Tahoka Judging Teams Win Places At Area Contest

Five Tahoka Future Farmers of America judging teams, consisting of 15 boys, last week participated in the area judging contests held at Texas Tech. and carried away fourth place honors in the Sweepstakes, Plainview, Cooper and Hedley finished ahead of Tahoka. In that order. A total of 82 schools were represented by 720 boys in the contests. Competition in the contests was keener than ever before in the history of the event, according to V. P. Carter, Tahoka vocational agriculture teacher and coach of the local judging teams.

Two teams qualified for the state contests, and Mr. Carter and six boys will leave Friday for this event to be held at Texas A. & M. College. These are the Dairy Products team, composed of Finis Botkin, B. L. Parker, and Travis Morgan, and the Poultry team, composed of Robert Adamson, Wendell Hudson, and Gerald Wayne Tippit.

Four of the five Tahoka teams placed in the top 25 percent in the respective divisions. The Crops team placed fifth in a field of 42 teams, the Poultry team was eighth in a field of 82, Dairy Products team was fifth in a field of 15 teams, and the Dairy Judging team was fifteenth in a field of 66 teams.

Billy Thomas had the second highest individual score out of 200 boys in the Dairy Judging contest. Duane Townsend placed first in the identification of seeds and second in the entire crop contest. Barney Schults and Delwyn Tunnell tied for fourth in the identification of seeds.

B. L. Parker was third in the judging of cream and sixth in the entire Dairy Products contest.

Sweepstakes winners were determined by the best average of the three top teams from each town. Plains Co-op Oil Mill served a barbecue lunch to approximately 500 boys and their advisors.

Two Students Win In Regional Meet

Two Tahoka High School students, Nan Beth Pennington and Duane Carter, will represent Tahoka and Region one in the state finals of the Texas Interscholastic League at Austin.

Last Saturday in the Region One meet, embracing the area from Wichita Falls south to El Paso and from Dalhart west to Monahans, they were first place winners in the Class A schools division.

Nan Beth Pennington won first place in girls' Extemporaneous Speech.

Duane Carter won first place in high jump (5 feet and 9 inches) in the track and field division.

Also of interest to Lynn County people, Joe Palmer of O'Donnell tied for third place in the pole vault, and the New Home relay team took third place in the Class B mile relay.

Duane and Nan Beth will leave Wednesday of next week to participate in the State Interscholastic League finals to be held in Austin on the University of Texas campus. They will be accompanied by Coach and Mrs. Jim Foust, and Miss Lou Nelle Peters.

No information was furnished The News on Tahoka's winnings in the recent District 4-A literary contests held at Andrews, but according to the Lubbock Avalanche-James Eubanks of Tahoka won first in ready writers contest; Nan Beth Pennington, first in girls' extemporaneous speech; Margaret Fuller, fifth in typewriting; Lahoma Page, fourth in shorthand; and Billy Ray Kelley, third in number sense.

GRAND JURY MEETS MONDAY

The grand jury which was impaneled several weeks ago has been called back into session Monday to investigate recent alleged violations of the law next week.

Undertakers prefer to be called morticians.

Lions Sponsoring Local Girl Scouts

Members of Tahoka Lions Club will be special guests at a Girl Scout investiture ceremony which will be held tonight, Friday, at 7 o'clock in the school lunch room.

About sixty girls will become Intermediate scouts at the program. The Lions Club is sponsoring this worthy organization in Tahoka, and a great deal of enthusiasm is being manifested in this effort by the girls, their leaders, and the sponsoring organization.

Faculty members of the New Home public schools were re-elected at a recent meeting of the board of trustees of the district.

Those elected are: A. L. Pace, superintendent. J. N. Denning, high school principal.

Miss Ruth Ganus, English. Miss Ruth Martin, social studies. Mrs. Joe May, home economics. Mrs. Lily Hubbard, first grade. Mrs. Joe White, second grade. Miss Alma Lomax, third grade. Grassland Co-op Meeting Monday

Grassland Co-op Gin will hold its annual meeting next Monday night, May 3, at 8:00 o'clock, and all members, stockholders, patrons, and friends are invited to come and bring their families.

