Lynn County 1950 Wheat Acreage Is Announced

A 1950 allotment of 8,734 acres for Lynn County was announced today by the county Agricultural Conservation committee.

This represents Lynn county's proportionate share of the national wheat acreage allotment of 63.9 million acres for the crop that will be harvested next year, Clarence Church chairman explains. The national allotment is the acreage that at normal yields will produce an amount of wheat which together with the expected carry over next July 1 will supply contemplated domestic and export requirements and export requirements and provide a safe reserve.

"Individual farm allotments, based on acreage and production data collected over the past several months, have been established," Church stated, "and notices to growers have been mailed from the county office."

Acreage allotments are not an enforced limitation on production, but provide a limitation on Government expenditures for price support beyond the national interest, Church explains. Only those farmers who seed within their farm allotments will be entitled to price supporting commodity loans or purchase agreements on their 1950 crop.

"Although adverse conditions during the growing season have resulted in a smaller 1949 wheat crop than expected earlier, this year's harvest will still be the third largest of record and the sixth consecutive wheat crop in excess of one billion bushels," Church points out. "The average yearly domestic consumption of wheat is only 700 million bushels, and only abnormally high exports supported by the E. C. A. allotments and army purchases for occupied countries has prevented the accumulation of price-depressing supplies."

Church emphasizes that if wheat growers comply with acreage allotments, thus adjusting production to expected requirements, it may be unnecessary to use marketing quotas for future crops.

Former Tahoka Resident Dies

Rev. D. D. Johnson, 74, a resident of Abilene, but formerly a well-known resident of Tahoka and father of Mrs. C. N. Woods of this city, died at 9:45 last Saturday morning in the Hendrick's Memorial Hospital, Abilene, following a period of prolonged illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Woods, who had visited her father often, hastened to Abilene when it became evident that the end was approaching.

Funeral services were conducted at 3:00 p. m. Sunday at the University Baptist Church. Officiating were Rev. W. A. Strickland, Rev. Henry Weldon, and Rev. W. C. Taggart. Burial followed in Elmwood Memorial Park, Abilene.

Survivors include the widow; two sons, Bruce and Alvis Johnson of Marillo; four daughters, Mrs. Joe Roberts of Abilene, Mrs. Guy Berry of Texhomo, Oklahoma, Mrs. C. N. Woods of Tahoka, and Miss Lela Belle Johnson of Abilene; two brothers, J. B. Johnson of Houston and George Johnson of Gladewater; twelve grand-children and four great grand-children.

D. D. Johnson was born in Alabama on February 12, 1875. At the age of one year, he was brought to Texas by his parents along with other members of the family, and they settled at Groesbeck, in Freestone county, and he grew to manhood in that area. He was married to Miss Nealie Dean of Groesbeck in 1895. Studying for the Ministry, he graduated at Simmons College in 1916. He and his family had moved to Jones county in 1905, and he served as missionary for the Jones County Association for a number of years. Later, he served as missionary of the Brownfield Association for several years, living in Tahoka part of the time, in a house on Main Street which he had purchased from Otho Thomas.

Prizes Offered For First Bale Cotton

A loving cup or plaque will be presented the Lynn county farmer ginning the first bale of cotton this year by the Seven Step Cotton Committee, headed by Bill Griffin, county agent.

The award is an added recognition to other premiums given for the first bale annual, including in Tahoka the ginning, $50.00 cash from the Chamber of Commerce, and a cash award from the First National Bank.

Showers Benefit County's Crops

Parts of the county which had received little or no rain for several weeks were covered with bountiful showers Wednesday morning, and the prospects Thursday seemed good for more rain.

Possibly the Draw, Redwine, and Midway communities had suffered more severely than any other portion of the county, but on Wednesday morning practically all of that territory was covered by a rain that measured one half to more than an inch of water. Much of the feed was saved and cotton was greatly helped.

On Thursday night of last week, a heavy rain visited a large area of comparatively dry territory in the eastern and northeastern portion of the county. In the Gordon community, a destructive hail storm greatly damaged possibly 2,000 acres of cotton but for the area as a whole the benefits of the rain will doubtless outweigh by far the damage done by hail.

At the present time, cotton prospects in Lynn county indicate a bumper crop, and there will be much fine feed also.

Officers Make Liquor Raids

Members of the Sheriff's force made a raid on some questionable places in O'Donnell last Saturday night and brought to the county capital a Negro man and a Negro woman, each of whom was charged with the unlawful possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale. Two offenses were unrelated one to the other. The defendants were each placed under a $500.00 bond, and the cases are set for trial on August 10.

