Care Sets Records, Prevents Wrecks, Says Speed King

Johnny Parsons, 1930 Indianapolis Speedway Champion

INDIANAPOLIS, IND.—Johnny Parsons of Van Nuys, Cal., who shattered a half-dozen track records in setting a new world's speed mark at the Indianapolis Speedway, says, "It isn't speed alone that causes so many tragedies on the nation's highways. It's carelessness.

"Care is my motto. Good care for your car, inside and out. Plus driving care."

Parsons, who is now racing at tracks throughout the country, was never a "hot rod" driver. He knows a car is even more dangerous than a gun when mishandled. He also believes a car should be given the same attention as a thoroughbred horse, "if you want a thoroughbred performance from it."

Whether it's a $35,000 racing car, every part hand-made, or a stock model, such as the official pace car which was one of Johnny's prizes, Parsons "treats it right." He uses but never abuses his car. "Real sportsmanship means consideration for the other fellow and your own car," he says.

Science Helps

That's why he keeps abreast of the latest developments of science for automotive use. Johnny uses a war-time discovery to protect the finish of his cars. He gives them an Autobrite 4% silicone treatment, using the same silicones which protected vital military equipment against oxidation, rust, corrosion and salt sea air. Time being vital in his life, Parsons finds this new scientific development a big help for speed. It enables him to clean and polish his car in about 20 minutes and know it is protected for six months or longer with a weather-resistant surface.

Miss Valene Perry And H. L. McMillan, Jr. Married In Brownfield Last Saturday

Miss Valene Perry of Brownfield and H. L. McMillan, Jr., of Tahoka were united in marriage Saturday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the home of the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Pharr, at Brownfield. The double ring ceremony was read by Elder V. J. Lowrance of Tahoka, minister of the Brownfield District Primitive Baptist Church. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Val Perry of Lovington, N. M. Miss Freddie Ruth Lowe of Levelland, cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid

A. J. Jester of Tahoka was the groom's best man.

The bride chose for her wedding dress a blue eyelet street length dress with tight bodice and circle skirt.

For something blue, she wore blue ear rings; something old, pearls belonging to her maternal grandmother; something borrowed, a white lace hankie.

The bridesmaid was dressed in light beige with brown accessories, and wore a blue carnation corsage.

For the wedding trip, the bride chose a two-piece white gaberdine suit with Navy lace.

The altar was before a mantle decorated with bridal greenery set off with yellow gladioli.

Music for the ceremony included "Because," "Always," and "Till the End of Time."

At a reception following the ceremony, a two-tiered wedding cake topped with miniature bride and groom was cut, and served by Mrs. Eual Akis, Lamesa, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Cecil Pharr, Lubbock, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Edg. Durkee of Levelland registered the guests.

Present at the wedding were possibly one hundred friends and relatives of the two young people from Brownfield, Tahoka, Lubbock, Lamesa, Floydada, Spur, Levelland, Girard, Dallas, Plano, Allen, O'Donnell, and Elk City, Oklahoma.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Val Perry of Lovington, Nex Mexico. She graduated from Spur High School in 1948, following which she attended Draughn's Business College at Lubbock. For the past year she has been working in Brownfield.

Mr. McMillan was reared in Tahoka, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. McMillan, Sr. He is a graduate of Tahoka School, and attended West Texas State College one year before entering the Navy for two years of service. Except for the time in college and in the Navy, H. L. has been associated with The Lynn County News since May, 1941.

The couple returned Tuesday from a brief honeymoon trip to points in New Mexico, and are making their home at the E. J. Cooper apartment on North Fifth Street, in Tahoka.

Black Magic

As chic and cool a "little summer black" as you've ever seen is this rayon crepe dress featured in Cosmopolitan magazine for July. It has twin rows of buttons on front and back of the smartly plain, round-necked bodice. Jerry Parnis has given it a modified bat-wing sleeve, cropping it midway between elbow and shoulder. The skirt has soft, unpressed pleats at center front. About $35.00.

The City Council and the Engineers have now accepted the paving program as substantially complete.

There are a few minor repairs that will have to be made when we return to do the additional paving.

All streets have a 6-inch crushed caliche base and 3 coats of Asphalt and Rock which was called for in the specifications.

