Tahoka-O'Donnell Game Is Tonight

The game of games for Lynn county football fans, when past records count for naught, when the O'Donnell Eagles and the Tahoka Bulldogs meet will be played at Kelley Field in Tahoka tonight at 8:00 o'clock.

Though O'Donnell started slow this year, the 1952 Eagles are possibly the best team that town has had in several years and enter the game as the favorites.

The Tahoka Bulldogs are young and many of the boys inexperienced. They have shown fine possibilities at times, but as yet have not played a full 60-minutes of football in any one game. The Bulldogs nosed out Sundown, lost heavily to Denver City and Seminole, two Plains powerful teams, and won last Friday over Seagraves 18 to 7.

O'Donnell lost by a 40-21 score to powerful Iran, was nosed out by Post 13 to 7, overwhelmed Lubbock Pioneers 40 to 0, and then took Slaton 14 to 13.

O'Donnell's probable starters are: Ends Kenneth Fannon, 150, and Roger Doss, 160; Tackles J. Thompson, 170, and C. Haire, 170; Guards B. Mahurin, 135, and Gene Jackson, 155; Center G. Moore, 245; Quarterback Benny Clark, 170; Halfbacks D. Moore, 150, and J. Cooley, 175; Fullback Don Fritz, 220.

Both O'Donnell and Tahoka bands will present colorful halftime ceremonies tonight, and one of the largest crowds of the season is expected to be on hand for the festivities.

Win Over Seagraves
In a game played at Tahoka last Friday night, the Bulldogs took an 18 to 7 victory over the Seagraves Eagles of District 4-A.

The showing of the local boys was greatly improved and the game's result was never in doubt; however, the Bulldogs will have to show better blocking and tackling to equal the feat of the 1951 District 6-AA championship team. The boys still have a tendency to let-down at some time in the game.

However, on Friday night, the team switched over from the single-wing to the T formation with only three days practice.

Whorton Elected To City Council

Winston C. Whorton was elected to a place on the Tahoka City Council in the special election held last Saturday. He will fill out the unexpired term of Coy Fielder, resigned. D. S. Waldrip was the other candidate for the place. Whorton received 72 votes Waldrip 15.

Whorton was sworn-in at a meeting of the Council on Monday night, and Mayor James K. Applewhite appointed him street commissioner. Other members of the Council are: E. R. Edwards, water; R. H. Gibson, city farms; Stanley Sigman, police; and Herman Heck, sanitation.

Officers Hunting Mexican Boy Who Is Dog-Bite Victim

A Mexican boy bitten in South Texas by a mad dog is being sought in this section, according to Deputy Sheriff Otis Curry.

The boy, Valentine Coronado, was bitten by a dog at Del Rio on September 26. He came with his parents to this area to pull bolls. In the meantime, it has been found that the dog had the dread disease of rabies.

The boy has only a week or ten days in which to start taking anti-rabies serum, or the disease will likely be fatal to him.

All farmers are requested to check their hands to determine if such a youth is with their farm laborers, and if so to contact authorities immediately.

Lynn Will Get 11 Miles New Farm-To-Market Roads

Texas Highway Department has issued a call for bids for paving nearly twelve miles of Lynn county farm-to-market roads, the bids to be presented by Oct. 21.

Proposed construction is principally the road between New Lynn and Wilson. The department proposes to pave the road from the end of existing paving about two miles northwest of New Lynn north to the farm-to-market paving two and a half miles east of Wilson.

The other section to be paved is a short gap east of Grassland to the Garza county line, to connect up existing paving.

The total mileage to be paved is 11.589 miles.

Henry Aten, 64, Buried Monday

W. H. (Henry) Aten, 64, resident of the Grassland community for the past 37 years, died at 4:00 a. m. Sunday in a Lubbock hospital.

Funeral services were held at Grassland Methodist Church at 3:00 p. m. Monday, with Rev. A. N. Motes, pastor, and Rev. D. W. Reed, pioneer Baptist minister of the area, officiating. Burial was in Grassland cemetery.

Mr. Aten is survived by his wife; two sons, James and Teddy Lee Aten, both of Grassland; two brothers, G. C. Aten of O'Donnell and A. P. Aten of Sacramento, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. N. R. McClendon of Sandy and Mrs. D. W. Nixon of Meridian, Ida.

Jail Terms Are Assessed Here

Guilty pleas were entered by three Tahoka Negroes in county court here Monday, according to County Attorney Mitchell Williams.

R. C. Stansberry was assessed a fine of $50.00 and costs on a charge of aggravated assault.

Emma Jene Muse and Louis Ingram were each assessed sentences of 30 days in jail by Judge W. M. Mathis on misdemeanor theft charges. The women were alleged to have "picked up" merchandise in a local dry goods store last Friday.

Jesse B. Lawson on Wednesday last week entered a plea of guilty to passing a worthless check and was fined $50.00 and costs.

John Roberts Had Stroke Saturday

John Roberts, teacher in Tahoka High School, became ill last Saturday and was taken to Tahoka Hospital in a very serious condition on Sunday night. Physicians report that he had suffered a "light stroke," produced by the bursting of a blood vessel on the brain.

On Thursday morning, Mrs. Roberts stated that his condition seemed to be slightly improved. For the first time he had developed a little temperature, which doctors said was a good sign, although his condition remains very serious at noon Thursday.

