Fire Destroys Store At Draw

Jim Palmer's store and service station at Draw was completely destroyed by fire shortly after midnight Sunday. The building was afire all over when the Palmers awakened, and they barely escaped with their lives.

In addition to the building, the Palmers lost their 1952 Packard car, their stock of merchandise, some cash on hand, all their household furnishings, and most of their clothing. The store destroyed was that formerly operated by the late A. R. Hensley.

The loss was partially covered by insurance. The News is informed. Cause of the fire is unknown.

Mark B. Walters Services Today

Mack B. Walters, 70, a pioneer resident of Lynn county and long a prominent farmer of the Draw community, died Wednesday in a Kerrville hospital after a long illness.

Funeral services will be conducted today, at 3 p. m., at the Draw Methodist Church, with Rev. Harley Hughes, Baptist pastor at Whiteface, and Rev. Gage, pastor of Redwine Baptist Church officiating. Burial will follow in the Draw Cemetery under direction of Stanley-Jones Funeral Home.

Mr. Walters was born on December 4, 1882. He first came to Lynn county in 1905. He was married at Cleburne in 1915 to Miss Fannie Wood.

Surviving are the wife; two daughters, Mrs. Edna Smith of Odessa, Mrs. Mary Belle Dorman of San Antonio; one son, Clyde Walters of Odessa; one brother, Luke Walters of Joshua; one sister, Mrs. Joe Youngblood of Joshua; and seven grandchildren.

Man Is Arrested For Theft of Car

Sheriff Norven Redwine last week end arrested a Granite City, Ill., man who gave his name as Bryan Carl Stone, wanted at Hobbs, New Mexico, for theft of a 1950 Ford convertible.

He was extradited to the New Mexico city this week. The man has no relation to the local Stone families.

Council Seeks Help On Park

Tahoka City Council is asking the help of local civic organizations, business institutions, and private citizens in helping with the development of the new 11 acre city park and swimming pool in south Tahoka.

At the swimming pool, the Chamber of Commerce has loaned the City its public address system, the Pythian Sisters have donated a bench, and the Jaycees have donated the trash cans. Other needs include more benches, a ping-pong table, and beach parasols.

The park will need shrubs and trees, picnic units, children's playground, softball field, croquet court, etc.

Mayor E. R. Edwards believes Tahoka can have a City Park of which everyone will be proud if sufficient cooperation can be enlisted from citizens to sponsor such projects as these on the site.

In 1912, when Theodore Roosevelt was shot by John Schrank, a spectacle case deflected the assassin's bullet and saved the President's life.

A hearing in an attempt to determine on what basis Poka-Lambro Rural Telephone Company and General Telephone Company may connect their lines will be held next Wednesday at 10 a. m. in the district court room before the Lynn County Commissioners' Court and the Tahoka City Council.

The hearing has been set in pursuance with a petition signed by 268 subscribers of the two companies.

All signers of the petition and all other citizens interested in a settlement of the disagreement between the two firms are requested to be present at the hearing.

So far, the only offer by General Telephone is for connection with the cooperative lines on a straight toll basis. In other words, General Telephone would place a toll charge, possibly 20 to 35 cents, on every call to or from a member of the Cooperative.

The Cooperative contends it is entitled to connection with General under law and also under a prior agreement without toll charges, and that the private company serving this area would pick a large business from the 400 Cooperative members on long distance calls to other exchanges.

The Cooperative is being represented by Attorneys Tom Garrard, Calloway Huffaker, and Harold Green. Wayne Woodruff of Fort Worth is the attorney representing General Telephone.

The course of action by Poka-Lambro is unprecedented, and the outcome will be watched by telephone cooperatives all over the nation.

X-Ray Mobil Unit Is Coming Again

Chest X-rays will be taken free of charge again this year for all Lynn county citizens desiring the same on August 1, 4, 5, and 6.

A representative of the Texas State Department of Health was here Tuesday conferring with Dr. Skiles Thomas and other citizens to make arrangements for this free X-ray survey.

All civic organizations of Lynn county will be asked to cooperate again this year in making a success of this worthy survey. Good response was had from the survey last year.

Primarily, the survey is designed to detect evidences of tuberculosis in time for successful treatment. However, the free X-ray service may also locate other diseases or mal-formations not known to the individual such as enlarged heart, arthritis, cancer a crooked back, etc.

In fact, when the report on the X-ray is returned by State Health Department experts to the individual's personal physician, anything wrong found by the free X-ray picture is in that report.

Grassland Team To Play Stamford

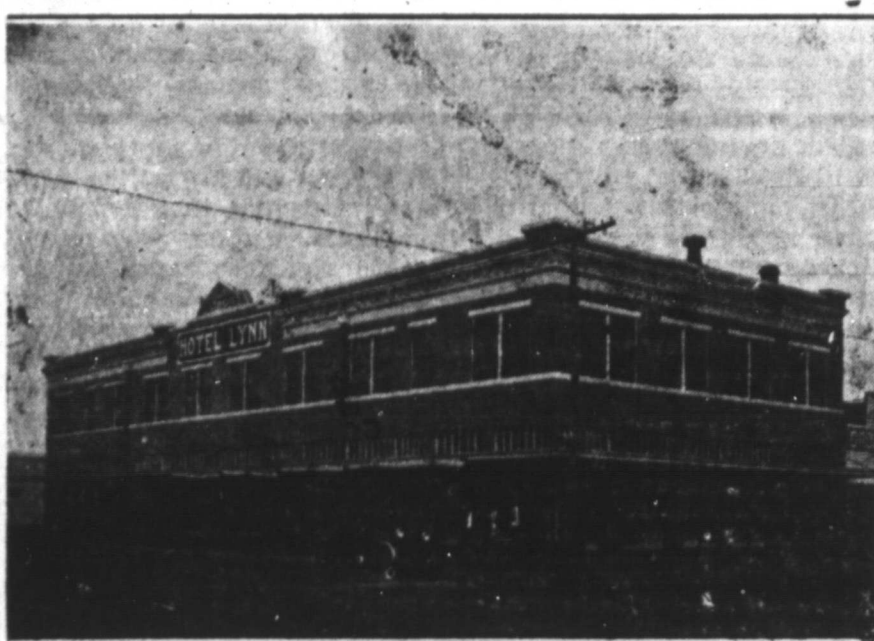

Grassland has enlisted several new young players on its softball team this year, and now has one of the better teams of the area.

Next Monday night, the team will journey to Stamford for a game.

Last Friday night, the boys went to Farmer, where they lost 6 to 2 to one of the better teams of the entire Plains.

MAYOR AT MULESHOE

W. T. Bovell, formerly of Tahoka and son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bovell, is currently serving as mayor of Muleshoe, in which city he operates a business.

EARLY DAY TAHOKA HOTEL—Pictured above is the old Lynn Hotel, built in 1915 by A. D. Shook and operated by his son, Guy Shook, on the block now occupied by Harris Hardware, Lynn Theatre, Tahoka Drug, Marshall-Brown, and Bennett Variety. Soon after its completion, the large building burned to the ground on January 31, 1915. The ground floor was occupied by the hotel lobby, dining room, kitchen and Ed Meyers Furniture and possibly other stores. When erected, this was one of the most modern hotel buildings in the west. Following this fire, the hotel was replaced with other buildings, which burned in 1918.

