The new district, created in the redistricting bill by the last session of the legislature, is composed of Andrews, Gaines, Dawson, and Lynn counties.

In announcing, Roberts said that he would like to represent the new district and thus fulfill a youthful ambition he had back in 1922 when he failed by the narrow margin of 63 votes to win the post in the old Lubbock district.

D. C. Cooper, 73, Taken By Death

D. C. Cooper, 73, a resident of Tahoka for 10 years, died in a Lubbock hospital at 2:05 p. m. Thursday of last week.

Funeral services were held in the College Avenue Baptist Church, Lubbock, at 10:00 a. m. Saturday, with the pastor, Rev. Abe Hester, assisted by Dr. Ralph Grant, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial followed in Lubbock Cemetery.

Mr. Cooper had been in ill health for about three years. He was in the hospital briefly before Christmas. On Monday of last week he was taken back to the hospital, complaining with severe headaches. He had a heart ailment and also is believed to have suffered a light stroke.

Daniel Claude Cooper was born May 28, 1878, in Hunt county. At the age of 17, he married Miss Ada Gryder, in that county on Nov. 30, 1895, and late last year the couple celebrated their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary.

The couple lived in Hunt county until 1928, and he engaged in farming. They moved to Shallowater in that year, and engaged in the grocery business there and at Anton for several years. They bought the store at T-Bar, Lynn county in 1941, but operated it only a few months and moved in to Tahoka.

He had been a member of the Baptist Church for 55 years, and held membership in the Masonic lodge in Hunt county.

Surviving are the wife; five daughters, Mrs. C. A. Seibert of Albion, Ill., Mrs. T. O. Douglas of Lubbock, Mrs. L. E. Atchison of Carlsbad, N. M., Mrs. C. W. Barclay of Spur, and Mrs. T. R. Hogan, Jr., of Dimmit; 11 grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren, six brothers, and three sisters.

There is yet some scattering cotton to be ginned, but it is doubtful that the total will reach 100,000.

Build, Buy, Live in Tahoka!

New Elementary School Building Nears Completion

Tahoka's new $250,000 elementary school building is slowly nearing completion, but no definite date for final completion has been given local school authorities by the general contractor, Swain Construction company of Lubbock.

All outside work except cleaning and leveling the grounds is just about complete. All sidewalks have been laid.

The cafeteria portion of the building was completed and has been in use since the resumption of school after the Christmas holidays.

Installation of the heating system is complete, and the lighting system is complete except for the hanging of fixtures in a few rooms.

Floors in the halls and rest rooms are complete; but rubber tile is yet to be laid in classrooms. Another coat of paint is yet to be put on classroom walls, and glass is yet to be installed in interior doors and transoms.

As soon as finishing work is complete, the public address system and furnishings, where all on hand, will be installed.

In addition to the cafeteria heating plant, rest rooms, and offices, the building has 12 classrooms, which will house the primary grades of the Tahoka school system.

Only a small amount of the $250,000 bond issue will remain when the building is completed, Supt. Otis Spears informs The News. It is likely that this will be used for some badly-needed permanent improvements on the school campus, but the school board has not yet decided just what is needed most at this time.

Ask Co-operation Law Enforcement

A plea for better co-operation from the citizens was issued this week by the Tahoka Police Department.

Local police are asking that citizens help with law enforcement by reporting unlawful activities. Better protection may be afforded with such co-operation, and officers will have a better chance to protect you and your property and that of your neighbors.

Some good citizens are prone to criticize the police, when their co-operation would help in law enforcement.

Some people have been guilty lately of illegally moving stop signs, street markers, and flares. Such is strictly in violation of the law as well as a hazard to safety. Though some of these are children's pranks, the danger and illegality of such acts are not there by minimized.

Parents should warn their children against such pranks and report any such activities they know of happening.

Also, the police warn that people attending picture shows or otherwise leaving their cars for

Rev. J. B. Vickery officiated at the double ring ceremony at 3:00 p. m. before an altar flanked with baskets of white gladioli.

Miss Pansy Nell Sloan, cousin of the bridegroom, was pianist. She offered a wedding prelude of "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "Through the Years." "The Lord's Prayer" was played as vows were exchanged.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue suit with a white blouse and white and red accessories. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with streamers of stephanotis on a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Jerry Sue Milliken, niece of the bridegroom. She wore a rose suit with navy and white accessories.

Bobby Joplin of Wilson was best man. Ushers were Jerry Bartley, brother of the bride, and Leon Bartley, cousin of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a cutwork cloth and centered with a tiered wedding cake.