We wish to thank every one for their cooperation in making the paving program a success.

Mrs. Lemon Tells Of Trip

(By Mrs. W. I. Lemon)

I left here June 31 with my daughter-in-law, Mrs. Darlene Lemon of Mineral Wells, and her two sons, Jerry and Danny. We stopped at Las Cruces, N. M., and picked up Darlene's mother. We had a nice drive out through the mountains of tall pines, and we arrived at my son's, Lynn Lemon of Upland, Calif., Friday morning.

I visited many pretty places while there—Mount Baldy Lodge, Arrowhead Lake, Gregory Lake—all in the San Bernardino mountains; also, Huntington Beach and the big ships.

One of the most interesting places I visited was Knott's Berry Farm and Ghost Town in Buena Park. We had heard so much about this place which employs 500 people and Mrs. Knott's old fashioned chicken dinner, and we truly enjoyed that fine home cooked meal, which included delicious roseberry pie.

In thirty years, this farm grew from a little roadside stand tended by Walter Knott and his family of five into a place of nationwide reputation spreading over 260 acres. It makes one feel that the days of opportunity are still as great in this country as ever.

Mrs. Knott and her 120 helpers serve an average of seven thousand guests every Sunday and nearly that many on a week day.

After dinner, we visited Mrs. Knott's gift shop and the flower nursery and saw the nice jellies and jams in the berry market, and then strolled down the trail to Ghost Town. It is a strange and exciting village. As we turned the corner into Main Street, we seemed to become transplanted into the days of a hundred years ago. Walking on creaky boardwalks, an old shop or two on our left, a gaping hole in the ground permitting a glimpse into the active gold mine, and then to see the panning of the gold.

You hesitate as you behold the naked limb of the hangman's tree with the noose still swinging in the breeze and an unprotected grave in the street telling of Deadwood Dick's sudden demise.

We then moved on to see the covered wagon show in the Gold Trail Hotel, of the early pioneers trip across the desert. Walter Knott's own mother then a child, was shown traveling in the first wagon. We saw the pioneer day

Polio Threat Is No Cause For Undue Alarm

Austin, July 20.—State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox has turned the bright light of optimism on the heretofore dark picture of polio in Texas.

Observing that the state's 1,000 cases of polio since the year's beginning has occurred among a population of 7½ million people, the health official Thursday deplored "the attitude of hysteria that polio creates in a community."

That didn't mean people should not be concerned, the doctor commented, for a case of illness in any form is good reason for great concern.

"I'm talking about the fear that keeps a person or a whole community from thinking straight. Of course each case of polio is an individual tragedy for the family involved, but wholesale public panic simply is not justified."

He doesn't want to encourage complacency either, the state health officer said, adding: "Every clear-thinking effort must be made to keep every

North Side Team Wins, But South Boys Drop Close One to New Home

Tahoka Northside defeated the Tahoka Colored boys team 22 to 2, and New Home edged out the Tahoka Southside team 12 to 11 in Lynn County Junior Baseball League play Sunday afternoon.

Playing on the Jaycee field, the first mentioned game was the second straight victory for the Northside and the fourth straight loss for the Colored boys. The winning pitcher was Ronny Gurley and the losing pitcher Chester Hood. Gurley's record now is 3-4. He needed help in the last two innings from Lynn Halamicek.

The Colored boys were limited to three hits and two runs, while the Northsiders collected their 22 runs from 13 hits. The North played errorless ball all the nine innings. Gurley was assisted by two double plays when Halamicek, with a runner at second caught a line drive and touched second base before the runner could get back. Ted Pridmore, centerfield, started a double play rolling after catching a hard hit fly-ball and threw home to get a runner trying to make the home plate after the throw.

The best single put-out made that day and possibly this season was by Clayton Carter, second baseman, when he backhanded a seemingly sure hit between first and second and threw to Glenn Wells covering first base.

In the nine-inning New Home 12 to 11 victory over Southside, played at New Home, Bobby Van-DeVere was the pitcher, and the losing pitcher was Ray Madrid. Both pitchers went all the way.

The New Home victory broke the South's three game winning streak. Both teams made countless errors in the high winds. A large crowd was present in spite of the wind.

