Seek Settlement of Telephone Dispute

An attempt will be made in Washington, D. C., Wednesday of next week to iron out differences between two South Plains telephone cooperatives, now in process of organization, and the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company, Sam Allen, coordinator of the Peka-Lambro Cooperative with headquarters here, has been informed.

Mr. Allen and Mr. Glenn Newton of Lubbock, manager of the South Plains Telephone cooperative, which has headquarters in that city, were notified this week of the conference by Geo. W. Haggard, deputy administrator of the REA in charge of telephone cooperatives.

In a telephone conversation with Mr. Allen, Mr. Haggard talked very favorably toward ultimate approval of the plans for the Peka-Lambro work and the resulting release of funds for starting construction.

Engineers are now engaged in drawing up plans for the Peka-Lambro outside plant and are laying out circuits in areas where members are paid up in full.

Plans are not being made for lines into areas where prospective members yet owe the remaining $45 of their $50 membership fees. Therefore, he says, it is very important for those desiring service to complete their membership obligations at the earliest possible moment. Failure to do so now could result in some farm families who want telephone service not being included in the plans and therefore not getting service.

Four File For School Trustees

The names of four men were filed this week for two places on the Tahoka board of school trustees. They are: W. T. Kidwell, E. W. Copelin, John Thomas, and Cecil Hammonds.

The two trustees, Ross Smith and Alton Cain, whose terms expire are not candidates for re-election.

The school trustee election will be held on Saturday, April 7. Last day for filing names for trustees is March 27.

Holdover trustees are: Calloway Huffaker, V. F. Jones, Hubert Tankersley, J. Douglas Finley and Buel Draper.

Vivian Bilbrey Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Vivian Amelia Bilbrey, 51, died suddenly in Tahoka Hospital last Friday following an illness of about a week. She was not believed to be seriously ill, and the day before her death she had been out of her bed and conversing with friends.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at 3 p. m. in the First Baptist Church with Elder V. J. Lawrence officiating, assisted by Rev. Lee Ramsour. Burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of Stanley Funeral Home.

She was born in Rannells county March 3, 1900, and came to Lynn county with her parents in 1906. She was married on December 30, 1923, to Ike Bilbrey, who died January 2, 1945. She had lived in Lynn county since coming here as a child, first in the Redwine community and of late years has been living in Tahoka with her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Beard. She was a member of the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Bilbrey was survived by her parents; three brothers, Clayton Beard of Brownwood, John Beard of Brownfield, and Jesse Healey of Tahoka; and one sister, Mrs. Jeanette Wagley of Plains.

Rains Permit Land Listing

Rainfall totaling .59 of an inch fell in Tahoka last week-end bringing the total precipitation for a two weeks' period to about one inch.

Most of Lynn county received a similar amount, and in most areas will permit farmers to get started on their listing. However, more rain will be needed quickly if listing is to be completed soon.

The rain began falling in the early hours of Friday morning and mist and showers continued through out the day and into the night. All the water that fell soaked into the ground.

A norther blew up Saturday night however, and a trace of sleet and snow fell. Following a warm day Saturday, the thermometer dropped below the freezing point.

Jim Applewhite As Good As "In" As Tahoka Mayor

The News and James K. Applewhite have been the objects of a lot of kidding the last week on account of a statement made in "the old home paper" in its last issue.

The News stated that "if elected," Jimmy would be the next Mayor of Tahoka. The fact is Jimmy is unopposed, and so far as we know no one has or will start a write-in campaign against this popular young Tahoka businessman.

Jimmy is conservative, sound, and progressive, and we still maintain that "if elected" he will make Tahoka an excellent Mayor even if the above statement does sound like double-talk.

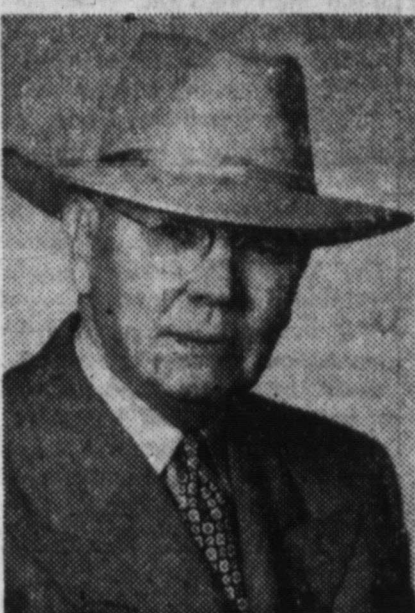

Negro M. E. Bishop Will Speak Here

One of the Nation's highest officials in the Colored Methodist Church, Bishop H. P. Porter of Louisville, Kentucky, will speak at the local Colored Methodist Church Monday night, March 26, at 8:30 o'clock.