Assisting with hospitalities were Mesdames Bryon Milliken, Chas. Honaker, Alton McKinney, sisters of the bridegroom, C. J. Rhoads and Pete Rhoads, sisters-in-law of the bridegroom. Miss Delores Rhoads registered guests.

Mrs. Rhoads is a senior in Wilson High School and the bridegroom is engaged in farming. Following a wedding trip to South Texas, the couple will be at home on a farm east of Wilson.

Guests were present from Wilson, Tahoka, Brownfield, Slaton, and Abilene.

Price Daniel, attorney-general of Texas, formally announced Monday night his candidacy for the United States Senate, the place now held by Senator Tom Connally. Price Daniel is an ideal gentleman and if elected would in the course of time, no doubt, make a useful member of the Senate. Personally, we do not believe that there is a man in Texas and very few if any in the United States who at this time could fill the shoes of Tom Connally, chairman of the foreign relations committee, and one of the architects of the United Nations organization. But Price Daniel is a young man and that fact alone will appeal to many of our younger voters. In making his announcement, he set forth a kind of platform, most of which is excellent. In domestic matters, he takes the right stand, it occurs to us. When he ventures into the field of international affairs, we are not so sure that he stands on solid ground. None of us really knows just what is the best policy to pursue there. There are so many danger spots in all parts of the world, and we have such a secretive, unprincipled, deceitful, powerful, treacherous, and threatening foe to deal with in the dictators of the Kremlin that nearly all of us are somewhat bewildered and exceedingly uncertain as to what policy this government should follow. As for us we are willing to follow the advice and counsel of such military leaders of our country as General Eisenhower and most of the great military leaders of our country, and such experienced, able, and well-informed Senators as Tom Connally and the Senate majority who agree with him on international affairs rather than to follow the lead of novices in such affairs. We greatly admire Price Daniel, but we certainly do not think this is the time when we should displace Tom Connally.

Pat Neff, former governor of Texas for two terms and after that president of Baylor University for many years, the occupant of many other high positions, the receiver of many honors, and the wielder of great influence during a life-time of 80 years, passed away at his home in Waco last Sunday. Possibly the most dramatic episode in his career was his campaign for governor in 1920 against the ablest man that ever held a seat in the United States Senate from Texas, Joseph Weldon Bailey, and his defeat of Bailey in the election that followed. And the most dramatic event in that campaign was the debate that he had with Bailey, when he whipped the ex-Senator's ears down. Like Bailey in one respect, Pat Neff was an orator of the old school, but a more polished orator than his antagonist. Neff was a lover of the orate in the use of English, and he was a master word painter. Usually very dignified, Pat Neff was sometimes accused of being egotistic, but he was a good vote-getter. That was not because of his back-slapping ability, for that he did not have, but it was because that he always stood staunchly for morals and high standards both in public and in private life and unswervingly practiced what he preached. Pat Neff never in his life took a drink of liquor nor a chew of tobacco or smoked a cigarette. He never drank because he believed that drinking was a bad habit and that the liquor business was a bad business fraught only with evil. He never chewed or smoked because he thought these to be useless and wasteful habits. He was not fanatical on these subjects but he had convictions and lived up to them. Although he had his faults he accomplished much good in the field of government and politics, in the field of education, and in the sphere of Christianity and religious activities. A great man last Sunday wrapped the drapery of his couch about him and lay down to pleasant dreams.

4-H CLUB GIRLS HOLD MEETING

At the Tahoka 4-H Club meeting this month, the girls learned how to make icebox cookies, or butterscotch cookies.

You add 1/2 cup shortening or butter, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 1 egg unbeaten till you put it in 1 1/2 cups flour, 1 1/4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt. Add if desired 3/4 cup pecans or dates.

Add vanilla, egg, flour, baking powder, salt. Also add chopped nuts and dates and beat until well mixed. Shape into roll. Place into icebox until firm. Then slice into 1/8-inch slices; put onto ungreased baking sheet, cook at 400 degrees for 10 minutes. This recipe makes about four dozen. — Reporter.

For Outperforming all other American Cars...

In the Grinding Tests that Won it! the Motor Trend Magazine Award, Chrysler proved itself the Best Engineered Car in America.

CHRYSLER
 finest engineered cars in the world

PLAIN'S MOTOR CO. — 1511 S. Second

18 different American stock automobiles—equipped as you buy them—were driven by Motor Trend Magazine as hard as steel and rubber can be driven. In these actual road tests of efficiency and performance, measured by the most accurate instruments obtainable, Chrysler proved itself superior to all others in 13 tests. Chrysler was first in 7—tied in 2, making a total of 9 out of 18... and first in total points!

