Slaton Tigers Are Bulldog Opponents

Tahoka Bulldogs and Slaton Tigers meet here tonight at 8 o'clock in a District 5AA conference game that will determine whether or not the local team remains in the running for the title. Tahoka and Spur are tied for the lead, each team having won two games.

Tahoka meets the Floydada Whirlwinds here next Friday night.

With mist falling Thursday, prospects were that the game may be played on a soggy field, a condition which could hamper the Tigers more than the Bulldogs.

Slaton runs from the TCU spread, which features passing, quick break-aways, and tricky plays, all of which a muddy field would hamper.

However, Tahoka also depends a lot on its broken-field runners, and Tahoka may also be hampered, as it was in the Post game.

Slaton's attack features Jerry Reynolds, a little boy, who can handle the ball well, pass, and run; Joe Sparkman, a hard and fast runner; and several ends and backs who can catch and carry the ball.

Tahoka must be given the favorite role in this game by reason of six victories in seven starts.

Slaton has won four and lost four games. The Tigers lost their opener to Coahoma 13 to 19. Then Slaton began to roll, defeating Seagraves 40 to 6, Ralls 45 to 6, O'Donnell 53 to 8, and Amberst 46 to 0.

Opening its conference season, Slaton lost a heart-breaker to Floydada 18 to 19 although outplaying the Whirlwinds. Powerful Spur caught Slaton in the mud and won 25 to 13. Then, last Friday, Slaton folded up under the up coming Post Antelopes and lost 20 to 40.

The Tigers are out to even defeat of the past four years in succession, however, and may upset the Bulldogs tonight.

Unique Church Services Sunday

It never happened this way before. The pastors of the First Baptist and First Methodist Churches are asking all those who attended services at these churches to cooperate in two unusual services next Sunday. They are asking all adults above 23 years of age to attend the preaching services Sunday morning at the Methodist Church, and all young people 23 years of age and under to attend the preaching services at the Baptist Church.

For Sunday evening they are asking the adults to worship at the Baptist Church and the young people at the Methodist Church.

Attend Sunday School at your regular place. Remember, young people, attend preaching services at the Baptist Church and adults at the Methodist Sunday morning; young people at the Methodist and adults at the Baptist Church Sunday evening.

Both services will be at 8 o'clock Sunday evening. Both pastors are urging everyone to attend these services, and also to urge their friends to attend.

Rev. Lee Ramsour, Baptist pastor, will have as his subject Sunday morning, "Fourth Down and a Yard to Go," and "A Child For Sale" for his evening subject.

Rev. Jim Sharp's morning subject is "Showing Them the Way" and his evening subject is "A Challenge to Youth."

Mrs. Jim Burleson, who has been ill quite a long time, entered the Tahoka Hospital Thursday morning as a medical patient.

Crowd Attends Grassland Meet

Grassland PTA raised $280.00 to aid its school lunch program Thursday night of last week at the barbecue dinner and program of entertainment.

A delicious dinner of barbecue beef and all the trimmings was served, which was followed by a program in the school gymnasium at which Sam Edwards acted as master of ceremonies.

W. H. Norman's string band played throughout the evening, and Miss Pearl Craig was featured singing "hillbilly" numbers.

Joy Thomas presented a tap dance, and Jan and Judy Thomas gave a tap duet. All are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thomas. Mrs. Thomas also rendered piano numbers.

Vocal numbers were presented by a trio of girls, Misses Barbara Roberts, Mary Alice Roberts, and Lena Ann Benge.

Dixie Davis rendered a piano number, and played while her sister, Linda, sang a couple of numbers. Both are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Davis.

Among those arranging the affair were Meses. Lub Burke, W. H. Norman, R. M. Thomas, and Sam Edwards.

Nearly $100 worth of tickets were sold in Tahoka, and at least fifty Tahoka people attended the meeting. Post was also represented by a delegation.

Local People Are Almost Overcome By Gas Fumes

Three local people were almost overcome by gas fumes early Sunday morning, and the Fire Department oxygen equipment, operated by Geno Jones, and the services of Dr. Skiles Thomas were required to bring them back to normal.

They were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cunningham, 2320 Main, and a niece, Mrs. Nettie Hopkins, of Lawton, Okla., who was visiting them.

Mrs. Cunningham says they awakened at about 2 a. m. Sunday, all suffering splitting headaches and finally with sick stomachs. She did not realize the cause, but remained up and at about 6 a. m. called the doctor and Mr. Jones. They showed improvement after application of oxygen.

The gas company could find no gas leaks anywhere in the house. Mrs. Cunningham theorized that either the hotwater or refrigerator pilot light failed to light the main burner and that escaping gas caused their trouble.

Anyway, the three are thankful that the consequences were no worse.

Jaycees Paint Parking Markers

Tahoka Jaycees early this week painted new parking stripes on the down-town pavement.

Already, citizens as a whole are carefully observing the stripes, which are spaced to give a little more room for each parked car and thereby to help prevent scraped fenders.

The Jaycees join the city in soliciting the cooperation of all citizens in better parking practices.

Last Thursday night's regular members could attend the Grassland meeting was adjourned so that land PTA barbecue.

HAS HEART ATTACK

A. L. Dunagan, Tahoka Justice of the Peace, was brought to the Tahoka Hospital at 4:00 a. m. Thursday suffering from an attack of heart trouble. He had suffered a few light attacks before. His condition near noon Thursday was not believed to be critical.

Plans Underway For Christmas Programs Here

Plans for special lighting, a free program and free turkeys were made at a breakfast meeting of Tahoka Chamber of Commerce directors Tuesday morning.

Christmas lights will go up in the down-town area the first of December.