New Swimming Pool Draws Big Crowds

Tahoka's newly completed $35,000 swimming pool, opened Friday of last week, has been popular place in Lynn county the past seven days.

Attendance of swimmers has been above expectations of the City Council and the pool operators. Bill Haralson and Jack Jacobs. Nearly 300 swimmers and waders entered the pool opening evening, and possibly another 800 or 1,000 people were on hand for the opening program.

Though two numbers on the program failed to materialize the crowd seemed to enjoy the program presented.

Mayor E. R. Edwards told the background of the pool's building, and he later made the first dive from the 10-foot board at tired in an old-time yellow and green knee-length bathing suit.

Brief talks were made by members of the City Council Herman Heck, "Hick" Gibson, Winston Wharton, Albert Curry, and Lewis Allsup and by the pool operators, Coach Haralson and High School Principal Jake Jacobs.

Exhibition diving was staged by Harry Lee Short and Rollin McCord, Jr.

Seven goldfish were turned loose in the pool, and the swimmers catching them were awarded a month of free swimming tickets.

The pool was then opened to all-comers for an evening of free swimming.

Ice cream was served free to children opening night. The pool is open from 2:30 to 9:30 p. m. week days, and from 1 to 2 p. m. Sundays. Admission (Cont'd. On Back Page)

Head Is Elected At New Home

C. O. Head will be the new superintendent of the New Home schools effective July 1, the board of trustees announced this week.

He will succeed James F. Vaughn, head of the schools since February, 1950, who resigned recently to accept a position as business manager for the Crane school system.

Mr. Head is well known in Lynn county. He served as principal of the Midway school a number of years ago, then moved up to the Draw school, and later served as superintendent of the Wilson schools. He left Wilson to become superintendent at Crosbyton, where he served several years. He was at Spade a year, and for the past year has been at Las Cruces, New Mexico.

He is an experienced and capable man, and many old friends will welcome him and his family back to Lynn county.

Under Mr. Vaughn's leadership, the New Home schools have been greatly improved and modernized and the system now considered to be among the better rural schools of the area.

Former Resident Died Recently

Edd LaMastus, about 65, a former resident of Tahoka, died at his home in California last week. The News has been informed.

He was the father of Mrs. Andrew Cooper of Brownfield, who attended the services. Mr. LaMastus and his son, Val, who also lives in California, visited here last summer.

Lynn County Pioneers' Reunion Is Wednesday

Marine Exhibit Here Next Week

Making its debut in the South Plains, a Marine Corps Traveling exhibit, containing a variety of interesting displays will arrive in Tahoka next Wednesday, June 24. Captain David R. Cowling, Inspector-Instructor of the 40th Special Infantry Company, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, Lubbock announced the exhibit would be in Tahoka for one day.

The large van-type trailer contains exhibits on the different uniforms worn by the men and women of the Marine Corps. It also gives a preview of new communications equipment.

The armored vest now being used by Leathernecks in Korea is also on display, together with a three-panel section showing the modern small arms weapons used by Marines.

Highlights of the exhibit are a replica of a bunker similar to those being used by Marines in Korea today and a 3.3 inch rocket launcher with dummy rocket.

Other display features include a map of the world pinpointing posts and stations of the Corps, battle streamers of the three active Marine Divisions, medals and decorations, and a cartoon display depicting interesting points in Marine Corps history.

Captain Cowling added that there is no admission charge and all are invited to tour the exhibit during its stay here. The exhibit will be stationed at the Lynn County Fair grounds for the Pioneer reunion until mid-afternoon, when it will move to the court house square.

Rainbow Girls Formed Here

Special initiation services were held at the regular meeting of Tahoka Assembly of Rainbow girls, Monday, June 15, at the Assembly Hall, as Venita Stone was initiated.

Wearing for the first time the officers' jewels, which had just arrived, officers carried out the ceremony, over which Deanie Edwards, Worthy Advisor, presided. In the absence of Mrs. Emil Prohl, Mother Advisor, Miss Jane Morehead, Worthy Matron of the Tahoka Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, acted as Mother Advisor.

Miss Morehead says that the next meeting, which will be July 6, is a founder's day meeting and that a special program is being planned for the occasion.

Among guests from out of town to be present were Benna Mae Olsen, representing Rainbow Assembly, Chapter 55, from Lawton Okla.; Mesdames R. C. Carroll, Charles Hoffman, and Sam Singleton, from O'Donnell; and Mrs. Glen Lee, from Marlow, Okla.

In charge of refreshments was Susie Smith of the social committee, and Ann Reasonover decorated the hall for the meeting.

Wes. W. Caswell, who has farmed at Draw for many years, recently bought the George Stephens home in O'Donnell and has moved there.

Jackrabbit Takes Up Home In Hog Pen To Beat Heat

"Bugs Bunny" has moved in on the Ward Eakin place east of town and has taken up residence in the hog pen believe it or not.

Every morning along about 8:30 or 9:00 o'clock, Ward says he has observed the jackrabbit loping in to a shelter in his hog pasture. Mr. Rabbit spends the day with the hogs under an old wagon, put in the hog pasture for a shelter. Late in the afternoon, when the sun's rays extend under the wagon, Br'er Rabbit hops away.

If Ward goes near the place, the Jackrabbit leaves for a time, but returns as soon as Ward leaves.

If it stays hot and dry much longer, and Br'er Rabbit fattens up sufficiently, Mr. Eakin may hang the gentleman up in the smokehouse along about hog killing time.

Start Work On Football Field

Work was started Monday morning by Edgar Roberts, contractor, on the enlargement of Kelley Field, the Tahoka football stadium.

The east stands will be doubled in length and in height to raise the total seating capacity from 1,200 to 2,400. Roberts is this week constructing the concrete footings, while the steel is being fabricated by Lubbock Steel works. The east stands are now 60 feet long and 8 rows high. When completed, they will be 120 feet long and 16 rows high. The west stands will remain as they are, 120 feet long and 8 rows high.

The school has reseeded the playing field, and also seeded all the area of the campus lying south of the High School building.

The school board also hopes to build some rest rooms at the football field and possibly to erect a new fence separating the spectators from the playing field.

Architects are drawing plans for the new Homemaking cottage and the addition to the Vocational Agriculture, for which bids will be received on July 9.

Cotton Congress Is Next Week

Lynn county farmers and others interested in agriculture, especially cotton, are being urged to attend a part or all of the sessions of the American Cotton Congress which is meeting this year on the campus of Texas Tech next week end, June 25, 26, and 27.

A number of national figures, including Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, will appear on the three-day program.

Many industrial exhibits of interest to the cotton farmer will be on display.

County Agent Bill Griffin states this is a rare opportunity for farmers of this area. He says the program on Thursday and Friday should be of special interest.

J. B. EDWARDS UNDERGOES SURGERY AT AMARILLO

J. B. (Boswell) Edwards of New Home underwent oral surgery by a specialist in Amarillo last week end.

About four weeks ago, he had a cyst removed from this month, and last week it became necessary for him to return for the removal of four teeth and other "repairs" to the jaw.

Everything is set for the annual Lynn County Pioneer Reunion in Tahoka next Wednesday, June 24, celebrating the town and county's fiftieth anniversary.

