Bulldogs Open Home Season Here Tonight

Tahoka Bulldogs of District 4-A open their home season on Foust Field at 8 o'clock tonight with the District 3-A Crosbyton Chiefs.

The Chiefs won their first game of the season last Friday night at the expense of Hale Center by a score of 9 to 0. On the same evening the Bulldogs lost to the Sundown Roughnecks at Sundown by 19 to 7 score.

Crosbyton will outweigh the local boys slightly and are said to be made up of a more experienced personnel, featuring the all-around play of a versatile back, 160-pound Bill Simmons, as well as by Co-Capt. Sam Covington, also a back, and Eugene Moore, 170 pound right tackle. The Chiefs have a new coach, Fred J. Cunningham, who formerly coached in Oklahoma.

Tahoka gained some valuable experience in the Sundown game however, and should be ready to produce this week.

Last Friday at Sundown, Tahoka outplayed the Roughnecks most of the game, but weakened in the fourth quarter to allow Sundown to score twice.

The Bulldogs took the initial kick-off and marched down the field on three successive first downs to the shadow of the goal, only to lose possession. The repeatedly threatened throughout the first half. In two minutes before the half, Boyd passed 29 yards to Carter, who was stopped on the two yard line, and on the next play Chandler punted over for the score. Carter kicked the field goal. But the Bulldogs relaxed on the kick-off, and Sundown brought the ball past mid-field; then Fullback Douglas Ethridge carried the ball 39 yards to the goal line. The conversion failed. Score 7 to 6, Tahoka.

The third quarter was scoreless, with the Bulldogs holding their own. With five minutes until game's end, McCullough plunged the line for four yards and a touchdown to put Sundown in the lead. Again, with 10 seconds left in the game, Ethridge passed to McCullough for a third touchdown, and Sundown won 19 to 7.

Tahoka fans were pleased with the showing of the boys. The team work was good, and both the line and backfield give promise of developing as the season advances.

Friday of next week Ralls, also a 3-A team, will play the Bulldogs here.

Lubbock Boosters Visit In Tahoka

Two bus loads of Lubbock county citizens spent twenty minutes in Tahoka Tuesday morning on a good, will tour over this area boosting the Panhandle-South Plains Fair which is to be staged in Lubbock from September 27 to October 2 and inviting the folks to attend.

The tour for the day included Slaton, Post, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Lamesa, Seagraves, Brownfield, and intermediate points.

Fair directors promise that this will be one of the best Fairs in the history of the organization, and a new line of entertainment has been secured. Immense crowds are expected for each day of the Fair.

In addition to a stop down-town, the boosters called briefly at the grade and high school buildings and spread their propaganda among the kids. It's a cinch the kids will be there on the appointed day if they can beg, buy, bum, or steal a way to go. But we guess a lot of the parents will take 'em.

Women who really know how to raise children are too busy to tell.

MISS LYDIA BRAVO

Miss Lydia Bravo, 18, arrived Monday from San Quentin, Luzon, Philippine Islands, to make her home with the family of Rev. C. T. Aly and to enter upon a long period of study and training to become a medical missionary to her own people.

Tax Rate of $1.25 Set By Board

The tax rate in the Tahoka school district has been set at $1.25 per hundred dollars valuation by the local school board. The News is informed. Tax notices at that rate are now being sent taxpayers.

At a recent election the voters authorized a raise in rates up to $1.50, but the board has no desire to set the rate any higher than is necessary to operate a good school and they feel that the $1.25 rate will raise sufficient funds if most of the taxes are paid this year.

Jerrell Browns Move To Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Jerrell Brown left last Saturday for Louise, Wharton county, where they expect to make their home. Jerrell will teach a shop course in Wharton Junior College at Wharton. He expects to do some rice farming with his father-in-law, also.

The News was asked to publish the complete premium list this week but has been unable to do so because of lack of time and space. A sufficient space is available, The News will publish the list in next week's issue.

G. E. Jones Dies At Abilene Home

G. E. Jones of Abilene, 72, owner of the Jones Store in Tahoka and stores in several other places, died suddenly at his residence in Abilene at 7:20 o'clock on Thursday evening of last week.

Funeral services were conducted in Abilene funeral home at five o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. Jessie Jewell Stephens, manager of the store here, attended the services.

She reports that Mr. Jones had just returned to his home from a trip to Haskell, where he owned a store. Coming in just a little earlier than usual he sat on his porch and read until his housekeeper could prepare the evening meal. Then he ate and went up stairs to his room, seeming to be a little tired. His housekeeper noticed that at the top of the stairway he seemed to be suffering pain. He went on into his room but soon she heard a noise that convinced her that something was wrong. She found him slumped down in his chair and asked him if he was sick. He did not answer and she phoned for a doctor. Then returning to him, he found that he was in the last throes of death. It is presumed that he suffered an attack of heart trouble.

Mr. Jones was a quiet, unobtrusive business man. He was highly respected and beloved by his employees and by others with whom he had business dealings. He had owned the Tahoka store for many years. In fact, it was the oldest dry goods establishment in Tahoka and was also the oldest of his chain stores, Mrs. Stephens says. She further says that a representative of the Ely & Walker wholesale dry goods house in St. Louis recently stated to her that Mr. Jones had carried an account with them longer than any other person in the United States.

He often visited Tahoka and made his last visit scarcely more than a week before his death.

Survivors include one son and one daughter, W. B. Jones, a business man of Baird, and Mrs. John Gustaf of Abilene. His wife died in 1930.

TWO TAHOKA BOYS ENROLL IN SAN MARCOS ACADEMY

Two Tahoka boys, Cadets William E. Burkhardt and Jerry Lee King, this week were enrolled as students for the 1948-49 school year in San Marcos Academy.

In addition to their regular school work, the boys will participate in the Academy's military program which has been rated "Excellent" by the U. S. Army.

Cadet Burkhardt, a junior in high school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Burkhardt, and Cadet King, a seventh grader, is the son of Mrs. Odell King.

A. E. HERRING'S BROTHER DIES

A. E. Herring received a message Sunday afternoon advising him that his brother, A. D. Herring, had died unexpectedly and suddenly on that day at Mexia, where he lived. Mr. and Mrs. Herring went down to attend the funeral services.

The Limestone county man had visited Mr. and Mrs. Herring here just two or three weeks before his death.

Mrs. Frank McGlaun has returned from visiting relatives at Corsicana.

