Football Season Opening Tonight With Sundown

Tahoka Bulldogs open their 1949 football season tonight at 8 p. m. in a game here against Sundown.

Coach Jim Foust has been training about 40 boys for three weeks, of the number are nine lettermen, six of whom were regulars last year. Though inexperienced, the boys have been working hard to get in shape. No one is as yet sure of a place on the starting line, competition is so keen for places, but Coach expects to start eleven boys averaging 152 pounds in weight.

Sundown, which nosed out Tahoka last year, will start a team averaging 156 pounds. Little is known of the comparative strength of the two clubs.

Last week, at the Fort Stockton training camp, Clark Farr, halfback, and Billy Bert Stevens, center, were elected co-captains by the squad.

Next Friday, the team will play at Balls, also a non-conference game.

O'Donnell School Damaged By Fire

O'Donnell High School building was badly damaged by fire early Thursday morning when lightning struck the auditorium at about 6:00 o'clock. The auditorium, and most of the classrooms on both floors were badly damaged.

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell, county superintendent, estimates the damage may reach $100,000. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

The Tahoka Fire Department aided the O'Donnell department in bringing the fire under control.

Minister Calls CROP Conference

Rev. C. A. Holcomb Jr. as called a conference of all the Ministers of Lynn county, regardless of church or denominational affiliation, to meet in the Methodist Church here at 4:00 p. m. to confer and co-operate in the CROP program for the relief and rehabilitation of the needy people of Europe.

CROP's purpose is to feed the hungry, speed rehabilitation, and build a better world. This can be done, it is pointed out, with commodities that sustain life and provide employment.

Brother Holcomb has been asked to promote the program in this county and he will lay the whole plan before the Conference of Ministers that meets in the church next Wednesday afternoon.

County Pioneer Dies Suddenly

Truly, like a thief in the night, Death came at 2:00 a. m. last Sunday morning into the home of Mrs. Mary Eunice Smith, one of the pioneer women of Tahoka, and beckoned her on to a fairer land than this. Mrs. Smith, 72, had theretofore suffered a light heart attack a time or two, the News is informed, but few of her relatives and friends even suspected that her condition was serious. Some time ago a cataract developed on one of the eyes but following an operation she had almost completely recovered her sight. Recently she went to Abilene to visit a daughter, Mrs. Hattie Armstrong, and attend the old settlers' reunion there, greatly enjoying the occasion. Calvin Smith one of her grand-sons, brought her back to Tahoka Saturday. She complained of feeling exhausted and of being unable to go to sleep readily upon retiring but it was thought that rest would bring relief. Shortly before her death, her son Herbert, who lived with her, thought that he heard some sort of noise in her room and went in to see about it. He found her pulse very weak and summoned a physician, but she survived only a few minutes longer.

Funeral services were conducted at 3:00 o'clock Monday afternoon in the First Baptist Church of Tahoka. (Con'd. on Back Page)

Radio Program To Honor "Happy"

W. E. "Happy" Smith, Tahoka's genial postmaster, who long has been recognized locally as about the best "good neighbor" in these parts, will be honored on a national radio network program next Tuesday, September 13. The News has been informed by the American Broadcasting Company.

And, most likely, Happy knows nothing of the proposed honor until he reads these lines.

Happy Smith has been selected as the "Good Neighbor of the Day" on the Breakfast in Hollywood program on Tuesday, Sept. 13. The program is broadcast in this area over KFYO, Lubbock at 1 p. m.

Jack McElroy, master of ceremonies on the program, will read the letter nominating Mr. Smith, which was written by Mrs. Alpha Nielson of Los Angeles, in which she calls attention to a few of the many good turns Happy is always doing and about which the public seldom hears.

He will be sent an orchid by the Breakfast in Hollywood program.

Donald Hammond Suffers Injuries

Donald Hammond, six-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hammond, suffered very serious injuries Monday afternoon when he fell into a combine while the motor was running and his clothing got caught by the rapidly revolving machinery.

Both bones in the lower left leg were fractured and also the bone in the upper left leg was badly broken. Treated at the Tahoka hospital, a bone plate was placed over the larger fracture of the lower leg, and another bone plate was placed over the fracture of the upper leg. He was then placed in a body cast.

