Contracts Are Let For New Tahoka Elementary School

Contracts for construction of a new Tahoka elementary school building and a cafeteria were let by the school board in a meeting Tuesday night. Work is to get underway within ten days, but completion is not expected before late in November.

The structure will cost a total of $201,543.00, not including the furnishings. Bonds totaling $250,000 were voted for the building in December.

The board originally planned to build a 16 classroom building, but this has been cut to 12 classrooms, and the cafeteria. The new building will face north on North 3rd Street, occupying the block immediately south of the present elementary school. The latter building will be converted to Junior High use.

There were six bidders for the general contract, with Swain Construction Co. of Lubbock winning the contract at a price of $162,898.00.

The plumbing and heating contract went to P. & C. Mechanical Contractors of Lubbock for $28,240.00. There were five bidders. F. & S. Electric, also of Lubbock, won the electrical contract on a bid of $10,405.00, from a field of six bidders.

Citizens Petition Election On New Jail, Courthouse Repairs

Petitions are being presented to the Lynn County Commissioners court asking that an election be called for the purpose of voting bonds to build a new county jail and to repair the present court house.

The petitions ask for a $200,000 bond issue. The News is informed, entirely unofficially, that a modern, escape-proof jail suitable for a county this size would cost in the neighborhood of $110,000. It is presumed that the remainder, or what part of it is needed, would be used to recondition the present court house.

Judge Walter Mehis told The News the petitions were in his hands, and that the Court would discuss the bond election proposal at its next regular meeting on Monday. Naturally, he could not say what disposition would be made of the proposal. However, it is known that at least some of the Commissioners feel something must be done soon.

Last year's court discussed possibilities of repairing the court house and building a jail. Architects were consulted, but no election was ever called.

One prominent citizen and a signer of the petition told The News Wednesday that he believed there was no point in delaying the bond election longer. He declared that many leading citizens from all parts of the county had

Saturday Last Day For Filing

Only one name has been filed for a place on the City ballot up until Wednesday night. Ted Chaney has filed for alderman.

Saturday is the last day for filing for City offices in the election to be held on April 3.

A mayor and three aldermen must be elected. Hold-over aldermen are H. G. Hodges and Joe Bob Billman. Mayor K. R. Durham and Alderman J. A. Biggerstaff have stated they do not wish to file for re-election, feeling they have served their time on the body.

Caswell Well Looks Better

Indications are that the Magnolia No. 1 W. W. Caswell, east of Draw, west offset to the Magnolia No. 1 Garza discovery and south of the Humble No. 1 Dulin producer, may have at last found paying production.

After sealing off water above the prospective Mississippian pay, the venture yielded on swab 28 barrels of new oil and 13 barrels of water in 32 hours. Operators then treated perforations at 9,130-150 feet with 1,000 gallons of acid, and the next 12 hours swabbed 71 barrels of load oil and 20 barrels of acid water.

Early Tuesday all the load oil was reported recovered and fluid was standing at 1,200 feet off bottom with swabbing continuing.

The No. 1 Garza is a Pennsylvania reef well, and the No. 1 Dulin is a Mississippian lime well. Mid-Continent Petroleum Corp. No. 1 W. T. Cook (Calloway Huffaker), located six miles northeast of Tahoka, at last report was at around 7,000 feet in sandy lime. Standard Fryer Drilling Co.'s No. 1 Mrs. W. D. Nevels, 12 miles west of Tahoka, was drilling below 6,280 feet in lime and shale.

Southeast of Draw, and 2 1/4 miles south of the Draw-O'Donnell pool, Magnolia No. 1 Pearl Callaway, was reported drilling below 1,939 in redbeds and shale.

The Tahoka Fire Department was called to the S. H. Gryder farm near Wilson at 1:30 a. m. Wednesday.

Grassland Church Starts Meeting

Grassland Church of Christ will open a Gospel meeting Saturday, March 3, to continue through Sunday, March 11.

Roy Stephens of Barrett will do the preaching, and J. I. Parham of Lubbock will direct the singing.

Education Week Visits Planned

Next week is Public School Week in Texas, and E. R. Edwards states that the local Masonic Lodge is observing the occasion by urging all Masons and other patrons to visit the schools.

High School Principal Jim Foust also has issued an invitation to all patrons of the Tahoka schools to visit the school plant and any and all classes they desire to visit during this week.

