MISS WANDA JO ROACH

New H. D. Agent Coming July 1

Miss Wanda Jo Roach of Colorado City, route 3, has been named as the new Home Demonstration Agent for Lynn county effective July 1.

The appointment was made Monday by the Lynn County Commissioner's Court, according to Judge W. M. Mathis, on the recommendation of Mrs. Aubrey W. Russell, Lubbock, the district Home Demonstration Agent of the Extension Service.

Miss Roach was reared on the farm, was a 4-H club member for seven years, and her mother has long been active in Home Demonstration club work.

She attended John Tarleton State College for two years and Texas State College for Women two years, receiving the B. S. degree in Home Economics Education.

She comes highly recommended by college officials as a lady of capabilities, well trained, and well acquainted with the type of work she is to do with farm women and girls.

The county has been without the services of a Home Demonstration Agent since the resignation of Miss Graham Hard last September 1 to do graduate work at TSCW in Denton. However, local club members have been carrying on the work and keeping up their H. D. club activities.

Negro Church Is Near Completion

The new $8,900.00 Pleasant Grove Baptist (Colored) Church building in northeast Tahoka is nearing completion, according to E. Y. Gibbs of Lubbock, the contractor.

However, the members are having a little financial difficulty, and Rev. L. E. Brown of Houston, supply pastor, will be here this week end to help start a financial drive to raise about $1,500.00 to complete the building.

The structure is built of concrete, 42 by 64 feet in size, and contains a main auditorium, two class rooms, a cafeteria, and a baptistry.

Deacons of the church are: Prince Smith, Bernard Bailey, H. C. Hood, and Eli Mims. Miss Paralee Sayles is the church clerk.

Both are graduates of Tahoka High, and both attended Texas Tech before their marriage a few months ago.

MRS. D. W. GAIGNAT UNDERGOES SURGERY Mrs. D. W. Gagnat, who underwent surgery at Mayo Clinic and Hospital in Rochester, Minn., Friday, is reported to be improving nicely. Fears were held that the operation might be of a serious nature, but it turned out to be a minor one.

Mrs. Gagnat was accompanied to Mayo by her sister, Mrs. Lida Howell of Fort Worth, and Mr. Gagnat flew to that city in time for the operation.

BENSON TO APPEAR AT TECH

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson will appear for a speaking engagement on the Texas Tech Campus June 27 as part of the American Cotton Congress in Lubbock, June 25-27. Secretary Benson will take part in the Congress Field Day on the campus where industrial exhibits will be on display.

School Will Start Building Program

Tentative plans for a new homemaking cottage and an addition to the vocational agriculture building were approved and contracts were awarded for an addition to the football stadium by the Tahoka School Board in session Tuesday night, according to Maurice Small, school district secretary.

Arnold Maeker, Lubbock architect who was reared at Wilson has been employed as the architect and is drawing the building plans.

Bonds totaling $100,000 were voted a few weeks ago for rounding out and improving the local school plant. However, only $80,000 of the issue have been sold, and the remaining $40,000 will be reserved for the addition of four classrooms, if enrollment increases in the future as is expected.

Repairs will also be made to the High School building and to the North Elementary building.

The homemaking cottage, of brick construction, will be located on two lots just south of the bus repair shop. Erection of this building will release two class rooms for the crowded High School building and give more room for a growing homemaking department.

The new building will be 3,000 square feet in size and will include a 14 by 31 foot combination living-dining room, 18 by 46 food laboratory, 20 by 36 sewing laboratory, 14 by 16 bedroom, bathroom, pantry, and closets and storage space.

A 20 by 40 foot brick and tile classroom addition will be made to the west end of the Vocational Agriculture building. Tools for woodworking and steelworking will be purchased, and a fourth year added to the course of study in this department.

State and Federal funds will pay all or most of the salary of a second teacher in this department. Interest has been growing rapidly in Vocational Agriculture, and the Board feels this subject should be given more emphasis in this farming community.

Plumbing, heating equipment and walls will also be repaired in both the High School and North Elementary buildings.

The football stadium seating capacity will be doubled, and contract for this work was let to Edgar Roberts of Tahoka and Lubbock Steel Works, with construction to start in 10 days.

All of the addition will be made to the east stands, which will be extended from 60 to 120 feet in length and made eight rows higher. Construction will match that of the old stands. When completed, the stadium will seat comfortably 2,400 people.

C. of C. Endorses Classing Office

Tahoka Chamber of Commerce directors in a meeting Thursday night of last week joined farm organizations in asking Washington officials to establish a second cotton classing office for this territory in Plainview.

The board also voted to send a Lynn county 4-H club boy, Jerry Cain, to the State 4-H Club Round-Up at College Station on June 10 and 11.

The C. of C. will also finance the Lynn county 4-H entomology team to the State contests at A. & M. College on June 24. The team won first place in the district contests at Lubbock recently, and is composed of Hilton Wood and Jerry Cain of Tahoka and Travis Pearce and Dan Seely of O'Donnell.

Mrs. Boswell Edwards, adult leader, and her daughter, Miss Sylvia, 4-H club girls delegate, are also attending the State meeting Wednesday and Thursday.

MISS ELWANDA STALCUP

Miss Elwanda Stalcup, 17 daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stalcup, Tahoka, route 2, has been named Tahoka Lions Club queen candidate in the contest which will be held at the District 271-Lions convention in Borger this week end, June 12, 13, and 14.

Miss Stalcup, a 1952 graduate of O'Donnell High School, was selected as most beautiful girl by the school in her Junior year and as FFA sweetheart in her Senior year. At present, she is employed in the PMA office here.