Two small wounds of the head, each required a few stitches, and he suffered bruises and scratches all over the body.

He was reported Wednesday afternoon to be making satisfactory recovery but it will be necessary for him to remain in the cast for three or four months, nurses at the hospital state.

Changes Made In City of Tahoka Traffic Laws

For the protection of school students, the city council and the board of trustees have agreed and decided to close West North Third Third street from its intersection with Taylor street on west one block to Miller Street in front of the high school building to all motor vehicle traffic from 9:00 o'clock each school-day morning until 4:00 o'clock each school day afternoon. Chains will be erected across said streets and will remain in place between said hours on each school day so as to prevent such traffic. The chief of police has been instructed to see that these regulations are observed.

Allie White, chief of police, has asked the News to warn car operators that failure to stop at any stop sign erected on any street in Tahoka will subject the driver to the payment of a fine. This applies also to right hand turns on a red light. Come to a complete stop on a red signal at the traffic light; then make the right-hand turn only when traffic is clear. All red signals are stop signals, he warns.

In accordance with demands made by the state highway department, parallel parking will be required along highway 87 passing north and south through Tahoka just the same as in highway No. 380 passing east and west through the city. Watch for parallel parking signs to be erected along highway 87 and be sure to observe this regulation.

Lone Star Farmer awards were presented Robert Adamson, Duane Carter, Jimmy Small, Delwynn Tunnell, and Gerald Wayne Tippitt. No other school in Northwest Texas had this many boys to qualify for this honor, the highest a boy may achieve in the state Vocational work.

Likewise, Mr. Carter, along with three other agriculture teachers, and six agricultural leaders, received the Honorary Lone Star Farmer award for outstanding work in area agriculture.

Presentations were made by the State FFA president, Kenneth Gregg of Plainview.

Highlights of the banquet included the Area I winning speech by Harold Brannan of Dimmitt, and music by the Shamrock Aggie string band.

Also attending the meeting as guests were Mrs. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Small, and Frank Hill.

The Gin paid 30 cents for the cotton and a premium of $50 was contributed to the owner by the farmers and merchants of New Home.

Assembly Of God Revival Continues

Interest is increasing each night at the local Assembly of God Church Revival. Evangelist Neva Clark and her husband of Denver City, are doing an excellent job of presenting the Gospel, in song as well as sermon.

As an added attraction, Monday night, is being designated as special song night. Several singers from other churches are expected to be present at that time, and they together with the local church singers are expected to have a program that is well worth attending. The public is cordially invited.—H. C. Lonis, pastor.

Applewhite Suffers Another Attack

J. K. Applewhite, prominent business man here, is under treatment this week in the Seale Clinic. While his condition is not regarded as critical, yet friends are not admitted to his room for the present.

Mr. Applewhite had been in rather ill health for several months. He and Mrs. Applewhite recently spent several weeks out in the mountains of New Mexico. After returning home they visited at Lampasas and in Oklahoma City.

They arrived home last Friday, and on Sunday Mr. Applewhite entered the Seale Clinic here for treatment.

Youth Revival Closed Sunday

The Youths' revival which was in progress at the First Baptist Church throughout last week came to a close Sunday night, when two converts, a man and a boy, were baptized. Many had come, however rededicating their lives to Christian service.

Rev. Melvin Ratheal, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Spur, who had been educational director here during the last two or three years of Rev. George A. Dale's ministry here, did the preaching in the meeting and did it in a very able manner.

Associate pastor and Educational Director Sheldon Russell, who led the song services and served as pastor during the meeting, left Monday morning for Levelland, where he is leading the song services in a Youths' Revival there this week.

At three o'clock on next Sunday afternoon, in the First Baptist Church here, he will be ordained to the gospel ministry. Rev. Levi Price of Coleman, who was pastor here when Sheldon was first elected as educational director, will preach the ordination sermon. This will be regarded by Baptists as a great occasion and will doubtless draw a large congregation. The public gathering is invited.

Next week, Sheldon will return to Wayland for his last year's work in college.

Tahoka Schools Open Thursday For 1949-50 Term

Tahoka Public Schools opened the 1949-50 session Thursday morning, and classes will meet for the first time today. Actual work will get under way Monday.