The condition of Rev. Ben Harday, who has been a patient in the hospital for several weeks, remains apparently unchanged. He has been unconscious and unable to speak for many days.

J. A. Preece, who has been a patient in the hospital the past two weeks, seemed to be much better. He suffers from heart trouble, however, and had been a patient on previous occasions.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican presidential nominee, who will speak at Lubbock Municipal Airport next Tuesday at 2:30 p. m.

Eisenhower Will Speak In Lubbock

Lynn county expects to have a large delegation of citizens present when Dwight D. Eisenhower, Republican presidential nominee, speaks at the Lubbock Municipal Airport at 2:30 p. m. next Tuesday, October 14.

The General's plane will land on the east apron of the airfield at 2:30 p. m., and a 30-minute speech will follow immediately. Parking space will be available for 5,200 cars from which people may see the speaker's stand and may hear the address over loudspeakers.

Eisenhower and about thirty associates will fly into Lubbock in one plane, and two others will carry members of the press, and radio and television staffs, states Sam Singleton of O'Donnell, 28th Senatorial district committee man. For those who do not care to go to the airport to see the General and to hear him first-hand, the speech will be carried over all three Lubbock radio stations, Lamesa, Big Spring, Amarillo, and other stations. The address is scheduled to start at 2:37 p. m.

Youth Takes Pigs To The State Fair

Hilton Wood, son of Horace Wood, will enter a pen of three pigs in the Junior Pig Show of the State Fair of Texas, according to Bill Griffin, county agent.

He will leave here Oct. 13, with his pigs. The show is from Oct. 14 to 18. Hilton is a 4-H club boy.

Murder Case Goes On Trial Today

A murder case has been set for trial in district court here today before Judge Louis B. Reed.

The case is that of McAllen Gilbert, Negro, charged with the shotgun slaying of another Negro on a farm east of here a few months ago. In a previous trial, a jury was unable to reach a verdict.

Earlier this week, some civil cases were disposed of in the court.

Absentee Voting To Begin Here Next Wednesday

Absentee voting may become possible in the coming general election on Wednesday, Oct. 15, according to County Judge W. M. Mathis. Such votes may be cast up through Oct. 31.

The General Election will be held on Tuesday, November 4. Voters in Texas will note several changes in the ballot from that which they have used in previous General Elections.

All ballots are numbered, and stubbed, as in the recent primaries.

Voters may either check the candidates they wish to vote for, or scratch out all columns of candidates for which they do not wish to vote.

The new ballot no longer carries the names of party electors, but carries the actual names of the candidates for president and for vice president of each political party.

Most unusual is this fact: Although the first column, the Democratic Party column carries the names of Adlai Stevenson and John Sparkman and all other Democratic nominees, the second column, the Republican column, carries the names of Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard Nixon and then follows (in Texas) the list of Democratic nominees corresponding with the first column.

H. E. Smith Child Dies Suddenly

Funeral services for Gaylain Jo Smith, 17-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Smith of the New Lynn community, were held at 3:00 p. m. Wednesday at the Tahoka Methodist Church, with Rev. Glenn Williams of Goodland officiating, assisted by Rev. Jim H. Sharp, pastor of the Methodist Church. Burial followed in the Tahoka cemetery under direction of Stanley-Jones Funeral Home.

The child suddenly became very ill at about 10 o'clock Monday night and was rushed to the Lubbock Memorial Hospital, where she died at 2:30 a. m. Tuesday morning, only four and a half hours after becoming ill. The nature of her illness has not yet been announced by physicians.

Born on April 23, 1951, little Gaylain Jo is survived by her parents; a sister, Edna Eugenia, 4; and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Smith of New Lynn and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Corley, formerly of Tahoka but now residents of Dallas.

Grassland Plans Farm Labor Meet

Any farmers interested are invited to attend a meeting of the Grassland Farm Labor association tonight, Friday, at 8:00 o'clock at the labor office at Grassland, according to E. L. Short.

Insurance, contracts, and other details of the farm labor program will be explained.

The association had secured 200 Mexican National laborers up through last Saturday, and the association is still taking orders for hands.

Swimming Pool, City Hall Discussed By Council

The Tahoka City Council is seriously considering the calling of a bond election to build a modern swimming pool and a new city hall, members of body revealed this week.

The Council has been investigating both propositions for several weeks, and on Monday night architects and bonding company men met with the body.

The City is in excellent financial condition, it is said, and bonds in any reasonable amount would not raise the present taxes, The News is told.

A number of people and a few civic organizations have contacted the Council in regard to a swimming pool.

The old city hall, a makeshift affair, is in bad state of repair, too small, and is threatened with condemnation by fire insurance underwriters, it is said.

A larger and more permanent type building is being discussed by the council.

The swimming pool, if the town wants it, would be of the most modern type, oval in shape and similar to one now under construction at Slaton and to the Shamrock Hotel pool in Houston. Water would be chlorinated and bathhouses would be built along with it.

A site for the pool would have to be secured, preferably at the edge of town. The Council believes to pool would pay itself out in a few years.

Members of the Council are receptive to comments of either proposition from citizens.

THS Band Will Go To Fair Tuesday

Tahoka High School's 60-piece band will leave next Tuesday morning for Dallas to participate on Wednesday in the State Fair of Texas massed band concert, which will be held at 8:00 p. m. in the Cotton Bowl.