Next Sunday there will be two games played on the local diamond. The first game is be-

For the benefit of any inquiring friends, I am glad to state that my brother, who has again been in the Hillcrest Hospital here in Waco for the past four weeks suffering from a broken hip, was released from the hospital Sunday, July 9, and while there is little hope that he will ever be able to walk without the aid of crutches, there is hope that he may be able to get about on crutches within a few months. There is much hope, too, that he will not suffer much pain from here on out; his suffering up to a few days ago had been almost continual and unbearable. The improvement of his condition the past two weeks has seemed almost miraculous. He is recuperating here at the home of one of our sisters in Waco.

This has been a wet day in Waco. We have had few of them of that kind here this entire spring and summer. But enough rain has fallen to keep the crops looking fairly good.

The worst trouble with the crops in this area is that farmers are trying to raise too many kinds of crops at the same time on the same land; corn and Johnson grass, for instance, or in many instances cotton and Johnson grass. They have already harvested a pretty good crop of oats and Johnson grass, mixed. This objection does not apply to all of the fields, however—in some of them they are raising nothing but Johnson grass, and the cows are doing the harvesting. They find that to be more satisfactory than the use of Mexicans or of costly harvesting machines. Besides, it gives the farmers more time to enjoy their daily siestas and the frequent holidays. And in the meantime, the cows grow slick and fat.

I was raised down in this country—over in Bell county; and I can remember the time when Pa and "us kids" had to fight Johnson grass like fighting fire. Yes, and before Johnson grass got to be so menacing, Pa had us kids fighting "goose grass" wherever it stuck its head up. That was the name it commonly bore when first introduced into this country, but after it began to win so many victories over the farmers it gradually assumed the more respectable and aristocratic name of "Colorado Grass." Well—and we say it with pride—Pa's farm was one of the last farms down in old Stampede valley that this "Goose Grass" alias "Colorado Grass" succeeded in running over rough shod—and it never did make too much headway as long as Pa lived.

How did he do it? He worked, and he made us kids work.

Every time it rained in the fall and stopped cotton picking operations, we kids strapped on our cotton sacks and struck out up and down the corn rows on a hunt for "Goose" grass—or "Colorado" grass, if you prefer that name. We pulled up every spring of this Enemy No. 1 that we could find and if any of it had headed out, we toted it out of the field and dumped it out for the cows to eat.

Now, to be perfectly honest, we boys didn't especially like this job. We never did hanker for it to rain so that we could get our sacks and invade the cornfields while other boys in the community were playing baseball or riding their little bay ponies and chester sorrel ponies and iron gray ponies up to Moody to spend a pleasant afternoon sauntering around.

No, sir, we never did enjoy these battles we often had to fight in the cornfields after the corn crop was already made, but

Pa was the Commander-in-chief on that farm and he planned the strategy and gave the orders; and we never did hear him give an order to retreat in the face of the encroachments and threatened invasions of his farm by General Goose Grass, General Guinea Grass, or any other enemy of King Cotton or Captain Corn. Maybe you never heard of Guinea Grass. Well, that was the original name of Johnson Grass. We suppose he was so named because he was reputed to have been a native of Guinea, from which place he migrated to America. Well, Pa always favored sending him back to Guinea or some hotter country, and so that is why Pa either dug him up by the roots or had us boys to do so every time he found a little sprig of the stuff growing in his fields.

But all that, folks, was back in the horse and buggy days—or more properly, back in the horse and wagon days; and Time passed slowly on.

As Time was passing on, however, a guy named Henry Ford got to tinkering with the idea that the power of steam which pulled a steamboat or a railroad train, or the power of gas, which had been little exploited at that time, might be harnessed up to our buggies and even our light wagons and be used to pull these vehicles over the public roads.

Well, Henry made a "go" of it and—so did others who caught on to the idea about that time, and it wasn't long until our high muck-a-mucks began to ride around in gas wagons. And then it wasn't much longer until even little business men and farmers and now and then a newspaper man began to buy those gas buggies—and now just look and see what a mess we've got.