The morning will be devoted strictly to visiting and registration of old time citizens of the county at the Lynn County Fair livestock exhibition hall.

A barbecue luncheon will be served at the noon hour at this hall for all people and their families who came to Lynn county thirty years or more ago.

The program of the event will follow the luncheon, and will take place in the air-conditioned Rose Theatre.

A definite commitment had not been received Thursday on the principal speaker.

Group singing will be led by Fred McGinty, and some special numbers have also been arranged.

Injecting a little comedy into the meeting will be the appearance of Tahoka's "first mayor and wife."

Prizes will be given for the oldest man and woman present and for the person coming the greatest distance for the meeting.

This will be followed by the election of officers for the coming year.

But the feature of the day's program will be "just visiting," the program committee reports.

J. L. Jolly, 73, Dies Suddenly

J. L. Jolly, 73, a resident of Lynn county for more than thirty years, died from a heart attack at 8:15 p. m. Saturday.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church at 4 p. m. Tuesday with Rev. Lee Ramson and Rev. Bill Scantling officiating. Burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of Stanley-Jones Funeral Home.

John L. Jolly was born November 8, 1879, in South Carolina. He came to Texas as a youth, and joined the Baptist Church early in life. He was married June 22, 1913, at North Zulch, Madison county, to Miss Rosa Chapman.

The family moved to Lynn county from Teague in 1921. He moved to Tahoka in 1928.

Mr. Jolly had been in ill health for some time. Saturday morning he suffered a very severe heart attack, and was taken to Tahoka Hospital, where he died late the same day.

Survivors include the wife; three sons, Chapman Jolly of Tahoka, Calloway Jolly of Narco, Calif., and Edwin Jolly of Oxnard, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Sybil Hayton of Orland, Calif., and Mrs. Joyce Calhoun of Lubbock; two brothers, W. S. Jolly of Jonah and Vernon Jolly of Slator; one sister, Mrs. Josie Miller of Teague, and 12 grandchildren.

No Harmful Bugs Are Showing Up

No harmful cotton insects were found in the irrigated sections of Lynn county when County Agent Bill Griffin made a survey a few days ago.

However, red spiders have already been reported showing up in Crosby county.

Flea beetles has been reported by Lee Mason on his Garza county farm, north of Storrle gin. The flea beetle feeds on the under side of cotton leaves, is 1/16 inch in length and has a golden metallic color.

Mr. Griffin says the recent miller infestation in this area is the type of miller from which come the worms that work on mesquites and sage brush.

Odds and Ends

(BY E. I. THE ELDER)

Here I am back at home, folks; got back last Sunday afternoon—would have gotten back sooner probably, if the weather had been more cooperative. In central Texas the weather gets boiling hot; in central west Texas it gets scorching hot; and on these plains it gets just plain hot. I was down at Seymour the other day and got out of town just in time to escape from those gentle 114-degree zephyrs that came floating in along about two to four o'clock in the afternoon. I was in Childress early Sunday morning but hurried out in front of that heat wave that drove the mercury up to 110 by the time the ministers had pronounced the benediction. I came into Tahoka parched as brown as a Hottentot. And it was just about as dry in most other places as it was in Tahoka. About the best wheat crops I saw were in the Haskell-Munday-Seymour-Crowell, general area. Showers had fallen in some spots in sufficient amount to bring up the cotton, and where it was up it looked promising. A pretty good grain crop had been reaped in the Bosque valley from Stephenville to Waco, and all around Waco and central Texas generally a good oat crop had been harvested. But many farmers were already crying for rain on their corn. Childress was the hardest-hit town I ran into. Its drinking water had played out. Folks were buying the shipped-in variety by the jug-full.

But in spite of tornadoes and low water, folks, I had a good time. Everybody seemed to go to extra trouble to afford me a good time. And yet "having a good time" was not the prime purpose of my visit. First of all, of course, I wanted to see the kin-folks, and I saw a lot of them.

I wonder if I can recall all the towns in which they live without missing anybody: Waco Temple, Pendletonville, Moody, Longview, Goree, Childress, and Paris, Texas. Besides, there were numbers of friends, some old and some new. Among the friends I saw were D. V. and Mattie Will Smith in Mineral Wells, whom I visited.

At Childress, I met the Rev. Ira Parrack, the first pastor of the First Baptist Church of Tahoka, together with his charming wife. She is his second wife, however, the first wife having died at Chillicothe, where he was pastor, in 1937. He was pastor of the Tahoka church, from July 1903, to July, 1904. He then entered the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, and following a year or two spent as a student in that institution, he went as a missionary to Brazil. His health failing, he came back to Texas three years later and physicians advised him to locate in the dry regions about or west of San Angelo. He served many churches for many years in West Texas, among them were the Emmanuel Baptist Church in San Angelo, where he served four years; Santa Anna, 5 years; Merkel, 10 years all together; Chillicothe, 15 years; and now he is pastor of a mission church established a few years ago by the First Baptist Church of Childress. We heard only praise of him both at Chillicothe and at Childress.

I had the good fortune and the pleasure of meeting and conversing briefly with another one of the early pastors of the First Baptist Church of Tahoka, Rev. J. R. (Robert) Balch of Seymour. He served here as pastor in 1911 and 1912; went from the Tahoka church to Slaton, where he served for two years, then to Matador for six years, 1914 to 1920, and from Matador to Seymour in 1920. He served as pastor of the Seymour church for 31 years, resigning on account of failing health. He had nearly a thousand members in the Seymour church when he resigned and he declared to this columnist that it is a wonderful church. A deacon told us that he was a wonderful pastor too, and the deacon says that everybody else says so too. But Brother Balch was seriously sick and family and friends were deeply concerned over his condition.

work would be light, we were told, but was finding it to require about as much of his time and effort as any pastorate he had ever had. I passed right by those two churches recently when I went down to Stephenville and Waco but did not know at that time that B. N. Shepherd was anywhere in the vicinity. He is still confined to his bed much of the time. He was pastor of the Tahoka church for five years in the middle period of its existence and is still known by many people here.

Well, having disposed of the weather, the crops, and the preachers for the time being, I want to turn my attention now for a few minutes to the Comanche Indians.

Several times in the past, this column has told in part the tragic story of Cynthia Ann Parker. On one occasion a few years ago, I visited old Fort Parker on the Navasota River two miles north of the town of Groesbeck in Limestone county. I went into the very room or cabin in which little Cynthia Ann, 8 years old, and her little brother, 6, and their parents lived when the Indians made their savage attack on that July morning, 1836. I am not going to repeat all that horrible story, just enough of the facts to make it intelligible to children and grown-ups who may not have read it.

At that time Texas was still in the grip of the Mexicans and the Indians, but people had been pouring into Texas from other states for several years and settling in colonies by permission of the Mexican government. One little group of people named Parker together with a number of relatives had come from Illinois and had built their cabins on the banks of Navasota River and had erected a palisade, a fence of very tall stakes, around it, as a protection against hostile Indians. They had watch-towers in two of the four corners of the enclosure, where guards kept a watch out for Indians at night while the members of the colony slept, and also in the day-time while the men were out planting or cultivating their crops on their little farms near by. One night a group of Comanche Indians quietly sneaked up, hid themselves in the brush along the river some distance up stream, and after the men had gone out the next morning to their farms to work, they made a sudden surprise attack upon the fort, gained entrance, and began to murder the inhabitants. Those that they did not murder and had not escaped, they took upon their ponies and sped away. One or two had escaped and they gave the alarm to the men folks out on the farms, and when the men arrived at the Fort they found a scene of bloodshed and carnage—dead bodies scattered around and some of the women and children missing. Cynthia Ann was one of the missing. For twenty-four years she was not seen nor heard of. But in 1860, fourteen years after Texas had become a state in the Union, the Comanche Indians one night made a raid from the northwest down into Parker county, stealing horses and whatever else they could take away. Sul Ross was then captain of a company of Texas Rangers stationed at Seymour.