A program including a band concert of Christmas music and other entertaining numbers is being planned for Saturday evening or night, Dec. 5. Otis Spears, Alton Cain, and Ross Smith are in charge of the program.

For the three Saturday afternoons in December preceding Christmas Eve, three turkeys (a total of twelve) will be given away. In this year's turkey event, visitors to down-town Tahoka will register for the birds in places of business which are members of the C. of C.

Prizes will be given again this year for the best decorated homes and business institutions.

Tahoka Jaycees, according to President Geno Jones, are also planning a Mysery Shopper contest in which clues to some shopper will be published in The News and other shoppers will attempt to spot the mysterious person in Tahoka stores.

George Parker Has Two Operations In Dallas Hospital

George Parker, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Parker of Wilson, route 1, has recently undergone two serious operations for abscesses near the brain at Baylor Hospital in Dallas.

He had the first operation, over the left eye, on Oct. 14, and the second, on the back of his head, on Oct. 28, according to Miss Rose Marie Yandell, a niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker are at his bedside in Dallas, and his sister, Mrs. D. F. Yandell, is also there. They write that he is doing fine, but some more work will likely have to be done on him.

George was working at Hereford at the time he became ill from serious sinus trouble. He was brought to a Lubbock hospital, and was sent from there to a specialist in Dallas. He is a 1953 graduate of Wilson High School.

Baptist Men Will Meet At Wellman

Brownfield Baptist Association Brotherhood will meet at Wellman next Tuesday evening, with the dinner at 6:30 and the program a 7:30 in the school cafeteria.

Elmer East, Lubbock banker, will be the principal speaker, according to Durwood Howard of Tahoka, program chairman.

A large group of men from Tahoka is expected to attend.

W. G. Clarke Is Taken By Death

W. G. (Bill) Clarke, 60, former manager of the Southwestern Public Service company here, died shortly after 1 p. m. Saturday at his home at 4301-B 36th street, Lubbock, following a two years' illness.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p. m. in St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Lubbock, with Rev. Claude E. Canterbury, rector, officiating. Burial followed in Tech Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Clarke came to Tahoka from Santa Rosa, N. M., about four years ago as manager of the utilities company when W. S. Anglin was transferred to Lubbock. He was active in Tahoka Rotary Club and other civic affairs until a stroke and ill health forced his retirement two and a half years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Clarke moved to Lubbock at that time.

The couple had no children. The local office was closed Monday, and Manager John Reasonover and other local employees attended the funeral services.

Pat Patterson, Tom Gill and Al Lehman were pallbearers.

Aged Couple Die From Burns Received In Sunday Explosion

J. F. Millman, 91, Pioneer, Is Dead

J. F. Millman, 91, a resident of Tahoka since the town and county were established, died at 9:30 p. m. Saturday at his home at 1321 S. 2nd street here.

Though he had been confined to his home for many months by feebleness, he had not been ill until about noon Saturday, according to his wife. He remained conscious until the last moment, when life suddenly left him.

Funeral services were held at 4 p. m. Monday in the First Methodist Church with Rev. H. A. Nichols of Anson, a former pastor here, and Rev. J. H. Sharp, present pastor, officiating. Burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of Stanley Jones Funeral Home.

Mr. Millman was a charter member of the Tahoka Methodist Church. He was converted and joined the church at Merkel in about 1886, or 67 years ago.

Jasper Franklin Millman was born at Lawrenceville, Illinois, February 17, 1862. He came to Sweetwater, Texas, at the age of 21, just about the time the T & P railway arrived in that town, and worked for several years as a cowboy and engaged in ranching.

He was married to Miss Beulah Wilkison at Abilene on January 16, 1898. The couple moved to Tahoka in May, 1903, just about a month after the town had been officially established. For several years, he freighted by team from Colorado City, Big Spring and Gail. Later he worked for A. J. Edwards. He retired 15 or 20 years ago. Mr. Millman was an honest hard-working man, and remained devoted to his church throughout his life here.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Odean and Geo. O., both of Lubbock, and J. F. (Buster) Jr. of Salinas, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Taylor of Abilene and Mrs. Oneita Bass of Salinas, Calif.; seven grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

An explosion early Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller, aged 83 and 81, respectively, resulted in death from burns of Mrs. Miller at 1:30 p. m. Monday and of Mr. Miller at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday in Tahoka Hospital.

Mist Thursday Is .10 Of Inch

Mist which began falling Wednesday and continued through the night and Thursday morning, amounted to .10 of an inch in Tahoka at noon Thursday.

The additional moisture is a help in driving into the ground further water from the rains which fell two weeks ago, deepening the season and improving prospects for a crop next year.

About 14,000 bales of cotton have been ginned in Lynn county to date, all from irrigated cotton. Estimates of the year's crop have run from 25,000 to 40,000 bales.

County Pioneer Dies In Abilene

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Baldrige, 82, a pioneer resident of Lynn county, died at noon Wednesday in an Abilene hospital where she had been a patient since October 13.

Mrs. Baldrige and her late husband, H. E. Baldrige, who also died in Abilene, their home for 10 years, on April 24, came to this county before Lynn county was organized. He was one of the first county commissioners, and was one of the organizers of the O'Donnell townsite company. The family left here in the 1920s and lived at Clovis for some time.

She was born January 28, 1871, at Jefferson, and was married on October 24, 1888 at Buffalo Gap, Taylor county.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday in Elliott's Chapel of Memories in Abilene with Paul Witt, Church of Christ minister, officiating. Burial was in Elmwood Memorial Park.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Ben Moore of O'Donnell, Mrs. Carl Taylor of Clovis, N. M., and Mrs. H. D. Terry of Abilene; two sons, T. E. Baldrige of Clovis and H. E. Jr. of Rogers, Ark.; 14 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren; a brother, C. A. Peterson of Shreveport, La., and a sister, Mrs. Emma Morrow of Jefferson.