As the result of the raid, one white man and one Negro woman were each charged with drunkenness pleaded guilty in the justice court in O'Donnell, and paid their fines.

A New Home man pleaded guilty on Monday to driving a car while intoxicated and was fined $50.00. One Tahoka man also pleaded guilty to drunken driving and another entered his plea in the justice court to the charge of drunkenness in a public place.

Another New Home man has been charged with three separate offenses: sale of beer, possession of beer for the purpose of sale, and operating a gambling house.

Mrs. Coy Fielder Is Home Again

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Fielder returned last Sunday from a Fort Worth hospital in which she had been under treatment for several weeks for an illness that almost proved fatal. She came home much improved and is still improving now at her home here.

Coy and many others firmly believe that her recovery is due to a miracle. Coy says that two of the most able and eminent specialists in Texas had given up hope and had told him that they had done all that they could do. Apparently death was right at the door, and yet she began to improve before morning and has continued to improve since. She is now able to be up part of the time and he is back at his window in the first National Bank.

To the News editor, he expressed his deepest gratitude to their friends in Tahoka for their concern and their prayers through all the dark hours.

Midway - Tahoka Consolidation Vote Unanimous

At an election held last Saturday proposing the consolidation of the Midway common school district and the Tahoka Independent Consolidated district, the proposal was approved by a unanimous vote in each district. That must have come very near to setting a precedent in Texas.

In the Tahoka Independent school district, 52 votes were cast, all in favor of consolidation.

In the Midway common school district, 33 votes were cast, all in favor of consolidation.

As the result of this election, about 60 scholastics will be added to the Tahoka school's enrollment, which will place the number around 1,200.

Approval of the consolidation of the Midway independent school district with the Tahoka Consolidated School district makes necessary another election, which has been called for August 20. In this election (Con'd. On Back Page)

Date Set For County Fair

This year's Lynn County Fair dates have been set for October 21 and 22.

An effort will be made to secure a women's exhibit building and have it ready for the fall festival this year.

These decisions were reached at a meeting of the Fair board of directors held here last Saturday. Other plans for the annual event will be announced within the next few weeks.

Band Instructor Will Come Here

Tahoka Public Schools will once again have a band, if plans of local school authorities materialize.

Superintendent Vernon Brewer announces that a band instructor has been employed who expects to be on the job at the opening of the school term about September 6.

Wm. E. (Bill) Tregge, spring graduate of West Texas State college, is the new director. He is a native of Maryland, and attended the college on a music scholarship. In college, he played first trumpet in the band and in the orchestra and sang in the chorus.

Since band work has not been offered here in several years, several months will be required before a band can be trained for public playing.

Mr. Brewer suggests that students contemplating taking band this next school year wait until they consult Mr. Tregge before buying instruments. The school owns a number of instruments, as well as uniforms. Most students will have to buy their own instruments but need the instructor to advise them on the type for which they are best suited.

Baseball Team Drops Two Games

Tahoka lost a double-header ball game at Post Sunday afternoon by 13-1 and 7-2 scores.

Thursday night, the team was scheduled to play in Slaton, and Sunday afternoon it will play a double-header at Brownfield.

Ray Pierce did a pretty fair job of pitching for Tahoka in the first game, but Tahoka was off on its fielding. Curley Barnett of TCU was the Post hurler.

The second game was a much more interesting game, with Robert Harvick pitching for Tahoka, and Bill Holcomb, former Tahoka pitcher on the mound for Post. Each gave up only seven hits.

Mrs. Tunnell Is Rotary Speaker

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, county school superintendent, spoke at the Rotary Club Thursday at noon on the new Gilmer-Akin school laws and their possible effect on the school of Lynn county. She pointed out both advantages and disadvantages, in her opinion, to the laws.

L. C. Haney was program chairman for the day.

President Prohl read an interesting letter from a Rotarian in Amsterdam explaining the need for warm clothing by people of Europe.

Gagnats Furnish School New Stoves

The Home Economics department of the Tahoka High School, soon will have two new Magic Chef gas ranges which will be installed before the opening of school, according to Alton Cain of D. W. Gagnat Hardware.

The old ranges, which actually are only two years old, will be replaced by the Gagnat firm in accordance with an agreement whereby new ranges are furnished every two years at no expense to the school district.