Only by using an engine to the limit of its potential, only by tuning that engine at high speeds, applying brakes for emergency stops, forcing body, springs and shock absorbers, can you learn just what performance you can expect from the make of car you drive. The results of the Motor Trend tests were conclusive... as Chrysler again proved itself the one best car in America.

The Motor Trend Award, like numerous other honors today's Chrysler has won, is both a testimonial and a tribute to Chrysler's magnificent 57-hp Power engine and master engineering. Each day countless why, among men and women who drive automobiles... Chrysler is always the first choice.

High School in 1929. After graduating from Lamesa High School in 1930, he moved to Lubbock and attended Texas Technological college until he received a degree in business administration in 1934. While attending Tech he was employed on farms near Lubbock and as part-time service station employee. After graduation, he operated his own service station until 1936 when he entered the theater business. He now owns and operates five theaters in Lubbock and is recognized as one of the leading independent operators of the state.

Smith first entered politics in 1944 when he was elected State Representative from the old 119th district. He was re-elected twice to the office without an opponent. In 1950 he made the race for Lieutenant Governor of Texas, placing third in a field of 12 candidates and polling more than 115,000 votes to lead the ticket in 68 counties.

"Being a business man, I believe that the application of sound business methods should and must be applied to the operation of our state government," Smith said. "The state should get a dollar value for every dollar that it expends. That waste and extravagance should not and must not be tolerated in the expenditures of our state funds. That our state government with efficiency and economy in its operation, can progressively move forward without additional state taxes... that millions of dollars in taxes could be saved with sound business methods and practices, if applied to the operation of not only our state government but to every phase of our political sub-divisions within the state."

"From heritage, my belief has always been in state and local rights," Smith said. "The preservation of home rule by state and local communities is a fundamental necessity if we are to remain a truly united people."

"Having served in the legislature three terms, I feel that this experience, together with the wide acquaintance I have gained in meeting those problems with which the people in this district are most confronted. Those problems are many and will need vital attention. Among them are the continuation of our farm-to-market road program, a more vigorous soil conservation program, adequate provisions for the welfare of our old people, problems confronting the growth and expansion of Texas Tech, as well as those which confront our business both large and small in this district."

Smith, during his tenure in the Legislature, had an integral part in the passage of many important measures including the legislation enabling counties to vote bonds for construction of hospitals; co-author of the rural telephone bill as enacted by the special session of the 51st Legislature; co-author of the constitutional amendment submitted to the people and passed effecting redistricting of the state; author of legislation (passed by the House) requiring state boards, bureaus and other agencies created by the Legislature that spend state revenue to hold open meetings and notify the press in writing before any meeting is held; co-author of a bill requiring loyalty oaths of students and faculty at state institutions of higher learning; and co-author of the bill improving state hospitals and special schools.

Smith served as a member of the appropriations committee of the 50th and 51st Legislature, chairman of the sub-committee on higher education and chairman of the conference committee for higher education in the 51st sessions.

Smith is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Smith, who resides in Gaines county. He is married to the former Miss Ima Smith of Crosby county and has two children, Preston Michael, 11, and Jan Lauren, 6.

He is a member of the Lubbock Kiwanis club, Masonic lodge, Khiva Shrine Temple, and a steward and trustee in St. John's Methodist Church of Lubbock.

Bulldogs Win

als called on him early in the game, and James Foster capably relieved him.
Early in the third quarter, Post continued its "hot" streak, hitting for eight points while Tahoka was hitting one field goal, and led the Bulldogs 29 to 24 after three minutes. Foster hit a long one and Tekell a jump shot to tie the score 29-all. But Brice hit on two free shots and Howle a long set shot, and Tahoka was never headed again. Tahoka again held a slim 30 to 35 lead at end of the quarter.

Foster is "Hot"
Foster and Tekell both were "hot" in the fourth, with Howle adding another long one. Post's

Jack Kirkpatrick, held to only eight points by Tekell and his mates, however, got loose in the fourth to score 11 of the 13 points scored by his team in this quarter. Tahoka coasted in to victory in the last three minutes leading 53 to 44, with Post picking up four points near game's end. The final score, 53 to 48.

Tahoka hit 20 free shots, while Post hit 12 of 19. Tahoka hit 21 field goals to Post's 18.

Kirkpatrick was high point man with 19, and Howle with 14. Evans, had 14 points. Foster 14, Brice 11, and Howle 10. Though low in scoring, Halamecek and Richard Havens played good floor games. It was a team victory for Tahoka against the goal-shooting wizardry of Kirkpatrick and Evans.