Enrollment was somewhat slowed by the heavy rain which fell in the morning, preventing some of the buses from making the entire route. No reports were available on the enrollment.

Band Director Wm. Tregoe reports that 30 students enrolled for band Wednesday, but that more enrollees are desirable for all instruments, particularly on the tuba, baritone and French horns, trombone, saxophone, and drums.

Among the ten Constitutional Amendments to be approved or rejected by the voters at the General Election to be held in November are three that pertain to the courts or court procedure.

House joint resolution No. 22 proposes some minor changes in the qualifications of district judges, their salaries, and the regulation of court terms in the various counties. The proposed amendment would probably clarify some provisions of the present constitution and broaden the powers of the legislature a bit, but otherwise we see important defects to be cured. We should like for some of our lawyer friends to discuss, briefly at least, this proposed constitutional amendment in some early issue of this newspaper.

House joint resolution No. 32 provides that in lunacy cases, the legislature shall have authority to enact all laws necessary to provide for the trial of such cases, making it possible for the person under inquiry to waive trial by jury, except in those cases in which he has been charged with the commission of a crime. Under the present Constitution all lunacy cases must be tried by a jury although they come under the jurisdiction of the county court. However obvious a person's mental unsoundness may be, when a complaint is filed the county judge must send out and get jury of six men to try the issue of insanity. That is true even though the person may be a raving maniac. Legal safeguards to prevent injustice or fraud in any such proceedings could be invoked under the new procedure to be set up by the legislature just the same as, or possibly more effectively than, under the present laws governing the trial of such cases. Having had considerable experience himself in the trial of lunacy cases, this writer believes that this proposed amendment should be adopted.

The third and most revolutionary change proposed is that contained in Senate joint resolution No. 4, which would make women eligible to serve of petit juries and grand juries. Here is the wording of the proposed amendment.

"The legislature shall prescribe by law the qualifications of grand and petit jurors; provided that the qualification of no person for service on grand juries or on petit juries shall be denied or abridged on account of sex, and no person shall be exempt from service on grand juries or petit juries on account of sex."

Most women would doubtless make good jurors, fully as good as the men, but there would be no public would like to sit on juries. In many cases the jury is required to remain together for many days while a case is on trial. They must not be allowed to stray apart or to converse with members of their families or other persons except in the presence of the other members of the jury and of an officer. We do not believe that the women would like such confinement. They would not be allowed to discuss the case under trial until all the evidence was in and the case had been turned over to the jury to decide. We think most women would smart under such restrictions.

But, however much a woman might come to dislike jury service, she could not escape service on the grounds that she is a woman and dislikes jury service any more than a man could escape service on similar grounds. These are matters for the women to think about when they go to the polls in November, for with many jury service undoubtedly would interfere occasionally with their home duties.

Odds & Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

There are all kinds of crack-pots in this old world. There is the religious crack-pot, who thinks he has it figured out to a gnat's heel when this world is coming to an end. Every once in a while, some nit-wit arises who imagines, or pretends to believe, that he is a second Christ. Seemingly, he makes a few people believe it. There is the crack-pot who works himself up into the belief that he can expose himself to the bite of a rattlesnake and that the bite will nit hurt him. There are many kinds of religious crack-pots and many degrees in this realm of crack-potdom. There is even the anti-religious crack-pot; and some of them are just as crazy as the most erratic religious fanatic.

Then there is the political crack-pot.

Next year there will be probably a dozen candidates in the Democratic primaries for governor, attorney-general, and other high offices who have scarcely more qualification for the office sought than a Mexican burro, and who will have no more chance to be elected than any one of said animals. When the election is over and the returns come in they will actually be greatly disappointed that they received so few votes.

Then there are the fellows who are continually hatching up some crack-pot scheme for the salvation of the country. Surprisingly enough, some of these foolish schemes catch the fancy of thousands—and sometimes millions—of shallow-thinking or poorly-informed voters, showing that there are a lot of crack-pot followers as well as crack-pot leaders in this country. As a rule, however, the great masses of the voters prove to be pretty level-headed.