The Magic Chef ranges which are being replaced will be offered for sale at very low prices, and anyone interested in buying one of them should contact Alton Cain at the D. W. Gagnat store.

Work Is Started Wilson - Slaton On New Highway

Work was begun last Friday on the Slaton end of the Tahoka-Wilson-Slaton highway for which the contract was let to Bryan & Hoffman of Plainview by the State Highway commission on June 21, according to the information given to the News by County Judge Tom Garrard this week.

The project embraces about 15 miles of highway construction, beginning at the Lubbock county line just on this side of Slaton, following the Santa Fe Railway on the west side down through Wilson and on to the Parker place about four miles north of Tahoka, where it begins to veer to the west away from the railway through the Parker farm by the City wells and thence through the Lockwood place to a junction with the Lubbock-Tahoka highway a little less than two miles north of the Lynn county courthouse, Tahoka.

For many years there has been a fairly good dirt road north of Wilson to Slaton, also from Wilson south a little more than three miles. A passable road has been maintained from that point on down the railroad to the Parker place, at which point the old road adjacent to the railway right-of-way was almost completely abandoned for about two miles years ago on account of the deep sand bed covering that stretch. An entirely new road is to be built across the Parker and Lockwood farms to the Lubbock highway in the vicinity of the Gagnat irrigation wells.

When completed, this highway will be one of which Tahoka, Wilson and Slaton may justly be proud. In the first place, the right-of-way will be 120 feet wide. Lifted up out of the sand but passing close to the Sand Hill, which used to be a popular play resort, and thence on near Tahoka Lake, the largest lake in Lynn county and (Con'd. On Back Page)

Baptists Conduct Tent Revival Here

Baptists are conducting revival services this week under a tent which they have erected on a lot purchased by them some time ago facing South Sweet Street (O'Donnell highway) where they expect sooner or later to establish a mission.

Good-sized crowds have been attending both the morning and the evening services when weather conditions permitted. Rev. C. T. Aly, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is doing the preaching and Associate pastor Sheldon Russell is leading the song services. Carroll T. Aly, Mrs. W. P. Hutchison, and Mrs. Clay Bennett have been serving as pianists.

Measured by almost anybody's yard stick, both the preaching and the song services are very fine. If results of the meeting seem to justify it and if the people of South Tahoka in particular indicate that they favor the establishment of a permanent place of worship in South Tahoka, both the pastor and the deacons and many others are resolved to proceed at an early date with the construction of a house of worship on that site—a neat and attractive building in which Sunday School and preaching services could be maintained regularly.

Whatever may or may not result from this meeting, it is believed that at all events it will be distinctly helpful to the religious and spiritual life of the town.

The revival was sponsored originally by the Brotherhood, but the women are largely responsible for the good that has been done.

Services begin each morning at 9:00 o'clock and each evening at 8:00. Prayer meetings are being held each evening 30 minutes preceding the preaching services in various residences in the vicinity of the tent. The last meeting under the tent will be held Saturday night.

All the services will be in the Church Sunday.

Whose Gully?

That gully cutting across a field of good cropland also cuts across the supply line to your grocery store. The food that could have been produced from the top-soil that was washed away in forming that gully will never reach grocery shelves. In this pointed manner, Clarence Church chairman of the Lynn county Agricultural Conservation committee, calls attention to the responsibility of everyone—not just the farmers alone—in protecting soil resources.

As the chairman explains: "The gully is not just a loss to the farmer who happens to be owning the land. It is a loss to all who depend on the land for their food and clothing. And the loss extends to those who will be depending on the land in the future."

"In most cases a gully is but the more dramatic evidence of erosion. Less spectacular but more serious is the slow, steady loss of top-soil in the area that feeds into the gully. The gully is the open door through which tons and tons of soil are being carried away."

Through the Agricultural Conservation Program, the chairman explains, all the people of the county are cooperating with the farmers in carrying out practices to prevent gullies and to build up the humus in the soil so that it won't be washed or blown away with every rain. The program is a cooperative effort to build up and maintain the soil to assure continued production.

Approaching Marriage Announced At Tea

The approaching marriage of Miss Mary Beth Fenton to Kenneth Turner was announced at a tea given by Mrs. R. W. Fenton, Jr. in her home Friday afternoon, July 29.

Guests called from four to six and were greeted at the door by Mrs. J. K. Applewhite before entering a receiving line composed of Mrs. Fenton, Miss Fenton, Mrs. L. S. Turner, Mrs. O. C. Elliott, sister of the bride-elect, and Miss Jane Ann Turner, sister of the prospective bridegroom.