Smith Is Elected Demo Chairman

The State Democratic convention in session in Fort Worth Tuesday and Wednesday ousted R. M. Kendrick of Brownfield as state Democratic executive committeeman from the 30th senatorial district and substituted the name of Truett Smith of Tahoka.

J. A. Goodman of Lubbock was also ousted by the convention as a Democratic Presidential elector and V. Z. Rogers of Lamesa was named for the place. Rogers was superintendent of the Lamesa public-school system for twenty-two years.

Truett Smith was formerly district attorney of the 106th judicial district and after retiring from that office has been practicing law here.

These changes were made by the convention upon the recommendation of a caucus of the Democratic delegation to the convention from the 30th senatorial district.

A majority of this delegation belonged to the pro-Truman or loyalist faction of Democrats, and the same faction gained complete control of the convention. Lyndon Johnson was found to be the Democratic nominee for the United States Senate by a margin of 87 votes over Coke Stevenson. The convention declined to go behind the election returns made by the various county chairmen or to investigate alleged election frauds in Jim Wells, Davis, and other counties.

Coke Stevenson has since filed a suit in court to have these matters adjudicated.

Delegates from Lynn county attending the convention were Judge H. Cain, Truett Smith, Judge J. W. Elliott, Sam Floyd, and A. L. Dunagan.

City Increases Water Supply

Pat Hines, Tahoka's water man, announces that the water-rationing days are over in Tahoka. The city now has plenty of water for all ordinary purposes for all of its citizens.

The City a few days ago brought in another good well between the City's group of wells out north of Tahoka and the water reservoir in town. They have connected this well up and turned the water into the City's main line into town.

TWO BOYS SUSTAIN BROKEN BONES

Norman Dockery, a student in the Tahoka School, sustained the fracture of the right thigh on last Friday when another boy jumped or fell upon him while playing. The injured boy was taken to the Tahoka Clinic, where the thigh was dressed and where the boy has been under treatment since. He was reported Wednesday as improving nicely. He is the son of N. D. Dockery, who is employed at Higginbotham-Bartlett Company.

On Monday of this week, Harold Earwood, a Wilson schoolboy, fell from a trapeze bar and sustained a compound fracture of the lower right arm. He also is under treatment in the Tahoka Clinic and was reported Wednesday to be improving satisfactorily.

VT. CHARLES PENNINGTON LEAVES FOR CAMP STONEMAN

Pvt. Charles (Bugs) Pennington, who has been attending the Army Medical School in Fort Sam Houston, where he finished his course on August 27, and who has since been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Pennington here, left Tuesday night for Camp Stoneman, California, from which place he expects to be sent to Japan some time soon.

Pvt. Pennington enlisted in the Army in March and took his basic training at Fort Ord, California. He was then sent to Fort Sam Houston, where he took up medical work. He likes the Army very much, he says, and thinks every young man should get in for awhile. He signed up for three years and expects to be overseas for about two years.

W. H. Thornhill came out from Dallas and spent several days here this week looking after some property interests.

Sheldon Russell, Associate Pastor and Music Director of the First Baptist Church of Tahoka.

Baptist Revival Getting Results

The largest week-day crowds that ever attended revival services in the Baptist Church here have been attending the services conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. T. Aly, this week. On Monday and Tuesday nights the Church auditorium was filled almost to its capacity, and the crowds for the remainder of the week were expected to be fully as large. If plans shall succeed, there will be an over-flow crowd next Sunday morning.

The morning congregations have also been unusually large. The pastor is preaching with great vigor, clarity, and power. The song services are also very inspiring.

Up to Wednesday there had been nineteen additions to the Church, five of them for baptism. It is estimated that fully fifty persons had rededicated their lives to service.

The preacher announces that his sermon subject Sunday morning will be, "A Visit To the Mountain." This will involve a number of great Biblical events. Sunday night he will speak on "The Revelations of the Cross."

You are cordially invited to all the remaining services.

Huffaker Speaks At Rotary Club

That is the question which was answered and discussed by Calloway Huffaker at the Rotary luncheon Thursday.

Three members were welcomed into the Club: R. P. King, Rollin McCord, and Rev. C. T. Aly.

Many Fines Are Assessed In Court Over Week End

Quite a number of pleas of guilty to various misdemeanors were entered in the county court on last Saturday and Monday.

On Saturday, George Hickerson, a Negro, pleaded guilty before Judge Tom Garrard to a charge of misdemeanor theft. He had stolen four quarts of lubricating oil from S. H. Gryder of Wilson and admitted it. The court assessed his punishment at a fine of $10.00 and costs.

On the same day, E. B. Cobble from Kansas, driving a big oil truck, entered his plea of guilty to driving the same while intoxicated. The court assessed his fine at $75.00 and costs and suspended his driver's license.

Another plea of guilty entered Saturday was that of Safedino Salas, Mexican, who confessed that he had stolen some junk iron, valued at about $15.00, from Terry Noble. His punishment was assessed at confinement in the county jail for three days and a fine of $75.00.

On Monday morning Gus Williams pleaded guilty to the possession of 26 cases of beer for the purpose of sale. He operates a Negro cafe in O'Donnell and had the beer buried in the ground just back of the cafe. He was arrested and the beer recovered on Sunday night. Judge Garrard assessed his punishment at a fine of $200.00 and costs.

Trinidad Medezel, an O'Donnell Mexican, was fined $200.00 and costs upon entering his plea of guilty to a charge of aggravated assault alleged to have been made upon another Mexican a few nights previously. Some trouble seems to have arisen between him and the other Mexican over a lady friend. Medezel is said to have made an unexpected attack upon his rival by stabbing him in the shoulder with a knife, slashing a thigh and also a wrist.

One or two other Mexicans seem to have intervened at that point and an aggravated assault charge was also filed against one of them, but no final disposition had been made of his case Monday afternoon. According to his statement, he was merely trying to quiet the disturbance and to keep the peace.

We need LEAD in our plants

Lead is absolutely vital to telephone service. Today it would require a pole 1000 feet high to hold all of the connecting telephone wires now placed in a single 3-inch lead-covered cable.

Lead continues to be in short supply with vital atomic research having first claim. The telephone industry like other industries receives only a rationed quota.

Our expansion program, although proceeding at a fast pace, would be completed even faster if it were not for this continued shortage of vitally needed lead.

TAKE TIME TO BE SAFE

The loss of an arm or leg is a high price to pay for saving ten seconds. When operating power machinery, take time to be careful.