B Team Wins Again
Tahoka B team's 33-26 victory came a little easier than that of the A team.

As usual, Coach Jake Jacobs used two complete teams, each playing two quarters. They led 13 to 7 in the first, 17 to 11 in the second, 23 to 21 in the third, and 33 to 26 at end of the game.

Steve Slover was the big shot for Tahoka hitting 11 points before fouling out after playing one quarter and one minute, but John Foster tied him with 11 points in two quarters of play. Richard Carter hit for 5 points, Donald Paris for 4, Max Dodson and Garland Huddleston, 1 each, while John Curry, Bobby Lehman, Joe ers college at Canyon.

Roberts

He comes from a pioneer farming family. His parents moved to a Dawson county farm 36 years ago, and his mother still resides on the farm. Thus Roberts' interest and sympathy for the basic industry of this area comes naturally.

Roberts served six years as county judge of Andrews county, and has been publishing the Andrews County News for the past 17 years.

During his terms as county judge, he was active in behalf of good roads, not only for Andrews county, but cooperated with other counties and cities in building roads. He assisted in the organization of the Broadway to the Big Bend highway association and was a member of the county judges and commissioners legislative committee.

Roberts, a former school teacher, has been an ardent supporter of better schools, better pay and better teachers for Texas. He served on the Andrews county school-board that created the great Andrews county-wide school district.

The legislative candidate stated that the big issue before the next legislature would not be over more and better roads, better schools, more assistance to the needy aged and other worthy causes, for nearly everyone was in favor of these things. The big issue will be from whom and from where will the money come. That will be the big rub.

With cities, schools, counties, state, and federal governments all contesting for the tax dollar, he stated, the poor taxpayer is in for a rough time and will need help or his standard of living will nose-dive.

Roberts stated he was under no illusions in making the race for the office. He had no panacea or cure-all. He did not know what the issues would be when the next legislature convened in 1953. All he could promise, if elected, would be an open mind on all important legislative matters, and a close and impartial study of ways and means to solve the many problems.

Roberts said that if elected he would try to give the people of the 99th legislative district honest and intelligent representation.

In short, Roberts stated that his platform would be to try and do as much as he could with a minimum of harm and be ever alert that no harm came to the people of this district through legislative action.

He invited the voters of the four counties to investigate his record and satisfy themselves as to his ability, honesty, and then if they were satisfied, he would appreciate their vote and their support.

Mrs. Cleve Cloer underwent minor surgery at Tahoka Hospital Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jahnke spent the week end in Eden visiting relatives.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Plans

The annual F. H. A. Mother-Daughter banquet will be held Thursday, February 7, in the Tahoka school cafeteria, according to Mrs. Jeannine Jones, sponsor.

Mrs. Pete Hegi will be principal speaker and there will also be other entertainment.

The menu will consist of: Tomato cocktail, ginger ale, fruit salad, roast beef, brown gravy, carrot sticks-celery, baked potatoes, hot rolls, butter, apple pie and coffee.

Senator Corbin Is Jaycee Speaker

State Senator Kilmer Corbin talked informally at the regular meeting of the Tahoka Jaycees at the WOW hall Thursday night of last week.

He discussed the work of the Jaycee organization in promoting prison and eleemosynary institution reforms, the work of the last Legislature, the re-districting acts, and good government.

Only a small number of members were in attendance.

Slaton Students Plan Program At Tahoka High

Slaton High School Student Council will present an assembly program in the auditorium at Senior High School here February 14, according to arrangements made by Mr. J. M. Gilbert, Slaton principal, and Mr. Robert Rich.

The program of the Slaton school talent will last approximately 45 minutes, Mr. Rich has said. Tahoka's Council will in turn sponsor an exchange assembly there February 27.

Purpose of these programs is to promote better relations between the two schools.

Lee Holden Back From Hospital

Lee Holden of Meadow, route 1, recently critically injured when caught in a boll puller on his farm, was brought back to his home Friday night of last week.

After receiving treatment at a Lubbock hospital, he was taken to a specialist at Dallas and his right leg was amputated at the knee. After leaving the hospital about two weeks ago, he was taken to Denton where he stayed with relatives a few days before making the trip home.

He is reported to be recovering nicely now. The Holdens formerly lived here.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Jones left Wednesday for Hot Springs, N. M., to spend about three weeks resting, and fishing.

Brooks, and Roy Gene Sherrod played well but failed to count. For Post, Cowdry was high with six, while Lawrence had five points.

Lose At Tulia
Last week end the Bulldogs competed in the annual Tulia tournament. In the first game they handily defeated the Floydada Whirlwinds 43 to 26, but in the second round lost by about 10 points to Happy. In the Happy game, the Bulldogs played the floor well but were "cold" at hitting the basket.