The table was decorated with a centerpiece, consisting of silver wedding bands and white tapers adorned with white shasta daisies nosegays. Yellow and white shasta daisies surrounded the punch bowl. Miss Louie Bennett of Big Spring and Miss Betty Gray of Roswell, New Mexico presided at the table. Mrs. Jake Jacobs was at the guest book. Miss Mary Louise Fenton and Miss Francis Marion Haney furnished the music throughout the tea. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Jack Fenton, Mrs. Mary L. Fenton, and Mrs. Carl Griffing. Guests attended from Lubbock, Post, Grassland, and Tahoka.

GRASSROOTS

(By Bill Griffin, County Agent
JOHNSON GRASS ERADICATION)

August 15-21 has been set aside by the Lynn County Johnson Grass Control committee as Johnson Grass Eradication week.

The committee is making a plea for every farmer that has Johnson grass to apply some method of Johnson-grass control during August.

For spraying atlatide or sodium chlorate is recommended. Mix 1 1/4 pounds of atlatide to one gallon of water cover the plant thoroughly. It is not necessary to saturate the soil around the plant. Best results are obtained when the grass is in the boot or bloom stage.

He is a graduate of the Tahoka high school, the University of Texas and a graduate of the Southwestern Medical college of Dallas. He served his internship in Dallas at the Baylor Hospital.

Dr. Lehman further stated that the O'Donnell Clinic will be an independent clinic having no connections with any doctors in O'Donnell, but will be working with Dr. Urban Zee of the Frazier-Zee Hospital of Lamesa, and Dr. Prohl of the Tahoka Hospital and Dr. Seale of the Seale Clinic, Tahoka.

The Clinic will be located in the LaGrone Building that has been leased by Dr. Lehman.

He and his wife will live in O'Donnell and they expect to be one of its citizens with an interest in aiding and improving the community.

AGED COUPLE WILL OBSERVE SIXTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Come next Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Campbell of this city plan to observe their sixtieth wedding anniversary.

All of their five living children and their families and many other relatives hope to meet with them in the Mackenzie State Park in Lubbock on that day and enjoy a picnic dinner and a few hours of pleasant converse with the aged couple.

Mr. Campbell and Miss Lee Belle Abrams linked their lives together in a marriage ceremony read in a farm home seven miles north of Terrell, Kaufman county, August 5, 1889. Both were natives of Kaufman county. They reared a family of six children, five of whom are still living, three sons and two daughters.

The couple moved to Lynn county in January, 1922, living on their farm a few miles east of Tahoka until just a few years ago, when they moved into town.

They are having the celebration dinner in the Mackenzie State Park for the convenience of relatives who live at Floydada and other places in this section of the state. Tahoka people who may be in the Park next Sunday afternoon will make the Campbells happy by calling and expressing their congratulations.

WHY "GET UP" AT NIGHTS?

It's not necessary. Use the ph. of the fluid in your bladder with CITROS. Reduces the urge of irregular elimination. Get rid of backache, burning, bearing-down pains. CITROS will do the job safely, relieves back pains quickly, soreness in the back vanishes. $1.00 at your drug-gist. For sale by

BLACK CATS WIN OVER BOMBER BEES

John L. Martin, colored, manager of the Tahoka Black Cats, who has been quiet for several weeks, comes up again this week with a story that his team has been winning a lot of games. Out of sixteen games played this season, he boasts that the Black Cats have last only five.

Cerebral Palsy Clinic Date Set For August 15

The Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center will hold a clinic for the examination of cerebral palsied children on Monday, August 15. Dr. Charles B. Sadler, Amarillo and Dr. E. T. Driscoll, Plainview will examine patients.

The Treatment Center, which was opened August 23, 1948 is sponsored by the Lubbock Crippled Children's Society and the Lubbock Rotary Club. To date 188 cases have registered at the Center for care. Children and parents report to the Center once or twice each week for care where the child and parents are taught an exercise program to carry out at home.

At present the Center is housed in a building at 1317 Tenth Street and plans are under way for the construction of a new Center. Over $45,000 in money and $5,000 in equipment have been donated. An additional $5,000 is needed to assure the full cost of the building. The new building, construction of which will be started within a few weeks, will provide facilities for a speech therapist, an occupational therapist, a physical therapist, two treatment rooms, a waiting room, a functional training room, storage space, etc.