New C.-C. Officers Installed; Threat of Communism Told

The largest group ever to attend such a meeting, 189, were present at the annual Tahoka Chamber of Commerce banquet in the Legion Hall Thursday night of last week.

Charley Verner was installed as president, succeeding A. M. Bray, the outgoing president, who presided at the affair. Wynne Collier is the new vice president, succeeding H. W. Carter. New directors elected by the members present are: Fred McGinty, Tom Gill, Jimmy Applewhite, R. H. Gibson, and Clint Walker. Hold-over directors include Bray, Winston Wharton, and J. D. Finley.

Farm Bureau Starting Drive

Officers and workers of the Lynn County Farm Bureau were holding a dinner meeting in the Tahoka school cafeteria Thursday night as a kick-off for the annual membership drive.

Sam Allen of Lamesa, president of the Dawson County Farm Bureau, assistant director of District 6, and co-ordinator of the Puka-Lambro Telephone Co-op, was the principal speaker.

The Lynn County chapter had 416 members in 1950, according to President Wilmer Smith, and an attempt will be made to raise this membership substantially. Dues of all counties in this area have been raised to $10, half of which goes to the State organization. State dues were raised this year. Funds are used, principally, to protect the farmers' interests in the Legislature and in Congress and to advance the farming program, rural roads, and other such services in rural areas.

Tahoka Pioneer Dies In Waco

Mrs. Sara A. (A. D.) Shook, 86, an early-day citizen of Lynn county and wife of one of the developers of Tahoka, died last Friday at 3:25 a. m. at her home at 2117 West Craven Street in Waco.

Funeral services were held in that city Monday and burial followed in Whiterock Cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Dee Sanders and daughters Marie of Tahoka and Mrs. Garland Cabe of Brownfield attended the rites.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shook moved to Lynn county in 1904 when they bought a section of land near Draw, then later bought three more sections. A few years later the family moved into Tahoka, and Mr. Shook engaged in the real estate business until

Sunday Showers Will Help Some

Rainfall ranging from mere showers to possibly two inches covered Lynn county last Saturday night and Sunday.

The Government gauge kept by The News registered .40 of an inch, and most farmers report a quarter inch or better.

West and north of New Home, the rainfall was heavy. Accurate measurements in that area showed that one inch three quarters inches fell near Lakeview with one farmer reporting "three or four inches." At any rate, the fall was sufficiently heavy to put water in the lakes and to permit putting the soil in shape for a crop.

Elsewhere, there was not nearly enough moisture, but every little bit will help.

Red Cross Fund Drive Started

The 1951 Red Cross Fund drive opens in Lynn county today, and an effort will be made to complete the campaign by Saturday night, according to Bobby Carroll, drive chairman.

Mr. Carroll has workers in every community of the county. He asks that the people act quickly and liberally in order that Lynn county may do its part in this worthy cause. The cooperation of everyone will enable the group to complete the drive without hardship to anyone.

Interest this year will be added by a parade through downtown Tahoka at 2:00 p. m. by the Lynn County Sheriff's posse, the Tahoka and O'Donnell school bands, and a few floats, according to County Agent Bill Griffin.

The show this year is being sponsored by Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, and Tahoka Rotary Club. Banners will be presented winners of grand and reserve championships, ribbons for other places, and other premium awards will be made. All business men of the town are requested to be present at the awarding of premiums at 2:30 p. m.

Judging of swine will begin at 10 a. m., and beef cattle judging will begin immediately after noon, and will be done by L. M. Hargrave and T. L. Leach, professors of agricultural education at Texas Tech.

There are two divisions of beef cattle again this year, one for milk fed calves, and one for dry lot calves, with a heavyweight and lightweight class under each division. There are six hog divisions, light and heavy classes and two lamb divisions.

Boys should bring in their stock this Friday afternoon or before 9 a. m. Saturday at the very latest.

George Claud Wells is superintendent of the Baby Beef division; Roy Botskin, Ward Eakin, and Charley Lichey of the Fat Barrow division; and Hubert Tankersley, the Fat Lamb division.

The Tahoka Band Boosters Club will serve drinks, sandwiches, etc., at the exhibit barn during the day.