For the next twenty years no farmer ever found time to go out into the field and kill Johnson Grass. And by that time General Johnson Grass had just about completely taken over many a farm, lock, stock, and barrel. Most of the older farmers had either gotten "well-to-do" or had gone broke and retired. None of the younger farmers had a yearning to tackle Mr. Johnson Grass, not at least until the farm tractor made its appearance. Now they find that it is almost an impossible task to rid their farms of Johnson grass even by the use of tractors. So, many of them have turned the cows in their fields, and sit around or ride around watching them grow fat.

And this is the revolution that has come about in farming on the black lands of Central Texas.

When Jim and William and I and even our younger brother, Joe, as kids began to do our first farm work, the only grasses that were then giving the farmers much trouble were wire grass and crab grass. Most folks now wouldn't know wire grass or crab grass from a ground vine. But we'll bet that old Dave Davis and old John Evans know what I am talking about: that is, if they ever did any field work. Their daddies might have found it so hard to persuade them to get down to business when they were kids that he let them wiggle out of most of the hard work on the farm. On the other hand, they may have had daddies like mine. Well, whether they had to dig up wire grass and crab grass or goose grass and guinea grass when they were kids, or not, the days are gone forever. Tractor farming and machine or Mexican harvesting have come to stay. Tractor farming made possible the production of more than 186,000 bales of cotton in Lynn county last year, and Mexicans and harvesting machines made possible the gathering and saving of this stupendous crop.

I pursued with much interest the cotton production record made during the past 35 years in THE NEWS recently. I noted that not only had the average production been 67,435 bales annually for the past twenty years, and 75,212 bales annually for the past ten years, but also that more than 100,000 bales had been produced three years out of the last ten. Lubbock, Hockley, and Lamb counties have each chalked up a little larger production record than this, possibly, during the past ten years; and other South Plains counties have done nearly as well. Is it any wonder that Lubbock made such a wonderful showing in her census returns? If the present trend continues, Lubbock will doubtless surpass both Amarillo and Wichita Falls during the next ten years and has a chance to surpass Waco.

Just one correction of an error made in this column recently respecting Waco. I stated that there were seven Methodist churches here. I have since found that there are ten—and this does not include Negro churches. Waco is a great church town, even more distinctly so, possibly, than Lubbock or Amarillo.

Just a word about politics. It seems to be a foregone conclusion that Governor Allan Shivers will be renominated by an overwhelming majority in the July Primaries.

It also seems to be the consensus of opinion that Bob Poage, congressman from the Waco district, will be renominated. He got himself into a jam, however, in speeches which he made in West and Belton on July 4. In attempting to explain why he had voted early this year against granting aid to South Korea, he attempted to pass the buck to the State Department. He stated that he had asked the State Department if South Korea would be defended by the United States if attacked. He said that the State Department replied that it did not consider Korea as important and that it would not be defended. He saw no sense in pouring money into a rat-hole, he explained, and therefore voted against the proposed aid. That seemed to be a good and reasonable excuse.

Then Richard C. Bush, ex-mayor of Waco and one of Poage's opponents, quoted from the Congressional Record showing that immediately before the January vote on Korean aid was taken, an appeal from the Secretary of State was read begging congressmen to vote for the proposed aid and warning against the dire consequences of a refusal to grant aid. Most Democratic congressmen voted for the aid but Poage voted against it. In February, the matter came to a vote again and most Democrats who had voted against it in January voted for it in February; but two such Democrats, Marcantonio, Communist member from New York City, and Bob Poage of Waco, had persisted in voting against it. That just about cooked Poage's goose with me, but I think he will get by with it. Poage also had been enumerating the many good things that had come to his district as a result of his labors since he first entered Congress in 1936—Camp Hood, McCloskey Hospital, the Whitney Dam, the Belton Dam, several Army Air fields, and a long string of other "accomplishments."

In reply over the radio the other night, Bush called attention to all these extravagant claims and then dryly remarked that he understood that the Bible still teaches that God created the heavens and the earth. I thought that was one of the best things I had ever heard in a political contest.

G. H. Nelson of Lubbock, candidate for a place on the Court of Criminal Appeals, was here in Waco campaigning one day since I have been down here but I did not see him. Have had no chance to find out anything about his chances. Hope West Texas rolls up a heavy vote for him, as he is the only West Texan in the race and is well qualified.

Neither do I have any idea as to how many votes Representative Preston Smith of Lubbock may be able to bag down in this section of the state but McLennan county has a candidate for the job, Senator Kyle Vick of Waco.