Congratulations:

Mr. and Mrs. James (Sonny) Roberts on the birth of a son weighing 7 pounds 10 ounces, at 6 a. m. on October 29, in the Tahoka Hospital. The young fellow will bear the name of Ladd Wells Roberts. Grandparents are Mrs. Beulah Applewhite and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roberts.

Al/c Donald G. Akin and wife on the birth of a daughter weighing 7 pounds 6 ounces Monday afternoon in Riverside, Calif. She has been named Teresa Ann. The mother, the former Miss Wanda Short, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Short of Tahoka. The father is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Akin of Petersburg, formerly of Tahoka. He is in the Air Force stationed at March Field.

An entry in the Tahoka Hospital Thursday morning as a medical patient was Bill Snow of Post. Mr. Snow is an employee of the State Highway Department at Post.

Sweet Street, the O'Donnell Highway, were held Thursday at 2:00 p. m. in the First Methodist Church, with the pastor, Rev. J. H. Sharp, officiating, assisted by Rev. Lee Ramsour, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. Gene Moore, pastor of the Nazarene Church.

Burial followed in Tahoka Cemetery under direction of Stanley Jones Funeral Home.

The fatal explosion occurred at about 6 a. m. Sunday in the couple's two-room home near the A. G. Freeman Grocery. Mrs. Miller is believed to have gotten up to light a heater, and it is presumed that the first match she struck blew out without the heater being lighted and the explosion occurred when she lit a second match.

Mrs. Miller received third degree burns over her entire body. Mr. Miller had burns on the head, face, arm and hands, and parts of his legs. They were rushed to Tahoka Hospital where everything possible was done to save their lives. That Mrs. Miller could not live was apparent from the outset, but Mr. Miller, not so badly burned, lived until Wednesday.

The explosion blew out two windows of the house and set fire to the wall calendars, pictures, etc., but Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Whiteley, who live nearby and who were first on the scene grabbed a garden hose and extinguished the fire.

Mrs. Minnie Conwill, who also lives nearby, summoned the fire department after giving assistance to Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

She said she was awakened by screams, dressed quickly, and ran to the Millers, whom she saw in their front yard, their clothing on fire, calling for help. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman also arrived about this time. Mrs. Conwill threw her robe around Mrs. Miller to muffle the flames, and the three tore most of the remaining unburned clothing from the couple.

Though the couple had lived here just about ten years, they had made many friends, and the tragedy was a great shock to the community.

Mrs. Miller was born Mary Josephine Furr on November 28, 1871 in Mississippi. Mr. Miller was born at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, August 2, 1870. They were married in Arkansas on July 14, 1890. They came to Tahoka from Childress in 1943. He was a retired farmer.

The couple leave ten children, four of whom are well known Lynn county citizens, 38 grandchildren, 58 great grandchildren, and one great great grandchild—107 direct descendants.

The six daughters are: Mrs. A. A. Philpot, Cherry Hill Ark.; Mrs. Louella Egger, Mena, Ark.; Mrs. J. H. Bresley, Hobbs, N. M.; Mrs. J. R. Lambert, Tahoka; Mrs. B. H. Duke, Mesa, Ariz.; and Mrs. W. D. Edwards, Artesia, N. M.

The four sons are: Carl Miller of Childress, Sam B. Roy, and Lester Miller, all of Tahoka.

George Nixon Is Given Release

George Nixon, auditor and assistant city secretary for the past two years, was released from his duties, effective December 1, at a meeting of Tahoka City Council Monday night.

Members of the Council told The News that the action was taken largely as an economy measure. A clerk to assist City Secretary Tom Bartley will be hired at a lower salary.

George Sand said, "When tempted, yield at once, and save yourself the struggle."

All boys between the ages of 14 and 18 are extended an invitation to join the Scouts, according to Mr. Larson.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

Many in Washington feel unless tariffs are boosted immediately, a depression can strike the nation with cyclone speed.

Cited as example is fact in five years U. S. metal mines employment has dropped 35%, still plummeting.

Hard hit are nations' lead and zinc operators protected from foreign imports by a tariff of less than cent per pound. Mines are closing as low priced foreign metal floods market.

Naturally interest lacks in finding new domestic ore reserves despite belief mineral resources are still largely unknown.

Paradoxically the government encouraged flood of cheap foreign metal with purposeful plan. At Korea outbreak to obtain more zinc and lead, government gave foreign producers long term contracts. In addition, foreign nations owning metal producing colonies in North Africa received millions through Marshall Plan to develop mineral resources.

Situation poses problem at base of forthcoming debate.

The hard core of the "free trade" group, those with foreign holdings, aided by mushy-minded sentimentalists, plus those espousing world socialism, raise cry that to sell abroad America must take foreign goods on free basis. And thereby is the crux.

As any retailer knows, people cannot buy, unless they have means with which to buy. Zinc and lead pouring into nation is being mined with labor paid from 85 cents to $2 per day.

Thus into the rosy dreams

of a socialistic world by the impractical plus rapacious desires of those with foreign-holdings who wish to flood U. S. market to knock out competitor, could be injected a realistic appraisal.

A bank, or finance company, will accept a contract from employed American miners to buy homes, cars, appliances, other goods that in turn produce employment. But there is an understandable reluctance to accept a contract from an unemployed American miner. And now comes the $64 question. Who will accept contracts from African miners making 85 cents per day to buy U. S. products that unemployed Americans cannot buy.