Your life will be safer if you observe these simple rules:

1. Shut off P.T.O. before attempting to un-lug corn picker, baler, etc.
2. Keep all shields in place when operating machinery.
3. Don't trust defective hinges, brakes, clutches, seats.
4. Never mount or dismount from a moving tractor. Don't ride on drawbar.
5. Don't wear loose, floppy clothing around power machinery.
6. Think first. After the accident it is too late.

This year a disabling injury probably will strike some farm person every 19 seconds. Don't let carelessness put your name on that list.

Fewer Veterans In College Make Room for Others

CHICAGO.—It's going to be much easier for non-vets to get into college.

Alonso F. Myers, president of the National Conference on Higher Education, said at a press conference here that colleges throughout the country report a dropping off in the number of vets applying for admission.

As a result, he said, there will be more room for other applicants in most colleges.

But despite the reduction in vet applicants, Myers emphasized, colleges still can accommodate only a fraction of those applying for admission. And from present indications, he said, the number of those seeking to enter college will expand in the coming years.

Myers, who is chairman of the department of higher education at New York university, said he was hopeful that colleges would offer a greater variety of courses.

"I can see nothing wrong," he declared, "in a college offering a course in auto fender and body reconditioning, as one college out west has done."

"This business of rationing education is crazy," he added. "There ought to be adequate provisions to give everyone who wants education that amount and that kind which his potentialities warrant."

College Men Reject Jobs As Models for Art Classes

WASHINGTON.—Despite its record enrollment, the University of Maryland has hung out a help wanted sign among the students at College Park.

Girls are clamoring for the jobs, but there are no vacancies for them.

All Joe College has to do to earn about 50 or 60 cents an hour is sit still. But there have been few takers. Art Director Maurice R. Seigler gave a clue to the shortage.

He wants the men to model for his art classes.

PRICES AND PRICE SUPPORT

Numerous statements implying that Government price supports for farm products are responsible for higher consumer prices has prompted Mr. Clarence Church, chairman of the Lynn County AAA committee to point out a few facts which seem to have been overlooked.

(1) Present laws assure farmers a price support for several of the major crops which is equal to 90% of "parity." "Parity" in everyday language means a fair price to farmers for the crops they sell in relation to the cost of things they buy. "90% of parity" is 10 percent below this fair price level and becomes to some extent a cost of production insurance.

(2) Many of the major farm products have no price support. Among these are cattle and sheep. Beef and lambs are selling in the open market at prices well above parity. Although support prices for hogs have been provided for, the support program has not been put into effect because prices to producers have been well above the support level.

(3) Prices for several farm products, potatoes in particular, are still among the "best buys" in the grocery store today despite the wide-spread between the support price and what the consumer pays. The support price for U. S. No. 1 potatoes in Texas is $2.35 per 100 pounds and the retail is around $6.00. For U. S. No. 2 potatoes the support price is $1.17 and the retail price is around $5.00.

Some overly enthusiastic and Un-American Americans gave Henry Wallace an unwelcome egg-shower recently when he visited North Carolina, and now he is back North demanding of both the Republican and Democratic parties that they compel the "Fascist South" to grant the freedom of the ballot to the Negro. This is a lot of prejudice against the South by reason of this unfortunate incident. It has been said that a man's worst enemies are those of his own household. Certainly the South's worst enemies are those radical Southerners who are so rash as to employ violence in resisting anybody and anything that might run counter to their ideas. Rash acts on the part of a few can bring the whole south into disrepute through out the rest of the country and the civilized world. Every act of mob violence in the South, whether it be the stringing up of a Negro rapist or the pelting of a politician with eggs, should be quickly and severely punished by the courts of the state in which the violence occurs. And the same goes for strike rioters who by violence prevent men from working when they want to work. That might do for you to chew on for awhile and digest. Mr. Wallace. Sauce for the goose should be sauce for the gander.

They are again staging a big cotton-picking contest at Blytheville, Arkansas, with prospects of having many entries and a big prize for the winner. They are also sending out a lot of publicity to be run in newspapers as far away as Tahoka. We have not run any of it for the reason that we have never been able to get much of a thrill out of such a contest since we were a kid on the farm. We had to engage in such contests then almost every day in the fall of the year on our father's farm and it got to where they were not very funny. In fact, if we remember correctly, he sometimes felt compelled to stimulate our interest a bit by the use of a handy cotton limb applied vigorously to the tough cuticle of our bare lower legs. All of you folks who wish to run over to Blytheville to enjoy the thrill of a cotton-picking contest, have our consent to go, but such contests "cunjur" up unpleasant memories for us and we are going to stay at home and watch the wife mow the lawn.

"POOR SERMONS ARE SINFUL"
It's wicked for preachers to deliver poor, hastily prepared sermons, one of America's most widely-known ministers observed in Dallas last week.

Such sermons, added Dr. Clovis G. Chappell of Charlotte, N. C., are nearly beyond the endurance of a congregation. He lists bad sermons as an almost unforgivable sin.

Dr. Chappell, the inspirational speaker at the annual Texas Pastor's School this week at Southern Methodist University, is considered well qualified to have his say on this subject.

Religious bookstores refer to Dr. Chappell as their "bread and butter." Books of sermons of which he is the author have sold 8,000,000 copies.

Preachers of many denominations call him "a good crutch." They echo ideas from his books by the thousands each Sunday. Dr. Chappell is either the No. 1 or No. 2 religious author of the land.

Several of the books written by E. Stanley Jones, the Methodist missionary, have had larger individual sales, but the total is less than Dr. Chappell's twenty-five volumes.

The wiry 66-year-old preacher hasn't read a scripture from the pulpit for the last thirty-five years of his forty in the ministry. He recites them from memory.

He rarely lets his eyes leave an audience. Dr. Chappell grabs out the sides or front of his lectern and his small, blue eyes search out various areas of his audience.

He is convinced that people don't pay much attention to any one who doesn't look at them when talking. He doesn't shout to or harangue an audience. The veteran minister says people don't go to church to hear a preacher engage in hair-splitting theological arguments.

"They come to hear about our Bible in every-day simple language."

No preacher, said Dr. Chappell, should be allowed to preach a discouraging sermon. "It isn't right," he asserted. "A discouraging sermon is a wicked sermon. Jesus is always on the throne."

Whenever he goes before a church audience, he said, he tries to preach like an attorney in a courtroom trial . . . to win a verdict.