Rev. A. E. Davis, the pastor, states that white people of the community are invited to hear this great Colored minister, and special seats will be provided for them.

T. J. Whittington Dies In Wreck

Truman J. Whittington, 46, formerly of Tahoka but a resident of Surdown for many years, was killed in a car wreck north of Muleshoe at about 3 a. m. Thursday.

His 1930 model car is believed to have gotten out of control, left the highway, and hit a light line pole. He was dead when found a short time later by a newspaper delivery boy. The body was lying about 20 feet from the machine in a field. The accident occurred about two miles east of Muleshoe on Highway 84.

Whittington, it is believed, was en route to Fletcher, Okla., where Mrs. Whittington and a daughter were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Harve Henderson, also former Lynn county residents.

Whittington is a brother-in-law of Harley and Frank Henderson of Tahoka.

The program will also include a jackpot roping contest and a mount bronc riding contest.

Sammy Baugh is the famous "Slinging Sammy" of Sweetwater, TCU, and Washington Redskins football fame. He still plays football for the Redskins, but in off-seasons operates his own ranch at Rotan.

John Givens of Terry county has become famous in rodeo circles as a calf roper.

The Tahoka Roping Club and the Tahoka Jaycees have also begun making plans for their Second Annual Jaycee Rodeo which will be held here again this year.

Claude C. Barnes Takes Own Life

The body of Claude C. Barnes, 70, was found in the living room of his home in east Tahoka by a friend between 3 and 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The top of his head had been blown away by a shotgun blast.

Funeral services were conducted at Stanley Funeral Chapel Monday afternoon, with Rev. Lee Ramsour, Baptist pastor, officiating, and burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery.

Mr. Barnes had been in ill health for a long time, suffering from rheumatism, and at the time was living alone. Friends believe that he became despondent and decided to take his own life to relieve his misery.

Shortly after 3 p. m. Sunday, C. C. Dwight, local photographer, who had known the deceased for about 40 years, went to the Barnes home to see about Claude. Looking in the livingroom door, Dwight saw the body on the floor. Sheriff Roland Clem was called, and he found a .12 gauge shotgun lying near the body and a note to his family lying on a table. Justice of the Peace P. D. Server rendered a verdict of suicide. It is believed that he died about 12:30 Sunday noon.

Mr. Barnes was born in Collin county May 3, 1880, and later moved to Lockney, Floyd county, where he was married in 1906 to Mrs. Lillie Weathers Hill. The family moved to Tahoka in 1910. Mrs. Barnes died here January 26, 1941. About eight years ago, Mr. Barnes married again. He was a member of the local Baptist Church. An old time citizen of Tahoka, he had many close friends, who, with his relatives, mourn his passing.

He is survived by one son, Clarence Barnes of Clovis, New Mexico; a step-daughter, Mrs. R. W. Fenton, Jr., of Tahoka; a granddaughter, Mrs. Roy Whitmore of Clovis; two step-granddaughters, Mrs. O. C. Elliott and Mrs. Kenneth Turner, both of Tahoka; and one sister, Mrs. Ida Ragle of Lockney.

Negro Baptist Church Burns

The Pleasant Grove Baptist Church (Negro) burned to the ground at about 5 a. m. Monday. The structure was partially covered by insurance and probably will be rebuilt at an early date.

How the fire started is not known, but it is presumed to have been caused by defective wiring. Rev. Luther Brown is the pastor.

The entire faculty of the Tahoka Public Schools was re-elected at a meeting of the school board held Tuesday night.

All teachers are subject to assignment.

Several teachers in the grade school were re-elected subject to their ability to meet requirements of the Commissioner of Education. Teachers in the elementary school not holding degrees with at least 12 hours in Elementary Education must submit a "degree plan" that will meet the approval of the Commissioner.

Frank Norton, counselor, who works with both Tahoka and O'Donnell schools, was re-elected subject to like approval of the O'Donnell board.

British C. Daniel, Negro school principal, was re-elected on condition the Average Daily Attendance of that school justifies three teachers.

Urban Brown, grade school principal for five years, had made application for classroom work in the grade school, to which he was elected, and it will therefore become necessary to select a new grade school principal.

Mrs. Brown, dietician and lunchroom supervisor, will continue in the same position.

Supt. Vernon Brewer has another year on his present contract.

The complete faculty follows: High School: Jim Foust, principal; V. P. Carter, vocational agriculture; Miss Jeannine Smith, homemaking; W. E. Tregoe, band; Frank Norton, counselor; Lillian C. Bartley, Betty Brookshire, J. Lee Coffman, Ledru F. Jacobs, G. Floyd Tubb, Jesse M. Miles, John A. Roberts, Mary Margaret Stewart, and Joe Turner.

Tahoka-Lockney Split Six to Six

Tahoka and Lockney boxers met in a team match here Monday night before a fair-sized crowd, and the event ended in a deadlock, each town winning six fights.