Factiously, it has been suggested that before free trade John L. Lewis should be shared with the world.

Seriously some assert U. S. wages are too high, foreign competition would be readjusting force.

There is need for readjustment.

But majority view is that the readjustment has to start from way back of home plate. Employed Americans must not only be able to consume U. S. farm & industrial production but must also bear huge tax burden, much of it caused by foreign aid and relief appropriations.

The saying on this point is "you may pluck a goose, even skin him a little, but when you start digging into the meat you're going to have a dead bird".

Thus many see behind drive to destroy U. S. tariff protection emergence of same old unholy trio; domestic business interests with world wide cartel understandings aided by world socialists and by mushy-headed sentimentalists.

Care of Herd In Winter Weather

College Station, Oct.—with the first blue norther only a short time away, the production of many Texas dairy herds may be vitally effected by the amount of feed put into storage before "Jack Frost" makes his official appearance.

In citing management practices that may mean success or failure for some milk producers, R. E. Burleson, extension dairy husbandman, urges dairymen to lay in an adequate roughage supply. Two tons of good quality hay or one ton of hay and three tons of silage should be in storage for each cow in the herd, Burleson says.

Take steps to conserve feed. A little time devoted to repairing mangers, hay racks and feed troughs will save feed stuffs that most likely will be welcomed before spring. Even the best hay, the specialist points out, loses its attractiveness to dairy cows after being trampled and kicked around in the sand, dirt and mud. Palatability can be maintained and waste losses prevented by using a good hay rack.

And finally, horns have no place in dairy herds, regardless of the season. Not only can dairy animals be handled easier, but dehorned cows can be housed and fed in less space. Burleson adds:

CATCHES THE FISH

Roy Taylor, who operates a fishing camp on Lake Kemp, near Seymour, recently sent C. A. Tankersley and other local relatives a picture of a lot of fish he and two other men recently caught at the lake.

In the picture were 15 channel cat and 15 bass, some of which appeared to weigh up close to seven pounds. The lake has been filling up from recent rains.

GMC HYDRA-MATIC TRUCKS
For a real bargain—get a real truck!
SURE, you can save a few dollars now on a truck price-tagged slightly less than a GMC. But if you want a bargain that will still be a bargain after years of hard truck-work, ask these questions before you buy:
Does the truck give you a GMC's 105 H.P.P That's up to 19% more power than comparable sixes. It hustles a GMC's top loads up tough pulls—without engine strain.
Does it have a GMC's 8.0 to 1 super-high-compression? That gives you quicker getaways—more drive—better mileage. All on regular gas.
Does it offer a GMC's engine-sparing Truck Hydra-Matic? With it, you say good-bye to gearshift wrestling. No more clutch repairs. Maintenance costs shrink.
Does it have the extra protection of a GMC's self-energizing brakes? The extra comfort of a GMC's "Six-Footer" cab? The handling ease of a GMC's ball-bearing steering action?
If all the answers are "yes," you have a real bargain—a GMC. And there are 19 handsome ½- to 1-ton models to choose from. How can you lose?
*Standard equipment on Package Delivery chassis; optional at moderate extra cost on all others.

New Home Civic Club Enjoys Magic Program; Accomplishments Told

New Home Civic Club met Monday night in the high school cafeteria and the gymnasium, with the Senior Class serving a steak supper to 49 members and guests.

The main event on the program for the evening featured two Lamesa magicians; C. V. Ball, Lamesa Olover implement dealer, who was followed by P. G. Vanderlinden, District Court Reporter for 106 district. Both performers kept the group guessing for over an hour with their magic. They were assisted by Mr. Vanderlinden's daughter. This part of the program was presented through the courtesy of the John Wheeler Oliver Company of Lubbock. The following morning J. W. Edwards was seen in the cafe still trying to master the rope trick.

A brief talk was made by Wilmer Smith who recently returned from a trip to California, where he studied Marketing Association for the benefit of those who would like to sell cotton direct to the spinners. California growers have reported a 3 to 15 percent increase in income in their cotton sold through such an organization.

Some of the outstanding things done by the Civic Club since its organization have been: Sponsoring the local F. F. A. Livestock Show each year; paid for an eye operation and glasses for child; football and softball lights; sodding the football field; glasses for

School Leaders Meet In Tahoka

County school superintendents representing a 43 county area of West Texas met here Thursday of last week for study of a proposed state plan for accreditation of public schools. Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell was host for the gathering.

Paul Krantz and Rogers Barton, representing the Texas Education Agency explained the proposals and asked the representatives to present them to their home counties for further study and recommendation by schoolmen.

Roy Boyd, Lubbock County superintendent, opened the day-long session with a discussion of the county superintendents' study of their own place in the Texas educational setup.

Kantz then explained the accreditation proposals and Barton presented an evaluative criteria for appraising county-level services within the school system.

The TEA representative said that the state agency wants to give local school districts as much leeway as possible in adapting its curriculum program to local conditions. Also by getting ideas from throughout the state, the local districts can have a hand in setting up the standards for accreditation which will become effective next September.

The proposed plan covers such areas as organization, instructional program, and the place of the local community in school affairs.

Twelve standards, each with its own field of application, are proposed for the new accreditation plan.

The group had an all day meeting here, taking dinner at the local school cafeteria.

FOREIGN TRADE IS ESSENTIAL TO PEACE AND PROSPERITY

Farm Bureau is for international cooperation on a sound basis of two-way trade. Farmers must have customers to sell agricultural products, both here and abroad. The production from one out of every ten acres found outside of the United States in 1951. But this market is shrinking. If this market is lost permanently, net farm income will be lowered. Farm Bureau is asking Congress to set up a bi-partisan commission to help solve foreign export problems. Already a number of Farm Bureau recommendations related to foreign trade have been approved by Congress.