Mrs. W. S. Brewer Died Tuesday

Mrs. Virene (W. S.) Brewer, nearly 70, died after a brief illness at Levelland Tuesday, just six months and one day after the death of Mr. Brewer. They had lived in Lynn county since before the coming of the railroad.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church in Tahoka Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. Ted Brian and Rev. A. R. Shewmake officiating, and burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery.

Stripling is credited with

He related the history of the Communist movement, how its minority membership has succeeded in taking Russia, all Eastern Europe, all of China, and now offers a threat to India, Burma, Western Europe and all the world by its boring-within methods.

He told how, from his own experience, he had found Communists boring into our government many times its agents upheld today. (The drinks on that, boys—the soft kind, something after the fashion of a William Jennings Bryan grape-juice, if you please.)

Now, with that off our system, we listen to remark that we do not agree with all of Friend Charley's editorial expressions and opinions by a jug-full. We do agree with many of them. As "Plainsman," Charles gets off his "cous-zip" often, we think, but his column is always interesting.

We were glad to see in a recent issue of the Avalanche a news story about our preacher-editor friend H. G. Richards of Anton, together with a picture of the gentleman sitting at his Linotype machine and obviously making it click. Richards is just about the whole works in his shop. He gathers the news, and the ads, puts them in type, makes up his own forms, and prints and publishes the paper mostly by himself. He is not only an editor and preacher for his town and community but he is also justice of the peace. As an editor he tells about the comings and the goings and the other activities of his people through the week, as a preacher he pleads on Sunday for the good Lord to have mercy on them, and on just any old day of the week he metes out justice as such as may have offended against the peace and dignity of the state. The author of the Avalanche story intimates that he controls just about all the votes in his voting precinct and thinks he could get elected to any office in his bellwether. Why shouldn't he? With a newspaper, a pulpit, and a rod of justice at his command, he ought to be monarch of all he surveys. We do not agree with Brother Richards in all of his editorials either, but we probably would if we lived in his precinct.

The First Baptist Church of Lubbock also is to be congratulated upon the practical completion of that marvelous new church which its members have built and in which they held their first service last Sunday morning. Some work on the inside is yet to be completed, come furniture installed, and carpets placed in the aisles. When completed it will have cost the membership nearly two million dollars. It is said to be the third largest and costliest Baptist church in Texas. The seating capacity of its auditorium is more than 2,300. The church has about 4,000 members, and it is said that 3,000 were present in Sunday School last Sunday. There must have been more than 2,000 men in the auditorium Tuesday night when the District Baptist Brotherhood held its annual meeting there.

We guess that a church can not get too large, but it is a question whether one enormously large church can accomplish as much and render as much service in the world as the same number of people would accomplish if divided into two churches. Personally, I am inclined to believe that two small churches would accomplish more.

The Bible does not tell us how large the church at Jerusalem became during apostolic days, but it certainly must have had a large membership. I believe that the Disciples of Christ were much more numerous at the time of his resurrection and ascension than is indicated by the 120 that met in the upper room, for apparently thousands must have put their faith in him during his ministry in Galilee and Judea and numerous outlying districts; and the record tells us that 3,000 others were added to these on the day of Pentecost; 5,000 men to say nothing of women and children a little later; and following all this, we are told that "believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women," and that "There came also a multitude out of the cities round about to Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits; and they were healed every one." We take it that they were healed spiritually as well as physically. Probably many of these did not become members of the local church organization in Jerusalem, but multitudes of them doubtless did. It must have been a great church, although nothing is said about a church edifice or a place of worship. They might have met in the court of the gentiles in the Temple, for the Temple guards probably would not have permitted the "heretics" to meet in any of the other courts; and so alarmed the priests, the scribes, and the rabbis became that they soon set about to drive all the disciples out of the city, and most of the disciples fled from the city to save their lives, but he it said to their credit there is no record of any of them renouncing their faith in Jesus as the Christ.