Odds & Ends

tioned at Waco and Sam Houston was governor of Texas. Houston dispatched Sul Ross and the Rangers to follow the Indians. He did so, and at a point which was then regarded as high up on the upper reaches of the Pease River he and the Rangers overtook the Indians, made a surprise attack upon them, killed many of them and captured one woman with a white skin but an Indian in every other respect. It was soon discovered and proved that she was the long-missed little Cynthia Ann Parker. She had grown up as an Indian, had practically forgotten her early life down at Fort Parker, had married old Chief Nocona, and had become the mother of two or three children, one of them the well-known Quanah Parker. One of the sons of Quanah Parker was converted to Christianity and became a Methodist missionary among the Indians. Some fifteen years ago he visited Tahoka. He became a good friend of Ben Moore and other citizens of O'Donnell. Quanah Parker himself, it is claimed, visited Tahoka once, and is reputed to have ranged along the caprock east of Tahoka for quite a while. Cynthia Ann, though recaptured and restored to some of her relatives in central Texas, never became reconciled to life among the Whites. She continually pined, it is said, for the old life among the Indians, and did not live many years after being returned to civilization.

But just as I stood a few years ago in the room in which she was captured in old Fort Parker and taken to the wilds of the No. hwest, 117 years ago, just so I stood the other day on the very spot, according to a monument erected there by the State of Texas in 1936, where she was recaptured by Capt. Sul Ross and his company of Texas Rangers in 1860.

That Monument describes the spot as the "Pease River Battlefield."

It is situated almost exactly 11 miles northeast of the town of Crowell, county seat of Foard county. One mile west of it was the town of Margaret, first county seat of Hardeman county, of which county Foard was a part for many years.

Cynthia Ann Parker had taken refuge under a hackberry tree when she was captured. That tree was dug up by order of the commissioners court of Foard county some twenty years ago, roots and limbs of it were sawed off, and the trunk of it was thoroughly cleaned and highly polished, and mounted in the hallway on the second floor of the courthouse in Crowell as a memorial of the recapture of Cynthia Ann Parker in that county. But it was out on the spot of ground which had been overshadowed by that tree perhaps for a century and which reputedly had overshadowed Cynthia Ann Parker as she sought refuge from the group of armed white men who were bent on capturing her, a white woman in fact who doubtless regarded herself as an Indian squaw—it was there that I got my kick.

A night or two later, in the home of one of my nephews in Childress and in the presence of the son of another nephew who resides in Longview, I incidental made mention of my visit to the Cynthia Ann Parker monument, and that eight-year-old youngster suddenly became all ears, and I had to tell him the story, though I think he had heard sketches of it before. Anything about Indians got his attention.

And then he wanted to know if we had any jack-rabbits out here, and if I ever killed any, etc. Of course I told him of the rabbit hunts we used to have and that thrilled him too. He lives in Longview, you know, where they have only brush rabbits and molly cottontails.

That boy and his parents were on their way to Marfa, and I'll bet he has a good time out there. Hope he doesn't run a cross any Comanche Indians.

Boys are interesting people folks.

Jaycees, And Wives Will Have Picnic

Members of the Tahoka Jaycees and their families will be guests of the Jaycee Ettes at a picnic in Lubbock MacKenzie Park, Tuesday, June 23. This announcement was made at the regular noon meeting Wednesday. Also, according to H. L. McMillan, Jr., vice president, in charge of the meeting in absence of the president, A. V. Barnes, next week's noon meeting will be held Tuesday, June 23, at the American Legion Hall instead of Wednesday, the regular meeting day.

Geno Jones, incoming president, was named as Jaycee representative to the Lynn County committee for the chest X-ray unit which will be in Tahoka on August 1.

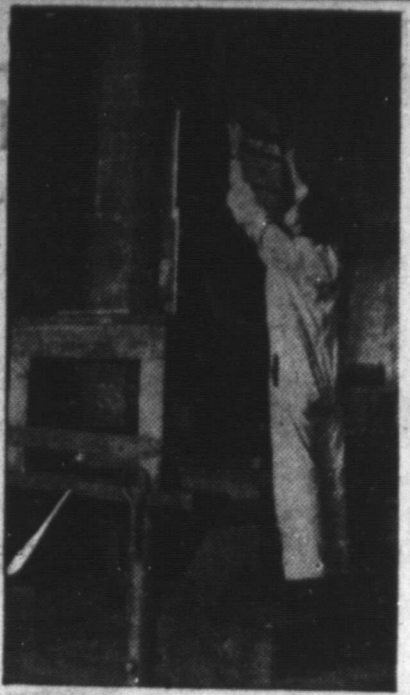

The club also voted to help the American Legion in financing repairs being made at the Legion hall.

Mrs. Seth Lewis and Mrs. W. W. Gurley of the Jaycee Ettes are in charge of plans for the coming picnic.

Reunion Planned By Red Riverites

Plans were made recently at a meeting of officers and committees for the Annual Reunion of former residents of Red River County and their families, to be held at MacKenzie State Park Lubbock, on Sunday, July 5.

All former residents of Red River county and their families are invited. A large crowd is expected, including some present residents of Red River county.

Those attending are urged to bring lunch baskets. At noon dinner will be served picnic style. Arrangements have been made for water, ice, picnic tables and other necessary things.

While most of the day will be spent in visiting, a program has been arranged, with music, and with Andrew B. Riddle, prominent attorney of Ardmore, Okla., and a native of Red River county, as the featured speaker.

Officers of the Association are District Judge Louis B. Reed, Lamesa, president; W. D. T. Storey Postmaster of Littlefield, vice-president; James Geer, of Vernon, vice-president; and Mrs. Vivian Watson, of Lorenzo, secretary John Derryberry, County Judge of Yoakum county, is chairman of the publicity committee.

Show Pictures Of Flower Exchange

Films of the Tahoka Garden Club flower exchange held this spring were shown to members attending the regular business meeting held in the home of the club president, Mrs. Beulah Applegate, Tuesday, June 16.

The president appointed the following to serve as a nominating committee for new officers, who will be elected in August: Mrs. Jack Robinson, chairman; Mrs. L. C. Haney; and Mrs. C. S. Thomas.

Members voted to take as a new project, improving the south east corner of the new City Park. The group will continue work on its old project, improvement of school grounds.

Mrs. Sallie Kemp assisted Mrs. Applegate in serving.

Dr. and Mrs. Tom Tellow and two children visited Mr. and Mrs. John Minor Tuesday. They were enroute home to Spokane, Washington, after having flown to Chicago earlier, where they had purchased a new car.