Coach Joe Turner's fighters had the week before at Lockney, won five and lost seven fights.

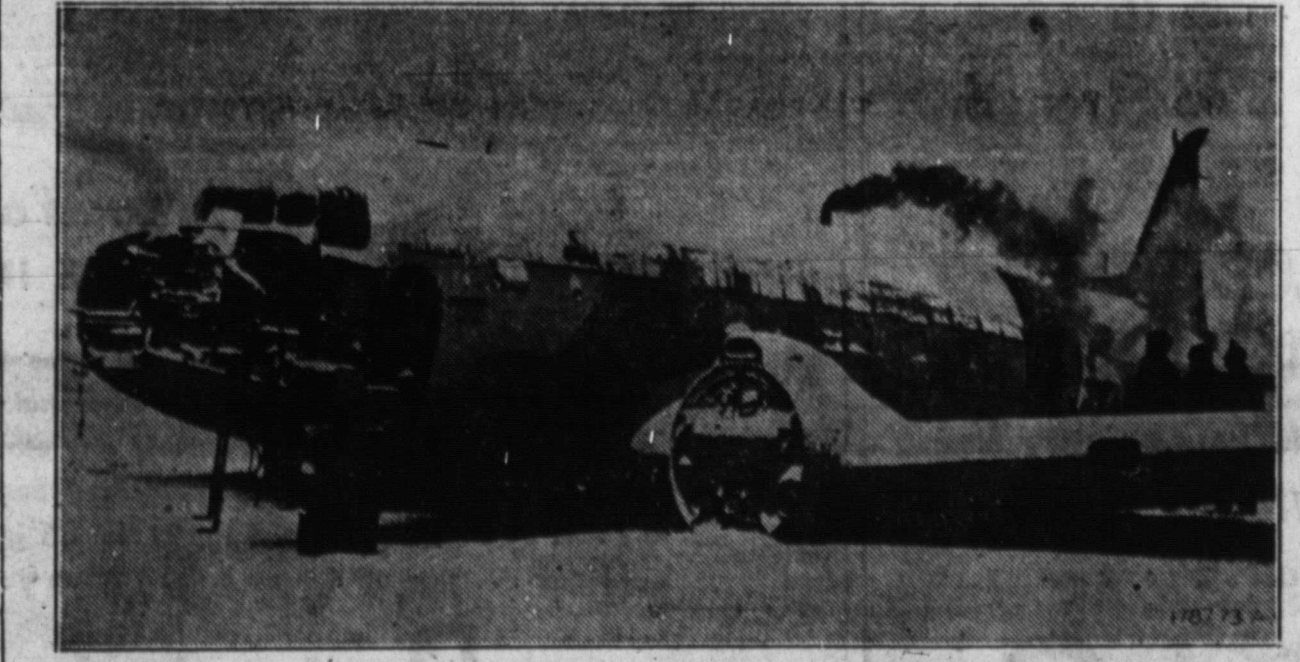

There was plenty of action in the fights here, with several of them ending in technical knockouts.

The results follow: Jerry Jackson, 85, Tahoka, was decided by Little Red, 66; Brownie Williams, 106, Tahoka, decided Gary Sandlin, 109; Edward Crouch, 111, Tahoka, was TKO'd by D. Vissage, 110; Charley Schultz, 118, Tahoka, decided Wayne Kirkpatrick, 122; Harley Schultz, 129, Tahoka, scored a knockout over Cleon Wiley, 123.

Odds AND Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

Away back yonder in the days when the northwest Texas congressional district stretched from Big Spring to Beaver county, Oklahoma, and covered the entire Panhandle and Plains area of Texas together with a bunch of counties lying below the caprock, Marvin Jones represented the district in Congress.

Later, after a new 19th district was carved out of this vast domain, Mr. Jones continued to represent what was left of the old district, which still extended from the north line of the Panhandle down to the north line of Hale and Floyd counties, which counties at this writing are still in the 19th district represented by George Mahon.

Jones won quite a reputation in Congress for the prominent part he took in shaping legislation in the interest of the farmer, and we guess he could have remained in Congress as long as he wished. In fact, he did remain in Congress as long as he wished, for away back yonder in one of the many administrations of Franklin D. Roosevelt, he was given a practically life-time job and doubtless an easier one, with a very satisfactory salary attached, as Judge of the United States Court of Claims, Washington, D. C. That took him out of the public eye and we have not been seeing much in the papers about him in recent years.

Leni Warned Us

But recently, my son, E. I. Hill, Jr., who has been holding down a job in the Government printing office in Washington for the past twenty years, sent me a clipping of a gambling claim heard by the Court together with Judge Jones' decision thereon. It is the decision that makes interesting reading matter, especially in view of the fact that crooked gambling deals are being exposed at the present time by a committee of the U. S. Senate. So we are reproducing the story and the text of the decision in this column.