Now Christianity is at death grips not with the Jews but with the Communists. A speaker from Wayland College, who was a native of Lithuania now swallowed up by Communist-Atheistic Russia, spoke recently at a quarterly meeting of the Brownfield Baptist association, and I am told that he pictured most vividly what Christians in Lithuania and in other parts of Russia must now undergo at the hands of those blinded, godless fanatics. As I have said often before, Communists are out to destroy Christianity and Democracy, and the weapons they use are not Arguments but Armaments. This war is a terrible thing but it is high time that all our people were learning just what is at stake.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bass of Tahoka have been very much interested in what I have had to say about Bell county, for Mrs. Bass was born in that county and her father and mother lived in Sakado while I was in school there. They later moved to Pendletonville and her father, Mr. Norwood, engaged in business there for a number of years. Her grandfather, the venerable J. Q. Thompson, who lives in Troy and who has lived there for possibly seventy years or more, used to vote for me every time I ran for office, and he died in my office. And that reminds me of the fact that when one of my sisters a few days ago was rummaging through some of my brother's old papers, she found a piece of campaign literature in the form of a folder which I used in lieu of candidate cards in seeking re-election to the office of county attorney. It set out undisputed facts taken from the county records, and my friends always told me that that little folder saved the day for me.

Yes, and Marvin Bentley tells me that he lived at and near both Troy and Eddy for five or six years away back yander and knew a lot of people who still live in that area. T. R. Cothart also lived at Eddy for a number of years and knew my brother well. Mrs. H. P. Caversness was born and reared at the fine old town of McGregor 18 miles west of Waco, and Wash Hickerson used to run a grocery store in Crawford, the next station north of McGregor on the Santa Fe. Marcus Edwards and all of his brothers who live or have lived in Tahoka west from Valley Mills, 22 miles northwest of Waco, and Wilson Edwards, who owns the New Home gas, lives in Waco. Mrs. F. L. Adair originated down near the line of Bell and McLennan counties. John Ray of Garmonville lived for many years in the vicinity of Killeen and told me not long ago that he and his wife made a trip back down there recently just to see the country, after having read some of my articles mentioning old Bell county. I don't know how many other folks now living in Lynn county might be mentioned here if I would just try to think them all up. And then there is Coryell county that corners with McLennan on the line of Bell county about five or six miles west of Moody, and that county has given to Lynn county the Tippit and the Botkin families as well as Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reese. Mr. Reese tells me that he attended school at Moffatt, near which place I was born, where I taught school for one year, and where I found my first wife, Leonard Reese also says he attended school at Bland three miles west of Moffatt, where scores of folks almost akin to me used to live. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Reid came to Tahoka from Oglesby, a little Coryell county town on the line of McLennan county and not far from Bell.

So my Lynn county readers will readily see that I just have to tell the truth about central Texas when writing of any of these counties, otherwise friends down there would be sure to catch up with me and be jumping astraddle of my neck.

It's a great country, folks, and we love every foot of it, but really we would like to see their representatives in the legislature trimmed down to a stand and give us a chance to raise a larger crop of the vegetables out here on these Plains. Good Night.

Missionaries Visit In Tahoka Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Davis were honored to have in their home Thursday night and Friday of last week Dr. and Mrs. Homer Wilson, missionaries to Africa. The visitors showed pictures to some fifty people. It was a blessing, the Davises declare, to see the pictures and hear Dr. Wilson tell of their work in Africa and the great need and suffering there. Mrs. Wilson displayed curios, which both the children and grown-ups enjoyed. Dr. and Mrs. Wilson spoke in a church in Lubbock Friday night. They will soon be on their way back to Africa.

Farm Machinery Attention Needed

Lynn county farmers were urged today to look over their farm machinery and to order needed repair parts promptly. R. A. Kahlich, chairman of the County Production and Marketing Administration Committee, pointed out that manufacturers will be in better position to satisfy calls for repair parts and other items in maintaining farm machinery if farmers get their orders in early. This advice follows the recent call for conservation of farm machinery by Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan, who said:

"One of the first and most vital requirements of farmers today is for an adequate supply of production tools. This is demonstrated clearly by the fact that mechanization has been a key factor in the development of the vast productive capacity of our farms.

"An essential aid in keeping our farms in good condition mechanically is for farmers to take all steps possible toward keeping their machinery and equipment in a constant state of repair and to use it under conditions that will cause the least wear. In the interest both of maintaining an adequate supply of farm mechanical equipment and of obtaining the feed we shall need in the national defense effort, I fully recommend such measures."

PMA's Office of Materials and Facilities—charged with looking out for farm requirements of machinery and production materials—emphasized the special need for careful handling and conservation of farm machinery. Farm production has increased 20 per cent since 1914, with the aid of mechanization, while the labor force has dwindled by about 1 million workers.

