Effect of Farm Bill On Cotton Farmers Told In Letter By Congressman George Mahon

In a recent letter to his constituents, Congressman George Mahon outlined some farm legislation enacted during the recent Congress, just prior to adjournment. Congressman Mahon has now returned to Lubbock and plans to visit in the district. His letter reveals details of the omnibus farm bill which was passed by the Senate but modified by the House Committee on Agriculture. The bill is now in the hands of the President. Mahon expresses the belief that the bill will not be very acceptable to West Texas farmers. The national cotton acreage allotment next year will be 16 million acres, plus 310,000 acres for small farmers. The national allotment for 1958 is 17,551,000 but because of the soil bank only about 12.5 million acres were planted. The bill presents two choices to the cotton farmer for 1959 and 1960. The farmer who takes Choice A in 1959 will get his part of the 16 million acre allotment and can sell his cotton to the government at not less than 80% of parity. The farmer who takes Choice B will get up to 26% increase in acreage over his 1958 allotment, or not to exceed 40% over what would be his 1959 allotment under the Choice A plan. This means that cotton acreage in 1959 could be well above 16 million acres. It could be perhaps as much as 19 million acres, depending on the number of farmers who elect Choice B.

The Choice B farmer will be entitled to a loan on his cotton next year at 15 parity points less than the Choice A farmer gets. In other words, the support level for the Choice B farmer will be not less than 65% of parity next year. In 1960 the Choice A farmer will receive a support of not less than 75% of parity and the Choice B farmer will get not less than 60% of parity support. The following year all cotton will be supported at not less than 70% of parity and the Choice A and B plans will be discontinued. In 1962 all cotton will be supported at a level of not less than 65% of parity. (It is generally assumed that the minimum supports referred to above would be the supports that the farmer would actually get, especially after the 1959 crop.) Of course, during this period the law may be changed. The future is, of course, unpredictable. We have never had a Choice A and Choice B type program before and it is impossible to tell in advance whether or not it will be successful.

Beginning in 1959, the bill provides for a separate loan on split grades, including "light spots." It provides that beginning with 1961 the 7/8 inch loan basis will be changed and cotton will be supported on the basis of the average of the crop. (About 1 inch.) It is getting more and more difficult to get support in Congress for farm legislation. Members of Congress from heavily populated consumer areas have been led to believe that many of their troubles have arisen as a result of previous farm programs, etc. During the 1930's and 1940's Members of Congress from the city areas generally supported farm legislation, but there has been a very drastic change in attitude.

P-TA Executive Committee Meet Held Last Week

The executive committee of the P-TA met last Thursday morning with Mrs. B. R. Putman presiding. The program chairman, Alex Williams gave a report on the 1958-59 programs which promises to be interesting and informative.

Bill Parker gave recommendations from the project committee. The project will be physical culture. Plans are being made to buy some equipment for each of the four schools.

Each committee will vary on the work of last year with the same recommendations except for the educational relations committee. Their standard is lowered by acceptance of any one being qualified to substitute for the P-TA with no college training with Jerry Kie's approval. Last year's requirements for the P-TA substitute was a degree or some college training.

Civil defense newsletter and room count are new committees set up this year for efficiency.

HOW MULESHOE GOT ITS NAME

By A. P. STONE

Ed Note: The article below relating early history of Muleshoe and the area was written for The Journal about 1947 by the late A. Stone, pioneer abstractor here, and for many years the local representative of the Muleshoe Ranch. It has been reprinted several times. The Journal will print some leaflets of this article and they will be available to anyone wishing them.

In September 1902, the Bovina Cattle Company, a partnership composed of W. D. Johnson, F. W. Johnson, Tom Hogland, and R. D. Gage, bought some 125,000 acres of this land out of what was known as Blackwater and South Alamouche pastures from the Syndicate. The Bovina Cattle Company used the mule shoe as its brand, hence the Muleshoe Ranch and incidentally the town of Muleshoe.

This brand was registered December 4, 1903, and the record shows it with open end at the top, and leaning to the left. It was on the left shoulder or left side of the animal.

This brand was transferred to E. K. Warren & Sons, who had bought some 37,000 acres on the south side of the original Muleshoe Ranch, on November 1, 1907, and the mule shoe brand was discontinued.

In 1906 W. D. and F. W. Johnson, who had bought the interest of the other partners in the Bovina Cattle Company, cut the land into sections of 540 acres each, and during the next few years, sold the part of it lying north of the land sold to E. K. Warren & Son, to farmers, the first settlers being from Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and other Northern States.