One of the most common of all is the alarmist crack-pot. He is the fellow who thinks that if his favorite candidate is not elected or if his particular remedy is not adopted, then the country is going to the dogs post-haste. There are a few lunatics in this country who think that our only salvation lies in Communism. There are a few others who are greatly alarmed for fear that Communism is going to sweep the country. The great masses of the people, however, see so little chance for Communism to win even a foothold in this country, that they are not the least bit concerned when they read of its spread throughout other countries of the world; and therein may lie our danger.

There is in fact no more likelihood that the people of America, as long as they are free and independent, will take the bait that Communism offers and be landed in the Communist boat than there is that they will deliberately walk up to some great execution block to have their heads cut off. Americans love liberty and they are thoroughly sold on the democratic way of life. Communism has made little headway in this country and doubtless will never make much headway as long as our people are free to choose their own way of life and their own form of government. Communism will never thrive here unless and until we are subdued and totally conquered by the heartless and godless Communist dictators who are now bringing under their heels such a large portion of the world's land area and population.

We will admit, that from the human standpoint, we do seem to be in danger. If Russia should extend her sway over Europe and China and Japan, which is not at all improbable, then our own safety would seem to be most precarious.

Now, what if all this were to happen? What if Russia and the nations which she had first conquered and then Communized, should make an all-out assault upon the United States—and should win. Imagine for a few moments, if you can, our own America under the iron heel of old Joe Stalin and his godless gang of dictators, what would our plight be? Well, it would be about the worst that could be imagined, if there were not a Higher Power—IF THERE WERE NOT A GOD.

Except for God, this would be just about the situation: There would be no freedom of speech, no freedom of the press, no freedom of worship, no freedom of assembly, no freedom of petition to the heartless ruling powers.

First, this newspaper office and every other newspaper office in the country would be closed up, except such papers as the government might permit to continue publication under government supervision. If any editor should dare to criticize the government or any of the dictators, he might expect to be summarily sent off to some concentration camp. He might escape death and even be released in time if he showed a sufficient degree of subservience. . . . .

 Second, there would be spies everywhere out among the people, with listening ears; critical remarks would be noted and reported, if severe or if the speakers were persons of any particular influence. Jails would be full of such offenders, but there would be no public (Con'td. On Next Page) trials in the courthouse. Or, if there were any public trials, it would be only after the defendants had been tortured or frightened into making "confessions" written out by government officials.

Third, if a crowd gathered on some corner or on the public square or at any other place calculated to arouse the suspicion of the tyrants, a hurried investigation would be made and the crowd would doubtless be broken up and scattered. Some of them might be sent to jail.

Fourth, most of the churches would be closed. In fact, every church not completely subservient to the government would be closed. Every church that taught that God should be obeyed rather than men would have its doors slammed shut and locked. Ministers who dared to "buck" the dictators would be sent to a concentration camp, as many have been sent in Russia, and choirs might be dispersed for singing such great old hymns as "Come Thou Almighty King," and "Faith of Our Fathers." Yes, and "Rock of Ages" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" might be taboo with the Soviet Atheists. Guess we would have to be careful about the tunes we hummed on the streets.

What about the public schools? Well, we guess it would be safe to teach two and two make four without consulting some bearded tyrant. But the public schools would be strictly the tools of the dictators. Most of our Literature would be thrown out because it makes many allusions to God and to Christianity. Probably not much stress would be laid on English, but Horror of Horrors, the kids might be compelled to learn the Russian language. Our standard of morals would be hooted at. Chastity would be ridiculed. God would be treated as a myth. Our Federal Constitution would be derided and denounced as the tool of Capitalism. Liberty and democracy would be met only with sneers. Personal rights would be laughed to scorn. The State would be held up as Everything, the individual as Nothing. He would have no rights that the State should respect. These are the tenets of Communism, and the Communists would take advantage of every opportunity to teach them to the children from the very day they entered school on through life.

And that's what America would be like under Communist rule

Mr. and Mrs. John Price went down last week end to Floyd, between McKinney and Greenville, to visit their son, Rev. James Price, a student in SMU. They heard him preach Sunday at one of two of the churches he pastors, and report that the people down there seem to think he is doing a fine job. James will graduate next spring.