While farms are better equipped now than ever before with farm machinery and other mechanical facilities, this makes farmers more dependent on the products of industry. For most farms, it is now a case of machinery or nothing.

Local Men Visit Electrical Display

A. M. Bray, Russell McGee, and Vernon Brewer represented Tahoka, as guests of the Southwestern Public Service company, at the General Electric "More Power to America Special" display in Amarillo Monday of this week.

The show featured a special train displaying latest electrical equipment and ideas for producing, distributing and using electrical energy. Among the 2,000 exhibits were many modern and miraculous devices.

The Tahoka men were accompanied by Walter Anglin of Lubbock, formerly of Tahoka, who was their host substituting for W. G. (Bill) Clarke, local manager, who is seriously ill in a Lubbock hospital.

Mrs. Tunnel Tells Of Visit To East

Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnel returned home last week end from a liberal meeting of school administrators held in Atlantic City, N. J. She also visited Chicago, Detroit, and New York City.

In Detroit, she visited with Dr. Conrad Lam, famous heart surgeon who was reared in Tahoka. Conrad carried her on an inspection of the great Henry Ford Hospital, with which he is associated, and she talked to two or three of his patients on whom he had performed heart operations.

Dr. Lam is the surgeon who last year attracted world-wide attention by performing an "impossible" heart operation which marks another milestone in surgical technique.

Dr. Lam is a graduate of Tahoka High School, and worked his own way through Simmons University before beginning the study of medicine and surgery.

PLAINVIEW, March 1.—Miss Margaret Durham was crowned queen of the Weyland Pioneer basketball team for the 1950-51 season last Thursday at the half-time in Nunn Gym, as the Pioneers played the Aggies from Fairbairn's A. & M.

The announcement of the Pioneer queen had been kept a secret until this time, by the members of the page club, who elected her.

This choice came for a two-fold reason. One was because of her popularity and the other because of the attractiveness of Miss Durham.

Margaret is 18 years old, born May 21, 1932, in Tahoka, Texas, which is still her home. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. K. R. Durham. Dr. Durham is dentist in that city.

Miss Durham is working for a B. A. degree with a major in journalism and English. In the field of journalism, Margaret has already won honor by winning first place in a state journalism contest, third place in copy-reading and fifth in headline writing.

While in high school Margaret graduated as honor student of her class. While she has been in Weyland, she has been one of the students whose name has consistently appeared on the college honor roll.

Margaret is of medium height, slender, with long brown hair, and a pleasing smile.

LET'S PLAY CANASTA!

YOU as North are playing a game of Canasta, fully described from the deal to the scoring in a series of eight articles, of which this is the fourth.

The first meld by a side is its initial meld.

The initial meld must meet a requirement of minimum count as follows:

Previous score Minimum count of the side required

Minus	None
0 to 1,495	50
1,500 to 2,995	90
3,000 or more	130

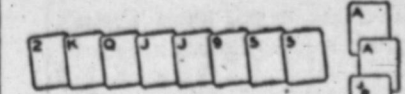

The count of a meld is the total value of the cards melded, according to this table:

Each joker	50
Each deuce	20
Each ace	20
Each K, Q, J, 10, 9, or 8	10
Each 7, 6, 5, or 4	5
Each black trey	5

When the upcard is taken for an initial meld, it (but no other card in the pack) may be counted toward the minimum required.

Your meld of the A-A-Jkr, totaling 90, more than meets the requirement at the beginning of a game. One reason for melding was that you could do so economically, using only three cards. Generally speaking, the more cards you have in your hand the better your chance of running up a big score. But there is little use in concealing meldable aces; aces are not usually discarded early in the play.

You end your turn by discarding the 8, leaving yourself with:

East draws, melds Q-Q-Q-2, then discards a 5. South draws, and before discarding adds an A from his hand to your set.

Short Is Recovering From Horse Kick

George Short, who received a fractured right pelvic bone when kicked by a horse on Sunday, February 11, is reported to be improving nicely at his home here. However, it will be necessary for him to remain in bed several weeks yet. Mrs. Oran Short reports.