In 1903, E. K. Warren bought 40,000 acres of land from L. T. Clark. This was known as the Y. L. Ranch and is still so known. Mr. Warren later sold the tillable and out of this 40,000 acres, it lies east of the Bovina Cattle Company land, and the subdivision is now Block W.

Blossis Z. R. and Y. the Bovina Cattle Company Land, and block W make a continuous strip of land some six miles wide and thirty miles long, with an abundance of irrigation water from 20 to 100 feet below the surface.

At the present time practically 100 percent of this land is in cultivation with farm homes on practically every 160, valued at from $4,000 to $15,000 each, surrounded by fine shade trees and flowers.

There are some 375 irrigation plants in operation, wells furnishing from 1,000 to 1,500 gallons per minute. The crops grown on the dry land are principally grain sorghums, cotton and wheat. In addition to these crops, the irrigated farms grow alfalfa, spuds, onions, and tomatoes, not to mention beans.

Thirty-five years ago there were a few farm shacks, not a tree to be seen. The motive power was Pete and Beck, a walking plow, a one row cultivator, and a farm wagon being the farm equipment. Now the farm equipment is all kinds of modern stuff, tractors, two to four row cultivators, combines, haying machinery handled by one man, occasionally by one woman, that puts this buy in the bale.

The kids, whose parents went to schools in board shacks, now go to modern schools, travel for miles on school buses, would think old Pete was a horse if they were to see him.

Of course, horses are still used on the ranches, where they can still see native grass.

Dove Season For North Texas Opens On September 1

Dove hunters open the season in the North Zone of Texas Monday, September 1, with one of the best crops of doves in years, according to the director of law enforcement of the Game and Fish Commission. The South Zone will open one month later, except in the Rio Grande Valley counties where white-winged and mourning doves may be shot on September 14 and 16, from 2 p.m. until sunset. The director gave a few warnings for shooters:

BEACH BEAUTY—The covered look in beach fashions is dramatized in this smartly striped playboy by Brigrance of Sportsmaker. This fashion features Skillman's Everglaze cello slipper satin.

SUDSABLE—This happy lad wears a sleeveless two-piece top set of smooth cotton knit by Carter's. The "sudsable" fabric features a pin dot print in the jacket trimmed in the solid color of the pants.

Be sure you have your new 1958-59 hunting license, on sale with wardens, sporting goods stores and county clerks.

Shooting starts at 12 noon and ends at sunset. Be sure to check your time and don't shoot by moonlight.

The limit is 10 doves per day. After the first day you may have 20 mourning doves in your possession. This doesn't mean you can put 20 in the deep freeze and then go out and kill another daily limit.

Be sure to get permission from landowners for hunting on their property. You can be arrested for trespassing.

Don't shoot across roads, highways or public property. Stay off wildlife refuges.

Your gun must be plugged to hold not more than two shells in the magazine and one in the chamber—three shots in all.

Look before you shoot. A charge of bird shot in a man's face has a way of irritating him. Don't shoot from an automobile. Wardens will get you in a hurry.

If you are inclined to be careless, check your life insurance policy.

Plains Ginners Meet Saturday

The Plains Ginners Ass'n. will hold its annual meeting in Lubbock Saturday in the Lubbock Hotel, Earl Hobbs, president, of New Deal, announced.

About 250 cotton ginners from throughout the area are expected for the session, which begins with registration at 9 a.m. The meeting will be called to order at 9:30 a.m.

Waggoner Carr, Lubbock, speaker of the Texas House of Representatives, will address a luncheon which will conclude the half-day program.

But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.—(Thesalonians 3, 13.)

Why are so many of us these days addicted to pills to make us sleep, to give us needed energy, to allay our nervousness and tension? Let us try stopping at least once a day, in the headlong rush, to help someone in need, unselfishly to lighten another's load—and in well doing, find peace.

If you've ever tried to track down a rumor, or unscramble a piece of gossip, you know how elusive is the spoken word! Committee Told Area Will Need 2331 Hands

Three Bailey county citizens, Bud Williams, Bill Millen, and J. K. Adams, will serve as a county farm labor committee and met with Ed Vaughn, of Littlefield, William Willis, local TEC manager and Eldrid G. Travis, field assistant of the Amarillo office of TEC last Thursday, to review the total seasonal employment needs developed by the TEC.