Officers state that a report will be made on the annual audit of the business, two directors will be elected, and other business transacted.

"We have arranged a program we hope will be of interest to you and have engaged some able speakers for the occasion. There will be plenty of refreshments," an officer of the co-op asked The News to state.

Lowly Mouse In Spotlight In Local Damage Action

One of the queerest suits doubtless in the history of civil jurisprudence was tried in the district court here last week, a suit in which the alleged misfortunes of a mouse was the basis of claims for damages.

The suit had been brought by C. A. Snow of Weatherford against the Coca Cola Bottling Company of Lubbock for the alleged sale of a bottle of coca cola by a dealer at Draw to the plaintiff, which he claimed contained the dead body of a mouse. In drinking the beverage, the plaintiff claimed that the dead mouse was drawn into his mouth before he discovered its presence in the liquid. The incident made him sick, he claimed, from the effects of which he suffered or some time, and hence his suit or damages.

The jury which tried the case, however, brought in a verdict last Friday afternoon in favor of the defendant.

FALL AND BREAKS FOOT BONES

Mrs. W. D. Novels accidentally fell at her home Monday and broke some of the small bones of one of her feet. She was taken to a Lubbock hospital for surgery and treatment of the injury.

Mrs. Fred Nolen reports that the operation on Fred's leg was unsuccessful in that the doctors were unable to remove the piece of shrapnel embedded in his knee. He remained in the hospital in Amarillo and the incision is healing, Fred has reported.

AIR FORCE SAILORS TO THE RESCUE—Although much is known of Air Force flyers, little is known of Air Force sailors. Captain Maxwell Marvin, Air Force radio reporter, is shown interviewing Sergeant John A. Bigelow of Lombard, Illinois. Sergeant Bigelow is one of the Air Force sailors who spends most of his time at sea off the coast of Bermuda, alert to rescue crews of aircraft downed in the South Atlantic.

Summer Baseball Program For Lynn County Is Proposed By Local Fans

During the past several weeks, there has been considerable talk of organizing a baseball team in Tahoka this summer and seeking admission to the Oil Belt League, composed of Post, Slaton, Levell, and Littlefield, Sundown, Seagraves, and possibly one or two others.

This week, Bet Short, Rollin McCord, V. L. Botkin, and Pete Hegl, and possibly others, have advanced an idea that has possibilities, and have already started to work.

It's been many years since the town of Tahoka has had a consistently good ball team. Last year, Tahoka had a pretty fair ball club, but work-outs were scarcely held before the few games played. Those played at home were "over on the hill." Interest is at low ebb on the part of many people who would enjoy this clean American sport.

Short and Botkin point out that even our new crop of boys play very little sandlot ball, and know little of the fine points of the game, and therefore are missing a part of their life's training.

They propose that Tahoka have a ball team this summer that will give training to as many young fellows as possible by playing games among themselves, and allowing the better players to play at least the match game a week with some strong amateur or semi-pro team. Lynn county has a lot of good (Continued on back page.)

Former Citizen Aids Legion Fund

On reading in The News of the Markin G. Bradley Post of the Legion need of more funds with which to complete their hall, Hugh Taylor of Royce City, near Dallas, sat down, wrote out a check for $12.00, and sent it to officers of the post.

Hugh formerly operated a tailor shop in Tahoka, still owns property here, and has a lot of friends who appreciate his interest in this little city.

Anyone wishing to aid the Legion in building their commodious new home through the contribution of either cash or labor should see Eldon Carroll at the postoffice.

The Legion boys are doing much of the carpenter work themselves, working every Monday night and at other spare moments. They are just now completing the laying of oak flooring, and soon will start finish work. The completed building will be approximately twice the size of the old building.