"I want to win a verdict for Christ . . . A sermon must be interesting. You have to try to preach so that even a fool can't help but understand."

"Nor should a preacher talk on trivial subjects. It isn't advisable to try to preach on unique subjects. . . . A reputation won on preaching on unique subjects doesn't do any good."

"The preacher who preaches overtime didn't know where he was trying to go in the first place."

Dr. Chappell scoffs at notes. He claims a preacher who has to rely on notes doesn't really have much to say or he doesn't share the convictions he tries to expound from the pulpit.

Although only six years from the Methodist retirement age of 72, Dr. Chappell has not been sent by his bishop to a small town or country church where many preachers round out their last active years. His church at Charlotte has 3,000 members.

Dr. Chappell has held more large congregations in his lifetime than anyone in the Methodist ministry. —Stewart M. Does in The Dallas Morning News.

HAS NEW PACKARD AND NEW GRAND-DAUGHTER

Walter Anglin decided recently that he wanted a new car—yes, he and Fanny wanted a new car. They are at home almost alone now.

So, what did he do? Put in an order and wait? No. Go out and buy one at an enormous price? No. He went to Detroit, and Fanny went with him.

They bought a Packard—paid a reasonable price for it, and started leisurely for home. Took plenty of time to look at the farms, the crops, the trees, the streams, an' ever' thing.

Got down to Miami, Texas, where a daughter lives—Hazel—but she wasn't at home. They found her in a Pampa hospital, and there beside her was a sweet little daughter, born on just the morning before, Friday morning. They had already named the little lady, Frances Lynn Cowdrey. The Daddy's name is H. J. Cowdrey, and he and Mrs. Cowdrey, the former Hazel Anglin, also have a little son, three years old. So, everybody is happy, and Mrs. Anglin stayed to help entertain little Frances Lynn. Grandpa came on home to sit in his rocker on the porch and watch the rest of the world go by. Yes, and to keep the Public Service Company clicking properly.

By the way, Walter says they do have bumper corn crops up in Ohio and neighboring states—saw corn that folks said would make 150 bushels per acre.

Furthermore, he says the people up there are delightfully courteous, and he cited a few courtesies shown him to prove it. Furthermore, they know how to be courteous on the highways—thinks a lot of our people should take lessons from them.

Chesty? Of course he is. A new Packard and a new grand-daughter on almost the same day.

THE PHEBE K. WARNER CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING

The Phebe K. Warner Club met in the home of Mrs. Coy Fielder Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Paul Pittman and Mrs. Fielder as hostesses.

Mrs. Pittman gave a very interesting and brief talk on "Teacher and Student in the Classroom," closing with this statement: "Teaching should be a vocation, and should not be looked upon by teachers as just a means of making money."

Miss Wanda Faye Smith, accompanied by Mrs. Brookshire at the piano, gave two vocal numbers, "A Tree in the Meadow" and "When You Were Sweet Sixteen," which were greatly enjoyed by every one.

Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mesdames Maurice Bray, Bill Strange Sr., Skiles Thomas, Bill Wood, Joe Williams, Joe Bob Billman, Bert Stephens, and members: Mesdames Melvin Brookshire, Alton Cain, J. E. Carroll, H. W. Carter, I. M. Draper, S. R. Edwards, R. W. Fenton Sr., Fred Hegl, J. B. Hoskins, Emil Prohl, R. L. Richardson, Truett Smith, Neil Stanley, Charles Stewart, and G. M. Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oliver and baby Zackie Anne were here the first of the week visiting her mother, Mrs. Tom Anderson who was ill and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Oliver.

LUBBOCK PASTOR DIES FROM ACCIDENTAL INJURIES

Rev. Fred Lambert, 38, pastor of Eastside Baptist Church in Lubbock and well-known in Lynn county, died at 10:00 o'clock Monday night in Baylor Hospital, Dallas, from injuries he had sustained on Saturday night, September 4, when his car was struck by a railroad train at a street crossing in Lubbock.

Funeral services were conducted at Eastside Church Wednesday afternoon with Rev. Cecil Ray of Arnett-Benson Church officiating, and the body was taken to his former home in Shelby county for burial.

For a year or two Rev. Lambert was a pastor in the Brownfield Association and was accordingly well known to many Lynn county people. On Saturday afternoon, September 4, he had been in Tahoka conferring with Rev. C. T. Aly, who had agreed to conduct revival services soon in Rev. Lambert's church. Going back to Lubbock late in the afternoon, he failed to see a train that was approaching on the Santa Fe railway while about to cross the tracks until it was too late for him to avoid being struck. His car was demolished and he received injuries to the head that proved to be fatal.

WANDA KELLY WEDS RAY GRIFFIN

Natural vines, ferns, and garden flowers, with tall baskets of flowers with large pink bows, formed the background for a sunrise wedding September 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kelly of the Gordon community when Miss Wanda Kelly became the bride of Mr. Billy Ray Griffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Griffin of Trenton, Texas. Minister Lloyd Moyer of Slaton performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a suit of charcoal gaberdine with pink blouse and gloves and black accessories and carried a white Bible. Her corsage was pink carnations.

Miss Joan Griffin, sister of the groom and maid of honor, wore a dress of black with a corsage of pink carnations.

The three-tiered cake, covered with white and pink rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and groom, centered the refreshment table. Pink garden flowers and ferns circled the cake. Mrs. Billy George Kelly, sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Grady Woodward served the cake and poured coffee from a silver coffee service, assisted by Mrs. R. W. Barton.

NEW KIND OF FURNACE MOVES HEAT, KEEPS FLOORS WARM

The compact oil-burning floor furnace that is installed beneath the floor of the way has practically revolutionized house heating.

Last year total floor furnace production was nearly one-half million units—more than the total of all other types of warm air furnaces.

Floor furnaces heat by circulating warm air but do not require ducts, cold air returns or blowers. Cool air is pulled off the floor into the floor furnace. The air expands as it is heated. Expansion of the heated air forces warm air circulation throughout the house.

The Coleman Company, a leading manufacturer of heating equipment, reports recent improvements have greatly increased the popularity of floor furnaces. One is a streamlined bottom that increases air flow as much as 35 per cent. A dual wall model that fits beneath an inside wall and discharges heat into two separate rooms even though the connecting door is closed, has gained widespread approval.

The same company advocates use of two or more floor furnaces with individual controls to obtain the advantage of "zoned" heat. Cost of installing two floor furnaces often is less than the cost of a conventional central heating plant.