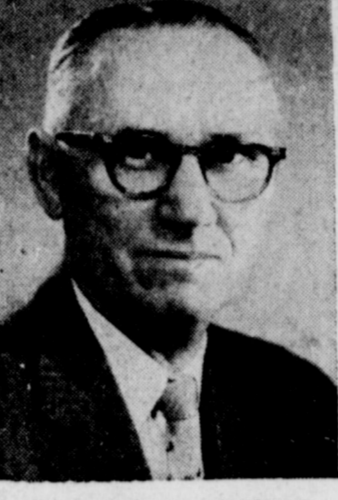

The committee was presented with figures of the TEC showing that Bailey county will be short 2331 cotton pullers during the peak period of the cotton harvest. This shortage will be met by the importation of Mexican National Bracero workers.

Rules For Paying SS Taxes On Hands Told In Bulletin

Any farm and ranch employer who pays $150 or more to a laborer or who hires a farm hand 20 days or more during a year must pay social security taxes on the wages involved, according to Cliff Bates, extension farm management specialist.

For the $150-a-year test, Bates says the cash wages for both piece-rate and time-rate work count. The total number of days worked does not matter so long as the employee is paid $150 in cash by the employer in the year.

Guatemalan Irrigation Engineer Is Interested Visitor On West Plains

An interested visitor to various irrigation systems in Bailey county last Friday was Ovio Amaya Calvez, agricultural engineer in charge of irrigation with Guatemalan Government Cooperative Service.

Galvez visited a number of irrigation wells and paid particular interest to sprinkler systems in the area around Muleshoe. He was guided on his visit here by the staff of the Blackwater Valley Soil Conservation Service.

In his native Guatemala, Galvez works with the Cooperative Service which corresponds roughly to our Extension Service, SCS and Dept. of Agriculture, all rolled into one.

turning to cotton, but are stymied in many cases by the expense of drilling deep irrigation wells. It was on a similar problem that Bill Broadhurst, hydrologist with the High Plains Underground Water District spent three months in Guatemala two years ago.

Credit Needs of Farmers, Ranchers Rapidly Changing, Banker Says

Texas banks were serving farmers and ranchers with more credit than any other group of lenders on January 1 of this year, according to W. Q. Casey, President of the Muleshoe State Bank, who represents the Texas Bankers Association as Bailey County Key Banker. During 1957, the state's banks maintained their leadership in agricultural credit services. Texas banks held a higher proportion of the total farm production credit than a year previous.

Based on the seventeenth annual farm lending summary of the Agricultural Commission of the American Bankers Association, Mr. Casey reported that "at the beginning of the year, Texas bankers were helping farmers and ranchers with $309,113,000 in loans—12 percent more than a year previous. This total included $268,221,000 in production loans and $40,894,000 in agricultural mortgages. On the same date, $294,909,000 in agricultural loans were held by insurance companies; $201,409,000 by Federal Land Banks; $77,249,000 by Production Credit Associations; and $73,807,000 in nonreal estate loans plus $30,240,000 in real estate loans by Farmers Home Administration. It can be seen from these figures that about two-thirds of the production credit used by Texas farmers and ranchers came from banks."

Mr. Casey said that "more and more, the banks in Texas find that farmers and ranchers need a new type of credit to help finance the rapid increase in capital requirements. To meet this changing need, an increasing amount of agricultural credit from Texas banks is on an intermediate-term repayment basis. Intermediate-term loans are frequently needed for machinery and equipment, livestock, soil improvements, additional land, and refinancing short-term notes. Over one-half of all real estate credit is used to finance those intermediate-type capital expenses.

PLOW-DOWN JOHN DEERE VITREA 45% NITROGEN NOW WITH CROP RESIDUES

You Profit 4 big ways by plowing down Vitrea now:

1. Requires no special equipment — just spread and disc or plow-in.
2. Helps break down old wheat or sorghum stubble into nitrogen rich humus.
3. You get more protein-rich grazing — more beef per acre.
4. Brings you higher grain yield at harvest — good grain formation demands nitrogen early in the growing season.

Remember — Vitrea resists leaching — lasts longer.

Records of each worker's earnings along with his social security number should be kept, advises the specialist. The farmer must withhold $2.25 from each $100 of wages paid and then must match this amount. However, if as much as $100 in taxes, including the employer's portion, becomes due to the Government, the employer must send in a report earlier. Remittance must be made within 15 days of the end of the month in which this amount of tax was accumulated.

Farmers who employ laborers should have an employer's identification number. This can be obtained by filing application form SS-4 with the District Director of Internal Revenue Service.

More strict enforcement of these requirements has been announced by District Directors recently. More information can be obtained by contacting the nearest Social Security office, or by ordering OASI-35 from the Social Security Administration. County agents also can help.