The Washington newspaper carried Judge Jones' picture too but we are sorry that we cannot reproduce that. Incidentally, the passing years seem to be affecting Judge Jones' facial features quite a bit—a habit that long trains of years formed centuries ago. For the benefit of his Tahoka friends, who are still quite numerous, we take the liberty and the risk of stating that according to the picture Judge Jones does not have too much hair these days and keeps that which he has dipped very short, and there are some wrinkles that make his jaws look a little flabby. He is still handsome, however. It's the twinkle in his eyes and the judicial smile lighting up his face that saves the day for him.

Now for the story, clipped from the "Washington Star."

"The United States Court of Claims today ruled that a taxpayer can not claim gambling as his business and then deduct unlucky bets as business losses.

The case involved the estate of a professional gambler, William E. Skeeles of Shreveport, La., whose widow sought a tax refund for his estate and herself.

"In the opinion, it was explained that Mr. and Mrs. Skeeles suffered a net loss of $12,200.69 in 1940, a net income of $83,674.29 in 1941, and a net loss of $66,570.98 in 1942. In their 1941 returns Mr. and Mrs. Skeeles each tried to take a net operating loss deduction, carrying over the 1940 loss. The deductions were disallowed. The Skeeles couple had to pay, and Mrs. Skeeles wanted a refund.

These were the facts and the figures in the case, and maybe they are a little dry. But if you have read this far, read on, brother, for now comes the decision of the court, written by the chief judge of the court, Marvin Jones, which the Washington Star says is one of the most interesting and readable legal opinions of recent years.

The Star then proceeds to give the opinion in substance as follows:

"Gambling is apparently as old as the human race. The practice runs back through recorded history until it is lost amid the mysteries of tradition. It affects people in all latitudes, longitudes, and stages of civilization. The ancient-oriental and medieval European, as well as the modern American, have in time come under its influence. Greece and Rome came under its spell, and an ancient Hindu hymn bewails the woe of the ruined gambler.

"The Australian and South African Bushmen had competitions for prizes, as have all other known peoples. Sometimes the stakes were large. Tacitus, whose penetrating brevity makes his history fascinating reading, tells of wealthy Romans who bet so heavily on chariot races that they lost their entire fortunes and as a consequence their respectability. He says that in some instances in his time men gambled away their liberty."

"In practically all countries a distinction has been made both in the public mind and in legislative enactment between the occasional wagerer and the professional who undertakes, without work, to writing a living from the wages of others. The professional or common gambler has never occupied a high position in society.

"In the old cow country there were a few men who by the skillful use of the branding iron reached the dizzy heights of a cattle king, but these men never stood high with the great run of cattlemen who depended for their success on their knowledge of the cattle business, their ranching experience, and their skill in buying and selling.

"The churches generally have opposed gambling as immoral. The Talmud classes gambling winnings with thievery.

"There is a long record of legislation against gambling in many, in fact in most, countries, sometimes on moral but more often on economic grounds.

"There is an element of chance in all the affairs of life, even in the soundest and most conservative of business undertakings. This element of chance is sometimes referred to as luck. It is sometimes difficult to find where business judgment leaves off and chance or luck begins. For example, when Charles Lindberg flew to Paris in a small plane he had to have considerable luck, but as in all such undertakings luck needs a partner, and in that instance the partner was the unusual skill, experience, and daring of the flyer. If he had dependent on blind chance he probably would have fallen into the ocean.

"Wagering has had a strange hold on the human race. The barefoot boy plays marbles for keeps, throws knives with a cry of 'Whole blade or no trade,' and in the prairie states will wager whatever is in his pocket on which dog will catch the mule-eared rabbit. Crown men and women continue the practice in a Four Lynn county boys placed with their fat calves in the tough competition of the Sand Hills Hereford show at Odessa last week end, and the boys' calves were sold at auction Saturday.

Ralph Mires, O'Donnell 4-H youth, took eighteenth place in the heavyweight milkfed class, and his calf brought 49 cents per pound.

Richard Carter, Tahoka FFA boy, took twentieth place in the heavyweight dry lot class, and his calf brought 40 cents per pound.

Stock shown at the event was excellent as a whole and the competition was very keen, County Agent Bill Griffin stated. The Big Spring boy who had the National champion calf last year placed eighth in the show this year.

Methodist Men Install Officers

New officers were installed and a talk given by Rev. J. W. Hawkins of Draw at the regular monthly meeting of the Methodist Men in Fellowship Hall of the Church Monday night. Forty-five were present.