Floor furnaces are made in several sizes to heat single-story dwellings, with or without basements.

Many Students Entering Tech

Lubbock, Sept. 13. —Students of other colleges and universities numbering more than 1,200 are requesting transfer admittance to Texas Technological college for the coming school year, W. P. Clement, registrar, announced. The number far outdistances transfer requests of former years.

Approximately 1,250 high school graduates of this year also have applied for admission to Texas Tech, and indications are enrollment will top 7,000, Clement said.

Transfer students have sent transcripts from California, New Mexico, Idaho, Tennessee, Illinois, New Jersey, Mexico and many of Texas colleges. Over 40 percent of transfers will be juniors in college this year.

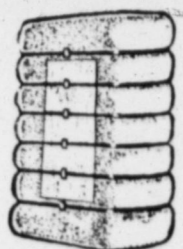

Pre-registration was begun the middle of August, and class enrollment will begin September 16. Classes are to start Monday, September 20. Freshmen counseling periods open Monday, September 13 through September 15.

VISIT MANY HISTORIC PLACES IN NEW MEXICO

Mrs. J. Irons, night supervisor of the Tahoka Clinic, and her son Harold have just returned from a pleasure trip out into the mountains of New Mexico. They spent some time in Santa Fe, where they visited the oldest cathedral in America, the famous narrow alley, the museum, Hyde Park, and numerous other places of interest.

Then they visited another son of Mrs. Irons in Albuquerque, New Mexico's largest town and one of the most interesting. She indeed found New Mexico to be the "land of enchantment."

DEAR JOHN

Tahoka, Texas
Sept 17, 1948

Dear John: Let US—mind you that poor brakes are the direct cause of a great percentage of traffic accidents. If you need to depress your brake pedal to within an inch of the floor, if you cannot stop your car within 30 feet at 20 miles per hour; let us inspect your brakes NOW.

We will not try to scare you into buying this safety precaution, but we promise you the best brake service in town.

Here is what we do: Inspect and adjust. Add proper hydraulic fluid if needed. Inspect for scored or out-of-round drums. Inspect, clean and repack front wheel bearings. Reline when needed, with MOPAR brake lining.

And regarding the STEERING of your car John, our men know exactly what to do, how to do it. Vital gears and bearings are properly lubricated. You'll notice the difference immediately, particularly in parking. If your lights are burned out or horn not working, this is both annoying and dangerous. As a rule these are minor adjustments, but highly important safety factors. Give us a trial next time your car needs attention.

Sincerely yours,

Protect Their Sight Too!

Better Light means Better Sight

Protection from traffic hazards is important, but just as important today is protection from eyestrain due to improper lighting.

Growing children need more care than older folks when it comes to making sure that the light is right. Their eyes, still developing, need every bit of care and attention they can receive.

Make sure, wherever children work or play, that the light is right. Low cost electricity makes it easy — and economical too — to provide GOOD lighting — always.

gelo, of which Rev. Aly was the former pastor. Rev. Aly and other Baptists of this area will see to it that she is adequately financed through this long period of preparation.

As a student in high school at San Quentin, Luzon, during the World War, Miss Bravo became involved with the desire to help her people physically and spiritually.

It happened that Rev. C. T. Aly, who was a chaplain in the U. S. Army, went with the American forces to San Quentin. He conducted chapel services in a church building there. Miss Bravo was one of the native girls who sang in the choir.

Naturally he became acquainted with her and soon she revealed to him her desire to become a Medical missionary. He kept the matter in mind throughout the remainder of the war and also kept in touch with Miss Bravo through correspondence. After coming to San Angelo as pastor of the Park Heights Church he took the matter up with that Church and it readily and gladly took steps to enable her to come to the States for study as soon as she completed her high school work. She completed that work some weeks ago, and now she is in Tahoka. Many obstacles had to be overcome, however, before she could make the journey.

Miss Bravo came by airplane from San Francisco to Lubbock. The Tahoka pastor and quite a number of Tahoka people met her at the South Plains airport Monday morning and brought her to Tahoka. She spoke to the W. M. U. here in the afternoon, and attended revival services at the Baptist Church that night and joined with Carroll Aly in singing a duet, to the delight of the congregation. She thus attended her first religious service in America right here in Tahoka.

U. S. ARMY & AIR FORCE NEWS

A large number of men eligible for the draft are volunteering here every day to take advantage of the many more opportunities available in the Army Air Force thru being a volunteer, it was announced today by M-Sgt. Carnes, local Recruiting Officer.

A three, four, five or six year enlistment entitles the volunteer to select the theater and the branch of service he desires to serve in. In the event, the applicant is a high school graduate, he is given the opportunity to apply for one of the many Army and Air Force Technical Schools. All of the aforementioned choices are only given to volunteers. Men who are drafted, will be used only to fill the ranks of the Army, with no choice whatsoever. It will be attempted to use draftees in skills to which they are accustomed however.

It was also stated by Sgt. Carnes, that many young men of draft age that he has spoken to personally, are under the impression that when they receive their notice to report for induction, they can go down to recruiting station and enlist. They are entirely in error on this he said. Once a man receives his notice to report, the recruiting service cannot enlist him, however prior to receiving his notice, the man is eligible to volunteer and take advantage of the many opportunities offered a volunteer. It was also stated that men eligible for draft may volunteer for 21 months period of service.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank each and every one for the many consoling words spoken, for every kind deed that was done, the nice flowers that were sent, and the prayers that were offered for me during my recent illness. Especially do I thank my Sunday School class for their nice gift. I also wish to thank Dr. Zee and his nurses at the Lamesa hospital. May God bless you all. —Mrs. J. L. There is Still ONE Bargain...

In your household budget

Natural gas service costs you no more today than it did before Pearl Harbor.

Contrast that with costs of most other things, which have edged steadily ever higher and higher.

Natural gas service... always one of the most modest and worthwhile items in your household budget, is now a greater bargain than ever.

Due to its efficiency and low cost, natural gas is in tremendous demand, not only in West Texas, but throughout the nation.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

Pending the call of a regular minister, announcement is made that Minister Forest Moyer of Childress will fill the pulpit at the Church of Christ here next Sunday at both the morning and evening services. He is reputed to be an able young minister. He is a brother of Minister Lloyd Moyer of Slaton, who is well known here.

The pulpit was filled at both hours on last Sunday and the preceding Sunday by Noble Patterson, a ministerial student in Abilene Christian College. Many words of commendation of the young minister have been heard here.