W. M. WILLETT IS HURT IN FALL FROM HOUSE

While engaged as a carpenter in the construction of an addition to the New Home Baptist Church, W. M. Willett lost his footing and fell from the roof Monday morning sustaining serious injuries to the pelvis, which was broken in two or three places.

He was brought to the Tahoka Clinic for treatment. He will probably be a patient there for several weeks, though he is doing as well as could be expected.

Soil Conservation Field Day Caravan Next Tuesday, Will View Soil Practices Being Carried Out In Lynn County

Implement Show Declared Success

Only about sixty men attended the farm implement and service school held here Wednesday at the Lynn County Fair grounds and sponsored by County Agent Bill Griffin and local farm machinery dealers.

However, the program is said to have been an interesting one and entirely worth while.

Softball League Plans Schedule

Lynn County Softball League was re-organized for the summer season Tuesday night at a meeting of team managers, officers elected, and plans set in motion to start league play about the middle of May, or immediately following the close of the current school term.

Winston C. Wharton was elected president of the League, Wade Holand, vice president, and Clint Walker, secretary.

Teams expected to play in the league and reported at the meeting were: White Auto, Rutherford's, New Home, the VFW, High School boys, and Davis Humphries. It is hoped that one or two other teams will be entered.

A meeting of team managers will be held on May 10 to arrange the schedule and agree on rules.

Tahoka Chamber of Commerce sponsored the building of the present field, and Secretary Clint Walker states that the grounds are to be smoothed off and watered and new lights installed within the next few days.

As a prelude to the season opening, a number of practice games are being scheduled. Monday night, White Auto played Rutherford's and won by a 4 to 1 score.

Rotarians Hold Ladies Night

Clint Walker, secretary of the Lynn county AAA and also acting secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, made a talk at the Rotary Club Thursday at noon on the Soil Conservation Field Day—tour set for next Tuesday. He also conducted a brief quiz program concerning the field day and soil conservation, but no Rotarian had a perfect score on the questions propounded.

Thursday night of last week was ladies night at the club, and Dr. K. R. Durham, program chairman for the evening conducted a fun program of stunts presented by several members of the club.

Future Farmers Planning Banquet

Tahoka Future Farmers of America will hold their annual Father-Son banquet in the school cafeteria next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, according to V. P. Carter, teacher of Vocational Agriculture and the club's sponsor.

Mr. O. T. Ryan of Texas Tech, area Vocational Agriculture supervisor, will be the principal speaker of the evening.

The banquet meeting will be conducted by the FFA chapter officers: Gerald Wayne Tippit, president; Finis Botkin, vice president; Duane Carter, secretary; Robert Adamson, treasurer; Don Cowan, sentinel; and Billy Ray Kelly, reporter.

UNDERGOES APPENDECTOMY

Mrs. E. K. McAllister, who lives out on Rt. 4 in the vicinity of New Home, underwent an emergency appendectomy last Sunday afternoon in the Tahoka Clinic.

She is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.

Atlantic City is famous for its salt water taffy.

Water power is sometimes called "white coal."

Tahoka businessmen, farmers, and anyone else who so desires to take advantage of the occasion, may join the Soil Conservation Field Day Caravan which leaves Tahoka next Tuesday at 9 a.m. for an all-day 100-mile tour designed to exhibit the agricultural progress under way in this county.

The tour will include demonstrations of Johnson grass elimination, tanks and dams, terracing and contour farming, contour furrowing of pasture land, several types of irrigation, cover crops, deep plowing, mesquite grubbing, and many other soil building and improvement practices.

Participants on the tour are asked to bring a paper sack lunch, which will be spread at 11:30 in the Thomas deer park. Hubert Tankersley and W. C. Wharton head a committee which will prepare coffee and cold drinks for the group at noon.

A Highway Dept. patrolman and Sheriff Sam Floyd will lead the caravan. About three-fourths of the route will be over paved roads. Practices will be explained at each stop by Clint Walker of the AAA, N. E. Wood of the Soil Conservation Service, and County Agent Bill Griffin by means of a sound truck furnished by Lester Flood of the Wallace Theatres.