A. M. Bray reports that his father, W. E. Bray, who suffered a stroke several months ago and who was a patient in Tahoka Hospital for some time, is seeming a little better. Mr. and Mrs. Bray are now at their home in San Antonio.

Weather, such as prevails now over the state, tests the management skills of the home gardener. Proper cultivation, irrigation and mulching are garden practices which will pay-off during dry hot weather. Insect control, too, is a must.

Said To Be Saddest Face In All History

NASHVILLE, TENN. — The face of Christ with his disciples at the last supper, as depicted by Leonardo da Vinci, is said to be the saddest face in all history. A new interpretation of that face is being seen by thousands of visitors to the newly consecrated Upper Room Chapel here.

The chapel, built in connection with the new headquarters building for The Upper Room, the world's most widely used devotional guide, features a great woodcarving of Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper. Hailed as a work of art with breath-taking beauty, it is hoped that it will inspire visitors to bridge the centuries and at least for a few minutes of meditation and prayer commune with Christ as he said: "This is my body which is broken for you." The chapel is open daily for prayer and meditation.

Junior Methodists At Annual Camp

Eight boys and girls, representing the Junior Methodist Church, attended the Junior Methodist Camp at Cet Canyon, near Happy last week.

Young people attending the camp were Sunny Sue Gibson, Marihelen Reid, Magann Lamb, Janie Ware, Terry Spears, Bill Smith, Gerald Huffaker, and Danny Uzzle.

The 738-acre farm is devoted exclusively to research projects concerned with livestock and nutrition and is annually visited by more than 10,000 farmers from all sections of the United States and Canada.

President Calvin Coolidge's father administered the oath of office to his son.

Pythian Sisters Install Officer

Mrs. Pearl Carter was installed as treasurer for the Pythian Sisters, Lynn Temple No. 45, in a ceremony conducted at the regular business meeting Tuesday, June 16.

Mrs. Bernice Carter received the Past-Chief certificate and pin for her three years of service as treasurer.

The Temple was draped in a special ceremony in memory of the Past Supreme Chief, Alice Boylan, of Ackley, Iowa, who died March 24. The charter will be draped for a 90 day period in her memory.

Lynn Temple was notified by the Grand Chief that it placed second in a state-wide proficiency contest.

Following a special report from owners of the Woodmen of the World Hall, meeting place for the group, that a new air conditioner would be in operation for the next meeting, new drapes were hung in the outer temple.

Hostesses for the meeting were: Mesdames Hannah Nordyke, Anna Pennington, and Pauline Warren.

Miss Collier Tells Of Old Mexico

Wynne Collier received a letter Wednesday from his sister, Miss Lucille Collier, mailed at Acapulco, Mexico. Miss Lucille and three other Lubbock teachers were down there enjoying a summer vacation. Acapulco is a popular pleasure resort situated on the Pacific coast 270 miles south of Mexico City. It has a wonderful bathing beach and arm of the ocean extending back into the mountains with marvelous scenery all around. Boating and fishing are other popular amusements. The ladies spent some time in Mexico City before going on down to the great ocean-side resort. Miss Lucille was enthusiastic in her praise of the hospitality accorded them by the people of Mexico, declaring that she had never before been treated with so much courtesy and kindness on any trip she had ever made.

Texas is known as the Lone Star State.

The club netted $57.00 at last week's luncheon.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to wit:

To The Honorable Judge of said Court: Now comes James Leon Rushing, plaintiff, and complains of Shirley Louise Rushing defendant. Plaintiff shows that this is a suit for divorce. Miss Elwanda Stalcup, 17, the Tahoka club's queen candidate, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. H. Stalcup, also attended. Miss Pat Haws of Ropesville was crowned queen of the convention in a spirited contest.

The local Lions say the meeting was a great one, and came home inspired to do a better job in the home club this coming Lions Club year.

Joe R. Phillips of the South Amarillo Club was elected district governor to succeed Milton Morris, Canyon. Next year's convention will be held in Amarillo.

The programs were great, Robinson says, one of the featured speakers being S. A. Dodd of Detroit, first vice president of Lions International. District governors were present from Flossmoor, Ill., Florida, and from Carizo Springs, Jasper, Austin, Canyon, Ysleta, Hamlin, Denison, San Antonio, Texas City, and Beaumont in Texas.

On Thursday night, June 25, at Lubbock, a great inter-city meeting of Lions members is being held at 8 p. m. in the High School cafeteria, at which Edgar M. Elbert of Maywood, Ill., the president of Lions International will be the featured speaker. Members from 69 clubs are being invited to attend, and the Tahoka club hopes to have a delegation present.

John Sanders has been elected the new president of the Tahoka Club and will take office on July 1.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

In Washington it is not felt that it was by accident that a horse named Eisenhower was hitched up to pull the Royal State Coach during the Coronation. In fact, betting is even that if the event had occurred a year ago, there would have been a horse named Truman hitched to the Royal State Coach instead.

British wit is noted for being wry and dry. It is also sardonic, and thus many feel that this aspect of the ceremony was a tacit admission that C. W. Harder the pomp and glitter depended upon support from the American government.

And with similar tongue in cheek tactics, the British also launched the grandiose slogan "Trade, Not Aid" in the drive to break down American tariff protection to permit the flooding of the U. S. market.

The great mystery in many circles in Washington is the effectiveness of British salesmanship in selling these ideas to many presumably intelligent Americans, aside from the American businessmen with plans abroad.

But despite their ringing acclaim for the principle of "Trade, Not Aid", British leaders continue to prove that they either have no intention, nor ability to work out free trade even among their own Dominions.

Mutual Security Bulletin No. 317 contains an interesting demonstration of classic British thinking on free trade.

It seems apparent that the cornerstone of their thinking on free trade is first that someone in authority in America make free with U. S. tax dollars.

In the bulletin referred to, MSA approved a deal whereby U. S. taxes are being used to buy $625,000 worth of copper matte in a British Dominion, Canada. The authorization further provides that this material can only be shipped either to Norway, or to Great Britain for refining with the delivery of the refined product made to France.

Thus, Canada's copper industry profits, the United Kingdom refining industry will profit, and presumably French industry has a way of making a profit on the deal.

But significantly, the American taxpayer, who foots the bill, doesn't figure in the profit.

On the same day MSA also released authorization for another trade deal between members of the British Commonwealth.

An item of $20,000,000 in aluminum is bought in Canada and sent to Great Britain, in a little inter-family deal, courtesy American taxpayers.

But of course, free trade between Britain and her commonwealth is flourishing today.

And with American dollars furnishing the backbone of the trade, it is easy to see why the British are enthusiastic backers of their own slogan "Trade, Not Aid."

But this big question unanswered is this.

If the U. S. should abolish tariff protection so that cheap imports will close up American factories, depress American farm income, where else on the face of the earth can a group of taxpayers be found both willing and able to compensate the loss to Americans that is incurred by such free trade.

Letters From News Readers—

(The News welcomes letters from its readers on any current subject, not libelous, of course. All communications must be of reasonable length and must be signed. On request, the signature will not be printed.)

E. S. Brown of New Home is the author of the following bit of verse that may cheer some of us up a bit:

I guess it's all right to be an optimist, to see the good and for get the bad, but I wouldn't have been out here if it hadn't been for dad.

We need to forget the bad days which were ten out of eleven, and bow our necks and say we really made a bumper in '37.