The Tahoka band was selected as one of the two bands (the other from Brownfield) from North West Texas last spring following the Annual Band Festival at West Texas State College. The Tahoka band was a sweepstakes winner at the festival, highest rating possible.

Willard Edgett, director, said the band will leave Tahoka High School Tuesday at 9 a. m. making the trip in two TNM&O chartered buses. They will spend Tuesday and Wednesday nights in Motor Inn Motel on the Fort Worth cut-off in West Dallas, and will arrive home Thursday afternoon.

The band members will visit the Fair Wednesday morning, hold a rehearsal at 12:30 noon, present a 30-minute concert on the Fair grounds some time Wednesday afternoon, and will appear in the massed band concert in the Cotton Bowl at 8:00 p. m. The concert will be broadcast.

Band mothers who expect to accompany the group as chaperones are: Mmes. W. E. Smith, T. D. Dunlap, T. D. Lishman, Phipps, Martin, Gussie Williams, Emil Prohl, and Buel Draper.

The band also plans to appear in the annual Brownfield Harvest Festival parade on October 23.

New Policeman On Local Force

Roy Wilhelm is a new member of the Tahoka police force, succeeding Frank Hyles, who resigned recently, according to Chief L. N. Bartley.

Mr. Wilhelm is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Jim White of this city. He comes highly recommended by the Chief of Police at Borger. Wilhelm resigned his position to accept the Tahoka job in order that his wife may be near her mother, who is in ill health.

Mrs. Nettie Davis returned home Wednesday from San Angelo, where she spent several days visiting a sister.

Last Sunday night, Rev. Jim Sharp, pastor, reports there were 231 by actual count. Pew captains had been appointed and there was a friendly spirit of competition among these captains to fill their pews.

Good song services led by Mrs. E. W. Patterson preceded the sermon by the pastor. A prayer service is held at 7:00 and the young people's meeting at 7:00.

The Church issues a cordial invitation to all those who do not attend church elsewhere.

Band Parents Will Hold Bake Sale

Tahoka Band Parents club will hold a bake sale next Saturday from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. at the Southwestern Public Service company office on the west side of the square.

Proceeds from the sale will go toward promotion of activities of the THS band.

The first frost and a light freeze hit the South Plains on Tuesday morning, October 8th, approximately a month earlier than the average frost date.

However, in Lynn county, the frost blacked leaves of cotton, late feed, and other vegetation only in the lakes and other low places for the most part. Most of the irrigated cotton's leaves were blacked, and some of the irrigated cotton was damaged.

Most farmers are of the opinion that not too much damage resulted from the freeze, and that the beneficial results will about offset the damage.

The frost will cause most of the tender cotton to shed its leaves, speed up opening of the bolls, and facilitate pulling operation. Some irrigation farmers were preparing to use defoliants, but the frost will save them this expense.

On the other hand, some of the farmers believe the freeze will stop the growth of many bolls not entirely mature and thus cut down on their production. Also, some young feed was damaged that would normally mature in a few more days or weeks.

The frost, however, did not kill all cotton leaves or nip bolls over entire fields in most places in the county.

Normal average killing frost date in Lynn county is about November 10.

BESSIE BRASHEAR CLASS HOLDS SOCIAL MEETING

The Bessie Brashear Class of the Methodist Church met in Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock for their monthly social and business meeting.

The meeting was opened with singing of "Help Somebody Today" and "God Will Take Care of You." Mrs. E. R. Tunnell gave the devotional. Prayer was by Mrs. R. W. Fenton Sr.

Mrs. Roy Poer presided over the business session. The class voted to send $10.00 to the Polio fund.

The program committee then took over. The games and contests were both enjoyable and interesting. Mrs. M. C. Ratliff gave a reading entitled "Horse and Buggy Days." Then a duet, "Whispering Hope", was presented by Mrs. M. P. Garner and Mrs. J. C. Gable.

Following the program, sandwiches, cookies, and pop were served the following members: Mesdames Claud Wells, George Small, C. A. Thomas, R. C. Wood, Davis, Ratliff, Millman, R. W. Fenton Sr., J. B. Vetch Seed Lab Swamped COLLEGE ATSTION.—One of the busiest places on the Texas A. & M. College campus these days is the Vetch Seed Laboratory. According to C. E. Watson, analyst for the laboratory which is operated by the agronomy department, samples are arriving at rate in excess of what can be handled by the facilities available.

The laboratory is operating full time and extra personnel has been added to help relieve the congestion, says Watson, but only 40 samples can be handled daily. Samples, on the other hand, are arriving at the rate of 50 per day and this is causing some delay in getting the reports on the samples back to the producers. Watson reports that more samples—1,200 up to August 11—had already been received than have been submitted for testing in any other season. He hopes producers will keep this in mind when reports on their samples are slow in reaching them.

He reports that generally germination tests are running a little lower than in previous years due to diseases that killed many vetch plants before the seed were mature. More seed will thus need to be planted to make up the difference which he points out is small.

The greatly increased arrival of samples at the lab indicate that farmers are producing vetch planting seed and that the crop continues to gain favor with farmers. Vetch seed producers are urged to continue the shipment of seed but at the same time are reminded that some 10 days should be added to the three weeks normally required to get a sample through the laboratory.

ATTEND PARENTS' WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Townsen recently attended the sixtieth wedding anniversary of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Townsen, at Adamsville in Lampasas county. They were married in that county on September 15, 1892.