The tour is being sponsored by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce to acquaint Tahoka business men with agricultural advances being made by farmers of this area.

Figures of AAA Secretary Clint Walker show that there now are approximately 200 irrigation wells in Lynn county.

His books show that a total of nearly seven million feet of terraces have been built by Lynn county farmers since 1944. A total of 1,622,430 feet have been built already this year. In addition, 80,000 acres are being contour-farmed.

The tour also will give citizens an opportunity to travel over much of the new "farm-to-market" road the county has built.

Leaving Tahoka at 9 a.m., the Caravan will first have its attention called to a plot of Johnson (Continued on Back Page)

Friends of Land Week Starts May 2

Next week, beginning Sunday, May 2, is National "Friends of the Land Week," sponsored by an organization by that name which is a nation-wide, non-profit association of agriculturalists.

By coincidence, the Lynn county Soil Conservation week fits in with the nationally-planned week.

Due to the efforts of N. E. Wood of the Soil Conservation Service, a number of pastors in this county will be preaching Sunday on the conservation topic.

"Either we maintain a permanently productive land through conservation or we sink into the oblivion that has overtaken other nations who have wasted and depleted their soil," writes Paul Bestor, president of the Friends of the Land organization. "There is no middle course. We must stop this erosion, this insidious exhaustion of the soil, and it will require real work and effort by all."

PROSPECTIVE BAPTIST PASTOR COMING

The pulp committee of the First Baptist Church announces that Rev. H. E. East, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Kingsville and former pastor at Tulsa, will preach at the Church here next Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

It is important that every member who can possibly come shall be present. Others are invited.

Brother East comes highly recommended by members of churches he has served and by pastors of this area who have known him. Be sure to hear him Wednesday night.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1- Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2- Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

SUIT TO PERFECT TITLE TO PROPERTY ARGUED TODAY

Arguments are to be made this afternoon in the case of W. L. Knight versus the Pierce heirs, in which Knight is seeking to have alleged clud on his title to a valuable tract of farm land near O'Donnell removed.

The evidence in the case was heard on Thursday and Friday of last week but arguments of the case was deferred until today.

Trust Smith of Tahoka represents Mr. Knight while Bill Griffin of San Angelo represents the Pierce heirs.

Knight brought the suit to clear up a defect in the title, and the Pierce heirs through their attorney filed an answer claiming that they owned a real interest in the land.

STRANGE "ISMS" INVADE TEXAS

Strange "ism" are invading the South and are finding some support.

Henry Wallace, persistent critic of his own country and friend of Soviet Russia, got his new party organized in Texas Sunday.

Some 500 delegates met in Houston and, following the bidding of their leaders, set up the party machinery.

And, in the course of their proceedings, they adopted a platform or program of action. What do they propose to do? Well, here are some of their proposals:

1. To abolish segregation of races in education. In other words, they would prohibit white schools and Negro schools. They would throw Negroes and whites together in every school-room in Texas where both races exist, and they would have white teachers and Negro teachers in every school. School boards would not be allowed to consider the matter of race or color in employing teachers. If any board could be shown to have done so, its members would be thrown into jail.

2. The poll tax would be abolished as a prerequisite to voting. The State's right to prescribe the qualifications for voting would be denied and outlawed. The federal government would attend to that.

3. The voting age would be reduced from 21 to 18 years. Mere school children would be given the privilege of voting—and not only the school children 18 years of age or older, but every Brazos Bottom Negro, every illiterate Mexican youth, over 18 years of age, whether they had ever seen inside a schoolhouse or not, could vote not only on candidates but on proposed constitutional amendments and grave questions of state. The Wallace proposal would open the polls to great masses of illiterate and irresponsible voters who would know nothing whatever about the candidates or the issues involved. They would become the pawns of scheming and corrupt politicians and would make real democratic government a farce.