Texas Tech Expects Enrollment Drop

LUBBOCK. —Texas Tech officials expect a 700-student drop in enrollment when the college starts its spring-semester registration February 4.

Registrar W. P. Clement estimated the spring enrollment at 4,200 students, which is a considerable decrease from the fall semester enrollment of 4,906. He added that the decrease is a yearly occurrence.

Pre-registration of students started January 15. Freshmen report for orientation and registration February 4, with upper classmen registering February 4-5. Final examinations are over Feb. 1st.

Wilson Boy Enters Gonzales Hospital

GONZALES, Jan. 24. —Ten-year-old Jerry Swope of Wilson was admitted to the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation for Crippled Children on Monday, January 17, for treatment.

Young Jerry was stricken with polio in 1947. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Swope of Route 2, Wilson.

Development of the first successful de-icing system for helicopter rotor blades was made under Navy contract by Bell Aircraft Corp., Buffalo, N. Y. The system was proved under extreme natural icing conditions on the summit of Mt. Washington, N. H.

City Sanitation Rules Are Set

AUSTIN. —State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox today spelled out in one-two-three order the requirements for a city-wide sanitation drive that will "show results in fewer flies, fewer rats, and less disease."

His plan in brief: Apply the idea of a good spring cleaning outside as well as inside the house.

The long-time exponent of clean environment said the State Department of Health would, on request, send a team of sanitation experts to survey any Texas town for health hazards.

"An untrained person might fail to see the significance of horse lots, surface toilets, or stagnant water holes where flies and mosquitoes can breed. Our people, by training and experience, know how to locate and correct hazards to community health," the health officer said.

The survey would include a check on the manner of garbage storage, collection, and disposal, and a look into foodhandling establishments to see if their foods are coming from safe sources.

The team, according to the doctor's plan, would make a study of the local water supply. Contaminated? If so, what's the reason and how can it be corrected most efficiently?

They would investigate the sewerage system. Do lines extend into all areas of the city? Are all residences connected? Is the plant itself adequate to accommodate the city? How is the sewage processed?

Residential and business districts would be inspected for sanitary violations, and each property owner would be strictly accountable for cleaning up his premises with the city hauling away accumulations of trash.

"If we all begin work right now, using tried and proved methods, we can cut down the incidence of diseases caused by unsanitary environments, contaminated water, and improperly handled foods. We can stage a fight against flies and stop them from spreading disease.

"We're here to help," the doctor said.

Carl Spears Wins Hat On Guess Of 90,000 Bales Cotton

Carl H. Spears, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spears, who live on the Wilson highway, was winner of the 7X Beaver Stetson hat given by Rutherford & Co. for the person guessing the closest to the number of bales of cotton ginned in Lynn county up to January 1.

Carl's guess was the highest registered at the store—90,000 bales.

Actually, according to Government figures furnished Mr. Rutherford, there were 91,258 bales ginned in Lynn county from the 1951 crop up to January 1, 1952.

As evidenced by the guesses, this was far greater than anybody in the county anticipated last fall.

Odds AND Ends

(By E. I. The Elder)

Last week we made an imaginary trip up onto old Mount Nebo in the ancient land of Moab and stood where Moses stood when he looked over into the Promised Land. Away down there 4,000 feet below us and less than ten miles away was the Dead Sea and the lower reaches of the Jordan river. On top of the Judean Mountains 15 miles further west, in plain view, were portions of the city of Jerusalem. Over the tops of the mountains and forty miles still further on, barely visible on the horizon, was the blue Mediterranean. Yonder, a hundred miles to the north, was snow capped old Mount Hermon. This side of it were the hills that surrounded the beautiful little Sea of Galilee. From his vantage point, we are told that Moses could see all over the Promised Land, and that its summit affords one of the grandest views to be seen anywhere in the world.