SANDHILLS PHILOSOPHER WANTS To Be Foreign Policy Ed Same As The Kings In Middle East

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm may be taking a narrow view of the international way of doing things, his letter this week indicates, but you'll have to decide that for yourself.

Dear editor:

After considerable reading on the subject for the past few weeks, I have come to the conclusion that the trouble with our foreign policy is that it's used on foreigners more than it is on us folks at home.

For instance, I was reading last night in a copy of a newspaper which an insurance salesman left out here earlier in the day—incidentally, my foreign policy toward all salesmen showing up out here on my Johnson grass farm is to accept their newspapers and free samples but don't buy anything from anyone where the King of Jordan over in the Middle East says his country can save itself if we'll just let it alone, except for one small item.

"We can solve our own problems without outside interference, provided we can get some financial assistance from the United States", the King said.

Now that's the kind of foreign policy I'm talking about that I'm in favor of, if it's used at home.

For example, as a farmer, I don't want any interference from Washington. I can solve my own problems, with of course a little financial help. Me and the King of Jordan see eye to eye on this sort of thing.

Me and the King aren't asking for any Marines, especially me, I like the Marines but I can't think of a thing I could use 'em for on this farm, don't even have a place for 'em to land, and furthermore, him and me don't want anybody telling us what we have to do. We'll make our own decisions, let Washington just mail us the money and we'll decide for ourselves what to do with it. This old idea that you have to be dependent on Washington for everything doesn't set well with me and the King of Jordan. If a man can't take some money and spend it like he thinks best, without calling up Washington to find out what to do with it, then the world has come to a pretty pass and old-fashioned independence and self-reliance have disappeared from the earth, but me and the King will stand as a bulwark against this weak-backed trend.

All I'm asking is that Washington foreign-policy me the same time it does the King of Jordan, and me and the King will take it from there. We've got minds of our own, and we can make it on our own, if somebody will pay the bills.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

BABSON DISCUSSES CHINA

Babson Park, Mass., August 28—As I have continually stated in these columns, we will not have a shooting war with Russia. We may have a chemical-weather war; and we are now in an economic war. I go further and say that Khrushchev—like all Russian leaders—has world domination as a goal; but this is not true of the Russian people or of the satellite nations. Furthermore, Khrushchev fears Premier Mao of China.

Watch China Carefully

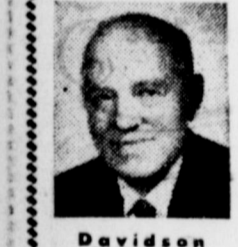

There are many reasons why China would not join Russia in war against the West. China is largely Buddhist in religion; but China is not atheistic, as Russia claims to be. Most of the Chinese leaders were educated in Christian schools. The colleges and hospitals of China were largely financed by American dollars.

China, by tradition, is friendly to the United States. My Grandparents formerly sailed ships between Boston and Chinese ports. In the homes of their descendants today—including my own—are beautiful pieces of chinaware which were purchased in China. It is within the last fifteen years that these ties with America have been broken. It is only common sense that they will again be renewed.

Marshall's Big Mistake

I think Mr. Truman will tell intimate friends that he made a mistake in accepting the report of General Marshall on China. Of course, the General was in China only a short time and was dependent upon the reports which he received from those whom he met. To make a comprehensive report on China would take months or years. Besides, General Marshall was a West Point graduate, with Army experience. He should not have accepted the task, which President Truman gave him. General Marshall was very

THIS WEEK —In Washington With Clinton Davidson THE FUTURE IS BRIGHT

If you know someone who worries about business and frets about the recession you can cheer him up with some good news.

Tell him that if he takes a two weeks vacation and comes back and finds a brand new city of 130,000 people built up around him, not to be surprised. It's happening all the time.

Our net gain in population, the Census Bureau informs us, is at the rate of 9,300 people each day, 65,000 a week and two and a half million a year. The total will be 200,000,000 by 1970.

We will have to put up new plants and expand the production of present factories to build the automobiles, home appliances, homes, schools, hospitals and many other things just to keep up with the increasing population.

Every Twelve Seconds

There are almost three times as many births as there are deaths in this country each day. The birth rate is one every eight seconds, and the death rate one every 21 seconds.

Counting one immigrant every two minutes, the net increase in population is one every 12 seconds. If automobile factories, for example, operated 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, they would have to INCREASE their production rate by 130 each hour just to keep up with the increase in demand due to the population growth.

It was only about 25 years ago that the experts said the population "ceiling" in this country would be about 150,000,000. We couldn't, they said, find jobs for very many more people and, besides, we couldn't feed them. Not enough land, they said.