All of the children except one, and their families, were present to celebrate the happy event the past September 15. There are three sons and three daughters, but one of the daughters was unable to be present. A great host of other relatives and friends were present, and pictures of the group were taken. Mr. and Mrs. Townsen received their pictures the first of this week.

They also visited recently their son Dwight Townsen, who is a Methodist Ministerial student in Denver.

Two years ago also they made a trip out into Colorado and stated that they visited many of the places which the Odds & Ends Columnist in the Lynn County News recently told about. This previous visit of theirs helped them to enjoy the stories about the Colorado scenery which appeared in the paper.

REV. RAMSOUR ATTENDS FUNERAL-OF COUSIN

Rev. Lee Ramsour was called to Denton last Saturday night by the death of a cousin, Richard Edward Cook, who had died at an early hour Saturday. Although there was considerable difference in the ages of the two men, they had spent much of their time together as boys and Rev. Ramsour says that they felt more like brothers than mere cousins.

The Minister visited with his cousin some two months ago while in Denton doing work on his Master's degree. The cousin himself had been ordained for the Baptist ministry when a young man but had spent most of his adult life in the U. S. Mail service.

Funeral services were held at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, before Rev. Ramsour's arrival, in Grace Temple Baptist Church in Denton. He remained over in Denton throughout Monday to visit with other relatives, some of whom he had not seen in many years, but he hastened back home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Williams returned Monday from Cooper and Clarksville, where they had spent a few days visiting relatives. At Cooper, they visited Mrs. Williams' invalid mother, Mrs. Adair, 87. At Clarksville they visited her brother and family. Mr. Williams reports fairly good cotton crops in Delta and Lamar counties, poor crops elsewhere.

Laylan McMahan Is Honored At Wayland College

Laylan McMahan, son of Mrs. Loyce McMahan of Tahoka and a graduate of the local high school, was honored in last week's Wayland World, Wayland College student publication as the "Senior Personality".

One Senior is honored in such a manner each week, Laylan being the first of the current school year.

The article, which was accompanied by his picture, follows: Laylan McMahan, music major from Tahoka, Texas, is president of the senior class for the '52-'53 school year.

Laylan, a fourth year member of the International Choir and is a past president of that organization. He is also the baritone cowboy of the Internationals, the choir's all male quartet. The president states that he is the last remaining member of the choir, which was organized in 1949.

McMahan will receive his B. S. Degree from Wayland in June with a major in music and a minor in English. He plans to enter Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth after graduation, where he will continue the study of sacred music in preparation for his work as a music and education director. He is at present Director of Music and Education at the Woodrow Baptist Church near Lubbock.

There's still time to plant winter legumes. Don't forget to make liberal use of fertilizers and inoculate the seed before they are planted.

Use Caution In Soil Conditioners

COLLEGE STATION. —Farmers, gardeners, and others interested in trying out the new chemical "soil conditioners" are advised by Dr. J. B. Page, soil physicist for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, to use them only experimentally.

He points out that research work dealing with the conditioners is being conducted at many different locations over the country, but since the materials are only now becoming available in quantity, additional information is needed before recommendations can be made. The work being done by the Texas Station is a part of a south-wide project.

Dr. Page says the "soil conditioners" are chemicals prepared for the purpose of binding and stabilizing small soil particles into larger particles which resist breakdown by water. He is quick to add that the natural organic materials have the same effect on soils and at the same time, leave other beneficial results in addition to the formation of the desired soil aggregates.

The scientist points out that research up to date has shown that expenditures of from $300 to $500 per acre must be made to get the required amounts of the conditioners in the soil.

He says work to date indicates that the conditioners are most effective on soils with high clay and silt content. They are not effective on soils high in sand content and soils already good structurally are helped little by the addition of the chemicals.

Dr. Page cautions purchasers against buying quantities of the materials until more is known about them. He adds, since the products offered for sale are new, many have not been adequately tested. Therefore, he suggests that buyers try only those products which have been tested and on which reports have been made.

Football

Considering this circumstance and the fact that some experience was being given the boys by Coaches Bill Haralson and Bill Sharpley in passing, they played a good game of heads-up football most of the way.

Their alertness is shown in the fact that the Bulldogs pounced on six Seagraves fumbles and intercepted three Eagle passes. Except for a lapse in defense near game's end, the Bulldog defense looked much better.

Though Tahoka's Freshman quarterback, Gordon Smith, threw 23 passes, not one of them was intercepted, and out of five completions three of them were for touchdowns. End Richard Havens had a field day, catching two touchdown passes, intercepting three Seagraves passes, playing a heads-up defensive game, and getting off one 51-yard punt. End Steve Slover took the other touchdown pass, Halfback Charley Schulz turned in some good runs. Fullback J. B. Ables showed improvement, and even crippled Charles Hyles turned in a 26-yard pass and run play that was a beauty. In the line, Duane McMillan showed great improvement and covered at least one fumble. Richard Carter also nabbed a fumble, and John Curry played his usual good game.

Offer Stout Defense
Hyles took the opening kickoff on the 9 and brought to the 31, but on the next play Tahoka fumbled on the 34 and Seagraves recovered. Two plays netted nothing for the Eagles, then Quarterback Lawrence Barber, also a Freshman, kept the ball and went around left end 21 yards to the 13, but in four downs Seagraves was pushed back to the 20. Tahoka could not go, was pushed back to the 12, and Havens kicked 24 yards to the Tahoka 36.