Holy Land from that point, declaring that from it one of the grandest views in the world is obtained. Right across a deep ravine to the West is the city of Jerusalem. Right over there on Mount Moriah is the Mosque of Omar where the magnificent Temple of Herod stood, and a little further over is "old" Mount Zion. Six miles to the south is the ancient little town of Bethlehem, and to the right and further on is old Mount Hebron, the highest point in Palestine south of Jerusalem. Yonder to the west, clearly visible in places now, is the great Mediterranean. Far to the northwest, jutting right out to the shore of the Mediterranean, is historic Mount Carmel. To the left of Mount Carmel is the Roman City of Caesarea, and up the shoreline to the north of Carmel are the sites of Tyre and Sidon, great cities of the Phoenicians and other Canaanites. Still farther north but too far away to be visible is the formerly great city of Antioch, the third largest city in the world in Christ's day. Directly to the north of where we stand on Mount Olivet are the Mountains of Samaria, but over their crests and in the dim distance, on a clear day, can be seen the outline of the Lebanon and the Anti-Lebanons, two parallel ranges of mountains running northeast and southwest in Syria and the northern borders of Galilee; the Lebanon rising to a height of 9,000 to 11,000 feet and Mount Hermon, most prominent peak in the Anti-Lebanons, N.E. of the Sea of Galilee, lifting its massive head to a height of 9,166 feet above the level of the Mediterranean. The Lebanon and the Anti-Lebanons the eastern. A narrow valley separates the two. The Leontes River rises in the Lebanon and flows into the Mediterranean Sea just north of Tyre. The Jordan rises at the foot of Mount Hermon in the Anti-Lebanons just a few miles from the Leontes and flows down through Galilee, and pours its waters finally into the Dead Sea.

The Lebanon were famous for their cedars, and Solomon, it will be remembered, made a treaty with King Hiram of Tyre to supply him with the fine cedars needed in the construction of his magnificent Temple in Jerusalem. The ancient Cedars of Lebanon became proverbial but the cedars themselves have almost completely passed into history. The Lebanon on Mountains now are almost barren, we are told.

Immediately east of the Lebanon and northeast of old Mount Hermon is the city of Damascus, reputed to be the oldest city in the world, although there may be older ones in pre-historic China or India or other Asiatic areas whose populations were mere barbarians living in miserable huts for thousands of years before the dawn of history. Who knows?

But anyway Damascus was a thriving city when Abraham moved up the Tigris-Euphrates valley from Ur of the Chaldees to Haran and later from Haran to the land of Canaan. The course of the journey brought him through or near the city of Damascus, but that fact is not definitely stated in the Scriptures. In historic times it has passed from the possession of one kingdom or sovereignty to another. It was captured by the Turks in 1516 A. D. and has been in their possession ever since. In Christ's day it was regarded as a Jewish city under the sovereignty of Rome, and it was to Damascus that Saul was going with papers from the San Hedrin at Jerusalem to seize any Christians he might find there when he was miraculously stricken down on the road near the city and himself converted to the Christian faith.

Damascus is still a thriving city of some 300,000 population with Turks and Arabs predominating. Many centuries ago it became famous for the manufacture of fine cloth, rugs, carpets, etc. Damask cloth and Damask steel get their names from the fact that they were first manufactured in the city of Damascus, and the Damask Rose likewise got its name from the fact that it was grown there in great beauty and profusion.

The Jordan River has at least four distinct sources, if each of the separate streams that come from the western slopes of Mount Hermon and a fourth one that joins them at the Lake of Merom, now called Lake Huleh, be considered a separate source.

The longest but smallest of these prongs has its rise on the northwestern slope of Hermon at a higher point than any of the others on the west side of the Anti-Lebanon range. It comes on down for 25 or 30 miles on the west side of Hermon before being joined by another stream. It flows only a small volume of water. Then near the old site of the ancient little city of Dan, a stream of water twelve feet wide and 3 feet deep gushes up among the rocks on the western slope of Hermon and flows swiftly down to join the longer but smaller stream. Just a little further around and on the southwestern slope of Hermon, at the ancient village and Shrine of Pan, another stream boils up and rushes down the slope to form the stream called Banias, which joins the Jordan just above Lake Merom (Huleh). These springs could have been the site of the Hebrew Dan but certainly it was the site during

"Out of thin air" comes the HIGHEST HORSEPOWER in Buick history

NOTE FROM YOUR BUICK DEALER:

Presented here is the story of a great new engine development, as told by the men who did the job. We reprint the story here in its entirety—as we couldn't beat it if we tried.

No, we didn't have to build a new engine. We took Buick's valve-in-head Fireball Engine—which makes the most of high compression. We drew on 12 patient years of Buick carburetion research.

And we came up with more might, more miles, from gas—right out of thin air, in more ways than one.

When you talk about "miles per gallon" you think of fuel, because that's what you buy. But air's free—and for every gallon of gasoline, a busy engine can gulp more than 8,000 gallons of air.

The problem is to deliver air in the right proportions, throughout the full range of speeds at which you drive.

A carburetor—big enough to supply the air needed at full throttle—can be wasteful in stop-and-go driving. A carburetor sized for thrift in city traffic literally smothers your engine when you really give it the gun.