1,920 School Districts Consolidated During Past Year Under New Law

Austin, July 20.—Consolidation of 1,920 school districts the first year Texas' new education laws were in effect has resulted in larger school units and a better school program, J. W. Edgar, state commissioner of education, declares.

Consolidations have made possible better building equipment and facilities, teachers giving instruction in fewer subjects and a vastly broadened program of vocational agriculture, trades and industries, and home economic instruction which means better schools for Texas children, Edgar pointed out.

The total number of school districts dropped from 4,412 in 1948-49 to 2,492 operating districts during the last school year. A total of 1,300 of these consolidations were mandatory under new school laws.

"Six hundred and twenty of the school districts, however, voluntarily merged with other districts," Edgar said. In addition, the total number of county unit systems (one school system for an entire county) doubled, making the total twenty-four.

Edgar also predicted that consolidations for the 1950-51 school year would total an additional 400, bringing the total number in the state down to approximately 2,000.

Most of the smaller schools in the state could not afford adequate library and laboratory facilities, or equipment and teachers for vocational agriculture, trades and industries, and home economics courses, Edgar pointed out.

"While there has been commendable increases in library, visual aid and laboratory facilities, there has been a tremendous expansion in the vocational departments," Dr. Edgar said.

"Vocational departments increased slightly more than 500 during the past year, making a total of 2,087 in the state," the commissioner declared. "The trend indicates that an additional 400 school districts will offer courses in agriculture, home economics and trades and industries during the 1950-51 school year."

"With Texas being an agricultural state and gaining in the world of industry, we on the state level of education certainly encourage our school districts to offer a diversity of courses to train their students to lead Texas in advances in agriculture, home building, and trades and industries."

B. P. MADDOX

For COUNTY ATTORNEY

We, the qualified voters of Lynn County, Texas, and friends of B. P. Maddox, candidate for re-election for the office of County Attorney of Lynn County, Texas, beg to call the attention of the voters of Lynn County to the many civic activities of this quiet, unassuming man.

He landed in Lynn County in 1916, 34 years ago just as the drought was beginning in this county, and when it became impossible for the Banks to make further loans to the farmers to buy seed to raise another crop he was sent to the Legislature of Texas to get passed a law permitting the county to make loans to the farmers to plant their crops. During this time, World War No. 1 broke out, and Judge Maddox immediately organized the Red Cross in Lynn County, and went to every school house in the county to make stronger the Red Cross of Lynn County. He was made its first Chairman and served in this capacity during the entire duration of World War No. 1 and long after that until all soldiers of that war were demobilized and took his own time to see about getting soldiers killed and buried in foreign fields back to their native land for final burial.

Also, during that time, he was made chairman of the United War Effort and also Food Administrator, which took much time and patience, and for all of which he received not one dime of pay.

Then came the Depression of 1933, and he was made Relief Administrator of Lynn County, and served in that capacity until the Depression was over. In that undertaking he did a hard, painstaking job, without the slightest breath of wrongful use of his position, and did it with distinction.

When he first came to Lynn County, he was appointed by the Commissioners' Court as County Attorney and made a record for wholesome law enforcement, and his last holding of this office has found him going outside of his duties as County Attorney to help juveniles who got into trouble, to help them and their families in checking them from becoming criminals. This has been done by this man in a quiet but effective way. Then he became interested in men who had become chronic drunkards and gone to the bottom of the ditch, and he has helped start a number of husbands back on the road to sobriety. There are many happy mothers and happy wives and children because of the quiet efforts of this kindly man. At the same time he has seen our laws enforced, and he wants to round out his work for the juveniles and the poor fellow that is in the ditch because of liquor.

Maddox deserves Re-election

Waggoner Carr Visits Tahoka

Waggoner Carr, who has represented the people of Crosby, Lubbock, Hockley and Cochran counties in the State Courts as prosecuting attorney was in Tahoka and O'Donnel this week in the interest of his campaign for State Representative.

Carr, 31, has led vigorous pro-ban areas.