Her mother will accompany her to the convention at Borger.

Rattlesnake Bites Mrs. Joe Thurman

Mrs. Joe Thurman, 62, of New Lynn, was bitten on the left foot by a small rattlesnake that had in some way gained entrance to her kitchen at about 6:30 p. m. Tuesday.

She was rushed to Tahoka Hospital, where she received an anti-venom injection and was able to return to her home Wednesday morning little worse for the experience.

Dr. Skiles Thomas says she was unusually calm about the matter, which fact no doubt had some effect on the mildness of the after-effects from the bite.

Incidentally, Mrs. Thurman killed the snake.

Lopez Is Fined $750.00 By Court

Leo Lopez, New Home farm worker, entered a plea of guilty in county court here Monday to illegal possession of beer and whiskey. He was assessed a fine of $750.00 and costs by Judge Walter M. Mathis.

Lopez was one of two Mexicans living in the New Home area arrested about two weeks ago when Sheriff Norvell Redwine and State Liquor Control Board officers raided their farm homes.

Postal Department Will Raise Price Of Box Rent First Time In 46 Years

Rent is going up on your post-office box.

Higher rates will become effective July 1, and the increase will range from 35 cents to 75 cents per quarter, Assistant Postmaster Charles Townes states.

A small postoffice box, now costing 60 cents for each three-months period will be hiked to 90 cents. Other rents will be as follows: current 75 cent boxes, up to $1.10; current $1.00 boxes raised to $1.50; and current $1.50 boxes up to $2.25.

based on gross postal receipts of each individual postoffice — will be placed into effect throughout the nation.

Rent hikes are being made to meet with increased cost of providing equipment and maintenance service of the U. S. Post-office Department, according to Townes.

Payments must be made by July 1 to maintain box service. Box rent is handled only on a payment in advance basis.

Jerre Ann Wyatt spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of O'Donnell.

Boy Scouts Are At Camp Post

Thirteen boys representing Troop 21 of the Tahoka Boy Scouts are attending camp this week at the C. W. Post Memorial Scout Camp, 2 1/2 miles southwest of Post, according to H. B. McCord, Jr., Scoutmaster.

Boys attending the camp are: Guy Witt, Glenn Fleming, John Ed Redwine, John Sanders, Gary McGrew, Cecil W. Hammonds, Jerry Freeman, John Hegl, Jay Gurley, Denver Ford, Carlos Barnes, and Larry Spruiell.

Adults acting as chaperons during the week have been: Sunday, Cecil Hammonds, J. E. Sanders, Monday, Alton Fleming, Herman Renfro; Tuesday, Jess Gurley, Fred McGinty; Wednesday, Pete Hegl, Maurice Bray; Thursday, John Witt, J. D. McGrew; and Friday, returning the boys home Saturday, after breakfast, Roy Ford, A. V. Barnes, and Cecil Hammonds.

Scouts are offered eight subjects of study during their 6-day stay at the Post Camp. Each boy at the beginning of the encampment may choose the activities that interest him most.

A waterfront program is divided into these divisions—non-swimmers, beginning swimmers and advanced swimmers. Scouts may work toward the swimming and lifesaving merit badge at the camp, also.

Scouts try to qualify for the marksmanship merit badge on the rifle range, which is a standard Rifle Association range.

Something new at this year's meet is a skeet range, where the boys shoot at clay pigeons to improve their marksmanship.

The Post camp boasts one of the nicest archery courses in the state, the range covering more than a mile and one-half and containing 15 different and colorful targets.

Frank Runkles, camp director, is instructor of nature lore, Indian lore and star study at the camp. Bill R. Strain, Plainview art teacher, has charge of all handcraft activities as basket-making, leatherwork, pottery metal work, and others.

One of the outstanding features of the camp is the Indian dances held each Friday night, carrying out old Indian tribal customs.

Scouts attending the encampment have the opportunity to work toward merit badges in 100 different fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Botkin and two children, and Miss Wanda Marlin, are vacationing in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

AMERICA'S NEW RAILROAD

A 50-yard dash with a potato on a spoon! An exciting bit of Americana—but it's not the

World's Greatest Potato Race

That's the 2200-mile dash on the Santa Fe with 1,350,000,000 potatoes

Somebody east said, "Pass the potatoes!"

Out in California, the fertile San Joaquin Valley heard them. And look what happened.

Santa Fe started moving 14,000 to 15,000 carloads of potatoes to hungry markets all over the Midwest and East. 36,000 to 40,000 pounds to a carload. As high as 550 carloads per day at peak of harvest. That's more than 1,350,000,000 potatoes. And that's a lot of spuds.

Bag 'em. Load 'em. Roll 'em. And hustle. Somebody east said, "Pass the potatoes!"

From America's largest fleet of refrigerator cars owned by an individual railroad, these yellow

Santa Fe "reefers" are dispatched to the "Potato Capital of the West."

There the cars are cleaned, checked, loaded, switched. And iced fast (a car a minute, if you please). These potatoes can't wait!

In servicing the cars as they speed east, new icing docks at Bakersfield and Needles, Calif.; Belen, N. Mex.; Waynoka, Okla. and Kansas City work the clock around. Electronically-controlled "hump" yards speed the switching.

SANTA FE PRECISION—SANTA FE SPEED

On-time delivery calls for full-time precision to keep these schedules "on the advertised."

After the potatoes come the wheat . . . citrus fruits . . . grapes . . . melons . . . and green vegetables all year long—flooding east from Santa Fe country to you. Everything from avocados to zucchini.