FHA Observes National Week

The Tahoka Future Homemakers of America have this week been observing National F. H. A. week with various activities on the agenda.

On Monday the girls observed tag day by buying a tag indicating the National F. H. A. week.

One hundred and twenty boys and girls attended a weiner roast held Tuesday night at the First Baptist Church. Attendants were from the local F. H. A. and F. F. A. chapters.

The group had planned to plant roses Wednesday at the new home economics cottage, but construction of the cottage is still underway so the activity has been temporarily delayed.

An all school tea was held on Thursday with punch and doughnuts being served students and faculty through the day.

Friday was designated good deed day and each member will include the home, school, and community in this project.

The F. H. A. has a display in the window of a local drugstore depicting the seven phases in homemaking. These phases include food, clothing, child care, home and home furnishings, consumer buying, care of the sick and first aid, and family and community relations.

The group recently presented an assembly program in the high school auditorium in the form of television program "This Man's Family" and "Twenty Questions." JoAnn Fenton was mistress of ceremonies.

The local F. H. A. has unit meetings once each month and general meeting once each month, according to Mrs. Pete Hegl, sponsor.

Pythian Sisters In Special Program

Annual roll call and the Re-organization Service were observed Monday night at the meeting of the Lynn Temple Pythian Sisters.

Thirty-eight members attended the meeting when plans were made for projects and meetings in the future.

The ways and means committee have brought a doll and the members will make a wardrobe of clothing for it after which the temple will sell chances for the doll. It will be given away sometime before Christmas, according to Mrs. Darlene Gurley, reporter. The proceeds will go to the temple treasury.

Nov. 17 has been designated as set-up night at which time each officer will go to a higher station and acquaint herself with her duties for the coming year. A Thanksgiving program is also being planned for the meeting.

At the Monday night meeting the fifty monthly letter and second official letter from Grand Chef Margaret Wofford was read. The group also read the letter from Sally Turnbow, district deputy, of Lamesa, who requested that three officers from the Tahoka temple participate in the district meeting to be held Dec. 5, in Lamesa.

The group voted to send a donation of $5.00 to the Pythian Home for children in Weatherford for Thanksgiving and Christmas parties.

Hostesses at the meeting were Mrs. Verle Carter, Ann Pennington, Peura Gattis, Dixie Payne, Peggy Huey, and Darlene Gurley.

Tahoka Bulldogs Score 14-7 Victory At Abernathy

Tahoka Bulldogs played one of the finest games ever last Friday night at Abernathy to defeat the Antelopes 14 to 7 in a district 5-AA conference game.

Methodically, they turned on the steam to grind out two touchdowns for a 14 point lead in the first half. Although they gave up one score in the second half, Tahoka's boys put up one of the finest defensive battles ever staged by any Tahoka team.

Previously this season, the Bulldogs had shown an inclination to let down or relax at times, especially on defense, but Friday night they showed the fans they could hold.

Seven times in the ball game, Abernathy threatened to score, twice in the first half and five times in the second. Four of these times, Abernathy got inside Tahoka's 20, but each time the Bulldogs rose to great heights to stop the enemy.

The Bulldogs held the highly rated Geronimo Ramos 155 pound Abernathy quarterback, to 58 yards running and intercepted two of his passes. He threw 13 and completed 5 for 61 yards. They also held Halfback Lawrence Barron to 38 yards and Reggie Powell to 41.

On the other hand, Fullback J. B. Ables of Tahoka personally accounted for 130 yards rushing and Quarterback Gordon Smith for 89.

Alert-defense, in fact, set the victory stage.

Abernathy received the kickoff, a short one to the 40, Barron, Fullback Roy Sons, and Ramos, with a 11-yard pass to End Bonnie Beard, carried to the Tahoka 38.

Ramos then attempted a long pass, which Tahoka linebacker Billy Tong intercepted on his 9 and brought to the 27. From here, Tahoka ground out 73 yards to score, with Halfback I. V. J. Melton plunging the last yard for the TD. J. B. Ables' place kick was good, and Tahoka led 7 to 0.

Tahoka's drive was hampered by two 5 yard penalties and one long incomplete pass to End Willie Lee, but backs Ables, Jimmy Bragg, Jerry Williams, Melton, and Quarterback Gordon Smith (one run for 16 yards) moved consistently down field.

Ramos brought the kick-off back to his 42, and in three plays and one penalty on Tahoka, one of the plays being the longest run of the night for Abernathy—a 33 yard gallop by Powell—gave Abernathy a first down on Tahoka's 19. Ramos tried to pass, but Jerry Williams intercepted on the 6 and ran back to the 20.

Tahoka was away on another 80-yard drive for a touchdown. On four first downs, Tahoka carried to the Antelopes' 8, from which point Abernathy's defense tightened, but on four downs Ables went the last foot for the TD, and then kicked the extra point. Score 14 to 0.

Abernathy couldn't go, and Tahoka seemed headed for another score, but a penalty and a fumbled fourth-down pitchout was covered by Left Tackle Joe Connell (he covered three of the four fumbles lost by Tahoka). Two passes were incomplete, and the half ended after Sons had got away on a 15-yard gallop.