C. O. Carmack is the new president, succeeding V. F. Jones. Clint Walker is the new vice-president, succeeding H. W. Carter. Pete Hegi had been re-elected secretary-treasurer. Brief talks were made by both the out-going and in-coming presidents and by Rev. C. A. Holcomb, Jr., who installed the new officers.

Rev. Hawkins, Methodist pastor at Draw, spoke entertainingly on the subject, "The Second Coming of Christ," in which he decoupled the ability of man to interpret from the Scriptures, any exact time set for the end of things. Through speaking in a humorous vein most of the time, the speaker brought out many fine thoughts. V. F. Jones introduced the speaker.

multitude of forms. But through it all the professional gambler has been more or less condemned. Perhaps the distinction is in recognition of the injunction, when man was taken out of Eden, that he should eat his bread in the sweat of his face.

"This background is given as an aid to the interpretation of the statute. For the occasional wagerer no carry-over deduction is allowed. To sustain the contention of plaintiff, it is necessary to extend to the professional gambler tax-reduction privileges that are not accorded to one who bets occasionally. To reach such a conclusion in the face of the public viewpoint and legislative purposes generally would require a clearly worded statute that precludes any other conclusion. "The amounts claimed as deductions, being gambling losses in excess of gambling gains, were, therefore, properly disallowed. The petitions are dismissed."

A very interesting legal opinion indeed, and that paragraph about the barefoot boy made me wonder if Marvin Jones the school-kid ever spit tobacco juice at a crack in the floor or a knot-hole in the wall on a wager that he could hit the mark. Of course he didn't, on second thought, for Marvin Jones never chewed tobacco when he was a kid.

Now just another word or two. I've got to try to get Roy Edwards in a good humor. A couple of weeks ago when I made mention of quite a number of folks who had come to Lynn county from Bell, McLennan, and Coryell, I clear forgot to mention Roy. When I saw him at the post office, I remembered what I had done and began to apologize. He didn't know what I was talking about, for he had not even read my column; don't guess he ever does read it. So I had to explain to him. Then he perked up and

A Preacher's Point of View

BY LEE RAMSOUR,
 Pastor First Baptist Church

I Heard Billy Graham

I was one of some fifteen thousand who thronged the Will Rogers Coliseum in Fort Worth recently to hear the much publicized Billy Graham. I had heard much about his great preaching and went to hear him with a certain amount of doubt as to the truth of some of the things I had heard. But from the very first, I began to realize that he was all I had hoped he would be and more than I had expected.

For a man of his popularity, I have never seen anyone more humble. From the very first, his sincerity, his devotion to a conviction, and his zeal to reach men for God was evident. He preached with power, yet his message was simple as he took a passage from Isaiah that reads, "Come now and let us reason together, saith the Lord, though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow: Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." With this as his text, he reasoned with men for God.

It is quite possible that God has called out another Moody, Spurgeon, or Billy Sunday in these chaotic days to be the spearhead of a mighty movement in the hearts of men that will bring our great nation back to God.

said that he didn't know how in the world I left out the most important guy in the bunch. I started to tell him that I didn't know that he was so all-fired important myself, but suddenly he thought me that I must maintain my untarnished reputation for politeness and so explained to him that he lived so far down on the other side of the county that my memory just didn't reach that far down. He used to run a cotton compress down at a little town situated right on the Bell and Williamson county line called Bartlett wedged in between Schwertner and Corn Hill on one side and Frog Pond or Beer Flat and Dunno-who on the other side. So they always had plenty of corn (in the jug) and beer in the keg in and around Bartlett. And although Roy ran a cotton compress, he was always more interested in corn (on the cob) than he was in cotton. For fear that somebody might suspect that I was half-way intending something, I hasten to explain that Roy always was a "dry" sort of fellow, in fact a teetotaler. But I sure-enough made a mistake in not mentioning Mrs. Edwards, for she came from Bartlett also and is not a bit mad at me, for she thinks that Bartlett is a good place to come from.

Look what the Smart Money's buying

Now that the 1951 offerings of the motorcar industry have had a chance to strut their stuff, we ask you—can there be any doubt which is the really smart buy?

If you want a "new look"—Buick has it. That sturdy push-bar forefront says "1951" to all who see it—and provides unsurpassed front-end protection to boot.

If you want power that you can live with through many moons to come—Buick has that too. Years of expert engineering have made Buick's thrill-packed Fireball engine just about as dependable as a power plant can be.

If you want features that combine present pleasure with long-time durability, consider this:

Buick's level-going ride stems from coil springs on all four wheels which are virtually break-proof and never need servicing.

Buick's Dynaflo Drive* takes the strain out of every mile of driving—and pays off by eliminating any need for friction clutch repairs and replacements, by reducing engine and transmission upkeep, and lengthening life of tires.

If you want room and comfort and handling that make any trip a breeze—there's no simpler way to find them than to take over a '51 Buick SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER—relax and enjoy yourself.