Luther Norman, who has been Minister of the Church of Christ here for several months, accepted work recently for the Sunny Glen Orphans Home, which is maintained by the Church of Christ and is situated at San Juan in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. He and Mrs. Norman are still residing in the Church of Christ parsonage here, however.

MRS. HENRY MAASEN AND JOYCELYN VISIT HERE

Mrs. Henry Maasen of Seymour and her daughter, Miss Joycelyn, who is a senior student in the Texas Tech, were here Monday visiting relatives and friends.

Miss Joycelyn is expecting to be awarded her degree at the Tech in January. Her school career was broken into by the War. As Tahoka people well know, she felt the call of her country during that conflict and joined the U. S. Marines. After spending two years in Washington, she was released in June, 1947, and later re-entered the Tech.

Mr. and Mrs. Maasen founded and operated for some twenty years the Maasen Produce house here, selling out to Dale Thuren several months ago and moving to Seymour. While they live in Seymour, they operate a fishing camp out at Lake Kemp ten miles north of town, renting cabins and boats to fishing parties. Mrs. Maasen says that the fishing is getting good now.

THREE TAHOKA MINISTERIAL STUDENTS ENTER WAYLAND

Robert Warren of Tahoka and Kenneth Kenney who recently came to Tahoka from Hobbs, New Mexico, went to Plainview Monday to enter Wayland College as ministerial students.

Young Warren was licensed to preach by the First Baptist Church here several weeks ago and Kenneth was licensed more recently. He is a younger brother of Charles Kenney, who recently married Miss Faye Nordyke and is a ministerial student in Baylor University.

Randall Hinkle, another former Tahoka boy and a Bulldog football star while in high school here, has also entered Wayland for his second year as a ministerial student, the News is informed.

Shelden Russell, associate pastor and music director of the First Baptist Church here, will also re-enter Wayland next Monday, although he will continue to serve the Church here. Mrs. Russell, who has also been a student in Wayland, re-entered that institution on Monday. The Russells will maintain their residence here, however, in an apartment in one of the Pennington residences near the Church.

WELLS H. D. CLUB

The Wells H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. L. J. Barrett September 7.

Roll call was answered with suggestions for draping windows.

Miss Hard discussed windows, illustrating her talk with samples of materials and with pictures of windows in bedrooms.

Club members present were Mesdames R. G. Grogan, T. B. Barton, L. J. Barrett, and Misses Myrtle and Ina Ledbetter. Mrs. Grace Webb was enrolled as a new member. Club members and their families were invited to a lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Bolch Friday night, September 3.

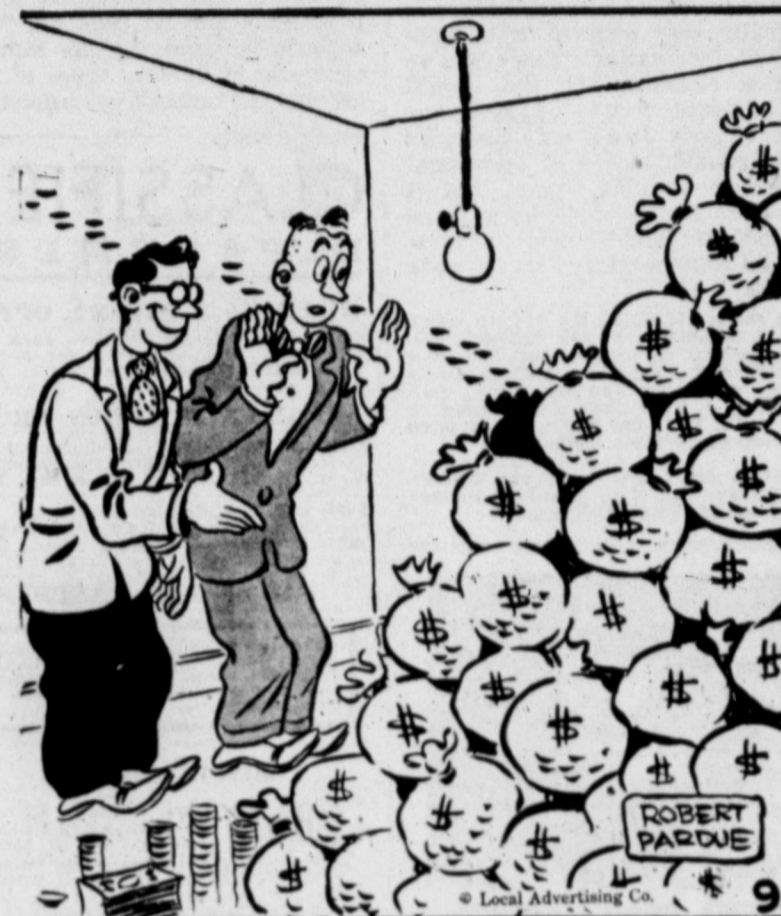

All present enjoyed ice cream, cake and cool-aid. —Reporter.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When jelly or jam scorches, put into a clean kettle, add a cut-up raw potato and continue cooking. The potato will absorb the burned taste.

A paste of fuller's earth and water spread on marble and allowed to stand for a few days will remove many stains. Wash off and polish as usual.

Use leftover duck in a rice or macaroni salad with celery and sweet pickle relish; serve on lots of shredded salad greens.

If you are putting slipcovers on your furniture, clean the upholstery well first. Otherwise, they may hide and shelter moth larvae. And the moths may do a great deal of damage before you discover them.

Try using a gravy boat to fill jars and tumblers when canning jelly and preserves.

Combine maple sirup and marshmallow cream, using half a cup of the sirup to one-quarter cup of the cream, for an ice cream topping.

When packing cake in waxed paper, sprinkle the paper with powdered sugar first. This helps the frosting to stick to the cake and not to the paper.

When rags are too worn for household use, wash and store in a paper bag in the garage for the men to wipe their hands on when tinkering with the car.

Keep a stiff brush near the laundry tubs. Before putting garments into the wash, turn any pockets inside out and brush thoroughly. The brush will be handy also for brushing soapuds on soiled places, such as neckbands, collars and cuffs.

Varying Basic Recipes Assures Interesting Meals
(See recipes below)

Basic Recipes

"IS THERE any simple way to learn how to be a good cook?" asks a young woman now starting out to keep house. Older homemakers have asked me the same question just as often, so the problem seems to be a common one.