Cerebral palsy is a condition which may be present from birth or may be caused by childhood diseases as whooping cough or measles, or by head injuries. Under treatment many of these children improve to the extent that they can care for themselves, attend school and become employable. There is no known cure for cerebral palsy at this time and the aim of treatment is to obtain the maximum improvement possible and to teach the child to live with his handicap. Treatment begun at an early age is most effective.

Parents interested in bringing children to the clinic on August 15 are requested to register the child at the Center at some time before the clinic date. Further information may be obtained by contacting Dr. Esther Snell, Director of the Treatment Center, 1317 Tenth Street or by calling Lubbock 6541.

During his life as a minister, he also served several churches as pastor, both in the Jones county association and in the Brownfield association.

Selling his home here some twelve or more years ago, he moved to Abilene and engaged in business there. Later, he again became active in the ministry, the last church which he served as pastor being North Grape Church, Abilene, from which he resigned in March of this year because of ill health.

Having resided in West Texas for forty-four years, most of which time was spent as a minister, he was well known and much beloved throughout this area.

ROY NETTLES ALL SMILES AS FOURTH GRANDCHILD BORN

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nettles of Lakeview became grandparents last Saturday morning for the third time in four months.

A little girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Nettles of New Home Saturday at 3 a. m., weighing 7 pounds, 6 ounces, in Tahoka Clinic.

A son, Danny Ray, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Nettles of Petty on April 24.

A daughter, Sherry, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burkhalter of Lubbock on April 29.

Roy had his chest thrown away out Saturday, not only because of the new arrival (or arrivals) but also because he had just decisively defeated H. O. Hargett, who had only two grandchildren born in a similar period of time. He thinks H. O. will have to withdraw from the competition.

Gene Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waymon Smith of New Home who lives in Milwaukee, Wis., is reported ill in a hospital with the polio. In a telephone conversation last week end with doctors at the hospital, Mr. and Mrs. Smith learned that his case was a mild one and that he should recover satisfactorily and without permanent injury unless there was some unforeseen complication.

Mrs. Olive Holt of Lovington, New Mexico, was visiting here this week. She lived here for many years.

tion, voters of the district must vote on two items, the setting of the tax rate at $1.50 and the assumption of the bonds.

The Tahoka district now has a $1.50 rate, though it is using only $1.25 of this while the old Midway district had a $1.00 rate. Also voters of the entire new district must take the responsibility, by vote, of assuming the bonds of the two districts consolidating.

The consolidation adds 24 sections of land to the consolidated district. With this addition the district now comprises approximately 333 sections and 535 acres. Expressed in acres, the amount is 213,655 acres, according to Judge C. H. Cain, who was legal adviser for the school board and drew all the necessary papers incident to the election.

The former West Point district, incorporated into the Tahoka consolidated district a few months ago, lapped over into Terry county, and the present consolidated district embraces therefore this lap-over territory, amounting to 11 sections and 17 acres of land. In Lynn county is the major portion of the district, however, 322 sections and 518 acres. This is a little more than one-third of the area of the entire county.

Embraced in this district is most of what is left of the T-Bar Ranch. Much of this ranch is yet pasture lands, most of which is good agricultural lands however, and in the course of time will most surely be converted into farms.

There is every prospect that there will be a steady growth of the farm population of the district as well as Tahoka's population. The school system should therefore continue to improve from year to year.

Congratulations:

To Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Nettles of Route 1, Wilson, New Home community, who are the parents of a seven-pound six-ounce girl born in the Tahoka Clinic at 2:56 a. m. Saturday, July 30, Dr. E. Prohl officiating. The little lady has been named Yvonne.

To Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Riddle of Tahoka upon the birth of a daughter weighing 10 pounds and five ounces in the Tahoka Hospital at 7:50 p. m. Tuesday, August 2, who has been named Donna Gale. Dr. Prohl officiating.

Wells Baptists Plan Revival

Although the Baptist Church at Wells has no pastor at the present time, it has invited Rev. C. T. Aly of Tahoka to conduct revival services for the church next week, and he has accepted the invitation. His son, Carroll T. Aly, will assist with the music.

Brother Aly conducted a very successful revival at Shallowater last week. All together, there were 26 additions to the church; 11 by baptism, 13 by letter, and 2 upon statement. There were many others who rededicated their lives to service.

Herman Heck, manager of the Shamburger-Gee Lumber Company, is building a nice new home out in the Roberts addition with a view to becoming a resident citizen of Tahoka as soon as the structure is completed. He hopes that it will be ready for occupancy by September 1. He and his family now reside in Lubbock.