4. The Wallace program declares "steadfast opposition to universal military training and national draft." It would fight every move to prepare for war and would render this country helpless in case of attack by a powerful foreign foe.

5. The party affirms its "affiliation with the principles of the C. I. O., the A. F. L. and other labor organizations." It says nothing about "affiliation" with the group of unorganized labor, with farmers' organizations, the little business man, or the common people of America the honest red-blooded, liberty-loving people who have made America what she is.

And so this is Wallacism, as enunciated and proclaimed over its own signature.

Do we want it down here in Texas?

Not as long as we are sane.

Not counting the Wallacites, who have gone off into a new party, the Democrats of Texas seem to be split wide open. There is one faction who are fighting the re-because of the fact that he has nomination of President Truman flouted the wishes of the great majority of Southern White people in declaring war on all race segregation laws and in seeking to force the Whites to make no distinctions of race in the employment of labor, the operation of their places of business, transportation on trains and buses, the operation of public schools, etc. They feel that in choosing to enter upon this policy so distasteful to the white people of the South, President Truman is merely catering to various Negro organizations and social-equality groups in the politically doubtful states of the North and East. The bitterness of these Southerners toward Truman therefore is deep and implacable. On the other hand, the Trumanites point out that nothing can be gained by deserting Truman, for both the Republican party and the new Wallace party are committed to the same uncompromising policy with respect to the so-called "civil rights" of the Negro. So, the Democrats of the South, it would seem, are between the devil and the deep blue sea. There is presently no balm in Gilead for their hurt. But they do have a "big stick," a powerful club lying at their feet which they can use in a most effective way if they will go about the matter sensibly. That club is the proposed Gossett amendment to the Constitution, which has been approved already by the House Judiciary committee, we believe it is, by an almost, unanimous vote of Democrats and Republicans alike. That amendment, if submitted and adopted, would almost entirely eliminate the power of pressure groups in doubtful states to control the policies of the political parties in this country; it would make one vote in Texas or South Carolina just as powerful as any vote in New York or Massachusetts or Illinois. The thing for Southern Democrats to do is to quit fighting and quarreling among themselves over Truman's "civil rights" program and go to work quietly but resolutely and unceasingly for the submission and adoption at the earliest date possible of the Gossett Amendment which would remove the causes that produce such situations as we now have.

The News editor last week got himself out on a limb. He should have been listening instead of talking—or writing—about the Negro school here. For many years there had been only one teacher for the colored school here. We were not aware that last fall the school board employed an additional teacher after having placed a partition in the school building for Negroes, thus converting it into a two-room house. For this the school board is to be commended. It shows that the board is undertaking to do everything reasonable for the benefit of the colored children of the school district. The second teacher employed is a young colored woman from Lubbock. We understand that the school board is contemplating the employment of a man for the next school session to teach with Miss Para Lee Sayles, who has been doing the job in a most satisfactory manner by herself for many years. The school board is also looking forward to the time when the curriculum will be extended so as to include high school subjects. Several Tahoka children have been and are now attending the colored high school in Lubbock. Only a slight increase in their number will make the employment of a high school teacher here justifiable if not imperative. The News wishes to say also that both the school board and the superintendent have the same high opinion of Miss Sayles' work here as we expressed in the News last week. It is to be hoped that any additional teachers employed will prove to be as proficient and faithful as she has been.

The Naval Reserve Officer's Training Corps has 52 units in colleges throughout the country.

For in employing teachers. If any board could be shown to have done so, its members would be thrown into jail.

MISS NAN WEATHERS
WEDS DAVE EVANS

Before an arch of white gladioluses and fern flanked by white stock and candelabra of white candles the wedding of Miss Nan Weathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Weathers, to Mr. Dave Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Evans, took place Sunday morning at eight o'clock at the First Methodist Church of Tahoka. Rev. H. A. Nichols of Stratford performed the double ring ceremony.