GRANDSON OF TAHOKA COUPLE WEDS BIG SPRING GIRL

Miss Norma Lou Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Rose of Big Spring, and James S. Choate, son of Mrs. S. E. Fallin of Seymour and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Waldrep of Tahoka, exchanged marriage vows in a double-ring ceremony read by Dr. P. D. O'Brien, the pastor, in the First Baptist Church in Big Spring at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening, August 26.

Prior to the ceremony, J. L. Fargason Jr., organist, played a quarter-hour prelude of love songs, and accompanied J. B. Langston, soloist, who sang "O Promise me," and "Because," following which Fargason played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride was given away by her father, Jonel Neel was maid of honor and J. Frank Bower was best man. Present also were the mother of the bride, Mrs. Rose, and the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Fallin.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Lavender and daughter Theresa of Tahoka and Kenneth Brasher also of Tahoka.

A reception in the church parlor followed the ceremony, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Choate is a graduate of the Big Spring High School. Mr. Choate graduated from the Seymour High School and spent 14 months in Japan with the U. S. Army. He is now employed as assistant manager of Pioneer Airlines. He was reared principally in the J. J. Waldrep home.

The couple are at home at 1110 Main, Big Spring.

MAKES FLYING TRIP THROUGH SEVERAL STATES

They did not go by plane but they seem to have made a flying trip just the same—we are talking about Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Woods, who were taking their vacation last week.

Leaving here on the preceding Saturday night accompanied by Mr. Wood's mother, Mrs. Florence Woods of Lubbock, they stopped at Henderson to visit C. N.'s brother, Dr. Bert E. Woods and his wife, who joined them for the trip.

Over highways bordered with scenic beauty, they sped their way from Texarkana up the western fringe of Arkansas to Fort Smith and thence to Van Buren, where they saw Bob Burns' home; thence across the northern part of the state and down to Memphis, Tennessee; turning south and going through the heart of Old Dixie into and through the Yazoo-Mississippi Delta, to historic old Vicksburg, thence up to Shreveport and on back Henderson.

In Arkansas, Fayetteville, Eureka Springs, and other interesting places were seen. In the lower valley and the Delta of the Mississippi, they saw many large cotton plantations with cotton stalks in places seven feet tall, and a crop of two to three bales per acre was expected to be harvested.

JO ANN THOMAS HONORED ON SIXTEENTH BIRTHDAY

A birthday party honoring Jo Ann Thomas on her sixteenth birthday was given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Thomas, on Tuesday, August 30.

Games, music, and a voice recorder were enjoyed. Ice cream, cake, and watermelon were served to thirty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Everton Nevill and little daughter and his mother Mrs. J. L. Nevill, returned Friday from a visit with his sisters, Mrs. Russell Fleming, Mrs. L. D. Jones, and Mrs. Melton Flowers at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Smith, who recently spent three weeks at Hot Springs, New Mexico, vacationing and taking the baths, report that they enjoyed the outing very much. Their estimate of Elephant Butte Dam is that it is a wonder, and they were charmed by the beauty of the Rio Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pennington of Abernathy left for home Wednesday after having spent a few days here visiting their son, Jack Pennington, and his wife. The senior Penningtons lived in this county for six years, from 1942 to 1948, and he thinks they will move back soon.

Mrs. Smith

ka, of which she had long been a member, Rev. C. T. Aly, the pastor, officiating, assisted by Rev. C. A. Holcomb Jr., pastor of the Tahoka Methodist Church.

Interment was in the Tahoka cemetery, under the direction of the Stanley Funeral Home. Pall bearers were E. B. Gaither, Watson Spears, John Fulford, Raymond Bagby, Otis Harris, and Beecher Sherrod.

Mrs. Smith, whose maiden name was Mary Eunice Crawford, was born in Brown county near Brownwood on April 10, 1877. Brownwood was then on the very western frontier of civilized life in Texas, and thus Mrs. Smith was reared in a day and a region when and where many hardships had to be endured. It took courage and an indomitable will to live and thrive and rear a family in that kind of atmosphere, but Mrs. Smith was born with a happy disposition and the faculty of making those about her happy which she retained throughout life.