Last week, five friends who own neighboring farms were kind enough to chisel his farm land for him, of which he is deeply appreciative. These men are: J. H. Knight, Vernon Wilhoit, Buel Draper, Howard Wheeler, and Winston Wharton. George declares that it's fine to have such friends as these when misfortune comes, and he asks The News to express his sincere thanks to them publicly.

TANKERSLEY IN JAPAN

Mrs. Hubert Tankersley reports that her son, H. R., Jr., who enlisted in the Navy about four months ago, now is stationed in Japan. He writes that he is on duty on an officers' motor launch, which is generally considered a very desirable place in the Navy.

Baylor's Larry Isbel, who finished in a tie with Rote for third in total offense with 1,232 yards, was the No. 2 passer with 1,220 yards.

More than 2,000 job opportunities exist in 84 scientific and technical fields at 60 naval activities located throughout the country.

A Preacher's Point of View

BY LEE RAMSOUR,
Pastor First Baptist Church

In some sections there are those who think that there must be a complete separation of Christianity and citizenship. It would seem that any honest observer would see that we could use a little more Christianity in our citizenship. The world would be better off if there were more honesty and integrity in all citizenship and governmental affairs. It would appear that Christian ideals and ideas should be projects in every walk of life. If such is to be done, it will be done only when Christian people participate in the affairs of civic and governmental nature and use their lives and influence for the betterment of conditions. Some one reported a conversation between a young communist and a young Christian. The communist was saying, "We will win over Christianity because we are enthusiastic, and you are only lukewarm." Whether or not this statement is true depends on each one of us more than we realize.

New rose plants should be set to the same depth they were growing in the nursery. They should not be planted in old rose beds nor where they must compete with shrubs and trees for plant food and moisture.

First flight to North Pole was made by Lt. Cmdr. Richard E. Byrd, USN (Ret.) (now Read Admiral) and Floyd Bennett on May 9, 1926 in the "Josephine Ford," a tri-motor Fokker monoplane, from King's Bay, Spitzbergen.

Mrs. A. N. Trotter To Be Speaker At Assembly of God Church Services

Mrs. A. N. Trotter from Muskogee, Oklahoma, will be guest speaker this week end at the Tahoka Assembly of God Church.

Mrs. Trotter is a veteran missionary from Liberia, West Africa, and is one of the most interesting missionary speakers that the writer has ever had the pleasure of hearing. We will be delighted to have you in the audience. Services start each evening at 7:30 o'clock.

—H. C. Lewis, pastor.
SECOND SHEETS, Manila, at The News.

By Waggoner Carr
Representative, 119th District
Since the people of our area have been fighting for our fair share of representatives in our legislature for the past thirty years and since all prior efforts have been successfully defeated by those representatives from other parts of the state who, for various undemocratic reasons, did not want redistricting, I would like to record a few of the details of the successful fight for redistricting which has been carried out this session.

As you know, I am a member of the redistricting committee and I have therefore had a wonderful opportunity to forward the cause of redistricting. From the beginning of the session we have had committee meetings in which many arguments have been heard, primarily between those representatives from sections of the state that would lose representation due to shift of population from that section of the state to the west and south. Those of us who have for so long needed redistricting thoroughly enjoyed the race among the East Texas legislators who were trying to keep all they could and make the best out of a bad situation. After several weeks of committee meetings and arguments, the legislative committee met one night last week from 10:30 p. m. until 1:00 a. m. and voted to submit a redistricting plan to the legislature.

Monday morning, February 19th, the redistricting bill was laid before the House for debate. Feeling that those who opposed redistricting would use everything within their power to defeat the bill, those of us who were in favor of redistricting were successful in placing a "call of the House" which resulted in the locking of all doors so that no representative could leave until the bill was finally passed. (A very effective way of delaying a bill is for enough representatives to leave so that there is no quorum present and therefore the House cannot transact business.) We stayed in session until four o'clock in the afternoon with no lunch time or rest period. Many talks were made by those representatives who were faced with a redistricting plan which they did not want.