Carr strongly supports local control of our underground water, elimination of government waste and duplication, better and more farm-to-market roads, the veterans land program, soil conservation and conservation of our natural resources, and submission for a vote of the people on the question of removal of the constitutional limitation on welfare secution against the post war crime wave in this district. When he was elected county attorney of Lubbock county in 1948, plans had already been made for open gun warfare between rival criminal gangs. His relentless prosecution of members of these gangs has prevented these plans from being carried out, thus resulting in a savings of lives and thousands of dollars to the people of this area.

In his campaign for State Representative, Waggoner Carr has emphasized the importance of the legislature to this 119th District. "The 52nd session of the Texas Legislature will be one of tremendous importance," Carr stated. "The matter of redistricting the State will be one of concern to all the people of Texas and the job should and must be done equitably for both rural and urban areas."

"It cannot be overemphasized that the people of this area must work together in solving their state problems. Every person must be, and will be, fairly represented regardless of where he lives," Carr stated.

Carr has been a long time resident of this district and is a graduate of Texas Tech. He is a son-in-law of H. C. Story, formerly of Tahoka but now of Austin.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON MRS. SOPHIE KING

Mrs. John King of Smyer was in The News office Monday on business and gave this publication a bit of additional information on Mrs. Sophie King, who died Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. King was one of the real pioneers of the Plains. Before moving to Tahoka in 1905, she and her husband, G. W. King, who died here August 11, 1925, lived in Floyd County, where she carried the mail as a girl in a buggy.

Mrs. King was a grand old lady, loved very dearly by all who came in contact with her. Preceding her death, she had been confined to her bed for six years.

In addition to the five sons and a daughter, she has a surviving brother, Enick Montgomery of Bessie, Oklahoma, who was here for the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Strickland and son Tom visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Woody during the holidays. Mr. Strickland is a brother of Mrs. Woody.

Herbert C. Martin, Littlefield, Texas, a proven trial lawyer qualified to serve as your Associate Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals.

There are over ten and a half million acres of forest land in East Texas at present better adapted to timber growing than any other use.

When possible, grain and feed crops should be marketed thru livestock because the price outlook for livestock and livestock products is relatively favorable.

In this case FEELING IS BELIEVING

No, the eye does not tell everything—not in this instance.

True, it tells you ROADMASTER is smart. It tells you it's big. It shows, if you watch closely, that this brawny beauty rides level and unperturbed even when road-roughness has its wheels fairly dancing.

A glance may even indicate how much lolling comfort there is here—what wide-open freedom passengers and driver know in this gay traveler.

But how can the eye tell you how you feel touching off the great power that's under this broad bonnet?

How can it reveal the silken, swift-mounting surge of oil-cushioned take-off—smooth, silky, unbroken, as Dynaflo Drive works its magic?

Even when you watch a ROADMASTER settle down to a long steep pull and crest the top going away, how can it tell you what thrill your spirits get from such ability?

And what can it say of the lift that's yours traveling in a beauty that catches all eyes, swivels passing heads, marks you by its very lines as traveling in as fine a car as any man can ask for?

No, these things you have to feel for yourself, and we're delighted to help you do so.

Your Buick dealer wants you to know about ROADMASTER first-hand—wants you to drive it, try it, feel it out.

It doesn't cost a cent to arrange such a trial. It can do a lot toward opening your eyes to the day's highest standard of fine-car feel and fine-car action—not to mention "why pay more?" prices.

How about seeing your dealer right away?

Only BUICK has Dynaflo Drive* and with it goes!

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models.) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD forefront, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

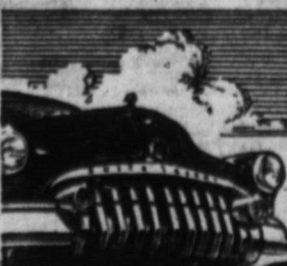

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

FOUR-WAY FRONT

This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

have your own ALL-CROP harvest

SEED can rightfully be spelled with a dollar sign this year . . . dollars you can harvest.

Enough grass, alfalfa, clover and other legume seed is needed to plant 51 million acres, replacing soil-depleting crops. Present seed production is scarcely half sufficient.

A home-owned ALL-CROP Harvester can help you cash in with these high-pay crops as well as with grains, beans, sorghums. Its full width, rubber-shielded bar cylinder reduces creakage. Quiet, V-belt drives, over-size threshing rear, precision wind valves, and Air Blast Separation, enable the All-Crop to harvest over 100 crops. They range from feathery grass seeds to marble-size beans.