On October 13, 1895, Mary Eunice Crawford was married to H. C. Smith at Dudley in Callahan county, where her parents then lived. The young couple continued to live in that vicinity and in the adjoining county of Taylor until 1903, when they moved to Lynn county, the same year the county was organized and the county seat established at Tahoka and the town laid out. She has continued to make her home here ever since, a period of nearly 46 years.

Survivors include four sons, W. E. (Happy) Smith of Tahoka, Lynn Smith of Brownfield, though he lived in this county most of his life, and Herbert and Newton Smith, both of Tahoka; three daughters, Mrs. Eunice Livingston of Fort Worth, Mrs. Hattie Armstrong of Abilene, and Miss Lola Smith of Gulfport, Mississippi. Seventeen grand-children also survive.

Other survivors are three foster children, who were nieces of Mr. Smith and who were reared in their home, Mrs. Hantone March of Fort Worth, Mrs. A. V. Splawn, now deceased, and Mrs. Leah James of Petty, this county.

Surviving also are one brother, Felix Crawford of Clyde; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas of Farmington, N. M.; three sisters-in-law, Mrs. Minnie Crawford of Farmington, Mrs. Kate Crawford and Mrs. Sallie Crawford of Clyde, Texas. She also left many nephews and nieces, among whom the following were present: Edd Thomas of Farmington, N. M., Elbert and Esker Crawford of Clyde, Texas, Jim Crawford of Farmington, Ernest Martin of Muleshoe, Texas, and Will Martin of Tahoka; and five nieces, Mrs. Eugenia Roquemore of Farmington, N. M., Mrs. Delia Cagle and Willie of Portales, Velma King of Portales, and Dorcas Crawford of Clyde, Texas.

Many of them were here for the funeral services. Mrs. Smith was converted and united with the Baptist Church when she was 17 years of age, and she has been a member of the First Baptist Church of Tahoka almost since its organization. She has always been noted for her generous and helpful spirit, and was greatly beloved by many friends. Her husband, the late H. C. Smith died here in 1943.

You'll make short work of harvesting cotton . . . slash expenses to a fraction of hand-pulling costs when you own a John Deere No. 15 Two-Row Cotton Harvester.

The John Deere does an excellent job of harvesting any cotton that is suitable for mechanical snapping. Stripping two 40-inch rows at a time after defoliation, the John Deere does a once-over job, saving more cotton than the average hand-puller. Harvested at the same time, cotton pulled with the No. 15 grades as high as that picked by hand.

Be sure to stop in soon and let us tell you more about this time- and money-saving two-row cotton harvester.

Rotary Works For World Peace

Rotary Clubs in 81 countries throughout the world are united in an endeavor to promote international understanding, good will and peace. That was the message brought by Elmo Wasson of Big Spring, Governor of District 183 of Rotary International, in addressing the Rotary Club of Tahoka yesterday, following a conference with local Rotary officers, directors and committee chairmen.

In addition to the activities of Rotary's 7,000 clubs in their own communities to promote this objective, Mr. Wasson explained, during the next three years Rotary International will spend $750,000, principally to create better understanding among the peoples of different nations. One of the principal ways in which this money will be spent will be on Rotary Foundation Fellowships which enable outstanding graduate students to study abroad for one year as ambassadors of good will. Since this program was established in 1947, 111 Fellowships have been awarded to students in 27 countries, with grants totaling more than $250,000.

Devoted to service, Rotary provides a common ground for 330,000 business and professional executives throughout the world, regardless of nationalities or political or religious beliefs," the Rotary District Governor emphasized.

He said that there is a striking parallel between the program of Rotary and the United Nations Charter, and that, since the organization of the United Nations in 1945, Rotary Clubs throughout the world have been active in the development of an informed public opinion on the objectives of the United Nations in an endeavor to make it an effective instrument for free people everywhere.

Mrs. J. C. Campbell is reported to be recovering from an attack of pneumonia in her home in south Tahoka.

A Speedy Trip Says W. G. Boyd

To the Editor of The Lynn County News:

You might call this the wildest ride that I ever took. One afternoon four of us left Lubbock and within two hours and fifty minutes we were in Wichita Falls. We did not stop again until we reached Denison but we had to remain there several minutes on account of a flat. There were two or three cars with tall aerills on the rear of their cars but old Leon just pressed down on the gas until we were out of their sight and that was all of that. We ate supper at Aboka, Oklahoma but did not stop again until we reached Pryor, where we had to do some work on our lights.