Highway

having much historic interest, this highway from Tahoka to Wilson should be a beautiful and attractive one. Furthermore, it will lessen the distance from Tahoka to Wilson by paved highway approximately five miles. When paved north of Slaton to Idalou or that vicinity, it will lessen the distance to all points east and north of that place by several additional miles. Similar advantage will be provided Wilson and Slaton.

The building of this highway has been the dream of at least a few people for many years. They have been compelled to wait a long time for that dream to be converted into a reality; and while this highway may never become one of the major highways of Texas, we predict that in the course of a few years it will be carrying far more traffic than most people now think.

Included in the project is the extension of the state-constructed and state-maintained highway running east from Wilson from the point where it now ends at the Lynn-Garza county line a distance of something more than two miles to a connection with the Lubbock-Post highway No. 84, which will be of great importance to the people of Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodworth returned Thursday of last week from Dallas and Oklahoma City. In Dallas, Mr. Woodworth had a bone specialist examine his leg which he broke last winter, and the specialist declared that the member was healing as nicely as might be expected. In Oklahoma City, they visited Mrs. Woodworth's sister and husband, both of whom are seriously ill.

Protection For Blowing Soils

After the old grass roots, humus and other vegetable matter have been sifted out, there's not much left to hold the soil in a heavy wind, says Clarence Church, chairman of the Lynn County Agricultural Conservation committee.

Year-after-year plowing, disking, weeding and stirring speed up the processes which reduce humus and break down soil particles into "wind moving" size. For a few years after land has been broken out of sod it will often hold together "pretty well." There are enough of the old grass roots to hold the soil particles together. But after a time these tiny roots decay or they are worked to the surface where they are blown away. The surface soil becomes powdery. Then when a heavy wind comes along, the soil is lifted in great clouds of dust. In a heavy wind, the chairman explains, these soil particles become a sort of sand blast to cut away the surface of other fields. Unless stopped, this cutting effect moves across the country with destructive effect.

But this land can be protected against wind erosion by carrying out a number of approved conservation measures, Mr. Church explains. In areas subject to wind erosion rotations which include a sod should be followed. Protected strips—field strip cropping—are effective in keeping the wind from getting a start in blowing the soil away. Incorporating the straw, or other crop residues, into a rough, cloddy surface helps to hold the soil against the wind. Shelter belts are effective in the immediate area.

The Agricultural Conservation Program, the chairman advises, provides assistance to farmers in carrying out the conservation practices best designed to protect land against wind erosion.

OLIVER FAMILIES VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Oliver and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Oliver and the children visited a brother and his family at Comanche, Oklahoma, over the week-end.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oliver and Zackie Ann of Odessa came to visit her mother, Mrs. Ponella Anderson, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Oliver, and his aunt, Mrs. D. V. Smith. Charles returned to Odessa the same day. He is employed in the oil fields there. His wife and daughter remained here for a longer visit. She is employed in an Odessa bank and is taking her vacation.

Mrs. Ben Franks of Whitney is here spending the week with the Connolly families and related families, most of whom expect to return with her this week-end to Whitney for a family reunion.

Odds & Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

I found out a long time ago that very few of us know much about the other fellow's troubles. In fact, a lot of folks do not seem to think that a newspaper man has any troubles. But he has. They may be little ones, but there are plenty of them.

We awoke Saturday morning realizing that another week was drawing to a close; likewise another month. Furthermore, the time had come for us to make out our quarterly "withholding" tax reports and social security reports to Uncle Sam, showing how much "withholding" taxes we owed him and just how much we had paid each and every kid who had worked at any time during the months of April, May, and June in the News office.

Figures! Figures!! Figures!!! We copied and pondered figures until our head was swimming. They seemed as numberless as the stars of the heavens, or as the sands on the seashore.

Finally the job was done; the reports and the checks made out and mailed; but the day was gone.

Went to Sunday School and church Sunday morning, as all good little boys should do; heard a lawyer talk to a Sunday School class about the sins of David and then rush off to the courthouse to look after some folks who do not attend Sunday School and whose sins had gotten them into trouble.

Lawyers, especially prosecuting attorneys, have to talk a lot about other peoples' sins, you know, usually to a group of six or twelve men at a time; and they get to be adept at the job. So, Judge Maddox sure did lay David out Sunday morning, even if the gentleman had been a political success and served as king a lot longer than FDR served as President of the United States.