So Buick engineers developed the Airpower carburetor—a four-barrel automatic—and here's how it works.

Loading along, two barrels are working, two stay closed. And you get a low-speed thrif and smoothness that's out of this world. As you pick up speed, the "stand-bys" come into play—feeding not just more gas, but more air too—so you keep getting maximum power from each drop of fuel.

You have 170 effortless horsepower when you need it—a tremendous reserve ready to go into instant action at the nudge of your toe.

You have the satisfaction of knowing that you get this power with a frugal use of gas. At 40 you use less gas than you formerly used at 30.

That's the story of Airpower carburetion in facts and figures straight from the factory. But statistics can't tell you the breath-taking joy of heading for new horizons in a great-powered new ROADMASTER.

When can you do that? Better come in soon. Lots of other folks are flocking into our showroom these days to see the greatest array of new Buicks we've had in years.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Odds & Ends

Christ's ministry of Caesarea Philippi, where Peter made the "Great Confession."

Merom is a small lake, triangular in shape, about three miles wide, at the northern end and coming to a point at the southern end. Just north of the lake the land flattens out and the waters of the Jordan create a marsh just about as large as the lake itself. In this marsh the papyrus reeds like those at the mouth of the Nile grow luxuriantly. Water lilies also grow in profusion both here and in the valley that lies at the foot of Mount Tabor some five or six miles east of Nazareth. In fact, lilies of various hues and colors are said to have grown in the valleys all over Galilee and some even on the hills about Nazareth. Some were white and some gorgeously colored. Jesus had doubtless seen and admired millions of them when he said that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Some think that the tulip, iris, and gladiolus were included under the general name of lily in Palestine in Biblical days.

Lake Huleh, or Merom, is overshadowed by towering Mount Hermon to the north. Did you ever stand in the valley just south of old Guadalupe and El Capitan peaks that jut out into Texas southwest of the Carlsbad Cavern and look back up the highway to those towering heights? If you have done so that may give you a faint idea of old Mount Hermon, but only a faint idea. Guadalupe peak may rise as much as 4,500 feet above the floor of the flats ten or 15 miles south of it. But old Hermon rises more than 9,150 feet above the level of Lake Merom, which lies almost at its very feet. Only a few miles back across the marshes and thence up to Caesarea Philippi, and you are right at the foot of Hermon. It would be a hard climb from that point on up. So, looking back from Lake Merom or even from the Sea of Galilee, there stands the giant mountain, snow-capped above the 8,000-foot line even in July. It must be a sight rarely equaled. But looking out over Galilee and the Jordan valley from any vantage point on Mt. Hermon must be just as grand a sight. "The Jordan Valley," Dr. McKee Adams says, "is one of the most picturesque and fascinating areas on the surface of the earth." And then he calls attention to the fact that while Mt. Hermon at the head of the valley stands 9,166 feet above the surface of the Mediterranean; the Dead Sea at the south end of the valley, 150 miles away, lies 1,292 feet below the surface of the Mediterranean.

We can't possibly complete this journey this week, folks, but this is enough for this time, and I promise you that we will browse around some more next week along the lakes and the streams and the gorges and over the hills and the mountains of the Holy Land, a land that is more sacred and more loved today by countless millions of people throughout the so-called Christian world, than any other country or spot on earth, except perhaps their own native land. We will commence next week about where we left off this time.

I want to make this suggestion to Sunday School teachers and church workers of all evangelistic denominations that if they will procure the scholarly book entitled "Biblical Backgrounds" written by Dr. McKee Adams of Louisville, Kentucky, it will throw marvelous light on the Scriptures. If you have any time at all to devote to study, you will never regret buying this book. It contains scores of fine photographs of mountains, streams, and cities that are very revealing in themselves.

Another invaluable book is one entitled "The New Testament World," by H. E. Dana. Both of these books are printed by the Broadman Press, Nashville, Tenn.

The most delightful and illuminating little volume that I have read in many a day is one entitled "Living Where Jesus Lived." It was written by Emma Jewell Ross of Dallas. It is published by The McMillan Company, which has publishing houses in Dallas, Atlanta, and San Francisco, and in several foreign countries. Every teacher, especially those who teach young people and children, should read this little book.

And I'm not a book agent either.

Research studies have shown that scalding is a necessary step in preparing most vegetables for freezing regardless of how long they are to be stored. Scalding stops certain undesirable changes such as loss of quality and vitamin content. Heating gives a brighter color, shrinks the food further cleans the product and stops enzyme action.

Hunting Deaths For 1952 Were 28

AUSTIN.—The Chief Clerk of the Texas Game & Fish Commission said incomplete casualty reports from the recent major hunting seasons show that at least 28 Texans died from accidents.