Now we have a population of 172,000,000 and almost twice as many people employed. Not only that, but people eat more and better food, dress better, live in better homes and have more savings than ever before.

The Farm Problem

The problem of feeding this big increase in population is no small job in itself. Every 12 seconds farmers must increase their food production by 60 pounds of pork, 36 pounds of beef, and 28 pounds of poultry. That is the per capita annual consumption rate.

Egg production must be increased by 344 eggs each 12 seconds and milk production must go up by 384 pounds just to take care of the increase in population. There is demand for 121 pounds more wheat, 141 pounds more fruits, and for 282 pounds of potatoes and other vegetables.

Farmers must do this with little or no increase in the total number of acres in production. If they can do it, and the experts say they can, it will be the most significant accomplishment of the 20th century. It can, as a matter of fact, be done with two million fewer people on farms.

Today's Meditation

Read John 6:24-29.

I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. (John 6:38)

Here Jesus speaks of two wills, separate and distinct: His own will and His Father's will. Just as Jesus had a will of His own, so have we. One of God's greatest gifts to us is free will. We can exercise our will for or against God. We are free to do His will or our own.

Jesus knew that the great purpose of His life was to do the will of His Father. We also fulfill the purpose of our lives when our wills work in harmony with God's will.

I have a friend who one day was offered an important contract. He turned it down, saying, "It might throw me into an atmosphere where I may lose my soul. And 'What is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?'"

He could have gone ahead, doing his own will, but he refused. He knew that his peace was determined by doing what he believed to be God's will rather than his own. When God's will and our own are one, our thoughts are heaven-like. So are our actions.

PRAYER

Eternal Father, Thou hast given me the choice either of refusing to go Thy way, or of doing Thy will. Thou art wiser than I. Come and dwell in my heart and mind. Fulfill Thy high purposes in me; work in and through me. For the Saviour's sake. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

When I do God's will, I do not lose my way.

—J. Clifford Mitchell (Eng.)

much influenced by Chiang Kai-shek and his charming wife. She graduated from our college here in Wellesley and made friends with all of people whom she met. She also won the hearts of Mr. Truman and other prominent men. It was largely due to the character, courage, and wealth of the Sun family that the railroads, public utilities, and factories of China were built.

Nationalist China and The United Nations

From the observations I gathered when I visited China, I would hesitate to admit Communist China to the United Nations. It, however, has always seemed inconsistent to permit Formosa and Chiang Kai-shek to represent the 600 million Chinese mainlanders in the United Nations. This may have been a means of "saving face"; but it does not make sense to me.

If Chiang Kai-shek should die today, I am sure that Communist China, under Premier Mao, would be admitted to the United Nations. On the surface, we continue to be unfriendly to Communist China; but it may be that Premier Mao is receiving some sympathy and moral support from certain factions in our State Department. You will note that Premier Mao is no longer shooting across at Formosa and is treating fairly any ships which accidentally come within the Chinese three-mile limit. It is very interesting to see how England has kept friendly with Communist China, which has not disturbed Hong Kong. This is one of the most beautiful cities I have ever visited; it is very busy and very rich. Yet, Premier Mao could drop a bomb on it and knock it out of existence.

Khrushchev Feels Mao

As I said in my column last June, there is more probability of war between Russia and China than between Russia and the United States. I continue to feel that Premier Mao of Red China is a chief factor in the actions of Khrushchev during the past weeks. The press has told of how Mao has been to Moscow and has apparently caused Khrushchev to "get off his high horse" and accept President Eisenhower's desires relative to the Summit Meeting. After the Marshall Report, Mao was obliged to accept help from Russia; but today the situation is very different. If Khrushchev should attack Western Europe and America, China would at once attack Russia on the East. In doing so, she would receive the help of England, America, and the other Free Countries. Hence, I repeat, there will now be no shooting war between the United States and Russia.

Keep Smiling!

We are indebted for the above to J. C. Phillips, editor of The Berger Herald, who has it printed in the corner of all his letters.

This corner's conductor just has received two passes to Boys Ranch Rodeo for 1958, which is to be unreel soon, and they're signed by Cal Farley, the man who in our judgment ought to have the most stars in his crown because of his work with boys who temporarily and probably unthinkingly strayed off from what we consider correct deportment for a citizen.

Ye writer know Cal (I'm that old) when he was one of the best lightweight, or a little heavier we suppose, wrestlers in the country. As a fan, we admired his great competitive spirit, but we admired also his high sense of good sportsmanship. We never foresaw that Cal would become, after that phase, a successful business man, a good Rotarian (and district governor), and the guiding genius of such a fine thing as Boys Ranch.