On the next play, Havens intercepted a Seagraves pass on the Tahoka 20. Then, Gordon Smith faded back to his 7 and threw a long pass downfield which Havens took 48 yards away on the Seagraves 45 and sprinted the remaining distance for Tahoka's first score. An attempted pass conversion failed.

Willie Lee kicked off to the Seagraves 28, but on the second play the Eagles fumbled and Tahoka again recovered. Schulz made one, took a 16 yard pass to the 8 for a first but Tahoka drew a 5-yard penalty. Smith made two, two passes were incomplete, and Schulz carried to the 3 on fourth down.

Stop Seagraves Offensive
The Eagles' Barber made five, passed 19 yards to End Warren, then to Cain for 9, made another 4 himself, passed to Warren for 15, made two himself, and then Tahoka recovered another fumble back on the Tahoka 42 early in the second quarter.

Schulz turned in gains of 3, 3, and 9 yards, three passes were incomplete, and Havens kicked 29 yards-out of bounds on the Seagraves 15. The Eagles lost 5, drew a 9-yard penalty back to the one-yard line, but kicked out to the 30 Schulz bringing back to the 26. Ables made one, Schulz 11 to the 14, but two plays later Tahoka was penalized back to the 18.

A pass was incomplete, then Smith threw to End Slover, who made a perfect pass and ran over the goal line. John Foster's attempted placement was low. Lee kicked off to the 10, the Eagles Schmitz brought up to the 20, then to the 35 on two plays, but on the next fumbled, and Seagraves recovered on the 35. But a long pass was intercepted by Havens on the Tahoka 35 and brought to the 48, where the half ended.

Stop Seagraves Again
Seagraves made one first down, then failed to run the ball one yard on fourth down on its own 40, and Tahoka took over. Ables and Hyles carried to the Seagraves 37, and the ball went over on two incomplete passes. The visitors carried to their own 41 on three plays, and got off a short 18 yard kick. Schulz made 11, but the Bulldogs lost to the Tahoka 45 when Smith slid down attempting to pass, and then Havens kicked 51-yards out of bounds on the Seagraves 4.

The visitors seemed to have another drive underway, rolling up three first downs, but were again stopped by a fumble covered by Curry on their own 40. McMillan charging center was possibly greatly responsible to the many Seagraves fumbles. A pitchout lost two, two passes were incomplete, and Havens barely missed the corner flag on his kick and only got credit for a 23-yard punt as the third quarter ended.

Throw Many Passes
In the fourth, both teams were throwing passes all over the place. Seagraves had completions of 10 and 15 yards, then Havens intercepted his third on the Tahoka 27 and brought back 9 yards to the 36. Hyles carried to the Seagraves 49, but a penalty nullified the play, and Tahoka was penalized back to its own 22. Three passes were incomplete, and Havens kicked to the 50 where Seagraves fumbled and Tahoka recovered on its own 40. Smith pass was complete to Hyles on the 48, and Hyles turned in another beautiful run to the Seagraves 27. Two passes were incomplete, I. V. J. Melton showed his ability in carrying to the 19 on a 7-yard run.

A fourth down pass was incomplete, and Seagraves began throwing short ones again, one complete to Cain for 6, one to Warren for 9, but on the next play Richard Carter covered a fumble on the Seagraves 36.

A Tahoka pass was incomplete. Ables made five, Bragg couldn't go, and a penalty set Tahoka back to the 36. This time, Smith's fourth down pass was taken by Havens on the 5 and the football-basketball snagger went over for the score. Bobby Lehman's kick was wide.

Leading 18 to 0 and only about a minute left in the game, the Bulldogs possibly let down a little. Seagraves Barber brought the kickoff from the 23 to the 39, passed 4 yards to Cain. He then threw another pass to Cain complete on the Tahoka 47, who lateraled to Schmitz, and the latter raced all the way to score. Cozens' conversion was good. There was time for only one play after the kickoff.

Both Seagraves and Tahoka bands presented colorful half-time shows.

Frenship Defeats Wilson 12 to 0

Wilson Mustangs, crippled by the loss of Thomas Autry, who received a broken arm two weeks ago, dropped a 12-0 game to Frenship at Wolforth Friday night.

Frenship scored first on a pass interception and 30-yard run in the first quarter, and again in the second quarter on a 10-yard end-around play.

Wilson made nine first downs to Frenship's six.

The Wilson Mustangs get a needed rest this weekend, but Friday of next week they will entertain Plains at Wilson.

Tahoka, Spur Freshmen Tie 7-7

Tahoka Freshmen and Spur Freshmen played to a 7-7 tie in a game played here Thursday night of last week.

After receiving the opening kick-off, Tahoka marched down field immediately for its only score, with Fullback Jerry Williams carrying the last five yards for the touchdown. Quarterback Ted Pridmore passed to Right End Carleton Bell for the conversion.

Tahoka outplayed the visitors most of the game but were unable to push over another score. In fact Spur did not make a first down until late in the fourth quarter.

However, with less than a minute to play, Spur pushed across a touchdown and converted to tie up the ball game.

The Seventh and Eighth grade Bullpups went to Slaton the same night and lost a lop-sided 33 to 0 decision to the heavier Tiger Kittens.

O'Donnell Edges By Slaton 14 to 13

O'Donnell Eagles, who meet the Tahoka Bulldogs at Kelley Field in Tahoka tonight, last Friday night nosed-out the Slaton Tigers at Slaton 14 to 13.