We get a beautiful cloud—and it never does fall: for here comes the sand and then the hail.

Of course, God made everything and we ought not to ache, as He did a better job than I could even if I was to undertake.

To you cloud-seeding fellows, I'm sure you've met your fate, there's so much dry sand in the clouds the seed wouldn't germinate.

To Frank and Billy Hill: If this is headed for the wastebasket, and that's where it belongs, I'm sure, for I'm not a professional, but an amateur.

A lot of hayseed farmers met to pray for rain, and were discussing which way would be best; and one hayseed allowed it wouldn't do any good to pray as long as the wind was in the west.

So, the only solution I can see is to petition the Weather Man to send us 10 inches of rain—minus all the sand.

GIVE THANKS FOR AID ON BUILDING

To the pastor, Rev. Lee Ram-sour, of the First Baptist Church, members and others:

We, the pastor and members of Pleasant Grove Baptist Church wish to thank you for the fine contribution given us in helping to complete our church. We pray God's richest blessings upon you.

LYDIA CLASS HOSTESS TO ESTHERIAN CLASS

The Lydia Class of the First Baptist Church had as their guests the Estherian Class and a number of other guests, at a social in the church basement on Tuesday night. The program was "Gown of Glory," reviewed by the guest of honor, Mrs. Pete Hegl.

The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and punch set with a miniature setting of a book review laid on a mirror with white flowers surrounding it. Other flower arrangements were throughout the room. With green as the main color, punch and cookies were served to the thirty-one present.

Weeds, sprouts, bushes, briars and vines can be practically eliminated from the pasture if mowing is done at the proper time. Clip the weeds to prevent the production of a seed crop.

All grasses do not react the same to close mowing; tall bunch grass stands may be severely injured while the low growing grasses which tend to form a sod respond best to mowing.

Mrs. Cunningham Is Critically Ill

Mrs. J. H. Cunningham, long a citizen of Tahoka, is critically ill in a Houston hospital.

This information was sent Mrs. R. C. Forrester early this week by Mrs. Ruby Collins, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham who lives in that city.

The aged, former citizen of Tahoka would enjoy hearing from some of her old friends and neighbors here. Her address is Mrs. J. H. Cunningham, Room 378, Baptist Memorial Hospital, 606 Lamar Street, Houston.

Mrs. M. D. Hallmark, 83, patient for several weeks in Tahoka Hospital following a stroke, was taken back to her home on Friday.

Pool Opens . . .

(Cont'd. from Page 1) sion prices are 35 cents for all people 12 years of age and older, 15 cents for those under 12. Children are admitted to the wading pool free of charge when accompanied by an adult and when a basket is not required for clothing. Small children must be accompanied by a parent or guardian, as pool attendants will not take responsibility for their care in the pools.

Lifeguard Don Brice has announced that swimming classes for beginners will be opened a little later in the summer, the dates yet to be announced.

Special swimming parties may be arranged for groups by consulting the managers.

In the meantime, scores of Lynn county adults and children are getting their first recreation of this type, and many who could not swim before are already becoming water-wise and are learning to swim.

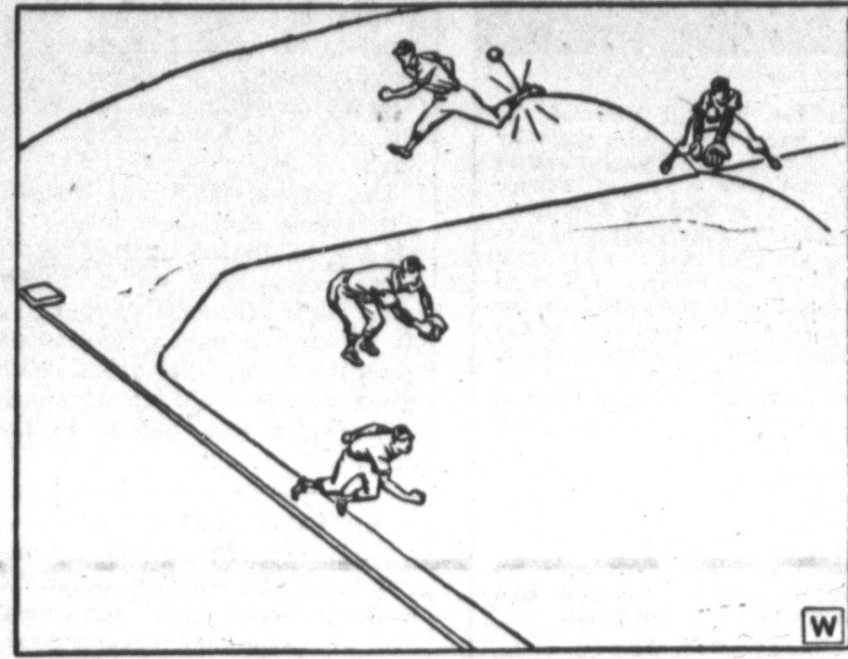

The "Seablue" Paddock pool is said to be one of the finest small pools in this part of the state. It is the first pool ever built, so far as is known, with water in the children's wading pool purified along with the main pool.

Every six hours, all the water in both pools passes through the filters and chlorinating tanks. Underwater lights add to the beauty and safety of the pool at night.

Major League Stars "How to Watch Baseball"

Baseball puzzler: The rule says a runner hit by a batted ball is out. This runner was hit, but not called out. Why? (See below.)

If you would like to become a baseball expert in 16 easy lessons, you can do it with the help of a new illustrated booklet, just published, written by twelve famous major leaguers.

Entitled "How to Watch Baseball" the book is intended mainly for spectators, but it also contains plenty of tips on playing the game, as well as American League and National League schedules for 1953. It is available free at Phillips 66 Stations in this vicinity.

Each of these major leaguers has contributed one or more chapters to the book. You'll learn from Robin Roberts, star pitcher of the Philadelphia Phillies, that there is "no better pitch" in baseball than a live, fast ball, "provided the pitcher can keep it where he wants it." Ralph Kiner of the Pirates discusses the secrets of power hitting, while Yankee Phil Rizzuto tells how a properly executed bunt may win a ball game quite as effectively as a home run. Other players who contribute good advice are Mickey Mantle, Stan Musial, George Kell, Red Schoendienst, Roy Campanella, Whitey Lockman and Bob Lemon.

The problems of a baseball manager are discussed in a chapter entitled "Masterminding," by Paul Richards, manager of Chicago's White Sox. Finally, Bill Stewart, Dean of National League Umpires contributes a chapter on the umpire's point of view. A glossary of common baseball expressions is included as well as two pages of "baseball puzzlers" to enable you to test your knowledge of the game.

Answer to Baseball Puzzler
Runner is out when hit by batted ball only if he is hit before infielder has chance to make play. In this case, shortstop missed chance to field ball before it hit runner, so runner is safe.

Making Repairs At Legion Hall

Post Commander L. T. Strech and members "Slick" Clem and Bobby Carroll have been doing a lot of cleaning up and repairing on the American Legion hall the past week.

The hall has been cleaned up, drapes cleaned free by Granvel Ayer, minor repairs made, and the lawn cleaned and leveled. Tables will also be repaired, and possibly the interior of the hall will be given a new coat of paint.