Church over, we came by the post office and got the mail; ate dinner (lunch in most places); and then took a nap.

When we awoke, we realized that the day was fast wearing on. We had not prepared a line of copy for this week's paper and didn't know any more than a goat what we would fill this column with. Picked up the MOODY COURIER, the old home town paper, and glanced at the front page. One of the first stories we saw had for its caption "TEXAS COTTON FAME."

Since we grew up in a cotton patch, we have always been interested in cotton, and for no reason at all we have always been interested in anything or anybody that was "Famous,"—including politicians and boll worms. Well, here is the story that the COURIER carried.

"Buddy Martin has such fine cotton that its fame has reached even to California. The brother of Mrs. K. Marrs was visiting her last week and was so impressed with Buddy's cotton on the Taylor place that he made color movies of it as well as other Stampede Valley scenes to take back to California with him. He says this valley will (Cont'd. On Editorial Page)

For the first time in history a Texan has been appointed as a justice of the supreme court of the United States. Tom C. Clark, who was serving as attorney general of the United States. Before that he was a Dallas lawyer. Clark is regarded by the profession as an able lawyer and a man of high character. Politically, he has been a loyal supporter of President Truman whether the going was good or rocky for the Chief Executive. Clark's friends are predicting that he will make a great record as a member of the highest court in the land. We hope that he does. A justice of the supreme court should be as wise as Solomon, as brave as Daniel, and as honest as Paul. Now we are not figuring that Tom Clark will be that but we do hope that he develops into one of the ablest and best justices that ever sat on that court.

Appointed to the office of attorney general of the United States is a man that we admire very little. We admit, however, that we could be greatly mistaken in the calibre of Senator J. Howard McGrath of Rhode Island. He has consistently impressed us as being an ambitious, self-serving politician. To keep his party in power and to further his own political interests, he has deemed it expedient to narrowly espouse the cause of certain minority groups who hold the balance of power in many of the states of the East and the North and has ignored and held in contempt the opinions and desires of the great majority of the people of the South. President Truman may elevate him some day to a place on the supreme court but, in our humble opinion, he could never be more than a pigmy on that great body, though apparently there are several pigmies on that Court already.

Odds & Ends . . .

equal any in California as to its beauty. As viewed from the hill near Paul Alexander's place, with its fine cotton, grain, well-terraced land and prosperous homes, it is by far the most beautiful spot he has seen in Texas. Some valley, isn't it? Well, that's where the perpetrator of this column originated.

Some few of you may be wondering where Moody is? It is in McLennan county—Not McClennan county, there is no such county in Texas, but about nine-tenths of the people pronounce it McLennan. Moody is in McLennan county some twenty-odd miles southwest of Waco. There are only two things the matter with Moody: It is not in Bell county and it is not situated in Stampede Valley. It grew up on the wrong side of the Bell-McLennan county line, and it is situated out on the hills east of Stampede Valley. The upper end of Stampede Valley is in McLennan county and the lower end in Bell county. Stampede is a tributary of the Leon River. Between the hills on the east and the river on the west is some of the richest black land prairie in Texas. Viewed from the Alexander hilltop or from the top of any of the other hills that form its eastern border, this valley presents a panoramic view that is indeed beautiful. True, it is not magnificent nor awe-inspiring; it is just picturesque and restful to look upon. You would not travel hundreds of miles to see it, as you might do to see the Yellowstone National Park, the Royal Gorge, the Grand Canyon, or the Carlsbad Cavern, but most likely you would fall in love with it if you had occasion to hang around there long.

Much of Texas is like that. Not much magnificent or terrifying scenery in it, but plenty of restful, soul-satisfying scenery. Some of the loveliest and most delicately beautiful pictures that Nature has spread out in this state for the enjoyment of the natives and tourists alike are to be found in the low-lying, gently-sloping, wooded hills of Bosque, Hamilton, Lampasas, Mills, Burnett, and dozens of other counties of this state, according to our way of thinking. This is indeed "Beautiful, Beautiful Texas."

There are a lot of people, however, who do not seem to be able to appreciate the lavish beauty all around them. They can drive madly upon the paved highways through the most lovely grassy valleys and over the most charming wooded hills without seeing their beauty at all. They never express any delight at the beauty of a lily or a rose. They never rave over the matchless splendor of a gorgeous sunset. We sometimes wonder if they will really appreciate and enjoy the beauties of Heaven if and when they reach that wondrous Glory-land. We are confident that many of them will not unless they are able to take one of the fastest new models along with them to dash up and down the golden streets of the New Jerusalem in, and to zip around corners like a greyhound chasing a jack-rabbit.