Our actual contact with this great humanitarian, great believer in boys, is confined to Rotary gatherings. One day old Cal let us freshman club officers in on something. Cal has become one of the best speakers in these parts, not tedious, humorous, fast moving and entertaining.

But he said that when he first became a member of the Amarillo Rotary Club, he was put on a two man committee to study a proposition and report two weeks hence. Cal went to the meeting in high spirits, never dreaming that his chairman and front man would be absent; but he was and the president inexorably called on Cal for a report. Cal says that he stood up, opened his mouth, but no words issued forth; after an agonizing time, he sat down. Then he went to take lessons, and how well he has learned. We think he is one of the Plains' greatest emcees.

Cal has been ably backed and encouraged and assisted by the members of his fine family. He actually doesn't want your praise for what he's done; this column happens to think that flowers for the living is a pretty good practice and at the risk of causing Cal to blush with embarrassment, we print this small encomium. Incidentally, if you don't contribute regularly to Boys Ranch, you are missing a chance to have a mighty good feeling inside.

Are you sure all your earnings in employment covered by the Social Security Act have been reported correctly by your employers?

John G. Hutton, manager of the social security office in Lubbock advises individuals who have been working and having social security taxes deducted from their pay to check their social security record at least once every three years. This can be done by obtaining a post card at the social security district office, located at 2878-34th St. When necessary, the number of quarters of coverage earned so far can also be obtained. If, after receiving your record, you find an error has been made in your social security account, the social security office will help you get it corrected. Mr. Hutton states you should check on your account at least once every three years, because there is a limit to the period within which certain corrections can be made.

An employer is required by law, to give his employees receipts for the social security taxes he has deducted from their pay. He must do this at the end of each year, and also, when an employee stops working for him. These receipts will help you check on your social security account, because they show not only the amount deducted from your pay, but also the wages paid you.

Remember, future social security benefits are based on your earnings record, kept in Baltimore.

A representative of the Lubbock Social Security Office will be in Muleshoe on September 4, at 9:30 a.m., at the Courtroom, Courthouse, and will be glad to assist in all matters pertaining to Social Security.

Warning Issued On Tail Water Waste By Directors of Conservation Distr.

In a meeting at Lubbock on August 20, the board of directors of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District discussed at great length one of the southern High Plains' major problems—waste of agricultural "tail water."

"Tail water" is a term which describes unused irrigation water which is allowed to run from the end of crop rows. Most of this "tail water" is uncontrolled by the irrigator, and usually it enters a road ditch from the crop rows and from there meanders toward a low place, depression or lake.

Included in the rules of the District is a regulation which forbids the habitual and willful waste of agricultural irrigation water. The District's staff, under the Board's leadership, has attempted to enforce this rule in the past by employing educational methods. The District has attempted to show that from an economical standpoint the practice of allowing "tail water" to escape the land from which it is produced is very unwise. It does not take a highly educated man to determine that money is being thrown away when it is used to produce irrigation water that is allowed to run into a lake and there evaporate without serving a beneficial purpose for anyone.

The District has pointed out that agricultural "tail water" is also a detriment to our society from a health and safety standpoint. The road ditches, depressions and lakes when filled with "tail water" represent excellent breeding environments for disease-carrying mosquitoes. Also, "tail water" represents a public safety hazard when allowed to run across or stand on public roads. Many accidents have occurred when an unaware motorist comes upon a large gully washed across the road by "tail water." One would suppose, when facts such as these are known, that a sound thinking irrigator would do everything in his power to protect his family and others of the community by ceasing to allow any "tail water" to run into lakes and thereby contribute to the preservation of mosquito-breeding habitats, or across public roads and thereby create traffic hazards and maintenance problems.

The District has attempted to stress these forementioned reasons for conserving "tail water" and has in the majority of instances, with such logic, been able to solve acute waste problems. However, there remains a minority element within the Water District that persists in allowing "tail water" to escape their land. To this group we would like to point out that under a democratic-type government such as the one we enjoy, each individual is responsible to see that the use of his property does not do damage to others of the community, and that he is morally and spiritually obligated to use resources entrusted to his care as wisely as is possible.

The District is now taking additional steps to enforce the rules against waste. These steps represent a more positive approach to the problems of conserving our precious resources, protecting community life and health and facilitating a greater economic return from irrigation water pumped.