Mrs. Joe VanDyke returned home last week from McAllen, where she spent twelve days visiting her son, Jim, and family. Her grandson, Joe Alvin, returned home with her to spend the rest of the summer. Mrs. VanDyke says it certainly is dry in the Valley also. Most of the cotton is little "bumblebee" stuff, and most of the feed burned up. The Rio Grande was dry as a bone.

Water Economy Irrigation Must

The conservation of water both underground and rainfall is one of the top objectives of the Lynn Soil Conservation District. Kay K. Moore, chairman, stresses the conservation of all available water and at the same time points out how important it is to keep the soil in good condition to make it possible for the moisture to be utilized by plants.

According to Moore, E. A. Thomas, a district cooperater at Grassland, is a farmer that is improving his irrigation system each year to better use the water pumped and to retain all natural rainfall. Thomas has level banded and bench leveled one hundred and sixty-six acres of land with the equipment on the farm.

This clearly shows that most of the land can be level bordered with regular farm equipment without going to excessive expense. To distribute the water to the borders Thomas has installed 9401 feet of concrete pipe to eliminate the heavy loss usually present in open ditches. Checks on water losses in open ditches have been made that showed from thirty to fifty percent loss of water—the sandier the soil, the larger the ditches, and the cutting of new ditches each watering increase the loss of water from seepage. Water losses cost money and increase the depletion of the underground water supply. The engineering assistance was given Thomas by the Soil Conservation Service.

Moore points out that each irrigated farmer should check the efficiency of his system with the idea in mind of making each gallon pumped go toward producing more crops. The Soil Conservation Districts with the assistance of the Soil Conservation Service technicians can give help to farmers in checking the operating efficiency and make recommended changes. A ten per cent more efficient system might mean the difference in success and failure.

TAHOKA, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1953

So the People May Know

Texas counties are required by state law to make contracts, at least once every two years, for their printing supplies.

This provision, like others of the state publication laws, is designed to keep the business of governmental units on an open and above board basis and insure that the people get value received for tax money spent.

Here is the law relating to printing supplies:

"Art. 2359. Commissioners Court—advertising for bids for supplies needed for the county.

"The commissioners court shall advertise, at least once in every two years, for sealed proposals to furnish blank books, legal blanks, stationery and such other printing as may be required for the county for the term of such contract, and shall receive separate bids for the different classes hereafter designated. Such advertisement shall be made by the county clerk, who shall notify by registered letter, each newspaper and job printing house in the county, and at least three stationery and printing house in the state, of the time said contract is to be awarded, and of the probable amount of supplies needed."

Lonnie D. Moore In German School

MURNAU, Germany.—Sergeant First Class Lonnie D. Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie D. Moore, Tahoka, recently graduated from the bridge construction course of the Army Engineer School at Murna, Germany.

His wife, Marie, is with him in Germany.

Students become members of a construction team at the school and learn to build fixed bridges and other heavy timber structures. The school is operated by the U. S. Army, Europe (USAREUR) Engineer Division.

Donald Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Williams, recently underwent a mastoid operation in a Lubbock hospital. He returned home late last week, and is now able to be up again.

Moss Talks On Bible Revision

Joe Moss, Post attorney, was the speaker at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday of last week, discussing the new Revised Version of the Bible.

Mr. Moss, something of an authority on the Spanish language, compared his literal translation of the Twenty-Third Psalm and the Lord's Prayer from the Spanish Bible, which has not been revised since 1602, with the King James version.

He did this to show that the meaning is the same in these two Bibles, but also to show the different meaning words can have and the impossibility, sometimes, of catching the entire meaning of a word in translating from one language to another.

He hinted that revisions of the Bible are necessary to ease understanding as languages change and as more is learned about the intended meaning of the Bible as it was originally written. He said many people are "quibbling over words" when they should be giving more thought to the overall meanings.

The program was arranged by Ross-Smith.

Mr. Moss was accompanied by Mayor T. L. Jones of Post, who came over to take a look at Tahoka's new swimming pool.

The Rotary Club voted to assist the Legion in repairing the table for the Legion Hall.

Answer to Question No. 1:
Those who suffer from the discomforts of motion sickness when traveling by boat, airplane, train can now often be greatly relieved. Sudden dizziness, headache and nausea (the characteristics of motion sickness) can be greatly reduced by drugs to allow for a smooth journey. These drugs should be used only on the advice of your physician.

Answer to Question No. 2:
If good posture is encouraged in children, they may be spared many aches and pains in later years. Not only is a person's general appearance greatly improved, with shoulders back, head up, and abdomen in, but there is no unnatural strain on muscles and joints throughout the body. Good posture at all times—in both standing and sitting positions—lessens fatigue and discomfort.

Answer to Question No. 3:
Silicosis is a disease of the lungs due to excessive inhaling of stone dust. It occurs most often in miners or stonecutters. The symptoms are like those of chronic bronchitis. Silicosis can also cause growths in the lungs and can become dangerous. Industrial medicine is lessening the incidence.

What is the most valuable thing General Electric ever built?

Is it the jet engine? In 1942, General Electric gave America's air arm its first jet muscles. Would you say that is our most valuable product?

Or would you elect the fluorescent lamp? We placed the first ones on sale in 1938. With the growth of fluorescent lighting Americans are using 3½ times more light than even 10 years ago.

Maybe you would say our star performer is the steam turbine. All you do is flip a switch, and a turbine somewhere instantly responds to provide the power to pump for you, or push or lift.

How about x-ray? Your doctor holds a negative up to the light and peers at bones he says are really yours. Who can say how many lives the x-ray tube has saved?

Important as these products are, more valuable to us—and to you—is something these products have helped to build. Something born quietly in 1878, when electricity was still a curious toy. And something that has grown steadily through the years.

The most valuable thing we ever built is your good will. For your year-after-year confidence in the things we make has given us the means to serve you better. Better engineering, research, manufacturing—all have come from your belief in us. It returns to you in a constantly improving and expanding way of life.

There's only one answer...
Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

Fleet operators, farmers, independent truckers—truck users everywhere—buy more Chevrolets than any other make. There can be only one reason for that: Chevrolet trucks offer more of what you want.

As the official registration figures keep rolling in, they keep telling the same positive story about truck popularity and truck value: Again in 1953, for the twelfth straight production year, truck buyers show a clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks. If you're a truck user, this fact is mighty important to you. Why? Well, as you know, trucks are built and bought for just one reason—to do a job. So isn't it logical that since Chevrolet trucks outsell all others, they must do a better job at lower cost? That's why it will pay you to stop in and see us before you buy your next truck.

SNIDER OPTIMISTIC

A. W. Snider, who farms four miles north of Newmoore, was on Monday to pay his subscription, and stated there is quite a bit of oil interest just west of him in Terry county. A good well has been brought in seven miles west of Newmoore, an offset is drilling, a new wildcat is starting about three miles north and a little over three west of Newmoore school building, and some other tests will possibly be put down. Naturally, a lot of people in that area are hoping the field may finally extend east to Newmoore.

Things are looking pretty bad for this farming country, but Mr. Snider is still able to smile. He's been here too long to lose faith in old Lynn county, and thinks most of the farmers will manage to get by some way until brighter times come. He is still looking for a good feed-crop rain.

Mr and Mrs. A. C. Weaver returned home Monday from a week's visit with their son, Bob, wife and baby at Aztec, New Mexico. Bobby is employed there by the El Paso Natural Gas company.