The Antelopes came back all fired up in the second half to score one TD and threaten five other times. Tahoka, though remaining in the hole most of the half, refused to gamble on passes and tricky plays, and with its

Odds AND Ends

(BY E. I. TRE ELDER)

Struck a fellow Friday who reads every issue of Odds and Ends, believe it or not, and so he had already read this column for last week, and he confided to me that he studied some of the McGuffey's readers when he was a school kid, and I finally dug it out of him that he had gone through one set of readers before McGuffey's came on the market. Tried to get him to tell me the years when he was in school but had little luck. He said it was some time since 1800 A. D. I think he said his name was Davis—Dave Davis, I know it wasn't Solomon, he doesn't look like a Solomon. Any way he said he believed that that fellow who made that speech at Caesar's funeral was a pretty bright chap, that fellow Mark somebody. I told him yes, that he had that reputation, but I never met him personally. But he surely did know how to bring on the rousements. If Mark Anthony were living today and lived in Texas, I believe he could get elected governor hands down, maybe President. Then we got to talking about what funny ideas some folks have. There are folks living now, you know, some of them here in Lynn county, who do not think that anybody who lived before their day knew anything much. And, in fact, they do not think that anything that was done before their day amounted to anything much. Civilization and enlightenment really dawned when they were born. But they scorn the history and the literature and the statesmanship of the past. Folks are wasting their time when the go to reading that stuff. Yeah! The Bible is made up largely of "that stuff," folks. Many of the world's finest poems, most magnificent addresses, pathetic stories, inspiring stories, moral lessons, historical sketches, spiritual truths, gems of philosophy and wisdom, in fact the world's best literature—all these are found in the Bible—and all of it was written many centuries ago. The best that we have in this life or can ever expect to have has come down from the past. Scorn the study of the past? No.

er, who became an editor and publisher in England, describes one of the most heroic and thrilling blows for the freedom of a down-trodden nation found in any country or in any age. It was a stroke for Liberty of the Swiss made by Arnold Von Winkelreid at the battle of Sempach fought between the Swiss and the Austrians in 1383 when the Swiss patriot rushed upon the points of many Austrian spears in a narrow mountain pass in order to make a way for his countrymen to pass through. This act immortalized Winkelreid, and Montgomery wrote the thrilling descriptive poem in order that it might be emblazoned as a perpetual memorial on the pages of history.

Without glorifying war and without berating either party to the contest, an American patriot in 1867, only two years after the close of our tragic and bloody contest, F. M. Finch, wrote the most beautiful war poem we have ever read. It is entitled "The Blue and the Gray," and was inspired by an act of generosity and kindness by the women of Columbus, Mississippi, in spreading flowers on decoration day on the graves of Northern and Southern soldiers alike. To commemorate the generous act, Finch wrote this poem, almost as beautiful as the act itself. This poem too is in the McGuffey Fifth Reader. We do not have room for it here but we hope that many of our readers shall read it.

For sheer beauty, there are few poems that surpass "The Death of the Flowers" by William Cullen Bryant. In fact, I think it is one of the most tenderly beautiful poems ever written. It inspires in one such a feeling of such "sweet sorrow," to borrow an expression from Henry W. Longfellow, I believe, that one sincerely enjoys the emotion. Bryant was a native of Massachusetts. As a student he was scholarly and sentimental. He was only 19 when he wrote "Thanatopsis," which many people regard as his finest poem. But after that he studied law and practiced at the bar for nine years. Then he turned Journalist and was connected with the New York Evening Post from 1832 to his death in 1878—active up to the very time of his death at the age of 84. I like that fellow. He was an able journalist as well as poet; and although his poems are not exceedingly numerous, they are super-fine.

"The melancholy days are come, the saddest of the year, Of wailing winds and naked woods and meadows brown and sere," he starts out and then he tells of their passing one by one until you get to feeling that all your friends are being called away; and after almost a half column of such sweet melancholy, he closes with this mournful verse:
"And then I think of one who in her youthful beauty died, The fair meek blossom that grew up and faded by my side.
In the cold, moist earth we laid her, when the forest cast the leaf, And we wept that one so lovely should have a life so brief;
Yet not unmet it was that one, like that young friend of ours, So gentle and so beautiful, should perish with the flowers."

Isn't that almost perfect beauty? I think so.
And then there is that fine old anonymous sentimental poem, "Just Forty Years Ago," beginning like this:
I've wandered to the village, Tom,
I've sat beneath the tree,
Upon the schoolhouse playground
That sheltered you and me;
But none were left to greet me,
Tom,
And few were left to know

Who played with me upon the green,
Just forty years ago,"
and on and on—don't you remember it, you old white-headed kids?
And then here comes the seventh and last verse:
"Some are in the churchyard laid,
Some sleep beneath the sea;
And none are left of our old class
Excepting you and me,
And when our time shall come,
Tom,

And we are called to go,
I hope we'll meet with those we loved
Some forty years ago.

G. M. Reid Honored By Patrons For 20 Years Service to Route 4

There are no people finer than those of Route 4, Tahoka. George M. Reid, rural mail carrier for 20 years of the route, knows this to be a fact.

Last Thursday, his patrons showered him with 154 gifts in appreciation of his long service—gifts which ranged from fresh and canned vegetables, shirts and ties, to an expensive silver service to which 50 patrons along the 93-mile route serving 216 mail box patrons had contributed.

The shower was planned and arranged by patrons, and George had not suspected such a happy occasion was in store for him Thursday morning when he left Tahoka postoffice.

The first two mail boxes he stopped at had packages in them addressed to the carrier. The third box had a note attached to the package thanking George for the 20 years of service, and it was only then that it dawned on him what was taking place.

All along the route, packages were awaiting the genial "mail man", and frequently patrons were waiting to present gifts in person.

The N. B. Hancock and Graham George families insisted that he come in for lunch.