And if you want all this at a minimum outlay of dollars—one look at Buick prices will settle this point.

So the smartest thing you can do is get in touch with your Buick dealer. How about doing that right now?

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

NO OTHER CAR PROVIDES ALL THIS:

- DYNAFLOW DRIVE—saves strain on driver and car
- FIREBALL POWER—high-compression, valve-in-head engine gets more good from every drop of fuel
- PUSH-BAR FOREFRONT—combines smart style and unsurpassed protection
- WHITE-GLOW INSTRUMENTS—greater clarity at night
- TORQUE-TUBE DRIVE—steadies ride, improves driving control
- 4-WHEEL COIL SPRINGING—cushions ride, saves servicing costs
- DUAL VENTILATION—outside air fed separately to right or left of front compartment
- SELF-ENERGIZING BRAKES—hydraulic—multiply pedal-pressure five times at brake drum
- DREAMLINE STYLING—tapered, car-length fenders, gleaming sweepers on most models

Plus: Self-locking luggage lid, Step-On parking brake, two-way ignition lock, Safety-Ride rims, Hi-Poised engine mounting, Body by Fisher

Former Wilson Citizen Dies

Rudolph G. Limmer, formerly of Wisconsin, died at Hamilton on March 1. The News is informed. Services were held in the Riley Funeral Home there on March 3, with Robert P. Neger in charge, and burial followed in that City Cemetery.

Mr. Limmer was born on September 14, 1879, at Bartlett, Bell county. It was there that he was made a child of God through holy baptism and became a member of the Lutheran Church.

On September 23, 1900, Mr. Limmer was married to Bertha Kelm of Aleman. This union was blessed with seven children, five sons and two daughters. One son, Raymond, preceded his father in death, giving his life in the service of his country on April 23, 1945.

Mr. Limmer spent the greater part of his life in Hamilton county. The past six years he had lived in Hamilton and had been a faithful member of St. John's Lutheran organization. His illness was of a short 10 days duration.

gy and last year was a district winner in the Talent Club. His livestock entries have won many ribbons in local shows and include a champion barrow.
He is now a junior leader in his local club and is active in school affairs, being a member of both the football and basketball teams.

He has raised cotton for the past two years as one of his 4-H demonstrations. Here is his story on what happened in 1950:

"My 1950 cotton demonstration started in February when I cut the stalks on the 2½ acres I had selected for my crop. Rain was heavy during April and May and because the land I had selected was in a low spot on the farm I thought it would never dry out so I could get into the field.

"I planted my cotton on May 17th. On the 19th two inches of rain fell, and I had to replant. This was done in June and I planted one of the stormproof varieties. The cotton was killed twice, cultivated twice and hoed once. I hired my brother to help me with the hoeing. My county agent, W. B. Griffin, taught me to identify the different cotton insects and how to make infestation counts.

"In August, the counts on leaf and boll worms showed that I should use control measures. I sprayed twice with a 60 percent toxaphene emulsion, mixed with the proper amounts of water, and got good results.

"On December 14 I hired my dad to harvest my crop. He used a mechanical stripper. I got one 535 pound bale from my 2½ acres. From the demonstration, I gained much valuable experience which I can use in the future."
Melvin's demonstration was supervised by Lynn county agent W. B. Griffin.

NO SHORTAGE OF TEACHERS

The THS Agricultural Department has no lack of teachers, for in addition to Mr. Carter, it boasts of having Douglas Owens and Hershel Potts, practice teachers, majoring in Agriculture Education at Tech, who are down to get their required six weeks of practice teaching before graduating. Mr. Owens, formerly from Oton, and Mr. Potts, from Esteline, are seniors who will graduate in May.

Ivan McWhirter, seventh grade teacher in the local school, returned to his duties this week after a week's absence due to illness.

Rural Road Bill Is Under Study

AUSTIN, March 14—A systematized rural roads program with a maximum of actual construction each year is the objective of H. B. 226 (farm-to-market roads), Rep. Callahan Graham, the bill's sponsor, asserted in a statement today. The bill is under consideration in the Legislature.

Calling for a revision of the methods of both construction and financing in order to establish a "sustained, self-financing rural roads program," Rep. Graham said that authority and responsibility for building such roads should be given to the State Highway Department and that they should be paid for out of the gasoline tax.

Under the present system, the highway department and the county commissioners courts each have jurisdiction over parts of the program. The roads are paid for out of both gasoline tax and general revenue funds.

"Passage of H. B. 226 will result in a guaranteed extension of farm-to-market roads in place of the present hit-or-miss system," Rep. Graham said.