Coach Ed Robertson's District 4-A Eagles outplayed the District 6-AA Tigers most of the way.

The Tigers scored first in the second quarter when right half Duane Sooter took a handoff from quarterback R. A. Thompson and went 36 yards to score. The conversion was no good.

The Eagles came right back moving down the field on short passes to the Slaton 32. Here, Bennie Clark, O'Donnell's superb quarterback, threw a long pass to right end Roger Doss for the score. Clark's educated toe placed the ball between the uprights, and O'Donnell led 7 to 6.

However, Slaton came right back to score again on six plays, with Halfback Joe Sparkman going over right guard the final five yards. The conversion was good on a pass Thompson to Sparkman, and Slaton led 13 to 7.

In the third period, Eagle end Roger Doss intercepted a Slaton pass at midfield, and went 50 yards for the final score. Clark again kicked the extra point.

ODDS AND ENDS

(BY E. I. THE ELDER)

The announcement made some two weeks ago that scholars have completed the work of revising and preparing for publication a new version of the Bible and that publication would begin on September 30 has centered the attention of the English-speaking world upon the Bible.

Bible students, and especially Ministers and Bible scholars, have long felt the need of such a revision.

The King James Version of the Bible was issued and presented to the world in 1611, 341 years ago. Many simple words which were in common use then have since become obsolete. The meaning of other words in the King James version has changed entirely. Often the meaning to the ordinary Bible reader today is obscure or confusing. Children find much difficulty in finding the meaning of many expressions and statements in the Bible. That is true also as to many adults. To many, therefore, Bible reading has become a task instead of a pleasure. The new version is designed to make it a pleasure instead of a task. In spite of the fact that more English Bibles are being sold today than ever before in the history of the world, and in spite of the fact that the Bible is being "taught" to more people in the Sunday schools and in Church-controlled colleges in the land than ever before, yet there is still an amazing lack of knowledge respecting the Bible and its teachings. People need to know the Bible better, and they need to know more about the Bible.

This week, therefore, when the eyes of many have been turned upon the Bible by reason of the announcement that a new, modern language, easily understandable version is being placed on the market, I want at least to tell the readers of this Column more about the Bible. I want to make the ignorant as well as the well-informed readers of the Bible see that it is indeed the most marvelous Book, or rather, collection of books, ever written.

The Bible, in fact, consists of 66 books; of which 39 are to be found in the Old Testament and 27 in the New Testament. The 66 books of the Bible were written by at least 36 different authors, who lived and wrote in many different countries, and the writing of these books covered a period of almost 1,500 years. The contents of the Bible were written on stone, wood, wax surfaces, papyrus, and parchment, the skins of sheep and goats and possibly other animals, dressed and prepared for the purpose. Writings done on papyrus or parchment were rolled into scrolls on sticks and carefully preserved as permanent records.

It is the marvel of the ages that these 66 books, or scrolls, written by so many authors, in three different languages—Hebrew, Chaldee, and Greek—and in many different countries, should be preserved and finally collected and fitted together so as to make a single Book, as the work of one author, with one purpose and one plan, and one scheme of redemption for fallen man. This presents the highest kind of proof of Divine Inspiration.

The authors of the books of the Bible included men of many different occupations, trades, professions, and vocations. Among the number were kings, prophets, preachers, priests, fishermen, farmers, a doctor, lawyers, scribes, military leaders, judges, one great law-giver, and some whose names and vocations are not known even down to this day. Moses wrote the first five books of the Bible; John the Apostle is credited with having written the last book. Paul wrote 13 of the books of the New Testament.

Every known form of literature was employed in the writing of the 66 books: 22 of them are historical, 5 are poetical, 18 of them prophetic, and 21 are epistolary. There are pages of the world's finest poetry; a number of the greatest short stories ever written; drama; pathos; examples of devotion and faith, tender love, heroic sacrifice, moral and spiritual heights set forth and attained as in no other book that was ever written; and finally, in a thousand Scriptures, is pointed out the pathway to life eternal. It is no wonder that the Bible is the world's best seller.

Yet there are many obvious and well-known facts and circumstances that make necessary occasional revisions of the language of the Bible. One of these is the fact that our language, the English language, is itself constantly changing, as I stated in a previous paragraph, but now I wish to enlarge on that statement a little. One Bible scholar connected with the promotion of the new version has been quoted as declaring in a recent public address that "there are 380 examples of words in the New Testament that are given the wrong meaning by modern people, and more than 400 in the Old Testament." Take the word "prevent" as found in the King James Version of I Thessalonians 4:15, for example. To the ordinary reader, Paul would seem to be saying that when Christ comes again those Christians still living would not keep the dead from meeting Christ also, but that was not what Paul was saying at all. He was saying that they would not precede or go before those who were arising from their graves. The living and the risen dead would be caught up together to meet the Lord in the air. If the King James translators were doing their work today they would not use the word "prevent" at all in that connection; they would use the word "precede" or "go before." Our attention is called to the fact that the word "conversion" is used more than once in the New Testament where the word "conduct" should be used to express the real meaning now. And so, because the meaning of many words has changed since the King James translation was made 351 years ago, there are 400 places in the Old Testament and 380 places in the New Testament where the words used now convey the wrong meaning or make the meaning uncertain or obscure and confusing to many of the ordinary Bible readers.