The answer is simply yes. The method is to learn certain basic food preparations, then to vary these, and you certainly will have a good storehouse from which to select for meals of all kinds—for family and for guests.

The idea is to learn the basic recipe so well that it becomes as much a part of you as any simple habit. You'll memorize the ingredients if you repeat the recipe often enough, and the method is even easier to learn. Then it's no trick at all to make an infinite variety of variations of the basic recipe.

Once you have learned a recipe in this way, you'll always remember it, no matter how rushed you are or in whose kitchen you are making it. You will have arrived at perfection once you polish the technique of making it, and that is true satisfaction.

Perhaps you've heard that Mrs. Jones is the muffin maker of the community, especially because of her orange muffins. You can become famous for any one of several of your recipes just by learning to follow basic recipes, and trying out their variations.

HERE ARE SEVERAL good basic recipes with their appropriate variations which can form a good backbone to your collection:

Plain Muffins
(Makes about 14)
2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 egg, well beaten
1 cup milk
4 tablespoons melted shortening or salad oil

Sift together dry ingredients. Combine all remaining ingredients. Add all at once to flour mixture, stirring, not beating, quickly and vigorously until just mixed but still lumpy in appearance so that muffins will have good texture. Fill greased or oiled muffin pans, one-half full, and bake in a hot (425-degree) oven about 25 minutes.

WHOLE WHEAT MUFFINS: Use above recipe, reducing flour to one-quarter cup, adding one cup unsifted whole wheat flour. Increase sugar to four tablespoons and use four teaspoons baking powder. Bake in a moderate (375-degree) oven for 35 minutes.

NUT MUFFINS: Use plain muffin recipe, adding one cup finely chopped nuts to other ingredients.

ORANGE MUFFINS: Use plain muffins, increasing sugar to four tablespoons, reducing milk to three-quarter cup, and adding one-quarter cup orange juice and one-quarter cup grated orange rind.

CHEESE MUFFINS: Add one cup grated American cheese, lightly packed, to dry ingredients.

BLUEBERRY MUFFINS: Mix three-quarter cup of fresh blue-

A SIMPLE DISH like macaroni and cheese has several good variations that you can use frequently. Here, again, when you learn how to make the dish to perfection, you can be certain to enjoy the food no matter what variation you use.

Macaroni and Cheese
(Serves 6)

1 8-ounce package macaroni
3 tablespoons butter
1/4 cup flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 cups milk
1 1/2 cups grated American cheese

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Melt butter in top of double boiler, blend in flour and seasonings, then add milk and cook until thick. Add grated cheese and stir until melted. Combine sauce and macaroni and turn into a greased casserole. Bake in a moderately hot (400-degree) oven until golden brown, about 20 minutes.

HAM AND MACARONI: Take one-third package macaroni, place in casserole, top with thin slices of leftover ham, sprinkle with a little dry mustard, dot with butter and pour some of sauce on top of that. Repeat with layer of cheese, ham and sauce twice. Bake as above.

MACARONI WITH MEAT: Use basic recipe, with one cup slivered tongue, chicken or corned beef in layers.

"BAKED TOMATO MACARONI: Arrange three skinned, thinly sliced tomatoes in layers with macaroni and cheese sauce in casserole.

MACARONI WITH CHIPPED BEEF: Shred one-quarter pound of dried beef and cover with hot water; let stand 10 minutes. Arrange beef on macaroni layers. Use cheese sauce on top.

Scrambled Eggs
(Serves 4)
2 tablespoons fat
6 eggs
1/2 teaspoon salt
Pepper
1/2 cup rich milk or cream

Melt butter in skillet; beat eggs and add remaining ingredients. Cook slowly, stirring gently until mixture sets. Serve with ham, sausages or bacon.

WITH CHEESE: Make scrambled eggs, adding one-half cup of grated cheese with two teaspoons minced onion before cooking.

WITH MEAT: Use recipe for scrambled eggs, adding one-half cup of diced ham or tongue, shredded dried beef or chicken before cooking.

Bake popovers while you heat some creamed chipped beef on top of the stove. Split the popovers and serve with the creamed beef.

Sliced leftover roast heated in gravy extended with tomato sauce is excellent when placed over piping-hot noodles.

Lamb stew takes on a different character when you add two cups of canned tomatoes in place of the water. A clove of garlic, placed on a toothpick so that it's easy to remove when cooking is finished, adds a touch of delicious flavor.

Korea's Isle of Amazons Lives on Ocean Harvest

As shallow-sea divers for pearls, shellfish, edible seaweed, and various items of commerce, women of Oriental coasts for centuries have outdone the men.

Those of Cheju, 50 miles off Korea's southern tip, have been notably adept. An estimated 10,000 today live by harvesting ocean aces, while their men in some cases tend the children and prepare the meals, notes the National Geographic society.

From this feminine monopoly has grown the tradition of Cheju as an Amazon isle. It took positive form in the West about 1900 when a traveler brought back the tale that the island until 1850 had been populated solely by women and young children in storied Amazon style.