All but six of the tentative total died from gunfire. Five drowned and one died of a broken neck sustained in a fall from a deer stand in a tree.

At least six other persons died from heart attacks attributed to over exertion while hunting. The Chief Clerk said the total for the last season would approximate that of the previous season when 35 were listed as having died from assorted causes including heart attacks.

The number wounded during the recent season was estimated at "in excess of 50." The Chief Clerk said the totals to date show that 13 hunters died that seven were killed by guns handled by others.

In addition, one hunter was mistaken for a turkey, dying from a shot through the head by a .300 calibre bullet.

The Chief Clerk observed that while the casualty total remained high, the number of accidents from hunters being mistaken for game appeared to be less than usual.

The seven fatal wounds which were self-inflicted included such common causes as leaning on the gun barrel, crawling through a fence, removing a gun from a car, barrel first, and striking the butt end of a gun against the ground.

Homemakers will find that cooking with a pressure sauce pan saves time, work and fuel and insures the food value of the products prepared.

Go To Church Sunday.

Hegari Proves Value In Tests

LUBBOCK. —How to get the most out of a relatively poor field of hegari was demonstrated by the animal husbandry department recently at Texas Tech in a lamb-feeding experiment.

The experiment, involving 11,300 acres of dry-land hegari and 196 head of Rambouillet lambs, was conducted by the department with the aid of Claude Ash, Bronte graduate student. Ash will use the data collected for his master's thesis.

Each care of hegari and supplemental feed produced 195 pounds of lamb, when sold at market price would bring $54.00. If the hegari had been cut and sold, it would have brought an estimated $30 an acre.

Seventeen head of lambs grazed, and were fed a supplemental formula, on each acre. The formula, costing about $2 for each acre of hegari consumed, consisted of 44 pounds of cottonseed hulls, 27 pounds of cottonseed meal, eight pounds each of salt and limestone.

Harvesting the hegari acreage with livestock brought the department $22 more per acre than it would have realized if it had harvested the grain commercially.

NAMES MIXED UP

Last week in the story telling of Mrs. Beulah Pridmore's candidacy for re-election as county clerk, The News erred in designating her parents, stating that the J. H. Smiths of New Home were her parents, when we should have said she was the daughter of the S. L. Smiths—the same surnames, but an entirely different couple. Both are highly respected

Lynn county citizens, and we here by gladly make this correction for the record.

Although motor fuel revenue increased 88 per cent and license fee revenue increased 230 per cent between 1940 and 1950, the Texas Highway Department realized only a 13 per cent rise in purchasing power, due to the inflated dollar.

Biggest single source of highway revenue is two cents of the four-cent state gasoline tax. The remaining two cents is divided between the schools and retirement of the county highway debt.

If all state highways in Texas were destroyed in one day and had to be replaced at current dollar value, it would require $2 billion.

Another major milestone in hauling progress

GMC PRESENTS THE FIRST 2 1/2-TON DIESEL

At last—Diesel economy and hill-leveling performance come to thousands of truckers who have never had any choice but gasoline power in the past!

TODAY America's foremost builder of Diesel trucks smashes the size-weight barrier that up to now has denied the many economies of Diesel power to haulers of medium-weight loads.

Today GMC offers users of equipment in the 19,500 GVW-35,000 GCW range a sensational new Diesel truck-tractor.

It is powered by the first welterweight Diesel truck engine—a smaller, more compact model of the famous General Motors 2-cycle engine that has made GMC America's first-choice Diesel truck.

More Miles per Gallon

Because it is Diesel-powered, this new GMC Model D450-37 will cost you far less to run per mile, far less to maintain per year than any other 2 1/2-tonner you've ever owned. All Diesel experience proves that.

Because it is a 2-cycle Diesel, it is a fast-starting, quick-accelerating, highly responsive truck with plenty of snap in traffic—a truck that will maintain a steady "on time" schedule even on hilly runs.

Fuel economy is automatic thanks to GMC's famous Fuel Modulator. Regardless of throttle pressure this engine never gets more fuel than it needs and makes the most of what it gets. Smooth driving is assured by "easy-turn" recirculating ball-bearing steering—even electric shifting on two-speed axle models.

Nationwide Service

Equally important to the thousands of truckers who can now enjoy the benefits of Diesel power for the first time, this new GMC D450-37 is backed by the nation's largest network of Diesel service stations.

Before you buy another truck, you owe it to yourself to investigate these new GMC welterweight Diesels if you want to cut costs! We will be glad to give you facts and figures that will open your eyes. Why not come in today!