Yet there are many "mild" good people who are objecting and will object to a new or revised version of the Bible. They don't want anybody to be "tinkering with their Bible just as it was written," they will say. "I believe every word in it from Genesis to Revelation, and I can see no good to come from changing the Word of God. Yes, I believe in the verbal inspiration of the Bible; that God had every word put there just as he wanted it, and I don't want any man or any set of men to be giving me any new-fangled versions."

Of course good Christians who talk that way speak either thoughtlessly or ignorantly. But sometimes we hear preachers speaking over the radio, who ought to know better, giving vent to their opinions and feelings in about the same manner.

Of course when they speak of the Bible, they usually have in mind the King James version—that is English-speaking people do. They think that not a word of it as written should be changed.

Well, Brother, Sister, had it

Anybody care to run for this office?

Candidate Wanted: Must be efficient, honest, experienced. Pay and term of office uncertain, since public will vote every day to see if candidate stays in office.

We bet you don't want that job of being forced to get elected every day. Yet it's a reasonably accurate description of what a manufacturer must do to hold his job.

Every day at the sales counter, millions of women and men vote General Electric in or out of a job.

When you stop to think of it, we don't hold office for four years—or even two. We have a daily fight on our hands.

Hands at the sales counter pick up G-E products—hold them; turn them over, inspect them, try them against competitive articles for value and price—then decide for or against.

The only way we can win the election is by constantly improving our product. Thousands of engineers are paid to think up ways to improve, redesign, simplify. We use every known device of mass production to deliver more for the money. And our employees are as keen on winning our daily "public election" as is the salesman at the counter.

Manufacturers sell products on the basis of "be good every day—or get out of office." The result is the American public has the world's highest standard of living.

ever occurred to you that the Bible was not written in English? If any man were to stand up before you today and read a chapter or even a verse from the Bible "as it was written," you would have no more idea of what he was reading than a jack rabbit from Borneo.

Jesus, while he was on earth, never spoke one word in English; or, if he had done so, not a person who heard him would have understood him.

And on the day of Pentecost when the Apostles were empowered to speak in the various languages of the throngs of people present who had come from all the nations round-about and every man heard the apostles speaking in his own tongue, none of them spoke a word of English. And when Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, Peter and Paul and others wrote the books of the New Testament, not a word of it was written in English.

As a matter of fact, there was at that time no English language.

At the time when Paul was writing his great letters to the Gentiles—Romans, Corinthians, Jalations, Ephesians, Philippians, etc.—the ancestors of the English, the Angles and the Saxons, were worshipping pagan gods—Tiw and Woden and Thor and Frea and other imaginary gods—in the forests of Germany, and were using a very primitive language that has not been preserved and that nobody knows much about, for it was not a written language, and of course they had no alphabet.

The crude language which those pagans used in the days of Christ and the Apostles gradually developed and grew from contacts with other tribes and from necessities for new words until, by the year 450 A. D., the language which we now call the English language was beginning to take form. And ever since that time, the English language has been growing, developing, coining new words to meet every need, and constantly appropriating words from other languages until now it is estimated that it is spoken by some 300,000,000 people. But it was at least 500 years after Christ that a written English language even existed.

As I have already stated, three different languages were used in writing the Bible—Hebrew, Chaldee, and Greek. Of course the Bible had to be translated. It has been translated into almost every language in use today. It has been translated into English a number of different times. Each translation has differed somewhat from every other translation. It certainly would be a miracle if any two men, acting separately and independent of each other, however broad and deep their scholarship might be, could produce two translations from one language into another, exactly alike, word for word. When King James I in 1604 ordered a new translation of the Bible to be made in English he appointed 47 scholars, some authorities give the number as 54, who were members of the Established Church of England, of which he was the head, to make a translation of the Bible for use in English Church services. These 47 or 54 men were unquestionably great scholars and devout Christian clergymen, and they evidently did a masterful job in making the translation.

It soon displaced all other versions in Protestant churches throughout the English-speaking world. Because of the changes in the meaning of many words in the King James Version, a demand gradually arose for a revised version, and in 1881-85 a revision was made by 80 English and American scholars of various Protestant denominations. While this revision doubtless met most of the objections that had been raised to the King James Version, still there were many Protestants, especially American Protestants whom it did not fully satisfy, and the American objectors proceeded to issue a Revision of their own in 1901, which is known as the American Revised Version. Both the English Revised Version of the 1880's and the American Revised Version of 1901 are still used to some extent but mostly as mere reference works. Neither of these Versions has succeeded in displacing the King James Version in so far as its general use in churches and in the homes of the people is concerned.

Now we suggest that all those good people who are objecting to the new revision which has just been made and is now being placed on the market, should also throw overboard the English Revised Version of the 1880's and the American Revised Version of 1901. Both are revisions of the King James Version. Verbal inspiration of the Bible can not apply to any of these versions unless the translators of the various books of the Bible were equally inspired along with the original writers of the books.

Neither would it apply to translations of the Bible into other languages—such as German, French, Spanish, Russian, Chinese, Japanese, and hundreds of other languages and dialects—unless the translators were likewise inspired. And even then revisions might become necessary to meet the changes being made in any given language.

Any translation from one language into another is sufficient if it truly and correctly sets forth the meaning of the language in which the message or teaching or other matter was originally written. This may sometimes become impossible on account of the deficiencies and inadequacy of the language into which the translation is undertaken to be made.