It costs Santa Fe millions of dollars to serve you so—and provide you with Super Chiefs, too! But we're proud to say they are earned dollars. Not one penny comes from the taxes you pay.

A. L. Shepherd of Grassland says The News made a very big mistake last week when it reported that Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Conway "and children," John Shepherd and Frances Henderson had gone to California on a vacation. The children, Gary and David, definitely did not make the trip, but are staying with Grandpa and Grandma Shepherd. And Grandpa seemed a little "tuckered out."

Mrs. D. B. English has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Bergfeld, in Seguin. Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Small went down to that city Thursday and brought her home Sunday.

Red Skelton attempts to cheer up his disconsolate son, played by M-G-M's new juvenile "find," Tim Considine, in "The Clown," opening Sunday at the Rose Theatre here. Jane Greer also stars in the new offering, in which Skelton has a role combining laughter and tears.

Large Attendance At Cub Meeting

Forty Cub Scouts, along with that many visiting parents, attended the monthly Pack meeting Friday, June 5, at the American Legion Hall, according to L. T. Strech, Packmaster.

Those present voted to make possible the attendance by the Tahoka clubs for two days at the scout camp in Post during the month of August.

Den Mothers present for the meeting included: Mrs. L. T. Strech, Mrs. Vernon Davis, and Mrs. John Sanders. Mrs. Roy Harvick, the fourth Den Mother was unable to attend.

Regular Pack meetings are held the last Friday of each month.

Don Cowan Is Rotary Speaker

Marine Corporal Don Dee Cowan, home from a year's service in Korea, was the speaker at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday of last week.

He told of his experiences overseas with the 1st Marine Division and some of the impressions he gained from the war. Don helped operate a munitions dump close up to the front, but said they were pretty well protected from enemy attack.

Most of the Marines, he says, think war with Russia is inevitable and that we should either fight a winning war in Korea now or get out. Moral is high among the Marines, he said.

As to the ammunition shortage charges, all he knew was that his outfit never lost contact with the boys up front in supplying them all the ammo they needed.

Cowan will return to Oceanside, Calif., Marine Base for three months service before receiving his discharge. His wife, the former Miss Mary Ann Jones, will accompany him to California for the remainder of his service.

B. L. Parker, Jr., is home on leave from the Navy while en route to Corpus Christi, from which point he expects to go to sea soon as a hospitalman. He has been in training at Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Anna Belle Decker, 17, underwent an appendectomy at Tahoka Hospital Tuesday.

Don Brice Named Pool Life Guard

Don Brice will be the head lifeguard and swimming instructor at the new Tahoka City swimming pool, the operators announced this week.

Brice, a graduate of Tahoka High School and a Sophomore in Texas Tech, last week received his certificate for completion of the American National Red Cross Senior Course of Instruction in Life Saving and Water Safety, a 30-hour course. He also had a course in swimming at Texas Tech, and once before held the Red Cross Certificate. He took his examination Friday from Richard L. Shaw, Red Cross instructor, at the MacKenzie Park pool in Lubbock.

A little later, Brice will announce a series of swimming lessons for non-swimmers to be given mornings at the pool. He asks the cooperation of all people using the pool in observance of all water safety rules.

Wilson Leading Junior Teams

Southland won its second game in a row Sunday, defeating Slaton 17 to 7 in the high winds at Southland park. Dabbs was the winning pitcher, Bednarz the loser. Jones, Wheeler, and Huddleston paced the Southland batting attack and Schneider and Bednarz hit well for the Slaton cause. Because of bad weather, the game went only five innings. Roosevelt took Bray Chevrolet 17 to 3 behind the pitching of Glenn Webb at Tahoka park, also in a high wind. Lefty Caudle and Kenneth Rodgers worked the mound for Bray.

Wilson State Bankers won their fourth consecutive game without a loss, taking Bill Strange Motors 28 to 16. Breiger and Mason pitched for Wilson, and Breiger also shared the hitting honors with Bruedigam. Morgan Howie led the parade of pitchers for the Ford boys, followed by Havens, White, and Smith. Smith was the losing pitcher, but shared hitting honors with Tong, Huddleston, and Wells. The run-fest was called in the bottom of the fifth because of high winds and sand.

Next Sunday, Roosevelt will play Strange Motors here, Bray Chevrolet will journey to Southland, and rampaging Wilson will play cellar-dwelling Slaton at Cooper. Games start at 2:30 p. m., and fans are invited to attend.

Sprinkler Plan Is On Increase

COLLEGE STATION.—The application of water to the soil by the sprinkler method is becoming a popular method of irrigation in many sections of Texas. According to R. V. Thurmond, irrigation specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the chief reason for this increased popularity is that the system can be readily adapted to land which cannot be irrigated successfully by surface methods.

Thurmond also lists other conditions which favor the installation of a sprinkler irrigation system. He says they can be adapted to uneven, hummocky land or steep slopes where leveling would be uneconomical; to sandy soils subject to erosion and which have high water intake rates; to shallow soils; for land on which high cash value crops can be produced that can bear comparatively high irrigation costs; to areas where the water supply is not adequate for surface irrigation methods or where the water supply is so located that it must be pumped; in areas where only supplemental irrigation is needed for crop production and on farms where labor is available without additional cost for moving the sprinkler equipment.