The representative said that H. B. 226 would:

1. Guarantee substantial year-by-year increases to the farm-to-market road program without materially reducing the amount of money available under the current program;

2. Continue state payments on bonds for county roads which have incorporated into the state highway system;

3. Deposit all of the gasoline tax surplus after payment of the old bonds to the credit of the counties in a state highway department fund the 1951 surplus will be $16,500,000 and will rise yearly;

4. Let each county decide whether the highway department shall use its credits to pay off its own old county road debts, build new rural roads for it, or both;

5. Let counties now paying off the road bonds from their present share of the gasoline tax surplus continue to do so, but at the same time give them a further credit for construction equal to or greater than their entire present surplus share;

6. Eliminate cash grants to the counties, and replace them with rural road construction credits in the highway department of at least double such present cash grants.

7. Repeal the annual $15,000,000 drain from the general revenue fund for rural roads and finance them from the gasoline tax.

Rep. Graham said that H. B. 226 provides that money can be spent in each county only for roads recommended by its commissioner's court.

John Sechrist, formerly of Wellington, has accepted a position here with Ayer-Way Cleaners. He is an expert cleaner and presser. He expects to move his family here as soon as he can find a suitable place to live.

The Airgun Menace

Parents of Tahoka Boys:
Are you positive you know what your boys are doing? I have enough of your sons shooting air-guns around my house. Also, I don't like to see them shooting at street signs. The next one I catch will be turned in to the law.

These are not bad boys. They are sons of SO-called "best families" of North Tahoka. But, I am afraid of those guns and I don't want you shooting around my house.

—Mrs.

Editors Note: We are tired of the lame Mrs. ———. In fact, we have had a windowpane shot out. The modern air rifle is a dangerous weapon, and there is now a campaign on over Texas against its use in towns. Representative Harley Sadler of Abilene has a bill before the Texas Legislature now which would prohibit the firing of air-guns within the city limits of Texas towns and cities. We have heard other citizens of Tahoka complaining about boys who use thoughtfully-bait birds around local houses and even in the business section.

Miss Edna (Van Dyke) went to Station the first of February, to help care for a sister, Mrs. A. L. Clifton, who was in a hospital there with a very painful blood infection in a lower limb. While Mrs. Clifton was recuperating, Miss Van Dyke became ill, and was taken to a hospital herself with pneumonia, cold, cough, and infections in both ears. During her serious illness, all her sisters but one and her brothers, T. C. Van Dyke of Sweetwater, and Paul Van Dyke of Tahoka, Route 4, visited her.

She writes The News as follows:

I want to thank the good sisters for their kindness to me, and also Dr. Payne, my friends at Station for the beautiful lamps and pot plants. Mrs. Sam McMillan's friends in Lubbock for the lovely handkerchiefs, stationery, box candy, merry, merry cards and Valentines. I enjoyed Bro. O. B. Herring's calls. I want to thank Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Warren of Tahoka for their calls and for the lovely flowers.