Now do not misunderstand me. I believe that the Bible is an inspired Book or set of Books. It makes that claim for itself over and over again all the way from Genesis to Revelation. If you insist that every book of it and every verse of it and every word of it and every letter of it were verbally inspired, and that "holy men of God spake (or wrote) as they were moved by the Holy Ghost," I will not take issue with you.

Yet the languages of men were so inadequate to express the thoughts and purposes of God that I think the Holy Spirit found it impossible to express in Hebrew or in Chaldee or in Greek, or fully and adequately, many of the things he had in mind to say to men. Furthermore, the minds of men were so finite and limited as compared with the unlimited sweep and knowledge and power of the Triune God that man could not understand or comprehend or properly appreciate God. Furthermore, men were so selfish, and wilful, and disobedient, and wicked, that they could not tune in on God's thoughts, and he was compelled to speak to them oftentimes as we would speak to a spoiled, incorrigible child; and so, to many of today, his expressions sound un-Godlike, his judgments harsh, and his punishments cruel. It's the difference between the Finite and the Infinite.

But, what I started to mention is the poverty of the languages of men. And so, in causing men to write his great message to them in 66 books, he oftentimes had to use figures of speech—metaphors, similes, allegories, parables, miracles, and mysteries that we do not yet understand. Most of the Old Testament was written, as I have repeatedly stated, in the Hebrew language. Now I must be brief, but here is a true story that evidences first, the inspiration of the Old Testament Scriptures; 2, the Divine Preservation of the Scriptures; and 3, the hand of God in History.

Originally, the Hebrew language in which so much of the Old Testament was written had no vowel letters—only consonants. Eliminate all the vowels from this paragraph, and you will see immediately what a crazy-looking language you have. Spoken words, of course, had the vowel sounds, but when you had reduced that word to writing men had to figure out or guess at the vowel or vowels that belonged in it. Neither did the Hebrew language have any punctuation marks of any kind. So, it was that kind of language in which the Old Testament was written.

Now this Old Testament, written as above described, was translated into Greek by some learned Jews living at Alexandria, Egypt, about 286 years before Christ. That text of the Old Testament is called the Septuagint, meaning seventy, because there were seventy translators (seventy-two, to be exact, six from each of the twelve tribes of the Jews), and the Bible scholars say that the Septuagint was the Jewish Bible in the time of Christ, and that when Christ quoted from the Old Testament Scriptures it was from the Septuagint. The same can be said with equal truth as to the Apostles and others when they quoted Scripture, for that was the only Scriptures that the Jews had. When Jesus read from Isaiah on that memorable occasion in the synagogue in Nazareth, and then remarked that "On this day is this Scripture fulfilled in your hearing", the scroll from which he read was from the Septuagint.

THE LYNN COUNTY NEWS

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1962

But suppose the Septuagint translation had never been made. What then? We never would have had the Bible we have today. Isn't the conclusion inescapable that God was preserving his holy word for the world in spite of all that the Devil could do to destroy it?

Now either the translators of Alexandria were themselves equally inspired with the original writers of the Old Testament Scriptures, or Jesus held that conformity to the real meaning and spirit of the original was sufficient. While most other Old Manuscripts containing the original texts of the Old Testament Scriptures have been destroyed at one time or another in a war-torn world this Septuagint Version has been Divinely preserved, and combined with the Scriptures written in Greek in the time of Christ and the Apostles or soon thereafter, became the Christian Bible; and thus the original writings of Moses and Joshua, and Samuel, and David, and Isaiah, and Jeremiah, and Ezekiel, and Daniel, and the other prophets who wrote the original Old Testament Scriptures, and the writings of the inspired authors of the New Testament have been Divinely and miraculously preserved for us, in substance, in different languages and different versions, and for the innumerable millions of people in the world today. If our language materially changes, then it is incumbent on us to change the phraseology of our particular Scripture version to make it conform to the original inspired message of God to the races of men.

It seems to me to be thoroughly established that not only were the original Scriptures Divinely inspired but that also they have been Divinely Preserved for us and for all future ages.

I think that the up-to-date Version now being issued will have two very salutary effects: It will cause more people to read the Bible, and they will be able to understand better what they read. I am for it.

makes the Heart grow Fonder

You'll discover this about a Buick:
The more you drive it, the more you like it; the longer your trip, the louder your praise.
That's what people tell us. And we'll tell you why.
You can drive a Buick three, four, five hundred miles in a single day, and feel fresh enough to keep right on going.
You can romp up high hills, cruise straightaways, ease through traffic-tangled towns, clock off hour after hour of relaxed and pleasurable driving—and be no more tired than a neighborhood jaunt would make you.
How come this comfort-rich ground-covering ability in a Buick?

There's the ease of deep, soft-seats for one thing—and plenty of move-about room for arms, legs, shoulders.
There's Dynaflow Drive* taking all the chore out of driving, and giving your whole ride a satiny smoothness without trace of jerkiness or driving tension.
There's a headful of thrilling, tireless power from a high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball 8 Engine that whips out miles like a tarpon reels off line.
There's the soft, steady, solid, swerve-free going of a coil-spring-cushioned ride that's well worth the million-plus dollars it cost to engineer.
There's all this and more—much more—that makes your heart grow fonder of this trim and thrifty traveler.
But words can't do justice to a Buick in motion. Only you can.
When will you come sample this experience yourself?
Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. †Optional at extra cost.