Separate Grade For Light Spotted Cotton To Mean Money For Farmers

Attainment of one of the major goals of the Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., has been reached with passage of new farm legislation by Congress, W. O. Fortenberry, president, said last week as he disclosed that "separate price support rates for split grades are a feature of this new legislation."

Section 111 of the House Farm Bill says "Beginning with the 1959 crop, in adjusting the support price for cotton on the basis of grade, the Secretary shall establish separate price support rates for split grades and for full grades substantially reflecting relative values."

"While the legislation covers all the split grades the primary interest in the Plains is that of light spotted cotton," George W. Pfeiffenberger, executive vice-president, pointed out.

Records show that the Plains crop will average about 50 percent light spotted cotton. Previously the Commodity Credit Corporation has not recognized light spots as a separate grade. A producer putting light spotted cotton into the loan received only the value for full or heavy spotted bales. The cotton trade has at times given substantial premiums for light spots over the full spot, but in effect the producer had no real price protection on light spots other than the full spotted loan.

"The loan difference between spotted and white cotton has been widening rapidly the past several years. In 1956 the difference between a bale of middling inch white cotton and a middling inch spotted or light spotted bale was 40 points or $22 per bale. In 1957 this difference had widened to 375 points or $28.75 per bale, and in 1958 had widened still further to 725 points or $36.25 per bale.

"Since all spinning records and experience show that light spotted cotton is practically equal to white cotton in value and the physical difference in classing is often quite small, this difference of $36.25 per bale has become ridiculous," Pfeiffenberger continued.

However, beginning in 1959 the CCC is directed by this new legislation to establish separate loan rates for light spotted and spotted cotton. Since there are no official market quotations on light spotted cotton it is not known exactly what the differential will be, but the CCC has for years set up a value for light spots half way between white and spotted cotton when it sells out of its catalogue, and it seems likely they might carry this practice into the loan schedule, Pfeiffenberger explained.

"If this is done, and the same rocketed red meat prices, the competitive nature of the broiler business and continued progress in broiler growing have provided the housewife with a delectable alternative dish which should appear on every table several times each week.

Because more broilers are being grown and marketed each successive year (a current week's placement of chicks for broiler production in Texas alone is normally around two and a half million), and because better broilers are being produced at less cost than ever before, the food-wise shopper should head for the broiler counter regularly.

This transition in the broiler business has been phenomenal during the past seven years. In 1950, broilers were selling at 31 and 32 cents a pound, prices that would make today's broiler growers wealthy in a hurry. Cost of production at that time was about 25 cents a pound, which still left an excellent profit spread.

Today, cost of production in Texas runs about 18 cents a pound, with broilers bringing a much narrower profit margin. Since the volume of operation is also larger however, broiler-growing is still a big and sometimes profitable business.

The housewife is still the one who profits most, however, since the poultry processor who dresses the bird for market works on an equally competitive and slim profit margin as does the grower and the food store often "specials" broilers.

Since the poultry processor who dresses the bird for market works on an equally competitive and slim profit margin as does the grower, and since the food store frequently foregoes profit to use broilers as a "special" in drawing in customers, the housewife is still the one who profits most from the booming broiler business.

Fried or fricasseed, chicken is good enough and inexpensive enough to enjoy every day.

Dear Friend:
When will Congress adjourn? There can be no certainty when the answer is determined by the collective judgement of 435 House members and 96 Senators.

I think it can be said, however, that adjournment will come within the next several days—possibly before you receive this letter.

Congress does not adjourn when we "run out of business"—when the calendars are cleared. The House and Senate calendars are rarely cleared. Legislation is being introduced every day. There is always "unfinished business."

Last week I introduced in the Senate a bill to establish a Federal Study Commission for the seven Texas water basins not now included in interstate or international water compacts. Senate passage came within four days. This week the House voted approval.

The purpose of the bill is to provide for an integrated and cooperative investigation, study and survey of the Neches, Trinity, Brazos, Colorado, Guadalupe, San Antonio, San Jacinto, and Nueces River Basins. The Study Commission would be composed of one person from each of these river basin areas, a chairman from Texas, and representatives of each of six departments of the Federal Government.

The Commission respects the concepts that basic ideas, basic leadership in the field of water, must come from the grassroots. It is dominated by state-level people.

There is nothing new or untried about such a Study Commission. Its advantages have been abundantly demonstrated in other states.

In 1950, Senator Kerr of Oklahoma introduced legislation creating a Study Commission covering the Arkansas, White and Red Rivers. The obvious benefits from this approach led to a Presidential directive to set up a similar study for seven New England states in 1951. This year, Senator Russell of Georgia became interested in the idea and put in a bill patterned along the same lines covering South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and parts of Florida.