On the other hand, Thurmond points out a few limitations for the sprinkler system. The initial investment is high, he says. The successful operation of a sprinkler system depends upon adequate pressure in the system and thus developing this pressure requires constant pumping. Moving the pipe is explained as an expensive and often disagreeable job by Thurmond. A sprinkler system lacks flexibility because it is designed for only one capacity and is not easily adjusted to take care of emergencies and finally says the specialist, wind affects the water distribution by increasing evaporation and scattering the spray pattern.

JERRY KING MAKING TOUR OF CANADA

Jerry King, son of Mrs. Odelle King, is making an extensive tour of Canada, the Pacific Northwest, and California.

Jerry accompanied his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Smith of Albuquerque, N. M., on the month-long trip, returning to Tahoka June 20. He is a senior student in Tahoka High School.

Ronnie Gurley returned home Saturday from Athens, where he completed a two-year course in Henderson County Junior College. He expects to attend a senior college next fall.

Coach and Mrs. Leo Jackson and daughter, Myrna Gail, of Cameron, were here Monday night and Tuesday morning visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Richardson and other old friends.

Judy Lee, age seven months, daughter of Mrs. Alice Jewell Florence of Tahoka and J. B. Florence of Lubbock has been seriously ill in Tahoka Hospital this week.

Mrs. M. D. Hallmark is reported to be improving slowly from her recent "stroke" and may be able to go home from Tahoka Hospital this week.

CARD OF THANKS

We extend our heartfelt thanks for the flowers and gifts during the recent illness of our daughter, Kay Holder.—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Herndon of Tahoka Grill.

Recent rains over much of the state have increased the chances for good pastures and silage crops this summer. It's time to get them planted.

The expected continuing strong demand for livestock and their products means that feed, crops and pastures must be provided if the high output is maintained.

THE STATE OF TEXAS:
TO: Shirley Louise Rushing, Defendant, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to appear before the Honorable District Court of Lynn County at the Court House thereof, in Tahoka, Texas, by filing a written answer to Plaintiff's petition, at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday next after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being the 13th day of July A. D. 1953, then and there to answer Plaintiff's Petition filed in said court, on the 27th day of May A. D. 1953, in this cause, numbered 2088 on the docket of said court and styled James Leon Rushing, Plaintiff, vs. Shirley Louise Rushing, Defendant.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit:

To The Honorable Judge of said Court: Now comes James Leon Rushing, plaintiff, and complains of Shirley Louise Rushing defendant. Plaintiff shows that this is a suit for divorce. Plaintiff shows that he is a resident citizen of Lynn County, Texas has resided within the State of Texas for more than one year, and in Lynn County, Texas, for more than six months, continuously, and both immediately preceding the filing of this suit. Plaintiff shows that he and the defendant were lawfully married on or about May 7, 1953, and that, due to defendant's cruel and inhuman treatment, as set out hereinafter, they were separated on or about May 23, 1953. Plaintiff shows that he conducted himself properly at all times, and made the defendant a good and dutiful husband; Plaintiff shows that shortly before their separation on May 23, 1953, defendant began a course of cruel treatment and harsh and tyrannical conduct which rendered their further living together as husband and wife, insupportable and impossible, and resulting in their permanent and complete separation; Plaintiff shows that no children were born to them or will be born to them, and no children were or will be adopted by them. Plaintiff shows that the parties hereto own no community property, either real or personal. Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that defendant be cited to appear herein, and that upon a trial of this cause be granted a divorce from defendant, and for such other and further relief to which he may be justly entitled, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff's Petition on file in this suit.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.
Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, at office in Tahoka, Texas, this the 27th day of May A. D. 1953.

SO BEAUTIFUL! SO POWERFUL!

SO ROOMY! SO LOW IN PRICE!

Judge Pontiac purely from the standpoint of quality and it's hard to believe that it is actually a low-priced car. Certainly it's as distinctively styled as any car on the road—and its beauty carries through into its luxurious, roomy body by Fisher. Performance-wise, Pontiac is second to none, with power to spare that whisks you through city traffic or cruises with remarkable economy. And Pontiac is a big car, with a long, 122-inch wheelbase.
But Pontiac's outstanding feature is its price—a price so low that if you can afford any new car you can afford a Pontiac. Come in and get the facts that prove that dollar for dollar you can't beat a Pontiac!

DAVIS & HUMPHRIES OWNERS & OPERATORS

Fourteen Rules Are Given For Safe Swimming In New City Pool Here

You can still have fun while swimming, and follow a few simple safety rules. Fact is, you can have more fun, be smarter and safer, too.

The City of Tahoka, the pool operators, Jake Jacobs and Bill Haralson, and lifeguard Don Brice, have outlined the following rules which should be followed at the pool for safety sanitation and the utmost enjoyment for all:

1. The pool operators will reserve the right to refuse admittance to anyone at anytime.
2. Clothes should not be left in the dressing rooms.
3. Swimmers are requested to take a shower before entering the pool.

4. If you're hot, cool off before swimming. Never dive in while hot. Always wade in and gradually cool your body. Splash water on arms, chest, back of neck, under arms, and face. After eating a meal, wait one hour before going swimming.

5. There will be no scuffling or running around the pool.

6. Swimmers will not spit in the water, but use the gutter along-side the pool.

7. Do not dive in shallow water.

8. Divers should dive straight off the boards. Divers should see that the water is clear of swimmers directly in their path before diving.

9. Swimmers should stay away from beneath diving boards when others are diving.

10. Swimmers should stay off the life-lines.

11. No inner tubes will be permitted in the pool.

12. Paper and cups from concession stand, and other trash should be put in trash cans for sanitary purposes.

13. Adults will be responsible for their own children using the wading pool.

14. Use of the "buddy system" is recommended. In other words, pair off and let each couple of equal swimming ability stay together and watch each other.