This place had been, almost, completely demolished by a cyclone a few weeks previous to that time and while they repaired the lights I scrutinized the debris that was scattered upon the ground. While I was looking around a lady came out of the back door of the cafe, that had been rebuilt upon the floor of a building that had been destroyed, and I said that there must have been a cyclone here and she said "there was, and it looks like we are going to have another one tonight." That didn't make me feel too good because there was an angry looking cloud in the northwest and the lightning had already begun to flash.

Up until this time Leon had been driving and we had been cruising along at 70 to 80 mph but he got tired and turned the wheel over to Ed who was the best but fastest driver I ever rode with. It began to rain and off we sped in the darkness, going! going!! going!!! until we reached 105 mph when Leon raised up, gave a howl, and said, "my—Ed cut'er down I can't take that." The clouds were rolling in every direction, we imagined that cyclones were all around us, the thunder roared, the lightning flashed and the driving rain came down in such torrents to beat upon our old Buick that we were soon in water up to the running board. The driver was barefooted and wet as (Con'd. On Back Page)

A Speeding Trip . . .

the knees by this time and we stopped at Vinita for coffee and to exchange stories about the storm with other tourists.

There was no sleep that night because the tires were howling, screaming, screaming in such high tones and the car was tumbling and jerking with so much force that we just sat there and prayed that God would get us out of it all so easy. Next morning about daybreak I looked out of the window and the trees and light poles were going by so fast that I wondered if I had turned out to be a dope head. I knew that we were on a winding road by the noise of the screaming tires but Tom said we are just in those old hills of Missouri and you sure want to miss them coming back, but little did he know that we were in the very center of the earth's most scenic beauty. On our return trip I began to notice the hills and I recognized their beauty at once and slowed down to drink in the splendor and grandeur of the wonderful Ozarks. The Mississippi was on a rise and the water was muddy. We crossed the river somewhere north of St. Louis but we were moving so fast it looked about as wide as a black string stretched across a white sheet.

We crossed parts of Illinois, Indiana and Michigan trying to reach Detroit that day, which we did about sundown, only 30 hours from Lubbock. These states form a rich, beautiful and picturesque part of our country. For livelihood, these people raise corn hogs and cattle because it rains so much that the pastures are wonderful. The pictures that you have seen with pretty cattle standing in clover knee high with a lot of large trees in the background and a few scattered over the pasture with slick and fat Jerseys or Holsteins lying in the shade, is not an exaggerated picture at all. This must be an artist's paradise. We reached Pontiac about sundown and the only thing I saw worth remembering was Willow Run or Ford's big air plant. We stayed at The Roosevelt Hotel and by the time I got down to breakfast next morning Leon and Tom were already hugging the waitress. Until now it has been fast cars but from now on it will be fast women.

"Nuff Sed," I will see you later.
Your very truly,
W. G. Boyd.

SEE IT and you want it -
PRICE IT and you'll buy!

FOLKS take a look at those bumper-guard grilles — built as a unit and proof against "locking horns" — and say "Hmmm! Nice!"

They sweep their eyes over tapering fenders, with a suggestion of jet power in their after contours — and say, "That's for me!"

They eye-measure windshields that are 48% bigger and rear windows with 56% more area — and know without being told they can see the road up closer, both fore and aft.

So they say — "That's for me — IF!"

"What does it cost me to get this handy-sized dandy with the roomiest interiors ever found on a Buick Special?"

"What do I pay for high-compression, high-pressure Fireball power from a big Buick straight-eight engine?"

"What's the tag on that swell Buick ride, with coil springing, extra-wide rims, seats between the axles and all that?"

"And what about Dynaflo Drive — understand I can have that at extra cost — how much?"

Well, sir, the news is good. Plenty good.

Because this honey's priced well under your expectations. It's a straight-eight that's priced under a lot of sixes — over the years your investment will be no more than for any other car.

So better not stop with looking. Better price it too — delivered at your door. Your Buick dealer will give you the figures, even demonstrate.

After which you'll do as others are doing — you'll get a firm order in.