Make it an ALL-CROP harvest this year.

Northwest Texas Methodist Ladies Plan School of Missions In Lubbock

The Northwest Texas Conference Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church is planning its first Conference-wide School of Missions to be held at Texas Tech at Lubbock July 31 through August 4. The purpose of the school is to bring to the women of the Conference in a condensed form information concerning the total program of the Society for the year. Clinics will be held each day under the direction of the corresponding Conference officer in following lines of work: President, Secretaries of Missionary Education and Service, Christian Social Relations, Missionary Personnel, Literature and Publications, Spiritual Life, Student Work, and Wesleyan Service Guild.

Mrs. T. W. Whigham, Conference Secretary of Missionary Education has been elected as Dean of the School. Other members of the School committee are the following Conference officers: Committee Chairman, Mrs. M. B. Hilburn, Lubbock; Vice-Chairman, Mrs. U. D. Crosby, Lubbock; Registrar, Mrs. C. C. Coffee, Lubbock; Secretary, Mrs. Sam B. Cook, Pampa; Treasurer, Mrs. Paige Goldfar, Spur; Literature chairman, Mrs. J. R. Moore, Amarillo; the Devotional Chairman, Mrs. J. E. Peters, Post; Music Chairman, Mrs. Geo. Robertson, Childress; Librarian, Mrs. George Turley, Amarillo. Special emphasis is being placed on the courses of study to be presented during the year and each member of the school will be allowed to take one study and receive credit on it during the two 50-minute periods of class instruction offered each day.

The studies and the persons who will direct them are as follows: "The Near East," Miss Dorothy McConnell of New York, editor of World Outlook, and Miss Charlie Holland of Lufkin, a returned Missionary from Japan; "Cooperation for Christian Community," Miss Estelle McIntosh of Clyde, a deaconess in Rural Work in Arkansas, and Mrs. J. B. Davis of Amarillo, formerly a teacher in Panama Public Schools; "Corporate Worship," Mrs. C. A. Bickley of Lubbock, Jurisdiction Secretary of Spiritual Life, and Miss Lucille Hester of Big Spring, Director of Christian Education; "A Christian's Vocation," Mrs. G. W. Dameron of Pineville, Ark., Jurisdiction Secretary of Mission Education, and Mrs. Cecil Matthews of Lubbock, the Wesley Foundation Counselor at Texas Tech.

Workshops on "Work of the Woman's Society of Christian Service," "Enrichment Materials," and "Recruitment for Christian Vocation" will be held each day under the direction of Mrs. Dameron, Mrs. Whigham and Mrs. Luther Kirk, Perryton, Conference Secretary of Missionary Personnel.

Membership is open to any member of the Woman's Society or Wesleyan Service Guild but anyone desiring to attend is urged to register immediately by writing Mrs. C. C. Coffee, 3419 21st St., Lubbock, and sending the $3.00 enrollment fee. A few dormitory rooms are yet available and persons registering should indicate if they desire a reservation. Dormitory residence is not required for attendance at the classes, workshops, or clinics. Each society should send as many delegates as possible. Local and District officers are especially urged to attend. Classified Ads are small but they do a Big Job well.

Meet America's Savingest "SIX"

NEVER BEFORE did any "Six" combine such a low purchase price . . . such economy of operation . . . and so much "go." And you'll find Ford's new "Six" is so smooth you can hardly hear it . . . for its new design has "hushed" its voice down to a whisper.

TRY THE "MID SHIP" RIDE
You can pay hundreds more and still not equal the comfort of Ford's road-hugging "Mid Ship" Ride . . . or the quiet of Ford's sound-conditioned "Lifeguard" Body. With Ford's 35% easier-acting King-Size Brakes, it keeps you safe and snug.

IT'S A COMPANION IN QUALITY TO FORD'S SILENT NEW V-8
Yes, "Six" or V-8, you're sure of smooth, silent quality at rock bottom price. Ford's V-8, you know, is the type of engine powering America's finest cars—yet it sells for hundreds lower than most sixes. And Ford's "Six" costs even less.

"Test Drive" the FORD "SIX" today!