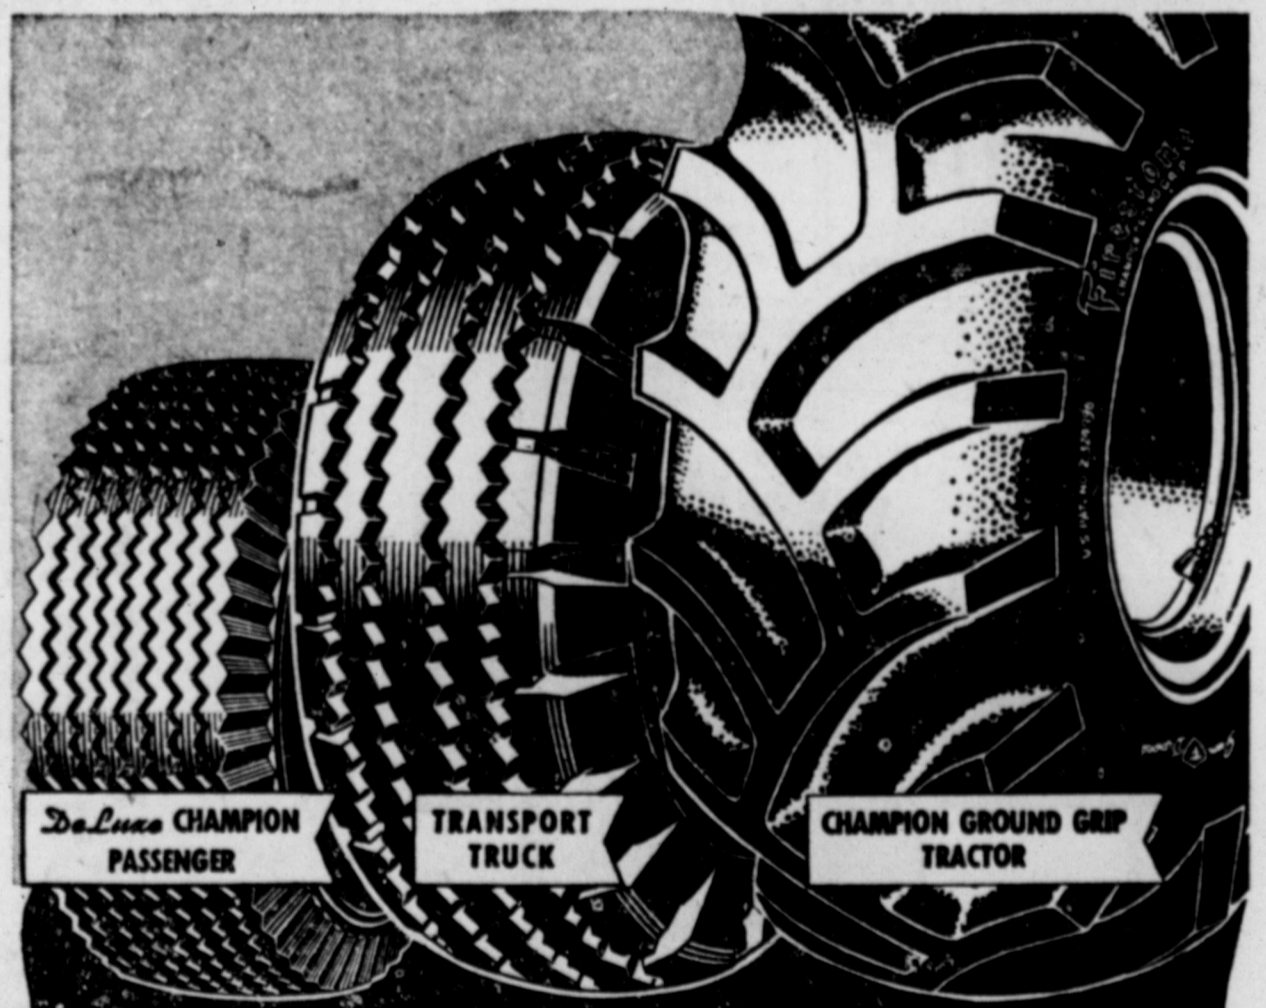

In the 1946 census, Cheju counted 276,148 inhabitants, virtually all on the coasts of the 45-by-20-mile oval of land. There were 113 women to each 100 men on Cheju in 1946, whereas on the Korea mainland men outnumbered women.

Cheju port on the north coast is the island's capital and chief center, counting 30,000 inhabitants. They live largely in crude, thatched-roof huts of mud and stone. Ancient walls to defend against pirate attack still stand along the shore.

Life of Samuel Colt

After being expelled from Amherst, Samuel Colt was sent to sea. The ship's paddle wheel gave him an idea for the revolving pistol cylinder. At the age of 14 he whittled out a model and it worked. Later, he quit his father's dye plant to seek his fortune as "Dr. Colt". In 1832 he sent his plan of a gun to the U. S. patent office, and was awarded a patent in 1836. After the original company failed, Colt invented the submarine "mine", while still in his twenties. He died wealthy at the age of 48.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PRICE DANIEL PROPOSES NEW TEXAS ELECTION LAWS

The Texas election laws need restudy and overhauling from stem to stern. Attorney General Price Daniel said in Austin today after concluding that the present statutes give him no authority to make investigations or prosecutions of alleged election irregularities.

During the past ten days Daniel and his assistants have been digging into laws and court decisions to see if the State's chief legal officer has the power to investigate charges and counter-charges made by friends of both Senatorial candidates Lyndon Johnson and Coke Stevenson after the August 28 runoff primary.

"Our conclusion is that the Legislature has vested exclusive authority in the county and district attorneys to investigate and prosecute alleged election law frauds the same as other criminal offenses. The present laws leave the Attorney General without authority to act," Daniel said.

"This has been the consistent conclusion of previous attorneys general," Daniel added, "but on account of the serious state-wide importance of the recent complaints from both sides we made a complete restudy of the question to be sure that we were doing everything in our power to help the people of Texas know if the various charges and suspicions are true or false and to prosecute any who may be guilty."

"In my opinion, future legislation should leave such prosecution for offenses committed in a single county or district as a primary duty of the local county or district attorney, but should add a provision that the Attorney General shall step in if the local officials fail or refuse to do their duty. For offenses alleged on a state-wide scale, it seems to me the Attorney General should be given authority to investigate and prosecute," the Attorney General said.

"But this is only one of the many changes which have been needed for a long time in our Texas election laws," Daniel said. "The majority of the present laws were great improvements over their predecessors when enacted in 1905-1919, but they now need restudy and over-hauling from stem to stern."

The Attorney General says he believes two of the most needed changes are to rewrite and put some teeth into the campaign expenditures law, and to withhold announcement of election returns by precincts and counties until all the votes have been officially counted, duly sworn to and filed with the proper local officials.

Daniel's last proposal would eliminate all unofficial returns and reports. Election officials would be required to count, swear to, seal their returns and deliver their boxes to the county clerk within 48 hours (by Monday night after a Saturday election) and not divulge the count on any race until after the official returns are opened and canvassed in public the following morning.

Under this plan no one would know how any candidate stood until after the returns from every box had been certified and delivered. It would be too late then for a precinct to "find" or be suspected of "finding" additional votes needed by any candidate.

This proposal infers no particular suspicion against either candidate nor any particular occurrence growing out of the recent contest. It is to prevent what both candidates suspected and charged as unfair and unlawful. Both Senate candidates at various times alleged unlawful vote "finding" and being "counted out" after the unofficial returns came in. There is no way now to distinguish readily between honest corrections and dishonest changes, if any, Daniel said. "The unwarranted suspicion and doubts cannot easily be separated from the justified complaints. In my opinion the only way to restore faith and respect to this particular phase of our election procedure is to eliminate completely the announcement of returns until all have been officially filed and publicly opened in each county."