Let's see, what was it that started us off on this line, any way? O yes, it was old Stampede and that guy from California taking pictures.

We don't know that photographer, "Mrs. K. Marrs' brother," but we used to know that red-headed kid named K. Marrs, who went to school at old Stampede when the present hunt-and-peck manipulator of this typewriter key-board kept school there while the kids learned their a-b-c's and the other three R's. K. Marrs was a bright kid, as most red-heads are, and he had just enough devilment in him to make him exceedingly interesting. If Mark Twain had known K. Marrs, Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn would have had another twin, and Kay would have been just as famous as the other two. Maybe Kay was not quite as red-headed nor as freckle-faced as a brother or two of his was, but he was red-headed enough and freckle-faced enough and mischievous enough for Mark Twain to have made of him an honored member of the firm of Tom, Huck & Kay.

I never did know whether K. Marrs was a native of Bell county or of McLennan county, for the line ran cat-a-cornered through his mother's farm, and I have heard that it ran right through her house also; but whatever doubts there may be on that score, there is no doubt at all that Kay was a Stampeder.

Well, it is a long way from Stampede to Heaven, but some how or other I can hardly think of one without thinking of the other.

When good old John, the Revelator, began to write on the Isle of Patmos about Heaven, he told about its golden streets, its jasper walls, and its pearly gates, as he had written years before about the mansions that were being prepared there for about half the Baptists and some others, just trying to picture in words the beauties of that place. But some how or other, gold-paved streets and a walled-in town, and pearl-studded gates, and 32-story sky scrapers, and fine mansions with carpets on the floor that a kid could hog up in, never did appeal to me much as an ideal place in which to live. Being a country kid, I always preferred low-swinging trees with out-stretched branches and grape-vine swings, and bubbling springs, and an old swimming hole, and a ball, and a top, and a set of marbles, and maybe a girl with freckles on her nose, just like God let them grow down in old Stampede Valley.

We are going back down to old Stampede some of these times, and maybe take some color pictures of it ourself, that is, if we don't decide to go on to Heaven first—which would be nearly as good.

Here's a different kind of dollar . . .

This is a telephone investor's dollar. It comes from countless individuals or business firms who invest money in telephone company stocks and bonds. This is a different kind of dollar because it is the only kind that can be used for telephone expansion. In contrast, the money received for telephone service is used to pay wages, taxes and other operating expenses. It also helps pay for the use of the investor's dollar. By operating on a sound, business-like basis, we are able to attract the investors' dollars which help to give America the world's finest telephone service.

CAR TUNES

By Bray Chevrolet Co.

"Paw—you'd better call BRAY CHEVROLET CO. and have 'em send you a low car."

Your trip to California in Santa Fe Chair Cars costs less than by automobile . . .

It's hard to believe (till you figure it out for yourself)

Even when you divide the cost among two people—the cost is still less per person via Santa Fe chair car.

Remember too, you can enjoy famous Fred Harvey meals when you travel Santa Fe.

Just add up the cost of driving your car to California—gas, oil, depreciation and night's lodgings (to say nothing of wear and tear on yourself)—and you'll see for yourself!

HERE'S AN EXAMPLE OF ACTUAL COST COMPARISON

Two persons—Amarillo to Los Angeles and return

VIA SANTA FE CHAIR CARS
ROUND TRIP TRANSPORTATION	$119.00 (including Federal Tax)
TOTAL COST	$119.00
IN YOUR OWN CAR
ROUND TRIP TRANSPORTATION	$130.00 (figured at 2174 miles via shortest highway at .06 per mile to cover gasoline, oil, tires, depreciation)
COST OF LODGING AT TOURIST CAMPS	20.00 (4 night's lodging for round trip, at $5.00 per person per night)
TOTAL COST	$150.00
A CLEAR SAVING OF $30.04 VIA CHAIR CAR

And that isn't all! After arriving in Los Angeles, you can travel to San Diego on your round-trip ticket via Santa Fe at no extra cost! Just tell the ticket agent you want it that way.

You'll like traveling in Santa Fe chair cars, too! Carefree clothing is the popular way to dress, and you have comfortable dressing rooms to freshen up whenever you please so that you can enjoy every minute of your trip along the scenic route to California.

Ask your local Santa Fe ticket agent to give you travel cost for your city