Observance of these simple, sensible, and practical rules, and other similar rules that may be set up later, will add to the safety and pleasure of all people interested in this wholesome recreation and interested in maintaining a swimming pool in Tahoka. Your co-operation will be appreciated.

days and from 1 to 7 p. m. Sun days. Admission will be 35 cents for all people 12 years of age and older, and 15 cents for those under 12.

Children using the wading pool will not be charged admission but must be accompanied by a parent, or other adult. If waders require a clothes basket and use of dressing room, there will be a 15 cent charge. Other pool rules are published elsewhere in this issue.

The new "seablu" pool, built by Paddock of Dallas, is said to be one of the finest small pools in the Southwest. The fan-shaped pool is 82 feet long, 35 feet wide at the deep end, and 55 feet wide at the shallow end. Water ranges from three to 10 feet in depth. Equipment includes 3 and 10-foot diving boards, lifeguard stand, and steel ladders.

The wading pool, 12 by 24 feet in size and ranging from six inches to two feet in depth, is said by the contractors to be the first ever built that includes the same water purification system as the big pool.

Pumps carry every gallon of the water in the two pools through the chlorination and filter tanks every six hours. Special under-water vacuum cleaners are provided to remove skum, sand, and trash from the pool's bottom and sides.

Large concrete areas surround both pools, and this is enclosed by a 7-foot cyclone fence. The pool is trimmed in blue tile, racing lanes are marked in blue tile, and walls and sides are of crushed white marble. Under water floodlights add to the beauty of the pool at night, and above-ground floodlights cover the entire swimming area.

The 20 by 40 foot modernistic tile, concrete and steel bath and concessions house was built by Edgar Roberts of Tahoka, and contains the entrance and concessions room, men's and ladies' dressing rooms, showers, and toilets.

The swimming pool is located in the northeast corner of the 11 acre park which is already in process of development by the City.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

George Keith Funston is a man to watch these days.

Not only is he president of the New York Stock Exchange, but he is also selling an idea.

The idea has power, too, because it protects entrenched interests, yet is dramatized as something to benefit the "little man."

Washington observers say it is the greatest razzle dazle promotion since "330 every Thursday".

Funston wants to permit the "little man" to buy, as he terms it, a share in American industry, through installment buying of common stocks.

However, sales of common stocks on same basis as washing machines and autos would be restricted to common stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

This qualification is interesting.

Successful public acceptance of this plan would not only siphon off capital used to start new enterprises, but would also entrench firms financially powerful enough to have their common stock listed. Thousands of people who are buying X Gadget Common on a dollar down, a dollar a week basis, can easily be led to take economic and political measures to keep a new, independent competitive Gadget company from endangering X Gadget in the market place.

Also big profits would accrue to stock traders who would benefit by resulting inflation in common stock prices.

© National Federation of Ind-

Actually, the plan would supply needed bolstering to common stock trading volume, because "insiders" are turning more to preferred stocks for investment purposes.

There are many reasons for this trend. Among them is concern over management action in some of the bigger corporations. Not only are top executives receiving six figure salaries, they are also being pledged big retirement salaries, which in some cases, are to be handed down to their heirs.

In final analysis, stockholders pay for these elaborate frills, but such is the nature of the business of some corporations, protests by even large segments of stockholders are fruitless.

But in a corporation set up there is usually preferred and common stock with preferred stock ordinarily taking precedence in payment of dividends. This preferred stock is more attractive.

Thus Funston plans, it is felt, to scatter the chaff over the nation, while the good, sound kernels are held by professional investors and traders.

There is also a moral side. Nothing guarantees the price constancy of any common stock. Usually, price fluctuates with the amount of dividends paid.

Thus, Funston's plan would permit people to gamble on the installment plan.

This aspect has led some observers to say that if this plan is approved, there is only one more logical step to be taken.

That would be to legalize racing bookmakers who will advertise "Bets placed on ten per cent down with 36 months to pay the balance."

Jaycee Ettes Plan Summer Projects

A social for their husbands and families was planned for the next regular meeting night, Tuesday, June 23.

Hostesses for the night were: Mesdames Laverne Dykes and Mildred Barnes. —Reporter.

100 Hear Dallas Minister At Inter-City Meeting of Methodist Men In Tahoka

One hundred men from Tahoka, O'Donnell, and Post attended the monthly meeting of the local Methodist Men Monday night on the lawn of the Calloway Huffaker home, feasted on barbecue, and heard an address by Rev. Howard H. Hollowell, pastor of the Oak Cliff Methodist Church.

Rev. Hollowell is rapidly becoming one of the most popular and capable ministers of the Methodists in Texas. His rise in the ministry has been rapid. Since leaving O'Donnell, where he was pastor several years, he has served successfully at Spur, Midland and now in Dallas. His Oak Cliff church has more than two thousand members.

In a stirring and thought-provoking talk, he declared that every individual counts in our democracy. He decried the fact that many people are taking the attitude of leaving the operation of our government to the political leaders, and issued a plea that each of us let our congressional representatives know our thoughts on government.

We can not buy friends or friendship, he said, either as individuals or as nations. He pointed out the folly of our nation trying to buy the friendship of other nations. He cited the friendship we showed Russia back about 1927 by sending her farm implements, agricultural, mechanical, and scientific experts—and now she is our enemy.

He took a crack at our American foreign policy. We helped Russia, now an enemy. We back ed certain Balkan countries, then virtually left them in the cold. China was our friend and Japan our enemy. When the going got rough for China, we deserted her and now we are the friend of Japan. He strongly hinted that we may now be about to leave poor old Korea in the lurch.

