed therefore that the payment of these warrants and the interest thereon can and will be made without the levy of any additional taxes.

The stretches of road to be constructed are among the most important in the county. It is eight miles from the Draw-Redwine road west to the Tahoka-O'Donnell highway and it is ten miles from the Tahoka-Post highway south to the Wells-Draw road now under construction. Practically all of this entire area is a rich farming section and it certainly needs a good farm-to-market road through its center.

The road south from the Tahoka-Brownfield highway penetrates a rich farming area in the Wells, T-Bar, and Three Lakes communities, together with some ranch lands, and it too serves many farmers and stock-raisers.
The roads should be built by all means.

Sundown . . .

field running after his teammates blocked a hole through the oncoming Sundown eleven and raced 85-yards for the Bulldogs final TD. Again the try for extra point failed and the score was 12 to 0.

However the rest of the game was the Roughnecks. The Bulldogs had held the Roughnecks to 1 first down in the first half while they had rolled up 4.

The Roughnecks offense came to life and rolled up 5 first downs in the last half of the ball game and held the Bulldogs to only 1.

The Roughnecks did not score until the middle of the fourth period after having made a sustained drive of about 60 yards down the field which had carried them to the 20-yard line where Douglas Ethridge, behind a lot of protection, connected with a 20-yard pass to Bobby Perry, who stepped over the double-stripe for the Sundown touchdown. Try for extra point failed.

A short time later the Roughnecks were again in a serious scoring position when they recovered a Bulldog fumble on the 20-yard line, but the Bulldogs intercepted a Sundown pass on the 20, taking over at the exact spot in which they had previously fumbled the ball. The Bulldogs were still in possession of the ball when the final whistle blew.

The Roughnecks outweighed the Bulldogs 15-pounds per man average, with a team average of 164 pounds to Tahoka's team average of 149-pounds.

The Bulldogs gained a net total of 86-yards rushing to Sundown's net of 93-yards rushing; Tahoka made 5 first downs to Sundown's 6 first downs; attempted 3 passes, completing none to Sundown's 12 passes attempted, completing 5 for 47-yards; Tahoka kicked 6 times for an average of 27-yards to Sundown's 6 kicks for a total of 35-yards average per kick; Tahoka was penalized twice for 20-yards and Sundown was penalized three times for 35-yards. Each team intercepted 1 pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerrell Cox left last Saturday to visit their son Paul and family at Decatur and their daughter, Miss Mildred, in Fort Worth.

Bulldogs . . .

against the Lobos than there have been made against the Bulldogs. However Littlefield romped over Tahoka to the tune of 40 to 0 and Levelland defeated Littlefield 19 to 7 to win the 5-A district crown. Levelland defeated Sundown 45 to 27 and the Bulldogs defeated the Sundown eleven 12 to 6.

Levelland undoubtedly will be the favorites to win over the Bulldogs, probably by three to four touchdowns, but the Bulldogs and some Bulldog fans seem to have a different opinion and expect to upset the dope-bucket and the Lobos and walk off with the bi-district crown.

We are not making any predictions, but this much we will say: "If the Bulldogs play the Lobos as good a game as they are capable of playing, regardless of whether the Bulldogs come out on top or not, the Lobos will know that they have had a real battle on their hands from start to finish.

The Lobos will outweigh the Bulldogs 15-pounds per man average, having a team average of 164-pounds per man to a team average for the Bulldogs of 149-pounds per man. This will be exactly the same weight advantage that the Sundown Roughnecks held over the Bulldogs when they battled here last Friday afternoon.

Levelland considers their football squad as the best in Levelland's history. The Bulldogs are probably the best all-round squad that has ever taken the field for THS in its history too and when these two teams clash on Dec. 5 all of Tahoka's football fans will be on hand to watch these two champions meet in what should prove to be one of the best class-A football games ever reeled off on the South Plains.

5 cents; Public buildings and other Public Improvements, 15 cents; a total of 80 cents.

The purpose of the reallocation, as we understand it, is to make the funds just a little more elastic and to eliminate transfers from one fund to another by the commissioners court as is often necessary under the present system. The proposed change or authority to reallocate is being submitted to the voters under a proposed constitutional amendment adopted by the people of Texas at the general election on November 7, 1944. It merely simplified procedure by the Commissioners Court.