Proceeding the rites, piano selections of appropriate bridal music were played by Miss Frances Haney. Mesdames W. T. Hines and Dan Brookshire lighted the candles as Miss Haney played "The Rosary" by Nevia. Mrs. David Weathers, sister-in-law to the bride, read to the musical accompaniment of Essleiman's "Melody of Love", "Why Do I Love You?"

The bride, wearing a street-length white crepe dress with lace yoke and corded bouffant skirt, was given in marriage by her father. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid and wore baby orchids in her hair. The bride's only ornament was a cameo pendant belonging to her maternal grandmother.

Attendants included the flower girl, Nancy Jo Sewell of Slaton, niece of the bride, who wore a blue dotted swiss frock and carried a basket of white sweet peas. Mrs. W. R. Sewell of Slaton, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor, wearing an ashen of roses crepe dress with gardenias. The groom's best man was Mr. Homer F. Guin of Wingate.

During the ceremony, Miss Haney played Debussy's "Clair de Lune". Immediately following the ceremony, the couple knelt before the altar as Mr. W. R. Sewell of Slaton sang Malet's "The Lord's Prayer".

Ushers were David Weathers and Charles Walden.

A reception was held after the wedding in the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were decked with spring iris and the bridal table was centered with an arrangement of pink roses and white tapers on a cut-work cloth. The three-tiered white wedding cake was topped by a miniature bride and groom. Presiding at the silver coffee service was the bride's aunt, Mrs. Oscar Rutledge of Floydada. Mrs. Charles Walden, sister of the groom, presided at the registry.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Rutledge of Floydada, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ramsey of Graham, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Hood of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Nash of Lubbock, Mrs. Rube Guin of Wingate, Miss Mary Harris, and Mrs. Robert Dillard of Odessa, and Carl Griffing Jr. of A. & M. College.

After the reception the couple left for a brief wedding trip to New Mexico. For travel, the bride's costume was a powder blue gabardine suit with black and pink accessories. She wore an orchid corsage. The couple will be at home in Tahoka.

Mrs. Evans is a 1947 honor graduate of Tahoka High School. She attended John Tarleton Agricultural College at Stephenville and Draughan's Business School at Lubbock. Mr. Evans is a Wilson High School graduate and he served three years in the Armed Forces in the European Theater.

JAMES P. HART

J. P. HART ASSOCIATE
JUSTICE CANDIDATE

AUSTIN, Texas, April 28—James P. Hart, of Travis County, this week announced his candidacy for associate justice of the Supreme Court of Texas. Judge Hart will be seeking his first elective term on the Court. He was appointed to the position seven months ago.

Judge Hart said he was basing his candidacy on nearly 20 years legal experience as a practicing attorney, a prosecutor, Assistant Attorney General of Texas, and a judge.

This is the first time he has asked the people of Texas to elect him to a State office.

A native of Texas, who married a hometown girl, Katherine Drake, in 1929, Judge Hart is the father of five children, ranging in age from six to eighteen.

In his announcement, Judge Hart stressed he was entering the race without a formal platform.

"A Judge's only proper platform," he explained, "must be a promise to follow as closely as he can, the ideals of judicial services."

He said his ideals of judicial service included:

Ability and willingness to write simple, direct and understandable opinions.

Complete impartiality in all cases. Sincere devotion to the State and Federal Constitutions.

Willingness to spend the "necessary" time in solving correctly any complex legal problems, but unwillingness to tolerate unnecessary delays in disposing of cases.

A love of "plain justice" over legal technicalities.

Proper respect for all branches of the government.

Dignity, courtesy, and fairness toward all who come before his court.

"I have followed these guidelines as associate justice," he said, "and I pledge myself to continue to do so."

Judge Hart is a graduate of the University of Texas, where he was an honor student and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, the honorary scholastic society. He was elected district attorney of Travis County in 1932 and served two terms. In 1938 he was named a special district judge of Travis county, and the following year began a two-year term as assistant attorney general of Texas.