"Morally worthy ends will not be reached with morally worthy means," he declared. We need to have positive character, and we can not have positive character as a nation unless we have positive character as individuals. "We must walk a straight path to a straight goal," he emphasized.

He closed with the thought that we must follow the teachings of Jesus for positive, successful living—that being simply a "good man" is not enough.

The speaker was introduced by C. O. Carmack, who, with W. W. Hagood, arranged for the former West Texas minister to appear on the program.

H. W. Carter, president of the Tahoka Methodist Men, presided at the meeting and introduced the guests. He said this was the largest attendance the local Methodist Men's organization had ever had.

A delicious barbecue dinner, prepared and served by Calloway Huffaker and George Nixon, preceded the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Slover of Ft. Worth spent last week end here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Slover.

Gerald Wayne Tippitt Will Play On Stage With Summer Stock Company

Gerald Wayne Tippitt, son of T. I. Tippitt, has attained the first goal of young stage stars seeking a theatrical success.

He and another former student of Texas Tech, Miss Jo Simmons of Lubbock, are both students in the University of Iowa speech department, and both have obtained resident member positions in outstanding stock companies for the summer months.

Tippitt has been employed by the Penn Playhouse of Meadville, Pa., where he will play all the leading juvenile roles of eight plays through the summer season, June 22 through August 22.

The Tahoka youth is a graduate of the local high school, attended Tech 1949-1952, and will receive the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the Department of Speech and Dramatic Arts at Iowa. Miss Simmons, playing with another prominent summer stock company, will receive her Master of Arts degree from the same school.

At Tech, Tippitt played a number of leading roles, including that of Petruchio in "Taming of the Shrew" and McGregor in "My Heart's in the Highlands." He was a member of Alpha Psi Omega, Sock and Buskin, and S. C. I., now Sigma Nu.

In his year and a half at Iowa, Gerald Wayne has appeared in seven shows, two of his outstanding performances being those of Happy Loman in "Death of a Salesman" and Oscar Hubbard in "The Little Foxes." He has also appeared in numerous dramatic radio shows, some of which have been released on national networks.

He is a member of the Theatre student board of Governors, and has been selected as one of three students to audition at the Arena man who comes to realize that a noble and talented son has not turned out well. The Rio Grande is a handsome and promising stream. It has its head away back up yonder in the mountains—the lofty, mountains of Colorado. Fountains of water gushing up from the depths form a lake almost on the summit of the lofty ridge that marks the Continental divide, the home of strange mountain fowls and the king of birds, the American eagle.

Stage in Washington, D. C., the latter part of August. Both Tippitt and Miss Simmons received the Scarlet Mask Award for exceptional work at Iowa.

Its near-by and constant companion and only superior in those lofty heights is the greatly admired and much beloved Arkansas. It veers to the east and finally passing through the state of the same name it becomes the pride of the state of Arkansas.

The Rio Grande heads south toward Texas, and to reach the westernmost tip of our state and form its boundary line from El Paso to Brownsville, a distance of 1,500 miles or more, it cuts New Mexico squarely in two from top to bottom, leaving the main part of it however on the big Texas side and the left-over part on the Arizona side.

The fact that the river has become a mere trickle at Laredo is a big point in its favor however. It has spent itself entirely in the service of humanity bringing life and riches to the hundreds of thousands of people who reside along its tortuous course. Its generous nature becomes apparent almost from its very fountain head high in the Rockies and it manifests that same generous spirit clear on down to the Gulf.

Last year, members of my family and I ascended long stretches of the Arkansas River from the foot of the mountains in that state and thence through the upper reaches of the Royal Gorge to the little town of Salida and further, even on westward across the lofty Continental Divide. The next day we doubled back across the mountains to Salida and then struck out south and crossed over another lofty divide that separates the Valley of the Arkansas from the Valley of the Rio Grande. A few hours later we found ourselves in the midst of a vast irrigated district, almost as level as a floor, with streams of water running through numerous ditches and soaking the rich black or chocolate-colored soils throughout a vast area, with green fields all around waving salutes to the tourists that passed along the well-paved highways. A little further on, in the midst of that well-watered plateau, we crossed the Rio Grande itself, which was furnishing the water for this vast irrigation district. And there also we encountered the prosperous-looking town of Monte Vista (Mountain View). For many miles we had been traveling south, but now we turned again to the west and went up the valley of the Rio Grande, covered with other verdant irrigated fields, till we reached another, prosperous-looking little town that bore the name of Del Norte, for it was the furthest town north of the banks of the Rio Grande Del Norte.

We could have followed a graveled road, if we had known it at the time, up to the very fountain-head of the Rio Grande where springs and melting snows form quite a sizable lake in which fish abound and from which the head waters of the Rio Grande flow.

But we kept on the paved highway and again crossed over the Continental Divide and down the west side of the mountains amid some of the most breath-taking scenery we saw on the entire trip. Thence on and on we came, entering New Mexico again near the little town of Chama, but we did not encounter the Rio Grande again until we reached the thriving town of Espanola, situated 47 miles southwest of the world-famous village of Taos and 24 miles northwest of Santa Fe. There she was again, the good old Rio Grande, literally covered up with magnificent scenery. We are in the midst of the notorious and colorful Indian country again, but the waters of the Rio Grande are as placid and peaceful as a rose garden or a lily pond, and the mountain scenery as magnificent and inspiring, perhaps, as old Mt. Sinai, or Pisgah, or Carmel, or Hermon.