Carrier George Reid was more than two hours late returning to the postoffice Thursday evening with the rear seat of his car piled high with the gifts. Santa Claus had come nearly two months early for George.

Actually, Mr. Reid began serving Route 4 20 years ago last August 20. He came to Tahoka in 1924 to pull bolls, but quit this farm work in November of the same fall to start work as a clerk in Tahoka postoffice at $50.00 per month. In August 1933, he secured the carrier job on Route 4. During these 30 years he has served under four postmasters.

During the time, he has seen kids grow up, marry, and raise children of their own who are now waving at him on his weekday trips. Of a happy and genial disposition, he's been a friend to most of his patrons, shared their joys and sorrows, and has given a helping hand to many when possible.

Years ago, there was no paving—now 34 of the 93 miles are paved—transportation was not what it is today. He was frequently stuck in the mud and marooned in the snow. Patrons helped him get out. And he helped them in many other little ways.

"It used to be that a rural mail carrier was a sort of messenger boy for his customers," he said. "Not so much any more, but I can remember bringing plow points into town for sharpening and taking them back the next day; buying medicine or other items for a customer and taking it out on the next run; or notifying a doctor to go see a sick patient."

During depression years, Reid also acted as Santa Claus for the communities along his route. He was Santa Claus indeed for some of his needy customers.

"I remember one Christmas during the depression when I noticed two or three small children at one little old house running around in the cold weather with practically nothing on. I came back to town and bought them all some underwear and blue jeans and went back that night.

"They were already in bed when I got there, but they got up to see what I had brought them. It really did me good to see the big smiles come on these children's faces when they saw the clothing and the nuts and candy which I had for them."

"I get acquainted with all the children" he said. "One of the biggest thrills of my job is to see these youngsters waving at me and running to get the mail every day."

"I wouldn't trade this job for any in the world."

Lubbock Youth Speaks At Rotary

Glenn Rainier, 19, a junior pre-law student in Texas Tech and Lubbock's "ambassador to Holland", delivered a very delightful and entertaining talk at Tahoka Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week.

Glenn was sent to Holland for a two months stay last summer as a good-will gesture by Lubbock civic clubs. During his stay in that country, he lived with a Dutch family and traveled over the country to become acquainted with its peoples, customs, and conditions.

He was greatly impressed with the people, their thrift, life and institutions, and their thinking.

Though Holland is only one-twentieth the size of Texas, it has 10 million people. Naturally, many young people migrate to the colonies, other countries, or join the Navy for a livelihood.

Farmers wear wooden shoes because this is a wet country and leather will not keep up the water and cold. Principal export products are cheese and tulips. The people were appreciative of help through the Marshall plan, but Glenn believes that country's people no longer want such "doles" but would rather have trade with U. S. and other countries—an outlet for the fruits of their labors.

Many farmers make a comfortable living on as little as an acre and a half of land, and a 100 acre farm is a vast plantation.

Because of the land shortage, Holland is constantly building up more land by erecting dikes to enclose parts of the Zyder Zee, or the sea, then pumping the water out to reclaim the ocean bed for farming. Right now, the Dutch are in the process of reclaiming a sea area of 50 by 70 miles in diameter.

Because of their contact with many peoples, the school students must learn four languages. Because they must use ingenuity to survive, students also put in a lot of time on sciences, where the American schools spend more time teaching students to live and which a Texas statesman quoted once on the floor of the House of Representatives in the United States Congress when some cherished measure which he had supported had been defeated. Some of us have felt the same way on occasions more solemn than any session of Congress, however. It was written by an Irishman named Thomas Moore more than a hundred years ago and is entitled "The Light of Other Days:"

Oh in the stilly night,
 Ere slumber's chain has bound me,

Sad memory brings the light
 Of other days around me:
 The smiles, the tears
 Of boyhood's years,
 The words of love then spoken;
 The eyes that shone,
 Now dimmed and gone,
 The cheerful hearts now broken!

Oh in the stilly night,
 Ere slumber's chain has bound me,

Sad memory brings the light
 Of other days around me:
 When I remember all
 The friends so linked together
 I've seen around me fall
 Like leaves in wintry weather,
 I feel like one who treads alone
 Some banquet hall deserted,
 Whose lights are fled,
 Whose garlands dead.

And all but he departed.
 Thus in the stilly night
 Ere slumber's chain has bound me,
 Sad memory brings the light
 Of other days around me.

When Roger Q. Mills that powerful leader in Congress, had been overwhelmingly defeated in some measure he was championing, he made a swansong speech, and told, in which he quoted these lines:

I feel like one who treads alone
 Some banquet-hall deserted,
 Whose lights are fled,
 Whose garlands dead,
 And all but he departed.

stout defensive plays coasted in to victory.

Opening the second half, however, Melton brought a long kick to the 42, Ables made 15, but Connell covered Melton's fumble on the Abernathy 43. The Antelopes moved on four plays to Tahoka's 29. Then, on a keeper play, Ramos went through the middle of Tahoka's line, cut to the right and ran 29 yards untouched to score. Barron's kick was good, and Tahoka margin was cut to 14 to 7.

After two exchanges of the ball, during which Gordon Smith was injured, Abernathy took Ables punt on its 42 and rolled up three first downs in moving to the Tahoka 16. Here, however, the Antelopes drew their only penalty of the ball game, 15 yards for holding A pass to Fullback Delton Chastain carried to the Tahoka 12, but Barron gained only one, and the ball went over to Tahoka.

On Tahoka's third play, Abernathy recovered another Tahoka fumble on the Tahoka 25. Two running plays and a 7-yard pass to Beard carried to the Tahoka 14 for a first down. Here, the Antelopes netted only three yards on three running plays and an incomplete pass, and Tahoka took over on its 11, couldn't move but three yards, and Ables punted 25 yards to the 39.