The walls of the House Chamber shook from the righteous and indignant shouts of those representatives who felt that they should do everything they could to protect "the dear folks back home" from this terrible thing which was occurring. But those of us who wanted redistricting held firm and we were able to defeat every amendment designed to delay or destroy this redistricting plan. This House redistricting bill now goes to the Senate and it is my hope and belief that it will be approved by the Senate without amendment. This bill divides our present 119th District four ways: Lynn, Dawson, Gaines and Andrews will have one representative. Hockley, Cochran, Terry and Yoakum counties will have one representative. Lubbock will have two representatives. Crosby, Garza, Kent, Borden and Scurry counties will have one representative. This means that our area will have four representatives instead of the one it now has. The West Texas area as a whole has picked up eleven new representatives. This is something that we have all waited for many years and it is with heartfelt thanks that I express my appreciation to the people of the 119th District for giving me the honor of being on the "firing line" in the long overdue solution of this problem.

A graduate of Amarillo High School and Texas A. & M. College, 1938, Boyd entered on active duty with the Armed Forces in 1939 as a Cavalry officer.

Serving with the Air Force in the Philippines when World War II broke out, Boyd was stationed on both Bataan and Corregidor. When Corregidor fell in May, 1942, he became a Prisoner of War of the Japanese. Three years and four months later, in September, 1945, when Japan surrendered, he was released.

Major and Mrs. Boyd, and their three-year old daughter, Gloria Jane, are living in quarters at Kelly AFB.

Frigidaire Offers Many New Models

New 1951 lines of Frigidaire appliances, highlighted by smartly-styled household refrigerators designed for once-a-week shopping and electric ranges featuring a revolutionary new 'Wonder Oven', were announced here recently by Winston C. Wharton, local dealer.

The extensive new product lines include: Four types of refrigerators with capacities ranging from four to 17 cubic feet; electric ranges in 40, 30 and 31-inch sizes; home laundry equipment featuring an automatic electric clothes washer, dryer and ironer; food freezers, electric water heaters, an electric dehumidifier for home or business use and home air conditioning units. Distinctive new Raymond Loewy styling and advance engineering designs have been incorporated into Frigidaire's extensive line of household refrigerators as well as the ranges and other appliances.

Top model of the broad new refrigerator line is the 10-cubic-foot two-door Imperial Refrigerator, which provides three kinds of cold—each with its own refrigeration system, operated by a single rotary Meter-Miser compressor. The big Locker-Top freezing compartment equipped with a separate door will hold up to 73 pounds of frozen food. Sub-zero cold is provided by refrigerant coils in the sides, back, top and bottom.

New ranges are glittering white porcelain-finished creations with the new slanted front styling, one-piece Flowing Tops and high back panels. Focal points of the new line is the 'Wonder Oven' on two of three top range models. This revolutionary development permits the preparation of different foods at different temperatures at the same time, in the same oven. It is accomplished by converting one large single oven into two separate ovens with a movable unit. The upper oven has two heating units so that it may be used for broiling as well as baking or roasting. The lower oven is equipped with a single bottom, especially designed for baking or roasting. There are separate controls for each oven. Another unique feature of the new 'Wonder Oven' is that the two ovens can be converted in a matter of seconds into a single giant oven of 6,610 cubic inches, 25 per cent larger than last year's standard ovens.

Dale Thuren Gives Away Baby Chicks

Dale Thuren reports that he distributed a total of 3100 baby chicks to customers visiting his store last Friday and Saturday.

He had advertised that he would give free 15 Leghorn cockerels to the first 100 adults visiting his store. There were so many callers, however, that Dale got soft-hearted and dealt out free about 2,800 chicks to nearly 200 people. He also sold a few to those wanting more than 15 and gave 40 free with the sale of a battery brooder and a sack of broiler chow.

The event attracted so much interest, that he is repeating the performance on Tuesday, March 6, and Friday, March 16.

There are no strings attached, but naturally he would like to sell a little feed and livestock raising appliances.

He is thoroughly sold on the idea of diversified farming, and believes that this area is missing a big money-making opportunity in not raising more and better livestock.

and defended by our highest government officials; and declared that the atom bomb was no secret to Russia and that Moscow had our complete blueprints two weeks after we began work on the bomb. The reason we now have atomic bomb superiority, he said, is because we have more and better trained scientists and great manufacturing institutions with more know-how and equipment.