Except for the Colorado which rises in the western mountains and flows into the Pacific in the general vicinity of Los Angeles, with much desert country in Arizona and other southwestern states, the Rio Grande is the first important river that one encounters between California and Texas. To the inhabitants of that vast region, it is almost as important as the River Nile is to the Egyptians. It is the life-blood of New Mexico. It furnishes irrigation for long stretches of otherwise sterile lands along its course, so that New Mexico now raises some of the finest cotton to be found in all America, together with some grain, and luxuriant gardens and orchards. Visit Albuquerque at certain seasons of the year and you are in a veritable garden of the gods. Clear on down to El Paso this New Mexico paradise stretches, while south of Albuquerque are the Hot Springs and the Elephant Butte Dam impounding a great lake of water affording fishing, boating, swimming and general recreation for the multitudes and a health resort for the sick. If the Rio Grande did not pass that way, nothing would pass that way except burning sand-laden winds and beasts of the desert.

Now we come down to Texas.

If there were no Rio Grande, there certainly would be no El Paso. There might be a pass through the mountains but nobody would want to live in that pass or even to pass through it. It not only makes the very existence of the city possible but it furnishes irrigation for thousands of acres of rich Texas soil along the course of the stream below El Paso. These fine irrigation areas are repeated at intervals clear on down the stream to Laredo. Furthermore, in the Big Bend area the River has cut a canyon through the mountains, with perpendicular walls 1500 feet high for a distance of fifteen miles, the Santa Helena Canyon thus created having become one of the marvelous show places of the Southwest. Through this Canyon comes the noble stream, which in spite of its generous gifts to the multitudes who live along its course above that point, still carries water in such abundance as to make the lower Rio Grande Valley famous throughout the nation as a citrus-growing area that rivals the orange and grapefruit orchards and truck gardens of Florida and southern California.

And thus, in this time of long-continued drouth, almost unprecedented in many of the areas that the Rio Grande passes through, it has all but exhausted its water supply in meeting the needs of hungering and thirsting human beings and dumb animals that live along its course.

But let it be said that it would have had abundant water for all these needs if its supply had been preserved by the human beings who live and thrive upon its gifts if they had heretofore built dams to preserve its overflow waters and prevent water waste in flush years.

A few years ago, the people of the United States awoke to their neglect and to their obligation to correct this defect, and so induced our Government in cooperation with the Mexican Government to begin the building of dams at intervals across the Rio Grande in order to preserve some of its waste waters. The first one of these dams, the great Falcon Dam, five miles long, situated about 75 miles downstream below Laredo, is just now being completed, we understand, and a great celebration of the event is to be held early this fall. President Eisenhower has invited President Ruiz Cortinas of Mexico to meet him in Brownsville, Texas. I believe it is, for this celebration, and the Mexican President has announced his acceptance of the invitation. Of course, every body is expecting immense crowds to be present, for it will not only be a very important economic event but also an important international event.

We are hoping that much good comes from it along many different lines that will promote the welfare of the people of both nations and will result in the creation of a more friendly and neighborly feeling between us and our neighbors on the south side of the Rio Grande.

Texas Swine Production Dips

COLLEGE STATION, —The 1952 Texas pig crop totaled 1,666,000 head. This number, according to E. M. Regenbrecht, swine husbandman for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, was 28 percent below the figure for the previous year and the smallest since 1935.

He also points out that the number of sows farrowed during last fall was 44 percent below the ten year average and the smallest since the Bureau of Agriculture. Economics started keeping records in 1930. It is evident, he continues, that the reduction in hog numbers will carry-over into 1953 because producers have indicated that only 84,000 sows have been bred to farrow during the spring season. This is a reduction of 40 percent below last year.

Regenbrecht says the severe drought which cut feed grain and hog pasture production to a low level and the high cost of feed and a declining market have been responsible for the drastic cut in hog numbers.

From the national viewpoint, the 1952 pig crop was 10 percent below 1951 and further reductions are indicated, says the specialist. The reduced supplies are likely to be reflected in stronger prices

So the People May Know

Cities and counties are required to advertise for bids before making any contract calling for expenditure of more than $2,000. Texas publication laws state:

Art. 2368a. Commissioners Court—advertising for bids on contracts requiring expenditures in excess of $2,000.00.

"Sec. 2. No county, acting through its Commissioners Court, and no city in this state shall hereafter make any contract calling for or requiring the expenditure of payment of Two Thousand ($2,000.00) Dollars or more out of any fund or funds of any city or county or any subdivision of any county creating or imposing an obligation or liability of any nature or character upon such county or any subdivision of such county, or upon such city, without first submitting such proposed contract to competitive bids. Notice of the time and place when and where such contracts shall be let shall be published in such county (if concerning a county contract or contracts for such subdivision of such county) and in such city (if concerning a city contract) once a week for two (2) consecutive weeks prior to the time set for letting such contract, the date of the first publication to be at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for letting said contract; and said contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder . . .

"Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to counties having a population of more than three hundred fifty thousand (350,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census."

Given by Price Daniel in his book, "Texas Publication Laws," are a number of opinions by the attorney general, to the effect that contracts have been invalidated by failure of county and city officials to publish notice that contracts were to be let.

—Price Daniel's book of Texas Publication Laws, pages 108, 109.

for hogs during the last half of the year, he says.

Regenbrecht suggests that hog producers study the situation carefully when making their 1953 plans. Breeding additional sows in order to provide market hogs at a time when supplies are extremely short and prices relatively high, he believes will be profitable. He cautions, however, that provisions should be made in the planning for the feed grains which will be needed to grow and finish these market hogs.