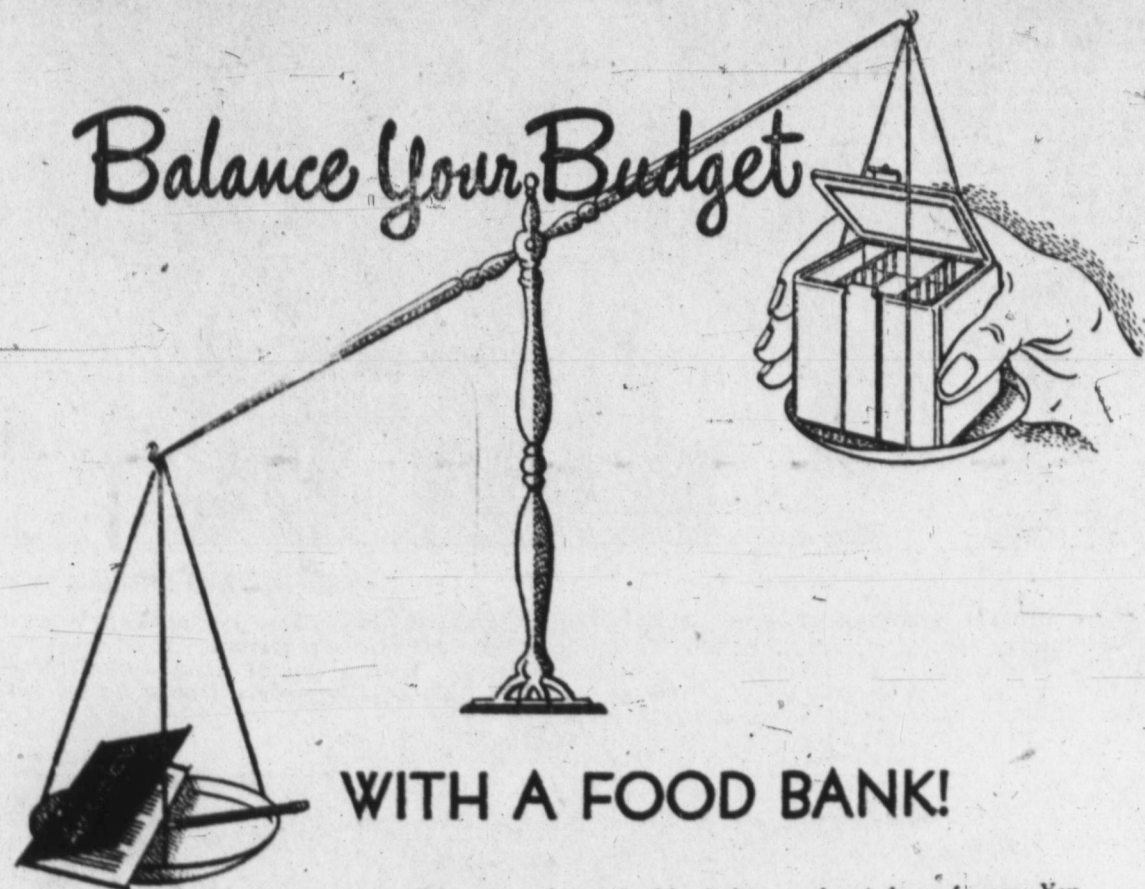

I really do enjoy The Lynn County News even if it is a little late. I enjoy the Dixie Club notes. Tahoka really is growing. I now live at Mr. and Mrs. Sam McMillan, have moved in with them at 2306 3th St., Lubbock. They have a very beautiful lawn and flowers. My sister has roses and gladioli of every color.

I really do miss my friends in Wilson, Dixie, and Tahoka. Some have moved here. Would be glad to see any of them.

I sure enjoy my paper. I received it while in the hospital. I read Mr. E. I. Hill's long letters and enjoy them. A reader—Miss Edna Van Dyke, 2306 5th, Lubbock, Texas.

Legislature's Congressional Redistricting Bill Affects Plains Area

The News is in receipt of a copy depicting the proposed Congressional redistricting of Texas now being considered by the state Legislature.

The map is accompanied by a letter from Representative Wagner Carr of the 119th district. Representative Carr is a member of the House committee on Congressional redistricting, and is chairman of a sub-committee which will attempt to arrive at a satisfactory division of the counties now included in District 22, and 20 (all in West Texas) of the proposed bill.

The present 19th Congressional district, of which Lynn county is a part, would become the new 21st district in the reshuffling of counties. Some counties on the north and east of the old 19th district would be dropped and some counties on the south would be added.

Rep. Carr writes, "I have already placed my objections to this new set-up to the members of the committee and the Representatives from El Paso and Odessa have joined me in this objection."

Principal objection to the proposed form of the new district, no doubt, is that some of the

MEXICAN CHILD WAS BURIED HERE TUESDAY

John Silvas, age one year and six days, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Silvas of Wells, died Sunday at about 3 p. m. Graveside funeral services were held in Tahoka Cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Counties added to the district on the south from a geographic and political standpoint have no tie-in with the South Plains area.

All of these new counties are very thinly populated and are far removed from the more heavily populated part of the new district. They are: Loving, Winkler, and Ward counties on the west, and Glasscock, Sterling, Reagan, and Irion counties on the east. These two groups of counties are separated by Midland, Ector, Crane, and Upton, which would remain in the El Paso district, No. 22.

Cutting off of counties on the north and east, in order to form a new West Texas district, would leave our district bounded on the north and including the counties of Cochran, Hookley, and Lubbock, and on the east by Garza, Scurry, and Mitchell, and two of the counties already named, Sterling and Irion. Other counties in this district would include Yoakum, Lyce, Terry, Dawson, Borden, Andrews, Martin, and Howard.

The News has not studied the populations of the counties affected closely, but it seems that some arrangement could be worked out whereby the South Plains district could be set up with counties more closely related to the district than are those of such counties as Loving, Winkler, Ward, Crane, and Upton and even Glasscock and Sterling are not geographically, politically, or economically related to the South Plains section.

Rep. Carr would appreciate suggestions from the citizens of this area on the matter, but they must be made quickly, as the bill is now under consideration.

BILL CORLEY MISSES THE NEWS AND SLEEP

Bill Corley of Wilson came into The News office Saturday and complained that The Lynn County News had caused him to miss a night's sleep—he didn't get his paper on schedule and he couldn't sleep a wink Friday night.

A member of The News force checked the records and found that Bill's subscription was paid up in advance and that his name was on the mailing list. Evidently, Postmaster Campbell of Wilson needed an extra Lynn County News and swiped Bill's copy.

Bill has been taking The News 20 years or more, and he has got in such a bad habit of reading it on Friday that any deviation from this routine upsets him greatly. We hope he doesn't sue for damages because of the mental anguish he has suffered.