He told how Alger Hiss, former State Department official, now proven Communist, had set in on the Yalta Conference and wrote the compromise which gave Poland and Manchuria to Russia and how he had "sold the United States down the river" on other occasions. Alger Hiss' brother, Donald Hiss, is a law partner of our present Secretary of State, Dean Acheson, who he strongly hinted is at least a "pinkie pick" or under "pinkish" influence. Acheson has repeatedly declared he could not turn his back on his old friend, Alger Hiss, and the President of our nation has declared he would never call for Acheson's resignation. Strippling believes such a man with such influences is not qualified to head our State Department.

"Democracy is being challenged and we must face the fact that this is an all out war. Either Democracy or Communism will survive—both cannot," he warned.

He urged that the citizens write their congressmen and their senators their views on world and national problems. We are the government, but we are not doing our duties if we do not vote; if we do not write our opinions to our representatives.

JET PILOTS USE TINY FLYING CHARTS

As jet planes grow faster, the charts by which they fly grow smaller and more convenient.

The Aeronautical Chart Service, which is a unit of the Air Force's Air Materiel Command, has the task of providing charts which will conquer the problems occasioned by the high-speed, high-altitude flying of the jets. It accomplishes the task by continuous experimentation and by coordination with the men who fly the planes.

Time is a matter of the greatest importance to the jet pilot. Large-scale charts, that is, those which cover a smaller part of the earth's surface, are not for him; he flies so fast that his navigation charts must cover great areas. He doesn't need all the detailed ground information which pilots of slower aircraft use; in fact, his speed and altitude prevent him from seeing some of the earth's features as depicted on the more conventional charts. Then, too, he hasn't as much time to study his charts.

Another factor is the limited cockpit space in the jets. The jet pilot has no place to put a great volume of charts, and no space for studying large charts.

So the charts have grown smaller and more compact, and cover larger areas. Less detail is shown. Six jet navigation charts are sufficient to cover the entire continental United States, and each measures only 15 1/2 by 18 1/2 inches. The arrival let-down charts, 4 1/2 by 7 inches, are contained in various publications at present provided for each overseas area where the U. S. Air Force flies.

It is the endeavor of the Aeronautical Chart Service to see through the eyes of the jet pilot to assure that his charts will keep pace with the tremendous advances in jet flying.

1921, when they moved to Waco. Mr. Shook was killed in that city in 1922 when a building collapsed on him.

More than any other one man, Mr. Shook was responsible for the present Tahoka city plat. He developed the North Tahoka addition, laid out the streets, and was responsible for carving out the broad Main Street which until the late 1920's was a boulevard with trees down its center. He also constructed or was responsible for construction of several of our present business buildings.

Mr. Shook was a man of vision and was a leader in many civic enterprises. He donated about two-thirds of a block to the City for park purposes, the present City Park.

Mrs. Shook lent courage to him in developing Tahoka, and she was a kind mother and a friend to many people here.

Survivors include: Three daughters, Mrs. S. D. Sanders, Mrs. Marlin Jordan, and Mrs. Carl Trautsohd, all of Waco; four sons, Guy Shook of Los Angeles, O. M. Shook of Denver, Colo., Charles Shook of San Fidel, N. M., and Burrey Shook of Phoenix, Ariz.; 13 grandchildren; and 12 great grandchildren.

Jail Bonds

signed the petition. Some people have raised the question as to the advisability of starting the building program at this time of high prices and critical shortages.

Anyone who has inspected the antiquated Lynn County Jail on the west top floor of the court house must admit that this part of the building is in a deplorable state, a threat to the health of inmates, "an almost impossible place to put dangerous criminals for safe keeping, and is no safe place for an officer to enter while the jail is filled with prisoners of unknown criminal tendencies.

Basically, the court house is well built. The News is informed by those who should know. However, repairs that have been made to it over the years are hodge-podge and insufficient. The plumbing is worn out and water from pipes which are rusting out frequently are damaging the building. The building was recently rewired, but this is still said to be insufficient. Walls, ceilings, and floors are in bad condition.

If the Commissioners accede to the mandate of the petitions, it will be up to the tax-paying citizens soon to decide whether or not they want this bond issue for court house and jail improvements.

Athletics Aided By Donkey Game

Tahoka High School gym was two-thirds filled Monday night, when the Jaycees played the Bulldogs a basketball game. The players rode bucking and balky rubber-shod burros that furnished art riders thrills and spills and the crowd a lot of fun.

The Bulldogs netted about $60 from their percentage of the proceeds, which money will go toward buying equipment and awards for the school athletes.