It is a good bet, he says that feeder pigs as well as market hogs will sell well in late summer and this will be particularly true if normal feed grain crops are produced in the state this year.

On the brighter side of the picture, Regenbrecht says demonstrations conducted last year in more than 200 Texas counties showed that the demonstrations raised an average of 7.5 pigs per litter which is one pig more than the state average. They also produced 200 pound market hogs in five months and thus cut a full month from the time normally required to produce such a market hog. This resulted in the saving of an entire month's feed bill.

The specialist believes that the efficient hog producer will continue to make a profit from his operations. Cost of production

Swimming Pool Operators Meet

Mayor E. R. Edwards, City Water Supt. Pat Hines, and Coach Bill Haralson attended the swimming pool operators training school held at Slaton last Friday.

About sixty people from 21 area towns attended the meeting. Haralson, who with Jake Jacobs, will operate the new Tahoka pool stated that they received much valuable information at the meeting as to the operation of the pool.

was lowered last year by demonstrators through the use of the most productive strains of hogs, good rations, strict sanitary measures, disease and parasite prevention and control programs, good hog lot equipment and whenever possible good green grazing.

Farm Geared To Machinery

COLLEGE STATION, —Texas farmers are now using 270,000 tractors to provide most of the power needed for carrying on far-flung operations. They are also using more than two and a half million farm implement attachments for these tractors or in some instances these implements too are self-propelled.

This array of mechanized farming equipment, says W. L. Ulich, agricultural engineer for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, has cost farmers a lot of money—in some instances the machinery investment exceeds that for the land being farmed. The machinery repair bill for 1952 is estimated at 37 million dollars.

Ulich points out that agriculture is a highly competitive industry and efficiency is the key to profitable production. Profits or losses occur in relation to how well this machinery is maintained, operated and adjusted. As an aid to tractor owners and operators, the Extension Service, through county programs, provides information aimed at improving the efficiency and usefulness of tractors and other farm machinery.

Last year, 395 county agricultural agents and adult 4-H club leaders attended district tractor maintenance clinics. These leaders in turn conducted 128 community and county tractor maintenance schools in 95 counties. These schools were attended by more than 4,500 4-H club boys and 1,000 adult farmers.

Welding schools were conducted in 18 counties with 498 people in attendance. Practices were taught which the farmers could use in repairing or constructing specialized machinery.

Ulich says plans for labor-saving equipment were in demand in 394 sets of drawings or blue prints of such equipment which could be built on the farm were available. Farmers last year used over 21,000 sets of these plans in building almost 20,000 pieces of equipment. According to Ulich, plans were ordered and used in 210 different counties of the state.

Electricity, too, is becoming a "work-horse" on the farms of the state, says the engineer. At the present time, more than 90 percent of the occupied farms in Texas have electricity. Through the Texas 4-H Electric program, county extension agents gave training to more than 3,800 4-H boys and girls in the state. Information gained by these 4-H members was put to good use in their homes and on their farms.

The safe operation of all farm machinery has been stressed, says Ulich, in connection with all training programs. Safety, he adds, is an important part of any program aimed at improving the efficient use of mechanized farm and home equipment. Most machines and equipment, including electrical, when improperly installed and used can become instruments of destruction. Crippling injuries or even fatalities can result from careless handling and use of machinery; therefore, Ulich believes that farmers and their families owe it to themselves to become thoroughly familiar with the safety features of every piece of mechanized equipment which they use.

Hot weather means that swimming and other water sports will be on the increase, and that means more deaths from drowning unless the strict rules of water safety are observed. Carelessness is a maker of statistics.

The Texas cotton crop is the most valuable crop grown in a single political subdivision in the world.

Need For Feed Is In Prospect

COLLEGE STATION. —If business remains good and the buying power of U. S. consumers continues high—both seem likely—then the demand for meat and livestock products is likely to remain strong. This means, says C. H. Bates, farm management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, that feed crops and pastures must be provided to maintain a high output of meat, milk, eggs and other livestock products.
 Since feed reserves in Texas have been depleted as a result of the drought, livestock producers should make every effort to build up adequate reserves of hay and silage this summer. These, with good pastures, are the cheapest feeds, and, explains the specialist, profits from the beef or dairy herd can be maintained only when ample supply of good quality forage are provided. Too, he adds, plenty of feed on the farm or ranch—grass, hay or silage—means cheaper livestock gains. Livestock producers have found that high feed costs, even with favorable prices for meat and milk, reduce their chance for profits.
 If a limited acreage is devoted to feed crops, says Bates, the hospital, Slaton. Maternal grand parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. Barger.
 Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holder and daughters visited Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Vardell in Slaton Wednesday night.
 Mesdames Clarence Church and Prentiss Jones were Lubbock visitors Monday.

to feed crops this year, Bates says, aim for maximum production. If fertilizers can be used, heavier than usual application will boost production and the use of good cultural methods will also increase yields whether or not fertilizers are adapted. The time of harvest and the method of storage for the crop are two mighty important items that have a bearing on the quality of the feed when it finally is needed by the livestock, says Bates.
 And finally the specialist points out that the need for cutting back livestock production seems less urgent than for reducing cotton and wheat and that means more feed will be needed.

Summer weather means more and more families will be going to lakes and streams for outings and picnics. Favorite forms of recreation are boating and swimming and both can be very dangerous if the rules of water safety are not observed at all times. Don't, says the state Farm and Ranch Safety Committee, become a statistic by being careless while around, in or on water.