Production and marketing of agricultural products are closely related and both must be given consideration by producers. A close study of market trends over a period of years and using the market news services which are available should prove helpful to producers in their selling operations.

Market information on the east Texas tomatoes crop may be obtained from the USDA's Production and Marketing Administration, Dallas. Write their market news office Room 553 Terminal Annex, Dallas.

Danger lurks in the swimming pool whether it be a farm tank, river, creek or a regular pool. Carelessness in and around water is the chief cause of deaths from drowning. Be careful don't become a statistic.

Expect 65,000 at Birthday Party

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—On June 28, Methodist churches around the world will observe the 250th anniversary of the birth of John Wesley. Largest American observance will be in Philadelphia where 10,000 official delegates from all parts of the United States will stage a three day convocation.

The climatic-service-of-the-convocation is to be held in Franklin Field where approximately 60,000 additional people from the Philadelphia area will join in a dramatic service in the football stadium. Speakers will include Methodist leaders from all parts of the world. It is planned that this meeting will initiate a great evangelistic program for all Methodist churches. Dr. Joseph Edge reports that every mail brings additional registrations of delegates to his evangelism office in Nashville, Tenn.

Ensign Kenneth Weaver, a reservist in the Navy now living in Abilene, expects to be called up for active duty in the near future. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Weaver.

Couple Observes Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. (Happy) Smith were honored with a buffet supper, Friday night, June 13, in the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Geno Jones, in celebration of their silver wedding anniversary. The Smiths were married in 1928 by a Reverend Breedlove in the parsonage of the First Methodist Church in Tahoka. Both are members of pioneer Lynn county families, Mrs. Smith being the former Joyce Ketner. Their two daughters other than Mrs. Jones, are Patsy, a 1953 graduate of Tahoka High School, and Carol Sue, a high school student.

"Hap," as Mr. Smith is called in Tahoka, has been postmaster for the past 18 years and was recognized as the "Good, Good Neighbor" for the day over radio's Hollywood Breakfast Club in 1950.

Attending the dinner were the following: Mrs. A. L. Lockwood; Douglas Finley; Mr. and Mrs. Hall Robinson; Mr. and Mrs. John Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Buel Draper; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Jones of O'Donnell; Mr. and Mrs. Coughran Ketner of Seminole; Mrs. Perle Price; and J. E. Ketner, father of Mrs. Smith. Miss Patsy Smith assisted in entertaining.

Miss Mary Draper Will Marry Soon

Mrs. Howard Draper entertained in her home on June 16 with an informal tea—announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Mary, to Mr. Pat W. Brecheen of Hollis Oklahoma.

The vows will be solemnized in the home of the bride's parents on Friday, July 3 at 10:00 a. m.

Pay more? What for?

Fifty Years Forward on the American Road

You don't have to pay costly-car prices for costly-car comforts. Ford brings you everything [and we mean everything] you've ever wanted in a car, at a price that's well within your reach! And according to recent surveys, a Ford returns more of its original cost when sold than any other car at any price!

Here are a few of the "Worth More" advantages you'll find in the '53 Ford:

- 1. V-8 engine—powerful and smooth! Ford's famous high-compression V-8 is a leader in quiet, flexible, economical performance. Ford, remember, has built more V-8's than all other makers combined—over 13 million!
- 2. America's most economical Six engine! If it's a Six you want, Ford offers you the high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker . . . the engine which, with optional Overdrive, won over all other cars, regardless of size or weight, in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run! And it's yours for the same kind of money that buys less modern sixes in other cars.
- 3. America's finest and most versatile automatic drive! Fordomatic Drive is the "automatic" which gives you both the get-up-and-go of automatic gears and the smoothness of a fluid torque converter. If you choose Fordomatic, you will find that it makes all your driving easier . . . more relaxing.
- 4. Automatic gas savings! Ford's Automatic Power Pilot (on Six and V-8) meters just the right amount of gas, times ignition precisely, burns fuel evenly and completely. You get full high-compression performance from every drop of gas—regular or premium.
- 5. America's newest and finest power steering! Ford's Master-Guide power steering gives you new ease, stability and safety in guiding your car on smooth roads or rough. Your car gains in sure-footed roadability and you expend up to 75% less effort in driving—and parking.

which gives you both the get-up-and-go of automatic gears and the smoothness of a fluid torque converter. If you choose Fordomatic, you will find that it makes all your driving easier . . . more relaxing.

6. Largest choice of models in the low-price field!

Ford alone gives you a choice of 18 different models . . . a SIX or V-8 . . . Fordomatic, Conventional or Overdrive . . . the widest variety of body, color and upholstery combinations. You can practically "design" your own Ford!

7. A body that's the style-setter!

Only Ford in its field gives you the advantages of a hull-tight Crestmark Body . . . the trend-maker in design and beauty. Ford's body is the longest and Ford's trunk, the largest. You enjoy more usable space.

8. New driving conveniences!

Ford's first in its field with such "Worth More" features as easier-acting, suspended pedals that eliminate floor holes . . . foam rubber cushions on front and rear seats in all models . . . and convenient Center-Fill Fueling.

9. An automatically controlled ride!

When you Test Drive this Ford, notice how the wide front tread (widest in the low-price field) takes tilt out of turns . . . gives you a more level ride. With new "balanced suspension," new spring and shock absorber action and new rubber compression bumpers, road shock in the front end alone is reduced up to 80%.

10. It's worth more when you sell it!

An impartial survey of used car prices proved that Fords return a greater proportion of their original cost than any other cars in America. It's another fact to add to Ford's reputation as the "Worth More" car. But don't take our word for it. Stop in and Test Drive this Ford for yourself. We predict you'll be sold before you're in second! It was true last year and it's even truer this year: you can pay more, but you can't buy better than Ford.

Bag Worms Do Tree Damage

COLLEGE STATION. —Bag worms excel in the art of camouflage. Usually confined to arborvitae, Italian cypress and similar cedar-like plants, this year bag worms are attacking broad leaf plants such as althea, elm, rose, oaks and many others.

Sadie Hatfield, homestead improvement specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service says now is the time to begin your campaign to destroy the bag worms. When first hatched, the bag worms are so little and well covered, it is difficult to see them. They spin a cone-shaped, waterproof silk cover and conceal the cone with bits of bark and green leaves. As they grow, the bag worms add to this tent like home, only sticking their heads out long enough to feed on the tender tips of plants. The cone-shaped cover grows with the bag worm and may be as large as three or four inches by August.

The specialist says the bag worms should be killed now before they reach a mature stage. A lead arsenate spray, applied once a week, will kill them before the bag worm destroys or seriously damages a plant. To make the spray solution, mix three tablespoonsful of lead arsenate in a gallon of water. If it rains, spray more often because rain washes the poison off the plant. Usually two sprayings are enough. These pests die slowly, often taking more than ten days. When dead their well-built protection will cling to limbs for months and even years.

It is a tedious job to pull the bag worms off by hand when they are full grown. Spraying the plant with lead arsenate during June and July while the insects are young will keep them from injuring the plants seriously. Old ones may escape to produce eggs for next year's pest crop.

President Benjamin Harrison was preceded and succeeded in office by the same man. He served between Cleveland's two terms.