STARS IN NEW ARMY FILM
— Louise Snyder, attractive young stage and radio player who portrays a typical American girl in the Army Signal Corps training film, "Miracle of Living." An appeal to individual morality and ideals of the family in dealing with the problem of social hygiene, the picture was made by a professional director and cast at the Signal Corps Photographic Center in co-operation with the Army Surgeon General and Chief of Chaplains. Professional motion picture critics have pronounced it one of the best of the non-commercial films.

While intended for use in Army training camps, religious and educational leaders who have viewed the 40-minute picture cite its applicability and suitability for non-military audiences from the early adolescent age upward. Loan prints in the 16-millimeter size may be obtained by civic, fraternal, and other groups from Army area Central Film Libraries at the following locations: First Army, Astoria, N. Y.; Second Army, Ft. Meade, Md.; Third Army, Ft. Monmouth, N. J.; Fourth Army, Ft. Sam Houston, Texas; Fifth Army, Chicago, Ill.; Sixth Army, San Francisco, Calif.

CARD OF THANKS

We are unable to adequately express our thanks to the many friends and neighbors who have shown us so much kindness since the recent fire which destroyed our home and all of our personal belongings. Besides the many individuals who have helped us in so many ways we would name some who are due special thanks, among whom are: Mrs. Clemmie Men, sch and L. B. Jones who were hostesses for a lovely shower in which we received gifts from Lynn and five other counties; a number of churches, and many stores in Tahoka, O'Donnell and Lubbock, and the Red Cross all contributed to our needs; also the men and women who solicited donations of cash for our benefit and to every person who gave, we are truly grateful. — Mr. and Mrs. J. PLOWS DESIGNED ESPECIALLY FOR YOU AND YOUR FARM

Minneapolis-Moline experience in building plows dates back to 1865, but MM ideas in designing and building plows, gained by experience and by working closely with farmers like yourself, are up-to-the-minute. MM Hi-Klearance tractor plows have greater clearance to prevent clogging and to assure a better job of covering trash, permit use of 18-inch coulters for exceptionally trashy conditions. Higher lift eliminates dragging trash at ends of fields. Flexible hitch minimizes effect of up-and-down movements of the tractor assuring uniform depth of plowing, pulls plow in a line of draft and angle to the ground to increase traction on the tractor wheels. Let us give you the facts on why MM moldboards and shares, offered in a choice of styles for all conditions, are second to none in durability, scouring qualities, and light draft.

Baseball

young ball players, besides a lot of fellows are too old for the game. Admission to games would be free this summer, if their plan is carried out, and everyone far and near urged to attend.

This, they hope, would build interest. Then, by next year, Tahoka might, if planning were started soon, have a modern ball park and ask admission to the Oil Belt League.

Post has recently done a magnificent job in building an excellent ball park that is almost as good as some of the West Texas-New Mexico League parks. They have built a permanent park, with a good fence, covered bleachers for about 500 fans, public address system, and lights for night play. The drive for the park was started last fall by Walter B. Holland and others, and it is now almost complete.

Anyway, the above named gentlemen have asked all the baseball players in Lynn county to meet them at the softball park in Tahoka this afternoon, Friday, at 4:30 o'clock, or as soon thereafter as possible, for the first work-out. If interest is sufficient, work-out will be held Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings, and Messrs. Short and Botkin will be there to help. They urged other old ball players and fans to join them in the move.

They think Lynn county men and boys need and deserve some summer recreation and that baseball is one of the best. If it keeps only a few away from the honky-tonks it would be well worth the cost and effort expended.

THIRD INFANTRY COLOR GUARD IN OLDTIME REGIMENTAL. This photograph was made in Germany, when the Third Infantry, 88th Central Postal Directory, U. S. Army, mustered for a ceremonial. The color guard wears the uniform of the Army in 1784 when the regiment was organized. The Third is still a crack unit with a record in all wars, including the Revolution, and its soldiers of the present day hold distinction on Army Day, 1948. (International News)