Texas is a quarter of a century behind in dealing with its water problems. We must catch up—and without further delay. We will need oceans of water for municipal and industrial use in years to come. We will need a world of intelligence to plan for it. The Study Commission will provide us with the framework for such planning.

This will be our last report from Washington until the 86th Congress convenes in January. I hope you will feel free to write to me during the Fall. I will be looking forward to your letters.

DOLLAR DAYS
Muleshoe - Monday

Weekly Cotton Insect Report
Infestations of cotton insects have continued about the same as those reported a week ago. While insecticidal applications have been rather general in some localities, only scattered plantings of cotton have been treated in other sections.

Bollworm infestations were reported heavy in Hockley, Howard, Lynn and Yoakum counties. The worms occurred in light to medium infestations elsewhere. Egg populations, as well as newly hatched worms, were much lower in a majority of fields than during the previous week. In many fields infestations consisted of rather large worms. Since many fields have cotton which is still in a very attractive stage, the crop should be checked frequently for eggs and small worms.

Cabbage looper infestations have increased in scattered fields although disease has checked the worms in other plantings. Satisfactory reductions of infestations may be secured if control applications are made while loopers are small.

Aphid populations have increased in many fields. Infestations have become heavier where bollworm control treatments have been made.

Bushland, Tex., Man Reports—
"Made $15 an acre grazing wheat—cut a 40-bu. crop"

Bill D. Wood, who farms 640 acres, says: "My records show the dollar profit in applying Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia pre-plant to wheat land. On my irrigated wheat, I paid for my seed and fertilizer and made $15 net an acre grazing it, when I used Phillips 66 Ammonia. The next year, I cut a 40-bushel wheat crop."

Other successful Southwestern farmers use Phillips 66 ammonia to give them higher grain yields . . . and more profitable grazing. The 82% nitrogen in Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia gives young wheat a fast start, supplies plenty of lush, protein-rich forage that puts on more beef at less cost per pound.

Many of these farmers plow down Phillips 66 ammonia in the fall on maize land. They know that the 82% nitrogen helps decompose crop residue, to provide extra plant food and make the soil more productive. Remember, Phillips 66 ammonia gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.

Christian Science Services
The practical importance of the healing works of Christ Jesus to mankind today will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.
Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" will include the account in John (9:1-7) of Jesus' healing of the blind man.
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read this selection: "Christianity as Jesus taught it was not a creed, nor a system of ceremonies, nor a special gift from a ritualistic Jehovah; but it was the demonstration of divine Love casting out error and healing the sick not merely in the name of Christ, or Truth, but in demonstration of Truth, as must be the case in the cycles of divine light" (135:26).
The Golden Text is from John (12:46): "I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness."

H. D. CLUB Clatter

If you have a food freezer, I am sure you have in it some of this year's corn crop. Remember there are many ways of using the corn in your menus. Corn Pudding is one that I think your family will enjoy.

CORN PUDDING

2 cups milk or light cream.
2 cups fresh or frozen corn.
2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted.

1 tablespoon sugar.
1 teaspoon salt.
1/4 teaspoon pepper.
3 eggs, well beaten.

Add milk or cream, corn, butter or margarine, sugar and seasoning to egg. Turn into greased casserole and bake at 350 degrees for 45 minutes, or until pudding is firm. This recipe will serve 4 to 6 people.

District II 4-H Girls Dress Revue

The District II 4-H Dress Revue was held in Lubbock last Tuesday. The girls modeled their dresses on Berni Howell's TV program that evening. I hope you saw them. Mary Jean Gross was Bailey county's entry. Mary is a member of the Progress 4-H Girls Club.

Small Eggs Good Buy

Small size eggs at this time of the year are usually the most economical egg buy. Hens hatched last spring are now coming into production and the first eggs they lay are small.

The seasonal increase in the number of small eggs can mean a price advantage to the family food shopper. Allowing for the difference in weight, the smaller eggs offer as much food value as the large ones.

Small eggs weigh about a fourth less than large eggs and the price spread between sizes is the guide to a good buy. If the price spread between large and small eggs is as much or more than 15 cents, the small size is the economical buy.

Small eggs have other advantages. They suit small serving needs, as for children, invalids or adults who prefer a small egg. Too, the small egg has special appetite appeal when used in salads or cold plates.

The food value of small eggs, adjusted for weight, is equal to that in other eggs. Because of the large number of pullets now coming into production, the supply of small eggs will be larger this fall than last year.