Ramos passed 13 yards to Wolf on the next play, Tahoka line broke through to nail Ramos and push him all the way back to the 36, but Tahoka received a 15 yard penalty for piling on—to the 15, and Abernathy was given a first down, the third such first down earned by the Antelopes on penalties. However, on the next play Tahoka nailed Ramos for a 12 yard loss, Barron made only 2, and two passes were broken up by the Bulldogs.

Taking over on its 15, Tahoka ran out the clock in moving on eight plays to the 46, with Bragg turning in a fine 17-yard run that came near going all the way. He had stepped out of bounds on the Tahoka 43. Incidentally, he was injured when tackled at about the Abernathy 30.

Every Tahoka boy played fine ball. Ables turned in a great defensive game, as well as offensive he was deadly on his tackling and broke up several passes. Melton showed great improvement carrying the ball. Smith called a smart game at quarterback and averaged better than 8 yards a carry on 8 tries in spite of a sprained ankle and an injury to the calf of his leg which required his removal from the game about three times. Jimmy Bragg filled in at quarterback with Smith out and looked pretty sharp on his ball handling. Except for two or three times Tahoka's defense of Bobby Lehman, Tong, Jerry Williams, Ables, Lee, Bragg, Melton, Ware High and others held the speedy backs from making long gains around the ends, and that may have been the difference.

In the line, Duane McMillan looked better than usual, and Jimmy Williams and Garland Huddleston played their usual fine ball game. Stanley Stone and Bill Moore did fine work, as did Don Reed.

Abernathy tackles Connell and Billy Lewis gave Tahoka a lot of trouble in the second half.

Football Notes

The Bulldogs went to Abernathy last Friday night to win a ball game, and they would not be denied. Without any doubt, this was the best game the boys, individually and as a team, have played this year.

Tahoka's worst miscues were the fumbles. The Bulldogs fumbled seven times, lost the ball on four of them—enough ordinarily to be the difference in defeat and victory in a close ball game. Abernathy fumbled three times, recovered all three, two of them for gains of five and seven yards. Fine defensive play turned back the Antelopes, however.

Fans can look for a sensational ball game here tonight, when the Bulldogs meet the up-and-down Slaton Tigers. In addition to the usual rivalry of the two teams, here's why:

Slaton this year, under a new coach, Homer Tompkins, formerly of TCU, has new life and is using the famed TCU spread. Usually the Tiger players are spread from sideline to sideline with only the quarter back, little Jerry Reynolds, speed merchant and passer de luxe, in the deep spot behind the center. On taking the ball, he can run, pitch-out or hand off to a mate, usually fast hard-running Halfback Joe Sparkman or can pass to any one of about four receivers.

The TCU spread is very hard to defend. If it clicks—and it usually does with Reynolds engineering things—the spread can make the opposition look bad. If it doesn't work, Slaton and its spread can look sickly.

Slaton lost its opener to Coghoma by a close score, and breezed through four other non-conference games with ease. Then, opening the conference season, Slaton roundly outplayed Floydada and still lost 18 to 19. The next week end they caught Spur at home. Pumps had to be used to drain water from Tiger stadium, the two teams played in a quagmire, and Spur came out on top 25 to 13. Slaton couldn't operate the TCU spread in the mud. Again, last Friday night at Post the Tigers lost 20 to 40 to the vastly improved Post Antelopes. Possibly a light drizzle at Post had something to do with it. Certainly, though, Post is not the same team it was three weeks ago. At any rate, the spread did not work against Post.

All of which reminds us of that Post-Tahoka game here two years ago. Post was supposed to breeze by Tahoka with the great Jack Kirkpatrick operating from the spread. What happened? Coach Bill Haralson's boys threw up a defense that caused Post to end the game with a minus-7 yards from scrimmage, Jack with a minus eleven yards running from scrimmage and Tahoka on the long end of a 20 to 6 score.

Hope we can do as well against Slaton. But Slaton is a dangerous outfit and the boys will have to be on their toes to stop the Tigers deception.

Quarterback Curtis Blair led the Spur Bulldogs to the stunning 33 to 13 victory over favored Floydada, clearly outclassed the Whirlwinds all the way. Of interest locally, Don McGinty starred in the game for Spur. As the season nears its end, Spur has gathered steam, and is undefeated in seven starts, although several wins have been by small margins. This is the first game Floydada's defense has proven almost impregnable.

Tahoka's Bulldogs have now won six and lost one (to Seminole), scoring 181 points to the opposition's 71. In conference play, the Bulldogs have won two and lost none, scoring 34 points opponents' 20.

Slaton has won four, lost four, 248 to 113. In conference play, won none, lost three, 51 to 84. Jerry Reynolds has scored 111 of Slaton's 248 points.

Spur is tied with Tahoka for the conference lead, having won two and scored 58 points to the opposition 26. Over the season, Spur has won seven, 182 to 76.

Floydada has won seven, lost one, 166 to 70; and in the conference has won two, lost one 44 to 57.

Tahoka has to defeat Slaton, Floydada, and Spur to gain a clear-cut championship.

Where they play this week:
Slaton at Tahoka.
Post at Floydada.
Abernathy at Spur.
O'Donnell, open date.
Wilson at Wellman.
Pettit at New Home.

Last week's scores:
Tahoka 14, Abernathy 7.
Post 40, Slaton 20.
Spur 33, Floydada 13.
Andrews 20, Seminole 14.
Denver City 23, Stanton 6.
O'Donnell 34, Whiteface 6.
Frenship 34, Wilson 28.
